CANADA'S PLAN IS TO HAVE THE U.N.COMMISSION IN THE FAR EASTERN REPUBLIC TRY TO GET THE DUTCH AND INDONESIANS TO AGREE ON A TIME AND CONDITIONS FOR A ROUND TABLE DISCUSSION.

THE COUNCIL'S RESOLUTION ORDERED THE NETHERLANDS TO RESTORE THE REPUBLIC'S EXILED LEADERS TO JOGJAKARTA, THEIR CAPITAL IN JAVA, AS THE FIRST STEP TOWARD A TRANSFER OF SOVEREIGNTY. THE DUTCH REFUSED TO DO THIS ON GROUNDS THAT VIOLENCE AND CHAOS WOULD RESULT.

THE MOST RECENT MILITARY ACTION IN THE ISLANDS BEGAN NEARLY THREE MONTHS AGO WHEN DUTCH TROOPS LAUNCHED A "POLICE ACTION" OFFENSIVE AND QUICKLY OVERRAN INDONESIAN TERRITORY. REPUBLICAN LEADERS THEN ANNOUNCED THEIR TROOPS WERE BEGINNING A "GUERRILLA WAR OF SELF DEFENSE AGAINST THE DUTCH.

WARREN R.AUSTIN, AMERICAN DELEGATE ON THE SECURITY COUNCIL, SAID LAST WEEK THERE HAS BEEN NO WEAKENING OF THE U.S.STAND IN SUPPORT OF THE JAN. 28 RESOLUTIONS.

DR.PHILIP C.JESSUP, U.S.AMBASSADOR-AT-LARGE, DESCRIBED THE RESOLUTION AS "REASONABLE AND FAIR" IN A SPEECH YESTERDAY BEFORE THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

JESSUP SAID: "PUBLIC OPINION IN THE UNITED STATES HAS HELPED MAKE IT UNMISTAKABLY CLEAR TO THE GOVERNMENT AND PEOPLE OF THE NETHERLANDS THAT THE PEOPLE OF THIS COUNTRY FEEL VERY STRONGLY THAT THE CONTINUED DISREGARD OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION OF JAN. 28, AND THE ACTS OF AGGRESSION PRECEDING IT, CONSTITUTE A SERIOUS THREAT TO THE STABILITY AND SECURITY OF THE WORLD."

ICELANDIC FOREIGN MINISTER BJARNI BENEDIKTSSON WITH HIS GOVERNMENT'S MINISTERS OF TRADE AND JUSTICE WERE SUPPOSED TO LEAVE REYKJAVIK FOR WASHINGTON SATURDAY NIGHT. A REYKJAVIK DISPATCH SPOKE OF THEIR HAVING "ACCEPTED" AN INVITATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE WASHINGTON TALKS. ON THIS END, IT WAS NOT CERTAIN WHETHER THEY EXPECTED TO JOIN IN THE FULL-FLEDGED NEGOTIATIONS IMMEDIATELY OR WHETHER THEY WOULD EXPECT TO MAKE INQUIRY AND REPORT TO THEIR GOVERNMENT AS THE DANES ARE DOING BEFORE A FORMAL DECLARATION OF ICELAND POLICY IS MADE. WASH-PACT-XXX 120RPS

DANISH FOREIGN MINISTER GUSTAV RASMUSSEN EXPECTED TO RETURN TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT MONDAY AND TUESDAY FOR CONFERENCES. HE PROBABLY WILL TAKE OFF FOR COPENHAGEN TUESDAY NIGHT.

MAR 13 1949

MEANWHILE, THE TALKS WITH THE ICELANDERS PRESUMABLY WILL OPEN TOMORROW. LATER IN THE WEEK THE ITALIAN DELEGATION IS EXPECTED TO ESTABLISH DIRECT CONTACT WITH THE TREATY NEGOTIATING GROUP.

THE ONLY OTHER DEVELOPMENT OF IMPORTANCE IN PROSPECT--ASSUMING THERE IS NO DISCLOSURE OF PORTUGUESE POLICY--WILL BE FINAL ACTION BY THE FRENCH CABINET ON THE TREATY TEXT. DIPLOMATS SAID THAT IT NEEDS ONLY THE FINAL APPROVAL OF THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT IN ORDER TO BE GIVEN OUT TO THE WORLD PUBLIC FOR A TWO WEEKS DEBATE PRIOR TO THE SIGNING CEREMONY. THIS WILL BE HELD IN WASHINGTON THE FIRST WEEK IN APRIL. SHORTLY AFTER THAT, THE PACT WILL GO TO THE U.S. SENATE FOR APPROVAL BEFORE THE PRESIDENT CAN RATIFY IT.

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MARCH 13-(AP)-A FOREIGN POLICY ASSOCIATION REPORT SAID TODAY THE NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE TREATY BACKED BY MILITARY FORCE, MAY BECOME THE STRONGEST SECURITY PLAN TO PREVENT FUTURE GERMAN AGGRESSION.

IN THIS MANNER, THE REPORT SAID, THE ALLIANCE

IN THIS MANNER, THE REPORT SAID, THE ALLIANCE MAY BE A STEP TOWARD SOLUTION OF THE GERMAN PROBLEM--BY HELPING TO ALLAY FRENCH FEARS ABOUT A RESURGENT GERMANY.

THE REPORT WAS WRITTEN BY DR. JANE PERRY CLARK CAREY, ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF GOVERNMENT AT BARNARD COLLEGE IN NEW YORK CITY. SHE WAS AN EXPERT CONSULTANT TO THE OFFICE OF MILITARY GOVERNMENT FOR GERMANY LAST SUMMER.

DR. CAREY SAID THE WORLD WAR II ALLIES HAVE AGREED THAT THERE MUST BE SECURITY FROM ANY RECOVERY FOR GERMANY. BUT, SHE SAID, THEY HAVE DISAGREED ON HOW TO ATTAIN THESE TWO AIMS AS WELL AS ON THE DEGREE OF GERMAN RECOVERY THAT IS DESIRABLE.

HER REPORT RECOMMENDED THAT AT LEAST THE THREE WESTERN POWERS--TAKING PART WITH RUSSIA IN OCCUPATION OF GERMANY--SHOULD CLARIFY THEIR AIMS TO SHOW HOW THEY INTEND TO HELP GERMANY STAND ON ITS OWN FEET "PROSPEROUS AND FREE, BUT NOT DANGEROUS."

THE U.S., BRITISH AND FRENCH GOVERNMENTS ARE EXPECTED TO BEGIN TALKS SOON ON THE GERMAN PROBLEMS.

SHE SAID THAT FRENCH FEARS OF GERMANY ARE "REAL AND CANNOT BE DISMISSED." BUT, SHE SAID, THE FRENCH ATTITUDE "MAY BE CAUSING WHAT MAY ULTIMATELY PROVE A GREATER DANGER--THE REBIRTH OF AN EMBITTERED GERMANY IN ITS TURN DETERMINED ON REVENGE."

REVIEWING PROGRESS TO DATE, DR. CAREY SAID "WESTERN GERMANY IS ON ITS WAY TO RECOVERY," BUT THAT "THERE IS REASON TO BELIEVE ECONOMIC CONDITIONS ARE DETERIORATING IN THE SOVIET ZONE."

SHE DESCRIBED ALLIED ECONOMIC POLICY CONCERNING GERMANY AS "A CRAZY QUILT IN WHICH THE VARIOUS PIECES DO NOT FIT OR MATCH."

DR. CAREY SAID THE SOLUTION DOES NOT LIE IN CONTINUING ATTEMPTS TO "CRIPPLE GERMANY, WHICH INEVITABLY MEANS CRIPPLING OF ALL EUROPE."

SHE SAID THE SOLUTION LIES IN A "EUROPE STRONG AND UNITED AND THUS ABLE TO KEEP THE GERMANS OR OTHER POTENTIALLY AGGRESSIVE NATIONS IN CHECK."

(ADVANCE)..WASHINGTON,MARCH 13-(AP)-FOREIGN COUNTRIES BOUGHT MORE THAN 25 BILLION AMERICAN-MADE CIGARETTES IN 1948, FIVE TIMES AS MANY AS IN PREWAR YEARS, THE COMMERCE DEPARTMENT REPORTED TONIGHT.

DEPARTMENT TRADE SPECIALISTS ATTRIBUTED THE FIVE-FOLD INCREASE TO "INTRODUCTION OF AMERICAN BRANDS IN THE FAR CORNERS OF THE WORLD BY U.S. ARMED FORCES."

A $67,776,000 VALUE WAS PLACED ON THESE SHIPMENTS, REFLECTING A TEN PERCENT GAIN OVER 1947. THE SOLDIER-SPREAD POPULARITY OF THE AMERICAN CIGARETTE WAS A BREAK FOR U.S. FARMERS, TOO: EXPORTED "FAGS" TOOK 75,000,000 POUNDS OF U.S. LEAF TOBACCO, THE DEPARTMENT SAID.

THE VALUE OF CIGAR SHIPMENTS WAS $1,906,000 AND THAT OF PIPE TOBACCO $1,624,000,000, IN BOTH CASES A SUBSTANTIAL DECLINE FROM 1947 ALTHOUGH STILL SOMEWHAT ABOVE THE PREWAR AVERAGE.

MOST OF THE 13,403,000 CIGARS SHIPPED OUT LAST YEAR WERE "DESTINED TO GERMANY AND JAPAN, UNDER THE ARMY CIVILIAN SUPPLY PROGRAM," THE DEPARTMENT SAID. SAUDIA ARABIA, THE PANAMA CANAL AND THE UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA WERE OTHER BIG CIGAR TAKERS.

JAPAN AND GERMANY ALSO RANKED HIGH AS RECEIVERS OF U.S. CHEWING TOBACCO AND SNUFF, EXPORTS OF WHICH TOTALED 3,522,000 POUNDS FOR THE YEAR. THE PHILIPPINES AND AUSTRALIA WERE BIG MARKETS TOO FOR THESE PRODUCTS.

AS TO CIGARETTES, WHICH LONG SERVED AS A SORT OF MONEY IN SOME PARTS OF EUROPE IN EARLY POSTWAR YEARS, IT APPEARED EXPORTS WOULD HAVE BEEN EVEN HIGHER IF FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS, ESPECIALLY IN EUROPE AND SOUTH AMERICA, HADN'T IMPOSED IMPORT RESTRICTIONS BECAUSE OF THEIR SHORTAGE OF DOLLARS.

THE PHILIPPINES WAS THE BIGGEST MARKET OUTLET FOR U.S. CIGARETTES IN 1948, TAKING 11,574,535,000. OTHER MAJOR TAKERS: BELGIUM AND LUXEMBOURG 1,894,575,000; CURACAO 1,221,102,000; TANGIER 941,410,000; SWITZERLAND 525,510,000, AND HONG KONG 747,716,000.

THE RUSSIANS, BRITISH AND FRENCH STUCK BY THEIR OWN BRANDS, APPARENTLY. THE DEPARTMENT DIDN'T CONSIDER SHIPMENTS OF U.S. BRANDS TO THEM ENOUGH TO PUT ON ITS LIST OF BUYING COUNTRIES.

ICELAND GETS BASES PLEDGE

MAR 14 1949

Told None Are Demanded As Alliance Condition

Washington, March 14 (AP)—The United States assured Iceland today that bases will not be required on its soil as the price for admission to the Atlantic defense alliance.

Iceland's visiting Foreign Minister, Bjarni Benediktsson, said this was "quite clear" after a meeting with Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, to inquire about Iceland's possible role in the alliance.

Benediktsson conferred with Acheson for 40 minutes. Later he talked for nearly two hours with Counselor Charles E. Bohlen, the State Department's Russian expert, and John D. Hickerson, chief of the European division.

Similar Pledge To Norway

When questioned, he declined to go into details but smilingly termed his discussions "very interesting."

The American assurance that no bases will be needed on Icelandic soil during peacetime was in line with a similar pledge given to Norway before it decided to join the negotiations for the alliance.

In case of war, however, the whole question of bases would be re-examined, Government officials said.

Benediktsson arranged to see Acheson for another meeting sometime tomorrow. A.D.D.

Western Europe Ministers Meet In London

WM ON TIS

London, March 14 (AP)—The five Western European Union countries take an official look today at the final draft of the North Atlantic defense alliance.

The foreign ministers of the five nations—Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—opened a two-day meeting. Other ministers of Cabinet rank joined them.

One purpose of the meeting is to try to bring into defense arrangements of the Western European Union other European countries which will join the United States-backed North Atlantic agreement.

Early Signature Scheduled

The North Atlantic pact is slated to be signed in Washington early next month.

The Western European Union is a 50-year defense treaty the five countries signed in Brussels last year.

The projected North Atlantic agreement, completed in Washington last week, is for twenty years. It, too, is for mutual defense. Besides the five nations and the United States, it also includes Canada and Norway. Denmark, Italy, Portugal and Iceland may join.

The foreign ministers of the five countries make up the consultative council of Western European Union.

They are meeting six weeks ahead of schedule for a final joint discussion on the new Atlantic alliance.

They also will talk over a constitution for the proposed Council of Europe. They agreed "in principle" to such a council earlier this year. The five Brussels powers and five other western European countries meet here March 28 to discuss adopting this constitution. Many people hope the council will be a forerunner to a United States of Europe.

Meanwhile, parliamentary discussion of the Atlantic pact is near a climax in Italy and Denmark. A delegation from Iceland talked over the alliance with officials in Washington.

Demonstrations In Italy

Italian Communists and pro-Communists demonstrated yesterday against Italy's joining. Premier Alcide de Gasperi's coalition government already has pledged to support the agreement.

In Denmark, the issue is expected to go to Parliament next week. Danish Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen is to return from Washington later this week to report to the Parliamentary Foreign Policy Committee. Only the Communist party flatly opposes Denmark's signing the pact.

Finance and Defense Ministers from some of the Western European Union nations will sit in on the current London meetings at Lancaster House. Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Defense Minister A. V. Alexander will represent Britain.

Brussels Group Chiefs Draft Links To Atlantic Defense

London, March 14 (AP)—Foreign ministers and defense chiefs of the five Brussels treaty partners drafted plans today to expand their western European security system under the proposed North Atlantic alliance.

The terms of the Atlantic treaty were before the high cabinet ministers of Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. They opened their two-day conference in strictest secrecy.

Their biggest problem is how to bring into the five-nation Western European Union defense organization other countries joining the bigger North Atlantic alliance.

American General Suggested

Norway has already said she will join the Atlantic pact. The foreign ministers of Denmark and Iceland are discussing the problem now in Washington, and Italy and Portugal may be invited to participate later.

With the United States and Canada joining in western European security, there was speculation in London whether an American general would become western European "chief of staff." Britain's Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery now heads the military committee of the Brussels union.

There was no official comment on the secret discussions of the thirteen ministers. However, the general feeling was expressed by Robert Schuman, French Foreign Minister, as he entered the meeting: "We have a difficult problem."

Economic problems brought up by the North Atlantic treaty also were to be discussed. Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer, sat in for Britain, and most of the other countries sent their finance or economic ministers.

Regular Session Advanced

Officially, the conference is a session of the Brussels alliance consultative council—made up of the five foreign ministers who normally meet every three months. The meeting was called six weeks early, however, so the ministers and their defense chiefs could exchange direct views on the Atlantic treaty.

Also to be discussed is a draft of a constitution for the "Council of Europe"—a nonmilitary organization sponsored by the Brussels pact allies and open to other western European countries. Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Italy and Eire have been invited to join in a ten-power conference March 28 to set up the organization.

The council hopes to give Europe its first international assembly which would have limited powers to stimulate international economic and political co-operation.

Paris Cabinet Expected To Approve Alliance

Paris, March 14 (AP)—Official quarters predicted today the French Cabinet will approve the text of the Atlantic treaty at its Wednesday session.

Such action would clear the road for publication of the text, now tentatively scheduled for Friday. The release is to be simultaneous in all capitals — Washington, Ottawa, Paris, London, Brussels, The Hague and Luxembourg.

Members of the French Cabinet have been studying the text for nearly a week, and up to now no member has suggested any modification.

Denmark Denies Report Of Pressure By Russia

Copenhagen, March 14 (AP)—A Danish Foreign Office spokesman today labeled as "a fabrication" British press reports of a Soviet move to prevent Denmark from joining the proposed North Atlantic alliance.

The London Graphic yesterday printed an article from its Copenhagen correspondent saying the Soviet Minister in Copenhagen had given Denmark two "unofficial warnings" against joining the alliance.

Director J. R. Dahl, of the Danish Foreign Ministry said: "There is nothing in it at all. The report is a fabrication."

CLOTHES RATIONING LIFTED IN BRITAIN

LONDON, March 14—(AP) Harold Wilson, president of the Board of Trade, announced today the complete ending of clothes rationing in Britain.

Beginning tomorrow Britons may buy all their clothes without coupons for the first time since Jan. 1, 1940. Clothing of woven wool was taken off the ration list last Jan. 31, but rationing of cotton goods had been maintained.

Wilson's announcement in the House of Commons brought cries of "bravo," plus some derisive shouts from conservatives who called it a political move.

Many clothing merchants have pointed out that high costs have restricted the selling of their stocks as much as rationing.

Wilson said price controls would remain in effect "as long as necessary."

The derationing of clothes and textiles will mean freeing of such household items as sheets and towels from coupons.

Wilson said the government would continue its utility clothing controls, under which it puts a control on the amount and quality of raw materials used in part of the clothing industry's output.

Later Wilson told a news conference he would "have some more de controls to announce tomorrow." The government still controls the allocation of building materials construction labor; meat, fats and many other types of food, and also allocates much of Britain's manufactured goods for export only.

Britain Ends Ration Plan For Clothes

London, March 14 (AP)—Clothes rationing, which has harassed Britons since early in the war, will end completely tomorrow. Board of Trade President Harold Wilson announced in the House of Commons today.

For the first time since January 1, 1940, Britishers may buy their clothes without coupons.

Clothing of woven wool has been off the ration list since January 31, but cotton goods has remained on coupons.

Many clothing merchants contend, however, that high costs have restricted selling of their stocks as much as rationing. Wilson told Parliament price controls would remain in effect "as long as necessary."

Wilson estimated the end of clothes rationing will free for other jobs some 10,000 persons now engaged in administering the rationing system.

The end of candy rationing is scheduled April 24. The Ministry of Food has promised also that eggs and milk would be more plentiful later in the spring.

Churchill Sees All Britain Living in 'Fool's Purgatory'

MAR 14 1949

London, March 14 (A. P.).—Winston Churchill has launched a new attack on Britain's Socialist Government. "Socialists," he said, "are making us live in a fool's purgatory upon a generous grant of free-enterprise, capitalist America."

The statement was made in an open letter addressed to the Conservative party's candidate for Parliament in a special election Wednesday. Paul Bryan, Conservative, and Douglas Houghton, Labor, are running.

"Our British island, with its immense population, will never be able to maintain its pre-war standard of living under a Socialist society," Churchill said, declaring that nationalization of industries has shifted them "from the profit to the loss side of the account." He added: "Prices are raised by the high costs of state-purchased raw materials and of nationalized fuel and power, and wages are diminished by heavy taxation."

Noted Flier Denies Spying As Trial Opens in Paris

MAR 14 1949

C. HARTMAN

PARIS, March 14—(AP) Dieudonne Costes, pioneer trans-Atlantic airman, testified today that he "fooled" the Germans and helped the allies while he was connected with both the German and American espionage services in World War II.

He is being tried by a French military court on a charge of intelligence with the enemy. Such a charge carries a possible death penalty upon conviction. However, observers in Paris expressed doubt that a death sentence would be imposed even if Costes is found guilty.

Calls Charges False

The 57-year-old defendant termed the accusations against him "entirely false." Under close questioning he told his red-robed judge:

"I never had any intention of betraying my country."

In 1930 Costes and Maurice Bellonte made the first east-west flight over the North Atlantic. The next year he was named the world's No. 1 airman by the International League of Aviation.

In 1943, Costes told the court, he came to New York as a trusted agent of the Abwehr, the German army's counter intelligence service. He said that before he left Europe he had gone to work for the United States.

Asked why the Germans called him one of their "best paid" and most valuable agents in documents produced at the Nuernberg war crimes trials, Costes replied:

"I fooled the Germans and I think they wanted to take revenge on me."

His attorney, Jacques Isorni said he had a sworn statement from Col. Dorsay Stephens, formerly in the U. S. military attache's office in Madrid, to prove that the allies got real help from Costes.

Costes said the Germans fitted him out with all the equipment of a story-book spy. It included: ink for secret writing, a list of about 10 German agents in Spain and Portugal, a cigarette lighter holding microfilms of a secret code and photographs of a radio operator to be sent to meet him later in the United States.

Costes said he turned all these over to Col. Stephens. In addition, he said, he gave the British Embassy in Madrid a full account of the airfields in the Paris area.

Worked With FBI, He Says

The white-haired defendant said when he arrived in Miami he found FBI agents waiting for him and immediately went to work with them. Together they drew up reports on American aviation which Costes said he sent regularly to addresses in Spain and Portugal the Germans had given him.

The FBI took charge of getting the letters across the Atlantic promptly, Costes continued. "Some of the information was even true," he said, a smile crossing his pale face.

The prosecution charges that Costes contacted the Germans soon after the fall of France in June, 1940 while he was winding up war contracts at the Hispano-Suiza plant, where he was employed.

Second Lt. Paul Cavaillez is facing the same court. He already has served part of a five-year term for espionage in the United States. He now is accused of failing to disclose his knowledge of Costes' activities. He also has denied the charges.

Costes is accused by the prosecution of having Cavaillez sent to help him in America. Costes said he sent for Cavaillez only to expose him.

This was the first day of the scheduled three-day trial in the old Cherche-Midi prison. In a confident tone, Costes answered dozens of questions, most of them by Judge Noel Dejean de la Batti.

The airman is called "Costes" in France but in the United States his name often has been spelled "Coste."

Charges "Entirely False"

"I never had any intention of betraying my country," he told the military court. The short, stocky, white-haired defendant termed the charges against him "entirely false."

Coste claims he double-crossed the Nazis by serving as an American agent while supposedly working for the German Abwehr (German counter-intelligence unit).

Coste, 57 and a reserve lieutenant colonel in the French Air Force, could be sentenced to death.

Code Name Is Alleged

He is charged with serving the Abwehr under the code name "Denys." The prosecution contends Coste went to the United States via Spain in 1943.

The flyer is said to have replied in pretrial questions:

"As soon as I arrived in Madrid I contacted the American military attaché (Col. Dorsay Stephens) and told him what I was doing. I told him what codes I would use. While I was in New York I brought about the arrest of Paul Cavaillez, whose job was to send information to the Germans by radio. From the time of my arrival I worked with the FBI."

Facing Same Court

Lieut. Paul Cavaillez is facing the same court. He has already served part of a five-year term for espionage in the United States. He is now accused of failing to disclose his knowledge of Coste's activities. He also denied the charges.

Coste is charged with having contacted the Germans soon after the fall of France in June, 1940.

Jacques Isorni, Coste's lawyer, said he had a sworn statement from Colonel Stephens confirming Coste's story. He put it into the court records, but did not read it because the United States Army classified it "secret."

Coste Spy Trial Opens In Paris

MAR 14 1949

Paris, March 14 (AP) — Pioneer ocean flyer Dieudonne Coste went on trial today as a spy. He was charged with having been one of the "best paid" agents of German counter-intelligence working in the United States during World War II.

Coste, who with Maurice Bellonte made the first East-West flight over the Atlantic in 1930, denied he returned to the United States thirteen years later to spy for Germany.

U. S. COURT JAILS EIGHT FOR SPYING IN GERMAN ZONE

R. O'Malley

MUNICH, Germany, March 14.—(AP) The third in a series of spy trials in the U. S. zone ended today with eight Europeans sentenced to prison terms ranging from one to 18 years.

Together, 14 persons have been convicted and sentenced. Two more trials are on tap.

In the trial that ended today, a U. S. military commission convicted five men and three women of gathering American military information for a foreign power. All eight admitted having been employed by the Czechoslovak intelligence service, but all pleaded extenuating circumstances. Their excuses were that they were either coerced or tricked into working for the Czech intelligence.

Two Get 18 Years

Heaviest penalties were imposed on Robert Kruse and Adolf Frank. Both got 18 years. Kruse, a 44-year-old German, gave information on the port of Bremen to the Czechs. Frank admitted crossing the Czechoslovak border with U. S. military information.

The three women defendants received these sentences:

Gertie Doerre, 25, a Sudeten German—12 years.

Edith Dittrich, 25, a Czech—nine years.

Marie Hablik, 37, a Sudeten German—eight years.

The three women told reporters they received lighter sentences than they had expected. Gertie Doerre, a former Gestapo employe, had confided to newsmen that she would hang herself if sentenced to prison. But she was obviously relieved at her sentence of 12 years. She broke down and cried briefly.

Edith Dittrich, who had told the court her Czech lover tricked her into espionage, smiled happily at her sentence of nine years. She had predicted "they will give me 30 years anyway."

Two other male defendants, Franz Baier, 35-year-old German, and Walter Friedrich, 32-year-old Sudeten German and one-legged spy courier, were given eight-year terms.

Grins at Light Sentence

The one-year sentence pronounced upon round-faced Egon Richter, 23, nearly floored him. As McGee read the court's verdict, Richter swayed and his face grew fiery red. Then, he walked uncertainly to his chair and sat with his head in his hands. When he finally raised his face, it was covered by a broad grin. And he shook his head as in disbelief.

Richter gave himself up and admitted that he worked for the Czech intelligence service.

The courtroom had been scantily occupied during the 11-day hearing. But it filled rapidly as the commission deliberated for two hours before returning its verdict. All sentences will be reviewed by higher authorities.

Tuesday morning the commission will hear the case of Elfriede Zirlik, German woman accused of violating a U. S. military government ordinance involving acts of espionage.

Court attaches said the last trial in the series involves three persons. ADD

8 Europeans Guilty In Czech Spy Plot

Munich, Germany, March 14 (AP) Eight Europeans were found gulity of espionage today by a United States military commission which sentenced them to terms ranging from one year to eighteen.

The court sentenced Robert Kruse, 44-year-old German, convicted of giving information on the port of Bremen to the Czechoslovakian Inteligence Service, to eighteen years.

A similar sentence was given Adolf Frank, who crossed the Czech border with United States military information.

Women Sentenced

The three women defendants were sentenced as follows:

EDITH DITTRICH, 25-year-old Czech, nine years.

GERTIE DOERRE, 26-year-old Sudeten German, twelve years.

MARIE HABLIK, 37-year-old Sudeten German, seven years.

FRANZ BAIER, 35-year-old German, was sentenced to eight years.

EGON RICHTER, 23, one year. Richter gave himself up and admitted that he worked for the Czech Intelligence Service.

WALTER FRIEDRICH, 32-year-old Sudeten German and one-legged spy courier, was sentenced to eight years.

The court deliberated two hours.

The Doerre woman earlier told the court she was forced into espionage by beatings and death threats. ADD

Purges Riddle Czech Air Force, Flyer Says

Wiesbaden, Germany, March 14 (AP)—A former Czechoslovak military pilot said today his country's air force has been riddled by Communist purge tactics.

The airman, who fled his homeland in a stolen plane with three companions, told his story at a news conference. He said all Czechoslovak officers who fought with the Western Allies during the war have been purged. The result, he said, is that the Czechoslovak air force has been practically ruined.

The former pilot, acting as spokesman for the group, said the purge also hits civilians who fought with the Western Allies against the Nazis. They are forced out of their jobs, he said. ADD

Czechs On Allied Side During War Purged, Claim

MAR 14 1949

Wiesbaden, Germany, March 14 (AP)—A former Czech air force officer who fled his homeland said today that all Czech officers who served with the Western Allies during the war have been purged.

Civilians who fought against the Nazis also are being thrown out of their jobs, the officer said.

He landed at Rhein-Main Airport in a stolen plane yesterday with three companions. They met newsmen today but refused to give their names. Only the former air force officer would tell his profession. He said he fought with the RAF during the war, joined the Czech air force afterward and then served with the Czech mission in Frankfurt for a time.

"Escape Or Work In Pits"

Asked why they left Czechoslovakia, the former pilot said:

"We are all people who served with the West during the war. We were thrown out of our jobs. The only thing left to do was to escape or work in the coal pits. Sooner or later, we would have landed in a concentration camp."

The officer said the Communist concentration camps in Czechoslovakia are "exactly the same as those operated by the German Gestapo during the war."

"Sentence Ready Before Trial"

The officer said Czech army and air force officers caught trying to escape to the West draw fifteen to eighteen year prison sentences.

Civilians get lighter sentences, he said, adding:

"The sentence always is ready before the trial is held."

SENTENCE IS CUT FOR MRS. YBARBO IN SLAYING CASE

WIESBADEN, Germany, March 14—(AP) A reduction in the prison term imposed on Mrs. Wilma Ybarbo for killing her American soldier husbnd paved the way today for her possible return to the United States.

A U. S. military government appeals court cut Mrs. Ybarbo's 20-year sentence to five years. This action clears the way for the 23-year-old mother from Malden, Mass., to be returned to the U. S. for confinement in a Federal prison for women. She is now imprisoned at Bad Wildungen.

Son Was Sent Home

Mrs. Ybarbo's six-year-old son, Jimmie, was sent home from Germany in January and is being cared for by relatives in New Bedford, Mass.

A district military court at Marburg convicted Mrs. Ybarbo Dec. 28 of shooting her husband, Sgt. John Ybarbo, of Goliad, Tex., during an argument in their home last fall. She was found guilty under both German and U. S. military government law.

The five-judge appeals court confirmed today the right of U. S. military government courts to try American civilians in occupied Germany. And it upheld, also, the right of such courts to try U. S. civilians under German law.

However, the court found that under German law the sentence could be for no more than five years.

Mrs. Ybarbo's appeal challenged the findings of the Marburg court as well as its right to try an American civilian under either law. Her attorney, Stanley H. Gaines of Brookline, Mass., contended that she should have been tried by an army court martial.

The appeals court conceded that Mrs. Ybarbo acted as a result of a "long and intolerable course of cruelty and ill-treatment" by her husband. It rejected, however, her contention that she had acted in self defense.

Further Appeal Considered

The court found that German law limits sentence for homicide to five years where ill treatment is proved.

Gaines told reporters he is considering a possible further appeal to the United States Supreme court.

The appeals court decision said there is no doubt military government courts have jurisdiction to try civilians. It added:

"The right of occupying powers to set up courts has never been questioned under international law. The only new, strange thing about military government courts" in Germany, it said, "is their civilian character."

Wilma Ybarbo's Term Reduced To 5 Yrs.

Wiesbaden, Germany, March 14 (AP)—A United States military government appeals court today reduced from twenty to five years the prison sentence of Mrs. Wilma Ybarbo for killing her soldier husband.

The five-judge court confirmed the right of United States military government courts to try United States civilians in occupied Germany. The decision also upheld the right of such courts to try American civilians under German law.

The court found, however, that under German law the sentence could be for no more than five years.

Findings Challenged

Mrs. Ybarbo, 23-year-old mother from Malden, Mass., was sentenced to twenty years in December by a district military government court.

She was found guilty under both German and United States military government law of shooting her husband, Sergt. John Ybarbo, of Goliad, Texas.

Her appeal challenged the findings of the court and also its right to try an American civilian under either law.

The appeals court rejected Mrs. Ybarbo's contention she had acted in self-defense.

Intolerable Cruelty

It said, however, her act was the result of a "long and intolerable course of cruelty and ill treatment of her by her soldier husband."

The court found that German law limits sentence for homicide to five years in cases where ill treatment is proved.

Mrs. Ybarbo's trial was spiced with witnesses' stories of illicit love, soldier-fraulein parties and husband-wife brawls.

The defendant, mother of a 6-year-old son, testified her husband told her two German girls were pregnant by him when she joined him in Germany in late 1945.

The appeals decision clears the way for Mrs. Ybarbo's removal to the United States for confinement in a Federal prison.

2 U.S. Soldiers Jailed As Having Counterfeits

Frankfurt, Germany, March 14 (AP)—The Frankfurt United States Military Post said today two American soldiers have been convicted of possessing more than $11,000 in counterfeit American currency.

The Post identified the soldiers as Corporal James V. Berry, 21, Eastbank, W.Va., and Recruit Robert H. Brown, 21, Gastonia, N.C., both members of a military police railway security group. Brown was sentenced to three years and Berry to two and a half. Both were dishonorably discharged. The sentences are being reviewed.

Civilians To Wear GI 'Dog Tags'

Frankfurt, Germany, March 14 (AP)—American civilians living in Germany and Austria soon will have GI "dog tags" to wear, the United States Army announced today.

The Army said it would issue the soldier-type identification tags, but added that civilians would not actually have to wear them "under present regulations."

The announcement said tags also will be issued to foreigners who are the wives of children of Americans.

The army identification tag customarily carries the bearer's name, religion, next of kin, home address and blood type.

Hindenburg's Son Does Odd Jobs, Court Hears

HAMBURG, March 14 (AP).—Major General Oskar von Hindenburg, son of the late German President, was described before a denazification court today as an "odd-job man," who ekes out a living running errands.

Hindenburg is being tried at his own request so that his bank account can be freed. As an alleged Nazi sympathizer, his funds are frozen. The account amounts to $600.

The charges allege that Hindenburg, sixty-six, helped Adolf Hitler become his father's successor as head of the German State.

The court at Uelsen was told he earns his living doing such jobs as carrying sacks of potatoes for his neighbors.

REDS IN NAPLES RIOT OVER DEFENSE PACT

ROME, March 14—(AP) Fifteen persons were injured today in rioting led by lefists in Naples demonstrating against the proposed North Atlantic Pact.

This was the second outburst of violence in Italy since Premier Alcide De Gasperi announced Friday he wants parliamentary authority to join the defense alliance. Rome had a similar flareup Saturday.

Heated debate on the issue continued in the Chamber of Deputies as the government pressed for approval of its plan to join the pact.

Short strikes and meetings of leftist workers opposed to the proposed treaty were reported from various points of central and northern Italy.

Trade Pact Is Signed By Italy And Holland

Rome, March 14 (AP)—Italy and Holland signed a one-year trade agreement here today calling for the exchange of $62,200,000 in goods. The agreement will take effect April 1 after approval of the Dutch Cabinet.

The agreement will be fully reciprocal, an announcement said, and will provide for exportation of $31,100,000 worth of Italian goods in return for Dutch exports of an equal amount.

Jews And Arabs Warned Against Truce Breach

L.C CHARGES

Rhodes, March 14 (AP)—Dr. Ralph J. Bunche warned Israel and Trans-Jordan today that military activities in the Aqaba area, whether actual fighting takes place or not, are violations of the United Nations' truce in Palestine.

Dr. Bunche, acting United Nations mediator for Palestine, gave his opinion to Trans-Jordan and Israeli armistice delegations here and instructed them to forward it at once to their governments. Aqaba is a Trans-Jordan town on a Red Sea gulf near the Palestine border.

The warning was issued after reports of military movements in the southern Negeb Desert and one of an engagement between the Trans-Jordan Arab Legion and Israelis before last week's cease-fire agreement.

Censored Dispatch

[James M. Long, the Associated Press correspondent in Tel Aviv, said in a censored dispatch received in New York yesterday that a military spokesman there told about an incident, in which a Trans-Jordan patrol encountered inside Israeli territory withdrew after firing a few desultory shots. Amman reported "repeated and continuing skirmishes" in the area and Britain reinforced its garrison at Aqaba.]

Bunche's findings, contained in a report to the Security Council, said he had been receiving word for the last 24 hours from observers on the spot. Due to poor communications, however, detailed reports are not yet available, he said.

One United Nations observer, who said his source of information was the Arab Legion at Aqaba, reported an Israeli force occupied Resh Resh, inside Palestine and on the Gulf of Aqaba, on the afternoon of March 10. This force was described as including two jeeps and a large personnel carrier. It later was increased, the report said, to 150 men and 25 vehicles. Competent Israeli sources confirmed that Resh Resh had been occupied.

Fighting Report

The next morning, the report continued, an Israeli column of six jeeps and ten heavy vehicles moved from Resh Resh up Wadi el Arab and numerous Arab refugees moved into Aqaba.

Bunche's reports said "the only incident of fighting thus far reported involved an exchange of fire between the Arab Legion and Israeli elements in the vicinity of Ghama, prior to the signing of the cease-fire agreement March 11."

Israeli authorities, Bunche reported, said the incident took place on the Palestine side of the border.

Aqaba, Trans-Jordan's only water outlet, is only a few miles from the Palestine border. The sandy desert on the Palestine side is claimed by Israel. Trans-Jordan and Britain disagree. The situation around Aqaba has been tense, and obscure, for days.

Jews Entrench Within Sight Of British

MAR 14 1949

Amman, Trans-Jordan, March 14 (AP)—Jewish troops on the Palestine coast of the Gulf of Aqaba are digging in within sight of British forces at Aqaba, it was reported here today.

Reports in King Abdullah's Trans-Jordan capital were that no more fighting is expected in the Aqaba area.

Israeli troops, it was said, are encamped in Umm Reshresh, a small outpost on the edge of the Palestine Negeb Desert area bordering on the gulf—within 4 miles of Aqaba.

Aqaba is Trans-Jordan's only port. It is located on an outlet to the Red Sea. British troops were called in several months ago when Abdullah invoked a mutual-defense treaty.

Israel was reported apparently content with arrival of its troops on the Palestine coast along the Gulf of Aqaba. The Israeli forces are not expected to cross the Trans-Jordan border to Aqaba and thus give the British troops any reason for interference.

[Israeli spokesmen have said Israel has no intentions of going into Trans-Jordan or attacking Aqaba.]

Israeli Goals

The Israeli occupation of the Elath coastal strip, announced several days ago, was seen here to fulfill two chief Israeli goals by providing a passage to the Red Sea and cutting off Egypt from any land connection with other Arab states.

British troop reinforcements at Aqaba are looked on here as a defensive action, in event Israeli forces should make any future move toward Aqaba.

Sharett To Leave

Tel Aviv, Israel, March 14 (AP)—Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Sharett is scheduled to leave for New York by plane today. Sharett, who adopted that Hebrew name in place of Shertok, is due in New York Wednesday.

A delegation from the United Jewish Appeal left the Lydda Airport today on the last leg of a 15,000-mile survey of conditions in Europe and Israel.

BRITAIN TELLS ISRAEL ORDER

Notifies Tel Aviv Of Directions To Aqaba Troops

MAR 14 1949

London, March 14 (AP) — A Foreign Office spokesman said today Israel has been given details of military orders to British troops guarding the Trans-Jordan port of Aqaba. He said the orders were divulged to prevent "the danger of an untoward incident."

He declined to say what the orders were. It was reported unofficially that British troops in Aqaba have been ordered to repel any Israeli attempt to cross the Trans-Jordan frontier. Israel has said it has no intentions of going into Trans-Jordan or attacking Aqaba.

Bunche Warns Delegates

Israeli and British troops now are facing each other across the Palestine-Trans-Jordan border. An Amman dispatch said Israeli units on the Palestine coast of the Gulf of Aqaba are digging in within sight of British forces at Aqaba.

The Admiralty announced that the 1,400-ton British sloop Magpie arrived at Aqaba last Thursday.

Meanwhile, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, acting United Nations mediator, warned the Israeli and Trans-Jordan delegates at Rhodes that military activities in the Aqaba area, whether actual fighting takes place or not, are violations of the United Nations truce in Palestine.

He asked the delegates to forward the warning to their home governments at once. The delegates are engaged in armistice talks and have signed a cease-fire agreement.

Both in London and in Amman it was indicated that the tension over Aqaba was easing. The situation there still is somewhat obscure.

Only Water Outlet

Aqaba, Trans-Jordan's only water outlet, is only a few miles from the Palestine border. The sandy desert on the Palestine side, a portion of the Negeb, is claimed by Israel, Trans-Jordan and British disagree. British troops were sent to Aqaba several months ago when Trans-Jordan invoked her mutual defense treaty with Britain.

The Amman dispatch said Israeli troops now are encamped in Umm Reshresh, a small outpost on the Palestine side of the border four miles from Aqaba.

Karens Offered Statehood As Battle Rages

Rangoon, Burma, March 14 (AP)—Burma offered rebelling Karens an autonomous state of their own today as reports reached Rangoon that the Karens had captured all of Mandalay.

A Rangoon newspaper said the Karen tribesmen had taken all of Burma's second-largest city in a three-day battle with Government forces. The Burmese Government admitted yesterday part of Mandalay had fallen. Mandalay, with a population of 200,000, is 500 miles north of Rangoon on the Irrawaddy River.

Sagaing Attacked

The newspaper which reported the city in Karen hands was Voice of the Paccock. It added that fighting still is going on outside the city, mainly along the banks of the Irrawaddy. It also reported the Karens attacking the city of Sagaing, across the river from Mandalay.

The Burmese Government confirmed that Karens in Mandalay were shelling Sagaing with mortars.

Surrenders Reported

It claimed, however, that there were wholesale surrenders by Karens in the Henzada district northwest of the Burmese delta. It said those who had not surrendered were retreating toward the rice town of Bassein and the cigar center of Danubyu.

The Government meanwhile announced its acceptance of recommendations for creation of a separate Karen state within the Burma union.

The principal battle of the Karens has been to set up their own state of Karenistan.

Plebiscite Slated

They originally demanded complete independence, but on February 2 Ba U Gyi, Karen leader, offered to keep Karenistan within the Burmese union provided the new province were allowed to maintain its own armed forces.

The Government said boundaries of the new state would be determined by a plebiscite.

Protection Promised

The Government also announced an amnesty for Karens in Insein, a suburb of Rangoon, if they disarm by Thursday.

Rebels in other parts of Burma are called on to surrender by March 31 on similar terms.

The Government statement said a fourteen-man protection committee headed by Chief Justice Sir Ba U would supervise the collection of arms and provide protection for the surrendering rebels.

The recommendation to set up Karenistan was made by the Regional Autonomy Inquiry Commission. The Government said legislation will be introduced in Parliament to implement the recommendations.

Ex-Premier Of China Indicted In Dye Deal

MAR 14 1949

Nanking, March 14 (AP)—Former Premier Sun Fo was indicted today on charges of approving the improper disposal of enemy alien property to Miss Lan Ni, with whom he has been linked romantically.

The indictment was voted eight to seven by a subcommittee of the control Yuan (auditing). It now may be referred to other control Yuan organs for further investigation or be sent to the executive Yuan (Cabinet) for corrective action or to the criminal court.

Sun, whose father was the founder of modern-day China, reportedly was in Shanghai, en route to his home in Canton.

Dyestuffs Involved

The indictment alleges that Sun approved the disposal of dyestuffs to Miss Lan Ni while he was Premier.

The control Yuan also is investigating a charge that Sun approved the sale of his Shanghai residence to the Central Bank of China for an excessive price.

A charge of corruption against Sun by members of the legislative Yuan helped to force the resignation of his Cabinet last week.

Still Heads Peace Envoys

The indictment today was the first returned against any high-ranking member of retired President Chiang Kai-shek's Government since the Generalissimo stepped down late in January.

Sun still is the nominal head of the ten-man presidential committee drafting peace proposals. However, Gen. Ho Ying-chin, named to succeed him as Premier, is expected to take over those duties shortly along with those of Premier.

In Shanghai Sun was quoted today as saying he believed that once Chinese Communists gain full control they will join the Soviet bloc.

Neutral Policy Urged

Shanghai newspapers quoted Sun as saying he believed China's foreign policy should be neither anti-United States nor anti-Soviet. He added that in the event of a third world war that China should remain neutral.

The unsatisfactory results of China's foreign policy has been due to the deterioration of relations between her former wartime allies, Russia and the United States, Sun said.

[These statements were made before the indictment was returned. There was no immediate comment from Sun.]

Meanwhile, responsible military quarters in Nanking said they had no information of any large-scale movement of Communist troops toward the Yangtze River.

80,000 Near Starvation In Besieged City

Nanking, March 14 (AP)—Travelers from Taiyuan, besieged Shansi province capital, say about 80,000 civilians there are close to starvation.

Six Communist columns have ringed the city for months.

Government chartered commercial planes from Tsingtao have been dropping flour to the city. But travelers said the supply was insufficient for the troop defenders and that civilians got little or none of it.

Soldier Slain With Girls Identified

Manila, March 14 (AP)—Clark Field Airbase headquarters today identified an American soldier killed in an ambush Saturday as Private Francis Jost, 23, of Delmont, Mich.

Jost and two Filipino girls were killed when unidentified Filipino assailants opened fire with rifles and tommy guns on a United States Air Force bus.

RUSS SHAKEUP IS APPROVED

MAR 14 1949

Supreme Soviet Backs Switches In Ministers' Posts

Moscow, March 14 (AP)—The Supreme Soviet approved tonight a newly revealed shakeup of top Soviet leaders in which Nikolai A. Voznesensky was replaced as chairman of the important state planning commission.

The 1949 budget also was approved. The Supreme Soviet, which had convened last Thursday, then adjourned its sessions.

The new budget calls for military expenditures of 79,000,000,000 rubles ($15,000,000,000 under the Russian exchange rate).

Almost 20 Per Cent Higher

This is an increase of almost twenty per cent over military expenditures for last year.

The budget provides for total expenditures of 415,355,000,000 rubles and for revenues of 455,208,000,000. The corresponding figures for 1948 were: Expenditures 368,300,000,000 rubles and revenues 408,400,000,000.

Voznesensky also was relieved of his duties as Deputy Prime Minister. Ivan T. Golyakov was replaced as president of the Supreme Court of the Soviet Union.

The changes apparently were part of an overall shift of responsibility involving the release of Vyachislav M. Molitov as Foreign Minister and A. I. Mikoyan as Foreign Trade Minister. The decision to release Voznesensky and Golyakov was taken at about the same time—March 5—but was not revealed until an announcement was made today to the Supreme Soviet.

Believed No Demotion

In the cases of Molotov and Mikoyan, at least, the prevailing impression among foreign diplomats here has been that no demotion was involved. Molotov still is First Deputy Prime Minister under Stalin, and Mikoyan remains in the all-powerful Politburo, the Communist party executive.

Voznesensky, too, apparently remains in the Politburo. At 45, he is its youngest member. No mention of this post appeared in the announcement read to the two houses of the Supreme Soviet by Alexei F. Gorkin, secretary of the presidium. The presidium consists of vice presidents of the sixteen republics and serves in executive capacity when the Supreme Soviet, a parliamentary body, is not in session.

Voznesensky, the announcement said, is replaced in the planning commission post by Maxim Z. Saburov. Saburov has been a vice chairman of the commission recently and was its chairman in the war years. He is one of the dozen deputy prime ministers—the vice chairman of the Soviet Council of Ministers (Cabinet).

New Ministry Created

At the same time the presidium announced formation of a new ministry—the ministry for construction machinery and industry enterprises. It is headed by Nikolai A. Dygaya. This ministry is a combination of the former ministry of construction, military and naval enterprises and the machinery industries construction administration. Dygaya headed the former ministry.

The State Planning Commission is one of the most important Government bodies of Russia. It mapped all four of the Soviet Union's ambitious five-year plans, the basis of the Soviet economy.

The planning commission (or Gosplan) set up the first five-year plan which ran from 1928 to 1933. That plan was considered to have achieved 93.7 per cent of its industrial output goal. The second five-year plan ran into 1937, and was aimed at strengthening Soviet defensive capacity and improving the quality of consumer goods. The third plan, beginning in 1938, was interrupted in 1941 by the German invasion. Saburov had been appointed Gosplan chairman only a few months before. With the war over, the fourth five-year plan was launched in 1946.

Phases Of Industry Assailed

Both houses of the Supreme Soviet approved the changes in leadership on the request of Gorkin. Members of the Supreme Soviet had heard, only a few days ago, an attack on certain phases of Soviet industry by A. G. Zverev, Finance Minister.

He said the Government no longer could tolerate the practice by some factories of producing goods easiest to put out in order to meet five-year plan production goals. From now on, Zverev said, factories must concentrate on the needs of consumers.

As in the case of Voznesensky, no reason was given for the release of Golyakov as president of the Supreme Court. The tribunal is the chief court of the entire U.S.S.R., and the supervising court for all the constituent republics. It is elected by the Supreme Soviet.

Other Changes Favored

Taking Golyakov's place as head of the Supreme Court is A. A. Volin.

Some other minor changes also were read to the Supreme Soviet in the form of a decree of the presidium, and all the changes were approved by both houses.

[Some of this dispatch is missing in transit. A man named Popkov has been relieved as a member of the presidium and has been replaced by V. M. Andrianov. Possibly this referred to P. Popkov, who has been chairman of the Leningrad city Soviet. Some other changes in the Supreme Court also were indicated.]

Soviet Replaces 2 More Top Officials

Moscow, March 14 (AP)—New major shifts in the top Soviet leadership were announced today in a decree of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet.

Nikolai A. Voznesensky has been relieved as chairman of the State Planning Commission. This job placed him at the head of industrial production. He also has been released from duties as a deputy prime minister.

Ivan T. Golyakov was relieved of his duties as president of the Supreme Court of the U.S.S.R.

Replaced By Volin

Golyakov was replaced by A. A. Volin.

The Presidium also announced the formation of a new ministry—the Ministry for Construction, Machinery and Industry Enterprises—to be headed by Nikolai Alexandrovitch Dygaya. The Ministry is made up of two former organizations—the Ministry of Construction, Military and Naval Enterprises and the Machinery Industries Construction Administration. Dygaya was head of the former ministry.

Succeeded By Saburov

The changes were announced to the Council of Nationalities, one of the two equal houses of the Supreme Soviet, now in session. The council approved.

The planning job went to Voznesensky's vice chairman, Maxim Z. Saburov, who was the commission's chairman once before, in 1941.

Saburov became a Deputy Prime Minister in February, 1947. He is one of a dozen vice chairmen of the Council of Ministers, the Soviet Cabinet, of whom V. M. Molotov ranks first.

Industries Criticized

Soviet industries were sharply criticized at the opening meeting of the Supreme Soviet's current session. Finance Minister A. G. Zverev blasted certain industries for meeting their goals by making the goods easiest to produce, rather than concentrating on the needs of consumers, and declared that this sort of thing must stop.

Voznesensky, only 45, is the youngest member of the all-powerful party executive, the Politburo of eleven members headed by Prime Minister Stalin. He was appointed in February, 1947.

[There was no indication in this dispatch whether he would retain the Politburo membership.]

Change Made March 5

The change was made March 5, about the same time Molotov was released from his duties as Foreign Minister and replaced by Andrei Y. Vishinsky.

At the same time, A. I. Mikoyan was relieved of duties as Minister of Foreign Trade and was replaced by a relative unknown. Andrei Gromyko, former Soviet delegate to the United Nations Security Council, took the No. 2 post in the Foreign Ministry, deputy under Vishinsky, who formerly held that position.

Invasion Halted Plan

[Little is known of the new planning chairman outside of the Soviet Union. Saburov will have the highly important duty of supervising the progress of the fourth five year plan.]

[The third five-year plan, which Saburov had been named to direct in March, 1941, was interrupted by the German invasion.

[Planning is at the basis of the Soviet economy. The first five-year plan, 1928 to 1933, was considered to have reached 93.7 per cent of its industrial output goal. The second ran into 1937 and was aimed at strengthening Soviet defensive capacity and at improving the quality of goods produced.]

The announcements were made by Alexei F. Gorkin, secretary of the Presidium, to the Council of Nationalities. The council quickly approved.

The Presidium is a body of the Supreme Soviet which acts in an executive and directive capacity between sessions.

Vishinsky to Play Host

MOSCOW, March 14 (AP).—Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky and his wife have sent out invitations for a reception tomorrow in honor of the Korean delegation visiting Moscow. This is Mr. Vishinsky's first official reception to which foreigners have been invited since he became Foreign Minister. (The Koreans represent the Russian-sponsored Korean People's Democratic Republic of North Korea.)

Reds Again Send Protest To Sweden Over Refugees

MAR 14 1949

STOCKHOLM, March 14 (AP)—The Soviet Embassy tonight released a second note to Sweden protesting alleged persecution of Baltic refugees.

The note accused Swedish authorities of "systematically preventing the return to the Soviet Union of Soviet citizens in Sweden."

On March 2 Sweden rejected flatly a similar Soviet note point by point as being "pure fantasy."

Say Reply "Unconvincing"

Sweden's reply was described in tonight's note as "exteremely unconvincing."

The Soviet Note "insisted that Sweden" stop forthwith alleged persecutions against Soviet citizens desiring to return to the Soviet Union.

(The refugees come from Estonia, Lithuania and Latvia, which were annexed by the Soviet Union. The United States has never recognized those three countries as part of Russia.)

The Swedish foreign office said it had not received the note, although its contents already appeared in some Stockholm newspapers.

The liberal newspaper Stockholms-Tidningen commented that this way of handling the matter indicated Soviet eagerness to draw attention of the Swedish public that their country is involved in an exchange of notes with Russia.

Sweden has made no move to join the proposed Atlantic defense alliance. Denmark and Norway are considering participation in the pact.

The new note demanded the release of Erik Suurvaeli, Estonian refugee under arrest in Sweden on charges of espionage for the Soviet Union.

It said Swedish police tried to prevent two other Baltic refugees from returning to the U.S.S.R.

It declared Swedish authorities had suggested to one of the refugees that he go "to England or another western country" instead of to the Soviet Union.

In another case, the note asserted, Sweden had put a refugee in an insane asylum to prevent him from returning to Russia.

In its reply to the first Soviet note, the Swedish foreign office said this refugee had been put in an insane asylum after his wife had asked for police protection against him.

The Soviet Embassy, in the second, note, said it now had word from both Sweden and Soviet doctors that the man was not insane.

Now It's a Russian Who Invented Phone

LONDON, March 14 (AP)—The name of the man who really invented the telephone, according to the Soviet News Agency Tass, is Pavel Schilling, not Alexander Graham Bell.

Tass, reporting on a scientific meeting in Leningrad, said Schilling contrived his telephone in Russia in 1832, 44 years before Bell put his together in the United States.

Schilling also was credited with inventing the first submarine cable and with devising the first system for stringing telegraph wires on Poles.

Soviet science previously had claimed, among other things, the invention of the airplane, the radio, the electric light, the parachute, the transformer and discovery of penicillin and the electrical nature of lightning.

Britain, Russia Set To Open Trade Talk

MAR 14 1949

London, March 14 (AP)—Britain and Russia will talk over a new one-year trade pact.

The British Board of Trade said last night it had accepted a Russian suggestion to open talks. The previous pact was agreed on in Moscow after bargaining between Harold Wilson, board president, and A. I. Mikoyan, former Soviet Foreign Trade Minister.

Talks on a long-term trade treaty bogged down last year.

A board spokesman said goods exchanged between the two nations under the previous agreement were valued at between £40,000,000 and £45,000,000 ($160,000,000 to $130,000,000) for each country.

Articles Exchanged

Russian wheat, barley, corn, fish and timber were exchanged for British machinery and steel and commodities such as rubber, coffee, tea and cocoa from British possessions.

Russ In Germany Plan War Games

Berlin, March 14 (AP)—The Red Army in Germany is planning its greatest spring maneuvers since the war, it was reported in Berlin today.

The Western-licensed German press said the Russians would stage gigantic war games in eastern Germany, including river crossings and mock ground-air combined offensives.

Fifty thousand German policemen, making up the Communist "volks polizei," will take part in the maneuvers, especially assigned to handling traffic, the British-licensed Telegraf said.

Police schools set up by the Communists in the past year will perform military operations to show the Soviet officers the advanced stages of their training, the newspaper said it had been informed by eastern German sources.

The maneuvers probably will be in Brandenburg, where the flatlands are ideal for expansive air games.

Hoffman Relates Safety To Union Of Free People

MAR 14 1949

Washington, March 14 (AP)—Paul G. Hoffman told twelve Swedish labor leaders today that Russia will not start a war as long as "the free peoples of the world stand together."

The Economic Co-operation Administrator said this in welcoming the Swedes here for a two-week tour of key industrial areas along the Eastern seaboard. The Swedes are interested in seeing United States industry at work.

Hoffman did not mention the North Atlantic alliance, but his remarks took on significance from the present stage of work on the pact.

Sweden is the only Scandanavian nation to hold completely aloof from the negotiations and indicate a determination to stay that way.

Only One Aggressor

Hoffman told the Swedes that in the world today there is "only one aggressor nation and that is Russia."

He added:

"If we unite and stay united there will be no attack. In the last war, I thing free nations proved conclusively they can out-produce—they can always out-fight—aggressor nations."

Hoffman told the Swedes they will be permitted to see and hear whatever they desire during their inspection of United States industrial facilities.

Card Maryland Visit

During their Washington stay the Swedes will confer with labor leaders, State Department officials and other Government authorities.

The Washington conferences will end Thursday. After that the delegation will begin its industrial tour at the Bethlehem Steel Company shipyards, Sparrows Point, Md. Then they will inspect, during the next ten days, coal mines near Pittsburgh, a large trucking depot in the same city and steel plants and other facilities.

Norway has come in. Denmark and Iceland are talking about it.

Iceland's foreign minister has an engagement to talk with State Department officials during the afternoon.

Denmark's Foreign Minister, Gustav Rasmussen, and its Ambassador, Henrick de Kauffman, had a morning conference with Assistant Secretary of State Ernest Gross. It was Rasmussen's third day of secret discussions here.

Arms Thought Topic

The subject of today's meeting was believed to be the quantity of American arms Denmark could expect in the event it decides to link with the Atlantic defense alliance.

Embassy officials said Rasmussen is hewing to his original schedule of departing Tuesday night with the answers to his numerous questions. They said he plans to make a "full and frank report" to the Danish Parliament and ask its verdict on what to do about his country's defense.

Iceland's Foreign Minister also is merely seeking information at this time.

The Foreign Minister, Bjarni Benediktsson, arrived here last night. He said in New York that his Government had not yet decided to join the alliance and that it definitely would refuse to grant peacetime bases to any power.

RUSSIAN RAPS COURT ACTION AS A 'COMEDY'

Judge Warns Engineer Against Treating Spy Charge With Levity

MAR 14 1949

New York, March 14 (AP)—A Soviet engineer today denounced his prosecution on an espionage charge as "a comedy."

"The provocative methods against me, a Soviet diplomat, show me this is a comedy," Valentin A. Gubitchev, 32, told Federal Judge Simon H. Rifkind.

"It makes me wonder whether there is any use in bringing into this comedy one more person by having a defense counsel."

The judge replied there was no comedy as far as the court was concerned and that Gubitchev would be making a mistake to treat the case with "levity."

Repeats Immunity Claim

The Russian, a United Nations aide, made his statement through an interpreter at his arraignment on an indictment charging that he and Miss Judith Coplon, 27, Brooklyn-born analyst for the Department of Justice, conspired to pass United States defense and intelligence secrets to a foreign power. Miss Coplon pleaded innocent.

Gubitchev told the court he had not been arrested, and repeated his claim of diplomatic immunity. He claimed the United States Government had recognized his diplomatic status by issuing him a diplomatic visa.

The engineer said he was unable to make up his mind whether he would accept the services of Fowler Hamilton, court-assigned counsel. Judge Rifkind gave him an adjournment until tomorrow morning to decide.

"This Is Not A Game"

"I realize," Judge Rifkind told Gubitchev, "that you are in a strange land and maybe the habits, customs and traditions which make up our freedom are unknown to you."

When the court again asked Gubitchev whether he wanted Hamilton's services, the Russian said, "I would like to resort to my right not to answer that."

Judge Rifkind leaned forward and said slowly:

"Mr. Gubitchev, this is not a game we are playing. You are over 21. I am not asking any questions as to guilt or innocence of what you are accused."

As the debate continued, Lev Tolokonnikov, first secretary of the Soviet Embassy, listened closely while his secretary took notes.

Recalled Inquisition

Gubitchev told the court he did not know "American law or the American Constitution, but my country does not deal with foreign diplomats as here. I know we are a backward country, but the practices here are those of the inquisition."

At another point in his statement, the engineer charged that the American press was conducting a campaign against his country. He said the only aim of the campaign was to "fire the passion of enmity against my country."

Gubitchev, suspended from his United Nations assignment, is being held in $100,000 bail. Miss Coplon was released in $20,000 bail for trial April 1.

The engineer asked to make the statement after his counsel, Fowler Hamilton, told Justice Rifkind that Gubitchev insisted he was immune from prosecution.

Conspiracy Alleged

Gubitchev was suspended from his United Nations assignment after his arrest. He was indicted last Thursday with Miss Judith Coplon, 27, Brooklyn-born analyst for the United States Department of Justice.

The indictment charged them with conspiring to pass United States defense and intelligence secrets to a foreign power. Miss Coplon is at liberty under $20,000 bail.

"I've Had Enough"

Gubitchev claimed that he has not been arrested.

He said he doesn't know "American law or the American Constitution, but my country does not deal with foreign diplomats as here. I know we are a backward country, but the practices here are those of the Inquisition."

Judge Rifkind broke in with: "I think I've had enough.

"I realize that you are in a strange land," he told the Russian, "and maybe the habits, customs and traditions which make up our freedom are unknown to you."

Gubitchev Denounces Hearing As 'Comedy'

MAR 14 1949

New York, March 14 (AP)—Valentin A. Gubitchev, Russian engineer under indictment on espionage charges, today in Federal Court denounced the proceedings as "a comedy."

Gubitchev renewed his claim of diplomatic immunity and said the proceedings convinced him there was a campaign against his country as he was arraigned on the indictment.

Status Is Argued

The engineer, in a statement to Federal Judge Simon H. Rifkind, said this Government had recognized his diplomatic status by issuing him a diplomatic visa. He denounced "the provocative methods" used "against me, a Soviet diplomat, which show me this is a comedy."

Gubitchev asserted the American press was conducting a campaign against his country.

Procedure Reviewed

Rifkind reviewed the entire procedure since the arrest, adding:

"There is no comedy in this action as far as the court is concerned. It would be a mistake to treat it with levity and without grave consideration."

The court adjourned the arraignment on the indictment until tomorrow morning.

Lev Tolokonnikov, first secretary of the Soviet Embassy, listened attentively to the proceedings, while his secretary took notes.

Malik Decries Arrest

Lake Success, N.Y., March 14 (AP). Jakob A. Malik, a Soviet deputy foreign minister, said today the arrest of Valentin A. Grubitchev on espionage charges is an "unheard-of violation of diplomatic immunity."

Malik made his comment in response to questions on what he thought of the indictment of the Russian engineer who worked for the United Nations secretariat until he was suspended March 5.

Malik, who was reported ill last week, returned to Lake Success today to represent the Soviet Union in the Security Council debate on the Dutch-Indonesian conflict.

SECOND NEGRO FOR JURY ON COMMUNISTS

Six Persons Challenged As Trial In New York Enters Ninth Week

New York, March 14 (AP)—A second Negro woman was called to the tentative jury today as the conspiracy trial of eleven of the nation's top Communists ground into its ninth week.

Drawn from the jury panel as replacement for one of six persons excused from service during the day was Mrs. Ida F. Howell.

Mrs. Howell joins Mrs. Thelma Dial, a Negro who was the first prospective juror to be selected. Both may be eliminated by either defense or prosecution before the final jury is named.

Weeks' Attack On Jury System

Defense attorneys had spent weeks before the process of selecting a jury began complaining to Federal Judge Harold R. Medina that jury-picking systems in the New York Federal district discriminate against minority groups, including Negroes.

The jurors are chosen by lot from a panel. They then may be excused for a reason or dropped because of objections by the prosecution or defense.

The six dropped today were challenged and excused by the defense, which now is left with but six more peremptory challenges. The prosecution has three more.

Played Golf With Forrestal

Among the prospective jurors dropped today was a retired stock broker who said he played golf with James Forrestal, Secretary of Defense, ten years ago. He was Hamilton K. Kerr, of Manhattan.

Another of the dropped jurors, Edward P. Nelson, of the Bronx, said he was a telephone-equipment engineer with the Western Electric Company at Kearny, N.J., and a veteran of World War II.

No reason for the challenges was given.

The defendants are charged with conspiracy to advocate forcible overthrow of the United State Government.

The trial was scheduled to be resumed at 11 A.M. tomorrow.

Sally New-Trial Plea To Be Argued Friday

Washington, March 14 (AP)—The plea of Mildred E. (Axis Sally) Gillars for a new trial on charges of treason will be argued Friday before Federal District Judge Edward M. Curran.

A new trial was asked last Friday by Chief Defense Counsel James J. Laughlin. He contended that Judge Curran had shown "prejudice" against Miss Gillars during the trial.

If Judge Curran denies the motion he is expected to impose sentence immediately after arguments are concluded.

The penalty for treason ranges from a maximum of death in the electric chair to a minimum of five years imprisonment and a fine of $10,000.

U.S. SETTLES TWO WARTIME DEBTS

MAR 14 1949

Financial Accounts Adjusted With Canada And France

Washington, March 14 (AP)—The United States made final settlements today of wartime financial accounts with Canada and France.

The settlement with Canada was made on a cash basis on an exchange of notes between Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, and Ambassador Hume Wrong. The United States sent a $3,675,000 check to the Canadian embassy. A refund of an overpayment by Canada for wartime purchases in this country.

These purchases totaled more than $423,000,000 and Canada deposited payment in the treasury. The United States spent about $1,250,000,000 in Canada for munitions and services. Canada received no lend-lease aid from this country.

France's Debt $653,300,000

Acheson and French Ambassador Henri Bonnet signed an agreement which fixed France's obligation at $653,300,000. This obligation, mostly arising from lend-lease, is to be paid in 30 equal annual installments beginning in mid-1951, with interest at 2⅜s per cent.

The $653,300,000 obligation was scaled down from a preliminary total of $720,420,000 set in a 1946 agreement between former Premier Leon Bloom and James F. Byrnes, then Secretary of State.

As part of today's deal, France received two checks from the United States, for $1,600,000 and $450,000.

One was for losses on coal paid for by France and made useless by spontaneous combustion before its delivery, officials said. Another was a refund of excess cash deposits by France for lend-lease on which deliveries were already completed.

Atomic Research Seeks Ship Power

MAR 14 1949

Washington, March 14 (AP)—A huge research program aimed at perfecting atomic power for surface ships and submarines within five or six years is being launched, Senator McMahon (D., Conn.) disclosed today.

Atomic propulsion, it is expected would enable ships to range the world without refueling. It thus would be a long step in freeing navies from their dependence on bases and refueling stations.

McMahon said that the Atomic Energy Commission will spend about $500,000,000 at a new research project to be located at an as yet undetermined site in the West.

Reasonable Expectancy

"At the end of this research, we are hopeful we can demonstrate that mobile (atomic) power plants not only are feasible but are here," he said after a meeting of the congressional atomic energy committee which he heads.

David E. Lilienthal, commission chairman, and other commission officials met with the committee behind closed doors.

McMahon said that while there is a certain amount of uncertainty in all scientific research, "there is reasonable expectancy" that the new commission studies will accomplish their objective.

Three Sites Considered

He said the project will be about the size of the present one at Hanford, Wash., with a population of "several thousand" workers. The commission now has under consideration three possible sites, McMahon said. He did not identify them, other than to say that one is in Idaho.

Water, climate, population and security will be the guiding factors in the final selection, McMahon said. He added that the Government probably will acquire several hundred thousand acres of land for the project.

McMahon said no decision has been made on who will operate the new plants for the commission. Westinghouse Electric Corporation is known to be working on atomic power plants for propelling naval vessels and presumably it will continue experiments at the new project.

To Begin In Year

The construction program will begin in the coming fiscal year.

The project will include "more than one reactor" and eventually will "achieve the magnitude of Hanford," McMahon said.

"This project," he added, "is a natural extension of the program the commission is charged with."

A reactor is a highly shielded structure in which atomic fuels—uranium or plutonium—are "burned" for the release of energy at a controlled rate.

It is from such reactors that scientists hope to develop power for commercial industrial uses and for the propulsion of ships and aircraft.

The big advantage of atomic fuels over those now in use is the presumed big saving in weight. A Navy official said ships probably could be sent around the world on a small amount of atomic output, eliminating the necessity for huge oil reserves and refueling stations strategically located.

MacArt[illegible] To Testify Only [illegible] Mail At Trial

San Francisco, March 14 (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur will testify only by mail at the treason trial of Iva Toguri D'Aquino.

Counsel for the Government and for Mrs. D'Aquino, known as Tokyo Rose, agreed at a conference today with United States District Judge Michael J. Roche that depositions from General MacArthur and other witnesses in Japan would suffice.

Theodore Tamba, one of Mrs. D'Aquino's attorneys, will go to Japan—at Government expense—and take statements from some 40 witnesses that "Tokyo Rose" hopes will say a good word for her. He expects to leave in about ten days.

The treason charge against Mrs. D'Aquino, an American-born Japanese, grew out of her admitted wartime radio broadcasts from Japan to American troops in the South Pacific. Her trial is set for May 16.

U. S.-Argentina Ship Deal Denied

Washington, March 14 (A. P.).—The State Department termed "completely ridiculous" today a published report that the United States was preparing to turn over six or more warships to Argentina.

Press Officer Michael J. McDermott told reporters that "nobody in the Navy or the State Department knows anything" about such a proposal. The report was published by the Washington Times-Herald in a copyrighted story. It said legislation was being drafted to turn over to Argentina an aircraft carrier, two cruisers and two or more destroyers.

Teacher Guilty In Draft Evasion

MAR 14 1949

Toledo, Ohio, March 14 (AP)—Larry Gara, 26-year-old history instructor at Bluffton (Ohio) College, this afternoon was found guilty in Federol court of having knowingly counseled, aided and abetted a former Bluffton senior in refusing to register under the 1948 Selective Service Act.

A jury of six men and six women returned the verdict after deliberating five hours.

Judge Frank L. Kloeb can hand down a penalty of up to five years in prison and $10,000 fine.

The instructor, a Quaker, went on trial Wednesday, charged with counseling Charles Ray Rickert to refuse to regisetr. Rickert is now serving an 18-month term in Milan, [Mich.], Federal prison.

LONDON,MARCH 14-(AP)-DR.GEOFFREY FISHER, ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY, SHARPLY DISOWNED TODAY THE SENTIMENTS EXPRESSED BY DR.HEWLETT JOHNSON, THE DEANOF CANTERBURY, DURING A RECENT TOUR OF THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA.

IT WAS THE SECOND TIME IN 15 MONTHS THAT THE ARCHBISHOP HAS MADE PLAIN THAT THE "RED DEAN" SPEAKS ONLY FOR HIMSELF--NOT FOR THE ARCHBISHOP OR THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND WHICH DR.FISHER HEADS.

DR.JOHNSON HAS BEEN TO RUSSIA SEVERAL TIMES AND WRITTEN BOOKS IN SUPPORT OF THE "NEW DEMOCRACY" OF RUSSIA AND THE EASTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS.

"IN HIS PUBLIC UTTERANCES UPON CURRENT AFFAIRS, THE DEAN SPEAKS, AND INDEED CLAIMS TO SPEAK, ONLY FOR HIMSELF, AND NOT AT ALL FOR ME OR FOR THE CHAPTER OF CANTERBURY CATHEDRAL OR FOR THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND," DR.FISHER SAID IN A FORMAL STATEMENT.

"IT IS A MATTER OF GREAT GREGRET THAT THE DEAN SHOULD ADVOCATE VIEWS WHICH ARE SO INSENSITIVE TO THE TRUE FACTS OF THE SITUATION.

"SINCE IT IS FREQUENTLY ASKED WHY THE DEAN IS NOT REMOVED FROM HIS OFFICE BECAUSE OF HIS OPINIONS, I MUST SAY FIRST THAT FOR REMOVAL FROM OFFICE THE LAW REQUIRES A TRIAL AND CONVICTION IN SOME CIVIL OR ECCLESIASTICAL COURT AND THAT THE DEAN HAS NOT RENDERED HIMSELF LIABLE TO A CHARGE IN EITHER COURT.

"SECONDLY, IN THIS COUNTRY WE GREATLY VALUE THE RIGHT TO FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND THE LAW IS SLOW TO CURTAIL IT, EVEN WHEN IT PROVES INCONVENIENT, IRKSOME OR HURTFUL. IT'S SUPPRESION IS ONE OF THE GRAVE CHARGES AGAINST THOSE TOTALITARIAN AND POLICE STATES WHICH ENJOY THE DEAN'S CONFICENCE."

DR.JOHNSON WAS APPOINTED DEAN OF CANTERBURY CATHEDRAL BY LABORITE PRIME MINISTER RAMSAY MACDONALD IN 1931.

ASKED WHETHER HE WISHED TO COMMENT, THE DEAN OF CANTERBURY SAID: "I HAVE ALREADY SEEN THE STATEMENT AND HAVE NO COMMENT TO MAKE."

LONDON, MARCH 14-(AP)-RUSSIA TODAY REJECTED AS INADEQUATE A BRITISH PROPOSAL FOR GUARANTEEING CIVIL RIGHTS IN THE SOUTH AUSTRIAN PROVINCE OF CARINTHIA.

BRITAIN HAD SUGGESTED SENDING EXPERTS FROM THE U.S., FRANCE, BRITAIN AND RUSSIA TO MAKE A PRECISE STUDY OF METHODS NECESSARY TO SAFEGUARD THE RIGHTS OF SOME 170,000 SLOVENES IN THE DISPUTED PROVINCE. YUGOSLAVIA IS DEMANDING AUTONOMY FOR THE SLOVENE-POPULATED AREA AS A FEATURE OF AN AUSTRIAN INDEPENDENCE TREATY.

YUGOSLAV DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ALES BEBLER HAS TOLD THE BIG FOUR DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTERS HIS COUNTRY HAS MADE ALL THE CONCESSIONS SHE INTENDS TO MAKE.

GEORGI ZARUBIN, RUSSIAN DELEGATE, SAID HE WOULD NOT ACCEPT THE BRITISH PROPOSAL AS A BASIS FOR DISCUSSION. THE PROPOSAL, HE SAID, DOES NOT SATISFY THE WISHES OF THE SLOVENE MINORITY.

AN AMERICAN SPOKESMAN ACCUSED RUSSIA LAST WEEK OF STALLING ON BIG FOUR EFFORTS TO REESTABLISH AUSTRIA AS AN INDEPENDENT COUNTRY.

LONDON, MARCH 14-(AP)-BRIG.GEN.MARSHALL S. CARTER WAS ASSIGNEDN TODAY TO HELP AMBASSADOR LEWIS W. DOUGLAS DEVELOP U.S. MILITARY ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS.

CARTER, WHO ARRIVED IN LONDON YESTERDAY, WILL HAVE THE RANK OF MINISTER.

TODAY'S EMBASSY ANNOUNCEMENT SAID HIS DUTIES WOULD BE TO ASSIST DOUGLAS "IN THE PERFORMANCE OF THE AMBASSADOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES IN CONNECTION WITH THE DEVELOPMENT AND COORDINATION OF MILITARY ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS"--MUTUAL MILITARY AID AMONG NATIONS.

CARTER HAS BEEN ATTACHED TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT FOR THREE YEARS. HE HAS BEEN A SPECIAL ASSISTANT BOTH TO FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE MARSHALL AND HIS SUCCESSOR, DEAN ACHESON.

CARTER'S APPOINTMENT WAS MENTIONED IN BRITISH PARLIAMENT TODAY. INDEPENDENT MEMBER JOHN PLATTS-MILLS SAID:

"IT IS REPORTED FROM WASHINGTON THAT THIS MAN IS TO HAVE THE RANK OF MINISTER AND IS TO RUN OUR REARMAMENT PROGRAM UNDER THE ATLANTIC PACT."

MINISTER OF STATE HECTOR MCNEIL REPLIED THAT FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN "IS NOT AWARE OF ANY CONSIDERATION WHICH WOULD JUSTIFY HIM IN TAKING THE UNUSUAL COURSE OF ASKING THE AMBASSADOR THE PRECISE DUTIES WHICH ARE TO BE ENTRUSTED TO THIS NEW MEMBER OF HIS STAFF."

PLATTS-MILLS THEN ASKED MCNEIL TO REPORT TO THE FOREIGN SECRETARY "THAT THE BRITISH PEOPLE WILL NEVER BE A PARTY TO AN AGGRESSIVE ANTI-SOVIET WAR" AND ASKED HIM TO "TELL THAT TO THIS MAN TO REPORT TO HIS MASTERS IN WASHINGTON."

PLATTS-MILLS, A PERSISTENT ADVOCATE OF CLOSER TIES BETWEEN RUSSIA AND BRITAIN, WAS EXPELLED FROM THE LABOR PARTY LAST YEAR.

NORTH BERGEN,N.J.,MARCH 14-(AP)-AN ANNUAL EXCHANGE OF WORKERS BETWEEN THE U.S. AND ENGLAND--AND PERHAPS FROM OTHER ENGLISH-SPEAKING COUNTRIES--WAS PROPOSED TODAY BY AN INDUSTRIAL LEADER TO PROMOTE ECONOMIC SOLIDARITY.

PRESIDENT WALTER H.SIMSON (CQ) OF DURO TEST CORPORATION, WHICH HAS EXCHANGED THE FIRST WORKERS WITH ITS BRITISH AFFILIATE, DURALITE,LTD., OF SPENNYMOOR,ENG., MADE THE SUGGESTION.

ADA FISHBURN, FROM A TINY MINING VILLAGE CALLED PAGEBANK, WHO WORKS AT DURALITE IN SPENNYMOOR, DURHAM,ENG., IS AT DURO TEST. AMERICAN WORKER MARY UGLIANITZA IS AT SPENNYMOOR THIS MONTH.

"THIS INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE OF WORKERS IS THE FIRST OF ITS KIND AND WILL REVEAL, FROM THE WORKERS POINT OF VIEW, THE DIFFERENCE IN WAGES, PRODUCTION EFFICIENCY, WORKING CONDITIONS AND WORKER LIVING CONDITIONS EXISTING BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES," SIMSON SAID, ADDING:

"ALREADY MARY UGLIANITZA HAS MADE DURALITE CONSCIOUS OF MANY THINGS THAT THE BRITISH COMPANY CAN DO TOWARD IMPROVING LABOR RELATIONS AND THEREBY INCREASE WORKER PRODUCTIVITY.

"ADA FISHBURN WILL UNDOUBTEDLY POINT OUT TO OUR WORKERS SUPERIOR PRACTICES IN BRITAIN, WHICH OUR PLANT CAN EMPLOY TO ADVANTAGE FOR WORKER AND COMPANY ALIKE."

MAR 14 1949

ENGLISH WORKERS EARN $15 IN 44 HOURS A WEEK, WHERE AMERICAN WORKERS IN 40 HOURS EARN $42, HE SAID.

"DESPITE THIS DISPARITY, PRODUCING COSTS IN THE BRITISH PLANT ARE APPROXIMATELY 30 PER CENT HIGHER THAN AT DURO TEST," HE ADDED.

HE SAID THAT EVENTUALLY THE EXCHANGE MIGHT SNOWBALL TO INCLUDE WORKERS FROM AUSTRALIA, CANADA AND OTHER ENGLISH-SPEAKING NATIONS.

WEARING A TIGHT-FITTING BLUE SWEATER AND WITH HER LONG HAIR FRESHLY CURLED, THE DEFENDANT GAVE AN UNSWORN STATEMENT AS THE U.S. ESPIONAGE CASE AGAINST EIGHT EUROPEANS DREW TO A CLOSE.

THE EIGHT ARE CHARGED WITH COLLECTING U.S. MILITARY INFORMATION FOR A FOREIGN POWER. ALL DEFENDANTS HAVE TESTIFIED OR STATED THEY WERE EMPLOYED BY THE CZECHOSLOVAKIAN INTELLIGENCE SERVICE.

THE DOERRE WOMAN, WHO ADMITTED WORKING FOR THE GERMAN GESTAPO IN 1942, AND FOR THE GERMAN SECURITY POLICE IN OCCUPIED NORWAY, SAID SHE WAS BEATEN AND "LEFT TO EXECUTION" IN A POSTWAR PRAGUE JAIL. IT WAS WHEN THEY TOOK HER FROM HER CELL, OSTENSIBLY TO KILL HER, THAT SHE AGREED TO SPY, SHE CONTENDED. MUNICH - XXX TREATS

EVEN WHEN SHE DID SPY, SHE SAID, SHE GAVE LITTLE INFORMATION, MUCH OF WHICH SHE "MADE UP." SHE ASSERTED THAT SHE WAS GIVEN A JOB IN THE AMERICAN COUNTERINTELLIGENCE AT HOF.

HER TRIPS TO CZECHOSLOVAKIA, SHE ASSERTED, WERE MADE ONLY TO SEE RELATIVES. SHE SMILED FREQUENTLY AT THE EIGHT-MAN MILITARY COMMISSION HEARING THE CASE AS SHE MINIMIZED HER ACTIVITIES.

THE PROSECUTION READ OFF A LONG LIST OF ACTIVITIES WHICH IT SAID SHE ADMITTED IN A CONFESSION. THESE INCLUDED 15 ILLEGAL CROSSINGS INTO CZECHOSLOVAKIA, THE GIVING OF INFORMATION ON TROOP MOVEMENTS AT

NUERNBERG, DATA ON COUNTERINTELLIGENCE AND MILITARY GOVERNMENT PERSONNEL, TROOP INSTALLATIONS AT DACHAU AND SIMILAR INFORMATION.

"IT IS SIGNIFICANT TO NOTE," SAID PROSECUTOR COL.M.P. THOMPSON, "THAT SHE GOT 500 DEUTSCHE MARKS FOR HER FIRST TRIP, BUT THAT A FEW TRIPS LATER SHE WAS BEING PAID AS HIGH AS 2,000 MARKS."

EGON RICHTER, 23-YEAR-OLD FORMER GERMAN SAILOR; WALTHER FRIEDRICH, 32-YEAR-OLD ACCUSED SPY COURIER; AND FRANZ BAIER 35, WHOSE CODE NAME THE PROSECUTION SAYS WAS "CAREFUL BOY," ALSO TOOK THE WITNESS STAND.

THEIR REMARKS PARALLELED THE DEFENSE OFFERED BY ALL EIGHT THAT THEY WORKED RELUCTANTLY FOR THE CZECH INTELLIGENCE SERVICE AND THAT THEY WERE RECRUITED BY THREATS.

THE PROSECUTION CONCLUDED ITS CASE SHORTLY BEFORE NOON, AND ONLY DEFENSE ARGUMENTS REMAIN BEFORE A VERDICT IN THE NEARLY TWO-WEEK-LONG TRIAL.

HAMBURG, GERMANY, MARCH 14-(AP)-THE EAST-WEST BLOCKADE WAS TEMPORARILY LIFTED TODAY TO ALLOW SIX BEARS TO ENTER THE BRITISH ZONE.

EVEN BEARS HAVE TO HAVE "PAPERS" IN THIS COUNTRY. POLICE ON BOTH SIDES OF THE BORDER AT VORSFELDE SOLEMNLY CHECKED RUSSIAN AND ENGLISH PERMITS ALLOWING THE BEARS TO TRAVEL. RUBBER STAMPS AND PRINTED WORDS IN RUSSIAN, GERMAN AND ENGLISH ARE A MUST FOR EVERYONE CROSSING THIS BORDER.

THE BEARS WERE OUT OF THEIR TRAIN TO PASS THROUGH THE PEDESTRIANS' BARRIER FOR THE BENEFIT OF PHOTOGRAPHERS.

ONE RODE A BICYCLE, ANOTHER HAD HIS SCOOTER. THE OTHER FOUR WALKED. TWO BORED BEARS SNATCHED THE CHANCE TO CLIMB A TREE. AFTER THEY WERE RECAPTURED, THE BEAR TROUPE BOARDED THE TRAIN AGAIN TO RESUME THE JOURNEY TO A WEST GERMAN CIRCUS.

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, MARCH 14-(AP)-THE FRENCH PROPOSED TODAY AN EXCHANGE OF SOME GERMAN OCCUPATION TERRITORY WITH THE AMERICANS.

UNDER THE PROPOSAL, THE FRENCH WOULD OCCUPY ALL OF THE STATE OF BADEN. THE AMERICANS WOULD OCCUPY ALL OF WURTTEMBERG. AS IT IS, BOTH STATES ARE OCCUPIED IN PARTY BY THE FRENCH AND THE AMERICANS.

THE PROPOSAL WAS CONTAINED IN A COMMUNIQUE ISSUED AT BADEN BADEN, FRENCH MILITARY GOVERNMENT HEADQUARTERS. IT SAID THE AMERICANS HAD BEEN NOTIFIED BUT THAT THERE HAD BEEN NO RESPONSE.

THE FRENCH SAID A REVAMPING OF OCCUPATION LINES WOULD RETURN BADEN AND WURTTEMBERG TO THEIR "HISTORIC BOUNDARIES" AND WOULD FACILITATE BOTH TRI-ZONAL OCCUPATION AND ADMINISTRATION OF THE FORTHCOMING WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT.

MAR 14 1949

BRITAIN IS THE THIRD WESTERN OCCUPYING POWER.

THE COMMUNIQUE SAID PRESENT AMERICAN-FRENCH ZONAL BOUNDARIES WERE BASED ON PURELY MILITARY CONSIDERATIONS WHICH NO LONGER APPLY.

THE FRENCH AREA ON THE RIGHT BANK OF THE RHINE WOULD BE EXTENDED, UNDER THE PROPOSAL, FROM KARLSRUHE TO MANNHEIM. FRANCE WOULD GET BOTH THOSE CITIES IN THEIR ZONE AND ALSO HEIDELBERG.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE U.S. ARMY IN EUROPE. THE FRENCH SAID THE AMERICANS WOULD BE WELCOME TO RETAIN THEIR FACILITIES IN HEIDELBERG, WITH COMPLETE FREEDOM OF COMMUNICATIONS.

THE AMERICANS WOULD HAVE AN "ISLAND" AT HEIDELBERG SIMILAR TO THE POSITION OF BERLIN AS A FOUR-POWER OCCUPATION CAPITAL IN THE SOVIET ZONE.

THE AMERICANS WOULD GAIN MORE TERRITORY IN THEIR ZONE THAN THE FRENCH UNDER THE PROPOSAL.

NANKING, MARCH 14-(AP)-PUDGY FORMER PREMIER SUN FO WAS INDICTED TODAY ON CHARGES OF APPROVING THE IMPROPER DISPOSAL OF ENEMY ALIEN PROPERTY TO MISS LAN NI.

HIS NAME HAS BEEN LINKED ROMANTICALLY WITH THE CHARMING WOMAN.

THE INDICTMENT WAS VOTED EIGHT TO SEVEN BY A SUB-COMMITTEE OF THE CONTROL YUAN (AUDITING). IT NOW MAY BE REFERRED TO OTHER ORGANS OF THE CONTROL YUAN FOR FURTHER INVESTIGATION OR BE SENT TO THE EXECUTIVE YUAN (CABINET) FOR CORRECTIVE ACTION OR TO THE CRIMINAL COURT OF PROSECUTION.

SUN, WHOSE FATHER WAS THE GEORGE WASHINGTON OF [illegible]
REPORTEDLY WAS IN SHANGHAI, EN ROUTE TO HIS HOME IN CANTON.

THE INDICTMENT ALLEGES THAT SUN APPROVED THE DISPOSAL OF DYESTUFFS TO HIS LAUNDRY WHILE HE WAS PREMIER.

THE CONTROL YUAN ALSO IS INVESTIGATING A CHARGE BY LEGISLATIVE MEMBERS THAT SUN APPROVED THE SALE OF HIS SHANGHAI RESIDENCE TO THE CENTRAL BANK OF CHINA FOR AN EXCESSIVE PRICE.

A CHARGE OF CORRUPTION AGAINST SUN BY MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE YUAN WAS ONE OF THE ISSUES WHICH FORCED THE RESIGNATION OF HIS CABINET LAST WEEK.

THE INDICTMENT TODAY WAS THE FIRST RETURNED AGAINST ANY HIGH RANKING MEMBER OF RETIRED PRESIDENT CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S GOVERNMENT SINCE THE GENERALISSIMO STEPPED DOWN LATE IN JANUARY.

RANGOON, BURMA, MARCH 14-(AP)-THE HARD-PRESSED BURMESE GOVERNMENT OFFERED TODAY TO GIVE THE REBELLIOUS KAREN TRIBESMEN AN AUTONOMOUS STATE OF THEIR OWN WITHIN THE BURMA UNION.

THE DECISION WAS ANNOUNCED AS REPORTS REACHED RANGOON THAT THE KARENS HAD CAPTURED ALL OF MANDALAY IN A THREE-DAY BATTLE WITH GOVERNMENT TROOPS.

MANDALAY, A CITY SACRED TO SOME SECTS, IS 350 MILES NORTH OF RANGOON ON THE IRRAWADDY RIVER. IT HAS A POPULATION OF 200,000 AND IS THE SECOND LARGEST CITY IN BURMA.

ACCORDING TO THE NEWSPAPER VOICEOF THE PEACOCK, THE KARENS LAUNCHED AN ATTACK ON SAGAING ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THE IRRAWADDY AFTER SEIZING ALL OF MANDALAY.

THE GOVERNMENT CONCEDED YESTERDAY THAT PART OF MANDALAY WAS IN THE HANDS OF THE REBELS. AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT ISSUED TODAY DID NOT MENTION CONDITIONS IN MANDALAY ITSELF BUT CONFIRMED THAT KARENS THERE WERE SHELLING SAGAING WITH MORTARS.

WHOLESALE SURRENDERS BY KARENS OCCURRED IN THE VICINITY OF HENZADA, 75 MILES NORTHWEST OF RANGOO, THE GOVERNMENT CLAIMED. IT SAID REBEL UNITS WHICH HAD NOT SURRENDERED WERE RETREATING TOWARD THE RICE TOWN OF BASSEIN AND THE CIGAR CENTER OF DANUBYU.

THE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED AN AMNESTY FOR KARENS IN INSEIN, A SUBURB OF RANGOON, PROVIDED THE REBELS LAY DOWN THEIR ARMS BY THURSDAY. INSURGENTS IN OTHER PARTS OF BURMA WERE CALLED ON TO SURRENDER BY MARCH 31 ON SIMILAR TERMS.

THE KARENS, ONE OF THE NUMEROUS TRIBAL GROUPS IN BURMA, HAVE BEEN BATTLING GOVERNMENT FORCES FOR MONTHS. THEY WANT TO ESTABLISH THEIR OWN STATE OF KARENISTAN.

ORIGINALLY THE KARENS DEMANDED COMPLETE INDEPENDENCE, BUT ON FEB. 2 ONE OF THEIR LEADERS, BA U GYI, OFFERED TO KEEP KARENISTAN WITHIN THE BURMA UNION PROVIDED THE NEW PROVINCE WAS ALLOWED TO MAINTAIN ITS OWN ARMED FORCES.

THE GOVERNMENT OFFER OF AN AUTONOMOUS STATE FOR THE KARENS WAS BASED ON THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE REGIONAL AUTONOMY INQUIRY COMMISSION.

THE COMMISSION, ESTABLISHED LAST YEAR, SAID THE BOUNDARIES OF THE NEW STATE SHOULD BE DETERMINED BY A PLEBISCITE. THE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED THAT LEGISLATION TO IMPLEMENT THE COMMISSION'S RECOMMENDATIONS WILL BE INTRODUCED IN THE BURMESE PARLIAMENT.

BATAVIA, MARCH 14-(AP)-INTENSIFIED FIGHTING ON JAVA AND SUMATRA BETWEEN DUTCH TROOPS AND INDONESIAN REPUBLICANS WAS INDICATED TODAY IN THE DUTCH ARMY'S WEEKLY MILITARY SUMMARY.

THE SUMMARY LISTED MORE THAN 400 DUTCH AND INDONESIANS KILLED IN THE PAST WEEK IN CONTINUING BITTER WARFARE ON THE TWO ISLANDS. IT SAID THE FIERCEST BATTLES OCCURRED IN EASTERN JAVA, WHERE AN "ARMED GROUP OF SOME 200 MEN WAS DESTROYED BY DUTCH TROOPS NEAR BANGIL MARCH 7." ARMY HEADQUARTERS SAID FOUR JAPANESE LEAD THAT GUERRILLA FORCE.

DUTCH CASUALTIES ON JAVA AND SUMATRA FOR THE WEEK WERE GIVEN AS 31 SOLDIERS KILLED AND THREE MISSING. NO EXACT FIGURES WERE GIVEN FOR LOSSES SUFFERED BY THE INDONESIANS. BUT THE NUMBER LISTED AS "DESTROYED" IN SCATTERED ACTIONS TOTALLED 370.

BESIDES THE BANGIL ACTION, THE DUTCH COMMUNIQUE MENTIONED SKIRMISHES AROUND THE OIL CENTER OF TJEPOE, NGAWI, MADIOEN, MAGETAN AND PONOROGO.

THE DUTCH ARMY REPORTED THAT IN THE WEST JAVA STATE OF PASUNDAN, 130 MEN OF ONE OF THE REPUBLIC'S BEST-ARMED DIVISIONS GAVE THEMSELVES UP.

THE SUMMARY ANNOUNCED THAT "DUTCH TROOPS INTENSIVELY PATROLLED ALL REGIONS OF SUMATRA, INFLICTING HEAVY LOSSES" ON THE REPUBLICANS. IT SAID GUERRILLAS OPERATING IN THE MOUNTAINS ARE RUNNING SHORT OF FOOD AND ARE SUFFERING FROM DISEASES.

A DISPATCH REACHING BATAVIA TODAY FROM SOEKABOEMI SAID STRONG GUERRILLA FORCES EARLY THIS MORNING DROVE INTO THE CENTER OF THAT WESTERN JAVA CITY.

THEY BURNED TO THE GROUND 18 SHOPS BEFORE WITHDRAWING UNDER DUTCH ARMY FIRE. THE DUTCH USED MORTARS AND BREN GUNS AGAINST THE IRREGULARS.

AT LEAST ONE DUTCH SOLDIER WAS KILLED AND FOUR WOUNDED, THE DISPATCH SAID. MOST OF THE SHOPS WERE SAID TO BE CHINESE-OWNED.

SOEKABOEMI, 60 MILES SOUTH OF BATAVIA, HAS MANY BIG ESTATES. IT HAS BEEN UNDER DUTCH CONTROL SINCE THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT'S FIRST ACTION AGAINST THE REPUBLIC IN THE SUMMER OF 1947.

SINCE LAST DECEMBER'S FIGHTING, TRAVEL BETWEEN SOEKABOEMI AND BATAVIA HAS BEEN CONSIDERED RISKY.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 14-(AP)-A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC TOLD THE U.N. TODAY THE DUTCH-INDONESIAN CONFLICT WILL BE SETTLED ON BATTLEFIELDS UNLESS QUICK DIPLOMATIC ACTION IS TAKEN.

L.N.PALAR, THE INDONESIAN DELEGATE, SAID HE WAS GIVING "SOLEMN WARNING" THAT REPUBLICAN GUERRILLAS WILL NOT STAND IDLY BY WHILE THE DUTCH CONTINUE POLICIES OF REPRISALS AGAINST REPUBLIC LEADERS.

THE COUNCIL ADJOURNED UNTIL 3 P.M. (EST) WEDNESDAY WITHOUT TAKING ANY ACTION. THIS WAS THE THIRD IN THE CURRENT SERIES OF COUNCIL DELIBERATIONS ON INDONESIA.

PALAR REPEATED REPUBLICAN LEADERS' STATEMENTS THAT THEY AGREED IN PRINCIPLE WITH THE DUTCH PROPOSAL FOR A ROUNDTABLE CONFERENCE AT THE HAGUE ON THE FUTURE OF INDONESIA. HE SAID, HOWEVER, THE REPUBLICANS COULD NOT ENTER SUCH TALKS WHILE THEIR LEADERS ARE UNDER ARREST.

PALAR SAID HE COULD NOT ACCEPT CANADA'S PROPOSAL FOR PRELIMINARY TALKS WITH THE DUTCH ON A ROUNDTABLE CONFERENCE UNLESS THERE WAS A DEFINITE DEADLINE.

INDIA, PAKISTAN, EGYPT AND RUSSIA BACKED PALAR. THEY CALLED FOR IMMEDIATE ACTION TO CARRY OUT THE SECURITY COUNCIL'S RESOLUTION OF JAN.28 WHICH PROVIDED FOR THE RE-ESTABLISHMENT OF THE REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT.

SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER JAKOB A.MALIK, BACK AT THE TABLE AFTE A WEEK'S ILLNESS, RENEWED RUSSIAN DEMANDS FOR IMMEDIATE WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH TROOPS.

MALIK CHARGED THE DUTCH WERE VIOLATING THE NEW U.N. CONVENTION ON GENOCIDE--MASS DESTRUCTION OF MINORITY GROUPS--BY TRYING TO EXTERMINATE EDUCATED CLASSES IN INDONESIA.

DUTCH REPRESENTATIVE J.H.VAN ROYEN VIGOROUSLY CONTESTED A STATEMENT BY PALAR THAT THE DUTCH DID NOT PLAN REAL SOVEREIGNTY FOR THE PROJECTED UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA. HE SAID HE WOULD LIKE TO EMPHASIZE THAT THE TRANSFER OF SOVEREIGNTY WOULD BE REAL, COMPLETE AND UNCONDITIONAL.

VAN ROYEN TOLD THE COUNCIL THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS HAVE BEEN FULLY LIBERATED ON BANGKA ISLAND AND MAY NOW RETURN TO JAVA OR GO TO SUMATRA OR ABROAD. HE SAID THE ONLY LIMITATION IS THAT THEY CANNOT GO BACK TO JOGJAKARTA BECAUSE OF MILITARY RESTRICTIONS.

VAN ROYEN SAID THE NETHERLANDS WAS PREPARED TO ACCEPT THE CANADIAN SUGGESTION FOR PRELIMINARY TALKS UNDER THE U.N. INDONESIAN COMMISSION.

MALIK ASKED WHETHER THE SPONSORS OF THE TALKS DID NOT THINK THE DISCUSSIONS WOULD BE EQUIVALENT TO A CONFERENCE BETWEEN PRISONERS AND THE WARDEN OF A PRISON.

BRITISH DELEGATE SIR TERENCE SHONE SAID SOME DELEGATES HAD QUESTIONED THE SINCERITY OF THE DUTCH IN PROPOSING THE ROUNDTABLE CONFERENCE. HE SAID, HOWEVER, THAT THE BRITISH FEEL THE DUTCH PROPOSAL SHOULD BE VIEWED DISPASSIONATELY.

SHONE SUPPORTED THE CANADIAN PROPOSAL FOR PRELIMINARY TALKS TO SEE IF A BASIS COULD BE FOUND FOR PARTICIPATION OF REPUBLICAN LEADERS IN THE PROPOSED ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSIONS.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 14-(AP)-PAKISTAN URGED UNITED NATIONS ACTION TODAY TO RESTORE THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC AT JOGJAKARTA.

COL.ABDUL RAHIM KHAN, THE PAKISTAN DELEGATE, SPOKE AS THE SECURITY COUNCIL RESUMED DEBATE ON THE DUTCH-INDONESIAN CONFLICT.

RAHIN KHAN SAID NEGOTIATIONS ON THE FUTURE OF INDONESIA COULD BE CARRIED ON ONLY BY PARTIES THAT ARE ON A COMPLETELY EQUAL FOOTING. HE SAID SUCH TALKS OBVIOUSLY COULD NOT BE BEGUN WHILE REPUBLICAN LEADERS ARE UNDER ARREST.

UNLESS THE REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT IS RE-ESTABLISHED AND DUTCH TROOPS WITHDRAWN FROM FORMER REPUBLICAN TERRITORY, RAHIM CHAN SAID, THE PROPOSED ROUNDTABLE CONFERENCE AT THE HAGUE IS BOUND TO BE USELESS.

"THE BEHAVIOR OF THE DUTCH GOVERNMENT," RAHIM KHAN SAID, "IS AN OPEN CHALLENGE TO ALL THE PEACE-LOVING NATONS OF THE WORLD."

HE REMINDED THE COUNCIL THAT THE 19 COUNTRIES WHICH ATTENDED THE ASIAN CONFERENCE AT NEW DELHI IN JANUARY PLEDGED THE U.N. THEIR FULLEST SUPPORT IN THE INDONESIAN CASE.

RAHIM KHAN CALLED ON THE COUNCIL TO CARRYOUT ITS RESOLUTION OF JAN. 28, WHICH ORDERED THE DUTCH TO RELEASE THE EXILED REPUBLICAN LEADERS AND RESTORE THE REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT AT JOGJAKARTA. THIS HE SAID, WAS A "MOST PRACTICAL FORMULA" FOR SETTLING THE CONFLICT.

L.N.PALAR, INDONESIAN REPUBLIC REPRESENTATIVE, SAID THE CONDITIONS LAID DOWN BY THE DUTCH FOR THE HAGUE ROUNDTABLE CONFERENCE PRECLUDED THE POSSIBILITY OF A REAL TRANSFER OF SOVEREIGNTY TO THE PROJECTED UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA.

PALAR SAID HE WAS GIVING THE DUTCH "A SOLEMN WARNING" THAT IF THEY CONTINUE THEIR PRESENT MILITARY AND POLITICAL POLICY "OUR GUERRILLAS WILL SOLVE THE INDONESIAN QUESTION."

"THERE IS NO DOUBT NOW," HE SAID, "THAT OUR GUERRILLAS ARE ABLE TO EXHAUST THE DUTCH."

PALAR CRITICIZED A CANADIAN SUGGESTION FOR PRELIMINARY DISCUSSIONS TO FIND A WAY TO GO AHEAD WITH THE HAGUE ROUNDTABLE TALKS.

HE SAID THE CANADIAN PROPOSAL MADE NO PROVISION FOR THE U.N. INDONESIAN COMMISSION TO PLAY ITS LEGITIMATE ROLE.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 14-(AP)-A GENERAL TREND IN SUPPORT OF A CANADIAN PLAN FOR BREAKING THE DEADLOCK IN THE INDONESIAN CASE WAS REPORTED OVER THE WEEK-END.

A WELL-INFORMED SPOKESMAN FOR ONE OF THE BIG POWER U.N. DELEGATIONS REPORTED THE TREND. AT LEAST SEVERAL NATIONS ARE EXPECTED TO SUPPORT THE NEW PLAN AT TODAY'S MEETING OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL AT 3 P.M. (EST).

CANADA SUGGESTED TO THE 11-NATION COUNCIL FRIDAY THAT THE U.N. COMMISSION IN INDONESIA TRY TO GET THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT AND THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC TO AGREE ON CONDITIONS FOR A ROUND TABLE CONFERENCE TO SETTLE THE DISPUTE.

THE IDEA OF A ROUND TABLE DISCUSSION FIRST WAS SUGGESTED BY THE DUTCH GOVERNMENT. AUTHORITIES IN THE HAGUE SET MARCH 12 AS THE DATE FOR THE MEETING. HOWEVER, THE INDONESIANS REFUSED TO ACCEPT THE INVITATION ON GROUNDS THAT THEIR EXILED POLITICAL LEADERS HAVE NOT BEEN RESTORED TO POWER AS DEMANDED BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL IN ITS JAN. 28 RESOLUTION.

MAR 14 1949

UNDER TERMS OF THE COUNCIL RESOLUTION DUTCH AUTHORITIES WERE TO HAVE RESTORED REPUBLICAN LEADERS TO JOGJAKARTA, THEIR CAPITAL IN JAVA. IT WAS TO HAVE BEEN THE FIRST STEP TOWARD A TRANSFER OF SOVEREIGNTY. THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT REFUSED TO COMPLY WITH THE RESOLUTION ON GROUNDS THAT TO DO SO WOULD RESULT IN VIOLENCE AND CHAOS.

INDONESIA HAS BEEN TORN BY WAR SINCE DEC.19 WHEN DUTCH TROOPS OVER-RAN REPUBLICAN TERRITORY IN A "POLICE ACTION" OFFENSIVE. SINCE THAT TIME, REPUBLICAN TROOPS HAVE BEEN WAGING WHAT THEIR LEADERS DESCRIBE AS A "GUERRILLA WAR OF SELF DEFENSE."

THE UNITED STATES' POSITION IN SUPPORT IN SUPPORT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION REMAINS UNCHANGED, DELEGATE WARREN R. AUSTIN TOLD THE COUNCIL LAST WEEK.

Dr. Philip C. Jessup, U.S. ambassador-at-large, addressing a meeting of the American Association of the United Nations in New York on Saturday, said:

MAR 14 1949

"Public opinion in the United States has helped make it unmistakably clear to the government and the people of the Netherlands that the people of this country feel very strongly that the continued disregard of the security council resolution of Jan. 28, [illegible] and the acts of aggression preceding it, constitute a serious threat to the stability and security of the world."

LONDON--1ST ADD PRECEDE RHODES DAY (A66) X X X FROM AQABA.
AT RHODES COL.MOSHE DAYAN, ACTING CHIEF OF THE ISRAELI ARMISTICE DELEGATION, CALLED THE ATTENTION OF BUNCHE TO WHAT DAYAN SAID WERE "MISLEADING PRESS REPORTS" ATTRIBUTED TO U.N. SOURCES.
THE ACCOUNTS WERE CARRIED BY ONE NEWS AGENCY(UNITED PRESS).
THE FIRST QUOTED BUNCHE AS SAYING ISRAEL MAY HAVE COMMITTED A "SERIOUS BREACH" OF THE TRUCE BY MOVING TROOPS TO THE PALESTINE COASTAL STRIP NEAR AQABA. THE SECOND QUOTED U.N. FIELD OBSERVERS AS SAYING 3,000 ISRAELI TROOPS HAD BEEN MOVED ALONG THE TRANS-JORDAN BORDER NORTH OF AQABA.
BUNCHE DENIED HE HAD MADE ANY STATEMENT CHARGING ISRAEL WITH A TRUCE VIOLATION. HE SAID THERE WAS NO "CHECKED INFORMATION" IN CONNECTION WITH THE REPORT INVOLVING THE 3,000 TROOPS.

PALESTINE
RHODES, MARCH 14-(AP)-A SPOKESMAN FOR RALPH J.BUNCHE, ACTING UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR, SAID BUNCHE EXPECTS TO MAKE A REPORT TODAY ON THE SITUATION AT AQABA.
OBSERVERS TOOK THIS AS AN INDICATION THAT PRELIMINARY REPORTS HAD COME IN FROM U.N. TRUCE OBSERVERS IN THE AQABA AREA.
BUNCHE ORDERED THE WORK OF THE TRUCE OBSERVERS SPEEDED UP LAST WEEK AFTER TRANS-JORDAN ASSERTED -- AND ISRAEL DENIED -- THAT ISRAELI TROOPS ATTACKED ARAB FORCES IN AN ADVANCE TOWARD AQABA, RED-SEA OUTLET.
THE SPOKESMAN SAID BUNCHE DENIED REPORTS HE HAD ASSERTED THAT THE REPORTED ISRAELI MOVEMENT TO THE GULF OF AQABA WAS A "SERIOUS BREACH OF TRUCE," AND TRANS-JORDAN MOVEMENTS, A TECHNICAL BREACH.
COL. MOSHE DAYAN, ACTING HEAD OF THE ISRAELI DELEGATION, AND COL. EL JUNDI, CHIEF OF THE TRANS-JORDAN DELEGATION, BOTH SAID THEY HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF BUNCHE MAKING ANY SUCH STATEMENTS.
THE BUNCHE REPORT ON AQABA WILL BE FORWARDED TO U.N. HEADQUARTERS AT LAKE SUCCESS. IT ALSO WILL BE MADE PUBLIC HERE.
BUNCHE FOR MORE THAN A WEEK HAS BEEN SUPERVISING ARMISTICE TALKS BETWEEN ISRAEL AND ITS NEIGHBOR ACROSS THE JORDAN. SEVERAL DAYS AGO, AT THE HEIGHT OF UNCONFIRMED REPORTS OF ISRAELI-TRANS-JORDAN CLASHES AROUND AQABA, THE TWO NATIONS AGREED TO A CEASE-FIRE ARRANGEMENT.

CANBERRA, AUSTRALIA, MARCH 14-(AP)-AUSTRALIA'S DEFENSE MINISTER SAID TODAY HE WOULD LIKE TO SEE A PACIFIC DEFENSE PACT SET UP ALONG THE LINES OF THE PROJECTED NORTH-ATLANTIC ALLIANCE.

THE OFFICIAL, JOHN J.DEDMAN, MADE THE STATEMENT AS REPRESENTATIVES OF BRITAIN, NEW ZEALAND AND AUSTRALIA OPENED DEFENSE TALKS HERE.

DEDMAN TOLD REPORTERS THAT "FORMATION OF A REGIONAL DEFENSE GROUP IN THE PACIFIC ALWAYS HAS BEEN IN MY MIND," BUT, HE ADDED, THERE ARE MANY PROBLEMS TO IRON OUT.

ONE OF THESE IS THE QUESTION OF MEMBERSHIP. DEDMAN SAID AUSTRALIA WOULD LIKE TO SEE THE SIGNATORIES SPREAD OUT OVER THE WIDEST POSSIBLE AREA.

DIPLOMATIC OBSERVERS IN CANBERRA SPECULATED THAT THE UNITED STATES, CANADA, MEXICO AND SOME SOUTH AMERICAN COUNTRIES WOULD BE INVITED TO JOIN.

DEDMAN SAID PRELIMINARY TALKS ABOUT A PACIFIC PACT ALREADY HAVE BEEN HELD.

"I THINK THERE CAN BE NO DISCUSSION OF BASES," HE SAID.

THE UNITED STATES AND THE WESTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS LINING UP UNDER THE TREATY ARE HIGHLY INTERESTED IN PROVIDING PERMANENT PROTECTION FOR NORTH ATLANTIC SEA AND AIR LINES. NEVERTHELESS, IT APPEARED THAT ICELAND'S VIEWS ON THE BASE QUESTION WOULD BE FULLY RESPECTED AND THAT NO PRESSURE WOULD BE BROUGHT BY THE UNITED STATES ON THIS POINT. WASHN-HOFFMAN-TAX POWER

BENEDIKTSSON SAID ICELANDIC COMMUNISTS--HE PUT THEIR STRENGTH AT 20 PER CENT OF THE VOTE--ARE OPPOSING THE PACT IN EVERY WAY THEY CAN.

IF TOLD A QUESTIONER THAT HIS COUNTRY HAD RECEIVED NO COUNTER PROPOSALS FROM MOSCOW.

THE PATTERN FOR HANDLING THE ISSUE OF BASES APPARENTLY WAS LAID DOWN SATURDAY IN A CONFERENCE BETWEEN STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS AND DANISH FOREIGN MINISTER GUSTAV RASMUSSEN. THEY DISCUSSED WHAT RASMUSSEN DESCRIBED AS THE PROBLEM OF GREENLAND.

DENMARK OWNS GREENLAND AND THE UNITED STATES HAS TWO AIRFIELDS THERE. THEY WERE BUILT AS A RESULT OF ARRANGEMENTS MADE DURING THE WAR, BUT NOT PERMANENTLY FOR PEACETIME.

STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS TOLD RASMUSSEN, IT WAS LEARNED, THAT THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY PROVIDES THE FRAMEWORK IN WHICH A FUTURE SOLUTION OF THE BASE PROBLEM MAY BE WORKED OUT. THE STRATEGIC IMPORTANCE OF GREENLAND IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE SYSTEM EVIDENTLY WAS DISCUSSED IN A GENERAL WAY BUT DETAILS WERE NOT GONE INTO.

WITH THE ARRIVAL OF THE ICELANDIC DELEGATION, THE LINEUP OF ELIGIBLE COUNTRIES WHICH HAVE EITHER DECLARED THEIR INTENTION TO JOIN, OR SHOWN AN ACTIVE INTEREST IN ENTERING THE PACT, WAS ALMOST COMPLETE.

ONLY PORTUGAL REMAINED TO BE HEARD FROM. THE REPUBLIC OF IRELAND SEVERAL WEEKS AGO DECLARED THAT IT WOULD NOT ENTER THE ALLIANCE BECAUSE OF ITS LONG STANDING QUARREL WITH BRITAIN.

THREE OTHER MAJOR DEVELOPMENTS ON THE TREATY PROJECT ARE IN SIGHT FOR THIS WEEK:

1. THE FRENCH CABINET IS EXPECTED TO REVIEW THE COMPLETED DRAFT OF THE PACT AND GIVE ITS FINAL, FORMAL APPROVAL.
2. THE ITALIAN GOVERNMENT IS DUE TO COMPLETE THE PARLIAMENTARY DEBATE NECESSARY TO PAVE THE WAY FOR ITALY'S JOINING.
3. THE TEXT OF THE TREATY, WHICH WAS FINALLY COMPLETED BY THE NEGOTIATORS HERE LAST FRIDAY, IS SCHEDULED FOR PUBLICATION NEXT FRIDAY.

PUBLICATION OF THE DOCUMENT WILL PROVIDE THE FIRST COMPLETE OFFICIAL ACCOUNT OF THE COMMITMENTS WHICH EACH NATION WOULD UNDERTAKE IN JOINING THE PROPOSED NEW DEFENSE SYSTEM. THE POWERS HAVE AGREED TO ALLOW TWO WEEKS FOR THIS WORLD-WIDE PUBLIC DISCUSSION, AFTER WHICH THE TREATY WILL BE SIGNED THE FIRST WEEK IN APRIL.

THE NATIONS WHICH ARE CERTAIN TO SIGN IT BECAUSE THEY HAVE ALREADY JOINED THE NEGOTIATIONS HERE ARE THE UNITED STATES, CANADA, NORWAY, BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG. (THE SENATE WOULD HAVE TO RATIFY THE TREATY BY A TWO-THIRDS VOTE TO SEAL U.S. MEMBERSHIP.)

MAR 14 1949

WASHINGTON, MARCH 14-(AP)-AID GRANTED FOREIGN COUNTRIES UNDER THE MARSHALL PLAN WON'T BE USED TO PRESSURE THEM INTO OBEYING ORDERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL, THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE DECIDED TODAY.

IT REJECTED AS "IMPROPER" A PROPOSAL TO DEPRIVE ANY NATION OF AID WHICH FAILS TO HEED THE UN'S COUNCIL.

THE COMMITTEE TOOK THAT ACTION AS IT APPROVED $5,580,000,000 AUTHORIZATION. TO KEEP THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION GOING UNTIL JULY 1, 1950.

DUTCH MILITARY ACTION IN INDONESIA HAD PROMPTED INTRODUCTION BY SOME SENATORS OF A RELIEF CURTAILMENT AMENDMENT.

THE COMMITTEE NOTED THAT PAUL HOFFMAN, THE ECA ADMINISTRATOR ALREADY HAS THE POWER TO CUT OFF AID TO ANY COUNTRY WHENEVER HE DEEMS IT NECESSARY AND COMMENTED:

"THE COMMITTEE FELT THAT IT WOULD BE IMPROPER TO USE ECA, AN AGENCY OF ONE MEMBER OF THE UNITED NATIONS, TO ENFORCE DECISIONS OF THE COUNCIL BY MEANS OF SANCTIONS, INASMUCH AS THE POSITION OF SANCTIONS IS THOROUGHLY COVERED IN THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS."

THE ECA HAS $10,000,000 ALLOCATED FOR INDONESIA, ONCE PEACE IS ACHIEVED THERE.

DURING THE DAY CONGRESS RECEIVED FROM PRESIDENT TRUMAN A REPORT THAT U.S. AID TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES TOTALLED $17,200,000,000 IN THREE YEARS FROM MID-1945 TO MID-1948. THIS WAS LARGELY AID BEFORE THE ADVENT OF THE MARSHALL PLAN WHICH WAS CREATED ONLY LAST SPRING.

FOREIGN COUNTRIES SUPPLEMENTED THE AMERICAN AID WITH $6,300,000,000 IN GOLD AND OTHER DOLLAR RESOURCES THEY OWNED, SAID THE REPORT. IT WAS SUBMITTED TO THE PRESIDENT FOR CONGRESS BY THE NATIONAL ADVISORY COUNCIL ON INTERNATIONAL MONETARY AND FINANCIAL PROBLEMS.

THE COUNCIL IS HEADED BY SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY SNYDER AND INCLUDES OTHER GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS.

THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE HANDED ITS REPORT TO THE SENATE A FEW HOURS BEFORE ECA SENT CONGRESS AN APPRAISAL OF RECOVERY EFFORTS IN THE 16 EUROPEAN NATIONS PARTICIPATING IN THE MARSHALL PLAN.

ECA SAID PROGRESS GENERALLY HAS BEEN GOOD, AND FUTURE PROSPECTS ARE EVEN BETTER.

CAUTIOUS OPTIMISM WAS THE KEYNOTE OF THE 14-VOLUME, 859-PAGE PRINTED "COUNTRY STUDIES." IN THE REPORT, ECA DISCLOSED:

1. IT MAY HAVE TO BOOST BEYOND THE PROPOSED $940,000,000 (M) GREAT BRITAIN'S SECOND YEAR AID ALLOTMENT. THIS CAME IN THE FACE OF OPTIMISTIC REPORTS FROM SOME BRITISH OFFICIALS.
2. IT WILL START SENDING HELP ON JULY 1 TO PORTUGAL, WHICH IS NOT NOW GETTING ANY AID. PORTUGAL ASKED FOR $100,600,000 (M) BUT WILL GET PERHAPS $10,000,000 (M).
3. IT CONSIDERS WESTERN GERMANY A "GOING CONCERN" BUT BELIEVES THAT INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION GOALS MUST BE UPPED. ECA ALSO URGED MERGER OF THE FRENCH ZONE WITH THE BRITISH-AMERICAN ZONE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.
4. IT HOPES FOR A SETTLEMENT OF CIVIL STRIFE IN INDONESIA BECAUSE THE NETHERLANDS INDIES CAN BE A "DIRECT CONTRIBUTION TO EUROPEAN RECOVERY." THE AGENCY EARMARKED $10,000,000 (M) FOR INDONESIA, CONTINGENT ON PEACE.

THE AMENDMENT CONSIDERED BY THE SENATE COMMITTEE WAS DIRECTED BY ITS SPONSORS AT DUTCH MILITARY ACTION IN INDONESIA.

NOTING THAT THE CA ADMINISTRATOR HAS AUTHORITY TO CUT OFF AID TO ANY COUNTRY IF HE DEEMS SUCH ACTION NECESSARY, THE COMMITTEE SAID OF THE PROPOSAL:

"THE COMMITTEE FELT THAT IT WOULD BE IMPROPER TO USE ECA, AN AGENCY OF ONE MEMBER OF THE UNITED NATIONS, TO ENFORCE DECISIONS OF THE COUNCIL BY MEANS OF SANCTIONS, INASMUCH AS THE POSITION OF SANCTIONS IS THOROUGHLY COVERED IN THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS."

THE COMMITTEE'S REPORT AGREED THAT ECA CHIEF PAUL G. HOFFMAN SHOULD USE U. S. SURPLUSES WHEN POSSIBLE AND SAID HE SHOULD NOT DISCRIMINATE AGAINST AMERICAN SERVICES.

MAR 14 1949

IT EMPHASIZED, HOWEVER, THAT EUROPEAN RECOVERY IS THE PRIMARY OBJECTIVE OF THE PROGRAM. IT DECLINED TO WRITE IN REQUIREMENTS THAT SPECIFIC AMOUNTS OF U. S. SURPLUS GOODS BE USED OR THAT ECA FINANCE PAYMENT FOR SERVICES NOT NEEDED FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY.

THE COMMITTEE RECOMMENDED THE FULL $940,000,000 EARMARKED BY ECA FOR GREAT BRITAIN.

IT ALSO WENT ON RECORD AS FAVORING THE "UNIFICATION OF EUROPE," BUT SAID THE IMPETUS MUST COME FROM EUROPE WITHOUT INTERFERENCE OR DICTATION FROM THE OUTSIDE.

THE ECA'S REPORT SAID THAT IT IS DISTURBED OVER THE RECENT RISE OF UNEMPLOYMENT IN BELGIUM, WHICH IT CALLED A LEADER IN RECOVERY THUS FAR.

THE COUNTRY IS AT "AN ECONOMIC CROSSROAD WHERE INFLATION, DEFLATION AND STABILITY ARE ALL POSSIBLE," ECA SAID, AND CONTINUED AID IS NECESSARY DURING THE READJUSTMENT PERIOD.

"A SERIOUS DEPRESSION IN BELGIUM WOULD BE A BLOW TO THE ERP," THE ECA SAID. "IT WOULD MEAN LOST PRODUCTION THAT IS NEEDED IN WESTERN EUROPE.

"IT MIGHT DISCOURAGE OTHER PARTICIPATING COUNTRIES FROM ATTEMPTING TO STABILIZE THEIR DOMESTIC ECONOMIES. FOR BELGIUM ITSELF, IT WOULD MEAN SERIOUS ECONOMIC LOSSES."

THE "COUNTRY STUDIES" ON DENMARK AND GREECE ARE STILL BEING PRINTED. NO REPORT WAS PREPARED ON SWITZERLAND, WHICH IS A PARTICIPATING NATION BUT NOT A BENEFICIARY OF AID.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 14-(AP)-THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE TODAY CALLED ON THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION TO USE ITS VAST PURCHASING POWER TO SUPPORT THE AMERICAN ECONOMY WHENEVER IT CAN WITHOUT INJURY TO EUROPE'S RECOVERY.

A REPORT TO THE SENATE ON THE $5,580,000,000 (B) EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM SAID:

"THE COMMITTEE WISHES TO GO ON RECORD" AS HAVING AGREED UNANIMOUSLY THAT THE ADMINISTRATOR (PAUL G.HOFFMAN) SHOULD GIVE SYMPATHETIC CONSIDERATION AND ATTENTION TO THE UNITED STATES SURPLUS COMMODITIES, SINCE THIS QUESTION AFFECTS THE HEALTH OF THE AMERICAN DOMESTIC ECONOMY WHICH HAS TO SUSTAIN THIS EXTRAORDINARY FOREIGN ASSISTANCE.

"THE COMMITTEE FEELS THAT THE ADMINISTRATOR SHOULD MAKE USE OF SUCH COMMODITIES WHERE THIS CAN BE DONE WITHOUT DETRIMENT TO THE PROGRAM AND SHOULD NOT DISCRIMINATE AGAINST THE USE OF AMERICAN SERVICES."

THE REPORT SAID ALSO THAT BY APRIL 2 ECA WILL HAVE ALLOCATED ALL THE FUNDS IT NOW HAS.

THIS MEANS THAT ECA WILL COME TO A STANDSTILL UNLESS CONGRESS PROVIDES MORE MONEY BY THAT DATE. THE BIG BARRIER TO CONGRESSIONAL ACTION BEFORE THEN IS THE PRESENT STALEMATE IN THE SENATE OVER THE QUESTION OF ADOPTING AN ANTI-FILIBUSTER RULE.

THE COMMITTEE'S REPORT WAS MADE IN RECOMMENDING PASSAGE OF LEGISLATION TO KEEP ECA GOING UNTIL JULY 1, 1950.

THERE IS NOTHING IN THE LEGISLATION ITSELF ABOUT BUYING TO AID THE AMERICAN ECONOMY.

ON THE CONTRARY, THE REPORT EMPHASIZED THAT THE AID PROGRAM'S PRIMARY OBJECTIVE IS EUROPE'S RECOVERY--NOT THE SUPPORT OF THE AMERICAN ECONOMY.

MAR 14 1949

IT ADDED:

"THIS PRINCIPLE WOULD BE VIOLATED IF PROVISIONS ARE WRITTEN INTO THE BILL REQUIRING THE ADMINISTRATOR TO USE LARGE AMOUNTS OF SURPLUS COMMODITIES OR TO FINANCE PAYMENT FOR UNITED STATES SERVICES, WHICH ARE NOT NEEDED FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY X X X.

"THE COMMITTEE, WITH THESE CONSIDERATIONS IN MIND, DID NOT ACCEPT ANY OF THESE PROPOSALS TO ALTER THE BASIC CHARACTER OF THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ACT."

THE REPORT SAID EUROPE HAS MADE "SIGNIFICANT PROGRESS" IN INDUSTRIAL AND AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTION, TRADE AND FINANCIAL STABILIZATION.

ALTHOUGH THE COMMITTEE WENT ON RECORD FAVORING "THE UNIFICATION OF EUROPE," THE REPORT ADDED: "NEVERTHELESS, THE COMMITTEE FEELS STRONGLY THAT THE IMPETUS TOWARD UNIFICATION MUST COME FROM THE EUROPEAN PEOPLES THEMSELVES WITHOUT INTERFERENCE OR DICTATION FROM THE OUTSIDE."

WASHINGTON, MARCH 14-(AP)-SENATOR MCMAHON (D-CONN) SAID TODAY A HUGE NEW RESEARCH PROJECT IS TO BE STARTED SOON ON ATOMIC PLANTS FOR SUBMARINES AND SHIPS.

HE SAID THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION WILL SPEND ABOUT $500,000,000(M) IN THE NEXT FIVE OR SIX YEARS BUILDING NEW ATOMIC REACTORS FOR THE PROJECT. IT IS TO BE LOCATED IN A WESTERN STATE.

MCMAHON IS CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE-HOUSE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMITTEE. HE TOLD ABOUT THE PROJECT IN AN INTERVIEW.

MCMAHON TALKED TO REPORTERS AFTER A MEETING OF THE JOINT ATOMIC ENERGY COMMITTEE WITH AEC DIRECTOR DAVID LILIENTHAL AND OTHER COMMISSION OFFICIALS.

"AT THE END OF THIS RESEARCH," MCMAHON SAID, "WE ARE HOPEFUL WE CAN DEMONSTRATE THAT MOBILE (ATOMIC) POWER PLANTS NOT ONLY ARE FEASIBLE BUT ARE HERE."

HE SAID THERE IS A "CERTAIN AMOUNT OF UNCERTAINTY" TO SUCH RESEARCH AS THERE IS IN ALL SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH.

BUT HE ADDED: "THERE IS REASONABLE EXPECTANCY THE RESULT WILL BE ACCOMPLISHED."

AS FOR THE SIZE OF THE PROJECT, MCMAHON SAID IT WILL BE ABOUT AS BIG AS THE ATOMIC PROJECT AT HANFORD, WASH. MCMAHON ALSO SAID:

(1) THE PROJECT WILL BE LOCATED AT ONE OF THREE SITES--THE EXACT LOCATION YET TO BE DETERMINED BY THE COMMISSION.

(2) IT WILL HAVE A POPULATION OF "SEVERAL THOUSAND" WORKERS.

IDAHO HAS BEEN MENTIONED AS A POSSIBLE SITE FOR THE NEW DEVELOPMENT, BUT NO FINAL DECISION HAS YET BEEN MADE AS TO THE LOCATION, MCMAHON EMPHASIZED.

WHEN THIS DECISION IS MADE, THE GOVERNMENT IS EXPECTED TO OBTAIN SEVERAL HUNDRED THOUSAND ACRES OF LAND BY CONDEMNATION PROCEEDINGS.

MCMAHON SAID WATER, CLIMATE, POPULATION AND SECURITY WILL BE DETERMINING FACTORS IN THE SELECTION OF A SITE.

OTHER TOP STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS MADE PLANS TO INVITE ITALY AND PORTUGAL INTO THE GROWING ATLANTIC PACT AS THE 11TH AND 12TH RECRUITS, POSSIBLY BEFORE THE WEEK ENDS.

BENEDIKTSSON TALKED WITH ACHESON FOR 40 MINUTES. AFTERWARD, HE WENT INTO CONFERENCE WITH CHARLES E. BOHLEN, THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S RUSSIAN EXPERT, AND WITH JOHN D. HICKERSON, HEAD OF THE EUROPEAN AFFAIRS DIVISION. WASH - PACT - xxx tomorrow.

AIDES SAID HE PLANS TO STAY IN WASHINGTON ABOUT THREE DAYS BEFORE RETURNING TO ICELAND TO TELL PARLIAMENT THERE THE RESULTS OF HIS MISSION.

A FEW HOURS EARLIER, DANISH FOREIGN MINISTER GUSTAV RASMUSSEN HAD PERSONALLY PRESENTED THE STATE DEPARTMENT WITH A LIST OF THE MILITARY EQUIPMENT DENMARK WANTS IF IT LINKS UP WITH THE ATLANTIC BLOC, AS EXPECTED.

DENMARK'S FINAL DECISION IS EXPECTED TO INFLUENCE ICELAND'S COURSE. UNTIL A FEW YEARS AGO, ICELAND WAS PART OF DENMARK.

IN TALKING WITH REPORTERS AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT, RASMUSSEN MADE IT CLEAR HE SOUGHT NO PROMISES BUT MERELY WANTED TO SOUND OUT THE UNITED STATES ABOUT HIS COUNTRY'S MILITARY NEEDS.

"I MUST SAY THE AMERICAN OFFICIALS LISTENED VERY ATTENTIVELY AND SYMPATHETICALLY TO WHAT WE EXPLAINED," HE SAID.

RASMUSSEN DECLINED TO SAY ANYTHING ABOUT IT, BUT IT WAS LEARNED THAT THE AMOUNT OF ARMS AND THE MILITARY PLANS INVOLVING GREENLAND FIGURED GREATLY IN HIS TALKS WITH THE STATE DEPARTMENT. IT WAS HIS THIRD DAY OF CONVERSATIONS SINCE ARRIVING FRIDAY.

THE DANISH FOREIGN MINISTER OUTLINED HIS COUNTRY'S DEFENSE PICTURE TO ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE ERNEST R. GROSS, WHO IS IN CHARGE OF DRAFTING THE ADMINISTRATION'S PLAN TO GIVE AMERICAN ARMS AND EQUIPMENT TO MEMBER COUNTRIES OF THE ATLANTIC ALLIANCE.

GROSS IS DRAWING UP A BILL WHICH CALLS FOR CONGRESS TO APPROPRIATE FROM $1,000,000,000 (B) TO $1,500,000,000 (B) FOR ARMS, AMMUNITION, TRANSPORT EQUIPMENT, QUARTERMASTER SUPPLIES, AIRCRAFT AND NAVAL SUPPLIES.

AFTER PRESENTING DENMARK'S REQUIREMENTS IN A SESSION THAT LASTED NEARLY TWO HOURS, RASMUSSEN RETURNED TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT IN THE AFTERNOON TO CONFER ANEW.

MEANWHILE, THE MARSHALL PLAN ADMINISTRATOR, PAUL B. HOFFMAN, LAMBASTED RUSSIA AS THE REASON THE WESTERN DEMOCRACIES ARE BANDING TOGETHER IN A DEFENSE ALLIANCE.

"THERE IS ONLY ONE AGGRESSOR NATION AND THAT IS RUSSIA," HOFFMAN SAID IN WELCOMING 12 SWEDISH LABOR LEADERS TO THE UNITED STATES.

"IF WE UNITE AND STAY UNITED THERE WILL BE NO ATTACK. IN THE LAST WAR I THINK FREE NATIONS PROVED CONVINCINGLY THEY CAN OUT-PRODUCE--THEY CAN ALWAYS OUT-FIGHT--AGGRESSOR NATIONS."

IN TALKING WITH THE SWEDES, HOFFMAN MADE NO DIRECT REFERENCE TO SWEDEN, THE ONLY SCANDINAVIAN COUNTRY WHICH HAS REFUSED TO JOIN THE ATLANTIC DEFENSE ALLIANCE.

NEW YORK, MARCH 14-(AP)-SEN. BRIAN MCMAHON (D-CONN.), A MEMBER OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, SAID TONIGHT THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC PACT IS A "STEP TOWARD PEACE."

MCMAHON MADE THE STATEMENT IN A RADIO DEBATE WITH SEN. FORREST DONNELL (R-MO.), WHO SAID THE PACT WAS "VERY APT TO AMOUNT TO A MORAL COMMITMENT TO FIGHT" ANY AGGRESSOR AGAINST A MEMBER NATION.

THE TWO SENATORS DEBATED THE PACT ON THE MUTUAL BROADCASTING SYSTEM'S PROGRAM "THE AMERICAN FORUM OF THE AIR."

MCMAHON SAID:

"NO ONE WHO HAS WATCHED THE KREMLIN TAKE OVER 10 COUNTRIES IN THREE YEARS IS CONVINCED THAT THEY WON'T TRY IT AGAIN. WE ARE DETERMINED THAT THEY SHALL NOT TAKE OVER ANOTHER."

HE ASKED IF DONNELL THOUGHT THE PROPOSED PACT CONSTITUTED AN ACT OF AGGRESSION.

DONNELL REPLIED:

"NOT NECESSARILY AN ACT OF AGGRESSION BUT IT MIGHT BE TREATED IN SOME PLACES AS AN UNFRIENDLY ACT."

DONNELL SAID THERE WAS "A STRONG LIKELIHOOD" THAT THE FINAL VERSION OF THE TREATY WOULD PROVIDE THAT AN ATTACK AGAINST ANY SIGNATORY BE TREATED AS AN ATTACK AGAINST ALL.

SUCH A CLAUSE, HE SAID, WOULD BE INTERPRETED AS A MORAL COMMITMENT T FIGHT, AND "A MORAL COMMITMENT WE MUST LIVE UP TO."

DONNELL, IN SUMMING UP, SAID THE PACT WAS AN ISSUE TO WHICH THE AMERICAN PEOPLE SHOULD DEVOTE "FULL AND CAREFUL THOUGHT. IT IS EXTREMELY SERIOUS, AND DANGEROUS."

LOS ANGELES, MARCH 14-(AP)-"THE SWOOSE," FAMED FLYING FORTRESS WHICH FLEW MORE COMBAT HOURS THAN ANY OTHER AMERICAN AIRCRAFT IN THE LAST WAR, WILL MAKE HER LAST FLIGHT MARCH 26.

ACCOMPANIED BY AN HONOR ESCORT OF 12 CALIFORNIA NATIONAL GUARD MUSTANGS, THE BATTLE-SCARRED VETERAN OF THE WAR IN THE PACIFIC WILL LEAVE HERE FOR THE WRIGHT-PATTERSON AIR FORCE BASE, DAYTON, O., TO BE PLACED IN THE NATIONAL AIR MUSEUM.

"THE SWOOSE," HALF SWAN, HALF GOOSE, ENTERED ACTION AT THE START OF THE WAR IN THE PHILIPPINES. AFTER MANY MONTHS OF COMBAT, THE FOUR-ENGINE BOMBER WAS ASSIGNED TO TRANSPORT MISSIONS FOR HIGH ARMY OFFICERS. SHE CARRIES 34 FLAGS PAINTED ON HER NOSE FOR THE NATIONS SHE VISITED. SHE FLEW ALL DURING THE WAR.

IN 1946, LOS ANGELES PURCHASED HER FOR $350 AS A WAR MEMORIAL THAT NEVER MATERIALIZED.

THE SWOOSE WILL BE PILOTED TO HER LAST RESTING PLACE BY COL. FRANK KURTZ, HER ORIGINAL SKIPPER.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 14-(AP)-THE MILITARY IS ALARMED AT THE PUBLIC'S IDEA OF THE MASS-KILLING CAPABILITIES OF GERM WARFARE, ATOMIC BOMBS, GUIDED MISSILES AND OTHER NEW WEAPONS.

OVER THE WEEKEND, IT SOUGHT TO EXPLAIN THE LIMITATIONS AND CAPABILITIES OF THE FIRST OF THESE. THE NATIONAL MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT ISSUED A FORMAL STATEMENT, FOLLOWED BY A NEWS CONFERENCE, ON BIOLOGICAL WARFARE--A TOP MILITARY SECRET FOR THE PAST THREE YEARS. THESE VIEWS WERE EXPRESSED:

1. BIOLOGICAL WARFARE--THE STEALTHY IMPLANTING OF GERMS IN PEOPLE, ANIMALS OR CROPS--IS PRACTICABLE, CAN BE CONDUCTED ON LIMITED SCALE NOW, IS A "MOST POTENTIALLY IMPORTANT WEAPON."

2. BECAUSE THIS IS TRUE, THE UNITED STATES MUST BE ON GUARD AGAINST THE USE OF GERMS IN A WAR OR "BIOLOGICAL SABOTAGE METHODS BEFORE A DECLARATION OF WAR HAS BEEN MADE."

3. IN THE RESEARCH FIELD OF BACTERIAL WAR, THE UNITED STATES IS EVEN WITH OR PERHAPS AHEAD OF ANY OTHER NATION. SECRET STUDIES HAVE BEEN DIRECTED BY COMMITTEE "X" OF THE RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT BOARD.

4. BUT --- "THERE IS NO FACTUAL BASIS FOR EXTRAVAGANT CLAIMS OF THE EXISTENCE OF A BIOLOGICAL SUPER-WEAPON" WHICH CAN KILL HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS OF PEOPLE.

OFFICIALS FAMILIAR WITH THE POLICY TO DEBUNK FANTASTIC PUBLIC IDEAS ABOUT GERM WAR, A-BOMBS AND OTHER WEAPONS AGREED THAT TWO BASIC NATIONAL PSYCHOLOGICAL SITUATIONS PROMPTED THE DECISION TO "EDUCATE" THE PUBLIC:

(A) TO TRY TO UNDO SOME OF THE AMERICAN PUBLIC'S OVER-CONFIDENCE IN CERTAIN VICTORY THROUGH RELIANCE ON ONLY SUCH WEAPONS AS THE ATOMIC BOMB, GERM WARFARE AND GUIDED MISSILES.

MAR 14 1949

(B) TO ALLAY HYSTERIA AND PANIC AMONG AMERICAN POPULATIONS SHOULD THIS COUNTRY BE ATTACKED WITH ANY OF THOSE WEAPONS. THE EFFORT NOW IS TO EXPLAIN THAT THESE ARE NOT "ABSOLUTE" WEAPONS, BUT HAVE DEFINITE LIMITATIONS IN THE NUMBER THEY CAN KILL OR THE DAMAGE THEY CAN PRODUCE. THERE ARE MEANS OF MINIMIZING THEIR EFFECT.

PSYCHOLOGICAL WARFARE CAN BE A TWO-EDGED SWORD. PRIVATELY, SOME MILITARY LEADERS WONDER WHETHER TALK ABOUT ATOMIC WARFARE DOESN'T FRIGHTEN MORE AMERICANS THAN RUSSIANS.

A GOVERNMENT BOOK ABOUT ATOMIC BOMBS--WHAT THEY CAN AND CAN'T DO--WILL FOLLOW THE BACTERIAL WARFARE STATEMENT BY A FEW MONTHS. THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION IS PREPARING IT NOW. IT IS DESCRIBED AS THE FIRST AUTHORITATIVE AND DETAILED DISCUSSION OF THE BLAST, HEAT AND RADIATION EFFECTS OF ATOMIC BOMBS. IT WILL INCLUDE SEVERAL CHAPTERS ON THE DESIGN OF BUILDINGS TO WITHSTAND ATOMIC ATTACK.

THE CAMPAIGN TO BRING BACK TO EARTH SOME FANCIFUL FLIGHTS OF THOUGHTS ABOUT THE PRESENT STATUS OF GUIDED MISSILES HAS BEEN UNDER WAY FOR SEVERAL YEARS. ROCKET EXPERTS KEEP DECLARING THAT "PUSH BUTTON WARFARE" SO FAR HAS ONLY LITTLE MORE THAN THE BUTTON. THE TROUBLE, THEY SAY, HAS BEEN THAT THE PUBLIC HAS CONFUSED BLUEPRINGS AND LABORATORY STUDIES WITH THE ACTUAL, PRESENT-DAY CAPABILITIES OF GUIDED MISSILES. UP TO NOW, THEY CAN'T CROSS OCEANS OR HIT ANY PIN-POINT TARGETS, OFFICIALS KEEP TELLING THE PUBLIC.

LANSING, MICH., MARCH 14-(AP)-STATE POLICE BROADCAST A WARNING TODAY THAT MORE THAN 1,000 WAR SURPLUS RADIO SETS WITH A DEADLY EXPLOSIVE ATTACHMENT HAVE BEEN SOLD IN MICHIGAN TO UNSUSPECTING BUYERS.

STATE POLICE COMMISSIONER DONALD S. LEONARD WARNED PURCHASERS OF THE RADIOS TO "LEAVE THEM STRICTLY ALONE UNTIL WE CAN LEARN HOW TO MAKE THEM SAFE. EACH ONE HAS ENOUGH TNT IN IT TO BLOW A MAN'S HEAD OFF."LEONARD SAID THE RADIOS WERE I.F.F. RECEIVING-TRANSMITTING SETS WHICH WERE USED BY THE ARMY AIR FORCES DURING THE WAR. HE SAID THEY WERE HIGHLY SECRET INSTRUMENTS WITH LOCKED FREQUENCIES TO BE USED IN IDENTIFYING UNITED STATES BOMBERS FLYING THROUGH RADAR SCREENS. EACH, HE SAID, WAS EQUIPPED WITH A DEVICE FOR EXPLODING THEM TO AVOID ENEMY CAPTURE.

THE POLICE COMMISSIONER REPORTED THAT ONE BENTON HARBOR SURPLUS SUPLIES STORE REPORTED THAT IT HAD SOLD 1,000 OF THEM AND THAT OTHERS HAD BEEN FOUND IN DETROIT, APPARENTLY SOLD BY ANOTHER OUTLET.

STATE POLICE WERE ORDERED TO TAKE A NUMBER OF THE SETS TO FORT CUSTER, NEAR BATTLE CREEK, FOR STUDY BY ARMY EXPLOSIVES EXPERTS.

"WE WILL SEND OUT INSTRUCTIONS FOR MAKING THEM SAFE AS SOON AS THESE EXPERTS TELL US WHAT TO DO," LEONARD SAID. "IN THE MEANTIME, DON'T MONKEY WITH THEM."

LEONARD SAID HE HAD TALKED BY TELEPHONE WITH JESSE LARSON, WAR ASSETS ADMINISTRATOR IN WASHINGTON, AND HAD BEEN TOLD THAT THE SETS WERE STILL RESTRICTED. HE QUOTED LARSON AS SAYING THE ARMY AIR FORCE WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR MAKING CERTAIN THAT NO SECRET ITEMS WERE SOLD AS SURPLUS.

SETS SOLD BY THE WAR ASSETS ADMINISTRATION WERE WHOLESALED BY THE BELMONT RADIO COMPANY OF CHICAGO, LEONARD SAID. OTHERS COMING INTO MICHIGAN FROM AN ATLANTA, GA., DEALER CAME DIRECT FROM THE AIR FORCE, HE ADDED.

IN WASHINGTON, LARSON ADDED THAT WAA AND AIR FORCE TECHNICIANS WERE INVESTIGATING AND SAID THAT IT "NEVER HAD BEEN REPORTED PREVIOUSLY THAT ANY SUCH DANGER EXISTED."

PORTUGAL JOINS DISCUSSIONS ON ATLANTIC TREATY

Nation Controls the Azores, Important Defense Bastion

PACT TEXT COMPLETED

Danish Envoy Expected to Recommend His Country Join Alliance

WASHINGTON, March 15.—(AP) The North Atlantic defense alliance assumed broader dimensions tonight as the Portuguese government disclosed it has started talks with the United States about joining the mutual-aid pact.

Only a few hours earlier, Denmark's Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen strongly indicated he will recommend that his country become the 9th nation to link up with the western powers' plans for an arms-backed security system.

Rasmussen disclosed his attitude to reporters after winding up a five day visit here to learn details of the nearly-completed agreement between the United Staes, Canada and seven nations of western Europe. He said he had been given "frank and friendly" answers to all questions he raised about Denmark's possible benefits and responsibilities under the alliance.

Control Strategic Spots

Denmark and Portugal control two of the Atlantic's defense bastions—Greenland and the Azores—which hold the key to the north and south approaches, respectively. On that score the Portuguese government made plain it would refuse to enter any defense arrangement "which might tie them to the obligation of granting in peacetime military bases to a foreign power."

"Such an idea would be entirely contrary to the principle which does not admit violation of national sovereignty," its embassy here said in a statement.

This was the first disclosure that the Portuguese have been talking over the question of joining the alliance. State Department officials said the main discussions have been going on in Lisbon, but that the Portuguese ambassador has called several times to take up the matter.

At the same time the Portuguese expressed concern over the exclusion of Spain from the proposed accord. The embassy's statement said that such exclusion "could only weaken the role which the Iberian Peninsula, as a strategic bloc of the highest importance, might be called to fulfill."

American officials expressed confidence that Portuguese fears about peacetime use of her soil would be allayed by the same assurances previously given the Danish and Icelandic governments.

Text Soon to Be Released

The seven ambassadors negotiating the alliance, meanwhile met with Secretary of State Acheson to put finishing touches on the text of the agreement. After the two and a half hour session, they told reporters they thought this was their last working session on the draft of the pact which is scheduled for public release this Friday.

Other fast-moving developments crowded into the diplomatic picture during the day:

1. British Ambassador Sir Oliver Franks announced that Britain's foreign minister, Ernest Bevin, plans to come to Washington early in April to represent Britain at the signing of the defense treaty.

2. Iceland's visiting Foreign Minister Bjarni Benediktsson called for a second day at the State department to discuss whether Iceland may be linked to the alliance as the tenth recruit. Benediktsson arranged to see Acheson for a final conference tomorrow.

3. A proposal to expand the Atlantic alliance into a full federal union was advanced by retired Supreme Court Justice Owen J. Roberts and a group of other public figures.

Immediately after Rasmussen's 90-minute talk with Acheson, the Danish foreign minister arranged to leave by train for New York en route to Copenhagen. There he will report fully on his mission to parliament which must make the actual decision about Denmark's future defense plans.

"I leave it to you to draw the sensible conclusions," he replied with a smile when asked what his recommendation to his government would be.

Rasmussen declined to explain his views in detail because "it will only embarass me when I get home."

"You know how the situation is," he added.

Denmark's entry into the Atlantic alliance would be especially welcome to the United States and other member countries because it would greatly facilitiate the military defense of northern Europe.

Denmark not only helps control the approaches to the Baltic Sea, but owns the big island of Greenland, the site of many valuable air and weather bases during the last war.

State department officials declined to comment officially about the results of Rasmussen's visit but they obviously were confident Denmark would decide to turn to the west for its future security.

Rasmussen Gives Hints Danes Will Sign Pact

Washington, March 15 (AP)—Denmark's Foreign Minister indicated today he will recommend that his country join the North Atlantic defense alliance.

The Minister, Gustav Rasmussen, wound up his five-day fact-finding mission here with a farewell call on Secretary of State Acheson.

When he was leaving, reporters asked what his recommendations to the Danish Parliament would be. Rasmussen said: "I leave it to you to draw the sensible conclusion."

Statement Issued

Rasmussen and Acheson issued a joint statement. Its tone also plainly indicated Denmark might come in as the ninth member of the growing Atlantic defense pact.

This statement said, in part:

"The Secretary of State stressed the purpose of the pact as being the maintenance of peace as well as its purely defense character. The Secretary of State also pointed out that the pact is drafted in close conformity with the Charter of the United Nations."

On Way Home Tonight

The points made by Acheson obviously were designed to give positive assurance to the Danish diplomat that the projected alliance is not "aggressive" in character as Russia has repeatedly maintained.

Rasmussen will leave by train tonight for New York. From New York he will fly to Denmark.

The eight nations now engaged in drawing up the alliance arranged an afternoon meeting to put the finishing touches on it.

Belgium Sending Spaak To Sign

Brussels, Belgium, March 15 (AP)—The Belgian Foreign Ministry said today it has notified the United States of its agreement to the terms of the Atlantic defense pact. Premier Paul Henri Spaak will sail on the Queen Mary March 26 to sign the pact in Washington.

ITALIAN STRIKE ON PACT DROPPED

But Togliatti Says Left Will Continue To Fight It

Rome, March 15 (AP)—Italy's Leftist labor leaders apparently abandoned today the idea of a general strike of protest against the Atlantic defense alliance. But Palmiro Togliatti, Communist chief, said the Left will continue to fight.

Togliatti spoke in the Chamber of Deputies, which is debating the Government's proposal to join the alliance.

Carlo Sforza, Foreign Minister, told the deputies the Atlantic alliance "was not created by America, but by Russia when she divided Europe into two blocs."

No Secret Documents

The battle against the alliance, Sforza said, "is a continuation of the fight against the Marshall Plan, organized by the Cominform." The Foreign Minister repeated the statement made by Premier Alcide de Gasperi Friday that there are no secret documents in the agreement, which will link the United States and Canada with western European nations.

"There are no promises of military bases," Sforza added.

Togliatti declared the Italian constitution prohibited adherence to the Atlantic pact, in as much as it prohibits war as a political procedure.

Right To Reject Alliance

"We will turn to the Italian people," Togliatti said, "and tell them they have the right to reject the pact."

Directors of the Communist-led Confederation of Labor dropped talk of a general strike in a stormy session today and decided instead to issue a manifesto attacking the alliance as a threat to peace.

The moderate Leftist Republican party threatened to pull out of the organization if the strike was ordered.

European Union Dream Moves Near Reality

London, March 15 (AP)—Dream of a broad European union moves closer to reality today as foreign ministers of the five-nation Western European Union scan a draft constitution for a Council of Europe.

Statesmen of Britain, France, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg went into the second day of a two-day meeting on the problems of the North Atlantic pact and the European Union.

One problem is the conflict between the date previously set for a founding conference for the ten nation Council of Europe and the date for signing the North Atlantic treaty.

Invitations Offered

The members of the Western European Union—or Brussels Alliance—have invited Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Eire and Italy to the founding conference March 28 in London. But the foreign ministers of the Brussels powers expect they will then be on shipboard bound for the Atlantic-pact signing in Washington.

They will have to decide whether to postpone the London meeting or turn it into a meeting of ambassadors instead of foreign ministers.

The Western European Union is a defensive, as well as a social and cultural alliance.

Council Structure

The Council of Europe would be strictly social and cultural at the start. It would consist of a committee of ministers with limited powers, corresponding to a cabinet, and a consultative body with merely advisory functions, corresponding to a parliament.

The meeting here has been secret but a communiqué will be issued tonight.

The terms of the North Atlantic pact, which was known to be before the ministers yesterday, are to be published Friday.

Many of the decisions concerned with defense may not be made public immediately. But certain economic problems created by the Atlantic treaty also were to be discussed and these probably will be made public.

Another Problem

Another problem facing the ministers is how to expand the military aspects of the western European alliance so as to bring in other countries joining the Atlantic powers.

Norway has announced she will join the Atlantic alliance. The Foreign Ministers of Denmark and Iceland are discussing their possible adherence. Italy and Portugal also may be invited to participate.

LONDON SEEKS PACIFIC PACT

U.S. Reported Unwilling To Take On New Commitments

London, March 15 (AP)—Diplomatic sources said today the British Commonwealth is trying to forge a stop-gap barrier against Far East communism and hopes later for United States support of a Pacific defense alliance.

Some preliminary talks have been held between the Commonwealth countries and some independent southeast Asia states. Commonwealth Cabinet ministers and officials close to Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, said more talks will follow.

Diplomatic sources said the United States appeared unwilling now to take on new and expensive military commitments in the Far East.

"Negative" U.S. Response

Britain and such Commonwealth countries as Australia hope ultimately their makeshift plan will become a full Pacific defense organization. This accord, with American support, would be linked directly with the Atlantic alliance.

The sources said Britain recently sent the United States a comprehensive memorandum on what should be done to stop the growth of communism in the Far East. They said the memorandum met with "negative" response.

The informants said the United States attitude broadly appeared to be that Britain, her dominions and the Netherlands could do much more than they have up to now in organizing their own defense of southeast Asia.

Quick Action Emphasized

Sir William Strang, of the ...h Foreign Office, has just re...ed from the Far East. An offi... cial source said he emphasized to the British Cabinet the need for quick action.

The Cabinet then decided to consult with the dominions on calling a conference of Commonwealth premiers and foreign ministers in the spring. Emissaries went out last week to each dominion to discuss details.

One official said the British Government sees the Far East crisis in terms of a Communist tide which might sweep over a region inhabited by 1,000,000,000 people. This area spreads from North China down as far as Indonesia and then north to Malaya and the Burmese hills.

Invitation Deferred

Countries which would be eligible for a broader Pacific defense pact would include the United States, France, Holland, India, Pakistan, Ceylon, Australia, New Zealand, Burma and Siam.

The official said a definite invitation to the United States probably would be deferred until Pacific defense plans reach a more concrete form.

British and Commonwealth officials say there are many complicating factors. They cited India's unwillingness—expressed last week by Premier Jawaharlal Nehru—to "join any power or group" and inability of such countries as Burma and Siam to put up money for a big-scale armaments program.

for the British people.

The report promised increased food rations, although there will be four pounds less meat per person this year.

The survey told of "substantial progress" toward recovery, but there was no substantiation of the recent suggestion by Christopher Mayhew, foreign undersecretary, at Lake Success that Britain has achieved complete recovery. Mayhew's statement has been repudiated by the government.

In setting forth four main economic goals for 1949, the survey said their fulfillment would aid in solving some of the nation's gravest difficulties. The government asked:

Harder work and more production—in the steel mills, the coal mines, the textile industries, and on the farms.

A reduction in cost and improvement in the quality of British-made goods.

A continued brake on wages, price and dividends to keep inflation under control.

And—most important of all—a bigger effort to sell more goods to the United States and Canada, thereby earning more dollars. Exporters were promised "practical assistance" to help them win new customers in the North American market.

To the people, the survey held out the promise of increase rations as a reward for another year of austerity. They were told that their pared by Sir Stafford Cripps, boss of Britain's economics and finances.

Production Goals

It laid out higher production goals for this year and said their fulfillment would go a long way toward solving some of the nation's most crucial recovery problems.

But there was nothing in the 30,000-word survey to show that Britain has yet achieved complete recovery, as suggested by Christopher Mayhew, Foreign Under Secretary, at a recent United Nations meeting. Mayhew's statement was later repudiated by the Government.

Sir Stafford's survey warned instead:

"The position is still dangerous in a number of critical sectors. In terms of dollars we are still not paying our way. Sustained efforts to solve the hard core of our economic difficulties are still required."

940 Million Expected

The entire program was built in the belief that Congress will approve $940,000,000 worth of American aid for the coming year. This is the full amount recommended by Paul G. Hoffman, head of the Economic Co-operation Administration (ECA).

If the fund is cut "many plans may need yet to be revised," said a footnote to the survey.

The survey set out four main tasks:

1. A bigger effort to sell more goods to the United States and Canada, and so earn dollars.

2. Harder work and more production, especially in steel, coal and textile industries, and on the farms.

3. Cut the cost and boost the quality of British-made goods. Exporters already are having trouble finding customers at present prices.

4. Hold down wages, prices and dividends to keep inflation under continued control.

Reward For Work

As a reward for more self-discipline and hard work, the survey promised the people their diet would come back almost to prewar levels this year, although each person will get four pounds less meat.

In recent months Britain achieved a near balance in trade with the rest of the world. In 1947, its trading accounts fell into a debt of $2,520,000,000.

But, the survey warned, this "does not represent a financial equilibrium since it conceals a large and continuing dollar deficit."

"Crucial Problem"

Balance with the whole world means a surplus in trading with the Commonwealth, Europe, Asia and Africa in contrast to continuing debts to the Western Hemisphere.

"With the Western Hemisphere, particularly the dollar area, we are, and are likely to remain, substantially in deficit, even though the deficit is steadily diminishing. The dollar deficit remains the crucial problem," the survey reported.

Much of Britain's food and vital raw materials for her industries can be bought only for dollars.

Net Trade Deficit

The net deficit in dollar trading for the first six months of 1948 was $1,016,000,000. In the last half of the year it was trimmed to $676,000,000. For the first half of 1949, however, it will rise to $780,000,000 as Britain buys materials and machinery to expand output.

Consequently, the Government said it is planning "practical assistance for exporters" seeking to sell in the North American market.

It wants to sell 50 per cent more in the New World this year than it did in 1938. In the final half of 1948, sales were 39 per cent above 1938.

nounced yesterday by the Board of Trade after merchants had said supplies were more than adequate.

Retailers and the Board of Trade are confident the demand will taper off quickly. They say clothing prices—from 100 to 200 per cent higher than before the war—will ration most clothes and other goods more effectively than the coupon system. Another big factor is the purchase tax, which ranges from 26⅔ to 100 per cent.

Shirts Up From $1 To $4

Here are some comparative prices:

Nine years ago a good, tailor-made man's suit cost $56. Today tailors say a comparable suit costs $140. A good shirt cost $1 in 1940. Today a shirt of lesser quality brings $4.

A pair of sheets that cost $2.40 nine years ago now sells for $8 to $12. Gloves that were 98 cents now retail at $3.60. Women's slips were $1—now they're $3.60 to $4. Women's stockings that sold at 70 cents before the war now are $2.40.

Merchants say that the purchase tax—a kind of sales tax—is the principal cause of the price increases.

Britain Planning New Jet Fighter Models

London, March 15 (AP)—England is developing jet fighter planes which will make present types obsolete, the House of Commons was told today.

Arthur Henderson, Air Secretary, said: "We are doubling the strength of the fighter command jet fighter force. This process should be completed by the middle of next year."

Britain's present jet planes "are the finest fighters in service today in any part of the world," Henderson said, and then he added:

"Replacement types are already under development whose performance will be as much in advance of present types as those types are themselves in advance of the first jet fighters."

Brussels Powers Discuss Finances

MAR 15 1949

London, March 15 (AP)—The foreign ministers of the five-nation Brussels alliance said tonight they studied at a two-day meeting problems of financing and producing military supplies for their joint defenses.

In a terse communiqué Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg said they also studied the latest developments in connection with the Atlantic treaty. All will take part in that alliance.

The communiqué disclosed that the ministers had advanced until April a ten-nation meeting of the Council of Europe to avoid any conflict in dates for the signing of the Atlantic treaty.

The ministers met as the consultative council of the Brussels alliance. They had invited Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Eire and Italy to the founding meeting of the Council of Europe which had been set for March 28 in London.

The Council of Europe would be a social and cultural union at the outset. It would consist of a committee of ministers with limited powers, corresponding to a cabinet, and a consultative body with merely advisory functions, corresponding to a parliament.

Sweden and Eire are taking no steps now toward joining the Atlantic treaty.

Britain on 'Recovery Road'; 'Harder Work' to Be Slogan

MAR 15 1949

G. Williams

LONDON, March 15—(AP) Sir Stafford Cripps reported today Britain is well on the road to recovery.

The chancellor of the exchequer said one major problem remains:

How to sell enough British goods in the American market to pay for all the things Britain has to buy with dollars.

Through a 30,000-word "Economic Survey for 1949" published today as a white paper, Cripps played on the theme that Britain can and must be earning those dollars by the time American aid under the European recovery program ends in 1952.

Output Increases

Britain has completed "a year of great and steady progress," his survey said. "Output increased in every important industry."

This was attributed to two main factors—Britain put forth "a steady national effort" on production and "we received generous and timely assistance from the United States."

A program of harder work and continued high taxes was laid down diet would be restored almost to pre-war levels, with the exception of meat. However, tax collections are expected to rise, even under the present high rates.

The entire program is based on a belief that congress will approve the $940,000,000 in American aid proposed by European recovery planners. In a footnote, the survey said that, if the fund is cut, "many plans may need yet to be revised."

British Survey Notes Gains Deplores Dollar Shortage

MAR 15 1949

London, March 15 (AP)—Britain has made "substantial progress" toward recovery and is past its period of recurring economic crisis, a Government economic survey for 1949 reported today.

The report said, however, the dollar shortage still is crucial.

The progress is due both to the work of the British people and "the generous assistance we are being given by the American and Canadian people," said the report, pre-

Spending Spree Sweeps Britain

London, March 15 (AP)—Britons went on a shopping spree today at the end of almost eight years of clothes rationing.

"This has easily been our biggest day so far this year," said one London department-store manager.

Equally brisk trade was reported in Liverpool, Manchester, Edinburgh, Glasgow and Birmingham.

The merchandise-starved customers grabbed first at sheets, tablecloths and towels. Then they turned to wearing apparel. Sheets were in such demand that one of the biggest stores limited customers to three pairs each.

Determined To Buy Something

A store manager said:

"The women seemed determined to buy something. Those who couldn't afford coats bought blouses. The big rush in the clothing line was on cotton housedresses, then came lingerie."

Decontrol of clothing was an-

BRITAIN BACKS BUDGET ON RAF

Commons Approves $830,000,000—Includes Jets

London, Wednesday, March 16 (AP)—The House of Commons early today approved a $830,000,000 air budget including provision for an up-to-the-minute air force of jet bombers.

The budget is $72,000,000 higher than the last one.

Arthur Henderson, Air Secretary, said Britain is developing a jet fighter which would mage present types obsolete and also is looking forward to "revolutionary developments" in jet bombers.

Flareup Feared In July

A. V. Harvey, a Conservative and a retired air commodore, expressed concern about air defense plans as outlined by the secretary. He said "planners in some of the services" had told him that any world flareup would come either in July of this year or not for six or seven years.

A. V. Alexander, Defense Minister, rebuked Harvey for putting out this prediction "to the public and possible enemies."

Henderson said Britain's jet bombers already are the best in the world and that this country is preparing a jet bomber with a speed nearing 500 miles per hour.

Legion Marks Birthday With Paris Celebration

MAR 15 1949

Paris, March 15 (AP)—Veterans of two world wars today, in a brief ceremony, marked the thirtieth anniversary of the founding of the American Legion.

A wreath was placed on a plaque marking the birthplace of the Legion on March 15, 1919, which was an old vaudeville hall.

A few French veterans mingled with the Americans, and two brigadier generals attended the ten-minute ceremony — Foster Take, United States Embassy military attaché, and H. L. Peckham, of the Graves Registration Command.

About 1,000 soldiers met in the Paris Circus in 1919 to found the organization, which now claims over 4,000,000 members. They were brought together by the late Theodore Roosevelt, Jr.

The old circus building has long since been torn down.

How Name Was Born

The name America Legion was adopted on a motion made by Major Maurice K. Gordon, inspector general of the 36th Division. He is now a lawyer in Madisonville, Ky.

The late Alexander Woollcott, writer and radio's "town crier," opposed the motion. He said the name "American Legion" sounded "too silk-stocking."

Another delegate snapped: "I fought beside the French Foreign Legion, and if that fat medico thinks those babies were sissies he is just nuts."

Other Founding Delegates

Woollcott was in the Medical Corps before he became a sergeant on the army newspaper Stars And Stripes.

Other delegates to the founding caucus were Harold Ross, editor of the New Yorker; the late John Winant, governor of New Hampshire and Ambassador to England during World War II; Richard D. Patterson, radio executive and once Assistant Secretary of Commerce; the late Ogden Mills, later Secretary of the Treasury; Devereaux Milburn, famous polo player; the late Dwight F. Davis, later Secretary of War, and William J. (Wild Bill) Donovan, head of the O.S.S. in World War II.

Paris Post No. 1 of the American Legion has always been one of the most active units. It has its headquarters in a five-story building in the Champs Elysees district.

Built as a memorial to Gen. John J. Pershing, American World War I commander in chief, it is considered American soil and enjoys the status of an embassy. APD

QUEUILLE GIVEN CONFIDENCE VOTE

J. PYAM

PARIS, March 15. — (AP) Premier Henri Queuille's coalition cabinet scored a one-two-three victory today over the communists and De Gaullists in the National Assembly today.

In three rapid-fire ballots, the government won wide margins of support. The immediate issue was its Indochina policy, based on returning former Emperor Bao Dai to the throne of Annam and the grant of some self-government rights to the colony of Cochin-China.

The tests came less than a week before the nationwide cantonal (county) elections. The balloting next week will be watched as an index to the popular feeling toward the current middle-of-the-road cabinet.

The key vote came on a motion of censure by the rightist followers of Gen. Charles De Gaulle against Queuille for dodging a general debate on Indochina. If successful, the motion would have forced Queuille's resignation. It was defeated, 350 to 228.

This ballot was the first time in the history of the fourth republic that the assembly had been confronted with a motion of censure. To pass, such a motion must muster an absolute majority—311 votes—of the assembly's total membership. APD

PARIS REGIME WINS 3 VOTES

Coalition Cabinet Gains Wide Margins In Assembly

Italian strike against alliance link abandoned ..... Page 6

Paris, March 15 (AP)—Premier Henri Queuille's coalition Cabinet scored three times today over the Communists and de Gaullists in the National Assembly.

In three rapid-fire ballots, the Government won wide margins of support. The immediate issue was its Indo-China policy, based on returning former Emperor Bao Dai to the throne of Annam and granting some self-government rights to the colony of Cochin-China.

The key vote came on a motion of censure by the rightist followers of Gen. Charles de Gaulle against Queuille for dodging a general debate on Indo-China. If successful, the motion would have forced Queuille's resignation. It was defeated, 350 to 228.

First Censure Motion

This ballot was the first time in the history of the Fourth Republic that the Assembly had been confronted with a motion of censure. To pass, such a motion must muster an absolute majority—311 votes—of the Assembly's total membership.

United in their desire to unseat Queuille, the Communists and de Gaullists shelved their animosity and joined forces behind the motion. After it was rejected, Jacques Duclos, Communist floor leader, promptly filed a Communist motion of censure.

The Government countered with a demand that a vote on the Duclos motion be delayed until November 9. The motion to delay was adopted, 378 to 183, with most of the de Gaullists abstaining.

Rejects Move To Extend Debate

Earlier, the Assembly rejected, 402 to 196, a move by Duclos to extend debate on the original censure motion and bring in a general discussion of governmental policy.

Queuille was in a fighting mood as he faced the attack. He said the Socialists, the politically moderate Radical-Socialists and the Catholic Popular Republicans of his Government were succeeding in putting the country back on its economic feet.

Clay Seeking Speed At Bonn

MAR 15 1949

Frankfurt, Germany, March 15 (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay observed his second anniversary as United States commander in Germany tonight by hinting that the west Germans should get on with their task of forming a government.

A German reporter asked him: Is it urgent that the constitutional assembly at Bonn complete its work, or should it wait until the Western Allies announce an occupation statute or interim peace treaty?

Clay replied it was up to the Germans to decide how urgently they wanted to assume responsibilities.

Political Progress

Asked by an American to comment on his two years as military governor, Clay said the economic outlook is brighter than it was two years ago, and "considerable progress" has been made toward establishing a political structure.

Clay was asked to comment on a French proposal for changing French-American zonal boundary lines. Under the plan all of Baden would be in the French zone and all of Wuerttemberg in the American zone. Both are bisected now by the French-American zonal border.

Favor Trizonal Fusion

"We would be very favorable to a reunited Baden and a reunited Wuerttemberg," he said. "We also would be favorable to a united Wuerttemberg-Baden. We are favorable to trizonal fusion. We hope trizonal fusion would mean trizonal government and that unilateral government would disappear."

To a question of whether "secret plans" were afoot to make Germany a major shipbuilding nation, Clay said there was nothing more difficult to keep secret than a shipyard.

He said, however, the question of Germany's "prohibited and restricted" industries was being discussed at governmental levels.

East-West Accord Move Stirs Reich

Frankfurt, Germany, March 15 (AP)—A plan of some fifteen influential Germans to take the lead in solving East-West differences had western Germany's top political and industrial leaders in a dither today.

The originators of the plan are busy now denying they are tools in a Communist plot to unify Germany under Russian domination.

It started last Sunday when the group met at the home of Dr. Andreas Hermes, pre-Hitler Minister of Food, and talked with Rudolph Nadolny, a 75-year-old Prussian who once was Ambssador to Moscow. Nadolny now lives in the Russian zone, but for several months he had been visiting his daughter in the Ruhr, which is in the British zone.

Nadolny has been trying, unsuccessfully, to interest German politicians and industrialists in his ideas for rebuilding a strong and united Germany.

"Some of his theories are mighty helpful to the Russians, but we don't believe he is a Russian agent," said a high United States diplomatic observer. APD

German Woman Sentenced As Spy

Munich, March 15 (AP)—A German housewife was sentenced today to three years in prison upon conviction of spying for a foreign power.

She was Mrs. Elfriede Zierlik, 34, who was accused of having worked for the Czechoslovak intelligence service. She told the court, a United States military commission, she had made illegal border crossings into Czechoslovakia to get food for her son, 7.

In an unsworn statement, which she read between nervous gulps, she said she had been helped across the border by a Capt. Ivan Janda. She said he was very kind to her and, on at least one occasion, "very affectionate."

Later, she said, he asked her about infantry patches worn by soldiers in the United States zone and other things.

Janda's name appeared in a preceding trial when a young woman defendant said he had used her love for him to trick her into espionage work.

Mrs. Zierlik told the commission that she, a Sudeten German expelled by Czechoslovakia, "never would become an agent for a country which took away everything I ever had."

Polish Comedy Spoofs Red Government

Warsaw, Poland, March 15 (AP)—Poles are laughing openly at their Communist-led Government.

They sit in a theater to do it because a young man named Jerzy Jurandot has turned out the nation's best postwar semi-musical comedy called "Nowe Prorzadki." It means "The New Order." It's now playing the newly built Syrena Theater in Warsaw.

Acting as his own master of ceremonies, Jurandot, with marionettes, portrays vividly the characteristics and statements of leading Government personalities.

These include Premier Jozef Cyrankiewicz, Hilary Minc, minister of industry and trade; Konstanty Dabrowski, minister of finance, and Zygmunt Modzelewski, minister of foreign affairs.

Jurandot keeps his audience laughing out loud by "interviewing" the marionettes on all the things Poles talk about—wages, meat shortages, the international situation and internal politics. He also cleverly lambasts the Government's tax system, of which Poles continually complain.

Poles to Execute Nazi Commander

Warsaw, March 15 (A. P.).—A district court at Wabrzezno in western Poland today sentenced Heinz Wilhelm Borrman, former Nazi S. S. commandant, to death for war crimes. He had been extradited from the British zone in Germany.

Poles Rebuilding Port

Swinouiscie, Poland, March 15 (AP)—Poles are building Nazi Germany's famed submarine base of Swinemunde into a great hub for east-west traffic.

The Government intends to spend $675,000 this year in rebuilding this war-damaged port and expanding facilities for handling trade.

Italian Minister Resigns

Arrested Priest Had Papal Note To Bishops

Vatican City, March 15 (AP)—The Vatican radio said today a Jesuit priest, reported arrested by Hungarian police while returning to his country from Vatican City last January, had been carrying a papal message to Hungary's bishops.

The English language broadcast said the letter, written after the arrest of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, was seized together with other papers found on Father Emerico Moczy, a Hungarian Jesuit. The broadcast said Father Moczy has not been heard from since his arrest.

YUGOS BAR U. S. FILMS

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, March 15—(AP) Yugoslavia refused tonight to permit the United States Information Service to present two documentary films portraying American progress in rural electrification.

Six hours before the scheduled exhibit, the Yugoslav ministry of foreign affairs notified the American Embassy of the ban, but volunteered no specific reason for its imposition.

Saint Moritz 'Snow Bomb' Hardly A Hit

St. Moritz, Switzerland, March 15 (AP)—Swiss hotelkeepers have learned how to make "snow bombs"—but they need a bombsight badly.

A hotel owner here who will do almost anything for a guest, decided to provide snow for visitors who were stubbing their skis on Alpine rocks.

Three attempts to adopt the American method of making snow by dropping dry ice into a cloud failed because of lack of clouds.

On the fourth try, a big fat cloud came along in time. Hotel men watched with field glasses as the dry ice was thrown out over a wide area above the cloud.

A light snow drifted down. But not over St. Moritz. It fell to the north—over the ski runs of Davos—bitter rivals of St. Moritz.

TITO INCREASES BORDER TROOPS

MAR 15 1949

TRIESTE, March 15—(AP) Travellers arriving from Yugoslavia today said "explosions" heard on Yugoslav territory here last night was due to firing of weapons in troop maneuvers.

The travellers said Yugoslav garrisons had been reinforced at Istria and border controls stiffened between Yugoslavia and the Yugoslav-controlled zone of the Trieste free territory.

Meanwhile the conservative newspaper Ultimissime reported that Premier Marshal Tito will soon meet "some western world personalities in view of the internal situation of Yugoslavia."

Tito's communist regime in Yugoslavia has been under severe criticism from the Soviet Union and the other communist-led countries of eastern Europe. Tito has charged the eastern states with hindering Yugoslavia economically.

The Trieste newspaper's story coincided with reports from diplomatic and intelligence sources in Istanbul that "something may be about to pop" in Yugoslavia. One source, who could not be identified, expressed the belief overthrow of Tito was imminent.

The Italian news agency Astra said the internal situation in Yugoslavia is "particularly delicate in Macedonia, where Bulgarian and Macedonian communists faithful to the cominform continue to push an active propaganda campaign against the Belgrade government."

Crisis Reported Facing Tito In Yugoslavia

MAR 15 1949

E CHRON WIRE

Istanbul, Turkey, March 15 (AP)—Diplomatic and intelligence sources said tonight something may be about to pop in Yugoslavia.

One source who cannot be identified said he believes an attempt to overthrow Premier-Marshal Tito is imminent. He said that in any case, Tito faces his greatest test this spring.

Purges Reported

Refugees arriving here recently from Yugoslavia said the Cominform — Communist International Information Bureau—is intensifying pressure on Yugoslavia. Tito is in the Cominform doghouse as a strayer from the tenets of Russian communism.

Some of these sources say Bulgarian and Romanian forces are closing in along the Yugoslavia frontier, while Tito is reported to be drawing up some seven divisions along the Albanian and Macedonian borders.

It is said that Tito is aware of an impending danger and because of this has purged his administration of all suspected elements, purged the army of 3,000 officers, formed four military high commands at Novi Sad, Nish, Zagreb and Sarajevo, to centralize control of the army, and, finally, regrouped the army to safeguard dangerous frontiers.

Reprieve Asked For Greek Writer

London, March 15 (AP)—Leading British newsmen appealed today to Greek Premier Themistokles Sophoulis to spare Manolis Glezos, Greek journalist, under death sentence for allegedly deserting to the Greek rebel cause.

The appeal, which followed a similar message yesterday from the Danish Journalists Board, asked for a reprieve in view of Glezos's record in the resistance movement during the Nazi occupation.

Greece Pledges Justice In Reporter's Case

Athens, March 15 (AP)—George Melas, Justice Minister, said tonight he would do all in his power to see that the case of Manolis Glezos, Greek newspaperman, "is properly dealt with in a spirit of justice."

Glezos was sentenced to death by a military court for allegedly deserting to the Greek rebel cause.

Leading British newsmen and the Danish Journalists' board have asked Premier Themistokles Sophoulis to grant Glezos a reprieve in view of his record in the resistance movement during the Nazi occupation.

Similar action was taken tonight by the United Nations correspondents Association at Lake Success, N.Y. A cable sent to Melas said the death sentence "may have adverse effect on public opinion generally."

BUNCHE STUDIES AQABA SITUATION

RHODES, March 15 (AP)—Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, still awaiting a first hand report on the Aqaba situation in the south, ordered today a substantial increase in the United Nations observer staff in the north of Palestine.

Israeli reports of new incidents in the Syrian-held territory near the Lebanon-Palestine frontier prompted the U.N. mediator to issue the order. The Syrians have not yet replied to Bunche's invitation to join in armistice talks such as Israel and Trans-Jordan are conducting here.

The military situation on the Gulf of Aqaba, where Israeli troops have occupied a coastal strip of the Negev desert between Trans-Jordan and Egypt, remained obscure.

Plane trouble held up Paul Mohne, U. S. representative who is on his way to Rhodes with a detailed report from observers around Aqaba, Trans-Jordan's British-garrisoned outlet to the Red Sea. Mohne was grounded at Amman. His regular post is in Tel Aviv.

Lebanese and Israeli delegations exchanged views on armistice lines in their fifth meeting at Ras-en-Nakura Tuesday. Israeli sources said their delegation contended that the question of Israel's northern frontier must be regarded as indivisible, and that no agreement on parts of the frontier can be effective unless terms are agreed upon for the other parts. The delegations will hold their next meeting March 23.

Trans-Jordan's premier, Tawfik Pasha Abd El-Huda, told newsmen in Amman "Jews have challenged the security council once more in their advance and occupation of Umm Resh Resh (A Negev coastal village near Trans-Jordan's frontier) and the Palestine Red Sea coast."

"The Jews are claiming that they have advanced in territory given them by a United Nations resolution (the 1947 partition plan) which has not yet been changed," he said. "Whatever the case may be, security council orders are clear that everybody should stay where he is and not take advantage of maintaining new strategical positions."

The premier said he regretted the security council had not taken what he caller "practical measures" to enforce its orders.

He said "Trans-Jordan would welcome a plebiscite in Palestine if such a decision is ever taken by the United Nations." Some Palestinian Arab leaders recently suggested that King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan expand his kingdom to include Arab Palestine.

The premier said the only reason British troops did not intervene during the Israeli movement south in the Negev last week was "because the Jews have not intentionally crossed Trans-Jordan's borders."

Palestine Plebiscite Acceptable To Ammar

Amman, Trans-Jordan, March 15 (AP)—The Premier of Trans-Jordan suggested today "Trans-Jordan would welcome a plebiscite in Palestine if such a decision will ever be taken by the United Nations."

The Premier, Tawfik Pasha Abd el-Huda, said "we have taken the responsibility" of speaking on behalf of the people of Palestine "not on the basis of occupation but on the basis of their willingness, expressed in a variety of conferences held all over Palestine."

Original Proposal

The Premier said that for Arab Palestine "unification with another Arab state is vital," and the only logical state for this purpose is Trans-Jordan.

Alone, he said, the Arabs "recognize quite well they are unable to establish a sufficiently powerful independent state which can withstand confronting the Jews."

The original United Nations plan of partition for Palestine called for independent Jewish and Arab states.

The Premier accused Israel of violating United Nations orders by occupying Umm Resh Resh and the Palestine Red Sea coast opposite the Trans-Jordan port of Aqaba. He said the only reason the British garrison at Aqaba did not intervene was because the Israeli troops did not intentionally enter Trans-Jordan soil.

Britons Regain Control Of Haifa Oil Refinery

Haifa, Palestine, March 15 (AP)—British management of Consolidated Oil Refineries, Ltd., was resumed here today. An Israeli caretaker management had been in charge since British evacution of Palestine last year.

[A previous Associated Press dispatch from Haifa dated March 6 announced the arrival from Cyprus of J. W. Dix, British manager of the refineries. That dispatch was held up by Israeli government censorship until today.]

It was learned the refinery plant and machinery will be overhauled and repaired speedily and production resumed within six weeks. Operations had been shut down since the evacuation.

Arabs May Get Added Funds, London Says

MAR 15 1949

London, March 15 (AP)—A responsible diplomatic informant said today Britain has increased her annual payment to Trans-Jordan for equipping and maintaining the Arab Legion.

The 1946 treaty of alliance between Britain and Trans-Jordan provides that the two countries will jointly determine the size of the subsidy. Since 1946, it has been about $8,000,000 annually.

Reason for the reported increase presumably is the strain placed upon Trans-Jordan's resources since last May by Jewish-Arab fighting in Palestine. The size of the increase was not reported.

The Foreign Office declined to confirm or deny the report. Other reasons for an increase might be the cost to Trans-Jordan of administering a big part of Arab Palestine, and cost of maintaining British forces at Aqaba on the Red Sea, which falls on King Abdullah's Government. British troops have been there since January.

Burma Premier Asks Rebel Tribes To Lay Down Arms

Rangoon, Burma, March 15 (AP)—Premier Thakin Nu appealed by radio tonight for the rebelling Karen tribesmen to lay down their arms.

He spoke as "an ordinary citizen desiring peace" only a day after the Karens captured Mandalay and the hard pressed Government offered them an autonomous state within the Burma Union.

"Hear me and join the Burmese in a concerted effort to make Burma prosperous," the Premier said. He said this is possible only if peace is restored. Thakin Nu went on to declare the Government offered amnesty to the Karens because it wanted to see Burma peaceful again.

If the 17,000,000 people of Burma continue to fight among themselves, the country will revert to servitude against which the Karens and Burmese struggled jointly, he said. Burma cut loose from the British Commonwealth last year and has been beset by rebellions ever since.

"I appeal to you as one who has at heart the achievement of national unity: Let bygones be bygones." Thakin Nu said, "do not be embittered."

FORMOSA BASE CALLED U.S. AIM

Chinese Reds Say It Would Be Under MacArthur

S TCH 16

Nanking, China, March 15 (AP)—The Chinese Communists asserted today the United States plans to convert Formosa into a base under Gen. Douglas MacArthur's command.

A broadcast from North China heard in Nanking said the United States want the big island province off China's southeast coast as a springboard for a continental invasion.

It boasted that Formosa soon would be "liberated." That is the Communists' way of saying they will capture it.

The radio said "the American National Security Council" had recommended the United States obtain both Formosa and Hainan, an island off the south China coast, as bases.

Tokyo Parley Charged

The broadcast alleged United States Economic Co-operation Administration officials were trying to bring Formosa under MacArthur's jurisdiction and that MacArthur had sent representatives to prepare for a United States occupation.

It said Gen. Sun Li-jen, who directs the Government's troop training program on Formosa, conferred February 2 with MacArthur in Tokyo. It also noted the recent visit to Formosa of Vice Admiral Oscar C. Badger, commander of the United States Western Pacific Fleet.

[The Chinese Government has been converting Formosa into a fortress. It would be by the Government's last refuge should the Communists overrun all China.

Used By Japanese

[MacArthur denied in January a Hong Kong newspaper report that he had sent agents to Formosa to "engage in activities."

[However, the Associated Press in Tokyo reported this week that "United States military leaders" were watching Formosa closely for Communist infiltration.

[Formosa has great strategic value. It lies across the shipping lanes from southeast Asia and the Philippines to Japan. The Japanese used it as an airbase in their conquest of the Philippines.]

Meanwhile, the March 15 date which former Premier Sun Fo had set as a probable time for opening of peace talks with the Communists, arrived with no definite peace move in sight.

The new Premier, Gen. Ho Ying-Chin, still is trying to select a "peace cabinet" to deal with the Communists.

He arrived from Shanghai, where he reportedly had little luck trying to line up minority parties for his Cabinet. ADD

Ho Having Trouble Filling Cabinet

Nanking, March 15 (A. P.).—Gen. Ho Ying-Chin, new Chinese Premier, returned here today from Shanghai where he reportedly tried to interest high Chinese in becoming members of his Cabinet. Apparently Ho, whose job is to form a "peace Cabinet," is encountering difficulties in finding men willing to serve.

Meanwhile, the Democratic League, China's leading anti-Nationalist party, has moved its headquarters from Hongkong to Communist-held Peiping, the Red radio said.

Reds May Be Seeking Uranium In China

Shanghai, March 15 (AP)—Russia may hope to get uranium from China's far western province of Sinkiang, some Shanghai observers say.

Talks between the Chinese and Russians have been under way at Tihwa, Sinkiang capital.

The outcome of the discussions has not been revealed, but it has been suggested in some quarters here that the Russians are seeking exclusive mining, trade and aviation rights in Sinkiang.

The Russians drafted a proposed treaty, some sources say, giving them unlimited rights to explore Sinkiang's mining regions, and to export to the Soviet Union minerals which cannot be used in Sinkiang.

Pope Offers Prayers For Welfare Of China

Vatican City, March 15 (AP)—Pope Pius XII has told China's minister to the Holy See, Wu Ching-hsiung, that he offers constant prayer for the well-being of China, "now passing through great trials and tribulations," the Vatican radio said today.

The Pope's message was delivered to the minister together with the Pontiff's congratulations for Ching-hsiung's recent translation of the New Testament into Chinese.

Plane Spots B-29 Lost 2 Weeks

Manila, March 15 (AP)—The wreck of a missing Superfort tanker plane was seen from the air today on a mountainside 25 miles from Manila, but ground rescue teams have not been able to reach it.

Search planes spotted the wreckage, but saw no sign of life around it. The B-29 had been missing with a crew of nine since March 1, when it refueled the nonstop, globe-girdling B-50 Lucky Lady II and failed to return from its mission.

Rammed Mountain

The B-29 rammed into 4,600-foot Mount Irid in the Sierra Madre Range on its way back to Clark Field.

The region is sparsely populated and only narrow trails thread through the mountains. Helicopters may try to set down near the wreckage, which is about 10 feet from the mountaintop.

Aboard the plane was Lieut. Col. Jack Stuart Hunt, assistant chief of staff for operations of Clark Field's United States Air Force 18th Fighter Wing. The plane was based at Tucson, Ariz.

Bodies Of 2 U.S. Airmen Found On Mount Irid

Manila, Wednesday, March 16 (AP)—Bodies of two American airmen, whose plane crashed while searching for a B-29 tanker plane, were found today. Wreckage of the tanker, which disappeared with nine aboard after refueling the world-girdling Lucky Lady II March 1, was sighted yesterday near the top of Mount Irid.

A ground party found the bodies of the two officers who were from the United States Air Force base at Clark Field. Their L-5 liaison plane crashed and exploded Monday 30 miles northeast of Baguio in the wild Cordillera mountains. Identification of the men was withheld.

Meanwhile, USAF officials planned to try to reach the B-29's wreckage by helicopter. No sign of life was seen around the big superfortress.

Philippines Get Installations.

Manila, March 15 (A. P.).—The United States Army today turned over to the Philippine Republic historic Fort Santiago and a score of other installations in Manila, valued at $1,640,000.

15,000 Killed In Year On Island

MAR 15 1949

Seoul, March 15 (AP)—A delegation from Cheju Island today told the Korean Government of the slaughter of 15,000 persons in a year's guerrilla warfare on the island.

The delegation estimated that 65,000 were homeless and 295 of the isle's 400 villages had been destroyed.

Immediate relief for the mountainous island 40 miles off Korea's south shore was asked.

Army Protection Sought

The delegation said a third of the island's 300,000 population had gathered in Cheju City under the protection of an army regiment.

Most of the soldiers, however, were reported in the crags mountains seeking 500 armed agitators and 15,000 additional active sympathizers.

Police guarded the remaining coastal towns.

Life in the Communist-ridden island was described as primitive by Austin Sweeney, Catholic missionary. In a letter to a friend in Seoul, Sweeney said some islanders were living like animals, getting only one sweet potato a day to eat.

Each Village Guarded

"Every town and village around the coast (there are no hill villages left) has its own wall manned by soldiers, police and youth organizations," Sweeney wrote.

He said comparative safety was enjoyed by these folks, but there was no travel between villages and towns.

Communists found the island a fertile ground because of the natives' distrust of mainlanders.

Home Minister Sihn Seung Mo is inspecting the Cheju situation. His report probably will determine future relief action by the fledgling Korean Republic Government.

Further Jap War Plot Trials Ruled Out By 11-Nation Unit

Washington, March 15 (AP)—The eleven-nation Far Eastern Commission today ruled out any further trials of Japan's former leaders for waging or plotting aggressive warfare.

In a formal policy directive to Gen. Douglas MacArthur, the commission held that the hanging of former Premier Hideki Tojo and six other leaders last December 23 ended the prosecution of so-called Class A war criminals.

Japanese may still be tried, however, for violation of "Class B" and "C" crimes which contravene the laws of war and for such crimes against humanity as murder and enslavement.

The commission sent the new directive to MacArthur as supreme allied commander after revising its wartime rules at a closed-door meeting February 24.

The action was announced today without explanation other than a review of the prosecution of Tojo and the other Japanese leaders.

The wartime Premier and 27 other political and military figures were on trial for nearly two and one-half years. Two died and one was adjudged mentally incompetent. The remaining 25 were all found guilty by a military tribunal and given sentences ranging from 7 years imprisonment to hanging.

Jap Group to Scan Investment Plans

Tokyo, March 15 (A. P.).—The Japanese Government announced today creation of a nine-member commission to carry out Gen. MacArthur's new program for stimulating foreign investments.

The Government announcement also officially disclosed the new program which the supreme commander's headquarters outlined three weeks ago. It permits certain approved purchases of stock and property by foreign nations.

The Japanese commission will screen all investment applications and determine whether they are "advisable" before passing them on to MacArthur's headquarters for final approval.

Supreme Soviet Stamps Its Approval on Latest Shake-ups.

MAR 15 1949

INCREASED BUDGET IS PASSED

No Public Explanation Given for Continuing Realignment as Parliament Adjourns.

Moscow, March 15 (A. P.).—New ramifications in the shakeup of Soviet Russia's high command were revealed and approved at closing sessions last night of the Supreme Soviet, national parliamentary body.

The shifts extended into the presidium of the Supreme Soviet, which serves as the interim national executive body when the Supreme Soviet is not in session. Nikifor Natalevich and Georgi Sturua were relieved as presidium vice-presidents, and replaced by Vasily Kozlov and Vasily Gogla. Kozlov was provoted from chairman of the presidium of the Supreme Soviet, White Russian republic, and Gogla from chairman of the presidium of the Georgian republic.

Budget Approved.

The 1949 budget, calling for military expenditures of 79,000,000,000 rubles ($15,000,000,000), was also approved by the Supreme Soviet. The figure is nearly 20 per cent higher than for 1948, providing for expenditures of 415,355,000,000 rubles for all purposes, compared with revenues of 455,208,000,000 rubles. The 1948 expenditure was 368,800,000,000 rubles with revenues announced at 408,400,000,000 rubles.

The reasons behind the shifts remained secret. The supreme Soviet confirmed the changes, but adjourned without a public explanation of their significance. The appointment of a new chairman of the State Planning Commission and a new president of the Supreme Co[illegible]t of the U. S. S. R. were also announced and confirmed. ADD

Further Shifts Announced In Moscow

MAR 15 1949

Moscow, March 15 (AP)—New shifts in the Soviet high command were revealed and approved at the closing session last night of the Supreme Soviet, national parliamentary body.

The shakeup extended into the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet, the interim national executive body when the Supreme Soviet is not in session. Nikifor Natalevich and Georgi Sturua were relieved as vice presidents of the Presidium and replaced by Vasily Kozlov and Vasily Gogla.

Military Budget High

Kozlov was promoted from chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the White Russian Republic, and Gogla from chairman of the Presidium of the Georgian Republic.

The 1949 budget, calling for military expenditures of 79,000,000,000 rubles ($15,000,000,000) was also approved by the Supreme Soviet. The figure is nearly twenty per cent higher than for 1948.

The budget provides for expenditures of 415,355,000,000 rubles for all purposes, compared with revenues of 455,208,000,000 rubles. The 1948 all-purpose expenditure figure was 368,800,000,000 rubles with revenues announced at 408,400,000,000 rubles.

Reasons Are Secret

Reasons for the top-level shifts remained secret.

Nikolai A. Voznesensky was relieved as State Planning Commission chairman and also as a deputy prime minister. He is the youngest member of the Politburo, the Communist party executive. The planning commission has charge of mapping Russia's five-year plans, which form the basis of her economy.

Succeeded By Saburov

Maxim Z. Saburov, vice chairman of the planning commission and one of a dozen deputy prime ministers, succeeds Voznesensky. He was chairman during the war.

Another change relieved Ivan T. Golyakov as president of the Supreme Court of the U.S.S.R., naming A. A. Volin to succeed him.

In another action, the Supreme Soviet approved the appointment of A. I. Efremov as deputy chairman of the Council of Ministers, and his release from his duties as Minister of the Machine-Tool Industry.

Russ 'Hoover Plan' Seen In Shakeup

Washington, March 15 (AP)—The newest Moscow shuffle appears to support American belief that Russia is putting into effect a Soviet "Hoover plan."

Three members of the all-powerful eleven-man Politburo have now been freed of administrative duties, Moscow has announced.

That is along the lines the Hoover Commission on reorganization of the United States Government has proposed for Secretary of State Acheson and Under Secretary James E. Webb. It said that they are kept so busy they have too little time for "thoughtful and considerate reflection" on American policies.

Better Advice Sought

The Hoover Commission recommended also that arrangements be made to give President Truman better advice on the top-level decisions which he has to make on relations with other countries. Moscow has yet to say anything about plans to improve the brand of advice given Premier Stalin by the Politburo.

American diplomatic officials are fairly well convinced Russia's immediate aim is to tighten the efficiency of the top-heavy Soviet regime. They are speculating on what else lies behind the shakeup. Washington, along with other Western capitals, has been guessing ever since Moscow unexpectedly announced on March 4 that V. M. Molotov has been relieved as Foreign Minister. Guesses range from a turn toward isolationism to a new war scare. ADD

Foreign Minister said he used to be a journalist himself in the old days at Baku.

Guests of honor at the reception were a delegation from the North Korean government, now visiting here. The invitations read that the Foreign Minister and Madame Vishinsky "invite you."

In Ministry Uniform

Dressed in his gray foreign ministry uniform, Vishinsky greeted the guests. Receiving with him were V. A. Zorin, Deputy Foreign Minister Madame Zorin and F. Molochkov, chief of protocol for the ministry.

Government representatives of the United States, Britain, France and other Western nations stationed in Moscow were not present. They were not invited because they have no diplomatic relations with the North Korean Government. However, members of the foreign press were invited.

Lomakin stood by as Vishinsky held a jovial conversation with the foreign newsmen.

Vishinsky, addressing Lomakin, remarked:

"Wherever I see Mr. Lomakin, I see the foreign press."

[The United States Government ordered Lomakin to leave the United States last August 20. The State Department charged the Russian Consul-General had misinformed his own government, sought to mislead the American people, and otherwise "abused" his official position.

The charges grew out of the case of Mrs. Oksana Kasenkina, Russian school teacher, who a week before had jumped from a window of the Soviet consular building in New York, seriously injuring herself. Police quoted her as saying she had been held a prisoner.]

Charges U.S. Censorship

When the newsmen introduced the question of censorship, Lomakin said there are at least three censorships in the United States. He listed them as:

1. Postal.
2. Business.
3. State Department.

Lomakin recalled he had once been a newsman in the United States and said he never got to see an American official. He added that correspondents for Tass, the official Soviet news agency, never see United States officials.

[Tass correspondents are free to move anywhere in the United States to do their reporting, while the movements of American correspondents in Russia are greatly restricted. Tass correspondents also attend news conferences held by United States officials in Washington.]

Compares Services

Lomakin remarked that in New York Tass receives the various news services and also American newspapers. He said foreign correspondents in Moscow receive Tass and any Russian papers they want.

One newsman observed that the Tass Washington correspondent attends White House news conferences.

"Yes," Lomakin replied. "There is the biggest propaganda in the world."

He said foreign correspondents in the Soviet Union are invited to diplomatic receptions such as the one tonight and that they are free to talk to officials. ADD

U.S. Acts To Restrict Shipments To Russia

Washington, March 15 (AP) — Charles Sawyer, Secretary of Commerce, disclosed tonight the United States is tightening its export controls to prevent any reshipment of war potential goods to Russia from western European buyers.

A year ago this country banned direct shipments of such goods to the Soviet Union and its satellites.

In a report on his department's handling of export licenses, Sawyer said:

"Action is currently being taken to review more closely proposed exports to western Europe of strategic commodities and equipment, the export of which to eastern Europe is severely restricted."

Sawyer did not indicate what new measures were being taken, but other officials indicated that this country is making double-checks overseas to make sure that no Marshall-plan country let any strategic goods slip through the iron curtain.

Storm Delays Transfer Of Lend-Lease Vessel

Lewes, Del., March 15 (AP)—A storm today brought a 24-to-48-hour postponement of the official transfer of the cruiser Milwaukee to the United States Navy. The ship had been loaned during the war to the Russian Navy.

The storm blew up when some American and some Soviet crewmen were aboard the warship which has fought under the flags of both nations.

The vessel was lend-leased to Russia in 1944. She was renamed the Murmansk and was assigned to convoy and patrol duty along the North Atlantic supply lines.

Ten days ago the 28-year-old 7,050-ton cruiser returned to United States waters, manned by a Russian crew of 364. Since then the transfer has been delayed several times while repairs were being made to the Soviet transport Molotov, which accompanied the Milwaukee and will return the Russian crew. ADD

Pro-Russ West Reds Hailed By Cominform

L. KIRSCHTEN

MAR 15 1949

Bucharest, Romania, March 15 (AP)—The full weight of the Cominform propaganda machine today swung to the support of Communist leaders around the world who have declared they would side with Russia in the event of an East-West war.

The Journal of the Cominform Communist International Information Bureau declared that the U.S.S.R. would never start an aggressive war. It charged that the United States is preparing to do so.

Reaction Comment

Commenting on the reaction in Western countries to the statements of Communist leaders in those countries that their loyalties are with Russia, the Journal said:

"If they (the United States and the Western powers) are not preparing an aggressive war against the Soviet Union and the people's democracies, then why the consternation in their camp?

"Why are they so shaken by the statements of the Communist parties, which declare on behalf of the masses that an aggressive war would not be supported?"

Charges Repeated

Today's editorial was backed by several pages of statements and articles by national Communist leaders repeating the declarations of support for Russia.

The Journal also repeated charges made time and again by the Russians that the United States is blocking peace and building war bases.

The Journal carried a review of a book of American diplomats printed in Russia and credited to Annabella Bucar, former United States Embassy employé.

The reviewer, Ian Marek, charged "the entire United States Embassy in the Soviet Union, headed by Ambassador (Walter Bedell) Smith, is an espionage organization."

He declared the United States State Department is the chief "organizer of espionage secret services abroad under the guise of embassy diplomatic missions."

Grandi Reported On Argentine Visit

Buenos Aires, March 15 (A. P.)—The newspaper Clarin said today that Dino Grandi, Mussolini's pre-war Foreign Minister, arrived here recently under an assumed name. Clarin said that one of its staff interviewed Grandi when he landed.

It said that Grandi used the name Domenico Galli and refused to disclose the purpose of his visit. The paper speculated that Grandi might be here to pave the way for a visit by ex-King Humbert of Italy.

14 Nations Study Colonies In America

Havana, March 15 (AP)—A conference of fourteen Latin-American nations opened here today to study means of removing European control of Western Hemisphere colonies.

Colonies under discussion are owned by the British, French and Dutch.

Represented at the parley, created by the Pan-American Conference in Bogota last year, are Argentina, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Ecuador, El Salvador, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Mexico, Panama, Paraguay, Peru and Venezuela.

U.S. Declines Bid

The United States, Brazil and Chile declined to send delegates. The United States said it doubted the purposes of the parley could be achieved without running counter to inter-American agreements or the United Nations Charter.

Chief problems to be discussed are British Honduras, claimed by both Guatemala and Mexico; the Falkland Islands, occupied by Britain, but disputed by Argentina, and certain Antarctic areas which Britain, Argentina and Chile all claim.

Enrique Corominas, of Argentina, president of the council of the Organization of American States, presided at the opening session.

Seeks "Peaceful Solution"

Corominas said the conference seeks "a peaceful solution" to the colony problem. He assured European nations the conference will be in line with "the seriousness and respect for rights" which the Americas always have adopted.

Carlos Hevia, Cuban Minister of State, told the conference his country is worried by the existence of colonies in the Western Hemisphere because some of the homelands might fall under Communist domination.

Jorge Garcia Granados, Guatemalan delegate, declared his Government would renew its claim to British Honduras and also would take up the case "of all colonies which desire to be independent."

Cuban Opens Colony Talks

MAR 15 1949

Havana, March 15 (AP)—Carlos Hevia, Cuban Minister of State, opened a thirteen-nation Latin American conference here today with a declaration that the old Colonial system "is doomed to liquidation."

The conference is studying the problem of eliminating European-owned colonies in the Americas. Directly affected are colonies owned by Britain, France and the Netherlands.

If Asia and Africa "in repelling this system have achieved notable conquests," Hevia said, the Americas, with their liberty and democratic roots cannot do less.

Venezuela Not Included

The thirteen nations represented do not include Venezuela, which was among the original sponsors. Venezuela's representative did not appear because Cuba has not recognized the new regime at Caracas.

The United States, Brazil and Chile declined to send delegates. The United States position is that objectives of the parley hardly could be achieved without tangling with inter-American agreements or the United Nations Charter.

Represented are Argentina, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Ecuador, El Salvador, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Mexico, Panama, Paraguay and Peru.

Claims On Honduras

The conference will take up the claims of Guatemala and Mexico to British Honduras. It also will tackle the problems of the Falkland Islands, where British claims are disputed by Argentina, and certain Antarctic areas which Britain, Argentina and Chile all claim.

Enrique Corominas, of Argentina, presiding officer, said the conference seeks a peaceful solution of the century-old colony question. He assured European nations involved that any decisions of the conference will be in line with the "seriousness and respect for rights" which the Americas always have adopted.

Canada To Increase Budget For Defense

Ottawa, March 15 (AP)—Canada will increase her defense spending by one half, according to an estimate presented to Parliament yesterday. New budget figures call for $375,000,000 for defense, compared with $251,000,000 last year.

Finance Minister Douglas Abbott told Parliament the increased spending was made necessary by "the same dangers which have led to the proposed North Atlantic pact."

The total Canadian budget estimate made public was $2,217,678,181—an increase of $27,114,699 over last year.

RUSSIAN TURNS DOWN COUNSEL

Rejects Aid, Refuses To Enter Plea In Spy Case

New York, March 15 (AP)—A Soviet engineer indicted on espionage charges refused to answer when asked to plead in Federal court today.

The judge ordered a plea of innocent entered for him.

The engineer, Valentin A. Gubitchev, 32, suspended United Nations aide, for a third time pleaded diplomatic immunity. He also told Judge Simon H. Rifkind that he refused to be rep[illegible] by counsel.

Calls Case "Provocation"

He said:

"I consider my so-called case . . . as the most flagrant provocation which was started for certain dirty, speculative, political purposes in order to fire the feeling of this country against my country."

He added that "I do not consider myself a criminal."

Yesterday, Gubitchev charged his prosecution was "a comedy" and asked for time to consider whether he would accept the services of Fowler Hamilton, attorney appointed by the court.

His Attorney Released

When the engineer refused Hamilton's services today, Judge Rifkind discharged the attorney as defense counsel. However, the court asked the lawyer to prepare a brief on the court's jurisdiction. Gubitchev has claimed that he has diplomatic immunity and therefore the court had no jurisdiction.

The preliminaries over, the court had the clerk read the first (conspiracy) count of the indictment.

Gubitchev, who previously had used an interpreter, replied in English "I refuse to answer."

"Very well, the defendant stands mute," Judge Rifkind said.

Trial Set April 1

The clerk then read the count which accuses the engineer of an unlawful attempt to receiver information relating to national defense. When there was no audible answer, Judge Rifkind instructed that a plea of innocent be entered.

The court continued Gubitchev's bail of $100,000 and set April 1 for trial. Judith Coplon, 27, Brooklyn-born analyst in the Department of Justice, is at liberty in $20,000 bail for trial on the same date on the same indictment. She pleaded innocent.

Both defendants were indicted on charges of conspiring to pass United States defense and intelligence secrets to a foreign power.

Russ Again Fails To Enter Plea In Spy Case

MAR 15 1949

New York, March 15 (AP)—Valentin A. Gubitchev, Soviet engineer, stood mute in Federal court today when asked to plead to an indictment charging him with espionage. The court ordered a plea of innocent entered in his behalf.

The engineer stuck to his contention that he is diplomatically immune to prosecution. Arraigned again today, Gubitchev announced in English, "I refuse to answer," when the first count of the indictment, charging conspiracy, was read to him.

"Very well, the defendant stands mute," Federal Judge Simon H. Rifkind said.

Then the court clerk read the second count, which accused Gubitchev of an unlawful attempt to receive information relating to national defense from Miss Judith Coplon, 27, Department of Justice analyst.

Enters Innocent Plea

When there was no audible answer from the defendant, Judge Rifkind directed the clerk to enter a plea of innocent.

The court continued the bail of the engineer, a suspended United Nations aide, at $100,000 and fixed April 1 for trial.

Brooklyn-born Miss Coplon previously pleaded innocent to the indictment and was released in $20,000 bail for trial on the same date. Both are charged with conspiring to pass United States defense and intelligence secrets to a foreign power.

Through an interpreter, the engineer repeated his previous attacks on the case, renewed his plea of diplomatic immunity, and said he refused to be represented by counsel because "I do not consider myself a criminal."

"Most Flagrant Provocation"

"I consider my so-called case as provocation," he said, "as the most flagrant provocation which was started for certain dirty, speculative, political purposes in order to fire the feeling of this country against my country."

Judge Rifkind discharged Fowler Hamilton, the lawyer appointed by the court to defend Gubitchev. However, the court asked the attorney as a friend of the court to prepare a brief on the court's jurisdiction in the case.

Communism Jury Picking Near End

New York, March 15 (AP)—The tentative jury in the Communist trial stood eight to three today—eight women and three men—after the seventh day of jury picking.

The defense of the eleven top Communists, charged with conspiracy to advocate forcible overthrow of the Government, had only one of fifteen peremptory challenges left as today's session ended.

Defense lawyers had tried without success to have several prospective jurors challenged "for cause," without using up their peremptory challenges.

The Government had only two peremptory challenges left.

Cause For Bias Noted

As the jury stands now, Juror No. 1, and foreman unless she is removed, is a Negro housewife. One other Negro is among the eight women, seven of whom are housewives.

Also on the tentative jury are a retired salesman, an unemployed industrial engineer and several clerks.

The court excused one juror for cause today. The man, Thomas Murtha, said he was a former commander in the American Legion and a member of the Catholic War Veterans.

Asked if he thought that would make him biased, Murtha replied, "I'm afraid it would."

Veteran Excused As Red Trial Juror

New York, March 15 (AP)—A ticket agent who said his membership in two veterans' groups might give him a biased outlook in the trial of eleven United States Communist leaders was excused from jury service today.

Thomas Murtha, the agent, was dismissed for cause by Federal Judge Harold R. Medina after he had told of active participation in the affairs of the American Legion and Catholic War Veterans.

The Government also exercised one of its peremptory challenges as the slow-moving process of selecting a jury continued.

Woman Excused

The juror challenged and excused was a woman department store worker. United States Attorney John F. X. McGohey said he believed she once had contributed to a union publication.

The defense still has six peremptory challenges left, the prosecution three.

Trial and pretrial proceedings now are in their ninth week. The defendants are charged with conspiracy to advocate forcible overthrow of the Government.

Lawyers' Guild Aide Attacks Non-Red Oath

Washington, March 15 (AP)—A spokesman for the National Lawyers Guild today denounced the Taft-Hartley law requirement for non-Communist oaths from labor leaders. He termed it "notorious, infamous and shocking."

Leonard B. Boudin, of New York city, chairman of the Guild's labor law committee, appeared before the House Labor Committee. He said the non-Communist oath "interferes directly with freedom of belief, of speech and of association."

Refuses To Discuss Reds

Representative Bailey (D., W.Va.) asked whether he agreed with AFL President William Green, who criticized Communists on a recent broadcast. Boudin said he hadn't come to testify about that.

Representative Wint Smith (R., Kan.) said sharply: "You didn't answer Congressman Bailey's question. Do you concur in what Green said about communism?" The witness smilingly declined to say.

Red Chiefs Face Quiz On Loss Of Citizenship

MAR 15 1949

Washington, March 15 (AP)—American Communist leaders will be called on to say publicly whether they think they should lose their citizenship.

This word came today from Representative Walter (D., Pa.), author of a bill to make native-born Communists "stateless" residents of the United States. He said today that top-ranking Communists of the country will be invited to testify later on the measure before a House Immigration subcommittee.

Includes Foster, Dennis

Among those to be called, Walter said, will be William Z. Foster, head of the United States Communist party, and Eugene Dennis, the party's secretary. Dennis is on trial on charges of conspiring to overthrow the United States Government. Foster, 67 and ailing, is to be tried separately on similar charges.

Walter, chairman of the subcommittee which will hold the hearings, said the Justice and State departments also have been asked for their views on the bill.

Communists born in this country would lose their citizenship under his bill. Walter explained, but would not be deported. Naturalized citizens, however, would lose their citizenship and be subject to deportation.

Would Amend 1940 Law

Walter said his bill is based on the theory that a Communist gives his first loyalty to a foreign country, rather than to the United States. He said United States citizens can lose their citizenship now in a number of ways, including voting in a foreign election or taking an oath of allegiance to a foreign country.

Walter's bill would amend the 1940 Nationality Act, and would declare that United States citizens forfeit their citizenship "by participating through membership in a Communist political party."

ARGUMENTS DELAYED ON AXIS SALLY'S PLEA

WASHINGTON, March 15—(AP) Argument on a motion for a new trial for Mildred E. (Axis Sally) Gillars today was put off from March 18 to March 25.

She was convicted here last Thursday on a treason charge by a federal jury.

The one-week postponement was by agreement between prosecuting and defense attorneys and with the concurrence of Federal Judge Edward M. Curran.

If the motion is denied, Judge Curran is expected to fix immediately the punishment of the 48-year-old Miss Gillars for broadcasting for the German radio during the war.

The maximum penalty for treason is death; the minimum five years in prison, a $10,000 fine and loss of citizenship.

4 PUT ON PROBATION IN NAZI LOOT CASE

BOSTON, March 15—(AP) A Boston broker and three ex-army fliers charged with bringing home $600,000 in bonds looted by the Nazis in Holland were placed on probation for two years today in federal court.

They were Wendell M. Weston, a broker for 27 years, Edward R. Ashton of Enfield, Conn., and Seymour Lerner and Gerald A. Rowland of Brooklyn, N. Y.

They were allowed to withdraw pleas of guilty to violation of the trading with the enemy act and enter pleas of nolo contendere.

Judge Charles E. Wyzanski, Jr., allowed withdrawal of the guilty pleas because, he said, their transactions had the color of law. He said he was not satisfied the bonds were stolen.

Bringing the bonds into this country without notifying federal authorities, however, was a violation, he added.

Judge Wyzanski gave as a condition of the probations that the men should cooperate with the U. S. government and others having legitimate claims arising from the transactions.

'T.N.T.' RADIO SET WORRY IS EASED

MAR 15 1949

Some Sold As War Surplus In And Around Michigan

Lansing, Mich., March 15 (AP)—Radio "ham" operators were kept on the alert for potentially dangerous war surplus sets today despite the easing of official worries over the situation.

State police said two of three types of such radois sold around Michigan were found in some cases to contain enough T.N.T. to "blow a man's head off."

These were identified as Types BC647A and BC966A.

Battery Is Required

Donald S. Leonard, State police commissioner, said most of Michigan's supply of these sets were sold in the Detroit area. Also relieving was information from the War Assets Administration that such sets can be exploded only with a battery. WAA officials said most were sold without batteries.

The WAA also told Leonard that only 775 of these two types had been sold and they all went to the Belmont Radio Supply Company in Chicago. One Detroit dealer said he obtained his supply from Belmont, but Carl J. Hollatz, vice president of Belmont, said he knew "nothing at all" about such a sale.

Detroit police said sets similar to these two types had been put on the market by Wright Field in Ohio and Warner Robbins Field in Georgia.

2,000 Without Charges

The third type was identified by State police as BC645A. About 2,000 of this type were sold in Michigan. Leonard said these were believed to contain explosive charges but later were found to contain none.

The charges were hidden in the radios to prevent the sets from falling intact into enemy hands. The sets were bought mainly by amateur radio operators for a fraction of their cost of about $1,000 each.

In Washington, the WAA said "only a handful" of sets disposed of as surplus are known to contain explosives designed for destruction. Government agencies acknowleged, however, other sets may not have been made harmless before disposal.

(ADVANCE FOR USE AT 11:30 A.M. EST, TODAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 15)

(ADVANCE) LONDON, MARCH 15-(AP)-BRITAIN TOLD HER PEOPLE TODAY THAT THE DOLLAR SHORTAGE IS STILL CRUCIAL. THE GOVERNMENT URGED A STEPPED UP DRIVE TO SEND MORE AND BETTER EXPORTS TO THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA TO HELP EASE IT.

THIS WAS DONE IN A 30,000-WORD "ECONOMIC SURVEY FOR 1949" PUBLISHED AS A WHITE PAPER.

MAR 15 1949

THE SURVEY FORECAST BRITAIN'S TRADE DEFICIT WITH THE DOLLAR AREA WOULD BE $520,000,000 (M) BY NEXT JUNE. IT HAD BEEN CUT TO $500,000,000 (M) LAST YEAR.

"THE DOLLAR DEFICIT," THE SURVEY SAID, "REMAINS A CRUCIAL PROBLEM."

IT SAID THE GOVERNMENT IS RESOLVED "TO PLAY A FULL PART" IN THIS YEAR'S DRIVE TO BOOST EXPORTS TO NORTH AMERICA, AND IS GETTING UP PLANS FOR "PRACTICAL ASSISTANCE" TO EXPORTERS.

THE SURVEY IS BASED ON THE ASSUMPTION BRITAIN WILL GET $940,000,000 (M) IN MARSHALL PLAN FUNDS FROM THE U.S. THIS YEAR. IT SAID BRITAIN STILL NEEDS SUCH AID.

BUT THE REPORT NOTED BRITAIN HAS ALREADY CUT HER DOLLAR DEFICIT TO LESS THAN ONE FIFTH THE 1947 FIGURE OF $2,620,000,000 (B).

AND WITHOUT BEING SPECIFIC IT REPORTED THE "VIRTUAL DISAPPEARANCE" OF BRITAIN'S TRADE OR BALANCE-OF-PAYMENTS DEFICIT WITH THE WORLD AS A WHOLE. THIS OVERALL GAP WAS $2,520,000,000 (B) IN 1947.

THE WHITE PAPER SETS UP AN EXPORT TARGET OF 910,000,000 (M) POUNDS ($3,640,000,000) FOR THE FIRST HALF OF THIS YEAR. BRITAIN EXPORTED GOODS WORTH 820,000,000 (M) POUNDS ($3,280,000,000) IN THE LATTER HALF OF 1948.

THE GOVERNMENT CALLED ON BRITONS TO TURN OUT BETTER PRODUCTS, BOOST PRODUCTION AND SAVE MORE MONEY. IT URGED THEM TO DO WITH NO INCREASES IN WAGES OR DIVIDENDS.

THE SURVEY SAID TAXES WOULD STAY HIGH.

THE SURVEY ENVISIONS A SLASH IN TOBACCO IMPORTS FROM 21,000,000 (M) POUNDS ($84,000,000) WORTH IN THE SECOND HALF OF 1948 TO ONLY TWO MILLION POUNDS ($8,000,000) IN THE FIRST HALF OF 1949.

LONDON, MARCH 15-(AP)-CLOTHES CAME OFF THE RATION FOR THE FIRST TIME IN EIGHT YEARS TODAY, BUT THERE WAS NO RUSH TO BUY.

MOST BRITISH NEWSPAPERS AGREED EDITORIALLY THAT LACK OF MONEY WILL HOLD DOWN SALES AS MUCH AS RATIONING DID.

MAR 15 1949

HAROLD WILSON, PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF TRADE, ANNOUNCED THE END OF CLOTHING RATIONING YESTERDAY. MANUFACTURERS HAD SAID SUPPLIES WERE MORE THAN ADEQUATE.

TRADE PICKED UP TODAY IN LONDON'S DEPARTMENT STORES WITH THE BIG DEMAND FOR SHEETS AND OTHER HOUSEHOLD LINENS.

"THIS IS EASILY OUR BIGGEST DAY SO FAR THIS YEAR," SAID THE MANAGER OF ONE STORE. "TRADE WAS SLACK THIS MORNING, BUT IT'S BEEN A RUSH THIS AFTERNOON--JUST LIKE PRE-CHRISTMAS."

WOOLCOTT AND ROSS, BOTH ENLISTED MEN, WERE "RINGERS" AT THE FOUNDING CAUCUS. THEY WERE SMUGGLED IN TO REPRESENT THEIR FORMER UNITS WHEN ARMY BRASS KEPT DOUGHBOYS FROM GOING TO PARIS FOR THE MEETING. PARIS - LEGION-NAT'L HEADQUARTERS

ROOSEVELT'S ORIGINAL IDEA HAD BEEN FOR EACH ARMY DIVISION TO SEND REPRESENTATIVES OF OFFICERS AND ENLISTED MEN. OLD TIMERS HERE RECALL THAT THE ARMY SUDDENLY NEEDED ITS ENLISTED MEN AT THEIR POSTS VERY BADLY. SO THE CAUCUS WAS ROUNDED OUT BY LETTING STARS AND STRIPES MEN, ALREADY IN PARIS, REPRESENT FORMER UNITS. OTHER GI'S GOT TO PARIS BY DEVIOUS MEANS.

PARIS POST NO. 1 OF THE AMERICAN LEGION HAS ALWAYS BEEN ONE OF THE MOST ACTIVE UNITS. IT HAS ITS HEADQUARTERS IN A FIVE-STORY BUILDING IN THE CHAMPS ELYSEES DISTRICT. BUILT AS A MEMORIAL TO GEN. JOHN J. PERSHING, AMERICAN WORLD WAR 1 COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, IT IS CONSIDERED AMERICAN SOIL AND ENJOYS THE STATUS OF AN EMBASSY.

THE MAN WHO FIRST DREAMED OF THE AMERICAN LEGION WILL NOT BE AT TODAY'S CEREMONIES. THEODORE ROOSEVELT, JR., WOUNDED AT SOISSONS IN WORLD WAR 1, DIED IN THE INVASION OF FRANCE IN WORLD WAR II. HE IS BURIED ABOVE OMAHA BEACH IN NORMANDY.

UNITED IN THEIR DESIRE TO UNSEAT QUEUILLE, THE COMMUNISTS AND DE GAULLISTS SHELVED THEIR ANIMOSITY AND JOINED FORCES BEHIND THE MOTION. AFTER IT WAS REJECTED, COMMUNIST FLOOR LEADER JACQUES DUCLOS PROMPTLY FILED A COMMUNIST MOTION OF CENSURE. THE GOVERNMENT COUNTERED WITH A DEMAND THAT A VOTE ON THE DUCLOS MOTION BE DELAYED UNTIL NOV.9. THE MOTION TO DELAY WAS ADOPTED, 378 TO 183, WITH MOST OF THE DE GAULLISTS ABSTAINING. PARIS - DYNAMO-NAT'L HEADQUARTERS

EARLIER, THE ASSEMBLY REJECTED 402 TO 196 A MOVE BY DUCLOS TO EXTEND DEBATE ON THE ORIGINAL CENSURE MOTION AND BRING IN A GENERAL DISCUSSION OF GOVERNMENTAL POLICY.

QUEUILLE, A FRAIL AND AILING COUNTRY DOCTOR, WAS IN A FIGHTING MOOD AS HE FACED THE ATTACK. HE SAID THE SOCIALISTS, THE POLITICALLY MODERATE RADICAL-SOCIALISTS AND THE CATHOLIC POPULAR REPUBLICANS (MRP) OF HIS GOVERNMENT WERE SUCCEEDING IN PUTTING THE COUNTRY BACK ON ITS ECONOMIC FEET.

HE ASSAILED DE GAULLISTS FOR TRYING TO BLOCK RECONSTRUCTION; THE COMMUNISTS FOR THEIR "ATTEMPTS AT REVOLUTION."

CONTINUING, QUEUILLE SAID "THE COUNTRY IS CALM. THE ECONOMIC SITUATION IS IMPROVING, AND THE NATION IS RECOVERING IN A CONDITION WHICH EVEN OUR FRIENDS DID NOT EXPECT."

THE COMMUNIST DEPUTIES HOOTED AND JEERED. SOME SHOUTED "GO TO WASHINGTON." OTHER DEPUTIES YELLED "GO TO MOSCOW."

REPLYING TO COMMUNIST CHARGES THAT HIS WAS A POLICY OF WAR, THE FRENCH PREMIER RETORTED:

"WE DO NOT WANT OUR SOIL INVADED. I CANNOT SEE HOW SUCH A POSITION CAN BE CONSIDERED BELLICOSE."

G518PES

PARIS,MARCH 15-(AP)-PREMIER HENRI QUEUILLE WON THE FIRST ROUND TODAY IN HIS BOUT WITH FRENCH COMMUNISTS AND DE GAULLISTS IN THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY.

AS THE ASSEMBLY PREPARED TO VOTE ON A MOTION OF CENSURE INTRODUCED LAST WEEK BY THE EXTREME RIGHT WING DEGAULLISIS, THE COMMUNISTS ATTEMPTED TO EXTEND THE MOTION TO A GENERAL DEBATE ON THE PREMIER'S POLICIES. THIS WAS DEFEATED, 402 TO 196.

THE MOTION OF CENSURE ITSELF, STILL TO COME UP FOR DEBATE, CONCERNS QUEUILLE'S POLICY WITH REGARD TO FRANCE'S TROUBLES WITH HER FAR EAST COLONY, INDO-CHINA. HOWEVER, OBSERVERS NOTED THE SHOW OF STRENGTH IN THE FIRST ROUND AND PICTURED THE PREMIER AS UNWORRIED.

THE COMMUNISTS ARE BACKING THE DE GAULLIST MOTION, BUT THE TWO GROUPS WOULD NEED 311 VOTES TO OUST THE PREMIER.

BJ146PES

PARIS, MARCH 15-(AP)-PREMIER HENRI QUEUILLE BEAT OFF A COMBINED COMMUNIST-DEGAULLIST ASSAULT ON HIS CABINET TODAY. A MOTION OF CENSURE AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT FAILED BY ALMOST 100 VOTES.

THE MOTION, PRESENTED BY THE FOLLOWERS OF GENERAL CHARLES DEGAULLE, POLLED ONLY 228 VOTES. DEPUTIES VOTING AGAINST THE MOTION AND THUS SUPPORTING THE GOVERNMENT TOTALLED 350.

A MOTION OF CENSURE REQUIRES 311 VOTES--AN ABSOLUTE MAJORITY--TO UNSEAT THE CABINET.

QUEUILLE, WHO HAS BEEN PREMIER OF FRANCE JUST SIX MONTHS AND FOUR DAYS, TOLD THE ASSEMBLY HIS GOVERNMENT "HAS PUT THE COUNTRY BACK ON ITS FEET DESPITE THE GAULLISTS AND DESPITE THE COMMUNISTS."

EARLIER THE ASSEMBLY BEAT DOWN A COMMUNIST MANEUVER TO TRANSFORM THE MOTION INTO A GENERAL DEBATE ON QUEUILLE'S POLICIES. THE VOTE WAS 402 TO 196.

PARIS, MARCH 15-(AP)-THE FOUNDING OF THE AMERICAN LEGION HERE 30 YEARS AGO WAS MARKED TODAY BY A GROUP OF "BUDDIES" OF WORLD WAR 1 AND THEIR G.I. COUNTERPARTS OF WORLD WAR II.

A WREATH WAS PLACED ON A PLAQUE MARKING THE SITE OF THE BIRTHPLACE OF THE LEGION, WHICH WAS A VAUDEVILLE HALL KNOWN AS THE PARIS CIRCUS. THE BUILDING LONG SINCE HAS BEEN TORN DOWN. THE WREATH WAS PLACED BY PARIS POST COMMANDER C.DENBY WILKES, NAVY VETERAN OF BOTH WORLD WARS

A FEW FRENCH WAR VETERANS MINGLED WITH THE AMERICANS IN THE BRIEF CEREMONY.

THE FATHER OF THE AMERICAN LEGION WAS THEODORE ROOSEVELT, JR., WHO WAS WOUNDED AT SOISSONS IN WORLD WAR I AND DIED IN THE INVASION OF FRANCE IN WORLD WAR II. HIS IDEA FOR A VETERANS' ORGANIZATION DREW 1,000 AMERICAN SOLDIERS TO THE FIRST MEETING HERE MARCH 15, 1919. THE LEGION NOW CLAIMS MORE THAN 4,000,000 MEMBERS.

AMONG THE ENLISTED MEN ATTENDING THE ORGANIZATION MEETING WAS THE LATE ALEXANDER WOOLLCOTT, THE WRITER, WHO WAS THEN ASSIGNED TO STARS AND STRIPES AFTER A HITCH IN THE MEDICAL CORPS.

WOOLLCOTT OBJECTED THAT THE PROPOSED NAME, AMERICAN LEGION, SOUNDED "TOO SILK STOCKING."

ANOTHER DELEGATE FIRED BACK: "I FOUGHT BESIDE THE FRENCH FOREIGN EGION, AND IF THAT FAT MEDICO THINKS THOSE BABIES WERE SISSIES HE IS JUST NUTS."

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, MARCH 15-(AP)-A PLAN OF SOME 15 INFLUENTIAL GERMANS TO TAKE THE LEAD IN SOLVING EAST-WEST DIFFERENCES HAD WESTERN GERMANY'S TOP POLITICAL AND INDUSTRIAL LEADERS IN A DITHER TODAY.

THE ORIGINATORS OF THE PLAN ARE BUSY NOW DENYING THEY ARE TOOLS IN A COMMUNIST PLOT TO UNIFY GERMANY UNDER RUSSIAN DOMINATION.

IT STARTED LAST SUNDAY WHEN THE GROUP MET AT THE HOME OF DR. ANDREAS HERMES, PRE-HITLER MINISTER OF FOOD, AND TALKED WITH RUDOLPH NADOLNY, A 75-YEAR-OLD PRUSSIAN WHO ONCE WAS AMBASSADOR TO MOSCOW. NADOLNY NOW LIVES IN THE RUSSIAN ZONE, BUT FOR SEVERAL MONTHS HE HAD BEEN VISITING HIS DAUGHTER IN THE RUHR, WHICH IS IN THE BRITISH ZONE.

NADOLNY HAS BEEN TRYING, UNSUCCESSFULLY, TO INTEREST GERMAN POLITICIANS AND INDUSTRIALISTS IN HIS IDEAS FOR REBUILDING A STRONG AND UNITED GERMANY.

"SOME OF HIS THEORIES ARE MIGHTY HELPFUL TO THE RUSSIANS, BUT WE DON'T BELIEVE HE IS A RUSSIAN AGENT," SAID A HIGH U.S. DIPLOMATIC OBSERVER.

MAR 15 1949

NADOLNY TOLD THE POLITICIANS, ALL OLD CONSERVATIVES, THAT GERMANY COULD BE A MEDIATOR IN THE COLD WAR, AN INFORMANT TOLD A NEWSMAN. HIS IDEA, ACCORDING TO THIS INFORMANT, WHO PARTICIPATED IN THE MEETING, WAS THAT THE NATIONALIST SPIRIT OF THE GERMAN PEOPLE SHOULD BE ENCOURAGED.

"WE ALL SAID NO TO SUCH AN IDEA," THE PARTICIPANT ADDED. "WE TOLD HIM WE DIDN'T WANT EITHER NATIONALISM OR COMMUNISM IN GERMANY.

"IT WAS ALL A LOT OF ROMANTIC IDEAS. THEY CANNOT BE PUT INTO EFFECT WITHOUT GERMANY BEING FREE OF THE ALLIES--ALL OF THEM--AND IT IS JUST A DREAM TO THINK THE ALLIES ARE GOING TO LEAVE. NEITHER THE RUSSIANS

NOR THE WESTERN ALLIES ARE GOING TO LEAVE AT THIS TIME, SO ALL THE IDEAS WERE JUST SO MANY GERMAN SUNDAY-AFTERNOON THEORIES."

THE PARTICIPANTS IN THE MEETING TOOK NO DECISION OTHER THAN TO HAVE ANOTHER TALK IN ABOUT A MONTH. THEY PUT OUT A STATEMENT THAT TH HAD DISCUSSED EAST-WEST TRADE WITH NADOLNY, BUT "AS A MATTER OF FACT WE DIDN'T DISCUSS TRADE AT ALL," THE PARTICIPANT SAID.

THE INFORMANT THEN IDENTIFIED SOME OF THOSE PRESENT AS FOLLOWS: DR.LUDWIG ERHARD, DIRECTOR OF THE BIZONAL ECONOMIC ADMINISTRATION; DR.HERMAN PUENDER, CHIEF EXECUTIVE OF WEST GERMANY'S ECONOMIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE; DR.HERMAN ABS, HEAD OF THE BIZONAL RECONSTRUCTION LOAN BANK; DR.RUDOLPH MUELLER, FORMER ECONOMICS CHIEF IN WEST GERMANY; BARON FRIEDRICH VON PRITTWITZ-GAFFRON, ONE-TIME AMBASSADOR TO WASHINGTON; DR.ALEXANDER HAFFNER, MEMBER OF WEST GERMANY'S ECONOMIC COUNCIL.

MAR 15 1949

GEN.LUCIUS D.CLAY, THE U.S. MILITARY GOVERNOR, WAS ASKED AT A NEWS CONFERENCE WHO MIGHT BE BACKING NADOLNY. HE SAID "I AM NOT SURE ANYBODY IS EXCEPT NADOLNY." HE ADDED THAT NADOLNY IS NOT A VERY IMPORTANT FIGURE, AND THAT NOTHING MUCH WOULD COME OF THE MEETING.

Budapest, Hungary, March 15-(AP)-Communist Vice Premier Matyas Rakosi sharply attacked today Marshal Tito and other leaders of [redacted] Yugoslavia. He said "they betrayed the cause of peace and joined the imperialists."

"The people of Yugoslavia will return sooner or later to the family of the peoples' democracies (communist regimes)," he said.

Tito and his hierarchy were accused last year by the Cominform--the communist information bureau--of leaving the party line and being hateful to Russia. Rakosi, Moscow-trained, spoke to thousands of organized Hungarian youths in the square of [redacted] heroes, commemorating the March revolt to communism.

MAR 15 1949

He said Hungary wants peace but that Hungarians are not pacifists. He stressed the need of a strong army.

"A country without arms practically tempts provocation," he said, "The enemy must realize that our country is not a breach of the peace front but a strong bastion of it. Hungarians enjoy freedom for the first time in their history."

MAR 15 1949

Rakosi said the Hungarian regime "has to fight the exploiting classes and to annihilate reactionary forces of landlords, capitalists, kulaks and clericals." Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Catholic primate, was sentence to life imprisonment last month.

Rakosi said Hungary has to be made into a peoples' republic.

"Those who will not join the front, now do not want to participate in the hard work of reconstruction of the country," he asserted.

Defense Minister Mihal Farkas introduced Rakosi as "the beloved leader of the Hungarian people and great master of youth." (Though Istvan Dobi of the smallholders nominally is premier, Rakosi is believed to be the real power in Hungary.)

Farkas told Hungarian youth to "follow Matyas Rakosi under the flag of Lenin and Stalin."

"The state of affairs in Greece is very serious," the archbishop said. "The towns are crowded with refugees, now approaching 1,000,000 in number, and there is great hunger and distress. This has been a great strain on the people and there is much unhappiness and misery."

BUNCHE PRESENTED A TENTATIVE OUTLINE FOR ARMISTICE TERMS IN THE JERUSALEM SECTOR IN A TALK WITH ISRAELI AND TRANS-JORDAN DELEGATIONS TONIGHT. ONE POINT PROPOSED, IT WAS LEARNED, IS "SUBSTANTIAL REDUCTION" OF MILITARY FORCES BY BOTH SIDES. ISRAEL HOLDS THE NEW CITY; TRANS-JORDAN THE OLD.

A SPOKESMAN FOR BUNCHE SAID "WITH THE REDUCTION OF FORCES WOULD GO AN AGREEMENT ALLOWING FREE CIVILIAN PASSAGE ON HIGHWAYS NOW BLOCKED BY MILITARY FORCES FROM BOTH SIDES."

AN AUTHORITATIVE SOURCE SAID ANY ARMISTICE LINE SET UP IN THE JERUSALEM AREA COULD BE CALLED ONLY TEMPORARY, AT BEST. THE EVENTUAL SOLUTION FOR JERUSALEM WILL HAVE TO AWAIT THE PEACE TREATY, HE SAID, BECAUSE OF CLASHING INTERESTS BETWEEN JEWS AND ARABS AND THE FACT JERUSALEM IS ALSO A CHRISTIAN SHRINE CITY.

"IN A FEW INCIDENTS WHERE THEY HAVE CROSSED TRANS-JORDAN'S BORDERS," HE SAID, "THEY HAVE DONE IT IN UNDERMARKED, UNPOPULATED AND STERILE AREAS OF THE ARABA VALLEY."

THE VALLEY IS THE NATURAL BOUNDARY BETWEEN PALESTINE AND TRANS-JORDAN IN THE SOUTH. RHODES—TRANS BORDERS

BRITISH TROOPS ARE STATIONED IN AQABA BY REQUEST OF KING ABDULLAH, WHO HAS A MUTUAL AID TREATY WITH BRITAIN. BRITAIN ALSO HELPS EQUIP AND MAINTAIN TRANS-JORDAN'S ARAB LEGION.

A RESPONSIBLE DIPLOMATIC INFORMANT IN LONDON SAID BRITAIN HAS INCREASED HER ANNUAL PAYMENT FOR THIS PURPOSE. IT HAS BEEN ABOUT £2,000,000 ($8,000,000). THE INFORMANT DID NOT SPECIFY THE SIZE OF SUCH AN INCREASE. THE FOREIGN OFFICE DECLINED COMMENT.

HOWEVER, ANY INCREASE COULD BE EXPECTED TO BE MADE PUBLIC IN THE FOREIGN OFFICE'S REVISED ESTIMATES OF ITS FINANCIAL NEEDS FOR 1948-49, TO BE LAID BEFORE PARLIAMENT MARCH 19.

tel aviv, israel, march 15-(ap)-a foreign office spokesman said today israel is trying to obta n the rele se of seven israelis arrested in romani charged with "organizing demonstrations against the government."

the spokesman said intercession is being made through the israeli minister to romania.

MAR 15 1949

he said the seven israelis were in romania as representatives of the "zionistal world organization." the spokesman added that romanian officials had not given any grounds for the charges.

the spokesman declared romanian authorities recently promised to release four of the men but had not done so.

thousands of jews recently demonstrated before the israeli legation in bucharest after hearing a rumor that 100,000 of them would be permitted to leave for israel.

they were told by an israeli spokesman the reports were grouddless and asked to go away.

MAR 15 1949

the demonstrators were severely criticized by the communist jewish committee,s newspaper "unirea."

MAR 15 1949

London, March 15--(AP)--Britain was reported today to have cautioned Israel that British troops will fight if Jewish armed forces attempt to seize the Trans-Jordan port of Aqaba.

A foreign office spokesman disclosed that Britain has explained to Israel the military orders under which reinforced British tommies now guard Aqaba, but he declined to make the # orders public. He said the information was given Israeli officials "with a view to forestalling the danger of any untoward event" on the Palestine-Trans-Jordan border, across which British and Jewish troops face one another.

A senior British regimental officer at Aqaba announced last Jan. 12 that "we will NOT allow anybody to approach Aqaba or attack our forces."

Israel already has announced she has NO intention of crossing the border or attacking Aqaba, which is Trans-Jordan's only seaport.

MAR 15 1949

British troops have been stationed there since January, under term a mutual defense treaty with Trans-Jordan. Recent reports of military movements near the border have touched off a United Nations inquiry into the possibility of truce violations.

SAIGON, INDOCHINA, MARCH 15-(AP)-A FRENCH MILITARY SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY 15 PARACHUTISTS AND AN UNSPECIFIED NUMBER OF CREWMEN WERE KILLED WHEN A FRENCH JUNKERS TRANSPORT PLANE CRASHED INTO A HILL IN TONKIN. HE DID NOT GIVE THE DATE OF THE ACCIDENT.

SAIGON, INDOCHINA, MARCH 15-(AP)-A SPOKESMAN FOR THE PRO-FRENCH SOUTH VIET-NAM GOVERNMENT SAID TODAY NO OPPOSITION WILL BE BROOKED TO THE ACCORD BETWEEN FRANCE AND FORMER EMPEROR BAO DAI.

BAO DAI IS TO RETURN FROM FRANCE TO HEAD A SEMI-AUTONOMOUS GOVERNMENT IN THIS SOUTHEAST ASIA COLONY. THE FRENCH HOPE THE AGREEMENT WILL CAUSE NON-COMMUNISTS TO SWING AWAY FROM MOSCOW-TRAINED HO CHI MINH, WHO HAS BEEN FIGHTING THE FRENCH FOR TWO YEARS.

THE SPOKESMAN WAS LE TAN NAM, SUBSECRETARY OF STATE FOR INFORMATION. HE MADE HIS UTTERANCE BEFORE EDITORS OF SEVERAL SAIGON PAPERS. HE SUMMONED THEM TO COMPLAIN ABOUT THE "COLDNESS" WITH WHICH NEWSPAPERS TREATED THE AGREEMENT.

FORMER PREMIER SUN REMAINED SILENT CONCERNING AN INDICTMENT ACCUSING HIM OF USING HIS POLITICAL POWER TO HELP MISS LAN NI. A CONTROL YUAN'S SUBCOMMITTEE DESCRIBED MISS LAN AS SUN'S CONCUBINE.

THE COMMITTEE CHARGED THAT SUN WHILE PREMIER HELPED MISS LAN GET 84 DRUMS OF DYESTUFFS FROM THE ALIEN PROPERTY ADMINISTRATION. THE CONTROL YUAN IS CHINA'S IMPEACHING BODY. IT HAS NOT PASSED ON THE INDICTMENT.

NANKING - CABINET

NANKING, MARCH 15-(AP)-FORMER PREMIER SUN FO REMAINED SILENT TODAY AFTER BEING ACCUSED OF USING HIS POWER TO BENEFIT PRETTY MISS LAN NI.

SPECIFICALLY SUN FO WAS ACCUSED OF MAKING IT POSSIBLE FOR MISS LAN TO OBTAIN 84 DRUMS OF DYESTUFF FROM THE ALIEN PROPERTY ADMINISTRATION.

A SUB-COMMITTEE OF THE CONTROL YUAN (AUDITING) MADE THE CHARGE. THE SUB-COMMITTEE SAID MISS LAN, DAUGHTER OF A WEALTHY YUNNAN PROVINCE FAMILY, WAS SUN FO'S "CONCUBINE."

THE GENERAL OPINION HERE AND IN SHANGHAI WAS THAT NOTHING WOULD COME OF THE CHARGE. HOWEVER IT MAY BE REVIEWED BY THE CONTROL YUAN IN FULL AND COULD FIND ITS WAY INTO THE COURTS.

MISS LAN, DESCRIBED AS IN HER MIDDLE THIRTIES, LIVES IN THE FASHIONABLE FORMER FRENCH CONCESSION OF SHANGHAI. SHE WAS ARRESTED BY CHINESE SECRET POLICE AFTER THE WAR ON CHARGES OF COLLABORATING WITH THE JAPANESE. SUN ASSERTEDLY WAS ABLE TO OBTAIN HER RELEASE.

SUN'S FAMILY AND WIFE LIVE IN SHANGHAI.

CHINESE ARE NOT TAKING THE CASE VERY SERIOUSLY. MANY CHINESE OFFICIALS HAVE CONCUBINES WHICH ARE ACCEPTED AS A PART OF THE FAMILY SYSTEM, ALTHOUGH SUPPOSEDLY ILLEGAL.

ONE QUALIFIED SOURCE SAID THAT THE SO-CALLED INDICTMENT COULD BE KICKED AROUND FOR A YEAR OR MORE AND BY THAT TIME IT LIKELY WOULD BE FORGOTTEN.

MEANWHILE THE SEMI-OFFICIAL CENTRAL DAILY NEWS SAID 45 INDICTMENTS WERE LODGED LAST YEAR AGAINST TOP CHINESE OFFICIALS BY COMMITTEES OF THE CONTROL YUAN. NONE OF THESE, THE NEWS AGENCY SAID, WERE ACTED UPON.

ACTION WAS REPORTED TAKEN IN 24 OF 64 OTHER CASES INVOLVING CHINESE OFFICIALS. THERE WAS NO ELABORATION ON THESE CASES.

IN CANTON, WHERE SOME OF THE GOVERNMENT MINISTRIES THAT FOLLOWED SUN FROM NANKING ARE STILL LOCATED, OBSERVERS PREDICTED TODAY THAT SUN MAY BECOME THE HEAD OF THE CENTRAL POLITICAL COUNCIL OF THE KUOMINTANG. IN SUCH A POSITION HE COULD BE MORE POWERFUL THAN HE WAS AS PREMIER.

SUN FO'S FATHER, DR. SUN YAT SEN, FOUNDED THE MODERN REPUBLIC OF CHINA.

SUN FO'S SUCCESSOR, GEN. HO YING-CHIN, GOT BACK HERE TODAY FROM SHANGHAI WHERE HE REPORTEDLY TRIED TO INTEREST HIGH CHINESE IN BECOMING MEMBERS OF HIS CABINET.

APPARENTLY THE NEW PREMIER, WHOSE JOB IS TO FORM A "PEACE CABINET", IS ENCOUNTERING DIFFICULTIES IN FINDING MEN WILLING TO SERVE.

BEFORE HIS RESIGNATION A FEW DAYS AGO SUN FO ANNOUNCED ON MARCH 3 THAT A CHINESE COMMUNIST SPOKESMAN HAD TOLD HIM THAT PEACE TALKS WOULD BE READY TO START IN PEIPING AROUND MARCH 15.

THERE WAS NO INDICATION TODAY THAT THE COMMUNISTS WERE READY TO BEGIN NEGOTIATIONS. SUN FO STILL HEADS THE PRESIDENTIAL 10 MAN COMMITTEE NAMED TO DRAFT PEACE PROPOSALS.

CANTON,WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16-(AP)-A CZECH WHO ESCAPED FROM THE FRENCH FOREIGN LEGION WITH AMERICAN SAILOR JAMES PATRICK RYAN IS TRYING TO GET INTO THE UNITED STATES.

JOSEPH RYCHTERA, 23, SAID TODAY HE HAS ASKED AN UNCLE, JOSEPH JEZEK OF (3124 RIDGEWAY AVE.) CHICAGO, TO PUT UP BOND SO HE CAN GET INTO THE STATES. RYCHTERA AND TWO GERMANS ARE IN JAIL HERE, CHARGED WITH ILLEGALLY ENTERING CHINA FROM FRENCH INDOCHINA WHERE THEY SERVED WITH THE LEGION.

THE SAME CHARGE WAS FILED AGAINST RYAN. BUT RYAN WAS LISTED BY THE U. S. NAVY AS A DESERTER AND HANDED OVER TO AMERICAN OFFICIALS HERE. HE MISSED HIS SHIP IN ITALY 19 MONTHS AGO.

30.24- 1755

TO JAPAN. HE LEFT JAPAN LAST SATURDAY ABOARD A U. S. MILITARY AIR TRANSPORT SERVICE (MATS) PLANE FOR SAN FRANCISCO. HE WAS DUE IN HONOLULU MONDAY BUT A MATS PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICER SAID TODAY HE HAD BEEN UNABLE TO LOCATE RYAN THERE.

MAR 15 1949

(RYAN'S CHARGE THAT HE WAS SHANGHAIED INTO THE LEGION HAS BEEN DENIED BY A FRENCH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN IN PARIS).

RYCHTERA, RYAN AND THE TWO GERMANS--GUENTHER EHRHARDT AND FREDERICK GORETZKI--RAN OUT ON THE LEGION LAST OCTOBER. THEY MADE THEI WAY FROM INDOCHINA INTO CHINA AND FINALLY GOT TO CANTON MARCH 1.

RYCHTERA SAID THE FRENCH CAUGHT HIM PASSING THROUGH THEIR OCCUPATION ZONE OF GERMANY IN FLIGHT FROM CZECHOSLOVAKIA WHEN THE COMMUNISTS TOOK OVER. HE SAID THE FRENCH TOLD HIM HE COULD JOIN THE FOREIGN LEGION OR GO BACK TO CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

"IF I HAD KNOWN WHAT IT WAS GOING TO BE LIKE, I WOULD HAVE GONE BACK HOME," HE SAID.

"THERE ARE MANY PEOPLE FLEEING FROM BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN WHO GET CAUGHT IN THE LEGION. THEY FIND LIFE THERE EVEN WORSE THAN IN A COMMUNIST COUNTRY. THE GESTAPO (HITLER'S SECRET POLICE) AND THE SOVIETS HAVE A LOT TO LEARN FROM THE FOREIGN LEGION WHEN IT COMES TO BRUTALITY."

RYAN, WHOSE HOME TOWN IS HUNTINGDON, PA., ALSO TOLD A STORY OF BRUTAL TREATMENT AS A MEMBER OF THE LEGION.

RYCHTERA AND THE TWO GERMANS SAID THEY FEAR MORE THAN ANYTHING ELSE THAT THEY MIGHT BE FORCED TO GO BACK TO INDOCHINA.

"WE HAVE SEEN CAPTURED DESERTERS FROM THE LEGION BURNED ALIVE," EHRHARDT SAID. "THEY ARE SHOT IN THE LEGS TO MAKE THEM FALL DOWN. THEN KEROSENE IS POURED ON THEM AND A MATCH APPLIED."

EHRHARDT SAID 90 PER CENT OF FRENCH FORCES IN INDOCHINA ARE GERMANS, "MANY OF THEM NAZIS." HE SAID A GERMAN NAMED SCHROEDER IS LEADING VIET-NAM GUERRILLAS AGAINST THE FRENCH IN INDOCHINA. SCHROEDER WAS IDENTIFIED BY EHRHARDT AS ONE OF THE LAST GENERALS CREATED BY HITLER BEFORE THE END OF THE WAR.

EHRHARDT AND GORETZKI HOPE TO GET JOBS IN CHINA.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 15-(AP)-CHAIRMAN KEE (D-WVA) OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE INTRODUCED TODAY A BILL PROVIDING AUTHORITY TO CONTINUE THE PRESENT CHINESE RELIEF PROGRAM UNTIL THE END OF THE YEAR.

NO ADDITIONAL FUNDS WOULD BE SUPPLIED. MILITARY AID IS NOT INVOLVED.

THE PRESENT $338,000,000 (M) PROGRAM EXPIRES APRIL 3. KEE'S BILL WOULD MAKE ANY UNSPENT BALANCE AVAILABLE FROM THEN UNTIL DEC. 31. COMMITTEE OFFICIALS SAID THE PRESENT BALANCE IS AROUND $55,000,000 OR $58,000,000 (M).

CONGRESS STILL WOULD HAVE TO PASS A SEPARATE BILL APPROPRIATING MORE MONEY FOR THE CHINESE RELIEF OPERATIONS.

KEE'S BILL WOULD LET THE PRESIDENT GIVE THE AID TO RECIPIENTS OTHER THAN THE CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT. THUS IT MIGHT BE HANDLED THROUGH AN ORGANIZATION LIKE THE RED CROSS.

THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE DISCUSSED CHINESE AID BRIEFLY TODAY BUT TOOK NO ACTION. CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) SAID SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON MAY BE ASKED TO APPEAR BEFORE THE COMMITTEE LATER THIS WEEK TO DISCUSS THE SITUATION.

THE COMMITTEE HAS BEFORE IT A LETTER SIGNED BY SENATOR MCCARRAN (D-NEV), CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE ON ECONOMIC COOPERATION AND 55 OTHER SENATORS ASKING FOR EXTENSION OF AID TO THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS.

MANILA,TUESDAY,MARCH 15-(AP)-A B-29 TANKER PLANE, MISSING SINCE IT REFUELED THE U.S. AIR FORCE'S GLOBE-CIRCLING B-50 BOMBER LUCKY LADY II MARCH 1 WAS LOCATED TODAY ON A MOUNTAIN PEAK, CLARK FIELD HEADQUARTERS ANNOUNCED.

NO SIGN OF LIFE WAS SEEN AROUND THE BIG PLANE, WHICH WAS SPOTTED FROM THE AIR ONLY ABOUT 10 FEET FROM THE TOP OF A 4,600-FOOT MOUNTAIN 20 TO 25 MILES NORTHEAST OF MANILA, THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID.

THE PLANE WAS SIGHTED BY A PLANE FROM THE 338TH RECONNAISSANCE SQUADRON OF THE 5TH RECONNAISSANCE GROUP ABOUT 8 A.M. TODAY.

THE TANKER PLANE CARRIED NINE MEN.

AN IMMEDIATE AIR SURVEY OF THE MOUNTAIN AREA WAS ORDERED BY COL. A.J.KERWIN MALONE, COMMANDING OFFICER OF THE 18TH AIR BASE GROUP. HE SAID A GROUND PARTY WOULD START FOR THE WRECKAGE AS SOON AS THE BEST ROUTE UP THE MOUNTAIN COULD BE DETERMINED.

THE TANKER HAS BEEN SOUGHT DAILY BY U.S. AIR FORCE PLANES SINCE IT FAILED TO RETURN FROM THE REFUELING FLIGHT TO KEEP THE LUCKY LADY ALOFT FOR THE LAST LEG OF THE B-50'S NON-STOP FLIGHT AROUND THE WORLD.

SEOUL, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16-(AP)-THE PRIME MINISTER OF THE KOREAN REPUBLIC CHARGED TODAY THAT COMMUNIST GUERRILLAS ON CHEJU ISLAND ARE USING SOVIET MACHINEGUNS.

ASKED WHETHER THERE WAS EVIDENCE THAT GUERRILLAS ON THE STRIFE-TORN ISLAND ACTUALLY HAVE BEEN RECEIVING OUTSIDE AID, LEE BUM SIK ANSWERED:

"THE CAPTURE OF SOVIET MACHINEGUNS IS ONE PROOF."

HE ADDED THAT THE ESTIMATED 500 REBELS ON THE BIG ISLAND OFF KOREA'S SOUTH COAST ALSO APPEAR TO BE GETTING PLENTY OF AMMUNITION.

THE PRIME MINISTER MADE HIS STATEMENTS AT A NEWS CONFERENCE. HE RETURNED YESTERDAY FROM A SIX-DAY INSPECTION TRIP TO SOUTH CHOLLA PROVINCE AND CHEJU.

EIGHT DAYS BEFORE HIS ARRIVAL AT CHEJU, LEE SAID, A 2,000-TON SHIP FLYING THE FLAG OF THE COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED NORTH KOREAN GOVERNMENT WAS SIGHTED OFF THE ISLAND.

HE SAID THE SHIP'S BLINKER SIGNALS WERE ANSWERED FROM THE MOUNTAINS WHERE THE GUERRILLAS ARE HOLED UP.

LEE ALSO SAID A SUBMARINE HAS BEEN SIGHTED NEAR CHEJU TWO OR THREE DAYS AGO BUT IT SOON LEFT.

LEE SAID HE BELIEVED THE CURRENT DRIVE BY KOREAN ARMY TROOPS AND

POLICE WOULD WIPE OUT BY MONTH'S END THE RESISTANCE THAT HAD FLARED ON THE ISLAND FOR THE PAST YEAR.

YESTERDAY A DELEGATION FROM CHEJU REPORTED THAT THE YEAR'S TOLL HAD BEEN 15,000 PERSONS SLAUGHTERED AND 65,000 LEFT HOMELESS.

NIKOLAI A.VOZNESENSKY WAS RELIEVED OF DUTIES AS PLANNING COMMISSION CHAIRMAN AND ALSO AS A DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER. NO MENTION WAS MADE OF ANY CHANGE IN HIS STATUS AS A MEMBER OF THE ALL-POWERFUL POLITBURO, THE COMMUNIST PARTY EXECUTIVE. HE IS ITS YOUNGEST MEMBER AT 45.

THE PLANNING COMMISSION HAS CHARGE OF MAPPING RUSSIA'S FIVE YEAR PLANS, WHICH FORM THE BASIS OF HER ECONOMY.

MAXIM Z.SABUROV, VICE CHAIRMAN OF THE PLANNING COMMISSION AND ONE OF A DOZEN DEPUTY PRIME MINISTERS IN THE GOVERNMENT, SUCCEEDS VOZNESENSKY IN THE CHAIRMANSHIP. HE HAD BEEN CHAIRMAN DURING THE WAR YEARS.

THE OTHER CHANGE RELIEVED IVAN T.GOLYAKOV AS PRESIDENT OF THE SUPREME COURT, NAMING A.A.VOLIN TO SUCCEED HIM.

IN ANOTHER ACTION, THE SUPREME SOVIET APPROVED THE APPOINTMENT OF A.I.EFREMOV AS DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS, AND HIS RELEASE FROM HIS DUTIES AS MINISTER OF THE MACHINE TOOL INDUSTRY.

ALL OF THE SHIFTS APPEARED TO FALL INTO THE SAME PATTERN OF CHANGING RESPONSIBILITY WHICH WAS MARKED BY THE RECENT RELEASE OF V.M. MOLOTOV AS FOREIGN MINISTER, WHO WAS REPLACED BY ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY. MOLOTOV REMAINS FIRST DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER UNDER STALIN, AND FOREIGN DIPLOMATS CONSIDER HE WAS NOT DEMOTED.

MOSCOW, MARCH 15-(AP)-EUGENE VARGA, SOVIET ECONOMIST WHOSE PHILOSOPHIES HAVE BEEN UNDER FIRE HERE RECENTLY AS BEING TOO FAR FROM MARXIST TEACHINGS ACCUSED THE WESTERN PRESS AND RADIO TODAY OF TELLING "ALL KINDS OF LIES" ABOUT HIM.

HE MADE HIS STATEMENTS IN A LETTER TO PRAVDA, OFFICIAL COMMUNIST PARTY ORGAN. HE SAID HE TOOK SPECIAL EXCEPTION TO SUGGESTIONS THAT HE IS A MAN OF "WESTERN ORIENTATION."

"ORGANS OF BLACK REACTION, INSTIGATORS OF A NEW WAR, RECENTLY HAVE BEEN SPREADING ALL KINDS OF LIES ABOUT ME," VARGA COMPLAINED. "THEY CLAIM I AM A PERSON OF WESTERN ORIENTATION, A DEFENDER OF THE MARSHALL PLAN, AND THAT I DENY THE POSSIBILITY OF A CRISIS OF OVERPRODUCTION IN THE UNITED STATES."

MAR 15 1949

PRAVDA ITSELF TOOK VARGA TO TASK MORE THAN A YEAR AGO. IT ACCUSED HIM OF FOSTERING A BELIEF THAT A PLANNED ECONOMY CAN SUCCEED IN A CAPITALIST STATE. IT ACCUSED HIM OF ATTEMPTS AT "REFORMISM", AND, MORE THAN THAT, OF REFUSING "TO CONDEMN HIS OWN FUNDAMENTAL MISTAKES."

PRAVDA HAD TAKEN VIGOROUS EXCEPTION TO ONE OF HIS BOOKS, "CHANGES IN THE ECONOMY OF CAPITALISM AS A RESULT OF THE SECOND WORLD WAR." THE NEWSPAPER CALLED IT AN "OBVIOUSLY NON-MARXIAN" PIECE OF WRITING.

THE RUSSIAN MAGAZINE ECONOMIC QUESTIONS ASSILED HIM FOR DOUBTING THAT FUTURE WARS BETWEEN "IMPERIALIST STATES" SEEMED POSSIBLE. THE MAGAZINE IN THE SAME ISSUE QUOTED HIM AS SAYING HE WAS WILLING TO ADMIT ERROR IF SOMEBODY WOULD SHOW HIM SOME NEW FACTS TO PROVE THAT HE WAS WRONG. THE PUBLIC PRINTS HAVE BLASTED HIM OFF AND ON SINCE.

(THE 70-YEAR-OLD ECONOMIST, HUNGARIAN BORN BUT A RESIDENT OF RUSSIA SINCE 1920, WAS A LEADING SOVIET ECONOMIST UNTIL THOSE SOVIET PRINTED BLASTS. AMONG HIS WRITINGS WAS A BOOK, "THE SUNSET OF CAPITALISM," PUBLISHED IN 1923. IN 1946 PRAVDA QUOTED HIM AS PREDICTING AN ECONOMIC COLLAPSE IN THE UNITED STATES IN 1948, AND BRANDING THE MARSHALL PLAN AS AN ORGAN OF AMERICAN MONOPOLY CAPITAL.)

IN TODAY'S LETTER TO PRAVDA, VARGA ACCUSED "ANGLO-AMERICAN WAR MONGERS" OF SPREADING A STORY THAT HE DEFENDED THE MARSHALL PLAN. "NOT ONLY AM I NOT IN FAVOR OF IT, BUT ON THE CONTRARY I WAS THE FIRST SCIENTIFIC WORKER IN THE U.S.S.R. TO PUBLICLY COME OUT AGAINST IT," HE WROTE.

HE SAID HE NEVER HAD DENIED THAT THE UNITED STATES FACED THE DANGER OF AN ECONOMIC COLLAPSE.

"THE NEW ANGLO-AMERICAN WARMONGERS REPEAT THE ROTTEN PROPAGANDA OF THE GERMAN AND FASCIST WARMONGERS," HE CHARGED, AND ATTEMPT TO FOOL THE PEOPLE OF THEIR COUNTRIES BY TELLING THEM "ATOMIC BOMBS ALONE CAN CONQUER THE SOVIET UNION FROM A DISTANCE."

A SURVEY IS BEING MADE TO DETERMINE HOW MANY OF THE SECRETARIAT MEMBERS WOULD BE INTERESTED IN BUYING NEW HOMES IN WESTCHESTER AND HOW MUCH THEY WOULD BE PREPARED TO PAY.

THE PROJECT IS BEING STUDIED PRIVATELY BY THE U.N. GROUP AND HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE WORLD ORGANIZATION. JOHN OLIVER, A MEMBER OF THE STAFF OF ASSISTANT SECRETARY-GENERAL ADRIAN PELT, IS HEAD OF THE GROUP.

A QUESTIONNAIRE CIRCULATED TO STAFF MEMBERS POINTS OUT THAT THE U.N. HEADQUARTERS WILL BE TRANSFERRED TO THE EAST SIDE OF MANHATTAN SOME TIME IN 1950 AND THIS WILL RE-OPEN THE HOUSING QUESTION. MAR 15 1949

"THE RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES NOW UNDER LEASE TO UNITED NATIONS WILL POSSIBLY REVERT TO PRIVATE OPERATION AT THE SAME TIME," THE QUESTIONNAIRE EXPLAINED. "IN THAT EVENT THEY WILL ALMOST CERTAINLY LOSE SOME OF THE INTERNATIONAL CHARM THAT NOW ATTRACTS US TO THEM."

THIS WAS A REFERENCE TO THE LARGE HOUSING PROJECTS IN NEW YORK'S PETER COOPER VILLAGE, FRESH MEADOWS AND PARKWAY VILLAGE AND IN GREAT NECK WHERE THE U.N. OBTAINED LARGE BLOCKS OF APARTMENTS FOR ITS EMPLOYEES WHEN HEADQUARTERS WERE ESTABLISHED HERE INITIALLY.

THE IDEA BEHIND THE SURVEY IS THE POSSIBILITY OF SETTING UP AN INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY CONSISTING OF SMALL HOMES AND OTHER FACILITIES SUCH AS AN INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL. MAR 15 1949

NEW YORK, MARCH 15-(AP)-FURTHER STUDY OF A PROPOSED CATHOLIC-PROTESTANT UNITED FRONT AGAINST COMMUNISM WAS AGREED UPON TODAY BY THE FEDERAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN AMERICA.

THE COUNCIL'S EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE CHOSE AN ADVISORY GROUP TO DISCUSS THE PROPOSAL WITH THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES, AN INTERNATIONAL GROUP OF PROTESTANT CHURCHES.

TOP LEVEL DISCUSSIONS BETWEEN CATHOLICS AND PROTESTANTS FIRST WERE SUGGESTED LAST WEEK IN CLEVELAND AT THE NATIONAL STUDY CONFERENCE ON THE CHURCHES AND WORLD ORDER.

A STATEMENT AT THAT TIME URGED A CONFERENCE BETWEEN ZTHE VATICAN AND OFFICERS OF THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES IN ORDER THAT CLEAR UNDERSTANDING BE REACHED AS TO WHAT EACH MEANS BY RELIGIOUS LIBERTY FOR ALL MEN X X X."

THE STUDY CONFERENCE, WITHOUT OTHER ACTION, REFERRED THE PROPOSAL TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE FEDERAL COUNCIL, WHICH MET TODAY.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE CLAIMS TO REPRESENT 29,000,000 (.) MEMBERS OF 27 PROTESTANT FAITHS.

DISCUSSING A STAND AGAINST COMMUNISM, THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE SAID IN PART:

"WE MUST GUARD AGAINST A BLIND EMOTION OR A HEEDLESS HYSTERIA WHICH MIGHT SEEK TO DEFEND THE CHURCH THROUGH RESORT TO WAR. IT WOULD BE WHOLLY ILLUSORY TO SUPPOSE THAT THE PRESENT TENSIONS COULD BE RELAXED BY SUCH A METHOD."

THE TERMS OF THE HISTORIC PACT ARE TO BE MADE PUBLIC FRIDAY.

THE (3 P.M. EST) MEETING BRINGS TOGETHER SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, AND THE AMBASSADORS OF BRITAIN, FRANCE, CANADA, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS, LUXEMBOURG AND NORWAY.

ACHESON ALSO SCHEDULED AN EARLIER, FAREWELL MEETING (AT 11:30 A.M. EST) WITH THE VISITING DANISH FOREIGN MINISTER, GUSTAV RASMUSSEN. THE PURPOSE WAS TO GIVE HIM FULL ANSWERS TO THE QUESTIONS HE HAS RAISED ABOUT THE BENEFITS OF LINKING DENMARK AS THE NINTH MEMBER OF THE ALLIANCE. WASH'N-PACT-FY-X 0H IT

THE FOREIGN MINISTER OF ICELAND, BJARNI BENEDITKSSON, MET MEANWHILE WITH JOHN HICKERSON, HEAD OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S EUROPEAN DIVISION, TO GET INFORMATION WHICH WILL DECIDE WHETHER HIS COUNTRY BECOMES THE 10TH RECRUIT.

THE ICELANDIC AND DANISH FOREIGN MINISTERS BOTH ARE REPORTED PARTICULARLY INTERESTED IN THE ROLE THAT STRATEGIC AIR BASES ON GREENLAND AND ICELAND WILL PLAY IN THE PROPOSED DEFENSE ARRANGEMENT.

BOTH ARE BELIEVED TO HAVE RECEIVED AT LEAST SOME OF THE REASSURANCES THEY SOUGHT IN ORDER TO MEET THE VIOLENT ATTACKS ON THE ATLANTIC PACT BY COMMUNISTS IN THEIR OWN COUNTRIES.

BENEDIKTSSON SERVED NOTICE ON HIS ARRIVAL THAT ICELAND WOULD NOT PERMIT USE IN PEACETIME BY FOREIGN NATIONS OF THE AIRFIELDS ON ITS SOIL. AFTER HIS FIRST MEETING WITH ACHESON AND OTHER STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS HE TOLD REPORTERS IT WAS "QUITE CLEAR" THAT THEIR USE WAS NOT THE PRICE OF JOINING THE PACT.

DANISH MINISTER RASMUSSEN WAS TOLD DURING HIS STAY THAT THE TREATY PROVIDED A "FRAMEWORK" FOR SETTLEMENT OF THE TICKLISH PROBLEM OF THE USE OF THE GREENLAND BASES. COMMUNISTS IN DENMARK HAVE BEEN DEMANDING CANCELLATION OF A WARTIME AGREEMENT PERMITTING THE UNITED STATES TO USE THE FAR NORTH OUTPOST BASES IN THE DANISH ISLAND COLONY.

THE RAPID FIRE CONFERENCES, FIRST WITH THE NORWEGIAN AND THEN WITH THE DANISH AND ICELANDIC FOREIGN MINISTERS, BUOYED OFFICIAL HOPES THAT AS MANY AS 12 NATIONS WILL BE READY TO SIGN WHEN THE PACT IS READY

THE FIRST WEEK IN APRIL. ITALY AND PORTUGAL MAY JOIN IN THE DISCUSSIONS THIS WEEK. THE UNITED STATES, CANADA, BRITAIN AND FIVE CONTINENTAL EUROPEAN NATIONS ALREADY HAVE AGREED ON TERMS.

RASMUSSEN YESTERDAY SUBMITTED TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT A COMPREHENSIVE LIST OF THE ARMS DENMARK CONSIDERS IT WOULD NEED AS A PART OF THE AMERICAN MILITARY AID PROGRAM EXPECTED TO SUPPLEMENT THE TREATY.

THE ONLY COMMENT MADE CAME IN A JOINT STATEMENT ISSUED BY ACHESON AND RASMUSSEN WHICH SAID "THE CHARACTER AND THE IMPLICATIONS OF THE PROPOSED PACT HAVE BEEN FULLY DISCUSSED IN A FRANK AND FRIENDLY SPIRIT." WASH'N-(N) PACT-FAR SECURITY

THE FINAL PARAGRAPH OF THE STATEMENT PLAINLY INDICATED THE UNITED STATES HAD SOUGHT TO ASSURE DENMARK THAT THE PROJECTED ATLANTIC ALLIANCE WAS NOT AN "AGGRESSIVE" MOVE AS PICTURED BY RUSSIA. IT SAID:

"THE SECRETARY OF STATE STRESSED THE PURPOSE OF THE PACT AS BEING THE MAINTENANCE OF PEACE, AS WELL AS ITS PURELY DEFENSIVE CHARACTER. THE SECRETARY OF STATE ALSO POINTED OUT THAT THE PACT IS DRAFTED IN CLOSE CONFORMITY WITH THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS."

THE PROPOSAL BY JUSTICE ROBERTS AND OTHERS TO FORM A FEDERAL UNION WAS ADVANCED AT A NEWS CONFERENCE. THEY ANNOUNCED FORMATION OF AN ATLANTIC UNION COMMITTEE TO PRESS FOR PUBLIC SUPPORT AND ACTION BY CONGRESS.

ROBERTS SAID THAT AFTER THE SENATE ACTS ON THE PACT CONGRESS WILL BE ASKED TO APPROVE CALLING AN INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION TO EXPLORE HOW FAR THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER DEMOCRATIC NATIONS CAN "WISELY" GO TOWARD FORMING A "TRUE FEDERATION."

ROBERT P.PATTERSON, FORMER SECRETARY OF WAR WHO JOINED ROBERTS IN LAUNCHING THE MOVEMENT, SAID THE PROJECTED UNION "WILL CONVINCE THE KREMLIN THAT THE DEMOCRACIES MEAN BUSINESS."

A FEDERATION, ROBERTS CONTENDED, WOULD STRENGTHEN THE UNITED NATIONS, RAISE LIVING STANDARDS AND LOWER TS."

MAR 15 1949

A FEDERATION, ROBERTS CONTENDED, WOULD STRENGTHEN THE UNITED NATIONS, RAISE LIVING STANDARDS AND LOWER THE COST OF MILITARY SECURITY, WHILE MASSING THE MIGHT OF DEMOCRACIES TO HEAD OFF ANY AGGRESSIVE PLANS BY SOVIET RUSSIA.

AS HE OUTLINED IT, THE PROPOSAL CALLS FOR ADMISSION OF ALL COUNTRIES WHICH "PROTECT INDIVIDUAL LIBERTY BY LAW AND PRACTICE REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT."

"IF WE ARE IN IT, THE EUROPEAN NATIONS WILL JOIN," HE PREDICTED.

MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE RECEIVED ROBERTS' PROPOSAL WITH CAUTION.

CHAIRMAN KEE (D.-W.VA.) SAID: "THE QUESTION POSED IS QUITE A SERIOUS ONE. I HAVE ALWAYS THOUGHT IT WOULD BE MOST DESIRABLE TO HAVE A UNION OF EUROPEAN NATIONS, AND I THINK THE MARSHALL PLAN HAS GONE FAR TO BRING THOSE EUROPEAN NATIONS CLOSER TOGETHER. BUT THE CHIEF POINT IN MR.ROBERTS IDEA IS THE ONE THAT PRESENTS THE CHIEF DIFFICULTY TO ME, THAT OF INCLUDING THE UNITED STATES.

"I BELIEVE IT WOULD HAVE TO BE ON A MUCH BROADER BASIS THAN SIMPLY A EUROPEAN BASIS. IT SHOULD BE ON A WORLD BASIS, AND THAT IN TURN WOULD BRING UP ADDED KNOTTY QUESTIONS. IN OTHER WORDS, SIGNING A PACT WITH THOSE EUROPEAN NATIONS IS A FAR DIFFERENT THING THAN GOING INTO A PERMANENT UNION WITH THEM."

REP.EATON (R-NJ), RANKING REPUBLICAN MEMBER, COMMENTED: "MY OWN VIEW IS THAT WE ARE IN TROUBLE ENOUGH NOW WITHOUT BUYING INTO ANY NEW ARRANGEMENTS."

WASHINGTON, MARCH 15-(AP)-BRITAIN'S FOREIGN MINISTER, ERNEST BEVIN, WILL COME TO THE UNITED STATES EARLY IN APRIL TO REPRESENT HIS COUNTRY AT THE SIGNING OF THE ATLANTIC DEFENSE ALLIANCE.

SIR OLIVER FRANKS, BRITAIN'S AMBASSADOR, DISCLOSED THIS TO REPORTERS AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT TODAY AFTER CONFERRING WITH SECRETARY ACHESON ABOUT PRELIMINARY ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE SIGNING CEREMONY.

SIR OLIVER SAID BEVIN WILL ARRIVE IN NEW YORK ABOUT MARCH 31 AND STAY IN THE UNITED STATES ABOUT A WEEK.

"I WOULD NOT BE SURPRISED IF WHEN HE IS OVER HERE HE AND OTHERS FIND IT NATURAL TO TALK TO AMERICAN OFFICIALS ABOUT OTHER THINGS," SIR OLIVER ADDED.

THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF OTHER SIGNATORY POWERS ALSO ARE EXPECTED TO BE ON HAND IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 15-(AP)-OWEN J.ROBERTS, RETIRED SUPREME COURT JUSTICE, AND SEVERAL OTHER ONE-TIME GOVERNMENT LEADERS PROPOSED TODAY A FEDERAL UNION OF COUNTRIES SIGNING THE ATLANTIC SECURITY PACT.

ROBERTS SAID THAT AFTER THE SENATE ACTS ON THE PACT, HIS GROUP WILL ASK CONGRESS TO APPROVE AN INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION TO DECIDE WHETHER TO GO AHEAD WITH A "TRUE FEDERATION OF THE ATLANTIC DEMOCRACIES."

ROBERTS CALLED A NEWS CONFERENCE TO ANNOUNCE FORMATION OF A "CITIZENS COMMITTEE" TO PRESS FOR ADOPTION OF THE PROPOSAL. IT INCLUDES ROBERT P.PATTERSON, FORMER SECRETARY OF WAR, AND WILL L. CLAYTON, FORMER UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE FOR ECONOMIC AFFAIRS. THEY TOOK PART IN THE MEETING WITH REPORTERS.

PATTERSON SAID "A UNION OF THE DEMOCRACIES WILL CONVINCE THE KREMLIN THAT THE DEMOCRACIES MEAN BUSINESS.

"THE KREMLIN WILL IMMEDIATELY SEE THAT THE CREATION OF A FEDERAL DEFENSE FORCE FOR A UNION OF NATIONS WOULD BE FAR STRONGER THAN ANY STAFF AGREEMENTS BETWEEN SEPARATE NATIONS."

ROBERTS CONTENDED A FEDERATION WOULD STRENGTHEN THE UNITED NATIONS, RAISE THE STANDARD OF LIVING AND LOWER THE COST OF MILITARY SECURITY FOR ALL MEMBER NATIONS. HE SAID, TOO, THAT IT WOULD DETER RUSSIA FROM ANY THOUGHT OF WAR.

CLAYTON SAID THE FEDERATION PROPOSAL "CALLS FOR AN ECONOMIC MERGER OF THE DEMOCRACIES."

ONE OF THE 18 MEMBERS OF THE ORGANIZING CITIZENS COMMITTEE IS CLARENCE K.STREIT, LONG-TIME ADVOCATE OF WORLD UNION. ROBERTS SAID THAT THE NEW FEDERATION PROPOSAL IS SEPARATE FROM THE UNION NOW MOVEMENT WHICH STREIT HAS PRESSED.

(200) WASHINGTON,MARCH 15-(AP)-THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE TODAY AGREED IN PRINCIPLE TO A SHARP RESOLUTION CONDEMNING THE GOVERNMENTS OF HUNGARY, BULGARIA AND YUGOSLAVIA FOR THEIR PROSECUTIONS OF CATHOLIC AND PROTESTANT CLERGYMEN.

CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) TOLD REPORTERS THAT A FINAL DRAFT IS BEING PREPARED AND PROBABLY WILL COME BEFORE THE COMMITTEE LATER THIS WEEK.

CONNALLY SAID THE COMMITTEE REGARDS ACTIONS OF THE THREE CENTRAL EUROPEAN GOVERNMENTS AGAINST RELIGIOUS LEADERS AS "OUTRAGEOUS" AND A VIOLATION OF THE FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS.

THE RESOLUTION, HE INDICATED, WILL COMBINE PROTESTS THAT HAVE BEEN MADE AGAINST THE PROSECUTION OF CARDINAL MINDSZENTY OF HUNGARY, ARCHBISHOP STEPINATZ OF YUGOSLAVIA, LUTHERAN BISHOP LAJOS ORDASS OF HUNGARY, 15 PROTESTANT CLERGYMEN IN BULGARIA, AND OTHER CHURCH LEADERS.

CONNALLY NOTED THAT BULGARIA AND HUNGARY IN THE PEACE TREATIES AFTER WORLD WAR II PROMISED TO GUARANTEE THE FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS TO THEIR PEOPLE. HE ADDED:

"I REGARD THE ACTIONS OF THEIR GOVERNMENTS AS A BREACH OF THAT SOLEMN PLEDGE."

CONNALLY SAID THE COMMITTEE WILL URGE THAT ALL OF THE CASES BE TAKEN UP BY THE UNITED NATIONS. THIS IS AIMED AT YUGOSLAVIA, WHICH FOUGHT ON THE SIDE OF THE WESTERN POWERS DURING THE WAR, AND WHICH, THEREFORE, IS BOUND TO NO TREATY WITH THE UNITED STATES.

MAR 15 1949

WASHINGTON,MARCH 15-(AP)-ATOM-POWERED SHIPS AND SUBMARINES MAY BE ONLY FIVE OR SIX YEARS FROM REALITY.

SENATOR MCMAHON (D-CONN) ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY THAT THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION IS STARTING A HUGE NEW ATOMIC PROJECT WHICH MAY PRODUCE MOBILE ATOMIC POWER PLANTS WITHIN THAT TIME.

THE CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE-HOUSE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMITTEE GAVE REPORTERS THESE FACTS AFTER A MEETING WITH CHAIRMAN DAVID LILIENTHAL AND OTHER COMMISSION OFFICIALS AND ENGINEERS:

1. THE MULTI-MILLION DOLLAR PROJECT WILL INCLUDE NEW ATOMIC REACTORS FOR STEPPED-UP EXPERIMENTS IN THE USE OF PEACETIME ATOMIC POWER AND IMPROVEMENTS IN ATOMIC WEAPONS.

2. IT WILL BE LOCATED AT ONE OF THREE POSSIBLE SITES IN A WESTERN STATE.

3. THE PROJECT EVENTUALLY WILL BE ABOUT THE SIZE OF THE HANFORD, WASH., ATOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND WILL GIVE WORK TO "SEVERAL THOUSAND."

"AT THE END OF THIS RESEARCH," MCMAHON SAID, "WE ARE HOPEFUL WE CAN DEMONSTRATE THAT MOBILE POWER PLANTS NOT ONLY ARE FEASIBLE BUT ARE HERE. THERE IS REASONABLE EXPECTANCY THE RESULT WILL BE ACCOMPLISHED."

IT IS KNOWN THAT WESTINGHOUSE ELECTRIC CORPORATION HAS BEEN WORKING WITH COMMISSION SCIENTISTS IN TRYING TO HARNESS ATOMIC POWER FOR PROPELLING NAVAL VESSELS. IT IS PRESUMED WESTINGHOUSE WILL CONTINUE THESE EXPERIMENTS AT THE NEW PROJECT.

THE COMMISSION HAS MADE NO FINAL DECISION. MCMAHON SAID, ON

WHERE THE PROJECT WILL BE LOCATED. IDAHO HAS BEEN MENTIONED AS A POSSIBILITY.

THE SELECTION OF A SITE WILL DEPEND ON SUCH FACTORS AS WATER SUPPLY, CLIMATE, POPULATION AND SECURITY, MCMAHON SAID.

THE SIZE OF THE TOWN THAT WILL GROW UP WITH THE PROJECT, HE ADDED, WILL DEPEND LARGELY ON WHAT HOUSING IS AVAILABLE IN NEARBY SMALL TOWNS. BUT IT'S EXPECTED TO BE PRETTY BIG.

APPARENTLY IN REFERENCE TO THE SAME PROJECT, COMMISSION MEMBER ROBERT F.BACHER SAID IN BOSTON LAST MONTH THAT THE AEC PLANNED TO BUILD THREE NEW REACTORS--MACHINES WHICH PRODUCE ATOMIC ENERGY--IN THE WEST. TWO OF THESE, HE SAID, WOULD BE USED TO EXPLORE THE "BREEDING PROCESS," WHICH PRODUCES ATOMIC FUEL FASTER THAN IT IS CONSUMED.

(300) WASHINGTON,MARCH 15-(AP)-SECRETARY OF THE ARMY ROYALL DISCLOSED TODAY HE HAD ORDERED A STAY OF EXECUTION OF 12 GERMANS CONDEMNED TO DIE FOR THE MASSACRE OF CAPTURED U.S. SOLDIERS IN 1944.

HE SAID HE WELCOMED THE OPINION OF A SENATE INVESTIGATIONS SUB-COMMITTEE IN REVIEWING THE DEATH SENTENCES.

SOME 73 S.S. MEN WERE CHARGED WITH MURDERING AMERICAN PRISONERS AT MALMEDY, BELGIUM, DURING THE BATTLE OF THE BULGE DECEMBER, 1944, AND AFTER TRIAL ALL WERE FOUND GUILTY. ON REVIEW, ONLY 12 OF 43 DEATH SENTENCES WERE APPROVED BY GEN.LUCIUS D.CLAY, U.S. MILITARY GOVERNOR IN GERMANY.

LATER, AFTER AN UNSUCCESSFUL APPEAL TO THE SUPREME COURT BY THE CONVICTED GERMANS, ROYALL APPOINTED A COMMISSION HEADED BY JUSTICE GORDON SIMPSON OF THE TEXAS SUPREME COURT TO REVIEW THE CASE.

THE SIMPSON COMMISSION FOUND EVIDENCE OF IMPROPRIETY BY THE PROSECUTION IN THE CONDUCT OF THE TRIALS, INCLUDING ALLEGED INTIMIDATION OF THE DEFENDANTS.

IT RECOMMENDED CLEMENCY FOR 29 CONDEMNED PERSONS CONDEMNED AS WAR CRIMINALS, INCLUDING THE 12 DOOMED GERMANS INVOLVED IN THE MALMEDY MASSACRE. IN THAT TRAGIC EPISODE, GERMAN ELITE TROOPS WERE REPORTED TO HAVE LINED UP CAPTURED U.S. SOLDIERS BY THE ROADSIDE AND MACHINE-GUNNED THEM TO DEATH.

ROYALL SAID TODAY IN A LETTER TO SENATOR MCCARTHY (R-WIS) THAT AFTER THE SIMPSON REPORT, GENERAL CLAY REAFFIRMED FIVE DEATH SENTENCES BUT DEFERRED RECONSIDERATION OF THE 12 DEATH SENTENCES IN THE MALMEDY CASE UNTIL HE RECEIVED THE REPORT OF HIS OWN BOARD OF INVESTIGATION.

"ON FEB. 14, 1949, THE REPORT OF GENERAL CLAY'S BOARD ON THE MALMEDY CASE WAS COMPLETED AND GENERAL CLAY STATED HE WOULD RECONSIDER THE SENTENCES IN THE MALMEDY CASE IN THE LIGHT OF THIS REPORT AS WELL AS THE REPORT OF THE SIMPSON COMMISSION," ROYALL WROTE.

"ON MARCH 2, 1949, I ADVISED GENERAL CLAY NOT TO EXECUTE ANY OF THE 12 MALMEDY CONDEMNED AS I WAS CONSIDERING THEIR CASES HERE. THE JUDGE ADVOCATE GENERAL IS NOW SUMMARIZING THESE CASES FOR ME."

MAR 15 1949

"AN ATTEMPT TO PROVIDE COMPLETE-NECESSARILY UNDERGROUND-PROTECTION AGAINST ATOMIC ATTACK AT CLOSE RANGE WOULD COST SO MUCH AND INTERFERE SO GREATLY WITH WHAT WE HAVE COME TO REGARD AS NORMAL LIVING THAT IT IS UNACCEPTABLE.

"THE ONLY ALTERNATIVE IS TO ACCEPT A 'CALCULATED RISK'--THE MILITARY EUPHEMISM FOR TAKING A CHANCE. THERE IS NOTHING UNUSUAL ABOUT SUCH A COMPROMISE WITH FATE. WE MAKE THESE DECISIONS EACH TIME WE RIDE IN A TAXICAB OR GO SKATING OR SKIING."

SUMMING UP THE ESTIMATED EFFECT OF ATOMIC BLAST, PARSONS SAID:

"AN ATOMIC AIR BURST WILL RENDER USELESS ALMOST ANY FEASIBLE UNDERGROUND STRUCTURE AT A DISTANCE OUT TO ABOUT HALF A MILE. BEYOND THIS RANGE STRUCTURES WHICH ARE DESIGNED TO RESIST TORNADOES, FIRES AND EARTHQUAKES ALSO BEGIN TO RESIST THE BLAST, WIND, HEAT AND SHOCK PRODUCED BY AN ATOMIC BOMB. X X X

"IN MY OPINION, THE SOUND APPROACH TO CITY AND STRUCTURE DESIGN IS TO CONTINUE TO EMPHASIZE PRIMARY FUNCTIONS AND TO ADD ATOMIC BLAST AND RADIATION FLASH TO THE LIST OF NATURAL AND MAN-MADE CATASTROPHES WHICH MAY AT SOME TIME BE ENCOUNTERED. X X X

"IF WE LOOK AHEAD FIVE OR TEN YEARS, WE MUST CONSIDER THE POSSIBILITY OF ENCOUNTERING ATOMIC BLAST. THIS POSSSIBILITY MAY FOR SOME PLACES BE SO SMALL THAT IT CAN BE NEGLECTED--IN OTHER CASES IT MAY BE GREATER THAN THE HAZARD OF A HURRICANE OR EARTHQUAKE."

Portugal's Entry As Pact Signer Is Forecast

Washington, March 16 (AP)—Diplomatic authorities predicted today that Portugal probably will join the proposed Atlantic security pact despite Portuguese objections to Spain's "exclusion" and other matters.

A Portuguese Embassy statement last night made clear that the Lisbon Government has not yet reached a final decision and that questions about the treaty are still being asked of the American Government.

Portugal's chief objection appeared to be its expressed determination not to make any treaty commitment which would compel it to grant peacetime bases to a foreign power in the Azores Islands.

Reassured On Azores

The Government also emphasized that it would not join any group of powers which would have the authority to decide by vote that it should grant bases.

It was learned, however, that the State Department is assuring the Portuguese Government that the treaty would carry no commitment to grant bases and that the other member powers in the alliance would have no authority to decide that issue for Portugal.

The position of the United States and other pact countries on this point—as previously expressed also to Iceland and Denmark—is that the treaty will provide a "framework" in which the base issue can eventually be worked out.

Hits Exclusion Of Spain

With respect to Spain, the Portuguese statement said that country's "exclusion" could "only weaken the role" of the Iberian peninsula in the Atlantic defense system.

Optimism among treaty negotiators here as to Portugal's eventually lining up with the other Atlantic powers rested on two things. First, there was the ready reassurance to Portugal about bases. Second, there was the declaration in the Embassy statement that "the Portuguese Government was one of the first governments to express satisfaction on the idea of a pact of the Atlantic nations."

Iceland Statesman Leaving

Iceland's Foreign Minister, Bjarni Benediktsson, was due to make a farewell call on Secretary of State Acheson today. Denmark's Foreign Minister, Gustav Rasmussen, left Washington last night.

Meanwhile, the nations which have been drafting the treaty through their ambassadors here have concluded their work. In addition to the United States, Britain and France, they are Norway, Canada, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. The other four now generally expected to join this group in time for the initial signing ceremony here Friday are Italy, Iceland, Denmark and Portugal.

Alliance Powers Send Treaty Bids To Four Nations

Washington, Thursday, March 17 (AP)—The Atlantic Pact powers today invited Denmark, Iceland, Italy and Portugal to join in signing the proposed North Atlantic security treaty.

The governments of all those countries have been considering joining the alliance and it is expected here that all four will do so.

The State Department announced the invitation.

It was understood here that each of the governments to which the invitation was sent also was being provided with a copy of the text of the treaty. The inviting countries are those which drafted the text. It is scheduled to be made generally public tomorrow.

Swedish General's Opinion

Stockholm, March 16 (AP)—Gen. Helge Jung, commander in chief of Sweden's armed forces, expressed hope tonight Sweden could co-operate militarily with Norway and Denmark even though the two Scandanavian neighbors join the Atlantic treaty.

"Our destinies are inseparably bound together by unchangeable geographical conditions," he said. "It is to be hoped that co-operation between Scandinavian countries will gradually be extended to include also defense co-operation prepared in peace time before it is too late."

The general's statement was regarded here as another evidence of diverse opinions between the Government and top military leaders on Sweden's official policy of neutrality.

Brought Into Open

The rift was brought into the open last week in a similar but more strongly worded statement by Maj. Gen. Nils Swedlund, chief of Sweden's general staff.

Swedlund said it is a strong Swedish interest that the matereial commitments of the Atlantic treaty "be fulfilled quickly." His statement drew attacks from Swedish Communists.

Today Swedlund's statement caused Premier Take Erlander to declare in Parliament that, although top officials were free to state their opinions, the country's foreign policy was made by Parliament.

Inseparably Bound

Jung said the destinies of Scandinavian countries were inseparably bound together because:

1. Norway cannot be attacked by strong Russian forces if these do not have Swedish territory and Swedish communications at their disposal.

2. Vital entrances to the Baltic constitute a joint Danish-Swedish defense problem.

Jung said that cut off from supplies from the West and completely surrounded, any defense of Sweden would be impossible.

"The consequences of this fact cannot be misunderstood," he declared.

Jung made the statements in a speech before a civil defense audience at Kristianstad. The text was distributed to newsmen by the Swedish Foreign Office.

Italian Red Unions Hit Pact Plans

Rome, March 16 (AP)—The Communist-led General Confederation of Labor issued a manifesto against the North Atlantic Alliance. It said the pact would expose Italy, a prospective member, to enormous dangers, not to defend national interests, but to serve imperialists and foreign interests."

The Chamber of Deputies is debating a Government proposal to adhere to the Atlantic accord. An affirmative vote may come tonight.

Protest Strike Called

The Chamber of Labor at Lecco, in northern Italy near Como, called a two-hour general strike in protest against incidents last night in which fifteen anti-treaty demonstrators and police were hurt.

Police breaking up the unauthorized meeting were stoned by several hundred workers. The officers fired machine guns into the air and used tear gas.

Italian Premier Cites Arguments For Treaty

Rome, Thursday, March 17 (AP)—Premier Alcide de Gasperi outlined to an uproarious session of the Chamber of Deputies early today why he believes Italy should support the Atlantic treaty.

Howls of "death to the government of war" greeted the Premier as he took the rostrum. The shouts came from the left of the chamber, where the Communists and their supporters hurled denunciations of the treaty.

Although the vote was slated to come at the end of de Gasperi's speech, delaying tactics from the Left were expected.

Challenged By Labor Unions

Yesterday the Government's plan to join the treaty was challanged by the Communist-dominated General Confederation of Labor (CGIL).

The labor group charged that membership in the alliance would expose Italy to "enormous dangers." It said Italians would be shackled to an agreement to "serve imperialist and foreign powers."

In its manifesto addressed "to the nation," the CGIL said: "We want peace with everybody. We want war with nobody."

In northern Italy, the Chamber of Labor at Lecco, near Como, called a two-hour general strike after a melee involving anti-alliance demonstrators and police. Several demonstrators and police were hurt when the police attempted to break up the unauthorized demonstration.

Workers Stone Police

Several hundred workers stoned the police, who fired machine guns into the air and used tear gas to quell the riot.

In Milan, the independent Corriere Della Sera reported that unidentified airplanes have flown over the Modena area without lights for the last twenty nights. Modena, near Bologna, is in a strongly Communist area.

A Modena dispatch to Rome's independent Messaggero said it was believed war material had been parachuted from the mystery planes. This dispatch was not confirmed.

U. S. SENDS ITALY ARMS PACT DRAFT

MAR 16 1949

WASHINGTON, March 16—(AP) The United States has paved the way for Italy's entry into the Atlantic defense pact by sending the final draft of the alliance to Rome for study by the Italian government, government officials disclosed tonight.

Once Italy indicates informally it approves the text, a formal invitation to join the other sponsoring countries in the alliance will go out.

12 Nations Included

If Italy joins as expected, along with Iceland, Denmark and Portugal, the number of countries linked into this tight mutual-aid pact will rise to 12.

Iceland's foreign minister is scheduled to call tomorrow morning on Secretary of State Acheson to get the answers to questions he asked. Acheson's replies are fully expected to convince Iceland it should join the pact.

Italy's entry into the alliance would represent a triumph for France and the United States. They overcame initial objections from Britain, the low countries and Canada.

The British especially are reported to have objected that Italy's entry might extend the alliance too far southward and expose the members to unnecessary risk.

The American and French governments, on the other hand, successfully argued that Italy's pro-western outlook and its strategic position in the Mediterranean made it necessary to include her.

Rome, March 16 (A. P.).—The Communist-led General Confederation of Labor (C. G. I. L.) issued a manifesto today against the North Atlantic Alliance.

FRANCE APPROVES ATLANTIC UNION

Paris, March 16 (A. P.).—The French Government approved today the terms of the projected Atlantic pact, and authorized its signature.

Paul Devinat, Minister of State attached to the staff of Premier Henri Queuille, made the announcement after a Cabinet meeting considered France's adherence to the security alliance.

Devinat said the Cabinet adopted the recommendations of Robert Schuman, Foreign Minister, and Paul Ramadier, Defense Minister, who returned earlier in the day from a five-nation western European conference at London to consider the final draft of the alliance.

The French National Assembly and the upper House of Parliament, the Council of the Republic, still must ratify the action before France can be considered legally bound to the alliance. The accord will not be submitted to Parliament until after France has signed it.

3 OF BALKANS ARM SECRETLY, BRITAIN SAYS

Russian Satellites Violate Peace Treaties, London Charges

London, March 16 (AP)—Western powers accused Russia and three of her satellites today of going back on their commitments.

Britain declared Communist-ruled Bulgaria, Romania and Hungary, now in the Soviet bloc after wartime partnership with Germany, were secretly rearming, in violation of their peace treaties.

with Russia's connivance and support.

The United States State Department, in a note to Moscow made public today, accused Russia of violating at least six separate promises to return all German war prisoners in Soviet hands by the end of 1948. It renewed a demand that they be turned loose.

Appeal To U.N. Hinted

France and Britain sent similar notes, the State Department said. The British note estimated at least 200,000 Germans are still in Russian hands. Russia contends she was never bound by any agreement to repatriate the captives by last December 31. The United States, Britain and France contend the Big Four foreign ministers reached such an agreement in April, 1947.

Hector McNeil, Minister of State, told the House of Commons Bulgaria, Romania and Hungary are guilty of "flagrant violations of the peace treaties" in rearming and hinted Britain will take the matter to the United Nations.

Turn Down Data Request

Bulgaria and Romania have already increased their armed forces beyond treaty specifications, he said, and Hungary is reported expanding her military strength.

McNeil said all three have turned down a British-American request for information on their armed strength on the ground that Russia, one of the Allies concerned in the treaties, did not join in the request.

The treaties granted Hungary authority for 65,000 troops and a 5,000-man air force of 90 planes. Bulgaria was left an army of 55,000, plus 1,800 for anti-aircraft defense. 5,000 airmen with 90 planes and a 6,000-man navy with ships totaling 7,250 tons. Romania was limited to 120,000 troops, 5,000 men in anti-aircraft defenses, 8,000 men in a 150-plane air force and 5,000 navy men with 25,000 tons of shipping. All three were denied heavy bombers.

Provision Now In Effect

A member of Commons asked what Britain would do in view of the "flagrant violations." McNeil said the treaties provide for an appeal to the United Nations by any of the nations which signed the pacts. A special United Nations commission then would be assigned to investigate.

This provision came into effect only yesterday, eighteen months after the formal signing ceremonies, McNeil said. Previously the treaty provisions could be invoked only by concerted action of the Big Three.

"Of course," McNeil said, "if no co-operation is offered in examining the implications of these military clauses, our worst fears will be realized and our attitude will be varied accordingly."

Freedom Violations

McNeil reiterated previous charges that the three countries have violated treaty provisions guaranteeing freedom of speech, press, religion and public meeting to all citizens. He said political parties, churches and newspapers are being liquidated for refusal to go along with the Communists.

"The day-to-day persecution of the man in the street must also be remembered," he said.

In response to questions, McNeil said Britain will press for information about the health and treatment of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, the Catholic Primate serving a life term in Hungary after conviction by a People's Court of treason.

He said the British charge d'affaires in Budapest has been unable to obtain reliable information regarding the Cardinal's living conditions, but that it is believed he is at present in a detention prison and not a convict prison.

Distraction Charge Denied

The British Government's note to Russia on the prisoner of war situation was delivered yesterday, as was that of the United States.

It denied Russian statements that the British were bringing up the matter to "distract the attention of public opinion from the fact that a number of German prisoners of war have, of their own choice, volunteered to remain in the United Kingdom and in the Middle East as free civilian workers."

"His Majesty's Government made no secret of the existence of this category of volunteer workers and take this opportunity of stating that, in all, 16,376 former German prisoners of war have volunteered to remain in the United Kingdom and 543 in the Middle East," the note said.

It proposed that Russia and Britain agree upon an international body to conduct a free investigation of the conditions of the Germans in Russia and in Britain and the Middle East.

Briton Accuses East Bloc Of Rearming

MAR 16 1948

London, March 16 (AP)—Minister of State Hector McNeil today charged that three former Nazi allies "in collusion with Russia" are rearming in violation of their peace treaties.

McNeil accused Romania, Bulgaria and Hungary of "flagrant violations of the peace treaties with Soviet connivance and even with Soviet support."

Bulgarian and Romanian armed forces already exceed the figures laid down in the treaties, McNeil told Parliament. He added that while Hungarian forces might be below treaty strength, they are reported to be expanding.

Russ Didn't Sign

McNeil said when Britain and the United States sent a request to all three former Nazi satellites asking for details of their armies, they refused to comply on the grounds the third big power—Russia—did not sign the request.

"In such circumstances," McNeil said, "the British Government is entitled to conclude that the ex-enemy governments, in collusion with the Government of Russia, are not implementing the military clauses of he peace treaty."

The three treaties were to be supervised by the Allied powers for a period of eighteen months, which ended yesterday. McNeil said during that period there have been "violations of the human rights, military an economic clauses by all three ex-enemy countries."

Treaty Rights

The British Minister said Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin "assures the House that we fully maintain our rights to invoke the treaty machinery at any time in the future."

Treaty provisions allow Hungary an army of 65,000 and a 5,000-man air force of 90 planes. Bulgaria is allowed a 55,000-man army, 1,800 men for anti-aircraft defense, 5,200 airmen with 90 planes and 3,000 seamen with 7,250 tons of shipping. Romania was to have 120,000 land troops, 5,000 anti-aircraft gunners, 8,000 airmen manning 150 planes and 5,000 seamen for a 25,000-ton navy. None was to have heavy bombers or rockets, even experimentally.

"Whenever (Britain) or the United States has attempted to invoke the peace treaty by calling a meeting of representatives of the three Allied powers with a view to concerting action, the Soviet representative has refused to attend," McNeil said.

All three treaties guaranteed freedom of religion, press, speech and public meetings to all persons.

WESTERN POWERS NEAR ACCORD ON GERMAN PROGRAM

A GAUS Hop

LONDON, March 16—(AP) Official sources said the western powers narrowed down today the differences in their policies on German reconstruction.

For the second time in three days, U. S. Ambassador Lewis Douglas met with foreign ministers Ernest Bevin of Britain and Robert Schumann of France.

Two Hour Conference

They talked about the plant dismantling program in western Germany, prohibition of certain industries which could be used in wartime and Germany's obligation to pay war reparations. The two hour conference produced a board directive which presumably will be used as the basis of future talks.

An American embassy spokesman said he could give no details of the decisions taken.

The western powers moved in Frankfurt to include France in trade agreements between six European countries and the British and American zones. The agreements involve Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Finland, Czechoslovakia and Greece.

Larger problems were discussed here.

The U. S. wants about 160 plants in Germany's western zones saved from dismantlement. These plants normally would be distributed among the allies to meet part of their war reparations claims.

Britain, France May Yield

Britain and France are expected to yield to at least some of the American demands. But they would like it made clear just what reparations Germany is to be made to pay. Also, they would like a blueprint on what industries are going to be allowed in Germany.

The ship-building British, for example, don't like the idea of the Germans being given the right to rebuild a fleet which might be used in time of war.

The main American consideration is said to be a desire to see west Germany produce effectively in the European Recovery program.

British Press Skeptical On Wider U.S. Trade

MAR 16 1948

London, March 16 (AP)—The British Government's great expectations for the American market drew skepticism from newspapers today.

In this year's economic survey, the Treasury said yesterday Britain still needs dollars and thus must sell more goods in the United States and Canada.

Some editorials said that will be hard to do. Newspapers took exception to the Government's view that prospects for increasing sales in North America are "very promising."

Sees Market Change

The Conservative Daily Graphic said, "It seems that the Government are reckoning too confidently that there will be no unfavorable change in world markets."

Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express declared: "The sellers' market is now ending."

The Liberal News Chronicle, while generally favorable to the Government's plans, said: "Goods are becoming more difficult to sell abroad—all the more so because our costs and therefore our prices are still rising."

Price Cuts Needed

The independent Financial Times, often critical of the actions of the Labor Government, said if British exports to the dollar area are to be expanded, prices must come down.

"The assumption of the survey is that the terms of trade will remain virtually unchanged," it went on. "Reductions in price must therefore, come from action at home. But there are no signs that the Government are prepared for the implications of their own policy."

The independent Times of London noted that the proportion of British exports to the dollar area is still below prewar.

Export Policy Weighed

"Yet a chief reason for this is that the Government's encouragement of exports to soft-currency countries has made the prices to be obtained in those countries more attractive," it said.

"Here the purposes set out (in the survey) are admirable, but it is still far from sure that the ways and means of achieving them are always equally well chosen."

The Express demanded that the value of the pound sterling, now fixed, be allowed to seek its own level through supply and demand.

Sees Survey Cautious

The Liberal Manchester Guardian observed:

"What progress we make this year toward recovery depends not on our total production but on our costs and selling prices, on our ability to make things that Americans and Canadians will buy. Here the survey is cautious. It never discusses the possibility of a slump in world markets, of the unemployment that may follow in the export trades if workers cannot change jobs more quickly."

Newspapers generally accepted at face value the Government's statement that Britain is well on the road to recovery—and cheered it.

Douglas Meeting Foreign Aides Again

London, March 16 (AP)—United States Ambassador Lewis Douglas met again today with the foreign ministers of Britain and France to settle differences on German reconstruction.

At issue are how many German factories should be dismantled for war reparations and what industries should be prohibited.

The United States is under some congressional pressure to cut further an already reduced program of dismantlement. Those urging this policy say it would aid western European recovery.

Ernest Bevin of Britain and Robert Schuman of France don't want to talk only about dismantlement. They want to discuss it with the overall question of Germany's obligation to pay reparations.

Sofia-London Ties Declared Jeopardized

London, March 16 (AP)—Hector McNeil, Minister of State, told the House of Commons today Anglo-Bulgarian relations will be "seriously harmed" if the Sofia Government does not withdraw its request for recall of a British diplomat.

The diplomat—Denis Greenhill—was named in the Sofia trial as being involved in espionage activities of which fifteen Protestant churchmen were convicted.

Britain has formally denied Greenhill had been implicated in any way in spy activities.

CUT IN BRITISH MEAT

London, March 16 (A. P.).—The British meat ration will be cut 20 per cent within ten days, food industry experts predicted today. They blamed the cut on failure of Argentina to fulfill her contract for delivery of beef.

The reduction, industry spokesmen said, would be from ten pence to eight pence (16.5 to 13.2 cents) per person each week—just about enough for one meal, with perhaps enough for stew or soup left over. In addition, each Briton can buy two pence (3 1/3 cents) worth of corned beef weekly.

France Bids Russia Join Prisoner Survey

Paris, March 16 (AP)—France is willing to let an international labor organization survey her German workers who formerly were prisoners of war, if "Russia will do the same," the Foreign Office said tonight.

About 100,000 Germans who were prisoners of war are now employed as free workers by France's mines and farms.

Soviets Disavow 'Peace Envoy,' Hit Talks

Berlin, March 16 (AP)—The Russians turned their backs today on a group of Germans who are discussing privately ways of ending the East-West cold war.

The Soviet Military Government used the official army newspaper, Taeglische Rundschau, to make this plain.

The Rundschau in an editorial asserted flatly that Rudolf Nadolny, former German ambassador to Moscow, has no connections with the Russians now.

Conferred On Rhine

Nadolny, now living in the East, met with Western Germans on the Rhine last Sunday.

One of the conferees said the group talked about the political situation and whether Germans could mediate the dispute.

Some press reports named Nadolny as a representative of the Soviets in the discussion.

The Rundschau editorial also referred to the group which met with Nadolny as "adherents of the splitting of Germany."

More Blockade Points

While their editorials shrilled against the splitting of Germany, the Comunist police widened the split themselves in Berlin by throwing up more blockade points in the quartered city.

Meanwhile the Western press reported that the Soviet-zone Finance Ministers were called into a special session with the Russian commanders to discuss the impending outlawing of the East mark in western Berlin.

Announcement that only West marks will be valid in the Western sectors is likely within two weeks. The move is expected to have considerable effect on the Soviet-zone economy.

FRANCE IS INCLUDED IN GERMAN TRADE PACTS

FRANKFURT, Germany, March 16—(AP) Trade agreements between six European countries and the British-American zones of Germany were revised today to include the French zone.

The military governors of all three zones at a meeting, signed the revised accords with Czechoslovakia, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Finland and Greece. The exact amounts of the trade with each country were not announced. All the accords have been in force with the American-British zone.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, U. S. military governor, said a trizonal fusion of Western Germany was discussed without concrete result at the meeting. He added there was no disagreement.

Clay said the U. S. military government has taken steps to assure American business men fair competition in Germany. He said all persons who served in the army, the military government, or the joint export-import agency were not allowed to deal with or through the agency for two years after leaving their jobs. The general said there have been complaints that such persons had an advantage.

'Tis The End Of The World Germans Say Is Coming Today

MAR 16 1949

R. O'REGAN

Frankfurt, Germany, March 16 (AP)—Tomorrow is St. Patrick's Day and there are Germans who predict you will never live to see it through.

'Tis the end of the world they say that is coming.

Who it is that's at the back of all this, who it is that would be spoiling the fun, nobody in Germany seems to know.

But somebody started a rumor the world will end and thousands of Germans are excited.

Sure, they're even writing editorials in the newspapers about it.

Astronomer Blames Astrologers

"Ach, there is no truth to it," said a German astronomer. "It is the astrologers who started it. They make a lot of people worried.

"Everybody calls me today and says it is true or it is not true, is it, that the world will end? Even the politicians call me.

"But the astrologers, they cannot get together. They don't even agree.

"Somebody predicted the end of the world, but most of us believe only there may be serious happenings," he said. "The sun and Mars are in conjunction. Always that is a dangerous time.

Diplomacy More Dangerous

"Most astrologers believe there will be storms, natural catastrophes, explosions or deaths of prominent persons."

And what about Ireland and the Irish on March 17?

"If the world doesn't end, they probably will be all right," the astrologer said.

To all this, the Frankfurter Neue Presse commented:

"The starry heaven is not as dangerous as the diplomacy of human beings. Don't worry . . . about heaven."

Mysterious Planes Reported Over Italy

Milan, March 16 (A. P.).—The Corriere Della Sera reported today that for the last twenty nights airplanes of unknown nationality have flown at low altitude with lights out over the Modena area, near Bologna.

Il Messaggero in Rome repeated the report and added that it was believed war material had been parachuted.

YUGOS FEAR REDS WILL 'INTENSIFY' PRESSURE ON TITO

A GAUSTON

LONDON, March 16. — (AP) Ales Bebler, Yugoslav deputy foreign minister, predicted today the Cominform will intensify its pressure on Marshal Tito's regime in the next six months.

In an interview before leaving for Belgrade, Bebler would not say what form he thinks "intensified" Cominform pressure will take. He clearly implied it would be something more than the present economic squeeze Russia and her friends are exerting.

Diplomats of several nations here believe Russia now has given her blessing to unifying the Macedonian segments of Greece, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia to form a greater Macedonian state. Bebler did not belittle this possibility. He said such a project would fail in Yugoslav Macedonia.

Yugos Will Return

He predicted Yugoslavia would return to the Cominform once the Slav bloc realizes it cannot unseat Tito's government.

Bebler's forecast of mounting Cominform pressure came as Istanbul and Trieste reported travelers' stories of troop concentrations on both sides of Yugoslavia's frontiers with Romania, Bulgaria, Albania. In Trieste the conservative newspaper Giornale Di Trieste said it learned from Istrian sources that anti-Tito elements blew up a quarter-mile stretch of the Trieste-Pola railway line Saturday night.

The sabotage, according to this report, occurred near Cerreto on Yugoslav territory. The report said Tito troops rushed to the Cerreto area immediately.

Bebler laughed heartily when he was asked what specific factors were necessary for a Moscow-Belgrade reconciliation.

"You must ask Moscow that," he countered.

He then said a reconciliation would come when the Cominform discovers Yugoslavia's present regime cannot be shifted, and Yugoslavia was right in the quarrel with the other communist states of east Europe.

Cites Yugo Progress

Bebler claimed that despite the Cominform's economic squeeze, Yugoslavia is more than fulfilling the targets of her five-year plan.

Yugoslavia was tossed out of the Cominform last spring, ostensibly because of the way the Tito regime was practicing socialism. All the same, Tito and the men around him have maintained a foreign policy closely linked to Russia's.

At the same time, Bebler pointed out, events have forced Yugoslavia to develop trade with the west. Belgrade, he said, recently sent a former deputy foreign trade minister, M. Filipovic, to act as commercial counsellor in Washington in the hope that he would be able to develop trade with the United States.

Bebler said the United States appears now to be looking at Yugoslavia in terms of an export market.

Already, he went on, the Yugoslav government has noted a relaxation of the American system of granting export licenses for goods Yugoslavia needs.

ANTI TITO FORCES GROUPING ALONG YUGOSLAV BORDER

MAR 16 1949

ROME, March 16 (AP)—The Italian news agency Astra said tonight anti-Tito forces which have fled Yugosalvia are grouped along the Albanian, Greek, Bulgarian and Hungarian frontiers of Yugoslavia.

Without giving any source for its report coming out of Trieste, Astra said these forces were under command of a former Yugoslav ambassador to Romania.

The agency said also there are Soviet troop formations on premier Marshal Tito's Romanian and Hungarian borders. "Numerous Russian technicians" have been flown into Albania within the last five months, Astra added.

The anti-Tito refugees would be those who side with the Soviet Union and the rest of the Cominform—the association of communist countries in eastern Europe—in the propaganda assault on Tito's leadership in Yugoslavia.

Call for 'Action'

Astra said radios in cominform countries today renewed their calls for "direct action to bring down the regime of Marshal Tito."

Astra added: "Reports filtering across the borders of Yugoslavia and the Trieste free territory say the Yugoslav population is convinced that important events are taking place.

"Limitations on traffic, intensification of armed vigilence over coasts and frontiers and movements of military units, while they impede the flow of news, have strengthened the opinion that something decisive is maturing."

Astra said sailors reaching Trieste from Istria reported Tito had been on the island of Brioni near Pola since March 1 and had meetings there with "western representatives."

New Kremlin Drive Against Tito Seen

Trieste, March 16 (AP)—Devoted followers of the Kremlin again are crying for the scalp of Premier Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia.

Moscow's apparently renewed drive against the "renegade" Yugoslav leader is reported to have internal, as well as external, aspects.

Reports from travelers, foreign embassies and other sources tell of domestic difficulties in Yugoslavia. These reports, none confirmed, have popped up in several places.

Meeting With West Hinted

The conservative newspaper Ultimissimo here said yesterday Tito soon will meet "some Western World personalities in view of the internal situation of Yugoslavia."

The Italian news agency Astra said Tito's internal situation is "particularly delicate in Macedonia, where Bulgarian and Macedonian Communists faithful to the Cominform continue to push an active propaganda campaign against the Belgrade Government."

Ultimissimo also said pro-Cominform propaganda "is spreading successfully" in Yugoslavia.

French Are Concerned

In Paris, French Foreign Ministry sources are closely watching the situation in Southeast Europe. Officials said they had no definite information on any imminent move there but felt concern at the prospect of a revival by Russia of the independent Macedonia idea, which would be likely to encounter stiff opposition from Yugoslavia.

Such a Macedonian state would embrace the southern tip of Yugoslavia, pieces of Bulgaria and Albania, and a portion of Greece around Salonika.

ARMISTICE LINES SET IN JERUSALEM

Israel, Trans-Jordan Reach Accord Based on Nov.

30 Truce Agreement

L.S. CHARLES

RHODES, March 16—(AP) Israel and Trans-Jordan agreed tonight to armistice lines for the Jerusalem sector based on the truce line of Nov. 30.

MAR 16 1949

An Israeli spokesman said the line starts roughly at a point near the village of Al Walaja southwest of Jerusalem, passes through the city, then swings back to the west completing a semi-circle.

No detailed settlement was reached concerning such points as use of roads and accessibility to the holy places.

The Nov. 30 agreement was signed by Lt. Col. Moshe Dayan of Israel and Lt. Col. Abdullah Bey Tell of Trans-Jordan, the commanders in the area.

Continue Peace Talks

Dayan, who heads the military section of the Israeli delegation at the UN armistice talks here, and Maj. Shault Ramati of Trans-Jordan will leave tomorrow by plane for Tel Aviv. They will carry with them a complete list of differences between the two countries for consideration by their governments.

At the same time the United Nations Mediator, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, announced that detailed reports from official UN observers showed no clash had taken place between Israeli and Arab forces in the Aqaba area, as reported from Amman, Trans-Jordan, five days ago.

Bunche confirmed that Israeli forces, moving south in Negev territory to the gulf of Aqaba, have occupied the hamlet of UMM Resh Resh, but said only 200 men were involved and not 3,000 as previously reported.

Bunche said none of Trans-Jordan's Arab Legion units was west of the Trans-Jordan frontier and that the Israeli movement south through the Araba Valley, the natural boundary, was unobstructed.

The report was delivered by Paul Mohne, UN representative at Tel Aviv, who was assigned to make an on-the-spot check. It deflated Arab reports of heavy movements of troops and fighting in the Araba area. It said there was no confirmation of another report that a small Jewish force crossed into Egypt on the way to UMM Resh Resh.

Delineation of the armistice line for the Jerusalem sector was reported agreed upon at a three-hour meeting of Israeli and Trans-Jordan delegations with Bunche. It was announced the delegations will discuss tomorrow the reduction and withdrawal of forces in the entire combat zone.

The Trans-Jordan delegation complained to Bunche that Israeli troops have occupied a position on the western side of the Dead Sea at Ain Jeddi, which is in Palestine. Bunche said the complaint is being investigated.

Israeli delegates suggested a short-cut in the armistice talks could be achieved by taking up in succession all issues which have to be referred to the two home governments.

(Lebanese sources in Beirut said today Israeli and Lebanese armistice negotiators have approved the draft of an agreement to be submitted to their respective governments. Syrian Premier Khaled Azem was reported in Damascus to have told the House of Representatives that Syria has agreed to begin armistice talks with Israel.)

ISRAEL IS SEEKING TO EXPEDITE TRUCE

Rhodes, March 16 (A. P.).—Israeli delegates suggested today that armistice talks with Trans-Jordan be expedited by lumping together issues which have to be referred to the home governments. The suggestion was broached after long talks this morning on the armistice line southwest of Jerusalem, in the Hebron area.

The two delegations are near agreement on the line in that sector, but Gen. Abdul Kader Jundi of Trans-Jordan wants Arab patrol activities expanded beyond the fixed positions. The Israelis found this unacceptable.

It was said that the reduction and withdrawal of forces in sectors other than Jerusalem had been agreed upon in principle. A Trans-Jordan delegate has left for Amman to submit a map containing all the proposed armistice lines.

Damascus, March 16 (A. P.).—Premier Khaled Azem was reported today to have told the House of Representatives that Syria has agreed to begin armistice talks with Israel. The Premier is said to have taken this step folowing talks with the U. N. staff.

TURK TO VISIT WASHINGTON

Foreign Minister To Discuss Mediterranean Pact

E. GREENWALD

Istanbul, Turkey, March 16 (AP)—A reliable informant said tonight Necmeddin Sadak, Foreign Minister, will go to Washington soon to discuss formation of a Mediterranean defense pact.

The informant made the statement soon after Sadak told the Parliament at Ankara that Turkey is in contact with the United States and Britain on creation of such an agreement.

The Foreign Minister told Parliament a Mediterranean pact is vital but that no real decisions had been reached as yet.

Such a pact would include Greece, Italy, France, Britain, Turkey and perhaps, at a later date, Spain.

Expresses Faith In Pact

"We firmly believe that peace and security can be insured in Europe by regional pacts within the framework of the United Nations," Sadak said.

"It is because we still firmly believe that Europe's peace and security form an entity that we are in favor . . . of extending security systems to other regions."

There have been unconfirmed reports that Russia has inquired into Turkey's stand on a Mediterranean alliance. Sadak made no reference to such reports in his talk. He was in Paris and London last week conferring with officials.

Explains Turkish Interest

London, March 16 (AP)—Russell Dorr, United States aid administrator for Turkey, told newsmen here tonight that Turkey "would be very interested in the formation of a Mediterranean pact."

Dorr said Turkey at present "has to spend half her budget in maintaining preparedness against Russian pressure."

He said the Turks are "prepared to fight to the last gasp even if they have to fight alone."

Dorr is en route to Washington.

U. S. Aide Says Turkey 'Interested'

LONDON, March 16. — (AP) Russell Dorr, U. S. aid administrator for Turkey, told newsmen here tonight that Turkey "would be very interested in the formation of a Mediterranean pact."

Dorr said Turkey at present "has to spend half her budget in maintaining preparedness against Russian pressure."

He said the Turks are "prepared to fight to the last gasp even if they have to fight alone."

Dorr is en route to Washington.

Mediterranean Alliance Goal, Turks Told

Ankara, March 16 (AP)—Turkish Foreign Minister ecmeddin Sadak told the National Assembly that Turkey is in contact with the United States and Britain about a Mediterranean treaty. He said the accord is necessary for security in this area. No decisions have been reached, since the conclusion "depends on certain conditions and possibilities."

Sadak said last week Turkey favorsa regional defense alliance, which presumably would include Greece, Italy, France, Britain, Turkey and, perhaps later, Spain. Russia is reported to have inquired critically about Turkey's stand, but Sadak made on reference to that today. There have been reports the Mediterranean alliance could be linked to the forthcoming Atlantic grouping.

"We firmly believe that peace and security can be insured in Europe by regional pacts within the framework of the United Nations," he said. "It is because we still firmly believe that Europe's peace and security form an entity that we are in favor . . . of extending security systems to other regions."

Burmese Cabinet Reshuffle Seen

Rangoon, Burma, March 16 (AP)—A reshuffle of Burma's Cabinet to include members of the once-outlawed White Band People's Volunteer Organization was forecast by the Burmese press today.

Volunteer troops recently have helped Government forces combat the rebellion of Karen tribesmen, which has swept much of Burma and virtually isolated Rangoon. Leaders of the organization are now meeting at Yenangyaung, an oil town in central Burma, and an organization spokesman here said: "Peace in Burma depends upon the conference's outcome."

Communists Rule Mandalay

Newspapers reported a rapprochment between the Government of Premier Thakin Nu and the volunteer group, which went underground last year after the Government's rejection of a plan for direct peace overtures to revolting Communists.

This year the Communists and the Karens have been allied against the Government. The Karens, fighting for a state of their own, recently were offered an autonomous state in the Burma union.

Optimism was expressed here that a later conference of the volunteers with the dominant Socialist and Anti-Fascist People's Freedom League parties will settle outstanding political issues and clear the way for holding general elections this summer.

Officials said today the sacred city of Mandalay, which fell to Karen troops Sunday, is now being administered by Communists. The Communists were reported led by No Yan Aung, long prominent in party affairs in Burma.

HO WELCOMES AID FROM U.S.

New Premier Gives Stand On Issue Others Avoid

S. JOFFINE

Nanking, China, March 16 (AP)—Premier Ho Ying-Chin indicated today he will welcome United States aid, which has been denounced by China's Communists as "American imperialism."

Most Nationalists have been avoiding the touchy subject of continued United States aid. They fear it will arouse the wrath of the Communists at a time when peace negotiations are pending.

The new Premier was asked if he would accept American aid. He replied that "all friendly aids from friendly nations are welcome."

Called Chiang "Henchman"

[The Communist radio in North China called Ho a "henchman" of Chiang Kai-shek. In its first comment on Ho, it said his appointment had to be ratified first by Chiang, who is No. 1 on the "war criminal" list.

["It is therefore clear," said a broadcast heard by the Associated Press at San Francisco, "that Li Tsung-jen, Chang Chun, Ho Ying-Chin and their kind are but henchmen of Chiang Kai-shek, who is pulling the strings behind the scenes." Li is acting president and Chang Chun is a former premier who is working closely with Li.]

Ho predicted that peace talks with the Communists would begin "very soon."

Works On Peace Cabinet

The Premier was at work on a "peace Cabinet." So far he has announced but one appointment. That is Gen. Chang Chin-chung, government commander in Northwest China. Chang, who is not on the Communist "war-criminal" list, will be minister without portfolio.

Meanwhile, Acting President Li appeared to be picking up support from South China. Two governors, who have been aligned with Chiang Kai-shek against Li since Chiang "retired" as president, arrived in Nanking.

They are Gen. Chen Cheng, Governor of Formosa, and Gen. Chu Shao-liang, Governor of Fukien. Fukien is the southeast province opposite the Island of Formosa. Li had invited them to Nanking.

Talks With Reds Are Near, Ho Stopping Believes

Nanking, March 16 (AP)—Premier Ho Ying-chin says he believes peace negotiations with the Communists will open "very soon."

He made his prediction as March 15 passedwithout receiving any definite word from the Communists that they would talk peace. Former Premier Sun Fo previously had said the negotiations would begin in Peiping sometime after March 15.

Ho is still trying to form a Cabinet. He has the problem of finding ministers acceptable to the Communists who at the same time will enable the Government to present a united front.

Chang To Accept Post

Premier Ho said Gen. Chang Chih-chung, political administrator for the Northwest and a member without portfolio of Sun's Cabinet, had agreed to enter the new Cabinet on the same basis. Chang is one of the few Chinese leaders not listed by the Communists as a war criminal.

Ho said Wu Te-chen, former Deputy Premier, was considering a Cabinet post. The Premier may take the Defense Ministry himself. He has held the post several times.

The arrival of two Government leaders from the South today was considered a forward step by the Government of Acting President Li Tsung-jen.

Close To Chiang

The military governor of Formosa, Cheng Chen, and Fukien province governor, Chu Shao-liang, flew to Nanking. Both have been considered close to retired President Chiang Kai-shek. They came here on invitation of Li.

Ho expressed himself today as willing to accept aid from the United States or any friendly nation. The question of American aid has become an issue because some Nationalists think it would antagonize the Communists.

BERLIN MOVE BY U.N. FAILS

Western Powers Blame Russia For Negotiation Breakdown

Lake Success, N.Y., March 16 (AP). United Nations efforts to settle the Berlin currency dispute have ended in failure, the president of the Security Council said tonight.

The Western powers an hour later issued formal statements blaming Russia for the breakdown. At that time Russia had no comment.

The negotiations had been undertaken late last year by a committee of so-called neutral experts in the hope of ending the Berlin blockade by ironing out currency troubles between the four occupying powers.

150-Page Report Released

Alberto Inocente Alvarez, of Cuba, Council president, made his statement in making public for the first time a 150-page report the committee completed in Geneva February 11.

The top-ranking Soviet representative here, Jakob A. Malik, deputy foreign minister, said he had not seen the report. Russia, however, had filed a statement with the committee in Geneva charging the Western powers with responsibility for the failure.

Alvarez indicated he and other "neutrals" on the Council have no plan to reopen the Berlin debate unless one of the big powers asks them to. Informed quarters said neither the United States, Britain or France had any intention now of raising the issue again.

Directly Involved

Alvarez agreed with a conclusion of the committee of experts that "the four occupying powers are so far apart in this matter that further work by the committee, at this stage, does not appear useful."

He suggested the committee might as well be dissolved.

The committee was made up of representatives of Council nations not directly involved in the dispute. It was established largely through the initiative of Juan A. Bramuglia, Argentine Foreign Minister, who was president of the Council when the issue arose.

Countries originally represented on the committee were China, Argentina, Belgium, Canada, Syria and Colombia. In January three new Council members — Cuba, Egypt, and Norway—also began working with the committee.

Undermined By Soviet

A United States statement said the "Western powers are still prepared to consider any equitable solution which will adequately safeguard the legitimate interests of both the western and eastern sectors of the city."

It added, however, that "the very basis for an agreement upon the administration of Berlin currency and trade under four-power supervision has been undermined by the illegal actions of Soviet authorities within the city itself."

The United States said the committee failed to find a solution because it tried to "solve on a technical basis a problem which by Soviet action had been raised to a major political issue."

Real Aim To Oust West

American delegation sources said the United States still felt, as it did in Paris last fall when the United Nations was meeting there, that the currency question was not the real issue in Berlin but was merely used by Russia to cover an aim to force the Western powers out of the German capital.

A British statement charged the Soviet representative had tried to twist the recommendations of the committee of experts "to enable the Soviet authorities to gain a stranglehold on the economic life of these (the western) sectors."

"The Western powers could never have accepted any proposals," the British said, "which would enable the Soviet authorities in Berlin to substitute an economic stranglehold for the blockade."

The French made similar charges against Russia.

CUBA ASSAILS DUTCH STAND

Calls Attitude On Indonesia 'Disrespectful' To U.N.

Lake Success, N.Y., March 16 (AP). Cuba told the United Nations today the Havana Government could not find any excuse for the "disrespectful" attitude taken by the Dutch on the Indonesian case.

Alberto Inocente Alvarez, Cuban delegate and president of the Security Council for March, said all Council members must agree that the Netherlands has not carried out the Council decision of January 28 looking toward a settlement of the East Indies conflict.

He spoke as the Council went through another round of debate without any action in the Dutch-Indonesian deadlock. The Council will resume the debate next Monday at 3 P.M.

Referring to Dutch plans for a round-table conference at The Hague on Indonesia, Alvarez said the Cuban delegation believes any action which does not carry out the Council's resolution is a violation of that resolution and constitutes a disrespectful attitude toward the Security Council.

He asked what faith small nations could have in the Council if its decisions are ignored.

"Some countries may find an excuse for the Netherlands attitude," he said. "Cuba does not."

He demanded that the Netherlands comply immediately with these three steps laid down in the resolution: Release of Indonesian political prisoners, reinstatement of the Indonesian Republic regime in Jogjakarta and an end to military operations.

JUDITH COPLON INDICTED FOR SECOND TIME

Charged By Washington Grand Jury With Taking Secret Data Of U.S.

Washington, March 16 (AP)—A young woman Government worker, already charged with passing data to a Russian agent, today was indicted for stealing secrets from Justice Department files.

The indictment was returned here by the District of Columbia grand jury against Judith Coplon, 27-year-old native of Brooklyn, employed until recently in the Justice Department's alien registration section.

She and Valentin A. Gubitchev, Soviet engineer employed at United Nations headquarters in New York, were indicted in New York a week ago on espionage charges.

That indictment followed their arrest on a New York street corner after FBI agents had tracked them to a meeting place.

Free On $20,000 Bond

Miss Coplon is free in New York on $20,000 bond. Justice Department officials said she would be arrested again and brought here to answer the new indictment. She pleaded innocent to the New York indictment and her trial there has been set for April 1.

Gubitchev is in jail in New York. He has failed to make bond of $100,000. Russia is protesting that Gubitchev is protected against any American court action by diplomatic immunity. But United States officials so far have held Gubitchev's position with the United Nations was such that he has no immunity.

The New York indictment charges the 32-year-old Russian and Miss Coplon with conspiring to pass to a "foreign power" United States defense and intelligence secrets.

Two Counts In Indictment

Today's indictment contained two counts—(a) that Miss Coplon obtained secret data from Justice files, and (b) that she concealed and removed them.

The information taken, it was charged, were "certain extracts and summaries of reports of the FBI, known as data slips, containing intelligence reports relating to espionage and counter-espionage activities in the United States."

If convicted of the New York charges Miss Coplon could get a maximum penalty of 35 years in prison and $20,000 fine. Gubitchev's maximum penalty on conviction would be 15 years and $20,000 fine.

Under the new charges here the woman could get a maximum thirteen years and $12,000 fine.

JURY COMPLETED FOR TRIAL OF 11 U.S. COMMUNISTS

NEW YORK, March 16 (AP)—A jury of five men and seven women, including three Negroes, was chosen today to try 11 American communist leaders on conspiracy charges.

They were sworn in by Federal Judge Harold R. Medina after the selection process had been completed with exhaustion of the 21 peremptory challenges alotted the defense and the government. A Negroe housewife is foreman.

The prosecution waived its final challenge. U. S. Attorney John F.X. McGohey said the 12 persons in the box were satisfactory.

May Begin Friday

Medina indicated the actual trial may begin Friday. He excused the 12 jurors until then and said tomorrow would be devoted to selection of four alternates, the maximum allowed by law.

Composition of the jury was interesting in view of sharp accusations made by the defense attorneys in their unsuccessful challenge to the federal jury system. This took up the first seven weeks of the trial.

The defense contended that many groups were discriminated against in jury-picking and said that prominent among those were women and Negroes. The judge ruled, however, that the defense failed to prove its contention.

The 12 jurors:

Mrs. Thelma Dial, Negro housewife and part-time dressmaker, foreman.

Russell Janney, theatrical producer.

Mrs. Ida F. Howell, Negro beautician.

Miss Kathryn E. Dunn, unemployed former clerical worker.

George L. Smith, Negro salesman.

Mrs. Lillian Berliner, housewife.

Patric S. Reynolds, retired beer salesman

Henry E. Allen, unemployed industrial engineer.

Mrs. Lillian Schlesinger, widow and department store clerk.

James F. Smyth, telephone wireman and assembler.

Mrs. Carrie L. Robinson, widow.

Mrs. Gertrude Corwin, housewife.

All Deny Bias

"I have made the most serious and conscientious effort to find out if any bias exists among the jurors, to make sure that no juror had any bias or prejudice whatsoever," the judge said.

"I have done my best in the most conscientious manner I could and I do not believe that any juror is under any bias whatsoever.

"I can ro no more."

Selection of the jury came in the ninth week of the trial. It began Jan. 17. The 11 high Communist party officials are charged with conspiring to advocate overthrow of the U. S. government by force.

Ninety-one members of the two panels of 170 persons drawn for the trial were excused by the court on grounds of personal or financial hardship. He had told the panels the actual trial would last at least two months.

Medina then dismissed six others during his questioning of them for reasons which he said might cause them to be biased.

As the court session began this morning, Medina engaged in another of the sharp exchanges with defense counsel which have enlivened the proceedings through the past nine weeks.

Harry Sacher, a defense attorney accused him of letting McGohey make a longer argument than was allowed the defense.

"I consider it offensive for you to say I'm giving different treatment to one side than I gave the other," Medina replied. "These insinuations which attack my honor and integrity are distasteful to me."

F. X. McGohey was addressing the court on a point in dispute between the opposing attorneys, he was interrupted by Harry Sacher, defense lawyer.

Sacher maintained the judge was allowing McGohey to make a long argument after several times halting statements by defense attorneys.

Considered Offensive

"I consider it offensive for you to say I'm giving different treatment to one side than I give the other," Judge Medina replied. "These insinuations which attack my honor and integrity are distasteful to me."

In another exchange, the judge told George W. Crockett, Jr., his conduct had been "not irreproachable" and added that the behavior of Richard F. Gladstein "has been even worse." Both are defense attorneys.

Nine women and three men comprised the tentative jury as the court session began.

Medina Resents Attorneys Attacks By Insinuation

New York, March 16 (AP)—Federal Judge Harold R. Medina told a defense attorney in the trial of eleven high United States Communists today that he did not like "these insinuations which attack my honor and integrity."

The court's sharp exchange with defense counsel came as tentative trial jurors and members of the jury panel were excused from the courtroom.

Three Challenges Remain

The long-drawn-out jury selection process is nearing its end with only three peremptory challenges left.

NEW EVIDENCE IS REPORTED

Mystery Man Is Said to Have Given Data to Alleged Russian Agent.

Washington, March 16 (A. P.).—A former FBI agent, Representative Velde (R.-Ill.), demanded today that the House Un-American Activities Committee reopen an investigation of "Scientist X" and a Russian atomic spy ring. The committee is understood to have new evidence.

Now a committee member, Velde was in the FBI's sabotage and counter-espionage division from 1943 to 1946.

During that period, he said, "a Russian espionage ring was uncovered which was perhaps the most treacherous known in history." He said Scientist X, identified only as a former University of California professor, was involved.

The committee looked into atomic spying in secret sessions last year, with Velde as one of its witnesses. That was before he was elected to Congress.

Later the committee issued a report listing atomic espionage and the Scientist X case as unfinished business.

Found New Evidence.

Since then, the committee is reported to have discovered additional evidence, part of it relating to operations at the Los Alamos atomic project in New Mexico.

Velde told reporters the FBI's own inquiry dug up, in his opinion, enough evidence to permit successful prosecution of a substantial number of spies, among them some well-known American Communists.

"Yet, to date," he said, "nothing has been done by the Attorney-General to apprehend these most dangerous criminals.

"I intend to insist on a reopening of the investigation of the atomic spy ring—of which the 'Scientist X' case was a party—by the Un-American Activities Committee.

Velde said he is confident this, too, will turn up enough evidence to warrant prosecution.

The Un-American Activities Committee brought Scientist X here for questioning. It never released his name; he denied all testimony against him.

Secret Meeting Reported.

As the committee told the story in its report, the scientist was in the radiation laboratory of the University of California at Berkeley, which handled work connected with the atomic bomb project.

The report said that late one night in March, 1943, Scientist X went to the home of Steve Nelson and read him a complicated formula that Nelson copied. Nelson is an admitted Communist. The report called him a "Communist espionage agent."

It said several days later Nelson met Peter Ivanov, Russian Vice-Consul in San Francisco, in a park. It said he "transferred something" and "the inference is irresistible" that it included the formula.

It said this formula was of importance in the development of the atom bomb.

Shortly afterward, the report said, the third secretary of the Russian embassy in Washington, a man named Zubilin, came to San Francisco, visited Nelson's home and handed over ten bills of unknown size.

U. S. to Admit 22 Red Delegates To New York 'Peace Conference'

MAR 16 1949

WASHINGTON, March 16 (AP)—The State Department today reluctantly granted permission for 22 delegates from Russia and Soviet Bloc countries to attend a "peace" conference in New York.

At the same time, the department charged that communists plan to "use" the conference for propaganda.

Dmitri Shostakovich, Russian composer, was among those cleared for entry.

The Russians, however, were denied the special diplomatic visas which their government sought for them.

Five Hungarians who asked to attend were ordered barred, however, because of Hungary's recent expulsion of Minister Selden Chapin and other American diplomats.

Announcing the decision after a week's study, the State department declared that none of the delegates from communist-run eastern Europe will be free to express any view other than that dictated by political authorities in Moscow."

A formal statement by the department said the entry permits were granted only because of this government's "unswerving devotion to freedom of information and free speech on any issue, however, controversial it may be."

Assistant Secretary George V. Allen told reporters the conference will be used as a forum to attack the new Atlantic security agreement on the eve of its signing by the western countries.

The conference was arranged by the National Council for the Arts, Sciences and Professions with the announced purpose of promoting "world peace with re-establishment of American-Soviet understanding and cooperation."

It is due to open March 25. Invitations were sent to many countries by a committee headed by Harlow Shapley, Harvard astronomy professor.

In New York, Dr. Shapley said in a statement "we are happy to learn that the great American tradition of opening its doors to the free exchange of cultural and scientific thought continues."

He said the conference will be conducted "in the Democratic tradition" in an effort to obtain "constructive suggestions for world peace."

A house un-American Activities committee spokesman said the New York conference will be under "constant committee surveillance." The committee now is scanning a list of potential foreign delegates, this source said, "and a preliminary check shows that many of them are communists or have strong communist affiliations."

Moscow named a seven-man delegation headed by Alexander Fadeyev, a novelist who is secretary-general of the Union of Soviet Writers. Russia pressed repeatedly for action on its request that all be given visas entitling them to treatment as diplomats. The Soviet satellite countries did not ask special treatment for their delegates.

The ticklish issue was put up to Secretary of State Acheson and Attorney General Tom Clark. Protests against admitting anybody from communist countries were submitted by Perry Brown, National commander of the American Legion, and by Rabbi Benjamin Schultz for the American Jewish League.

After a week's consideration, it was decided to admit the 22 delegates on "official" visas, which do not give them all the privileges and immunity from arrest enjoyed by full-fledged diplomats.

23 From Soviet Bloc Get Visas For Parley

Washington, March 16 (AP)—The State Department announced today that 23 delegates from Russia and Soviet-bloc countries will be permitted to attend a "world peace" conference in New York this month.

Five Hungarians who asked to attend were barred, however, in retaliation for Hungary's recent actions toward American diplomatic officials.

In announcing the decision, the State Department charged that none of the Soviet-bloc delegates at the conference will be free to "exprss any view other than that dictated by the political authorities in Moscow."

Shostakovich In Group

The conference was called by the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions. The department predicted that "Communists will attempt to use and manipulate" it.

Those granted permits to attend include seven from Russia, among them Dmitri Shostakovich, the composer. Also admitted were two Romanians, five Czechslovaks, four Poles and five Yugoslavs. All were given official passport visas, which do not entitle them to diplomatic immunity.

Reds Expanding Under Taft Act, Green Says

Washington, March 16 (AP)—President William Green of the AFL said today Communist influences have increased in the labor movement since the Taft-Hartley law was passed.

Green made the statement to a House Labor subcommittee as he hammered the Taft law as part of organized labor's campaign for its repeal.

The Administration proposes to replace the Taft law with the Wagner Labor Act, with some additions. The GOP-sponsored act requires union officers to swear they are not Communists. Otherwise their unions can obtain no recognition from the National Labor Relations Board.

Sees Red Growth

"I think (Communist) activities have increased, although we in the AFL are completely free from Communist influence," Green said during questioning by Representative McConnell (R., Pa.).

McConnell "What proof do you have?"

Green: "Because of expressions."

McConnell: "It isn't obvious in elections. The Communists have been taking a beat on the whole. . . . Do you still say Communist influence has increased?"

Can't Enumerate

Green: "I think in some lines."

"What lines?"

"Some unions."

"What unions?"

"I don't know that I could enumerate them at the present time."

Later, Representative Lesinski (D., Mich.), chairman of the Labor Committee, said he had evidence that Communist influences have gained. In the last primary, he said the "candidate delegated by the Communists to run against me" got over 13,000 votes.

Randolph On Stand

Woodruff Randolph, president of the International Typographical Union, had begun an attack on the Taft law when the session broke up to let members answer a House roll call.

Randolph handed over four books in support of the ITU's stand that Taft-Hartley "is a slave-labor law" with "destructive provisions." He said the act is "a continuing threat to the existence of any craft union" and ITU's experience with it has been "agonizing."

Green attacked the act as "un-American, vicious and reprehensible," and declared:

"The Taft-Hartley Act was passed for the purpose of making strong unions weak and weak unions still weaker.

Sees Freedom Curbed

"Labor, in fighting for the repeal of the Taft-Hartley law, is seeking to bring about the restoration of the exercise of elemental individual and collective freedom as granted by the Constitution of the United States."

The subcommittee, headed by Representative Kelley (D., Pa.), is in its second week of public hearings on the Administration bill.

Green said the present labor law makes it impossible for unions to get rid of Communist members, and in fact "protects the employment of Communists." Under union-shop contracts allowed by the law, he explained, members can be expelled from a union only for failing to pay their dues.

Iranians View Soviet Treaty As Sword Over Nation's Head

MAR 16 1949

New York, March 16 (AP)—A 28-year-old treaty with Russia was viewed by Iranian officials today as a sword hanging over their nation's head.

The treaty permits Russia to send troops into Iran if the Soviets feel such a move is necessary to their own self-defense.

Here and in Washington, Iranian officials watched with alarm a mounting wave of what they called Russian propaganda pressure against Iran.

Ahmed Mehbod, consul general, said here yesterday that the Russian radio and press were stepping up their charges that Iran is becoming an American military base, to be used against the Soviet in case of war.

No Troop Move Reports

The charges relate to Iran's seven-year program of economic development. It is expected to cost $700,000,000 and United States technical assistance is anticipated.

Mehbod admitted that there have been no reports of Russian troop movements in Iran's direction.

But he pointed to a 1921 treaty which permits armed intervention by Russia in Iran "in the interests of self-defense." The consul general said the treaty last was invoked in 1941. Then Russia sent troops into Iran to counter what the Russians called a threat from Germans in Iran.

Linked To Attempt On Shah

Mehbod told a news conference that the treaty and the fears it has aroused in Iran were the subject of a Washington conference last Monday between Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, and Hussein Ala, Iranian Ambassador.

The consul general said the new Russian pressure tactics followed an assassination attempt February 4 on the Iranian Shah, Mohammed Riza Paklevi.

Had the King been slain, he contended, Iran would have been plunged into anarchy and a Communist reign of terror would have ensued. He claimed that the assassination attempt was traced to Communists and that its leaders now are on trial in Tehran.

Maryland Adopts Red Curb

Bill Sent to Governor Outlaws Subversive Groups and Provides State Loyalty Checks.

Annapolis, March 16 (A. P.).—The Maryland House of Delegates passed and sent to Gov. Lane last night what is seen as one of the strongest curbs on Communism ever undertaken by a State government.

As the anti-subversive bill was drawn up by a Baltimore attorney, Frank B. Oder, at Lane's request, Lane's signature on the bill is considered just a formality.

Provisions of Bill.

Briefly, the bill provides for:

1. Outlawing all subversive organizations now existing and making it unlawful for new ones to spring up. Membership in a subversive organization would constitute a felony.

2 Loyalty checks for all public employees, including school teachers.

3. Creating a special post of Assistant Attorney-General to investigate subversive activities.

4. Instructing Grand Juries to keep a close eye on such workings and report to the people.

Was Passed by Senate.

The bill passed the State Senate by unanimous vote several weeks ago. Last night the House approved it with a single negative vote registered.

Delegate John N. Newcomer R.-Wash.), later described by Leroy Cumphrey (D. - Prince George's) House majority leader, as "a courageous man and I know of no man who is more 100 per cent American," cast the dissenting vote.

Newcomer told the delegates, "I humbly believe this bill will do more harm than good."

U.S. Again Assails Russ P.W. Stand

Washington, March 16 (AP)—The United States today accused Russia of violating at least six separate promises to return all German war prisoners in Soviet hands by the end of last year.

In a note delivered in Moscow yesterday, the State Department in effect renewed its demand that Russia set free the hundreds of thousands of Germans still believed in Soviet custody.

Russia has contended that it was never bound by any agreement to repatriate the captured Germans by December 31, 1948.

1947 Accord Noted

The United States, Britain and France contend that such an agreement was reached by the Big Four Foreign Ministers in April, 1947.

The State Department note, released today, says on that point:

"It is difficult to reconcile the position now taken by the Soviet Government with actual events.

"A review of the official minutes of meetings of the Allied Control Authority fails to reveal any statement by Soviet representatives indicating that the Soviet Government did not regard itself as bound by the Council of Foreign Ministers agreement.

"On the contrary, those minutes indicate that on at least six occasions, listed below, Soviet representatives gave assurances that all German prisoners of war in Soviet custody would be repatriated by December 31, 1948, the date agreed at the Council of Foreign Ministers meeting in April, 1947."

The American note cites six specific occasions when, it says, the Russians made these promises in Berlin.

The commitments, by top-ranking Soviet officers, are listed as having been made between July 5, 1947, and January 2, 1948, in sessions of Allied occupation agencies.

Number Is Unknown

State Department officials said the exact number of Germans still held by the Russians is unknown.

According to figures furnished in April, 1947, by the Russians in Moscow, 443,165 still were in Russian hands at that time

American officials believe several hundred thousand more are still in Soviet camps.

The State Department said the French and British had sent similar notes to the Soviet Foreign Office. The British note estimated the number of Germans still held by Russia as "at least 200,000."

Publication Of Military Data Draws Protests In Congress

MAR 16 1949

Washington, March 16 (AP)—Angry protests about leaks of reported secret military information to "potential enemies" stirred up a congressional inquiry today.

Members complained they are particularly disturbed by recently published stories that the United States already has mapped strategic targets in Russia for bombing if necessary, and by an Atomic Energy Commission publication of maps and pictures of atomic installations.

Informal Probes Made

Both the House Armed Services and Appropriations committees disclosed that informal investigations are under way. They promised a full inquiry if necessary.

Representative Vinson (D., Ga.), chairman of the Armed Services Committee, said he had requested an explanation from W. Stuart Symington, Secretary of the Air Force.

"I would not call this an investigation, call it an inquiry," Vinson said.

"I intend to find out," he added, whether secret information has been made available to "potential enemies" by military officials, or whether "the published stories were merely the conclusions of the men who wrote them."

AEC Officials Questioned

Representative Case (R., S.D.), of the Appropriations Committee, said a subcommittee handling Atomic Energy Commission funds has questioned AEC officials about publication of pictures and maps in the commission's annual report.

A reply from the commission, Case said, contended that none of the information published in the report was classified as secret and all of it had been published, or previously made available for publication. Many of the photographs, he said, were made by the Army and released by the Army.

"But as far as I know it was the first time that all the pictures and maps were put together in one handy book," he said.

For Nominal Cost

Case pointed out that any agent of a foreign government could buy a copy of the report at a nominal cost from the Government Printing Office.

Case called for a full-scale inquiry to place the blame for the recent "leaks" after Representative Mahon (D., Texas) said military officials had denied releasing any secret information and had voiced "concern over unauthorized press reports."

Mahon started the discussion when he protested in the House about "the action of military officials in permitting release to the press and our potential enemies of important military information."

Secret Discussions Involved

Some information "bandied about in the press," he said, involved "secret discussions before the joint chiefs of staff, alleged information as to how we expect to hit 70 vital Russian targets, and information as to the content of top secret maps in the Pentagon."

Mahon is chairman of an Appropriations subcommittee handling Army, Navy and Air Force funds.

"I wish the people who are apprehensive about war would quit giving away important military information to our potential enemies," Mahon said.

Congress "Not Blameless"

"It is not exaggeration to say that America is giving away billions of dollars' worth of information each year to potential enemies."

The military, Mahon said, is not the only offender. He cited the AEC report as an example of free information of value to potential enemies, and said that in "some instances Congress has not been blameless."

Representative McCormick (Mass.), Democratic leader, told the House Russia would have been willing to pay "millions of dollars" for published pictures now accessible to the Soviet for the price of a national magazine, or a Government publication.

Other members who joined in the protests included Representatives Short (R., Mo.), of the Armed Services Committee, and Hinshaw (R., Cal.) and Durham (D., N.C.), of the Joint Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee.

Secrets - Leak Probe Begun, Vinson Says

Washington, March 16 (AP)—Chairman Vinson (D., Ga.) of the House Armed Services Committee said today that he has begun a formal inquiry into reported leaks of secret military information.

He told of the move after Representative Mahon (D., Texas) in a House speech had accused military officials and the Atomic Energy Commission of "permitting release to the press and our potential enemies of important military secrets."

Representative Case (R., S.D.) followed Mahon with a demand for a congressional investigation of the source of such material and of means of cutting off the flow.

McCormack Joins Demand

Democratic Leader McCormack (Mass.) joined in Case's demand, and set off a general uprising in the House against possible disclosure of secrets.

Vinson said later that the matter already is under inquiry.

Discussion in the House centered on recent publication in Fortune magazine of pictures on atomic installations. Several speakers, however, mentioned other reports on military matters, such as how Russia could be bombed.

"Explanation" Requested

Vinson told newsmen he has written to Air Secretary Symington for "a full explanation" of recently published articles dealing with Air Force plans and telling of suggested bombing targets in Russia.

"I would not call this an investigation, call it an inquiry," he said.

Vinson said he has no knowledge of whether actual secret information has been released by military officials "or whether the published stories were merely the conclusions of the men who wrote them."

"But I intend to find out," he added.

"Bombardier's Map"

The Atomic Energy Commission, Mahon said, "recently made available to the people and our potential enemies what could appropriately be called a bombardier's map showing the exact location of all our atomic installations.

"Time does not permit reference to ill-advised statements as to biological warfare developments and the recitation of other indiscretions within and without the Government.

"The fact is that with the information which is being made public about the details of our military establishment and as to our future plans, potential enemies can conserve their expenditures and make the best possible application of their funds.

"Military people are not the only offenders. In some instances Congress has not been blameless."

Representative Henshaw (R., Cal.) a member of the House-Senate Committee on Atomic Energy, told the House that the publication of the pictures already has been the subject of inquiry by that committee.

Iron Curtain Exiles Organize For Future of Their Families

By SIGRID ARNE

WASHINGTON, March 16 (AP)—Men who were smuggled to airports, who hid in city sewers, swam rivers at midnight—all to escape the Iron Curtain—are in and out of Washington now to plan the future of Middle Europe when the Iron Curtain lifts. They are confident it will lift. They are not certain how. But they want programs ready for their homelands when and if they return.

Five national committees have been or are being formed: For Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria.

None of these exile committees claims to be a "government in exile." But each says it is trying to work in such a way that it would represent the voting majority in its homeland if the home folks could cast free votes.

This program for the future is developing down two roads.

First, through the International Peasant's union, which now has a small Washington office. The union claims to represent great sections of peasant voters in Middle Europe and is working out a general program for the area, regardless of national borders.

Second, committees are being formed for each nation with the leading exiles who hope to tie up purely national underground movements into a general anti-Communist front.

Here's how the organizing is progressing, nation by nation:

BULGARIA

The Bulgarian National committee is lead by Dr. George Dimitrov, who was leader of the Bulgarian Peasant union until the Iron Curtain fell.

He lives in Washington. He first fled his country when the Germans took over. Through World War II he broadcast anti-Nazi programs from Turkey and Egypt. Then he went home, only to find the Communists were taking over. (Unhappily for him, the Bulgarian Communist leader has the same name, George Dimitrov.)

The war had been over only a short while when anti-Communist Dimitrov heard that Communist Dimitrov wanted his life. He fled to the American embassy. Ambassador Maynard Barnes finally flew him out to Rome.

He is now secretary-general of the International Peasant's union and as such is in Brussels at the meeting of non-official Europeans who want to organize a United States of Europe.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA

The Council For a Free Czechoslovakia has just been completed. About a hundred exile leaders are led by Dr. Peter Zenkl. Zenkl, a National Socialist, was deputy prime minister in the government of former President Eduard Benes, who resigned to protest Communist tactics.

The council is determined to drive the communists out of their nation. It includes such leaders as Juraj Slavik, former ambassador to Washington, and Jan Papanek, former Czech chief delegate to the United Nations.

All told, the Czech exiles say they believe they would represent 80 per cent of the vote at home if there could be a free vote.

ROMANIA

This committee is not yet completed. But the groups now talking say they think they represent 90 per cent of the home vote. They include leaders of the Peasant party, the Liberal parties and the Socialists.

The group is led by Gen. Nicolae Radescu, who was premier when Moscow's trouble-shooter, Andrei Vishinsky, moved in to overthrow King Mihai's government. The general had to take the underground out. He showed up in Turkey and now lives in New York.

HUNGARY

The Hungarian National council is headed by a Roman Catholic priest named Bela Varga. Despite his religious cloth, he was speaker of the Hungarian parliament after World War II. He was a member of the Small Holders' party, led by Ferenc Nagy, the prime minister before the Communists took over.

Nagy's escape was front pag news in 1947. Warned he would be killed, he took a Swiss vacation but was forced to resign on pain of losing his family. The family was sent to Switzerland, and the Nagys now live on a small Virginia farm.

POLAND

This group has not completed its plans. It is led by Stanislav Mikolaiczyk, post-war prime minister and leader of the Peasant party. He was smuggled out of his country by plane. After several days he showed up in Britain and now lives in Washington.

The Polish committee now includes exile leaders of the Peasant party, the Socialists and the Christian Labor party. They say they believe they could poll 75 per cent of the vote in a free Poland.

All of these national groups are trying to get a real representation of their peoples caught behind the Iron Curtain.

Each national group is trying to enlist the top exile leader of each of the pre-war middle-of-the-road parties. If the party's actual leader is still caught behind the Iron Curtain, the next most powerful man in the party is sought if he is abroad.

At times, messages are smuggled out to say what men the home folks would like to see on the exile councils and what policies they would like to see the councils pursue.

The program of each of the national committees add up to about the same thing. Peasant union leaders here call it "functional democracy."

This, they say, is neither the old "laissez faire" nor socialism or communism. The leaders would like to do two major things: (1) Wipe out the old wide differences between wealth and poverty, which was much greater in Europe than here, and (2) preserve private ownership in all but the generally accepted public utility industries.

70-GROUP AIR BILL SLOWED

Marcantonio Bars Vote After Rebuff On Amendment

Publication of military data stirs congressional inquiry.....Page 2

Washington, March 16 (AP)—An gered by a maneuver that barred a vote on an anti-segregation propo sal, Representative Marcantonio (A.L.P., N.Y.) today temporarily blocked House passage of a 70 group Air Force bill.

The New Yorker demanded that the bill be formally engrossed and read in that form. Formally en grossing a bill normally is an over night job.

The bill probably will be passed next Monday. It had been under debate for several hours and was ready for a vote when Marcantonio raised the technicality.

The bill's backers had maneuvered him out of a chance to offer an amendment that would have prevented the Air Force from obtaining supplies from companies discriminating in employment because of race, color or creed.

Strength Ceiling Provided

Besides authorizing a 70-group Air Force, the bill would put a ceiling strength of 837,000 men on the Army and 502,000 on the Air Forces, neither of which has that many now.

The measure does not provide any money to pay for a 70-group Air Force or increased Army manpower. It merely declares Congress is in favor of a certain size Air Force and Army, as it already has done in regard to the Navy.

The money would have to come from later appropriations which would set the actual ceiling.

The air-power argument began last year when the House passed a resolution saying the nation should have a 70-group force. The resolution was not considered by the Senate.

Appropriation Approved

However, both the House and the Senate approved an $822,000,000 appropriation for plane purchases as the first installment on a five-year 70-group program.

DEFENSE SEEKS TO QUIZ JUDGE IN AXIS SALLY CASE

MAR 16 1949

WASHINGTON, March 16 (AP)—Mildred (Axis Sally) Gillars' attorney asked permission today to question under oath the judge who presided at her treason trial.

James J. Laughlin made the request in an amendment to his motion a new trial for the convicted traitor.

Laughlin based his plea on a statement by Federal Judge Edward M. Curran that he asked John M. Kelley, Jr., chief government prosecutor "on a couple of occasions" whether he planned to submit any instructions for the jury.

Kelley replied that he did not.

"Request is made that the trial judge be sworn and testimony taken to determine whether there were conferences on other occasions," Laughlin's amended motion said.

"It is our view that the disclosure by the trial judge that he had conferred secretly with the prosecution's staff is so contrary to the accepted judicial practice in the administration of the criminal law that the matter should be scrutinized with the greatest care in order that we may develop all the facts."

Laughlin also contended that Judge Curran was in error in excusing a juror and submitting an alternate in the early stages of the trial. This resulted when a woman juror said that upon reflection she had decided she was opposed to capital punishment.

Judge Curran is scheduled to hear arguments March 25 on Laughlin's motion for a new trial for Miss Gillars. If the motion is denied, she faces a sentence ranging from death to five years in prison.

BOLIVIA ENVOY ASKS UN WEIGH MINDSZENTY CASE

NEW YORK, March 16 — (AP) Eduardo Anze Matienzo, Bolivia's permanent representative to the United Nations, said today he has asked that the case of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty of Hungary be placed before the April meeting of the UN General Assembly.

Anze Matienzo said she has written Trygve Lie, UN Secretary General on instructions of his government.

Lie's ofice said this afternoon the Bolivian communication had not yet been received.

The Bolivian proposal was made, Anze Matienzo said, in connection with the qustion of Human rights mentioned in article one, paragraph three, of the UN charter.

That paragraph says one of the objectives of the world organization is "to achieve international cooperation in solving international problems of economic, social, cultural or humanitarian character and for fundamental freedoms for all without distinction as to race, sex, language or religion."

BYRNES FOR 'A' BOMBS

Johnson, S. C., March 16 (A. P.).—"We must continue our production of atomic bombs," former Secretary of State James J. Byrnes said today.

The reason for that, he asserted at a peach blossom festival here, is Russia's attitude toward the United States.

"We must continue to make adequate appropriations for the armed services and provide a greater number of Airborne Divisions prepared for any emergency," Byrnes continued.

Recent changes in the Russian government, he said, do not mean the adoption of a more friendly attitude toward the United States. He denounced recent religious persecutions in Communist-dominated Hungary and Bulgaria.

Nehru's Sister Named Envoy To Washington

Lake Success, N.Y., March 16 (AP)—Mrs. Vijayalakshmi Pandit, India's delegate to the United Nations Assembly and Ambassador to Moscow, has been named Ambassador to the United States, an Indian spokesman said today.

He said she would succeed Sir Benegal Rama Rau, who has been called back to India to become chairman of the Federal Reerve Bank of India.

Mrs. Pandit is the sister of India's Prime Minister, Jawaharlal Nehru.

ECA Allots Oil For Norway

Washington, March 16 (A. P.).—Shipments of $2,031,000 worth of crude oil and petroleum products to Norway were approved for financing by the Economic Co-operation Administration today. Seventy-five per cent of the oil will be bought in Latin America, the rest in this country.

ECA approved foreign authorizations totaling $3,138,000 for the day, but they were offset in part by cuts amounting to $1,581,000 in previously approved shipments.

The net increase in aid was $1,557,000, which brought the total of recovery spending authorized to date to $4,816,470,000.

Veteran Offers To Pilot Rocket

Providence, R.I., March 16 (AP)—A 22-year-old Rhode Island navy veteran wants to be at the controls of the first rocket to fly 25 miles or more above the earth.

The candidate is Willoughby Wilder Edward Quin, jobless former radar operator on an LST. He took part in the invasion of Luzon, Guam and Okinawa, and was commended for heroism in action.

Today he said that he has no family, no obligations and no ambition to do anything but make a major contribution to aviation. He is eager to get in touch with Eugene A. Maynor, of Chicago, who announced he is building the world's first "space ship," to be launched later this year from a barge in Lake Michigan.

"If I do it, I'll never have to work again," Quinn said. "I'm not after glory, but the security I'd have after it was all over."

LONDON, MARCH 16-(AP)-AIR COMMODORE A.V.HARVEY SAID IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS TODAY HE HAD BEEN TOLD THAT SOME BRITISH PLANNERS BELIEVE THERE MAY BE A "WORLD FLAREUP" IN JULY.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS SAID THE STATEMENT WAS UNFOUNDED.

THE EXCHANGE CAME NEAR THE END OF DEBATE ON THE ROYAL AIR FORCE ESTIMATES FOR 1949-50, WHICH WERE APPROVED.

HARVEY, A CONSERVATIVE, SAID HE WAS TOLD THAT IF THERE WAS GOING TO BE A WORLD FLAREUP IT MIGHT BE IN JULY. OTHERWISE IT MIGHT NOT COME FOR FIVE, SIX, OR SEVEN YEARS.

"WHAT PLANNERS?" ASKED A.V.ALEXANDER, MINISTER OF DEFENSE.

"PLANNERS IN SOME OF THE SERVICES," REPLIED HARVEY.

ALEXANDER SAID "IT IS ALMOST UNPARDONABLE, IN MY VIEW, FOR YOU TO SAY IN PUBLIC WHAT A PLANNING OFFICER HAS SAID SO THAT IT IS REVEALED TO PUBLIC AND POSSIBLE ENEMIES."

REPLIED HARVEY:

"IS IT A SECRET TO SAY IT IS THOUGHT THERE MIGHT BE A FLAREUP? THE SONNER YOU REALIZE IT THE BETTER."

GEOFFREY DE FREITAS (SMALL D CAP F) UNDERSECRETARY FOR AIR, THEN SAID:

"JUNE, JULY OR MIDSUMMER IS A DATE ENTIRELY WITHOUT SIGNIFICANCE TO OUR PLANNERS--AND SO FAR AS WE KNOW TO ANYONE ELSE'S PLANNERS.

"WE SEEK NO WAR AT ALL AND WE DO NOT BELIEVE THAT ANYTHING LIKE THAT IS INEVITABLE."

Night Lead Costes

Paris, March 16--(AP)_-Dieudonne Costes, 57-year-old french flying air ace, heard his companion on his historic Paris to New York flight defend him today against a charge of betraying his country.

Maurice Bellonte, who spanned the Atlantic with Costes in an east-west flight in 1931, was choked with emotion when he took the stand.

MAR 16.1949

"Costes wasn't always the easiest to get along with, but he was one of my greatest comrades," Bellonte said.

"I hope that he will dissolve these accusations that have been brought against him."

Costes is on trial for treason. he is charged with selling french airplane secrets to the Germans. He maintains he was playing a "double deal" and really was working for the allies.

PARIS, MARCH 16-(AP)-A FRENCH MILITARY COURT CLOSED ITS DOORS TODAY TO HEAR AMERICAN REPORTS WHICH MAY SAVE AIR ACE DIEUDONNE COSTES FROM CONVICTION AS A NAZI COLLABORATOR.

THE 57-YEAR-OLD FRENCH BUSINESSMAN, FIRST TO FLY FROM PARIS TO NEW YORK IN 1930, IS BEING TRIED FOR HIS RELATIONS WITH THE NAZIS IN OCCUPIED FRANCE. HIS DEFENSE IS THAT HE FOOLED THE GERMANS INTO SENDING HIM TO THE U.S. AS A SPY, AND THEN HELPED THE ALLIES.

AT LEAST THREE DOCUMENTS WERE KNOWN TO BE BEFORE THE COURT. ONE IS A STATEMENT BY COL. DORSAY STEVENS, FORMERLY OF THE U.S. MILITARY ATTACHE'S OFFICE IN MADRID. IT TELLS ACCORDING TO TESTIMONY ALREADY PRESENTED, HOW COSTES HANDED OVER HIS CODES, SECRET INK AND LIST OF GERMAN CONTACTS TO COL. STEVENS.

THE OTHER TWO ARE REPORTS BY THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION ON HOW COSTES WORKED WITH IT IN THE U.S. HE HAS TOLD THE COURT, WITHOUT CONTRADICTION, THAT THE F.B.I. GAVE HIM USELESS INFORMATION TO RADIO THE GERMANS.

CAPT. SERGE MISOFFE, THE PROSECUTOR, DECLARED THERE WAS "NOTHING SECRET" IN THE REPORTS. BECAUSE THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT CLASSIFIED THEM SECRET, HOWEVER, THE JUDGES DECIDED TO HEAR THEM BEHIND CLOSED DOORS.

BEFORE THE PUBLIC WAS BARRED FROM THE COURTROOM, IT HEARD FOUR HIGH RANKING FRENCH GENERALS TESTIFY THAT THEY CONSIDERED IT IMPOSSIBLE FOR COSTES TO HAVE BETRAYED HIS COUNTRY.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 16-(AP)-SENATOR MCCARTHY (R-WIS) SAID TODAY THE GERMAN WAR CRIME TRIALS "SHOULD HAVE BEEN CONDUCTED IN THE SAME SPIRIT OF JUSTICE AS PREVAILED UNDER GEN.MACARTHUR IN THE PACIFIC."
MCCARTHY SAID THE SENATE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE, OF WHICH HE IS A MEMBER, WILL CONDUCT A "COMPLETE AND FULL INQUIRY" INTO CONDUCT OF THE TRIALS OF GERMANS ACCUSED OF PARTICIPATING IN THE MALMEDY "MASSACRE" OF AMERICAN TROOPS AND OTHER ATROCITIES.
CHAIRMAN HOEY (D-NC) OF THE INVESTIGATIVE COMMITTEE APPOINTED MCCARTHY AND SENATOR EASTLAND (D-MISS) TO CONTACT THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND JUDICIARY COMMITTEES TO ASCERTAIN IF THEY DESIRED TO PARTICIPATE.
MCCARTHY TOLD A REPORTER THAT MATERIAL NOW AVAILABLE TO THE SEVEN-MAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE--WHICH VOTED UNANIMOUSLY TO GO AHEAD WITH THE INQUIRY--INDICATED THAT "PROCEDURE USED BY AMERICAN AUTHORITIES IN GETTING EVIDENCE WAS MORE THAN IMPROPER."
"THERE IS NO INCLINATION BY OUR COMMITTEE, SOME MEMBERS OF WHICH HAVE LOST RELATIVES DURING THE LAST WAR, TO GO EASY ON ANY PROVED GERMAN WAR CRIMINAL," MCCARTHY SAID. "BUT WE WANT TO BE SURE THAT THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM USED IS AS GOOD AS IN THIS COUNTRY OR AS WAS USED IN THE FAR PACIFIC.
"THERE WAS NOTHING IMPROPER IN THE CONDUCT OF THE TRIALS OF JAPANESE WAR CRIMINALS ALTHOUGH MANY THERE WERE CONVICTED AND EXECUTED.
"BUT IN THE CASE OF THE GERMAN WAR CRIMINALS, EVIDENCE BEFORE THE COMMITTEE SHOWS BRUTALITY WAS USED IN MANY CASES TO GET CONFESSIONS. WE DON'T NEED TO USE THOSE METHODS TO HAND OUT JUSTICE."
HE SAID A RECENT REPORT BY A REVIEW BOARD, CREATED BY THE EUROPEAN HEADQUARTERS COMMAND, "LOOKS LIKE AN ATTEMPT TO WHITEWASH CONDUCT OF THE TRIAL OF THOSE INVOLVED IN THE MALMEDY MURDERS, BUT ACTUALLY SHOWS THAT MANY CHARGES OF MISCONDUCT WERE TRUE."
HE REFERRED TO THE REPORT SIGNED BY COL.JOHN M.RAYMOND AND COL. J.L.HARBAUGH, JR., WHO INVESTIGATED THE TRIALS OF GERMAN SS TROOPS ALLEGED TO HAVE PARTICIPATED IN THE KILLING OF UP TO 200 UNARMED AMERICAN PRISONERS OF WAR AT MALMEDY, BELGIUM DEC. 17, 1944.
THIS REPORT SAID THAT IN ABOUT EIGHT OR TEN INSTANCES "MOCK" TRIALS WERE USED TO "SOFTEN UP" DEFENDANTS. IT SAID THE DEFENDANTS WERE LED TO BELIEVE THE TRIALS WERE REAL, WERE BROUGHT IN WITH BLACK HOODS ON THEIR HEADS AND WERE LED TO BELIEVE THEY WERE CONVICTED. THEY WERE THEN TOLD TO TALK FREELY TO GET A LIGHTER SENTENCE. THIS EVIDENCE THEN WAS USED IN THE REAL TRIALS.
THE REPORT TOLD OF INJURIES TO SOME OF THE DEFENDANTS "APPARENTLY INFLICTED BY BLOWS," BUT ADDED THAT THE METHODS USED "WERE NECESSARY STEPS TO BREAK THE CASE."
COMMENTING ON THE REPORT, MCCARTHY SAID:
"IT SHOWS AN AMAZING LACK OF CONCEPTION OF WHAT IS PROPER PROCEDURE TO BE USED IN OBTAINING CONFESSIONS."
NO DATE HAS BEEN SET FOR START OF THE HEARINGS BY THE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

DIPLOMATIC AND INTELLIGENCE SOURCES IN ISTANBUL SAID YESTERDAY "SOMETHING MAY BE ABOUT TO POP" IN YUGOSLAVIA. ONE SOURCE WHO REFUSED TO BE IDENTIFIED SAID HE BELIEVED THE OVERTHROW OF THE TITO REGIME IS IMMINENT. ##TRIESTE-XXX SALONIKA.

CRITICISM FROM MOSCOW-LINE COMMUNISTS OUTSIDE YUGOSLAVIA HAS BEEN LOUD SINCE THE YUGOSLAV REDS SPLIT WITH THE KREMLIN AND COMINFORM (COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL INFORMATION BUREAU).

THEY ACCUSED TITO OF STRAYING FROM THE MARXIST-LENINIST LINE AS EXPOUNDED BY STALIN AND PURSUING A POLICY "HATEFUL" TO THE SOVIET UNION.

THE LATEST BLAST CAME FROM COMMUNIST VICE PREMIER MATYAS RAKOSI OF HUNGARY. RAKOSI, REPORTED TO BE THE "STRONG MAN" OF THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT, SAID TITO AND HIS FOLLOWERS "BETRAYED THE CAUSE OF PEACE AND JOINED THE IMPERIALISTS."

"THE PEOPLE OF YUGOSLAVIA WILL RETURN SOONER OR LATER TO THE FAMILY OF THE PEOPLES' DEMOCRACIES (COMMUNIST NATIONS)," HE SAID.

TITO HAS HIT BACK AT THE COMINFORM MANY TIMES. HE ALSO HAS CHARGED THE COMINFORM NATIONS WITH CUTTING DOWN TRADE WITH YUGOSLAVIA IN ORDER TO HINDER THE COUNTRY'S ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT.

THE YUGOSLAV LEADER WAS BELIEVED TO HAVE PURGED HIS COMMUNIST PARTY OF ALL THOSE UPON WHOM HE COULD NOT RELY LAST YEAR.

SINCE THEN HIS FOLLOWERS HAVE CHARGED THAT EMBASSIES OF COMMUNIST NATIONS IN BELGRADE HAVE AIDED IN SPREADING PROPAGANDA AGAINST HIM.

MUCH COAL, PRODUCED MAINLY IN POLAND, BELGIUM AND THE UNITED KINGDOM, DURING APRIL, MAY AND JUNE WILL REMAIN UNSOLD BECAUSE OF TECHNICAL DIFFICULTIES OR BECAUSE OTHER EUROPEAN COUNTRIES CANNOT PAY FOR IT. AT THE SAME TIME, THE UNITED STATES WILL BE CALLED ON TO FILL COAL AND COKE DEFICITS IN WESTERN EUROPE TOTALING MORE THAN 5,000,000 METRIC TONS. (THE METRIC TON IS 2,204.6 POUNDS.)

OFFICIALS OF THE COMMISSION'S COAL COMMITTEE, WHICH ALLOCATES COAL AND COKE TO EUROPEAN COUNTRIES, HAVE BEEN WORKING ON THE PROBLEM FOR MONTHS. DESPITE THEIR EFFORTS, THE APPARENT SURPLUS FOR THE SECOND QUARTER OF THIS YEAR IS GREATER THAN AT ANY TIME SINCE THE END OF THE WAR WHILE THE EUROPEAN DEFICIT, THOUGH GRADUALLY DECLINING AS EUROPE'S PRODUCTION INCREASES, IS ESTIMATED AT 5,220,000 TONS.

ATHENS, MARCH 16-(AP)-THE POLICE FORMALLY ACCUSED A GREEK COMMUNIST JOURNALIST AND HIS MOTHER YESTERDAY OF COMPLICITY IN THE MURDER OF GEORGE POLK, COLUMBIA BROADCASTING SYSTEM CORRESPONDENT.

THE CHARGES AGAINST GREGORY STAKTOPOULIS AND HIS MOTHER, ANNA, WERE READ TO THEM IN THEIR POLICE CELLS IN SALONIKA. AN INFORMED SOURCE SAID THEY ARE BOOKED FOR TRIAL STARTING APRIL 11. THE TRIAL DATE HAS NOT BEEN ANNOUNCED OFFICIALLY.

POLK WAS BOUND HAND AND FOOT, THEN SHOT THROUGH THE HEAD, AND HIS BODY THROWN INTO SALONIKA BAY LAST MAY. HE APPARENTLY WAS LURED TO HIS DEATH WITH PROMISES OF AN INTERVIEW WITH THE FORMER GREEK COMMUNIST LEADER, MARKOS VAFIADES.

PUBLIC PROSECUTOR CHRISTIS MOUSTAKIS IN A REPORT TO THE COURT PRELIMINARY TO TRIAL OF THE TWO ACCUSED SAID "THERE IS NO SLIGHTEST DOUBT POLK WAS ASSASSINATED BY COMMUNISTS." THE POLICE SEEK ANOTHER COMMUNIST, ADAM MOUZENIDES, WHOM THEY HAVE NAMED AS THE ACTUAL SLAYER.

THE PROSECUTOR'S REPORT SAID NICHOLAS ZAFIRIOU, A GREEK COMMUNIST, TOLD THE POLICE THAT POLK'S DEATH WAS ORDERED BY JOHN IOANNIDES, THE MAN WHO LATER SUCCEEDED MARKOS AS COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE COMMUNIST GUERRILLAS.

STAKTOPOULIS, THE REPORT CONTINUED, HAS CONFESSED THAT HE LED POLK TO A ROWBOAT IN WHICH THE NEWSMAN WAS SLAIN IN SALONIKA BAY. THE PURPORTED CONFESSION NAMED MOUZENIDES AS THE MAN WHO FIRED THE SHOT, ALTHOUGH IT QUOTED STAKTOPOULIS AS SAYING HE DID NOT ACTUALLY SEE WHO PULLED THE TRIGGER.

ATHENS, MARCH 16-(AP)-A GREEK COMMUNIST JOURNALIST AND HIS MOTHER ACCUSED OF COMPLICITY IN THE MURDER OF GEORGE POLK, PROBABLY WILL GO ON TRIAL APRIL 11, AN INFORMED SOURCE SAID TODAY.

POLICE READ THE CHARGES AGAINST GREGORY STAKTOPOULOS AND HIS MOTHER, ANNA, TO THEM IN THEIR JAIL CELLS YESTERDAY.

POLK WAS A CORRESPONDENT OF THE COLUMBIA BROADCASTING SYSTEM. HIS TRUSSED BODY, WITH A BULLET WOUND IN THE HEAD, WAS FOUND LAST MAY IN SALONIKA BAY. A GREEK PROSECUTOR, IN A REPORT ON HIS

INVESTIGATION, SAID "THERE IS NO SLIGHTEST DOUBT POLK WAS ASSASSINATED BY COMMUNISTS."

HE DISAPPEARED ON A TRIP DURING WHICH HE PLANNED TO INTERVIEW MARKOS VAFIADES, AT THAT TIME THE CHIEF GREEK COMMUNIST GUERRILLA LEADER.

POLICE SAY STAKTOPOULOS HAS ADMITTED BEING IN A ROWBOAT IN SALONIKA BAY WITH POLK AND OTHERS WHEN THE CORRESPONDENT WAS SLAIN.

MOSCOW, MARCH 16-(AP)-YAKOV M.LOMAKIN, ACTING CHIEF OF THE SOVIET PRESS DEPARTMENT, CONTENDED LAST NIGHT THE UNITED STATES LIVES UNDER CENSORSHIP AND THAT WHITE HOUSE NEWS CONFERENCES ARE "THE BIGGEST PROPAGANDA IN THE WORLD."

(LOMAKIN, THEN SOVIET CONSUL-GENERAL IN NEW YORK, WAS EXPELLED FROM THE UNITED STATES LAST AUG.20. THE STATE DEPARTMENT ACCUSED HIM OF MISINFORMING HIS OWN GOVERNMENT, ATTEMPTING TO MISLEAD THE AMERICAN PEOPLE, AND HAVING "ABUSED" HIS OFFICIAL POSITION IN OTHER WAYS. THE CHARGES RESULTED FROM THE CASE OF MRS.OKSANA KASENKINA, RUSSIAN SCHOOL TEACHER WHO HAD LEAPED FROM A WINDOW OF THE SOVIET CONSULAR BUILDING IN NEW YORK A WEEK EARLIER, SUFFERING SERIOUS INJURIES. SHE SAID SHE HAD BEEN HELD PRISONER IN THE CONSULATE.)

LOMAKIN TALKED WITH FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS AT THE FIRST DIPLOMATIC RECEPTION GIVEN BY FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY SINCE HE SUCCEEDED V.M.MOLOTOV.

LOMAKIN SAID THE UNITED STATES HAS THREE FORMS OF CENSORSHIP: POSTAL, AND CENSORSHIP IMPOSED BY BUSINESS AND THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

HE ASSERTED THE CORRESPONDENTS OF TASS, THE OFFICIAL SOVIET NEWS AGENCY, NEVER SEE AMERICAN OFFICIALS. HE RECALLED THAT HE ONCE WAS A NEWSMAN IN THE UNITED STATES, AND SAID THAT AS SUCH HE NEVER SAW AN AMERICAN OFFICIAL.

(TASS CORRESPONDENTS ARE FREE TO MOVE ABOUT ANYWHERE IN THE UNITED STATES TO DO THEIR REPORTING. AND THEY ATTEND NEWS CONFERENCES HELD BY GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS IN WASHINGTON. THE MOVEMENTS OF AMERICAN CORRESPONDENTS IN RUSSIA ARE GREATLY RESTRICTED.)

THE CONVERSATION WAS ON A FRIENDLY PLANE, AND VISHINSKY JOINED IT.

HE SUGGESTED THAT JOURNALISM HAS NOT CHANGED ELSEWHERE AS MUCH AS IN RUSSIA BECAUSE "YOU HAVEN'T HAD A REVOLUTION." HE ALSO RECALLED THAT HE IS A FORMER NEWSMAN.

THE RECEPTION WAS IN HONOR OF A DELEGATION FROM THE NORTH KOREAN GOVERNMENT, WHICH IS VISITING HERE. GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE AND OTHER WESTERN NATIONS WERE NOT INVITED BECAUSE THEY HAVE NO DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH NORTH KOREA. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS FROM THOSE COUNTRIES WERE AMONG THOSE RECEIVING THE INVITATIONS.

A.I.MIKOYAN, DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS, AND ANDREI A.GROMYKO, DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER, WHO FIGURED WITH VISHINSKY IN THE RECENT SHUFFLE OF TOP LEVEL SOVIET POLITICAL FIGURES, ATTENDED. A.F. GORJIN, SECRETARY OF THE PRESIDIUM OF THE SUPREME SOVIET, MARSHAL ALEXANDER M.VASILEVSKY AND MARSHAL KYRIL A.MERETSKOV AND GEN.S.M. SHTEMENKO ALSO ATTENDED.

LONDON, MARCH 16-(AP)-WESTERN POWERS ACCUSED SOVIET RUSSIA AND THREE OF HER SATELLITES TODAY OF GOING BACK ON THEIR COMMITMENTS.

BRITAIN DECLARED COMMUNIST-RULED BULGARIA, ROMANIA AND HUNGARY, NOW IN THE SOVIET BLOC AFTER WARTIME PARTNERSHIP WITH GERMANY, WERE SECRETLY REARMING, IN VIOLATION OF THEIR PEACE TREATIES, WITH RUSSIA'S CONNIVANCE AND SUPPORT.

THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT, IN A NOTE TO MOSCOW MADE PUBLIC TODAY, ACCUSED RUSSIA OF VIOLATING AT LEAST SIX SEPARATE PROMISES TO RETURN ALL GERMAN WAR PRISONERS IN SOVIET HANDS BY THE END OF 1948. IT RENEWED A DEMAND THAT THEY BE TURNED LOOSE.

FRANCE AND BRITAIN SENT SIMILAR NOTES, THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID. THE BRITISH NOTE ESTIMATED AT LEAST 200,000 GERMAN POWS ARE STILL IN GERMAN HANDS. RUSSIA CONTENDS SHE WAS NEVER BOUND BY ANY AGREEMENT TO REPATRIATE THE CAPTIVES BY LAST DEC. 31. THE UNITED STATES, BRITAI AND FRANCE CONTEND THE BIG FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS REACHED SUCH AN AGREEMENT IN APRIL OF 1947.

MINISTER OF STATE HECTOR MCNEIL TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS BULGARIA, ROMANIA AND HUNGARY ARE GUILTY OF "FLAGRANT VIOLATIONS OF THE PEACE TREATIES" IN REARMING AND HINTED BRITAIN WILL TAKE THE MATTER TO THE UNITED NATIONS.

BULGARIA AND ROMANIA HAVE ALREADY INCREASED THEIR ARMED FORCES BEYOND TREATY SPECIFICATIONS, HE SAID, AND HUNGARY IS REPORTED EX-PANDING HER MILITARY STRENGTH.

MCNEIL SAID ALL THREE HAVE TURNED DOWN A BRITISH-AMERICAN REQUEST FOR INFORMATION ON THEIR ARMED STRENGTH ON THE GROUND THAT RUSSIA, ONE OF THE ALLIES CONCERNED IN THE TREATIES, DID NOT JOIN IN THE REQUEST.

THE TREATIES GRANTED HUNGARY AUTHORITY FOR 65,000 TROOPS AND A 5,000-MAN AIR FORCE OF 90 PLANES. BULGARIA WAS LEFT AN ARMY OF 55,000, PLUS 1,800 FOR ANTI-AIRCRAFT DEFENSE, 5,000 AIRMEN WITH 90 PLANES AND A 3,000-MAN NAVY WITH SHIPS TOTALING 7,250 TONS. ROMANIA WAS LIMITED TO 120,000 TROOPS, 5,000 MEN IN ANTI-AIRCRAFT DEFENSES, 8,000 MEN IN A 150-PLANE AIR FORCE AND 5,000 NAVY MEN WITH 25,000 TONS OF SHIPPING. ALL THREE WERE DENIED HEAVY BOMBERS.

A MEMBER OF COMMONS ASKED WHAT BRITAIN WOULD DO IN VIEW OF THE "FLAGRANT VIOLATIONS." MCNEIL SAID THE TREATIES PROVIDE FOR AN APPEAL TO THE UNITED NATIONS BY ANY OF THE NATIONS WHICH SIGNED THE PACTS. A SPECIAL U.N. COMMISSION THEN WOULD BE ASSIGNED TO INVESTIGAT

"OF COURSE," MCNEIL SAID, "IF NO COOPERATION IS OFFERED IN EXAMINING THE IMPLICATIONS OF THESE MILITARY CLAUSES, OUR WORST FEARS WILL BE REALIZED AND OUR ATTITUDE WILL BE VARIED ACCORDINGLY."

MCNEIL REITERATED PREVIOUS CHARGES THAT THE THREE COUNTRIES HAVE VIOLATED TREATY PROVISIONS GUARANTEEING FREEDOM OF SPEECH, PRESS, RELIGION AND PUBLIC MEETING TO ALL CITIZENS. HE SAID POLITICAL PARTIES, CHURCHES AND NEWSPAPERS ARE BEING LIQUIDATED FOR REFUSAL TO GO ALONG WITH THE COMMUNISTS.

"THE DAY TO DAY PERSECUTION OF THE MAN IN THE STREET MUST ALSO BE REMEMBERED," HE SAID.

IN RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS, MCNEIL SAID BRITAIN WILL PRESS FOR INFORMATION ABOUT THE HEALTH AND TREATMENT OF JOSEF CARDINAL MINDSZENTY, THE ROMAN CATHOLIC PRIMATE SERVING A LIFE TERM IN HUNGARY AFTER CONVICTION BY A PEOPLE'S COURT OF TREASON.

HE SAID THE BRITISH CHARGE D'AFFAIRES IN BUDAPEST HAS BEEN UNABLE TO OBTAIN RELIABLE INFORMATION REGARDING THE CARDINAL'S LIVING CONDITIONS, BUT THAT IT IS BELIEVED HE IS AT PRESENT IN A DETENTION PRISON AND NOT A CONVICT PRISON.

BERLIN, MARCH 16-(AP)-THE RUSSIANS TURNED THEIR BACKS TODAY ON A GROUP OF GERMANS WHO ARE DISCUSSING PRIVATELY WAYS OF ENDING THE EAST-WEST COLD WAR.

MAR 16 1949

THE SOVIET MILITARY GOVERNMENT USED THE RED ARMY'S OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER, TAEGLISCHE RUNDSCHAU, TO MAKE THIS PLAIN.

THE RUNDSCHAU IN AN EDITORIAL ASSERTED FLATLY THAT RUDOLF NADOLNY, FORMER GERMAN AMBASSADOR TO MOSCOW, HAS NO CONNECTIONS WITH THE RUSSIANS NOW.

NADOLNY, NOW LIVING IN THE EAST, MET WITH WESTERN GERMANS ON THE RHINE RIVER LAST SUNDAY.

ONE OF THE CONFEREES SAID THE GROUP TALKED ABOUT THE POLITICAL SITUATION AND WHETHER GERMANS COULD MEDIATE THE DISPUTE.

SOME PRESS REPORTS NAMED NADOLNY AS A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE SOVIETS IN THE DISCUSSION.

THE RUNDSCHAU EDITORIAL ALSO REFERRED TO THE GROUP WHICH MET WITH NADOLNY AS "ADHERENTS OF THE SPLITTING OF GERMANY."

WHILE THEIR EDITORIALS SHRILLED AGAINST THE SPLITTING OF GERMANY, THE COMMUNIST POLICE WIDENED THE SPLIT THEMSELVES IN BERLIN BY THROWING UP MORE BLOCKADE POINTS IN THE QUARTERED CITY.

MEANWHILE THE WESTERN PRESS REPORTED THAT THE SOVIET ZONE FINANCE MINISTERS WERE CALLED INTO A SPECIAL SESSION WITH THE RUSSIAN COMMANDERS TO DISCUSS THE IMPENDING OUTLAWING OF THE EAST MARK IN WESTERN BERLIN.

JERUSALEM, MARCH 16-(AP)-KING ABDULLAH OF TRANS-JORDAN TODAY WAS REPORTED TAKING STEPS TO PREVENT THE EXILED PALESTINE MUFTI FROM TRYING TO REVIVE HIS INFLUENCE AMONG HOLY LAND ARABS.

THESE REPORTS SAID TRANS-JORDAN PLANNED TO STRENGTHEN ITS HOLDS OVER ARAB DISTRICTS OF PALESTINE BY ABOLISHING MILITARY GOVERNORS AND APPOINTING CIVILIAN DISTRICT COMMISSIONERS. OBVIOUSLY THIS WOULD CREATE GOOD WILL AMONG THE ARAB RESIDENTS FOR KING ABDULLAH AT THE EXPENSE OF THE MUFTI.

BY JAMES M.LONG

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, MARCH 16-(AP)-IT IS WIDELY ASSUMED HERE THAT THERE PROBABLY WILL BE ONE MORE MAJOR CHANGE IN THE FRONTIER AND SHAPE OF ISRAEL BEFORE ANY FINAL PEACE IS SIGNED.

IF THERE IS SUCH A CHANGE, IT WILL SLICE OFF THE WESTERN EDGE OF THE JENIN-TULKAREM-NABLUS TRIANGLE IN NORTH-CENTRAL PALESTINE WHICH PARTITION GAVE TO THE ARABS AND WHICH THEY NOW HOLD.

WITH THE EXCEPTION OF MINORITY EXTREMIST GROUPS HERE, THERE IS NO DISPOSITION AMONG THE MAJORITY OF THE ISRAELI PEOPLE OF THE GOVERNMENT TO WANT TO ACQUIRE THE TRIANGLE AS MERE TERRITORIAL EXPANSION.

BUT THE GOVERNMENT, THE ARMY AND THE PEOPLE NEVER HAVE BEEN SATISFIED WITH THE FRONTIERS THE TRIANGLE MARKS OUT. IT CUTS OFF THE MAIN ROAD FROM MID-STATE TO AFOULA, IN THE HEART OF THE ESDRAELON VALLEY. IT LEAVES THE TULKAREM POINT OF THE TRIANGLE WITHIN 15 MILES OF THE COAST, VIRTUALLY CUTTING THE STATE IN TWO.

AND THERE IS NO INCLINATION TO LEAVE IT THAT WAY.

ALTHOUGH BOTH TRANS-JORDAN AND IRAQ ARMY FORCES ARE IN THE TRIANGLE, IT IS THE IRAQIS WHO HAVE BEEN GARRISONING THE TULKAREM AND THE TULKAREM-JENIN SIDE OF IT--THE PART WITH WHICH THE JEWS ARE DISSATISFIED.

THERE HAVE BEEN REPORTS--AND DENIALS--THAT THE IRAQIS HAVE STARTED TO PULL OUT OF THEIR SECTION. BUT ONE THING IS OBVIOUS: THEY CAN HARDLY REMAIN THERE INDEFINITELY.

WHEN, AND IF, TRANS-JORDAN AND SYRIA SIGN AN ARMISTICE WITH ISRAEL, IRAQ'S WAY OF REINFORCEMENT, SUPPLY OR EVEN WITHDRAWAL FROM THE TRIANGLE WOULD BE CUT OFF.

THE JEWS ALREADY HAVE MADE THEIR PRELIMINARY MOVES. THEY HAVE INFORMED ACTING MEDIATOR RALPH J.BUNCHE OF "IMPORTANT MILITARY CHANGES" WHICH THEY SAY THE ARABS ARE TRYING TO MAKE IN THEIR POSITION ON THIS FRONT. THEY ASKED THAT U.N. OBSERVERS BE DISPATCHED TO MAKE SURE THAT THE POSITIONS OF THE ARAB FORCES WERE NOT CHANGED IN VIOLATION OF TRUCE OR CEASE-FIRE ORDERS.

(IT IS NOT CLEAR EVEN HERE JUST HOW ARAB MOVES BEHIND THEIR OWN LINES IN THE TRIANGLE DIFFER FROM THE RECENT MOVES WHICH THE ISRAELIS CONTENDED THEY HAD A RIGHT TO MAKE IN THE SOUTHERN NEGEV AREA ON THE GROUND IT WAS WITHIN THEIR FRONTIERS.)

WHEN, AND IF, THE IRAQ FORCES MOVE OUT OF THE TRIANGLE THE JEWS WILL BE PREPARED TO SAY THEY HAVE AS MUCH RIGHT TO THIS TERRITORY AS TRANS-JORDAN. IF THE U.N. ENFORCES AN OPEN BUFFER ZONE THERE, THE SITUATION--INCLUDING ISRAEL'S CLAIMS--MIGHT BE SETTLED BY ARBITRATION.

IF THE IRAQIS TRY TO STAY, THAT MIGHT BE ANOTHER MATTER.

THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN PROTESTING DAILY THAT SNIPING, KIDNAPINGS AND CATTLE RUSTLING ARE GOING ON ALONG THE TULKAREM FRONT. IT BLAMES IRAQUIS AND ARAB IRREGULARS.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 16-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS RECEIVED TWO ARAB PROTESTS TODAY CHARGING THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT IS EXPELLING ARAB INVALIDS AND CHILDREN FROM ISRAEL BY ARMED FORCE.

"BEFORE SUN FO'S RESIGNATION (SUN FO WAS PREMIER UNTIL LAST WEEK) CHANG CHIH-CHUNG AND WU CHUNG-HSIN WENT TO SEE CHIANG KAI-SHEK ON BEHALF OF (ACTING PRESIDENT) LI TSUNG-JEN," THE RADIO SAID.

"IT WAS ALLEGED," THE RADIO CONTINUED, "THEY WENT TO ASK CHIANG KAI-SHEK TO GO ABROAD, BUT ACTUALLY THEY WENT TO PLEAD FOR CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S 'UNDERSTANDING' OF LI TSUNG-JEN'S POLITICAL SCHEME, INCLUDING THE APPOINTMENT OF THE KUOMINTANG'S (GOVERNMENT PARTY'S) EXECUTIVE YUAN HEAD" (PREMIER).

TERMING LI TSUNG-JEN AS A "SO-CALLED ACTING PRESIDENT," THE RADIO CHARGED HE AND "HIS BLOC" WERE "NOW STRIVING FOR THE COOPERATION OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK AND COMPANY SO AS TO MAKE A SHOW OF BARGAINING IN FRONT OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE. THIS SO-CALLED BARGAINING IS THE USING OF FALSE PEACE TO RESIST GENUINE PEACE."

(250) WASHINGTON,MARCH 16-(AP)-COMMUNIST VICTORIES IN CHINA WERE LARGELY DUE TO A "DEFEATIST" ATTITUDE IN CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S ARMIES, A FORMER U.S. MILITARY ADVISER IN CHINA SAID TODAY.

THE OPINION WAS EXPRESSED BY MAJ.GEN.DAVID G.BARR, WHO WAS DIRECTOR OF THE NOW-DISSOLVED U.S. MILITARY ADVISORY GROUP IN CHINA. HE RECENTLY RETURNED HOME.

AT A NEWS CONFERENCE, HE SAID HE NEVER FELT THAT "ANY PARTICULAR BATTLE WAS LOST BECAUSE OF LACK OF ARMS."

IN ANSWER TO OTHER QUESTIONS, BARR SAID:

1. THE MAJOR REASON FOR DEFEAT OF THE NATIONALIST ARMY WAS A "DEFEATIST ATTITUDE THROUGHOUT THE ARMY," AGGRAVATED BY POOR PAY AND POOR FOOD FOR THE COMBAT DIVISIONS.

2. THE MAJOR PORTION OF ARMS NOW USED BY THE COMMUNISTS IS AMERICAN-MADE WEAPONS, CAPTURED FROM THE NATIONALISTS. HE NEVER SAW ANY RUSSIAN EQUIPMENT IN CHINESE COMMUNISTS HANDS. NOR HAD HE ANY DEFINITE INFORMATION OTHER THAN "JUST THE NORMAL RUMORS" THAT RUSSIAN OFFICERS SERVED WITH COMMUNIST FORCES.

3. VERY LITTLE OF THE LAST $125,000,000 (M) WORTH OF AID SENT BY THE U.S. TO THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT REACHED THE FRONT BEFORE THE COLLAPSE OF THE NATIONALIST ARMY. MOST OF IT NOW IS HELD BY THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT ON THE ISLAND OF FORMOSA.

4. EVEN NOW THE COMMUNIST ARMY HAS "VERY FEW PLANES." THE NATIONALISTS HAD, AT THEIR PEAK STRENGTH, ABOUT 460 COMBAT PLANES--AMERICAN WARTIME BUILT B-24 AND B-25 BOMBERS AND P-51 FIGHTERS. OF THESE, ABOUT 275 WERE IN CONDITION FOR COMBAT.

TOKYO,THURSDAY, MARCH 17-(AP)-GENERAL MACARTHUR TODAY FLATLY DENIED ANY PROSPECTIVE CHANGE IN THE JAPAN OCCUPATION REGIME AND SAID HE INTENDS TO STAY ON THE JOB UNTIL THE PEACE TREATY IS SIGNED.

HIS BRIEF STATEMENT TOOK INTO ACCOUNT RECENT REPORTS OF INCREASED CIVILIAN CONTROL OVER THE OCCUPATION.

THE STATEMENT:

"RECURRENT PUBLISHED RUMORS HAVE RECENTLY REACHED TOKYO SUGGESTING THE POSSIBILITY OF A CHANGE IN THE REGIME OF JAPANESE OCCUPATION CONTROL, PERHAPS TO BE ACCOMPANIED BY MY RETIREMENT. THE SOURCE OF THESE RUMORS HAS BEEN CONSISTENTLY CLOAKED IN ANONYMITY.

"AS HAS BEEN REPEATEDLY STATED BOTH HERE AND IN AUTHORITATIVE QUARTERS IN WASHINGTON, THERE IS NO KNOWN FACTUAL BASIS THEREFOR. AS FAR AS I AM PERSONALLY CONCERNED, I HAVE NO INTENTION OF SEEKING RELIEF FROM MY HEAVY RESPONSIBILITIES HERE.

"SO LONG AS I AM NOT ASSIGNED BY THE GOVERNMENT TO DUTY ELSEWHERE, I REITERATE MY INTENTION TO SEE THIS JOB THROUGH TO THE SIGNING OF A PEACE TREATY."

TOKYO,MARCH 16 (AP)-JAPAN'S DOMINANT DEMOCRATIC LIBERAL PARTY TODAY WAS UNDER FIRE FROM TOKYO NEWSPAPERS FOR ENFORCING A GAG RULE ON GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS.

PRIME MINISTER SHIGERU YOSHIDA IN EFFECT HAS GIVEN THE PARTY, WHICH IS ULTRA-CONSERVATIVE, THE RIGHT TO CENSOR IN ADVANCE ALL PUBLIC STATEMENTS AND TO LOOK OVER PROSPECTIVE LEGISLATION BEFORE IT IS PRESENTED TO THE DIET.

YOSHIDA ALSO IS PRESIDENT OF THE PARTY, WHICH HOLDS A CLEAR - MAJORITY IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THE NEWSPAPERS INTERPRETED THE GAG RULE AS A MEANS OF PERMITTING THE PARTY TO MOVE WHOLESALE INTO GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS. THEY POINTEDLY ASKED WHETHER THE PARTY OR THE CABINET WAS SUPPOSED TO RUN THE COUNTRY.

MOST IMPORTANT JAPANESE LEGISLATION ORIGINATES WITH THE CABINET RATHER THAN MEMBERS OF THE DIET. CONTROL OVER THIS FUNCTION WOULD GIVE THE DEMOCRATIC LIBERALS ASTRONG POSITION FROM WHICH TO PREVENT THE INTRODUCTION OF BILLS DISPLEASING TO THEIR INDUSTRIALIST BACKERS.

SEOUL, MARCH 16-(AP)-KOREAN PRIME MINISTER LEE BUM SUK SAID TODAY SOVIET MACHINEGUNS HAVE BEEN CAPTURED FROM COMMUNIST GUERRILLAS ON CHEJU ISLAND.

THE PRIME MINISTER MADE THE STATEMENT AT A NEWS CONFERENCE. HE RETURNED YESTERDAY FROM THE BIG ISLAND OFF THE INFANT REPUBLIC'S SOUTHERN COAST. GUERRILLA FORCES FOR THE PAST YEAR HAVE BEEN RESISTING AUTHORITY OF THE SOUTH KOREAN GOVERNMENT, WHICH IS AMERICAN SUPPORTED.

LEE SAID A 2,000-TON SHIP FLYING THE COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED NORTH KOREAN FLAG HAD BEEN SEEN OFF CHEJU EIGHT DAYS BEFORE HE ARRIVED. HE SAID THE SHIP'S BLINKER SIGNALS WERE ANSWERED FROM THE MOUNTAINS WHERE AN ESTIMATED 500 REBELS STILL HOLD OUT.

THE PRIME MINISTER WAS ASKED WHETHER THERE WAS EVIDENCE THAT THE GUERRILLAS WERE RECEIVING AID FROM THE OUTSIDE. LEE ANSWERED:

"THE CAPTURE OF SOVIET MACHINEGUNS IS ONE PROOF."

HE SAID ALSO A SUBMARINE HAD BEEN SEEN NEAR CHEJU TWO OR THREE DAYS AGO.

LEE SAID KOREAN REPUBLICAN TROOPS AND POLICE ARE ENGAGED IN A DRIVE HE BELIEVES WILL CLEAN OUT THE ISLAND REBELS BY THE END OF THIS MONTH.

CHEJU AUTHORITIES HAVE BEEN PROMISED FOOD AND CLOTHING FOR ISLANDERS LEFT DESTITUTE BY THE PROLONGED WARFARE. A CHEJU DELEGATION REPORTED HERE YESTERDAY THAT 15,000 PERSONS HAD BEEN KILLED AND 65,000 MADE HOMELESS IN THE YEAR'S FIGHTING.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 16-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES IS THINKING SERIOUSLY OF SWITCHING THE OCCUPATION OF JAPAN TO CIVILIAN CONTROL, POSSIBLY NEXT YEAR, DIPLOMATIC OFFICIALS SAID TODAY.

THEY SAID PRESENT PLANNING IS BASED ON THE IDEA THAT GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR OR SOME OTHER TOP MILITARY MAN WOULD REMAIN AS SUPREME ALLIED COMMANDER. HE WOULD BE RESPONSIBLE TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT RATHER THAN THE ARMY DEPARTMENT AS NOW, AND HE WOULD HAVE A CIVILIAN DEPUTY TO HANDLE MOST ADMINISTRATIVE MATTERS.

THE SAME GENERAL IDEA IS REPORTED UNDER STUDY FOR GERMANY.

AUTHORITIES SAID, HOWEVER, THAT DECISIONS ON BOTH OCCUPATION AREAS STILL ARE UP IN THE AIR, WITH MONTHS OF WORK ON DETAILS IN PROSPECT EVEN AFTER A DECISION FINALLY IS REACHED.

THEY SAID THEREFORE THAT RECENT PUBLISHED REPORTS THAT A CIVILIAN HIGH COMMISSIONER WOULD REPLACE MACARTHUR BY THE END OF THE YEAR WERE AT LEAST PREMATURE.

MACARTHUR WILL BE 70 NEXT JANUARY 30--WELL PAST THE NORMAL ARMY RETIREMENT AGE--BUT THERE HAVE BEEN NO HINTS OF ANY PLANS TO REPLACE HIM.

THE UNITED STATES IS RESPONSIBLE FOR JAPANESE OCCUPATION BY WARTIME AGREEMENT AMONG THE PACIFIC ALLIES.

UNLESS THERE IS A PEACE TREATY IN THE MEANTIME, OFFICIALS INDICATED, WHEN MACARTHUR DOES STEP ASIDE HE WILL BE REPLACED BY ANOTHER AMERICAN GENERAL. UNDER THE PROJECTED CHANGE HE WOULD BE RESPONSIBLE TO THE ARMY ONLY FOR STRICTLY MILITARY MATTERS.

THE PROPOSED CIVILIAN DEPUTY PROBABLY WOULD HAVE THE DIPLOMATIC RANK OF AMBASSADOR, AND A POSITION SECOND ONLY TO THAT OF THE COMMANDER.

ONE MAJOR RESULT WOULD BE TO TRANSFORM MACARTHUR'S PRESENT MILITARY HEADQUARTERS INTO AN ESTABLISHMENT OF DEFINITE CIVILIAN CHARACTER. THE PRESENT SET UP HAS BEEN CRITICIZED PRIVATELY BY SOME STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS.

PRESUMABLY, THE 11-NATION FAR EASTERN COMMISSION WOULD CONTINUE AS A POLICY-MAKING BODY FOR THE JAPANESE OCCUPATION AREA.

THE COMMISSION YESTERDAY SENT A DIRECTIVE TO MACARTHUR RULING OUT ANY FURTHER TRIALS OF JAPAN'S WARTIME LEADERS ON MAJOR WAR CRIMES CHARGES. THE DIRECTIVE SAID, HOWEVER, THAT TRIALS STILL WOULD BE IN ORDER FOR SUCH VIOLATIONS OF THE LAWS OF WAR AS MURDER AND ENSLAVEMENT.

PREMIER HIDEKI TOJO AND SIX OTHER MAJOR WAR CRIMINALS WERE HANGED LAST DECEMBER 23 FOLLOWING TRIALS WHICH LASTED NEARLY TWO AND A HALF YEARS. NINETEEN OTHERS RECEIVED LESSER SENTENCES.

SEOUL,MARCH 16-(AP)-SOUTH KOREA HAS ABOUT RECOVERED FROM THE POWER SHORTAGE WHICH STARTED LAST MAY WHEN THE RUSSIAN PUPPET GOVERNMENT IN NORTH KOREA PULLED THE SWITCHES.

THE AMERICAN-BACKED KOREAN REPUBLIC IS PRODUCING ABOUT 82,000 KILOWATT HOURS -- ALMOST DOUBLE THE SUPPLY AVAILABLE AT THE LOW POINT LAST OCTOBER, LOYAL R.MILBURN SAID TODAY. HE IS A DETROIT CONSULTING ENGINEER WHO HEADS A POWER COMMISSION THAT ARRIVED AT THAT TIME. IT HAS PUT SEVERAL NEW GENERATING PLANTS INTO OPERATION.

"WHEN THE U.S. ARMY BROUGHT US HERE, WE PROMISED TO BE PRODUCING 120,000 KILOWATTS BY NEXT OCTOBER," MILBURN SAID. "NOW I BELIEVE IT WILL BE NEARER 130,000 -- IF WE GET THE COAL AND HAVE ANY RAIN AT ALL."

THE POSTWAR PEAK WAS 118,000 KILOWATTS IN NOVEMBER, 1947. THAT WAS WHILE SOUTH KOREA'S CHIEF POWER SOURCE WAS THE BIG HYDROELECTRIC SYSTEM IN THE SOVIET-OCCUPIED NORTH HALF OF THE COUNTRY.

SWITCHES WERE PULLED IN THE NORTH WHEN THE AMERICAN COMMAND REFUSED TO NEGOTIATE FOR POWER PAYMENT WITH THE RUSSIAN-CONTROLLED NORTH KOREAN "PEOPLES GOVERNMENT."

HAVANA, MARCH 16-(AP)-THE INTER-AMERICAN COMMISSION ON DEPENDENT TERRITORIES WHICH IS MEETING HERE WAS CRITICIZED TODAY FOR "ASSUMING RIGHTS THAT IT DOES NOT HAVE."

THE CRITICISM CAME FROM THE BRITISH WEST INDIAN CULTURAL ASSOCIATION OF CUBA. IT PRINTED ADVERTISEMENTS IN HAVANA NEWSPAPERS SAYING THAT THE COMMISSION "IS ATTEMPTING TO DECIDE THE FUTURE OF OUR PEOPLES WITHOUT HAVING CONSULTED US."

THE COMMISSION WAS SET UP BY A PAN AMERICAN CONFERENCE AT BOGOTA, COLOMBIA, IN APRIL, 1948, TO STUDY THE PROBLEM OF FOREIGN COLONIES IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE AND SEE HOW THEY MIGHT ACHIEVE INDEPENDENCE BY PEACEFUL MEANS.

THE UNITED STATES, BRAZIL, CHILE AND SEVERAL OTHERS NATIONS DECLINED TO PARTICIPATE.

ARGENTINE DELEGATE ENRIQUE COROMINAS TONIGHT DEFINED ARGENTINA'S CLAIMS TO FOUR AREAS WHICH ARE CONTROLLED BY GREAT BRITAIN. THEY ARE THE FALKLAND ISLANDS, THE GEORGIA AND SOUTHERN SANDWICH ISLANDS AND PART OF THE TIP OF THE ANTARTIC PENINSULA.

"WE ARE VERY SURE," HE SAID, "THAT AT ANY TIME WE CAN PROVE THE VALIDITY OF OUR CLAIMS AND FOR THAT REASON WE WANT TO SEEK A PEACEFUL AND CONCILIATORY SOLUTION."

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,MARCH 17-(THURSDAY)-(AP)-THE ATLANTIC PACT POWERS TODAY INVITED DENMARK, ICELAND, ITALY AND PORTUGAL TO JOIN IN SIGNING THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY TREATY.

THE GOVERNMENTS OF ALL THOSE COUNTRIES HAVE BEEN CONSIDERING JOINING THE ALLIANCE AND IT IS EXPECTED HERE THAT ALL FOUR WILL DO SO.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT ISSUED THIS STATEMENT ON THE BIDS:

"INVITATIONS HAVE TODAY BEEN ISSUED ON BEHALF OF THE GOVERNMENTS OF BELGIUM, CANADA, FRANCE, LUXEMBOURG, THE NETHERLANDS, NORWAY, THE UNITED KINGDOM AND THE UNITED STATES TO THE GOVERNMENTS OF DENMARK, ICELAND, ITALY AND PORTUGAL TO JOIN IN SIGNING THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY DURING THE FIRST WEEK IN APRIL."

IT WAS UNDERSTOOD HERE THAT EACH OF THE GOVERNMENTS TO WHICH THE INVITATION WAS SENT ALSO WAS BEING PROVIDED WITH A COPY OF THE TEXT OF THE TREATY. THE INVITING COUNTRIES ARE THOSE WHICH DRAFTED THE TEXT. IT IS SCHEDULED TO BE MADE GENERALLY PUBLIC TOMORROW.

MEANWHILE, IT APPEARED THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT WAS PLANNING MAXIMUM PUBLIC DISCUSSION OF THE PROJECT. IN THIS COUNTRY IT MUST HAVE SENATE APPROVAL BEFORE IT CAN BE RATIFIED BY THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT.

REPRESENTATIVES OF 200 NATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS, COVERING SUCH FIELD AS FARM, LABOR, BUSINESS AND EDUCATION, CAME HERE FOR A THURSDAY-FRIDAY "OFF-THE-RECORD" DISCUSSION OF FOREIGN POLICY AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT. THEY ARE TO HEAR FROM SECRETARY ACHESON AND OTHER TOP OFFICIALS. THE ATLANTIC TREATY PROJECT WAS LISTED AS A MAJOR SUBJECT OF DISCUSSION.

ACHESON IS EXPECTED SOON TO MAKE AN ADDRESS ON FOREIGN POLICY, INCLUDING A DISCUSSION OF THE TREATY PROPOSAL. THE SUBJECT WILL ALSO FIGURE LARGELY IN A SERIES OF FOREIGN POLICY RADIO BROADCASTS WHICH THE STATE DEPARTMENT WILL BEGIN NEXT SUNDAY OVER A NATIONAL NETWORK (NBC).

ALL OF THE FOUR COUNTRIES INVITED TO JOIN THE EIGHT ORIGINATING NATIONS IN SIGNING THE TREATY HAVE ALREADY BEEN IN CONTACT WITH AMERICAN AND OTHER ATLANTIC POWER OFFICIALS.

ICELAND'S FOREIGN MINISTER, BJARNI BENEDIKTSSON, WHO HAS BEEN IN WASHINGTON FOR SEVERAL DAYS CONFERRING WITH STATE DEPARTMENT AUTHORITIES, HAS A FAREWELL APPOINTMENT WITH ACHESON TODAY (11:45 A.M. EST

DENMARK'S FOREIGN MINISTER, GUSTAV RASMUSSEN, HAS RETURNED HOME AFTER MAKING HIS INQUIRIES IN WASHINGTON. THE ITALIAN AND PORTUGUESE GOVERNMENTS THROUGH THEIR EMBASSIES HERE AND THE AMERICAN EMBASSIES IN ROME AND LISBON HAVE RECENTLY BEEN INFORMED OF THE TREATY PROPOSAL.

WHILE THE TREATY IS STILL SECRET ITS MAJOR PROVISIONS ARE KNOWN. IT WOULD COMMIT EACH OF THE SIGNATORY POWERS TO JOIN IN RESISTING AN ATTACK ON ANY ONE OF THEM; EACH NATION WOULD DECIDE FOR ITSELF WHETHER IT WOULD USE ARMED FORCE IN MEETING THE ATTACK.

IF ITALY JOINS AS EXPECTED, ALONG WITH ICELAND, DENMARK AND PORTUGAL, THE NUMBER OF COUNTRIES LINKED INTO THIS TIGHT MUTUAL-AID PACT WILL RISE TO 12.

MAR 16 1949

(THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT APPROVED THE TERMS OF THE PACT AND AUTHORIZED ITS SIGNATURE TODAY. THE ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE FOLLOWING A MEETING OF THE CABINET.)

ICELAND'S FOREIGN MINISTER IS SCHEDULED TO CALL TOMORROW MORNING ON SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON TO GET THE ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS HE ASKED. ACHESON'S REPLIES ARE FULLY EXPECTED TO CONVINCE ICELAND IT SHOULD JOIN THE PACT.

ITALY'S ENTRY INTO THE ALLIANCE WOULD REPRESENT A TRIUMPH FOR FRANCE AND THE UNITED STATES. THEY OVERCAME INITIAL OBJECTIONS FROM BRITAIN, THE LOW COUNTRIES AND CANADA.

THE BRITISH ESPECIALLY ARE REPORTED TO GAVE HAVE OBJECTED THAT ITALY'S ENTRY MIGHT EXTEND THE ALLIANCE TOO FAR SOUTHWARD AND EXPOSE THE MEMBERS TO UNNECESSARY RISK.

THE AMERICAN AND FRENCH GOVERNMENTS, ON THE OTHER HAND, SUCCESSFULLY ARGUED THAT ITALY'S PRO-WESTERN OUTLOOK AND ITS STRATEGIC POSITION IN THE MEDITERRANEAN MADE IT NECESSARY TO INCLUDE HER.

SENATOR MALONE (D-NEV) CRITICIZED THE PROPOSED ATLANTIC PACT TODAY AS A "PROMISE TO SAFEGUARD COLONIAL POSSESSIONS ALL OVER THE WORLD."

HE ADDED THAT NATIVES OF MOST COLONIEL POSSESSIONS "ARE BITTER AGAINST COLONIAL NATIONS," AND BY HELPING TO MAINTAIN EXISTING COLONIAL RULE "WE'RE MAKING DEADLY ENEMIES OF THOSE LITTLE PEOPLE."

MALONE, AT A NEWS CONFERENCE, ALSO CRITICIZED WHAT HE SAID IS USE OF MARSHALL PLAN MONEY BY FOREIGN NATIONS TO "KEEP THEIR HOLDINGS FROM CHANGING."

REFERRING SPECIFICALLY TO INDONESIA, HE SAID THE PEOPLE OF THAT AREA PROBABLY WILL BECOME COMMUNIST IF NECESSARY TO OVERTHROW COLONIAL CONTROL.

LONDON, MARCH 16-(AP)-AN ESTIMATE OF ARMS NEEDED FROM THE UNITED STATES WAS STUDIED BY THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THE FIVE-NATION WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION, DIPLOMATIC SOURCES SAID TODAY.

THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, HOLLAND AND LUXEMBOURG WOUND UP A TWO-DAY MEETING HERE LAST NIGHT. A TERSE COMMUNIQUE SAID THEY WENT OVER PROBLEMS OF FINANCING AND PRODUCING MILITARY SUPPLIES FOR THEIR JOINT DEFENSES.

THEY SAID THEY ALSO STUDIED THE LATEST DEVELOPMENTS IN CONNECTION WITH THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT.

THE DIPLOMATIC SOURCES EXPANDED ON THE COMMUNIQUE. THEY SAID THE FOREIGN MINISTERS LOOKED OVER A REPORT STATING THEY WOULD HAVE TO DEPEND ON THE UNITED STATES TO SUPPLY HEAVY BOMBERS AND MOBILE ARMOR.

THE INFORMANTS SAID THE REPORT ALSO OUTLINED THE TYPES OF ARMAMENT THE NATIONS THEMSELVES CAN PRODUCE. THEY ADDED PAYMENT TO THE U.S. PRESUMABLY WOULD BE PARTLY IN SERVICES AND PARTLY WITH EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM FUNDS.

THE REPORT CAME FROM BRITISH FIELD MARSHAL MONTGOMERY, CHAIRMAN OF THE MILITARY COMMITTEE THAT PLANS THE DEFENSIVE STRATEGY OF THE WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION.

MOST, IF NOT ALL, OF THE UNION'S FOREIGN MINISTERS ARE EXPECTED TO SAIL FROM ENGLAND MARCH 25 TO SIGN THE ATLANTIC PACT IN WASHINGTON. THE U.S., CANADA AND NORWAY ALSO PLAN TO SIGN THE TREATY. ITALY, DENMARK, ICELAND, AND PORTUGAL ALSO MAY JOIN.

THE MINISTERS ALSO POSTPONED THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION OF THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE UNTIL SOME TIME NEXT MONTH. THE ORIGINAL DATE SET WOULD HAVE CONFLICTED WITH THE SIGNING OF THE ATLANTIC PACT.

THE FIVE NATIONS HAVE INVITED ITALY, DENMARK, NORWAY, SWEDEN AND EIRE TO JOIN THEM IN SETTING UP THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE - A SOCIAL AND CULTURAL UNION WHICH WOULD HAVE A POLITICAL FORM.

THE FOREIGN MINISTERS WERE SAID TO HAVE GONE OVER A ROUGH DRAFT OF A CONSTITUTION FOR THE COUNCIL.

THE SOVIET UNION HAS CONTENDED THAT INTRODUCTION OF WESTERN CURRENCY INTO BERLIN WAS A FACTOR IN THE BLOCKADE. THE CITY NOW HAS TWO CURRENCIES, THE WEST-SPONSORED DEUTSCHEMARK AND THE RUSSIAN-BACKED EAST MARK. LAKE SUCCESS,MARCH 16-(AP)-NORWAY APPEALED TO THE NETHERLANDS AND TO THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA TODAY TO PREVENT ANY ATROCITIES IN THEIR CONFLICT.

ARNE SUNDE, NORWEGIAN DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL, SAID THE DUTCH AND THE INDONESIANS HAVE MADE CHARGES OF ATROCITIES AGAINST EACH OTHER. HE SAID THERE WAS NO PROOF OF ANY ATROCITIES AND THAT HE WAS CERTAIN NEITHER SIDE WOULD PERMIT SUCH METHODS WHERE IT COULD PREVENT THEM.

SUNDE TOLD THE COUNCIL THE DELEGATES SHOULD CONSIDER WHETHER TO ASK ANY ORGAN OF THE UNITED NATIONS OR ANY OTHER INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION TO INVESTIGATE THE QUESTION OF ALLEGED ATROCITIES IN INDONESIA.

HE WAS THE FIRST SPEAKER AS THE SECURITY COUNCIL RESUMED DEBATE ON THE DUTCH-INDONESIAN CONFLICT.

JEAN CHAUVEL, NEW FRENCH DELEGATE TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL, SAID A DUTCH PROPOSAL FOR A ROUND-TABLE CONFERENCE IN THE HAGUE ON THE INDONESIAN PROBLEM WOULD BE USEFUL FOR EXPLORING POINTS ON WHICH THE DUTCH AND INDONESIANS MAY AGREE.

CHAUVEL FAVORED A CANADIAN SUGGESTION FOR THE DUTCH AND INDONESIANS TO CONSULT ON CONDITIONS FOR THE ROUND-TABLE CONFERENCE. THESE CONSULTATIONS WOULD BE HELD UNDER AUSPICES OF THE UNITED NATIONS COMMISSION ON INDONESIA.

ALBERTO INOCENTE ALVAREZ OF CUBA, COUNCIL PRESIDENT FOR MARCH, SAID THE CUBAN GOVERNMENT WAS DISAPPOINTED AT THE DUTCH ATTITUDE TOWARD THE COUNCIL'S RESOLUTION OF JAN. 28. THIS RESOLUTION CALLED ON THE DUTCH TO RE-ESTABLISH THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC IN ITS CAPITAL, JOGJAKARTA, BUT THE DUTCH HAVE REFUSED TO DO SO.

ALVAREZ ASKED WHAT FAITH COULD THE SMALL NATIONS OF THE WORLD HAVE IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL IF NON-COMPLIANCE WITH ITS DECISIONS CONTINUES.

ALVAREZ SAID CUBA BELIEVES ALL MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL ARE OBLIGED TO SEE THAT THE NETHERLANDS ABIDES BY THE COUNCIL'S DECISIONS.

THE CUBAN DELEGATE SAID THREE THINGS MUST BE DONE BEFORE THE SECURITY COUNCIL CAN TAKE NOTICE OF SUGGESTIONS FOR A ROUND-TABLE. HE LISTED THESE AS THE IMMEDIATE RELEASE OF THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC LEADERS, THEIR RETURN TO JOGJAKARTA, AND THE IMMEDIATE END OF ALL MILITARY OPERATIONS.

JOHN D.L.HOOD OF AUSTRALIA TOLD THE COUNCIL HE AGREED WITH ALVAREZ' STATEMENT. HE SAID THE NETHERLANDS HAD DECIDED DELIBERATELY FROM THE BEGINNING NOT TO COMPLY WITH THE JAN. 28 RESOLUTION. HE SAID THE COUNCIL SHOULD DISMISS THE DUTCH PROPOSAL FOR A ROUND-TABLE AND STAND ON ITS OWN RESOLUTION.

HOOD SAID SUGGESTIONS BY CANADA AND CHINA FOR PRELIMINARY DISCUSSIONS OFFERED TOO MUCH OF A CHANCE FOR PROTRACTED DELAY.

HE SAID IT WAS UP TO THE NETHERLANDS TO COMPLY WITH THE PRINCIPLES LAID DOWN IN THE COUNCIL'S RESOLUTION.

THE ONLY REAL REASON WHY THE DUTCH HAVE NOT RESTORED THE REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT TO POWER IS THAT THE NETHERLANDS DOES NOT WANT TO DO IT, HOOD SAID.

BRIG.GEN.CARLOS P.ROMULO OF THE PHILIPPINES TOLD THE COUNCIL THERE ARE TWO SUGGESTIONS BEFORE IT. HE SAID ONE, BY CANADA, PROPOSED AN EXPLORATORY MEETING OF THE DUTCH AND INDONESIANS UNDER AUSPICES OF THE U.N. COMMISSION TO DISCUSS TERMS AND CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH A ROUND-TABLE CONFERENCE COULD BE HELD. THE OTHER, BY CHINA, PROPOSED A PRELIMINARY CONFERENCE TO GUARANTEE THAT THE FIRST PARTS OF THE JAN. 28 RESOLUTION WOULD BE CARRIED OUT.

ROMULO SAID THE CANADIAN PROPOSAL RECOGNIZES THE EXISTENCE OF AN OBSTACLE--THE NON-RESTORATION OF THE REPUBLIC, AND THEN SEEKS TO AVOID IT WHILE THE CHINESE PROPOSAL TRIES TO MEET THE OBSTACLE AND GET IT OUT OF THE WAY.

ROMULO SAID IT MIGHT BE DESIRABLE TO SEE BOTH SUGGESTIONS IN WRITTEN FORM TO CLEAR UP ANY CONFUSION.

"IT IS CLEAR," ROMULO SAID, "THAT THE COUNCIL MUST TAKE SOME CONCRETE ACTION. WE TRUST THAT SUCH ACTION WILL BE WHOLLY CONSISTENT WITH YOUR PREVIOUS DECISIONS. THIS MEANS, IN THE VIEW OF MY GOVERNMENT, THAT THE COUNCIL OUGHT NOT TO EMBARK UPON ANY METHOD OR PROOSA WHICH, IN MENT, THAT THE COUNCIL OUGHT NOT TO EMBARK UPON ANY METHOD OR PROPOSAT WHICH, IN EFFECT, WOULD NULLIFY OR SET ASIDE THE SETTLED PRINCIPLES OF THE JAN. 28 RESOLUTION.

"THE RESTORATION OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA IS NOT AT ISSUE AND IT IS APPARENT THAT THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS CANNOT ENTER UPON ANY NEGOTIATIONS TO DETERMINE WHETHER OR NOT THE REPUBLIC SHOULD BE RESTORED. NOR CAN THEY ENTER UPON ANY NEGOTIATIONS AS TO WHETHER OR NOT THEY SHOULD BE RELEASED AND RETURNED TO JOGJAKARTA. THAT ALSO IS A SETTLED POINT. THE ONLY SORT OF PRELIMINARY OR EXPLORATORY CONFERENCE THEY CAN ENTER UPON IS ONE THAT WILL DISCUSS THE ARRANGEMENTS AND FACILITIES FOR THE CARRYING OUT OF THESE TWO DECISIONS."

ROMULO SAID ALVAREZ' STATEMENT WAS "FORTHRIGHT--AND FRANK."

"I'M SURE ALL LIBERTY-LOVING PEOPLE ARE GREATEFUL TO YOU AND TO THE GREAT GOVERNMENT YOU REPRESENT," ROMULO SAID TO ALVAREZ.

AS THE JURY STANDS NOW, MRS. THELMA DIAL, A NEGRO HARLEM HOUSEWIFE, WILL BE JURY FOREMAN. ONE OTHER NEGRO IS AMONG THE NINE WOMEN, SEVEN OF WHOM ARE HOUSEWIVES, AND TWO OF WHOM ARE CLERKS.

THE MEN ON THE TENTATIVE JURY INCLUDE A RETIRED SALESMAN, AN UNEMPLOYED INDUSTRIAL ENGINEER AND A CLERK.

SEVERAL DEFENSE CHALLENGES "FOR CAUSE" WERE OVERRULED BY FEDERAL JUDGE HAROLD R.MEDINA YESTERDAY.

ONE OF THE DEFENSE ATTORNEYS, HARRY SACHER, OBJECTED TO WHAT HE CALLED AN "ALTOGETHER DISPROPORTIONATE REPRESENTATION" OF METROPOLITAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY EMPLOYES ON THE JURY PANEL.

HE NOTED THAT CITY COUNCILMAN BENJAMIN J.DAVIS, JR., A NEGRO DEFENDANT, HAS BEEN AN OUTSPOKEN OPPONENT OF METROPOLITAN'S SEGRATION OF WHITES AND NEGROES IN ITS HOUSING PROJECTS.

THE JUDGE ASKED:

"DO YOU OBJECT TO THE DISPROPORTION OF WOMEN?"

30.24- 1789

WASHINGTON,MARCH 16-(AP)-A YOUNG WOMAN GOVERNMENT WORKER, ALREADY CHARGED WITH PASSING DATA TO A RUSSIAN AGENT, TODAY WAS INDICTED FOR STEALING SECRETS FROM JUSTICE DEPARTMENT FILES.

THE INDICTMENT WAS RETURNED HERE AGAINST JUDITH COPLON, 27-YEAR OLD BROOKLYN-BORN BRUNETTE EMPLOYED UNTIL RECENTLY IN THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT'S ALIEN REGISTRATION SECTION.

SHE AND VALENTIN A.GUBITCHEV, SOVIET ENGINEER EMPLOYED AT UNITED NATIONS HEADQUARTERS IN NEW YORK, WERE INDICTED IN NEW YORK A WEEK AG ON ESPIONAGE CHARGES.

THAT INDICTMENT FOLLOWED THEIR SPECTACULAR ARREST ON A NEW YORK STREET CORNER AFTER FBI AGENTS HAD TRACKED THEM TO A MEETING PLACE.

MISS COPLON NOW IS FREE IN NEW YORK ON $20,000 BOND. JUSTICE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS SAID SHE WILL BE TAKEN INTO CUSTODY AGAIN AND BROUGHT HERE TO ANSWER THE NEW INDICTMENT. SHE PLEADED INNOCENT TO THE NEW YORK INDICTMENT AND HER TRIAL THERE HAS BEEN SET FOR APRIL 1.

MISS COPLON WAS NOT AT HER BROOKLYN, N.Y., HOME AND HER LAWYER, BERTRAM J. ADAMS, SAID "I FRANKLY DON'T KNOW" WHERE SHE IS.

ADAMS AND A FEDERAL ATTORNEY IN NEW YORK SAID WHEN SHE IS TAKEN INTO CUSTODY TO FACE THE NEW INDICTMENT WORD OF THE ARREST WILL HAVE TO COME FROM THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT IN WASHINGTON.

GUBITCHEV IS IN JAIL IN NEW YORK. HE HAS FAILED TO MAKE BOND OF $100,000. RUSSIA IS PROTESTING THAT GUBITCHEV IS PROTECTED AGAINST ANY AMERICAN COURT ACTION BY DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITY. BUT U.S.OFFICIALS SO FAR HAVE HELD GUBITCHEV'S POSITION WITH THE U.N.WAS SUCH THAT HE HAS NO IMMUNITY.

THE NEW YORK INDICTMENT CHARGES THE 32-YEAR OLD RUSSIAN AND MISS COPLON WITH CONSPIRING TO PASS TO A "FOREIGN POWER" UNITED STATES DEFENSE AND INTELLIGENCE SECRETS.

TODAY'S INDICTMENT AGAINST MISS COPLON ALONE CONTAINED TWO COUNTS--(A) THAT SHE OBTAINED SECRET DATA FROM JUSTICE FILES, AND (B) THAT SHE CONCEALED AND REMOVED THEM.

THE INFORMATION TAKEN, IT WAS CHARGED, WERE "CERTAIN EXTRACTS AND SUMMARIES OF REPORTS OF THE FBI, KNOWN AS DATA SLIPS, CONTAINING INTELLIGENCE REPORTS RELATING TO ESPIONAGE AND COUNTER-ESPIONAGE ACTIVITIES IN THE UNITED STATES."

THIS MEANS DATA ABOUT SPIES OPERATING IN THIS COUNTRY AND THE HIGHLY-SECRET WORK OF AGENTS OF THIS GOVERNMENT SEEKING TO COMBAT THE ACTIVITIES OF THE SPIES.

IF CONVICTED OF THE NEW YORK CHARGES MISS COPLON COULD GET A MAXIMUM PENALTY OF 35 YEARS IN PRISON AND $20,000 FINE. GUBITCHEV'S MAXIMUM PENALTY ON CONVICTION WOULD BE 15 YEARS AND $20,000 FINE.

UNDER THE NEW CHARGES HERE THE WOMAN COULD GET A MAXIMUM 13 YEARS AND $12,000 FINE.

THE COMBINED MAXIMUM FOR MISS COPLON UNDER BOTH INDICTMENTS WOULD BE 48 YEARS AND $32,000 FINE. HOWEVER, IT IS SELDOM A MAXIMUM PENALTY IS GIVEN ON CONVICTION OF A NUMBER OF CLOSELY-RELATED CHARGES.

MAR 16 1949

ASIDE FROM THE RUSSIANS, THOSE ACCEPTED INCLUDE TWO ROMANIANS, FIVE CZECHOSLOVAKIANS, THREE POLES AND FIVE YUGOSLAVS. THE ORIGINAL ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THERE WOULD BE FOUR FROM POLAND BUT THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID SUBSEQUENTLY IT WAS FOUND ONLY THREE ACTUALLY APPLIED.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT, IN A FORMAL STATEMENT, SAID THE NEW YORK CONFERENCE IS CLOSELY LINKED WITH A "WORLD CONGRESS OF INTELLECTUALS" HELD LAST AUGUST AT WROCLAW, POLAND, WHERE THE UNITED STATES WAS CRITICIZED AND RUSSIA PRAISED. WASH-RX DIPLOMATS.

THE U.S. "ENTERTAINS NO ILLUSIONS", THE STATEMENT SAID, AS TO HOW COMMUNISTS WILL ATTEMPT TO USE AND MANIPULATE" THE NEW YORK MEETING.

THE STATEMENT ALSO ACCUSED RUSSIA ANEW OF PLACING OBSTACLES IN THE WAY OF THE FREE FLOW OF INFORMATION. IT SAID:

1. RUSSIA IGNORED REPEATED ATTEMPTS BY THE EMBASSY IN MOSCOW TO ARRANGE FOR A CULTURAL SOVIET-AMERICAN INTERCHANGE. ALSO OTHER EASTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES HAVE SHOWN "DISCRIMINATION" AGAINST AMERICANS WHO WANTED TO VISIT THEM ON LEGITIMATE BUSINESS, JOURNALISTIC, EDUCATIONAL OR CULTURAL ASSIGNMENTS.

2. RUSSIA FREQUENTLY HAS FAILED EVEN TO ANSWER APPLICATIONS FOR VISAS BY HIGH AMERICAN OFFICIALS.

3. ALTHOUGH IT IS HOPED THE DOOR WILL BE OPENED FOR ULTIMATE UNDERSTANDING AMONG ALL PEOPLES, THIS WILL BE POSSIBLE ONLY WHEN PEOPLE UNDER TOTALITARIAN REGIMES PREVAIL ON THEIR GOVERNMENTS TO RELAX BARRIERS.

ALLEN SAID AN APPLICATION FOR A DELEGATE FROM VENEZUELA STILL IS UNDER CONSIDERATION. HE SAID FIVE FROM BRITAIN WERE GRANTED VISAS WITHOUT QUESTION BECAUSE IT WAS DETERMINED THAT THEY WERE NOT COMMUNISTS.

DR.SHAPLEY TOOK ISSUE WITH THE STATEMENT'S REFERENCE TO LAST AUGUST'S CONFERENCE IN POLAND.

THE COMING CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE, HE SAID, "IS INDEPENDENT OF ANY POLITICAL GROUP OR OF ANY CONFERENCE THAT HAS BEEN HELD IN THE PAST."

HE SAID ARTISTS, WRITERS, SCIENTISTS AND PROFESSIONAL MEN AND WOMEN ATTENDING THE NEW YORK MEETING "WILL SEEK TO CONTRIBUTE TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE SPIRIT OF PEACE WHEN THERE IS HEAVY NOISE OF GREAT ARMAMENTS AND WAR."

"IT IS AN AMERICAN CONFERENCE," DR.SHAPLEY CONTINUED, "TO WHICH HAVE BEEN INVITED A NUMBER OF DISTINGUISHED FOREIGN ARTISTS AND SCIENTISTS FROM MORE THAN 20 COUNTRIES.

"DISCUSSIONS AT THE SEVEN PANEL SESSIONS WILL BE OPEN TO ALL. MANY DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS FROM ALL OVER THIS NATION WILL EXAMINE CURRENT PROBLEMS OBJECTIVELY IN AN ATTEMPT TO OBTAIN CONSTRUCTIVE SUGGESTIONS FOR WORLD PEACE.

"TO DO THIS, WE MUST HEAR ALL VIEWPOINTS. THIS CONFERENCE SEEKS TO HELP SOLVE THE FEARS AND PROBLEMS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE ENTIRE WORLD.

"NATURALLY, IT IS OPPOSED AND OBSTRUCTED BY THOSE WHO PROFIT FROM WAR AND WAR PREPARATIONS AND BY THOSE WHO HAVE SUCCUMBED TO THE HATE WHICH HAS BEEN STIRRED UP SINCE THE END OF THE SECOND WORLD WAR.

"CONFERENCES OF THIS KIND ARE NECESSARY IF WE ARE, IN THE LONG RUN, TO CHOOSE CIVILIZATION RATHER THAN SAVAGERY AS THE FATE OF MANKIND."

WASHINGTON--SECOND ADD FIRST LEAD SOVIETS X X X IMMUNITY.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY GEORGE V.ALLEN TOLD REPORTERS HE ANTICIPATED THE CONFERENCE WILL BE USED AS A FORUM TO ATTACK THE PROPOSED ATLANTIC DEFENSE ALLIANCE OF THE UNITED STATES AND WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES. HE SAID IT IS EXPECTED COMMUNISTS WILL PUSH FOR APPROVAL OF RESOLUTIONS FAVORABLE TO THE COMMUNIST CAUSE.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID ITS DECISION WAS TAKEN AFTER CONSULTATION WITH ATTORNEY GENERAL TOM CLARK WHO MUST PASS ON THE ADMISSION OF KNOWN COMMUNISTS. THE UNITED STATES, IT SAID, DECIDED TO ADMIT THE DELEGATES "BECAUSE OF ITS UNSWERVING DEVOTION TO FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND SPEECH ON ANY ISSUE, HOWEVER CONTROVERSIAL IT MAY BE."

AS FACTORS TAKEN INTO CONSIDERATION, THE DEPARTMENT LISTED:

1. THE NEW YORK CONFERENCE, OPENING MARCH 25, HAS "CLOSE RELATIONSHIP" WITH A SO-CALLED WORLD CONGRESS OF INTELLECTUALS HELD IN POLAND LAST AUGUST. ALL THOSE PRESENT THERE HAD THEIR VIEWS DICTATED BY MOSCOW, IT WAS CHARGED.

2. "THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT ENTERTAINS NO ILLUSIONS AS TO THE MANNER IN WHICH THE COMMUNISTS WILL ATTEMPT TO USE AND MANIPULATE THE PRESENT CONFERENCE."

3. RUSSIA IGNORED MANY PLEAS BY THE UNITED STATES IN THE PAST TO SET UP A CULTURAL INTERCHANGE BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES. OTHER EASTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES HAVE SHOWN "DISCRIMINATION" AGAINST AMERICANS.

4. "THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT HAS FREQUENTLY FAILED EVEN TO ANSWER VISA APPLICATIONS BY HIGH AMERICAN OFFICIALS IN THE PAST.

5. ULTIMATE UNDERSTANDING AMONG ALL PEOPLES "WILL BE POSSIBLE ONLY WHEN THE PEOPLE UNDER TOTALITARIAN REGIMES ARE ABLE TO BRING TO BEAR UPON THEIR GOVERNMENTS A DISPOSITION TO RELAX THE BARRIERS THAT NOW SEPARATE AND ISOLATE THEM FROM THE REST OF THE WORLD."

STILL TO BE ACTED ON, ALLEN SAID, ARE APPLICATIONS FROM TWO INDIVIDUALS REPRESENTING VENEZUELA.

THE CHAIRMAN OF THE CONFERENCE, ALLEN SAID, IS DR.HARLOW SHAPLEY, PROFESSOR OF ASTRONOMY AT HARVARD. ALLEN SAID SHAPLEY AND OTHERS MAKING ARRANGEMENTS SENT OUT INVITATIONS TO MANY COUNTRIES.

FIVE DELEGATES ARE COMING FROM BRITAIN. ALLEN SAID THEY WERE ISSUED ENTRY PERMITS WITHOUT QUESTION BECAUSE THEY ARE NOT COMMUNISTS. HE SAID, IN RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS, THAT THOSE ADMITTED FROM SOVIET BLOC COUNTRIES ARE ALL COMMUNISTS.

[illegible] CRITICIZED AND RUSSIA PRAISED.

RUSSIA FORMALLY REQUESTED VISAS FOR SHOSTAKOVICH AND THE OTHER RUSSIANS MARCH 10, AND HAS PRESSED FOR ACTION SINCE THEN. ASIDE FROM THE COMPOSER, THE GROUP INCLUDES ALEXANDER FADEYEV, SECRETARY GENERAL OF SOVIET WRITERS, WHO HEADS THE DELEGATION. THERE ALSO IS ANOTHER NOVELIST, TWO FILM PRODUCERS, A SCIENTIST AND SECRETARY.

MOSCOW HAD ASKED FOR DIPLOMATIC VISAS, OR ENTRY PERMITS, FOR ALL OF THE SOVIET DELEGATION EXCEPT THE SECRETARY. AN OFFICIAL VISA, WHICH IS ABOUT THE SAME, WAS REQUESTED FOR THE SECRETARY.

THIS WOULD GIVE THEM STATUS AS SOVIET OFFICIALS RATHER THAN PRIVATE CITIZENS.

OFFICIALS HERE SAID THE STATE DEPARTMENT ALL ALONG HAD BEEN IN FAVOR OF ADMITTING THE DELEGATES, RATHER THAN COMPROMISE AMERICAN PRINCIPLES OF FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND TRAVEL. THIS COUNTRY HAS SOUGHT IN VAIN MANY TIMES TO GET MOSCOW'S APPROVAL FOR ENTRY OF AMERICANS TO RUSSIA.

BY EDWARD E.BOMAR

WASHINGTON,MARCH 16-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES DECIDED TODAY TO LET 23 DELEGATES FROM RUSSIA AND SOVIET BLOC COUNTRIES ATTEND A "WORLD PEACE" MEETING IN NEW YORK. BUT THIS COUNTRY REFUSED TO GRANT THEM DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITY.

FURTHERMORE FIVE HUNGARIANS WHO SOUGHT TO ENTER THE COUNTRY FOR THE MARCH 25 CONFERENCE WERE TURNED DOWN AS A REBUFF TO HUNGARY FOR ITS TREATMENT OF AMERICAN DIPLOMATS.

THE REFUSAL TO GRANT DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITY, WHICH RUSSIA HAD DEMANDED FOR ITS DELEGATES, MEANS THE 23 WILL BE DENIED MANY PRIVILEGES USUALLY ACCORDED FULL-FLEDGED DIPLOMATIC OFFICIALS.

THEY WILL BE ADMITTED, INSTEAD, ON SO-CALLED OFFICIAL VISAS.

IN ANNOUNCING THE U.S.DECISION, THE STATE DEPARTMENT PREDICTED THAT COMMUNISTS "WILL ATTEMPT TO USE AND MANIPULATE" THE CONFERENCE CALLED BY THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF THE ARTS, SCIENCES AND PROFESSIONS.

THE DEPARTMENT SAID THAT NONE OF THE SOVIET BLOC REPRESENTATIVES WILL BE FREE TO "EXPRESS ANY VIEW OTHER THAN THAT DICTATED BY THE POLITICAL AUTHORITIES IN MOSCOW."

THOSE GIVEN PERMITS TO ATTEND INCLUDE DMITRI SHOSTAKOVICH, THE SOVIET COMPOSER, AND SIX OTHER RUSSIANS; TWO ROMANIANS, FIVE CZECHOSLOVAKS, FOUR POLES AND FIVE YUGOSLAVS.

THE DIPLOMATIC PRIVILEGES WHICH THEY WERE DENIED INCLUDE FREEDOM FROM ARREST ON CRIMINAL AND CIVIL CHARGES AND FREEDOM FROM CUSTOMS INSPECTION OF THEIR BAGGAGE. REGULAR DIPLOMATS WHO MIGHT BE ACCUSED OF A CRIME ARE SENT HOME INSTEAD OF BEING BROUGHT TO TRIAL.

THE OFFICIAL VISAS GIVEN TO THE 23 WERE DESCRIBED AS "INTERMEDIATE" --THAT IS, BETWEEN THE DIPLOMATIC PERMITS AND ORDINARY VISAS GRANTED PRIVATE CITIZENS. OFFICIALS SAID THEY PROVIDE "ADDED RECOGNITION" WITHOUT THE DIPLOMATIC PRIVILEGES.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 16-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES, CANADA AND AUSTRALIA TODAY PROPOSED TO DRAW UP A NEW INTERNATIONAL WHEAT AGREEMENT WITHOUT RUSSIA.

MAR 16 [illegible]

CHARLES F.WILSON OF CANADA, CHAIRMAN OF THE SIX-NATION EXPORTERS COMMITTEE, SAID THE DECISION WAS MADE BECAUSE THE SOVIET UNION WAS NOT WILLING TO ACCEPT AN EXPORT QUOTA OF LESS THAN 75,000,000 (M) BUSHELS A YEAR.

THE OTHER EXPORTING NATIONS FELT THAT RUSSIA SHOULD BE LIMITED TO 50,000,000 (M) BUSHELS ANNUALLY, HE SAID.

AGREEMENT ON A NEW PROPOSAL ADVANCED TODAY WOULD EXCLUDE RUSSIA FROM THE FIRST INTERNATIONAL COMMODITY AGREEMENT IN WHICH IT OFFERED TO PARTICIPATE.

NEITHER RUSSIA NOR ARGENTINA WAS A PARTY TO THE PREVIOUS WHEAT AGREEMENT NEGOTIATED LAST YEAR BUT NEVER PUT INTO EFFECT WHEN THE U.S. SENATE DID NOT RATIFY IT.

BOTH COUNTRIES JOINED IN THE EIGHT-WEEKS-OLD TALKS AIMED AT DRAWING UP A NEW PACT, BUT ARGENTINA WITHDREW SOME TIME AGO.

SHEED ANDERSON OF GREAT BRITAIN, CHAIRMAN OF THE IMPORTERS COMMITTEE, TOLD A REPORTER HE EXPECTED HIS GROUP TO REACH AN AGREEMENT WITHIN A DAY ON WHETHER TO ACCEPT THE NEW OFFER MADE BY THE EXPORTERS.

THE OFFER WOULD PLEDGE THEM TO SUPPLY 450,000,000 (M) BUSHELS OF WHEAT A YEAR FOR FOUR YEARS AT A MAXIMUM PRICE OF $1.80 A BUSHEL.

THE MINIMUM PRICE WOULD BE $1.50 THE FIRST YEAR, 1949-50. IT WOULD THEN DROP 10 CENTS A BUSHEL TO A LOW OF $1.20 IN THE FOURTH YEAR.
ANDERSON SAID THE IMPORTERS ARE "VERY RELUCTANT" TO ENTER INTO AN AGREEMENT WHICH EXCLUDES RUSSIA.

IN ADDITION TO THE U.S., CANADA AND AUSTRALIA, THE NEW OFFER INCLUDES TWO MINOR EXPORTERS, FRANCE AND URUGUAY.
WILSON SAID THE DECISION TO LEAVE RUSSIA OUT IS FINAL. HE SAID THAT THE SOVIET DELEGATE, DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER SERGEI BORISOV, MADE NO OBJECTION AND DID NOT INDICATE ANY WILLINGNESS TO WITHDRAW FROM HIS PREVIOUS STAND.
HE SAID THAT IF RUSSIA WERE PERMITTED TO SUPPLY 75,000,000 (M) BUSHELS A YEAR, THE THREE MAJOR EXPORTERS "WOULD BE GIVING UP MARKETS AGAINST OUR WILL AND AGAINST THE WILL OF OUR IMPORTERS."
DELEGATES FROM POLAND, FINLAND AND CZECHOSLOVAKIA DECLINED TO SAY WHETHER THEY WILL PARTICIPATE IN THE AGREEMENT WITHOUT THE SOVIET.

(ADVANCE)(NR)..NEW YORK, MARCH 15-(AP)-SOVIET PRESS AND RADIO ATTACKS ON IRAN HAVE STRAINED RELATIONS AND JEOPARDIZED A 25-YEAR-OLD NON-AGGRESSION PACT, AN IRANIAN U.N. ATTACHE SAID TODAY.

SHAIPOUR FATEMI, PRESS ATTACHE TO THE IRANIAN U.N. DELEGATION, MADE THE STATEMENT IN RELEASING THE TEXT OF A NOTE WHICH HE SAID THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT HANDED THE RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR AT TEHERAN FEB.25.

THE NOTE DESCRIBED AS "AN UNFRIENDLY ACT" SOVIET CHARGES THAT IRAN IS U.S. DOMINATED, AND RUSSIAN COMPLAINTS ABOUT OUTLAWING OF COMMUNIST AND OTHER LEFT-WING PARTIES IN IRAN.

FATEMI SAID IN AN INTERVIEW THAT AN EFFORT TO ASSASSINATE THE SHAH, WHEN HE WAS SHOT FIVE TIMES, GREW OUT OF SOVIET PRESSURE AGAINST IRAN.

"THE FAILURE OF THE POLITBURO IN THE COLD WAR," HE SAID, "FORCED IT TO RESORT TO TERRORISM AND ASSASSINATION, WHICH CULMINATED IN THE ATTEMPT ON THE LIFE OF THE KING."

"HAD THIS BEEN SUCCESSFUL, IT WOULD HAVE PLUNGED IRAN INTO ANARCHY," HE SAID. THE ASSASSINATION WAS TO HAVE BEEN THE SIGNAL FOR A COMMUNIST REIGN OF TERROR, HE DECLARED.

FOLLOWING THE ATTACK ON THE SHAH FEB.4, "THE GOVERNMENT TRACED THE PLOT TO THE COMMUNISTS, WHOSE LEADERS NOW ARE BEING TRIED BY THE APPROPRIATE COURT IN TEHERAN," HE SAID.

THIS HAS PROMPTED RUSSIA TO "HURL INSULTS AT THE GOVERNMENT AND THE PEOPLE OF IRAN," HE SAID.

THE MEMORANDUM COMPLAINING OF RUSSIAN PRESS-RADIO ATTACKS ON IRAN, SAID IN PART:

MAR 16 1949

"FOR SOME TIME PAST, THE SOVIET RADIO AND PRESS HAVE BEEN SPREADING UNTRUE AND FALSE INFORMATION CONCERNING IRAN.

"1. IT IS ALLEGED THAT IRAN IS PLACED UNDER THE INFLUENCE AND DOMINATION OF THE UNITED STATES, AND THAT THE AMERICAN ADVISORS INTEND TO TRANSFORM IRAN INTO A MILITARY BASE TO BE USED AGAINST THE SOVIET UNION.

2. THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT'S EMPLOYES ARE ACCUSED OF BEING FOREIGN AGENTS, OR IT IS CHARGED THAT THEY ARE WORKING FOR THE BENEFIT OF FOREIGNERS. X X X

"THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT CONSIDERS THIS KIND OF PROPAGANDA AN UNFRIENDLY ACT SEEING THAT THE OFFICIALS OF IRAN ARE ONLY CARRYING OUT THEIR DUTY IN THE SERVICE OF THEIR COUNTRY X X X more

"3. THE ACTION OF THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT IN RESPECT TO ILLEGAL POLITICAL PARTIES WHICH, OWING TO THEIR HAVING BEEN FOUND GUILTY OF SEDITION AND INTRIGUE AGAINST THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT, HAVE RECENTLY BEEN DISSOLVED, HAS BEEN CRITICISED.

"SINCE THE AIM OF THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT HAS CONSTANTLY BEEN THE MAINTENANCE OF GOOD RELATIONS WITH ITS GREAT NEIGHBOR, THE SOVIET PEOPL IT IS CERTAIN THAT THE CONTINUANCE OF THESE ALLEGATIONS AND PUBLICATIONS CANNOT BE CONDUSIVE TO THE ATTAINMENT OF THIS PURPOSE."

CHAIRMAN VINSON (D-GA) OF THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE--A STRONG-AIR-FORCE ADVOCATE--PROMPTLY CALLED FOR SWITCHING TO THE AIR ARM SOME $800,000,000 SET ASIDE IN THE BUDGET FOR UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING.

CONGRESS WILL NOT CONSIDER UMT THIS YEAR, ANYHOW, VINSON SAID.

VINSON FIGURES THE PRESIDENT'S PROPOSAL WOULD PROVIDE 1,668 NEW PLANES DURING THE NEXT FISCAL YEAR, WHILE $800,000,000 MORE WOULD RAISE THIS TO 2,370 PLANES. THE AUTHORIZATION FOR THE CURRENT YEAR IS 2,437 PLANES.

THE AIR FORCE HAS SAID A STRENGTH OF 70 GROUPS, WHICH IT WOULD LIKE TO REACH BY 1953, WOULD BE DIVIDED THIS WAY:

HEAVY BOMBER (B-36'S), FOUR GROUPS; MEDIUM BOMBER (B-29'S AND B-50'S), 16 GROUPS; LIGHT BOMBER, FIVE; STRATEGIC RECONNAISSANCE, SIX; TACTICAL RECONNAISSANCE, FOUR; FIGHTER, 25; HEAVY TROOP CARRIER, FOUR; MEDIUM TROOP CARRIER, SIX, AND 22 SEPARATE SQUADRONS FOR SUCH WORK AS AIR-SEA RESCUE AND OTHER SPECIALIZED MISSIONS.

SECRETARY OF AIR SYMINGTON HAS ESTIMATED IT WOULD COST THE COUNTRY ABOUT $6,500,000,000 (B) TO SUPPORT AN AIR FORCE OF 57 GROUPS, AND ANOTHER $1,000,000,000 (B) TO MAINTAIN THE FULL 70. ##

CHAIRMAN TYDINGS (D-MD) OF THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE, SAID HE WILL INTRODUCE IT WHENEVER THE FILIBUSTER LOG-JAM IS CLEARED. HE SAID IT WOULD:

1. RANK THE "DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE" NEXT TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT AMONG THE CABINET AGENCIES, WITH THE ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE RATED AS "MILITARY DEPARTMENTS" UNDER THE MAIN OFFICE.

2. MAKE THE SECRETARIES FOR THE THREE MILITARY SERVICES "SUBJECT TO THE DIRECTION, AUTHORITY AND CONTROL OF THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE," WITH PAY THE SAME AS "PRESCRIBED BY LAW FOR UNDER SECRETARIES OF EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS."

3. MAKE A TOP-RANKING MILITARY OFFICER CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF--A BODY COMPOSED OF THE UNIFORMED HEADS OF THE ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE AND THE CHIEF OF STAFF TO THE PRESIDENT. THE HOOVER COMMISION PROPOSED NAMING A CIVILIAN TO THE POST--WHICH IS NOW HELD TEMPORARILY BY GEN.DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER.

4. MAKE THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE THE MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT'S LONE REPRESENTATIVE ON THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL, TOP PLANNING AGENCY WHICH NOW INCLUDES THE SECRETARIES OF THE ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE.

THE ADMINISTRATION BILL ALSO WOULD PLACE THE MUNITIONS BOARD AND RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT BOARD UNDER THE DEFENSE ESTABLISHMENT. THEY ARE NOW SEMI-INDEPENDENT AGENCIES.

THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE WOULD HAVE AN UNDER SECRETARY, THREE ASSISTANT SECRETARIES AND ANY OTHER ASSISTANTS HE MIGHT WANT.

THE THREE SERVICE SECRETARIES NOW DRAW CABINET PAY OF $15,000 A YEAR. IF THEIR SALARIES MATCHED THOSE OF UNDER SECRETARIES, THEY WOULD BE CUT TO EITHER $10,000 OR $12,000.

A PENDING BILL WOULD BOOST CABINET PAY TO $20,000 A YEAR, WITH UNDER SECRETARIES GETTING $15,000.

ST.LOUIS, MARCH 16-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES APPARENTLY IS VERY POOR IN URANIUM RESOURCES, THE PRECIOUS RAW MATERIAL FROM WHICH ATOMIC BOMBS ARE MADE.

SUMNER T.PIKE, A MEMBER OF THE U.S. ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, MADE THIS STATEMENT TONIGHT IN AN APPEAL FOR HELP IN LOCATING URANIUM DEPOSITS.

HE SPOKE AT A JOINT MEETING OF THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF PETROLEUM GEOLOGISTS AND TWO OTHER GROUPS REPRESENTING THE EXPLORATION BRANCH OF THE OIL AND GAS INDUSTRY.

"THE FACT IS," HE SAID, "THAT UP TO DATE THIS COUNTRY APPEARS TO BE VERY POOR IN URANIUM RESOURCES AND THAT IT WILL BE IMMENSELY TO OUR NATION'S ADVANTAGE NOT TO NEGLECT ANY POSSIBILITY WHICH MIGHT RESULT EITHER IN A SUBSTANTIAL DISCOVERY OR IN A BETTER UNDERSTANDING OF THE FACTORS WHICH GOVERN URANIUM DEPOSITS."

THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION HOPES, PIKE SAID, THAT IT CAN DEPEND ON THE NATION'S GEOLOGISTS "TO LEARN A LITTLE SOMETHING ABOUT WHAT URANIUM OCCURRENCES LOOK LIKE AND LET US OR SOME OF THE MINING PEOPLE KNOW IF YOU SEE ANYTHING THAT LOOKS INTERESTING."

PIKE SUGGESTED THAT CORES AND CUTTINGS ON WELL DRILLING LOCATIONS BE TESTED FOR RADIOACTIVITY. HE EXPLAINED THAT HELIUM IS ONE OF THE PRODUCTS OF URANIUM DECAY, AND ADDED:

CAPTAIN LADEMAN SAID THE AMERICAN CREWMEN FOUND THE MILWAUKEE IN "EXCELLENT SHAPE FOR OPERATIONS," BUT THE PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER REPORTED NEWSMEN SAID THE CREWS QUARTERS WERE "FILTHY" WITH THE "ODOR OF THE GREAT UNWASHED."

THE MILWAUKEE PLIED THE NORTHERN WATERS DURING THE WAR AS THE MURMANSK, KEEPING OPEN THE PASSAGE TO THE VITAL RUSSIAN PORT FOR WHICH IT WAS RENAMED. IT WAS THE FIRST LEND-LEASE VESSEL RETURNED TO THE U.S. BY THE SOVIET UNION.

CAPTAIN LADEMAN AND RUSSIAN ADMIRAL E.G.GLINKOV, SOVIET EMBASSY ATTACHE, SIGNED THE OFFICIAL TRANSFER PAPERS IN THE SHIP'S CAPTAIN'S QUARTERS.

MAR 16 1949

EXACTLY 21 MINUTES AFTER THE THREE RUSSIAN PENNANTS WERE LOWERED, THE RUSSIAN CREW BEGAN TRANSFERRING TO THE SOVIET FREIGHTER MOLOTOV, WHICH STOOD BY A QUARTER MILE AWAY. THE MOLOTOV WILL RETURN THE RUSSIANS TO THEIR HOMELAND. THE CREW TRANSFER WAS COMPLETED IN ABOUT A HALF HOUR.

THE AMERICAN CREW, 100-ODD SPECIALISTS, BOARDED THE MILWAUKEE AT 5:15 P.M. AND THE U.S. ENSIGN WAS RAISED IMMEDIATELY.

FIVE MINUTES LATER, THE MOLOTOV CLEARED THE BREAKWATER FOR HER VOYAGE TO RUSSIA.

CAPTAIN LADEMAN SAID THE AMERICAN CREWMEN FOUND THE MILWAUKEE IN "EXCELLENT SHAPE FOR OPERATIONS."

(ADVANCE)..WASHINGTON,MARCH 16-(AP)-THE CALIFORNIA AMERICAN LEGION TODAY ASKED A SENATE SUBCOMMITTEE TO SUPPPORT FUNDS FOR A FIVE-POINT VETERANS HOSPITAL EXPANSION PROGRAM IN CALIFORNIA.

LEWIS S.SLONEKER OF LOS ANGELES, LEGION REHABILITATION DIRECTOR FOR CALIFORNIA, PROTESTED WHAT HE TERMED "ECONOMY AT THE EXPENSE OF THE VETERAN."

HE TOLD A SENATE PUBLIC WELFARE SUBCOMMITTEE THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN MUST HAVE BEEN MISINFORMED WHEN HE AUTHORIZED A CUTBACK OF 16,000 VETERANS HOSPITAL BEDS IN JANUARY.

CALIFORNIA, SLONEKER SAID, HAS 9,800, OR 12.63 PERCENT, OF THE NATION'S 77,569 TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISBLED VETERANS. THEREFORE, HE ARGUED, CALIFORNIA IS ENTITLED TO A LARGER PERCENTAGE OF THE VETERANS HOSPITAL BEDS.

HE URGED:

1. THAT THE 200-BED GENERAL MEDICAL AND SURGICAL HOSPITAL AT SAN DIEGO BE RESTORED TO THE CONSTRUCTION LIST.

2. THAT WORK ON THE TWO 1,000-BED NEUROPSYCHIATRIC HOSPITALS AT SAN FRANCISCO AND LOS ANGELES BE SPEEDED UP.

3. THAT VA TAKE OVER THE TUBERCULOSIS UNIT AT THE CORONA NAVAL HOSPITAL.

4. THAT MEDICAL STAFF BE OBTAINED TO MAKE USE OF 100 BEDS, NOW UNOCCUPIED, AT THE VAN NUYS, CALIF., VETERANS HOSPITAL FOR TUBERCULAR PATIENTS.

MAR 16 1949

5. THAT THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION EXPLORE FURTHER THE POSSIBILITY OF TAKING OVER THE 500-BED MCCORNACK GENERAL HSOPITAL AT PASADENA.

SLONEKER CHALLENGED A VA REPORT THAT ONLY 137 TUBERCULAR PATIENTS WERE ON THE HOSPITAL WAITING LIST IN CALIFORNIA JAN. 1.

HE SAID THE VA RECORDS FAIL TO INCLUDE PATIENTS SEEKING TRANSFER FROM OTHER HOSPITALS.

"TO SAY THE LEAST," HE ADDED, "THERE ARE AS MANY SUFFERING WITH TUBERCULOSIS WHO HAVE NOT APPLIED AS ARE ADMITTED BY THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION TO BE ON THE WAITING LIST."

MANY, HE SAID, HAVE NOT APPLIED BECAUSE THEY KNOW IT WOULD BE NO USE.

"THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION NEVER HAS HAD ENOUGH TUBERCULOSIS BEDS IN CALIFORNIA TO TAKE CARE OF THE LOAD," HE SAID.

SLONEKER ESTIMATED THAT 1,975 ADDITIONAL BEDS ARE NEEDED AT PRESENT IN CALIFORNIA FOR MENTAL PATIENTS.

Four Countries Invited To Join Atlantic Union

MAR 17 1949

U. S. and Seven Associated Nations Ask Denmark, Iceland, Italy and Portugal to Come Into Security Pact.

Washington, March 17 (A. P.).—Denmark, Iceland, Italy and Portugal were invited today to join the United States and seven other nations in a North Atlantic security pact. It is expected that all four will join and sign the treaty.

The Atlantic pact is a document of 1,040 words, the State Department disclosed today. The text is to be made public tomorrow at 11 A. M.

Acheson to Broadcast.

Secretary of State Acheson has arranged to make an address on the treaty tomorrow night on a nationwide broadcast beginning at 10:30 P. M. The State Department said that it would be carried by the Mutual, Columbia and American networks.

The formal invitation to the four to join the pact was extended by the eight nations which drafted the treaty. Copies of the treaty's text were sent along with the invitations.

Representatives of the four already have been in contact with American and other Atlantic Power officials to discuss the alliance, designed to curb aggression. The inclusion of Italy was a triumph for France and the United States.

Britain, the Low Countries and Canada were opposed, the former objecting that Italy's entry might extend the alliance too far southward and expose the members to unnecessary risk. The American and French governments argued that Italy's pro-western outlook and strategic position in the Mediterranean made it necessary to include her.

In connection with the new Atlantic pact the State Department said that it would give higher priority to Europe's recovery needs than to military requirements. The department laid down this principle in a statement which said: "The arms program is not to interfere with the European Recovery Program."

Michael McDermott, press officer, emphasized this policy further at a news conference in answering reporters' questions. "The European Recovery Program will have top priority on United States money and materials sent to Europe," he said.

Bid to Turkey.

Diplomats said here today that if Turkey's Foreign Minister comes through Washington they will be glad to discuss the formation of a Mediterranean defense pact, or other subjects which he might want to take up. Istanbul reports said that Foreign Minister Necmeddin Sadak would come here soon to discuss the projected Mediterranean agreement.

There is no definite information on such a plan, but it is said that he might head the Turkish delegation to the United Nations General Assembly, which opens next month at Lake Success. In the early stages of the talk about forming a Mediterranean pact, as a supplement to the new North Atlantic treaty, the United States appeared to adopt a hands-off attitude.

Bjarni Benediktsson, Iceland's Foreign Minister, ended his four-day inquiry into the security pact with a farewell call on Acheson. As he left, he repeated that his Government "would not consent to any foreign military bases in peace time" on Icelandic soil.

ANTI-PACT RIOTING IN ITALY FATAL

Communist-Led Disorder Kills One, Injures 17 In Mill Town

F BRUTTO

Rome, March 17 (AP)—Bloodshed marked Communist-led demonstrations today against the Italian Government's plan to join the North Atlantic alliance.

Alvino Trastulli, 21, was killed and nine other demonstrators and ten policemen were injured in a clash at Terni, a steel-mill town of 70,000 about 70 miles northeast of Rome. The Italian news agency Astra said police used guns and tear gas to clear a square.

Strikes developed in Rome, Milan, Genoa and other cities.

Terms of the pact are to be made public tomorrow. News events related to the alliance developed on both sides of the Atlantic:

The U. S. State department announced "the arms program is not to interfere with the European recovery program." Official invitations were extended Italy, Denmark, Iceland and Portugal to join the alliance.

Diplomatic sources in Copenhagen said the Danish parliament is expected to give final indorsement next Wednesday to Denmark's participation.

Sweden's parliament, advised by Foreign Minister Oesten Unden that the government maintains its policy of strict neutrality, set aside 800,000,000 crowns ($250,000,000) for defense.

Premier Paul-Henri Spaak told the Belgian parliament's foreign affairs commissions that "if the United Nations had functioned normally, the North Atlantic pact would not have been necessary."

Italian leftist newspapers accused police of brutality in checking anti-alliance demonstrators. The conservative Giornale D'Italia said 130 persons were arrested in Rome.

About 2,000 police, many of them helmeted and in jeeps, were thrown about public buildings here during a one-hour strike in Rome province.

Disorders flared in the Piazza San Sylvestro, a block from parliament. Police used jeeps and clubs to break up the crowd.

A communist filibuster against Italian adherence to the alliance droned on in the chamber of deputies, but Premier Alcide de Gasperi has the votes to assure approval when the show down comes. That may not be until late Friday. Each speaker talked 20 to 25 minutes. The filibuster, begun yesterday, is the longest on record in Italy.

At one point Communists shouted "criminals, assassins" at the Christian Democrats, dominant both in Parliament and in de Gasperi's coalition Cabinet.

The Communists and their supporters contend the alliance is an offensive rather than a defensive pact and is aimed at Soviet Russia. Communists and leftist Socialists jeered de Gasperi as he outlined the Government's views last night.

Strong Police Concentration

Rome police barred demonstrators from the Piazza Colonna, the scene of street fighting in the past. The police concentrations were the strongest used since the disorders that followed an attempt last July on the life of Palmiro Togliatti, Communist chief.

Factory workers, dock workers and sailors struck in Genoa. They gathered to hear speeches against the alliance.

Milan strikes were spreading. The Communist-dominated Chamber of Labor described the strikes as "spontaneous." Nearly all factories in Sesto San Giovanni, sometimes called Little Stalingrad, were closed.

Milan police fired into the air to break up fighting between anti-pact demonstrators and a throng protesting against the lack of streetcar service.

The Communist line newspaper La Repubblica of Rome said demonstrations were held also at Salerno, south of Naples, at Modena, Cremona and Palermo, in Sicily.

Strong police detachments were thrown around government buildings in Rome and the central Piazza Colonna, where authorities and demonstrators have fought in the past. The Piazza, where rioting occurred Saturday, was kept clear by police.

Communist and fellow travellers kept up their word battle in the chamber of deputies all night and into today. It already is the longest filibuster on record in Italy.

Enough Votes Assured

Premier Alcide de Gasperi has plenty of votes to assure adherence of Italy to the accord, once his solid Christian Democratic party has the chance to cast them.

The Communist-led Chamber of Labor spread strikes — "spontaneous" they were called — in the Milan area. Street cars quit running. Nearly all plants in the industrial suburb of Sesto san Giovanni, sometimes called "Little Stalingrad," were closed.

On the outskirts of the northern city, police shot into the air to break up fighting between demonstrators against the alliance and a throng angry because street cars were not running.

Other Strikes in Genoa

Factory workers, dockers and seamen struck at Genoa. Strikers gathered in groups to hear speakers denounce the alliance.

The Communist organ L'Unita printed special editions in Rome and Milan.

De Gasperi, heckled and jeered by Communist deputies and their allied Socialists, concluded last night the Government's declarations on its proposal that Italy join the United States, Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, Holland, Norway, Luxembourg and perhaps others in the accord.

Reds Shout "Assassins"

The filibuster ground slowly on. Each speaker took 20 to 25 minutes. Interruptions were frequent. At one point the Communists shouted "Criminals, assassins!" at the Christian Democrats.

Barring unforeseen events, the noisy session is expected to continue until late Friday.

Demanding their right to speak as they voted—under the chamber procedure — each Communist and extreme Left-wing member launched into a harangue against the North Atlantic agreement.

The question up was a vote of confidence on the Government's proposal to become a member.

At 1 P.M. 95 deputies still were scheduled to talk.

Communist Chief Palmiro Togliatti asked for more than the ten minutes permitted each member.

Vice President Gaetano Martino, presiding at the time, rejected the proposal. He also rejected a motion for a recess for lunch.

Terms of the Atlantic pact—already sent to Italy's Government for study—are to be made public throughout the world tomorrow.

Bevin To Tell Britain About Treaty Details

MAR 17 1949

London, March 17 (AP)—Ernest Bevin, Foreign Secretary, will tell Britain by radio tomorrow night the details of their latest bulwark against communism—the Atlantic pact.

He speaks over the British home service at 9.15 P.M.

Earlier, he is expected to report to the House of Commons. A white paper covering the pact will be issued tomorrow.

British officials expect Parliament to ratify the pact within six weeks after it is signed in Washington April 4. Bevin is scheduled to sail for the United States March 25 aboard the Queen Mary for the signing ceremony.

Rome Red Filibuster Delays Vote On Pact

F BRUTTO

Rome, March 17 (AP)—Communists delayed Italian adherence to the Atlantic alliance today by a filibuster in Parliament. They also churned up strikes in Milan and Genoa in protest.

SOVIET PARLEY REPORTED

Sokolovsky Is Said to Have Left Berlin for Strategy Session

BERLIN, Friday, March 18 (AP)—The Soviet commander in Germany, Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, was reported today to have left his Berlin headquarters for a top-level military conference in Moscow.

Reports carried by the British-licensed press service were supported by information from a private source with good Soviet contacts. There was, however, no official confirmation from Russian authorities.

The British press reports said that the Moscow conference of Soviet military leaders would be held in connection with the Atlantic pact.

Forrestal Lauds Pact As Sign Of Recovery

New York, March 17 (AP)—James Forrestal, Secretary of Defense, tonight acclaimed the proposed North Atlantic alliance as "visible evidence that economic recovery in the democracies has been accompanied by growth in unity and determination."

Forrestal, in an address to the one hundred and sixty-fifth annual dinner of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick, said he believed the steps taken by the United States toward recovery in Europe have improved the chances of "establishing a peaceful world. . . ."

"I believe we have made it plain," he said, "that the United States will not dissociate itself from the future of western Europe. I believe that by making our intentions so clear that no one can misread them we have advanced and not retarded our progress toward a real peace."

Forrestal, who retires as Defense Secretary in two weeks, said the United States stands not only as an economic and potential military power but "remains a bulwark of religious liberty and freedom of conscience."

Turk Welcome For Talks, D.C. Says

Washington, March 17 (AP)—Diplomatic officials said today that if Turkey's Foreign Minister comes through Washington they will be glad to discuss formation of a Mediterranean defense pact or other subjects he might want to take up.

Istanbul reports said Foreign Minister Necmeddin Sadak will come here soon to discuss the projected Mediterranean agreement. Officials said they had no definite information on such a plan but had heard he might head the Turkish delegation to the United Nations General Assembly which opens next month at Lake Success.

In early stages of the talk about forming a Mediterranean pact as a supplement to the new North Atlantic treaty, the United States appeared to adopt a hands-off attitude. Officials are noncommittal whether this Government would favor such an alliance.

U.S. Professor's Wife Killed In Seoul

Seoul, March 17 (AP)—Two bold gunmen today killed Mrs. Horace H. Underwood, wife of the former adviser to the American occupation military government and former president of Chosen Christian College, at her home.

No immediate motive for the slaying was found by police who were aided by American army units in investigating the shooting.

Mother Of Five

Mrs. Underwood, the mother of five children, was shot once in the side. She died en route to a hospital from her residence on the outskirts of Seoul.

A daughter, Grace, 20, is a junior at Hood College, Frederick, Md.

Husband At University

Dr. Underwood was not at home at the time. He was teaching a class at the university, where he is now on the faculty. Faculty wives were gathered at the Underwood home when the tragedy occurred.

Police said the assassins approached the house from different directions. One went to the back door and threatened the cook with a gun. The other came to the front door, menaced a small houseboy with a pistol and entered.

Mrs. Underwood, police said, grappled with the first man in the kitchen. Police said she turned to the front when she heard the man there and the man in the kitchen fire three shots from what appeared to be a sawed-off American carbine. One struck her in the side.

Varied Accounts

Accounts of the guests and servants varied. Some said both men wore hoods. Some of the Korean women guests said the gunmen told them to lie quietly on the floor while they departed.

Dr. Underwood's father, the late Horace G. Underwood, came to Korea in the middle of the 1880's from New York city and founded Chosen Christian College. His family later were typewriter manufacturers and subsequently operated an ink supply firm in Brooklyn.

Since there was no robbery, police were checking possible political motives. Although he was adviser to the military government, Dr. Underwood had taken no part in local politics.

Scheduled Speaker

The fact the attack came during a gathering of faculty wives, offered another direction for the inquiry. Mrs. Mo Yun Suk, also known as Marion Mo, a poetess, who was associated with the Korean delegation at the Paris meeting of the United Nations General Assembly, was scheduled to address the meeting. She is a member of the civic committee that arranged welcoming parties for the United Nations commission on Korea now in Seoul.

Communist propaganda has attacked the commission repeatedly.

Dr. George Paik, president of Chosen Christian College, heads the committee. Dr. Underwood was president of the college before the war.

Former Teacher

Mrs. Underwood came to Korea as a teacher in a Seoul school for children of foreigners. She and Dr. Underwood were married in 1916.

She was the former Ethel van Waganer, a native of Kingston, Mich. She had degrees from Albion College at Albion, Mich., and New York University.

Other survivors are four sons—Horace, an instructor at the college; John, a minister studying at a Korean language school; his twin, James, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Hancock, N.Y.; and Richard, a student at Hamilton College, Clinton, New York.

SLAYING LAID TO COMMUNISTS

Killing Of Missionary's Wife In Korea Called 'Mistake'

Seoul, Korea, Friday, March 18 (AP)—Police today blamed Korean Communists for the slaying of Mrs. Horace H. Underwood, 60, wife of a prominent United States educator and missionary in Korea.

One official called it a "mistake" killing.

Police Chief Kim Tai Sun said three suspects were under arrest. Mrs. Underwood was shot to death yesterday by two hooded gunmen who forced their way into her home during a tea party.

Police and United States Army investigators had been puzzled for a motive. Dr. Underwood, although an adviser to the former American Military Government, had taken no part in politics. His wife was popular with Koreans.

Intended To Kill Someone Else

Kim said he thought he had found a motive. He said he was convinced the slayers were Communists.

"I believe they intended to kill someone else," he said, "probably Mrs. Mo."

He referred to Mrs. Mo Yun Suk. She was associated with the Korean delegation which obtained recognition for the Republic of Korea at the United Nations session in Paris over Soviet objections.

Russia backs the North Korean Communist regime. The republic, supported by the United States, functions only in South Korea.

Mrs. Mo was to have addressed Mrs. Underwood's party on the Paris sessions. She also was on a committee which welcomed a United Nations commission now in Korea.

Britain To Cut Meat Ration

London, March 17 (AP)—Britain announced today the meat ration will be cut March 27, but coupled this with easing of restrictions on motoring at home and traveling abroad.

The meat cut brings the weekly allowance per person to 17 cents worth — including 4 cents for canned or corned meat. The old ration gave everyone 21 cents worth of meat a week.

Dr. Edith Summerskill, parliamentary secretary of the Food Ministry, blamed the cut on failure of Argentina to come through with promised meat deliveries.

One Meat Meal A Week

The new meat ration will permit British families one meat meal a week, with perhaps a little left over for stew or hash.

Dr. Summerskill said that, by the end of February, Argentina had delivered less than three fourth of the meat bought under last year's trade agreement.

As a result, she told the House of Commons, the British Ambassador in Buenos Aires has been instructed "to bring pressure on the Argentine Government at the highest level to speed up shipments.

No Unreasonable Prices

Any increase in supplies, Dr. Summerskill declared, depends on the outcome of meat negotiations now taking place in Argentina. She added, however:

"We have made it clear that we are not prepared to pay unreasonable prices, submit to unreasonable conditions of sale or to pay dollars."

The Treasury announced easing of rules for Britons traveling abroad. Beginning in May, it said, adults may spend £50 ($200) a year visiting the United States or western Europe. Children will be allowed £35. The previous allowances were £35 and £25 respectively.

The Ministry of Fuel and Power said motorists can have gasoline for 135 miles of pleasure driving a month starting in May. The old rate was 90 miles a month.

Meat Ration Cut Anew In Britain

London, March 17 (AP)—The Labor Government cut the British meat ration again today. Lagging shipments from the Argentine were blamed.

The ration will be brought down March 27 from 12 to 10 pence a week, or from about 20½ cents to 17. The new ration will give a British family barely one meat meal a week, with perhaps a little left over for stew or hash.

Dr. Edith Summerskill, parliamentary secretary for the Food Ministry, told Parliament of the reduction.

Shipments Not Improved

"Shipments from the Argentine have not improved and further reduction has become inevitable," she said. Argentina gave assurances that 25,000 tons of meat would be shipped in January, and 30,000 tons in both February and March.

"We actually received 27,300 tons in January, 19,000 tons in February and we expect to get only 23,000 tons in March," she said. The British Ambassador in Buenos Aires has been told "to bring pressure on the Argentine Government at the highest level to speed up shipments."

The British have charged in the past that Argentina diverted some meat committed to England to other trade for higher prices. There also have been labor troubles in Argentina, Britain's main meat source.

LONDON WORRIES OVER DEPRESSION AS MARKET DROPS

LONDON, March 17. — (AP) Fear that a depression may be approaching—here and in America—appears to be a strong factor behind a prolonged drop in London stock prices.

Both Sir Stafford Cripps, the nation's economic boss, and wary investors on the stock exchange have weather eyes cocked on Wall Street and the condition of the American economy.

Sir Stafford, at an American news conference this week, declined to say he expects a recession in the United States. Perhaps by spring he said we can tell whether lower prices and other changes in American business represent a continuing trend or just something temporary.

Fear U. S. Depression

The London Financial Times, a paper which reflects and sometimes shapes the thought of British investors, asked editorially more than a month ago:

"Is America now to be afflicted by all the horrors of a business depression?"

When this disquieting thought was voiced, the decline in the London market had barely begun. Since then almost every sector of the market except government issues has been in an uninterrupted slide. (In the New York Stock Exchange prices on the average have see-sawed in the past two weeks after declining to the lowest level in about a year at the end of February).

Declines in Wall Street have brought sympathetic tumbles here. British financiers and government officials alike have long said that Britain could hardly avoid the effects of another U. S. depression.

But, in addition, England is going through the same post-war pains that are now gripping the U. S. economy.

Markets Shrinking
Some industries have run into shrinking markets. Inventories are catching up with long depletions. Supply is now outstripping demand in some significant sectors of the British economy.

Retail supplies of food, liquor and clothing have stacked up enough so that business has returned to the prewar pattern of seasonal booms and slumps. Retail sales fell 25 per cent in January from December.

Uncertainty over the annual budget, due April 6, tends to stagnate business. People buy sparingly because they think high purchase taxes might be cut a little.

Investors are plagued, too, by what appear to be contradictions in government policy. The economic White Paper published Tuesday said the government will continue to fight inflation with "all the weapons" used during the last two years. At the same time, the government is also moving against deflation by expanding its own investment program.

BRITON SEES LAG IN MENTAL HEALTH

Doctor Links Symptoms To War And Social Program

London, March 17 (AP)—Great Britain's collective mental health is somewhat below par, a distinguished psychiatrist said today.

The symptoms, said Dr. D. R. McCalman at a conference of the National Association of Mental Health, are:

1. Lassitude on the part of many, because a Socialist state can do too much for an individual.
2. Worry over the atomic bomb.
3. Happy-go-lucky belief that a measure like nationalization of industry solves everything.
4. Shocks of war and its aftermath.
5. Lack of initiative.

Like Pampered Child

"Our national life is not by any means as healthy as it could be," said MacCalman, who is professor of psychiatry at Leeds University.

The individual in a well-meaning, benevolent state may develop the characteristics of a pampered child, he said, and may become just as nasty and unattractive.

On the other hand, he added, some persons dissatisfied with the trend of events in Britain are sulking.

"There are still too many," he said, "who would rather be dead than work for the present national plan."

Russia Claims 2 More Firsts In Inventions

London, March 17 (AP)—Russia claimed two more firsts today in the field of invention.

Having already claimed the telephone, radio, electric light and airplane, among other things, as Russian inventions, Moscow radio said it was a Russian who invented the "first milling machine of perfected design."

Not only that, said a commentator, but the same Russian, Andre Martov, a mechanic in Peter the Great's workshops, also created the first "Turner's lathe." He did it, said the radio, 40 years before the first Englishman did.

COSTES ACQUITTED OF SPYING CHARGE

Pioneer Airman Cleared By French Military Court

Paris, March 17 (AP)—A French military court today acquitted Dieudonne Costes, pioneer trans-Atlantic airman, on charges of spying for the Germans.

Five judges voted to free him. Four voted to convict. Six votes are required for conviction under French military law.

Costes became famous in 1930 when he and Maurice Bellonte made the first east-west flight over the North Atlantic. The next year he was named the world's No. 1 airman by the International League of Aviation.

Says He Hoodwinked Germans

The charges placed against him were based on his activities during World War II. The prosecution contended that Costes gave the Germans secret information concerning French planes, guns and motors.

The 57-year-old defendant termed the accusations "entirely false." He testified that he had hoodwinked the Germans and aided the Allied cause. When the German Army's counterintelligence service sent him to New York in 1943, he actually was working for the United States, Costes said.

The judges, three civilians and six officers, argued for 90 minutes behind closed doors before reaching their decision. A few minutes after the verdict was announced Costes was on the prison steps, happily kissing his friends.

His old flying partner, Bellonte, was there to greet him. Police had to clear a path through the small crowd acclaiming Costes and his attorney, Jacques Isorni.

Isorni climaxed the four-day trial with a dramatic hour-long speech in which he told the judges:

"You cannot, on the accusation of the enemy, blemish the glorious page of history which is ours as Frenchmen. Costes is innocent. I ask you to say so for the country and for justice."

The court also acquitted Paul Cavaillez, who was charged with failing to disclose Costes's activities. The prosecution said the Germans sent Cavaillez to Costes in the United States as a radio operator. Cavaillez is serving a five-year term for espionage.

COMMUNISTS WOO ALL OF GERMANY

Seek Unity Under East Reich State In Soviet Orbit

Berlin, March 17 (AP)—Soviet-controlled German Communists launched a campaign tonight to woo all Germany into the Russian orbit.

The keynote of their campaign is a call for a unified Germany under Communist control. The Communists seek to control Germany by creating an eastern German state.

The constitution for this state is scheduled to be rubber stamped by the Communist-led "People's Council" of eastern Germany. A vote on the draft constitution may come Saturday.

Charged Western Split

While setting up this constitution, the Communists are charging the Western powers with splitting the nation by establishing a west German state.

Apparently the Communists are speeding their takeover in eastern Germany to create a satellite east German state before the Western powers can get the west German state functioning.

The Communist call to Germans is baited with strong hints that the Soviet Union will withdraw its occupation troops in this event, leaving Germany "free."

The Communist drive is expected to win few adherents in western Germany except among members of the minority Communist party.

Holds Opening Session

The economic committee of the "People's Council" held its opening session today. The eastern German constitution is scheduled to come up tomorrow at a full scale council meeting.

According to Communist claims the Russians presumably would be willing to sign a peace treaty with a "people's democracy" of eastern Germany. In Communist terminology, "people's democracy" means a Communist-run regime.

Otto Nuschke, chairman of the "People's Council," recently toured western Germany trying to sell his unity plea.

The aim of Nuschke's trip was to get German political leaders to reject the constitution being proposed for western Germany. Germans in the west said his trip met with failure.

"Will Lick Their Boots"

Nuschke promised that Soviet occupation troops would depart in the event western Germany joined the "people's democracy" of eastern Germany. Commenting tonight on that promise, the British military government quoted Nuschke as saying:

"We will lick their (the Russian's) boots if that will make them go home sooner."

Western Berlin's anti-Communist Government today adopted a resolution again asking that the western sectors of the city be included in the west German state.

Vetoed By Governors

The Germans drawing up the western German constitution at Bonn originally agreed to include Berlin, but this was vetoed by the American, British and French military governors.

Ernst Reuter, Mayor of western Berlin, will fly to Washington tomorrow with this message for America: "We will never give in." Talking to a newsman he added with a smile: "It's too cold in Siberia."

Reuter was invited to Washington to attend a three-day conference of American mayors beginning March 21. He said he also hopes to talk to United States congressmen and diplomats about the Berlin situation.

GI Held By Russ Tells Of Threats

Berlin, March 17 (AP)—An American soldier held captive four days by the Russians in Berlin said today they threatened to harm his family in America if he didn't give them information.

The soldier, Private Fred J. Jacobson, of Birmingham, Ala., was released today. He said he was under almost constant questioning for the four days but was otherwise well treated.

The incident was disclosed by Col. Thomas F. Lancer, Berlin provost marshal, after Jacobson was released through what is left of four-power channels.

Missed Sunday

Jacobson first was missed when he failed to report to his company last Sunday. He is assigned to the photo section of the 7773 Signal Service Company. Military police, acting on a hunch, asked the Russians if they were holding the soldier. The Russians said they were not.

Three days later the Russians admitted they were holding Jacobson and asked the Americans to come and get him.

Jacobson said he had been picked up by two Russian officers in a cafe just inside the Russian zone. Americans may enter the Soviet sector of Berlin but may not enter the Soviet zone, that part of Russian-occupied Germany outside Berlin proper. He said he had been visiting a German girl friend, had been in the area many times and never had been bothered before.

The cafe's "proximity to a Russian airfield and Jacobson's job in a photo section probably seemed like a great big significant thing to the Russians," Lancer said.

Lancer said the Russians asked Jacobson "a lot of questions, mostly about life in the United States.

"Jacobson said they threatened harm to his family in America if he failed to give them information. When they found he didn't have any to give, they finally let him go."

At the same time, police disclosed the Russians had picked up three airlift soldiers in the Soviet sector of Berlin last Sunday, but released them after five and a half hours. The three were privates Leonard G. Zembruske and E. J. Cartlidge, both of Detroit, and Kenneth Whipple of Tonawanda, N. Y.

Russ Irked By Flag Loss In Berlin

Berlin, March 17 (AP)—Who stole the Soviet flag from the Allied Control Council Building?

The Russians are pretty mad about it.

They walked out of the Allied Control Council a year ago this month. Marshal Vassily Sokolovsky announced that as far as he was concerned the Council was a dead duck.

But the Russians left their flag flying from one of the four poles in front of the building.

Only One In West Berlin

It was the only Soviet flag flying in the western sectors of Berlin.

Along with the American, British and French flags, it was supposed to be taken down each night by the A.C.C. guard.

Last Saturday night it disappeared.

And the Russians sent a bitterly worded protest to Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American commander in Germany.

The building is in the American sector and under American guard.

CLAY ACTS ON NAZIS

Frankfurt, March 17 (A. P.).—Gen. Lucius D. Clay today confirmed the death sentence of one German defendant in the Malmedy massacre and commuted the sentence of another from death to life imprisonment.

The cases of ten other defendants, also sentenced to die for the machine-gunning of eighty-three captured American soldiers during the battle of the bulge in 1944, await his review. Clay confirmed the death sentence of SS Sergt. Valentin Bersin and commuted that of SS Sergt. Kurt Briesemeister.

A Senate committee has asked President Truman to stay the executions of the twelve defendants until "a full, impartial investigation is made."

Meningitis Outbreak Hits Gold Coast Areas

Geneva, Switzerland, March 17 (AP)—The World Health Organization reported today an outbreak of cerebro-spinal meningitis in the back country of the Gold Coast, Africa.

The epidemic is centered in the northern areas of the British Gold Coast and the adjoining French colony of Dahomey. Some 7,000 cases were reported in January and February and 639 Africans are known to have died. About one in 100 people in the affected areas contracted the malady.

Sweden Adds To Defense Budget

Stockholm, March 17 (AP)—The Swedish Parliament, after more than twelve hours' debate, decided today to set aside 800,000,000 crowns ($230,000,000) for defense this year.

The greater part of the defense budget had been appropriated earlier. The debate centered on an additional 125,000,000 crowns asked by the Appropriations Committee for new ordnance material, including radar equipment.

Reds Back U.S.S.R.

During the debate, the Communist party pledged loyalty to the Soviet Union.

"It is the obvious duty of every Communist," the declaration said, "to fight the imperialist war instigators."

Defense Minister Allan Vougt told Parliament Sweden's defenses were not as bad as the critics said. He mentioned that underground depots were under construction at 24 different places.

Since the end of the war, Sweden has bolstered her military strength with about 1,000 planes and some twenty ships, including coastal defense craft. Vougt said last month that Swedish aircraft factories were building jet fighters expected to have a top speed of more than 600 miles an hour.

Hhe said Sweden had spent about 1,000,000,000 crowns ($280,000,000) on war materials since 1945.

Foreign Minister Osten Unden declared the Swedish Government had not changed its strict neutrality policy.

Parliament Makes Policy

Referring to alleged differences between government and military leaders on Swedish neutrality, Prime Minister Tage Erlander said Swedish officials were free to voice their view but "Sweden's policy is made by the Parliament."

The Premier's statement apparently was prompted by recent declarations by two generals, who stressed the need for an open road to the West and urged co-operation with Norway and Denmark.

Lieut. Gen. Helge Jung, armed forces commander in chief, said last night Sweden could not defend herself if she were cut off from supplies from the West. AP

New Red Moves On Tito Seen

MAR 17 1949

Rome, March 17 (AP)—The Balkans boiled with new rumors today of impending action by the Cominform nations against Marshall Tito in Yugoslavia.

One report quoted a Moscow broadcaster as saying, "the war against Tito's clique has begun in the villages and cities and will not end until complete elimination of the traitors."

This report was carried by Astra, the Italian news agency, which reported last night that Soviet and anti-Tito Yugoslav forces were drawn up on the borders. The Bulgarian Government has denied that any forces were gathering on Bulgar borders.

"Bringing Country To Ruin"

Astra said the Moscow broadcaster, speaking on a Serb-Croatian transmission, had this to say:

"We are not fighting against the Yugoslav people. We wish, in fact, to help them liberate themselves from a tyranny that is bringing their country to ruin."

The Cominform—the Communist international information bureau—has blasted Premier Tito of Yugoslavia for nationalist practices which deviated from the line laid down by Moscow. Yesterday in London, Ales Bebler, Yugoslav Deputy Foreign Minister, said he expected some new pressure soon from the Cominform against the rule of Tito.

Meeting Reported

Astra also reported from Trieste that, according to the Istrian Italian Committee of National Liberation, the Yugoslav Vice Premier and Interior Minister, Alexander Rankovic, met western representatives January 25 at Brioni, just off the tip of the Istrian Peninsula, which under the peace settlement was transferred from Italy to Yugoslavia. The agency quoted the Italian committee as saying this meeting served as a cover for a meeting of Tito himself with British and Americans on an island off Split.

The report adds confusion to the multiplicity of rumors in Eastern Europe about Tito. Istanbul this week speculated that Rankovic might unseat Tito in a coup d'etat. Rankovic, as Interior Minister, controls police and the army. However, Rankovic has been the target of bitter Cominform attacks. Only last August Tito made him a Vice Premier in a tightening of his grip on the Yugoslav regime. AP

Slavs Ignore Plots Rumors

By ALEX H. SINGLETON

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, March 17 (AP)—Outwardly, at least, Yugoslavia is undisturbed by the increasing rumors from the outside of Cominform plans to overthrow Premier Marshal Tito's Government.

In Government quarters there was no official reaction to the rumors which range all the way from speculation on a Russian-backed invasion to the more likely chance of increased Soviet-sponsored economic pressure.

In private circles there seemed to be no great alarm. The rumors have become commonplace, and the country's press is ignoring them. Likewise, there is no sign of unusual military precautions.

Only Routine Activity

On a trip to within 40 miles of the Yugoslav-Hungarian border yesterday this correspondent saw only routine military activity at the usual stations. A few weeks ago on another assignment to within 2 miles of Romania's border the only sign of the military was an old field piece left over from World War I and mounted as a village square memorial.

To foreign observers here it seemed more likely the Cominform strategy would base its tactics upon continued and perhaps stepped-up attempts to stir up trouble among the various nationalities which make up Yugoslavia. If this proves true, the first signs probably will come in Macedonia, historic cauldron of Balkan intrigues. Also it is likely there will be incidents intensifying the already bad feelings between Yugoslavia and Albania.

To Provoke Pugnacity

A few clues have turned up in both directions. Thus far, however, these have not gone beyond the Cominform's consistent campaign of needling Tito's Government at every opportunity.

It is possible this has been done with the objective of provoking Tito into a pugnacious mood. This would allow the Cominform countries to take concerted military action against Yugoslavia. But if this is so, Tito to date has refused to swallow the bait.

Tito, despite the pressure, has not attempted to steer the country toward the West politically. On the contrary, his newspaper and radio mouthpieces have been emphasizing Yugoslavia's loyalty to communism.

Jews And Arabs Agree On Troop 'Equalization'

Rhodes, March 17 (AP)—Israel and Trans-Jordan agreed in principle today on a reduction of their forces to equal strength in military zones of Palestine, Ralph Bunche, acting United Nations mediator, announced.

The two nations, engaged in armistice talks, agreed last night on lines dividing Jerusalem.

Bunche said Brig. Gen. William E. Riley, the American who heads the staff of United Nations observers, will go to the Red Sea Trans-Jordan port of Aqaba and make a final report of events there. The Israelis occupied the Palestine Red Sea coast opposite Aqaba, where British troops are stations. Trans-Jordan protested.

Riley Is Chairman

Riley also was named chairman of a committee of military experts to supervise equalization of Israeli and Trans-Jordan troops. Lieut. Col. Thomas J. Conlin, also an American, will sit for Riley at the first meeting later today. Lieut. Col. Dan Lowhner and Lieut. Col. Mohamed Muyata also are on the committee.

The Jewish and Trans-Jordan delegates agreed the reduction of forces would be broken down into three areas. One is north from a point called Budrus at the beginning of the front held by Iraqi troops, down to the Jerusalem sector and the truce lines set on November 30. The second area is the Jerusalem sector. The third is the eastern Negeb, south of the Dead Sea.

"Not Yet Ripe"

An authoritative source said some problems of the Jerusalem sector are "not yet ripe" for solution.

They have been shelved for the time. These include civilian matters such as accessibility to religious shrines and free use of roads. Trans-Jordan holds the Old City in which most Christian, Moslem and Arab shrines are located. Israel holds the surrounding New City. AP

PALESTINE CONTROL SET UP BY AMMAN

Israeli Sources Denounce Move by Transjordan in Territory Under Her Jurisdiction

SYRIA ACCEPTS PARLEY BID

Agrees to Open Negotiations —Bunche Scores British Reinforcement of Aqaba

AMMAN, Transjordan, March 17 (AP)—Transjordan has set up civil administrations in all Palestine areas under her military control, it was announced today.

The Arab kingdom has assigned district commissioners to the Jerusalem, Hebron and Ramallah areas, the announcement said. AP

It also appointed a civilian commissioner for the Nablus-Jenin-Tulkarm triangle in the north, which has been under Iraqi military rule. These commissioners will be responsible to the Trans-jordanian Ministry of the Interior.

Action Is Denounced

LONDON, March 17 (AP)—Israeli sources here denounced the action as "virtual annexation" of Arab Palestine by Transjordan. King Abdullah of Transjordan has been urged by groups of Palestine Arabs to extend his kingdom to take in those areas in the Holy Land outside the boundaries of Israel. The original United Nations Palestine partition plan called for separate and independent Arab and Jewish states.

A British Foreign Office spokesman said that Britain—which has a mutual aid pact with Transjordan—had not been informed in advance of the move.

"Why should we be?" he asked.

However, responsible diplomatic informants recalled that Britain had maintained in the past that incorporation of Arab Palestine into Transjordan would be desirable.

An Israeli informant said that Transjordan's action would extend that kingdom's civil administration over areas not covered by the armistice negotiations now under way at Rhodes. This, he said, might make King Abdullah feel free to invoke his treaty with Britain if clashes took place in these areas.

Israelis Are Held at Fault In Loss of R.A.F. Planes

LONDON, March 17 (AP).—An Air Ministry court of inquiry said today that the five British reconnaissance planes shot down by Israeli air and anti-aircraft forces Jan. 7 were on the Egyptian side of the border.

The incident occurred during an Israeli offensive which drove Egyptian forces back across their frontier. Israeli authorities contended the British planes were flying over Palestine territory when they were engaged by the Israeli Air Force. One of the pilots who was captured said at Tel Aviv that he was over Israeli territory when he was shot down. AP

Israel Ratifies U. S. Loan

MAR 17 1949

Tel Aviv, March 17 (A. P.).—The Israeli Parliament ratified today the $100,000,000 loan offered by the American Export-Import Bank. The vote was 85 to 3, with nineteen abstentions.

As a parliamentary committee earlier recommended ratification, Samuel Mikunis, a Communist member, said that acceptance of the loan would be the first step toward "inclusion of our State in the American colonial empire."

Syrians Approve Armistice Talk

Damascus, Syria, March 17 (AP)—Syria has agreed to begin armistice talks with Israel, it was announced officially today.

Syria will be the fourth Arab nation to discuss armistice with Israel.

Egypt was the first to sit down and first to sign an agreement. Sources in Beirut said yesterday that representatives of Lebanon and Israel had approved the draft of an armistice agreement. They have been meeting at Ras en Nakura. Other talks are going on at Rhodes between Trans-Jordan and Israel.

These Arab nations, along with Saudi Arabia and Iraq, have been invited to a preliminary peace conference at Beirut on March 21. The negotiations will be held under auspices of the United Nations Palestine Conciliation Commission. The Arab refugee problem as a result of the Palestine war will be the principal topic.

62 Political Newspapers Suppressed by Lebanon

BEIRUT, Lebanon, March 17 (AP).—The government of Lebanon has suppressed sixty-two political newspapers by canceling their publication permits.

The papers suppressed are those which failed to turn over to the government a security bond against possibility of prosecution. The government also suppressed newspapers having circulation of less than 1,500.

There still are many newspapers in Beirut. The city has twenty-seven more dailies and twelve weeklies, and in addition there are two more dailies in Tripoli and nine weeklies in various parts of the country, according to the Home Ministry.

Seventeen dailies have signed a declaration calling for a protest strike against the government tomorrow. The opposition parties are united in support of the press in a struggle with the government which has been going on since the 1947 parliamentary elections.

Dr. Wise, At 75, Points To Jersey Legislation

New York, March 17 (AP)—Jewish leaders around the world joined today with Rabbi Stephen S. Wise in celebrating his seventy-fifth birthday.

The American Jewish leader and pioneer Zionist official noted on his anniversary "a significant forward step in the struggle for equality in America."

He referred, he said in a statement, to a bill passed by both houses of the New Jersey Legislature and intended to outlaw discrimination in schools and public places.

"I hope that other states take the opportunity this year to follow New Jersey's example," Dr. Wise said.

Among messages of congratulation received here was one from Dr. Chaim Weizman, President of Israel, inviting Dr. Wise to visit the new Jewish homeland.

CHINA REDS SET TO CROSS YANGTZE

STOPPING

NANKING, March 17 (AP)—The Chinese communists were reported today hastening preparations to cross the Yangtze river and stirring up new disorders deep in south China.

Gen. Ten Wen-Yi, government military spokesman, told a news conference the communist Gen. Lin Piao had moved 100,000 of his crack Manchurian troops south to the vicinity of Suchow, 180 air miles north of Nanking.

The government withdrew a similar statement earlier in the week, saying reported arrival of Manchurian troops had been found to be merely some small work parties repairing the Peiping-Hankow railroad.

MAR 17 1948

60,000 Total Strength

Neutral observers said this time their admittedly sketchy information tended to confirm Teng's statement. They said four of Lin Piao's columns had been tentatively identified in the Suchow region. This would be a total strength of 60,000 to 75,000.

Teng also said the communists were building boats to cross the big river, south of which Lie Nanking and Shanghai.

Teng said the main forces of Gen. Chen Yi, red general who sparked last fall's drive to the Yangtze, were moving into staging areas on the north bank.

Everybody in Nanking was speculating on when and whether the reds would cross the river.

Meanwhile, they were throwing nervous glances to the government rear areas in the far south and southwest.

Attacks Increase

The official central news agency said "rebel" attacks were increasing in Yunnan in the southwest and that an assault on the capital, Kunming, was feared.

On the recognized civil war fronts, the only fighting of any consequence was in southern Shensi province, in northwest China.

There the government spokesman said the reds had captured a number of towns just north of Sian, the capital.

(The communist radio, however, said the government had launched a drive that had regained Yaohsien and Fuping. It added that Gen. Ma Pu-Fang, warlord governor of distant Tsinghai province, had seized Chunhwa in Shensi province.)

Reds Seen Trying Mass Crossing Of Yangtze

Nanking, March 17 (AP)—Communist attempts to cross the Yangtze River appeared near today. At the same time Red uprisings in South China grew.

Government spokesman, Gen. Teng Wen-yi, announced 100,000 Manchurian Red troops had reinforced the Communists at Suchow, 180 miles northwest of Nanking. Other troops, under Red Gen. Lin Piao's command, were massed just north of the capital.

Teng said the main strength of Red Gen. Chen Yi's central China armies were heading for staging areas on the north bank of the river near Hankow.

Boats Being Built

Boats for the crossing were reported under construction. Posters in towns under Communist rule reportedly urged the Reds to seize Shanghai, Nanking and Hankow. The three large cities today draw 40 per cent of their food supplies from American aid.

Government commanders were caught in the middle. To the north were the Communist hordes. To the south uprisings led by Reds were reported in the provinces of Yunnan, Kwangtung and Hunan and on Hainan islands.

Central News Agency said there were fears Kunming, capital of Yunnan, would be attacked. Other dispatches said Nationalist forces had lost all telegraphic contact with the southern part of Yunnan.

Reds Denounce Premier

Here in the capital officials were perplexed by yesterday's Red radio blast at new Premier Ho Ying-chin. The radio called him a tool of retired President Chiang Kai-shek.

In the legislative Yuan there was talk of removal of Admiral Kwei Yun-ching as head of the Navy.

Girl Friend Of Sun Denies Deal On Dyes

Shanghai, March 17 (AP)—Miss Lan Ni, described by a subcommittee of the control Yuan (auditing) as the beneficiary of former Premier Sun Fo's alleged abuse of authority, denied it today.

In a statement published by the newspaper Sin Wan Pao, Miss Lan said she had a waybill proving she bought 84 drums of dyes with her own money.

The subcommittee had indicted Sun for ordering the release of Japanese dyes to Miss Lan, described by the subcommittee as Sun's "concubine."

Her statement today said she had not received a cent for the dyes.

Chinese Reds Figure Cash In Commodities

San Francisco, March 17 (AP)—The Chinese Communists are backing their money with commodities, broadcasts from Red China disclosed today.

"Savings of Tientsin residents in the city branch of the People's Bank are safeguarded from fluctuations of market prices by calculating deposits in terms of standard units in kind," said one broadcast.

"Each standard unit consists of fixed quantities of flour, cloth and corn flour. Deposits or withdrawn sums are reckoned in terms of these standard units at the average prices of these units five days before the time of depositing or withdrawal. Interest also is calculated in terms of standard units."

Another broadcast told of an education budget in Manchuria, equivalent to over 225,000 tons of corn."

Ceylon Bans Pope's Address

COLOMBO, Ceylon, March 17 (AP).—The Minister of Posts and Telecommunications, C. Sittampalam, has banned a recorded broadcast in Ceylon of a recent speech by Pope Pius XII assailing the trial of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty in Hungary. Sittampalam ruled the speech attacked the Hungarian government, with which Ceylon has friendly relations.

Russians Asked To Speed Repatriation

Tokyo, March 17 (AP)—General MacArthur's headquarters today asked the Russians to speed the repatriation of Japanese prisoners of war in view of the mild weather.

Some 400,000 Japanese prisoners of war are still held in Siberia.

The Russians promised to return them at the rate of 50,000 a month, but since 1946 the average has been only 34,000 a month.

Previously the Russians blamed iced-in ports for the delay.

ROMULO URGES FAR EAST MOVE

Says Delay On Japan Question Promotes Chaos

Washington, March 17 (AP)—A demand that the United States and the other wartime Pacific allies decide promptly "what to do with Japan" was served on the Eleven-Nation Far Eastern Commission today by the Philippines.

Ambassador Carlos Romulo told the policy making group that its "continued vaccilation" was promoting chaos in Asia and declared the United States was largely to blame, by "failing to make up its mind."

War Plant Shifts Noted

Romulo, who also is Philippine delegate to the United Nations, criticized the United States in complaining of delays in transferring war plants to nations sharing in a preliminary reparations program.

His country, he said, has filed war claims against Japan totaling $5,350,000,000. Up to last December 23, he said actual reparations received amounted to $11,390,000.

For the past eight months, Romulo charged, the United States has held up deliveries of aircraft and private munitions plants while "trying to make up its mind" about Japan's future role.

No Action Taken

The Philippine delegate reviewed the reparations issue at a closed-door session which took no action. There was no comment from the American delegate, Maj. Gen. Frank McCoy, or the State Department.

Romulo urged an early decision on three basic problems which he said are closely linked—Japan's future industrial level, its relations with other Asiatic lands and reparations.

He said none of these has been settled in the nearly three years the commission has been legislating overall policies for General Douglas MacArthur as Supreme Allied Commander. On the point of American delays, Romulo said the United States told the commission last September 1 it was not ready to state its position on the level of economic life in Japan, its policy toward Japan's shipbuilding and shipping, or the question of further reparations removals. He declared the situation remained unchanged.

Romulo Criticizes U.S. On Japan

Washington, March 17 (AP)—Brig. Gen. Carlos Romulo, of the Philippines, told the eleven-nation Far Eastern Commission today that American "delay and irresolution" has halted the removal of reparations from Japan and is promoting "chaos" in Asia.

For eight months, Romulo declared, the transfer of aircraft and private munitions plants earmarked for other countries has been held up while the United States was "trying to make up its mind" on Japan's future role.

Asks Early Decision

Romulo, Philippines delegate to the United Nations, said American "irresolution" has in turn prevented action by the commission, which sets overall policies for the occupation. He urged an early decision on three basic problems he said are closely linked — reparations, Japan's future industrial level and its relations with other nations.

The Philippines has filed a war-damage claim against Japan of $5,350,000,000. Romulo said that up to last December 23 the Philippines had received interim reparations valued at $11,390,000. He declared continued delays or a change in policy "could throw our entire industrialization program out of gear."

MAR 17 1948

"All-Important Issue"

"Other Asian nations are in a similar predicament," he said. "Their problems, taken in their entirety, add up to the all-important issue of whether Japan shall be reinstated as the dominant economic and military power in Asia, or whether an earnest and resolute effort shall be made to build up the other Asian countries on a basis of economic equality."

The delay in carrying out the existing program of removing war plants already earmarked for Japan's wartime foes began last July 13, Romulo said. American officials in Tokyo announced then, he said, that aircraft and private munitions plants no longer should be transferred until the United States decided what to do about recommendations growing out of American surveys of Japan.

Survey Group Cited

Since then, Romulo asserted, the representatives of five or more nations have asked repeatedly in the commission, without result, for an American decision.

The survey reports which he said figured in the delay included the findings of a group which went to Japan last year, Paul G. Hoffman, now Economic Co-operation Administrator, was one of the members.

Romulo declared that "inaction helps to promote the very chaos which we should strive at all cost to forestall" in Asia.

STOLEN URANIUM NOT U-235 TYPE

MAR 17 1949

Ingot Found in Mexico Reported Non-Explosive Natural Metal

MEXICO CITY, March 17.—(AP) An ingot of uranium, originally thought to be stolen from a U. S. atomic laboratory, was declared tonight to be merely refined metal without any explosive power.

Francisco Gonzalez De La Vega, Mexican attorney general, said the metal was not the explosive isotope U-235. It was, he said, only "the natural metal, without great value and without strategic importance."

Believed From U. S.

Previously, secret police had said they believed it came from a U. S. laboratory. They based this theory on the belief that it was U-235, which, so far as is known here, is produced only in the U. S. Manuel Sandoval Vallarta, head of Mexico's atomic committee and formerly on the United Nations Atomic commission, examined the metal found here. Police quoted him as saying it was highly refined, and apparently they believed only the U. S. plants could have refined it.

Gonzalez De La Vega's statement minimized the importance of the discovery, but did little to clear up the mystery surrounding the existence of the cylinder of uranium in Mexico. In brief prepared statement, which he refused to amplify, he said:

"It is true that a small quantity of uranium is in possession of the Mexican authorities, but we have not been able to discover its origin. This is not U-235 but the natural metal. x x x

"It is untrue that we have any prisoners.

"This metal was taken exclusively by Mexican authorities under my orders and without the intervention of any foreign police. This is all I have to say."

Earlier, the secret police had given a few more details. They said the small cylinder of metal was taken from a Mexican last November. A man who had been in his company was later listed as having died from uranium rays.

In Washington the Atomic Energy Commission said "no source material" essential to the production of atomic energy substances has been reported missing by any of its installations or contractors.

Source material is defined by the commission as "uranium, thorium or any other material which is determined by the commission with the approval of the president to be peculiarly essential to the production of fissionable material."

"Fissionable material" is defined as "plutonium, uranium enriched in uranium 235, and uranium 233, or any other material which the AEC determines to be capable of releasing substantial quantities of energy through nuclear chain reaction x x."

FBI Opens Probe

FBI agents attached to the U. S. embassy were said to be investigating the case in Mexico, but they would give out no information. They said any announcement would have to come from headquarters in Washington, D. C.

The FBI agents here were reported to have gotten onto the case when they were informed that the Mexican was trying to peddle the uranium.

Mexican agents maintained secrecy in order to give the U. S. agents time to trace the uranium and determine how it was taken from some closely-guarded U. S. laboratory. Mexico's part in the detective work ended long ago.

There is another report current here that a group of other persons offered to sell large quantities of uranium. This report, which is not firmly established, said the group never showed any uranium to prospective customers. At least some of the "customers" were police who pretended to be in the market but demanded to see the goods.

Mexico Police Probe Theft Of Uranium

Mexico City, March 17 (AP)—A supposed theft of refined uranium from a United States atomic laboratory is being investigated by Mexican secret police.

A month ago a Mexican was arrested with a small cylinder of uranium, police said, but newspapers were asked then not to publish the information.

The uranium was said by the police to have been earmarked for shipment to Panama.

The arrest of the Mexican with the uranium has been kept secret to give United States agents time to inquire into the case and to locate a man who might know something of the theft from the United States atomic laboratory.

Offered To Embassy

Mexican secret police said their first knowledge of the uranium came when it was offered for sale to the United States Embassy.

They said they arrested one man. During questioning he told of a gang smuggling and selling the uranium.

They added that at least four cylinders of uranium were offered.

One foreigner, police said, died just before the arrest was made. They said they thought he was a victim of uranium rays.

MINDSZENTY CASE GOES BEFORE U.N.

M HERRICK SUN

LAKE SUCCESS, March 17—(AP) The case of Cardinal Mindszenty was placed before the United Nations today with an implied demand for some sort of punitive action against communist-dominated Hungary.

Bolivia called for action by the 58-nation General Assembly opening in New York April 5.

Latin American and other western diplomats had long considered the advisability of bringing the case to the UN, on grounds that the Hungarian Cardinal was convicted of charges trumped up by the communists.

Certain of Approval

The request seemed certain of getting the majority vote needed to adopt the case for examination by the assembly. Once it is on the calendar, any delegate can submit specific proposals as to what the UN should do.

Bolivia's move followed protests by church and government leaders in many countries against the trial of the Hungarian primate, who was convicted by a Hungarian court Feb. 8 of several charges, including that of plotting to overthrow the communist-dominated regime in Budapest. Cardinal Mindszenty now is serving a life sentence.

The issue was brought to the UN under a charter provision calling for international cooperation in "promoting and encouraging respect for human rights and for fundamental freedoms for all, without distinction as to race, sex, language or religion."

Hungary Not a Member

Hungary is not a UN member but in her application she promised to abide by the provisions of the charter. Hungary's membership bid was considered twice—in 1946 and 1947—by the Security Council but each time she failed to receive the required seven votes. The majority took the position that Hungary was not living up to UN principles.

There are several courses open to the assembly, varying all the way from a mild condemnation to a recommendation for a worldwide diplomatic and economic break with Hungary.

Montgomery On Italy

[Don Whitehead served with the British 8th Army's African and Italian campaigns as an Associated Press war correspondent.]

By DON WHITEHEAD

Washington, March 17 (AP)—Field Marshal Bernard Montgomery said today the Allies went into the Italian campaign in World War II without a "predetermined plan of action."

Britain's testy little warrior made this statement in his new book "El Alamein to the River Sangro" which will be published tomorrow.

The book is Montgomery's own story of the famous British 8th Army's drive from El Alamein in Egypt to the River Sangro in Italy and how he directed the battles.

Montgomery did not say who was to blame for the alleged lack of planning. At that time, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was commanding the Allied forces in the Mediterranean while Britain's Gen. Harold R. Alexander commanded the 15th Army Group under which Montgomery operated.

Not His Responsibility

But the author makes it quite clear that the slow progress in Italy in those bloody days—in his opinion—was not his responsibility.

"Monty" pointed out that in July, August and September of 1943 the Allies "captured Sicily, knocked Italy out of the war, locked up the Italian fleet in Malta and secured Naples and the Foggia airfields."

The Allied high command hoped the Italian Army would turn on the Germans, he said, and help chase them out of Italy.

And those of us with the armies at the time thought we would be in Rome by Christmas.

"Events proved this impossible," Montgomery wrote, "and we became involved in a major campaign lacking a predetermined plan of action. . . .

Ships Sent To England

"If then we had had the resources to allow us to maintain pressure on the enemy, our superiority in armor and in the air might have enabled us to roll the enemy back to the Rome line before the winter began."

But he said ships were sent to England for the Normandy invasion, the strategic air forces drained off supplies, and the United States 5th Army "absorbed such reserves of (supplies) as were immediately available in the Mediterranean."

Montgomery also disclosed he objected to the original plan for the Sicily invasion because "I came to the conclusion that the existing plan was unsound."

Greek Guerrillas Losing Ground Truman Says

MAR 17 1949

Washington, March 17 (AP)—President Truman told Congress today there are signs the tide of battle in Greece is turning against the Communist guerrillas.

The President struck this note in presenting his sixth quarterly report on the American military-aid program to Greece and Turkey.

"Since the beginning of 1949," he said, "there are signs that the balance is shifting against the guerrillas."

"Approaching Bankruptcy"

Mr. Truman spoke of "growing discouragement and dissension" among the Communist military leaders and added:

"The guerrilla movement is approaching bankruptcy in the eyes of the Greek people."

The military outlook is more promising than it has been for some time, the President said. But he cautioned against expecting decisive victory by the American-supported Greek Army too soon.

"Much Has Been Done"

"Much has been accomplished in training and equipping the Greek armed forces; however, much remains to be done," he said.

Mr. Truman made no mention of the Administration plan to ask Congress soon for additional money to carry the program for Greece and Turkey through June 30, 1950.

Administration officials are now working on such a bill. The amount is expected to be from $150,000,000 to $300,000,000.

Guerrillas Increase Force

The President said $280,492,885 has been allocated for spending in Greece. The total for Turkey is $96,870,761.

Mr. Truman estimated there are about 23,000 active guerrillas in Greece now—an increase of 1,000 over last September 30.

The Greek Army, he reported, inflicted more than 6,000 casualties since then but nearly 7,000 additional persons were recruited or abducted by the guerrillas during the same period.

Turkey Commended

Turning to Turkey, Mr. Truman said it "has made a sincere effort fully to utilize United States assistance in improving the efficiency of its armed forces."

Large-scale maneuvers held in Turkey during October, he added, showed "a high degree of skill" in using American materiel.

Court Gives Red Permission To Defend Self

New York, March 17 (AP)—Eugene Dennis, general secretary of the American Communist party, received court permission today to defend himself at the trial of eleven Communist leaders.

However, Federal Judge Harold R. Medina warned him "you are taking a chance here," adding "you are not competent to understand certain legal matters."

Dennis, the top-ranking official among the eleven defendants, notified the judge of his decision as a court session to pick four alternate jurors began. Selection of twelve jurors was completed yesterday.

Represented Thus Far

In the nine weeks of the proceedings so far, Dennis has been represented by Louis F. McCabe, Philadelphia attorney.

After the court's warning, he insisted he understood the hazards attached to self-representation.

United States Attorney John F. X. McGohey said a layman had the constitutional right to defend himself if he so desired. But he asked that Dennis be required to say whether he would act for himself throughout the remainder of the trial.

Defendants should not be allowed to "switch from one position to another," the prosecutor said. Medina declined to rule on this point now.

Cites Unsworn Statement

McGohey said self-representation would permit Dennis to make unsworn statements before the jury while questioning witnesses or addressing the court.

The judge said he would decide later whether Dennis could make statements, but added, "I believe I would be inclined to let him address the jury if he deported himself in a proper manner."

The jury is composed of five men and seven women. Three are Negroes, including a Negro housewife as foreman. Several are in the lower-income brackets. AP

Visas For Soviets Criticized

Washington, March 17 (AP)—Some lawmakers said today that if Soviet delegates are to be admitted to this country for a "world peace conference," Americans should get equal treatment from Russia.

Several times in the past, Moscow has refused to let in congressional committees or individual lawmakers.

But the State Department said yesterday that 22 delegates from Russia and other Communist-dominated nations will be allowed to attend a peace conference scheduled by the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions in New York, beginning March 25.

Chairman Wood (D., Ga.), of the House Un-American Activities Committee, said his group may look into the matter. Senators Mundt (R., S.D.) and Ferguson (R., Mich.) were critical of the State Department's action.

Invitations to the meeting were sent to many countries by a committee headed by Dr. Harlow Shapley, Harvard astronomer.

Russia had demanded diplomatic visas for its representatives at the conference — which would have given them such privileges as freedom from arrest on criminal and civil charges and freedom from customs inspection of their baggage —but the State Department turned that down.

Instead, the delegates will get "intermediate" visas, which provide "added recognition," but not diplomatic immunity, the department said. AP

Hoffman Depicts A 'Live And Let Live' Russia

MAR 17 1949

Washington, March 17 (AP)—Marshall Plan Chief Paul G. Hoffman said today Russia may be willing to "live and let live" if the democratic powers win the cold war.

"It is peace we are striving for—nothing else," Hoffman told three Italian labor leaders here for a two-week industry survey under sponsorship of the Economic Cooperation Administration.

Red Coup "Impossible"

Giulio Pastore, secretary general of the Free Italian General Confederation of Workers, told Hoffman there is no longer a possibility in Italy of the type of Communist coup which made a Soviet satellite of Czechoslovakia.

"The Communists have been twice beaten in the political arena," Pastore said. "Now they have shifted the battle to the labor-economic front.

"It is very likely the final battle will be fought on the labor-economic front, and we are confident we can win it."

CHIEF OF FBI HITS BACK AT YALE CHARGE

Hoover Says Criticism Of Loyalty Probe Has Communist Tinge

New Haven, Conn., March 17 (AP). J. Edgar Hoover, protesting against an article in the Yale Law Journal which said there was danger that the FBI was becoming "a secret police," has contended the authors' opinions were similar to those of Communists.

The FBI chief, in a letter to the editors, published today in the Journal together with a reply from the article's authors, complained of "inaccuracies, distortions and misstatements" about the FBI's work in investigating the loyalty of Federal employés.

The original article was written by Thomas I. Emerson, Yale law professor and former state chairman of the Peoples (Wallace) party of Connecticut, and David M. Helfeld, a graduate fellow in the Yale Law School.

Authors Want Curbs

They advocated curbs on the loyalty-probe program, contending that it was a threat to civil liberties as now conducted.

The FBI chief took issue with nineteen specific statements in the article, reserving his severest criticism for a paragraph urging greater "civilian control" over the FBI.

Emerson and Helfeld wrote in this connection:

"A secret police established to investigate the 'loyalty' of American citizens can develop into a grave and ruthless menace to democratic process. There are signs that the FBI is moving dangerously in this direction."

Hoover Lashes Back

Hoover retorted:

"Any doubts that I have had about the authors' sincerity or competence to write on this subject from the standpoint of knowledge of the various ramifications of the loyalty program were completely resolved by the above statement.

"I realize, of course, that largely it is the opinion of the authors, which they have every right to express; however, I find such opinions most frequently expressed on the pages of the Daily Worker. . . ."

"Further Proof," Is Retort

Emerson and Helfeld, after referring to what they called "the vituperative tone" of Hoover's letter, contended that his reference to the Daily Worker was in support of their point.

"This readiness by the chief of the FBI to identify (what are to him) unorthodox views with Communist views throws a revealing light upon the atmosphere in which the FBI operates," they wrote.

"We cite it as a further sign of the direction in which that agency is moving."

The law journal's editors, in a statement published with the exchange, said both the original article in the December issue and Hoover's reply were published in the interest of "free discussion." Disclaiming "partisanship," they said a full-dress article countering the Emerson-Helfeld stand was being written by Gen. William J. Donovan, wartime OSS chief, and would be published in a future issue.

Hoover, in discussing the "civilian control" demand, asserted:

"The FBI has been and now is under civilian control. It will continue to be, so long as I have any connection with it."

He pointed out that the FBI must justify its activities to the President, the Attorney General and Congress, and was subject further to the checks of a free press and the courts. He added:

"The FBI as it is now constituted could never be a 'ruthless menace' to democratic processes because of the character and the training of the men who constitute its investigative force. Even if the director of the FBI desired to adopt totalitarian methods of operation, he could not expect the present staff of the FBI to carry them out."

Emerson and Helfeld, in answering Hoover, raised two points to which the FBI chief submitted a second reply, also published by the Journal.

They contended, first, that he had admitted that the FBI practised wire-tapping in "violation of federal law." And second, they urged that President Truman appoint a "Committee on Loyalty Practices" to investigate the loyalty program. Among points that should be looked into, they said, are the "political preferences" of FBI agents.

Europe Recovery Given Priority Over Arms Aid

Washington, March 17 (AP)—The United States said today it will give higher priority to Europe's recovery needs than to its military requirements.

The State Department laid down this principle in a statement which said: "The arms program is not to interfere with the European Recovery Program."

State Department Press Officer Michael McDermott emphasized the policy further at a news conference in answering reporters' questions.

"The European Recovery Program will have top priority on United States money and materials sent to Europe," he said.

Four More Nations Invited

The recovery-first policy was laid down as official invitations to join the United States and seven other nations in a North Atlantic defense alliance were extended to Denmark, Iceland, Italy and Portugal.

All four are expected to go into the pact, details of which will be made public tomorrow. Their representatives have been in contact with the original framers of the agreement.

The State Department is drawing up a military-aid program for members of the Atlantic defense alliance and others whose security is deemed vital to the United States. The total amount that may be asked of Congress for American arms and military equipment is expected to be from $1,500,000,000 to $2,000,000,000.

First Year Scope Limited

McDermott said the American Government will provide arms only for "existing western European military formations" during the first year of the military aid program—from July 1, 1949, to June 30, 1950.

By "existing western European military formations" McDermott explained he meant divisions and forces currently assembled rather than new units.

Presumably, the United States will arm additional European divisions after the first year of the program ends. Many western European governments have scaled down the size of their armies to avoid putting too big a drain on recovery.

Main Idea Of Arms

The main idea behind the arms program for western Europe as President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson have explained it, is to eliminate the feeling of insecurity which was hampering their economic comeback.

The pact against aggression aims more directly at the same target.

Inclusion of Italy was a triumph for France and the United States. Britain, the low countries and Canada opposed. The British objected that Italy's entry might extend the alliance too far southward.

American and French officials said Italy's pro-Western outlook and strategic position made it necessary to include her.

Seven nations originally formed the nucleus of the proposed pact: Belgium, Canada, France, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, the United Kingdom and the United States. Norway joined recently. If Denmark, Iceland, Italy and Portugal join as expected, the alliance will boast twelve nations.

Full Discussion Planned

The State Department said full public discussion would be invited. Along these lines, a meeting is scheduled for today and tomorrow with 200 representatives of national organizations.

Acheson and top officials will discuss the treaty and other foreign-policy programs with these representatives of groups from farm, labor, business, educational and other organizations.

30.24- 1803 ~~1801~~

Acheson has arranged to make an address on the treaty Friday night on a nation-wide radio broadcast beginning at 10.30 P.M. The State Department said it will be carried by the Mutual, Columbia and American networks.

Iceland's Minister Leaves

Iceland's Foreign Minister wound up his four-day inquiry into the security pact, meanwhile, with a farewell call on Acheson.

As he left, he repeated that his Government "would not consent to any foreign military bases in peacetime" on Icelandic soil.

The Foreign Minister, Bjarni Benediktsson, said State Department officials had answered "all my questions, and they were many." AP

Recovery Needs Take Precedence Over Armament, U.S. Tells Europe

MAR 17 1949

WASHINGTON, March 17—(AP) The United States gave notice today that it would assign top priority to western Europe's recovery needs rather than its military requirements.

The State Department emphasized that this principle would guide the American government in determining how to allocate its money and materials.

"The arms program is not to interfere with the European Recovery Program," press office Michael McDermott said in a statement read at a news conference.

Increase Existing Units

He also disclosed that the United States in arming "friendly" European countries first would try to make up deficiencies in existing military units abroad.

This would be the American policy, he said, at least during the first year of a contemplated military aid program, beginning July 1.

Later, presumably, the United States would provide guns, tanks and equipment needed to create new divisions in the armies of the western European countries.

The whole program is a vast effort to build a wall against the western surge of communism.

noon for Iceland to report to his Parliament which will make the decision about joining.

As he left, the Icelandic diplomat reiterated that his country "would not consent to any foreign military bases in peacetime."

Government officials said Secretary of State Acheson has assured him that Iceland will not have to provide bases on its soil as the price for admission into the Atlantic defense pact.

McDermott's statement made it plain the projected American military aid program would be a cautious, long-range effort rather than an emergency operation to be rushed to completion.

This American military assistance is scheduled to go to the countries joining an Atlantic defense alliance with the United States. Seven are about to sign—Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg and Norway.

Four additional members, Italy, Denmark, Iceland and Portugal, were invited officially to join, raising the prospective number of original signers to 12.

President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson have both placed emphasis on Europe's economic comeback.

President Truman especially has stressed that the major reason the United States wants to arm western Europe is to eliminate a feeling of insecurity hampering the recovery program.

May Ask $1,250,000

The administration currently is drafting a bill which would ask Congress to provide from $1,250,000,000 to $1,500,000,000 in military aid for the treaty countries.

No estimate has ever been made about the duration of this program. It was learned, however, that some top government officials favor a three-year project, running to June 30, 1952, when the European Recovery Program is scheduled to end.

Paul Hoffman, Economic Cooperation administrator, has requested that Congress appropriate $5,580,000,000 to carry the European Recovery Program to June 30, 1950.

As McDermott spoke, Iceland's Foreign Minister, Bjarni Benediktsson, concluded a four-day visit to Washington to find out about the proposed North Atlantic pact.

He arranged to leave this afternoon for Iceland to report to his Parliament which will make the decision about joining.

As he left, the Icelandic diplomat reiterated that his country "would not consent to any foreign military bases in peacetime."

Government officials said Secretary of State Acheson has assured him that Iceland will not have to provide bases on its soil as the price for admission into the Atlantic defense pact.

'One-Man' Control Clamped On Armed Forces Publicity

WASHINGTON, March 17—(AP) The military department today ordered one-man control clamped on its flow of public information.

Then it hustled this news to congress investigating charges that the world—and potential enemies—have been told too much about our vital defense secrets.

The order merges the public information sections of the Army, Navy and Air Force under a single office for the national military establishment. Its chief will be William Frye, former Associated Press war correspondent.

Effective March 31

The reorganization, effective March 31, actually has been in preparation since last December. But it was learned that the announcement yesterday that the House Armed Services committee was opening an investigation figured in the decision to issue the new central control order at once.

Defense Secretary Forrestal took a copy into a closed session of the committee. This session was called to inquire into the sources of published stories and pictures dealing with Air Force strategic plans and the atomic energy program.

Present at the meeting when Forrestal handed the House members the order were the three secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force.

The inquiry sprang up on the heels of a complaint in the House that information had been "bandied about in the press" about secret talks, before the joint chiefs of staff, purported vital targets in Russia, and contents of secret military maps.

Rep. Mahon (D-Tex) called attention to this, saying the military had denied giving away secrets.

Cite Atom Energy Report

House members also were concerned over the atomic energy commission's annual report charting its installations about the country. Congressmen, while observing this information had been published before, criticized its collection in "one handy book" which any foreign government could obtain.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga) of the House Armed Services committee said his group wanted information about any part the Air Force may have played in publication of information about possible aerial bombing targets in Russia, and pictures and maps of atomic installations in this country.

Vinson said he didn't know whether the military had issued secret information, or whether the articles were merely the conclusions of the writers.

The defense department's new press information setup, as originally conceived, was intended to stop the rivalry of the armed forces for newspaper headlines, particularly as between the Air Force and Navy.

The new press relations chief for the National Military Establishment will be designated "assistant to the secretary of defense." He will serve as principal adviser to him and the war council on public information.

The order said "he shall be responsible for the development of public information policies of, and for their implementation by, all agencies of the national military establishment."

The reorganization study was begun under direction of Harold B. Hinton, a New York Times reporter, who has been chief of the NME press section until recently. He will remain at the Pentagon for a time to help get the new setup in operation.

No Coordination Order

At present, the NME operates a press room in the Pentagon, with a staff of public relations officers. However, this is in addition to the three separate setups operated by the armed forces. The primary function of the NME central press room has been to issue press releases on the three services. There has been no order compelling coordination of the separate releases and final approval by the defense establishment press chief.

Frye, the new chief, served as an AP war correspondent in London for some months during the allied invasion of western Europe in 1944.

Then, in the spring of 1945, he went to the front to cover the British and Canadian armies under Field Marshal Montgomery in their drive across the Rhine into Germany.

Frye left the AP after the war to write a book, "Marshall: citizen soldier," published in April, 1947, and early last year he served as a War Department consultant.

Foreign Aid Fund Speedup Sought

Washington, March 17 (AP)—The Economic Co-operation Administration today nudged Congress to speed action on new Marshall-plan funds before April 3.

On that date, an ECA spokesman said, all funds available for direct financing of recovery purchases—a total of $4,950,000,000—will be exhausted.

Unless the drawing account is replenished, he said the foreign aid program will be "seriously impaired."

A new bill for $5,580,000,000 to finance the second year of the Marshall plan is now in the hands of Senate and House committees. But as yet the measure has not been brought to a vote. A separate appropriation bill also must be approved to make the cash available.

The ECA official made clear, however, that the agency would not go out of business if the lawmakers fail to act before the April 3 deadline since Congress last year approved its operations until June 30.

The Eigthieth Congress, however, did give President Truman authority to spend the whole year's appropriation by April 3 if he felt the speedup was nesessary and he already has approved full use of the old funds by that date.

ECA today authorized a total of $29,024,000 in recovery grants to Europe, Korea and China. This brings allotments to date to $4,828,701,000.

U.S. Pulls Back Its Main Pacific Defense Line

Pearl Harbor, March 17 (AP)—Only four years after winning mastery of the Pacific from Japan the United States is backtracking its main defense line on this great ocean to its own West Coast.

The one weapon not being cut down in the Pacific is the submarine.

Pacific commanders here decline discussion, but obviously the line they would like to man and hold is as far from the United States mainland and as close to Asia as possible.

Under present and contemplated budgets, however, forces left for the Pacific are too scanty for maintenance of a distant line. Supply and shipping costs would be tremendous to maintain perimeter defense in Japan, Okinawa and the Marianas.

West Coast Prize Target

With priorities concentrated on Europe, the Pacific's role in the cold-war strategy seems even more secondary than in World War II.

American military observers here—where the memory of December 7, 1941, is still green—agree the West Coast's industrial and plane-producing belt would be the prize target for an enemy surprise attack by long-range bombers or submarine-launched guided missiles.

With expense as a controlling factor in Pacific deployment, they feel the best defense that can be afforded is to concentrate major defending elements right on the potential target and in Alaska.

Forces On Islands Cut Back

There have been steady cutbacks of air and naval forces based in Hawaii and westward. Last week Admiral Dewitt C. Ramsey, Pacific Fleet commander, announced navy and marine Pacific air headquarters were moving from Hawaii to San Diego.

The Air Force is sending back to the mainland its 81st Fighter Wing, the last in the Pacific command.

As air intercepting forces, Hawaii has left one air National Guard squadron of 25 overage F-47 Thunderbolts and a navy all-weather fighter training unit.

Hawaii—Then And Now

Military observers believe Hawaii is being thus stripped of air defense in the belief that there would be little profit for an enemy nowadays to aim a first attack at these islands.

Anti-'A' Bomb 'Shots' Believed Possible

Cincinnati, March 17 (AP)—An injection which will immunize humans against the radioactivity of atomic explosions is a possibility, Rear Admiral Lamont Pugh said today. The deputy chief of the Navy Bureau of Medicine and Surgery is in Cincinnati to address a Red Cross campaign luncheon.

"We are conducting extensive research in that direction, and I have little doubt that eventually it will be successful," he said of the injection study.

The Admiral said it is impossible to predict how soon such an immunizing agent might be discovered or what form it will take.

Atom-Engine Plane Plan Described

Wellesley, Mass., March 17 (AP)—An atomic-energy commissioner told today of Air Force plans for a plane that would be powered by an atomic engine.

Robert F. Bacher, of the commission, told a science conference celebrating the seventy-fifth anniversary of Wellesley College that this is "probably the most exciting" of new experiments with atoms.

It was announced recently that the Navy was working on a nuclear engine that might enable its ships to roam the seven seas without refueling. Bacher's speech, as released in advance of delivery, said the direction taken by the development of atomic energy will be determined by international conditions.

Progress In Either Field

But, he said, regardless of whether tools of peace or weapons of war are made, it will mean progress in this new field because peacetime applications of atomic energy are closely related to wartime potential."

The development of atomic energy during the war was for the sole purpose of producing an atomic bomb, Bacher said, but now innumerable uses are being explored.

For one thing, he said, it is "at least technically possible" to produce electrical energy from atoms, new varieties of the elements found in nature, or entirely new elements.

2 At U. Of M. Devise Mask To Comfort Arctic Fighters

Washington, March 17 (AP)—The Navy thinks it has licked the toughest problem of living and fighting in the Arctic—keeping warm.

Its scientists are perfecting a new simple gadget that saves 80 per cent of the body heat normally lost by breathing, and turns 70-below-zero cold inhaled air into a springlike 64 above.

Nearly half of the total heat loss in cold weather is through breathing, regardless of the kind of clothing worn, the Navy says. During the war, complicated electrical air warmers were tested, but the results weren't very good.

It's A Breathing Mask

The new gadget is a breathing mask which weighs less than one pound. It works on the principle known to every farm boy: If you wrap a scarf around your nose, the outside air doesn't feel so cold.

Starting with this, Dr. Norman E. Phillips and Loyal Goff, of the University of Maryland, developed for the Navy a face mask only a few inches in diameter containing several feet of air passages.

Heat and moisture is extracted from exhaled air and retained in the passages, warming and humidifying the inhaled air.

For Comfort At 70 Below

That's all there is to it, but the Navy says it will enable a man to breathe comfortably even in the 70 below zero of the Arctic.

Military men regard the Arctic as the most likely route of an air attack on the United States. They have been hard at work on special lubricants that won't congeal in the cold, on mechanized equipment that can build airbases in icy weather, on houses that men can erect wearing thick mittens and hundreds of other problems of the Far North.

But this is the first success reported on how to keep men warm away from heated barracks, out where the biting cold brings lethargy and even death.

Army May Ask For Extension Of Draft

MAR 17 1949

Washington, March 17 (AP)—A hint that the Army may ask Congress to extend the draft law next year came today from Maj. Gen. John E. Dahlquist.

General Dahlquist, army personnel chief, told a House Armed Services subcommittee that when present new enlistements begin expiring in 1951 "we may again be up against a serious situation."

The draft, which has been suspended since January because the armed forces are up to budgetary strength, will expire in June, 1950. The services are below strength authorized by the draft law because of limits on their appropriations.

Testifies On Pay

The draft question came up as General Dahlquist testified on a bill to increase military pay generally.

Armed Services Chairman Vinson (D., Ga.) suggested that dropping enlistments for less than three years and paying a large re-enlistment bonus would make a draft unnecessary.

Vinson, a supporter of universal military training instead of the draft in peacetime, has announced his committee will investigate selective-service operations this spring to see how much it is costing this country to maintain the unused draft machinery.

HARBOR RADAR UNIT AUTHORIZED BY FCC

WASHINGTON, March 17—(AP) The Federal Communications Commission today authorized the city of Long Beach, Calif., to set up a radar station to control harbor traffic.

As a non-military operation, it will be the first of its kind. Its purpose is to expedite the movement of ships under fog or other bad weather conditions.

The plan calls for a shore-based radar station capable of observing ships in San Pedro bay and vicinity for a distance of 10 miles beyond the breakwater.

Port authorities will use it in connection with an FM radio telephone over which instructions as to ship movements may be transmited from shore to ships on the basis of information showing up on the radarscope.

The scope will also be used in directing pilot ships to incoming vessels and in guiding the ships to deired anchorage or docking areas within the harbor.

SENATE GROUP APPROVES RADAR SCREEN MEASURE

WASHINGTON, March 17 (AP)—A bill set up a radar screen to guard against surprise air attacks on the United States was approved today by the Senate armed services committee.

The house has already passed the measure but the senate has yet to act.

Total cost of the network is expected to be $161,000,000 but the bill provides for initial expenditures of only $85,500,000.

The committee aprroved the bill unanimously. Chairman Tydings (D-MD) said. Action on another house-passed measure authorizing construction of a 3,000-mile long range for testing guided missiles was deferred.

U-Boats Frightened Churchill

New York, March 17 (AP)—Winston Churchill writes in his war memoirs that "the only thing that ever really frightened me during the war was the U-boat peril."

The deadliness of the submarine attacks was revealed only by "the slow, cold drawing lines on charts, which showed potential strangulation," he says in the last installment of the second volume of his memoirs in Life magazine.

The wartime Prime Minister discloses how the menace of the U-boats monopolized the attention of his Government in the Winter of 1940-41, after the air battle of Britain had been won.

Around North Ireland

"The high and faithful spirit of the people counted for nought in this bleak domain," he says. "Either the food, supplies and arms from the New World and from the British Empire arrived across the oceans, or they failed."

Nazi submarines and planes based on France forced all British shipping to go around Northern Ireland and enter Britain through the ports on the Mersey and Clyde rivers, Churchill writes.

He tells of his mounting indignation that Ireland steadfastly refused to grant bases for English planes that might have helped protect this shipping but says "nothing but self-preservation" would have led him to order a military attack on the Emerald Island.

British Invincible

In concluding his volume, the war leader rates 1940 as a "tremendous year" which was the "most splendid, as it was the most deadly, year in our long English and British story."

He reviews other struggles of his land against the Spanish Armada, Napoleon and Germany in World War I, then declares:

"But nothing surpasses 1940. By the end of that year this small and ancient island, with its devoted commonwealth, dominations and attachments under every sky, had proved itself capable of bearing the whole impact and weight of world destiny.

"We had not flinched or wavered. We had not failed. The soul of the British people and race had proved invincible. The Citadel of the Commonwealth and Empire could not be stormed.

U.S. Drew Nearer

"Alone, but upborne by every generous heart-beat of mankind, we had defied the tyrant at the height of his triumph."

Britain had accomplished miracles in building up its armed strength and time once again had come over to its side, Churchill asserts, adding:

"And not only to our national side. The United States was arming fast and drawing ever nearer to the conflict.

"Soviet Russia, who with callous miscalculation had adjudged us worthless at the outbreak of the war, and had bought from Germany fleeting immunity and a share of the booty, had also become much stronger and had secured advanced positions for her own defense."

But, he writes, "I and my faithful colleagues who brooded with accurate information at the summit of the scene had no lack of cares.

Churchill Will Sail Today On U.S. Visit

London, March 17 (AP)—Winston Churchill will sail for the United States aboard the Queen Elizabeth tomorrow.

The wartime Prime Minister will address a meeting at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology March 31 on "The Twentieth Century, Its Promise and Realization."

He will be accompanied by his wife, his daughter Mary and his son-in-law, Capt. Christopher Soames. A spokesman said Mr. and Mrs. Churchill will drive from London to Southampton to board the ship.

"THERE ARE OTHERS WHO BELIEVE COMPLETELY, AND SO NAIVELY, THAT TECHNIQUES LIKE NATIONALIZATION OF AN INDUSTRY MEAN A LIFE OF EASE AND LUXURY FOR ALL ITS WORKERS ON THE PROFITS FORMERLY ENJOYED BY A HANDFUL OF TPRIVATE OWNERS. THEY EXPECT A POLITICAL VICTORY WILL WIN THEM THE KIND OF LAND FIT FOR HEROES TO LIVE IN."

DR.MCCALMAN SAID HE NOTED A DISPOSITION TO LET THE STATE DO EVERYTHING. LONDON - MENTAL HEALTH XXX PLAN.

"WE CAN DEAL TEMPORARILY AT LEAST WITH A PATIENT WHO THREATENS SELF DESTRUCTION BY FORCING HIM INTO A PLACE OF SAFETY, BUT THERE IS NO CORRESPONDING PLACE OF SAFETY FOR A SICK NATION OR A SELF-DESTRUCTIVE WORLD," HE SAID. "XXX I SUGGEST, THEREFORE, THAT WE SHOULD INVESTIGATE WITH ALL SPEED THE SICKNESS OF GROUPS."

DISCUSSIONS AMONG THE MENTAL HEALTH EXPERTS--1,000 FROM ALL PARTS OF THE UNITED KINGDOM--STRESSED A GROWING BELIEF THAT THEIR JOB IS TO DETECT AND CORRECT DISORDERS BEFORE IT BECOMES NECESSARY TO PUT THE SUFFERERS FROM MENTAL DISORDERS INTO INSTITUTIONS.

LONDON, MARCH 17-(AP)-BRITAIN REITERATED TODAY THAT SHE STILL WANTS TO DO BUSINESS WITH THE SOVIET SATELLITE STATES, REGARDLESS OF THEIR IDEOLOGIES.

BOARD OF TRADE PRESIDENT HAROLD WILSON TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS "WE DO NOT THINK OF A TRADE AGREEMENT AS A MEANS OF PENALIZING OTHER COUNTRIES FOR WHAT THEY MAY BE DOING IN OTHER DIRECTIONS."

WILSON HARRIS, AN INDEPENDENT MEMBER, HAD ASKED HIM WHETHER BRITISH-HUNGARIAN TRADE RELATIONS WOULD BE AFFECTED BY THE GOVERNMENT'S VIEW, STATED IN THE HOUSE YESTERDAY, THAT HUNGARY HAS VIOLATED ITS PEACE TREATY. THE GOVERNMENT ALSO ACCUSED ROMANIA AND BULGARIA OF TREATY VIOLATIONS.

"WE ARE VERY ANXIOUS TO DEVELOP TRADE WITH THIS COUNTRY," WILSON REPLIED. SOME TRADING IS UNDER WAY BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES AND EFFORTS HAVE BEEN MADE TO EXPAND IT. THE VIEW OF THE WESTERN POWERS HAS ALWAYS BEEN THAT SOME TRADE WITH THE EAST IS NECESSARY TO EUROPEAN RECOVERY.

LONDON, MARCH 17-(AP)-V.M.MOLOTOV, RECENTLY RELEASED AS SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER, LED THE LIST OF GUESTS AT A DINNER GIVEN IN THE KREMLIN TONIGHT BY PRIME MINISTER STALIN FOR A VISITING DELEGATION FROM THE NORTH KOREAN GOVERNMENT.

THIS WAS REPORTED BY THE SOVIET NEWS AGENCY TASS IN A BROADCAST DISPATCH FROM MOSCOW.

STALIN ENTERTAINED A DELEGATION FROM THE RUSSIAN-SPONSORED KOREAN PEOPLES' DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC WHICH IS VISITING IN MOSCOW. UNITED STATES FORCES STILL OCCUPY SOUTHERN KOREA, WHOSE APPLICATION FOR UNITED NATIONS' MEMBERSHIP WAS VETOED LAST YEAR BY RUSSIA.

A.I.MIKOYAN, RECENTLY REPLACED AS FOREIGN TRADE MINISTER ALSO APPEARED ON THE LIST OF GUESTS. BOTH MIKOYAN AND MOLOTOV ARE DEPUTY CHAIRMEN OF THE SOVIET COUNCIL OF MINISTERS (DEPUTY PRIME MINISTERS).

THE PRESENCE OF THE TWO MEN, HIGH ON THE LIST OF GUESTS AT THE STATE DINNER, SUPPORTED THE PREDICTION OF WESTERN DIPLOMATS IN MOSCOW THAT THE TWO HAD BEEN FREED FROM THEIR POSTS FOR MORE IMPORTANT DUTIES. THERE HAS BEEN SPECULATION THAT MOLOTOV IS BEING PREPARED TO SUCCEED STALIN.

ALSO ATTENDING THE DINNER WERE ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY, THE NEW FOREIGN MINISTER, AND HIS NEWLY APPOINTED FIRST DEPUTY, ANDREI A.GROMYKO.

TASS SAID THE DINNER WAS HELD "IN A CORDIAL, FRIENDLY ATMOSPHERE."

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, MARCH 17-(AP)-A MINOR PANIC GRIPPED BACKWARD RURAL AREAS OF WESTERN GERMANY TODAY OVER RUMORS OF THE "END OF THE WORLD."

THE RUMORS THAT TODAY IS THE LAST DAY FOR MANKIND HAVE BEEN GROWING THROUGHOUT GERMANY FOR SEVERAL WEEKS. THEY HAVE BEEN BASED UPON A PUBLICIZED PREDICTION OF AN ASTROLOGER WHOM NOBODY CAN IDENTIFY.

MOST CITY DWELLERS WENT GAILY ABOUT THEIR WORK BUT REPORTS FROM BAVARIA SAID SUPERSTITIOUS COUNTRY FOLK WERE FLOCKING TO CHURCHES AND MAKING THEIR WILLS.

IN THE BAYRISCHE WALD (BAVARIAN WOODLAND), A FURIOUS BLIZZARD LAST NIGHT CUT ELECTRIC POWER CABLES AND CAUSED CONSIDERABLE EXCITEMENT, REPORTS FROM PASSAU SAID.

THE REPORTS SAID ALTARS WERE PUT UP IN HOMES AND CHURCHES WERE JAMMED WITH PEOPLE WHO PRAYED FOR HOURS AND REFUSED TO BE CALMED BY PRIESTS.

THE OFFICIAL WEATHER STATION AT RIES NEAR PASSAU SAID IT HAD RECEIVED MANY CALLS FROM FRIGHTENED FOLK ASKING THE EXACT HOUR OF THE EXPECTED CATASTROPHE.

FRANKFURT WEATHER STATION SAID IT ALSO HAD RECEIVED DOZENS OF CALLS, MOSTLY FROM FARMERS.

THE GEOPHYSICAL INSTITUTE OF FRANKFURT UNIVERSITY SAID IT HAD BEEN CALLED BY PERSONS ASKING IF AN EARTHQUAKE WAS EXPECTED.

IN NUERNBERG A RUMOR CIRCULATED THAT TODAY WOULD BRING THE OUTBREAK OF A NEW WORLD WAR BUT NOT THE END OF THE WORLD.

CHURCH LEADERS AND SCIENTISTS LABELLED ALL THE EXCITEMENT AS "NONSENSE."

AND IN A FRANKFURT CAFE, A PORTLY GERMAN BARTENDER COMMENTED:

APPROVAL BY THE CHAMBER IS FOREGONE SINCE THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY OF PREMIER ALCIDE DE GASPERI HOLDS A MAJORITY OF 305 IN THE CHAMBER OF 570. AT A RECENT CAUCUS THE PARTY VOTED ALMOST UNANIMOUSLY FOR THE WESTERN DEFENSE AGREMENT. Rome - xxx TOMORROW

ONE OF THE MOST BITTER COMMUNIST CRITICISMS DURING THE FOUR-DAY DEBATE HAS BEEN THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAS NOT GIVEN ANY CLEAR INDICATION OF WHAT IS IN THE PACT.

AFTER CHAMBER ACTION THE MATTER GOES TO THE SENATE FOR DEBATE.

OUTSIDE MONTECITORIO PALACE, THE DEPUTIES BUILDING, STRONG FORCES OF POLICE WERE DEPLOYED. THEY RODE IN JEEPS AND WERE ARMED WITH TOMMY-GUNS. THIS WAS A PRECAUTION AGAINST ANY POSSIBLE COMMUNIST DEMONSTRATION.

THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED ROME CHAMBER OF LABOR ANNOUNCED, MEANWHILE, IT HAD CALLED A ONE HOUR STRIKE TODAY "AS THE FIRST PROTEST" AGAINST ITALY'S ADHERENCE TO THE NORTH ATLANTIC AGREEMENT. THE STRIKE IS TO START AN HOUR BEFORE REGULAR QUITTING TIME OF THE WORKERS TO GIVE UNION LEADERS A CHANCE TO EXPLAIN THE "DANGERS" OF THE ALLIANCE.

A TWO-HOUR DEMONSTRATION YESTERDAY AT LECCO, NEAR COMO IN NORTHERN ITALY, SAW SEVERAL HUNDRED WORKERS STONE POLICE, WHO FIRED MACHINE GUNS INTO THE AIR AND USED TEAR GAS.

ONE DEATH RESULTED AMONG DEMONSTRATORS AT TERNI, A STEEL CITY 70 MILES NORTHEAST OF ROME. POLICE OPENED UP WITH FIREARMS ON A CROWD PROTESTING THE ALLIANCE AND KILLED ALVINO TRASTULLI, 21, AND WOUNDED THREE OTHERS GRAVELY, THE NEWS AGENCY ASTRA SAID. TEN POLICE WERE HURT.

RED-EYED, SLEEPY DEPUTIES SLIPPED OUT OF THE CHAMBER TO GRAB A BITE FOR BREAKFAST. EVERY NOW AND THEN THERE WERE EXCHANGES OF ANGRY WORDS BETWEEN THE TWO FACTIONS.

DE GASPERI, SUBJECTED TO A STORM OF JEERS AND ABUSE WHEN HE MADE THE GOVERNMENT'S CONCLUDING SPEECH LAST NIGHT, STAYED AT HIS PLACE ON THE GOVERNMENT BENCH ALL NIGHT, LEAVING FOR ONLY A FEW MINUTES.

AT TIMES THERE WERE A SCANT 50 DEPUTIES IN THE CHAMBER. THEY NODDED, DOZED, JERKED AWAKE AND DOZED AGAIN AS THE COMMUNISTS DRONED THROUGH THEIR FUTILE ORATORY.

PALMIRO TOGLIATTI, COMMUNIST LEADER, LEFT THE CHAMBER FOR A SHORT NAP ON A COUCH NEARBY BUT SOON RETURNED.

Rome-TITO-xxRECAP.

THE COMINFORM RADIO CLAMORS FOR "DIRECT ACTION TO BRING DOWN THE REGIME OF MARSHAL TITO", THE REPORT SAID, AND THE PEOPLE OF YUGOSLAVIA BELIEVE IMPORTANT EVENTS ARE TAKING PLACE. THE COMINFORM IS THE COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL INFORMATION BUREAU.

TITO HAS BEEN IN HOT WATER WITH THE SOVIET UNION AND ITS COMINFORM SATELLITES WHO ACCUSE HIM OF LEADING YUGOSLAVIA'S COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT AWAY FROM MARXIST TEACHINGS. TITO HAS CONTENDED HIS TROUBLE STEMS FROM HIS REFUSAL TO GIVE BLIND OBEDIENCE TO THE KREMLIN.

ASTRA'S DISPATCH, SENT FROM TRIESTE, DID NOT DISCLOSE THE SOURCE OF ITS INFORMATION.

IT ADDED THAT SAILORS REACHING TRIESTE FROM ISTRIA REPORTED TITO HAS MET WITH "WESTERN REPRESENTATIVES" THIS MONTH ON THE ISLAND OF BRIONI NEAR POLA. TRIESTE NEWSPAPERS YESTERDAY HAD SAID TITO IS ON THE ISLAND AND WOULD MEET SOON WITH "WESTERN WORLD PERSONALITIES IN VIEW OF THE INTERNAL SITUATION OF YUGOSLAVIA."

THE INDEPENDENT GIORNALE DI TRIESTE AT TRIESTE REPORTED TODAY THAT TITO MET WITH WESTERN POWER REPRESENTATIVES SATURDAY FOR THE THIRD TIME SINCE SEPTEMBER. THE GIORNALE SAID ITS INFORMATION CAME FROM EYE WITNESSES.

THE MEETING SATURDAY WAS HELD ON THE BRIONI, JUST OFF THE TIP OF THE ISTRIAN PENINSULA, FOLLOWING SIMILAR CONFERENCES IN SEPTEMBER AND ON JAN. 25, THE PAPER REPORTED. IT GAVE A DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF TITO'S MOVEMENTS IN THE AREA.

ANTI-TITO FORCES, THE ASTRA DISPATCH SAID, HAVE VIRTUALLY HEMMED IN YUGOSLAVIA BY GROUPING ALONG HER ALBANIAN, GREEK, BULGARIAN AND HUNGARIAN FRONTIERS. SOVIET TROOP FORMATIONS HAVE TAKEN POSITIONS ALONG THE ROMANIAN AND HUNGARIAN BORDERS, AND "NUMEROUS RUSSIAN TECHNICIANS" HAVE BEEN FLOWN INTO ALBANIA IN THE PAST FIVE MONTHS, IT SAID. THE RUSSIANS 10 DAYS AGO STARTED AN AIRLIFT INTO ALBANIA AFTE THE YUGOSLAV-ALBANIAN BORDER WAS CLOSED.

"REPORTS FILTERING ACROSS THE BORDERS OF YUGOSLAVIA AND TRIESTE FREE TERRITORY SAY THE YUGOSLAV POPULATION IS CONVINCED THAT IMPORTANT EVENTS ARE TAKING PLACE," THE ARTICLE CONTINUED.

"LIMITATIONS ON TRAFFIC, INTENSIFICATION OF ARMED VIGILANCE OVER COASTS AND FRONTIERS, AND MOVEMENTS OF MILITARY UNITS, WHILE THEY IMPEDE THE FLOW OF NEWS HAVE STRENGTHENED THE OPINION THAT SOMETHING DECISIVE IS MATURING."

THE YUGOSLAV ANTI-TITO FORCES WERE DESCRIBED AS REFUGEES WHO HAD FLED THE COUNTRY, AND WHO NOW ARE LED BY A FORMER YUGOSLAV AMBASSADOR TO ROMANIA WHO WAS NOT IDENTIFIED IN THE DISPATCH.

ALES BEBLER, YUGOSLAV DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER, PREDICTED IN LONDON YESTERDAY THE COMINFORM WOULD INCREASE THE HEAT ON TITO'S REGIME. HE IMPLIED HE EXPECTED SOMETHING MORE THAN AN ECONOMIC SQUEEZE.

SPEAKING IN AN INTERVIEW, BEBLER PREDICTED, HOWEVER, YUGOSLAVIA WILL GET BACK INTO THE COMINFORM ONCE THE OTHER SLAVIC NATIONS UNDERSTAND THEY CANNOT UNSEAT TITO.

HE SAID DESPITE THE COMINFORM'S ECONOMIC SQUEEZE, YUGOSLAVIA HAS MORE THAN MET THE TARGETS OF HER FIVE YEAR PLAN. HIS COUNTRY HAS TURNED TO THE WEST IN ITS FOREIGN TRADE AS A RESULT OF THE SQUEEZE.

NIGHT LEAD TITO (350)

BY FRANK O'BRIEN

ROME, MARCH 17-(AP)-FRESH RUMORS DEVELOPED TODAY OF INTERNATIONAL TROUBLE FOR PREMIER MARSHAL TITO OF YUGOSLAVIA. OFFICIAL CONFIRMATION WAS LACKING.

THE ITALIAN NEWS AGENCY ASTRA QUOTED A MOSCOW BROADCASTER AS SAYING: "THE WAR AGAINST TITO'S CLIQUE HAS BEGUN IN THE VILLAGES AND CITIES AND WILL NOT END UNTIL COMPLETE ELIMINATION OF THE TRAITORS."

ASTRA SAID THE BROADCASTER SPOKE ON A SERB-CROATIAN TRANSMISSION. IT QUOTED HIM AS SAYING:

"WE ARE NOT FIGHTING AGAINST THE YUGOSLAV PEOPLE. WE WISH, IN FACT, TO HELP THEM LIBERATE THEMSELVES FROM A TYRANNY THAT IS BRINGING THEIR COUNTRY TO RUIN."

TITO HAS BEEN BRANDED AS A COMMUNIST HERETIC BY THE MOSCOW-LED COMINFORM--THE COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL INFORMATION BUREAU.

COMINFORM NATIONS HAVEIMPOSED AN ECONOMIC SQUEEZE ON YUGOSLAVIA. SOVIET-YUGOSLAV TRADE HAS BEEN DECREASED BY ALMOST 90 PER CENT. PROPAGANDA ATTACKS AGAINST TITO HAVE BEEN IN PROGRESS SINCE HIS FALLING OUT WITH THE OTHER NATIONS IN THE SOVIET SPHERE FIRST WAS REVEALED LAST JUNE 28.

AS YET THESE MOVES DO NOT APPEAR TO HAVE DAMAGED TITO'S POSITION.

ALES BEBLER, YUGOSLAV DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER, SAID IN LONDON YESTERDAY HE BELIEVED THE COMINFORM WOULD INCREASE THE HEAT. THE IMPLICATION WAS THAT THE NEW MOVE WOULD BE SOMETHING MORE THAN ECONOMIC PRESSURE. BEBLER PREDICTED, HOWEVER, THAT YUGOSLAVIA WOULD GET BACK INTO THE COMINFORM, ONCE THE OTHER SLAVIC NATIONS UNDERSTAND THEY CANNOT UNSEAT TITO.

COUPLED WITH REPORTS OF ACTIVITIES ALONG YUGOSLAVIA'S BORDER WERE UNCONFIRMED ACCOUNTS OF A RECENT MEETING BETWEEN TITO AND WESTERN POWER REPRESENTATIVES. A BELGRADE DISPATCH LAST MONTH SAID AMERICAN POLICY MAKERS WERE STUDYING THE QUESTION OF WHETHER THE UNITED STATES SHOULD STRENGTHEN TITO WITH DIRECT ECONOMIC AID OR ALLOW YUGOSLAVIA TO GO HER WAY ALONE.

THE GIORNALE, AN INDEPENDENT TRIESTE NEWSPAPER, SAID TITO AND WESTERN REPRESENTATIVES HAVE MET THREE TIMES SINCE SEPTEMBER, WITH THE LAST MEETING TAKING PLACE SATURDAY ON THE ISLAND OF BRIONI, NEAR POLA.

ASTRA SAID IT WAS NOT TITO BUT THE YUGOSLAV VICE PREMIER AND INTERIOR MINISTER, ALEXANDER RANKOVIC, WHO CONFERRED WITH WESTERN REPRESENTATIVES AT BRIONI. THIS MEETING, THE ITALIAN NEWS AGENCY ADDED, SERVED MERELY AS A COVER FOR A CONFERENCE TITO HAD WITH AMERICAN AND BRITISH REPRESENTATIVES ON AN ISLAND OFF SPLIT.

THE YUGOSLAV RADIO BROADCAST A RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY RAILROAD UNIONS AT THEIR RECENT CONGRESS IN ZAGREB IN WHICH THE RAILWAY WORKERS ACCUSED RUSSIA OF "RECRUITING ARMED BANDS AGAINST YUGOSLAVIA," ASTRA REPORTED. THE RESOLUTION REAFFIRMED THE SOLIDARITY OF THE YUGOSLAV PEOPLE WITH TITO.

ACCORDING TO THE ITALIAN NEWS AGENCY, THE COMINFORM RADIO CLAMORS FOR "DIRECT ACTION TO BRING DOWN THE REGIME OF MARSHAL TITO" AND THE PEOPLE OF YUGOSLAVIA BELIEVE IMPORTANT EVENTS ARE TAKING PLACE.

YUGOSLAVIA IS VIRTUALLY HEMMED IN BY ANTI-TITO FORCES GROUPING ALONG HER ALBANIAN, GREEK, BULGARIAN AND HUNGARIAN FRONTIERS, ASTRA SAID. SOVIET TROOP FORMATIONS HAVE TAKEN POSITIONS ALONG THE ROMANIAN AND HUNGARIAN BORDERS AND "NUMEROUS RUSSIAN TECHNICIANS" HAVE BEEN FLOWN INTO ALBANIA IN THE PAST FIVE MONTHS, THE AGENCY DECLARED.

THE GENERAL'S STATEMENT WAS LOOKED ON HERE AS ANOTHER INDICATION OF DISAGREEMENT BETWEEN TOP MILITARY LEADERS AND THE GOVERNMENT ON SWEDEN'S OFFICIAL POSITION OF NEUTRALITY.

NORWAY HAS ALIGNED HERSELF WITH THE NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE ALLIANCE AND DENMARK IS EXPECTED TO DO SO SOON. SWEDEN HAS STEERED CLEAR OF ANY MILITARY AGREEMENT WITH THE WESTERN DEMOCRACIES, ALTHOUGH SOME HIGH SOURCES HAVE PREDICTED SHE, TOO, WILL JOIN WITHIN SIX MONTHS.

AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, MARCH 17-(AP)-TRANS-JORDAN HAS ASSUMED CIVIL ADMINISTRATION OVER ALL TERRITORIES IN PALESTINE UNDER CONTROL EITHER OF HER ARAB LEGION OR FORCES OF IRAQ, IT WAS ANNOUNCED TODAY.

THE MILITARY GOVERNORS OF JERUSALEM, HEBRON, RAMALLA AND THE AREA FORMED BY THE CENTRAL PALESTINE NABLUS-JENIN-TULKARM TRIANGLE HAVE BEEN REPLACED BY CIVIL ADMINISTRATORS UNDER THE TRANS-JORDANIAN MINISTRY OF INTERIOR, THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID.

(KING ABDULLAH OF TRANS-JORDAN HAS BEEN URGED BY GROUPS OF PALESTINE ARABS TO EXTEND HIS KINGDOM TO TAKE IN AREAS OF PALESTINE OUTSIDE THE BOUNDARIES OF ISRAEL. PREMIER TAWFIK PASHA ABD EL-HUDA SAID TUESDAY TRANS-JORDAN WOULD WELCOME A PLEBISCITE TO DETERMINE THE FUTURE OF ARAB PALESTINE AND THAT UNIFICATION OF THE AREA WITH TRANS-JORDAN WAS VITAL.

(THE ORIGINAL UNITED NATIONS PARTITION PLAN OF PARTITION FOR PALESTINE CALLED FOR SEPARATE AND INDEPENDENT JEWISH AND ARAB STATES.)

JJ1220PES

ISRAELI SOURCES IN LONDON DENOUNCED THE ACTION AS "VIRTUAL ANNEXATION OF ARAB PALESTINE BY TRANS-JORDAN. KING ABDULLAH OF TRANS-JORDAN HAS BEEN URGED BY GROUPS OF PALESTINE ARABS TO EXTEND HIS KINGDOM TO TAKE IN THOSE HOLY LAND AREAS OUTSIDE THE BOUNDARIES OF ISRAEL. AMMAN, TRANS JORDAN XXX INTERIOR.

THE ORIGINAL UNITED NATIONS PALESTINE PARTITION PLAN CALLED FOR SEPARATE AND INDEPENDENT ARAB AND JEWISH STATES.

A BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID BRITAIN--WHICH HAS A MUTUAL AID PACT WITH TRANS-JORDAN--WAS NOT INFORMED IN ADVANCE OF THE MOVE.

"WHY SHOULD WE BE?" HE ASKED.

HOWEVER, RESPONSIBLE DIPLOMATIC INFORMANTS RECALLED THAT BRITAIN HAS MAINTAINED IN THE PAST THAT INCORPORATION OF ARAB PALESTINE IN TRANS-JORDAN WOULD BE DESIRABLE.

AN ISRAELI INFORMANT SAID THE TRANS-JORDAN ACTION WOULD EXTEND THAT KINGDOM'S CIVIL ADMINISTRATION OVER AREAS NOT COVERED BY THE ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS NOW UNDER WAY AT RHODES.

THIS, HE SAID, MIGHT MAKE KING ABDULLAH FEEL FREE TO INVOKE HIS TREATY WITH BRITAIN IF CLASHES TAKE PLACE IN THESE AREAS. BRITAIN IS PLEDGED TO ASSIST TRANS-JORDAN IF HER TERRITORY IS VIOLATED.

AT RHODES, U.N.MEDIATOR RALPH J.BUNCHE SAID ISRAEL AND TRANS-JORDAN HAVE AGREED IN PRINCIPLE TO REDUCE THEIR FORCES TO EQUAL STRENGTH IN THREE MILITARY ZONES, THE NORTHERN FRONT, JERUSALEM AND THE EASTERN NEGEV.

AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT FROM DAMASCUS SAID SYRIA HAS AGREED TO OPEN ARMISTICE TALKS WITH ISRAEL.

BUNCHE SAID HE WAS SENDING BRIG.GEN.WILLIAM E.RILEY, AMERICAN WHO HEADS THE STAFF OF U.N.OBSERVERS, TO AQABA TO MAKE A FINAL REPORT ON EVENTS THERE. TRANS-JORDAN HAS PROTESTED THE MOVEMENT OF ISRAELI TROOPS INTO THE SOUTHERN NEGEV NEAR THAT STRATEGIC, BRITISH-GARRISONED RED SEA PORT.

PLANS WENT AHEAD FOR THE MEETING AT BEIRUT, LEBANON, MARCH 21, OF THE ARAB LEAGUE STATES AND THE U.N.PALESTINE CONCILIATION COMMISSION. THE PLIGHT OF THE ESTIMATED 800,000 ARAB REFUGEES FROM ISRAEL WILL BE THE MAIN TOPIC OF DISCUSSION.

THE ARAB LEAGUE COUNCIL, MEETING AT CAIRO, CALLED ON MEMBER STATES TO DEMAND THE RETURN OF THE REFUGEES TO ISRAEL AND COMPENSATION FOR THEIR PROPERTY LOSSES.

THE LEAGUE CONSISTS OF EGYPT, SAUDI ARABIA, IRAQ, YEMEN, TRANS-JORDAN, SYRIA AND LEBANON.

RQ450PES

RHODES - XXX c1147.

THE AGREEMENT, BASED ON THEIR NOV.30 TRUCE LINES, COVERS THE ENTIRE JERUSALEM SECTOR. IT ESTABLISHES AN ARMISTICE LINE THAT STARTS AT A POINT NEAR THE VILLAGE OF AL WALAJA SOUTHWEST OF JERUSALEM, CUTS THROUGH THE HOLY CITY AND SWINGS BACK TO THE WEST, COMPLETING A SEMI-CIRCLE, AN ISRAELI SPOKESMAN SAID.

DISCUSSION OF THE REDUCTION AND WITHDRAWAL OF FORCES IN THE ENTIRE COMBAT ZONE IS SCHEDULED FOR TODAY.

MEANWHILE DR. RALPH J. BUNCHE, UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR, ANNOUNCED THAT U.N. OBSERVERS HAVE FOUND NO BASIS FOR TRANS-JORDAN COMPLAINTS THAT ISRAELI AND ARAB FORCES CLASHED RECENTLY IN THE AQABA AREA.

HE SAID IT HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED THAT ISRAELI TROOPS MOVED SOUTH TO THE GULF OF AQABA, OCCUPYING THE HAMLET OF UMM RESH RESH ON THE ISRAELI SIDE OF THE TRANS-JORDAN BORDER, BUT THAT THE MOVE WAS ACCOMPLISHED WITHOUT A FIGHT. HE ADDED THAT THE OCCUPYING FORCE NUMBERED 200 ISRAELIS, NOT 3,000, AS HAD BEEN REPORTED.

BUNCHE SAID THE U.N. OBSERVER STAFF FOUND NO TRANS-JORDAN UNITS WEST OF THEIR COUNTRY'S FRONTIER. NEITHER, HE SAID, WAS THERE CONFIRMATION OF COMPLAINTS THAT A SMALL JEWISH FORCE CROSSED INTO EGYPT ON THE WAY TO UMM RESH RESH, BUT THE REPORT IS BEING CHECKED FURTHER.

ISRAELI AND TRANS-JORDAN EMISSARIES ARE SCHEDULED TO MAKE IMMEDIATE FLYING TRIPS TO CONSULT THEIR HOME GOVERNMENTS CONCERNING A LONG LIST OF DIFFERENCES WHICH STILL CONFRONT THE ARMISTICE NEGOTIATORS HERE.

ALTHOUGH AGREEMENT ON THE JERUSALEM SECTOR LINES MARKS DEFINITE PROGRESS, THE ROAD TO PEACE IN THE HOLY LAND STILL IS STREWN WITH MANY OBSTACLES.

REPORTS FROM TEL AVIV SAID ISRAEL IS ANGLING TO TAKE OVER THE WESTERN EDGE OF THE ARAB-HELD JENIN-TULKAREM-NABLUS TRIANGLE IN NORTH-CENTRAL PALESTINE. THIS SECTION WAS AWARDED TO THE ARABS BY THE UNITED NATIONS PALESTINE PARTITION PLAN.

MARCH 17 1949

ISRAEL CONSIDERS IT IS AN UNWORKABLE ARRANGEMENT BECAUSE IT CUTS THE MAIN ROAD FROM THE MIDDLE OF PALESTINE TO AFOULJA, IN THE HEART OF THE ESDRAELON VALLEY, AND VIRTUALLY CUTS THE STATE IN TWO.

BOTH TRANS-JORDAN AND IRAQI TROOPS OCCUPY THE TRIANGLE, THE IRAQIS GARRISONING THE WESTERN EDGE FROM TULKAREM TO JENIN. ARMISTICE AGREEMENT BETWEEN TRANS-JORDAN AND ISRAEL, AND BETWEEN SYRIA AND ISRAEL, WOULD LEAVE THE IRAQIS STRANDED IN THAT AREA, THEIR LINES OF SUPPLY AND WITHDRAWAL CUT OFF.

THE ISRAELIS ALREADY HAVE STARTED PRELIMINARY MOVES, APPARENTLY INTENDED TO PREVENT A RESHUFFLE OF ARAB POSITIONS IN THE TRIANGLE WHICH THEY CONTEND WOULD VIOLATE THE EXISTING TRUCE AGREEMENT.

THEY HAVE ASKED BUNCHE TO SEND OBSERVERS TO MAKE SURE THAT THAT POSITIONS OF THE ARAB FORCES ARE NOT CHANGED IN VIOLATION OF TRUCE OR CEASE-FIRE ORDERS. IT HAS NOT BEEN EXPLAINED HOW ARAB MOVES BEHIND THEIR OWN LINES WOULD DIFFER FROM THE ISRAELIS' RECENT MOVES IN THE NEGEV, WHICH THEY CONTENDED THEY HAD A RIGHT TO MAKE BEHIND THEIR LINES.

THIS IS JUST ONE OF THE MANY TOUGH PROBLEMS WHICH ENTER DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY INTO THE ARMISTICE TALKS HERE.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 17-(AP)-DR.RALPH J.BUNCHE, ACTING UNITED NATIONS MEDITOR, WAS REPORTED TODAY TO HAVE TOLD BRITAIN THAT ISRAELI AND BRITISH TROOP MOVEMENTS AROUND AQABA DISREGARDED THE U.N. TRUCE IN THE MIDDLE EAST.

AN INFORMED SOURCE SAID BUNCHE MADE HIS COMMENT TO THE BRITISH IN REPLY TO A BRITISH NOTE ASKING WHETHER ISRAEL VIOLATED THE TRUCE BY MOVING TROOPS DOWN TOWARD AQABA, TRANS-JORDAN'S PORT ON THE RED SEA.

THIS SOURCE SAID BUNCHE REPLIED THAT BRITAIN'S ACTION IN REINFORCING THE AQABA GARRISON WAS JUST AS MUCH A BREAK IN THE TRUCE AS THE ISRAELI TROOPS MOVEMENT.

U.N. OFFICIALS INDICATED THEY CONSIDERED THE MATTER CLOSED WITH BUNCHE'S REPLY TO THE BRITISH.

NEW YORK, MARCH 18-(AP)-AN AGING JEWISH REFUGEE COUPLE RESUMED A WEARY 15,000-MILE JOURNEY TODAY, THEIR FLEETING VISION OF A YOUNG LOVE TUCKED FOREVER IN A CORNER OF THEIR HEARTS.

THEY WERE JEAN METHNER, 56, AND HIS WIFE, MARTHA, 54, WHO CRAMMED A GREAT DEAL OF SIMPLE JOY INTO A FEW HOURS ON ELLIS ISLAND.

THEIR SON, HARRY, 26, WAS MARRIED ON ELLIS ISLAND THURSDAY AS HIS PARENTS LOOKED ON. THEY HAD NOT SEEN THE BOY IN NEARLY TWO YEARS. THEY HARDLY HAD EXPECTED TO BE WITH HIM ON HIS WEDDING DAY.

THE METHNERS AND THEIR SONS, HARRY AND LOTHAR, FLED GERMANY IN 1939 AND WENT TO SHANGHAI. IN JULY, 1947, HARRY CAME TO THE UNITED STATES AND APPLIED FOR HIS FIRST CITIZENSHIP PAPERS. HIS PARENTS AND BROTHER STAYED BEHIND.

NINE MONTHS AGO, HARRY MET AND FELL IN LOVE WITH RUTH HEUMANN, 24, A JEWISH GIRL WHO ALSO FLED GERMANY NINE YEARS AGO. THEY DECIDED TO MARRY NEXT APRIL 3.

BUT A FEW WEEKS AGO, HARRY GOT A LETTER FROM HIS PARENTS. THEY AND HIS BROTHER WERE GOING TO ISRAEL. THEY WOULD HAVE A BRIEF STOPOVER ON ELLIS ISLAND. THEY WOULD LIKE TO SEE THEIR ELDEST SON, PERHAPS FOR THE LAST TIME.

HARRY MADE UP HIS MIND HE WANTED HIS FAMILY WITH HIM ON HIS WEDDING DAY. THE UNITED SERVICE FOR NEW AMERICANS, AFTER A SERIES OF HEART-BREAKING DELAYS, FINALLY PERSUADED IMMIGRATION AUTHORITIES TO PERMIT THE WEDDING, ONE OF THE FEW EVER PERFORMED ON ELLIS ISLAND.

RABBI JOSEPH KAMINETZKY PERFORMED THE CEREMONY AS MR. AND MRS. METHNER LOOKED ON, THEIR EYES SHINING THROUGH A MIST OF TEARS.

TEN DP'S, STILL IN THEIR RUMPLED AND TRAVEL-STAINED CLOTHES, TOOK PART IN THE RITUAL REQUIRED BY JEWISH MARRIAGE LAWS.

TODAY HARRY AND HIS BRIDE WENT BACK TO ROCHESTER, N.Y., WHERE THEY LIVE. HIS MOTHER, FATHER AND BROTHER BOARDED THE UNITED STATES ARMY TRANSPORT GENERAL BALLOU TO CONTINUE THE LONG TRIP TO THEIR NEW HOMELAND.

MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA, FRIDAY, MARCH 18-(AP)-THE HIGH COURT OF AUSTRALIA DECIDED TODAY MRS. ANNIE O'KEEFE, AN INDONESIAN, AND HER EIGHT CHILDREN CANNOT BE DEPORTED FROM AUSTRALIA.

MRS. O'KEEFE, WIDOW OF AN AMBONESE WAR HERO, IS MARRIED TO AN AUSTRALIAN, JOHN W. O'KEEFE. SHE AND THE CHILDREN ARE CLASSIFIED AS ASIATICS WHO NORMALLY ARE EXCLUDED FROM AUSTRALIA.

SHE ASKED THE COURT TO PREVENT IMMIGRATION MINISTER ARTHUR A.CALWELL FROM CARRYING OUT HIS ORDER FOR HER DEPORTATION. THEY WERE ALLOWED TO ENTER THE COUNTRY TEMPORARILY IN 1942 AS WAR REFUGEES.

THE COURT OF SIX JUDGES RULED BY A 4-2 MAJORITY THAT MRS. O'KEEFE AND HER CHILDREN CANNOT BE DEPORTED AND ORDERED THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO PAY THE COSTS OF THE CASE.

OBSERVERS SAID THE COURT'S DECISION COULD NOT BE INTERPRETED AS A SERIOUS BREACH IN AUSTRALIA'S SO-CALLED WHITE AUSTRALIA LAWS. THE COURT RULED ON SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES IN THE O'KEEFE CASE--THAT SHE CAME TO AUSTRALIA AS A WAR REFUGEE AND IS NOW MARRIED TO AN AUSTRALIAN. IT RULED SHE NEVER BECAME A MIGRANT AND THEREFORE DID NOT COME UNDER THE IMMIGRATION ACT.

O'KEEFE SAID THE LAW MADE HIM "AN OUTCAST IN MY OWN LAND". HE DECLARED HE WOULD LEAVE AUSTRALIA WITH HIS WIFE AND STEPCHILDREN IF THEY WERE DEPORTED.

MEXICO CITY, MARCH 17-(AP)-THE MEXICAN SECRET POLICE DISCLOSED TODAY THE RECOVERY OF A SMALL CYLINDER OF URANIUM WHICH THEY SAID MUST HAVE BEEN STOLEN FROM A U.S. ATOMIC LABORATORY.

BUT THE POLICE SAID THE FULL STORY WAS A SECRET OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

THE POLICE SAID THE CYLINDER WAS FOUND ON A MEXICAN LAST NOVEMBER. ANOTHER MEXICAN WITH HIM WAS LISTED AS HAVING DIED FROM "URANIUM RAYS."

POLICE QUOTED MANUEL SANDOVAL VALLARTA, HEAD OF MEXICO'S ATOMIC COMMITTEE, AS SAYING THE CYLINDER CONTAINED PURE URANIUM 235--THE MATERIAL USED TO MAKE THE ATOM BOMB--AND WAS OBTAINABLE ONLY IN THE UNITED STATES. SANDOVAL VALLARTA, A FORMER MEMBER OF THE U.N. ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, IS NOW IN THE UNITED STATES.

IF SANDOVAL VALLARTA'S DESCRIPTION IS CORRECT AND THE THEFT OF PURE URANIUM 235 CONFIRMED, IT WOULD SEEM TO BE EVIDENCE OF A SERIOUS ATOMIC LEAK, AN EXPERT SAID. THE PURE URANIUM 235 IS NOT PERMITTED TO GET INTO ANY HANDS EXCEPT AMERICAN BOMB MAKERS AND A VERY FEW MEN WHO STUDY ATOMIC POWER.

IN WASHINGTON THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION SAID "NO SOURCE MATERIAL" ESSENTIAL TO THE PRODUCTION OF ATOMIC ENERGY SUBSTANCES HAS BEEN REPORTED MISSING BY ANY OF ITS INSTALLATIONS OR CONTRACTORS.

SOURCE MATERIAL IS DEFINED BY THE COMMISSION AS "URANIUM, THORIUM OR ANY OTHER MATERIAL WHICH IS DETERMINED BY THE COMMISSION WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE PRESIDENT TO BE PECULIARLY ESSENTIAL TO THE PRODUCTION OF FISSIONABLE MATERIAL."

"FISSIONABLE MATERIAL" IS DEFINED AS "PLUTONIUM, URANIUM ENRICHED IN URANIUM 235, AND URANIUM 233, OR ANY OTHER MATERIAL WHICH THE AEC DETERMINES TO BE CAPABLE OF RELEASING SUBSTANTIAL QUANTITIES OF ENERGY THROUGH NUCLEAR CHAIN REACTION X X X"

FBI AGENTS ATTACHED TO THE U.S. EMBASSY WERE SAID TO BE INVESTIGATING THE CASE IN MEXICO, BUT THEY WOULD GIVE OUT NO INFORMATION. THEY SAID ANY ANNOUNCEMENT WOULD HAVE TO COME FROM HEADQUARTERS IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

THE FBI AGENTS HERE WERE REPORTED TO HAVE GOTTEN ONTO THE CASE WHEN THEY WERE INFORMED THAT THE MEXICAN WAS TRYING TO PEDDLE THE URANIUM.

MEXICAN AGENTS MAINTAINED SECRECY IN ORDER TO GIVE THE U.S. AGENTS TIME TO TRACE THE URANIUM AND DETERMINE HOW IT WAS TAKEN FROM SOME CLOSELY-GUARDED U.S. LABORATORY. MEXICO'S PART IN THE DETECTIVE WORK ENDED LONG AGO.

THERE IS ANOTHER REPORT CURRENT HERE THAT A GROUP OF OTHER PERSONS OFFERED TO SELL LARGE QUANTITIES OF URANIUM. THIS REPORT, WHICH IS NOT FIRMLY ESTABLISHED, SAID THE GROUP NEVER SHOWED ANY URANIUM TO PROSPECTIVE CUSTOMERS. AT LEAST SOME OF THE "CUSTOMERS" WERE POLICE WHO PRETENDED TO BE IN THE MARKET BUT DEMANDED TO SEE THE GOODS.

-DASH-

SHOULD THE CYLINDER RECOVERED IN MEXICO BE A PIECE OF SMALL NATURAL URANIUM IT WOULD BE WORTHLESS FOR ANY PURPOSE, EITHER POWER OR BOMBS. NATURAL URANIUM IS A MIXTURE OF THE EXPLOSIVE URANIUM 235 AND THE NON-EXPLOSIVE TYPE.

EVEN IF ALL THE EXPLOSIVE 235 WERE EXTRACTED FROM A SMALL PIECE IT COULD NOT BE CAUSED TO EXPLODE OR MAKE ANY POWER.

A PIECE OF NATURAL URANIUM LARGE ENOUGH SO THAT THE 235 EXTRACTED FROM IT WOULD MAKE AN ATOMIC BOMB WOULD HAVE TO WEIGH MORE THAN 500 POUNDS. HOW MUCH MORE IS A SECRET, BUT IT IS PROBABLY FAR MORE THAN 500 POUNDS.

EVEN SO, THERE IS THE MATTER OF EXTRACTING THE 235 CONTENTS. THIS IS ENTIRELY A NEW PROCESS. IN THE UNITED STATES EXTRACTION REQUIRES THE BIGGEST BUILDING IN THE WORLD AT OAK RIDGE, TENN. THIS BUILDING DOESN'T PRODUCE MORE THAN SOME OUNCES OF 235 A DAY.

BUT IF THE STOLEN CYLINDER CONTAINED PURE URANIUM 235 THAT WOULD BE A MATTER OF EXTREME CONCERN. ONLY THE MEN HIGH UP IN THE ATOMIC PICTURE IN THE U.S. GET THEIR HANDS ON THE STUFF.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 17-(AP)-THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION SAID TODAY "NO SOURCE MATERIAL" ESSENTIAL TO THE PRODUCTION OF ATOMIC-ENERGY SUBSTANCES "HAS BEEN REPORTED MISSING" BY ANY OF ITS INSTALLATIONS OR CONTRACTORS.

THE AEC MADE THE COMMENT IN RELATION TO A REPORT FROM MEXICO CITY THAT A SUPPOSED THEFT OF REFINED URANIUM FROM A U.S. ATOMIC LABORATORY IS BEING INVESTIGATED BY MEXICAN SECRET POLICE.

BUT THE COMMISSION HAD "NO COMMENT" ON THE QUESTION WHETHER SOME URANIUM HAD BEEN FOUND IN THE HANDS OF A MEXICAN.

AN AEC SPOKESMAN SAID THE COMMISSION WAS AWARE OF "THE PRESS ACCOUNT", AND THAT FROM THE DESCRIPTION OF THE MATERIAL GIVEN IN THE ACCOUNT "IT APPEARS THAT THE MATERIAL IS A 'SOURCE MATERIAL' RATHER THAN A 'FISSIONABLE' MATERIAL."

THE COMMISSION DEFINED A "SOURCE" MATERIAL AS "URANIUM, THORIUM OR ANY OTHER MATERIAL WHICH IS DETERMINED BY THE COMMISSION WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE PRESIDENT TO BE PECULIARLY ESSENTIAL TO THE PRODUCTION OF FISSIONABLE MATERIAL."

IT DEFINES A "FISSIONABLE" MATERIAL AS "PLUTONIUM, URANIUM ENRICHED IN URANIUM-235, AND URANIUM-233, OR ANY OTHER MATERIAL WHICH THE AEC DETERMINES TO BE CAPABLE OF RELEASING SUBSTANTIAL QUANTITIES OF ENERGY THROUGH NUCLEAR CHAIN REACTION XXX."

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 17-(AP)-UNITED NATIONS LEADERS WROTE OFF AS A FAILURE TODAY THEIR EFFORTS TO SETTLE THE BERLIN CURRENCY DISPUTE.

THE SIX SO-CALLED "NEUTRAL" NATIONS ON THE SECURITY COUNCIL SAID IN A REPORT LAST NIGHT THAT THEY COULD SEE NO PURPOSE IN FURTHER ATTEMPTS NOW TO WORK OUT A CURRENCY SETTLEMENT.

THE COUNCIL PRESIDENT FOR THIS MONTH, ALBERTO INOCENTE ALVAREZ OF CUBA, AGREED AND SUGGESTED THE "NEUTRAL" COMMITTEE OF EXPERTS MIGHT AS WELL DISBAND. NO ONE HAS OBJECTED.

THE UNITED STATES SAID IN A STATEMENT THE COMMITTEE'S EFFORTS WERE "WELL INTENTIONED" BUT INDICATED A BELIEF THAT THE NEUTRALS HAD BEEN BEATEN IN ADVANCE BY TRYING TO "SOLVE ON A TECHNICAL BASIS A PROBLEM WHICH BY SOVIET ACTION HAD BEEN RAISED TO A MAJOR POLITICAL ISSUE."

THIS WAS A REFERENCE TO THE BERLIN BLOCKADE AND TO THE SEPARATE MUNICIPAL ADMINISTRATION WHICH THE RUSSIANS SET UP IN BERLIN LAST DECEMBER, SPLITTING THE CITY BETWEEN EAST AND WEST.

THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE ALL MADE SEPARATE BUT SIMILAR STATEMENTS BLAMING RUSSIA FOR THE FAILUREOF THE CURRENCY NEGOTIATIONS. THE NEUTRALS ORIGINALLY HAD HOPED THAT A SETTLEMENT OF THE CURRENCY QUESTION MIGHT LEAD TO A GENERAL SOLUTION OF THE BERLIN DISPUTE.

THE UNITED STATES SAID THE WESTERN POWERS "ARE STILL PREPARED TO CONSIDER ANY EQUITABLE SOLUTION WHICH WILL ADEQUATELY SAFEGUARD THE LEGITIMATE INTERESTS OF BOTH THE WESTERN AND EASTERN SECTORS OF THE CITY."

INFORMED QUARTERS SAID, HOWEVER, NONE OF THE WESTERN POWERS WAS READY AT THIS TIME TO REOPEN THE BERLIN DEBATES IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

MAR 17 1949

ALVAREZ INDICATED THAT HE AND THE OTHER NEUTRALS HAVE NO PLAN FOR FURTHER ACTION UNLESS ONE OF THE BIG POWERS REQUESTS IT.

HE POINTED OUT THE QUESTION REMAINS ON THE COUNCIL'S AGENDA AND SAID THE NEUTRALS ARE READY TO RENDER ASSISTANCE TO THE OCCUPYING POWERS WHENEVER THEY COULD BE HELPFUL.

RUSSIAN REPRESENTATIVES HERE HAD NO IMMEDIATE COMMENT. RUSSIA CONTENDED IN THE PARIS U.N. DISCUSSIONS LAST FALL THAT THE SECURITY COUNCIL HAD NO JURISDICTION OVER THE BERLIN QUESTION.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 17-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS RECEIVED TODAY A BOLIVIAN REQUEST FOR GENERAL ASSEMBLY ACTION ON THE CASE OF JOSEF CARDINAL MINDSZENTY. THE 58-NATION ASSEMBLY CONVENES NEXT IN NEW YORK APRIL 5.

THE REQUEST WAS MADE WITH REGARD TO ARTICLE 1 (3) OF THE CHARTER WHICH SPECIFIES THAT THE U.N. AIMS TO PROMOTE AND ENCOURAGE "RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND FOR FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS FOR ALL WITHOUT DISTINCTION AS TO RACE, SEX, LANGUAGE OR RELIGION."

IT MAY BE PLACED ON THE AGENDA BY A MAJORITY VOTE. THERE APPEARED LITTLE DOUBT THE ISSUE WOULD GET ENOUGH VOTES. BOLIVIA'S ACTION FOLLOWED SEVERAL PRIVATE MEETINGS OF LATIN AMERICAN DELEGATIONS ON THE MINDSZENTY QUESTION.

CARDINAL MINDSZENTY WAS CONVICTED FEB. 8 BY A HUNGARIAN COURT OF SEVERAL CHARGES, INCLUDING PLOTTING TO OVERTHROW THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED GOVERNMENT. HE WAS SENTENCED TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT. SINCE THEN CHURCH AND GOVERNMENT LEADERS IN MANY WESTERN COUNTRIES HAVE PROTESTED AGAINST THE ARREST AND TRIAL OF THE PRIMATE.

BOLIVIA GAVE NO INDICATION AS TO WHAT ACTION SHE WOULD ASK THE ASSEMBLY TO TAKE.

SEVERAL POSSIBLE COURSES OF ACTION ARE OPEN TO THE ASSEMBLY. THESE RANGE FROM A MILDLY-WORDED CONDEMNATION TO A RECOMMENDATION FOR A WORLD-WIDE DIPLOMATIC AND ECONOMIC BREAK WITH HUNGARY. IN ANY EVENT, THE MINDSZENTY CASE PROBABLY WILL GET A THOROUGH AIRING.

THESE ARE THE GROUPS--WOMEN, NEGROES AND LOW-INCOME PEOPLE--WHICH THE DEFENSE, IN 27 DAYS OF PROCEEDINGS, HAD CONTENDED ARE AMONG THOSE GENERALLY EXCLUDED FROM JURIES IN THIS FEDERAL DISTRICT.

THE DEFENSE HAD CLAIMED JURIES HERE ARE PACKED IN FAVOR OF THE RICH.

ULTIMATELY, THE JURY CHALLENGE WAS THROWN OUT BY FEDERAL JUDGE HAROLD R.MEDINA, WHO YESTERDAY SWORE IN THE JURY AFTER A WEEK AND A HALF WAS SPENT IN SELECTING IT.

FOUR ALTERNATE JURORS STILL ARE TO BE CHOSEN, STARTING TODAY.

THE DEFENSE SAID THE JURY "IS UNSATISFACTORY TO THE DEFENDANTS AND CONSTITUTES A DENIAL OF DUE PROCESS AND DENIAL OF THEIR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS."

MEDINA, IN OVERRULING THE OBJECTION, SAID:

"I HAVE MADE THE MOST SERIOUS AND CONSCIENTIOUS ENDEAVOR TO FIND OUT IF ANY BIAS EXISTS AMONG THE JURORS, TO MAKE SURE THAT NO JUROR HAS ANY BIAS OR PREJUDICE WHATSOEVER. I HAVE DONE MY BEST X X X. I DO NOT BELIEVE THAT ANY JUROR IS UNDER ANY BIAS. I CAN DO NO MORE."

THE JUDGE TOLD THE JURORS NOT TO READ OR LISTEN TO REPORTS OF THE CONSPIRACY CASE, OR DISCUSS IT WITH ANY ONE. HE THEN EXCUSED THEM UNTIL TOMORROW, WHEN THE GOVERNMENT IS EXPECTED TO START PRESENTING ITS CASE.

THE COMMUNIST LEADERS ARE ACCUSED OF CONSPIRING TO ADVICATE THE FORCIBLE OVERTHROW OF THE U. S. GOVERNMENT.

NEW YORK, MARCH 17-(AP)-THE TOP-RANKING DEFENDANT IN THE CONSPIRACY TRIAL OF 11 U.S.COMMUNIST LEADERS WAS GIVEN PERMISSION TO CONDUCT HIS OWN DEFENSE TODAY AS THE WAY WAS CLEARED TO BEGIN THE ACTUAL TRIAL MONDAY.

EUGENE DENNIS, GENERAL SECRETARY OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY, WAS AUTHORIZED BY JUDGE HAROLD R.MEDINA TO ACT AS HIS OWN ATTORNEY.

MEDINA, HOWEVER, WARNED DENNIS "YOU ARE TAKING A CHANCE HERE" AND SAID "YOU ARE NOT COMPETENT TO UNDERSTAND CERTAIN LEGAL MATTERS."

FOUR WOMEN WERE CHOSEN AS ALTERNATE JURORS TO SERVE WITH THE TRIAL JURY OF SEVEN WOMEN AND FIVE MEN WHOSE SELECTION WAS COMPLETED YESTERDAY.

THE COMMUNISTS ARE CHARGED WITH CONSPIRING TO ADVOCATE FORCIBLE OVERTHROW OF THE U.S.GOVERNMENT.

THE OPPOSING ATTORNEYS AND FEDERAL JUDGE HAROLD R.MEDINA AGREED THE ONLY MATTER TO BE PLACED BEFORE THE COURT TOMORROW WOULD BE A DEFENSE MOTION TO DELAY THE TRIAL BECAUSE OF THE "STATE OF MIND" OF THE COMMUNITY. THEY CLAIM THIS WOULD MAKE A FAIR TRIAL IMPOSSIBLE NOW.

U.S.ATTORNEY JOHN F.X. MCGOHEY TOLD THE COURT THAT DENNIS' SELF-REPRESENTATION MIGHT GIVE DENNIS A CHANCE TO MAKE UNSWORN STATEMENTS TO THE JURY WHILE QUESTIONING WITNESSES OR ADDRESSING THE JUDGE. MEDINA SAID HE WOULD RULE LATER ON WHETHER DENNIS COULD MAKE STATEMENTS.

LOUIS F.MCCABE, PHILADELPHIA ATTORNEY, HAD REPRESENTED DENNIS IN THE FIRST NINE WEEKS OF THE TRIAL. HE WILL STAY IN THE CASE AS COUNSEL FOR HENRY WINSTON, ANOTHER DEFENDANT.

DENNIS PRAISED MCCABE, SAYING THE ATTORNEY HAS SERVED HIM IN A "DISTINGUISHED WAY." HE DID NOT GIVE HIS REASONS FOR WANTING TO ACT AS HIS OWN LAWYER.

THE FOUR ALTERNATES CHOSEN WERE MRS.JANE SCHULTZ, A FORMER EMPLOYE OF THE HONEST BALLOT ASSOCIATION; MRS.LILLIAN WOLFE, A WIDOW; MRS.DIANA E.ZAGAT, HOUSEWIFE; AND MRS.MATILDA A.DUNN, HOUSEWIFE.

MRS.DUNN HAS A SON WHO IS A CATHOLIC PRIEST BUT, WHEN ASKED WHETHER THIS MIGHT CAUSE HER TO BE BIASED, SAID:

"I THINK NOT."

MEDINA INSTRUCTED THE ALTERNATES, AS HE HAD THE REGULAR JURORS, NOT TO READ ANYTHING ABOUT THE CASE, OR TO LISTEN TO BROADCASTS ABOUT IT OR TO DISCUSS IT WITH ANYONE.

"LET YOUR JUDGMENT CRYSTALLIZE SOLELY ON THE EVIDENCE YOU SHALL HEAR FROM THE WITNESS CHAIR," HE SAID.

EARLIER IN PRESENTING A LENGTHY AND UNSUCCESSFUL CHALLENGE TO THE FEDERAL JURY SYSTEM, DEFENSE ATTORNEYS MAINTAINED THAT WOMEN WERE AMONG THE CLASSES OF PERSONS LARGELY EXCLUDED FROM JURIES IN THIS DISTRICT.

(400) COPLON

BY JACK ADAMS

MAR 17 1949

WASHINGTON, MARCH 17-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT TODAY MOVED TO RE-ARREST 27-YEAR-OLD JUDITH COPLON, UNTIL RECENTLY A JUSTICE DEPARTMENT EMPLOYE, AFTER CHARGING HER WITH SPECIFIC ACTS OF SPYING AGAINST THE UNITED STATES.

A FEDERAL GRAND JURY HERE LATE YESTERDAY RETURNED A SECOND INDICTMENT AGAINST THE YOUNG WOMAN. SHE WAS FIRST ARRESTED 14 DAYS AGO IN NEW YORK CITY ALONG WITH VALENTINE A.GUBITCHEV, 32, RUSSIAN ENGINEER EMPLOYED AT UNITED NATIONS HEADQUARTERS.

THE TWO WERE JOINTLY INDICTED BY A NEW YORK GRAND JURY LAST WEEK ON ESPIONAGE CONSPIRACY CHARGES.

IN NEW YORK, THOMAS J.DONEGAN, SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL, CONFERRED TODAY WITH MISS COPLON'S ATTORNEY. LATER DONEGAN SAID THE WOMAN WOULD SURRENDER AT 10:30 A.M. TOMORROW IN WASHINGTON.

THE NEW INDICTMENT IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA SPECIFICALLY ACCUSES MISS COPLON, FORMER POLITICAL ANALYST IN THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT'S FOREIGN AGENTS REGISTRATION SECTION, OF COPYING AND REMOVING OFFICIAL DEPARTMENT DOCUMENTS. IT ALLEGES SHE ACTED "WITH INTENT AND REASON TO BELIEVE THE INFORMATION WAS TO BE USED TO THE INJURY OF THE UNITED STATES AND TO THE ADVANTAGE OF A FOREIGN NATION."

THE GRAND JURY SAID THE MATERIAL INCLUDED DATA ON THE NATIONAL DEFENSE AND CONFIDENTIAL REPORTS OF THE FBI ON SPY AND COUNTER-SPY ACTIVITY IN THIS COUNTRY.

MISS COPLON PLEADED INNOCENT TO THE CONSPIRACY CHARGE AT NEW YORK, AND WAS RELEASED ON $20,000 BOND. GUBITCHEV, HOWEVER, HAS CHALLENGED THE ENTIRE PROCEEDING, CLAIMING DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITY FROM ARREST. HE HAS REFUSED TO ENTER A PLEA, HIRE OR ACCEPT A COURT-APPOINTED ATTORNEY, OR MAKE ANY MOVE TOWARD POSTING THE $100,000 BOND FIXED FOR HIS RELEASE.

THE STATE AND JUSTICE DEPARTMENTS AND UNITED NATIONS OFFICIALS HAVE ASSERTED THAT DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITY COULD NOT BE CLAIMED IN RESPONSE TO SUCH AN ACCUSATION.

HOWEVER, THE SECOND INDICTMENT AGAINST MISS COPLON ALONE, COVERING ALLEGED ILLEGAL ACTS IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, APPEARED TO BE A BACKSTOP ACTION. IT COULD PROVIDE A SEPARATE, EARLY TRIAL FOR HER HERE IN THE EVENT THE DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITY ISSUE BECOMES A LONG-DRAWN-OUT LEGAL BATTLE.

THE TWO ARE NOW SCHEDULED FOR TRIAL IN NEW YORK APRIL 1.

FOLLOWING THE LOCAL GRAND JURY ACTION, U.S. DISTRICT ATTORNEY GEORGE MORRIS FAY SAID HE WAS FORWARDING A CERTIFIED COPY OF THE INDICTMENT TO NEW YORK CITY, WITH A NEW WARRANT TO BE SERVED ON MISS COPLON AT HER HOME THERE. THE TENTATIVE PROGRAM CALLED FOR HER EARLY RETURN TO WASHINGTON FOR A NEW ARRAIGNMENT HERE.

IN NEW YORK, MISS COPLON COULD NOT BE IMMEDIATELY REACHED FOR COMMENT.

THE WASHINGTON INDICTMENT SAID THAT MISS COPLON HAD COPIED AND REMOVED DOCUMENTS FROM THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT--WHERE SHE HAD ACCESS TO MUCH CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL--FROM ABOUT DEC. 10, 1948 TO MARCH 4, THIS YEAR.

THE NEW YORK INDICTMENT INCLUDED ACCUSATIONS THAT SHE MET AND CONFERRED WITH GUBITCHEV IN NEW YORK ON JANUARY 14, FEBRUARY 18 AND FINALLY MARCH 4, WHEN THE TWO WERE TAKEN INTO CUSTODY BY FBI AGENTS.

SEATTLE,MARCH 17-(AP)-A SUPERIOR COURT JURY LAST NIGHT CONVICTED PROF.RALPH H.GUNDLACH OF REFUSING TO ANSWER QUESTIONS BY A STATE LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE REGARDING COMMUNIST PARTY MEMBERSHIP.

GUNDLACH IS AN OUSTED UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON FACULTY MEMBER.

LAST WEEK A JURY ACQUITTED DR.HERBERT J.PHILLIPS, ALSO A DISCHARGED WASHINGTON FACULTY MEMBER, ON A SIMILAR CHARGE.

THE CHARGE AROSE FROM REFUSAL OF GUNDLACH TO ANSWER THE STATE LEGISLATIVE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE ON WHETHER HE WAS OR EVER HAD BEEN A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY.

GUNDLACH HAS INSISTED HE NEVER WAS A PARTY MEMBER. AT HIS TRIAL, PHILLIPS, ON THE OTHER HAND, ADMITTED PARTY MEMBERSHIP SINCE 1935.

CONVICTION CARRIES A PENALTY OF UP TO $1,000 FINE, A YEAR IN JAIL, OR BOTH.

THE JURY DELIBERATED LESS THAN FIVE HOURS BEFORE RETURNING THE VERDICT.

DR.GUNDLACH SAID HE WOULD APPEAL THE VERDICT.

IN A STATEMENT RELEASED BY HIS ATTORNEYS HE SAID:

"I FEEL NO MORE GUILTY THAN PROFESSOR PHILLIPS, WHO WAS ACQUITTED. I REITERATE MY INNOCENCE. I BELIEVE THE PEOPLE WILL STAND BEHIND THE JURY THAT ACQUITTED PHILLIPS. IN MY CASE THE REAL ISSUE WAS NOT PRESENTED TO THE JURY. THE FIGHT WILL GO ON."

IT WOULD COMMIT EACH OF THE SIGNATORY POWERS TO JOIN IN RESISTING AN ATTACK ON ANY ONE OF THEM. EACH NATION WOULD DECIDE FOR ITSELF WHETHER IT WOULD USE ARMED FORCE IN MEETING THE ATTACK.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID FULL PUBLIC DISCUSSION WOULD BE INVITED. ALONG THESE LINES, A MEETING IS SCHEDULED FOR TODAY AND TOMORROW WITH 200 REPRESENTATIVES OF NATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS.

LOUIS PIERARD, SOCIALIST MEMBER OF THE LOWER HOUSE, GAVE THIS RESUME OF SOME OF THE 12 ARTICLES OF THE ACCORD AND SAID SPAAK HAD SO EXPLAINED THEM:

ARTICLE FIVE PROVIDES THAT IN CASE OF AN ARMED ATTACK AGAINST ONE OR SEVERAL OF THE SIGNATORIES IN EUROPE AND NORTH AMERICA, ASSISTANCE SHOULD THEN BECOME EFFECTIVE THROUGH ANY ACTION JUDGED NECESSARY, BUT NOT NECESSARILY BY ARMED ASSISTANCE.

ARTICLE SIX DEFINES THE AREA CONCERNED BY THE PACT. PIERARD SAID: "THE MUTUAL ASSISTANCE PROVIDED BY THE FIFTH ARTICLE WILL COVER THE PART OF EUROPE REPRESENTED BY THE PACT SIGNERS AS WELL AS THE NORTH AFRICAN FRENCH DEPARTMENTS. MUTUAL ASSISTANCE IS NOT EXTENDED TO THE BELGIAN CONGO BUT IS EXTENDED TO ISLES (WHICH HE DID NOT NAME) NORTH OF THE TROPIC OF CANCER. THE WESTERN OCCUPATION ZONES OF GERMANY AND AUSTRIA ARE ALSO IN THE GEOGRAPHICAL AREA TO WHICH THE MUTUAL ASSISTANCE ARTICLE IS TO BE EXTENDED."

PIERARD SAID SPAAK TOLD THE PARLIAMENTARIANS THE ALLIANCE IS A REGIONAL ONE AUTHORIZED BY THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER. SPAAK DECLARED IT IS NOT IN CONTRADICTION WITH THE FRENCH-RUSSIAN AND THE BRITISH-RUSSIAN TREATIES.

THE ATLANTIC ACCORD WILL RUN FOR 20 YEARS AND HAS A PROVISION FOR REVISION AFTER TEN YEARS, HE SAID.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 17-(AP)-ICELAND'S FOREIGN MINISTER WOUND UP HIS FOUR-DAY INQUIRY INTO THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT WITH A FAREWELL CALL ON SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON TODAY.

MAR 17 1949

AS HE LEFT, HE REPEATED THAT HIS GOVERNMENT "WOULD NOT CONSENT TO ANY FOREIGN MILITARY BASES IN PEACETIME" ON ICELANDIC SOIL.

THE FOREIGN MINISTER, BJARNI BENEDIKTSSON, TOLD REPORTERS STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS HAD ANSWERED "ALL MY QUESTIONS, AND THEY WERE MANY."

BUT, HE DECLINED DESPITE REPEATED QUESTIONING TO GIVE ANY INDICATION WHAT HIS RECOMMENDATION TO THE ICELANDIC PARLIAMENT WOULD BE.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS CONFIDENTLY PREDICTED BEFORE TODAY'S MEETING WITH ACHESON THAT ICELAND WOULD JOIN THE DEFENSE ALLIANCE.

BENEDIKTSSON ARRANGED TO LEAVE WASHINGTON THIS AFTERNOON FOR NEW YORK EN ROUTE TO ICELAND. HE PLANS TO TAKE A PLANE FROM NEW YORK SOMETIME TOMORROW.

A JOINT STATEMENT ISSUED BY BENEDIKTSSON AND ACHESON AFTER THEIR 45-MINUTE MEETING SAID: (ABOUT 140)

"THE PURPOSE OF THE ICELANDIC FOREIGN MINISTER BJARNI BENEDIKTSSON AND HIS COLLEAGUES IN COMING TO WASHINGTON WAS TO OBTAIN INFORMATION CONCERNING THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC PACT SO AS TO PROVIDE THE BEST POSSIBLE BASIS FOR THE ICELANDIC GOVERNMENT AND PARLIAMENT TO TAKE THEIR POSITION ON ICELAND'S ATTITUDE TOWARD THE PACT.

"IN THE CONVERSATIONS BETWEEN THE FOREIGN MINISTER AND HIS COLLEAGUES AND THE SECRETARY OF STATE AND HIS ADVISERS THERE HAS BEEN FULL AND FRANK DISCUSSION OF THE OBJECTIVES AND THE NATURE OF THE PROPOSED PACT.

"THE SECRETARY OF STATE STRESSED THE PURPOSE OF THE PACT AS BEING THE MAINTENANCE OF PEACE AND POINTED OUT THAT THE PACT IS DRAFTED IN CLOSE CONFORMITY WITH THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

"THE ICELANDIC FOREIGN MINISTER EXPLAINED THE SPECIAL POSITION OF ICELAND AS A COUNTRY WITH NO MILITARY FORCES, AND STATED THAT ICELAND WOULD NOT CONSENT TO ANY FOREIGN MILITARY BASES IN PEACETIME." (END TEXT).

FIRST LEAD MILWAUKEE (390)

PHILADELPHIA,MARCH 17-(AP)-SPECULATION ON WHY THE RUSSIANS LEFT THE CRUISER MILWAUKEE BEFORE U.S. COLORS WERE RAISED AND REPORTS OF FILTHY CONDITIONS BELOW DECKS FOLLOWED IN THE WAKE OF THE SHIP TODAY AS SHE MOVED UP THE DELAWARE RIVER TO PHILADELPHIA.

THE RUSSIANS RETURNED THE 26-YEAR-OLD WARSHIP TO THE UNITED STATES YESTERDAY AT SEA OFF LEWES, DEL. SHE WAS THE FIRST OF 586 VESSELS LOANED THE SOVIET UNION DURING THE WAR TO BE RETURNED TO THIS COUNTRY. THE NAVY HAS ANNOUNCED THE MILWAUKEE WILL BE SCRAPPED IMMEDIATELY.

AFTER THE CEREMONY, THE FREIGHTER MOLOTOV WHICH ESCORTED THE MILWAUKEE--RENAMED MURMANSK BY THE RUSSIANS--DEPARTED FOR RUSSIA WITH THE CRUISER'S CREWMEN ABOARD.

THE SHIP'S TRANSFER WAS DELAYED 15 DAYS. A NAVY SPOKESMAN SAID MUCH OF THE DELAY RESULTED FROM "MISERABLE WEATHER CONDITIONS" BROUGHT ON BY HIGH WINDS.

THE RUSSIANS HAULED DOWN THE HAMMER AND SICKLE SHORTLY BEFORE 3 P.M., EASTERN STANDARD TIME. THEN THEY PROMPTLY MOVED OFF THE MILWAUKEE ONTO THE MOLOTOV.

THEIR TRANSFER WAS COMPLETED BEFORE THE AMERICANS RAISED THE STARS AND STRIPES. THE RUSSIANS THUS DID NOT HAVE TO SALUTE THE U.S. COLORS.

A NAVY SPOKESMAN SAID THAT THIS COULD HAVE BEEN AN INSULT BUT ADDED IT DID NOT NECESSARILY MEAN THAT THE RUSSIANS REFUSED TO SALUTE THE AMERICAN FLAG.

"IT'S STRICTLY A GUESS," HE SAID.

HE EXPLAINED THAT THE SOVIETS WERE ANXIOUS TO GET ABOARD THE MOLOTOV AND BACK TO RUSSIA.

"AFTER ALL," HE SAID, "THEY HAD BEEN DELAYED 15 DAYS."

THE SPOKESMAN SAID THAT TO HIS KNOWLEDGE THERE HAD NEVER BEFORE BEEN SUCH A CEREMONY IN U.S. NAVAL ANNALS. HE SAID HE COULD NOT RECALL A TIME WHEN AMERICANS LOANED A FOREIGN NATION A SHIP AND THEN HAD IT RETURNED.

NO REPORTERS WERE PERMITTED ABOARD THE MILWAUKEE DURING THE RUSSIAN FLAG-LOWERING CEREMONY. A LONE NEWSREEL PHOTOGRAPHER WAS ON HAND, HOWEVER, AND HIS CAMERAS RECORDED THE SCENE.

AN HOUR AND A HALF LATER, THE AMRICANS RAISED THE U.S. ENSIGN, AND THIS TIME NEWSMEN WERE ON HAND. SOME WENT BELOW DECKS TO TAKE A LOOK.

THEY REPORTED THE SHIP WAS "DIRTY" AND "FILTHY" BELOW DECKS, PARTICULARLY IN THE CREWMEN'S QUARTERS. THEY SAID THE OFFICERS' QUARTERS WERE CLEAN.

ELSEWHERE ON THE SHIP, THEY ADDED, RATS AND COCKROACHES WERE SEEN; THERE WERE FOUL ODORS.

BUT, SAID ONE NAVAL AUTHORITY, MOST FOREIGN VESSELS ARE NOT AS SPIC AND SPAN AS AMERICAN NAVAL CRAFT. MANY FOREIGN SHIPS HAVE UNPLEASANT ODORS. HE POINTED OUT THAT RUSSIANS EAT A LOT OF FISH AND THAT THIS MAY HAVE CAUSED THE ODORS.

TOPSIDE THE VESSEL WAS BRIGHT, SHINING AND FRESHLY PAINTED.

"THE BRASS WAS SO CLEAN YOU COULD SEE YOUR FACE IN IT," SAID ONE NEWSMAN.

THE MILWAUKEE CARRIED A CREW OF 356 OFFICERS AND MEN FOR THE TRIP TO THE UNITED STATES. AS THE RUSSIAN CRUISER MURMANSK, SHE PATROLLED THE NORTHERN SEAS. THERE WAS NO OFFICIAL REPORT OF WHETHER SHE PARTICIPATED IN ANY MAJOR BATTLES.

NAVY OFFICERS IN WASHINGTON WERE UNABLE TO RECALL A PREVIOUS OCCASION IN WHICH THE UNITED STATES HAD ACCEPTED THE RETURN OF ONE OF ITS SHIPS FROM A FOREIGN POWER.

IN THE TURNING OVER OF SMALL NAVY SHIPS TO CHINA AND TO GREECE, THIS HAS BEEN THE GENERAL PATTERN.

REPRESENTATIVES OF THE TWO NATIONS STAND AT ATTENTION ON DECK WHILE APPROPRIATE ANTHEMS ARE PLAYED AND THE AMERICAN FLAG HAULED DOWN AND THE FOREIGN FLAG RUN UP. SALUTES ARE RENDERED TO EACH FLAG BY EVERYONE PRESENT.

ANCHORED AT THE PHILADELPHIA NAVAL BASE, THE MILWAUKEE SOON WILL LOSE ITS GUNS PRIOR TO HER SCRAPING OR SALE TO A SALVAGE COMPANY.

THE FIRST LEND-LEASE VESSEL RETURNED TO THE UNITED STATES BY THE SOVIET UNION, THE MILWAUKEE PATROLED THE SEALANES TO THE RUSSIAN PORT OF MURMANSK DURING WORLD WAR 2.

OFFICIAL TRANSFER CEREMONIES TOOK PLACE LATE YESTERDAY OFF LEWES, DEL.

CAPT. JOSEPH U.LADEMAN, JR., USN, AND RUSSIAN ADMIRAL E.G. GLINKOV, SOVIET EMBASSY ATTACHE, SIGNED THE TRANSFER PAPER IN THE QUARTERS OF THE SHIP'S CAPTAIN.

LATER, THE RUSSIAN CREW OF 356 OFFICERS AND MEN BOARDED THE SOVIET FREIGHTER MOLOTOV FOR THE RETURN VOYAGE TO THEIR HOMELAND.

AN AMERICAN CREW TOOK OVER THE MILWAUKEE FOR HER "TOW TRIP" UP THE DELAWARE RIVER TO FORT MIFFLIN.

AMERICAN CREWMEN SAID THEY FOUND THE MILWAUKEE IN "EXCELLENT SHAPE FOR OPERATIONS," BUT NEWSMEN TAKEN ABOARD DESCRIBED THE QUARTERS AS "FILTHY" WITH THE "ORDOR OF THE GREAT UNWASHED."

DURING THE TRANSFER CEREMONIES, THE RUSSIAN OFFICERS AND MEN STOOD AT EASE ABOUT THE DECKS.

"WE OUGHT TO HAVE WITH RUSSIA AND HER SATELLITES," HE SAID, "A RULE ON RECIPROCITY--WE'LL DO JUST WHAT THEY DO AND NOT ONE SCINTILLA MORE. IN OTHER WORDS, TREAT THEM JUST LIKE THEY TREAT US."

INVITATIONS TO THE MEETING WERE SENT TO MANY COUNTRIES BY A COMMITTEE HEADED BY DR.HARLOW SHAPLEY, HARVARD ASTRONOMER. HE ISSUED A STATEMENT IN NEW YORK LAST NIGHT EXPRESSING PLEASURE AT AMERICA'S CONTINUANCE OF A TRADITION OF "OPENING ITS DOORS TO THE FREE EXCHANGE OF CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC THOUGHT."

SHAPLEY SAID THOSE ATTENDING WILL "SEEK TO CONTRIBUTE TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE SPIRIT OF PEACE WHEN THERE IS HEAVY NOISE OF GREAT ARMAMENTS AND WAR."

RUSSIA HAD DEMANDED DIPLOMATIC VISAS FOR ITS REPRESENTATIVES AT THE CONFERENCE--WHICH WOULD HAVE GIVEN THEM SUCH PRIVILEGES AS FREEDOM FROM ARREST ON CRIMINAL AND CIVIL CHARGES AND FREEDOM FROM CUSTOMS INSPECTION OF THEIR BAGGAGE--BUT THE STATE DEPARTMENT TURNED THAT DOWN.

INSTEAD, THE DELEGATES WILL GET "INTERMEDIATE" VISAS, WHICH PROVIDE "ADDED RECOGNITION" BUT NOT DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITY, THE DEPARTMENT SAID.

THE DEPARTMENT NOTED IN ITS ANNOUNCEMENT THAT RUSSIA OFTEN HAS TURNED DOWN VISA REQUESTS FROM AMERICANS. BUT IT SAID THIS COUNTRY DECIDED TO PERMIT ENTRY OF THE SOVIET DELEGATES "BECAUSE OF ITS UNSWERVING DEVOTION TO FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND SPEECH ON ANY ISSUE, HOWEVER CONTROVERSIAL IT MAY BE."

HOWEVER, FIVE HUNGARIAN DELEGATES WHO ASKED FOR VISAS DIDN'T GET THEM BECAUSE OF THAT COUNTRY'S TREATMENT OF AMERICAN OFFICIALS.

ONE OF THE SOVIET DELEGATES IS DMITRI SHOSTAKOVICH, FAMED COMPOSER.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 17-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES HAS PROTESTED AGAINST ROMANIA'S PLAN TO NATIONALIZE PROPERTIES BELONGING TO AMERICAN CITIZENS.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID THE AMERICAN LEGATION IN BUCHAREST HAS SENT A NOTE TO THE ROMANIAN FOREIGN OFFICE SAYING THE PLAN FAILS TO PROVIDE "PROMPT, ADEQUATE OR EFFECTIVE COMPENSATION."

IN VIEW OF THIS, THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID IT HAS NO INTENTION OF ADVISING AMERICAN CITIZENS TO APPLY FOR COMPENSATION AS REQUESTED BY THE ROMANIAN GOVERNMENT.

FURTHERMORE, THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID IT WILL RESERVE ALL RIGHTS ON BEHALF OF AMERICAN CITIZENS WHOSE PROPERTY IS BEING SEIZED.

THE UNITED STATES, IT SAID, WILL HOLD THE ROMANIAN GOVERNMENT RESPONSIBLE "FOR THE RETURN OF PROPERTIES OR FOR PROMPT PAYMENT OF ADEQUATE AND EFFECTIVE COMPE SATION THEREFOR."

A SURVEY MADE IN 1943 ESTIMATED THE VALUE OF AMERICAN PROPERTIES IN ROMANIA AT $66,100,000, OF WHICH $28,000,000 WAS IN PETROLEUM REFINERIES AND CONNECTED INDUSTRIES. THE PROPERTIES WERE OWNED BY 137 CORPORATIONS AND AMERICAN CITIZENS.

A NATIVE OF PRATTVILLE,ALA., FRYE WORKED IN THE AP BUREAU AT NASHVILLE,TENN., BEFORE COMING TO WASHINGTON WHERE HE HELPED COVER THE WAR DEPARTMENT FROM 1940 TO 1944. HE HAS A WIFE AND THREE CHILDREN.

CHAIRMAN MCMAHON (D-CONN) SAID MEANWHILE THERE IS A "STRONG DIFFERENCE OF OPINION" AMONG MEMBERS OF THE JOINT CONGRESSIONAL ATOMIC ENERGY COMMITTEE ON WHAT INFORMATION SHOULD BE MADE PUBLIC.

BUT BOTH FACTIONS, HE EMPHASIZED, ARE AGREED THAT IT IS "HIGHLY NECESSARY THAT INFORMATION THAT WOULD BE OF VALUE TO A POTENTIAL ENEMY SHOULD BE WITHHELD."

MCMAHON TOLD A REPORTERS AFTER WHAT HE DESCRIBED AS A "LIVELY" COMMITTEE MEETING--THAT THE DISAGREEMENT IS OVER JUST WHAT IS "OF VALUE TO A POTENTIAL ENEMY." HE ADDED THAT THE MATTER MUST BE SETTLED, BUT IT WOULD REQUIRE MORE THAN ONE MEETING TO DO IT.

HE SAID ONE GROUP BELIEVES IN TELLING THE PUBLIC EVERYTHING POSSIBLE WITHOUT JEOPARDIZING SECURITY. THE OTHER GROUP, HE SAID, "HOLDS TO THE VIEW THAT ALL INFORMATION OF AN ATOMIC NATURE SHOULD BE DRASTICALLY CURTAILED AND RESTRICTED."

HE STRESSED THAT THE INFORMATION MADE PUBLIC IN THE AEC'S FIFTH SEMIANNUAL REPORT AND IN A RECENT (FORTUNE) MAGAZINE ARTICLE HAD BEEN IN "THE PUBLIC DOMAIN" PRIOR TO ITS APPEARANCE IN THOSE TWO PUBLICATIONS.

MCMAHON SAID IT WAS HIS POINT OF VIEW THERE "WAS NOT ANY BREACH OF SECURITY" IN THE REPORT OR MAGAZINE ARTICLE.

MEETING WITH THE COMMITTEE WERE AEC CHAIRMAN DAVID E.LILIENTHAL AND MEMBERS OF THE COMMISSION'S MILITARY LIAISON COMMITTEE. MCMAHON SAID LILIENTHAL SUBMITTED "A GREAT DEAL OF MATERIAL" INCLUDING PHOTOGRAPHS OF ATOMIC INSTALLATIONS WHICH HAD BEEN CLEARED FOR PUBLICATION.

(120) FIRST LEAD SECRETS

WASHINGTON,MARCH 17-(AP)-THE NATIONAL MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT, UNDER CONGRESSIONAL FIRE FOR ALLEGED LEAKS OF SECRET MILITARY INFORMATION TODAY ORDERED A SHAKEUP AND MERGER OF ITS MULTIPLE PRESS RELATIONS OFFICES.

THE REORGANIZATION ORDER HAS BEEN IN PREPARATION FOR SEVERAL MONTHS. RIGHT AFTER IT WAS ISSUED, DEFENSE SECRETARY FORRESTAL TOOK A COPY TO A CLOSED DOOR MEETING OF THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE.

UNDER THE ORDER, THE NOW SEPARATE ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE PUBLIC RELATIONS SECTIONS WILL BE MERGED INTO A SINGLE OFFICE. HEADING THE OFFICE WILL BE WILLIAM E.FRYE, FORMER ASSOCIATED PRESS WAR CORRESPONDENT.

THE COMPLAINT IN CONGRESS HAS BEEN THAT HIGHLY SECRET INFORMATION HAS BEEN SPILLED TO POTENTIAL ENEMIES.

THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES AND APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEES SAID THEY ALREADY HAVE STARTED INFORMAL INQUIRIES INTO THE PUBLICATION OF (A) INFORMATION ABOUT POSSIBLE UNITED STATES AERIAL BOMBING TARGETS IN RUSSIA AND (B) PICTURES AND MAPS OF ATOMIC INSTALLATIONS IN THIS COUNTRY.

AND CHAIRMAN VINSON (D-GA) OF THE ARMED SERVICES GROUP SAID HE HAS ASKED SECRETARY OF AIR SYMINGTON FOR "A FULL EXPLANATION" OF ANY PART THE AIR FORCE MAY HAVE PLAYED IN THE DISCLOSURE OF THE TARGET DATA.

VINSON SAID HE DID NOT KNOW WHETHER SECRET INFORMATION HAD BEEN RELEASED BY THE MILITARY OR WHETHER THE STORIES WERE "MERELY THE CONCLUSIONS OF THE MEN WHO WROTE THEM" (FOR FORTUNE MAGAZINE).

"I INTEND TO FIND OUT," HE DECLARED.

HOUSE MEMBERS WERE EQUALLY STIRRED UP OVER THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION'S ANNUAL REPORT, WHICH CHARTED ITS INSTALLATIONS AT HANFORD, WASH., OAK RIDGE,TENN., LOS ALAMOS,N.M., AND OTHER HUSH-HUSH POINTS.

REP.CASE (R-SD) SAID THE COMMISSION REPORTED NONE OF THE INFORMATION WAS SECRET AND THAT ALL HAD BEEN PUBLISHED BEFORE OR WAS AVAILABLE FOR PUBLICATION. MANY OF THE PHOTOGRAPHS WERE MADE BY THE ARMY, HE ADDED.

BUT DEMOCRATIC LEADER MCCORMACK OF MASSACHUSETTS SAID THAT, WHATEVER HAD HAPPENED, THE RESULT WAS WORTH "MILLIONS OF DOLLARS" TO RUSSIA. ALL THE SOVIET NEEDS NOW, HE SAID, IS THE PRICE OF A MAGAZINE OR GOVERNMENT PUBLICATION TO GET IT.

CASE ALSO SAID THAT, EVEN THOUGH IT WAS NOT SECRET, THE COMMISSION'S REPORT WAS THE FIRST INSTANCE IN WHICH PICTURES AND MAPS HAD BEEN PUT TOGETHER "IN ONE HANDY BOOK" FOR THE BENEFIT OF ANY FOREIGN GOVERNMENT.

REP.MAHON (D-TEX) TOUCHED OFF THE FLURRY YESTERDAY BY CALLING ATTENTION TO THE RELEASE "TO THE PRESS AND OUR POTENTIAL ENEMIES" OF IMPORTANT MILITARY INFORMATION.

MAHON IS CHAIRMAN OF AN APPROPRIATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE HANDLING ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE FUNDS.

HE DECLARED SOME OF THE INFORMATION "BANDIED ABOUT IN THE PRESS" INVOLVED "SECRET DISCUSSIONS BEFORE THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFFS, ALLEGED INFORMATION AS TO HOW WE EXPECT TO HIT 70 VITAL RUSSIAN TARGETS, AND INFORMATION AS TO THE CONTENT OF TOP SECRET MAPS IN THE PENTAGON."

THE MILITARY, HE SAID, HAS DENIED GIVING AWAY SECRETS AND HAS VOICED "CONCERN OVER UNAUTHORIZED PRESS REPORTS."

CLEVELAND, MARCH 17-(AP)-NAVY SECRETARY JOHN L.SULLIVAN SAID TONIGHT RUSSIA'S "GREATEST EXPORTABLE PRODUCT TODAY IS CHAOS."

HE SPOKE AT THE ST.PATRICK'S DAY BANQUET OF THE IRISH CIVIC ASSOCIATION.

THE SECRETARY SAID HE DETESTS ALARMISTS, BUT THAT "IT WOULD TAKE A VERY OPTIMISTIC MAN INDEED TO SURVEY THE WORLD OF TODAY AND FIND THAT ALL WAS WELL.

"I BELIEVE IT IS POSSIBLE FOR US TO WORK OUT OUR DIFFERENCES," HE CONTINUED. "I PRAY GOD THAT WE WILL. BUT ONLY A FOOL CAN FAIL TO RECOGNIZE THE POTENTIAL DANGERS OF TODAY'S INTERNATIONAL TENSION."

SULLIVAN ASSERTED "THE COMMUNIST SYSTEM HAS NOTHING WE WANT OR EVER WILL WANT. THEIR GREATEST EXPORTABLE PRODUCT TODAY IS CHAOS. THEIR ONLY REASON FOR SAYING THAT COMMUNISM AND DEMOCRACY CANNOT LIVE TOGETHER IS BECAUSE THEY KNOW THAT TYRANNY, HOWEVER BUTTRESSED BY CENSORSHIP IN THE CRUELEST POLICE STATE, CANNOT SURVIVE SO LONG AS FREEDOM EXISTS ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD."

WASHINGTON,MARCH 17-(AP)-THE REV.PAUL C.O'CONNOR, CHAIRMAN OF THE ALASKA HOUSING AUTHORITY, TOLD A HOUSE COMMITTEE TODAY COMMUNISTS ARE TRYING "TO INFILTRATE THE FISHING INDUSTRY" IN ALASKA.

HE MADE THE STATEMENT IN ANSWER TO A QUESTION FROM A MEMBER OF THE HOUSE BANKING AND CURRENCY COMMITTEE HEARING TESTIMONY IN SUPPORT OF LEGISLATION TO CREATE A $15,000,000 (M) HOUSING PROGRAM IN ALASKA.

E.GLEN WILDER, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE HOUSING AUTHORITY, TOLD THE COMMITTEE HE DID NOT KNOW OF A COMMUNIST IN THE TERRITORY.

THE COMMITTEE WAS URGED TO APPROVE THE LEGISLATION QUICKLY SO THE BUILDING PROGRAM CAN BE STARTED NEXT SUMMER.

RAYMOND M.FOLEY, HOUSING AND HOME FINANCE ADMINISTRATOR, TESTIFIED HE BELIEVED THE PROPOSED $15,800,000 (M) REVOLVING FUND FOR THE ALASKA HOUSING AUTHORITY "IS SMALL COMPARED WITH THE NEED."

BUT, FOLEY SAID, IT IS ADEQUATE TO START THE PROGRAM WHICH CONTEMPLATES START OF CONSTRUCTION OF 1,500 (T) UNITS NEXT SUMMER.

REV.O'CONNOR TOLD THE COMMITTEE TRANSPORTATION TO ALASKA "IS TERRIBLE." HE SAID HE HAS TO PAY $11 FOR A 35 GALLON DRUM OF OIL AT HIS HOME ON HOOPER BAY. HE SAID GASOLINE COSTS $1 A GALLON AND BUTTER $1.25 A POUND.

IN 1941, WHEN JAPAN WAS THE POTENTIAL FAR EAST ENEMY, THE PACIFIC FLEET COMMANDER HAD FOUR BIG CARRIERS AND 13 BATTLESHIPS BASED ON PEARL HARBOR. PEARL HARBOR- XXX ISLANDS

IN THE CURRENT COLD WAR STATUS WITH RUSSIA, NO CARRIER OR BATTLESHIP IS BASED IN HAWAII. IN FACT, ONLY TWO FIRST-LINE CARRIERS ARE OPERATING IN THE PACIFIC. BOTH -- THE BOXER AND VALLEY FORGE -- ARE BASED ON THE WEST COAST.

ALTHOUGH THE PACIFIC FLEET COMMAND REFUSES TO DISCLOSE THE NUMBER OF WARSHIPS DEPLOYED IN THE FAR EAST, IT IS KNOWN THAT IN CHINA AND JAPAN WATERS THERE NOW ARE NO MORE THAN FOUR CRUISERS, ONE SMALL ESCORT CARRIER AND A SMALL FORCE OF DESTROYERS.

OBSERVERS ESTIMATE NO FAR EAST ENEMY COULD PROJECT A SERIOUS SURFACE THREAT IN THE PACIFIC. SLIM AS AMERICAN FORCES THERE ARE, THEY COULD MUSTER IN 24 HOURS ENOUGH TO COPE WITH ANY POTENTIAL NAVAL THREAT TO THE WEST COAST, THEY SAY.

BY DEPLOYING ON THE WEST COAST MAJOR ELEMENTS OF PACIFIC DEFENSE AND CUTTING THE SUPPLY PROBLEM TO A MINIMUM, OBSERVERS NOTE, IMMEDIATE OPPORTUNITIES FOR ENEMY SUBMARINES ARE REDUCED.

THE RUSSIANS ARE REPUTED TO HAVE MANY GERMAN-DEVELOPED "SCHNORKLE" TYPE HIGHSPEED SUBMARINES, BUT THE FEELING HERE IS THAT THEY LACK EXPERIENCE IN SUBMARINE OPERATIONS COMPARABLE TO THAT OF THE U.S. NAVY.

IN THE WAR AGAINST JAPAN, U.S. NAVY UNDERSEA OPERATIONS WERE OUTSTANDINGLY SUCCESSFUL -- AND THE NAVY IS NOT CUTTING DOWN ON ITS PACIFIC SUBMARINES.

PEARL HARBOR REMAINS A FULL-SCALE SUBMARINE BASE. ITS FORCE IS BEING CONVERTED ON A FAST SCHEDULE TO THE SCHNORKLE (RENAMED "SNORKEL" TO SIMPLIFY THE GERMAN WORD) TYPE OF UNDERWATER BREATHING APPARATUS.

IF THE TIME EVER SHOULD COME FOR A COUNTERBLOW, THE PACIFIC SUBMARINE FORCE CERTAINLY WOULD STRIKE SWIFTLY.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 17-(AP)-AN AIR FORCE GENERAL TOLD THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE TODAY THAT A HOUSE-PASSED BILL PROVIDING FOR A RADAR NETWORK TO WARN OF SNEAK AERIAL ATTACKS IS "OF GREAT URGENCY AND IMPORTANCE."

"WE KNOW OF NO EFFECTIVE DEFENSE OF ANY SORT AGAINST ATTACK FROM THE AIR WITHOUT SUCH A SYSTEM," MAJOR GENERAL GORDON P.SAVILLE TESTIFIED.

CHAIRMAN TYDINGS (D-MD) SAID THE COMMITTEE MAY ACT ON THE MEASURE LATER IN THE DAY AND ALSO ON ANOTHER HOUSE-PASSED BILL AUTHORIZING CONSTRUCTION OF A 3,000-MILE LONG RANGE FOR TESTING GUIDED MISSILES.

PART OF SAVILLE'S TESTIMONY WAS MADE PUBLIC AFTER A CLOSED MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE.

HE SAID CONSIDERABLE TIME WILL BE NEEDED TO "INSTALL AND PERFECT AND ADEQUATE WARNING AND CONTROL SYSTEM." BECAUSE OF THAT, HE ADDED, "THE URGENCY OF AUTHORIZATION TO BEGIN THIS VITAL TASK IS APPARENT."

THE RADAR FENCE WOULD BE LINKED WITH A SIMILAR NETWORK IN CANADA AND WOULD BE SUPERVISED BY EIGHT CONTROL CENTERS SCATTERED ACROSS THE NATION.

UNDER THE HOUSE BILL INITIAL EXPENDITURES WOULD BE LIMITED TO $85,500,000, ALTHOUGH THE ULTIMATE COST IS EXPECTED TO BE $161,000,000.

THE TOTAL COST OF BUILDING A TESTING RANGE FOR GUIDED MISSILES THAT COULD BE HURLED INTO A COUNTER-ATTACK IS ESTIMATED AT $200,000,000.

ROBERT F.BACHER, MEMBER OF THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, MADE THE ESTIMATE IN A SPEECH TODAY AT A SCIENCE CONFERENCE AT WELLESLEY COLLEGE.

NO SITE HAS BEEN DETERMINED FOR THE WESTERN PLANT BUT A LOCATION NEAR POCATELLO,IDAHO, IS RELIABLY REPORTED TO BE FAVORED. BACHER SAID SITE STUDIES ARE NOW BEING CARRIED ON.

HE ADDED THAT THE LOCATION WILL "NEED TO BE A REMOTE SITE" BECAUSE MANY OF THE SAME REQUIREMENTS FOR SAFETY AND SECURITY WHICH CHARACTERIZE THE OPERATION AT HANFORD,WASH.,--ONE OF THE WAR-TIME PLANTS--WILL ALSO APPLY FOR THE NEW STATION.

BACHER SAID TWO OF THE FOUR TYPES OF REACTORS NOW BEING DESIGNED ARE SCHEDULED TO BE BUILT AT THE NEW SITE. THESE ARE THE MATERIALS TESTING REACTOR AND THE NAVY POWER REACTOR.

"THE SITE IS BEING CHOSEN," HE SAID, "TO ACCOMMODATE DEVELOPMENT REACTORS FOR MANY YEARS TO COME, AND HENCE MUST BE ADEQUATE FOR MACHINES FAR BEYOND THESE TWO UNITS."

A COMMISSION AIDE EXPLAINED THAT A REACTOR IS A SORT OF FURNACE WHERE ATOMIC ENERGY MAY BE RELEASED UNDER CONTROL.

BACHER ADDED:

"WITH THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THIS NEW SITE, THE DEVELOPMENT OF NUCLEAR REACTORS, WHICH IS THE BACKBONE OF PEACETIME UTILIZATION OF ATOMIC ENERGY, IS NOW MOVING INTO A NEW ERA OF ACCOMPLISHMENT."

THE MATERIALS-TESTING REACTOR, HE EXPLAINED, IS INTENDED TO STUDY THE EFFECTS OF THE INTENSE RADIATIONS PRODUCED IN A NUCLEAR REACTION UPON THE MATERIALS USED TO CONSTRUCT REACTORS.

(150) WASHINGTON,MARCH 17-(AP)-THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE VOTED TODAY TO REQUIRE SHIPMENT OF FOREIGN AID SUPPLIES ON U.S. VESSELS SO LONG AS THE COST "DOES NOT EXCEED A REASONABLE DIFFERENTIAL" ABOVE WORLD RATES.

CHAIRMAN KEE (D-WVA) SAID THIS WOULD GIVE ECA ADMINISTRATOR PAUL HOFFMAN WIDER LATITUDE THAN HE HAS IN DECIDING WHEN TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF LOWER RATES ON FOREIGN VESSELS.

THE PRESENT LAW REQUIRES THAT AT LEAST HALF THE GOODS SHIPPED FROM THIS COUNTRY UNDER THE ECA PROGRAM BE CARRIED ON U.S. SHIPS. THIS WOULD BE RETAINED UNDER THE NEW AMENDMENT, KEE SAID, BUT HOFFMAN WOULD HAVE AUTHORITY TO DISREGARD THE REQUIREMENT WHENEVER U.S. RATES WERE MORE THAN THE "REASONABLE DIFFERENTIAL" ABOVE WORLD MARKET RATES.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 17-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES, CANADA AND AUSTRALIA LAST NIGHT PROPOSED A NEW INTERNATIONAL WHEAT PACT EXCLUDING THE SOVIET UNION.

DR.CHARLES F.WILSON OF CANADA, CHAIRMAN OF THE EXPORTERS' COMMITTEE OF THE INTERNATIONAL WHEAT CONFERENCE, SAID THE ACTION CAME AFTER THE RUSSIAN DELEGATION REFUSED TO PARTICIPATE ON TERMS LAID DOWN BY THE WESTERN NATIONS.

THE THREE COUNTRIES OFFERED TO LET RUSSIA SUPPLY SOME 50,000,000 (M) BUSHELS OF WHEAT ANNUALLY FOR FOUR YEARS UNDER THE PROPOSED PACT.

DEPUTY SOVIET FOREIGN TRADE MINISTER SERGEI A.BORISOV TURNED DOWN THE OFFER, SAYING RUSSIA SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO SUPPLY A SHARE BASED ON HER WORLD STANDING.

THE THREE WESTERN NATIONS, COMMENTING THAT THE SOVIET PROPOSAL WOULD SEVER THEIR TRADE TIES WITH WESTERN NATIONS WHICH ARE NORMALLY ANGLO-AMERICAN WHEAT BUYERS, THEREUPON ASKED THE 50 IMPORTING NATIONS TO SIGN A PACT WITH THEM ALONE.

WILSON SAID THE RUSSIAN DELEGATION "MADE NO OBJECTION" TO THE WESTERN PROPOSAL.

UNDER IT, THE UNITED STATES, CANADA AND AUSTRALIA WOULD SUPPLY 450,000,000 (M) BUSHELS OF WHEAT ANNUALLY FOR FOUR YEARS AT A CEILING PRICE OF $1.80 A BUSHEL. THE MINIMUM WOULD BE BASED ON A SLIDING SCALE STARTING AT $1.50 IN THE FIRST YEAR AND DECLINING 10 CENTS ANNUALLY TO $1.20 IN THE FINAL YEAR.

THE IMPORTERS' POSITION WAS NOT KNOWN, BUT SHEED ANDERSON OF GREAT BRITAIN, CHAIRMAN OF THE IMPORTERS COMMITTEE, SAID:

"WE ARE VERY RELUCTANT INDEED TO ENTER AN AGREEMENT WITHOUT RUSSIA. HOWEVER, WE UNDERSTAND THE VERY DIFFICULT PROBLEM WHICH CONFRONTS THE EXPORTERS AND HOPE TO FIND A SOLUTION."

THE PROPOSED CEILING PRICE IS ABOUT 50 CENTS BELOW THE PRESENT U.S. MARKET PRICE. THE CURRENT KANSAS CITY AVERAGE IS ABOUT $2.26 1/2 A BUSHEL.

WILSON SAID EACH OF THE THREE BIG PRODUCERS WOULD SUPPLY WHEAT ON A BASIS SIMILAR TO LAST YEAR'S PACT, WHICH FELL THROUGH WHEN THE UNITED STATES FAILED TO RATIFY. THEN, CANADA OFFERED TO SUPPLY 230,000,000 BUSHELS, THE UNITED STATES 185,000,000 AND AUSTRALIA 85,000,000 ANNUALLY. THE TOTAL CALLED FOR UNDER THE PACT WAS 500,000,000 (M) BUSHELS, 50,000,000 LESS THAN UNDER THE CURRENT PROPOSAL.

Atlantic Pact Pledges Eight Democracies To Fight Together Against Any Aggressor, Acheson Describes It as Answer to Russia

ADDRESS FOLLOWS RELEASE OF TEXT OF ATLANTIC PACT

Brands as a 'Lie' Russia's Charges That Alliance Is Aggressive

OUTLINES PROVISIONS

Treaty Pledges Aid Against Attack: Congress to Have Final Say

WASHINGTON, March 18—(AP) The Atlantic powers today unveiled their historic treaty to checkmate aggression, by arms if need be. And Secretary of State Acheson warned that control of Europe by an "unfriendly" power would be an intolerable threat to the United States.

The proposed treaty would draw a defensive ring around a vast territory, from Norway's Arctic border, through the heart of Europe, down to the Mediterranean and across the Atlantic Ocean to take in all of North America.

As set forth in the text of the projected 20-year alliance, each member nation would be pledged to come to the aid of an attacked signatory nation with such assistance "as it deems necessary, including the use of armed force."

Seen Check on Red Expansion

Acheson made clear he thinks that if the Soviet Union sought to expand farther westward through use of force, that such action automatically would set off quick retaliatory moves by the United States and other members of the proposed alliance.

Control of Europe "by a single, aggressive unfriendly power" would be an "intolerable threat to the national security of the United States," he said.

His world-wide radio address followed 12 hours after release of the text of the treaty. Before the agreement can go into effect it must be approved by the Senate and the governments of the six other nations which drew up the document.

Calls Red Charges a "Lie"

Acheson branded as a "lie" Russian charges that the alliance is aggressive.

He said:

"This country is not planning to make war against anyone.—It is not seeking war.—It abhors war.—It does not hold war to be inevitable."

Acheson said this country's policies, as expressed in the words of the Atlantic Pact, "are devised with the specific aim of bridging by peaceful means the tremendous differences which beset international society at the present time."

As the secretary of state set forth the basic principles designed to guide this and other nations toward universal peace, the Voice of America was beaming to Russia and other countries around the world these other developments:

1. The Italian Chamber of Deputies in a riotous session voted two to one for Italy's adherence to the Atlantic defense system. Communist-led members previously had staged a 53-hour filibuster against the action which set off new demonstrations after the vote was taken. The Italian senate has yet to consider the treaty.

2. Members of the U. S. Senate generally expressed approval of the compact's aims, although some took exception to the provision under which the United States might be called on to use its military forces in helping a member nation under attack.

Senate Plans Hearings

Chairman Connally (D-Tex) said his Senate Foreign Relations committee will open hearings on the treaty just as soon as it is put up for consideration. He termed the accord an "instrument of great moral power" directed "only against aggression."

3. Leaders of the western European member states hailed the alliance as a great stride toward security on that war devastated continent.

Foreign Secretary Bevin of Great Britain accused communists of "creating a situation of fear" so that all Europe could be "brought into bondage." He said the Atlantic Pact is the answer to this situation.

In Paris, French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman declared the pact provides his oft-attacked country with an effective shield against aggression.

Similar views were expressed in other capitals of the allied powers.

But even before the terms of the treaty were revealed a Moscow newspaper demanded anew that Norway sign a non-aggression pact with the Soviets to reduce "tension in the north."

Acheson spoke at the end of an intensely busy day climaxing eight months of American diplomacy unprecedented in the century and a half of the nation's history.

Article Five Key Section

Under the Key section of the treaty—Article Five—all the states would rally instantly to the assistance of an attacked member and aid in meeting the aggression. But each government would decide precisely what kind of air should be given.

Acheson told a news conference earlier today that the constituional authorities in this country—meaning congress in case war was to be declared—would decide what action was "necessary."

But he left no doubt in the minds of his hearers that he believed that if France, for example, should be attacked the United States, should and would along with all the other powers, go to war to stop the attacker.

At the other extreme, Acheson said, no nation would use a sledge hammer for the purpose of putting down a border incident.

In his speech tonight, Acheson stressed again—the "honest judgement" formula which he had first advanced in his news conference this morning, by which each member nation would decide what action it "deems necessary" to "restore and maintain the security of the North Atlantic area."

The secretary of state earlier had outlined his views on how much ground the "armed attack" clause would cover. In addition to the easily recognized overt forms of aggression, he said it would apply in cases where the attack resulted from communists internal aggression.

He told questioning reporters that an attack on an American or other allied plane in the Berlin air lift over Russian territory certainly would be cause for action by the treaty powers.

The 1,000-word agreement, containing only 14 sharply written articles, was revealed here and abroad simultaneously at 11 a.m., E.S.T.

It was the result of eight months of intensive negotiation during which many officials believe the last strands of what has been known as "American Isolationism" gradually were shorn from this nation's foreign policy.

Clearly Acheson and other state department officials feel that a historic and critical turning point in American relations with Europe has been reached. And there seems to be no lack of confidence that the administration's policies in this instance would be supported by the senate when the treaty is submitted for ratification.

To Be Signed Next Month

The document is to be signed in Washington about April 4 by the original Atlantic powers which started the treaty negotiations here last July 6. They are the United States, Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. All seven nations must ratify the accord before it will become effective.

Other nations, however, have been invited in recent weeks to join the alliance. Among these are Norway, Denmark, Italy, Iceland and Portugal.

Although Norway is a certain signer, communist opposition in some of the other countries has hampered final governmental action, pointing up the east-west split which compelled the treaty in the first place.

Italy finally obtained parliamentary approval today for joining the western alliance but only after a bitter anti-pact battle by the communists.

No Automatic Commitment

The text of the treaty actually contained few surprises. However, in the opinion of some observers, the article five provision for joint action in event of an armed attack was more strongly stated and carried a clearer obligation for resistance on the part of each nation than senate leaders and others had previously expected. Even so it avoided any automatic commitment to go to war.

This article asserts first that the nations siging the treaty "agree that an armed attack against one or more of them in Europe or North America shall be considered an attack against them all."

It then adds that the member nations "agree that, if such an armed attack occurs, each of them x x x will assist the party or parties so attacked by taking forthwith x x x such action as it deems necessary, including the use of armed force, to restore and maintain the security of the North Atlantic area."

The third point made by article five is that the attack and the measures taken against it by the pact powers should be reported to the United Nations Security Council. As soon as the council took measures to restore peace and security the steps taken by the western nations through the regional alliance would be ended.

Two Other Key Articles

The other two key action articles of the treaty are those which immediately precede and follow article five:

Article Four would provide for consultation whenever any one member thought that its "territorial integrity, political independence or security" was threatened.

All that the member would have to do would be to ask for a meeting of the powers to consider the threat. If the threat occurred outside the European-North American area—as for instance in the Middle East—the treaty nations would not be obligated to take action to meet it although they might agree to do so.

Article Six declares than an armed attack would include an attack on the territory of any of the treaty members in Europe or North America, on the Algerian departments of France (North Africa), on the occupation forces in Germany and Austria, on the islands in the Atlantic north of the Tropic of Cancer (which cuts across the Caribbean and North Africa) or "on the vessels or aircraft in this area of any of the parties."

Operating Machinery

As for the alliance's operating machinery, the treaty calls for establishment of a council — which might have its headquarters in Europe—and which would meet or be ready to meet almost constantly. The council would set up a regional strategic high command in the form of a defense committee.

One of the main and immediate tasks of this committee would be to evolve plans "by means of continuous and effective self-help and mutual aid" for strengthening the military power of the coalition.

To help carry out the Article Three objectives, the Truman administration expects soon to lay before Congress a $1,000,000,000 arms aid program for the other member nations.

The treaty contains several operative clauses. One provides that any other European state may be brought into the alliance if it is "in a position to further the principles of this treaty and to contribute to the security of the North Atlantic area."

As outlined in the text the stated principles of the accord include an expression of faith in the purposes and principles of the U.N. charter and also a declaration of intention to strengthen the "free institutions" of the western powers.

Signers Will Pledge Joint Resistance Against Attack

MAR 19 1949

DAY

Washington, March 18 (AP)—The Atlantic pact powers today made public their security treaty, officially disclosing this big point: The United States would be bound automatically to counter in some way an attack on any ally perhaps even by use of "armed force."

In a news conference, Secretary of State Acheson went a little further than the bare words of the proposed treaty.

Asked about the extent of the obligation to fight in event of an attack, Acheson explained it this way:

If, in the judgment of the United States Government, armed force would be necessary to restore the security of the North Atlantic area, then there would be an obligation to use it under the treaty.

Eight Nations To Sign

The fourteen-article, 1,040-word pact was made public at 11 A.M. today by the eight nations that negotiated it. It will be signed by those eight, including the United States and the key nations of western Europe, about April 4, in Washington. It will become effective only after ratification, which in the United States means it must be approved by the Senate.

Some Senate criticism is expected by Administration officials but they are confident of eventual ratification. Acheson talked at various stages of the negotiations with such Senate foreign-policy leaders as Senators Connally (D., Texas), chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, and Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.), former chairman.

Acheson will go on the radio (CBS, ABC and Mutual) at 10.30 o'clock (E.S.T.) tonight for a report to the nation on the treaty.

[The address will be telecast by WMAR-TV.]

Approval Of Truman

In Key West, Fla., President Truman said he had looked over the advance text of Acheson's speech and approves it.

Mr. Truman also told a news conference he has read the final draft of the treaty and it has his entire approval.

Connally said the Foreign Relations Committee will hold public hearings on the treaty as soon as it is submitted to the Senate. He said that the length of the hearings will depend on how many persons want to appear.

"The committee has been keeping abreast of the treaty negotiations and is well acquainted with its terms," the Texas said.

"Want Country To Know"

"For our part, I don't think we will need long hearings. But we want the country to know all about the treaty and to understand it."

Acheson was asked at his news conference what might constitute an armed attack which would cause the treaty powers to spring into action with resistance measures.

As one example, he said, it would be considered an armed attack if American planes flying the airlift to Berlin over the Soviet zone were attacked by Soviet aircraft.

Internal Communist Uprising

He also strongly indicated that it might apply in some cases of an internal Communist uprising in one of the Western Allies.

On this point, Acheson told reporters the powers in his view would not be confronted with an "armed attack" which they would have to resist if a purely internal revolution occurred in one of the countries.

But he added that should there be revolutionary activity inspired and assisted from the outside—such as the Communist warfare against the Greek Government—that very well might be considered an armed attack.

As to whether the United States has a moral obligation to go to war in event France or some other nation was attacked, Acheson did not say specifically.

MAR 19 1949

Rights Of Congress

The pact itself recognizes that so far as the United States is concerned, only Congress can declare war. It does this by saying that each nation would decide for itself whether military force was "necessary."

The words are that each of the Allied nations would have to assist the country attacked "by taking forthwith . . . such action as it deems necessary, including the use of armed force, to restore and maintain the security of the North Atlantic area."

That is the heart of the treaty. Acheson said that it makes clear that if the government of a country decides that armed force has to be used to restore the security of the North Atlantic area because one of the member nations has been attacked, then that country would have an obligation to use such force.

Outside Area Of Pact

If an attack threatened the security of some of the allies, but occurred outside of the American-western European region (for instance in the Middle East) the Atlantic powers could consult. Acheson said the members would have no obligation to act beyond consultation although they might do so.

The whole world is watching now for Moscow's reaction.

MAR 19 1949

Has Fourteen Articles

This official disclosure of the terms is expected to arouse Russia to new heights in propaganda attacks against the alliance. The Soviets have already denounced it as an aggressive move against them, despite the repeated assertions of Western leaders that its aim is strictly defensive.

The treaty, 1,040 words and fourteen articles long, provides for creation of a council of the member nations, and of a defense committee to strengthen and co-ordinate the defenses of the whole huge region of North America, western Europe and the North Atlantic.

An attack against the territory, occupation forces, ships, planes or islands of any of the allies anywhere in this vast area would be the signal for all the powers to spring into action, according to the treaty's provisions.

Key Provision

The key provision of the pact is Article 5, which says:

"The parties agree that an armed attack against one or more of them in Europe or North America shall be considered an attack against them all; and consequently they agree that if such an armed attack occurs, each of them, in exercise of the right of individual or collective self defense recognized by Article 51 of the Charter of the United Nations, will assist the party or parties so attacked by taking forthwith, individually and in concert with the other parties, such action as it deems necessary, including the use of armed force, to restore and maintain the security of the North Atlantic area.

Report To U.N. Council

"Any such armed attack and all measures taken as a result thereof shall immediately be reported to the United Nations Security Council. Such measures shall be terminated when the Security Council has taken the measures necessary to restore and maintain international peace and security."

That is the long-debated section which, although stopping short of an automatic pledge to go to war, is designed to put Russia on notice that an attack on any of the Western powers would instantly be met by all of them.

Other Signers Expected

The "parties" referred to in the pact are the nations signing it. These will definitely include the United States, Canada, Norway, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. In addition, Iceland, Portugal, Denmark and Italy have been invited and are expected to sign.

After next month's signing, the treaty will come into actual force when a majority of the governments have ratified it. But the majority must include America, Britain, Canada, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Arms Fund Bill Due

Even while the Senate is debating the treaty, President Truman is expected to send to Congress a billion-dollar program to rearm the treaty nations of western Europe and thus give added meaning to the all-important Article Five.

Other major provisions of the proposed pact:

1. The North Atlantic Council is to be "so organized as to be able to meet promptly at any time." Presumably it would be called into session as soon as an emergency threatened.

2. The Defense Committee "shall recommend measures" for defending the whole area and building up the military strength of the pact powers. The committee would be created by the council.

3. Each of the member nations would be obligated to engage in "continuous self-help and mutual aid." It is under this section that the American Government will ask Congress next month to authorize a billion-dollar European rearmament program.

30.24- 1831

4. An armed attack which would cause the treaty powers to spring into action would be (a) an attack on the territory of any of the pact countries, including Algeria (French North Africa); (b) on the occupation forces in western Germany or Austria; (c) on the islands of any of the powers in the North Atlantic north of the Tropic of Cancer, or (d) "on the vessels or aircraft in this area of any of the parties."

5. Several articles declare the treaty to be subordinate to the United Nations. These articles spell out the intentions of the member nations to seek peaceful settlements of all disputes, call for "strengthening their free institutions" and promise "economic collaboration" within the group.

6. After ten years the treaty may be reviewed for possible revision, and after twenty years any one of the nations may withdraw from it by giving a year's notice.

The treaty also provides that the signing nations may, by unanimous agreement, invite any other European state to join the alliance. A proviso is that a proposed new member be "in a position to further the principles of this treaty and to contribute to the security of the North Atlantic area." This leaves the door open for Spain and Ireland, particularly, if and when the treaty powers want to invite them and they want to join.

The text is full of references to the United Nations. In fact, the treaty opens with a preamble in which the nations "reaffirm their faith in the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations and their desire to live in peace with all peoples and governments."

Emphasis On "Self-Defense"

Despite this declaration of peaceful intentions and the emphasis on "self-defense" as the reason for making such a pact at all, officials here made plain that they expect Russia to use every available device in the arsenal of propaganda and politics to try to discredit, disrupt and defeat the project.

The Soviet Union is not mentioned in the treaty itself. And the provisions could just as readily apply to any other nation which went on the warpath. But the State Department has declared officially that the need for such a regional defense arrangement was created by Russia's "obstructionism" in the United Nations and the growing fear of war in Europe.

Shield For E.R.P.

In terms of American foreign policy the treaty is described by department officials as a shield for the multibillion-dollar European Recovery Program. The aim of that program is to give the people in Europe a greater sense of security and thereby advance the economic reconstruction of the Western nations.

In the view of some diplomatic authorities it remains to be seen whether that kind of result will quickly follow. There has been much speculation here and in other Western capitals about what countermoves Russia may make. Some officials believe the Soviet reaction may be to create a war scare this spring in an effort to defeat the purposes of the treaty.

Another Theory

Others speculate that, in time, the Soviets will see the West firmly arrayed in defensive formation and so take a "live and let live" attitude and undertake negotiations for a truce in the cold war.

For the present, however, Russia has shown no such inclination.

Communist leaders in the non-Communist countries have generally declared that if a conflict comes they will line up with the Soviet Union.

President Truman and Acheson have already made clear that the treaty is but the first of various major foreign policy moves.

Arms-Aid Program

The next one is the arms assistance program for western Europe.

In addition, the treaty countries are due to set up machinery for coordinating their defenses and their military plans. It is in the course of the negotiations on this matter that the nations are expected to tackle the problems of bases on the Atlantic islands which guard the supply line between the North American continent and Western Europe.

Three countries control key islands—Denmark with Greenland, Portugal with the Azores and the island republic of Iceland. They have all stated that they would come into the alliance only on the understanding that they would not be compelled to grant peacetime island bases to foreign powers. Acheson has assured them that the treaty carries no such compulsion.

The State Department has taken the position that the treaty provides the framework in which the base problem can be worked out. A number of top strategists here believe that American bases or American access to bases in Greenland, Iceland and the Azores is essential to the security of the North Atlantic area.

Text Of North Atlantic Alliance For Security

Washington, March 18 (AP)—The text of the North Atlantic security alliance to be signed here the first week in April:

MAR 19 1949

Preamble

The parties to this treaty reaffirm their faith in the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations and their desire to live in peace with all peoples and all governments.

They are determined to safeguard the freedom, common heritage and civilization of their peoples, founded on the principles of democracy, individual liberty and the rule of law.

They seek to promote stability and well-being in the North Atlantic area.

They are resolved to unite their efforts for collective defense and for the preservation of peace and security.

They, therefore, agree to this North Atlantic treaty:

Article 1

The parties undertake, as set forth in the Charter of the United Nations, to settle any international disputes in which they may be involved by peaceful means in such a manner that international peace and security, and justice, are not endangered, and to refrain in their international relations from the threat or use of force in any manner inconsistent with the purposes of the United Nations.

Article 2

The parties will contribute toward the future development of peaceful and friendly international relations by strengthening their free institutions, by bringing about a better understanding of the principles upon which these institutions are founded, and by promoting conditions of stability and well-being. They will seek to eliminate conflict in their international economic policies and will encourage economic collaboration between any or all of them.

Article 3

In order more effectively to achieve the objectives of this treaty, the parties, separately and jointly, by means of continuous and effective self-help and mutual aid, will maintain and develop their individual and collective capacity to resist armed attack.

Article 4

The parties will consult together whenever, in the opinion of any of them, the territorial integrity, political independence or security of any of the parties is threatened.

Article 5

The parties agree that an armed attack against one or more of them in Europe or North America shall be considered an attack against them all; and consequently they agree that, if such an armed attack occurs, each of them, in exercise of the right of individual or collective self-defense recognized by Article 51 of the Charter of the United Nations, will assist the party or parties so attacked by taking forthwith, individually and in concert with the other parties, such action as it deems necessary, including the use of armed force, to restore and maintain the security of the North Atlantic area.

Any such armed attack and all measures taken as a result thereof shall immediately be reported to the Security Council. Such measures shall be terminated when the Security Council has taken the measures necessary to restore and maintain international peace and security.

Article 6

For the purpose of Article 5 an armed attack on one or more of the parties is deemed to include an armed attack on the territory of any of the parties in Europe or North America, on the Algerian departments of France, on the occupation forces of any party in Europe, on the islands under the jurisdiction of any party in the North Atlantic area north of the Tropic of Cancer or on the vessels or aircraft in this area of any of the parties.

Article 7

This treaty does not affect, and shall not be interpreted as affecting, in any way the rights and obligations under the Charter of the parties which are members of the United Nations, or the primary responsibility of the Security Council for the maintenance of international peace and security.

MAR 19 1949

Article 8

Each party declares that none of the international engagements now in force between it any any other of the parties or any third state is in conflict with the provisions of this treaty, and undertakes not to enter into any international engagement in conflict with this treaty.

Article 9

The parties hereby establish a council, on which each of them shall be represented, to consider matters concerning the implementation of this treaty. The council shall be so organized as to be able to meet promptly at any time. The council shall set up such subsidiary bodies as may be necessary; in particular it shall establish immediately a defense committee which shall recommend measures for the implementation of Articles 3 and 5.

Article 10

The parties may, by unanimous agreement, invite any other European state in a position to further the principles of this treaty and to contribute to the security of the North Atlantic area to accede to this treaty. Any state so invited may become a party to the treaty by depositing its instrument of accession with the Government of the United States of America. The Government of the United States of America will inform each of the parties of the deposit of each such instrument of accession.

Article 11

This treaty shall be ratified and its provisions carried out by the parties in accordance with their respective constitutional processes. The instruments of ratification shall be deposited as soon as possible with the Government of the United States of America, which will notify all the other signatories of each deposit. The treaty shall enter into force between the states which have ratified it as soon as the ratifications of the majority of the signatories, including the ratifications of Belgium, Canada, France, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, the United Kingdom and the United States, have been deposited, and shall come into effect with respect to other states on the date of the deposit of their ratifications.

Article 12

After the treaty has been in force for ten years, or at any time thereafter, the parties shall, if any of them so request, consult together for the purpose of reviewing the treaty, having regard for the factors then affecting peace and security in the North Atlantic area, including the development of universal as well as regional arrangements under the Charter of the United Nations for the maintenance of international peace and security.

Article 13

After the treaty has been in force for twenty years, any party may cease to be a party one year after its notice of denunciation has been given to the Government of the United States of America, which will inform the governments of the other parties of the deposit of each notice of denunciation.

MAR 19 1949

Article 14

This treaty, of which the English and French texts are equally authentic, shall be deposited in the archives of the Government of the United States of America. Duly certified copies thereof will be transmitted by that Government to the governments of the other signatories.

In witness whereof, the undersigned plenipotentiaries have signed this treaty.

The Atlantic Treaty in Brief

WASHINGTON, March 18 (AP)—A glance at the proposed North Atlantic treaty:

Sponsors: United States, Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. Norway, Italy, Portugal, Denmark and Iceland are expected to come in later.

Announced purpose: "To safeguard the freedom, common heritage and civilization of their peoples, founded on the principals of democracy, individual liberty and the rule of law."

The nub: "An armed attack against one or more of them in Europe or North America shall be considered an attack on them all x x x." In case of such an attack, each of the nations agrees to assist the party attacked by taking "such action as it deems necessary, including the use of armed force.xxx."

Attack defined: It's "an armed attack on the territory of any of the parties in Europe or North America, on the Algerian departments of France, on the occupation forces of any party in Europe, on the islands under the jurisdiction of any party in the North Atlantic area north of the Tropic of Cancer or on the vessels or aircraft in this area of any of the parties."

U.N. Tie: The U.N. Security Council must be notified "immediately" of any armed attack on the member nations and of all measures taken as a result. Those measures shall end when the security council has taken the measures necessary to restore international peace and security.

Mutual help: The members pledge that "by means of continuous and effective self help and mutual aid, (they) will maintain and develop their individual and collective capacity to resist armed attack." (This covers the expected arms aid from the U.S.)

Effective date: After its ratification by a majority of the signers, including the U. S., Britain, France Canada, Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands. The treaty is to be signed the first week in April. Ratification by the U. S. Senate will be necessary.

Length of agreement: At least 21 years, with the treaty to be reviewed after it has been in effect 10 years.

New members: By unanimous agreement, the signers can invite to membership "any other European state in a position to further the prinicples of this treaty and to contribute to the security of the North Atlantic area."

Acheson's Atlantic Pact Speech

WASHINGTON, March 18 (AP)—The complete text of Secretary of State Dean Acheson's nation-wide radio address tonight on the Atlantic pact:

The text of the proposed North Atlantic pact was made public today. I welcome this opportunity to talk with my fellow citizens about it. It has taken many months to work out this text with the representatives of the other nations involved. First, Mr. Lovett and then I met with the Ambassadors of Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxemburg. Recently, the Ambassador of Norway joined in these discussions. These talks had to be conducted in private and in confidence, so that each of us could speak frankly and fully on matters of vital importance to our countries. It is for this compelling reason that public discussion of the text of the pact by your representatives has not been possible up to this time.

That restraint no longer applies. The treaty and its implications can now be fully discussed. Public opinion can now be formed on the basis of complete information. Only in this way can your government have what former Secretary of State Stimson has termed the "understanding support . . . of the American people," which is essential to the success of any policy.

I think the American people will want to know the answers to three principal questions about the pact: How did it come about and why is it necessary? What are its terms? Will it accomplish its purpose?

The paramount purposes of the pact are peace and security. If peace and security can be achieved in the North Atlantic area, we shall have gone a long way to assure peace and security in other areas as well.

The achievement of peace and security means more than that in the final outcome we shall have prevented war and brought about the settlement of international disputes by peaceful means. There must be conviction of people everywhere that war will be prevented and that disputes will be settled peacefully. In the most practical terms, true international peace and security require a firm belief by the peoples of the world that they will not be subjected to unprovoked attack, to coercion and intimidation, to interference in their own affairs. Peace and security require confidence in the future, based on the assurance that the peoples of the world will be permitted to improve their conditions of life, free from fear that the fruits of their labor may be taken from them by alien hands.

Goals of U. S. Policy

These are goals of our own foreign policy which President Truman has emphasized many times, most recently in his inaugural address when he spoke of the hope that we could help create "the conditions that will lead eventually to personal freedom and happiness for all mankind." These are also the purposes of the United Nations, whose members are pledged "to maintain international peace and security" and to promote "the economic and social advancement of all peoples."

These purposes are intimately related to the origins of the United Nations. As the second world war neared its end, the peoples who bore the brunt of the fighting were sick of the horror, the brutality, the tragedy of war. Out of that revulsion came the determination to create a system that would go as far as humanly possible in insuring international peace and security.

The United Nations seeks to maintain peace and security by enjoining its members from using force to settle international disputes. Moreover, it insists that they acknowledge tolerance and co-operation as the guiding principles for the conduct of nations.

The members are expected to settle differences by the exercise of reason and adjustment, according to the principles of justice and law. This requires a spirit of tolerance and restraint on the part of all the members.

But, as in any other institution which presupposes restraint, violence or obstruction can be used to defeat the basic undertaking. This happens in personal relations, in families, communities, churches, politics, and everywhere in human life. If the system is used in ways it was not intended to be used, there is grave danger that the system will be disrupted.

That applies to the United Nations. The system is not working as effectively as we hoped because one of its members has attempted to prevent it from working. By obstructive tactics and the misuse of the veto, the Soviet Union has seriously interfered with the work of the Security Council in maintaining international peace and security.

APR 19 1949

Cites Charter Provisions

But the United Nations is a flexible instrument. Although the actions of the Soviet Union have disturbed the work of the United Nations, it is strong enough to be an effective instrument for peace. It is the instrument by which we hope world peace will be achieved. The Charter recognizes the importance of regional arrangements consistent with the purposes and principles of the charter. Such arrangements can greatly strengthen it.

The Atlantic pact is a collective self-defense arrangement among the countries of the North Atlantic area. It is aimed at co-ordinating the exercise of the right of self-defense especially recognized in Article 51 of the United Nations Charter. It is designed to fit precisely into the framework of the United Nations and to assure practical measures for maintaining peace and security in harmony with the Charter.

It is the firm intention of the parties to carry out the pact in accordance with the provisions of the United Nations Charter and in a manner which will advance its purposes and principles.

Already one such arrangement under the Charter has been established with United States participation. The twenty-one American republics in reorganizing their regional system have specifically brought it within the framework of the United Nations Charter. We are now joining in the formation of a second arrangement, pertaining to the North Atlantic area, likewise within the framework of the United Nations.

It is important to keep in mind that the really successful national and international institutions are those that recognize and express underlying realities. The North Atlantic community of nations is such a reality. It is based on the affinity and natural identity of interests of the North Atlantic powers.

The North Atlantic treaty which will formally unite them is the product of at least three hundred and fifty years of history, perhaps more. There developed on our Atlantic coast a community, which has spread across the continent, connected with Western Europe by common institutions and moral and ethical beliefs. Similarities of this kind are not superficial, but fundamental. They are the strongest kind of ties, because they are based on moral conviction, on acceptance of the same values in life.

Western Restraint Noted

The very basis of western civilization, which we share with the other nations bordering the North Atlantic, and which all of us share with many other nations, is the ingrained spirit of restraint and tolerance. This is the opposite of the Communist belief that coercion by force is a proper method of hastening the inevitable. Western civilization has lived by mutual restraint and tolerance. This civilization permits and stimulates free inquiry and bold experimentation. It creates the environment of freedom, from which flows the greatest amount of ingenuity, enterprise and accomplishment.

These principles of democracy, individual liberty and the rule of law have flourished in this Atlantic community. They have universal validity. They are shared by other free nations and find expression on a universal basis in the Charter of the United Nations; they are the standards by which its members have solemnly agreed to be judged. They are the elements out of which are forced the peace and welfare of mankind.

Added to this profoundly important basis of understanding is another unifying influence—the effect of living on the sea. The sea does not separate people as much as it joins them, through trade, travel, mutual understanding and common interests.

For this second reason, as well as the first, North America and Western Europe have formed the two halves of what is in reality one community, and have maintained an abiding interest in each other.

It is clear that the North

30.24- 1833

Atlantic pact is not an improvisation. It is the statement of the facts and lessons of history. We have learned our history lesson from two world wars in less than half a century. That experience has taught us that the control of Europe by a single aggressive, unfriendly power would constitute an intolerable threat to the national security of the United States. We participated in those two great wars to preserve the integrity and independence of the European half of the Atlantic community in order to preserve the integrity and independence of the American half. It is a simple fact, proved by experience, that an outside attack on one member of this community is an attack upon all members.

Lesson Stressed

We have also learned that if the free nations do not stand together they will fall one by one. The stratagem of the aggressor is to keep his intended victims divided, or, better still, set them to quarreling among themselves. Then they can be picked off one by one without arousing unified resistance. We and the free nations of Europe are determined that history shall not repeat itself in that melancholy particular.

As President Truman has said: "If we can make it sufficiently clear, in advance, that any armed attack affecting our national security would be met with overwhelming force the armed attack might never occur."

The same thought was expressed by the Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate last year in its report recommending approval of Senate Resolution 239. "The committee is convinced," the report said, "that the horrors of another world war can be avoided with certainty only by preventing war from starting. The experience of World War I and World War II suggests that the best deterrent is the certainty that immediate and effective counter-measures will be taken against those who violate the peace." That resolution, adopted by an overwhelming vote of the Senate, expressly encourages the development of collective self-defense and regional arrangements within the United Nations framework and the participation of the United States in these arrangements.

What are the principal provisions of the North Atlantic pact? I should like to summarize them.

First, the pact is carefully and conscientiously designed to conform in every particular with the Charter of the United Nations. This is made clear in the first article of the pact, which reiterates and reaffirms the basic principle of the Charter. The participating countries at the very outset of their association state again that they will settle all their international disputes not only among themselves but with any nation, by peaceful means in accordance with the provisions of the Charter. This declaration sets the whole tone and purpose of this treaty.

"A Common Resolve"

The second article is equally fundamental. The associated countries assert that they will preserve and strengthen their free institutions and will see to it that the fundamental principles upon which free institutions are founded are better understood everywhere. They also agree to eliminate conflicts in their economic life and to promote economic co-operation among themselves. Here is the ethical essence of the treaty—the common resolve to preserve, strengthen and make understood the very basis of tolerance, restraint and freedom—the really vital things with which we are concerned.

This purpose is extended further in Article 3, in which the participating countries pledge themselves to self-help and mutual aid. In addition to strengthening their free institutions, they will take practical steps to maintain and develop their own capacity and that of their partners to resist aggression. They also agree to consult together when the integrity or security of any of them is threatened. The treaty sets up a council, consisting of all the members, and other machinery for consultation and for carrying out the provisions of the pact.

Successful resistance to aggression in the modern world requires modern arms and trained military forces. As a result of the recent war, the European countries joining in the pact are generally deficient in both requirements. The treaty does not bind the United States to any arms program. But we all know that the United States is now the only democratic nation with the resources and the productive capacity to help free nations of Europe to recover their military strength.

Therefore, we expect to ask the Congress to supply our European partners some of the weapons and equipment they need to be able to resist aggression. We also expect to recommend military supplies for other nations which will co-operate with us in safeguarding peace and security.

Points to Greece and Turkey

In the compact world of today, the security of the United States cannot be defined in terms of boundaries and frontiers. A serious threat to international peace and security anywhere in the world is of direct concern to this country. Therefore it is our policy to help free people to maintain their integrity and independence, not only in Western Europe or in the Americas, but wherever the aid we are able to provide can be effective. Our actions in supporting the integrity and independence of Greece, Turkey and Iran are expressions of that determination. Our interest in the security of these countries has been made clear, and we shall continue to pursue that policy.

In providing military assistance to other countries, both inside and outside the North Atlantic pact, we will give clear priority to the requirements for economic recovery. We will carefully balance the military assistance with the capacity and requirements of the total economy, both at home and abroad.

But to return to the treaty, Article 5 deals with the possibility, which unhappily cannot be excluded, that the nations joining together in the pact may have to face the eventuality of an armed attack. In this article, they agree that an armed attack on any of them, in Europe or North America, will be considered an attack on all of them. In the event of such an attack, each of them will take, individually and in concert with the other parties, whatever action it deems necessary to restore and maintain the security of the North Atlantic area, including the use of armed force.

Not Committed to Fight

This does not mean that the United States would be automatically at war if one of the nations covered by the pact is subjected to armed attack. Under our Constitution, the Congress alone has the power to declare war. We would be bound to take promptly the action which we deemed necessary to restore and maintain the security of the North Atlantic area. That decision would be taken in accordance with our Constitutional procedures. The factors which would have to be considered would be, on the one side, the gravity of the armed attack; on the other, the action which we believed necessary to restore and maintain the security of the North Atlantic area. That is the end to be achieved. We are bound to do what in our honest judgement is necessary to reach that result. If we should be confronted again with a calculated armed attack such as we have twice seen in the twentieth century, I should not suppose that we would decide any action other than the use of armed force effective either as an exercise of the right of collective self-defense or as necessary to restore the peace and security of the North Atlantic area. That decision will rest where the Constitution has placed it.

This in not a legalistic question. It is a question we have frequently faced, the question of faith and principle in carrying out treaties. Those who decide it will have the responsibility for taking all appropriate action under the treaty. Such a responsibility requires the exercise of will—a will disciplined by the undertaking solemnly contracted to do what they decide is necessary to restore and maintain the peace and security of the North Atlantic area. That is our obligation under this Article 5. It is equally our duty and obligation to the security of our own country.

All of these provisions of the pact are subject to the overriding provisions of the United Nations Charter. Any measure for self-defense taken under the treaty will be reported to the Security Council of the United Nations. These measures will continue only until the Security Council, with its primary responsibility, takes the necessary action to restore peace and maintain security.

No Time Limit on Pact

The treaty has no time limit, but after it has been in effect twenty years any member can withdraw on one year's notic It also provides that after it has been in existence ten years, it will be reviewed in the circumstances prevailing at that time. Additional countries may be admitted to the pact by agreement of all the parties already signatories.

These are the principal provisions of the treaty.

Will the pact accomplish its purpose?

No one can say with certainty. We can only act on our convictions. The United States government and the governments with which we are associated in this treaty are convinced that it is an essential measure for strengthening the United Nations, deterring aggression, and establishing the sense of security necessary for the restoration of the economic and political health of the world.

It seems absurd that it should be necessary, in this era of popular education and highly developed communications, to deal with allegations which have no relation to the truth and could not stand even the crudest test of measurement against realities. Nevertheless the same

I refer here to the allegations that this treaty conceals aggressive designs on the part of its authors with respect to other countries. Any one with the most elementary knowledge of the processes of democratic government knows that democracies do not and can not plan aggressive wars. But for those from whom such knowledge may have been withheld I must make the following categoric and unequivocal statement, for which I stand with the full measure of my responsibility in the office I hold:

Sees Minds Poisoned

This country is not planning to make war against any one. It is not seeking war. It abhors war. It does not hold war to be inevitable. Its policies are devised with the specific aim of bridging by peaceful means the tremendous differences which beset international society at the present time.

Allegations that aggressive designs lie behind this country's signature of the Atlantic pact can rest only on a malicious misrepresentation or a fantastic misunderstanding of the nature and aims of American society.

This treaty is designed to help toward the goal envisioned by President Truman when he said:

". . . As our stability becomes manifest, as more and more nations come to know the benefits of democracy and to participate in growing abundance, I believe that those countries which now oppose us will abandon their delusions and join with the free nations of the world in a just settlement of international differences."

To bring that time to pass, we are determined, on the one hand, to make it unmistakably clear that immediate and effective counter measures will be taken against those who violate the peace, and, on the other, to wage peace vigorously and relentlessly.

Too often peace has been thought of as a negative condition—the mere absence of war. We know now that we cannot achieve peace by taking a negative attitude. Peace is positive, and it has to be waged with all our thought, energy and courage, and with the conviction that war is not inevitable.

United States Aid Recalled

Under the leadership of President Truman, the United States is waging peace with a vigor and on a scale without precedent. While the war was being fought, this country took the initiative in the organization of the United Nations and related agencies for the collective and co-operative conduct of international affairs. We withdrew our military forces, except those required for occupation duties, and quickly reduced our military establishment to about one-tenth its war-time size. We contributed generously to post-war relief and rehabilitation.

When events called for firmness as well as generosity the United States waged paece by pledging its aid to free nations threatened by aggression, and took prompt and vigorous action to fulfill that pledge. We have actively sought and are actively seeking to make the United Nations an effective instrument of international co-operation. We proposed, and with the eager cooperation of sixteen other nations, put into effect a great concerted program for the economic recovery and spiritual reinvigoration of Europe. We joined the other American republics, and we now join with Western Europe, in treaties to strengthen the United Nations and insure international peace and security.

The United States is waging peace by promoting measures for the revival and expansion of world trade on a sound and beneficial basis. [illegible]

"We are preparing to carry out an energetic program to apply modern skills and techniques to what President Truman has called the "primitive and stagnant" economies of vast areas, so that they will yield a better and richer life for their people.

Calls Struggle Hard

The United States is waging peace by throwing its full strength and energy into the struggle, and we shall continue to do so.

We sincerely hope we can avoid strife, but we cannot avoid striving for what is right. We devoutly hope we can have genuine peace, but we cannot be complacent about the present uneasy and troubled peace.

A secure and stable peace is not a goal we can reach all at once and for all time. It is a dynamic state, produced by effort and faith, with justice and courage. The struggle is continuous and hard. The prize is never irrevocably ours.

To have this genuine peace we must constantly work for it. But we must do even more. We must make it clear that armed attack will be met by collective defense, prompt and effective.

This is the meaning of the North Atlantic pact.

by armed minorities or by outside pressures."

JUNE 5, 1947—Secretary of State Marshall in a speech at Harvard University said the United States would be willing to furnish more billions in American money to help Europe recover from the effects of the last war.

SEPTEMBER 2, 1947 — The United States signed the Rio defense treaty at Rio de Janeiro with twenty Latin-American republics. This pledges all member countries to come to the aid of any signer in event of an attack.

MARCH 17, 1948 — Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg concluded a 50-year mutual-defense treaty guaranteeing each other military assistance in the event of an armed attack.

JUNE 11, 1948 — The Senate passed Resolution 239—the so-called "Vandenberg resolution" —which advised President Truman to follow a policy of associating the United States with "such regional and other collective defense arrangements as are based on continuous and effective self-help and mutual aid, and as affect its national security."

JULY 8, 1948 — The United States began formal negotiations for an Atlantic defense alliance with the "Brussels pact powers" —Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg — and Canada.

MARCH 18, 1949—The full text of the proposed Atlantic defense alliance is made public in the capitals of the seven original sponsoring countries and Norway, which joined the negotiations March 3.

Calendar Of Events Leading Up To Pact

Washington, March 18 (AP)—Here is a timetable of the important developments in American foreign policy that led up to the Atlantic pact.

MARCH 12, 1947—President Truman appealed personally to Congress for money to give military aid to the governments of Greece and Turkey so they could withstand Communist pressure. The President said it was the policy of the United States "to support free peoples who are resisting attempted subjugation however, and a number of senators reserved judgement. Some said they want to see how much it would cost the United States to re-arm western Europe before they give their unqualified endorsement.

In general, senators expressed gratification that the pact would not automatically commit the United States to go to war—unless Congress agrees.

Praised By Connally

Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee termed the treaty "an instrument of great moral power," and declared:

"It mobilizes the forces of peace against the forces of exploitation and war. It is a stern warning against aggression and armed attack."

Connally said his committee will start hearings immediately after the treaty is submitted for ratification. Committee members have been kept posted on the secret negotiations, he said, and will not require much time.

MAR 19 1949

Other reactions:

Senator McMahon (D-Conn), chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee:

"The proposed alliance will have my vigorous support. I regard it as a statesmanlike and judicious move to strengthen our defense against those who have refused for over three years to join with us in making a durable peace."

Senator Wiley (R-Wis), member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee:

"The pact, as I understand it, creates a binding obligation on America if any of the members is attacked to go to the rescue. This is a moral and legal obligation, but it can only be fulfilled if the Congress declares war."

Senator Douglas (D-Ill): "It is a step toward peace. Once Russia knows we intend to back up these European nations, there is much less danger that she will take aggressive action."

A leading economy advocate, Senator Byrd (D-Va) said he is "favorably inclined. . . .but with the understanding that it is not a commitment to arm Europe."

Wants More Details

In the same vein Senator Hickenlooper (D-Iowa) said: "I still want to see a general outline of what we are expected to contribute. . . . in money, equipment and other resources."

"I'm for it," Senator Kefauver (D-Tenn), said, "but I don't think it is a permanent solution to our problem. Alliances haven't worked over long periods of time in the past very well."

Senator Elbert D. Thomas (D-Utah): "In the long run it will contribute to world unity and world peace."

But Senator Malone (R-Nev) said: "I don't think this treaty is necessary. I would never vote for a commitment for this country to go to war when some European country decided its safety was threatened, when perhaps in our judgment our own safety is not threatened."

Senator Knowland (R-Calif): "I favor the general objective, but I want to reserve final judgment. . ."

Capital Leaders Back Pact; Some Demand More Details

WASHINGTON, March 18—(AP) Pledges of vigorous support for the proposed North Atlantic Treaty as a "stern warning" to warmakers came from Capitol Hill today.

Some opposition was expressed, however, and

BEVIN CALLS PACT PEACE GUARANTEE

Other European Leaders Hail Treaty as Defense Against Reds

C. L. DAVIDSON

LONDON, March 18 (AP)—Foreign Secretary Bevin said tonight the North Atlantic Treaty is the west's answer to communist efforts to impose the will of the Kremlin on all Europe through fear.

He declared in a radio broadcast the United Nations had not proved the answer to the quest for enduring peace.

"Frankly," he said, "just as the League of Nations did not fulfill its purpose, neither has the United Nations."

Bevin said it is "our firm conviction the development of the organization visualized in this (Atlantic) pact will mean the preservation of peace."

Other Leaders Hail Pact

Government leaders of Britain and other nations of western Europe hailed the treaty as a defense against both war and communism.

Premier Alcide De Gasperi, of Italy, whose government plans to line up in the alliance, told the Italian people: "If no one attacks, peace is secure."

Communists raised their old cry of "warmonger" against the eight nations which plan to sign the accord in Washington about April 4. Official disclosure of the pact's terms is expected to arouse Russia to new heights in propaganda attacks against the alliance.

Bevin predicted in the British House of Commons that the Atlantic accord will mark "a new era of cooperation and understanding."

"No nation innocent of aggressive intentions need have the slightest fear or apprehension," he said. "The pact is in every way consistent with the purposes and principles of the charter of the United Nations."

Effective Shield, Schuman Says

French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman told a Paris news conference that the pact provides France with an effective shield against aggression.

In Brussels Belgian Premier Paul-Henri Spaak said: "This treaty is an important event in history. It will make war less possible."

Dutch Foreign Minister Dirk U. Stikker told reporters in the Hague that the pact is 'of the greatest importance in the world."

Italy's Chamber of Deputies voted 342 to 170 in favor of Italy's entry into the Atlantic alliance during a tumultuous session following a 53-hour filibuster by leftists.

Jeering communist deputies stood in the chamber and sang: "Foreigner, get out of Italy." Fist fights developed. Several deputies fell or were knocked down.

The Italian senate will begin debate on the treaty, Monday.

"Aggression" Reds Charge

The Russian army newspaper in Vienna said the treaty is designed to form a military bloc "for aggression against the Soviet Union" and other communist regimes of eastern Europe.

Marshall Vassily Skolovsky, the Soviet commander in Germany, was reported to have left his Berlin headquarters for a military conference in Moscow. Berlin newspaper accounts said the meeting of Soviet military leaders in the Russian capital would be held in connection with the Atlantic treaty.

Voice of America broadcasts from New York gave full treatment to the pact. A special effort was made to reach Russia and the countries in the Soviet zone of influence.

MAR 19 1949

Bevin Hails Alliance Toward World Peace

London, March 18 (AP)—Foreign Secretary Bevin said today the North Atlantic defense alliance is "one of the greatest steps toward world peace and security" since the war.

He told Parliament the projected treaty is "a purely defensive arrangement for the common security of the countries who join it." The accord would link the United States and Canada to the western European countries in a mutual-assistance arrangement under the United Nations Charter.

"It is not directed against anyone," Bevin said. "I think we can say this agreement marks the opening of a new era of co-operation and understanding."

"Examine The Text"

Russia and the Communist countries she dominates have opposed the accord with ardor. Russia has a similar but more binding network of treaties with Poland, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia.

"If we are accused of ganging up against any country or group of countries, I say simply: 'Examine the text.'" Bevin told the House of Commons.

Stronger Europe Foreseen

He declared there are no secret clauses.

"No nation innocent of aggressive intentions need have the slightest fear or apprehension," he said. "The pact is in every way consistent with the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations."

A British Foreign Office spokesman said the accord will strengthen Europe politically and economically as well as militarily.

In Paris, French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman declared the alliance provides France with an effective shield against aggression.

30.24- 1835

"Judicial Engagement"

"We are convinced," Schuman said, "that the pact contains not only a moral but a judicial engagement upon each signatory to aid one another as rapidly and as effectively as possible in the manner each deems best, according to its means."

The Minister asserted Article 3 of the treaty requires each member to augment its own defensive potential, with the understanding that economic recovery holds priority over armament.

"Purely Defensive"

A reporter for a Communist paper asked the Minister if it would be "excessive" to deduce that the treaty implies a rearmament program for France.

Schuman replied it would not, and added: "The pact would not mean anything if the member nations did not have any arms."

"At the present time," continued Schuman, "even if they pooled all their equipment the nations of western Europe would not have enough strength to stand up against possible threats."

Schuman emphasized that the treaty was purely defensive and would be invoked only in case of an organized aggression by some other government against a signatory state.

Lie Gets Copy

A copy of the treaty was handed to United Nations Secretary General Trygve Lie at Lake Success last night by the American delegation.

In The Hague, Dutch Foreign Minister D. U. Stikker declared the new alliance is "of the greatest importance to the world," because for the first time the United States and Canada thave been willing to engage themselves in such a grouping.

He said the Dutch Government considers the treaty "generally completely satisfactory" and added:

"We believe that the forces developed by all participant countries, including 250,000,000 people, will be big enough to take away any idea of attacking."

Italy Whip Filibuster

In Ottawa, Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent presented the new treaty to the Canadian House of Commons and served notice he would stake the life of his Government on acceptance.

The Italian Government wore down a long Communist filibuster in the Chamber of Deputies and got a two-to-one vote of approval for Italy to accept a bid to join up. Fist fighting, the most tumultuous the Chamber has yet seen, broke out soon after, but was brought under control.

There was opposition in Britain, too. W. N. Warbey, a Laborite member of Parliament, said the new alliance could only serve to split the world in two "and lead the world into war." Phil Piratin, a Communist member of the House, recalled the words of Neville Chamberlain ten years ago when he returned from Munich to declare he had brought "peace in our time."

"Damned As That One"

"I believe," said Piratin, "that this historic occasion will go down in history to be as damned as that one was."

As the world learned details of the proposed alliance, official spokesmen of the Western nations hailed it as a warning to aggressors and thus a move to maintain the peace. No official reaction was forthcoming from points east of the iron curtain, but those states have left no doubt they consider the alliance a step toward World War III.

A British Foreign Office spokesman said the alliance—of eight nations at present—would bring together 250,000,000 people "and a large portion of the world's industrial resources." It will serve, he said, "as a stern and effective deterrent against potential aggressors."

Italians Excited

Italian crowds swarmed about newsstands for a special edition of Giornale d'Italia which published details of the pact nearly three hours ahead of the release time agreed upon by the signatory powers. Giornale published the preamble and first five articles of the proposed fourteen-article treaty, and copies of it were hawked outside the Chamber of Deputies.

Portugal, too, received a text of the draft, and is expected eventually to adhere. The text was handed to the Foreign Ministry in Lisbon today by United States Ambassador Lincoln McVeagh. Iceland and Denmark also have been invited.

Just a year and a day from the signing of the 50-year Western Union Alliance—the so-called Brussels pact—the governments of those nations published a draft of the new treaty, which adds the power of the North American continent to their agreement. The Brussels signers were Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. The adherents to the Atlantic pact includes these, along with the United States, Canada and Norway.

Defers To Constitution

The British seemed satisfied with the obligation which the United States undertook in the crucial clause of the treaty, Article 5.

This binds each nation to take such action as it deems necessary, including use of armed force," if any member is attacked.

The clause defers to the American Constitution under which only Congress can declare war. British officials have said this was all they could expect, in view of United States constitutional restrictions.

ITALIANS VOTE 2 TO 1 IN FAVOR OF ADHERENCE

NIGHT Violence Also Breaks Out In Street—Rush Traffic Paralyzed

L. BRUTTO

Rome, March 18 (AP)—The Chamber of Deputies, taut from long debate, voted two to one tonight in favor of Italy's adherence to the North Atlantic alliance and then broke into fist fighting.

Kindred violence flamed in the streets outside.

A swarm of leftist youths, perhaps numbering 1,000, paralyzed rush-hour traffic in the near-by Piazza San Sylvestro with a demonstration against the treaty. Foot police and jeep-borne riot squads broke it up.

To Be Barred From Assembly

The president of the Chamber of Deputies, Giovanni Gronchi, declared Gian Carlo Pajetta and Santo Filippo Neri Semararo, Communists, were among those responsible for starting the fight that "transformed the chamber into a circus arena and the deputies into longshoremen."

He said all responsible would be barred from the Assembly for a period to be decided by the deputies.

Communist opponents of the pact took their defeat hard. Some even tried to hurl stenographers' chairs. Several deputies were knocked down or fell. Small missiles were thrown.

A siren was sounded, muffling shouted insults. This, together with the work of sergeants at arms, gradually calmed the rioters.

Italy Invited To Join

The chamber's vote was 342 to 170. The immediate issue was a resolution of confidence in the foreign policy of Premier Alcide de Gasperi's Government, authorizing its announced plan to join the alliance. Of the 531 deputies present, 19 did not vote.

Next comes a similar test in the Senate. The Government is expected to win approval there also, though perhaps by a smaller majority. The Senate debate will begin Monday.

Italy's Foreign Ministry received from the United States Embassy today a formal invitation for Italy to join the eight original members in the alliance. Similar invitations have been sent to Iceland, Denmark and Portugal.

Base Ban Defeated

The vote in the Chamber of Deputies followed a Communist-led filibuster which ran down after 53 hours of talk.

Palmiro Togliatti, the No. 1 Italian Communist, urged in vain an amendment saying "the organization and use of military bases on Italian territory will not be granted to any foreign government." The amendment was voted out of order.

"The Government will still have to contend with the Italian people," Togliatti said, emphasizing a Communist threat to carry on the fight against the pact in both Italy and "other European countries."

Rome newspapers printed terms of the pact several hours before they were to be released under international agreement and this gave the filibuster a brief impetus.

Nenni Attacks Government

A pro-Communist Socialist deputy, Pietro Nenni, obtained the floor and, waving copies of Il Giornale d'Italia, fiercely attacked the Government. He referred specially to Article 5, providing that an armed attack against one or more members of the alliance shall be considered an attack against all.

"It is not true, as the Government claimed, that there are no secret clauses," Nenni shouted. "This is an invitation for the invasion of our country."

Government supporters, including members of De Gasperi's Christian Democrat party, rose after the vote and sang the national anthem, "Mameli." Communists and their followers jeered.

Communists Ignore Recess

President Giovanni Gronchi declared a fifteen-minute recess.

The Communists ignored it. They stood and sang the old Garibaldi song, "Foreigner, Get Out of Italy." The fist fighting followed.

Italian Deputies Battle After Voting Pact

Rome, March 18 (AP)—The Chamber of Deputies voted two to one today in favor of Italy's entry into the North Atlantic Alliance.

The decision broke a three-day filibuster and provoked the most violent fight the tumultuous chamber has seen.

Several deputies fell or were knocked to the floor. Small missiles were thrown. The defeated Communists even tried to hurl stenographers' chairs.

Strong-Arming Used

The rioters were quieted after a siren was sounded, muffling shouted insults, and after strenuous strong-arming by sergeants at arms.

The chamber voted on a resolution of confidence, authorizing Premier Alcide de Gasperi's Government to negotiate Italy's adherence to the new accord.

The vote on the resolution of confidence in the Government's foreign policy was 342 to 170.

The pro-Communist Socialist leader, Pietro Nenni, said Italian adherence to the pact would be an "invitation for the invasion of our country."

Senate Still Must Vote

The Senate still must approve the action.

There the Government faces a debate similar to the 53 hours of talking by Communists and fellow travelers. Senate action begins Monday. The Government is expected to win a majority there, too, but the margin may be smaller.

Government supporters rose and sang the national anthem after the vote. Communists and their followers jeered.

Fist fights broke out when Communists ignored a declared recess of fifteen minutes. The Leftists stood in places and began singing the old Garibaldi song, "Foreigner, Get Out of Italy."

Amendment Move Fails

"The Government will still have to contend with the Italian people," said Palmiro Togliatti, the leading Italian Communist, as the debate closed.

He contended in vain for an amendment saying "the organization and use of military bases on Italian territory will not be granted to any foreign government."

Nenni contended that the accord contained "secret clauses."

Rasmussen Says Pact Aims To Guard Peace

Copenhagen, March 18 (AP)—Gustav Rasmussen, Foreign Minister, declared tonight the purpose of the Atlantic treaty is to preserve peace.

He told the Danish people in a broadcast the alliance "does not conceal purposes of aggression against any country in the world."

Denmark has not yet joined the Atlantic alliance.

Many Norse Want Soviet Treaty: Trud

Moscow, March 18 (AP)—The Soviet trade union newspaper Trud today blasted what it termed the "new aggressive policy" of Norway's Labor party and called for a Norwegian-Russian nonaggression pact to reduce "tension in the North."

Trud said the policies of the Labor party are "in contradiction with the ancient friendly relations between the U.S.S.R. and Norway."

The editorial discussed at length the situation in Norway in relation to the North Atlantic alliance.

Says People Want Russ Tie

It contended that the Norwegian people want a nonaggression pact with Russia and "this is in fact why the leaders of foreign policy hurried so to declare Norway readiness to join the aggressive North Atlantic pact."

[Norway has turned down a Russian offer of a nonaggression pact on the grounds that membership of both countries in the United Nations made such a treaty unnecessary.]

St. Laurent Asks uture On Treaty

Ottawa, Ont., March 18 —Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent today gave the Canadian House of Commons the draft text of the North Atlantic treaty and staked the Government's life on its general acceptance by Parliament.

MAR 19 1949

The Prime Minister gave notice of a resolution approving its principles and asking the House to recognize the proposed treaty as "of vital importance for the protection of Canada, the preservation of peace and the development of political, social and economic cooperation among North American democracies."

Should the resolution be rejected, which seems highly unlikely, it would mean defeat and probable resignation of the Government.

TRYGVE LIE ASSERTS U.N. PREVENTS WAR

Secretary General Comments Indirectly On Atlantic Accord

F. W. CARPENTER

Lake Success, N.Y., March 18 (AP). Commenting indirectly on the North Atlantic alliance, Trygve Lie said today the United Nations has prevented wars from breaking out.

The secretary general of the United Nations told his weekly news conference he stands by an earlier statement that regional alliances are all right if they are not substitutes for the United Nations.

He refused to talk about the Atlantic treaty, which was made public just as the news conference met.

U.N. Has Moral Force

Asked what he had to say about statements made elsewhere that the Atlantic pact was necessary because the United Nations cannot keep the peace, Lie said the United Nations has no military force, but it has a moral force which has led to conciliation.

"In one or another way, we have stopped war," Lie said.

In a news conference February 11, the Secretary-General said no regional arrangement can ever be a satisfactory substitute for the United Nations. He expressed hope in that statement that whatever is done on a regional basis by any of the member countries will be carried out in such a way as to strengthen, not weaken, the United Nations.

Framework Of U.N.

A top assistant of Lie remarked after the conference today: "The Atlantic pact is meant to come within the framework of the United Nations. That was a point on which the United States and the Scandinavian countries especially insisted. I don't think Lie will have anything soon to say on the pact."

The assistant would not permit identification.

Delegates from countries in the Russian orbit refused to talk about the treaty.

Jacob A. Malik, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, was reported "not in" at his office when a newsman called at noon for comment.

Julius Katz-Suchy, of Poland, and Malik are expected here to open an attack on the Atlantic accord in the near future, perhaps in the 58-nation Assembly meeting April 5.

Austin Hails Alliance

Warren R. Austin, chief of the United States mission at the United Nations, called the Atlantic treaty "an historic move toward peace within the concept of the United Nations."

In a formal statement, Austin said it "clearly recognizes that the obligations contained in it are subject to the overriding obligations of the United States as a member of the United Nations."

"The Charter is supreme," Austin said.

CHURCHILL SAILS FOR VISIT IN U. S.

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., March 18 —(AP) Winston Churchill sailed on the Queen Elizabeth today for a visit of three or four weeks in the United States. He is due in New York next Wednesday.

The conservative former prime minister, now 74, looked pale.

"I shall do no more than my duties require over there," he said in answer to a question about his health.

He will be a guest of Bernard Baruch, financier and consultant to presidents, whom he met during visits to the United States in World War II. He plans to dine with President Truman in Washington Thursday and return to New York the following day.

Churchill is to speak at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology March 31 on "The 20th Century; its Promise and Realization."

He was reported to have his paints and easel with him in the hope he will be able to follow his hobby of painting on weekends.

Accompanying the former prime minister were his wife and their son-in-law and daughter, Capt. and Mrs. Christopher Soames. The party occupied two of the liner's first class suites.

Also aboard was Prof. Harold Laski, former chairman of the Labor Party and a bitter political foe of Churchill. He had cabin class accommodations.

Laski will deliver Sidney Hillman memorial lectures at Columbia University, the University of Chicago, the University of Washington, the University of California at Los Angeles and Denver University.

Hungary Accuses Slav Diplomat Of Espionage

London, March 18 (AP)—Albania charged today that groups led by a Yugoslav diplomat have been accused of spying and terrorism against the Albanian Communist Government.

The broadcast of an Albanian Telegraph Agency dispatch did not report any arrests.

Yugoslavia and Albania broke their close economic and cultural ties after Yugoslav Premier Marshal Tito had been denounced by the Cominform as a strayer from Marxism.

Diplomat Is Named

The dispatch said the Yugoslav diplomat, Savo Bonhidarovitch, began anti-Albanian activities immediately after the Cominform action.

"The prosecutor's office of the National Army Tribunal referred to the supreme court martial groups of persons accused of having set up and participated in a terrorist and espionage organization directed at threatening the independence of the People's Republic of Albania," the dispatch said.

Coercion Is Charged

In another phase of the Cominform's increasingly sharp propaganda drive against Tito, Albanian Deputy Foreign Minister Tuk Jakova charged in Prague that Tito tried to coerce Albania into planting cotton instead of wheat, but Albania ignored the move.

The statement, carried by the official Czechoslovak Communist newspaper Rude Pravo, said Tito's Government had done this so that Albania would be dependent on Yugoslavia "not only for industrial products but also for its bread."

BEBLER INTERVIEW DENIED

Ianjug Repudiates Statements Attributed to Him in London

LONDON, March 18 (AP) — The official Yugoslav news agency repudiated tonight satements attributed to Dr. Ales Bebler, Deputy Foreign Minister of that country, in a London interview.

The official agency, Tanjug, broadcast this from Belgrade:

"The Associated Press reported this month that Yugoslav Assistant Foreign Minister Dr. Ales Bebler had made a statement on the attitude of the Soviet Union and countries of the people's democracy toward Yugoslavia. Tanjug is authorized to declare that Dr. Bebler made no such statement, either to The Associated Press or to any other agency and that all reports on this are completely fabricated and serve a slander campaign which is being conducted against Yugoslavia."

Dr. Bebler was in London in connection with the Austrian treaty negotiations. He was interviewed by an Associated Press correspondent in the presence of Tanjug's London correspondent. The iterview quoted him as having said that he expected the Communist Information Bureau to intensify its pressure against the Tito regime of Yugoslavia during the next six months.

More Funds for Arab Legion

British Plan Higher Annual Subsidy—Israel and Lebanon Near Truce.

London, March 18 (A. P.).—Britain has added $6,000,000 to her annual subsidy to Trans-Jordan's Arab Legion, the Foreign Office disclosed today. The reasons for the increase were not given officially.

However, it was said that Trans-Jordan's resources had been strained by participation in the Palestine war. Also, Trans-Jordan bears the cost of maintaining British troops garrisoning Aqaba, the little Arab kingdom's Red Sea port.

The payments, which have been £2,000,000 ($8,000,000) a year since 1946, were raised to £3,500,000 ($14,000,000) this year, the Foreign Office said in its report of financial needs in the twelve months ending in March, 1950. The estimate was presented to Parliament.

New Red Propaganda Move Seeks All-German Parley

T. A. REEDY

BERLIN, March 18—(AP) Communists attempted today to capitalize on German nationalistic sentiment by proposing an all-German conference on problems of the divided nation.

The proposal, advanced at a "People's Council," was accompanied by obvious nationalistic hints. The communists called for open defiance of the western occupation powers, if necessary.

Western German political leaders indicated they will reject the feeler. Eastern German communists clearly are attempting to undermine the western powers by sharpshooting at western currency revision, the European aid program, the Ruhr control statute and the projected western German state.

New Red Propaganda Line

The new communist propaganda line runs like this: If all Germany can be unified in the communist-controlled state being prepared for eastern Germany, the Soviet Union will withdraw Russian occupation forces. Ultimately, the communists say, this will make Germany "free."

William Pieck, co-chairman of the Communist Social Unity Party (SED), proposed that western German leaders and communists from eastern Germany meet April 8 in the British zone city of Brunswick. Even if the western Germans agreed to attend, such a meeting would have to have British approval.

The "People's Council" endorsed Pieck's idea and voted invitations to western German officials, including the German leaders at Bonn who are drafting a constitution for the West German state.

Dr. Konrad Adenauer, president of the Bonn Constituent Assembly and a Christian Democrat, said he regarded the proposed conference "as without purpose and as being aimed to confuse the situation."

The eastern invitation said the creation of a West German state "means a deadly danger to the national existence of the German people."

"A united Germany," it said, "makes possible the solution of all questions confronting the German people."

Map Eastern Constitution

The 400-member council was summoned to Berlin by the communists to adopt a constitution for eastern Germany as a counter to the charter being prepared at Bonn. Action on the eastern constitution is expected tomorrow.

Council speakers all declared that Germany is in a "state of emergency." The communists indicated the west's embargo on Ruhr steel has stung them more than any other blow in the cold war.

A note drawn up by the council's economic committee blamed the western powers for the blockade conditions in Germany, even though the Russians were the first to apply such measures.

The Soviet-licensed newspaper Berliner Zeitung said the committee noted that monthly shipments of Ruhr steel to eastern Germany dropped from 25,000 tons in 1947 to 8,000 in May, 1948, and to zero as of today.

The U. S. Military Government said increased attempts at smuggling particularly of industrial equipment, showed how the western allies' counter-blockade is pinching the Russian occupation zone.

Would Refuse Co-Operation

Otto Hüschke, chairman of the eastern splinter group of the Christian Democratic party, demanded in his address to the council that western Germans refuse to cooperate with any western German government. He claimed "German unity" eventually would be achieved.

Walter Ulbricht, one of the top men in the Social Unity party, said the Germans should develop their East-West economic relations "whether the Western occupation powers permit it or not."

30.24- 1837

At Bonn the western German constitution makers were believed to have paved the way for a reconciliation of German wishes with American, British and French recommendations for the future western German government.

Power Reduction Asked

A seven-man German parliamentary commission met with the advisers of the three Allied military governors and submitted the Bonn council's counterproposals. Theophil Kaufmann, a Christian Democratic leader, said later he believed there will be "no further fundamental difficulties."

Earlier this month the military governors asked the Bonn council to whittle down the powers to be granted the central government of western Germany in the draft constitution.

High-ranking Americans gave a cold reception to a French suggestion that the United States and France swap parts of their occupation zones.

U.S. Cool To French Plan

Such a trade would put the French in charge of all Baden and the Americans in charge of all Wurttemberg. American sources said the swap would benefit only the French.

France has stripped her part of Wurttemberg of war reparations, while the United States part of Baden still holds a great deal of industry. Further, the Americans said that if the French would wholeheartedly merge their zone with the United States and British zones, the occupation boundaries would not make any difference. The French have blocked trizonal fusion agreed upon at a conference in London last year.

Berliners Eye Currency Change

German residents of western Berlin were interested in the prospect of an impending currency change. Newspapers reported that the western sectors of the city would be placed on West marks only at the close of business tomorrow.

These reports, which were unconfirmed by Western Allied sources, said only West marks would be valid for all purchases of any nature after this week end. Heretofore both East and West marks have circulated in the western portions of the city.

fiance, if necessary, of the Western occupation powers.

William Pieck, cochairman of the Communist Social Unity party (SED), lofted the trial balloon in a meeting of the Eastern Peoples' Council, called to adopt a constitution for eastern Germany as a counter to the charter being drafted for western Germany at Bonn.

Admit Embargo Pinch

He proposed that the Communists from the east and western Germans from Bonn meet at Brunswick in the British zone. The meeting would have to have British approval, but most people believed the western Germans would reject the feeler.

The Communists indicated the West's embargo on Ruhr steel has stung them more than any other blow in the cold war. The council's economic committee drew up a note blaming the West for blockade conditions, even though the Russians had applied such measures first.

Smuggling Efforts Rise

The Soviet licensed Berliner Zeitung said the committee noted that monthly shipments of Ruhr steel to East Germany dropped from 25,000 tons in 1947 to 8,000 in May, 1948, and to zero as of today. The United States Military Government said increased attempts at smuggling—particularly industrial equipment—showed how the counterblockade is pinching the Russian sector.

It was not apparent whether Pieck's surprise proposal resulted from German choice or Russian prodding. Most of his actions and those of the Communist he leads are inspired by Moscow.

Nationalism Gains

Speeches of various officials at the Eastern council meetings were sprinkled generously with nationalistic hints.

One speaker demanded that Western Germans refuse to cooperate with any Western government and thus achieve "German unity." Communist Walter Ulbricht asserted Germans should develop their East-West economic relations "whether the Western occupation powers permit or not." Other speakers said that Germany "is in a state of emergency."

Sniping At Allies

Behind this was a clear effort of Eastern German Communists to undermine the Western powers by sharpshooting at the Western currency reform, the European Recovery Program, the Ruhr control plan and the proposed Western German government. There were constant references to the Allied blockade, imposed after the Russians forced the airlift operation to feed western Berlin.

In another quarter of Germany, high-ranking Americans received coldly a French suggestion that the United States and France swap parts of their zones to put France in charge of all Baden and the United States in charge of all Wurttemberg.

The French have stripped their part of Wurttemberg of war reparations, while the United States part of Baden still holds a great deal of industry.

Western Germans showed interest in a reported impending currency change which would make the West mark the only legal currency in the Western zones. East marks now are accepted in the West. Unconfirmed reports said all purchases of any nature in Western zones after this week end would be valid only in West marks.

The United States report on smuggling pointed up trouble in eastern Germany.

The report said that contraband seized at the border included machine parts, high-grade tools, steel, motor vehicles and farm equipment.

Much Industrial Material

Most of the contraband blocked from Russian use by United States border guards is industrial equipment. The Soviet zone has been unable to buy such material from western Germany since the Western powers banned trade with the Soviet zone in retaliation against the Russian blockade of Berlin.

About $600,000 worth of goods was smuggled across the border in the last three months of 1948, it was estimated. The border watch has since been tightened.

Buildings, said here today that America has 7,000,000 sub-standard housing units which need replacement. Addressing a nineteen nation building conference, Reynolds estimated from sixteen to eighteen million new buildings and apartment units will be needed in the United States between now and 1960. His estimate included replacement of slum, tenement and other housing regarded as sub-standard.

Reynolds is a United States Government delegate to the building, civil engineering and public works conference of the International Labor Organization. He said employment in the United States construction industry reached a peak of 2,253,000 last year and that all indications point to a continued high level of building activity in America for many years to come.

He predicted America's total 1948 construction expenditures (building, rebuilding, remodeling and repair) of $25,000,000,000 would be exceeded during the current year. He described the United States building industry as one of "free employers working with free unions in a free economy."

Adriano Agostini, Italian worker delegate and member of the Communist-led Confederation of Labor, said Italy needs 10,000,000 more dwelling rooms to house its population. He added that privately financed construction accounts for only 20 per cent of all building activity in Italy.

Hungary Calls U.S. Attitude 'Aggressive'

Budapest, March 18 (AP) — The Hungarian Government charged today that "official American attitude toward Hungary has been aggressive lately."

The statement, in an official communiqué, assailed the United States Government's refusal to permit five Hungarians to enter the country as delegates to a "world peace conference." (The United States State Department denied them visas in retaliation for Communist Hungary's treatment of American officials.)

Cite Mindszenty Case"

The communiqué charged that "the American authorities do not dare to admit the Hungarian delegates lest they "show the truth in the Mindszenty case."

[The reference was to the recent treason trial of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Roman Catholic Primate of Hungary. The United States and other Western countries contend the Cardinal was convicted on trumped-up evidence. He was sentenced to a life term in prison.]

Rap U.S. Emperialism

"In America, where people are deliberately misled, they apparently cannot bear that independent Democrats should frankly tell their opinion about warmongering. The world condemns the arbitrary step of America's foreign office."

Martin Horvath, a member of the delegation, told a dinner meeting of the Guild of Hungarian Journalists last night: "If the American imperialists were as strong as they hate us, they would not hesitate to crush Hungary's people's democracy." He said he was sorry for American journalists, whom he described as being in the service of the dollar.

russian charges of alleged persecution of Balts in Sweden.

Russia has accused Sweden of preventing the return to their countries of persons from Esthonia, Latvia and Lithuania who fled after the Soviets annexed those Baltic states.

The accusation are "absurd," the Swedish foreign office said in its answer to the second Soviet note.

The foreign office said it "regrets to find" that the Russian Embassy in its second note repeated "unfounded accusations."

Sweden says the persons are refugees granted the right of asylum under international law and have no desire to return to their Russian-occupied homelands.

Israel-Lebanon Pact Predicted

Tel Aviv, Israel, March 18 (AP)—An Israeli Foreign Office spokesman said today the main obstacles for signing an Israel-Lebanon armistice agreement now have been removed.

"It can be expected that an agreement will be signed at the beginning of next week," he added.

The armistice talks opened at the border town of Ras En Naqura on March 1. There had been reports that one of the sticking points would concern the presence of Syrian troops on Palestine soil.

Rhodes Talks Snagged

Asked about that today, the Israeli spokesman said: "That would mean divulging the content of the armistice agreement and I am not entitled to do it."

The Israel-Trans-Jordan armistice talks now going on at Rhodes were reported snagged, meanwhile, on the presence of British troops at Aqaba. Aqaba is Trans-Jordan's Red Sea port and British troops are there at Trans-Jordan's request, under a treaty tie. Aqaba is only two or three miles from Israeli-claimed territory.

"The aim of the armistice talks," an army spokesman here said, "is the reduction of and withdrawal of forces on both sides—as was the case in the Israeli-Egyptian armistice—while in the present talks with Trans-Jordan, the agreement must cover all forces in the area, including the British. The British are sending reinforcements, which the British War Office itself admits."

German Reds Would Defy Allies With Conference

Tito Is Assailed In Broadcasts, Italians Say

Rome, March 18 (AP)—The Italian news agency Astra said today every eastern European radio station is pouring out attacks against the regime of Premier Marshal Tito in Yugoslavia.

Astra said its listening post at Trieste picks up the broadcasts in both the Serb and Croatian languages.

"Invitation to revolt and insults to Tito are the order of the day," the agency said. Tito is accused in the broadcasts of having "enslaved Yugoslavia to the British and Americans," the report said.

11 Die in Burma Plane Crash

RANGOON, Burma, March 18 (AP).—Nine passengers and the two-man crew are believed to have died when a government-owned passenger plane plunged into the Sea of Bengal Monday on a short flight from Moulmein to Rangoon. The plane's British pilot was Captain H. P. Sparrow. Others aboard were Burmese, Indian and Chinese nationals.

Nanking Stirred By South China Red Revolts

Nanking, March 18 (AP) — South China Red revolts caused apprehension in the capital today.

Premier Ho Ying-chin reportedly rushed selection of a Cabinet to cope with the new crisis created by the southern situation and threatened Communist crossings of the Yangtze River, which skirts Nanking.

Unconfirmed reports said provincial troops in Kwantung province threatened the huge port of Swatow. Government officials and the Central Bank of China branch reportedly were seized.

Rash Of Uprisings

Communist sources claimed their columns were operating in the provinces of Kwangtung, Kiangsi, Hunan, Fukien, Kwangsi, Yunnan, Kweichow and on the southern Island of Hainan.

Official Central News Agency reported a rash of uprisings in Yunnan and western Hunan provinces.

Meanwhile, Government forces available in the area were rushed to Wuhua and Meihsen counties in eastern Kwangtung, southeastern province, to meet a Red threat there. Swatow reports said there was fighting in both counties.

Cabinet Posts Filled

Semi-official sources said the following Ho Cabinet posts have been filled:

DEPUTY PREMIER—Chia Chinteh, former Minister of Personnel of the Control Yuan.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS—Fu Pingchang, Ambassador to Moscow.

SECRETARY GENERAL — Huang Shao-ku, former governor of Chekiang.

NATIONAL DEFENSE—Premier Ho, who has filled the post before.

EDUCATION—Li Cheng, former chancellor, Peiping National Normal University.

ECONOMIC AFFAIRS—Y. C. Sun, new chairman, National Resources Commission.

FINANCE—Hsu Kan, Finance Minister in former Premier Sun Fo's Cabinet.

OVERSEAS CHINESE AFFAIRS—Tsi Kwei-sheng, previously deputy commissioner of the same ministry.

MONGOLIAN-TIBETAN AFFAIRS—Pai Yun, now occupying that post.

MACARTHUR AIDE RAPS, WARNS REDS

TOKYO, (Saturday), March 19—(AP) William J. Sebald, chief political adviser to the occupation, declared today the United States does not intend to allow Japan to fall victim to "that type of insidious concealed aggression and infiltration . . which labors darkly under the name of international communism."

In a commencement address at St. Paul's University, Tokyo, Sebald said there was no longer any excuse for anyone to be misled by the communists.

He said recent declarations by communists in France, Italy, Britain and other countries that they would aid the Soviet Army was "simply treason. It is a betrayal of family, of nation, of language and of history wrought by one's forefathers."

Sebald warned the students, "the answer to communism is not simply to muster more police. The answer does not lie in secret societies, meeting in preparation for forays by night. It is not enough to be anti-communists.

"The cure itself, I would say, in broadly affirmative and constructive liberal polities—in France, in employment, in social relations, in farm ownership, and in all the multiple phases into which society organizes itself in a democratic world.

"In that way we protect ourselves because we become stronger through our practice of basic democratic concepts in which all of the people may share. x x x"

Hirohito To Open Jap Diet Tomorrow

Tokyo, March 18 (AP)—Emperor Hirohito will formally open the Japanese Diet tomorrow.

The lawmakers will not get down to business, however, until late next week when Premier Shigeru Yoshida makes his "state-of-the-nation" speech.

4 U. S. Jet Planes Set Overwater Mark

Tokyo, March 18 (A. P.).—The Army announced today that four "Shooting Stars" flew here from Okinawa in the longest overwater flight by this type of jet fighter in the Far East Air Force. The jets flew from Okinawa to nearby Yokota air base, on a route of approximately 1,000 miles, in one hour and forty-five minutes. Their average was close to 600 miles an hour.

Lieut.-Col. Robert F. Worley of Riverside, Cal., led the flight. The other planes were piloted by Captns. Louis E. Andre of Davenport, Iowa, and John F. Anderson of Buhl, Minn., and Lieut. Wiley O. Jensen of Los Angeles.

Reds Killed U.S. Woman By Mistake, Koreans Say

Seoul, March 18 (AP)—Officials theorized today that Red terrorists slew the wife of a prominent United States missionary while gunning for a Korean woman leader who is a foe of communism.

Three Koreans were arrested in the shooting of Mrs. Horace H. Underwood, 60. President Syngman Rhee himself declared the killing had shocked the Republic of Korea.

Police Chief Kim Tai Sun turned loose all his detectives on the case. He predicted a break within 24 hours.

"Mistaken For Mrs. Mo."

Mrs. Underwood was fatally wounded yesterday by one of two hooded gunmen who burst into her home as she was giving a tea.

Kim said he was convinced the gunmen got their orders from Korean Reds. He believed they were looking for Mrs. Mo Yun Suk, a foe of communism, who was to have addressed the meeting.

Investigators said the shooting took place in the entrance hall when the pair shoved their way past a houseboy. The gunmen then entered the living room and seemed to be looking for someone. Mrs. Mo and five other guests hid in a telephone alcove. Mrs. Mo has not been seen since.

"Had Valuable Information"

The slayers told the guests to go to one end of the living room. They then fled.

Rhee said he also believed the killers were after Mrs. Mo, who "had valuable information to contradict their point of view."

Mrs. Mo was to have told guests about the United Nations session at Paris at which the Republic of Korea was recognized in the face of strong Russian objections. She was attached to the Korean delegation at Paris. She also was on the welcoming committee for the United Nations Commission, which now is here trying to unify North and South Korea.

Mrs. Underwood was the wife of Dr. Horace H. Underwood, missionary and educator, who was teaching at near-by Chosen Christian College, when the shooting occurred.

Slain Woman Had Aided Refugees Fleeing Reds

Des Moines March 18 (AP)—The merican woman slain yesterday by terrorists in Korea had been laboring in behalf of refugees who fled to Seoul to escape "Communist terrorists."

This was disclosed today in a letter which Mrs. Horace H. Underwood wrote nineteen days before one of two hooded gunmen killed her in her home.

Sent Letter Of Thanks

Mrs. Underwood wrote to Mrs. Donald Herron, of Des Moines, to express thanks for a collection of clothing sent by a Presbyterian church women's group.

"Your boxes of splendid relief clothing came this morning and found me frantic for anything, even a rag, for three babies born last night in those caves in the hill behind us," Mrs. Underwood wrote.

Clothes For Infants

"The three wee arrivals have your baby blankets wrapped around them and your rompers on their backs. Your heavier big blanket and two of my own went to wrap up the mothers on the cold dirt floors."

Mrs. Underwood said the refugees had fleed "Communist terrorists" in the north and "your gifts save me and them from despair."

She added the Seoul Government was maintaining "democratic practices in spite of Russia in control just 50 miles north."

U.N. INDIES AIDES WOUNDED

Briton and American Are Hit by Guerrillas in Sumatra

BATAVIA, Java, March 18 (AP)—United States Consul General Charles A. Livengood said today that two members of a United Nations observer team—an American and a Briton—had been wounded in Medan, southern Sumatra.

They were identified as Major Albert Simmons, of Bangor, Me., and British Lieutenant Colonel H. D. Chaplin. Both were reported to be in a Medan hospital.

It was the first case of United Nations casualties in the guerrilla fighting between Indonesians and Dutch troops that has been taking some 500 lives a week in Java and Sumatra.

A Dutch military spokesman said that the two observers had been wounded this afternoon when their jeep was ambushed by guerrillas.

He said that the Briton's condition was "serious" but that the American was only slightly wounded.

2 Dead In Air Crash Identified At Manila

Manila, March 18 (AP)—Two American airmen who crashed to their deaths in a small observation plane while searching for a missing B-29 tanker plane were identified today.

They were Capt. Robert M. Haar, 31, of Wetherfield, Conn., and Lieut. Charles M. Christian, 29, of Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Meanwhile, authorities cloaked in secrecy the activity of a strongly-armed rescue party out to locate the wreckage of the tankers plane atop a near-by mountain. Presence of armed Communist-led guerrillas in the vicinity was given as the reason for the secrecy.

46 NATIONS AGREE TO NEW WHEAT PACT

Russia And Argentina Refuse To Participate For Various Reasons

Washington, March 18 (AP)—Forty-six nations today reached a new international wheat agreement.

J. C. van Essche, of Belgium, said that the pact calls for five exporting nations to supply 450,000,000 bushels of wheat annually for four years to 41 wheat-importing nations.

He said it calls for a ceiling price of $1.80 a bushel for each of the four years and a floor of $1.50 for the first year, dropping 10 cents annually to $1.20 in the fourth year.

To Pay At Least Floor Price

That means exporting nations contract to charge no more than the ceiling regardless of the market price; the importing nations promise to pay at least the floor.

Van Essche, acting chairman of the International Wheat Conference, said the pact was concluded without the participation of Russia and Argentina.

Under the agreement, five nations—the United States, Canada, Australia, France and Uruguay—will supply 41 importers.

Whether or not Poland and Yugoslavia, Russian satellite nations, will buy wheat under the pact if Russia does not participate is not known at the present time.

The pact becomes effective only when ratified by the home governments of the negotiating countries.

U.S. To Lose 16 Cents A Bushel

A similar agreement—except that it carried a $2-a-bushel ceiling—was negotiated last year, but the Senate failed to approve it.

At the $1.80 figure, the United States could expect to lose about 16 cents a bushel or more on all wheat exported in the first year.

30.24- 1839

Its support price on the new wheat crop is expected to be about $1.9[illegible] a bushel.

President Truman's budget has an item of $56,000,000 for anticipated costs of the agreement.

Russia refused to enter the agreement because of dissatisfaction with the proposed Soviet export allowance.

Argentina's chief delegate, Juan Scarpati, said his nation could not participate as long as a companion pact calling for exchange of capital goods for wheat is not made part of the accord.

Acheson And Senators Discuss China Affairs

Washington, March 18 (AP)—Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, met for 2½ hours behind closed doors with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today to discuss the situation in China.

A majority of the senators have indorsed a bill introduced by Senator McCarran (D., Nev.) to extend $1,500,000,000 in aid to the Nationalist Chinese Government.

The State Department recently has been following a wait-and-see policy in the Chinese civil war.

Chairman Connally (D., Texas) said the $1,500,000,000 aid program for the Nationalist Government was discussed. No action was taken.

"We didn't take any votes; we didn't do anything," Connally said.

U. S. Gives $5,000,000 Credit

WASHINGTON, March 18 (AP).—The Export-Import Bank today made its third loan to the State of Israel since Jan. 19, this time a $5,000,000 credit for use in a low-cost housing program on the outskirts of Haifa and Tel Aviv.

This brought to $46,000,000 the total of funds released to the new state in the last two months.

Czechs Deny Moscow Will Rule 'Peace Parley'

WASHINGTON, March 18 (AP).—The Czechoslovakian Embassy criticized the State Department today for saying that Soviet-bloc delegates to a forthcoming "peace conference" in New York would have their views dictated by Moscow.

The embassy said the action strengthened barriers to international understanding. As far as the five Czechoslovak delegates are concerned, it said the department's statement was "blatantly in conflict with the true facts."

The embassy asserted that only one Czech correspondent has been admitted to the United States since the Communists took control of Czechoslovakia a year ago, whereas it said, Prague has accredited more than a score of American newspaper men.

The State Department announced two days ago that twenty-two delegates from Russia and other Communist-run Eastern European nations will receive visas to attend the cultural and scientific conference for world peace in New York March 25-27.

Chinese Communists Praise Russia

San Francisco, March 18 (AP)—The Chinese Communists today broadcast an avowal of close friendship for Russia and an attack on the United States, which they charged was plotting war.

The broadcast was heard in San Francisco by the Associated Press.

It hailed Russian Premier Stalin as "the great leader of mankind fighting for peace," adding that "peace-loving mankind is now determined to deal a smashing blow to the scheme of war provacateurs."

American "Foes"

The Chinese people were told they must regard "American imperialist bellicose elements their mortal foe" and the Soviet Union as "their comrades in arms from first to last."

The broadcast went to considerable pains to approve the Soviet-Chinese treaty of 1945, whereby Russia got control of Dairen, Port Arthur and other Manchurian concessions.

This treaty is with the Chinese Nationalist Government. Various Nationalist leaders have charged that it was signed under pressure and that Russia has not lived up to its terms.

Sun Quoted

In addition, the Communist broadcast quoted Dr. Sun Yat-sen as having expressed hope that China and Russia "will march forward hand in hand to win the war for the freedom of oppressed nations of the world."

Sun is widely revered in China as "father" of the Chinese Republic. Quoting him on friendship with Russia appeared to be an attempt to allay Chinese misgivings in that direction.

Hoffman Places E.R.P. Cost At 17 Billions

New York, March 18 (AP)—Economic Co-operation Administrator Paul G. Hoffman today placed the full cost of the Marshall plan at $17,000,000,000. If it succeeds, he said, "our way of life will be secure."

And if this American investment in European recovery fails, Hoffman said in an address before the American Management Association, "the Kremlin will make an all-out effort to communize western Europe."

Should the cold war thus be intensified, Hoffman predicted, "huge" military outlays will continue. Government controls may be restored and high tax rates in the United States will "sap the vitality of a free economy."

First Public Estimate

"The one certain way to get taxes down and to keep our economy free is to win the cold war in Europe and thus avert both World War III and the threat of World War III," he said.

His figure of $17,000,000,000 was Hoffman's first public estimate of the final cost since the Marshall plan came into being.

While is was merely a proposal the President's "Committee of Distinguished Citizens on Foreign Aid," of which Hoffman was a member, guessed the cost at $12,000,000,000 to $17,000,000,000.

"If the foreign-assistance program is carried out on the scale of expenditures originally contemplated, the cost to America will be approximately $17,000,000,000," Hoffman said.

Disappointment Foreseen

Of that total about $9,000,000,000 will be spent directly in this country "and in time the remaining $8,000,000,000 will return to our shores," he said.

Many American producers have begun to regard the program as a support for American agriculture and industry, Hoffman noted.

This tendency, shown in requests for legislation granting special aid to particular commodities, is ECA's "chief worry," he revealed.

Many of these producers will be disappointed, he said. "I would never suggest that the taxpayers be taxed for the benefit of American producers who are in a position to profit by the European Recovery Program."

1952 Held Key Year

He asked his hearers to regard the program from the broader viewpoint.

"It is my view that our way of life will be secure if Europe is strong and free in 1952; that it will be in great jeopardy if the program in Europe fails," Hoffman asserted.

"I hold this view because if recovery is an accomplished fact in 1952, it is more than probable that the Kremlin will have decided on a policy of 'live and let live'; if the recovery program fails, the Kremlin will make an all-out effort to communize western Europe."

LAMARRE IS GIVEN SUSPENDED TERM IN MEYERS CASE

WASHINGTON, March 18—(AP) Bleriot H. Lamarre, who first lied and then helped send Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers to jail, won't have to serve time for his perjury.

Lamarre, who spilled to Congress a tale of Meyers' secret ownership of a warplant after first shielding the officer, was placed on two years probation. This means he won't have to go to prison for his guilty pleas to three counts of perjury.

Admitted False Testimony

The 37-year-old accountant had admitted giving false testimony to a Senate war investigating committee about Meyers' business affairs. The latter is now serving an 18-month to five-year prison term for having induced Lamarre to give the committee false testimony. Meyers will become eligible for parole Sept. 15.

The story that came out at Meyers' trial was that, as deputy wartime purchasing chief of the air forces, he operated on the quiet a warplane parts firm at Dayton, O., reaping $150,000 profits from government contracts, with Lamarre its "dummy" president.

Lamarre first told the Senate committee he got the profits and that Meyers was not financially interested. Then he changed his story and said the money went to Meyers. It was brought out that Lamarre actually received less than $100 a week for running the firm for Meyers.

The slim, blond Lamarre was the government's main witness against Gen. Meyers. His testimony was confirmed by others, including Lamarre's pretty wife, Mildred. Meyers claimed that Mildred, his one-time secretary, was "my girl friend." She denied any improper relations between them and sued the general for $250,000 for defamation of character.

Join In Leniency Plea

At Lamarre's sentencing today his own and the government's lawyers asked leniency, saying his perjury was "the only blot" on his life and he had helped the government convict Meyers.

Judge Alexander Holtzoff sentenced Lamarre to a 1-3 years term but suspended it and said:

"In view of the assistance rendered by this defendant to the government and in view of his good record, the court feels no prison sentence should be exacted."

Lamarre, recently promoted to an office job with the Standard Oil Company of Ohio after starting out as a filling station attendant, told a reporter:

"I'm glad it's all over."

DOROTHY BAILEY'S DISMISSAL UPHELD

Loyalty Review Board Backs Ruling On Ex-CIO Official

Washington, March 18 (AP)—The Federal Loyalty Review Board today reaffirmed the dismissal from Government service of Dorothy Bailey, former top official in the CIO United Public Works of America local here.

Following its usual custom, the board itself made no announcement. Technically its action was to refuse further review of the case.

Miss Bailey's attorneys made public the decision. They said they would appeal to the United States District Court here next week.

The attorneys, headed by Paul Porter, asserted that the exact grounds for Miss Bailey's dismissal never had been disclosed to them. They insisted that her record showed her to be a loyal worker.

$8,000-A-Year Employe

Miss Bailey was an $8,000-a-year employé in the United States Employment Service, which functions in the Federal Security Administration, when she went through the loyalty check to which all Federal employés are now subject. At the time, she was president of Local No. 10 of the CIO Government workers' union.

She was suspended from duty in November of last year, and was ordered dismissed on February 11 when the findings of a regional loyalty board were upheld by a three-man panel of the Loyalty Review Board—the top reviewing agency.

Panel Headed By Richardson

Such panels act with the full delegated authority of the board itself. The panel which heard Miss Bailey's case was headed by Seth Richardson, Loyalty Review Board chairman.

Miss Bailey's attorneys then requested a further review by the full Loyalty Review Board composed of 22 citizens. It was this petition which the board rejected today.

Navy To Give Atom Aid To Air Force

San Bernardino, Cal., March 18 (AP)—Admiral Louis E. Denfeld, chief of naval operations, said today the Navy is preparing to aid the Air Force in atom bomb warfare.

He said the Navy is testing a new plane, the North American AJ, which can carry a 10,000-pound atom-bomb load. Powered by twin engines, the AJ also is equipped with jet boosters.

Admiral Denfeld expressed satisfaction with the nation's defenses.

"I feel the armed services, particularly the Navy, is supreme in the air, on the water, and beneath the water. Particular emphasis is being paid to the construction of submarines and to anti-sub warfare," he said.

"WE ARE BOUND TO DO WHAT IN OUR HONEST JUDGMENT IS NECESSARY TO REACH THAT RESULT," ACHESON SAID. "IF WE SHOULD BE CONFRONTED AGAIN WITH A CALCULATED ARMED ATTACK SUCH AS WE HAVE TWICE SEEN IN THE 20TH CENTURY, I SHOULD NOT SUPPOSE THAT WE WOULD DECIDE ANY ACTION OTHER THAN THE USE OF ARMED FORCE EFFECTIVE EITHER AS AN EXERCISE OF THE RIGHT OF COLLECTIVE SELF DEFENSE OR AS NECESSARY TO RESTORE THE PEACE AND SECURITY OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC AREA."

"IT IS CLEAR," HE SAID, "THAT THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT IS NOT AN IMPROVISATION. IT IS THE STATEMENT OF THE FACTS AND LESSONS OF HISTORY. WE HAVE LEARNED OUR HISTORY LESSON FROM TWO WORLD WARS IN LESS THAN HALF A CENTURY.

A16WX NIGHT-INSERT-Washn(Atlantic Pact) atlantic adv MAR 19 1949

"THAT EXPERIENCE HAS TAUGHT US THAT THE CONTROL OF EUROPE BY A SINGLE AGGRESSIVE, UNFRIENDLY POWER WOULD CONSTITUTE AN INTOLERABLE THREAT TO THE NATIONAL SECURITY OF THE UNITED STATES.

"WE PARTICIPATED IN THOSE TWO GREAT WARS TO PRESERVE THE INTEGRITY AND INDEPENDENCE OF THE EUROPEAN HALF OF THE ATLANTIC COMMUNITY IN ORDER TO PRESERVE THE INTEGRITY AND INDEPENDENCE OF THE AMERICAN HALF.

"IT IS A SIMPLE FACT, PROVED BY EXPERIENCE, THAT AN OUTSIDE ATTACK ON ONE MEMBER OF THIS COMMUNITY IS AN ATTACK UPON ALL MEMBERS."

ASSERTING THAT THE WESTERN NATIONS HAD LEARNED THEY MUST STAND TOGETHER OR "FALL ONE BY ONE," ACHESON SAID.

"AND AND THE FREE NATIONS OF EUROPE ARE DETERMINED THAT HISTORY SHALL NOT REPEAT ITSELF IN THAT MELANCHOLY PARTICULAR."

TO BACK UP THE PROPOSED ATLANTIC DEFENSE GROUPING, ACHESON SAID THE ADMINISTRATION PLANS TO ASK CONGRESS SHORTLY TO SUPPLY MONEY FOR SOME OF THE WEAPONS AND EQUIPMENT EUROPEAN NATIONS NEED TO FORESTALL OR FEND OFF AN ATTACK.

HE GAVE NO ESTIMATE OF HOW MUCH WOULD BE REQUESTED, BUT OTHER GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS SAID THE AMOUNT WOULD BE BETWEEN $1,000,000,000 AND $1,500,000,000.

ACHESON, HOWEVER, MADE IT CLEAR THAT "PRIORITY" WILL BE GIVEN TO WESTERN EUROPE'S NEEDS ECONOMIC RATHER THAN HER MILITARY REQUIREMENTS.

BUT HE SERVED NOTICE THAT MILITARY SUPPLIES WOULD GO ONLY TO THOSE "FREE NATIONS WHICH WILL COOPERATE WITH US IN SAFEGUARDING PEACE AND SECURITY."

THAT WOULD INDICATE THE ADMINISTRATION PLANS TO ARM SUCH OTHER COUNTRIES BESIDES THE PACT POWERS AS GREECE, TURKEY AND IRAN BUT NOT SWEDEN--UNLESS SHE CHANGES HER MIND ABOUT THE STRICT NEUTRALITY POLICY ADHERED TO THROUGH TWO WARS.

ACHESON SAID IT IS IMPORTANT TO KEEP IN MIND THAT THE "REALLY SUCCESSFUL NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTIONS ARE THOSE THAT RECOGNIZE AND EXPRESS UNDERLYING REALITIES.

"THE NORTH ATLANTIC COMMUNITY OF NATIONS IS SUCH A REALITY. IT IS BASED ON THE AFFINITY AND NATURAL IDENTITY OF INTERESTS OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC POWERS," HE ADDED.

"THE VERY BASIS OF WESTERN CIVILIZATION, WHICH WE SHARE WITH THE OTHER NATIONS BORDERING THE NORTH ATLANTIC, AND WHICH ALL OF US SHARE WITH MANY OTHER NATIONS IS THE INGRAINED SPIRIT OF RESTRAINT AND TOLERANCE.

"THIS IS THE OPPOSITE OF THE COMMUNIST BELIEF THAT COERCION BY FORCE IS A PROPER METHOD OF HASTENING THE INEVITABLE."

IN THIS CONNECTION ACHESON WAS ASKED AT HIS NEWS CONFERENCE WHETHER HE THOUGHT SPAIN WOULD BE QUALIFIED TO JOIN THE ALLIANCE AND WHY HE HAD HIMSELF AFREED TO ACCEPT PORTUGAL WHICH THE QUESTIONER DESCRIBED AS A "DICTATORSHIP."

ACHESON DID NOT GIVE A DEFINITE ANSWER ABOUT SPAIN, SAYING THE TREATY CONTAINED NO BAR TO ITS ADMISSION. BUT HE ADDED THAT HE HAD HEARD AND EXPECTED TO HEAR MANY MORE DEBATES ABOUT SPAIN'S QUALIFICATIONS UNDER THE CONDITIONS LAID DOWN FOR MEMBERSHIP.

A181WX NIGHT-adv-Washn-(Atlantic Pact) XXX Powers

AS FOR PORTUGAL, ACHESON SAID THAT HE VOTED DURING THE TREATY NEGOTIATIONS TO INCLUDE THAT COUNTRY ON THE GROUND THAT IT WOULD FURTHER THE PRINCIPLES OF THE TREATY AND CONTRIBUTE TO NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY.

AS FOR THE LENGTH OF THE TREATY, ARTICLE 12 PROVIDES FOR REVIEW AND REVISION AT THE END OF TEN YEARS. AFTER THE BASE PERIOD OF 20 YEARS HAS ELAPSED, ANY NATION IN THE ALLIANCE MAY WITHDRAW FROM MEMBERSHIP BY DENOUNCING THE TREATY WITH ONE YEAR'S NOTICE.

THE TEXT DID NOT MENTION RUSSIA. BUT THERE HAS NEVER BEEN ANY EFFORT ON THE PART OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT TO CONCEAL THE FACT THAT THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT AND THE OTHER NATIONS WERE PRIMARILY CONCERNED WITH THE POSSIBILITY OF A RUSSIAN EXPANSIONIST MOVE. THEY CLEARLY SHOWED THEY BELIEVED THE WESTERN POWERS WERE CONFRONTED WITH THE NECESSITY OF ERECTING A "KEEP OUT" SIGN FOR RUSSIA'S BENEFIT ON THE BORDERS OF THE WESTERN WORLD.

THE TREATY WOULD ESTABLISH A CLEARER SET OF MARKERS FOR THIS BORDER IN EUROPE THAN HAS EVER EXISTED BEFORE. THE LINE BEGINS AT THE TOP OF THE WORLD, RUNS THROUGH THE RUGGED NORTH COUNTRY WHERE RUSSIA AND NORWAY HAVE A COMMON BORDER, STRIKES INTO THE HEART OF EUROPE WHERE THE DIVISION OF GERMANY RUNS SOUTH FROM THE BALTIC AND CARRIES DOWN THROUGH AUSTRIA, ALONG THE ADRIATIC SHORES OF ITALY AND INTO THE CENTRAL MEDITERRANEAN.

IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE, THE TREATY WOULD COVER THE WHOLE NORTH AMERICAN CONTINENT, INCLUDING ALASKA.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 18-(AP)-FOLLOWING IS THE TEXT OF A STATEMENT BY SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX) CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, ON THE ATLANTIC PACT:

"THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT IS A COVENANT IN BEHALF OF SECURITY& IT IS A PLEDGE AMONG ITS SIGNERS TO DEFEND THEIR LIBERTIES AND TO RESIST AGGRESSION. IT DOES NOT CONTAIN ANY AGREEMENT TO AUTOMATICALLY GO TO WAR. EACH NATION MUST JUDGE THAT QUESTION WHEN IT ARISES AND IN VIEW OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES AT THE MOMENT.

"IT IS AN INSTRUMENT OF TREMENDOUS MORAL POWER. IT LAYS BEFORE THE WORLD THE DESIRES OF GREAT NATIONS TO LIVE IN PEACE AND TO BE FREE FROM MOLESTATION AND HOSTILE PRESSURES BY AGGRESSIVE STATES. IT MOBILIZES THE FORCES OF PEACE AGAINST THE FORCES OF EXPLOITATION AND WAR. IT IS A SHINING MONUMENT TO THE HIGHEST AND FINEST INTERNATIONAL ETHICS. IT IS A SYMBOL OF NATIONAL INTEGRITY AND GOOD FAITH BETWEEN NATIONS.

"FREE MEN EVERYWHERE TAKE NEW COURAGE FROM THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT--A CONFIDENT LANDMARK ON THE HARD ROAD TO PEACE AND SECURITY. THIS IS YET ANOTHER EXPRESSION OF THE CONTINUITY AND THE UNITY OF AMERICAN POLICY THAT RISES ABOVE PARTISAN CONFLICT.

"THE PACT IS A STERN WARNING AGAINST AGGRESSION AND ARMED ATTACK. IT IS DIRECTED AGAINST NO PARTICULAR STATE OR GROUP OF STATES. IT IS DIRECTED ONLY AGAINST AGGRESSION.

"MOREOVER, THE PACT MUST NOT BE CONFUSED IN ANY WAY WITH THE OLD-FASHIONED MILITARY ALLIANCE. IT IS BASED SQUARELY ON THE RIGHT OF INDIVIDUAL AND COLLECTIVE SELF-DEFENSE AS SET FORTH IN THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER.

"I AM PLEASED THAT THE TEXT OF THE PACT HAS BEEN PUBLISHED IN ADVANCE OF ITS SIGNATURE SO THAT THE PEOPLES OF ALL THE SIGNATORY STATES WILL HAVE AMPLE TIME TO STUDY ITS MEANING. CLEARLY DECISIONS AS FUNDAMENTAL AND AS IMPORTANT AS THIS ONE FOR THE FUTURE OF OUR COUNTRY MUST HAVE THE FULL SUPPORT OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

"AS SOON AS THE PACT IS SIGNED AND SUBMITTED TO THE SENATE FOR APPROVAL, THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE WILL GIVE IT IMMEDIATE CONSIDERATION. I AM CONFIDENT THAT IT WILL WIN THE OVERWHELMING SUPPORT OF THE SENATE."

TREATY COMPARISON

(ADVANCE)...WASHINGTON, MARCH 18-(AP)-THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY MAKES A SIMPLER, MORE DIRECT PROMISE OF ALLIED INTENTION TO RESIST ANY ATTACK THAN THE RIO DEFENSE PACT WHICH THE UNITED STATES MADE WITH THE AMERICAN NATIONS IN 1947.

THE ATLANTIC TREATY DEFENSE CLAUSE SPECIFICALLY MENTIONS THE POSSIBILITY OF "THE USE OF ARMED FORCE" AGAINST AN AGGRESSOR, WHEREAS THE INTER-AMERICAN TREATY RESERVES THE LISTING OF THIS POSSIBILITY FOR ANOTHER AND LESS SPOTLIGHTED ARTICLE.

THE UNDERLYING REASON FOR THIS DIFFERENCE IS THAT NEGOTIATORS OF THE ATLANTIC AGREEMENT FELT THAT THE PEOPLE OF WESTERN EUROPE MUST BE GIVEN THE STRONGEST POSSIBLE ASSURANCE, SHORT OF AN AUTOMATIC COMMITMENT TO GO TO WAR, THAT THE POWER OF THE UNITED STATES IS FIRMLY ALLIED WITH THEM IN ANY TROUBLE WITH THE SOVIET UNION.

BOTH THE INTER-AMERICAN TREATY AND THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT DECLARE THE PRINCIPLE THAT AN ATTACK ON ANY ONE OF THE ALLIES SHALL BE CONSIDERED AN ATTACK ON ALL.

THE INTER-AMERICAN PACT THEN GOES ON TO SAY THAT IF AN ATTACK OCCURS AND THE VICTIM ASKS HELP, EACH OF THE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE ALLIANCE "MAY DETERMINE THE IMMEDIATE MEASURES WHICH IT MAY INDIVIDUALLY TAKE" IN LINE WITH ITS COMMITMENT TO ASSIST IN MEETING THE ATTACK.

THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY, AFTER DECLARING THE ONE FOR ALL AND ALL FOR ONE POSITION, SAYS THE ALLIES AGREE THAT IF AN ATTACK OCCURS "EACH OF THEM X X X WILL ASSIST THE PARTY OR PARTIES SO ATTACKED BY TAKING FORTHWITH X X X SUCH ACTION AS IT DEEMS NECESSARY, INCLUDING THE USE OF ARMED FORCE, TO RESTORE AND MAINTAIN THE SECURITY OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC AREA."

THEINTER-AMERICAN AGREEMENT, SIGNED AT RIO DE JANEIRO SEPT. 2, 1947, RUNS FOR 26 ARTICLES AND MORE THAN 2,000 WORDS. ITS STYLE IS CHARACTERIZED BY HIGH FLOWN PHRASEOLOGY AND FAMILIAR DIPLOMATIC FORMALISMS.

TO COVER THE SAME SET OF IDEAS, THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY RUNS APPROXIMATELY 1,000 WORDS AND IS DIVIDED INTO 14 ARTICLES. ITS WORDING IS, FOR THE MOST PART, DIRECT AND SIMPLE.

AUSTIN SAID HE EXPECTED RUSSIAN OPPOSITION TO THE PACT SIMILAR TO THAT MET BY THE MARSHALL PLAN, BUT THAT THE OPPOSITION SHOULD NOT BE ATTRIBUTED TO THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE, BUT TO THEIR RULERS.

THE APPLICATION OF THE PACT WILL ADVANCE "THE SPIRIT OF COOPERATION BASED ON THE FATHERHOOD OF GOD AND THE BROTHERHOOD OF MAN," HE SAID, ADDING:

"THE FORMAL WORDS PUBLISHED TODAY HIDE FROM VIEW A WHOLE SERIES OF THE MOST DANGEROUS AND WAR-BREEDING COMMITMENTS AND CONSEQUENCES."

THE PACT, WALLACE SAID, "EFFECTIVELY TAKES THE POWER TO DECLARE WAR FROM THE CONGRESS AND PUTS IT IN THE HANDS OF A MILITARY STAFF LOCATED ON THE CONTINENT OF EUROPE."

WALLACE PROPOSED A RETURN TO THE PRINCIPLES OF THE LATE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AND THE U.N. RIVERSIDE, CALIF., MARCH 18-(AP)-THE ATLANTIC PACT WILL HELP TO PREVENT WAR, CANADA'S GOVERNOR-GENERAL, VISCOUNT ALEXANDER, SAID ON HIS ARRIVAL HERE TODAY.

"AGGRESSOR NATIONS DESPISE WEAKNESS AND RESPECT STRENGTH," VISCOUNT ALEXANDER TOLD REPORTERS. HE IS EN ROUTE TO LOS ANGELES, WHERE HE WILL BE CHARTER DAY SPEAKER NEXT WEEK AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA.

ASKED IF HE DIDN'T THINK THE ATLANTIC PACT WOULD FORCE RUSSIA'S HAND, THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL REPLIED:

"NO, I DON'T THINK SO."

HE SAID CANADA'S MILITARY PREPAREDNESS IS "SATISFACTORY." CANADIAN ECONOMY ALSO IS SOUND, WITH NO SIGNS OF RECESSION, HE DECLARED.

HE PUT IN A PAT FOR U. S.-CANADIAN RELATIONS, WHICH HE DESCRIBED AS "JUST ABOUT IDEAL---THE ENVY OF THE WORLD."

EARLIER IN ALBUQUERQUE, THE VISCOUNT SAID IT WAS HIS -- NOT FIELD MARSHAL BERNARD MONTGOMERY'S -- PLAN WHICH THE ALLIES USED IN THE INVASION OF SICILY AND ITALY.

HE IS THE GUEST HERE OF THOMAS E. GORE, RETIRED RIVERSIDE CITRUS GROWER WHOM HE MET THROUGH A MUTUAL FRIEND ON A HUNTING TRIP LAST SUMMER.

THE GOVERNOR GENERAL ARRIVED AT MARCH AIR FORCE BASE NEAR HERE ABOARD AN RCAF DAKOTA TRANSPORT PLANE, ACCOMPANIED BY HIS SECRETARY, MAJ. GEN. H. F. C. LETSON, AND HIS AIDE, MAJOR THE HONORABLE DESMOND CHICHESTER.

THEY WERE GREETED BY AN OFFICIAL PARTY THAT INCLUDED MAYOR WILLIAM C. EVANS OF RIVERSIDE, ROBERT H. HADOW, BRITISH CONSUL GENERAL AT LOS ANGELES; V. E. DUCLOS, CANADIAN GOVERNMENT TRADE COMMISSIONER AT LOS ANGELES, AND COL. J. H. DAVIDSON, COMMANDING OFFICER OF MARCH AIR FORCE BASE.

VISCOUNT ALEXANDER WILL SPEND THE NEXT WEEK-END HERE AND WILL INSPECT MARCH AIR FORCE BASE, NEARBY CITRUS, DATE AND ALMOND GROVES, THE COLORADO RIVER WATER DISPERSAL SYSTEM AND WILL VISIT PALM SPRINGS. HE WILL GO TO PASADENA SUNDAY TO BE THE GUEST OF DR. WALLACE STERLING, DIRECTOR OF THE HUNTINGTON LIBRARY AND ART GALLERY AND PRESIDENT-

ELECT OF STANFORD UNIVERSITY.
HE WILL DELIVER THE UNIVERSITY CHARTER DAY ADDRESS AND RECEIVE AN HONORARY DEGREE FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT LOS ANGELES. THEN GOVERNOR-GENERAL WILL GO TO BERKELEY TO MAKE AN ADDRESS ON THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA CAMPUS THERE.

HIS STATEMENT WAS MADE IN ANSWER TO A QUESTION DURING A BRIEF INTERVIEW WHEN HE STOPPED HERE EN ROUTE TO MARCH FIELD, CALIF., BY PLANE. THE REPORTER'S QUESTION WAS PROMPTED BY A REVIEW OF MONTGOMERY'S NEW BOOK, "EL ALAMEIN TO THE RIVER SANGRO," IN WHICH THE BRITISH FIELD MARSHAL SAID HIS INVASION PLAN WAS ADOPTED BY GEN. DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER.

"IT WAS MY 18TH ARMY PLAN THAT WAS APPROVED BY IKE," SAID ALEXANDER. "THERE WAS NO DEFINITE PLAN BEYOND TAKING NAPLES FOR A PORT AND FOGGIA FOR AIR FIELDS," HE ADDED. "WE WANTED THEM FOR A BASE FOR ATTACKS ON PLOESTI."

THE PLAN AFTER THAT, HE SAID, WAS TO USE THE REMAINING DIVISIONS IN THE THEATER TO DRAW STRENGTH FROM THE GERMANS WHILE THE INVASION OF FRANCE WAS UNDERWAY.

MONTGOMERY'S BOOK CRITICIZED ALLIED PLANNING FOR THE CAMPAIGN. IT SAID THE ORIGINAL PLAN FOR INVADING SICILY WAS "UNSOUND," BUT GEN. EISENHOWER FINALLY ACCEPTED THE MONTGOMERY PLAN.

THE BOOK WAS PUBLISHED TODAY. ALEXANDER SAID A COPY HAD BEEN SENT TO HIM BY THE BRITISH FIELD MARSHAL, "BUT I HAVEN'T HAD A CHANCE TO READ IT."

ALEXANDER WAS TAKEN ON A QUICK INSPECTION TOUR OF SANDIA SPECIAL WEAPONS BASE ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF ALBUQUERQUE AND THROUGH KIRTLAND AIR FORCE BASE.

NATIONS SIGNING THE PACT DEFINITELY WILL INCLUDE THE UNITED STATES, CANADA, NORWAY, BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG. A BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN POINTED OUT THAT AN ALLIANCE OF THOSE EIGHT WOULD BRING TOGETHER 250,000,000 PEOPLE "AND A LARGE PORTION OF THE WORLD'S INDUSTRIAL RESOURCES."

IN ADDITION, ITALY, PORTUGAL, DENMARK AND ICELAND ALSO HAVE BEEN INVITED TO JOIN THE ALLIANCE AND ARE EXPECTED TO SIGN. A TEXT OF THE 14-ARTICLE, 1,040-WORD PACT WAS HANDED TO THE PORTUGUESE FOREIGN MINISTRY IN LISBON BY U.S. AMBASSADOR LINCOLN MCVEAGH.

THE ALLIANCE WILL BECOME EFFECTIVE ONLY AFTER RATIFICATION, WHICH IN THE UNITED STATES MEANS IT MUST BE APPROVED BY THE SENATE.

THE KEY PROVISION OF THE TREATY STATES THAT AN ARMED ATTACK AGAINST ONE OR MORE OF THE MEMBERS OF THE ALLIANCE IN EUROPE OR NORTH AMERICA "SHALL BE CONSIDERED AN ATTACK AGAINST THEM ALL X X X." IF THAT HAPPENS EACH COUNTRY PLEDGES TO "ASSIST THE PARTY OR PARTIES SO ATTACKED BY TAKING FORTHWITH, INDIVIDUALLY AND IN CONCERT WITH THE OTHER PARTIES, SUCH ACTION AS IT DEEMS NECESSARY, INCLUDING THE USE OF ARMED FORCE X X X."

REFERRING TO THE TREATY'S TERMS, SCHUMAN SAID:

"WE ARE CONVINCED THAT THE PACT CONTAINS NOT ONLY A MORAL BUT A JUDICIAL ENGAGEMENT UPON EACH SIGNATORY TO AID ONE ANOTHER AS RAPIDLY AND AS EFFECTIVELY AS POSSIBLE IN THE MANNER EACH DEEMS BEST ACCORDING TO ITS MEANS."

JACQUES DUCLOS, COMMUNIST FLOOR LEADER IN THE FRENCH NATIONAL ASSEMBLY, DEMANDED THAT THE PACT BE DISCUSSED WHEN THE ASSEMBLY RECONVENES NEXT TUESDAY.

HE MADE HIS DEMAND IN A LETTER TO ASSEMBLY PRESIDENT EDOUARD HERRIOT DUCLOS ASKED IF IT WAS TRUE THAT FRANCE IS EXPECTED TO RECRUIT 24 INFANTRY DIVISIONS, AS AGAINST ONLY SIX FOR BRITAIN, THREE FOR BELGIUM, TWO FOR THE NETHERLANDS AND ONE FOR LUXEMBOURG IN THE WESTERN EUROPEAN DEFENSE SETUP.

SCHUMAN POINTED OUT THE UNITED STATES IS EXPECTED TO SEND MILITARY EQUIPMENT TO WESTERN EUROPE IN A PARALLEL BUT SEPARATE AGREEMENT. HE SAID THERE WILL BE A CONFERENCE BEFORE THE END OF MARCH ON THIS NEW "LEASE-LEND" PROGRAM, WHICH WOULD "NOT NECESSARILY AFFECT ALL SIGNATORIES."

HIS REMARK WAS INTERPRETED TO MEAN THAT ITALY, WHOSE ARMY IS LIMITED BY THE PEACE TREATY, PROBABLY WOULD NOT RECEIVE AMERICAN MILITARY EQUIPMENT.

CANADIAN PRIME MINISTER LOUIS ST.LAURENT SAID HE FELT THE CANADIAN PEOPLE WILL UNANIMOUSLY FAVOR THE ATLANTIC PACT. THE PURPOSE OF THE ACCORD, HE SAID "IS TO PRESERVE THE PEACE OF THE WORLD BY MAKING IT CLEAR TO ANY AGGRESSOR HE'LL FINISH UP LIKE THE KAISER, MUSSOLINI AND HITLER."

IF SUCH A PACT HAD BEEN IN EXISTENCE BEFORE WORLD WAR I IT MIGHT WELL HAVE CHANGED THE COURSE OF HISTORY, HE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE IN OTTAWA. THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE TOOK A SIMILAR VIEW, SAYING THE PACT "CAN RIGHTLY BE REGARDED AS RE-INSURANCE AGAINST WAR."

THE BRITISH AND FRENCH SAW IN THE ATLANTIC TREATY NO CONFLICT WITH THEIR PREVIOUS AGREEMENTS WITH RUSSIA. THE BRITISH-RUSSIAN TREATY OF FRIENDSHIP SIGNED IN 1942 PLEDGED BOTH COUNTRIES FOR 20 YEARS "NOT TO CONCLUDE ANY ALLIANCE AND NOT TO TAKE PART IN ANY COALITION DIRECTED AGAINST THE OTHER."

THE BRITISH-SOVIET SOCIETY, IN A STATEMENT ISSUED IN LONDON, TERMED THE PACT "THE MOST DANGEROUS AND ALARMING STEP TAKEN IN PREPARATION FOR WAR." THE SOCIETY CALLED ON BRITAIN TO "RESPOND TO MARSHAL STALIN'S OFFER OF A PEACE PACT."

WESTERN EUROPEAN LEADERS PRAISED THE ROLE OF THE UNITED STATES IN BRINGING THE ATLANTIC TREATY ABOUT. BEVIN SAID:

"THIS IS THE FIRST TIME THAT THE UNITED STATES HAVE FELT ABLE TO CONTEMPLATE ENTERING INTO COMMITMENTS IN PEACETIME FOR JOINT DEFENSE WITH EUROPE.

"IT IS A MOST FAMOUS, HISTORICAL UNDERTAKING INTO WHICH THEY ARE NOW ENTERING IN COMMON WITH THE REST OF US."

AN OSLO DISPATCH PREDICTED THE NORWEGIAN PARLIAMENT WOULD VOTE OFFICIAL ADHERENCE TO THE PACT BY THE END OF NEXT WEEK. PARLIAMENT ALREADY HAS CAST AN 118 TO 11 VOTE OF CONFIDENCE FOR THE FOREIGN POLICY OF THE GOVERNMENT, WHICH IS COMMITTED TO SIGNING THE TREATY.

JA&ME415PES

LONDON--SECOND ADD PACT REACTION (ORIGINAL) X X X CONSTITUTIONAL RESTRICTIONS.

THE BRITISH SPOKESMAN SAID THE TREATY IN NO WAY CONFLICTS WITH BRITAIN'S FRIENDSHIP TREATY WITH RUSSIA. THE ANGLO-RUSSIAN TREATY OF 1942 PLEDGES THE TWO COUNTRIES FOR 20 YEARS "NOT TO CONCLUDE ANY ALLIANCE AND NOT TO TAKE PART IN ANY COALITION DIRECTED AGAINST THE OTHER."

ALTHOUGH BY JOINING THE ATLANTIC ALLIANCE BRITAIN TAKES ITS PLACE IN A WESTERN BULWARK AGAINST RUSSIAN COMMUNISM. THE SPOKESMAN SAID THIS DOES NOT CONFLICT WITH ANY OF BRITAIN'S OBLIGATIONS TO ANY OTHER NATIONS. HE DID NOT AMPLIFY THIS.

FRANCE, TOO, APPARENTLY CONSIDERS HER AGREEMENTS WITH RUSSIA UNAFFECTED BY THE NEW COMMITMENTS UNDER THE ATLANTIC INSTRUMENT.

THE BRITSH SPOKESMAN STRESSED THAT BRITAIN DOES NOT CONSIDER THE ALLIANCE INCONSISTENT WITH THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS, WHICH PERMITS REGIONAL AGREEMENTS. IN THE BRITISH VIEW THE PACT, ALONG WITH THE AMERICAN-SPONSORED EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM, WILL STRENGTHEN EUROPEAN POLITICAL, ECONOMIC AND MILITARY STABILITY. NEVERTHELESS, THE SPOKESMAN ACKNOWLEDGED THAT ONE CLAUSE OF ARTICLE 5 WAS DESIGNED TO "GET PAST THE SECURITY COUNCIL VETO."

IN PART, THIS CLAUSE SAYS THAT THE SIGNATORIES, IN THE EVENT OF ATTACK, WILL TAKE ACTION "IN EXERCISE OF THE RIGHT OF INDIVIDUAL OR COLLECTIVE SELF-DEFENSE EXERCISED BY ARTICLE 51 OF THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS."

ARTICLE 51 OF THE U.N. CHARTER SAYS NOTHING IN THE CHARTER SHALL IMPAIR THE INHERENT RIGHT OF INDIVIDUAL OR COLLECTIVE SELF-DEFENSE IN THE EVENT OF ARMED ATTACK, UNTIL THE SECURITY COUNCIL HAS TAKEN MEASURES NEEDED TO MAINTAIN PEACE AND SECURITY.

THEORETICALLY, IF A THREAT TO PEACE AROSE INVOLVING AN ATLANTIC PARTNER, RUSSIA OR CHINA COULD VETO A SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION CALLING FOR U.N. ACTION TO RESTORE STABILITY. THE ATLANTIC PACT CALLS FOR MEASURES BY THE PARTNERS TO BE ENDED WHEN THE SECURITY COUNCIL HAS RESTORED PEACE, AND THUS THE ATLANTIC PARTNERS COULD CONTINUE TO ACT UNTIL THE U.N. ITSELF TOOK FIRM ACTION.

ONE BRITISH SPOKESMAN SAID THAT "IT IS A SUBJECT OF SOME SPECULATION THAT IF SUCH A GROUPING HAD EXISTED IN THE EARLY DAYS OF THE CENTURY THE LAST TWO GREAT WARS MAY WELL HAVE BEEN AVOIDED."

HE SAID THE ALLIANCE COULD BE "RIGHTLY REGARDED AS A RE-INSURANCE AGAINST WAR."

LONDON, MARCH 18-(AP)-FOREIGN SECRETARY BEVIN ACCUSED THE COMMUNISTS TONIGHT OF "CREATING A SITUATION OF FEAR IN ORDER THAT THE WILL OF THE KREMLIN COULD BE CARRIED OUT AND THE WHOLE OF EUROPE BROUGHT INTO BONDAGE."

THE ATLANTIC PACT IS THE ANSWER TO THIS SITUATION, HE SAID IN A BROADCAST.

IN VIEW OF COMMUNIST MOVES, HE ASKED, "WHAT WERE THE PEACE AND FREEDOM-LOVING NATIONS TO DO?

"TO STAND BY IDLY AND BE DESTROYED, OR TO BUILD UP SOME COLLECTIVE SECURITY WHICH WOULD WELD THEIR PEOPLE TOGETHER IN STRONG RESISTANCE TO THESE METHODS?"

"WELL," HE SAID, "WE TOOK THE LATTER COURSE."

"I CAN ASSURE YOU THAT IT IS OUR FIRM CONVICTION THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE ORGANIZATION VISUALIZED IN THIS PACT WILL MEAN THE PRESERVATION OF PEACE.

"IT BRINGS TOGETHER, ON BOTH SIDES OF THE ATLANTIC, INTO ONE SYSTEM OF COLLECTIVE SECURITY, PEOPLE WHO POSSESS GREAT SKILL, GREAT ABILITY AND INVENTIVE GENIUS."

HE SAID BRITAIN HAD HOPED THE UNITED NATIONS WOULD PROVE THE ANSWER TO THE QUEST FOR ENDURING PEACE.

"BUT FRANKLY," HE ADDED, "JUST AS THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS DID NOT FULFILL ITS PURPOSE, NEITHER HAS THE UNITED NATIONS.

"WE HAVE BEEN MET IN THE UNITED NATIONS WITH THE VETO," SAID THE FOREIGN SECRETARY, "EVEN WHEN THE OVERWHELMING MAJORITY OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL HAS AGREED TO DO A CERTAIN THING, IT HAS BEEN VETOED BY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT."

THE FOREIGN SECRETARY USED MUCH BLUNTER LANGUAGE THAN HE DID EARLIER TODAY WHEN HE TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS THE AGREEMENT ON THE ATLANTIC PACT WAS AN "HISTORIC OCCASION."

HE DECLARED THE RUSSIANS AND THEIR SATELLITES HAD THWARTED PEACE EFFORTS AT EVERY TURN.

WHEN THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM WAS FIRST PUT FORTH, HE SAID, "PRACTICALLY THE WHOLE OF EUROPE OUTSIDE RUSSIA WAS ANXIOUS TO COLLABORATE AND MAKE THIS ADVANCE TOWARD RECOVERY.

"BUT AGAIN WE WERE MET WITH BITTEREST ATTACK AND ACCUSED OF BEING WAR-MONGERS," HE SAID.

"JUST IMAGINE BRINGING SUCCOR TO THE SICK, HELPING THE AGED, SETTLING REFUGEES AND TRYING TO ESTABLISH DECENT CONDITIONS ONCE AGAIN--AND FOR ALL OUR TROUBLE BEING DENOUNCED AS WAR-MONGERS AND CRIMINALS."

BEVIN SAID THE NATIONS OF WESTERN EUROPE WERE WEAK AND "A CONSTANT TEMPTATION TO POTENTIAL AGGRESSORS" WHILE DISUNITED.

BUT NOW, IN THE ATLANTIC PACT, HE SAID, THEY HAVE "EXPRESSED ON PAPER THE UNDERLYING DETERMINATION TO PRESERVE OUR WAY OF LIFE--FREEDOM OF THE PRESS, FREEDOM OF RELIGION, AND THE RIGHTS OF LIBERTY OF THE INDIVIDUAL."

BEVIN SAID: "I HAVE NO DOUBT THAT A VERY INTENSIVE PROPAGANDA WILL BE WAGED AGAINST THIS PACT.

"WE SHALL BE ACCUSED OF EXPANSIONISM, WE SHALL BE ACCUSED OF EVERYTHING. BUT THAT IS ACCORDING TO FORM.

"YOU WILL NOT BE DECEIVED BY THAT. YOU HAVE SEEN ENOUGH OF WHAT HAS GONE ON.

"NOW, IS THIS PACT AN END IN ITSELF? IT CERTAINLY IS NOT. IT HAS BEEN BROUGHT ABOUT BY THE SHEER NECESSITY OF EVENTS AND SIGNING OF THE PACT ITSELF WILL NOT SAVE THE SITUATION.

"THERE MUST BE A REAL MORAL FORCE BEHIND IT."

RECOUNTING WESTERN EFFORTS TO OBTAIN PEACE THROUGH THE MACHINERY OF THE UNITED NATIONS, BEVIN SAID:

"IN THE COUNCIL OF THE FOREIGN MINISTERS, TRY AS WE WOULD, WE FAILED TO SETTLE THE PROBLEMS THAT THE WAR HAD LEFT US. X X X YOU ARE THOROUGHLY CONVERSANT WITH THE STEPS THAT HAVE BEEN TAKEN IN POLAND, HUNGARY, ROMANIA, BULGARIA, AND MORE RECENTLY IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA TO SUPPRESS ALL DEMOCRATIC LIBERTY, TO DESTROY ANY PARTY THAT DID NOT AGREE WITH THE GOVERNMENT, AND PREVENT ASSOCIATION WITH THE OUTSIDE WORLD.

"YOU ARE ALSO CONVERSANT WITH THE CONSTANT PROPAGANDA EFFORTS OF THOSE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENTS AGAINST THE WEST, RUNNING A PERPETUAL CAMPAIGN OF INCITEMENT CALCULATED TO DISRUPT ECONOMIC LIFE, PREVENT EUROPE FROM SETTLING DOWN AND CREATING A SITUATION OF FEAR IN ORDER THAT THE WILL OF THE KREMLIN COULD BE CARRIED OUT AND THE WHOLE OF EUROPE BROUGHT INTO BONDAGE."

London, March 18 -(ap) Text of the speech of Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin on the North Atlantic Treaty:

You will already have heard that today we have laid before the house of commons the text of the proposed north atlantic pact.

You will have heard also, that it was received by the house as representing a great historical occasion.

This pact, we hope, will be signed in early april, and next week I leave for the united states to take part in the ceremony.

But I have no doubt that you are wondering, what,exactly, this pact means to you, whether it will lead to peace or war in the future.

MAR 19 1949

I can assure you that it is our firm conviction that the development of the organization visualized in this pact will mean the preservation of peace.

It brings together, on both sides of the atlantic, into one system of collective security, people who possess great skill, great ability and inventive genius.

Now which are the nations that will be parties to this pact? There will be the ~~ix~~ united states and canada on the western side of the atlantic, and on the european side there will be what is known as the brussels treaty powers; that is france, the netherlands, belgium, luxembourg, the united kingdom, with the addition of norway.

In addition to these, invitations have been sent portugal, denmark, iceland, and italy.

MAR 19 1949

Now, are all these nations really peaceful nations?

They do NOT want war.

But twice in 25 years, western europe has been torn by war, due to the action of germany, and they all know what war means.

The 1914-18 war cost us an enormous sacrifice in blood and treasure to save our way of life.

In the last war, again, for six years, we had to struggle and use all our resources to save ourselves.

There has for long been a striving to get an organization to prevent war.

We were hopeful that as a result of this bitter and terrible experience which we have all been through, the steps we took towards the end of the war would provide us with an organization likely to secure that end.

That organization was the united nations.

But, frankly, just as the league of nations did NOT fulfill its purpose, neither has the united nations.

We had, in addition, the council of foreign ministers, who were charged with the duty of settling problems in europe.

You will remember, how, month after month, we went to conference after conference, and failed to get a settlement.

We have been met in the united nations with the veto.

Even when an overwhelming majority of the security council has agreed to do a certain thing, this has been vetoed by the soviet.

In the council of foreign ministers, try as we would, we failed to settle problems that the war has left us.

We did get five treaties, but, as we had to explain to the house the other day, none of these treaties have been really honored.

You are thoroughly conversant with the steps that have been taken in poland, hungary, romania, bulgaria, and, more recently, in chezoslavakia, to suppress all democratic liberty, destroy any party that did not agree with the government, and present association with the outside world.

You are also conversant with the constant propaganda efforts of these communist countries against the west, running a perpetual campaign of incitement calculated to disrupt economic life, prevent europe from settling down, and to create a situation of chaos, in order that the will of the kremlin could be carried out and the whole of europe brought into bondage.

What then were the peace, freedom-loving nations to do? To stand idly by to be destroyed, or build up some collective security, which would weld their people together in strong resistance to these methods?

Well, we took the latter course.

Europe, and a good part of the world was struggling against the poverty left by the war, xxx trying to overcome the effects of famine, trying to rehabilitate itself, and,all the time, finding its efforts thwarted. France and ourselves began to collaborate very early after the war, leading up to the dunkirk treaty.

MAR 19 1949

Then Mr. Marshall made his speech in the united states and advanced the proposal it would help to save europe, if europe would attempt to save itself. Again we tried.

Practically the whole of europe, outside russia, was anxious to collaborate and make this advance toward recovery. But, again we were met with the bitterest attack and accused of being warmongers.

Just imagine, bringing succor to the sick, helping the aged, settling refugees, trying to establish decent conditions once again, and, for all your trouble, being denounced as warmongers and criminals.

We then proceeded to develop in europe a process the organizatior known as the baussels treaty. Then, Mr. Truman made his speech in which , as I xxxx said, in the house of commons today, he welcomed the efforts of these good neighbors, and indicated the united states would be willing, in the course of time, to support it.

MAR 19 194

Then, there was the great speech of the prime minister of candad, who annofnced Canada was in favor of an atlantic pact. In America, the congress had already pronounced itself in favor of american cooperation in mutual defense with other peace-loving states. So, following all this, for several months now, we have been discussing how to translate these general aspirations into reality. The results of our combined efforts are embodied in the pact. Now, will this pact be a powerful pact-- powerful for peace? Yes; it will.

words

While we were all disunited, we were in a very weak position and a constant tempttation to potential aggressors.

The purposes of the pact are to contribute toward the further development of freindly inetrnational relations by strengtheneing th ir free institutions to bring about better understanding, promoting conditions of stability and well being, eliminating conflict in their internationalx and economic policies, and encouraging economic collaboration between any or all of the parties.

it provides for self-help and mutual aid and [redacted] development of individual and collective capacity to resist armed attack. it provides for a method of concultation if ever in the opinion of any of them the territorial integrity, political indppendence or security of any of the parties are threatened.

the pact contemplates that an attack against one or more of them in europe or north america would be considered an attack against them all. in other words, it brings together in one great union many peoples of many countries.

the whole conception of the pact is to be regarded as a concrete expression of an identify of view long held among the western nations. it is based on common heritage and civilization of their people. it is founded on the principles of democracy, individual liberty and rule of law [redacted] between nations. there are no secret clauses; no secret treaties.

when you read the pact you will see it is simple and it is plain. [redacted] but it is an endeavor to express on paper the underlying determination to preserve our way of life--freedom of the press, freedom of religion and the rights of liberty of the individual.

it does not deny to soviet russia the right to have her system. it does not seek to interfere, but equally does it resist the right of any power with aggressive intent to upset our institutions and bring us into bondage or create a situation which will enable them to introduce a police state or carry out devices which are being applied in so many other countries.

MAR 19 1949

i have no doub a very intense propaganda will be waged against this pact. we shall be accused of expansionism, be accused of everything. but that is according to form. you will not be deceived by that. you have seen enough of what has gone on.

now is the pact an end in itself? certainly it is not. it has been brought about by sheer necessity of events and the signing of the pact itself will not save the situation. there must be real moral force behind it. all the peoples coming within it must understand its objective, support its unifying endeavor, watch with great vigilance and care any encroachment on our liberties and stem any propaganda which seeks to disrupt our institutions.

there is individual as well as collective responsibility to preserve peace. we must all make a contribution to that end and the pact itself will focus that great desire.

we have today embarked on a great adventure. i believe it will help in the end to establish universal peace. (end text).

ATLANTIC PACT

LONDON, SATURDAY, MARCH 19-(AP)-THE MOSCOW RADIO SAID TODAY THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY "IS DESIGNED TO UNLEASH WAR AGAINST THE SOVIET UNION AND THE PEOPLES DEMOCRACIES."

DR.I.LEMIN, SOVIET HISTORIAN AND COMMENTATOR, MADE THIS STATEMENT IN AN ENGLISH LANGUAGE BROADCAST FROM MOSCOW. TEXT OF THE BROADCAST WAS DISTRIBUTED BY THE SOVIET MONITOR HERE.

LEMIN SAID "MILLIONS OF PEOPLE REALIZE THAT THIS PACT MEANS WAR ON THE SOVIET UNION WPCH ALL PROGRESSIVE MANKIND JUSTLY REGARDS AS THE POWERFUL BULWARK OF PEACE, OF FREEDOM AND THE INDEPENDENCE OF LARGE AND SMALL NATIONS.

"MILLIONS OF PEOPLE ARE BECOMING MORE AND MORE CONVINCED THAT THE ANTI-COMMUNIST CAMPAIGN CONCEALS THE DESIRE OF ANGLO-AMERICAN IMPERIALISTS TO STRANGLE FREEDOM AND SOVEREIGNTY OF THE NATIONS, TO PLUNGE THEM INTO THE MALESTROM OF A NEW WAR IN THE INTERESTS OF AMERICAN AND BRITISH WORLD DOMINATION."

LEMIN SAID "THE WORKING PEOPLE" IN ITALY AND THE "MASSES" IN OTHER NATIONS ARE OPPOSED TO THE NEW AGREEMENT.

"MILLIONS OF FRENCHMEN," HE SAID, "ARE RALLYING AROUND THE COMMUNIST PARTY'S SLOGAN THAT FRENCH PEOPLE WILL NEVER FIGHT AGAINST THE SOVIET UNION.

"IN BELGIUM AND DENMARK, NORWAY AND HOLLAND, THE MASSES ARE JOINING THE MOVEMENT IN DEFENSE OF PEACE AND OPPOSING THE ATLANTIC PACT. THE SAME CAN BE SAID OF BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES. X X X THE IDEA OF DEFENDING PEACE IS ALSO STRONG AMONG NATIONS OF LATIN AMERICA AND ASIA WHO ARE FIGHTING AGAINST COLONIAL OPPRESSION."

LONDON, MARCH 18-(AP)-THE OFFICIAL SOVIET NEWS AGENCY SAID TODAY AMERICAN NEWSPAPER COMMENTS "DO NOT CONCEAL THE ANTI-SOVIET CHARACTER" OF THE ATLANTIC TREATY.

"SOME OBSERVERS," TASS SAID IN A NEW YORK DATED DISPATCH, "STRESS THAT THE PACT NEGOTIATIONS WERE CONDUCTED SECRETLY. THEY SAY THAT THE GOVERNMENT IS SEEKING TO IMPOSE THE PACT ON THE PEOPLE WITHOUT GIVING AMERICANS AN OPPORTUNITY TO DISCUSS IT IN A DEMOCRATIC WAY."

THE DISPATCH, DISTRIBUTED HERE BY THE SOVIET MINITOR, QUOTED COLUMNIST KENESAW MOUNTAIN LANDIS 2ND OF THE CHICAGO SUN-TIMES AS SAYING THE FIRST BILLION DOLLAR LEND-LEASE BILL WILL SHOW AMERICANS "WE HAVE UNDERWRITTEN A MILITARY COALITION ON THE PRINCIPLE OF ENCIRCLING THE SOVIET UNION FROM TURKEY TO SPITZBERGEN."

IT SAID THE WASHINGTON POST CRITICIZED THE DECISION TO INCLUDE PORTUGAL IN THE PACT.

PARIS, MARCH 18-(AP)-FRANCE VIEWS THE ATLANTIC PACT AS PROTECTION AGAINST "AN EASTERN BLOC THAT IS WEIGHING ON THE SECURITY AND PEACE OF MIND OF THE WEST," FOREIGN MINISTER ROBERT SCHUMAN SAID TONIGHT.

SPEAKING OVER THE RADIO HE DECLARED THE WESTERN DEMOCRACIES "ARE BANDING TOGETHER IN A PACT AGAINST AGGRESSION."

THE FOREIGN MINISTER DENIED COMMUNIST CHARGES THAT THE ATLANTIC TREATY VIOLATES THE 1945 FRANCO-SOVIET PACT TO STAND TOGETHER AGAINST AGGRESSORS.

THE ATLANTIC PACT TOO, HE SAID, IS AIMED ONLY "AGAINST AGGRESSIVE POWERS."

ROME--FIRST ADD NIGHT LEAD ITALIAN (A172) X X X FIGHTING FOLLOWED. (CORRECTIAADELETING LAST TWO GRAFS).

AFTER THE CHAMBER RECONVENED, TOGLIATTI'S PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO FORBID MILITARY BASES TO FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS WAS BROUGHT UP AGAIN AND WAS TURNED DOWN AGAIN.

PREMIER DE GASPERI ASKED THE CHAMBER TO REJECT IT.

"A PACT OF MUTUAL ASSISTANCE LIKE THE ATLANTIC PACT HAS NO PROVISIONS TO ASK FOR OR GIVE BASES," HE SAID. "THIS BEING OUR ESTIMATE, AND ALSO BECAUSE OF THE SIDE FROM WHICH IT COMES, I THINK THAT A VOTE FOR TOGLIATTI'S ORDER OF THE DAY (AMENDMENT) WOULD INSINUATE THERE IS A DIVISION IN OUR OPINION AND, THEREFORE, DIMINISH THE POLITICAL VALUE OF THE ORIGINAL RESOLUTION."

THE CHAMBER VOTED THE AMENDMENT DOWN 317 TO 175.

TRIPLE LINES OF POLICE BARRED STREETS LEADING TO THE CHAMBER DURING THE DELIBERATIONS. IN RESERVE, WERE 20 TRUCKLOADS OF POLICE, ON GUARD AGAINST ANY FINAL LEFTIST THRUST TOWARD THE CHAMBER.

THE PIAZZA SAN SYLVESTRO DEMONSTRATION BEGAN IN FRONT OF THE MAIN POSTOFFICE, ONLY A SHORT DISTANCE FROM THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES AND THE FOREIGN OFFICE, AFTER THE DEPUTIES ADJOURNED.

"PEACE, PEACE, PEACE," THE LEFTISTS SHOUTED, AND HOMEWARD BOUND CITIZENS HUNTED COVER. BUS SERVICE HALTED IMMEDIATELY.

FOOT POLICE WERE QUICKLY REINFORCED BY STEEL-HELMETED RIOT SQUADS IN TRUCKS AND JEEPS, THEIR TOMMYGUNS UNSLUNG AND READY. THE JEEPS WERE CIRCLED ABOUT IN THE STREET, A MANEUVER POLICE CALL THE MERRY-GO-ROUND, TO BREAK UP AND DISPERSE THE THRONG.

ABOUT 35 MINUTES AFTER THE DEMONSTRATION STARTED, ALL WAS QUIET AGAIN IN THE DISTRICT. NEWSBOYS SHOUTED ATLANTIC PACT HEADLINES.

DE GASPERI ASSURED THE ITALIAN PEOPLE IN A RADIO ADDRESS TONIGHT:

"IF NO ONE ATTACKS, PEACE IS SECURE."

HE STRESSED THAT THE ITALIAN GOVERNMENT REGARDS THE TREATY AS AN INSTRUMENT OF DEFENSE, "TO GUARD LIBERTY IN THE PROGRESS OF WORK AND IN PEACE." HE SAID IT WOULD NOT INVOLVE ITALY AUTOMATICALLY IN ANY CONTINENTAL WAR.

"WE MUST GET TOGETHER NOW (WITH OTHER ATLANTIC PACT NATIONS) ON CONCRETE MEASURES TO REINFORCE DEFENSE MEASURES AND TO ORGANIZE A PLAN OF ASSISTANCE IN CASE OF ATTACK," HE SAID.

OUTSIDE THE POLICE-RINGED CHAMBER BUILDING, SPORADIC RED-INSPIRED VIOLENCE BROKE OUT IN SEVERAL CITIES. THE DISORDERS -- IN ROME, MILAN GENOA AND OTHER AREAS -- WERE QUICKLY QUELLED BY POLICE.

NO NEW DISTURBANCES WERE REPORTED TODAY. HOWEVER, AT TERNI, A STEEL MILL TOWN 70 MILES FROM ROME, A 24-HOUR GENERAL STRIKE WAS CALLED TO PROTEST POLICE ACTION YESTERDAY IN WHICH ONE PERSON WAS KILLED AND 19 INJURED.

AT 9:30 A.M. (3:30 A.M. EST) TODAY THERE WERE STILL 35 COMMUNIST AND FELLOW TRAVELER DEPUTIES REMAINING TO SPEAK IN THE PARLIAMENT TALKATHON. EACH CLAIMED THE RIGHT TO EXPLAIN HIS VOTE AGAINST THE ALLIANCE.

THAT'S WHAT LEFTIST DEPUTIES HAVE BEEN DOING FOR THE PAST TWO DAYS AND NIGHTS, WITH THE CHAMBER IN CONTINUOUS SESSION.

THERE WAS A GENERAL AIR OF FATIGUE AS THE BLEARY-EYED DEPUTIES SHUFFLED TO AND FROM THEIR SEATS. IT GAVE THE CHAMBER THE AIR OF A RAILROAD STATION WHERE A LATE TRAIN IS AWAITED. OCCASIONALLY THERE WERE TENSE STIRRINGS AND QUICK, ANGRY EXCHANGES.

ONE OF THESE OCCURRED WHEN COMMUNIST ANTONIO GIOLITTI ROSE AND CHARGED THAT MANY OF THE SPECTATORS IN THE GALLERIES WERE POLICE IN PLAIN CLOTHES. DURING THE EARLY HOURS ONE OF THESE SPECTATORS, DOZING, LET A GUN CLATTER TO THE FLOOR OF THE BOX IN WHICH HE WAS SITTING.

THE CONTINUED FILIBUSTER VIRTUALLY ASSURED THAT THE VOTE OF CONFIDENCE ASKED BY THE GOVERNMENT IN ITS STAND FOR THE NORTH ATLANTIC AGREEMENT WOULD BE DELAYED UNTIL AFTER THE PACT TERMS ARE MADE PUBLIC TODAY.

PREMIER ALCIDE DE GASPERI, WHOSE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY HAS ENOUGH VOTES TO ASSURE FAVORABLE CHAMBER ACTION, APPEARED TIRED AS HE RETURNED TO HIS SEAT ON THE GOVERNMENT'S BENCH.

PALMIRO TOGLIATTI, COMMUNIST LEADER, ALSO LOOKED FATIGUED.

THE ASSEMBLY ATTENDANCE FLUCTUATED AS SOME DEPUTIES LEFT THE FLOOR TO SNATCH A LITTLE SLEEP. TO AVERT A POSSIBLE COMMUNIST MANEUVER FOR A QUICK VOTE WHEN THE ATTENDANCE WAS LOW, ABOUT 200 OF DE GASPERI'S PARTY ALSO WERE LISTED TO SPEAK. THEY ARE NOT EXPECTED TO EXERCISE THEIR RIGHT, HOWEVER.

THE SENATE WAS SCHEDULED TO BEGIN CONSIDERATION OF A SIMILAR VOTE OF CONFIDENCE TODAY. MORE THAN A SCORE OF COMMUNIST SENATORS ARE LISTED TO SPEAK.

NIGHT LEAD UNDATED ATLANTIC

BY WILLIAM L.RYAN

ASSOCIATED PRESS STAFF WRITER

THE ONE-WORLD DREAM, SPRUNG FROM THE FIRES OF HUMANITY'S BLOODIEST WAR, HAS FADED BEFORE A NEW CONCEPT WHICH MAY MEAN TWO WORLDS AND SOME DAY PERHAPS A THIRD.

WITH FORMATION OF THE ATLANTIC ALLIANCE, TWO GREAT BLOCS OF NATIONS ALMOST EQUALLY DIVIDED IN AREA, POPULATION AND ARMED MIGHT, HAVE CHOSEN SIDES. A THIRD GREAT BLOC COULD BE IN THE MAKING IN THE STIRRINGS OF A VAST AREA OF ASIA AND THE PACIFIC.

ALMOST 300,000,000 PEOPLE ON EACH SIDE OF THE IRON CURTAIN FACE EACH OTHER WITH SUSPICION. EACH SIDE REPRESENTS A SLICE OF THE WORLD SOMEWHERE IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF 9,000,000 SQUARE MILES. EACH SIDE IS DOMINATED BY ONE GREAT POWER -- THE UNITED STATES, WITH ITS VAST INDUSTRIAL RESOURCES IN THE WEST, THE SOVIET UNION, WITH TREMENDOUS MANPOWER, IN THE EAST.

THE THIRD BLOC MAY FORM AROUND THE INDIAN SUBCONTINENT. IN ASIA THERE HAS SPRUNG UP A DETERMINED MOVE NOT ONLY TO BATTLE THE DRIVE OF COMMUNISM SOUTHWARD, BUT TO THROW OFF THE VESTIGES OF THE COLONIAL SYSTEM THROUGH WHICH FOR CENTURIES THE WESTERN WORLD RETAINED DOMINATION.

THE TERMS OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE ALLIANCE CLEARLY DEFINED THE LINES BETWEEN THE EAST AND THE WEST. THE ATLANTIC ALLIANCE EMBRACES THE TERRITORIES OF THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS, LUXEMBOURG, NORWAY AND CANADA AND DEPENDENCIES ANYWHERE IN THE ATLANTIC AREA NORTH OF THE TROPIC OF CANCER. LIKELY TO JOIN UP SOON ARE ITALY, PORTUGAL, DENMARK AND ICELAND. LATER, SPAIN AND EIRE MAY COME IN.

THE TROPIC OF CANCER CUTS THROUGH THE SOUTHERN TIP OF MEXICO'S LOWER CALIFORNIA PENINSULA, BISECTS THE WEST INDIES NORTH OF CUBA, RUNS THROUGH AFRICA IN THE SOUTHERN PARTS OF ALGERIA, LIBYA AND EGYPT, DIVIDES SAUDI ARABIA IN HALF, DIVIDES THE INDIAN CONTINENT AND FORMOSA AND RUNS NORTH OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS IN THE PACIFIC. ALL NORTH OF THIS LINE IN THE ATLANTIC AREA IS DECLARED OFF LIMITS TO ANY WOULD-BE AGGRESSOR. AN ARMED ATTACK ON ANY PART OF IT WILL BE DECLARED AN ARMED ATTACK ON ALL.

PACIFIC NATIONS ALIGNED WITH THE WEST, SUCH AS AUSTRALIA, NEW ZEALAND AND THE PHILIPPINES, SOON MAY PRODUCE, IN CONCERT WITH THE BIG WESTERN POWERS, A PACIFIC DEFENSE ALLIANCE DOVETAILING WITH THE ATLANTIC ONE.

LATIN AMERICA'S 21 REPUBLICS ALREADY ARE LINKED WITH THE UNITED STATES IN A DEFENSE ALLIANCE COVERING THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE -- THE PACT OF RIO DE JANEIRO.

RUSSIA, FOR HER PART, HAS AN INTRICATE SERIES OF ALLIANCES OF FRIENDSHIP AND MUTUAL AID WITH HUNGARY, BULGARIA, ROMANIA, FINLAND, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, YUGOSLAVIA AND ALBANIA.

A THIRD WORLD BLOC MAY SOME DAY BE SPEARHEADED BY INDIA AND PAKISTAN, PERHAPS JOINED BY THE ARAB WORLD OF THE NEAR EAST, IN AN ATTEMPT TO REMAIN MILITANTLY ALOOF FROM THE QUARRELS OF THE GREAT POWERS. INDIA, PAKISTAN AND CEYLON STILL ARE DOMINIONS IN THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH, BUT THE INDIANS HAVE ANNOUNCED THEY WANT TO BECOME ENTIRELY INDEPENDENT.

IN THE PACIFIC, THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC HAS CARRIED ON A DOGGED STRUGGLE AGAINST THE NETHERLANDS. THE NETHERLANDS NOW IS ENGAGED IN A SCHEME TO MAKE ALL INDONESIA, WITH ITS MILLIONS OF PEOPLE AND GREAT NATURAL RESOURCES, A SOVEREIGN FEDERATION UNDER THE DUTCH CROWN. BRITAIN HAS GIVEN UP BURMA, WHICH NOW IS FIGHTING HER OWN GRIM BATTLE AGAINST COMMUNISTS AND KAREN REBELS. COMMUNISTS ARE DRIVING SOUTHWARD IN MALAYA. THESE EVENTS HAVE HAD A TENDENCY TO PULL THE NATIONS OF THE SOUTHEAST ASIA AREA TOGETHER FOR THEIR COMMON INTERESTS.

CHINA IS IN A CONDITION OF TURMOIL, NATIONALIST CHINA, IF THERE IS ANYTHING LEFT OF IT AFTER THE NOW-WANING CIVIL WAR, MIGHT SIDE WITH THE WESTERN POWERS OR MIGHT TRY TO SEEK HER OWN LEVEL IN A LINEUP OF ASIATIC STATES. NORTH CHINA, UNDER THE DOMINATION OF VICTORIOUS COMMUNISTS, ALMOST CERTAINLY WOULD SIDE WITH RUSSIA, EVEN THOUGH THE KREMLIN IS NONE TOO TRUSTFUL OF THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS AND THEIR APPARENT PREDILECTION FOR NATIONALISM.

OCCUPIED JAPAN PROBABLY WOULD TURN UP ON THE SIDE OF THE WESTERN ALLIES IN THE EVENT OF A NEW WORLD CONFLICT. WESTERN-OCCUPIED GERMANY AND AUSTRIA LIKELY WOULD DO THE SAME.

THE ATLANTIC PACT'S FRAMERS INSIST IT REMAINS WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE UNITED NATIONS, WHICH, IN THE TECHNICAL WORDING OF THE CHARTER, IT DOES.

BUT IN THE HALLS OF THE UNITED NATIONS, RUSSIA HAS WIELDED HER VETO POWER FREQUENTLY AND THE NATIONS OF THE WEST HAVE HELD THE RUSSIANS GUILTY OF THROWING ROADBLOCKS ON THE ROUTE TO WORLD SECURITY.

THE WEST INSISTS THAT THE ATLANTIC TREATY IN FACT WILL STRENGTHEN THE CHANCES FOR WORLD PEACE BY STRENGTHENING THE MEMBER NATIONS POLITICALLY, ECONOMICALLY AND MILITARILY. RUSSIA, HOWEVER, CALLS THE FORMATION OF THE ALLIANCE AN ACT OF AGGRESSION AND SAYS IT WILL LEAD TO WORLD WAR III.

BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA, MARCH 18-(AP)-RUMORS OF IMPENDING ACTION AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT OF PREMIER MARSHAL TITO BY RUSSIA AND HER SATELLITES HAVE PRODUCED NO VISIBLE REACTION HERE.

YUGOSLAVIA CONTINUES TO PURSUE HER INDEPENDENT AND--OUTWARDLY AT LEAST--UNPERTURBED PATH DESPITE RUMORS FROM THE OUTSIDE WORLD OF NEW COMINFORM (COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL INFORMATION BUREAU) PLANS.

STORIES OF TROOPS GATHERING ON YUGOSLAVIA'S BORDERS AND DRASTIC NEW ECONOMIC WARFARE PLANNED AGAINST TITO HAVE SPREAD FROM BERLIN TO ISTANBUL. THE RUMORS HAVE BECOME COMMONPLACE HERE TOO, ALTHOUGH THE COUNTRY'S PRESS HAS IGNORED THEM.

THERE HAS BEEN NO OFFICIAL REACTION IN GOVERNMENT QUARTERS. AND NO GREAT ALARM IN PRIVATE CIRCLES.

NOR WERE THERE ANY SIGNS OF UNUSUAL MILITARY PRECAUTIONS.

ON TWO RECENT TRIPS TO POINTS NEAR THE HUNGARIAN AND ROMANIAN BORDERS THIS CORRESPONDENT SAW ONLY ROUTINE MILITARY PERSONNEL PERFORMING ROUTINE DUTIES AT REGULAR STATIONS.

FOREIGN OBSERVERS HERE THINK IT MOST LIKELY THE COMINFORM STRATEGISTS WILL BASE THEIR TACTICS ON CONTINUED AND POSSIBLY INCREASED ATTEMPTS TO STIR UP TROUBLE AMONG THE VARIOUS NATIONAL GROUPS WITHIN YUGOSLAVIA ITSELF.

(THE ITALIAN NEWS AGENCY ASTRA YESTERDAY QUOTED A MOSCOW BROADCASTER AS SAYING: "THE WAR AGAINST TITO'S CLIQUE HAS BEGUN IN THE VILLAGES AND CITIES AND WILL NOT END UNTIL COMPLETE ELIMINATION OF THE TRAITORS."

(ASTRA SAID THE BROADCASTER SPOKE ON A SERB-CROATION TRANSMISSION. IT QUOTED HIM FURTHER: "WE ARE NOT FIGHTING AGAINST THE YUGOSLAV PEOPLE. WE WISH, IN FACT, TO HELP THEM LIBERATE THEMSELVES FROM A TYRANNY THAT IS BRINGING THE COUNTRY TO RUIN.")

IF THIS THEORY PROVES TRUE, THE FIRST SIGNS ARE LIKELY TO COME FROM MACEDONIA, THE HISTORIC TROUBLE SPOT OF THE BALKANS, AND THROUGH INTENSIFICATION OF THE ALREADY BRITTLE RELATIONS BETWEEN YUGOSLAVIA AND LITTLE ALBANIA.

A FEW CLUES HAVE TURNED UP IN BOTH DIRECTIONS. BUT SO FAR THEY HAVE NOT GONE BEYOND THE COMINFORM'S CONSISTENT EIGHT-MONTH-OLD CAMPAIGN OF NEEDLING TITO AT EVERY OPPORTUNITY.

A19

(YUGOSLAVIA WAS EXPELLED FROM THE COMINFORM LAST YEAR AND ACCUSED OF DEVIATING FROM MARXIST-LENINIST THEORIES AS EXPOUNDED BY MOSCOW. TITO AND HIS FELLOW LEADERS ALSO WERE ACCUSED OF PURSUING A POLICY "HATEFUL" TO RUSSIA.

IT IS CONSIDERED POSSIBLE THIS STRATEGY HAS BEEN AIMED AT PROVOKING TITO TO SOME ACTION WHICH WOULD ALLOW THE COMINFORM NATIONS TO TAKE CONCERTED MILITARY ACTION AGAINST YUGOSLAVIA. IF THIS IS SO, TITO HAS REFUSED TO ACCEPT THE BAIT.

NOR, DESPITE THE ECONOMIC PRESSURE AGAINST WHICH HE HAS COMPLAINED BITTERLY, HAS TITO ATTEMPTED TO STEER THE COUNTRY POLITICALLY TO THE WEST. HIS NEWSPAPER AND RADIO MOUTH PIECES HAVE BEEN EMPHASIZING THAT YUGOSLAVIA HAS BEEN LOYAL TO COMMUNIST PRINCIPLES.

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 18--(AP)--Albania's deputy foreign minister, Tuk Jakova, charged in a statement here today that Yugoslavia attempted to make his country [redacted] a dependent for its bread.

The Yugoslav government of premier marshal tito, jakova said, ordered albania to plant cotton instead of wheat "to make albania dependent on yugoslavia NOT only for industrial products, but also for its bread." He said Albania ignored the order and others which he described as designed to sabotage his country.

Jakova's statement was carried by the official Czechoslovak communist newspaper Rude Pravo.

Night Lead Palestine

Tel Aviv, Israel, March 18--(ap)--An Israeli foreign office spokesman said today he expected an Israeli-Lebanese armistice agreement to "be signed at the beginning of next week."

The main obstacles for such an agreement now have been removed, he explained. Israel and Lebanon opened armistice talks at the border town of En Naqura on March 1.

There have been reports that one of the sticking points [redacted] would concern the presence of Syrian (correct) troops on Palestine soil. Asked about that today, the Israeli spokesman refused comment, saying "that would mean divulging the content of the armistice agreement and I am not entitled to do it."

MAR 19 1949

Meanwhile, an Israeli army spokesman said the main snag holding up Israel-Trans-Jordan armistice talks on Rhodes concerns the presence of British troops at Aqaba. [redacted] informant spokesman continued:

"The aim of the armistice talks is the reduction of and withdrawal of forces on both sides--as was the case in the Egyptian-Israeli armistice--whil in the present talks with Trans-Jordan the agreement must cover all forces in the area, including the British. The British are sending reinforcements, which the British war office itself admits."

Aqaba, only two or three miles from Israeli-claimed territory, is Trans-Jordan's red sea port. British troops are there at Trans-Jordan's request. Britain and Trans-Jordan have a treaty tie.

MAR 19 1949

In London the British Foreign office disclosed that Britain has $8,000,000
added $6,000,000 to her annual subsidy to Trans-Jordan's Arab Legion.
Reasons for the increase were not given officially. However, informed sources pointed out that Trans-Jordan's resources have been strained by participation in the Palestine war. Also, Trans-Jordan bears the cost of maintaining British troops garrisoned at Aqaba.

Col. Moshe Dayan, chief of Israel's military delegation to the Rhodes talks, and Col. Abdullah El Tel, commander of Trans-Jordan forces in Jerusalem, met in the Holy City today.

The 15-minute conference was preliminary to a formal meeting forthcoming

in which the two commanders will discuss Jerusalem matters not settled at the Rhodes talks.

MAR 19 1949

It was understood that both Israel and Trans-Jordan would prefer to work out a solution of Jerusalem problems among themselves without any further United Nations supervision.

Outstanding questions include the passage of Arabs from the old city through Jewish-held territory to Bethlehem and Jewish passage from the new city through the Arab-Held Sheikh Jarrah quarter to Hebrew University and Hadassah Hospital.

Also to be settled is the problem of free access to Holy Places, the operation of the railway to Jerusalem and the passage of traffic at Latrun on the main Jerusalem--Tel Aviv highway.

PRECEDE TEL AVIV DAY (310)
BY L.S.CHAKALES
RHODES, MARCH 18-(AP)-U.N. MEDIATOR RALPH J.BUNCHE SAID TONIGHT HE EXPECTS AN ARMISTICE BETWEEN ISRAEL AND LEBANON TO BE SIGNED "IN A COUPLE OF DAYS." NEGOTIATIONS HAVE BEEN GOING ON IN PALESTINE SINCE MARCH 1.

OTHER AUTHORITIES ALSO TOOK AN OPTIMISTIC VIEW OF ISRAEL-TRANS-JORDAN PEACE TALKS HERE. CHIEF ISRAELI DELEGATE REUVEN SHILOAH SAID THERE WERE NO MAJOR DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE TWO PARTIES. DRAFTING OF AN AGREEMENT MAY BEGIN MONDAY.

SHILOAH SAID THE ONLY PROBLEM WAS DISPOSITION OF IRAQI TROOPS NOW STATIONED NORTH OF JERUSALEM. THERE ARE FROM FIVE TO FIFTEEN THOUSAND OF THESE UNDER COMMAND OF THE TRANS-JORDAN ARAB LEGION.

THE JEWISH DELEGATION WANTS TO KNOW:

WILL THE IRAQIS PULL BACK WHEN TRANS-JORDAN SIGNS AN ARMISTICE? IS TRANS-JORDAN AUTHORIZED TO NEGOTIATE FOR IRAQ?

KING ABDULLAH OF TRANS-JORDAN HAS SAID HE IS, BUT HAS NOT REPLIED TO BUNCHE'S REQUEST TO PUT THE AUTHORIZATION IN WRITING.

SHILOAH SAID "THEORETICALLY" THE IRAQIS WOULD PULL OUT SINCE THEY ARE UNDER THE COMMAND OF THE ARAB LEGION. BUT HE EMPHASIZED THAT HE HAD NO ASSURANCES OF THIS.

EARLIER TODAY AT TEL AVIV AN ISRAELI ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID THE MAIN SNAG HOLDING UP AN AGREEMENT WITH TRANS-JORDAN WAS THE PRESENCE OF BRITISH TROOPS AT AQABA. AQABA IS A RED SEA PORT NEAR THE ISRAELI-HELD NEGEV. IT IS GARRISONED BY BRITISH TROOPS AT TRANS-JORDAN'S REQUEST.

THE SITUATION AT AQABA WAS NOT REFERRED TO HERE TODAY. INFORMED SOURCES ECHOED SHILOAH'S STATEMENT THAT THERE WERE ONLY "SLIGHT DIFFERENCES" REMAINING BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES.

IN LONDON THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE DISCLOSED THAT BRITAIN HAS ADDED $6,000,000 TO HER $8,000,000 ANNUAL SUBSIDY TO TRANS-JORDAN'S ARAB LEGION. THE REASONS FOR THE INCREASE WERE NOT GIVEN OFFICIALLY HOWEVER, INFORMED SOURCES POINTED OUT THAT TRANS-JORDAN'S RESOURCES HAVE BEEN STRAINED BY PARTICIPATION IN THE PALESTINE WAR. ALSO, TRANS-JORDAN BEARS THE COST OF MAINTAINING BRITISH TROOPS GARRISONED AT AQABA.

MEXICO CITY, MARCH 18-(AP)-MYSTERY AND CONFUSING CONTRADICTION MARKED THE STORY TODAY OF THE SEIZURE OF A SMALL CYLINDER CONTAINING A URANIUM SUBSTANCE, POSSIBLY STOLEN FROM AN ATOMIC LABORATORY IN THE UNITED STATES.

THE MEXICAN SECRET POLICE SAID THE CAPSULE CONTAINED PURE URANIUM 235, THE STUFF FROM WHICH ATOM BOMBS ARE MADE. THEY EXPRESSED BELIEF IT HAD BEEN STOLEN FROM AMERICA WHICH--SO FAR AS IS KNOWN HERE-IS THE SOLE PRODUCER OF U-235.

ATTORNEY GENERAL FRANCISCO GONZALEZ DE LA VEGA SAID LATER, HOWEVER, THE CYLINDER CONTAINED ONLY AN INGOT OF REFINED URANIUM HAVING NO EXPLOSIVE POWER, AND NOT ENOUGH OF THE MATERIAL TO BE OF MUCH USE TO ANYBODY.

THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION IN WASHINGTON SAID NONE OF ITS PLANTS OR CONTRACTORS HAD REPORTED THE LOSS OF ANY MATERIAL ESSENTIAL TO THE MAKING OF AN ATOM BOMB.

MEXICAN SECRET POLICE SAID THE INVESTIGATION NOW IS IN THE HANDS OF FBI AGENTS ATTACHED TO THE U.S. EMBASSY HERE. THE FBI REFUSED TO SAY ANYTHING ABOUT THE CASE.

ALL THIS LEFT MANY QUESTIONS UNANSWERED. FROM WHOM WAS THE STUFF SEIZED? WHERE DID IT COME FROM? HOW MUCH OF IT WAS SEIZED? WHAT COURSE IS THE INVESTIGATION TAKING NOW? WHAT FINALLY WAS DONE ABOUT THE MAN FROM WHOM IT WAS SEIZED?

THE CASE HAD A QUEER COMPANION--A CURRENT REPORT THAT A GROUP OF PERSONS OFFERED TO SELL LARGE QUANTITIES OF URANIUM IN MEXICO. THERE IS NO FIRM SUPPORT FOR THE STORY, BUT IT PERSISTS.

MOST WIDELY BELIEVED VERSION IS THAT THE GROUP NEVER SHOWED ANY URANIUM TO PROSPECTIVE BUYERS, WHO INCLUDED POLICE INVESTIGATING THE OFFERS AND WHO DEMANDED TO SEE THE GOODS.

IN THEIR EARLIER STATEMENT, THE SECRET POLICE SAID MANUEL SANDOVAL VALLARTA, HEAD OF MEXICO'S ATOMIC COMMITTEE AND FORMER MEMBER OF THE UNITED NATIONS ATOMIC COMMISSION, HAD IDENTIFIED CONTENTS OF THE CONFISCATED CYLINDER AS PURE U-235. THIS SUBSTANCE IS SUPPLIED BY THE UNITED STATES ONLY TO ATOM BOMB MAKERS AND A VERY FEW STUDENTS OF ATOMIC POWER.

MAR 19 1949

A16

VALLARTA NOW IS AT SOME UNANNOUNCED POINT IN THE UNITED STATES.

THE POLICE SAID THE STUFF WAS FOUND ON THE PERSON OF A MEXICAN CROSSING THE BORDER FROM THE UNITED STATES LAST NOVEMBER. HIS COMPANION DIED LATER, THEY SAID, FROM THE EFFECTS OF URANIUM RAYS. THEY DID NOT SAY WHAT HAPPENED TO THE MAN WHO CARRIED THE CAPSULE.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL, HOWEVER, IN A PREPARED STATEMENT SAID:

"IT IS TRUE THAT A SMALL QUANTITY OF URANIUM IS IN POSSESSION OF THE MEXICAN AUTHORITIES, BUT WE HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO DISCOVER ITS ORIGIN. THIS IS NOT U-235 BUT THE NATURAL METAL. X X X

"IT IS UNTRUE THAT WE HAVE ANY PRISONERS.

"THIS METAL WAS TAKEN EXCLUSIVELY BY MEXICAN AUTHORITIES UNDER MY ORDERS AND WITHOUT THE INTERVENTION OF ANY FOREIGN POLICE. THIS IS ALL I HAVE TO SAY."

ATOMIC EXPERTS IN THE UNITED STATES SAID MORE THAN 500 POUNDS OF NATURAL URANIUM IS REQUIRED TO PRODUCE ENOUGH U-235 FOR AN ATOM BOMB. HOW MUCH MORE IS A SECRET, BUT IT PROBABLY WOULD REQUIRE A LOT MORE.

IN THE UNITED STATES THE BIGGEST BUILDING IN THE WORLD AT OAK RIDGE, TENN., HAD TO BE BUILT TO PRODUCE U-235, AND ITS DAILY OUTPUT IS MEASURABLE ONLY IN OUNCES.

THE TYPE OF URANIUM METAL DESCRIBED BY GONZALEZ DE LA VEGA IS OF VALUE PRINCIPALLY AS A CURIOSITY, WHEN POSSESSED IN SMALL QUANTITY. SPARKS CAN BE STRUCK FROM IT, BUT THEY ARE NOT ATOMIC AND ARE NOT DANGEROUS. IF HELD AGAINST THE BARE SKIN, ITS RADIOACTIVE RAYS WOULD CAUSE A MINOR BURN, BUT THE STUFF CAN BE INSULATED BY WRAPPING IT IN PAPER.

NOBODY HAS SAID EXACTLY HOW MUCH URANIUM WAS SEIZED BY THE MEXICANS. THE MEXICO CITY PRESS HAD A FIELD DAY WITH THE STORY, ESTIMATING THE QUANTITY SEIZED FROM HALF AN OUNCE TO NEARLY TWO POUNDS, AND ITS VALUE ALL THE WAY FROM $44 TO $2,000,000.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 18-(AP)-CREATION OF A SKY-SWEEPING RADAR NETWORK AS THE BASIC ELEMENT IN THE UNITED STATES' DEFENSE AGAINST ENEMY PLANES WAS APPROVED BY THE SENATE TODAY WITHOUT DEBATE.

THE HOUSE PREVIOUSLY HAD APPROVED THE MEASURE SO IT NOW GOES TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN FOR HIS EXPECTED SIGNATURE.

FINAL COST OF THE U. S. NETWORK IS ESTIMATED AT $161,000,000.

STARTING EXPENDITURES WILL BE HELD AT $85,000,000.

THE U. S. NETWORK WILL BE OPERATED IN CONJUNCTION WITH A SIMILAR ONE IN CANADA SO THAT THE POLAR APPROACHES TO THE NORTH AMERICAN CONTINENT, AS WELL AS OTHER AREAS, CAN BE CLOSELY WATCHED.

BESIDES THE LAND BASED SKY SCANNING STATIONS, THERE WILL BE FOUR RADAR PICKET SHIPS. THEY WILL BE STATIONED AT SEA APPROACHES NEAR VITAL TARGETS.

THE SENATE ARMED FORCES COMMITTEE EMPHASIZED IN A REPORT THAT THE SYSTEM OF RADAR STATIONS DOES NOT IN ITSELF CONSTITUTE THE NATION'S DEFENSE AGAINST AIR ATTACKS.

"THEY ARE BASICALLY THE INSTALLATIONS WHICH ARE NECESSARY TO PROVIDE WARNING OF THE APPROACH OF HOSTILE AIRCRAFT FOR CRITICAL AREAS AND TO CONTROL THE ANTIAIRCRAFT ARTILLERY AND FIGHTER AIRPLANES UTILIZED IN REPELLING AN ATTACK," THE COMMITTEE EXPLAINED. "THE FACILITIES PROVIDED IN THIS LEGISLATION, THEREFORE, MAY BE REGARDED AS THE BASIC ELEMENT WITHOUT WHICH THERE CAN BE NO EFFECTIVE DEFENSE AGAINST ENEMY AIRCRAFT."

(380) EISENHOWER
BY ELTON C.FAY

WASHINGTON,MARCH 18-(AP)-GEN.DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER MAY BE ASKED TO STAY ON HIS TEMPORARY JOB AT THE PENTAGON FOR AT LEAST SEVERAL MORE WEEKS BECAUSE OF THE LEGISLATIVE LOGJAM IN THE SENATE.

THE ADMINISTRATION BILL TO REVISE THE ARMED FORCES UNIFICATION LAW CONTAINS A PROVISION FOR A PERMANENT CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, A POSITION NOW HELD TEMPORARILY BY EISENHOWER WHILE ON LEAVE FROM HIS JOB AS PRESIDENT OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY.

BUT THE SENATE FILIBUSTER AND THE PILE-UP OF LEGISLATION BEHIND IT PROBABLY WILL DELAY ACTION ON THE BILL UNTIL MID-APRIL OR LATER, LAWMAKERS PREDICT. THUS, PRESIDENT TRUMAN MIGHT WANT TO KEEP EISENHOWER AT THE TEMPORARY POST BEYOND THE "SIX OR SEVEN WEEKS" THE GENERAL MENTIONED WHEN HE TOOK THE JOB EARLY IN FEBRUARY.

THERE HAS BEEN SPECULATION, WITHOUT CONFIRMATION FROM ANY OFFICIAL SOURCE, THAT EISENHOWER MIGHT BE ASKED TO ACCEPT THE PERMANENT JOB IF CONGRESS APPROVES THE NEW LAW.

HE WOULD BE ELIGIBLE UNDER TERMS OF THE BILL, WHICH PROVIDES THAT THE CHAIRMAN, APPOINTED BY THE PRESIDENT AND CONFIRMED BY THE SENATE, SHALL BE SELECTED FROM "AMONG THE REGULAR OFFICERS OF THE ARMED SERVICES."

EISENHOWER, UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF A WARTIME CONGRESSIONAL ACT CREATING FIVE-STAR RANK FOR CERTAIN ARMY AND NAVY OFFICERS, CONTINUES TO BE AN OFFICER OF THE REGULAR ARMY FOR LIFE, EVEN THOUGH ON INACTIVE STATUS.

THE PHRASING OF THE ADMINISTRATION BILL APPARENTLY WOULD END A JOB HELD BY FIVE-STAR, 73 YEAR OLD ADMIRAL WILLIAM D.LEAHY, LONG A MEMBER OF THE JOINT CHIEFS IN HIS CAPACITY OF CHIEF OF STAFF TO THE PRESIDENT. THE BILL PROVIDES ONLY FOR A CHAIRMAN AND THREE MEMBERS--ARMY, NAVY AND AIR COMMANDERS. THERE IS NO REFERENCE TO A CHIEF OF STAFF TO THE PRESIDENT.

LEAHY EXPRESSED A WISH TO RETIRE AS FAR BACK AS LAST OCTOBER, SAYING THAT "THE PRESIDENT HAS PROMISED TO RELEASE ME THIS WINTER." THE ADMIRAL HAS BEEN RECOVERING FROM AN OPERATION AT KEY WEST,FLA. THERE HE HAS BEEN IN FREQUENT CONTACT WITH MR.TRUMAN DURING THE LATTER'S CURRENT VACATION AT THAT NAVAL BASE.

LEAHY WAS APPOINTED BY THE LATE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT TO THE JOINT CHIEFS ORGANIZATION WHEN THAT GROUP WAS ESTABLISHED IN 1942--REPORTEDLY TO SERVE, LIKE EISENHOWER, AS A "MODERATOR" TO END ARGUMENTS AMONG THE THREE SERVICE COMMANDERS.

OFFICIALS SAID THAT WHILE THE ADMINISTRATION BILL WOULD MAKE SALARIES FOR THE SECRETARIES OF ARMY, NAVY AND AIR THE SAME AS "PRESCRIBED BY LAW FOR UNDERSECRETARIES OF EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS," IT WAS NOT INTENDED TO CUT THEIR PRESENT CABINET-LEVEL PAY.

A BILL NOW BEFORE CONGRESS WOULD RAISE THE PAY FOR AN UNDERSECRETARY TO $20,000--$5,000 MORE THAN THE THREE CIVILIAN SERVICE HEADS NOW GET. IF THAT BILL FAILS TO PASS, IT WAS SAID, AN AMENDMENT WILL BE PROPOSED TO THE UNIFICATION REVISION TO KEEP THE THREE DEPARTMENT SECRETARIES FROM TAKING A PAY SLASH.

IT HAD BEEN REPORTED PREVIOUSLY THAT THEY WERE IN LINE FOR SUCH A SLASH UNDER THE BILL.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 18-(AP)-CARPENTERS AND PAINTERS ARE BUSY PREPARING A HUGE LAYOUT OF ROOMS TO GIVE THE NATION'S TOP MILITARY PLANNERS QUARTERS THAT ARE MORE PRIVATE AND SOUND-PROOFED THAN ANY HIDE-OUT IN A PAPER-BACK SPY THRILLER.

THE REMODELED SECTION OF NEARLY 90,000 SQUARE FEET IN THE HUGE PENTAGON BUILDING WILL BE THE NEW HOME OF THE U.S. JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF. THE MILITARY HIGH COMMAND NOW USES A SMALLER AREA A CONSIDERABLE WALKING DISTANCE FROM THE OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE.

THIS KEY PLANNING GROUP AND ITS STAFF WILL BE ENLARGED AND STRENGTHENED IF CONGRESS APPROVES PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE NATIONAL DEFENSE ACT.

THE STAR CHARACTERS NOW IN THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF ARE GEN. OMAR BRADLEY FOR THE ARMY, ADM. LOUIS DENFELD FOR THE NAVY, GEN. HOYT VANDENBERG FOR THE AIR FORCE AND ADM. WILLIAM D.LEAHY, MILITARY ADVISER TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN. GEN. DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER, PRESIDENT OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, HAS BEEN BROUGHT IN ON TEMPORARY ASSIGNMENT TO UMPIRE THE SERVICES' DIFFERENCES.

IT IS NOW PROPOSED TO MAKE THIS SPOT PERMANENT BY SETTING UP A CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS. HE WOULD BE MILITARY ADVISER TO THE PRESIDENT AND THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE. NATURALLY A PROPER OFFICE MUST BE FOUND FOR THIS DIGNITARY. IT WOULDN'T DO TO HAVE IT WHISPERED AROUND FOREIGN MILITARY HEADQUARTERS THAT HE DIDN'T HAVE A GOOD VIEW, BIG DESK, SEVERAL TELEPHONES.

WITH THE JOINT CHIEFS IN THEIR CLOSELY GUARDED TERRITORY WILL BE HOUSED THE REMAINING NUCLEUS OF THE WARTIME COMBINED CHIEFS OF STAFF OF BRITAIN AND CANADA. THE JCS AND THE CCS ARE BEING MOVED INTO THEIR NEW LOCATION NOT ONLY TO GIVE THEM MORE ELBOW ROOM AND SECURITY BUT TO GET THEM WITHIN QUICK SPRINTING DISTANCE OF THE OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE.

ALSO IN THEIR NEW QUARTERS THE CHIEFS WILL BE ON ONE FLOOR RIGHT BELOW THE CLOSE-LIPPED, EQUALLY WELL-GUARDED BOARD OF RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT, HEADED BY DR. KARL T.COMPTON. THAT WILL MAKE FOR EASY

COMMUNICATION BY PRIVATE STAIRWAYS.
THE CHIEFS AND THE MILITARY RESEARCHERS WILL BE ABLE TO ISOLATE THEMSELVES IN A PIEEASHAPED WEDGE IN THE FIVE-SIDED PENTAGON. THEY WILL BE ABLE TO COME AND GO THROUGH A PRIVATE ENTRANCE. THEY ARE TRULY TO THEMSELVES BECAUSE STURDY IRON BARS ALREADY ARE BEING PLACED ON SOME HALL DOORS.

A50WX
SOON TO BE HIDDEN FROM THE EYES OF THE CURIOUS WILL BE THE NEW TERRAIN IN WHICH MAP ROOMS, CONFERENCE ROOMS, NARROW DEAD-END CORRIDORS AND ROOMS WITHIN ROOMS ARE TAKING FORM.
MANY WALLS OF ACOUSTIC TILE ARE BEING PUT IN. DEEP WITHIN THIS TERRITORY IS A LARGE SQUARE ROOM OF THIS TILE.
ALONGSIDE OF IT ARE SMALLER TILED ROOMS. THESE INTERIOR ROOMS HAVE NO WINDOWS AND FEW DOORS.
ON THE OUTER RIM ARE OFFICES WITH WINDOWS THROUGH WHICH SUNLIGHT CAN STREAM. THESE LIKELY WILL BE THE OFFICES OF THE BIG GUNS. ONE, EXTRA SPECIAL, IS PROBABLY THAT FOR THE CHIEF OF CHIEFS. IT HAS A BATHROOM.

SECRETS (320)
BY WILLIAM F.ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON, MARCH 18-(AP)-CONGRESSMEN CALLING FOR AN END TO LEAKS OF VITAL DEFENSE INFORMATION SAID TODAY THEY WILL "WAIT AND SEE" WHETHER A NEW MERGER OF ALL MILITARY INFORMATION ACTIVITIES DOES THE TRICK.
BUT THEY INDICATED THAT THEY HAVE NOT ABANDONED PLANS FOR A FULL-SCALE INQUIRY INTO PUBLICATION OF INFORMATION ABOUT POSSIBLE U.S. AIR TARGETS IN RUSSIA AND ATOMIC INSTALLATIONS AT HOME.
THE MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY IT WAS PLACING ALL ITS PUBLIC INFORMATION ACTIVITIES--ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE--UNDER CONTROL OF ONE MAN: WILLIAM FRYE, FORMER ASSOCIATED PRESS WAR CORRESPONDENT.
SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FORRESTAL TOOK A COPY OF THE ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE, WHICH WAS IN CLOSED SESSION TRYING TO FIND OUT WHO LET LOOSE THE STRATEGIC AND ATOMIC INFORMATION.
"WE WILL WAIT AWHILE AND SEE HOW THIS WORKS OUT," CHAIRMAN VINSON (D-GA) TOLD REPORTERS AFTERWARD.
"IT LOOKS LIKE A MOVE IN THE DIRECTION OF PUTTING AN END TO THESE LEAKS OF VITAL INFORMATION BUT TIME ALONE WILL TELL HOW EFFECTIVE IT WILL BE."
VINSON SAID HE IS AWAITING AN EXPLANATION FROM SECRETARY OF AIR SYMINGTON OF THE RECENTLY PUBLISHED RUSSIAN TARGET STORY.
REP. MAHON (D-TEX) CALLED THE MERGER ORDER "A STEP IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION" AND SAID THE SERVICES APPARENTLY ARE "MAKING AN HONEST EFFORT TO CORRECT AN AWKWARD AND DIFFICULT SITUATION."
IT WAS MAHON WHO STARTED THE HOUSE INQUIRY BY CALLING ATTENTION TO THE TARGET STORY, WHICH HE SAID WAS BEING "BANDIED ABOUT IN THE PRESS."
HE CALLED FORRESTAL AND OTHER DEFENSE HEADS TO A MEETING OF HIS APPROPRIATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE FOR AN EXPLANATION. THE MERGER ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE AFTER THIS SESSION.
FORRESTAL SAID THE ORDER, WHICH BECOMES EFFECTIVE MARCH 31, HAD BEEN PLANNED FOR SEVERAL MONTHS. FRYE WILL WORK OUT THE JOB OF WRAPPING THE PRESENT INDIVIDUAL ORGANIZATIONS INTO ONE GROUP, WITH THE HELP OF HAROLD B. HINTON, UNTIL RECENTLY DIRECTOR OF THE MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT'S PRESS SECTION.
THAT SECTION HANDLES PRESS RELEASES FOR THE ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE, BUT ALL THREE SERVICES HAVE BEEN OPERATING THEIR OWN PRESS SETUPS BESIDES.

(420) MONTGOMERY
(EDITORS NOTE: DON WHITEHEAD, WHO REVIEWS BELOW THE NEW BOOK BY FIELD MARSHAL MONTGOMERY ON THE AFRICAN AND ITALIAN CAMPAIGNS OF THE BRITISH 8TH ARMY, SERVED WITH THOSE FORCES AS AN ASSOCIATED PRESS WAR CORRESPONDENT)
BY DON WHITEHEAD
WASHINGTON,MARCH 18-(AP)-BRITAIN'S FIELD MARSHAL BERNARD MONTGOMERY TODAY TARTLY CRITICIZED ALLIED PLANNING FOR THE WORLD WAR II CAMPAIGNS IN SICILY AND ITALY.
THE SOLDIER-TURNED-AUTHOR SAID IN A BOOK PUBLISHED TODAY:
1. THE ORIGINAL PLAN FOR INAVDING SICILY WAS "UNSOUND" BUT GEN. DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER FINALLY ACCEPTED THE MONTGOMERY PLAN.
2. THE ITALIAN CAMPAIGN BOGGED DOWN BECAUSE THE PENINSULA WAS INVADED WITHOUT A "PRE-DETERMINED PLAN" OF ACTION.
MONTGOMERY GAVE HIS POST-MORTEM IN "EL ALAMEIN TO THE RIVER SANGRO," PUBLISHED BY E.P. DUTTON & CO., INC., OF NEW YORK.
THE TEXT OF THE BOOK IS AS PRECISE, AUSTERE AND COCKSURE AS ITS AUTHOR, THE SLENDER BRITISH WARRIOR WHO WON HIS FIRST FAME BY DRIVING BACK GERMANY'S GEN.ERWIN ROMMEL AT EL ALAMEIN IN NORTH AFRICA.
MONTGOMERY AVOIDS ANY DIRECT CRITICISM OF HIS SUPREME COMMANDER, GEN.EISENHOWER, OR HIS BRITISH SUPERIOR AT THE TIME, GEN.HAROLD ALEXANDER. BUT HE MAKES IT PRETTY CLEAR THAT HE WOULD HAVE DONE THINGS DIFFERENTLY HAD HE BEEN IN COMMAND.
IN ITALY, MONTGOMERY DECLARED, THE HIGH COMMAND'S LACK OF A PRECISE PLAN MADE THE ALLIED ARMIES THE VICTIMS OF BITTER WINTER WEATHER WHICH TRAPPED THEM BEFORE THEY COULD REACH ROME.
THE PLANNERS ASSUMED, MONTGOMERY SAID, THAT WHEN AN ARMISTICE WITH ITALY WAS SIGNED, THE ITALIAN TROOPS "WOULD TURN AGAINST THE GERMANS AND ASSIST IN EVICTING THEM FROM THE COUNTRY."
MONTGOMERY DIDN'T THINK SO. "I EXPRESSED DOUBTS," HE SAID.
"IT SEEMED TO ME DANGEROUS, PARTICULARLY IN VIEW OF OUR SHORTAGE OF SHIPPING AND RESOURCES, TO MAKE A SERIES OF WEAK LANDINGS IN ITALY ON THE ASSUMPTION THAT THE ITALIAN FORCES WOULD RALLY AND FIGHT THEM. SUCH A COURSE MIGHT INVOLVE US IN A VERY DANGEROUS COMMITMENT WHICH WE WOULD BE UNABLE TO SUPPORT."

SO, HE SAID, HE DEVISED THE PLAN WHICH BECAME KNOWN AS "HUSKY"--THE CODE NAME FOR THE SICILY INVASION--AND HIS PLAN WAS ACCEPTED BY GENERAL EISENHOWER.

"I HEARD OF GENERAL EISENHOWER'S DECISION ON MAY 3 AND FROM THAT DATE DETAILED PLANNING WAS ABLE TO PROGRESS ON A FIRM BASIS," MONTGOMERY SAID.

NEW YORK, MARCH 18-(AP)-JUDITH COPLON, 27-YEAR-OLD JUSTICE DEPARTMENT EMPLOYE, WILL APPEAR IN WASHINGTON MONDAY TO PLEAD TO A SECOND ESPIONAGE INDICTMENT, HER ATTORNEY SAID TODAY.

THE LAWYER, BERTRAM ADAMS, SAID THE ARRAIGNMENT, ORIGINALLY SCHEDULED FOR TODAY, HAD BEEN POSTPONED UNTIL 1:30 P.M. (EST) MONDAY. HE SAID MISS COPLON WOULD SURRENDER IN THE FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT IN WASHINGTON AT THAT TIME.

THE SECOND INDICTMENT, RETURNED IN WASHINGTON WEDNESDAY, CHARGED THE ATTRACTIVE BARNARD COLLEGE HONOR GRADUATE WITH TAKING SECRET GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS "WITH INTENT AND REASON TO BELIEVE THAT THE INFORMATION WAS TO BE USED TO THE INJURY OF THE UNITED STATES AND TO THE ADVANTAGE OF A FOREIGN NATION."

PREVIOUSLY SHE HAD BEEN INDICTED IN NEW YORK ON CHARGES THAT SHE CONSPIRED TO ATTEMPT TO GIVE THE DOCUMENTS TO VALENTIN A.GUBITCHEV, RUSSIAN ENGINEER ATTACHED TO THE UNITED NATIONS. BOTH ARE SCHEDULED TO GO ON TRIAL APRIL 1.

MISS COPLON IS FREE IN $20,000 BAIL. GUBITCHEV IS BEING HELD IN $100,000 BAIL.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 18-(AP)-THE AMERICAN SLAV CONGRESS WAS REPORTED TODAY TO BE THE FIRST TARGET OF INVESTIGATION BY THE REORGANIZED HOUSE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE.

COMMITTEE INVESTIGATORS ARE UNDERSTOOD TO HAVE BEEN IN PITTSBURGH DOING SPADE WORK FOR THE FORTHCOMING INQUIRY.

A COMMITTEE MEMBER SAID OFFICIALS OF THE SLAV ORGANIZATION, WHICH ATTORNEY GENERAL CLARK HAS LISTED OFFICIALLY AS SUBVERSIVE, WILL BE CALLED AS WITNESSES FOR HEARINGS TENTATIVELY SET TO BEGIN APRIL 18. THIS MEMBER WOULD NOT BE QUOTED BY NAME.

IN NEW YORK CITY, GEORGE PIRINSKY, EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF THE CONGRESS, CALLED THE PROPOSED INVESTIGATION "ANOTHER ATTEMPT AT INTIMIDATION OF SLOVIC-AMERICANS (CQ)."

HE SAID THE CONGRESS WAS FOUNDED IN DETROIT ON DEC. 7, 1941, AT A BANQUET AT WHICH FORMER ATTORNEY GENERAL FRANCIS BIDDLE WAS THE SPEAKER.

IT WORKED DURING THE WAR TO SELL BONDS AND OTHERWISE RAISE FUNDS FOR THE WAR EFFORT, PIRINSKY SAID.

SINCE THE WAR, HE ADDED, IT HAS WORKED TO RESTORE "THE WARTIME POLICY OF FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE SLOVIC COUNTRIES."

THESE COUNTRIES ARE CZECHOSLOVAKIA, POLAND, RUSSIA, YUGOSLAVIA AND BULGARIA.

PIRINSKI DENIED THE CONGRESS WAS SUBVERSIVE AND SAID THE CONGRESS PROTESTED WITHOUT AVAIL TO CLARK'S LABELLING IT AS SUCH.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 18-(AP)-POLAND'S FIRST WITHDRAWAL OF GOLD FROM THE U.S. IN MORE THAN A YEAR WAS REPORTED BY THE CENSUS BUREAU TODAY.

WITHOUT EXPLANATION, THE POLES TOOK $524,996 WORTH OF THAT METAL DURING THE WEEK ENDED FEB.23 FROM GOLD THEY HAVE ON DEPOSIT IN FEDERAL RESERVE BANKS.

IN 1948, THE RUSSIANS MADE THEIR FIRST WITHDRAWAL OF GOLD IN YEARS. THEY TOOK OUT $4,490,910 (M), REPORTEDLY TO MAKE A LOAN TO ONE OF THE SOVIET SATTELITES.

THE RUSSIANS, HOWEVER, PRESUMABLY HAVE BEEN BUILDING UP GOLD DEPOSITS HERE OVER THE LAST 12 MONTHS. THEY HAVE BEEN SELLING MORE GOODS TO THE U.S. THAN THEY HAVE BOUGHT HERE SINCE THE U.S. SHARPLY RESTRICTED SHIPMENTS TO RUSSIA LAST MARCH 1 FOR "STRATEGIC REASONS."

POLAND, IN CONTRAST, HAS CONTINUED TO GET MORE GOODS HERE THAN SHE HAS SOLD IN THIS COUNTRY, A SITUATION WHICH NORMALLY WOULD USE UP PART OF HER GOLD IN PAYMENT FOR U.S. GOODS.

THE POLISH WITHDRAWAL LEFT TOTAL FOREIGN DEPOSITS OF GOLD UNDER EARMARK IN U.S. FEDERAL RESERVE BANKS AT $3,802,696,511 (B) ON FEB.23. THE SIZE OF HOLDINGS BY COUNTRIES IS KEPT SECRET.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 18-(AP)-MERTON B.TICE, NATIONAL CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS, SAID TODAY THAT WHILE THE ORGANIZATION WANTS THE RANKIN PENSION BILL AMENDED "WE ARE NOT DEMANDING THAT THE BILL BE DEFEATED."

TICE, OF MITCHELL, S.D., SAID IN A STATEMENT A RECENT TALK HE MADE IN HASTINGS, NEB., HAD BEEN INTERPRETED TO THE EFFECT THAT HE WAS OPPOSED "AND INFERENTIALLY THE VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS, TO A PENSION PROGRAM FOR OUR AGING AND AILING WAR VETERANS."

HE HAD BEEN QUOTED AS HAVING SAID AT A REGIONAL VFW CONFERENCE THAT THE ORGANIZATION "WANTS NO PART OF RANKIN'S BILL TO GIVE EVERY VET-ERAN, REGARDLESS OF NEED A $90 PER MONTH PENSION."

TICE WAS FURTHER QUOTED AS SAYING SUCH A BILL "WOULD BANKRUPT THE COUNTRY."
IN TODAY'S STATEMENT, ISSUED THROUGH THE HEADQUARTERS OF THE VFW, TICE SAID:
"WE MAY NOT ALWAYS AGREE WITH VETERAN BILLS THAT ARE REPORTED OUT OF THE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE AND OFTEN TRY TO HAVE THEM AMENDED, BUT WE NEVER ADOPT THE POLICY OF OUTRIGHT OPPOSITION TO ANY VETERAN BILL, NO MATTER HOW WEAK, THAT OFFERS SOME GAIN IN THE OVERALL VETERAN BENEFIT PROGRAM."

HOUSTON, TEX., MARCH 18-(AP)-"THE BEST DEFENSE AGAINST AN ATOMIC BOMB," SUMNER T. PIKE SAID TODAY, "IS NOT TO BE THERE WHEN IT GOES OFF."
PIKE, MEMBER OF THE U. S. ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, ADDRESSED THE CONCLUDING SESSION OF THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ARCHITECTS' 81ST ANNUAL CONVENTION.
PIKE CREDITED A JOKESTER WITH THE QUIP. HE USED IT TO ILLUSTRATE HIS CONTENTION THERE IS LITTLE NEED IN WORRYING ABOUT PUTTING UP BUILDINGS TO WITHSTAND THE BOMB OR IN PUTTING FACTORIES UNDERGROUND.
THE ARCHITECTS HAVE SPENT MOST OF THE WEEK CONSIDERING HOW TO DESIGN ATOMIC BOMB PROOF BUILDINGS.
"SPACE IS THE BEST DEFENSE," PIKE SAID. "WE MUST ALSO BE REALISTIC ENOUGH TO REALIZE THAT OUR COLD WAR OPPONENT HAS MORE OF THIS DEFENSE STUFF THAN ANYBODY ELSE."
HE SAID IT WOULD BE MOST DIFFICULT TO DESIGN A BUILDING TO WITHSTAND AN ATOMIC BOMB BURST WITHIN A HALF-MILE AND IF ONE COULD BE BUILT IT WOULD BE A BURDEN ON THE USERS OF THE STRUCTURE.
GOING UNDERGROUND, HE SAID, WOULD DISLOCATE OUR ECONOMY "IN AN ATTEMPT TO GAIN AT BEST PARTIAL PROTECTION FROM AN UNCERTAIN HAZARD."
ANOTHER STRONG DEFENSE, PIKE ADDED, IS A STRONG OFFENSE, WHICH IN EITHER A COLD OR HOT WAR IS THE HEALTHIEST AND BEST EDUCATED POPULATION AND THE MOST EFFICIENT INDUSTRIAL MACHINE.

NEW YORK, MARCH 18-(AP)-THE REV. WILLIAM HOWARD MELISH, CLERGYMAN-SON OF AN EMBATTLED PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL RECTOR, IS STEPPING OUT AS CHAIRMAN OF THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF AMERICAN-SOVIET FRIENDSHIP. HE WILL CONTINUE ON THE COUNCIL'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS.
MELISH--CENTER OF A BITTER CHURCH CONTROVERSY--HAS SERVED THREE YEARS AS HEAD OF THE COUNCIL, LISTED BY ATTORNEY GENERAL TOM CLARK AS A SUBVERSIVE GROUP.
HE IS ASSISTANT RECTOR OF HOLY TRINITY CHURCH IN BROOKLYN.
HE CITED "THE INCREASING RESPONSIBILITIES OF MY PARISH" IN ANNOUNCING LAST NIGHT HE WOULD NOT BE AVAILABLE FOR CHAIRMAN AT A FORTHCOMING ELECTION BY THE DIRECTORS.
HIS FATHER AND SUPERIOR, THE REV. JOHN HOWARD MELISH, HAS BEEN ORDERED OUSTED BY BISHOP JAMES P. DE WOLFE AFTER A HEARING BEFORE AN OFFICIAL BISHOP'S COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND.
THE 74-YEAR-OLD RECTOR, CLAIMING A MAJORITY OF HIS CHURCH MEMBERS SUPPORT HIS STAND, IS DEFYING THE BISHOP'S ORDER.
A MAJORITY OF THE VESTRY OF THE BROOKLYN CHURCH HAD ASKED THE BISHOP TO REMOVE THE ELDER MELISH. THEIR COMPLAINT WAS BASED MOSTL

THE BISHOP TO REMOVE THE ELDER MELISH. THEIR COMPLAINT WAS BASED MOSTLY ON HIS REFUSAL TO CURB THE "OUTSIDE ACTIVITIES" OF HIS SON OR TO REMOVE HIM.
THE ELDER MELISH'S OUSTER AS RECTOR AFTER 45 YEARS WOULD RELIEVE HIS SON OF HIS PARISH POST AUTOMATICALLY.
A SPECIAL MEETING OF PARISHIONERS VOTED TO REMOVE THE VESTRYMEN WHO ASKED THE BISHOP TO OUST THE RECTOR. THE VESTRYMEN CHARGED IN A STATE SUPREME COURT ACTION THAT THE MEETING WAS ILLEGAL, AND THE COURT HAS THE MATTER UNDER CONSIDERATION.

THE YOUNGER MELISH SAID HIS CHAIRMANSHIP OF THE COUNCIL HAS GIVEN HIM "NO LITTLE SATISFACTION," AND SAID HIS COUNCIL COLLEAGUES HAVE COOPERATED "IN DOING WHAT WE COULD TO CONTRIBUTE TO THE CREATION OF PEACE AND FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE SOVIET UNION."
AS A DIRECTOR OF THE COUNCIL, MELISH SAID, "IT IS MY INTENTION TO CONTRIBUTE FAITHFULLY ALL THAT I CAN TO THE WORK OF THE COUNCIL IN OUR COMMON TASK OF CREATING BETTER UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN THE TWO PIVOTAL NATIONS OF OUR CONTEMPORARY WORLD."
THE COUNCIL ANNOUNCED THE ELECTION OF SEVEN ADDITIONAL MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS; THE RT.REV. ARTHUR W.MOULTON, RETIRED BISHOP OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF UTAH; MAX WEBER, ARTIST; SHIRLEY GRAHAM, AUTHOR; DR.HENRY H.NOYES, FORMER MEMBER OF THE FACULTY OF NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY; CURTIS RITTER, PUBLIC AFFAIRS DIRECTOR OF THE NEW YORK REGIONAL COUNCIL OF THE CIO UNITED OFFICE AND PROFESSIONAL WORKERS OF AMERICA; DR.W.A.HUNTON, SECRETARY OF THE COUNCIL ON AFRICAN AFFAIRS, AND DR.HARRY GRUNDFEST, SCIENTIST.

THE EDUCATIONAL POLICIES COMMISSION OF THE NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION SAID TODAY THAT THE OUTLINE WILL BE PUBLISHED THIS SPRING.
THE 20-MAN COMMISSION, ONE OF WHOSE MEMBERS IS PRESIDENT DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, MET HERE LAST FRIDAY AND SATURDAY TO DRAFT THE PROGRAM.
DR.JOHN K.NORTON OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, COMMISSION CHAIRMAN, SAID IN AN ANNOUNCEMENT ON THE MEETING:
"THE PROSPECT THAT THE COLD WAR WILL CONTINUE INTO THE ADULTHOOD OF CHILDREN NOW IN SCHOOL INTENSIFIES THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF TEACHERS IN THE PRESENT INTERNATIONAL CRISIS."
THE COMMISSION SAID ITS FORTHCOMING RECOMMENDATIONS WILL BE DESIGNED TO GUIDE TEACHERS AND TO IMPLEMENT U.S. FOREIGN POLICY.

NEW YORK, MARCH 18-(AP)-DR.STEPHEN S.WISE, 75-YEAR-OLD ZIONIST LEADER, SAID TONIGHT THE LEADERSHIP OF THIS COUNTRY "SEEMS BENT ON WAR."

DR.WISE, WHO HEADS THE AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS AND IS FORMER HEAD OF THE WORLD JEWISH CONGRESS, MADE THE STATEMENT IN A SERMON PREPARED FOR DELIVERY AT THE FREE SYNAGOGUE.

HE ALSO SAID THAT "THE LARGEST OF CHRISTIAN CHURCHES IS UNEQUIVOCABLY FOR WAR" AND "IS USING ITS GREAT INFLUENCE TO WAR UPON THE ATHEISM--I DO NOT SAY GODLESSNESS--OF THE SOVIET REGIME."

HIS STATEMENTS WERE MADE IN DEFENSE OF THE REV. WILLIAM HOWARD MELISH, EPISCOPAL MINISTER WHOSE FATHER WAS RECENTLY ORDERED OUSTED AS RECTOR OF THE HOLY TRINITY CHURCH IN BROOKLYN. THE SON IS ASSISTANT RECTOR.

YOUNG MELISH'S CHAIRMANSHIP OF THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF AMERICAN-SOVIET FRIENDSHIP, A GROUP LISTED AS SUBVERSIVE BY ATTORNEY GENERAL TOM CLARK, CAUSED THE OUSTER MOVE AGAINST THE FATHER.

THE SON HAS ANNOUNCED HE WILL GIVE UP THE COUNCIL CHAIRMANSHIP BUT REMAIN ON THE COUNCIL'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

DR.WISE CALLED THE ATTEMPTED OUSTER OF THE MELISHES, WHO ARE FIGHTING TO KEEP THEIR CHURCH JOBS, AN ATTACK ON "FREEDOM OF THE PULPIT."

HE SAID HE THOUGHT YOUNG MELISH WAS "GRASPING NOT WHOLLY WITHOUT HOPE AT THE STRAW OF AMERICAN-SOVIET FRIENDSHIP."

"HE MAY EVEN UNDERSTAND," DR. WISE SAID, "THAT HE IS BEING USED BY GROUPS WHO HAVE NOTHING BUT SCORN AND CONTEMPT FOR HIS AND MINE AND EVERY CHURCH.

"BUT HE SEES OR DREADS, AS I DO, THAT WE ARE MARCHING ON TO WAR AND THAT IT MAY NOT PROVE TO BE A FAR CRY FROM THE PRESENT COLD WAR TO THE HOTTEST OF ALL WARS."

THE RABBI SAID YOUNG MELISH "LOOKS UPON OUR COUNTRY PUTTING ITS THOUGHT AND SUBSTANCE AND DEVOTION INTO PREPARING FOR WHAT ITS LEADERSHIP BELIEVES TO BE THE INEVITABLE WAR OF OUR COUNTRY AND THE SOVIET UNION. HE STANDS HORRIFIED, AS I DO, BEFORE THE GRIM PROSPECT.

"I KNOW THAT THE SOVIET UNION OR COMMAND IS ALL BUT UNENDURABLY TRYING AND UNFORGIVABLY PROVOCATIVE, PARTICULARLY SOME OF ITS INTOLERABLY DISINGENUOUS AMERICAN DISCIPLES," HE SAID.

"BUT THE ALTERNATIVE IS THE TRAGEDY OF TRAGEDIES.

"IF THE POLITICAL AND GOVERNMENTAL LEADERSHIP OF OUR COUNTRY WERE RESOLVED UPON PEACE AS IT SEEMS BENT UPON WAR, AMERICAN-SOVIET FRIENDSHIP GROUPS MIGHT WELL BE SUPERFLUOUS.

"AS IT IS, THEY ARE OUR LAST IF NOT BEST HOPE."

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 18-(AP)-THE U.N. ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL TONIGHT ENDED A SIX-WEEK SESSION WHICH WAS NOTABLE CHIEFLY FOR ITS DECISION TO CARRY OUT PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S "BOLD NEW PROGRAM" FOR BACKWARD AREAS.

THE SESSION WAS MARKED BY BITTER EAST-WEST CLASHES NOT ONLY ON THE TRUMAN PROGRAM, BUT ON SUCH QUESTIONS AS SLAVE LABOR BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN AND SOVIET CHARGES THAT THE UNITED STATES WAS SEEKING ECONOMIC DOMINATION OVER WESTERN EUROPE THROUGH THE MARSHALL PLAN.

THE 18-NATION COUNCIL DIRECTED U.N. ECONOMIC EXPERTS TO PREPARE DETAILED PLANS FOR PROVIDING TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE TO BACKWARD COUNTRIES AND ALSO TO WORK OUT A PROGRAM FOR FINANCING ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT OF RETARDED REGIONS.

THESE PLANS WILL BE TAKEN UP AGAIN BY THE COUNCIL AT ITS NINTH SESSION WHICH OPENS IN GENEVA IN JULY. THE DELEGATES HOPE TO HAVE A PRELIMINARY PROGRAM READY FOR ACTION BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN SEPTEMBER.

ONE OF THE SHARPEST DEBATES OF THE SESSION GREW OUT OF AMERICAN

FEDERATION OF LABOR CHARGES THAT MILLIONS OF RUSSIANS WERE BEING PRESSED INTO SLAVE LABOR BY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT. THE COUNCIL FINALLY ASKED THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION TO LAUNCH A WORLD WIDE INQUIRY INTO SLAVE LABOR.

MOST OF THE MAJOR ISSUES WERE CLEANED UP BY THE COUNCIL A WEEK OR TEN DAYS AGO. AT THE WINDUP IT WAS CONCERNED PRIMARILY WITH SUCH TECHNICAL MATTERS AS REVISION OF THE COUNCIL'S RULES OF PROCEDURE.

SMITH ALSO SPOKE UP AGAINST A RUSSIAN RESOLUTION THAT FUNDS ALLOTTED FOR EUROPEAN COUNTRIES "BE USED FOR THE PURCHASE AND DISPATCH OF SERUM AND MEDICAL EQUIPMENT TO THOSE COUNTRIES, AND NOT FOR THE DISPATCH OF SPECIALISTS, WHO ARE ALREADY AVAILABLE IN THE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES THEMSELVES."

SMITH CALLED THE RESOLUTION A "MOST UNGRACIOUS SLUR" ON DENMARK AND DANISH TECHNICIANS. SMITH SAID LATER THAT DENMARK WAS THE PRIME MOVER IN THE INNOCULATION PROGRAM AND WAS PAYING THE SALARIES OF THE EXPERTS AS THEIR CONTRIBUTION.

THE RUSSIAN PROPOSAL WAS DEFEATED WITH ONLY RUSSIA AND WHITE RUSSIA VOTING FOR IT. THERE WERE 11 OPPOSED AND FIVE ABSTENTIONS. THE 1-NATION COUNCIL THEN APPROVED THE REPORT OF THE EMERGENCY FUND CALLING ATTENTION TO THE NEED FOR "LARGER RESOURCES" FOR ITS CHILD AID PROGRAM.

RUSSIANS FEAR TREATY MEANS WAR ON SOVIET

Charge Atlantic Pact Will Foster Plans To 'Dominate World'

London, Sunday, March 20 (AP)—The Moscow radio today gave the Russian people word-by-word details of the North Atlantic treaty in an unusually lengthy news broadcast.

Reliable informants here said it was the first time since the war the Moscow radio has broadcast the text of a treaty to which Russia is not a party.

London, March 19 (AP)—A Soviet commentator charged tonight that "Anglo-American warmakers" will use the North Atlantic treaty to gain military bases for carrying out "their plans to dominate the world."

Another Moscow broadcaster charged: "This pact means war on the Soviet Union."

M. D. Melnikov, Russian commentator, declared in an English-language broadcast heard in London that the treaty has a "purely military aggressive aim."

The military articles of the treaty, he said, "provide the Anglo-American warmakers with an opportunity to utilize any pretext that suits them in order to unleash aggression."

The controlled Russian press and radio declared the treaty to be a work of warmongers trying to wreck the United Nations. The theme was that the alliance is "the main weapon of the aggressive policy of the ruling circles of the United States, Britain and France."

Branded "Unholy Alliance"

The chorus was taken up by the Kremlin's satellites behind the iron curtain.

The pact was called "an unholy alliance" against the East by the Communist-led People's Council of eastern Germany. It urged in a resolution that Germans resist "this aggression on their existence, security and right of self-determination."

It all added up to the hottest issue to date in the cold war between the East and the West.

Paul Ramadier, French Defense Minister, said in a broadcast that France is continuing to put economic recovery ahead of rearmament. He said that, within the Atlantic treaty, "the strong will help the weak and the weak will acquire and consolidate the economic strength without which military power is only a dangerous appearance."

"Deceptive, Comely Form"

A Moscow radio commentator named Linetsky declared in a broadcast recorded by the Soviet monitor in London tonight:

"The authors of the draft went to no little trouble to give it (the pact) a deceptive, comely form. . . . They attempted to present their aggressive child as something almost like a dove of peace.

"But they did not succeed; murder will out.

"The anti-Soviet point protrudes too obviously from the North Atlantic pact."

Linetsky told his listeners:

"The Communist parties in the capitalist countries have warned the ruling circles of these countries that if the warmongers attempt to realize their plans aimed against the Soviet Union, the working class will carry out its duty of international proletarian solidarity."

Russian Statement Cited

This was a reference to statements by Communists of various nations, including the United States, that they would be for Russia in any Soviet war against "aggressors."

A Tass dispatch to Moscow from New York said "the general evaluation of the North Atlantic pact as a weapon of the aggressive policy of the ruling circles of the United States and Great Britain is contained in a well-known declaration of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs last January 29."

In a 34-page statement issued on that date, Russia accused the United States and Britain of trying to undermine the United Nations with the North Atlantic pact and said their final purpose "is establishment by force of Anglo-American world domination."

Praised By Greek Press

Tass said: "Publication of the full text confirms this evaluation."

Newspapers and radio stations throughout the Communist-dominated nations of eastern Europe took a similar line. Polish newspapers carried the headline, "Protests voiced world over against Atlantic pact."

Greek newspapers hailed the treaty as "an historic milestone" and were optimistic that it would put Greek security "under responsible protection of the great powers."

An Istanbul newspaper asked: "Is Turkey to stand alone in case of aggression?"

Greece and Turkey, both receiving United States aid, are not among the signers of the pact.

Acclaimed In Iceland

In Iceland, a Reykjavik newspaper termed the treaty "the most important decision to keep world peace and human rights since the United Nations was founded." Iceland is one of the four nations invited to join the eight who have agreed to sign.

A prediction that the alliance would have immediate political repercussions came from the Austrian Communist newspaper Volksstimme. It said the pact had dealt a deathblow to Big Four negotiations in London for an Austrian treaty of independence.

The Communist publication said the treaty would partition Austria between East and West. Deputy foreign ministers of Britain, France, the United States and Russia have been trying for two years to draft the Austrian treaty.

U.S. "Imperialists" Denounced

Melnikov said in his broadcast: "American imperialists are paving the way for unrestricted interference in the internal affairs of the countries drawn into the North Atlantic pact."

"They will," he added, "utilize this pact for the purpose of crushing the democratic force in these countries."

Melnikov said "American and British monopolists are preparing their new war business."

"According to their schemes," he said, "the people and the working masses must pay for this business."

"That," the Soviet commentator said, "is just where the present Anglo-American war makers are committing their greatest blunder. The people of the world do not want war. A movement against the North Atlantic pact has assumed tremendous scale in all countries."

Moscow Radio Says Millions In West To Oppose Alliance

London, March 19 (AP)—The nations of the West read the North Atlantic pact today as the outline for world peace, but Moscow condemned it as designed for war.

In blunt language, Britain's Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin called it the hope of persons with peaceful intent, and an instrument to block Kremlin efforts to rule Europe by fear. The Moscow radio, in an English-language broadcast, charged that "this pact means war on the Soviet Union." The voice was identified as that of Dr. I. Lemin, Soviet historian.

Two Camps Divided

These statements were typical of the reaction of statesmen and the press in the two cold war camps. The non-Communist newspapers of western Europe also hailed terms of the pact as assuring that the United States will not stand idle if their countries are attacked.

Bevin, in a broadcast, declared the United Nations has failed to find the key to enduring peace, "just as the League of Nations did not fulfill its purpose."

Campaign Of Chaos

The Council of Foreign Ministers has been equally unsuccessful, he continued, while country after country fell into the Soviet orbit and communism acted "to suppress all democratic liberty, destroy any party that did not agree with the government."

Bevin accused the Communist countries of "running a perpetual campaign of incitement calculated to disrupt economic life, prevent Europe from settling down, and to create a situation of chaos, in order that the will of the Kremlin could be carried out and the whole of Europe brought into bondage."

Couldn't Stand Idle

"What, then, were the peace, freedom-loving nations to do?" he demanded. "To stand idly by to be destroyed, or build up some collective security? . . .

"Well, we took the latter course."

He insisted the treaty is one which no nation, "innocent of aggressive intentions," need fear.

Over the official Russian radio came a Soviet reply to the published terms of the pact—a charge that it "is designed to unleash war against the Soviet Union" and that "millions" in the West would not support it.

Refers To Red Backers

"Millions of people (in the West) realize this pact means war on the Soviet Union," said the broadcast by Lemin, and they "will never fight against the Soviet Union."

His reference clearly was to a recent wave of statements by Communists in Western nations that they would support Russia if she goes to war against "aggressors."

Across the Western world outside the Iron Curtain, however, Government officials expressed their approval of the pact and expected their people to back them solidly, and its non-Communist press spoke similar views.

Press Is Favorable

Western Europe newspapers other than Communist organs agreed generally that the pact means peace, not war. Many of them expressed regret that the pact was necessary, contending it solidified the cold-war break—but they said Russia had provoked it.

Several papers said the pact should be accompanied by new efforts to reach an agreement with the Communists.

In France, where Foreign Minister Robert Schuman called the pact a shield against aggression, Rightist and Socialist newspapers said the West had to form the treaty, but the Communist newspaper L'Humanite banner-lined its story, "Aggression Against Soviet Published."

Praised In London

British newspapers praised the pact. The London Times said it would "give the world hope for peace." The Daily Mail said the pact puts a "roof over 300,000,000" persons. The Daily Express headlined its story, "Attack One, Attack All." The Daily Graphic carried a headline, "United States Will Pour Arms Into Europe."

In Scandinavia, with Norway and Denmark under Soviet pressure to stay out of the pact, newspapers splurged the story of the pact's terms.

Okayed For Defense

Morning newspapers in Oslo agreed that the pact is "satisfactory from the Norwegian point of view" and a purely defensive instrument. The Norwegian Government newspaper Arbeiderblader said the West faced "an autocratic bloc welded together by Communist states," and the United Nations alone could not give security to those opposed to Russian policy.

Even in neutral Sweden the Liberal Dagens Nyheter said aggressive policies by Russia led to planning of the pact. Another Liberal newspaper, Tidningen, cautioned that the "pact means greater risks" for Scandinavia.

Recall Hitler Drive

Denmark's press also solidly agreed that it was a pact for peace, not war. The Government newspaper Social Demokraten said: "A potential aggressor cannot, as Hitler could, rely on illusions that it can conquer one country at a time without risking world war."

The Italian Chamber of Deputies voted approval of doing so after a tumultuous session yesterday which followed a 53-hour Communist filibuster. Italy's Senate begins debate on the pact Monday.

In Berlin, hub of the cold war, the Communist-licensed newspapers denounced the pact vigorously, in such language as "unlimited power for United States aggressors."

The Russian Army newspaper in Vienna said it is intended "for aggression against the Soviet Union."

In Tokyo, the Japanese Government spokesman, Chief Cabinet Secretary Kaneshichi Masuda, said, "I hope the United States will pursue efforts for peace and stability not only in the North Atlantic but in the Far East as well."

Tass Brands Pact 'Aggression Weapon'

Moscow, March 19 (AP)—The Soviet news agency Tass described the North Atlantic alliance today as "a weapon of aggressive policy of the ruling circles of the United States."

The dispatch, bearing a New York date line, said the Foreign Ministry appraised the pact in a public statement January 29 as an instrument for aggression, and this evaluation is now confirmed by the published terms of the pact itself.

Sees U.N. Undermined

"Authors of the pact, in false phrases about peace efforts and faithfulness to United Nations statutes, try to hide the clearly aggressive character of the North Atlantic alliance, which is a direct undermining of the United Nations," the article said as printed in Moscow newspapers.

"The published text bears witness," it continued, "that the pact has military and political character. It foresees the joining of armed forces of the pact participants for joint military action. . . ."

Pact Good, 'But What Of Us?' Turks Ask

Istanbul, Turkey, March 19 (AP)—The North Atlantic pact "is a good thing, but what will become of us?" the influential newspaper Son Telgraf explained editorially today.

"Is Turkey to stand alone in case of aggression?" continued the article, signed by Etem Izzet Benice, high in the councils of the Republican People's party, which dominates the Government.

That about summed up the attitude also of Turkish officials, as expressed privately. They have been reported to be angling for a Mediterranean pact, linked to the North Atlantic alliance.

The Son Telgraf's article said Turkey has alliances with Britain and France, but questioned whether the two powers are strong enough to protect her.

Cautious Senate Hints Approval Of Alliance

Washington, March 19 (AP)—A cautious Senate, aware that it soon will be asked to underwrite a historic change in American policy, gave general signs of approval today for the proposed North Atlantic Security Pact.

Presented by Secretary of State Acheson as an answer to the "intolerable threat" which would be posed by an aggressor's control of Europe, the proposed agreement earned praise—and some criticism—from senators who will help decide its future.

Seen Final Hope

Many members—most of them taking their first look at the instrument designed to unite the Western World against attack by Russia or any other nation—obviously accepted it as about the last hope for world peace.

Some, like Senator Douglas (D., Ill.), predicted that if it becomes binding Russia will never move aggressively against a member nation.

Others, reluctant to depart from the American tradition against European alliances, indicated they will go along with fingers crossed.

Some, like Senator Byrd (D., Va.), said the proposed treaty must not carry with it any commitment that this country will pay for rearming western Europe.

Sees Congress Thwarted

Others, like Senator Malone (R., Nev.), charged the agreement would take away from Congress the decision on when this country will go to war.

Acheson tried to answer some of these arguments in a radio speech last night in which he declared that "control of Europe by a single aggressive unfriendly power would constitute an intolerable threat to the national security of the United States."

The Secretary, making his first major policy pronouncement, said that if free nations do not stand together in some such agreement as that proposed, "they will fall one by one."

Allies Won't Divide

He said "the strategem of the aggressor is to keep his intended victims divided, or better still to set them quarreling among themselves," so they can be picked off, one by one. He added:

"We and the free nations of Europe are determined that history shall not repeat itself in that melancholy particular."

In New York, Warren Austin, United States delegate to the United Nations, said he is "strongly persuaded" that the pact conforms with the United Nations Charter.

Hearings Due Soon

The treaty was negotiated by the United States, Canada, Britain, France, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg. Norway joined the talks late, and other nations such as Denmark, Iceland, Italy and Portugal have been invited to sign.

The fourteen-page, 1,040-word doucument, made public in all the negotiating nations yesterday, is expected to be signed here about April 4.

Senator Connally (D., Texas) said he expects it to be sent to the Senate soon thereafter. He added that the Foreign Relations Committee, which he heads, will hold public hearings.

"Monument To Ethics"

Connally said the pact, which he described as "a shining monument to the highest and finest international ethics will mobilize "the forces of peace against the forces of exploitation and war."

The treaty will not become effective, so far as this country is concerned, until it has been ratified by two thirds of those voting in the Senate.

Acheson and Connally both said that nothing in the pact provides an automatic commitment for this country to go to war in defense of other nations.

Senator Donnell (R., Mo.) served notice that this point will be subject to extensive debate.

"This agreement is of outstanding importance to the nation and must have the intelligent thought not only of Congress but of the citizens generally, Donnell said. "I have said previously that if the pact constitutes a moral commitment to fight, it should not be entered into by this country."

Acheson noted that the alliance provides that each nation should take "whatever action it deems" necessary to counter an armed attack.

"This does not mean that the United States would be automatically at war if one of the nations covered by the pact is subjected to an armed attack," the Secretary of State said.

"Under our Constitution, the Congress alone has the power to declare war. We would be bound to take promptly the action which we deemed necessary to restore and maintain the security of the North Atlantic area. That decision would be taken in accordance with our constitutional procedures."

Acheson left no doubt that the framers of the treaty expect the United States to help rearm Europe. Senator Taft, of Ohio, chairman of the GOP Policy Committee, has said he does not favor an arms program.

Vandenberg Asks Cost

Acheson added:

"We will carefully balance the military assistance program with the capacity and requirement of the total economy, both at home and abroad.

This was regarded as a partial answer to the demand by several senators, including Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.), for an estimate of the combined costs of economic and military aid.

Although Vandenberg said such an estimate ought to be made before the Senate passed on a pending measure to authorize a second year of the economic recovery program, Connally said he doubts that it can be compiled soon.

Acheson accused Russia of "obstructive tactics and misuse of the veto."

This was in line with the Secretary's assertion that "the lie is today employed as a weapon of international policy" by those abroad who say the pact is imperialistic in its aims.

Alliance Nations' Power Gauged Over Reds

Washington, March 19 (AP)—If every western European country joined the United States and Canada in the North Atlantic treaty their present armed strength probably would total only slightly more than the Soviet bloc's.

If the Western alliance consisted only of the eight nations which took part in the negotiations, Russia and her satellites would have a lead of almost a million and three quarter men.

Superior At Sea

The figures for the pact nations and all Europe west of the iron curtain come to about 5,508,000 men now under arms. The estimated total for Russia and her satellites: 5,171,000. Neither figure includes reserves which might be called upon in war.

In naval power, measured in ships and men, the Atlantic pact nations would have a tremendous edge, even if there were only eight of them.

Red Strength Uncertain

In air power, the picture isn't known. While the balance might be close in total numbers of planes the Western powers probably could muster more far-reaching bombers. And they probably could hit harder than anything Russia has.

These comparisons are based on estimates, both official and unofficial. And even some of the official estimates, notably those on the Communist nations, are little better than guesses.

They do not involve the comparative industrial production capacities of the two blocs, in which the West probably would lead.

Others May Sign

The manpower figures include army, air and navy. The bulk of the strength, of course, is in the United States (1,668,000) and Britain (790,000). France reportedly has about 655,000 men under arms; the Netherlands 175,000 (some of these probably pinned down to Far Eastern duty); Belgium perhaps 85,000, Canada about 40,000, Norway 15,000, Luxembourg a tiny force.

These are the probable signers of the pact. They do not include such hoped-for signers as Denmark, Iceland and Portugal nor other less probable signers in western Europe.

Reds Strong In Germany

Russia is estimated to have within the Red Army, Air Force, Navy and MVD security troops a total of 4,050,000 men. The Russian satellite countries—Poland, Hungary, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Albania and Czechoslovakia—have 1,121,600 in the only official estimate published in the United States.

That estimate is now more than a year old and the Soviet bloc total strength may be larger.

A British Parliament member recently told Commons that Russia has 30 divisions—eight of them armored—in Germany now. Other estimates run as high as 50 or 60 divisions. They far outmatch, numerically, the divisional strength of the United States, France and Britain in western Germany.

Ready To Roll

The immediate danger if war came would be that the Russian divisions reportedly are completely equipped with fuel, ammunition and transport, ready to roll.

They would not have to rely on rear areas for supply, in the initial phase of any attack.

Despite the premium placed on air power by both sides, Western strategists believe any first move by Russia probably would be a traditional land advance.

Defense At Rhine

Therefore, the broad plan for Phase 1 of a war has been built on the idea of a Rhine River holding line, with successive positions westward if that line failed.

In the air, the Western powers would reply to any Russian aggression with heavy bomber strikes against Russian cities and munitions production.

The United States Air Force's Strategic Air Command probably would supply most of the bombardment aviation and Britain's Royal Air Force the fighters and tactical planes needed for support of ground troops.

Russ Air Force Small

The U.S.A.F. has about 24,000 planes in use or in storage, of which about 5,500 are active combat planes. The Navy's air arm and the Marines have about 7,200 planes operational, about 3,500 of them carrier based. About the same number are in storage or nonoperational.

The guess is that Russia may have something like 14,000 planes of all types, of which a little less than half are fighters. Estimates on the number of Red Air Force bombers copied from the United States B-29 range up from 100.

Got Nazi Sub Data

In sea power, Russia is putting her confidence in submarines—especially the greatly improved Snorkel type, capable of high under-water speed and long periods of submission. The Russians picked up from defeated Germany some excellent plans, completed submarines and technicians.

The authoritative publication, Jane's Fighting Ships, estimates Russia has about 260 submarines, with a large number of the new types—possibly over 100—scheduled for delivery by sometime this year.

Experts reportedly agree that the prime naval problem in event of war would be to keep open the sea lanes and the supply-receiving ports of the Atlantic and Mediterranean. The chief menace here would be submarines.

In weapons, the Western nations presumably could count on use of atomic power in their behalf should action against an aggressor nation require application of that weapon.

There is nothing in the pact, however, to indicate the United States and Britain would be required to make either the A-bomb or knowledge concerning it available to other allies.

Some Papers Laud Atlantic Pact, Others Watch For Soviet Reaction

[By the Associated Press]

The North Atlantic pact was viewed by a part of the nation's press today as a mighty instrument of peace. Other newspapers greeted the proposed alliance with muted enthusiasm or questioned the potentially dangerous reaction it might have on Russia.

The New York Times, acclaiming its creation as statesmanship at its best, said the pact was not a measure for the protection of western Europe alone.

"On the contrary," the Times editorialized, "in so far as the United States is concerned, it derives its final justification from the fact that it is a measure for the protection of the United States."

"Pact For Peace"

The New York Herald Tribune appraised the treaty as a "pact for peace," and described it as one "essentially and inescapably defensive, strictly limited in scope and potential application."

But the New York Daily News regarded the pact with foreboding, expressing the opinion that it is likely to provoke Russia to attack before western Europe is rearmed.

The News said also that America's agreement to help rearm treaty members "will force us to dilute our strength, to spread ourselves thin and to do so for a bunch of weak sisters whose will and power to fight are open to the gravest question."

The Cleveland Plain Dealer said it saw no reason why the Senate should not ratify the pact, while the Detroit Free Press said the important point is how Russians will accept it, whether they will continue "only to scold" or intensify the cold war.

A Kansas City Star editorial welcomed the projected alliance as an "experiment that offers peace-loving peoples more hope than ever before in modern history."

Publication of the text, the Washington Post said, confirmed the newspaper's feeling that the pact is more of a defensive alliance of the "old-fashioned type" than a regional agreement conforming to the letter and spirit of the United Nations.

Intimidation Or Retaliation

The Post also wondered what reaction it would draw from the Russians. "Will Muscovites be intimidated or provoked into retaliation?" the newspaper asked editorially.

The Boston Globe said: "In substance, the pact says to the Russians and their Communistic comrades, if they will not go along with the United Nations, then the United Nations will go along without them. It is almost as blunt as that."

The Boston Herald said: "Whatever the Russians may do, it should be plain that what our country is doing to balance the world situation is about the only thing it could do. If there has been any provocation up to now, it has come from Russia.

Pact Is Not Offensive

"The pact is not offensive in either the military or moral sense."

The Boston Post wrote that "the United States is not and has never sought to go to war, and, even now, implements foreign policy with heavy defensive appropriations only to make certain of security in the event of a belligerent move by Russia.

"The pact is now our chief redoubt to be defended and protected against what, up to now, had been unimpeded Red march toward world mastery."

The Atlanta Journal said the pact "bids fair to prove a mighty bulwark for the security of all free nations supporting it and a powerful influence for the peace of the world."

"Sufficiently Vague"

The Knickerbocker News, Albany, N.Y., said: "The difficult problem of meeting the requirements of the United States Constitution is solved by the use of language sufficiently vague that it seems to commit without actually committing this nation to automatic involvement in a future war.

"Whatever interpretation the diplomats seek to apply, however, the moral commitment is there . . . American involvement would be virtually automatic; Congressional confirmation would, as usual, be a mere formality."

"Life And Substance"

The Buffalo Courier-Express said there was no getting away from commitments written into the proposed treaty—"and we know of no reason why Americans should seek means for any of the Atlantic pact signatories to get away from these commitments."

Calling the United States the "life and substance" of the pact, the Buffalo Evening News said:

"This is as great a generosity on the part of the American Government and people as is the Marshall plan. Yet its fundamental justification to the American people must rest on the showing that it is also vital to their own security."

Peace Insurance

The Memphis (Tenn.) Commercial Appeal said "formation of such an alliance, plus the continued economic recovery of the nations of western Europe, may well be the best insurance of the peace so earnestly desired by the free peoples."

The Chattanooga (Tenn.) News-Free Press editorialized that while the agreement is a new and drastic step in United States foreign relations, such action "is demanded by the unpleasant realities of the world in which we live."

The Los Angeles Times called it a natural corollary to the Marshall plan.

Not Perfect Instrument

The Indianapolis Star acclaimed the pact as a progressive and necessary undertaking but warned that the American people "must not assume that this pact will either keep the peace everywhere in the world or be the perfect instrument to safeguard the United States from attack."

"As a new concept of democratic responsibility, it is historic," the Nashville Tennessean declared.

Right Of Decision Kept

"The pact can—and must—reserve to this nation the right of its own decisions," said the Nashville Banner. "With that assurance . . . it will have the sanction of the American people."

The Syracuse (N.Y.) Post Standard called it a natural and logical development "and a response to the unyielding attitude of Russia against co-operation and friendly settlement of questions arising between East and West."

The Miami (Fla.) Herald said the pact constituted an acknowledgment "of the fear that Russia sits athwart western Europe . . . the safeguarding of our national being and permanence should be the only scales in which it should be weighed and warranted."

All-For-One Philosophy

The Hartford (Conn.) Courant said: "Never before, it may be said, have the chronically belligerent actions of one power made so clear the need for this all-for-one philosophy."

The New Haven (Conn.) Register termed the pact a "bold and heartening step in the direction of true peace," but reminded nations who join the United States as signers that they "must carry their share of the responsibility for the pact's success."

American adherence to the treaty is based on a simple but "fateful gamble," the Rochester (N.Y.) Times-Union remarked, adding: "The gamble is whether Russia will be convinced by this alliance that the West means business and will cease its aggression in that direction."

May Discourage Soviet

The Syracuse (N.Y.) Herald Journal saw a likelihood that the alliance "will discourage aggressive Russia from making war on democratic civilization if anything will."

The pact is a vital "must," the Portland (Maine) Evening Express commented.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch said the Atlantic community defenses, both psychological and material, will be strengthened and improved and the other part of the world "put on sharp notice."

Only "Practical Hope"

The treaty, the St. Louis Globe-Democrat said, "seems now the only hard, practical hope in abating or ending the raving jeopardies of cold war."

Said the St. Louis Star-Times: "The Communist aggressors will see that the legalistic wording of the treaty is merely an expression of the firm determination of the free peoples of the West never again to go under one by one while the others stand by blind and ill-prepared."

The Minneapolis Star said the pact came into being "to stave off world war III.

Impress Even Soviet

The St. Paul Pioneer Press said that if the treaty's purpose of keeping the peace "can be realized, and there is no other hope for peace, the need for co-operation will be impressed on even the Soviet Government."

"It marks a tremendous step toward peace," the Milwaukee Journal observes.

"It will, in short, provide a very necessary antidote to fear," said the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette.

Blow At Military Power

The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin said that while the Marshall Plan "strikes at the ideology of communism, the alliance strikes at a spreading of communism and Russian national power through military measures."

"Basic in this new alliance," the Philadelphia Inquirer said, "are principles upon which, it may be hoped there can in time be erected a more complete union to serve as the nucleus for that world federation for enduring peace which was the inspiration for the United Nations."

Shield Against New War

The Troy (N.Y.) Record said the pact recognizes the division of the world into two spheres and deals with this situation in "realistic fashion."

The Providence Journal said the "free countries have in this treaty raised a mighty shield against the menace of a new war."

The United States, declared the Charlotte (N.C.) News, has a "practical commitment to oppose Russian aggression with American force. It has been the core of our foreign policy since the declaration of the Truman Doctrine."

"Honest Diplomacy"

"This is honest diplomacy," the Richmond (Va.) News-Leader said.

The New Orleans States remarked that the "antidoe for force is force, and the greatest single force against totalitarianism today is the United States."

Truman Returns To Capital, Plans Speed on Pact

WASHINGTON, March 19 (AP).—President Truman returned today from his 13-day Florida vacation a little heavier but feeling "fine."

He told reporters at the airport that he would send the North Atlantic security treaty to the Senate for ratification "as soon as it is ready."

This was taken to mean the Senate would get the pact soon after it is signed here April 4. The President had already approved the text made public yesterday as well as the explanation of it last night by Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

Asked whether a trip to Israel by Eddie Jacobson, his former partner in the haberdashery business in Kansas City, had any official connection, Mr. Truman said it had not; that Jacobson was on his own.

GOES TO BLAIR HOUSE

He said he did not know anything about the trip until reporters told him about it yesterday at Key West, Fla. Jacobson sailed Thursday and it was reported he would give his impressions to the President on his return.

The President did not go at once to his White House office. He drove directly to his Blair House residence to get ready to attend the White House News Photographers Association annual dinner tonight.

Monday he will return to his office. He has a cabinet meeting set for that day as well as his regular session with Democratic Congressional leaders.

The President, as he indicated to newsmen at Key West, has adopted a wait-and-see attitude before marking down as a permanent attitude the rebuffs Congress has handed him in recent days. He says Congress should be given more time and that he is confident his program ultimately will go through.

A crowd of several hundred greeted him on his arrival from Key West at 2:50 P. M. (EST), three hours and 50 minutes after he took off from Key West's Boca Chica Airport. A tailwind speeded the trip.

Among those in the welcoming party were Attorney General Tom Clark, Secretary of Defense James Forrestal, Louis A. Johnson, nominated to succeed Forrestal; Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer, and city officials.

"My, you look as if you picked up five pounds," Sawyer said as he shook hands.

The President acknowledged he had gained some, but said he felt "fine."

President Says Atlantic Pact Bolsters U.N.

Key West, Fla., March 19 (AP)—President Truman took the view today that the Atlantic pact "will strengthen and support the United Nations."

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross made public a telegram to Secretary of State Acheson in which Mr. Truman also said the proposed treaty would be "in complete harmony with the Constitution."

Telegram Given Out

The telegram was given out shortly before the President's departure for Washington at the end of a fortnight's vacation. It follows:

"Have just listened with great satisfaction to your clear and forceful speech. You have given the country an admirable exposition of the principles and objectives of the Atlantic pact. Thoughtful citizens will now understand that the proposed treaty, operating in complete harmony with the Constitution, will strengthen and support the United Nations. Reception excellent over southern-most radio staton in the country, and entire staff join me in hearty congratulations on your superb effort.

"Harry S. Truman."

Returning To Washington

The President took off for Washington at 11 A.M. aboard the presidential plane Independence.

Mr. Truman planned to be in Washington in plenty of time to attend tonight's annual dinner of the White House Photographers Association.

Vice President Barkley, Speaker Rayburn, Senate Majority Leader Lucas and House Majority Leader McCormack were invited to the White House Monday for a review of the legislative session. A Cabinet conference was set for later in the day.

HIGH RUSSIANS SEEN LEADING TREATY FIGHT

Vishinsky And Gromyko Expected To Attend U.N. Assembly

Lake Success, N.Y., March 19 (AP)—Andrei Y. Vishinsky, Soviet Foreign Minister, and his No. 1 helper, Andrei A. Gromyko, are expected here to lead a Soviet fight on the North Atlantic treaty in the United Nations Assembly next month.

The Soviet Union has not yet informed the United Nations who will make up the delegation. It never does until the delegation is on its way.

But a high United Nations official said today it would be a fair guess that Vishinsky would come from Moscow for the session opening at Flushing Meadows April 5.

Most Experienced Debater

Vishinsky was the top Russian at the Assembly in Paris last fall. Since then he has been made Foreign Minister, succeeding Vyacheslav M. Molotov.

Bitter Soviet opposition to the North Atlantic treaty was taken by some United Nations delegates to mean the Russians will lose no chance to assail it in the Assembly. Vishinsky is their most experienced debater.

The opportunity may come when the Assembly takes up the fate of former Italian colonies in North Africa. This would open the way for Soviet delegates to go over the whole American policy in the Mediterranean and then to ring in the North Atlantic alilance.

United Nations delegates expect Vishinsky will be assisted by Gromyko, who has been away from United Nations halls since last July.

Top Job For McNeil

The Western powers will be represented by high officials also. The United Nations received word that Robert Schuman, French Foreign Minister, will attend.

Ernest Bevin, Foreign Secretary of Britain, will be in the United States at the time and may look in on the Assembly. But the job of acting top delegate will go again to Hector McNeil, Minister of State.

The Foreign Ministers of Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands also are expected. These Western officials are coming over for the signing of the North Atlantic treaty in Washington April 4, the day before the Assembly convenes again to finish the job begun in Paris last September 21.

One other Russian familiar to Americans may attend the assembly. He is Jacob M. Lomakin, former Soviet consul general in New York city and a close personal friend of Deputy Foreign Minister Gromyko.

Information A Topic

The United States ordered Lomakin out of the country last August 20 on charges growing out of the case of Mrs. Oksana Kasenkina, Russian schoolteacher, who jumped from a window in the consulate.

Nothing was heard about Lomakin until Tuesday, when he appeared at a Vishinsky reception in Moscow as acting chief of the Russian press department.

One of the topics for the Assembly next month will be freedom of information. Lomakin sat on the United Nations subcommission on freedom of information and of the press. Although he is not acceptable to the United States Government as a consul general, United Nations observers say he could return to a United Nations meeting under cover of his United Nations duties.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and Erwin D. Canham, editor of the Christian Science Monitor, will sit for the United States in the debates on freedom of information.

Wallace Assails Atlantic Treaty

NEW YORK, March 19 (AP).—Henry A. Wallace says the North Atlantic Treaty "thrusts an intolerable military burden on our people, and buys us neither peace nor security."

Terming the pact a "willful, deliberate and complete violation" of this Nation's pledge to uphold the United Nations, Wallace said, "The formal words published . . . hide from view a whole series of the most dangerous and war-breeding commitments and consequences."

In a telegram to all major radio networks, Wallace called for time on the air "as a spokesman for those who oppose the pact" to answer Secretary of State Dean Acheson's radio address on the pact last night.

'Insulting' Polish Protest Rejected by Yugoslavia

LONDON, March 19 (AP).—Yugoslavia rejected today as "insulting and discourteous" a protest by Poland against the closing of the Polish Information Bureau at Belgrade.

Tanjug, Yugoslav official news agency, reporting the rejection, said Poland failed to grant Premier Marshal Tito's regime similar facilities in Warsaw. Yugoslavia has been a Communist outcast since the Cominform last year said Tito had left the party line.

The Yugoslavs said the Polish office issued "disloyal propaganda and abused the hospitality" of Yugoslavia. The note said reopening of the office would depend on when Poland lets Yugoslavia have one at Warsaw.

Aden May Bar Jews To Avoid Race Riots

London, March 19 (AP)—The British protectorate of Aden proposes closing its borders to Yemenite Jews to avoid race riots, the Colonial Office said today.

A spokesman said views are being exchanged with authorities in the Red Sea protectorate, where Arab-Jewish riots in 1947 took an estimated 200 lives.

The riots, breaking out as part of the Arab protest against creation of a Jewish state in Palestine, laid waste to large sections of the old city of Aden, inside an extinct volcano crater.

Neighbors On Peninsula

Informants here said they presumed Aden authorities had sent their views to the Government of Yemen. There was no confirmation, however, of reports the (Arabic) Imam (King) of Yemen had forbidden Yemenite Jews to go to Aden.

Aden and independent Yemen are neighbors on the southwestern tip of the Arabian peninsula.

Albanians Accuse Slavs Of Sabotage

London, March 19 (AP)—The Albanian newspaper Zeri I Popullit said today that "Yugoslav Trotskyites" have sabotaged and pillaged Albania's copper and crome mines.

This attack on Premier Marshal Tito's regime was another in a recent series by governments adhering to the Moscow-dominated Cominform (Communist International Information Bureau). The Cominform ousted Tito last year claiming he had deviated from true Communism.

The newspaper's editorial, broadcast by the Tirana radio, said Albania had fulfilled her part of the bargain but Yugoslavia had not, resulting in a loss of production in copper and chrome ore.

Meet To Plan How To Mete Out The Meat

London, March 19 (AP)—British butchers meet Thursday to decide how thin they can slice meat to give Britons the reduced ration of 10 pence worth each week. Ten pence is 16.3 cents.

The Labor Government cut the ration 20 per cent this week, effective March 27. They blamed lagging Argentine deliveries.

Of the ration, one fifth, or 3.26 cents worth, must be in corned beef. Even the sharpest razors won't slice it that thin, the butchers say.

Respectable Hunks

The Butchers Organization of Great Britain also will talk over a plan by which Britons should buy meat only once in two weeks so it could be sold in respectable hunks, provided, of course, the family had enough ration coupons. Another suggestion is that the butchers trim off more fat.

The ration allows Britons about one sparse meat meal a week.

"We will do the best we can," the Butchers Organization said. They added times are hard for them, too.

'Plenty Of Paper, But Bring Your Own Meat'

Southampton, England, March 19 (AP)—Because of the paper shortage, many English butchers have a sign posted: "Please bring your own paper."

Now, the meat ration has been cut and a Southampton butcher blossomed out with this sign:

"We have plenty of paper. Bring your own meat."

BASIC LAW SHAPED FOR EAST GERMANY

New State Emerges In Action By Soviet Zone Council

Berlin, March 19 (AP)—Eastern Germany neared the status of a separate nation in the Soviet orbit today.

The Communist-led People's Council approved unanimously a constitution for the 20,000,000 Germans in the Soviet zone and in the Soviet sector of Berlin. The constitution still must be approved by the 2,000-man People's Congress, which ratifies decrees of the Council.

The Council's ratification of the constitution, which would set up a rival to the western German federation being formulated at Bonn for the United States, British and French occupation zones, came 24 hours after announcement of the terms of the North Atlantic treaty.

Communists assailed the treaty as "aiming at a new war."

Currency Move Drafted

The western powers prepared to make the West mark the only legal currency in blockaded western Berlin. Authoritative sources said the new move in the currency war will be announced tomorrow. Berliners went on a buying spree to get rid of their Soviet-backed East marks, which have been circulating legally in West as well as East Berlin.

Allied financial officials said the revision is aimed to put the bankrupt west city government on its feet. The government has had to pay all its expenses in West marks, although it had to accept East marks for revenue. The East mark is worth only one fourth as much as the West mark.

The West mark, officially pegged at 30 cents, was declared illegal in the Soviet sector last summer.

Unity Conference Called

Before rushing through the East German constitution, the People's Council appealed yesterday to western German leaders to meet them next month in "an all-German unity conference." The Communists obviously did not believe the appeal would be accepted. It was regarded as a maneuver to ward off charges that they were splitting Germany by creating the East German state.

The Social Democratic party in the American Zone state of Hesse said today the Communists could prove their desire for German unity "by asking the Soviet Union to lift the Berlin blockade at once, to return German war prisoners and to abolish concentration camps in the Soviet Zone." (over)

Red Constitution 'For Germany' Voted In Berlin

Berlin, March 19 (AP)—The Communist-controlled People's Council adopted today a constitution for the 20,000,000 Germans living under Soviet rule.

The 400-man body—established by the Soviet-picked politicians of eastern Germany—rubber-stamped a basic law embodying Communist principles for the entire Russian zone and also the Russian sector of Berlin. The vote was unanimous.

The action was a rejoinder to the West German government being established at Bonn.

"One Of Most Important"

Prof. Herman Kastner, cochairof the People's Council, declared the action was "one of the most important and decisive in German history." It made the partition of Germany virtually complete.

Wilhelm Pieck, cochairman of the Communist Social Unity party, told the council that "a serious political situation" grips Germany. He blamed it on the West, charging that the West had prevented a "just peace treaty."

Obviously hitting at the Atlantic pact, he said the West had adopted recent measures "aiming at a new war."

"Full Meeting" Sought

Pieck instructed the party to issue a call for a full meeting of the People's Congress. This is a 2,000-man body which sits as a parliament to approve the decrees handed down by the SED Politburo and the Council.

The congress probably will be given the new constitution for its sanction. Date for the meeting was not immediately disclosed.

The Communists are linked with splinter elements of the Christian Democrats, Social Democrats and Liberal Democrats in these congresses and councils to give them a façade of unity. The parent parties disown the splinter groups, however.

Unity Is Stressed

In the announcements on the constitution, the Communist leaders asserted that "the German people must be enabled to have a constitution out of their own responsibility" and that "a united Germany must be the principle and the law."

Otto Grotewohl, cochairman of the SED, declared the western German government was handpicked "by three foreign generals," a reference to the American, British and French military governors.

West Berlin's Clocks To Be Moved Up Hour

Berlin, March 19 (AP)—Clocks in the three Western sectors of Berlin and the three Western occupation zones of Germany will be advanced one hour, to summer time, at 2 A.M. April 10, Western military governments announced today.

Under the new time, Western-occupied Germany will be two hours ahead of Greenwich mean time, seven hours ahead of Eastern standard time.

Bizonal Production Hits Peak

FRANKFORT, Germany, March 19 (AP)—Bizonal Germany set a new daily production record in February, Despite the short month increases occurred in six of seventeen industrial groups. Production of motor vehicles and petroleum and coal products increased 4 per cent each. Rubber gained 3 per cent, machinery and optical goods 2 per cent, and electrical equipment and paper and paper products each 1 per cent.

Cannibal Slaying Laid To German Steward

Bremen, Germany, March 19 (AP). A German ship's steward was accused today of cannibalism and murder. He will go to trial April 12.

The steward, Bodo Fries, 39, is charged with having murdered a small boy in June, 1947, and with having eaten parts of the body. Court officials said the prosecution would allege that Fries cut off parts of the boy's leg and removed the liver; that he took the meat home and said he had obtained it by barter; that his wife thought it was pork, cooked it and the couple ate it.

Germany Urged to Train Its Women for Industry

NUERNBERG, Germany, March 9 (AP).—An American expert suggested today that German women be trained to take the place of men in industry.

Ruth Frances Woodsmall, of New York, chief of the women's affairs section of the American Military Government, said in a statement that future German prosperity hinges on "maximum use of women power."

The women outnumber the men, in some areas two to one and in others as much as six to one, since the ravages of war in Germany. Hence, Miss Woodsmall said, "full participation of the women in all fields is an absolute essential."

She recommended intensified vocational training "to open the door of opportunity" for the women.

GI Wife Is Flown To Sick Husband

MUNICH, Germany, March 19 (AP).—The U. S. Army flew the wife of a GI to the side of her sick husband in Germany today.

Mrs. William Brown, of Mount Pleasant, Pa., arrived this morning at the 98th General Hospital here, where her husband is in a coma following a heart attack.

M/Sgt. Brown, Army officers said, was taken ill at Furstenfeldbruck Air Base, where he is a ground crew man with a B-29 super-fortress group.

Mrs. Brown was flown to Germany by the Army's Military Air Transport Service.

East-West Cold War Issue in French Voting

PARIS, March 19 (AP).—The East-West cold war is a major issue in grass roots voting in France tomorrow to fill 1508 political posts. Candidates of six main parties are competing for unpaid local jobs as general councillors.

Five of the parties are on the side of the United States. The Communists alone are stringing along with Russia.

Actually, the voting plays no decisive role in the East-West conflict, or in the present French political situation. But it may show whether the North Atlantic treaty, the Marshall Plan, the Berlin airlift, the Brussels pact and steps toward European union have encouraged the French people to take a stronger anti-Communist stand.

REDS LUMP ALL RIVALS

The Communists lump their opponents into what they call "the American party." They accuse it of "organizing an aggressive war against the Soviet Union."

The non-Communists say the Communists are a "fifth column" working for Russia.

On domestic policy, the election is mainly a clash between the Communist Party of Maurice Thorez and the French People's Party (RPF) of Gen. Charles de Gaulle.

Both the Communists and de Gaullists oppose the French coalition government, supported by Socialists, the Catholic Popular Republican Movement (MRP), Radical-Socialists (moderate) and the rightist Republican Liberty Party (PRL).

The local officials are to be elected for six-year terms in half of France's cantons, which are roughly equivalent to counties in American States. Mostly, the councillors have only advisory powers.

Each candidate must get an absolute majority of the votes cast to be elected. Where this is not done, run-off elections will be held a week later, when candidates getting the most votes will win.

The final results will not be known until after March 27.

De Gaulle's party was not in existence in 1945, when the last cantonal elections were held. Since then many of the men in these offices have lined up with him. (over)

POLES ORDER EXPULSION OF U.S. OFFICIAL

Object To Information Service Reference To Soviet Satellite

Warsaw, March 19 (AP)—The Polish Government, objecting to a United States Information Service bulletin calling Poland a Soviet satellite, has ordered expulsion of the service's chief, Chester H. Opal.

Foreign Minister Zygmunt Modzelewski told United States Ambassador Waldemar Gallman Thursday that Opal was persona non grata and must leave the country shortly.

[The United States State Department said it is considering what to do about the demand. The normal procedure is to heed such an order, since a diplomat out of favor in a foreign capital loses value in service there.]

Yugoslav Action Protested

The Opal case flared as Poland protested Yugoslavia's closing of the Polish Information Bureau in Belgrade March 15 as a hostile act. The government-controlled Polish radio noted that Premier Marshal Tito's government, feuding now with its former associates in the Cominform, permitted the United States, Britain and France to continue their information bureaus in Yugoslavia.

Gallman commented today that the order for Opal to leave represented another round in a "steady campaign against the West."

The description of Poland as a Soviet statellite was contained in a Lake Success (N.Y.) item of the bulletin March 3, reporting a Polish attack in the United Nations Economic and Social Council on President Truman's program for the development of backward areas.

Juliusz Katz-Sughy, Polish delegate, assailed the program that day as a Wall Street exploitation scheme. He charged the United States had led Latin Americans to economic disaster and now is turning to the Middle East, Asia and Africa for new economic fields to conquer. (Semen K. Tsarapkin, Soviet delegate, followed Katz-Suchy with similar charges.)

The Polish Government was reported to have told Gallman it considered the phrase highly offensive.

Opal, 31, has been stationed in Warsaw two years.

Poland Expels U.S. Aide

Warsaw, March 19 (AP)—The Polish Government has ordered the expulsion of Chester H. Opal, chief of the United States Information Service in Warsaw, because a bulletin distributed here by the service referred to Poland as a "Soviet satellite."

The Government was reported to have informed United States Ambassador Waldemar Gallman that it considered the phrase "highly offensive." Foreign Minister Zygmunt Modzelewski told the Ambassador Thursday that Opal was persona non grata and must leave the country shortly.

Poland long has considered the United tates Information Service bulletins "hostile and unfriendly." The phrase "Soviet satellite" was contained in a Lake Success item March 3 reporting a Polish attack on America's plan for underdeveloped countries.

Campaign Against West

Gallman said today that Opal's expulsion represented another round in the "steady campaign against the West." Declaring the only purpose of the Information Service bulletin was to disseminate truth and facts, the Ambassador said:

"Opal in his work here has been motivated by that principle and had nothing but that object in view." (end)

POLISH RULERS HIT CHURCH HIERARCHY

Alleging Hostility of Catholic Leaders, Ministry Retorts to Reported Peace Proposal

WARSAW, March 19 (AP) — The Polish Government told the Roman Catholic hierarchy tonight that it must stop all "inimical acts against the people's state" before there could be peace between the Church and state in Poland.

Earlier, the Ministry of Public Administration, handling religious affairs, said steps to end church-state differences had been proposed by Bishop Zygmunt Choromanski of Warsaw.

Wladyslaw Wolski, the Minister of Public Administration, accused leading church dignitaries of indulging in "chaos-mongering and anti-people action." Such persons, he said, brought about the current strained relations between the Roman Catholic Church and the Communist-led Government.

Certain sections of the Catholic clergy, Mr. Wolski said, recently increased activities that were inimical to the Government.

"Part of the high church hierarchy," he added, "try, through pastoral letters and secret instructions, to cause anxiety and excitement because of an alleged threat to religion—without any grounds whatsoever."

These activities were fostered, Mr. Wolski went on, by such church leaders as Stanislaw Adamski of Katowice, "who were notorious for their conciliatory and even servile attitude toward the Nazi invaders."

The minister assailed what he called the Vatican's anti-Polish attitude and priests who, he alleged, collaborated with underground bands and agencies of "Anglo-American imperialism."

Mr. Wolski denied Catholic charges that religious freedom was being restricted in Poland. He described as untrue, accusations that the Government was liquidating religious instruction in the schools. The Church would enjoy all the freedoms guaranteed under the Polish Constitution, he said.

He disclosed that Bishop Choromanski had approached the Government on the possibility of settling church-state differences more than a month ago. It was understood Bishop Choromanski suggested the setting up of a joint commission by the Government and the Church to seek a broad solution of conflicts.

Poland Names Food Chief

WARSAW, March 19 (AP)—President Boleslaw Bierut today appointed Boleslaw Rumimski Minister for Food and Agricultural Industries. This is one of six new ministries created in a split-up of the Ministry of Industry and Commerce.

Call For Election In Belgium Seen

Brussels, March 19 (AP)—Regent Prince Charles will be asked to dissolve Parliament and call for a general election after completion of debate on the North Atlantic treaty, a usually reliable source said today.

Fresh disagreements on domestic issues have arisen between the Catholics and Socialists who make up Premier Paul-Henri Spaak's coalition Cabinet. Belgium is one of the eight nations which are to sign the Atlantic alliance in Washington April 4.

Leopold III Is In Exile

The informant said plans decided upon by the Cabinet yesterday call for dissolution of Parliament in April and elections by early June. The constitution provides that the dissolution of Parliament implies elections within 40 days.

Under the Belgian constitution, the Regent can be asked, or can decide, to dissolve the Parliament.

[Leopold III is in exile in Switzerland. He has been barred from his throne since the war because of general disfavor over his abrupt surrender to Germany in 1940 and his decision to remain in Belgium during the occupation.]

Spaak Maintains Coalition

The Catholics and Socialists have disagreed on such issues as unemployment aid, subsidies to non-governmental schools and the Government's official attitude toward Belgians accused of wartime collaboration with the Germans.

Spaak has maintained the coalition two years by making occasional changes of ministers.

The last elections—in 1946—returned from the Lower House 92 Catholics or Social Christians, 69 Socialists, 23 Communists, 17 Liberals and one Christian Democrat. The Senate, elected in 1946, is composed of 83 Catholics, 55 Socialists, 17 Communists and 12 liberals.

Swedes Call Russia's Balt Note 'Absurd'

Stockholm, March 19 (AP)—Sweden again has rejected as "absurd" Russian charges of persecution of Balts in Sweden.

The Foreign Office said there is no foundation for Russian charges that Sweden is preventing the voluntary repatriations of Estonians, Letts and Lithuanians who fled their countries after the Soviets took them over.

Sweden contends these persons have been granted asylum as refugees under international law, and they do not want to go back to their Russian-occupied homelands.

The charges now have been made and answered twice.

Yugoslavia to Give Data On Production to U. N.

GENEVA, March 19 (AP).—Yugoslavia has agreed to publish detailed production statistics for the first time since the war, the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe disclosed today.

Yugoslav delegates to a meeting of European statisticians here earlier this week said Yugoslavia would adopt the statistical methods customary in most European countries and would make the results available to the commission.

A similar assurance was given by the Swiss delegation. Switzerland never has published detailed production figures and has provided as little statistical information about her industry as any country in Europe.

The meeting was attended by delegates from the United States and sixteen European countries.

U. S. PROTEST SUPPORTED

Three Other Nations Send Notes on Rumanian Nationalization

BUCHAREST, Rumania, March 19 (AP)—France, Belgium and Italy have sent notes supporting the United States protest against discrimination in the Rumanian nationalization plan.

Great Britain, Switzerland, Sweden and the Netherlands are expected to complain similarly.

The protests recognized that Rumania had a right to nationalize property foreigners owned but insisted the (Communist) Government practiced favoritism because Soviet properties in Rumania were exempt.

The complaints are based on the Rumanian peace treaty. The United States and several other countries sent protests last September and on March 7.

Iran Suppresses Paper

TEHRAN, March 19 (AP).—The Iranian government suppressed the weekly newspaper "Teherani Mosavar" today for printing "provocative news contrary to good neighborly relations." It had reported that a "Russian Democratic party will be formed in Iran." It is edited by Ahmed Dehqan, a deputy elected from Azerbaijan Province, where Iran in the past has had differences with the Soviet Union.

Syria Set To Join Rhodes Parley

Rhodes, March 19 (AP)—A Syrian Foreign Ministry official arrived here today and there was immediate speculation that Israeli-Syrian armistice talks would begin soon. The official Faris Gen Eddin.

Israel and Egypt already have signed an armistice. Trans-Jordan and Israel are in the midst of negotiations and have agreed to a cease-fire, and armistice talks between Israel and Lebanon are reported near fruition. Iraq never has agreed to negotiate.

Expects Quick Accord

Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, acting United Nations mediator for Palestine, said last night he expected an Israeli-Lebanon armistice to be signed "in a couple of days."

Similar optimism was voiced at Tel Aviv, where an Israeli Foreign Office spokesman said he looks for such an agreement "at the beginning of next week." Officials of the two countries have been negotiating under United Nations auspices since March 1 at En Naqura, Palestine border town.

Trans-Jordan Talks Continue

The talks continued, meanwhile, between Israel and Trans-Jordan.

Dr. Reuben Shiloah, chief Israeli delegate to the Trans-Jordan talks here, said drafting of an agreement may begin Monday. He said the only problem left to be solved is the disposition of Iraqi troops stationed north of Jerusalem under command of the Trans-Jordan Arab Legion.

An Israeli army spokesman at Tel Aviv said earlier the main snag was the presence of British troops at the Trans-Jordan port of Aqaba, near the Palestine border.

Chinese Red Stand Given West Study

Nanking, March 19 (AP)—Western power diplomats gave close study today to a Chinese Communist broadcast supporting Russian foreign policy and attacking the United States.

The editorial of the official Communist News Agency yesterday is generally regarded here as the most positive and sweeping declaration yet made by the Chinese Communists on alignment with the Soviet Union in international affairs.

The statement cooled off one section in Western power circles here. This was the group that believed the Chinese Communists could be weaned away from Russia to the extent of at least neutralizing a Communist China in East-West disputes.

Nehru Raps Pakistan For 'Insinuation'

New Delhi, March 19 (AP)—Prime Minister Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru protested to Pakistan today against "insinuations" by a Pakistani province against India.

Nehru told the Legislative Assembly that a communiqué issued by the Northwest Frontier provincial government in Pakistan "insinuates the Indian Union is a party to some plot against it and the Pakistani government."

The accusation, he said, is "unwarranted by fact and unfortunate in its effect on Indo-Pakistani relations."

Jews Stranded In India Will Fly To Palestine

Bombay, India, March 19 (AP)—Two airliners arrived in Bombay this week to evacuate 200 non-Indian Jews stranded here for nearly three years.

The Indian Government has granted permission for five flights to Palestine in March. Seventy of the refugees will leave tomorrow.

Most of the Jews are from Iran and Afghanistan. They are living now in the midst of a Moslem area. They left their original homes when President Truman proposed that the British admit 150,000 Jews to the Holy Land.

Britain, which then held a mandate over Palestine, refused to issue the Jews visas. Stranded in Bombay, the non-Indian Jews were helped by local Jews, numbering about 10,000.

Jap Diet Opening Boycotted by Reds

TOKYO, March 19 (AP). — The Japanese Diet began a new session today with Emperor Hirohito addressing more than 600 bowing members. But the 41 Communists boycotted the opening.

Kenkichi Ito, member of the Party Central Committee, said the Reds weren't present because the Japanese Communist Party shares the "general world-wide party view that such opening ceremonies are a waste of time."

Hirohito read a brief message to the joint session, asking legislative harmony and reporting the nation's living conditions had improved under the occupation.

JAVA AMBUSH IS REPULSED

Guerrillas Wound U.N. Team; Beaten Back By Dutch Aide

Batavia, Java, March 19 (AP)—A Dutch Army lieutenant was credited by his superiors tonight with beating off, single-handed, an ambush attack by Indonesian guerrillas on a United Nations observer team.

The story of the attack and the lieutenant's action was told by a Netherlands military spokesman. He said the ambush occurred Friday in Sumatra.

The two United Nations observers, Maj. John Albert Simmons, an American, of Montclair, N.J., and Bangor, Maine, and Lieut. Col. H. D. Chaplin, a Briton, were wounded. Chaplin's condition was said to be serious, but not critical. Simmons's injuries were reported as not serious. The Dutch officer, Voorst Tot Voorst, also was wounded.

Attack Described

The Dutch Army spokesman gave this account of the ambush:

Chaplin was driving the white jeep, plastered with United Nations signs, around a hairpin turn when the guerrillas opened fire. The British observer was hit and lost control of the jeep, which skidded off the road.

Both Chaplin and Simmons took partial cover in a ditch. Presumably both were unarmed, for it is United Nations policy for observers to travel without weapons.

The Dutch lieutenant crawled out to exchange fire with the attackers for half an hour before they withdrew. A Dutch army patrol an hour later took the men to a hospital at Medan.

Officials Start Inquiry

The Dutch Government expressed sympathy to British and American diplomatic representatives. Five United Nations administrative officials flew from Batavia to Medan to investigate.

The United Nations commission in the Indies sent representatives to Jogjakarta today for a first-hand investigation on conditions in the former Indonesian Republican capital.

Dutch Officer Tells Of U.N. Attack

Batavia, Java, March 19 (AP)—A Netherlands military spokesman said tonight a Dutch Army lieutenant fought off an Indonesian guerrilla attack Friday in which two United Nations military observers were wounded.

The ambush occurred in northern Sumatra, between Brastagi and Medan, the informant said. The Dutch lieutenant, Voorst Tot Voorst, was riding in a jeep with the observers. He also was wounded.

The observers are Major John Albert Simmons, an American, and Lieut. Col. H. D. Chaplin, a Briton. Chaplin's condition was reported serious but not critical. He suffered six bullet wounds. Simmons, of Bangor, Maine, and Montclair, N.J., was hit once. His injury was not serious.

Driver Was Wounded

This account of the incident was given by the Dutch source:

The jeep was fired upon as it was rounding a hairpin turn. Chaplin, who was driving, lost control of the vehicle when he was hit and the jeep skidded off the road.

Both military observers managed to take partial cover along an embankment. Presumably they were without weapons since it is United Nations policy in the East Indies for the observers to travel unarmed. Their jeeps are painted white and plastered with United Nations markings.

Rescued By Troops

After the Dutch lieutenant had fired for half an hour the guerrillas withdrew. An hour later a Dutch Army patrol took the men to a hospital at Medan.

Five United Nations administrative officers flew from Batavia to Medan to investigate. The Dutch Government expressed sympathy to British and American diplomatic representatives.

Chaplin and Simmons are among 45 United Nations field observers in Java and Sumatra. All are attached to Dutch Army units. The observers report to the Security Council.

Representatives of the United Nations commission in the Indies are en route to Jogjakarta for a first-hand investigation of condition in the former Indonesian Republican capital. Jogjakarta, in Central Java, was captured by Dutch troops in the early hours of the Netherlands drive last December. The United Nations has asked that Republican leaders be restored to their offices in that city.

Colonial Problem Seen As Long Job

Havana, March 19 (AP)—It appeared likely today that Latin American nations would require months—maybe years—to work out their program for elimination of European-owned colonies in the Americas.

A conference of fourteen Latin American nations opened here March 15 to tackle the problem. Leaders of the conference predicted today it would adjourn next week, probably Friday, after building the framework for future activities.

It is expected that a permanent secretariat will be left in Havana to gather data on the various colonies owned by the United Kingdom, France and the Netherlands.

Latin American nations generally agree that the colonies should not be permitted to exist indefinitely. But the conference here failed to produce the fiery discussions which had been expected after Argentina, Guatemala, Salvador, Mexico, Haiti and Cuba had outlined their viewpoints.

The conference recessed Friday until Monday.

Panama Ousts CIO Regional Director

Panama, Panama, March 19 (AP)—Max Brodsky, regional director of the United Public Workers of America (CIO), left Panama today on orders of the Government.

Extra police had been detailed to the airport from which he flew to Miami, but there were no disorders.

The Foreign Office ordered his expulsion on grounds he had Communist connections. Brodsky had been here since 1947. He held a temporary residence permit.

NAVY SHIP TO FIRE ROCKETS IN TEST

Laboratory Vessel To Launch Old-Type Missiles First

Washington, March 19 (AP)—The Navy's rocket laboratory ship, the Norton Sound, is warming up for later high-altitude missile tests by firing some older model missiles.

The Navy said today the Norton Sound, now in the Pacific for the experiments, is making practice firings with "loon" missiles. These are American versions of the wartime German V-1 buzz bombs.

Propelled by pulse jet engines, requiring air for their operation, the loons are fired at comparatively low levels, in flat trajectories. Speeds, as compared with rockets, are low, ranging from 300 to 600 miles an hour.

Will Launch New Rocket

Later the Norton Sound will begin experiments with shipboard launching of the Navy's "aerobee," a true rocket which has attained altitudes up to 78 miles and speeds estimated at about 2,000 miles an hour.

One purpose of the aerobee firings will be to measure cosmic radiation and the magnetic influence of the earth at high altitudes above the sea and in the area of the geographic equator. The aerobee firings will be the first shipboard launching of high altitude rockets except for a single V-2 fired experimentally from the carrier Midway.

Less Expensive Vets Pension Bill Sought

Washington, March 19 (AP)—Congressional foes of the multibillion dollar Rankin pension bill today primed a drive to sidetrack it for a less costly substitute.

With the controversial bill offered by Representative Rankin (D., Miss.) scheduled for consideration in the House next Tuesday, Representative Huber (D., Ohio) disclosed plans to amend it drastically by:

1. Limiting pension benefits at this time to veterans of World War I.
2. Establishing financial need as a requirement for eligibility.
3. Requiring an honorable discharge from the service.
4. Extending increased benefits to disabled veterans.

"More Fair And Equitable"

Huber said his substitute proposals "will be a great deal less expensive and more fair and equitable."

Some indication of possible savings, however, was to be found in VA figures showing that of the 18,000,000 veterans of both World Wars I and II, all but about 4,000,000 are younger veterans who would not be re-eligible for pensions under the present bill until 25 or 30 years from now.

That bill provides monthly pensions of $90 to all veterans reaching age 65, regardless of need.

125 Billion For 50 Years

Its cost has been estimated by the VA at $125,000,000,000 over the next 50 years and with a continuing outlay of $4,000,000,000 a month by the year 2000.

Huber said he proposes to retain the $90-at-65 benefit. Its total cost, however, would taper off much sooner as older World War I pensioners died off.

Although opposed by President Truman and the House leadership, Rankin has called up his bill as privileged legislation.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars yesterday called on its membership to support the Huber plan.

House Red-Spy Probe Set To Reopen April 18

Washington, March 19 (AP)—Steve Nelson, an admitted Communist accused of spying, is expected to be the first important witness before the House Un-American Activities Committee when it begins new hearings April 18.

This will be the first committee investigation undertaken in the present congressional session.

Th inquiry is expected to center on the American Slav Congress, and officers of that group probably will be called as witnesses.

Party Organizer

Nelson is the Communist party's organizer for western Pennsylvania, with headquarters at Pittsburgh.

The Republican-controlled committee of the last Congress said in a report on "Soviet espionage activities in connection with the atom bomb" that Nelson was a "Communist espionage agent."

It said it was Nelson to whom "Scientist X," a former University of California scientist not otherwise identified, handed over an important atomic-bomb formula in March, 1943. "Scientist X" denied that he knew Nelson or had any part in the transaction.

'WORLD PEACE' SETUP OPPOSED

Communist Propaganda Medium, State Department Says

By CHARLES E. MERCER

New York, March 19 (AP) — A "world peace" conference that opens next week—with the State Department calling it a medium for Communist propaganda—today lost a sponsor and possibly gained a speaker.

The resigning sponsor is Sarah Gibson Blanding, president of Vassar College.

The possible new speaker is Sidney Hook, philosophy professor at New York University.

The Vassar president said she was withdrawing because she felt there would not be a "fair balance of opinion" at the conference.

Denied Place On Program

She added that she did so reluctantly because "I am aware that by so doing I will give comfort, or even aid, to that small but increasing group of Americans who appear to be willing to abandon our tradition of democracy, freedom of ideas, their expression and their interchange."

Hook said today he had been denied a place on the conference program. When told of Hook's statement Dr. Harlow Shapely, the conference head, said the N.Y.U. professor had been invited to speak at a panel meeting. Hook replied:

"Let him tell me when and where to appear and read my paper. If he puts me on the program and gives me a time and place, I shall speak."

Counter-Rally Planned

Hook accused Shapley of "evasion" and said so far he had only been invitel to speak from the floor.

"Anybody can do that," he said. "There is no guarantee that I would be recognized."

Hook annuonced he planned to organize a counter-rally "for Democratic Americans who oppose totalitarianism."

This rally is to be held next Saturday at the Willkie Memorial Building here. Hook said he expected "a terriffic response" from American intellectuals who would discuss "tintellectual freedom, culture and peace."

Shapley will be welcome to address the rally, the philosophy professor said.

Conference Defended

Hook said the paper he had sought to deliver at the conference would have maintained there are no national, class or party truths in science and that the "cause of international scientific co-operation has been very seriously undermined by the influence of doctrines which uphold the motion that there are 'national' or 'class' or 'party' truths in science."

Although the State Department has warned that the "peace" meeting will be used to spread pro-Soviet propaganda, its leaders say it will be conducted in "the democratic tradition.'

The conference chairmen say it "is opposed by those who profit from war and war preparations."

Wallace Listed As Speaker

The conference, called the Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace, will open Friday night with a dinner in the grand ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria. International guests will be welcomed. These are scheduled to come from Canada, Czechoslovakia, England, France, French West Africa, India, Italy, Norway, Poland, Puerto Rico, Romania, Russia, Venexuela and Yugoslavia. Five from Hungary have been refused admittance.

Panel sessions will be held Saturday and Sunday. The conference will end with a meeting in Madison Square Garden Sunday night keynoted to the subject, "Unite for World Peace." Speakers have not been announced.

One of the panel session speakers listed for Saturday is Henry A. Wallace, whose topic is "The Science of Abundance."

Shapley Named To Committee

The State Department said the meeting is closely related to the World Congress of Intellectuals held in Wroclaw, Poland, last August.

The Wroclaw conference was a predominantly pro-Communist conclave which attacked British-American "imperialism." Some British and American delegates dissented. The Wroclaw gathering appointed an "international committee in defense of peace" with 21 members.

One of those named to this committee was Shapley, director of the Harvard College observatory. However, the council said Shapley declined to serve on the committee and did not attend the Wroclaw conference.

Three other Americans named to the international committee—Sculptor Jo Davidson and writers Albert E. Kahn and Howard Fast—are sponsors of the New York conference. The council said it did not know if they attended the Wroclaw meeting.

U.S. Zion Body Facing Split On Politics

New York, March 19 (AP)—One of America's most influential bodies of Zionists today appeared to be divided over organizational politics here and in Israel.

The schism recently was thinly bridged in the face of the United Jewish Appeal's campaign to raise $250,000,000 to aid Jews here and abroad.

Behind the scenes lay charges and countercharges that could break into the open later this year when the group—the Zionist Organization of America—has its annual convention.

Strings Seen On Funds

Opponents of the present Z.O.A. leadership say it has attached political strings to funds sent to Israel and that it is taking a definite stand against some aspects of the program of Israel's labor government.

A Z.O.A. spokesman says that while the organization supports the General Zionist Movement—a middle-of-the-road party—it has not done so as far as internal affairs of the Jewish state go.

Both sides agree on political separation of the world Zionist movement and the Israeli Government.

Linked To Election

The factional dispute was aired last month when the United Jewish Appeal re-elected Henry Morgenthau, Jr., former United States Secretary of the Treasury, as its general chairman, and Henry Montor as its executive secretary. Their election followed active intervention by the Jewish Agency Executive, world's highest Zionist council.

As a result, two top American Zionists resigned from the executive—Dr. Emanuel Neumann, of New York, president of the Zionist Organization of America, and Dr. Abba Hillel Silver, of Cleveland, chairman of the American section of the Jewish Agency for Palestine.

Accused By Montor

The dispute stemmed from Montor's resignation as executive director of the United Palestine Appeal last September, when he wrote that American Jews did not wish their funds "controlled by the Z.O.A. for political ends." Later, Montor withdrew the letter. The Jewish Agency executive said his "accusations are unfounded."

In January, 200 Zionist leaders from 35 American cities met with the aim of ousting Neumann from leadership of the Z.O.A. They charged the organization "is ever at war" with the Jewish Agency Executive.

Three Past Presidents

Three former Z.O.A. presidents—Dr. Stephen S. Wise, 75-year-old president of the American Jewish Congress; Louis Lipsky, of New York, and United States Circuit Court Judge Louis E. Levinthal, of Philadelphia—led the move.

Neumann won a vote of confidence from a special February conference of 500 Zionist leaders in New York. Significantly, when the U.P.A. board in February approved Morgenthau's designation by a 52-0 vote, 30 members led by Silver abstained from voting.

Rabbi Says U.S. Leaders Appear 'Bent Upon War'

New York, March 19 (AP)—Dr. Stephen S. Wise, head of the American Jewish Congress, said last night that United States Government and political leaders seem "bent upon war."

In a sermon at Free Synagogue, the 75-year-old Zionist leader, said he was "horrified" at the prospect of this country preparing for what its leaders believe to be "inevitable war" with Russia.

"I know," he said, "that the Soviet Union or command is all but unendurably trying and unforgivably provocative. . . .

Defends Episcopal Minister

"But the alternative is the tragedy of tragedies."

The rabbi spoke in defense of the Rev. William Howard Melish, Episcopal minister, whose chairmanship of the American-Soviet Friendship Council led to a recent order to oust his father as rector of Holy Trinity Church. The son is assistant rector.

The council is listed by Attorney General Tom Clark as subversive.

"Marching On To War"

Dr. Wise said the younger Melish, who plans to give up the council's chairmanship but remain on its board, was "grasping, not wholly without hope, at the straw of American-Soviet friendship."

"He sees or dreads, as I do," Dr. Wise said, "that we are marching on to war. . . ."

The rabbi said that Melish "stands horrified, as I do, before the grim prospect" of "our country putting its thought and substance and devotion into preparing for what its leadership believes to be the inevitable war of our country and the Soviet Union."

Council Assails Treaty

"If the political and governmental leadership of our country were resolved upon peace as it seems bent upon war," he said, "American-Soviet friendship groups might well be superfluous. As it is, they are our last if not best hope."

Meanwhile, the council issued a statement assailing the North Atlantic treaty.

The council said the pact means a halt to "production for peace," the stepping up of "the armament program" and that "your sons, husbands and fathers" will be used to man bases "on the very border of the Soviet Union."

RED TEACHER BAN URGED

Norman Thomas Says Party's Members Are in 'Conspiracy'

ROCHESTER, March 19 (AP)—Norman Thomas, Socialist party leader, said today that Communist party members had no right to teach in public schools.

In a speech prepared for the Rochester City Club, Mr. Thomas called members of the Communist party members of "a conspiracy" and added:

"No member of a conspiracy has the right to teach in our public schools if we are to continue to believe in democracy."

Mr. Thomas said, however, he did not believe what he termed the excitement of a Communist hunt was justified by contemporary conditions.

"We must rethink the problem of separating church and state," he said. "We must rethink the problem rising with the increasing concentration of control by private owners, not by the Government, of our means of communication, press, radio and movies."

Refugee Arab Children Attend School in Tents

PHILADELPHIA, March 19 (AP).—Schools for 70,000 Arab refugee children in southern Palestine are being held daily in tents. Clarence E. Pickett, executive secretary of the American Friends Service committee, who recently returned from the Middle East, said today.

The need of an educational program was not anticipated by the United Nations or the service committee when the refugee program was undertaken last year, he added.

Of a total refugee population of 200,000 in the area where the Quaker work is centered, almost one-half are children, Mr. Pickett said.

Administration of the schools is under the direction of Dr. Mide Zakki, director of the Cairo School for Social Work and a Columbia University graduate. Primers are being supplied by the Egyptian government and a teaching staff has been secured from the refugees.

Mr. Pickett said the committee's Palestine refugee relief unit is distributing 200 tons of food daily, six days a week. He said this provides a daily ration of 2,000 calories a person. About 1,300 tents also have been distributed and a medical program is under way.

CITY OF OAK RIDGE OPENED TO PUBLIC

Atomic Pile Sends Electricity Over Wire For First Time

Oak Ridge, Tenn., March 19 (AP). A puff of white fire set off by an atomic pile fifteen miles away burned a ribbon at the entrance to Oak Ridge today and opened this atomic city.

Then, following this symbolic ceremony, the gates, which heretofore have been closed to all except those with passes, were removed at 8.48 A.M.

It took a millionth of a second for the impulse to travel today over a telephone wire from the atomic pile, and then go off with a sound like an air rifle.

A chemically treated ribbon at the main one of four gates to Oak Ridge was burned by the first atomic-generated electricity ever transmitted by wire. The power came from the atomic center's uranium chain-reacting pile.

Guards Step Aside

Blue-uniformed guards stepped aside and throngs, estimated by C. T. Vettel, police chief, at 40,000, entered to join Oak Ridge's 36,000 residents in a day-long celebration.

Senator Brien McMahon (D., Conn.), chairman of the joint congressional committee on atomic energy, termed the gate-opening "an historic event."

30.24- 1875

"Something is happening here which is contrary to the current of the times. While, everywhere throughout the world, the areas of freedom are contracting, here, in the least likely of places, the boundaries of freedom are expanding," McMahon declared.

Specifically mentioning the Soviet Union, McMahon said that "those aggressors who otherwise might have nothing to deter them now pause before the might of the atomic bomb. And because they respect its power, we dare not let it fall into their hands."

Barkley Cites Russia

In mid-afternoon following a three-hour long parade featuring more than twenty bands, floats and warplanes flying overhead, Vice President Alben W. Barkley delivered an address officially dedicating Oak Ridge as a free city.

He credited the atomic bomb with ending World War II at least "one year earlier than expected."

Barkley accused Russia of creating what he called an "atomic stalemate" in the world by her refusal to adopt the United Nations' proposal for international control of the weapon.

"I still hope in the interests of peace that nations of the world will reach a decision on this destructive thing and make it a constructive thing," he cried.

Lilienthal Comments

Removal of the gates did not mean that Oak Ridge was divulging any of its secrets. The guards who left the outer gates went immediately to new ones protecting the two uranium-235 production plants and the atomic pile, which stand apart from the town itself. These vast plants were built in 1942-43 at an estimated cost of $1,000,000,000.

The Atomic Energy Commission, which took over operation of the nation's atomic program from the Army soon after the end of World War II, made Oak Ridge a free city in an effort to turn it into a normal American town.

Chairman David E. Lilienthal pointed up the Commission's decision to open the city with this assertion:

"It is the ideal of openness and freedom that is the heart and soul of America. Guards, fences and secret stamps on documents -in themselves do not provide real security.

Fear Rise In Crime Rate

"But genuine security has a positive as well as a defensive side. What we are trying to do in the United States is maintain and increase our leadership in all phases of atomic development."

Many of the town's residents have expressed misgivings regarding removal of the gates. They openly express fear the city's crime rate will rise.

But with a holiday and clear, crisp weather, apparently everybody in town—pro and con—turned out for the festivities.

Thousands Visit Oak Ridge As Gates Open

MAR 20 1949

Oak Ridge, Tenn., March 19 (AP). Oak Ridge entered a new era today —an era as a free American city. The war-born atomic city was formally opened to the public without passes for the first time at 8.48 A.M.

An atomic-generated electric impulse, the first ever transmitted by wire, burned a ribbon at one of the town's four gates—and the rush was on.

Thousands immediately began flocking into the town which had been one of the country's most closely guarded areas in history. The visitors saw little evidence of the atomic developments for which this city is famous.

New Regulation

For, at the same instant the magnesium and potassium chlorate-treated ribbon went up in a little puff of smoke, new security regulations went into effect for the plants producing Uranium-235 for atomic bombs. They are now guarded more closely than ever by a 14-mile fence newly erected to keep out the curious.

The burning of the ribbon also was the signal for a day of celebrating, with Washington and Hollywood celebrities joining Oak Ridge residents in the festivities for this city of 36,000 population.

The day-long celebrations will be climaxed with addresses by Vice President Alben W. Barkley and David E. Lilienthal, Atomic Energy Commission chairman. Gov. Gordon Browning and Perry Brown, American Legion national commander, will speak too.

NIGHT LEAD ATLANTIC PACT (300)

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

(ADVANCE)-WASHINGTON,MARCH 19-(AP)-THE ATLANTIC ALLIANCE POWERS INTEND TO SET UP A "COMMON STRATEGIC PLAN" FOR DEFENSE AGAINST RUSSIA.

THIS WOULD BE A MAJOR TASK OF A DEFENSE COMMITTEE WHICH IS TO BE FORMED BY THE HIGH POLICY ATLANTIC COUNCIL PROVIDED IN THE SECURITY TREATY.

A STATE DEPARTMENT BOOKLET ISSUED TONIGHT EXPLAINING THE PROPOSED PACT SAID:

"THE LAST TWO GREAT WARS HAVE PROVED THAT A MAJOR CONFLICT IN EUROPE WOULD INEVITABLY INVOLVE THE UNITED STATES.

"THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT X X X IS DESIGNED TO GIVE ASSURANCE THAT IN THE CASE OF SUCH A WAR THERE WILL BE A COORDINATED DEFENSE IN WHICH THE ACTUAL MILITARY STRENGTH AND THE MILITARY POTENTIAL OF ALL THE MEMBERS WILL BE INTEGRATED INTO A COMMON STRATEGIC PLAN."

THE BOOKLET ITSELF DID NOT SAY AGAINST WHOM THESE DEFENSES WOULD BE ORGANIZED. OFFICIALS CONSIDER RUSSIA THE ONLY POWER OUTSIDE THE ALLIANCE CAPABLE OF WAGING A "MAJOR CONFLICT."

THE STRATEGIC PLAN, IT IS UNDERSTOOD, IS SUPPOSED TO PROVIDE FOR BUILDING UP THE FORCES OF THE WEST TO A POINT AT WHICH THEY WOULD BE REASONABLY ABLE TO TURN BACK AGGRESSION.

ALSO IT WOULD DECIDE BEFOREHAND THE PLACES, TIMES AND MANNER IN WHICH THOSE FORCES WOULD BE BROUGHT INTO PLAY.

IT WOULD BE A GREAT MILITARY DEFENSE SCHEME STRETCHING FROM THE TIP OF ITALY ACROSS THE HEART OF EUROPE TO THE TIP OF NORWAY.

THE BOOKLET ARGUED THAT THE PACT SHOULD INCREASE PEACE PROSPECTS BY PREVENTING "ANY POTENTIAL AGGRESSOR" FROM MISCALCULATING THE UNITY AND POWER OF THE WEST. SUCH A MISTAKE ON RUSSIA'S PART HAS BEEN A LONGTIME FEAR OF OFFICIALS HERE.

THE BOOKLET PUT ANOTHER NEW POINT ON THE RECORD: GERMANY AND SPAIN CAN'T GET INTO THE ALLIANCE ANYTIME SOON. MOST MEMBERS DON'T WANT SPAIN NOW, IT SAID.

IT CAME FORTH ON THE HEELS OF THE TEXT OF THE TREATY ITSELF WHICH SOON WILL GO TO THE SENATE FOR RATIFICATION.

MEANWHILE, IT WAS LEARNED THAT MEETINGS ARE PLANNED HERE AROUND APRIL 1 FOR THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THE EIGHT TO 12 COUNTRIES WHICH WILL SIGN THE TREATY APRIL 4. THE PRE-SIGNING TALKS WOULD CONCERN SPECIFIC PLANS FOR PUTTING THE ALLIANCE INTO FORCE AS QUICKLY AND EFFECTIVELY AS POSSIBLE.

EIGHT COUNTRIES ARE SURE TO SIGN THE PACT. FOUR OTHERS ARE EXPECTED TO ACCEPT INVITATIONS.

FOREIGN MINISTERS WHO WILL COME HERE AROUND APRIL 1 INCLUDE BEVIN OF BRITAIN AND SCHUMAN OF FRANCE.

THE PRESENCE OF THOSE TWO IN WASHINGTON ALONG WITH SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON ALMOST CERTAINLY MEANS THAT GERMAN PROBLEMS WILL LIKEWISE BE DISCUSSED.

OFFICIALS HAVE SAID FOR MANY WEEKS THAT SUCH SUBJECTS AS GERMAN REPARATIONS AND CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES INVOLVED IN FORMING A WEST GERMAN STATE REQUIRE HIGH LEVEL GOVERNMENT REVIEW BY THE WESTERN OCCUPATION POWERS.

MAR 20 1949

A1 56WX

THE STATE DEPARTMENT BOOKLET WAS THE LATEST IN THE SERIES OF MOVES BY THIS GOVERNMENT'S MAIN FOREIGN POLICY AGENCY TO EXPLAIN AND PROMOTE THE ATLANTIC TREATY. IT WAS LARGELY REPETITIVE OF WHAT ACHESON AND OTHER OFFICIAL SPOKESMEN HAVE SAID IN RECENT DAYS.

ON THE QUESTION OF GERMANY AND SPAIN BECOMING MEMBERS OF THE ALLIANCE THE DEPARTMENT SAID:

"VARIOUS CONSIDERATIONS MAKE IT IMPOSSIBLE TO CONTEMPLATE ALL OR PART OF GERMANY NOW BECOMING A MEMBER OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT.

"THE QUESTION OF SPAIN'S PARTICIPATION IN THE PACT IS A MATTER FOR DECISION BY ALL THE MEMBERS. MOST OF WHOM DO NOT NOW CONSIDER THAT X X X SPAIN SHOULD BE INCLUDED."

THE REASONS WERE NOT OUTLINED IN EITHER CASE. THE DIVISION OF GERMANY BETWEEN EAST AND WEST AND THE LACK OF A WESTERN GERMAN GOVERNMENT ARE OBVIOUSLY MAJOR FACTORS IN RESPECT TO THAT COUNTRY. SPAIN'S FRANCO GOVERNMENT IS STILL CONDEMNED BY THE UNITED NATIONS ALTHOUGH THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER WESTERN POWERS HAVE BEEN MODIFYING THEIR ATTITUDES TOWARD FRANCO IN THE LAST SIX MONTHS.

AS IN A SPEECH LAST NIGHT BY SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, THE STATE DEPARTMENT PUBLICATION TODAY TOOK THE LINE THAT THE ATLANTIC PACT WOULD SUBSTANTIALLY COMMIT THE UNITED STATES TO GO TO WAR IN EUROPE IF NECESSARY TO BLOCK CONQUEST OF THE CONTINENT BY AN AGGRESSOR. THIS WOULD BE TRUE UNDER THE TREATY, ACCORDING TO THE ARGUMENT, EVEN THOUGH CONGRESS' RIGHT TO DECLARE WAR IS WHOLLY UNRESTRICTED BY THE PACT.

THE ACTUAL EXTENT OF THE COMMITMENT SEEMS CERTAIN TO BE A MAJOR ISSUE FOR DEBATE WHEN THE TREATY GOES TO THE SENATE FOR APPROVAL (NEEDING A TWO-THIRDS VOTE) SOON AFTER IT IS SIGNED. SENATOR DONNELL (R-MO) SAID AGAIN TODAY THAT "IF THE PACT CONSTITUTES A MORAL COMMITMENT TO FIGHT, IT SHOULD NOT BE ENTERED INTO BY THIS COUNTRY."

HERE IS THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S VIEW AS EXPRESSED IN TONIGHT'S PUBLICATION:

"UNDER THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION THE CONGRESS ALONE HAS THE POWER TO DECLARE WAR. THIS CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTION, HOWEVER, DOES NOT PRESENT A REAL OBSTACLE TO THE PACT.

"THE UNITED STATES CERTAINLY CAN OBLIGATE ITSELF IN ADVANCE TO TAKE SUCH ACTION, INCLUDING THE USE OF ARMED FORCE, AS IT DEEMS NECESSARY TO MEET ARMED ATTACK AFFECTING ITS NATIONAL SECURITY.

"THE FACT THAT THE FULFILLMENT OF A TREATY OBLIGATION--AS FAR AS A DECLARATION OF WAR IS CONCERNED--DEPENDS UPON THE ACTION OF CONGRESS DOES NOT INHIBIT THE UNITED STATES FROM TAKING THE COMMITMENT.

"IT IS BELIEVED THAT THE SPIRIT UNDERLYING THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT, AS WELL AS ITS LANGUAGE, DIRECTLY EXPRESSES AND MAKES CLEAR THE DETERMINATION OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE TO RESIST SUCH ATTACK BY WHATEVER MEANS MAY BE NECESSARY."

MAR 20 1949

A157WX

IT WENT ON TO SAY THAT "ARTICLE FOUR PROVIDES" THAT THE PARTIES TO THE PACT SHALL CONSULT WHEN THE TERRITORY, INDEPENDENCE OR SECURITY OF ANY ONE OF THEM IS THREATENED; ARTICLE FIVE INSURES ASSISTANCE TO ANY PARTY SUBJECT TO ARMED ATTACK.

"THE LAST WAR PROVED CLEARLY THAT AN AGGRESSOR NATION CAN BEST ACHIEVE ITS RESULTS BY PICKING OFF DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES ONE BY ONE

ACHIEVE ITS RESUL

ACHIEVE ITS RESULTS BY PICKING OFF DEMOCRATIC

ACHIEVE ITS RESULTS BY PICKING OFF DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES ONE BY ONE, DIVIDING AND SPLITTING THE COUNTRIES THROUGH PROPAGANDA AND OTHER TACTICS SO THAT THEY ARE INCAPABLE OF COORDINATED DEFENSE.

"THE ESSENCE OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT IS THAT THIS IS NOT TO HAPPEN AGAIN WITH RESPECT TO THE SIGNATORY COUNTRIES."

(END ADVANCE FOR USE AT 6 P.M., EASTERN STANDARD TIME TONIGHT, SATURDAY MARCH 19)

~~NIGHT LEAD SENATE PACT~~

WASHINGTON,MARCH 19-(AP)-SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH) CALLED THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC PACT "A POWERFUL INSURANCE POLICY AGAINST WORLD WAR III" TODAY BUT THREE TOP COLLEAGUES RAISED SERIOUS QUESTIONS ABOUT IT.

SENATOR TAFT OF OHIO, WHO HEADS THE GOP POLICY COMMITTEE, TOLD REPORTERS THAT THE WAY THE AGREEMENT IS DRAWN MAKES IT APPEAR "INSEPARABLE" FROM THE ISSUE OF SUPPLYING ARMS TO EUROPE.

TAFT PREVIOUSLY SAID HE FAVORED THE PRINCIPLE OF A NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY ARRANGEMENT SIMILAR TO THE INTER-AMERICAN AGREEMENT MADE AT RIO DE JANEIRO. BUT HE OPPOSES FURNISHING ARMS TO THE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES INVOLVED FOR SEVERAL REASONS.

SENATOR WHERRY OF NEBRASKA, THE GOP FLOOR LEADER, TOLD A REPORTER THAT BEFORE HE CONSENTS TO VOTE ON THE PROPOSED TREATY HE WANTS THE STATE DEPARTMENT TO "LAY DOWN FOR INSPECTION ANY SEPARATE LEGISLATION THAT GOES ALONG WITH IT."

WHERRY SAID HE NOTED THAT SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON HAD SAID THAT CONGRESS WILL BE ASKED TO PASS ON THE QUESTION OF SENDING MILITARY SUPPLIES TO SIGNATORY NATIONS.

SENATOR BRIDGES OF NEW HAMPSHIRE, RANKING REPUBLICAN ON THE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE, ASSERTED IN A STATEMENT THAT IF THE SENATE RATIFIES IT, "THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT DOES MEAN AUTOMATIC WAR FOR THE UNITED STATES IF A SIGNATORY POWER IS ATTACKED."

VANDENBERG SAID IN A STATEMENT THAT HE REGARDS THE PACT AS "A MAJOR LINK IN OUR OWN NATIONAL SECURITY AND AS A POWERFUL INSURANCE POLICY AGAINST WORLD WAR III."

"IT IS EXCLUSIVELY DEFENSIVE AND SCRUPULOUSLY WITHIN THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER," HE SAID. "IT WILL NEVER BE USED UNLESS AN ARMED AGGRESSOR INVADES THIS (NORTH ATLANTIC) AREA. IN SUCH EVENT, IT FOREHANDEDLY ANTICIPATES THE FACTS OF LIFE.

"ITS TEXT KEEPS ALL THE PROMISES TO PRESERVE OUR OWN AUTONOMY AND OUR CONSTITUTIONAL PROCESS. NEVERTHELESS IT WARNS ANY AGGRESSOR THAT HE CANNOT DIVIDE AND CONQUER; NOR CAN HE PLAN AGGRESSION WITH IMPUNITY.

"THIS OUGHT TO STOP ARMED AGGRESSION BEFORE IT STARTS. THE TREATY SHOULD BE SUBJECTED TO FULL PUBLIC HEARINGS WHICH WILL TOTALLY EXPLORE IT AND ALL RELATED MATTERS, BECAUSE FULL ACCEPTANCE IS ESSENTIAL TO ITS FULL AUTHORITY FOR PEACE."

VANDENBERG HAS SUBMITTED TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT A SERIES OF QUESTIONS HE EXPECTS TO RAISE WHEN THE SENATE BEGINS DEBATING THE TREATY--PROBABLY IN MAY OR JUNE.

TWO-THIRDS APPROVAL OF SENATORS VOTING IS NEEDED TO BRING THE TREATY INTO EFFECT, SO FAR AS THIS COUNTRY IS CONCERNED. BECAUSE OF THIS ONLY A SMALL CORE OF OPPOSITION COULD THREATEN RATIFICATION.

A4WX

THUS QUESTIONS RAISED BY HIGH RANKING REPUBLICANS--AND SOME DEMOCRATS--ABOUT THE EFFECT AND THE IMPLICATIONS OF THE AGREEMENT ARE LIKELY TO BE GIVEN SERIOUS STUDY BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

BRIDGES SAID THE AMERICAN PEOPLE OUGHT TO BE TOLD FRANKLY THAT THE PACT INVOLVES "AUTOMATIC WAR." ACHESON ALREADY HAS DENIED THIS BUT HAS NOTED THAT IN EVENT OF AN ARMED ATTACK LIKE THAT OF THE LAST TWO WARS, "I SHOULD NOT SUPPOSE WE WOULD DECIDE ANY ACTION OTHER THAN THE USE OF ARMED FORCE."

BRIDGES SAID THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAD "PUT SOME CAMOUFLAGE OVER THE WHOLE TRUTH" IN "ALMOST EVERY INSTANCE INVOLVING POST WAR COMMIT-

MAR 20 1949

30.24- 1877

MENTS."
"THE PEOPLE SHOULD BE TOLD FRANKLY TO STUDY THIS ISSUE REALISTICALLY NOW," BRIDGES SAID. "THERE SHOULD BE NO ATTEMPT TO PROPAGANDIZE THE COUNTRY INTO BELIEVING THAT A PROVISION FOR CONSTITUTIONAL PROCEDURE IN DECLARING WAR WILL HAVE ANY PRACTICAL EFFECT."
REPUBLICANS WERE NOT ALONE IN QUESTIONING THE EFFECTS OF TH

PROCEDURE IN DECLARING WAR WILL HAVE ANY PRACTICAL EFFECT."
REPUBLICANS WERE NOT ALONE IN QUESTIONING THE EFFECTS OF THE PACT.
SENATOR GEORGE (D-GA), A MEMBER OF THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, SAID HE REGARDS IT AS "A FORWARD STEP" WHICH HE CAN SUPPORT.
BUT HE ADDED THAT HE IS "RESERVING JUDGMENT ON THE EXTENT TO WHICH WE ARE GOING TO ENTER INTO ANY ARMAMENTS RACE WITH ANY OTHER NATION"--AN OBVIOUS REFERENCE TO RUSSIA.
"MY PURPOSE WILL BE TO AVOID ANY HASTY CONCLUSIONS AND EASY COMMITMENTS IN THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE TREATY'S ARTICLES," THE GEORGIA SENATOR SAID.
HE ADDED THAT IF IT BECOMES "MERELY A MILITARY ALLIANCE, WE'RE PLAYING WITH FIRE." AS AN ASSOCIATION TO KEEP THE PEACE, HE SAID THE ALLIANCE IS "DEFENSIBLE."

PACT-COMPARISONS (750)
BY MORGAN REYNOLDS

MAR 20 1949

WASHINGTON, MARCH 19-(AP)-THE ATLANTIC PACT NATIONS TODAY POSSESS INDUSTRIAL MACHINES AND RESOURCES WHICH FAR SURPASS THOSE WHICH THE SOVIET UNION COULD PUT TO USE IN THE EVENT OF AN ARMS SHOWDOWN.
EVEN THOUGH PRODUCTION FIGURES FROM THE OTHER SIDE OF THE IRON CURTAIN ARE SCANTY, THERE ARE ENOUGH TO PROVIDE COMPARISONS WHICH ARE STARTLING IN THEIR DISPARITY.
THEY SHOW THE WESTERN POWERS TOP THE SOVIET-DOMINATED STATES FOUR TO ONE IN 1950 STEEL PRODUCTION GOALS, OVER THREE TO ONE IN PIG IRON, TWO TO ONE IN COAL, AND THE LEAD WAS 10 TO ONE IN PETROLEUM THREE YEARS AGO--THE MOST RECENT COMPARISON AVAILABLE FOR OIL.
AS FOR TRAINED WORKERS TO MAN THE INTRICATE MACHINES NEEDED TO SUPPLY GUNS, TANKS, PLANES AND OTHER ATOMIC WAR ESSENTIALS - THE WEST FAR OUTNUMBERS THE EAST IN THAT RESPECT.
THE FIGURES WERE COMPILED FROM U.S. GOVERNMENT RECORDS, RUSSIAN PUBLICATIONS, OFFICIAL FIGURES AND STANDARD REFERENCES.
SINCE THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA ARE THE KEY NATIONS IN THE RIVAL GROUPINGS OF NATIONS, THEIR INDUSTRIAL RECORDS BEST ILLUSTRATE THE BIG GAP IN THE INDUSTRIAL SCORE.
IN MINERAL RESERVES ALONE, THIS COUNTRY FAR EXCEEDS RUSSIA'S HOLDINGS IN SEVERAL MAJOR CATEGORIES. FOR INSTANCE THE UNITED STATES IS ESTIMATED TO HAVE 34 PER CENT OF THE WORLD'S TOTAL IRON ORE RESERVES AS AGAINST THE U.S.S.R'S 11 PER CENT. AMERICA'S COAL RESERVES ARE 45 PER CENT OF THE TOTAL, RUSSIA'S IS 27 PER CENT. FOR ZINC, THE FIGURES ARE: U.S. 34 PER CENT, RUSSIA, 12 PER CENT; LEAD, U.S., 35 PER CENT, RUSSIA, TWO PER CENT.
THIS COUNTRY, HOWEVER, IS LACKING IN MANY STRATEGIC MINERALS WHICH ARE BEING STOCKPILED AGAINST A FUTURE EMERGENCY.
IT IS IN THE USE OF THE MATERIALS AT HAND THAT THE GREAT DIFFERENCE IS MOST APPARENT.
RUSSIA IS NOW NEARING COMPLETION OF ANOTHER OF HER FIVE-YEAR PLANS AIMED AT LIFTING THAT GIANT COUNTRY BY ITS INDUSTRIAL BOOTSTRAPS. HERE ARE THE LATEST GOALS AS PRESENTED BY PREMIER STALIN IN AN ELECTION EVE PEP TALK FEBRUARY 9, 1946:
HE CALLED FOR A "THREE-FOLD PRODUCTION" OVER PRE-WAR LEVELS TO BRING STEEL OUTPUT ULTIMATELY TO 60,000,000 TONS A YEAR; PIG IRON, 50,000,000 TONS; OIL, 420,000,000 BARRELS AND COAL TO 500,000,000 TONS ANNUALLY.
STALIN HIMSELF ADMITTED THEN THAT IT MIGHT TAKE "THREE FIVE-YEAR PLANS TO ACHIEVE THIS, IF NOT MORE." BUT HE SAID "IT CAN BE DONE AND WE MUST DO IT X X X ONLY UNDER SUCH CONDITIONS WILL OUR COUNTRY BE INSURED AGAINST ANY EVENTUALITY."
STALIN THEN WENT ON TO GIVE AN ILLUMINATING GLIMPSE INTO THE WAY IN WHICH RUSSIA HAD ADVANCED SINCE THE OUTBREAK OF WORLD WAR I WITH THESE COMPARATIVE FIGURES:
STEEL PRODUCTION - 1913, 4,230,000 TONS; 1940, 18,300,000 TONS; 1950 GOAL, 25,400,000 TONS; ULTIMATE GOAL - 60,000,000 TONS.
PIG IRON PRODUCTION--1913, 4,220,000 TONS; 1940, 15,000,000 TONS; 1950 GOAL, 19,500,000 TONS; ULTIMATE GOAL - 50,000,000 TONS.
PETROLEUM -- 1913, 63,000,000 BARRELS; 1940, 217,000,000 BBLS; 1950 GOAL - 247,800,000 BBLS; ULTIMATE GOAL - 420,000,000 BBLS.
COAL -- 1913, 29,000,000 TONS; 1940, 166,000,000 TONS; 1950 GOAL, 250,000,000 TONS; ULTIMATE GOAL -- 500,000,000 TONS.
THIS IS HOW THE 1950 PRODUCTION AIMS OF RUSSIA AND FOUR SATELLITES--CZECHOSLOVAKIA, POLAND, HUNGARY AND ROMANIA--STACK UP WITH THOSE OF THE ATLANTIC POWERS (IN ROUND NUMBERS):
STEEL--WEST, 126,000,000 TONS; EAST, 29,000,000 TONS.
IRON -- WEST, 73,000,000 TONS; EAST, 22,000,000 TONS.
COAL -- WEST, 800,000,000 TONS; EAST, 300,000,000 TONS.
THE LATEST COMPARATIVE FIGURES ON PETROLEUM PRODUCTION ARE FOR 1946. CONSEQUENTLY THEY DO NOT TAKE INTO ACCOUNT ANY RECOVERY SINCE THEN FROM WAR DAMAGE IN ROMANIAN AND CAUCASUS FIELDS; RUSSIA AND HER SATELLITES, 207,102,000 BARRELS; UNITED STATES - 1,733,424,000 BARRELS.
IN THAT YEAR OIL PRODUCTION IN FIELDS CONTROLLED BY WESTERN POWERS AND ALLIED INTERESTS TOTALED ANOTHER 808,922,000 BARRELS, MOST IN SOUTH AMERICA AND THE MIDDLE EAST. THIS POINTS UP THE CEASELESS INTEREST RUSSIA SHOWS IN ADVANCING HER SPHERE SOUTHWARD TOWARD IRAN, IRAQ AND ARABIA WHERE NEW OIL FIELDS HAVE SINCE BEEN DISCOVERED.
ANOTHER REVEALING CONTRAST BETWEEN EAST AND WEST INDUSTRIAL RESOURCES IS ON TRAINED MANPOWER. AND HERE AGAIN THE COMPARISON BETWEEN RUSSIAN AND UNITED STATES FIGURES IS THE MOST TELLING ONE; EVEN THOUGH THE FIGURES ARE NOT RECENT.
IN 1941, THE SOVIET UNION REPORTED THERE WERE 31,600,000 PERSONS IN ITS INDUSTRIAL LABOR FORCE. THAT SAME YEAR THERE WERE 55,640,000 PEOPLE ON AMERICA'S INDUSTRIAL PAYROLLS.
RUSSIA COULD BE EXPECTED TO HAVE INCREASED THAT NUMBER CONSIDERABLY SINCE THEN, BUT A TIP-OFF ON THE RATE OF ADVANCE MIGHT BE FOUND IN SIMILAR FIGURES FOR 1937. AT THAT TIME, THE SOVIETS LISTED 27,000,000 WORKERS AS AGAINST 46,300,000 FOR THE UNITED STATES.

A36WX
EVEN THOUGH RUSSIA COULD BOLSTER ITS OWN INDUSTRIAL POTENTIAL BY

DRAWING ON ITS SATELLITES, THE TRAINED WORKERS IN THE ATLANTIC PACT COUNTRIES WOULD MORE THAN OFFSET THE GAIN IN THE SOVIET RANKS.

FOR EXAMPLE, MOSCOW WOULD BOOST ITS STEEL PRODUCTION ONLY TO A SMALL DEGREE BY USING OUTPUT OF ITS SUBJECT STATES, ALL FOUR OF WHICH HAD LESS THAN A 4,000,000-TON OUTPUT IN 1947. COMPARED WITH THAT, BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM AND LUXEMBOURG TURNED OUT ABOUT FOUR TIMES AS MUCH.

ALL THIS IS ONLY PART OF THE TOTAL PICTURE BECAUSE THE BRITISH, FRENCH AND DUTCH OVERSEAS RESOURCES, FOR EXAMPLE, HAVE NOT BEEN TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT.

NOR DOES IT TAKE INTO CONSIDERATION WHAT THE LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES COULD BE EXPECTED TO ADD TO THE WESTERN POWERS INDUSTRIAL LINE-UP IF A SHOWDOWN COMES.

IN THE LAST ANALYSIS, IT WAS AMERICA'S INDUSTRIAL CAPACITY WHICH TIPPED THE SCALES IN WORLD WAR II AGAINST GERMANY AND JAPAN -- WHOSE PRODUCTION CAPACITY WAS FAR GREATER THEN THAN RUSSIA HAS YET ACHIEVED.

(200) WASHINGTON, MARCH 19-(AP)-THE AMERICAN LEGION TODAY ACCUSED THE STATE DEPARTMENT OF "TRIFLING WITH THE NATION'S SECURITY" BY PERMITTING 22 DELEGATES FROM RUSSIA AND SOVIET PACT COUNTRIES TO ATTEND A "PEACE" CONFERENCE IN NEW YORK.

IN A TELEGRAM TO SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, LEGION COMMANDER PERRY BROWN ASSAILED THE REASONS GIVEN BY THE DEPARTMENT WEDNESDAY IN ANNOUNCING ITS APPROVAL OF THE DELEGATES' VISA APPLICATIONS. HE SAID THE DEPARTMENT'S STATEMENT WAS "SELF-CONDEMNING."

THE DEPARTMENT HAD SAID THE ADMISSION REQUEST WAS GRANTED BECAUSE OF THIS GOVERNMENT'S "UNSWERING DEVOTION TO FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND FREE SPEECH ON ANY ISSUE, HOWEVER CONTROVERSIAL IT MAY BE."

AMONG THOSE WHO ASKED PERMISSION TO ATTEND A "CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE FOR WORLD PEACE" IN NEW YORK MARCH 25-27 WERE DMITRI SHOSTAKOVICH, RUSSIAN COMPOSER, AND ALEXANDER FEDEYEV, SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE UNION OF SOVIET WRITERS.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT WENT ON TO SAY IN ITS STATEMENT THAT NONE OF THE DELEGATES FROM THE IRON COUNTRIES WILL BE "FREE TO EXPRESS ANY VIEW OTHER THAN THAT DICTATED BY POLITICAL AUTHORITIES IN MOSCOW."

THE LEGION'S TELEGRAM OF PROTEST DEMANDED:

"SINCE WHEN HAS IT BECOME JUSTIFIABLE FOR THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THIS LAST GREAT CITADEL OF FREEDOM TO BARTER AWAY ITS SECURITY BY HARBORING THOSE WHO HAVE ANNOUNCED THEIR INTENTION TO DESTROY IT? X X X UPON WHAT BACKGROUND OF HISTORY AND EXPERIENCE CAN THE STATE DEPARTMENT JUSTIFY ITS ACTION AS FURTHERING THE INTEREST OF OUR COUNTRY?"

PARIS, MARCH 19-(AP)-MAURICE THOREZ, NUMBER-ONE FRENCH COMMUNIST, TONIGHT CALLED THE ATLANTIC TREATY A "GHOST OF THE NEW WAR."

IN A STATEMENT DISTRIBUTED TO THE PRESS, THOREZ SAID:

"THE HYPROCRITICAL PHRASES AND LIES OF THE GOVERNMENTS AND PEOPLE" WHO ARE WRITING THE PACT "WON'T FOOL ANYONE."

THE COMMUNIST LEADER SAID "THE MARSHALL PLAN IS A PLAN OF WAR." HE ADDED THAT FRANCE IS "CHAINED TO THE CHARIOT OF THE WAR OF THE AMERICAN BILLIONAIRES."

THOREZ SAID IN HIS STATEMENT: "THE ATLANTIC PACT WOULD ASSURE PEACE, STATE THE PROMOTERS. JUST AS THEY SAID THAT NON-INTERVENTION AND THE CAPITULATION OF MUNICH ASSURED THE PEACE. BUT THE ATLANTIC PACT IS AGAINST THE RPINCIPLES OF COLLECTIVE SECURITY, AGAINST THE PRINCIPLES PROCLAIMED BY THE ORGANIZATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS."

HE ALSO SAID THE ATLANTIC ALLIANCE WAS "AGAINST THE PRINCIPLES OF AGREEMENTS" SEVERAL COUNTRIES ALREADY HAVE WITH RUSSIA. FRANCE AND BRITAIN, AMONG OTHERS, HAVE SIGNED NON-AGGRESSION PACTS WITH THE SOVIET UNION.

BERLIN, MARCH 19-(AP)-THE SOVIET ARMY NEWSPAPER TAEGLICHE RUNDSCHAU SAID TODAY THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY IS AN "INSTRUMENT OF WAR."

IT SAID THE PACT WAS INTENDED TO DESTROY THE UNITED NATIONS AND SET UP AN IMPERIALIST POWER BLOC UNDER THE DOMINATION OF BRITAIN AND THE U.S.

"THE PEOPLE," THE PAPER SAID, "MUST SHOW WARMONGERS THEIR PLANS ARE CONDEMNED TO FAIL."

THE RUSSIAN LICENSED BERLINER ZEITUNG SAID THE PACT WAS INTENDED TO PROVIDE BUSINESS FOR AMERICAN ARMAMENT TRUSTS.

IT SAID THE UNITED STATES WAS TRYING TO IMPOSE WAR ON THE WORLD.

"ITS AUTHORS AS WELL AS THEIR OBEDIENT PRESS," THE PAPER SAID, "ARE TRYING TO APOLOGIZE FOR" THE AGREEMENT "EVEN WHILE THEY ARE PUBLISHING IT. THEY FORESEE WHAT IS IN STORE FOR THEM FROM THEIR PEOPLES IN CASE THIS AMERICAN WAR IS KINDLED."

PRECEDE KEY WEST-TRUMAN

WASHINGTON, MARCH 19-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN SAID TODAY ON RETURNING FROM A TWO-WEEK'S FLORIDA VACATION THAT HE WILL SEND THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY TO THE SENATE FOR RATIFICATION AS SOON AS IT HAS BEEN SIGNED.

THE TEXT OF THE HISTORIC DOCUMENT WAS MADE PUBLIC YESTERDAY. THE EIGHT PARTICIPATING NATIONS ARE EXPECTED TO SIGN THE PACT APRIL 4.

MR. TRUMAN MADE AN UNUSUALLY FAST PLANE TRIP FROM KEY WEST. THE PRESIDENTIAL PLANE INDEPENDENCE ARRIVED AT 2:50 P.M. (EST), TAKNG ONLY THREE HOURS AND 50 MINUTES FOR THE FLIGHT FROM BOCA CHICA AIRPORT AT KEY WEST.

THE PRESIDENT SAID HE HAD A FINE STAY AT THE SUBMARINE BASE. HE SMILED BROADLY AS HE SHOOK HANDS WITH SEVERAL CABINET OFFICERS WHO MET HIM AT THE AIRPORT.

A137WX

THEY INCLUDED ATTORNEY GENERAL CLARK, SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FORRESTAL, SECRETARY OF COMMERCE SAWYER AND LOUIS A. JOHNSON, WHO HAS BEEN NOMINATED TO SUCCEED FORRESTAL.

IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION, THE PRESIDENT SAID THERE IS NO OFFICIAL CONNECTION WITH THE TRIP TO ISRAEL OF EDDIE JACOBSON, HIS FORMER KANSAS CITY BUSINESS PARTNER, WHO FLEW FROM NEW YORK TO EUROPE TWO DAYS AGO.

IT WAS REPORTED AT THE TIME THAT JACOBSON WOULD RELAY HIS IMPRESSIONS TO THE PRESIDENT OF HIS MONTH'S TRIP TO ISRAEL. THE PRESIDENT SAID TODAY JACOBSON IS ON HIS OWN AND THE FIRST HE HEARD OF THE TRIP WAS WHEN REPORTERS TOLD HIM ABOUT IT YESTERDAY.

MR. TRUMAN DROVE IMMEDIATELY FROM THE AIRPORT TO BLAIR HOUSE TO REST BEFORE ATTENDING THE ANNUAL DINNER TONIGHT OF THE WHITE HOUSE PHOTOGRAPHERS' ASSOCIATION.

HE WILL SEE CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS MONDAY MORNING AND HIS CABINET LATER THAT DAY.

"ITS POLICIES ARE DEVISED WITH THE SPECIFIC AIM OF BRIDGING BY PEACEFUL MEANS THE TREMENDOUS DIFFERENCES WHICH BESET INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY AT THE PRESENT TIME."

THE SECRETARY OF STATE CONTENDED THAT A COLLECTIVE DEFENSE ARRANGEMENT BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND WESTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS IS A NATURAL OUTGROWTH OF THEIR TIES. HE SAID THE PACT WAS NO "IMPROVISATION."

AGREEING WITH THIS, SENATOR BREWSTER (R-ME) SAID HE STILL THINKS THE AGREEMENT TAKES IN TOO MUCH GROUND.

"I HAVE REGRETTED THE INCLUSION OF THE SCANDANAVIAN AND MEDITERRANEAN AREAS," BREWSTER TOLD A REPORTER, "BECAUSE I THINK THAT MIGHT CAUSE NEEDLESS TROUBLE. I WOULD RATHER HAVE SEEN A MEDITERRANEAN PACT, IN WHICH GREECE AND TURKEY COULD JOIN WITH ITALY."

ALTHOUGH THE DEVELOPMENT OF NUCLEAR FISSION EXPLOSIVES WAS CARRIED OUT JOINTLY BY THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND CANADA, ONLY THE U.S. HAS EVER USED THE ATOMIC BOMB. ADD Lynch (Pvt-N), Italy) XXX Allies (Day) DAY

IT IS DOUBTFUL THAT ATOMIC BOMBS WOULD BE USED IN ANY PURELY DEFENSE ACTION TO STOP INVASION OF ANY OF THE ATLANTIC PACT NATIONS. THE BOMB IS A WEAPON OF MASS DESTRUCTION, INTENDED FOR USE AGAINST ENEMY CITIES, POPULATIONS AND WAR GOODS PRODUCTION CENTERS.

MILITARY MEN BELIEVE IT WOULD BE OF LITTLE USE TACTICALLY AGAINST ENEMY TROOPS IN THE FIELD FOR TWO REASONS: TROOPS ARE TOO DISPERSED TO MAKE A GOOD TARGET FOR A SINGLE EXPLOSION; THE COST--IN TERMS OF MAN-HOURS AND MATERIAL FOR PRODUCTION--WOULD MAKE SUCH A TARGET UNPROFITABLE.

THERE IS STILL ANOTHER FACTOR TO WHICH MILITARY MEN HAVE POINTED IN THE PAST: ONLY THE GRAVEST MILITARY SITUATION WOULD WARRANT USE OF THE ATOMIC BOMB AGAINST A CONCENTRATION OF ENEMY FORCES WHICH MIGHT INVADE ANOTHER NATION.

IN THE PROCESS OF DESTROYING THE ENEMY TROOPS AND THEIR EQUIPMENT LARGE NUMBERS OF PERSONS FRIENDLY TO THE UNITED STATES AND WHO HAVE RESISTED THE INVADER ALSO WOULD BE KILLED. WHETHER EOF

BY DONALD DOANE

BERLIN, MARCH 19-(AP)-AN IMPENDING NEW MOVE IN BERLIN'S CURRENCY WAR SENT WEST BERLINERS OFF ON A BUYING SPREE TODAYY.

AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES SAID THE U.S., BRITAIN AND FRANCE WILL HALT THE USE OF SOVIET SPONSORED EAST MARKS IN THEIR BLOCKADED SECTORS OF BERLIN TOMORROW, AND MAKE THE WEST GERMAN MARK THE ONLY LEGAL CURRENCY.

SO WEST BERLINERS RUSHED TO GET RID OF THEIR EAST MARKS.

A COUNTER MOVE BY THE RUSSIANS ALSO WAS RUMORED. THE BRITISH-LICENSED NEWSPAPER, MITTAGS ECHO, SAID THE RUSSIANS WILL ISSUE NEW MONEY NEXT WEDNESDAY TO REPLACE THE NINE-MONTH OLD EAST MARK IN THEIR ENTIRE OCCUPATION ZONE AS WELL AS IN EAST BERLIN.

THE REPORT WAS DENIED BY THE FINANCE CHIEF OF THE EAST GERMAN ECONOMIC COMMISSION, BUT IT ADDED TO THE CONFUSION.

EVER SINCE LAST JUNE'S CURRENCY REFORM, WHEN THE RUSSIANS AND THE WESTERN ALLIES ISSUED RIVAL NEW CURRENCIES FOR THEIR AREAS, BOTH THE SOVIET EAST MARK AND THE ALLIED WEST MARK HAVE CIRCULATED IN WEST BERLIN.

RECENTLY, HOWEVER, THE WESTERN POWERS DECIDED TO MAKE A CLEAN BREAK IN THE MONEY TUG-OF-WAR. THEY WON'T OUTLAW THE EAST MARK--LIKE THE RUSSIANS DID THE WEST MARK. BUT THEY WILL END ITS USE AS LEGAL TENDER, AND REQUIRE ALL PAYMENTS IN WEST MARKS.

THAT WILL LEAVE BERLIN LIKE TWO SEPARATE COUNTRIES, WITH DIFFERENT MONIES AS WELL AS RIVAL GOVERNMENTS.

IN BERLIN'S FREE MONEY MARKET, ONE WEST MARK WILL BUY FOUR AND A HALF EAST MARKS, ALTHOUGH BOTH ARE SUPPOSED TO HAVE THE SAME OFFICIAL VALUE.

THE WESTERN BERLINERS' RUSH TO GET RID OF EAST MARKS WAS BASED ON THE REPORT THAT NOT ALL THE EAST MARKS THEY POSSESS WILL BE REDEEMED IN WEST MARKS IN TOMORROW'S CHANGEOVER.

ALLIED OFFICIALS POINT OUT THAT EVEN THOUGH THEY WERE NO LONGER LEGAL TENDER IN WEST BERLIN, THE WEST BERLINERS COULD STILL USE EAST MARKS TO BUY IN RUSSIAN SECTOR SHOPS AND TO PAY FOR SUPPLIES SMUGGLED INTO THE BLOCKADED SECTORS FROM SOVIET TERRITORY.

THIS SMUGGLING TRADE THEY WANT TO ENCOURAGE. THE MORE SMUGGLED IN, THE LESS REQUIRED TO BE FLOWN IN BY THE BRITISH-AMERICAN AIRLIFT, WHICH IS SUPPLYING THE BLOCKADED SECTORS.

A78

NOT EVEN THE FINANCE EXPERTS DARED TO PREDICT JUST HOW THE PASSING OF THE EAST MARK WILL AFFECT THE WEST BERLIN WAGE EARNERS.

THEY'VE BEEN GETTING PAID PART IN WESTMARKS, MOSTLY IN EAST MARKS--WITH THE CHANCE TO BLACKMARKET THEIR WEST MARKS AT A PROFIT. THEY'LL LOSE THIS PROFIT.

BUT THE ALLIED MILITARY GOVERNMENTS HOPE THE CHANGE WILL IN THE LONG RUUN HELP THE WEST BERLINERS BY:

1. BOLSTERING THE POSITION OF THE CITY GOVERNMENT, WHICH IS GOING BANKRUPT BECAUSE IT HAS TO PAY A LOT OF ITS EXPENSES IN WEST MARKS, BUT MUST ACCEPT EAST MARKS FOR ITS REVENUE.

2. SPURRING T

ADE BETWEEN

2. SPURRING TRADE BETWEEN WEST BERLIN AND WEST GERMANY, BY USE OF MUTUAL MONEY.

AT LEAST IT WILL END THE DUAL CURRENCY CONFUSION.

A WELL-PLACED SOURCE SAID THE DECISION WAS REACHED AT A CABINET MEETING YESTERDAY. HE SAID IT PROVIDES FOR DISSOLUTION OF PARLIAMENT EARLY IN APRIL, AND ELECTIONS LATE IN MAY OR EARLY IN JUNE.

A FOREIGN POLICY DEBATE, CENTERED UPON THE ATLANTIC CHARTER, WILL BE ALLOWED TO PROCEED AS SCHEDULED BEFORE THE DISSOLUTION MOVE, THE INFORMANT SAID.

A BILL ADVANCING THE DATE FOR WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE IN GENERAL ELECTIONS ALSO WILL BE PERMITTED TO GO TO A VOTE FIRST, HE ADDED, IN HOPE OF PERMITTING WOMEN TO BALLOT IN THE NEW ELECTION. THE LAW NOW PROVIDES THAT WOMEN MAY NOT VOTE IN A GENERAL ELECTION UNTIL AFTER THE END OF JULY.

THE PRESENT PARLIAMENT SUPPORTS A TWO PARTY COALITION GOVERNMENT OF CATHOLICS AND SOCIALISTS. THE PRESENT COALITION CABINET WAS FORMED BY PREMIER PAUL-HENRI SPAAK IN MARCH, 1947.

THE COALITION OF CATHOLICS AND SOCIALISTS HAS HAD SEVERAL DIFFICULTIES. RECENTLY A NEW DISAGREEMENT AROSE BETWEEN THEM ON THE FINANCING OF AID TO BELGIUM'S 200,000 UNEMPLOYED.

CATHOLICS WERE RELUCTANT TO ACCEPT ANY ADDITION TO THE BELGIANS' HEAVY TAXATION BURDEN, WHILE THE SOCIALISTS WANTED NEW TAXES ON COMPANIES' PROFITS.

COMPROMISE HAS BEEN MADE DIFFICULT BECAUSE BOTH PARTIES WERE REPORTED TO CONSIDER THE QUESTION AS PART OF THEIR ELECTORAL PLATFORMS. AN EARLY GENERAL ELECTION WOULD PUT THE DECISION TO THE VOTERS.

PROSPECTIVE MINISTERS WERE SHYING AWAY BECAUSE OF TWO FEARS: COMMUNIST CENSURE AND ACCEPTING RESPONSIBILITY AT SUCH A CRITICAL TIME.

THERE WERE MORE DENIALS THAT SOUTH CHINA'S SCATTERED REBELLION HAD SPREAD TO THE BIG KWANGTUNG PORT OF SWATOW. THE LATEST CAME FROM GEN. MO HSI-TEH, "BANDIT SUPPRESSION" COMMANDER IN THE SWATOW AREA, THROUGH CANTON.

HAVANA, CUBA, MARCH 19-(AP)-THE INTER-AMERICAN COMMISSION ON DEPENDENT TERRITORIES IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE IS PREPARED TO SET UP STUDY COMMITTEES AND END ITS FIRST MEETING NEXT WEEK, DELEGATES SAID TODAY.

THE COMMISSION DISCUSSED RULES YESTERDAY AND ADJOURNED UNTIL MONDAY.

THIRTEEN COUNTRIES ARE PARTICIPATING IN THE MEETING, SET UP LAST YEAR BY A PAN AMERICAN CONFERENCE TO CONSIDER PROBLEMS OF FOREIGN COLONIES AND OTHER DEPENDENT TERRITORIES.

THE UNITED STATES, BRAZIL, CHILE AND SEVERAL OTHER COUNTRIES REFUSED TO PARTICIPATE.

DELEGATES SAID TWO PERMANENT COMMITTEES WERE PLANNED, ONE ON COLONIES AND THE OTHER ON "OCCUPIED TERRITORIES." THE COMMITTEES WILL MAKE REPORTS TO THE COMMISSION SECRETARIAT AND TO GOVERNMENTS OF THE AMERICAN REPUBLICS. AFTERWARD THE COMMISSION WILL MEET AGAIN TO DISCUSS RECOMMENDATIONS.

THE COMMISSION WAS BROUGHT ABOUT CHIEFLY AS A RESULT OF GUATEMALA'S CLAIM TO BRITISH HONDURAS AND ARGENTINA'S CLAIM TO THE FALKLAND ISLANDS.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 19-(AP)-A LONG-RANGE BOMBER OF A TYPE WHICH THE NAVY SAYS CAN HANDLE ATOM BOMBS TOOK OFF FROM A CARRIER EARLY THIS MONTH, IT WAS LEARNED TODAY. THE PLANE WAS THE HEAVIEST EVER LAUNCHED IN THAT FASHION.

NAVY OFFICIALS, IN ANSWER TO QUESTIONS, SAID A LOCKHEED NEPTUNE P2V-3C--WEIGHING WITH ITS BOMB LOAD AND FUEL APPROXIMATELY 37 TONS--FLEW OFF THE CARRIER CORAL SEA MARCH 7.

THE BOMBER, AFTER A 2000-MILE FLIGHT, DROPPED A LOAD EQUIVALENT TO 10,000 POUNDS OF BOMBS, THEN LANDED AT THE PATUXENT, MD., NAVAL AIR BASE.

THE PLANE CARRIED STANDARD COMBAT EQUIPMENT, WITH NO SPECIAL DEVICES EXCEPT ROCKET ASSISTANCE FOR THE TAKE-OFF FROM THE FLIGHT DECK. THE PREVIOUS WEIGHT RECORD FOR A CARRIER TAKE OFF WAS SET A YEAR AGO WHEN AN EARLIER MODEL OF THE P2V TOOK OFF FROM THE CORAL SEA AT A GROSS WEIGHT OF ABOUT 55,000 POUNDS.

THE LOCKHEED P2V NEPTUNE STILL HOLDS THE WORLD'S DISTANCE RECORD OF 11,236 MILES, ESTABLISHED IN 1946 IN A FLIGHT FROM AUSTRALIA TO OHIO. THAT PLANE, TAKING OFF FROM A LAND BASE WITH LONG RUNWAYS, WEIGHED 85,000 POUNDS WHEN IT WENT INTO THE AIR.

PILOT OF THE PLANE USED IN THE LATEST TEST WAS CAPT. JOHN T. HAYWARD OF PENSACOLA, FLA.

THE EXPERIMENT, DESCRIBED BY NAVY OFFICIALS AS ANOTHER ROUTINE TEST IN ITS PROGRAM FOR EXPANDING THE REACH OF CARRIER-BORNE AVIATION, WAS CONDUCTED OFF THE VIRGINIA CAPES.

AT SAN BERNARDINO, CAL., YESTERDAY ADMIRAL LOUIS E. DENFELD, CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS, TOLD REPORTERS THAT THE NAVY HAS LAUNCHED PLANES WITH SIMILAR ATOM BOMB-EQUIVALENT LOADS FROM CARRIERS SEVERAL TIMES IN HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL TESTS. HE DID NOT SAY WHERE OR WHEN THESE TESTS WERE CONDUCTED. HIS COMMENTS WERE IN ANSWER TO QUESTIONS.

IN ADDITION TO THE P2V, DENFELD ALSO INCLUDED THE NORTH AMERICAN A.J. AMONG NAVAL AIRCRAFT HE SAID ARE CAPABLE OF CARRYING ATOMIC BOMBS. THE A.J., LIKE THE P2V, IS A TWIN-ENGINE BOMBER. ASIDE FROM THE FACT THAT IT HAS A JET OR EXTRA KICK IN TAKE-OFF, FEW DETAILS HAVE BEEN DISCLOSED ABOUT THE A.J.

THE ADMIRAL EMPHASIZED, AS HE HAS BEFORE, THAT WHILE THE NAVY NOW HAS PLANES CAPABLE OF CARRYING A-BOMBS IT IS NOT THE NAVY'S INTENTION TO MAKE STRATEGIC BOMBING A MAJOR NAVY MISSION. THE NAVY COULD DO THAT TYPE OF BOMBING IF REQUESTED, HE EXPLAINED.

THIS IS IN LINE WITH A DECISION OF THE NATIONAL MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT AND THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF UNDER WHICH THE AIR FORCE IS GIVEN PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITY FOR STRATEGIC BOMBING, WITH NAVAL AVIATION TO BE CALLED UPON TO JOIN IN SUCH ATTACKS WHEN THE OCCASION REQUIRES.

RADAR

WASHINGTON, MARCH 19-(AP)-A BILL AUTHORIZING A $161,000,000 (M) RADAR NETWORK TO SERVE AS AMERICA'S ENEMY-ALARM SYSTEM WAS ON PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S WHITE HOUSE DESK TODAY.

THE SENATE APPROVED THE MEASURE YESTERDAY WITHOUT DEBATE. EARLIER THE HOUSE HAD OKAYED IT.

THE RADAR NETWORK, WHICH WILL BE OPERATED ALONG WITH A SIMILAR ONE IN CANADA, WILL HAVE LAND-BASED SKY SCANNING STATIONS AS WELL AS FOUR RADAR PICKET SHIPS STATIONED NEAR VITAL TARGETS.

THE SENATE ARMED FORCES COMMITTEE EMPHASIZED THE NETWORK WAS NOT A DEFENSE AGAINST ENEMY PLANES, BUT MERELY SOMETHING LIKE A BURGLAR ALARM--IT WOULD LET THE AIR FORCE KNOW OF THE APPROACH OF HOSTILE AIRCRAFT.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 19-(AP)-GOV. JOHN W.BONNER OF MONTANA ARRIVED HERE TODAY TO URGE THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AN ATOMIC ENERGY RESEARCH LABORATORY IN EASTERN MONTANA.

THE GOVERNOR TOLD A REPORTER HE EXPECTS TO SEE PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND OFFICIALS OF THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION ABOUT THE PROJECT.

"WE HAVE ABUNDANT POWER AND WE ARE BLESSED WITH ABUNDANT WATER RESOURCES IN MONTANA," THE GOVERNOR SAID, "AND WE FEEL THAT THEY SHOULD BE USED FOR THIS PURPOSE.

"IT WOULD NOT ONLY BE GOOD FOR THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT BUT WOULD TEND TO HELP THE STATE IN INDUSTRIAL EXPANSION."

GOV. BONNER SAID IDAHO IS MONTANA'S CHIEF COMPETITOR FOR THE LABORATORY PROPOSED FOR THE NORTHWESTERN AREA.

"IT APPEARS," HE SAID, "THAT THE WHOLE MATTER IS UP TO THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION AND I PROPOSE TO FAIRLY PRESENT OUR CASE."

"EVERY ORGANIZATION IN EASTERN MONTANA IS IN FAVOR OF THIS RESEARCH LABORATORY," HE ADDED.

THE FORMER SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY IS GENERAL CHAIRMAN OF THE UNITED JEWISH APPEAL, WHICH OPENED A TWO-DAY REDEDICATION CONFERENCE HERE. THE CONFERENCE IS LAUNCHING A CAMPAIGN TO RAISE $250,000,000 TO SUPPORT MASS MIGRATION TO AND SETTLEMENT IN ISRAEL, REHABILITATION IN EUROPE AND NORTH AFRICA, AND REFUGEE AID IN THE UNITED STATES.

EVEN NOW, MORGENTHAU TOLD THE CONFERENCE, THERE ARE 50,000 REFUGEES LIVING IN RECEPTION CAMPS, 16,000 OF THEM IN TENTS. DECLARING THAT THE MISERY AND SQUALOR OF D.P. CAMPS IN GERMANY MUST NOT BE PERMITTED IN ISRAEL, MORGENTHAU SAID:

"THE VICTORY ON THE BATTLEFIELD MUST NOT BE LOST IN THE RECEPTION CAMPS FOR IMMIGRANTS."

IF AMERICAN JEWS FAIL TO PROVIDE AID FOR THOSE NEWCOMERS, HE SAID, IT WILL BE "A VERY CRUSHING BLOW TO THE NEW NATION IN ITS TRANSITION FROM WAR TO PEACE."

BY TRANSCRIPTION, THE CONFERENCE HEARD FROM DR.CHAIM WEIZMANN, PRESIDENT OF ISRAEL.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 19-(AP)-DOROTHY BAILEY YESTERDAY LOST THE FIRST ROUND OF HER FIGHT TO REGAIN THE $8,000 A YEAR GOVERNMENT JOB FROM WHICH SHE WAS SUSPENDED AFTER A LOYALTY CHECK.

MISS BAILEY IS A FORMER OFFICIAL OF THE CIO UNITED PUBLIC WORKERS OF AMERICA. SHE WAS EMPLOYED BY THE U.S. EMPLOYMENT SERVICE.

SHE WAS SUSPENDED FROM DUTY IN NOVEMBER, 1948 AND WAS ORDERED DISMISSED FEB. 11 WHEN THE FINDINGS OF A REGIONAL LOYALTY BOARD WERE UPHELD BY A THREE-MAN PANEL OF THE FEDERAL LOYALTY REVIEW BOARD.

HER ATTORNEYS, HEADED BY PAUL PORTER, ASKED THE FULL 22-MEMBER REVIEW BOARD TO STUDY THE CASE. YESTERDAY IT REFUSED TO DO THIS, WHICH IN EFFECT REAFFIRMED THE DISMISSAL.

MISS BAILEY'S ATTORNEYS SAID THEY WOULD APPEAL THE CASE TO THE U.S. DISTRICT COURT HERE. THEY CONTEND SHE IS A LOYAL WORKER, AND THAT THE EXACT GROUNDS FOR HER DISMISSAL NEVER HAVE BEEN DISCLOSED.

~~NEW YORK, MARCH 19 (AP)~~ AN ATTORNEY FOR ANNA LOUISE STRONG SAID TONIGHT THAT THE WOMAN WRITER IS SEEKING TO HAVE PREMIER STALIN ORDER AN INQUIRY INTO HER DEPORTATION FROM RUSSIA ON ESPIONAGE CHARGES.

O. JOHN ROGGE, THE ATTORNEY, SAID HE HAS SENT A LETTER TO THE U. S. STATE DEPARTMENT, TO BE FORWARDED TO MOSCOW, ASKING STALIN TO REVIEW THE CASE AGAINST THE 65-YEAR-OLD AMERICAN JOURNALIST.

MISS STRONG, WHOSE WRITINGS HAVE BEEN STRONGLY SYMPATHETIC TO THE SOVIET UNION, WAS ARRESTED IN MOSCOW FEB. 15, ACCUSED OF SPYING FOR AMERICA, AND ORDERED OUT OF THE COUNTRY.

ROGGE SAID HE HAS NOT YET HEARD WHETHER HIS LETTER HAS BEEN FORWARDED TO STALIN.

HE SAID THE LETTER EXPRESSED THE VIEW THAT HIS CLIENT'S ARREST WAS "DUE TO GRAVE ERRORS OF CERTAIN LOWER OFFICIALS OF YOUR GOVERNMENT" AND THAT SHE WAS GIVEN NO CHANCE TO DEFEND HERSELF AGAINST THE ESPIONAGE CHARGES.

THE LETTER ASKED STALIN TO "RETRACT THE CHARGES" BECAUSE IT "IS IMPORTANT THAT SUCH ERRORS AND MISTAKES BE RECTIFIED PROMPTLY IN ORDER TO ENCOURAGE FRIENDLY COOPERATION BETWEEN NATIONS," ROGGE SAID.

HE QUOTED THE LETTER AS SAYING FURTHER:

"THIS CHARGE MADE AGAINST AN ESTIMABLE WOMAN HAS WRECKED USEFUL AND IMPORTANT WORK THAT SHE WAS DOING IN FURTHERING THE CAUSE OF PEACE.

"IT HAS THUS INJURED THE FORCES WORKING FOR PEACE IN MANY COUNTRIES, AND HAS HAD A TENDENCY TO DISTURB FURTHER THE RELATIONS BETWEEN THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES AND THOSE OF THE U.S.S.R.

"I THEREFORE RESPECTFULLY REQUEST THAT YOUR EXCELLENCY ORDER AN INVESTIGATION TO BE MADE IN THIS MATTER.

"SINCE SHE WAS DENIED ALL OPPORTUNITY FOR DEFENSE IN THE U.S.S.R., MY CLIENT IS WILLING TO BE CONFRONTED WITH ANY PAPERS FOUND IN HER FILES, AND EXPLAIN ANY ACTIVITIES OF HERS X X X SO THAT SHE CAN EFFECTIVELY DISPROVE THE CHARGE OF ESPIONAGE."

ADD NEW YORK (PEACE) CONFERENCE MEETING

THE CONFERENCE IS SUPPORTED BY MORE THAN 500 AMERICAN WRITERS, SCIENTISTS, ARTISTS, EDUCATORS AND ACTORS. AMONG THEM ARE PROF. ALBERT EINSTEIN, WRITER THOMAS MANN AND SINGER PAUL ROBESON.

MANN SAID IN A TELEGRAM TO SHAPLEY THAT HE REGRETTED TO "HEAR ABOUT THE MACHINATIONS AIMED AT DISCREDITING IF NOT DISTURBING" THE CONFERENCE. (PEACE)

"THE ENEMIES OF THIS NOBLE AND HUMANE ENTERPRISE WOULD HAVE IT APPEAR AS IF ALL FOREIGN DELEGATES CAME FROM SOVIET CONTROLLED TERRITORY WHEREAS ACTUALLY NUMEROUS WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES ARE REPRESENTED AS WELL," HE SAID.

MANN SAID THE CONFERENCE "HAS NOTHING WHATEVER TO DO WITH WROCLAW."

THERE HAVE BEEN SOME WITHDRAWALS FROM THE MEETING.

AMONG THEM WAS DR.LYLE BORST, ATOMIC SCIENTIST AT BROOKHAVEN NATIONAL LABORATORY, WHO SAID HE FELT HE "COULD NOT PROPERLY CONTRIBUTE TO THE CONFERENCE."

CARLO LEVI, ITALIAN AUTHOR OF "CHRIST STOPPED AT EBOLI," WHO WAS ORIGINALLY ANNOUNCED AS ATTENDING, CABLED HIS PUBLISHER HE "NEVER DREAMED OF COMING."

PRESIDENT SARAH GIBSON BLANDING OF VASSAR COLLEGE ANNOUNCED HER WITHDRAWAL AS A SPONSOR SAYING SHE WAS CONVINCED THE MEETING WOULD NOT SERVE AS A FREE INTERCHANGE OF IDEAS "OR THAT THOSE WHO ATTEND THE CONFERENCE, OR WHO APPEAR ON ITS PROGRAM WILL REPRESENT A SUFFICIENTLY BROAD POINT OF VIEW."

SHAPLEY SAID DELEGATES SEEK "TO HELP SOLVE THE FEARS AND PROBLEMS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE ENTIRE WORLD."

BUT AN ASSORTED GROUP OF ORGANIZATIONS HAS LINED UP IN OPPOSITION TO THE CONFERENCE.

THE NATIONAL DIRECTOR OF FRIENDS OF DEMOCRACY, L.M. BIRKHEAD, SAID IN A STATEMENT THE CONFERENCE AGENDA INDICATED ALL BLAME FOR THE STATE OF THE WORLD WOULD BE LAID AT THE DOOR OF U.S. FOREIGN POLICY.

"IT IS OBVIOUS THAT THERE WILL BE NO ONE TO SPEAK FOR AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY AND THE FOREIGN POLICY OF DEMOCRATIC WESTERN NATIONS," HE SAID.

"THE SCHEDULE OF SPEAKERS IS ALMOST WHOLLY LEFTIST. THE AGENDA OF THE CONFERENCE INDICATES THAT IT WILL PASS RESOLUTIONS AGAINST THE COLD WAR, THE MARSHALL PLAN, THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT, THE BARUCH ATOMIC ENERGY PLAN AND AMERICAN MILITARY PREPAREDNESS."

FRIENDS OF DEMOCRACY IS A NON-PROFIT, NON-SECTARIAN NATIONAL ORGANIZATION WHICH SAYS ITS PURPOSE IS TO COMBAT PROPAGANDA OF THE EXTREME LEFT AND RIGHT.

PROTESTS AGAINST THE ENTRY OF DELEGATES FROM COMMUNIST-DOMINATED COUNTRIES WERE LODGED WITH THE STATE DEPARTMENT BY PERRY BROWN, NATIONAL COMMANDER OF THE AMERICAN LEGION, AND BY THE AMERICAN JEWISH LEAGUE AGAINST COMMUNISM.

ON THE OTHER HAND, THE AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION SAID "AMERICAN DEMOCRACY IS STRONG ENOUGH TO TOLERATE ANY VISITORS, WHATEVER THEY VIEWS."

THE LARGE NEW YORK LOCAL 802 OF THE AFL AMERICANS FEDERATION OF MUSICIANS SAID IN A LETTER TO THE CONFERENCE IT WELCOMED SHOSTAKOVICH HERE AS A COMPOSER BUT ADDED:

PROF.SIDNEY HOOK, HEAD OF THE PHILOSOPHY DEPARTMENT OF NEW YORK UNIVERSITY, DECLARED THE CONFERENCE SPONSORS ARE ATTEMPTING TO "PERPETRATE A FRAUD ON THE AMERICAN PUBLIC."

HE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE HE WAS CONVINCED "IT IS MORE OF A WAR CONFERENCE THAN A PEACE CONFERENCE, THAT ITS REAL PURPOSE IS TO FURTHER THE WAR OF THE SOVIET UNION AGAINST THE FREE CULTURES OF THE WEST."

SHAPLEY WILL BE WELCOME TO ADDRESS THE RALLY, THE PHILOSOPHY PROFESSOR SAID.

HOOK SAID THE PAPER HE HAD SOUGHT TO DELIVER AT THE CONFERENCE WOULD HAVE MAINTAINED THERE ARE NO NATIONAL, CLASS OR PARTY TRUTHS IN SCIENCE AND THAT THE "CAUSE OF INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC COOPERATION HAS BEEN VERY SERIOUSLY UNDERMINED BY THE INFLUENCE OF DOCTRINES WHICH UPHOLD THE MOTION THAT THERE ARE 'NATIONAL' OR 'CLASS' OR 'PARTY' TRUTHS IN SCIENCE."

AT CAMBRIDGE DR.SHAPLEY SAID PROF.HOOK'S REMARK THAT HE HAD BEEN REFUSED PERMISSION TO PRESENT A PAPER WAS AN "INCORRECT STATEMENT."

THE HARVARD ASTRONOMER SAID HOOK WAS INFORMED HE WOULD BE GIVEN AN OPPORTUNITY "TO SPEAK AT ANY ONE OF THE PANEL MEETINGS."

THE NYU PROFESSOR WITH SOME 20 OR 30 OTHERS, DR.SHAPLEY EXPLAINED, HAD APPLIED FOR A PLACE ON THE PROGRAM "AFTER THE PROGRAM HAD BEEN COMPLETED."

HE HAS A LETTER FROM ME," DR.SHAPLEY SAID, "STATING WE WOULD BE GLAD TO HAVE HIM SPEAK AT THE PANEL MEETING AND HOPE THAT HIS CONTRIBUTION WOULD BE TOWARD INTERNATIONAL GOODWILL AND THE EFFORTS OF THE CONFERENCE FOR WORLD PEACE."

OF THE PROPOSED COUNTER-RALLY, DR.SHAPLEY SAID IT WOULD BE "PHYSICALLY IMPOSSIBLE" FOR HIM TO ADDRESS IT.

(ADVANCE)..SAULT STE.MARIE,MICH.,MARCH 19-(AP)-A STRANGE AND ULTRA-MODERN DISEASE IS SPREADING LIKE WILDFIRE THROUGH THIS EXCITED TOWN.

MAR 20 1949

THEY CALL IT URANIUM FEVER.

ITS SYMPTOMS ARE WELL KNOWN: A WILD GLINT IN THE EYE AT THE MENTION OF AN ORE CALLED PITCHBLENDE, AN UNUSUAL INTEREST IN PROSPECTING TOOLS, A CRAVING FOR QUICK WEALTH.

IN ITS MORE ACUTE FORMS IT HAS BEEN KNOWN TO CAUSE THE VICTIM TO DASH HEADLONG INTO THE CANADIAN BUSH IN HOPES OF FINDING URANIUM, THE SOURCE MATERIAL OF ATOMIC ENERGY.

THIS EXCITING DISEASE FIRST STRUCK THIS AMERICAN BORDER CITY LAST FALL WHEN TALES OF A RICH URANIUM STRIKE BEGAN SEEPING DOWN FROM THE CANADIAN SHORE OF LAKE SUPERIOR. IT SPREAD LIKE THE PLAGUE. CHILDREN AND THEIR GRANDFATHERS CAUGHT THE ENCHANTMENT. NONE WAS IMMUNE.

STORES IN THE VICINITY BEGAN DOING A BRISK BUSINESS IN MINERS' GLASSES, STREAK PLATES AND GEOLOGISTS' HAMMERS. AT THE COURTHOUSE IN SAULT STE.MARIE, ONT., ACROSS THE RIVER, THOUSANDS OF CLAIMS WERE FILED. AND THE RUSH TOWARD DESOLATE THEANO POINT, IN ONTARIO'S LONELY ROCK AND PINE COUNTRY, WAS ON.

TODAY THE EXCITEMENT IS UNABATED. PROSPECTING IS THE NUMBER ONE TOPIC FOR STREET-CORNER CONVERSATION. GRIZZLED OLD-TIMERS AND PALE-CHEEKED CLERKS, INFECTED BY THE DISEASE, ARE BONING UP ON MINERALOGY MUCH AS BASEBALL FANS PORE OVER BATTING AVERAGES.

A STRIKING EXAMPLE OF THIS DESIRE FOR ATOMIC-AGE KNOWLEDGE WAS THE ORGANIZATION OF A SPECIAL PROSPECTORS COURSE AT THE SAULT BRANCH OF THE MICHIGAN COLLEGE OF MINING AND TECHNOLOGY.

THE CLASS WAS FORMED BY ERNEST KEMP, AN INSTRUCTOR IN GEOLOGY. HE BELIEVED AT THE TIME THAT NO MORE THAN 15 PERSONS WOULD ENROLL.

"NORMALLY, NOT VERY MANY PEOPLE ARE INTERESTED IN GEOLOGY," HE SAID.

BUT KEMP UNDERESTIMATED THE URANIUM BUG.

EIGHTY EIGHT PERSONS PAID THE $12 FEE AND SIGNED UP. THERE WERE DOCTORS, TEACHERS, HOUSEWIVES, BUSINESSMEN, DENTISTS, EDITORS AND EVEN A FEW OLD-TIME PROSPECTORS. FITTINGLY, THEY CALLED THEMSELVES THE 49'ERS.

ENTHUSIASM IN THE CLASS, OF COURSE, RUNS HIGH. PRIMED WITH THEIR NEW-FOUND LORE, MOST STUDENTS PLAN TO HEAD OUT AS SOON AS POSSIBLE ON THIS NEW ERA TREASURE HUNT. KEMP, ON THE OTHER HAND, SOBERLY TRIES TO HOLD THEIR HOPES TO EARTH.

"THERE IS LITTLE HOPE OF ANYONE BECOMING RICH FROM A PITCHBLENDE STRIKE ON THE AMERICAN SIDE OF THE SAULT RIVER," HE WARNS.

THE REASON FOR THIS, HE SAYS, IS THAT THE RIVER IS THE DIVIDING LINE BETWEEN TWO GEOLOGICAL AGES, WITH THE AMERICANS IN THIS CASE BEING ON THE WRONG SIDE.

BUT OVER IN CANADA FORTUNES ARE ALREADY BEING MADE FROM THIS STRANGE BLACK ROCK THAT IS THE GOLD OF THE ATOMIC AGE. SOMETIME EARLY THIS SUMMER THE FIRST PITCHBLENDE SHAFT WILL BE SUNK AT THEANO POINT.

AND SOMEWHERE IN THE NEARBY FORESTS WILL BE PROFESSOR AND MRS. KEMP AND THEIR AMATEUR URANIUM HUNTERS, GEIGER COUNTERS IN HAND.

EVEN AS THE REST OF THE SAULT, THE PROFESSOR ADMITS HE'S CAUGHT THE BUG, TOO.

BIG 3 POWERS OUTLAW RUSSIAN EAST MARK IN BERLIN'S WEST SECTORS

Move Signifies Giving Up Hope Of Accord On Currency

Berlin, March 20 (AP) — The United States, Britain and France outlawed the Soviet east mark today in the Russian-blockaded sectors of western Berlin.

Now Berlin's economy is completely split. Money good in one part of the city is no good in the other part. That means western Berlin is on a single money basis for the first time since the East-West currency war began nine months ago.

The action meant the Western Allies have given up hope of getting an agreement with Russia on Berlin's money tangle. The Western powers have tied the economy of their portion of the city into that of the West German state they are forming out of their three occupation zones.

The Russians were officially notified of the ousting of their currency tonight. There was no immediate reaction.

No Crime To Possess East Mark

Heretofore, both the east mark issued by the Russians in their occupation zone, and the west mark used in the American, British and French zones of Germany had been legal tender in western Berlin. The west mark is worth about four times as much as the east mark.

The Western Allies still do not go as far as the Russians in the currency war. The Russians made it a crime to possess west marks in their areas.

Germans living in western Berlin still may possess east marks and buy what they can with them, but no one in western Berlin is required to accept east marks in payment. That will have the probable effect of driving the east mark almost completely out of the western sectors.

Dual System Didn't Work

When the Western Allies introduced their west mark into Berlin nine months ago, they predicted that "with co-operation by the Soviets" the two currencies could function side by side. Today they said that the dual currency system did not work. An official announcement said:

"Failure to reach agreement (with the Russians) coupled with the splitting of the city administration and the continuance of the blockade have meant that these arrangements have been inconsistent with the smooth ordering of economic and financial life in the western sectors, and grave economic and social injustices have resulted.

"The unequal distribution of the two currencies among the population has caused considerable hardship.

"Some firms have been obliged to deal in east marks only, whereas others have sold their products almost exclusively for west marks. With the west mark as the more valuable currency, exchanging for about four east marks, real wages have no longer depended on the worker's ability or energy, but on the accident of whether his employer has been in a position to include a substantial proportion of west marks in his wage packet.

Action Taken "Reluctantly"

"These inequalities have thrown increasing strain upon the economic and social structure of the city."

The Western Allies said they took today's action reluctantly "only after every possibility of agreeing" on a four-power controlled currency had been exhausted. The action was put off as long as possible, they said, in order "not to prejudice" the efforts of the United Nations to work out a solution to the Berlin problem.

The United Nations committee of neutral experts has reported that future work on the Berlin question "at this stage does not appear useful," the Western Allies pointed out.

One Of Reasons For Blockade

The East-West currency dispute was one of the reasons the Russians gave for imposing the blockade on western Berlin. Since June 26 American and British planes have flown in essential supplies to the residents of the western sectors of the city.

The currency changeover may leave western Berliners holding a lot of east marks. Each person can trade in only 15 east marks for western currency. But they are given a chance to get rid of their east mark savings by permission to buy groceries and pay rent and taxes with east marks for a short period.

Reports of the impending change led to buying sprees last week.

Finance experts estimated there are about 400,000,000 east marks in circulation and on deposit in western Berlin, in comparison with less than 250,000 west marks.

Won't Be Left Holding Bag

When the west marks were issued last June, the Americans, British and French advised the Germans to save the western currency as the more valuable money and to do most of their buying with east marks.

The finance experts said western Berliners will not be left holding the bag, even though they still have east marks on their hands. They can use east marks for shopping excursions into the Soviet portion of Berlin.

East marks also can be spent to purchase food and fuel in the Soviet-occupied areas surrounding Berlin, but such purchases would have to be smuggled past the Russian blockade to reach the western sectors of the city.

Such Smuggling Sanctioned

The Western Allies have no objection to such smuggling. One American official pointed out that any supplies western Berliners can obtain from Soviet areas helps beat the blockade and lightens the burden on the American-British airlift.

A special plan had to be set up for Berliners who work in one part of the city and live in another. There are 200,000 of these persons, about equally divided between the eastern and western portions of the city.

Those who live and draw their food rations in western Berlin but work in the Russian sector may exchange 60 per cent of their east mark wages for west marks at one for one, up to a 300-mark monthly limit.

However, western Berliners who yielded to a Russian offer and accepted Soviet sector ration cards will be penalized. They can exchange only 30 per cent of their east mark salaries.

Rumors Of Russ Retaliation

Germans living under Russian occupation but working in the western sectors of Berlin may draw only ten per cent of their pay in west marks, the rest in east.

There were rumors that the Russians would retaliate promptly against this newest western move. The anti-Communist German press carried reports that the Russians might issue new money for their entire occupation zone and eastern Berlin.

A high eastern German economic official denied this report. However, some kind of a new Russian move generally was expected.

Text of Ban on East Mark

BERLIN, March 20 (AP)—The text of the Western allied announcement outlawing the Soviet East mark in Western Berlin:

The United States, United Kingdom and French Military Governors, after consulting with the responsible German authorities in Frankfort and in Berlin, and in response to the unanimous resolution of the city assembly on 4th November, 1948, have decided that as from today the East mark shall cease to be legal tender in the Western sectors of Berlin.

The currency reform in the Western zones in June, 1948, did not disturb the position in Berlin. The reform in the Soviet zone was, however, made applicable to Berlin as well, and the East mark was declared to be the sole legal currency in Berlin. It was in these circumstances that the Western powers were obliged to introduce the West mark into their sectors. However, in their desire to facilitate four-power agreement on the problem of Berlin, the Western powers adopted arrangements under which both the West mark and the East mark were legal currency in their sector.

These arrangements were designed as a temporary expedient in the hope that agreement for a single currency under four-power control in Berlin would quickly be achieved. Failure to reach agreement coupled with the splitting of the city administration and the continuance of the blockade have meant that these arrangements have been inconsistent with the smooth ordering of economic and financial life in the Western sectors, and grave economic and social injustices have resulted.

Neither the Western powers nor the Magistrate have any control over the supply of East marks and the currency situation in the Western sectors has to that extent been dependent on the Soviet authorities. At times there has been a great shortage of East marks, and the payment of wages and salaries has been delayed for considerable periods. In addition, the unequal distribution of the two currencies among the population has caused considerable hardship. Some firms, especially those dealing in essential commodities, have been obliged to deal in East marks only, whereas others have sold their products almost exclusively for West marks.

With the West mark as the more valuable currency, exchanging for about four East marks, real wages have no longer depended on a worker's ability or energy, but on the accident of whether his employer has been in a position to include a substantial proportion of West marks in his wage packet.

Those inequalities have thrown increasing strain upon the economic and social structure of the city, which is in no position to bear them easily. The passage of time has increased these inequalities.

The Western powers would long ago have taken action to correct them, but for their desire not to prejudice the efforts of the [United Nations] Security Council to work out a satisfactory solution to the Berlin currency and trade problems.

They have, however, during the period since October, 1948, when this problem has been before the Security Council, consistently reserved their right to take such measures as might be necessary to maintain their position in Berlin. Now that the committee of neutral experts, which was set up by Dr. Bramuglia [Argentine Foreign Minister Juan Atilio Bramuglia] to examine the problem of currency and trade, has reported that future work at this stage does not appear useful, the Western powers cannot delay putting into effect measures which the economic and financial situation in Berlin has rendered long overdue.

Berlin's Battle Of Mark To Date

Berlin, March 20 (AP)—The last nine months have been a dizzy whirl of changing money for west Berliners.

Here's what they have had to go through:

June 18, 1948—The United States, Britain and France announced a currency reform installing new money in their occupation zones—but omitting Berlin.

June 22—The Russians issued new money for their zone—and all of Berlin.

June 23—The Western powers shot back by introducing their west mark into the three western sectors of Berlin—but still permitting the east mark to circulate.

June 24—The Russians barred the west mark from their sector of Berlin.

March 20, 1949—The Western powers outlaw the east mark in west Berlin by making the west mark the only legal tender.

BLOCKADE LIFTING URGED BY HOWLEY

General Calls On Russians To Admit Policy's Failure

Berlin, March 20 (AP)—The American commandant in Berlin called on the Russians tonight to admit the failure of their policy and lift the blockade of Berlin.

"Let them shake the hand which we've never refused to give them," said Brig. Gen. Frank L. Howley at a news conference.

"It must be obvious even to the most dense Communist that their tactics have failed," Howley declared. "Neither the Soviet blockade at the Elbe nor the ice of winter stopped the airlift.

"It must be obvious that it would be to their own self interests to discontinue these tactics, which have caused more trouble to them than to us," he added.

Howley Expects No Retaliation

General Howley said quite frankly, in the presence of the British and French commandants of this divided city that no Russian retaliation is expected for the outlawing of the east mark today in western Berlin. Others here, however, were not so confident.

"Anyhow," asked Howley, "what bigger countermeasures could the Soviets possibly take than the brutal blockade with which they attempted to starve west Berlin?"

British And French Comment

Maj. Gen. G. K. Bourne, the British commandant, said today's currency action was taken only after nine months of "colossal patience" failed to produce any agreement with the Russians on a single currency for the whole city.

The French commandant, Brig. Gen. Jean Ganeval added a touch of his own, commenting that he thought the Russians "are beginning to show some signs of political wisdom." Pressed for an explanation, he said it was just "an impression gathered over the past three months."

Britain To Get Huge Coal Hoist

London, March 20 (AP)—One of the biggest coal hoists in the world, originally built for Russia during the war, will arrive in Britain this week to help boost production in the Yorkshire coal fields.

The hoist cost $360,000 to build but Britain is having to pay only $92,000 to get it from the Economic Co-operation Administration.

After the Russians declined to take this and two other similar hoists, the War Assets Administration took them over as surplus, and sold this one to ECA for $92,000. The National Coal Board announcement saying the hoist is expected to arrive at Liverpool next Wednesday, did not say why the Russians turned the equipment down.

The hoist will go to the barnborough main colliery, which now produces about 500,000 tons of coal a year. The machinery will be installed as part of a program to raise the mine's production by about 300,000 tons a year.

It is fitted with a clutch drum which will allow coal to be taken from three levels and permit opening two new seams without installing other hoisting equipment.

The coal board, which runs British coal mines under public ownership, said it would have taken Britain two or three years to manufacture the equipment in this country.

Soviets Protest to British

Charge Restitution of Nazi Loot From Russia Is Blocked

BERLIN, March 20 (AP).—Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Soviet Military Governor for Germany, lodged a protest today against the property restitution policy of the British Military Government.

In a long letter to the British Military Governor, General Sir Brian H. Robertson, he said Great Britain is not willing to consider lawful restitution claims to Soviet property removed from Russia by the Germans during the war. The letter was published in the "Taegliche Rundschau," Soviet army newspaper.

Britain And Portugal Near Monetary Pact

London, Monday, March 20 (AP)—A Treasury spokesman predicted today a new monetary agreement with Portugal will be announced soon.

A British delegation of Treasury experts has returned from Lisbon, where for three weeks it took part in negotiations to draft a new trade and payments program. The spokesman said the discussions had made progress and that the British delegation had returned for consultations.

Portugal has sterling deposits in London, accumulated during the war from the sale of raw materials to Britain.

The existing monetary agreement, negotiated three years ago, expires April 15.

NORTH KOREAN TREATY SIGNED

Premier Heads Delegation In Moscow Negotiations

MAR 21 1949

London, March 20 (AP)—The Moscow radio said tonight the Soviet Government and the Korean People's Democratic Republic have signed an agreement on economic and cultural co-operation.

Premier Kim Il Sung headed the official delegation from the Russian-sponsored North Korean government which negotiated the pact. The delegates arrived in Moscow March 3.

The North Korean premier was quoted as saying upon the departure from Moscow:

"We have received aid from the Soviet Union which will completely insure further development of our national economy.

Termed Gain For Peace

"Establishment of close friendly co-operation with the Great Soviet Union will further increase the material well being of the Korean people and will serve the cause of strengthening peace and security in the Middle East."

He did not reveal any details of the economic aid involved in the agreement.

Among Soviet officials present to bid the North Koreans farewell were Andrei Y. Vishinsky, Foreign Minister; M. A. Menshikov, Minister of Foreign Trade, and A. I. Mikoyan, who was foreign trade minister until the recent shift in top Soviet officialdom.

'BIG REPATRIATION' OF GERMAN PW'S CLAIMED BY REDS

BERLIN, March 20. — (AP) The Russians announced today they have begun a "big new repatriation" of German prisoners of war.

The announcement, published in the Soviet army newspaper Taegliche Rundschau, came four days after the United States and Britain had sent new notes to Moscow charging Russia with failure to keep promises to return all German troops captured in World War II by the end of 1948.

German anti-communists also complained that even a dribbling flow of repatriations recently was halted.

Say Men "In Good Health"

According to Taegliche Rundschau a big transport of repatriates arrived yesterday at the border station of Frankfurt-on-Oder. The newspaper referred to this as the first shipment in a new program and said the returnees were "in good health." The number of men involved was not disclosed.

United States and British military government reports repeatedly have charged that many prisoners released by the Russians were broken physically. An official British estimate last week stated that the Russians still held "at the very least" 200,000 Germans.

The western allies have returned their prisoners to Germany. Some Germans have remained in Britain and France as volunteer workers, particularly on farms.

Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Soviet commander in Germany, lodged a sharp protest today against the property restitution policy of the British military government.

In a long letter to the British military governor, Gen. Sir Brian Robertson, the Soviet commander said Britain is not willing to consider lawful restitution claims to Soviet property removed from Russia by the Germans during the war. Sokolovsky's letter was published in Taegliche Rundschau.

Similiar Complaint to U. S.

The Russian protest followed a similar complaint to American authorities two weeks ago in which Sokolovsky charged the United States with blocking Soviet attempts to lawfully obtain Russian properties in western Germany. American authorities rejected the Soviet demand.

In his protest to the British Sokolovsky said the Soviet Union suffered the most extensive damage of all the countries in the last war. He claimed the Soviet Union had gotten back only .14 of a per cent of the total restitutions due his country although the return of this looted property "has been provided for in international agreements." His letter continued:

"Such an unsatisfactory situation in the restitution of Soviet property could only arise because British organs in charge of restitution did not contribute to the returning of property to the Soviet Union but, on the contrary, prevented it."

Sokolovsky said a great number of ships, large quantities of raw material and industrial equipment and several hundred art objects had not been returned by British authorities. He said he "assumed" British officials would take steps to improve the situation.

OPPOSE PACT, BRITISH URGED BY COMMUNIST

MAR 22 1949

Leader Charges Plan By U.S. To Use Isles As A-Bomb Base

London, March 20 (AP)—Harry Pollitt, Britain's top Communist leader, said today the United States wanted to use Britain as an atom-bomb base and urged all Britons to repudiate the North Atlantic pact.

The Communist press of Europe kept up its violent opposition to the treaty.

Red Star, Russian army newspaper, reported today that the United States was moving with "feverish haste" to draw up a Pacific counterpart of the North Atlantic defense alliance, which links the United States, Britain, France, Canada, Norway, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. The article, distributed here by the Soviet monitor, said the Pacific pact would be an instrument of suppression of "National liberation movements" in Asia.

Participants Listed

Red Star listed probable signatory nations as the United States, Great Britain, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, India, Pakistan and Ceylon. It added that other countries probably would be invited to join later, including "certain countries of Central and South America."

Pollitt, General secretary of the British Communist party, said the Atlantic treaty meant the United States wanted to "use this country as its unsinkable aircraft carrier and base for the dispatch of the atomic bomb."

Pollitt spoke at a political meeting in the mining village of Treherbert in the South Wales coal fields. Treherbert is a Communist stronghold in Britain, where Pollitt has run for, but failed to win, a seat in Parliament. The British Communist party claims 40,000 members.

Soviet Press Prints Text

Elsewhere in Europe, there were these developments in connection with the projected North Atlantic alliance:

The Soviet press—in Moscow and throughout the republics—printed the full text of the pact. There was no official comment, but the four-page newspapers gave an unusually large amount of space to numerous dispatches in support of the Communist line that the pact is producing an unfavorable reaction among the people of western Europe.

Foreign observers in Moscow expressed the view that the wide publicity given the treaty by the Soviet press and radio indicates that the Soviet Government believes it can convince the Russian people that the document is an "aggressive, war-mongering" instrument aimed at Russia.

Called "Instrument Of War"

That cry was taken up by Taegliche Rundschau, the Soviet Army newspaper in Berlin. It described the alliance as an "instrument of war" intended to destroy the United Nations and set up an imperialist power bloc under domination of Britain and the United States.

The Russian-licensed Berliner Zeitung said the treaty was intended to provide business for what it termed American armament trusts.

"Its authors, as well as their obedient press," the paper said, "are trying to apologize for" the agreement "even while they are publishing it. They foresee what is in store for them from their peoples in case this American war is kindled."

Italian Policeman Wounded

All Polish newspapers, in headlines and editorials, condemned the projected alliance as a "pact of aggression."

An Italian policeman was wounded during a Communist-led demonstration against the treaty last night at San Severo, newspaper dispatches said today. San Severo is a small city in the hilly Apulia region of South Italy.

30.24- 1893

A newspaper in Communist-dominated Romania coined a word. Romania Libera, No. 2 official daily in Bucharest, said the "Marshallized" countries now are being "Atlanticized."

Mass meetings to condemn "war mongering" were held in cities, towns and villages in Communist-dominated Bulgaria. Press headlines said: "The struggle-for-peace flares up country-wide."

One group in Sofia voted to ask Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary-general, that United Nations decisions against war propaganda and for disarmament already adopted, be put into effect.

MOSLEY BACKERS CLASH WITH REDS IN LONDON RIOT

LONDON, March 20—(AP) Supporters of Sir Oswald Mosley clashed tonight with communists and other anti-Mosley forces in rioting that spread over a wide area of London's East End.

Fists flew. Windows of a bus were smashed. Firecrackers, steel ball bearings and glass marbles tossed by demonstrators made a dozen police horses lose their footing. Seven policemen were hurt.

34 Under Arrest

By midnight police had rounded up 34 men and women on such charges as threatening behavior, obstructing or assaulting policemen and possession of weapons. Police ordered 24 to appear in court tomorrow and the rest on Thursday.

Several hundred police struggled for several hours before they could clear snarled traffic in the densely-populated area. SEE INSERT

The trouble started at dusk in Ridley Road, where members of Mosley's union movement, an outgrowth of his pre-war fascist organization, held an outdoor meeting.

Communists started another meeting 100 yards away. Shortly afterward the demonstrators mixed in confused fighting that spread over many blocks.

Cops on Alert for Trouble

Police were alert for trouble and more than 200 officers on foot were at the scene. Reserves were seated in buses strategically scattered about the East End.

The first effort of the police was to seal off the Mosley meeting. Officers blocked Ridley Road on both sides of the gathering, which was centered about a truck on which loud speakers were mounted.

The Mosley meeting was no sooner under way than communists arrived on the scene. They distributed party literature and newspapers. Then they started a rival meeting.

As speakers tried to shout each other down many thousands of Londoners flocked into the district to watch the excitement.

The traffic jams were caused by the onlookers. The demonstrators shied some stones and chunks of concrete at a stalled bus. Air was let out of the tires of another. ADD

SHOSTAKOVICH LEAVES MOSCOW FOR N.Y. VISIT

LONDON, March 20—(AP) Composer Dmitri Shostakovich and six other Russians left Moscow today for the United States, the Russian news agency Tass reported.

They are to attend what is called the cultural and scientific conference for world peace which opens Friday in New York. The U. S. State department says the conference will be used to spread communist propaganda but gave the Russians permission to come anyway.

Prof. Harlow Shapely of Harvard college, chairman of the conference, said it would be conducted in "the democratic tradition" and is "opposed by those who profit from war and war preparations."

The group which left Moscow for New Yorw today, Tass said, includes Alexander Fadeyev, general secretary of the Soviet Writers' Union; Alexander Oparin, member of the Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R.; Peter Pavlenko, a writer and Stalin prize winner; Mikhail Chiaurelli and Sergei Gerassimov, who bears the titles "Peoples' Artists of the Soviety Union"; and Ivan Rozhansky, secretary of the delegation.

There was no immediate indication when the Russian party would reach New York.

Canterbury Gibes At 'Nonenities'

Cranwell, England, March 20 (AP). The Archbishop of Canterbury said today there are only three kinds of people in the world:

1. Communists.
2. Convinced Christians.
3. Amiable nonentities.

In a sermon at a RAF station here, the Archbishop, Dr. Geoffrey F. Fisher, said the first two know their goals.

"The Communist believes his abjective is predetermined in the course of history, and he gives himself body and soul to bringing it about," he said. "Unfortunately, his creed is wrong—it dehumanizes man.

"The Christian knows that God will triumph, and does everything in his power to forward the kingdom of God, and thereby makes man truly man.

"The rest of the people in the world are amiable nonenities, contributing literally nothing to the construction of the kingdom of God."

GAULLISTS AHEAD IN FRENCH BALLOT

Communists Running Second In Popular Vote

Paris, Monday, March 21 (AP)—Mounting returns today from the French provincial elections put Gen. Charles de Gaulle's French People's party well out in front. The Communists ran second.

An unofficial tabulation of 2,000,000 out of an estimated 6,000,000 votes cast in Sunday's "grass roots" election gave de Gaulle's party 28.5 per cent and the Communists 22.7 per cent of the popular vote.

The Communists had thrown their full efforts into the campaign in an attempt to show their strength and at the same time decry the North Atlantic treaty. In the last general elections the Communists won 27.8 per cent of the vote.

Government Parties' Vote

The four parties in the French coalition Government fared this way:

Socialists, 16.7 per cent.

Radical Socialists (moderates), 7 per cent.

Popular Republican Movement (MRP), 8.1 per cent.

Rightist (PRL), 9 per cent.

The rest of the vote was split between independent and splinter groups.

The elections—strictly local in character—were expected to show just how much of a punch the Communists retain in France.

They waged their campaign almost exclusively on an anti-American plank. Assailing the Atlantic pact as "an instrument of war against Russia," the Communists told the voters "a vote for us is a vote for peace."

Seeking Unpaid Posts

Candidates of six parties contested for 1,508 unpaid posts of general councilors. These are elected from cantons (comparable to American counties) to help rule government departments (comparable to American states).

First unofficial returns showed that Premier Henri Queuille, a Radical Socialist (moderate), was a winner. He beat his Communist opponent in the councilor general race in the canton of Neuvic-Dussel, in the Correze Department of south central France. Queuille got 1,957 votes. His Communist opponent got 814.

The Communist party was the only one to put up candidates for all of the posts. Not all wore the party label, however. Some were presented as "candidates of the Republican and Resistance Union."

Both Assail Government

Both the Communists and De Gaullists want to take the ruling power in France away from the middle-of-the-roaders who now hold it.

The Communists accuse the coalition Government of Premier Henri Queuille of being too pro-American and anti-Soviet.

The De Gaullists want power, their leader says, because only he can direct the nation along the right road. ADD

Swiss Paper Raps Red '5th Column'

Bern, Switzerland, March 20 (AP). The Conservative Swiss newspaper Der Bund lashed out today at the Communist party in Switzerland—branding it a "fifth column" which should be eliminated.

"In reality," the paper declared editorially, "there is no Swiss Communist party, there is only a fifth column of international communism in Switzerland."

[The phrase "fifth column" first came into use during the Spanish civil war and has come to mean a group or force biding its time within a city or nation until forces from outside make it safe for the inside group to rise and fight for the oncoming attackers.]

The Swiss Workers' (Communist) party recently approved a statement by Maurice Thorez, the French Communist leader, that Frenchmen would welcome a Soviet army. Der Bund commented:

"It satisfies the Comintern (the old name for international communism) to have a trustworthy listening post in Switzerland, which could be built up into a starting point for a peaceful penetration when the great democratic bulwarks in the south and west have failed.

"The listening posts must be eliminated and the commandants imprisoned."

2 Denmark Communists Start Fight Over Pact

Copenhagen, March 20 (AP)—Two youths—police said they were Communists—were arrested today after nearly starting a riot at a soccer match by demonstrating against the North Atlantic alliance.

The two men entered Copenhagen stadium during an interval in a game between two Copenhagen teams, police said. They carried big placards denouncing the Atlantic pact.

The 15,000 spectators set up a boiling turmoil of hissing and about 20 of them jumped over the rails, ripped the placards to bits and turned on the demonstrators. Police rescued them.

Denmark is one of the four nations which have been invited to join the North Atlantic defense alliance, which links Britain, the United States, France, Canada, Norway, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg. Most of Denmark's political parties favor the alliance. The Communists do not.

Dogs Pursue Greek Rebels

Athens, March 20 (AP)—The Greek Army is using dogs, captives and sulphur fumes to root out remaining guerrilla resistance on Peloponnesus, the Government said today.

Reports said there were only a few Communist rebels remaining on the big island, but that the mopup job has become increasingly difficult because they hide in deep and inaccessible caverns and thickly wooded areas of the mountains in the southeast corner.

To find them, the army is using especially trained hounds and surrendered guerrillas. In a few instances, rebels trapped in caves have been forced to emerge by the fumes of sulphur burned at the entrance, reports here said.

Poison-Gas Charges Denied

Panayotis Kanellopoulos, War Minister, called a "deliberate lie" a guerrilla radio assertion that the government was using poison gas.

In the last 24 hours, today's communiqué said, twelve guerrillas were slain and 34 taken prisoner on Peloponnesus. Twenty more were killed and fourteen made prisoner in an ambush in Epirus, in northern Greece. An additional fourteen were killed and ten captured in other sections.

The army's losses were listed at two dead and eight wounded.

Life on Peloponnesus was reported returning to normal, with rail and road traffic resumed and thousands who fled from the guerrillas returning to their villages.

Zawadski Made First Vice Premier Of Poland

Warsaw, Poland, March 20 (AP)—Division General Alexander Zawadski, a member of the politburo of the Communist United Workers' Party, has become Poland's first vice premier.

He succeeds Wladyslaw Gomulka, who was ousted in September as secretary-general of the Communist party because of "rightist and nationalist deviation"—(the same offense which has put Premier Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia in the Cominform doghouse).

Gomulka now is vice president—an office in which he controls Government expenditures. ADD

'Izvestia' Reports Wallace's Denunciation of It; Strong Opposition in Western Europe Alleged

By The Associated Press

MOSCOW, March 20.—All Moscow newspapers and apparently most of the provincial papers in the Soviet Union today published the full text of the North Atlantic security pact. Some newspapers also contained accompanying articles intended to show that the pact is meeting strong opposition in Western Europe.

Publication of the full text, an unusual action in Russia, was viewed by foreign observers at Moscow as indicating Soviet authorities consider that the text supports Russia's contention that the alliance is aggressive in nature.

Wide publication means that millions of Soviet readers throughout the nation will have an opportunity to read the pact and to compare it with the extensive comment which is being published in the Soviet press.

"Pravda," "Izvestia" and other Moscow papers devoted almost t[illegible] columns on their foreign-a[illegible] pages to the text There w[illegible] deletions. Meanwhile, M[illegible] radio stations were broadca[illegible] he text to all provincial [illegible] which will be certain to [illegible]

The article gave considerable space to the Communist Deputies' attacks on the treaty and reported Premier Alcide de Gasperi's victory in the voting.

It, too, urged a security pact for Asia.

The China Daily News noted that the Communist radio on Friday night had stated the Chinese Reds would align themselves with Russia should "the imperialist powers dare to provoke a new world war."

Opposition To Nanking Choice Reported Holding Up Cabinet

Nanking, China, March 20 (AP)—Opposition to the proposed new foreign minister as being too pro-Russian was reported today to be stalling completion of a Chinese Cabinet.

Fu Ping-chang, now Ambassador to Moscow, has been listed as the choice of Premier Ho Ying-chin and acting President Li Tsung-jen for the Foreign Office. Identity of the opposition was not disclosed.

Other Cabinet choices were reported reluctant to accept prominent posts for fear of incurring dislike by the Communists, with whom the Government is trying to make peace.

Li returned to Nanking last night after a one-day trip to Shanghai to try to persuade various persons to take Cabinet jobs.

Atlantic Treaty Discussed

The press in this capital, however, appeared most interested editorially in the proposed Atlantic treaty. All papers printed the text.

The official Government Army paper Peace Daily said America's "Europe-first policy" was responsible for the present plight of China and the rest of Asia. It asserted the democracies had failed to emphasize "the global character of the struggle, in which there is no distinction between the Atlantic and the Pacific, or the North Pole and the South Pole."

Extension of collective security to the entire world was urged as "the only way to crush the designs of Communist aggression."

Pact For Asia Urged

The independent China Times said the pact would make the United States "secure on her European front" and predicted, "the Communist bloc will now turn its attention to Asia."

"Russia," it said, "will now take advantage of American attention being directed on Europe to move the iron curtain from North Korea to North and South China, Malaya, Burma and all southeast Asia."

Chinese Bombing Runaway Warship

Report Hitting Cruiser That Deserted to Reds

NANKING, Monday, March 21 (AP). — Reliable Chinese naval sources said early today the cruiser Chungking had been damaged heavily by three 1,000-pound bombs in raids by the government Air Force at Hulutao, in Communist Manchuria, on Friday and Saturday. The 5,270-ton cruiser, largest ship in the Chinese Navy, deserted to the Communists three weeks ago.

The sources which reported the attacks said fires set by the bombs continued for several hours. They said bombing raids would continue until the ship was destroyed.

JAPANESE EYE POSSIBILITY OF PACIFIC PACT

Russell Brines

Foreign Diplomats, However, Note Obstacles In Way Of Movement

Tokyo, March 20 (AP)—Many Japanese consider the North Atlantic alliance as a possible springboard for a similar agreement in the Pacific—but foreign diplomats think such a development is far off.

The Japanese have been encouraged by recent statements in Australia favoring a Pacific pact, and only yesterday a Japanese Government spokesman, Kaneshichi Masuda, chief Cabinet secretary, indorsed the idea, while key diplomats expect such talk to increase, they are inclined to agree that any concrete developments will be slow.

China Uncertainty Noted

"How," asked one, "can you have a Pacific agreement without China? and who knows what China will be in a few months?"

Others cite the "intense nationalism" of southeast Asiatic countries as a barrier to a working arrangement. They point out that it is still not clear whether India will continue in the British Commonwealth.

"Some of these peoples have escaped European control too recently to be anxious for an agreement which they feel might restore European authority in wartime or might lead to increased authority by a neighbor," one diplomat remarked.

Yet few of the nations which would have to fit into an alliance could contribute materially to defense. In wartime they would have to look to the United States and the British Commonwealth.

Internal Strife Obstacle

Another major impediment is internal turmoil in such areas as Burma, Indonesia, Malaya and Indo-China. In some instances the Communist hand in these disturbances is clear, and it is felt in Tokyo that it may grow.

The Japanese invariably point to their anti-war constitution as "a guarantee of our continued neutrality," but few of them feel secure in this position. They feel they are wholly dependent for defense upon the United States, and they don't know how long American occupation troops will remain.

Thus the Japanese would welcome a Pacific treaty that might in some way include them.

INDO-CHINESE TALKS OF WAR

TOM LAMBERT

Exiled Prince Threatens Fight For Independence

Tokyo, March 20 (AP)—An exiled prince of Indo-China today threatened more bloodshed for Asia unless the French grant his country independence.

Annamite Prince Cuong De, 65, said in an interview he will go to Canton within a week to direct actively the campaign for freedom of the Viet Nam Phuc Quoc Dong Minh Hoi (Viet Nam League of Independence) which he heads.

The Prince said he was exiled from Indo-China 43 years ago—and sentenced to death if he returned—by the French and by Indo-Chinese royalty for revolutionary activity.

Claims 10,000,000 Backers

He said his league has about 10,000,000 supporters and 160,000 "effectives." It has not yet resisted the French with arms.

"But if France refuses to grant us complete independence," he said, "I see no other alternative than to fight."

And if his league has to fight, he said, it will accept aid from whoever offers it. This means even Russia or the Chinese Communists, he said.

Cuong De said his league may join forces with Moscow-trained Ho Chi Minh's democratic Republic of Viet Nam, now fighting actively for freedom from French administration, on one condition. That is that Ho does not apply "Communist principles and theories" to Viet Nam's fight against the French.

Says He Wrote To Ho

Cuong De said he has written Ho about a merger but has had no answer.

The Prince said he also wrote President Truman, asking United States support for his cause. The State Department replied "in very diplomatic language," he said, that the United States Government was considering his plea.

"If the United States doesn't want all Asia to go red, it would be to her interest to help us solve the Viet Nam problem," the Prince continued. He suggested the United States "use all available means to persuade the French to see reason, and settle Viet Nam's fight for independence."

In Washington, the State Department said it had no immediate comment on the Prince's statement.

Not Asking Full Break

Cuong De said he does not want complete break from the French. He said he favored for Indo-China "at least the same as the British granted India." But he added, "it is for the people to decide, and I think the people will decide for a republic."

Prince Cuong De is an uncle of Bao Dai, Annan emperor. He said flatly he would not co-operate with his nephew if Bao Dai regains his throne through agreement with the French that they control the armed forces in Indo-China and represent the country diplomatically.

"What kind of independence is that?" asked the Prince.

Bao Dai's return to the throne under those conditions might send the league into armed action against the French, Cuong De indicated.

Assailed By Group In Japan

The Viet-Namese Association in Japan today denounced the recent agreement signed in Paris by the French and Bao Dai.

The association in Japan is small but vocal.

Bao Dai's agreement, which France hopes will end the fighting in Indo-China, is opposed by the Viet-Namese, whose leader is Ho Chi Minh, a Communist.

It gives Indo-China greater independence, but allows the French to maintain an army there.

ISRAEL, LEBANON DRAFT ARMISTICE

WOLF POMERANZ

Agree On Ten-Point Accord, Second For Jewish State

En Naqura, Lebanon, March 20 (AP)—Israeli and Lebanese delegates initialed an armistice agreement tonight.

In Tel Aviv, the Israeli Government announced it had been told officially by Ralph J. Bunche, United Nations acting mediator, that Syria had agreed to enter into armistice negotiations with Israel. The place and time of the Israeli-Syria talks were not announced but Israeli authorities in Tel Aviv said they probably would be held soon along the Israeli-Syrian frontier rather than at Rhodes.

Announcement Denied

[At Rhodes, Bunche issued a statement denying a Tel Aviv radio announcement that Syria had agreed to negotiate an armistice with Israel. The United Nations spokesman who released the Bunche statement said "it is not a denial" but the Tel Aviv announcement "is not true." Efforts to clarify the conflicting statements were in vain.]

The Lebanese-Israeli agreement will be signed in a ceremony at the customs house here Wednesday morning.

This is the second armistice the young Jewish State of Israel has reached with her Arab neighbors. An Israeli-Egyptian armistice was signed at Rhodes February 24.

Israel now is engaged in armistice talks with Trans-Jordan at Rhodes.

30.24- 1895

Talks Began March 1

Israeli - Lebanese negotiations have been in progress in this sea-coast village on the Lebanon-Palestine border since March 1. Lebanon, like Egypt and Trans-Jordan, is a member of the Arab League.

The seven nations of the league set out to destroy Israel after the British mandate in Palestine was terminated last May and the Jewish state proclaimed its own existence.

The Arab military campaign failed to crush Israel. In the closing stages of the Palestine fighting, Israeli troops seized almost all northern Palestine and drove over the border into Lebanon.

Iraq has never agreed publicly to armistice talks although her troops are observing the current Palestine truce. Saudi Arabia and Yemen never took an active part in the war against Israeli.

The text of the Israeli-Lebanese agreement was not disclosed. It will be released at Tel Aviv and Beirut.

Troop Issue Thought Omitted

It was reliably learned that one of the thorniest problems in the negotiations—the question of Syrian troops on Lebanese soil—was not mentioned in the agreement.

In the interest of an armistice, Israel apparently waived her original demand that any agreement reached with Lebanon also be binding on Syrian units in Lebanese territory, informants said. ADD

Ame[illegible]ican Pilot Forced To Fly Armed Burmese

Rangoon, Burma, March 20 (AP)—An American pilot flying a Burmese Government chartered plane was forced at gunpoint to fly a member of an armed band from Lashio, capital of the northern Shan states, to Rangoon.

The pilot was Col. Paul H. Ericson, of Assaria, Kan. The identity of the passenger who demanded the ride was not made known. Ericson said he was turned over to authorities when the plane landed here.

A frontier ministers' meeting wound up in Lashio Friday, Ericson said when he landed there yesterday, eight armed men surrounded his plane and demanded passage to Rangoon to see Government authorities.

Erickson said he refused and was getting ready to take off when one of the band, firing a pistol, threatened to shoot Ericson unless the pilot took him along. ADD

Iraq Declares Jews Sentenced In Absentia

Baghdad, Iraq, March 20 (AP)—Iraqi military court officials said today they had sentenced to death seven Jews in absentia for "joining the army in Palestine."

[The statement was made apparently in reference to the action March 16 of Jewish leaders in New York who urged the United States State Department to protest the reported death sentence of seven Jews in Iraq for "pro-Zionist activities."]

The military court officials said that four others—a Moslem, a Christian and two Jews—had been executed for "subversive activities." They were described as top leaders of the underground Iraqi Communist party.

Indonesian Guerrillas Wound 2 In U.N. Jeep

Batavia, Java, March 20 (AP)—A United Nations administrative officer confirmed today a Dutch army report of an attack by Indonesian guerrillas on a United Nations jeep. An American and a British military observer for the United Nations were wounded in the ambush, which occurred Friday in Sumatra.

The Briton, Lieut. Col. H. D. Chaplin, was reported recovering from three bullet wounds in his back. The American, Major John Albert Simmons, of Montclair, N.J., was less seriously wounded. Major Robert Montana, Burbank, Cal., flew to Batavia from Sumatra today with an official report of the incident. It agreed with the Dutch army version released yesterday. Montana said the white United Nations jeep was traveling alone, not in convoy, when Chaplin, Simmons and their escort, a Dutch lieutenant, were wounded.

The British and American officers were not carrying weapons, in conformance with United Nations regulations.

U.S. May Use Australia's Huge Rocket Range

Sydney, Australia, March 20 (AP)—A Government spokesman said tonight the United States undoubtedly would be given the use of Australia's 3,000-mile rocket range, if she asked for it.

Thus far, however, no such request has been made, the spokesman said, commenting on a story in the Sydney Sunday Sun that the United States soon will be testing rockets on Australia's big desert range.

The Sun story said the Australian Government had given approval, through the British Government, to a United States request for use of the range and that a formal agreement would be concluded soon.

"Under the agreement for use of the range, America will make available to Australian scientists its latest discoveries," the paper said.

The rocket range is on the central Australian desert. It extends more than 3,000 miles from its base at Mount Ebo to Christmas Island in the Indian Ocean.

Searchers Only 5 Miles From B-29 In Jungle

Manila, March 20 (AP)—A ground party seeking the wreckage of a B-29 flying tanker which crashed March 1 was hacking today through the last 5 miles of jungle to the crash scene atop 4,800-foot Mount Caladang, 25 miles northeast of Manila.

So dense is the growth that the party does not expect to reach the spot until Tuesday.

Leader of the party of 16 Americans and 42 Filipinos is Capt. M. O. Beck of Compton, Cal. The country is so rugged that directions are being given by Col. A. K. Kerwin Malone, of San Francisco, from a helicopter.

ALASKA APPROVES NATIONAL GUARD

Emphasis On Eskimo Scouts Along Bering Sea

Juneau, Alaska, March 20—The Alaska Senate unanimously passed a bill today to establish territorial National Guard units of Eskimo scouts along the coastline facing Russia across the Bering Sea.

A similar bill previously had been passed by the House, but the Senate's rewritten version, with emphasis on the Eskimo scouts, must now go back there for concurrence.

Simultaneously, the House rescinded last night's refusal to accept a "non-Communist oath" measure from the Senate. Agreement to act on the bill was voted 18 to 3, but its adoption today was blocked by amendments which leave final action until tomorrow.

Army's Eyes And Ears

The National Guard bill provides for two scout battalions along the far western and northwestern coasts for training as "eyes and ears" of the military. It carries a $92,000 appropriation.

Unanimous passage of the bill came as a surprise, since it had become as much a political as military issue.

Republicans who had expressed hostility to the proposal swung into line after Republican Senators E. B. Collins and Charles Jones announced they were changing their previous positions.

Jones said he would support the bill after Lieut. Col. Joseph Alexander testified from the Senate witness stand the "Guard will be divorced absolutely from politics."

Governor Is Issue

The political issue involving Governor Gruening also was cited by Democratic Senator Steve McCutcheon. He declared the only two reasons for opposition to the Guard were "first, fear of use for a political machine, as brought out on the floor, and secondly, from supporters of communism who hope that if they leave the back door open to Joe Stalin they will sometime sit in the drivers' seat."

Colonel Alexander told the Senate the "Army would be shocked if the Legislature refuses to organize a National Guard." He said Alaska is the only territory without such a military organization.

Under terms of the bill, scout battalions will be organized first and communities can obtain units later if they request.

55 SENATORS INCLINED TO SUPPORT PACT

Canvass Lists Group In Favor Of Principle; One Publicly Opposes It

Washington, March 20 (AP)—Fifty-five senators said today they are inclined to favor the principle of the North Atlantic security pact and only one—Senator Malone (R., Nev.)—came out publicly against it.

An Associated Press canvass of 93 of the Senate's 95 members—there is one vacancy—disclosed 37 noncommittal or unwilling to say publicly how they stand.

Two members were not reached.

Some Must Be Won

Since two-thirds of those voting are needed to approve the proposed treaty before it can become effective, its backers must keep in line those now inclined favorably and win some of the doubtful over to their side.

If there were no vacancies and all senators voted, 64 would be needed to make the treaty effective. If only 90 senators—a high average—participated, 60 would have to say "yes" to put the agreement across.

Malone, often a critic of the Administration's foreign policies, said he does not think the proposed agreement is desirable or necessary.

Malone Explains Views

"What we are proposing to do is to freeze colonial possessions all over the world," the Nevada Republican said. "As a next step, we're going to be asked to furnish arms to subdue the people of Asia and Africa. And if the colonial powers get in trouble, we'll have to defend them.

"This pact will change our whole traditional policy, which has been that we never go to war unless our own security is threatened. What we would be doing in this pact is to commit ourselves to go to war to aid some nation that says it is threatened, when our own security may not be involved at all."

There were signs that when the issue comes before the Senate, Malone will not be alone in opposing the treaty.

39 Democrats, 16 Republicans

Of those who said they presently are inclined to favor the principles of the pact, 39 are Democrats and sixteen are Republicans.

But many of them put strings on their statements of approval, reserving final judgment until they know more about it.

For instance, Senator Ellender (D., La.) said that before he votes finally for the treaty he wants to be certain "that Congress retains the right to decide when we go to war or how much we spend on armaments for our friends," adding:

"I'm against supplying them any arms or munitions now, but I can't see how we can avoid promising them help if they are attacked, even though that goes pretty far toward war."

"Too Much Military"

Senator Byrd (D., Va.) already has said he doesn't want the pact to be taken as a commitment to furnish arms to Europe. Senator Flanders (R., Vt.), one of those who hasn't made up his mind, complained that the whole agreement "is going altogether too much military."

Senator Morse (R., Ore.), inclined to back the pact, said he doesn't think the Administration "ought to kid the American people about its implications."

"In the world in which we are living," he said, "we must face the fact that we can't avoid war with Russia unless we make it clear that we are going to stand together with the other free peoples of the world against aggressors."

He said he is convinced Russia won't fight, once she understands that.

Would Mean War

Senator Robertson (D., Va.), observed that while we can't go to war without an act of Congress, the Atlantic pact "spells out what every thinking man in this nation now realizes, namely if the forces of communism start a war of aggression against the democracies we will be in it no matter how much we may wish to stay out."

Robertson said the treaty, together with the Rio agreement among American nations, will be a "detering influence" on Russia.

Senator McKellar (D., Tenn.) said the treaty "seems to me to be along peaceful lines" but emphasized he is still studying it and has made no final decision.

Some Refuse Comment

Some senators counted on by the Administration to support the treaty wouldn't commit themselves publicly. Senators Lodge (R., Mass.), a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, and Russell (D., Ga.) and Hayden (D., Ariz.) said they don't participate in polls.

Others who wouldn't state their positions made it clear they have some grave doubts about the agreement.

Senator Taft (R., Ohio), who opposes furnishing arms to Europe, said he thinks that issue is tied in "inseparably" to the treaty he would like to support.

Taylor Tells Of Skepticism

Senator Taylor (D., Idaho), who ran for Vice President on Henry A. Wallace's Progressive ticket last fall, said in a radio interview today that his Senate colleagues share his skepticism that "step by step we may be reversing our traditional foreign policy."

Taylor said that before he decides how he will vote he wants to know "whether the Senate has forever abdicated to the State Department and the executive its authority in the development of American foreign policy."

Those Indicating Favor

Those who at least indicated they favor the principle of the treaty included:

Democrats — Anderson, Byrd, Connnally, Douglas, Downey, Eastland, Ellender, Frear, Fulbright, George, Green, Hill, Hoey, Holland, Humphrey, Hunt, Kefauver, Kerr, Kilgore, Lucas, Magnuson, Maybank, McClellan, McGrath, McKellar, McMahon, Murray, Myers, Neely, O'Mahoney, Pepper, Robertson, Sparkman, Stennis, Thomas (Okla.), Thomas (Utah), Tydings, Wagner, Withers.

Republicans—Baldwin, Brewster, Cain, Ecton, Gurney, Hickenlooper, Ives, Knowland, McCarthy, Morse, Reed, Smith (N.J.), Thye, Tobey, Vandenberg, Wiley.

Noncommital Ones Listed

Those who refused to say how they are presently inclined to vote included:

Democrats — Chapman, Gillette, Hayden, Johnson (Col.), Johnson (Texas), Johnston (S.C.), Long, McCarran, McFarland, Miller, Russell, Taylor.

STALIN EXPECTED TO LAUNCH DRIVE AGAINST TITO SOON

WASHINGTON, March 20—(AP) American officials are now convinced that Premier Stalin will make a major effort this spring and summer to smash the power of his ex-follower Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia and return that heretical state to the communist fold.

Responsible opinion here is based mainly on two considerations. One is a steady flow of rumors and reports into Washington from European capitals over several months to the effect that the Russians were preparing some heavy actions against Tito.

Strategic Spot For Reds

The other is the fact that Yugoslavia stands like a gaping hole in the red solidarity of eastern Europe. Stalin and his politburo colleagues will have to try to plug the hole for reasons of political and military strategy.

Whether the Soviets will be willing to resort to war—even action of a limited kind—in order to oust Tito is a question that arouses divided speculation here.

Authorities privately say they are convinced, however, that Russia acting through the cominform and through the satellite states of Albania, Bulgaria and Hungary will use internal political intrigue, economic pressure, and the threat of force to try to overthrow Tito's regime and promote the seizure of power by a Moscow-loyal communist.

Tito broke with Moscow last summer apparently because he was unwilling to follow the Kremlin's orders blindly. Since then he has proclaimed himself a true communist but has refused absolute obedience to Moscow directives.

Cold War Being Waged

Russia and all the satellite states have built up a slowly intensifying campaign, mainly economic and propagandistic, against him and his followers.

In recent months, as Hungary and the other satellite countries tightened up on all movements of foreigners, it has become increasingly difficult for Washington officials to sense what may be going on within the countries around Yugoslavia.

Troop Movements Rumored

There have been rumors of troop movements on both sides of Yugoslavian borders but informants here say those reports have not been confirmed.

There also have been rumors that Tito has purged his own followers.

What puts the heat on the Soviet Union now with respect to Yugoslavia is the completion of the North Atlantic treaty and its imminent signing. Moscow, which calls that alliance aggressive, faces a unifying western world with a major weak spot in its own eastern front.

From a military point of view, experts here say, if the Russians actually fear war between East and West they must do something about Tito. His power and position would make him a real threat in an East-West conflict.

HOUSING HELD BELGIAN TEST

Problem Makes Communists' Chance, Vinck Says

Washington, March 20 (AP)—Emile Vinck, venerable Belgian political figure, today said his country may go Communistic unless it solves an "extremely acute" housing problem.

Vinck, 78, who served in the Belgian Parliament for 34 years and as its vice president for ten, said housing must be made a government function or costs must be cut by 40 per cent.

"Housing should be considered just like a public utility, like roads or schools," he said. "Communism is more apt to breed among people who are inadequately housed than among those with satisfactory living conditions."

"Second-Class Citizens"

Vinck spoke at a news conference held in connection with the opening tomorrow of the United States Mayors Conference. Mayor George Welsh of Grand Rapids, Mich., president of the conference, was also present.

Welsh said state and county governments largely are dominated by representatives from rural districts although a majority of the nation's people live in urban areas.

"People who live in cities are now second-class citizens," Welsh said. He declared that state governments will lose their prestige and influence unless legislatures are made truly representative.

Disproportion Noted

Welsh made public a report he will submit to the conference tomorrow. It said that 59 per cent of the nation's population living in urban areas elect only 25 per cent of the members of state legislatures.

"This is a far cry from the kind of democracy we are trying to preach to others," Welsh said.

Vinck said that Belgium is short from 300,000 to 400,000 housing units and that costs are so high that private capital is afraid to risk investments in housing. Communism is a definite threat, he said, because nothing is being done to solve the problem.

He said the average Belgian worker would have to spend five and one half years' wages to buy a house at current prices.

Joint Tax Unit Favored

In his report Welsh recommended creation of a joint congressional-state-city tax commission to iron out conflicts and duplications in the national tax structure.

He emphasized the belief that a disproportionate share of tax receipts are being expended in rural areas.

Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro, Jr., of Baltimore, chairman of the conference's committee on legislation, made public a report on housing for submission tomorrow.

He declared, "A solution to one of the most pressing and serious problems facing the major American cities today would become possible with enactment of the slum clearance and housing" legislation pending in Congress.

D'Alesandro On Rent Control

Referring to rent control, D'Alesandro said in his report:

"Until such time as the existing shortage is alleviated, it is clear that some protection to the millions of families who are tenants must be given."

Mayor H. E. Stokke, of Oslo, Norway, said at the news conference his city is faced with the same strategic problem which Vinck outlined. With a population of only 430,000, Stokke said, Oslo has 35,000 people in need of housing. This is true in many other Norwegian cities also, he added.

Soviet Fear 'Manufacture' Denounced In Talk By Jessup

Washington, March 20 (AP)—A high State Department official today accused Russia of "manufacturing fear" to keep up world tension.

Ambassador Philip Jessup, one of Secretary Dean Acheson's chief aides, declared "the Soviet Union hasn't begun to co-operate with the United Nations." This has hampered the world organization and brought about the North Atlantic treaty, he explained.

The major purpose of the pact, he said, is to give the people of western Europe a "real sense of security and hope" which will help speed economic and political stability.

Jessup broadcast in the first of a series of State Department programs on "The United States in World Affairs."

An Alternate Policy

Jessup, with Assistant Secretary of State Dean Rusk, and John Foster Dulles, a member of the United States delegation to the United Nations, agreed that the United Nations organization had failed to produce the degree of security which millions had hoped. They said that the new Atlantic pact represented an attempt by the Western powers to provide an alternative regional protection for themselves.

The three foreign-policy officials argued that this was a procedure completely within the provisions of the United Nations charter. Its end result, they said, should be not to weaken but to strengthen the United Nations by serving as what Rusk called "a powerful deterrent to war."

At the same time Rusk said the proposed Atlantic defense system would not satisfy completely the hopes of the American people for security. "They want a world-wide security system and they won't be content with a regional system," he explained.

Dulles said other nations in Europe can join the Atlantic alliance if the members unanimously invite them, "but obviously there are limits to what can fairly be called a regional pact."

Commitments Outlined

"There does remain the difficult problem of what to do to give more security to the others that are not in the region," he said.

As to the commitments involved in the treaty, Dulles said:

"The pact would, in my opinion, not serve its purpose if it left it doubtful that there would be action from us if an armed attack occurred upon one of the other parties. . . .

"The treaty does not usurp the power of Congress. It does not obligate Congress to declare war. But it does mean that if an attack occurs within the North Atlantic area, and the Security Council cannot handle it, then the United States has a duty to act to repel the attack and to restore peace. I should imagine we would do that anyway—in view of our experience in the past 35 years."

Move To Oust Tito Expected

Washington, March 20 (AP)—American officials are now convinced that Premier Joseph Stalin will make a major effort this spring and summer to smash the power of his ex-follower Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia and return that state to the Communist fold.

Responsible opinion here is based mainly on two considerations. One is a flow of rumors and reports from European capitals over several months.

The other is the fact that Yugoslavia stands like a gaping hole in the Communist solidarity of eastern Europe. Stalin and his Politburo colleagues will have to try to plug the hole for reasons of political and military strategy.

Pressure Move Likely

Authorities privately say they are convinced that Russia acting through the Cominform and through the satellite states of Albania, Bulgaria and Hungary will use internal political intrigue, economic pressure and the threat of force to try to overthrow Tito's regime.

Tito broke with Moscow last summer, and since then has proclaimed himself a true Communist but has refused absolute obedience to Moscow.

Russia and all the satellite states have built up a slowly intensifying campaign, mainly economic and propagandistic, against him and his followers.

In recent months, as Hungary and the other satellite countries tightened up on movements of foreigners, it has become increasingly difficult for Washington officials to sense what may be going on within the countries around Yugoslavia.

33 DUTCH FARMERS TO STAY 6 MONTHS

Will Live In U.S. Homes And Study Agricultural Ways

Washington, March 20 (AP)—Thirty-three young Dutch farmers soon will arrive in this country to live six months with American farm families and learn American agricultural techniques.

The Economic Co-operation Administration said the group will reach Hoboken, N.J., about April 7. The project is being financed by the ECA—at a total cost of $6,000—to help boost the Netherlands' farm production.

The Agriculture Department will place the visitors with families in fourteen states—Maine, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Missouri, Iowa and Wisconsin.

Three Months With One Family

Each of the Hollanders will stay three months with one family, then swap with another for three months.

Most of the group are 21 to 28 years old and have a working knowledge of the English language, the ECA said. Each of the visitors will pay his own steamer passage and bring $25 in cash. The ECA will provide $75 apiece for railroad travel.

Once installed on the American farms, the young men will receive board, room, training and spending money.

CATHOLICS SCORE DR. WISE'S CHARGE ON WAR ATTITUDE

WASHINGTON, March 20—(AP) Catholic University professors accused Rabbi Stephen S. Wise of a "false and malicious" statement in saying "the largest of Christian churches is unequivocably for war."

"We denounce this statement as deliberately untrue, as designed to stir up religious bigotry, and as an unjust attack upon millions of our fellow Americans," ten faculty members said in a statement.

"Calumny Upon Catholics"

"It is as well a calumny upon millions of other Catholics and their leaders throughout the world who have already suffered so grievously from war.

"No secular leaders have worked so hard to maintain peace and to prevent war as have the popes and members of the Catholic hierarchy."

"We call upon responsible Jewish leaders and others to join with us in denouncing a wanton attempt to spread distrust of American leadership in world affairs and to stir up hatred and dissension among the American people."

Dr. Wise, head of the American Jewish Congress and former head of the World Jewish Congress, in a sermon Friday night in New York said:

"The largest of Christian churches is unequivocably for war; it is using its great influence to war upon the atheism—I do not say Godlessness—of the Soviet regime."

Did Not Identify Church

Dr. Wise did not identify the church by denomination.

In the same sermon the Jewish leader also said:

"I know that the Soviet Union or command is all but unendurably trying and unforgivably provocative, particularly some of its intolerably disingenuous American disciples, but the alternative is the tragedy of tragedies.

"If the political and governmental leadership of our country were resolved upon peace as it seems bent upon war, American-Soviet friendship groups might well be superfluous. As it is, they are our last if not best hope."

Arms-For-Europe Approval Is Seen

Washington, March 20 (AP)—Representative Vinson (D., Ga.), chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, said today that arms for America's Atlantic-pact neighbors would be voted with ease.

A program of helping the western European countries prepare against aggression is a companion plan to the security treaty but must be handled separately. The treaty is expected to go to the Senate shortly for ratification. Both houses must act on the arms proposal.

"The requests for military supplies will come to us in due time," Vinson said, "and they will be approved in both houses without a particle of trouble.

"We will have open hearings on the requests, and all the arms sent will be manufactured in this country."

Vinson called the twenty-year self-help and mutual-aid agreement of eight nations on both sides of the Atlantic "the road to peace. Nobody is going to attack us if we are well armed."

Unofficial estimates of probable military requests from pact countries range between one and two billion dollars for the first year, Vinson said, but no definite figures have been submitted to Congress.

'PEACE' RALLY BLAST DECRIED

MAR 21 1949

Religious Leaders 'Dismayed' By U.S. Warning

New York, March 20 (AP)—Three religious leaders expressed "dismay" today at the United States State Department's action in warning that a "world peace" conference opening here Friday would be used to spread Communist propaganda.

The three were the Rev. Dr. Halford E. Luccock, of the Yale Divinity School, Bishop Arthur W. Moulton, of Utah, and the Rev. S. Harrington Littell, retired bishop, of Honolulu.

In a joint statement they described the conference as "an important step in the re-establishment of cultural relations between the United States, the U.S.S.R. and other countries."

Two Listed As Speakers

"As such," they said, "it should be encouraged and approved by our officials."

Bishop Moulton and Bishop Littell are scheduled to address the conference which opens Saturday. Dr. Luccock will not speak at the sessions.

The three-day meeting is sponsored by the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions.

None of the three clergymen is a member of the council, a conference spokesman said. Their statement was issued by the council.

Backed By Einstein, Mann

The conference is supported by more than 500 American writers, scientists, artists, educators and actors, including Scientist Albert Einstein, Author Thomas Mann and Singer Paul Robeson.

The 22 delegates to the sessions from countries behind the iron curtain include Dmitri Shostakovich, Russian composer.

Last week the State Department said the meeting is closely related to the World Congress of Intellectuals held last year at Wroclaw, Poland.

Communist Tinge Denied

The Wroclaw conference, a predominantly pro-Communist meeting, attacked what it described as British-American "imperialism."

Officials of the New York conference have said it "has nothing to do with Wroclaw."

In their statement today, the three religious leaders said:

"We are dismayed at the State Department's action in prejudging the cultural and scientific conference for world peace which has been called in the best American tradition of free exchange of ideas on the most vital question which faces all peoples and nations.

"Should Be Encouraged"

"This conference is an important step in the re-establishment of cultural relations between the United States, the U.S.S.R. and other countries. Its success is in the best interests of both of our peoples and governments. As such it should be encouraged and approved by our officials.

"Dr. Harlow Shapley and the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions should be applauded for their achievement in opening cultural channels which our diplomats have apparently been unable to negotiate."

Dr. Shapley, chairman of the conference, is a Harvard University professor.

WORLD RIGHTS BILL IS URGED

International Court Backed Before Liberties Union

New York, March 20 (AP)—Adolf A. Berle, Jr., said today civil liberties of persons throughout the world never will be protected adequately "until there is international recognition of the equivalent of a bill of rights."

The former Assistant Secretary of State, now chairman of the New York State Liberal party, added:

"While at first, reliance on national governments to assure these rights is necessary, there will be growing need for true international justice.

Sees Need Of Court

"Ultimately, as international organization grows, this will take the form of an international court. The practical difficulties are obvious, but this must be the ultimate goal."

Berle was one of several speakers addressing a forum on enforcement of international civil liberties.

The forum concluded the two-day twenty-ninth annual conference of the American Civil Liberties Union.

Other speakers included Roger Baldwin, director of the union, and Dr. Fritz Beade of the Economic Research Institute of Kiel, Germany.

Baldwin visited Germany and Japan at the invitation of United States occupation authorities and organized the civil liberties unions of those two countries.

Better Job In Japan

He told the conference today that "a better job is being done in Japan."

In Germany, he added, "there are four occupying powers and no government. The Germans are confused."

Baldwin said the Japanese Civil Liberties Union had grown to 3,000 members in eleven cities.

Out-of-town delegates to the conference are to visit the United Nations at Lake Success tomorrow.

Occupation Brings Hope

In other speeches tonight at the closing session of the conference, a German lawyer and a Japanese professor expressed hope that American occupation forces would bring real democracy to their homelands.

"The most important problem is the education of the German youth for the future German democracy," Dr. Horst Pommerening, of Frankfurt, said.

"The student councils in the schools and the many clubs have convinced youth that the democratic way of life is the only one worth living," he said.

Rights For Women In Japan

In another address, Shichiro Matsui, economic professor, of Kyoto, Japan, said the United States occupation of his country already has established democratic reforms in civil rights.

He listed some of these as women's equal rights with men, the right of workers to organize and bargain collectively and the new democratic education system. Matsui said these reforms would have required at least several decades to achieve in peacetime.

Segregation Criticized

The German took critical note, however, of racial segregation practices in the United States.

He said he went to jail in Germany in 1939 "because I declined to make any difference between Jews and Gentiles."

Another speaker, James N. Rosenberg, a lawyer, called for United States ratification of the genocide convention—a United Nations measure to make mass murder of nationalities or other groups an international crime.

Miss Strong Asks Inquiry By Stalin

New York, March 20 (AP)—An attorney for Anna Louise Strong said last night the woman writer was seeking to have Premier Joseph Stalin order an inquiry into her deportation from Russia on espionage charges.

O. John Rogge, the attorney, said he had sent a letter to the United States State Department, to be forwarded to Moscow, asking Stalin to review the case against the 65-year-old American journalist.

Miss Strong, whose writings have been strongly sympathetic to the Soviet Union, was arrested in Moscow February 15, accused of spying for America, and ordered out of the country.

Rogge said he had not yet heard whether his letter has been forwarded to Stalin.

He said the letter expressed the view his client's arrest was "due to grave errors of certain lower officials of your Government" and that she was given no chance to defend herself against the espionage charges.

The letter asked Stalin to "retract the charges" because it "is important that such errors and mistakes be rectified promptly in order to encourage friendly co-operation between nations," Rogge said.

Iceland To Speed Treaty Decision

New York, March 20 (AP)—Iceland will reach a decision "in the next few days" on whether it will sign the North Atlantic security pact, its Foreign Minister said today.

The minister, Bjarni Benediktsson, left by plane for Reykjavik after pact discussions in Washington with Secretary of State Dean Acheson and other officials.

"We asked very many questions and got very frank and plain answers to everything," Benediktsson said.

A report on the discussions will be made to his Government and people immediately after his arrival, the Foreign Minister said.

He said the United States made no request for military bases in Iceland and added:

"They do not at all want any. You see, the Icelandic people would not stand for it. I think no sovereign nation would want military bases on its soil in peacetime.

Baby Flies From Germany

New York, March 20 (AP)—Jane Marie Long, 2-year-old daughter of a former United States soldier and his war bride, arrived from Germany by plane today to join her parents in Illinois. The child was met by her father, Roland Long, 22, of Maywood, Ill.

LONDON, MARCH 20-(AP)-THE RUSSIAN ARMY NEWSPAPER RED STAR SAID TODAY THE UNITED STATES IS MOVING WITH "FEVERISH HASTE" TO DRAW UP A PACIFIC COUNTERPART OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY.

THE MOSCOW RADIO CARRIED THE STORY FROM THE ARMY NEWSPAPER, WHICH SAID THE PACIFIC PACT WOULD BE AN INSTRUMENT TO SUPPRESS "NATIONAL LIBERATION MOVEMENTS" IN ASIA.

RED STAR SAID IT HAD REPORTS THAT THE FIRST SIGNERS WILL BE THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, CANADA, AUSTRALIA, INDIA, NEW ZEALAND, PAKISTAN AND CEYLON.

THERE WAS SPECULATION, THE NEWSPAPER ADDED, THAT OTHERS TO BE URGED TO JOIN INCLUDE IRAN, SIAM, CERTAIN COUNTRIES OF CENTRAL AND SOUTH AMERICA "AND EVEN THE UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA."

THE NEWSPAPER SAID THE "INITIATORS OF THE NEW BLOC DO NOT CONCEAL THEIR DESIRE TO LURE INTO IT AS MANY COUNTRIES AS POSSIBLE." IT ADDED THAT INASMUCH AS OTHER PARTICIPANTS "ARE ECONOMICALLY AND POLITICALLY ENTIRELY DEPENDENT ON THE U.S.A., IT IS CRYSTAL CLEAR THAT THIS BLOC WILL BE AN OBEDIENT TOOL IN THE HANDS OF THE AMERICAN MONOPOLIES."

THE MOSCOW RADIO ALSO CARRIED A BROADCAST ASSERTING THE UNITED STATES WAS ESTABLISHING NAVAL AND AIR BASES THROUGHOUT THE WORLD "FOR AGGRESSIVE PURPOSES." IT SAID THAT DURING 1947 AND 1948 THE U.S. CONCLUDED AGREEMENTS FOR BASES WITH PORTUGAL, SPAIN, TURKEY, FRANCE, ITALY AND OTHER COUNTRIES.

"THE U.S.A. HAS NOW PROCLAIMED ITSELF TO BE A MEDITERRANEAN POWER, AND THE COUNTRIES OF THE MIDDLE AND NEAR EAST TO BE THE EXTERNAL BORDER OF THE AMERICAN ZONE," A COMMENTATOR'S BROADCAST SAID.

HE SAID THE AGREEMENT WITH FRANCE PERMITS THE UNITED STATES TO PRESERVE ITS WARTIME AND AIR NAVAL FORCES IN ALGIERS, MARTINIQUE AND MARRAKESH, AND PROVIDES FOR NEW BASES IN MOROCCO, INDOCHINA AND OTHER FRENCH POSSESSIONS.

THE BROADCASTER ASSERTED THE U.S. HAD OBTAINED THE RIGHT TO BUILD 13 AIRBASES IN SPAIN INTENDED FOR SUPERFORTRESSES AND SEVEN IN PORTUGAL. HE ALSO CHARGED THAT BRITAIN HAS DECIDED TO PLACE MALTA UNDER UNITED STATES CONTROL.

CITING WHAT WAS DESCRIBED AS OFFICIAL U.S. MILITARY REPORTS, THE COMMENTATOR SAID THE AMERICANS POSSESS 228 BASES IN THE ATLANTIC AREA--AMONG THEM 60 IN THE GULF OF PANAMA AND THE CARIBBEAN SEA, 63 IN BRITAIN, FRANCE OR GERMANY, 25 IN THE SOUTH ATLANTIC AND 18 IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC.

LONDON, MONDAY, MARCH 21-(AP)-THE MOSCOW RADIO SAID TODAY THE SOVIET UNION AND THE KOREAN PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC HAVE SIGNED AN AGREEMENT ON ECONOMIC AND CULTURAL COOPERATION PROVIDING FOR A "CONSIDERABLE INCREASE" IN TRADE BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT, RECORDED BY THE SOVIET MONITOR HERE, SAID THE SOVIET-SPONSORED NORTH KOREAN GOVERNMENT WILL BE GRANTED CREDITS TO ENABLE IT TO BUY MORE RUSSIAN GOODS.

PREMIER KIM IL SUNG AND HIS DELEGATION WHO HAVE BEEN CONDUCTING TALKS WITH PRIME MINISTER STALIN AND HIGH OFFICIALS OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT, LEFT YESTERDAY TO RETURN HOME, THE RADIO SAID. THEY HAVE BEEN IN MOSCOW SINCE MARCH 3.

MAR 21 1949

A JOINT COMMUNIQUE SAID FOUR SEPARATE AGREEMENTS GREW OUT OF THE TALKS:

1. ON ECONOMIC AND CULTURAL COLLABORATION.
2. ON TRADE TURNOVER AND PAYMENTS BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES "PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERABLE INCREASE IN TRADE TURNOVER FOR 1949-50."
3. "GRANTING KOREA CREDIT TO PAY FOR GOODS DELIVERED OVER AND ABOVE THE TRADE TURNOVER AGREEMENT."
4. RENDERING TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE TO KOREA.

THE MOSLEYITES PLANNED A MEETING AT TIDLEY ROAD, AND THEN A PARADE TO THE SQUARE IN FRONT OF THE TOTENHAM TOWN HALL FOR ANOTHER DEMONSTRATION.

THE COMMUNISTS AND OTHERS OPPOSED TO MOSLEY WERE DETERMINED TO BREAK UP THE PROCESSION. POLICE WERE DETERMINED TO KEEP IT ORDERLY.

IN THE CONFUSION IT WAS HARD TO TELL WHETHER FINALLY THERE WAS ONE PROCESSION OR SEVERAL. MANY MOSLEYITES DID REACH THE TOTENHAM TOWN HALL. THERE, ANOTHER FRACAS OCCURRED AS SOME SHOUTING DEMONSTRATORS NOT IMMEDIATELY IDENTIFIED, TORE WREATHS FROM A WAR MEMORIAL. MUCH OF THE EAST END WAS IN TURMOIL.

ONE GROUP OF THE MOSLEYITES MARCHED TO THE TOTENHAM TOWN HALL UNDER STRONG POLICE ESCORT. THERE WERE POLICE, MOUNTED AFOOT AND IN CARS, IN FRONT OF, BEHIND AND ON BOTH SIDES OF THE LITTLE GROUP. HOSTILE DEMONSTRATORS TRIED TO CHARGE THROUGH THE PROTECTIVE SCREEN OF OFFICERS, TUGGING AT THE LEGS OF THE MOUNTED POLICE AND JERKING THE HARNESS OF THE HORSES. SET AT THIS POINT FIRECRACKERS WERE SET OFF UNDER THE HORSES, AND BALL BEARINGS AND MARBLES WERE TOSSED AMONG THEM.

UNDATED PACT (400)

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

AN ASSOCIATED PRESS POLL DISCLOSED YESTERDAY (SUN) THAT 55 UNITED STATES SENATOR NOW SUPPORT IN PRINCIPLE THE PROJECTED NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY. THIRTY-SEVEN SENATORS WERE UNWILLING TO COMMIT THEMSELVES PUBLICLY. ONLY ONE SPOKE OUT AGAINST IT.

THE TREATY ALLIES BRITAIN, THE UNITED STATES, CANADA, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS, LUXEMBOURG, FRANCE AND NORWAY IN PROMISES OF MUTUAL AID IN THE EVENT ANY ONE OF THEM IS ATTACKED.

THE PACT MUST BE APPROVED BY A TWO-THIRDS MAJORITY OF THE SENATE TO BE BINDING. THIS MEANS THAT SUPPORTERS OF THE MEASURE MUST KEEP IN LINE ALL THOSE NOW FAVORING IT AND WIN OVER A BLOC OF DOUBTFULS.

SENATOR MALONE (R-NEV), THE LONE CRITIC, SAID: "THIS PACT WILL CHANGE OVER OUR WHOLE TRADITIONAL POLICY, WHICH HAS BEEN THAT WE NEVER GO TO WAR UNLESS OUR OWN SECURITY IS THREATENED."

ELSEWHERE IN THE WORLD THE TREATY WAS A NO. 1 TOPIC:

IN LONDON, HARRY POLLITT, BRITAIN'S TOP COMMUNIST LEADER, SAID THE UNITED STATES WANTS TO USE ENGLAND AS AN "UNSINKABLE AIRCRAFT CARRIER" TO UNLEASH ATOMIC WARFARE ON RUSSIA.

THE COMMUNIST PRESS THROUGHOUT EUROPE KEPT UP ITS INCESSANT BARRAGE AGAINST THE PACT.

ACROSS RUSSIA, IN MOSCOW AND IN SMALL PROVINCIAL TOWNS, THE PRESS GAVE AN UNUSUALLY LARGE AMOUNT OF SPACE TO PRINTING THE FULL TEXT OF THE TREATY. IT ALSO PRINTED MANY DISPATCHES IN SUPPORT OF THE COMMUNIST LINE THAT THE PACT IS PRODUCING AN UNFAVORABLE REACTION AMONG THE PEOPLE OF WESTERN EUROPE.

THE RUSSIAN ARMY NEWSPAPER RED STAR SAID THE U.S. IS MOVING WITH "FEVERISH HASTE" TO ORGANIZE A PACIFIC COUNTERPART OF THE TREATY. IT SAID PROBABLE PARTICIPANTS IN SUCH A PACIFIC TREATY WOULD BE THE U.S., GREAT BRITAIN, CANADA, AUSTRALIA, NEW ZEALAND, INDIA, PAKISTAN AND CEYLON. OTHER COUNTRIES WOULD BE INVITED TO JOIN LATER, THE NEWSPAPER ADDED.

IN TOKYO, FOREIGN DIPLOMATS SAID THEY HAD BEEN ENCOURAGED BY REPORTS FROM CANBERRA OF AUSTRALIAN DESIRES FOR A PACT. THEY SAID, HOWEVER, PROGRESS TOWARDS A PACIFIC PACT WOULD BE SLOW BECAUSE OF THE UNSETTLED CONDITION OF CHINA AND THE NATIONALIST FERVOR OF SOUTH-EAST ASIA COUNTRIES.

THERE HAVE BEEN RUMORS OF TROOP MOVEMENTS ON BOTH SIDES OF YUGOSLAVIAN BORDERS BUT INFORMANTS HERE SAY THOSE REPORTS HAVE NOT BEEN CONFIRMED.

THERE HAVE ALSO BEEN RUMORS THAT TITO HAS PURGED HIS OWN FOLLOWERS IN ORDER TO BLOCK ANY COMINFORM FIFTH COLUMN ACTION.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT ALEX H.SINGLETON REPORTED IN A DISPATCH FROM BELGRADE THURSDAY THAT OFFICIAL QUARTERS HAVE NOT BEEN DISTURBED BY OUTSIDE RUMORS OF RUSSIAN ACTION TO OVERTHROW THE TITO REGIME.

(FOREIGN OBSERVERS REGARD IT AS LIKELY THAT THE COMINFORM WILL BASE ITS TACTICS UPON CONTINUED EFFORTS TO STIR UP TROUBLE AMONG THE VARIOUS NATIONALITIES WHICH COMPRISE YUGOSLAVIA RATHER THAN UPON DIRECT ACTION, SINGLETON SAID.)

WHAT PUTS THE HEAT ON THE SOVIET UNION NOW WITH RESPECT TO YUGOSLAVIA IS THE COMPLETION OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY AND ITS IMMINENT SIGNING. MOSCOW, WHICH CALLS THAT ALLIANCE AGGRESSIVE, FACES A UNIFYING WESTERN WORLD WITH A MAJOR WEAK SPOT IN ITS OWN EASTERN FRONT.

FROM A MILITARY POINT OF VIEW, EXPERTS HERE SAY, IF THE RUSSIANS ACTUALLY FEAR WAR BETWEEN EAST AND WEST THEY MUST DO SOMETHING ABOUT TITO. HIS POWER AND POSITION WOULD MAKE HIM A REAL THREAT TO THEM IN EVENT OF AN EAST-WEST CONFLICT.

IN TERMS OF THE COUNTINUING POLITICAL CONFLICT OF THE COLD WAR, TITO'S ELIMINATION IS CONSIDERED HERE TO BE EVEN MORE IMPORTANT TO THE LEADERS OF SOVIET COMMUNISTS. TITO STANDS BEFORE THE WORLD AS A COMMUNIST HERETIC--LIVING EVIDENCE THAT ONE MAN AT LEAST WITH A COUNTRY SUPPORTING HIM COULD DEFY MOSCOW AND GET AWAY WITH IT.

BOSTON, MARCH 20-(AP)-MISS ANNA LOUISE STRONG, RECENTLY EXPELLED FROM RUSSIA ON ESPIONAGE CHARGES, TODAY TERMED THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT "A STEP TOWARD WAR."

SPEAKING AT THE COMMUNITY CHURCH, MISS STRONG SAID "AN OVERT ACT, WHICH CAN BE INTIMATED AS AN OVERTHROW OF GOVERNMENTS, MIGHT CAUSE WAR." HER PUBLIC ADDRESS WAS THE FIRST SINCE HER RETURN TO THIS COUNTRY.

SHE URGED A PACT BE DRAFTED WHICH WOULD EMBODY "DISARMAMENT PROPOSALS AND THE ABANDONMENT OF ATOMIC BOMBS."

THE 63-YEAR-OLD AUTHOR AND FORMER EDITOR SAID SHE "WOULD DEFEND THIS COUNTRY WITH EVERY INCH OF MY LIFE," SHOULD IT BE ATTACKED BY THE SOVIET UNION.

MISS STRONG SAID SHE WAS DEPORTED FROM RUSSIA BECAUSE SHE "WAS A JOURNALIST SEEKING FACTS." SHE SAID THAT WAS "CONSIDERED ESPIONAGE BY THE RUSSIANS."

"OFFICIAL STUPIDITY IS NOT THE MONOPOLY OF ANY COUNTRY," SHE SAID. "I ACCUSE THE SPY SCARE WHICH COMES FROM THIS COLD WAR. IT AFFECTS EVERY COUNTRY."

THE NEBRASKA-BORN MISS STRONG WAS EDITOR OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE MOSCOW DAILY NEWS BEFORE HER EXPULSION. SHE WAS AFFILIATED WITH THE ALLIED LABOR NEWS.

NEW YORK, MARCH 20-(AP)-THE NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE SAYS ARMY TANKS, WEIGHING UP TO 25 TONS, NOW CAN BE CARRIED "WITH EASE," READY FOR COMBAT, INSIDE U.S. AIR FORCES CARGO PLANES.

THE NEWSPAPER SAYS THE TANKS CAN BE CARRIED INSIDE PLANES OF TYPES NOW ON QUANTITY ORDER BY THE AIR FORCES.

THIS NEW DEVELOPMENT WAS LEARNED, THE HERALD TRIBUNE SAID, FROM FIRST ARMY HEADQUARTERS SOURCES.

THE SHERMAN TANK OF WORLD WAR II, THE NEWSPAPER SAID, WEIGHED ABOUT 35 TONS AND THE PERSHING TANK, INTRODUCED LATE IN THE WAR, WEIGHED 45 TONS.

THE NEWSPAPER ADDED THAT MILITARY SCIENTISTS, STRIVING TO GET MINIMU WEIGHT, HAVE MADE "STRIKING PROGRESS" IN DESIGNING TANKS AND HEAVY ARTILLERY WHICH CONTAIN LARGE QUANTITIES OF ALUMINUM AND MAGNESIUM ALLOYS.

"THE MOST IMPORTANT PROBLEM IS THE EDUCATION OF THE GERMAN YOUTH FOR THE FUTURE GERMAN DEMOCRACY," DR.HORST POMMERENING OF FRANKFURT SAID IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR DELIVERY BEFORE THE AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION.

"THE STUDENT COUNCILS IN THE SCHOOLS AND THE MANY CLUBS HAVE CONVINCED YOUTH THAT THE DEMOCRATIC WAY OF LIFE IS THE ONLY ONE WORTH LIVING," HE SAID.

IN ANOTHER PREPARED ADDRESS, SHICHIRO MATSUI, ECONOMIC PROFESSOR OF KYOTO, JAPAN, SAID THE U.S. OCCUPATION OF HIS COUNTRY ALREADY HAS ESTABLISHED DEMOCRATIC REFORMS IN CIVIL RIGHTS. HE LISTED SOME OF THESE AS WOMEN'S EQUAL RIGHTS WITH MEN, THE RIGHT OF WORKERS TO ORGANIZE AND BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY, AND THE NEW DEMOCRATIC EDUCATION SYSTEM. MATSUI SAID THESE REFORMS WOULD HAVE REQUIRED AT LEAST SEVERAL DECADES TO ACHIEVE IN PEACETIME.

BOTH MEN ARE MEMBERS OF CIVIL LIBERTIES UNIONS IN THEIR COUNTRIES.

HE SAID HE WENT TO JAIL IN GERMANY IN 1939 "BECAUSE I DECLINED TO MAKE ANY DIFFERENCE BETWEEN JEWS AND GENTILES."

"WHY MAKE ANY DIFFERENCE ON SEGREGATION BETWEEN A NEGRO AND A WHITE?" HE ASKED. "THE GERMAN EXPERIENCE MIGHT DIM MY VIEW, BUT IN GERMANY IT BEGAN WITH RACIAL SEGREGATION TOO. IT ENDED IN THE GAS CHAMBERS."

ANOTHER SPEAKER, JAMES N.ROSENBERG, A LAWYER, CALLED FOR U.S. RATIFICATION OF THE GENOCIDE CONVENTION--A UNITED NATIONS MEASURE TO MAKE MASS MURDER OF NATIONALITIES OR OTHER GROUPS AN INTERNATIONAL CRIME.

"A GROUP OF ULTRA-CONSERVATIVE LAWYERS DOUBT WHETHER WE SHOULD RATIFY," ROSENBERG SAID IN A PREPARED SPEECH. "THEY FEAR TO LIMIT U.S. SOVEREIGNTY. THEY FORGET THAT THIS IS WHAT EVERY TREATY DOES."

ROSENBERG TERMED THIS VIEWPOINT ISOLATIONISM WHICH HE CALLED "A THING OF THE PAST."

(ADVANCE)..BERLIN, MARCH 18-(AP)-THE GERMANS ARE BEGINNING TO SAVE THEIR MONEY AGAIN.

THAT IS A HEALTHY SYMPTOM, U.S. MILITARY GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS SAY.

IT SHOWS THE GERMANS ARE REGAINING FAITH IN THEIR MONEY AND THEIR COUNTRY'S ECONOMIC FUTURE.

MAR 21 1949

IF CONTINUED, THIS SAVING ALSO WILL HELP PROVIDE THE BADLY NEEDED CAPITAL FOR RE-EQUIPPING WEST GERMANY'S FACTORIES SO THEY CAN PRODUCE MORE.

THIS IS THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE WAR THAT GERMANS HAVE ADDED TO THEIR SAVINGS ACCOUNTS INSTEAD OF DRAWING OUT OF THEM.

BEFORE THE CURRENCY REFORM LAST SUMMER, GERMANS SPENT THEIR MONEY LIKE WATER. THEY DIDN'T HAVE MUCH FAITH IN IT OR ITS FUTURE.

SO THEY DIPPED HEAVILY INTO THEIR SAVINGS TO BUY--MOSTLY ON THE BLACK MARKET--ANYTHING THEY COULD FIND TO SUPPLEMENT THEIR MEAGER FOOD RATIONS OR BRIGHTEN THEIR DRAB LIVING.

EVEN AFTER CURRENCY REFORM, THE SPENDING CONTINUED. THE NEW MONEY WAS VALUED MORE HIGHLY THAN THE OLD MARKS. BUT NOW ONE COULD ACTUALLY BUY THINGS WITH IT--AND OUTSIDE THE BLACK MARKET, TOO. SHOP WINDOWS BLOSSOMED WITH MERCHANDISE WHICH MERCHANTS HAD REFUSED TO SELL FOR THE OLD MONEY.

THE PUBLIC BOUGHT MADLY, RIGHT UP UNTIL DECEMBER.

THEN SUDDENLY, RIGHT IN THE MIDDLE OF THE CHRISTMAS SHOPPING, THE BUYING TAPERED OFF. PRICES HAD BECOME TOO HIGH, AND THE PEOPLE WERE RUNNING OUT OF MONEY.

"THAT'S WHEN WE TURNED THE CORNER," ONE MILITARY GOVERNMENT FINANCE OFFICIAL SAID.

AT THE TURN OF THE YEAR, SAVINGS DEPOSITS WERE EXCEEDING WITHDRAWALS FOR THE FIRST TIME. THE EDGE IN FAVOR OF DEPOSITS IS STILL SMALL. MILITARY GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS CONCEDE IT MAY NOT EVEN LAST.

D78

"THE GERMAN PEOPLE ARE SO UNCERTAIN AND FEARFUL THAT ANY LITTLE THING MIGHT START THEM BUYING AGAIN INSTEAD OF SAVING," SAID THE FINANCE EXPERT.

IF THE GERMANS DON'T SAVE VOLUNTARILY, THEY MAY FIND SAVING FORCED UPON THEM BY LAW.

MILITARY GOVERNMENT RECENTLY URGED THE GERMAN AUTHORITIES TO CHECK SPENDING BY EITHER A FORCED SAVING LAW OR HIGHER TAXES--OR BOTH.

"GERMANY ITSELF MUST INVEST IN RECOVERY," AND NOT LEAVE IT ALL TO THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM, A MILITARY GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN SAID IN A RADIO BROADCAST.

HE WARNED THE GERMANS IF THEY CONTINUED TO WASTE THEIR MONEY BUYING NON-ESSENTIALS, THEIR PLANTS WOULD DETERIORATE AND RUN OUT OF RAW MATERIALS, AND THEY WOULD WIND UP WORSE OFF THAN BEFORE.

THAT'S WHY AMERICAN OFFICIALS ARE CHEERED BY THE RECENT REVIVAL OF SAVING. THE MARKS GERMANS SAVE MAY SAVE ERP DOLLARS.

BERLIN CURRENCY ORDER, RUSSIANS SAY, WILL NOT DRAW COUNTERMEASURE

West Is Denounced As Trying To 'Deepen Split' Of City

KARL-HEINZ SCHWABE

Berlin, March 21 (AP)—The Russians tonight said they would take no restrictive action in consequence of the Western ban on circulation of the East mark in western Berlin.

The acting Soviet commandant for Berlin said the Russians were refraining from countermeasures "to help the population of Berlin's western sectors."

Many Berliners had expected the Russians to make some retaliatory move.

Earlier today Russian-controlled German police tried to prevent western Berliners from going on a buying spree with surplus East marks at ration-free stores in the Soviet sector.

The Western occupying powers issued their ban on the Soviet zone currency yesterday.

Russian Action Taken Last June

They pointed out it had not been possible to reach agreement with the Russians on a single four-power currency. Last June the Russians had made it a crime for anyone to possess West marks in their occupation zone, including Berlin.

Col. Alexis Yalizarov, acting Russian commandant, gave the first official Soviet reaction to the Western order in an announcement distributed by the Soviet-licensed news agency ADN:

"In an endeavor to help the population of Berlin's western sectors, the Soviet military administration does not intend to carry out any measures restricting the use of the mark of the German Bank of Emission (East mark) by residents of the Western sectors in the Soviet sector of Berlin and in the Soviet occupation zone."

Yelizarov's statement said finance and banking institutions in the eastern area had been told to work out instructions, considering the situation that has arisen from outlawing the East mark in the western sectors.

Accused Of Balking U.N.

The acting Soviet commandant accused the Western powers of frustrating any agreement on the Berlin currency problem by United Nations experts meeting in Geneva. He charged the Western move was in an endeavor to "take measures to deepen the split of Berlin and to isolate completely the western part of the city." He added:

"There is no doubt, by this policy, the interests of the Berlin population and the city's economy will be prejudiced.

"On the other hand, such action cannot inflict any serious prejudice on monetary circulation in the Soviet zone and on the stability of the currency of the German Bank of Emission (East mark)."

Yelizarov declared that the Soviet command "continues to proceed fro mthe necessity of uniform monetary circulation in Berlin and in the whole of Germany."

Newspaper Attack Launched

Russian-controlled newspapers launched an attack against the Western allies' currency order. That order, the papers said, was a fraud against the population. Big headlines in the Communist press predicted mass bankruptcies in western Berlin. Western authorities described the Communist claims as "scare stories."

Western Berliners rushed to dump their holdings of East marks. Some tried to make purchases in Russian areas. Others lined up before exchange offices.

The East mark tumbled to a rate of six to ten for one mark on the black market. Even in the legal exchange offices the East mark dropped to 5.2 for one. The East marks had been worth about a quarter of the Western currency in western Berlin.

Forecast Of Improvement

The 2,250,000 Germans living in the American, British and French sectors met the first day of the new currency rules quietly. For nine months they have been blockaded and on a financial merry-go-round.

The Western allies told them their situation would be improved because their blockade-pinched economy now would be tied closer to the reviving economy of western Germany. ADP

Berliners Climb Back On Money-Go-Round

Richard Kasschke

Berlin, March 21 (AP)—Western Berliners, blockaded and whirled on a financial merry-go-round for nine months, had the brass ring for another ride today, but the outlook was brighter.

Outlawing the Soviet-sponsored East mark by the Western powers will make available to western Berliners such simple things as new clothing, shoes, household goods and even soap.

To many western Berliners, whose incomes had been made up largely of East marks, worth only about a quarter of the Western currency, these things had been virtually unavailable. Show windows had displayed two prices—one in West marks and a higher one in East marks.

Face Tight Few Weeks

Western Berliners face a period of adjustment and will have to tighten their belts for a few weeks. They already have drawn most of their pay for March, largely in East marks, which are worthless in the western sector. To tide them over, they have permission to buy rationed food for East marks until March 31. Up to April 19, half of their monthly rent may be paid in East marks, and taxes may be paid in East marks up to April 30.

The measure virtually wipes out some East-mark bank accounts for the second time in nine months. There are some 150,000,000 East marks in bank accounts of western Berliners. Approach of the reform touched off an East-mark buying spree last week.

Must Dispose Of Marks

Western Berliners will have to dispose of these East marks either by trading them for West marks or by buying in the Soviet sector, which will not be easy. Western authorities actually have encouraged smuggling from the Soviet zone to lighten the airlift.

Formerly they could spend East marks for necessities. The Military Government had advised that the more stable West mark be used for savings.

Prices on rationed goods had been frozen. Now, with the East mark out, the prices must be adjusted to the Western level. With no cheap East mark, western Berliners actually will pay more for meat and potatoes, newspapers and postage stamps.

Will Increase Return

However, the change will redress many inequalities. Some workers had been receiving only a small percentage of West marks in their pay envelopes. This means a large proportion of their wages had only about a quarter as much purchasing power.

Now full West-mark wages will be given Germans who live, work and draw their food rations in the Western sectors, giving them increased purchasing power. Proportionate rates of exchange are worked out for persons living in the west, but working in the Russian sector and drawing food there.

Some Difficulties Seen

Some Berliners may lose their jobs because of shortages of western money and difficulties of changing to a single currency. Many small firms dealt only in East marks, smuggling raw material from the Russian zone. These Germans can pay only in East marks, since they have had no West-mark incomes. Such firms may have to go out of business. Their employés would find East marks virtually valueless in western Berlin.

Allied officials anticipate no increase in unemployment, but some Germans fear that small shops, which have done business with the Soviet sector for East marks, will be forced either to close or to lay off their employés.

Up to mid-March, there were 146,000 totally unemployed and 60,000 partially unemployed persons in west Berlin, according to Military Government statistics.

Gromyko Off For New York U. N. Session

Heads Delegation; Malik Also Coming

Deputy Foreign Minister Was Russia's 'No' Man at U. N. for Two Years

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Tuesday, March 22.—The Moscow radio said today that Chief Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko had left Moscow for New York to attend the coming session of the United Nations General Assembly.

Mr. Gromyko, who has just been appointed Chief Deputy Foreign Minister, will head the Soviet delegation, the broadcast said. This apparently meant that Foreign Minister Andei Y. Vishinsky will not be present.

Other Red Delegates

The broadcast said the delegation will include Yakob Malik, another Deputy Foreign Minister and chief Soviet representative in the Security Council; Georgi N. Zarubin, Soviet Ambassador to Britain; Alexander S. Panyushkin, Ambassador to the United States; S. K. Tsarpkin, deputy representative in the Security Council.

The radio said the Byelo-Russian delegation will be headed by K. V. Kisselev, vice-chairman of the Council of Ministers and Foreign Ministers. Other delegates are V. P. Smolyar, A. S. Stepanenko and N. M. Khomoussko.

The Ukrainian delegation will be headed by V. A. Tarasenko and will include S. P. Demchenko, A. I. Galagan and V. P. Kovalenko.

Albanian Group Reaches Moscow

London, March 21 (AP)—An Albanian Government delegation headed by Premier Colonel General Enver Hoxha arrived in Moscow today to discuss economic matters with Russia.

The makeup of the Albanian delegation suggested that military discussions also might take place between the little Communist-led Balkan nations and the Soviet Union.

The arrival of the Albanians was reported by the Moscow radio, which quoted Hoxha as saying the delegation came "to strengthen still further our economic relations with the Soviet Union." ADP

British Offer Cash For Uranium

London, March 21 (AP)—Britain offered its Colonial territories cash today as a spur to production of uranium, the atom-bomb material.

The Ministry of Supply said it would buy all uranium ore and concentrates produced in the empire during the next ten years and would pay $2.75 for every pound of "contained uranium oxide delivered."

"Higher prices may be established by negotiation where costs of production are shown to be greater," the ministry said.

Where concentrates potentially available justify the outlay, the ministry is willing to provide the capital required for concentrating plants." ADP

12 Fined; Fought Mosley March In London

London, March 21 (AP)—Twelve men who proudly admitted breaking up a march of members of Sir Oswald Mosley's fascistic "Union Movement" were finel £5 ($20) each in a Magistrate's Court today.

Rioting broke out over a wide area of London's squalid East End last night when followers of Sir Oswald clashed with Communists and other opponents. About 20 persons were injured slightly, including eight police.

Eleven Others Seized

The twelve who were arraigned pleaded guilty to charges of obstructing police assigned to protect the Mosley marchers and of using "insulting words." Eleven others arrested on the same charges will be arraigned in April.

Hundreds of men and women, a majority of them wearing bright red ties, gathered outside the court during the arraignment.

Several hundred police struggled with rioters for hours last night. The demonstrators battled with fists, threw firecrackers and scattered glass marbles and steel ball bearings to make the police horses lose their footing.

Gaullists Lead, Reds Next In French Poll

Paris, March 21 (AP)—Extreme right-wing Gaullists emerged with the largest popular vote of any single party in yesterday's French cantonal (county) elections, final official returns showed today.

Communists at the other political extreme fell off slightly from their 1946 total, but wound up with the second highest vote of any single party. The Gaullists polled about 25 per cent of the popular vote, the Communists about 23 per cent. The remainder went to a multiplicity of parties banded together—for the present—in the coalition which makes up the Government of Radical Socialist Premier Henri Queuille.

Won't Affect Paris

The result of the cantonal elections could not affect the National Government now, but it was looked upon as a barometer of strength. The total of the Communist and Gaullist vote fell only 150,000 short of the combined total of the Government bloc.

Interpretation of the election, in which 723 local legislators were named, was difficult because another 789 will be chosen next Sunday.

There was the usual confusion of French parties. The followers of Gen. Charles de Gaulle and the Communists campaigned against the Government, but for different reasons. The Government parties campaigned together, but the parties are numerous, the alliances unclear and sometimes not too cordial.

Three Groups Compared

The governmental bloc is made up of the predominantly Catholic Popular Republican Movement (MRP), the Radical Socialists, who are right of center; the Socialists, the Republican Liberty party and the independents. The result:

Governmental bloc: 3,667,830.
Gaullists: 1,821,021.
Communists: 1,689,764.

Broken down, the result within the governmental bloc was:

Socialists: 1,206,895.
MRP: 579,390.
Radicals and affiliates: 798,581.
Independent Socialists: 185,431.
Republican Liberty (rightist): 42,281.
Independents: 855,252.

The total vote was 7,178,615.

Party Disputes Number

The Interior Ministry announced that of the 723 seats at stake, the de Gaullists won 170, more than any other single party. De Gaulle's Rally of the French People (RPF) disputed the figure, claiming 266 local councilors. The Communists, because of certain election-law peculiarities, elected only fifteen councilors. In one community, a councilor may be elected with 40,000 votes, while in a smaller one, a mere thousand votes may elect.

The Communists showed a five per cent drop in the total vote from their 1946 figure, but this was the first time the RPF had appeared on cantonal election ballots, indicating that the Communists were holding their own well.

Breakdown Is Given

Final results in councilors elected:

Gaullists, 170.
Communists, 15.
Groups supporting the Government, 538.

A breakdown of the governmental parties shows that Premier Queuille's Radical party won 138 seats, Socialists 108, Independent Socialists 37 and Popular Republicans 36.

Paul Reynaud's Independent Republicans, a group but not a party, won 199 seats. Reynaud is currently supporting the Government.

Another twenty seats were divided up among unclassified officeholders.

Queuille Bloc Gains

Paris, March 21 (AP) — Parties supporting Henri Queuille's middle-of-the-road government won France's local elections, but Gen. Charles de Gaulle scored a personal success. Final returns were issued by the Interior Ministry tonight.

The score in yesterday's voting, the Ministry said, was:

For the parties in the Government—31.12 per cent of the vote.

For the Government's opponents, the Communists and de Gaullists—48.88 per cent.

Queuille Regime Strengthened

Neutral observers here said Queuille's moderate, pro-American Government was strengthened.

The right-wing de Gaullists, however, won the largest popular vote of any single party in the Cantonal (county) elections—25.34 per cent.

The Communists showed they still are a force to be reckoned with, despite the North Atlantic pact, the Marshall plan and the Berlin airlift. They polled second-highest number of votes—23.54 per cent.

But the parties in Queuille's coalition Government held a 2-to-1 advantage over the de Gaullists and a slightly larger edge over the Communists.

Opposition Is Split

De Gaulle is battling for power because he says only he can give France the strong leadership she needs. The Communists want to overthrow the present government because they say it is too pro-American and anti-Soviet Union.

Fortunately for Queuille's government, the Communists and de Gaullists detest one another.

The Interior Ministry, headed by Socialist Minister Jules Moch, put Communists' loss of strength at twelve per cent, by comparison with the full legislative elections of 1946. It said this represents the loss of half a million supporters.

The ministry put loss of strength by the Socialists at 2.5 per cent, and by the Catholic MRP at eighteen per cent.

Overall, the election revealed a trend to the right with a large number of votes going to independents. This was expected in an election on such a local plane.

De Gaulle's party introduced something new by issuing its own set of statistics, not only for itself but for the other parties. The de Gaullists claimed 266 men elected as councillors—local officials who help govern the cantons, mostly in an advisory way.

De Gaulle Claims 32 P.C.

This compared to the 170 the Interior Ministry, official tabulator of election results, credited to the de Gaullists. De Gaulle also disputed the ministry's 25 per cent figure accorded him in the popular vote and claimed 32 per cent.

Altogether, 1,508 councillor posts were open. Because an absolute majority was necessary for election, however, only 723 winners were returned. Of these, the government bloc won 536, de Gaulle's French People's party (RPF) 170, and the Communists 17.

Run-off voting for the other 785 seats will be held next Sunday, when the man who simply gets the most votes will be elected.

Certain French election law peculiarities helped keep down the number of Communists elected. There was no voting in Paris, where the Communists have considerable strength.

The Government Bloc

The government bloc is made up of:

The Radical Socialist (moderate) party of Queuille and Eduard Herriot, President (speaker) of the lower house of Parliament.

The Catholic, Popular Republican Movement (MRP) of Foreign Minister Robert Schumann, who will soon sign the North Atlantic pact in Washington.

The Socialist party of president of the republic Vincent Auriol and elder statesman Leon Blum.

Independents, and Rightists of the Republican Liberty Party (PRL).

How Votes Were Split

The total 7,176,615 votes were split this way:

Government Bloc 3,667,830.
De Gaullists 1,821,021.
Communists 1,689,764.

The Socialists showed themselves to be the strongest member of the Government Bloc, getting 16.81 per cent of the vote, or 1,206,895 ballots.

3 French Delegates Denied Visas To U.S.

Paris, March 21 (AP)—A United States embassy spokesman said today three French delegates have been denied visas to the United States, where they planned to attend the Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace in New York.

One delegate is a Catholic priest, Father Jean Boulier, who formerly taught at the Catholic Institute here. The others are Paul Eluard, French Communist poet and Mme. Eugenie Cotton, president of the pro-Communist Women's International Democratic Federation.

The spokesman said the State Department announced last week it would admit 23 persons from behind Iron Curtain countries to attended the congress. He said those 23 were officials but the three Frenchmen have no official status. The State Department has said the conference would be used as a sounding board for Communist propaganda.

Sforza Scores Russ For 'Use Of Aggression'

Rome, March 21 (AP)—Russia, through a formula "not only of aggression but also of the simple threat of aggression," has divided the world in two, Foreign Minister Carlo Sforza told the Italian Senate today.

The North Atlantic defense alliance is the last and only possible guarantee of peace, he declared, as the Senate began to debate Italian adherence to the pact.

Sforza, who has led postwar Italy into steadily closer relations with the West, charged Moscow with forming the first bloc in the United Nations, which destroyed the principles of the United Nations "and annulled the capacity of this organization to guarantee peace and direct reconstruction."

Use Of Veto Scored

He said another grave blow to the United Nations was Russia's "continued and indiscriminate use of the veto" in the Security Council. Coups which placed Communists in control in eastern Europe also contributed to the widening split between East and West, he said, and finally it was "natural that western Europe should begin to search for a formula to achieve peace and reconstruction."

In all, 37 senators were scheduled to speak in the debate, including at least ten Communists.

Approved By House

The lower house—the Chamber of Deputies—approved Government support of the pact after a three-day Communist filibuster last week.

Senate approval also is expected.

Communists and their Leftist allies, meanwhile, continued demonstrations against the pact throughout the country.

[Police used tear gas and eleven people, including four policemen, were wounded when shooting broke out during anti-Atlantic pact demonstrations at Lavello, near Potenza, Reuter reported from Rome. When police tried to disperse the demonstrators with tear gas the crowd fought back and succeeded in disarming three policemen. Shooting then broke out. Potenza is 60 miles east of Salerno.]

Unita, Communist organ, said editorially the agreement "provides the right of concession of military bases by one member to another." This, the paper said, means European submission to American imperialism. Government leaders have denied the pact requires Italy to turn over any bases.

Treaty Bid Foreseen

Italy may seek revision of its World War II peace treaty to permit strengthening her armed forces under the Atlantic defense system.

Italy wants Western support for easing military restrictions in the treaty. Russia, however, would be expected to block any move for a four-power revision.

Italy's postwar army is limited to 250,000 men and 200 tanks, her air force to 25,000 men and 200 fighter planes, and her navy to 25,000 men, two battleships, four cruisers and four destroyers.

Some Italians say that under these restrictions Italy would be a liability rather than an effective ally of other Western nations.

The independent Messaggero said Sforza will discuss revision of these military clauses in Washington later this month.

SFORZA SAYS AGGRESSION IS RUSSIAN PLAN

Tells Italian Senate Treaty Is Only Peace Guarantee

Rome, March 21 (AP)—Carlo Sforza, Foreign Minister, defended the North Atlantic treaty today as the "only, last possible guarantee of peace."

30.24- 1907

He accused Russia of following a day-by-day formula of aggression that has "divided the world in two."

Sforza opened debate in the Senate on Italy's taking part in the Atlantic alliance. Thirty-seven senators are expected to speak, including at least ten Communists. Political circles predict the Government will win a 70-vote majority.

Approved By Deputies

The Chamber of Deputies approved Italian participation last week after leftist deputies had turned the debate into a 58-hour filibuster which ended in the worst disorder in Italian parliamentary history.

The Italian Foreign Minister, long an exponent of closer relations with the West, charged Moscow struck the first blow in the cold war by forming its own eastern bloc. This, he said, "destroyed the principles of the United Nations."

It was only natural, he said, that western Europe should begin a search for guarantees of peace and reconstruction.

Notes Threat Of Sabotage

Sforza took note of warnings by the Communists and their Socalist allies of public "peace" manifestations throughout the nation. He said opponents of the pact seek "to sabotage by all means our beginnings of defensive organization."

The Foreign Minister replied sharply to the recent statement of Palmiro Togliatti, Communist leader, that it would be the duty of the Italian people to give effective aid to any Russian "liberating" army operating on Italian soil against an aggressor.

In case any such "liberating troops" ever arrived at our frontiers, said Sforza, they would come only as "aggressors."

Praised As Security Plan

Sforza praised the Atlantic alliance as "the most complex organization of defense and security that history records."

This form of collaboration, he said, "menaces no one. It does not prevent the Communist parties from opposing (the pact) immediately with all the forces at their disposal. . . ."

After the Senate's vote, Italy's Cabinet is expected to reaffirm its approval of the treaty and give instructions to Sforza. The Foreign Minister will leave for Washington and final alliance talks late this month.

Twelve Germans Chosen As Ruhr Industry Trustees

Berlin, March 21 (AP)—The United States and British military governments have approved twelve Germans as trustees for the Ruhr Valley's vast iron and steel industry.

Phillips Hawkins, economics adviser to Gen. Lucius D. Clay, said names would be made public in about ten days, after they have said whether they will take the jobs.

Hawkins said the trustees were selected from a list of about 60 nominees proposed by different German groups, including trade unions and the Steel Manufacturers Association. He said their political as well as technical backgrounds had been investigated.

There have been charges that business interests are trying to put former munition makers back into control. Military government has gone into these complaints.

The trustees will exercise limited functions of ownership over the Ruhr works. They will take orders, however, from the Allied Ruhr Authority, which is soon to be set up.

The trustees will serve until new companies are formed to take title to the industries for the Germans. The trustees will hold only the certificates of ownership and will not be able, for instance, to sell any stock or declare dividends.

One of their tasks will be to make recommendations to the combined United States and British steel group on contemplated new German companies.

GERMANS ASK REICH 'UNITY'

2 Politicians Make Plea Over Occupation Powers' Heads

Frankfurt, Germany, March 21 (AP)—Two prominent Germans appealed tonight in the name of the "German fatherland and peace" for Germans in the east and west to "unite" over the heads of the occupation powers.

The appeal was made in a press conference by Dr. Rudolf Nadolny, aging former German Ambassador to Moscow, and Dr. Andreas Hermes, pre-Hitler Food Minister in Germany.

The plea was made two days after Soviet zone Communists made similar calls for "unity" by appealing to the patriotism of the German people.

Purpose Of Meeting Explained

Nadolny and Hermes denied they were "Soviet emissaries." Such charges have been made recently by newspapers in the British-American area.

The two called the press conference to explain the purpose of a semi-secret meeting they held ten days ago with leading Right-wing politicians and economic leaders of the western zones.

The two said the meeting, at Bad Godesberg, was held to "make a first attempt to discuss life questions of the German people."

They said they felt a solution to these questions—"upon which depends the fate of all Germans"—could be obtained only by unity of the German people, both of the east and west.

Want To Create Platform

They appealed to all political parties to "come together on a higher level for the common effort" of German unity. They did not say how the non-Communist parties could hope to get along with the Communist - led Socialist Unity party which runs the eastern zone.

At one point Nadolny said "we old German diplomats know only one phrase by which we work: for fatherland and peace."

Asked how he hoped to realize a "unity" of the west and the east, Hermes said:

"I am sure we will find partners for conversations with the east."

Hermes and Nadolny said they rejected the Communist way of life in the Russian zone. They said they thought co-operation with the Germans of the east could come after "we have created a platform in western Germany."

Pact Called Unimportant

The two politicians said the Russian blockade of Berlin was an "important matter which the German people cannot pass by."

They did not say how they hoped the German people could solve this Allied dispute.

Nadolny declared that the "North Atlantic pact is not important and it is not opportune for us to take a position."

He implied it was unwise for the Germans to mix in foreign politics.

Recently Gen. Lucius D. Clay said he believed Nadolny was speaking for himself. British observers, however, said they thought it an attempt to sow discord and unrest among Nationalist-minded Germans and delay the formation of a west German government.

LIFT PLANE CRASHES

Berlin, March 21 (A. P.).—Three persons were killed and one injured in the crash of a British civilian plane flying the Berlin airlift, the British Military Government announced today. The announcement said the plane was a four-motored Halton, civilian version of the old Halifax bomber, and that it crashed near the Schleswigland Airfield in Schleswig Holstein last night.

Today's death brought the total fatalities in the airlift to forty-four—twenty-eight Americans and sixteen Britons. The British employ a number of planes chartered from civilian airlines in their part of the airlift.

Report Reds Raped Girl in U. S. Zone

Coburg, March 21 (A. P.).—German police reported today that three Russian soldiers crossed into the American zone near Neustadt March 10 and raped a 19-year-old German girl.

They said the Russians took the girl's identity card and returned to Soviet territory.

Catholics Cool To Demands By Poland

Warsaw, Poland, March 21 (AP)—The hierarchy of the Roman Catholic Church has received coldly a Government demand that the clergy cease "hostile acts" before the way is cleared for normalizing church-state relations.

The Government-controlled press told the people that concrete moves for bridging the gap must come from the church.

The newspapers chorused a charge that the church was guilty of "chaos-mongering." The press said anti-Government pastoral letters issued by some bishops were responsible for the differences between the church and the state.

Vatican Is Assailed

Editorials renewed attacks on what the press calls the anti-Polish attitude of the Vatican.

Catholic sources expressed fear that Bishop Czeslaw Kaczmarek and Stanislaw Adamski, named as motivators of "anti-state propaganda," might be arrested.

Both bishops were criticized in the press for what the Government called a subservient attitude toward the Nazis during the invasion.

The Catholic hierarchy accuses the Communist-led Government of trying to curb religious instruction in schools. The Government denies any anti-church activity.

POLISH UNDERGROUND WORK

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Gen. Franciszek Jozwiak, commander-in chief of the Polish militia, reported underground bands killed 122 volunteer militiamen in the last three years.

Jozwiak said the citizens' volunteer militia reserve, generally known as "Ormo", included among its membership 84,000 peasants and workers.

The militiamen killed lost their lives in battling underground bands preceding the national referendum in Poland on June 30,1946, and the general parlimentay elections on Jan. 30, 1947.

The "Ormo" also was widely used in 1948 to smash illegal distilleries of vodka. A total of 863 moonshine stills were seized by the militiamen.

Premier Selects New Cabinet For China

Nanking, March 21 (AP)—Responsible Chinese sources said today Premier Ho Ying-chin had chosen a Cabinet, ending an internal crisis.

The official Central News Agency, these sources said, will announce the Cabinet officers tomorrow.

Earlier the Premier was reported to have completed the Cabinet. But sources then said he had submitted the list to Chiang Kai-shek, retired President, for his approval.

May Becloud Peace Issue

Such a step would becloud the peace issue. Chiang is No. 1 on the Communist war-criminal list, and some of his supporters have opposed Acting President Li Tsung-jen's peace efforts.

Earlier, the control Yuan accused former Premier Sun Fo of misappropriation of 110,000,000 gold yuan (about $100,000 last January when the offense allegedly occurred).

The control Yuan, auditing body which also has the power of impeachment, forwarded the indictment to Li and the Supreme Court.

Illegal Deposit Changed

It charges that Sun Fo ordered funds deposited in a Shanghai bank account under his son's name and that they were drawn upon for illegal purposes.

A subcommittee of the control Yuan earlier voted an indictment charging Sun Fo with releasing dye-stuffs to Miss Lan Ni, his "concubine."

A Government spokesman confirmed, said the Central News Agency, that the cruiser Chungking, China's largest warship which deserted to the Communists last month, had been bombed and damaged by Nationalist planes.

Destroyer Reported Sunk

The destroyer Huangan, which also deserted, was reportedly sunk by Nationalist planes last Tuesday. Neither report has been confirmed by any other source.

The spokesman said the Chinese gunboat 201 went over to the Communists and was dismantled by them at Chefoo, the main Shantung Peninsula port in Red hands. He denied the reported desertion of seven other Nationalist craft.

The Central News Agency also reported the arrival yesterday of two 1,500 ton "gift" destroyers from the United States. The destroyers arrived at Kaoshiuang, Formosa port, from Norfolk, Va.

HO CABINET LIST GIVEN

Chinese Premier Gives Moscow Envoy Foreign Post

Nanking, March 21 (AP)—Premier Ho Ying-chin completed a cabinet tonight and called its first meeting for Wednesday to discuss appointment of delegates to talk peace with the Communists.

The Cabinet list, as announced by the official Central news agency, included:

Deputy Premier, Chia Ching-te, former personnel director of the Kuomintang (nationalist party).

Foreign Minister, Fu Ping-chang, now ambassador to Moscow.

Finance, S. Y. Liu, now governor of the Central Bank of China.

Defense, Gen. Hsu Yung-chang, a holdover in the same job from the Sun Fo Cabinet.

Economic Affairs, Y. C. Sun, now chairman of the national resources commission.

Ministers without portfolio are: former Premier Chang Chun; Gen. Chang Chih-chung, a holdover from the Sun Fo cabinet; Chu Chia-hua, Mo Te-hui and Ho Yao-su.

Formation of the cabinet had been delayed because of reported criticism of Fu Ping-chang on grounds he was too friendly to Russia. Western diplomats, however, do not regard his appointment as aligning China's policy.

While Gen. Hsu Yung-chang is retained as defense minister, Premier Ho is expected to make most of the Military decisions.

M. P.s Found Not Guilty of Private's Death During Japan Riot

TOKYO, March 21 (AP).—Privates Edward R. Eggleston, nineteen, of Minneapolis, and Albert Guilliano, eighteen, of Buffalo, today were found not guilty of manslaughter charges by a general court martial.

The two were members of the 7th Division military police, who fired on a rioting crowd of enlisted men at Camp Crawford, Hokkaido, Jan. 23.

Private Jose Martinez, of San Pedro, Calif., was killed and three other soldiers were wounded. All were members of the 11th Air-Borne Division which was being replaced at the time by the 7th Division from Korea.

North Koreans' Raids Repulsed

Seoul, Korea, March 21 (AP)—North Korean raids across the border near Kaesong Friday and Sunday were reported today by Kim Dong Sung, South Korean information director.

Kim said that on Friday more than 100 northern troops penetrated southern territory two miles, before southern forces drove them off. He said he was informed that 30 northerners and one southerner were killed.

A similar raid by 50 northerners in the same area Sunday was repulsed without reported casualties, he said.

'Shanghaied' Sailor Leaves.

Honolulu, March 21 (A. P.).—James Patrick Ryan, United States Navy seaman, who claims he was shanghaied into the French Foreign Legion, left last night on a Military Air Transport Service plane for San Francisco. Ryan said he is under orders to report to the Navy receiving station at San Francisco and does not know what charges, if any, he will face. He is traveling without guard.

Shanghaied, Says Sailor Suspected Of Desertion

Alameda, Cal., March 21 (AP)—A sailor who says he was shanghaied into the French Foreign Legion was placed in custody as a suspected deserter today.

At the same time the Navy arranged to fly the sailor, James Patrick Ryan, to the medical center at Bethesda, Md., for an examination. The reason was not disclosed.

Formal desertion charges have not been filed against Ryan. He has insisted ever since his return to navy jurisdiction at Tsingtao, China, that he did not desert.

The French Defense Ministry in Paris has stated officially that Ryan enlisted in the Foreign Legion. The Ministry denied that he was shanghaied into the service.

ISRAEL AGREES TO WITHDRAW

Armistice Said To Restore 14 Villages To Lebanon

Tel Aviv, Israel, March 21 (AP)—Informants said today the new Israeli-Lebanese armistice calls for the evacuation of fourteen villages in Lebanon still held by Israeli forces. The Lebanese now hold no territory in Israel.

The armistice also provides for the demilitarization of zones 6 to 12 miles wide on both sides of the frontier. Each state will be allowed a defensive force of only 1,500 men in those zones. Other troops there now will be pulled back.

Agree To Return Homes

A prisoner exchange and the return to Lebanese villagers to their homes also is included in the agreement, initialed at En Naqura, Lebanon, last night by Israeli and Lebanese negotiators. Formal signing of the armistice is scheduled for Wednesday.

The agreement is the second the Jewish state has reached with one of its Arab neighbors. The first armistice in the Palestine war was signed at Rhodes February 24 between Israel and Egypt.

Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, United Nations acting mediator, said at Rhodes today that Syria has accepted an invitation to talk over an armistice with Israel.

The talks will be held, as have those with Egypt, Lebanon and Trans-Jordan, under the eye of a United Nations official.

Britain Reports Aid Call

According to unconfirmed reports heard in Rhodes, Israel and Trans-Jordan will be ready to sign an armistice this week end.

Meanwhile, a British Foreign Office spokesman in London said Trans-Jordan had asked the British for military aid in defending her southern border with Israel.

British troops now are garrisoning Aqaba, Trans-Jordan's outlet on the Red Sea, under terms of a treaty between the two countries. The Foreign Office spokesman said Trans-Jordan now wants British troops to patrol a 60-mile stretch of the border running north from Aqaba to the village of Gharandal.

Amman Disputes Claim

Later a Trans-Jordan official in Amman was reported to have denied that his Government had asked additional help from Britain. Commenting on this, the British spokesman declared: "What we said earlier today is still correct."

In London, Christopher Mayhew, British Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, told Commons: "We are considering the request from the Trans-Jordan Government" for the use of British troops in patrolling the Israeli-Trans-Jordan frontier.

He said he thought the landing of British troops at Aqaba "has had an extremely beneficial effect on the negotiations for an armistice" between Israel and Trans-Jordan.

An Israeli Foreign Office spokesman in Tel Aviv said Israel would regard it as "a serious breach" of the present Palestine truce if British troops took over defense of the Trans-Jordan frontier.

Israel, Lebanon In Accord

En Naqura, Lebanon, March 21 (AP)—Israel and Lebanon have agreed to an armistice.

It is the second such agreement arrived at between the new Jewish state and one of the Arab nations that vowed to destroy it when Israel declared its independence last May.

The agreement is to be signed here Wednesday. Delegates of the two countries initialed it last night. The terms were not revealed.

Other Talks In Progress

The first armistice in the Palestine war was signed at Rhodes February 24 between Israel and Egypt.

Israel is engaged in further armistice talks at Rhodes with Trans-Jordan.

Britain Consults U.S.

The treaty provides that if one is attacked the other must help if asked.

Britain is consulting the United States on the Trans-Jordan request and on the whole Palestine situation, informed sources said.

Accompanying the Trans-Jordan request were detailed allegations that Israeli forces have made several incursions into Trans-Jordan in the 100-mile-long border area between the Dead Sea and Aqaba on the Red Sea.

Troops Already In Aqaba

British troops already are garrisoned in Aqaba. They were sent there in January in response to an earlier Trans-Jordan call for help.

Here to advise the Foreign Office on the Amman Government's plea is Sir Alexander Kirkbride, British Minister to Trans-Jordan. Kirkbride had a long talk on the Palestine situation with Foreign Secretary Bevin last week.

A Foreign Office spokesman said Trans-Jordan wants British troops to patrol the border from Aqaba on the Red Sea northward to the village of Gharandal.

Gharandal is about 60 miles north of Aqaba. This area is in the Araba Wadi, a valley which forms the boundary between Israel and Trans-Jordan.

Slim Studies Situation

The spokesman said the request was received through C. M. Pirie-Gordon, the British charge d'affaires in Amman.

An authoritative source said the whole Trans-Jordan-Israel military situation was studied in detail last week by Field Marshal Sir William Slim, chief of the British imperial general staff, when he stopped off for talks in the British-garrisoned Suez Canal Zone.

If British troops patrol the Aqaba Valley, they would take a big load off Trans-Jordan's Arab Legion troops, which has been deployed at strategic points along the frontier.

Later in the day, a Government spokesman in Amman denied that Trans-Jordan had made any additional requests for troop help from Britain, but the Foreign Office spokesman declared:

"What we said earlier today is still correct."

Trans-Jordan Appeals To Britain For Troops

London, March 21 (AP)—Trans-Jordan has asked Britain for military aid in defending its southern border with Israel, the British Foreign Office said today.

A spokesman said Britain is studying the request, which was made under the military alliance treaty signed in 1946.

He said the call was for British troops "to patrol part of Trans-Jordan's southern borders in view of alleged Israeli incursions" into Trans-Jordan territory.

Britain Seeking Arab Unity To Resist Reds

Amman, Trans-Jordan, March 21 (AP)—A reliable informant here said today that Britain is putting pressure on the Arab states to settle their political differences in order to present a united Middle Eastern front against communism.

The first important step in that direction, this source said, would be to encourage Trans-Jordan to resolve its long-standing dispute with Syria.

King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan wants to combine the Arab states of the Middle East into what he calls a Greater Syria. Syria and Lebanon look on the idea with distrust and disfavor.

Communism Feared

Only a few days ago, Abdullah invited President Al Sayed Shukri al Kuwatly of Syria to a personal meeting to discuss the Greater Syria idea. Neither maintains diplomatic representation with the other.

Britain is represented here as fearing a spread of communism should the Arabs remain divided, and as regarding the Trans-Jordan feud with Syria as the key to much Arab disunity.

The quarrel between Trans-Jordan and Egypt is another, but steps now are under way to heal that breach.

Iraq Holds Triangle

Meanwhile, it was learned here that Iraq has declined to withdraw from the Tulkarm-Jenin-Nablus triangle of north central Palestine because of a feeling that Trans-Jordan is not ready to accept the responsibility of replacing the Iraqis.

It could mean that the Iraqis will be forced to negotiate with the Israelis directly or face possible action by the Jews.

Lashio Captured, Burma Claims

Rangoon, Burma, March 21 (AP)—The Government claimed today that it has retaken the northern town of Lashio from rebel forces, "without casualties."

The report said Lashio was held by an insurgent offshoot of the Peoples Voluntary Organization, which also holds the northern mining town of Namtu.

Another report said Communist prisoners broke out of jail in Karen-held Mandalay and attacked two police stations in the neighboring district of Nonywa, but were beaten off with heavy losses.

Air Strikes Reported

In the Irrawaddy Delta region, Burmese air strikes have been reported against rebels in the rice region around Kyaiklat, 40 miles southwest of Rangoon.

There are reports that the main band of the P.V.O., which is negotiating with the Government, has occupied several large midwestern towns, ostensibly to protect them from Karen and Communist rebels.

Reports described the occupation of Namtu by rebel P.V.O.'s as "peaceful." Civil police were said to be co-operating with them.

Communications Cut

Namtu is the headquarters of the British-owned Burma Corporation, which mines more than $10,000,000 worth of silver and lead a year.

It is near Lashio, on the wartime Burma Road. Air service from Rangoon to Lashio, which is also under P.V.O. control, has been cut off, as has telegraph and mail service.

The P.V.O. is the former private army of an assassinated Burmese leader. It staged an abortive revolt against the Government last year.

It has no connection with the Karen tribesmen who are currently fighting to set up an independent state. In Rangoon and various other areas, the P.V.O.'s have fought beside the Government.

Burmese Rebels Hit Near Rangoon

Rangoon, Burma, March 21 (AP)—Extensive air and ground actions against rebel forces in the Mandalay and Rangoon areas were reported today by the Burmese Government.

Lashio, 125 miles northeast of Mandalay on the wartime Burma Road, changed hands twice, the Government announcement said.

Lashio first was reported to have been seized along with the northern mining town of Namtu by an insurgent offshoot of the People's Voluntary Organization.

Communists Beaten Off

Today, the Government claimed its forces reoccupied Lashio "without casualties." Namtu, where the British-owned Burma Corporation operates valuable silver and lead mines, remained in rebel hands. Civil police there were said to be co-operating with the Voluntary Organization.

Another report said Communist prisoners who broke out of jail in Mandalay were beaten off with heavy losses when they attacked two police stations in the neighboring district of Nonywa. Mandalay itself it is held by rebellious Karen tribesmen.

Air strikes were reported by the Government against rebel concentrations in the Irrawaddy delta area around Kyaiklat, 40 miles southwest of Rangoon.

Volunteers Seize Towns

Several large midwestern towns—Yenangyaung, Chauk Myingyan and Pakokku—were reported to have been seized by the main band of the People's Volunteers, which seeks to prevent them from falling into the hands of the Communist and Karen rebels.

Rangoon officials said the Government continues to function in those areas.

The main organization of the Volunteers has been negotiating with the Government toward reconciliation of a disagreement which split them apart last year. At that time, the Volunteers had argued in favor of patching up differences with the Communists.

Bunche Reveals Syria and Israel Agree to Talks

Tel Aviv Source Says the Armistice Parleys Will Be Held Near Frontier

RHODES, March 21 (AP).—Syria has accepted an invitation to negotiate an armistice with Israel, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, acting United Nations mediator for Palestine, announced today. Israel also has accepted, he said.

Truman May Ask Power For Rearming Europe

Washington, March 21 (AP)—President Truman is expected to ask Congress for a free hand in allocating arms to Western Europe under the proposed billion dollar military aid program.

The program is scheduled to go to the Capitol about the same time as the North Atlantic security treaty, or immediately thereafter. Mr. Truman will send up the treaty for Senate approval immediately after it is signed here by an expected twelve nations, two weeks from today.

Asks Wide Authority

According to present State Department planning—the department is rounding up all military aid programs for Mr. Truman—the President should try to get from Congress as much of a blank check authority as he can under whatever expenditure limit Congress fixes.

Present estimates are that more than $1,000,000,000 will be required in the first twelve months to help Europe rearm.

Representative Vinson (D., Ga.), chairman of the House Armed Services committee, predicted the arms requests "will be approved in both houses without a particle of trouble."

55 Seen In Favor

The Senate alone, by a two-thirds vote, must approve the North Atlantic treaty if America is to take part. An Associated Press canvass of Senators showed 55 inclined to favor ratification, 1 opposed and 37 unwilling to go on record now. Two of the 95 Senators were not reached and there is one vacancy.

The arms-aid program is designed by the Administration to carry out the "mutual aid" provision of the treaty. It would help the countries of western Europe fulfill their roles in the "common strategic plan" to be worked out by the Allied powers.

Plan Common Defense

The first official reference to this scheme of defense appeared in a State Department pamphlet explaining the details of the treaty.

The two world wars, the department said, "proved that a major conflict in Europe would inevitably involve the United States." The Atlantic treaty, it added, is "designed to give assurance" that if a third world war breaks out, the West will have a "co-ordinated defense in which the actual military strength and the military potential of all the members will be integrated into a common strategic plan."

Mutual Defense Agreed

The formation of that plan is one of the two major purposes justifying the existence of the alliance; the other is the commitment to be undertaken by the United States and the other nations that in case one is attacked, all will at once act against the aggressor.

The State Department emphasized in its official paper that whether this country went to war if a major attack occurred in Europe would be a question for Congress to decide.

Want Global Security

That the new security project has limitations as well as advantages even in official thinking was brought out in the course of a Department sponsored broadcast yesterday. Assistant Secretary of State Dean Rusk declared that the American people "want a worldwide security system and they won't be content with a (North Atlantic) regional system."

TRUMAN PLEADS FOR QUICK ACTION ON ATLANTIC PACT

Disagrees with Utah Senator's Proposal for Delay in Signing

PLAN OPEN HEARINGS

Leaders Agree Provisions of Treaty Must Be Fully Aired

WASHINGTON, March 21—(AP) An appeal by President Truman for quick Senate action on the proposed North Atlantic defense treaty was disclosed today by Senator Watkins (R-Utah).

The President, in a letter to Watkins, said he hopes Senate approval of the pact will be "as expeditious as is consistent with full consideration" by senators and the public.

He said "I do not agree" that there should be a 60-day interval between publication of the treaty and signature, as urged by Watkins. The text of the proposed alliance was made public March 18; it is scheduled to be signed April 4. But it cannot become effective until the Senate ratifies it.

Public Hearings Planned

Chairman Connally (D-Tex) said the Foreign Relations Committee will open public hearings on the treaty soon after it is signed.

He told a reporter the hearings will last at least a week to give the committee and the public the views of all concerned with the alliance.

Senator George (D-Ga), a committee member, also said it is important for the treaty to be aired fully.

"And the American people should be invited to furnish their views," George said in an interview.

He said he expects Secretary of State Acheson to give the Senate some estimate of the cost of rearming the pact members before the treaty gets to a vote in the Senate. This has been estimated at $1,000,000,000 the first year.

"The arms program is not necessarily a part of the pact," George said, "but as the treaty has evolved, it is dependent on the members being re-armed."

Connally said the State Department probably will have an arms program drawn before the Senate takes final action on the treaty.

He said this does not mean the United States will go into a "vast" re-armament program or that the treaty members will increase the size of their standing armies.

"It means," he said, "that the armament they have now will be brought up to date and modernized."

Seen Barrier to War

Mr. Truman wrote:

"I stated in my inaugural address that the primary purpose of the Rio treaty and the proposed North Atlantic treaty is to provide unmistakable proof of the joint determination of the free countries to resist armed attack from any quarters."

"It is my belief that if we can make it sufficiently clear, in advance, that any armed attack affecting our national security would be met with overwhelming force, the armed attack might never occur."

Mr. Truman said he wanted to call Watkins' attention to the extent of cooperation between the Senate and the administration in drawing up the North Atlantic treaty.

"Ordinarily," he said, "treaties are negotiated by the state department and discussed with the (Senate) Foreign Relations Committee only after they have been signed and submitted to the Senate for its advice and consent to ratification.

"In view of the importance of the present treaty there has been close collaboration between the state department and the committee since its inception." This was an "unusual step," he said.

Mr. Truman wrote that the treaty had been negotiated on the basis of "advice"—as he put it—laid down in a Senate resolution adopted last June 11.

He said there would "undoubtedly be ample opportunity" for full Senate and public consideration between the time the treaty was made public and the time final Senate action is taken.

However, Watkins still demanded a 60-day delay before the signing. On March 7, he had written Mr. Truman protesting that Senators had been kept in the dark during the prolonged negotiations.

Noting that Mr. Truman allowed only 17 days between release of the treaty text and the date set for signing, Watkins asked the Senate today:

"What possible harm can come from allowing the full period of 60 days?"

Watkins Pushes Inquiry

Majority Leader Lucas (D-Ill) had asked the Senate to refrain from discussing other subjects while the issue of rent controls was being thrashed out. However, Watkins spoke at length on the proposed treaty.

He questioned the meaning of Article Five which provides that an armed attack against one of the signatories shall be considered "an attack against them all."

Watkins told his colleagues:

"Its meaning is already a matter of dispute among some of our ablest lawyers. Right now it sounds like double talk to me. Would it bind the pact nations, individually or collectively, to come to the aid of a nation attacked by an aggressor?"

He continued:

"I can find nothing in the pact with respect to the position of a signatory member should a communist regime come into power through the process of infiltration or by a legal election.

30.24- 1909

"Would a communist government be welcomed as a member of the pact? Should means of expelling such nations be included in the pact?"

The Utah senator also wanted to know:

1. How far is the alliance to be extended? He asked whether it would include the Mediterranean nations of Italy, Greece and Turkey? Would Germany be permitted to join, and what "new pacts in Asia are contemplated?"

2. Can U. S. generals "tell us what such a defense organization as the North Atlantic pact suggests will cost the American people?

3. Are we "committing ourselves to a ground war in Europe?"

4. Is the proposed alliance "the only way left to preserve our security and the security of our friends overseas?"

Watkins suggested it would be necessary for the Senate to explore all other methods "before abandoning the historic policy of the United States in relation to alliances with foreign nations."

Baruch Asks End of Cold War

Tells Mayors' Conference What We Need Is 'Peace With Self-respect.'

Washington, March 21 (A. P.).—Bernard M. Baruch declared today the need is urgent for the United States to "seek a decision" in making world peace.

Baruch, an adviser of Presidents, told the United States Conference of Mayors that efforts to cope with high prices and taxes—or with declining sales and jobs—are doomed to failure without a settlement of the cold war.

"Peace is what we need," he said. "Peace with self-respect."

Recalling that he stressed to Congress a year ago that the time was at hand for a decision, the 78-year-old industrialist told 600 big-city leaders opening their annual meeting: "There has been some progress in that direction—but not enough. We must make up our minds where we stand globally and then organize ourselves to see it through."

Hopes for Soviet Pact.

He advised against "panicky" measures and held out hope for settlement with Russia.

"It is dreadful to contemplate," he said, "that our difficulties should lie with a former associate who did so much to crush a common enemy.

"The mutual sufferings and losses have been almost forgotten in the determination of nations to have the peace cast in their own image. Still, I believe we can get the peace we crave if we pace and control ourselves in the interest of all, and not of selfish groups. To those who clamor for more 'incentive,' I would reply: What greater incentive can there be than to preserve our freedoms without which all material possessions are worthless?

"I am satisfied that if we make up our minds and tell the people what should be done and why, we will be able to guard against possible war and still keep the most tolerable living conditions in the world.

'Ready to Do Our Duty.'

"Should war be forced upon us—which God forbid—we will be ready to do our duty. We need have no fears of the present or future, if we keep ourselves strong militarily, economically and spiritually."

The questions to be solved, Baruch said, are how long the cold war must last and how much of America's resources must be thrown into it; whether foreign aid and armament must constantly be increased; if so, what must be given up at home; and whether other nations can relieve this country of some of "the burdens of the world."

"Until these and related questions are settled, all of us—you mayors, governors, every individual—are prisoners of the Federal Government," Baruch said. "This condition exists because we live in a world of alarums."

War Is Not Imminent, But A Possibility: Royall

Washington, March 21 (AP)—Secretary of the Army Royall told senators today that while war is not "imminent," it is "at least a possibility."

Royall testified before the Senate Armed Services Committee in support of a bill to fix the active strength of the Army at 837,000 officers and men, plus 750,000 in the National Guard.

Calling for an "adequate" Army, Royall told the committee that United States military plans ought to be made for a span of years "and not from crisis to crisis."

Reads Statement

"Our best estimate of the world situation does not indicate that war is imminent," Royall said in a statement read to the committee.

"However, war is at least a possibility. And there appears little liklihood that for a number of years to come we will be free of an international situation fraught with danger and subject to marked fluctuations."

Gen. Omar N. Bradley, army chief of staff, followed Royall to the witness chair.

While the bill would authorize an army of 837,000 men. Bradley said a 677,000-man army is planned for the coming fiscal year.

At present the Army's actual strength is 698,000—with a total officer strength of about 70,000.

Bradley said it will be necessary to cut back the Army's strength by June 30 to live within the $4,476,000,000 budget recommended by President Truman.

The Army is over strength at present, Bradley explained, because enlistments were much greater than was expected.

Bradley told the senators it would be a mistake for this country to put all its defense eggs in the basket of long-range atomic bombing.

Must Hold Ground

The Army must be strong enough, Bradley said, to "hold with ground troops those bases from which effective bombing could be brought against our vital industrial areas."

"Even then," he said, "it may be impossible to prevent isolated cases of attack."

Few military men believe that a war can be won by strategic bombing alone, Bradley said. He added:

"There has been a tendency in this country during the last couple of years to rely entirely for defense on airpower and our possession of the atom bomb. I wish that I could agree that such a concept is sound."

China Atom Expert Gets Home Here

Washington March 21 (AP)—President Truman signed today a bill granting permanent residence in this country to Dr. Chong Kwai Lui, Chinese woman scientist who helped develop the atom bomb.

The Senate Judiciary Committee, in approving the bill, reported she has accumulated knowledge that "might be dangerous to the United States should she be forced to divulge it to an unfriendly country."

Because of the civil war in China, the committee said it had been told it would be "unwise" to compel Dr. Lui to return to her native land at this time.

Dr. Lui came to the United States in 1936 as a student and has remained here on extensions of her original entry permit. She is now working for the Westinghouse Electric Corporation.

Miss Coplon No Spy, Lawyer Says; Just Collecting Data for a Book

WASHINGTON, March 21—(AP) Judith Coplon pleaded innocent today of removing secrets from government files for the benefit of Russia—and her lawyer explained she was merely collecting data for a novel.

Miss Coplon, 27, an attractive former Justice Department employee, came here from New York to answer the latest of two Federal indictments found against her in the alleged espionage case. Her bail on the second indictment was fixed at $10,000—making a total of $30,000—and she was freed when the bond was posted.

The first indictment, returned in New York, accused her and Valentine A. Gubitchev, Soviet engineer at United Nations headquarters, of espionage conspiracy. The second charged specifically that she removed data from Justice Department files "with intent and reason to believe that the information was to be used to the injury of the United States and to the advantage of a foreign nation."

The data was said to include intelligence reports on spy and counter-spy activity in this country.

U. S. District Judge Richmond B. Keech, who received her clear voiced plea of innocent, today raised her present $20,000 bond to $30,000, at the government's request.

The additional $10,000, in cash and cashier's checks, was posted after a brief delay. Miss Coplon's attorney, Archibald Palmer of New York, said the new bond money was supplied by a brother, Bert Coplon of New York.

Under the two indictments, Miss Coplon, if convicted, would be subject to maximum penalties of 48 years imprisonment and $37,000 in fines.

Raymond P. Wheatty, special assistant to Attorney General Clark, asked for the additional bond, telling the court it was the government's position that "should she become a fugitive, it would be difficult to apprehend her."

Palmer, on the other hand, asserted that Miss Coplon's family in New York had only limited means. Describing her as an American descendant of a long line of Americans, he said: "She doesn't know any foreign language. She can't go anywhere. Both of her parents are now ill and that is why she is here today accompanied only by me."

Palmer later told reporters that the case appeared to be "much ado about nothing."

He said Miss Coplon, a Barnard College honor graduate, was a serious-minded girl who, during her employment in Washington, was uninterested in the capital's "Cinderella life."

Instead, he said she had occupied herself with collecting material for a novel, projected to deal with "political and world topics" and with a touch of romance.

He said that notes found in the young woman's purse when she was arrested in New York in company with Gubitchev were notes for the book. The FBI has described them as including confidential information taken out of the department without authority.

When a reporter asked if Miss Coplon's meeting with Gubitchev in New York was "part of the research for the book" Palmer replied:

"If you are a lady working in Washington, it is natural to become acquainted with members of the foreign colony. Meeting a foreigner is just like a Frenchman kissing your hand—it doesn't mean a thing."

Miss Coplon, small and composed, appeared in court in a woolly plaid skirt, a black basque sweater topped by a green coat and a smart black artist's hat.

During the interval between her fingerprinting in the courthouse lockup and her release on bond, Miss Coplon seated herself in the clerk's office and removed one of her small velvet shoes to examine a hole in the sole.

With a wry smile she said: "$30,000 bond and a hole in my shoe."

EX-HARTFORD MAN NAMED TO ECA POST

WASHINGTON, March 21—(AP) Carl P. Tomlinson, Montreal, Canada, has been appointed chief of the industry division of the Marshall Plan mission to Italy, the Economic Cooperation Administration announced today.

He will leave for Rome shortly to take up his duties as an industrial advisor to James D. Zellerback, ECA mission chief.

Tomlinson, 63, is a former resident of Hartford, Conn., where he was associated with various business firms from 1914 to 1938.

ECA records show he is now president and treasurer of F. W. Tomlinson Co., Montreal. After leaving Hartford in 1938, he became executive vice president of McCall-Frontenac Oil Co., Ltd., of Montreal, until he poined the Tomlinson concern in 1945.

The ECA official was sworn in last week.

RETURNED VESSEL RATED 'DIRTIEST'

Cruiser Lent To Soviets Reeks Of Fish, Vodka

Philadelphia, March 21 (AP)—An American Navy officer today described the 8,030-ton cruiser Milwaukee as the "dirtiest ship" he had ever seen.

Commander Roland D. Blockson, USN, made his comment following an inspection of the vessel that sailed under Russian colors during the war. Blockson is senior member of the 4th Naval District's decommissioning and disposal-procedure board.

The Milwaukee was returned to the United States last week after service in the Russian Navy since April, 1944, under the name "Murmansk." It was the first lend-lease vessel returned to this country by the Soviet Union.

Clean Outside, Dirty Within

Blockson said the Milwaukee gleamed outwardly from a new coat of paint applied to the hull and superstructure during a layover at Lewes, Del., where she was turned over to the United States Navy.

But her interior presents a different story, Blockson said after inspecting the ship at the Philadelphia naval base.

"Empty vodka bottles were found in some of the officers' quarters," he said. "Cushions on the couches in the officers' wardroom were in a bad state of disrepair. Below deck there was every need of repair.

"The galleys were coated with a greasy film and reeked of the odor of stale fish. There was no apparent effort to keep the ship in the condition that we Americans do."

Cigar Butts, Litter

The commander said paper, cigar butts and other litter were found throughout the crew's quarters, but said some of this could be attributed to United States Navy workmen who have been unloading ammunition and other equipment for several days.

The Milwaukee, built at Cramps Shipyard here and commissioned in 1923, now is considered obsolete and is being prepared for scrapping.

British Pilot to Fly B-36

FORT WORTH, Tex., March 21 (AP).—George Pegg, British test pilot, arrived here today to learn how to fly the United States Air Forces' big B-36 six-engine bomber. He plans to make a number of familiarization flights before returning to England to take up the Brabazon, largest land-based passenger plane in the world. Both planes have the same wing span—230 feet. The B-36 weighs 139 tons, the Brabazon 130. The big British ship is powered by eight engines driving counter-rotating propellers on four shafts. The B-36 has six pusher-type engines. The Brabazon was built to carry 100 passengers.

Soviet Fails To Act On U.S. Priest's Visa

Worcester, Mass., March 21 (AP)—A vacancy in the administration of Moscow's only Catholic church appeared a certainty today when it was learned that Russian authorities have not yet given permission for a local priest to enter the country.

The Rev. Louis Robert Brassard, A.A., of Leominster, Assumption College treasurer, applied February 5 for admission to the Soviet Union. College President Rev. Henri Moquin, A.A., reported today that the Russian Embassy in Washington has not acted on the application.

A return visa to Russia issued to the Rev. George A. Laberge, for a time the only American priest in Russia, expired yesterday. Granted to allow him a 60-day visit in this country, the visa had been annulled February 26, apparently without reason. The Rev. Father Brassard had been assigned to succeed the Rev. Father Laberge last December as chaplain of Moscow's Church of St. Louis of the French.

CHINESE REDS EYE INDONESIA

United Front With Soviet Called Only Way To Beat Dutch

San Francisco, March 21 (AP)—The Chinese Communists told the Indonesian Republicans today they could beat the Dutch only by going Communist and establishing a united front with the Soviet Union.

The long broadcast was heard in San Francisco, by the Associated Press. It urged the Indonesians to create a "proletarian-led revolutionary army," to start with guerrilla warfare, build up the Communist party, and prepare to capture big cities later.

Leaders Called Reactionaries

Tracing the history of the Indonesian Republican movement, the broadcast said the republic's leaders were reactionaries who "pursued anti-Communist and anti-popular policies at home and refused to establish friendly relations and exchange of consuls and diplomatic missions with the Soviet Union abroad."

This, it said, "placed them in complete opposition to the peoples at home and abroad" and was responsible for their failure to achieve "national liberation."

It lumped them with the leaders of the Philippines, India, Pakistan, Siam and South Korea as "feeble-minded bourgeoise of the East."

It declared the Indonesians could succeed only by establishing a "correct" proletarian leadership at home and establishing a united front "with the Soviet Union, with all anti-imperialist peoples, democratic countries, with the proletariat of the various countries, and with the oppressed people of all colonies and semi-colonies."

Anna Strong Brands Pact A 'War Step'

Boston, March 21 (AP)—Miss Anna Louise Strong, recently expelled from Russia on espionage charges, says the North Atlantic pact is "a step toward war."

In her first public speech since returning to this country, Miss Strong last night proposed the drafting of a pact embodying "disarmament proposals and the abandonment of atomic bombs."

She contended that Russia deported her because she was "a journalist seeking facts" and that "was considered espionage by the Russians."

Would Defend The U.S.

The 63-year-old author and former editor declared she "would defend this country" should it be attacked by the Soviet Union.

She has appealed to Premier Stalin, through the State Department, for a review of her deportation. O. John Rogge, her attorney, said he sent a letter claiming Miss Strong's arrest was "due to grave errors of certain lower officials" of the Russian Government.

Rogge said he has not heard whether the letter was forwarded to Stalin.

SHAPLEY ASKS VISAS FOR 12

U.S. Action Sought For 'World Peace' Session Delegates

New York, March 21 (AP)—The leader of the forthcoming "world peace" conference claimed tonight that American visas for twelve European and South American delegates have been denied or revoked.

Dr. Harlow Shapley said the action affected four British delegates, four Italian, three French and one Brazilian, and called on the United States State Department "to take immediate action to grant the visas."

The conference, sponsored by the National Council of Arts, Sciences and Professions, opens a three-day session here Friday. The State Department has said the meeting will be a sounding board for Communist propoganda.

Four Visas Revoked

Shapley, chairman of the council, said visas were issued and then revoked in the case of four Britishers:

J. D. Bernal, crystallographer and member of the Ministry of Works' advisory committee of building research and development; J. G. Crowther, scientist and writer; Louis Golding, novelist, and Will Olaf Stapledon, philosopher and psychologist.

Italian Actress Denied Visa

He said three French delegates were denied visas: Abbe Jean Boulier, religous leader; Mme. Eugenie Cotton, researchist and president of the pro-Communist Women's International Democratic Federation, and Paul Eluard, Communist poet.

Shapley said actress Maria Michi had been refused a visa in Italy, and painter Candido Portenari had been denied one in Brazil.

In Paris today a spokesman for the American embassy said the three French delegates had been refused visas because they had no official status.

Twenty-two delegates from countries behind the "iron curtain" have been granted visas.

Meanwhile, a rival conference said that two agents of the Russian secret police will accompany a Soviet delegation to the conference.

COMMUNISTS CALLED KEY TO UPRISING

11 On Trial Are Accused Of Teaching Courses In Violence

Miss Coplon denies second charge in espionage case. Page 3

New York, March 21 (AP)—The trial of eleven top United States Communists finally got under way before a Federal court jury today with a Government charge that the defendants hold the key to an American revolution.

The eleven can set the time for an uprising of "force and violence," John F. McGohey, United States attorney, said in his opening remarks.

He accused the defendants of teaching in classes and schools that the overthrow of the United States Government must follow the "classic model" of the 1917 revolution in Russia.

Defense Points To Record

The defense, through its chief spokesman, went before the jury to insist that the party never has raised a hand against the United States Government.

Eugene Dennis, secretary general of the American Communist party, said the party consistently has taught the support of the United States Government.

"It is a matter of public record," said Dennis, who is acting as his own attorney, "that we supported the Roosevelt Administration and vigorously campaigned for his re-election."

Dennis said the defense will seek to "expose the sinister purpose behind this heresy trial."

Denies "Overt Act"

"The foreboding-sounding words, 'overthrow the United States Government by force and violence' appear five times in the indictment," Dennis argued, "but not once does the indictment charge that these Communist leaders committed a single overt act against the United States Government or attempted its forceful overthrow."

The eleven are accused of conspiring to organize the party in this country in 1945 to advocate violent overthrow of the Government. If convicted, they would face maximum penalties of ten years in prison and $10,000 fines each.

Dennis tried to outline at length the Communist party's attitude on domestic and foreign issues. Federal Judge Harold R. Medina, who is hearing the case with a jury of seven women and five men, interrupted.

Irrelevancy Ruled

"I can't see that they have anything to do with the case," Medina said. "The fact that you advocated a lot of other things is not involved here."

Later he interrupted Dennis's outline of the party's postwar stand. After some argument, Judge Medina relented, however, and said:

"I think I'd better let Mr. Dennis go ahead . . . and get it off his chest."

Trial Delayed 38 Days

The jury began hearing the opening arguments after 38 days of argument and delay by the defense.

McGohey told the jurors that the eleven defendants form the national board of the Communist party in this country. They can set the time for a revolution, he maintained.

In "secret, remote, rural camps," and in places "never open to the public," the Government attorney asserted, advanced pupils of American communism are schooled in tactics of the Russian revolution.

Testimony Starts Tomorrow

The defense still was offering its opening arguments when Judge Medina recessed the trial until tomorrow. He said taking of testimony would begin Wednesday.

Dennis argued repeatedly that the teaching of Marx and Lenin, subscribed to by American Communists, does not advocate violence.

"But Marx and Lenin taught that violence results when powerful minority groups try to stop the march of progress," he added.

'M.V.D. In Russ Artist Group'

New York, March 21 (AP)—A spokesman for Americans for Intellectual Freedom asserted today that at least one member of the Russian secret police is in the Soviet delegation en route here to attend the Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace.

The spokesman, who asked that his name not be used, said Ivan Rozhansky, secretary of the delegation, is an agent for M.V.D., Soviet secret police organization. He said Rozhansky, and probably one other M.V.D. agent, had been sent with the delegation to "protect" Composer Dmitri Shostakovich and others in the group from "any anti-Soviet contacts."

Called Red Front

Americans for Intellectual Freedom was founded recently to oppose the "world peace" conference, which it terms a Communist front. The founders are Dr. Sidney Hook, professor of philosophy at New York University, and Dr. George S. Counts, a professor at Teachers College here.

The State Department charges the conference will be used to spread Communist propaganda. The conference is sponsored by the National Council of Arts, Sciences and Professions. It will open Friday.

Americans for Intellectual Freedom has announced it will hold a counter-rally Saturday to voice its opposition to the so-called peace parley.

Hiss Trial Off Until April 11

New York, March 21 (AP)—Federal Judge Simon H. Rifkind today adjourned, until April 11, the trial of Alger Hiss, former State Department official indicted for perjury by a spy-probing grand jury.

The adjournment was agreed to by both counsel for Hiss and the Government.

The indictment accuses Hiss of testifying falsely when he told the grand jury he did not give secret Government papers to Whittaker Chambers. Chambers is an admitted former courier for a Communist spy ring.

Hiss is on leave from his $20,000-a-year post as president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

INDONESIANS READY TO TALK

Would Meet With Dutch If Government Is Restored

Lake Success, N.Y., March 21 (AP). The Republic of Indonesia said today it is willing to enter into direct negotiations with the Dutch if the Republican Government is restored within fourteen days.

L. N. Palar, Indonesian delegate to the United Nations, told the Security Council his countrymen would join in such discussions as a preliminary step toward implementation of the Council's January 28 resolution.

The Council adjourned until Wednesday without taking any action.

In its reslution, January 28, the eleven-nation Council ordered the Dutch to restore the seat of the Republican Government in Jogjakart aand release all interned Indonesian leaders. The Dutch have refused to comply.

Indonesians Spurns Invitation

Republican political leaders were arrested after Netherlands troops overran Indonesian territory in a rapid "police action" offensive which began last December 19.

The Dutch later suggested that a round-table conference be held at The Hague, but Indonesian leaders refused to accept the invitation. They argued that their Government should first be restored to Jogjakarta, the republican capital in Java.

Palar also urged the United Nations to stop what he said was the physical destruction of Jogjakarta by the Dutch. The Indonesian spokesman said, "It is apparently the aim of the Dutch to make it physically impossible for the republican Government to be restored in Jogjakarta, or resume its functions there."

Dutch Action Assailed

Palar charged Dutch authorities are terrorizing and mistreating Indonesian leaders who are needed for the re-establishment of the government as directed by the Council's resolution. He said buildings in Jogjakarta are being destroyed and that administrative equipment is being removed from the city.

J. H. Van Royen, Dutch spokesman at the United Nations, told the Council last week his government could not permit arrested Republican leaders to return to Jogjakarta for reasons of military security.

B. R. Sen, Indian delegate, told the Council the Dutch are threatening the peace of southeast Asia by their actions in Indonesia. He reminded delegates that the nineteen nations that attended the New Delhi conference two months ago condemned the Dutch as the aggressors in the Netherlands-Indonesian conflict.

Report On Wounding Of 2

Col. Abdur Rahim Khan, of Pakistan, said his Government cannot agree to any deviation from the Council's earlier demands that the Dutch must release interned Republican leaders and restore the Indonesian regime in Jogjakarta.

Whe ntoday's session began, Alberto Inocente Alvarez, March president of the Council, announced he had received a preliminary report on the wounding of two United Nations observers in Sumatra. He said the matter would not be placed on the Council agenda until further details were received.

Australia Asks U.N. Probe Church Trials

Lake Success, March 21 (AP)—Australia asked the United Nations Assembly today to look into the trials of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty in Hungary and the Protestant churchmen convicted recently in Bulgaria.

The Mindszenty case was placed before the United Nations last week by Bolivia for consideration of the 58-nation Assembly opening in New York April 5.

Dr. Herbert V. Evatt, Australian Foreign Minister, is president of the Assembly.

Request Made By Hood

The request for consideration of the Bulgarian trials as well as the Mindszenty case was made by John D. L. Hood, who heads the Australian delegation here. It asked that the Assembly place on the agenda:

"Observance of fundamental freedoms and human rights in Bulgaria and Hungary, including the question of religious and civil liberty in special relation to recent trials of church leaders."

LONDON, MARCH 21-(AP)-THIRTY AMERICAN HOUSEWIVES NEARED THE END OF A MONTH'S TOUR OF EUROPE TODAY.

THE TOURING WOMEN, MOST OF THEM FARM WIVES, ARE FROM NEBRASKA, WISCONSIN, SOUTH DAKOTA AND IOWA. THEIR AVERAGE AGE IS JUST OVER 50.

"MY, WE CERTAINLY SAW A LOT," SAID MRS.ELEANOR MCMULLEN OF STELLA, NEB. AT 78, SHE WAS ONE OF THE PACE SETTERS OF THE PACKED TOUR.

THE WOMEN LEFT HOME A MONTH AGO. THEY HAVE TRAVELED THROUGH ITALY, HOLLAND, SWITZERLAND, GERMANY, BELGIUM, FRANCE AND ENGLAND.

THEY DEPARTED TODAY FOR DUBLIN. THEY PLAN TO LEAVE SHANNON, EIRE, BY AIR EARLY WEDNESDAY FOR HOME.

THEIR BIG IMPRESSION OF ENGLAND WAS ITS LACK OF A BLACK MARKET.

"THERE JUST DOESN'T SEEM TO BE ANY," SAID MRS.WALTER KLOPPING OF UNDERWOOD, IA.

"AND HOW PEOPLE HERE PUT UP WITH THE CONTINUED RATIONING IS AMAZING. WE'D SQUAWK OUR HEADS OFF AT HOME."

MILK, EGGS, BUTTER, FATS AND MEAT ARE AMONG THE THINGS STILL RATIONED HERE.

THE WOMEN ALL HAVE SPENT TIME ON FARMS IN EUROPE AND IN ENGLAND.

MRS.MCMULLEN SAID SHE WAS IMPRESSED BY THE USE MADE OF THE LAND.

"EVERY SQUARE INCH OF IT IS IN CULTIVATION ON THE FARMS OVER HERE," SHE SAID. "THE FENCES ARE CLEAN AND THERE ARE NO WEED PATCHES."

MRS.W.H.BODEMER OF COZAD, NEB., FEELS SURE MARSHALL AID HAS BEEN A "BIG HELP TO EUROPE."

"IT'S NOT ONLY WHAT THE WOMEN WE'VE MET HAVE TOLD US, BUT IN SOME CASES IT'S WHAT THEY DIDN'T SAY," SHE SAID. "SOME THINGS WE HAVE SEEN WERE VERY DEPRESSING. BUT THEN, THAT'S BEEN GOOD FOR US, TOO.

"IF WE CAN GO BACK AND MAKE ANY LITTLE IMPRESSION TOWARD A PERMANENT PEACE, THEN THE TRIP WAS WORTH WHILE. THERE ARE ONLY 30 OF US, BUT WE'LL SPREAD THE WORD THROUGH TALKS TO WOMEN'S CLUBS AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS."

MRS.A.W.ANDERSON OF WEST POINT NEB., THOUGHT MOST COUNTRIES THEY VISITED HAVE A "GOOD START TOWARD RECOVERY."

MRS.HENRY DINKLAGE OF PENDER, NEB. SAID SHE SAW "SO MUCH, SO FAST I'LL HAVE TO GO HOME AND THINK ABOUT IT FOR A WHILE."

DESPITE THE FAST PACE OF SIGHT SEEING AND INFORMATION GATHERING, NONE OF THE WOMEN MISSED ANY OF IT BECAUSE OF ILLNESS OR FATIGUE.

THE VOTING WAS FOR COUNCILLORS-GENERAL -- OFFICIALS WHO HELP GOVERN THE FRENCH DEPARTMENTS. IT WAS ON THE COUNTY LEVEL. THERE WAS NO VOTING IN PARIS WHERE THE COMMUNISTS GENERALLY DO WELL.

THE ELECTION DOES NOT AFFECT THE FRENCH NATIONAL GOVERNMENT. IT WAS SIGNIFICANT CHIEFLY AS A SAMPLING OF POPULAR OPINION. LITTLE WAS SHOWN, HOWEVER, EXCEPT THAT BOTH THE COMMUNISTS AND DE GAULLISTS HAD LOST APPROXIMATELY THREE PERCENT OF THEIR FOLLOWING SINCE THE LAST ELECTIONS.

THE COMMUNISTS WERE THE ONLY PARTY TO NAME A CANDIDATE FOR EACH OF THE 1508 OFFICES CONTESTED. THEY CAMPAIGNED ON A STRAIGHT ANTI-AMERICAN PLATFORM. ASSAILING THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY AS "AN INSTRUMENT OF WAR AGAINST RUSSIA" THEY TOLD THE VOTERS "A VOTE FOR US IS A VOTE FOR PEACE."

THE DE GAULLISTS CLAIM FRANCE NEEDS A STRONG LEADER SUCH AS THE GENERAL TO DIRECT HER.

THE MODERATE COALITION, NOW IN POWER, IS MADE UP OF THE SOCIALISTS, THE POPULAR REPUBLICAN MOVEMENT (MRP), THE RADICAL SOCIALISTS (QUEUILLE'S OWN PARTY) AND A SMALL RIGHTIST PARTY.

AS WAS TO BE EXPECTED IN ANY SUCH "GRASS-ROOTS" ELECTIONS A SIZEABLE PART OF THE VOTE WENT TO INDEPENDENTS OR TO MEN KNOWN IN THE COMMUNITY FOR THEMSELVES AND NOT FOR THE PARTY LABEL.

A20

MANY OF THE CONTESTS WERE INDECISIVE SINCE AN ABSOLUTE MAJORITY OF THE VOTES CAST WAS REQUIRED FOR ELECTION. THERE WILL BE RUN-OFFS WHERE NECESSARY NEXT SUNDAY WHEN A SIMPLE PLURALITY WILL SUFFICE.

THIS WILL PROBABLY RESULT IN MORE GOVERNMENT VICTORIES SINCE CANDIDATES SUPPORTING THE COALITION ARE EXPECTED TO UNITE AGAINST THE DE GAULLISTS AND COMMUNISTS.

THE RADICAL SOCIALISTS GOT 11.2 PER CENT, OR 798,581.

THE CATHOLICS (MRP) GOT 8.07 PER CENT, OR 570,396.

THE RESULT OF THE CANTONAL ELECTIONS DID NOT AFFECT THE STRUCTURE OF THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT. HOWEVER, THE RESULTS WERE SURE TO BE STUDIED CAREFULLY, BOTH IN FRANCE AND ABROAD, FOR SIGNS OF A SWITCH IN PUBLIC SYMPATHIES.

rome, march 21--(ap)--the italian senate opens debate today on italian adherence to the north atlantic defense treaty.

the lower house-- the chamber of deputies -- approved government support of the pact after a three-day communist filibuster last week.

foreign minister carlo sforza was to make a personal plea to the senate for quick action. he led the negotiations for italy's entry into the north atlantic alliance.

clmmunists and their leftist allies, meanwhile, continued demonstrations against the pact throughout the country.

unita, communist organ, said in an editorial today that the agreement "provides the right of concession of military bases by one member to another." this, the paper said, means european submission to american imperialism. government leaders have denied the pact requires italy to turn over any bases.

reliable diplomatic sources indicated italy may seek revision of its world war II peace treaty to permit the strengthening of her armed forces under the atlantic defense system.

these sources said italy wants western support for easing of military restrictions in the treaty. russia, however, would be expected to block any move for a four-power revision of italy's peace treaty terms.

MAR 22 1949

italy's post-war army is limited to 250,000 men and 200 tanks, her air force to 25,000 men and 200 fighter planes and her navy to 25,000 men, two battleships, four cruisers and four destroyers.

some italians say that under these restrictions italy would be a liability rather than an effective ally of other stronger western nations.

the independent newspaper messaggero said sforza will discuss revision of these military clauses in washington later this month.

ACCORDING TO MILITARY GOVERNMENT STATISTICS THERE WERE 146,000 TOTALLY UNEMPLOYED AND 60,000 PARTIALLY UNEMPLOYED PERSONS IN WESTERN BERLIN UP TO MID-MARCH.
HERETOFORE PRICES IN RATIONED-GOODS STORES HAVE BEEN FROZEN BY DECREE. NOW THEY MAY GO UP TO THE LEVELS OF WESTERN GERMANY, INCREASING THE COST OF LIVING.
HOWEVER, THE OUTLOOK FOR MOST WESTERN BERLINERS WAS BRIGHTER AS A RESULT OF THE CURRENCY CHANGE. THE NEW CLOTHING, SHOES, HOUSEHOLD GOODS AND EVEN SOAP WHICH THEY LONG FOR MAY BE MADE AVAILABLE TO THEM FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE WAR.
THE REFORM WILL REDRESS MANY EQUALITIES WHICH HAD EXISTED UNDER THE DUAL CURRENCY TUG-OF-WAR. SOME WORKERS HAVE BEEN RECEIVING ONLY A SMALL PERCENTAGE OF THE MORE VALUABLE WEST MARKS IN THEIR PAY ENVELOPES.
FULL WEST MARKS WAGES NOW WILL BE GIVEN TO THOSE GERMANS WHO LIVE, WORK AND BAY THEIR FOOD RATIONS IN THE AMERICAN, BRITISH AND FRENCH SECTORS. THIS WILL MEAN AN INCREASE IN PURCHASING POWER FOR THOSE PEOPLE.
PROPORTIONATE RATES OF EXCHANGE ARE WORKED OUT FOR PEOPLE WHO LIVE IN THE WESTERN PORTION OF THE CITY BUT WORK IN THE RUSSIAN SECTOR AND DRAW THEIR FOOD THERE.
THE WESTERN ALLIES EMPHASIZED THAT YESTERDAY'S MOVE WAS FORCED UPON THEM BY THE RUSSIANS' REFUSAL TO JOIN A FOUR-POWER AGREEMENT WHICH COULD GIVE A UNIFORM CURRENCY NOT ONLY TO THIS DIVIDED CITY BUT TO DIVIDED GERMANY.
THE RUSSIANS HAVE DESCRIBED THE CURRENCY DISPUTE AS ONE OF THE CHIEF REASONS FOR THEIR BLOCKADE OF BERLIN.
THE BRITISH MILITARY GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT THREE PERSONS WERE KILLED AND ONE WAS INJURED IN THE CRASH OF A FOUR-ENGINE BRITISH CIVILIAN PLANE PARTICIPATING IN THE AIRLIFT TO BERLIN. THE ACCIDENT OCCURRED LAST NIGHT NEAR THE SCHLESWIGLAND AIRFIELD IN SCHLESWIG HOLSTEIN.
TOTAL FATALITIES IN THE AIRLIFT NOW HAVE REACHED 44--28 AMERICANS AND 16 BRITONS. IT HAS BEEN IN OPERATION SINCE JUNE 26.

BERLIN, MARCH 21-(AP)-THE WESTERN POWERS HAVE OUTLAWED THE RUSSIAN EAST MARK IN THEIR SECTORS OF BERLIN, SPLITTING THE CITY'S ECONOMY COMPLETELY.

THE NEW ALLIED ORDER YESTERDAY, DECLARING THAT THE RUSSIAN CURRENCY NO LONGER WOULD BE ACCEPTED AS LEGAL TENDER, HAD BEEN EXPECTED FOR SOME TIME.

IT MEANS THAT WESTERN BERLIN NOW HAS ONE CURRENCY -- THE WEST MARK; AND EASTERN BERLIN HAS ANOTHER -- THE SOVIET EAST MARK. THE WEST MARK HAS BEEN WORTH ABOUT FOUR TIMES AS MUCH AS THE EAST MARK.

THE RUSSIANS EARLIER MADE IT A CRIME TO POSSESS WEST MARKS IN THEIR AREA. THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE DID NOT GO THAT FAR. THEY JUST SAID THE EASTERN CURRENCY NO LONGER NEED BE ACCEPTED IN THEIR PART OF THE CITY.

ALTHOUGH THE ORDER IS EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY, THE EAST MARK WILL STILL BE GOOD IN WESTERN SECTORS FOR RATIONED FOODS THIS MONTH AND WILL BE ACCEPTED IN APRIL FOR RENT AND TAXES.

THERE WERE REPORTS THE RUSSIANS WOULD RETALIATE PROMPTLY AGAINST THE LATEST WESTERN MOVE IN THE CURRENCY BATTLE.

THE EAST MARK TUMBLED TO RATE OF SIX TO 10 FOR ONE WEST MARK TODAY, AS WESTERN BERLINERS RUSHED TO DUMP THEIR REMAINING HOLDINGS OF EAST MARKS. THAT WAS THE BLACK MARKET FIGURE. BUT EVEN IN LEGAL EXCHANGE OFFICES THE EAST MARK DROPPED TO 5.2 FOR ONE.

THE CHIEF RUSSIAN REACTION SO FAR WAS A CHARGE IN THE RUSSIAN-CONTROLLED PRESS THIS MORNING THAT THE ACTION BY THE WESTERN POWERS WAS A FRAUD AGAINST THE POPULATION. BIG HEADLINES IN THE COMMUNIST PRESS PREDICTED MASS BANKRUPTCIES IN WESTERN BERLIN.

THE ONLY CONCRETE RUSSIAN REACTION WAS AN EFFORT BY THE SOVIET-CONTROLLED GERMAN POLICE TO PREVENT WESTERN BERLINERS FROM ENTERING THE RUSSIAN SECTOR'S RATION-FREE STORES ON BUYING SPREES WITH SURPLUS EAST MARKS.

THE CURRENCY QUESTION HAS BEEN ONE OF THE MAIN ISSUES IN THE SOVIET BLOCKADE OF BERLIN. SEVERAL INTERNATIONAL DISCUSSIONS, BOTH INSIDE AND OUTSIDE OF THE UNITED NATIONS, HAVE FAILED TO SOLVE IT. A U.N. COMMITTEE REPORTED RECENTLY IT HAD FAILED TO REACH A SOLUTION.

THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE PUT IN A NEW CURRENCY IN THEIR ZONES OF GERMANY, BUT NOT IN BERLIN, ON JUNE 18, 1948. FOUR DAYS LATER RUSSIA ISSUED NEW MONEY FOR HER ZONE OF GERMANY -- AND ALL OF BERLIN. THE DAY AFTER THIS SOVIET STEP THE WESTERN POWERS INTRODUCED THEIR NEW WEST MARK INTO THEIR SECTORS OF BERLIN. THEY PERMITTED THE EAST MARK TO CIRCULATE, BUT THE RUSSIANS BARRED THE WEST MARK FROM THE SOVIET SECTOR.

THE WESTERN ALLIES SAID PUTTING WESTERN BERLIN ON A WEST-MARK ONLY BASIS WAS "LONG OVERDUE" BECAUSE "GRAVE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL INJUSTICES" HAVE RESULTED FROM THE DUAL CURRENCY ARRANGEMENT.

A26

THEIR ANNOUNCEMENT SAID IT WAS HOPED AT THE TIME THE WEST MARK WAS INTRODUCED IN BERLIN THAT IT WOULD BE A TEMPORARY ARRANGEMENT PRIOR TO AGREEMENT ON A SINGLE CURRENCY UNDER FOUR POWER CONTROL. BUT SINCE, IT ADDED, THERE HAS BEEN NO SUCH AGREEMENT, THE CITY ADMINISTRATION HAS SPLIT AND THE BLOCKADE HAS CONTINUED.

CHAOTIC CONDITIONS HAVE RESULTED, THE WESTERN POWERS SAID, AFFECTING REAL WAGES, SUPPLY OF CURRENCY IN CIRCULATION AND BUSINESS DEALINGS.

THE WESTERN CITY GOVERNMENT IS EXPECTED TO PROFIT BY THE CHANGE. UP TO NOW IT HAD TO ACCEPT EAST MARKS IN TAX PAYMENTS AND PAY PART OF ITS SALARIES AND OTHER EXPENSES IN WEST MARKS.

THE CURRENCY CHANGEOVER MAY LEAVE SOME WESTERN BERLINERS HOLDING A LOT OF EAST MARKS SINCE EACH PERSON CAN TRADE IN ONLY 15 EAST MARKS FOR WESTERN CURRENCY. BUT THEY CAN, IF THEY WISH, USE THEIR EAST MARKS ON SHOPPING TRIPS IN THE SOVIET SECTOR AND IN SOVIET-OCCUPIED AREAS SURROUNDING BERLIN. SUCH PURCHASES WOULD HAVE TO BE SMUGGLED BY THE RUSSIAN BLOCKADE.

BRIG. GEN. FRANK L. HOWLEY, AMERICAN COMMANDANT IN BERLIN, SAID HE FORESAW NO RUSSIAN RETALIATION AS A RESULT OF THE NEW CURRENCY MOVE. OTHERS HERE WERE NOT SO CONFIDENT.

"WHAT BIGGER COUNTER-MEASURES COULD THE SOVIETS POSSIBLY TAKE," HOWLEY SAID, "THAN THE BRUTAL BLOCKADE WITH WHICH THEY ATTEMPTED TO STARVE WEST BERLIN?"

MEANWHILE, THE RUSSIANS ANNOUNCED THEY HAD BEGUN A "BIG NEW RE-PATRIATION" OF GERMAN PRISONERS OF WAR. THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN CHARGED LAST WEEK THAT THE SOVIETS HAD FAILED TO KEEP PROMISES TO RETURN ALL GERMAN PRISONERS BY THE END OF 1948.

Bucharest, Romania, March 21--(AP)--Reliable Jewish sources said today the Israeli minister to Romania has had a [redacted] conference with Foreign Minister Ana Pauker on [redacted] of Jewish emigration from this country to Palestine.

The informants said [redacted] Minister Reuben Rubin handed Mrs. Pauker a message from the Israeli Government brought here from Tel Aviv Thursday by Israeli Counselor Moshe Adami. It was understood the message expressed diplomatic gratitude for Romania's speedy/recognition of the new state and for good relations in the past.

However, it was understood the message also expressed deep regrets for the cessation of Jewish emigration and the arrest of seven Zionist representatives for which the Israeli Government could find no justification.

The Romanian Press Department said it had no knowledge of the Adami-Pauker interview but did not deny it had taken place.

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 21--(AP)--Foreign Minister Vlado Clementis said today Central Europe's answer to the North Atlantic Treaty will be "to fight for peace."

The statement was made in answer to a series of questions which the Czechoslovak Wireless said had been sent to Clementis by J. Kingsbury Smith, general European director of International News Service.

30.24- 1919

Clementis said the new pact was meant as aggression toward Russia. He criticized it along the lines already laid down by Moscow commentators.

A broadcast report quoted the foreign minister as saying:

"There does not seem to be at this time, behind the Dollar Curtain, any interest in a meeting between Marshal Stalin and the Western leaders."

HE ADDRESSED A CONGRESS OF METAL WORKERS TRADE UNIONS HERE ALONG WITH FRANZ LESKOSHEK, MINISTER OF HEAVY INDUSTRY AND MEMBER OF THE POLITBURO.
LESKOSHEK TOLD THE WORKERS: "WE HAVE TO BUILD UP OUR HEAVY INDUSTRY QUICKER THAN PROPOSED UNDER THE FIVE-YEAR PLAN IN ORDER TO CREATE A BASE FOR DEVELOPMENT OF LIGHT INDUSTRY."
BORBA, OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY, QUOTED STANTE AS SAYING: "WITHOUT HEAVY INDUSTRY IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO IMAGINE A MODERN ARMY X X X TO PRESERVE THE INDEPENDENCE OF OUR PEOPLES."
THE NEWSPAPER POLITIKA SAID STANTE TOLD THE WORKERS THE YUGOSLAV ARMY IS "AFTER THE SOVIET ARMY, THE STRONGEST WEAPON FOR PEACE IN THIS PART OF THE WORLD."
NEW STRESS ON HEAVY INDUSTRY DEVELOPMENT MAY RESULT IN PART FROM THE FACT YUGOSLAVIA NOW RELIES IN LARGE MEASURE UPON RUSSIA AND CZECHOSLOVAKIA FOR HEAVY ARMAMENT.
THIS COULD PROVE A POTENTIAL MAJOR SOURCE OF EMBARASSMENT IF THE BREACH OPENED BY THE COMINFORM -- NOW EIGHT MONTHS OLD-- DEVELOPED TO THE POINT OF A COMPLETE SHUTDOWN ON MILITARY SHIPMENTS TO TITO.

MOSCOW, MARCH 21-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT MADE PUBLIC EARLY TODAY A 10-YEAR AGREEMENT SIGNED WITH THE KOREAN PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC (RUSSIAN-SPONSORED NORTH KOREA). THIS IS THE ONLY KOREAN GOVERNMENT RECOGNIZED BY RUSSIA.

NO MENTION WAS MADE OF ANY MILITARY ASSISTANCE.

THE AGREEMENT, WHICH WAS SIGNED MARCH 17, WILL GO INTO EFFECT AS SOON AS IT IS RATIFIED BY BOTH SIDES. IT WAS INDICATED THIS WILL TAKE BUT A SHORT TIME.

RUSSIA AND THE KOREANS AGREED ON A MUTUAL EXCHANGE OF GOODS THAT WILL "SIGNIFICANTLY" INCREASE IN 1949 AND 1950 AND CREDIT TERMS AND TECHNICAL AID FOR THE KOREANS.

THE TWO SIDES ALSO DECIDED TO WORK OUT TRADING DETAILS ON A YEARLY OR LONGER BASIS AND TO HOLD TALKS TO CONCLUDE ARRANGEMENTS FOR STRENGTHENING CULTURAL, SCIENTIFIC AND ARTISTIC TIES.

A KOREAN DELEGATION HEADED BY PREMIER KIM IL SUNG HAS BEEN IN MOSCOW WORKING OUT DETAILS FOR 18 DAYS.

WHEN THEY LEFT YESTERDAY FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI VISHINSKY SAW THEM OFF AT THE STATION.

THE ORGAN OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY ALSO DENOUNCED AMERICAN POLICY IN SOUTH-KOREA. IT SAID THE U.S. IS TRYING TO CONVERT ITS OCCUPATION ZONE "INTO A COLONY OF AMERICAN MONOPOLISTS."

THE NEWSPAPER SAID SOVIET POLICY ON THE OTHER HAND AIMS AT "INSURING FOR THE KOREAN PEOPLE THEIR FREE DEVELOPMENT WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF A UNITED INDEPENDENT DEMOCRATIC STATE."

THE EDITORIAL SAID THE NEW ARRANGEMENT BETWEEN RUSSIA AND NORTH KOREA "WILL UNDOUBTEDLY FIND A WARM RESPONSE ON THE PART OF THE DEMOCRATIC PUBLIC ABROAD INCLUDING THE PEOPLES OF ASIA WHO ARE CONDUCTING A STRUGGLE FOR THEIR NATIONAL LIBERATION."

MOSCOW, MARCH 21-(AP)-THE SOVIET UNION AND THE KOREAN PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC (RUSSIAN-SPONSORED NORTH KOREAN REGIME) HAVE SIGNED A 10-YEAR AGREEMENT CALLING FOR ECONOMIC AND CULTURAL COOPERATION.

THE AGREEMENT, MADE PUBLIC TODAY, MADE NO MENTION OF ANY MILITARY ASSISTANCE. THE KOREAN DELEGATES WHO PARTICIPATED IN THE TALKS HERE REPRESENTED THE ONLY KOREAN GOVERNMENT RECOGNIZED BY RUSSIA.

THE RUSSIAN AND KOREAN NEGOTIATORS AGREED ON A MUTUAL EXCHANGE OF GOODS THAT WILL INCREASE "SIGNIFICANTLY" IN 1949 AND 1950 AND ON CREDIT TERMS AND TECHNICAL AID FOR THE KOREANS.

IN ADDITION, THE NEGOTIATORS DECIDED TO WORK OUT TRADING DETAILS ON A YEARLY OR LONGER BASIS AND TO HOLD TALKS TO CONCLUDE ARRANGEMENTS FOR STRENGTHENING CULTURAL, SCIENTIFIC AND ARTISTIC TIES.

DETAILS OF THE AGREEMENT WERE WORKED OUT AFTER 18 DAYS OF NEGOTIATION. THE PACT WAS SIGNED MARCH 17. IT WILL GO INTO EFFECT AS SOON AS IT IS RATIFIED BY BOTH SIDES, A STEP WHICH IS EXPECTED SOON.

PREMIER KIM IL SUNG AND OTHER MEMBERS OF THE KOREAN DELEGATION LEFT MOSCOW YESTERDAY. FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY SAW THEM OFF AT THE STATION.

THE COMMUNIST PARTY NEWSPAPER PRAVDA SAID THE NEW ARRANGEMENT BETWEEN RUSSIA AND NORTH KOREA "WILL UNDOUBTEDLY FIND A WARM RESPONSE ON THE PART OF THE DEMOCRATIC PUBLIC ABROAD INCLUDING THE PEOPLES OF ASIA WHO ARE CONDUCTING A STRUGGLE FOR THEIR NATIONAL LIBERATION."

MOSCOW, MARCH 21-(AP)-THE FULL TEXT OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY WAS PUBLISHED IN ALL MOSCOW NEWSPAPERS YESTERDAY.

THIS HIGHLY UNUSUAL ACTION WAS VIEWED BY FOREIGN OBSERVERS HERE AS INDICATING SOVIET AUTHORITIES CONSIDER THE TEXT SUPPORTS RUSSIA'S ARGUMENT THAT THE ALLIANCE IS "AGGRESSIVE" IN NATURE.

(THE TREATY ALLIES THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, CANADA, FRANCE, BELGIUM, HOLLAND, LUXEMBOURG AND NORWAY IN PROMISES OF MUTUAL AID IN THE EVENT OF AN ATTACK ON ANY ONE OF THEM.)

MOSCOW RADIO STATIONS BROADCAST THE TEXT TO ALL PROVINCIAL PAPERS, WHICH ARE CERTAIN TO PRINT IT. PUBLICATION OF THE TEXT MEANS THAT MILLIONS OF SOVIET READERS WILL BE ABLE TO COMPARE IT WITH COMMENT CARRIED IN THE COMMUNIST PRESS.

PRAVDA, THE ORGAN OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY, AND IZVESTIA, THE GOVERNMENT NEWSPAPER, ALSO CARRIED DISPATCHES FROM ABROAD REPORTING OPPOSITION TO THE PACT.

IZVESTIA PUBLISHED A LENGTHY REPORT FROM NEW YORK OF HENRY WALLACE'S OPPOSITION TO THE TREATY. IT QUOTED HIM AS COMPARING IT TO AN ICEBERG WHICH IS SEVEN-EIGHTHS UNDER WATER.

PRAVDA REPORTED THE OPPOSITION OF COMMUNIST DEPUTIES IN ITALY TO THAT COUNTRY'S DECISION TO JOIN THE ALLIANCE. IT DECLARED "THE PRESENT RULERS OF ITALY, DRAWING THEIR NATION INTO THE NORTH ATLANTIC BLOC, ARE TAKING ON THEMSELVES A HEAVY RESPONSIBILITY AND ARE THROWING DOWN A CHALLENGE TO THE WILL OF THE ITALIAN PEOPLE."

THERE WAS NO OFFICIAL STATEMENT ON THE PACT. THE ONLY GOVERNMENT COMMENT REMAINS THE FOREIGN MINISTRY'S DECLARATION OF LAST JAN. 29 THAT THE PACT IS "AIMED AT ESTABLISHING WORLD DOMINATION" BY THE U.S. AND GREAT BRITAIN.

NIGHT LEAD BUCK (190)

OTTAWA, MARCH 21-(AP)-TWO MEETINGS AT WHICH CANADIAN COMMUNIST PARTY LEADER TIM BUCK PLANNED TO ATTACK THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY WERE CANCELLED TODAY.

THE CHATEAU LAURIER HOTEL SAID IT "COULD NOT AFFORD TO HAZARD THE PROSPECT OF COMMOTION AND DAMAGE". IT SAID IT REFUSED THE USE OF THE HOTEL FOR THE MEETING AFTER FAILING TO GET "PROPER ASSURANCE FROM THE ROYAL CANADIAN MOUNTED POLICE THAT NO TROUBLE WOULD DEVELOP."

THE HOTEL MEETING WAS TO HAVE TAKEN THE PLACE OF AN EARLIER STUDENT MEETING AT CARLETON COLLEGE HERE TO HEAR BUCK. THE COLLEGE MEETING WAS CALLED OFF BY ITS SPONSOR, RALPH COOK, PRESIDENT OF CARLETON'S TWO-MAN LABOR PROGRESSIVE PARTY. THAT IS THE LABEL THE CANADIAN COMMUNISTS HAVE ADOPTED.

COOK EXPLAINED THE MEETING WAS CANCELLED BECAUSE OF THE "POSSIBILITY OF FINANCIAL EMBARRASSMENT TO THE COLLEGE ARISING OUT OF MR. BUCK'S APPEARANCE."

PREVIOUSLY T. FRANK AHEARN, WEALTHY OTTAWA BUSINESS MAN, HAD ANNOUNCED CANCELLATION OF A $3,000 PLEDGE TO THE COLLEGE BECAUSE OF WHAT HE TERMED SPEECHES OF A "RADICAL AND PINK NATURE" AT THE SCHOOL.

(300) ROCKET RANGE

AP SPECIAL WASHINGTON SERVICE

WASHINGTON, MARCH 21-(AP)-DEFENSE OFFICIALS SAID TODAY THERE HAVE BEEN NO NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN THIS COUNTRY AND AUSTRALIA FOR U.S. USE OF A ROCKET RANGE IN CENTRAL AUSTRALIA.

AN AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN IN SYDNEY SAID YESTERDAY THAT THE U.S. WOULD UNDOUBTEDLY GET PERMISSION TO USE THE 3,000-MILE RANGE IF SHE ASKED FOR IT.

DEFENSE OFFICIALS WHO ASKED NOT TO BE NAMED SAID AUSTRALIA HAS MADE NO OFFER TO THIS COUNTRY. AND THE U.S. IS NOT LIKELY TO INITIATE TALKS UNTIL CONGRESS HAS ACTED ON A PENDING BILL AUTHORIZING ESTABLISHMENT OF A NEW, LARGE TESTING RANGE, THEY SAID.

IT HAS BEEN CONTEMPLATED THAT THE NEW RANGE WOULD BE IN THE U.S., BUT THESE OFFICIALS SAID NO SITE HAS BEEN SELECTED.

IT IS UNDERSTOOD THAT THREE PROSPECTIVE SITES ARE BEING CONSIDERED. ONE IS IN THE BANANA RIVER, FLA., AREA. ANOTHER IS IN NEW MEXICO. THE THIRD IS IN UTAH.

THE AUSTRALIAN TEST GROUNDS, OFFICIALLY KNOWN AS THE AUSTRALIAN GUIDED PROJECTILE AND SUPERSONIC PILOTLESS AIRCRAFT MISSILE TEST RANGE, IS IN MID-CONTINENT. IT EXTENDS MORE THAN 3,000 MILES FROM ITS BASE AT MT. EBO ACROSS THE TIMOR SEA TO CHRISTMAS ISLAND.

"THE SECURITY PROBLEM THERE WOULD BE LESS THAN IN THE UNITED STATES," ONE OFFICIAL COMMENTED.

ANY DECISION TO UTILIZE THE AUSTRALIAN RANGE WOULD BE UP TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT, IN COOPERATION WITH THE AUSTRALIAN AND BRITISH GOVERNMENTS.

THE U.S. RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT BOARD WOULD PROBABLY BE CONSULTED. THOSE AGENCIES WILL HAVE THE JOB OF PICKING A SITE SHOULD THE RANGE BE SET UP IN THIS COUNTRY.

SPECULATION ABOUT USE OF THE AUSTRALIAN TEST AREA WAS TOUCHED OFF BY THE SYDNEY SUNDAY SUN, WHICH SAID THIS COUNTRY WOULD SOON BE TESTING ROCKETS THERE.

IT WAS IN RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS ABOUT THAT STORY THAT THE AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN SAID NO REQUEST HAD BEEN MADE BY THE U.S.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 21-(AP)-HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE MEMBERS REPORTED TENTATIVE AGREEMENT TODAY ON A $200,000,000 CUT IN THE NEW MARSHALL PLAN AUTHORIZATION.

BUT THEY SAID THIS MAY BE OFFSET BY ANOTHER PROVISION OF THE BILL DESIGNED TO MAKE $300,000,000 IN PRIVATE INVESTMENT FUNDS AVAILABLE FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY.

ALL THE COMMITTEE'S ACTIONS ARE SUBJECT TO REVIEW AT A SESSION CALLED FOR TOMORROW WHEN FINAL ACTION IS EXPECTED ON THE NEW BILL TO FINANCE THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION TO JULY 1, 1950.

THE $200,000,000 CUT, MEMBERS SAID, WOULD BE EFFECTED THIS WAY:

1. AN ADMINISTRATION REQUEST FOR $1,150,000,000 TO LAST FROM APRIL 3, PRESENT EXPIRATION DATE OF THE APPROPRIATION, UNTIL JUNE 30, WHEN THE NEW FISCAL YEAR'S APPROPRIATION BEGINS, WOULD BE TRIMMED $50,-000,000.

2. AN ADMINISTRATION REQUEST TO PERMIT ECA TO COMMIT THE GOVERNMENT TO SPEND AN EXTRA $150,000,000 AROUND THE MIDDLE OF 1950, IF FUNDS RUN OUT THEN, WOULD BE DENIED.

MEMBERS SAID A DECISION ON HOW MUCH OF THE $4,280,000,000 TO RUN THE PROGRAM FOR THE YEAR STARTING JULY 1 SHOULD BE GRANTED WILL BE MADE TOMORROW.

THE $300,000,000 IN PRIVATE INVESTMENT, IT IS HOPED, WOULD BE SPURR-ED BY AN AMENDMENT THE COMMITTEE HAS APPROVED.

UNDER IT THE GOVERNMENT WOULD GUARANTEE PRIVATE INVESTORS, WHO PUT THEIR MONEY INTO PROJECTS TO HELP EUROPEAN RECOVERY, AGAINST LOSS THROUGH CURRENCY EXCHANGE, WAR, REVOLUTION OR SEIZURE BY A FOREIGN NATION. THE PRESENT LAW CONTAINS A MORE NARROW GUARANTEE.

THE GUARANTEE PROVISION, MEMBERS EXPLAINED, HAS A TWOFOLD PURPOSE:

1. IF UNITED STATES INVESTORS PUT THE $300,000,000 INTO FOREIGN OPERA-TIONS, IT WILL MEAN

NATION. THE PRESENT LAW CONTAINS A MORE NARROW GUARANTEE.

THE GUARANTEE PROVISION, MEMBERS EXPLAINED, HAS A TWOFOLD PURPOSE:

1. IF UNITED STATES INVESTORS PUT THE $300,000,000 INTO FOREIGN OPERA-TIONS, IT WILL MEAN THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAS TO SPEND THAT MUCH LESS, UNLESS THE INVESTMENTS BECOME SUBJECT TO FEDERAL REIMBURSEMENT UNDER THE GUARANTEE PROVISION.

2. PRIVATE CAPITAL WILL BE ENCOURAGED TO CARRY PART OF THE FOREIGN AID LOAD.

TRUMAN-IRAN

(350) WASHINGTON, MARCH 21-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN SAID TODAY THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WANT A PEACEFUL WORLD "FREE OF THE FEARS OF WAR, FREE OF OPPRESSION, AND FREE OF WANT."

BOTH THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AND THE GOVERNMENT, HE SAID IN A SPECIAL MESSAGE TO IRAN, DESIRE "A PROSPEROUS WORLD IN WHICH PEOPLES OF EVERY CREED, COLOR AND NATIONALITY CAN LIVE TOGETHER AS GOOD NEIGHBORS IN FRIENDSHIP AND FELLOWSHIP."

MR.TRUMAN'S MESSAGE WAS READ IN THE PERSIAN LANGUAGE AT THE OPENING OF THE NEW SERIES OF BROADCASTS TO IRAN BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S "VOICE OF AMERICA" RADIO.

THE BROADCASTS WILL BE BEAMED DAILY ON THE MIDDLE EASTERN COUNTRY, WHICH HAS BEEN A RECENT TARGET OF SOVIET RUSSIAN PROPAGANDA. ONE ANNOUNCED PURPOSE IS TO CORRECT SOVIET "SOVIET DISTORTIONS" ABOUT THE UNITED STATES.

ON THE OPENING BROADCAST, VICE PRESIDENT BARKLEY SAID THAT "OUR ADMIRATION GOES TO THE IRANIAN PEOPLE FOR THEIR PAST RESISTANCE TO ANTI-DEMOCRATIC FORCES." ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE V. ALLEN, FORMER AMBASSADOR TO IRAN, AND HUSSEIN ALLA, IRANIAN AMBASSADOR TO THE U.S., ALSO SPOKE. THE PROGRAM COINCIDED WITH IRAN'S NEW YEAR HOLIDAY, NO-RUZ.

WITH THE ADDITION OF PERSIAN, THE "VOICE" IS NOW SPEAKING IN 20 LANGUAGES. THE IRANIAN PROGRAM, ORIGINATING IN NEW YORK, WILL INCLUDE NEWS, A ROUND-UP OF AMERICAN EDITORIAL OPINION AND FEATURES, ALONG WITH A SMALL AMOUNT OF MUSIC. IT WILL GO OUT FROM 11:30 A.M. TO NOON, EST, WHEN IT IS 8:30 P.M. IRANIAN TIME.

THE TEXT OF MR.TRUMAN'S MESSAGE (ABOUT 150):

"ON BEHALF OF THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES, I TAKE GREAT PLEASURE IN EXTENDING CORDIAL GREETINGS AND BEST WISHES TO THE PEOPLE OF IRAN ON THIS, THE FIRST PERSIAN-LANGUAGE BROADCAST OF THE VOICE OF AMERICA.

"IT IS MY SINCERE HOPE THAT THIS PROGRAM WILL SERVE TO STRENGTHEN THE HISTORIC BOND OF FRIENDSHIP WHICH ALREADY LINKS THE IRANIAN AND THE AMERICAN PEOPLES. WE LOOK FORWARD TO A PERIOD OF CONTINUED GOODWILL AND OF INCREASED UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN YOUR NATION AND MINE.

"SUCH UNDERSTANDING WILL HELP TOWARD THE CREATION OF THE KIND OF WORLD THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AND THEIR GOVERNMENT MOST DESIRE: A PEACEFUL WORLD, FREE OF THE FEARS OF WAR, FREE OF OPPRESSION, AND FREE OF WANT; A PROSPEROUS WORLD IN WHICH PEOPLES OF EVERY CREED, COLOR AND NATIONALITY CAN LIVE TOGETHER AS GOOD NEIGHBORS IN FRIEND-SHIP AND FELLOWSHIP.

"I AM CERTAIN THAT YOUR PEOPLE AND OURS STAND EARNESTLY TOGETHER IN THIS DESIRE. MAY THE NEW YEAR, WHICH YOU CELEBRATE TODAY, SEE GREAT ACHIEVEMENT TOWARD THE GOAL OF PEACE AND FREEDOM FOR ALL MANKIND."

LOS ANGELES, MARCH 21-(AP)-SIR ALEXANDER CADOGAN, BRITISH REPRE-SENTATIVE TO THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL, SAID TODAY THE UN HOPES TO CHECK ITS FILIBUSTER TROUBLES.

SPEAKING AT A TOWN HALL MEETING HERE, SIR ALEXANDER SAID:

"THE RUSSIANS HAVE JUST DISCOVERED THE FILIBUSTER AND ARE DELIGHTED WITH IT AS A CHILD WITH A NEW TOY. I BELIEVE YOU IN THE UNITED STATES ARE TAKING STEPS AGAINST THIS MEASURE AS WE DID IN ENGLAND SOME YEARS AGO. WE IN THE UN HOPE WE WILL FIND SOME RULES THAT MAY CHECK IT."

SIR ALEXANDER, WHO ALSO REPRESENTS BRITAIN ON THE UN ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, SAID SOVIET AGGRESSIVE ACTION IN POLAND AND ELSEWHERE HAS ALMOST WRECKED THE UNITED NATIONS.

"FOR A NUMBER OF REASONS THE UN HAS LOST ITS PRESTIGE," HE ADDED. "HOWEVER, IT MUST BE REMEMBERED IT CAN BUT REFLECT THE INTERNATIONAL SITUATION AS IT IS. THE UN CAN HAVE NO POWER OF ITS OWN. BECAUSE THE MACHINERY HAS NOT ALWAYS BEEN USED RIGHTLY WE SHOULD NOT SCRAP IT. IT HAS FUNCTIONED EFFECTIVELY IN SEVERAL QUARTERS."

NEW YORK, MARCH 21-(AP)-THREE RELIGIOUS LEADERS HAVE EXPRESSED "DISMAY" OVER THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT'S WARNING THAT THE FORTHCOMING CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE FOR WORLD PEACE (CAPS) WILL BE USED TO SPREAD COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA.

A JOINT STATEMENT DEFENDING THE CONFERENCE WAS ISSUED YESTERDAY BY THE REV. DR. HALFORD E. LUCCOCK, OF THE YALE UNIVERSITY DIVINITY SCHOOL; THE RT. REV. ARTHUR W. MOULTON, RETIRED PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL BISHOP OF UTAH; AND THE RT. REV. S. HARRINGTON LITTELL, RETIRED PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL BISHOP OF HONOLULU.

THEIR STATEMENT SAID THE CONFERENCE, OPENING HERE FRIDAY, WILL BE "AN IMPORTANT STEP IN THE REESTABLISHMENT OF CULTURAL RELATIONS BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES, THE U.S.S.R. AND OTHER COUNTRIES."

"A[illegible] H." THEY SAID, "IT SHOULD BE ENCOURAGED AND APPROVED BY OUR OFFICIALS."

THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF THE ARTS, SCIENCES AND PROFESSIONS IS SPONSOR OF THE THREE-DAY INTERNATIONAL MEETING.

DR. DONOVAN J. MC CUNE, PROFESSOR OF PEDIATRICS AT THE COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS, COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY THAT HE HAD WITHDRAWN AS ONE OF THE SPONSORS OF THE CONFERENCE.

DR. MC CUNE SAID THE MEETING MIGHT "BE USED AS A VEHICLE FOR CONDEMNING THE FOREIGN POLICY OF OUR GOVERNMENT, RATHER THAN AS A POSITIVE MEASURE FOR PROMOTING UNDERSTANDING AMONG NATIONS."

ON SATURDAY, MISS SARAH GIBSON BLANDING, PRESIDENT OF VASSAR COLLEGE, WITHDREW AS A SPONSOR. SHE SAID SHE BELIEVED THERE WOULD NOT BE A FAIR BALANCE OF OPINION" AT THE MEETING.

THE CLERGYMEN'S STATEMENT YESTERDAY WAS ISSUED BY THE SPONSORING COUNCIL. BISHOP MOULTON AND BISHOP LITTELL ARE SCHEDULED TO ADDRESS THE CONFERENCE, BUT DR. LUCCOCK WILL NOT SPEAK.

THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT SAID LAST WEEK THAT THE CONFERENCE IS CLOSELY RELATED TO THE WORLD CONGRESS OF INTELLECTUALS HELD LAST YEAR AT WROCLAW, POLAND. THAT CONFERENCE, WHICH WAS PREDOMINANTLY PRO-COMMUNIST, CHARGED AMERICAN-BRITISH "IMPERIALISM."

THE STATEMENT ALSO DECLARED THAT DR. HARLOW SHAPLEY OF HARVARD, CHAIRMAN OF THE CONFERENCE, AND THE COUNCIL "SHOULD BE APPLAUDED FOR THEIR ACHIEVEMENT IN OPENING CULTURAL CHANNELS WHICH OUR DIPLOMATS HAVE APPARENTLY BEEN UNABLE TO NEGOTIATE."

THE COUNCIL SAID OTHERS JOINING IN THE COMMENDATION INCLUDED JOSEPH HUDNUT, DEAN OF THE GRADUATE SCHOOL OF DESIGN OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY, AND FRANCIS FISHER KANE, PHILADELPHIA ATTORNEY.

THE CONFERENCE WILL INCLUDE 22 DELEGATES FROM COUNTRIES BEHIND THE "IRON CURTAIN."

DMITRI SHOSTAKOVITCH, THE COMPOSER, AND SIX OTHER RUSSIANS LEFT MOSCOW YESTERDAY FOR THE CONFERENCE HERE, THE SOVIET OFFICIAL NEWS AGENCY TASS REPORTED. THERE WAS [illegible] IMMEDIATE INDICATION WHEN THEY WOULD ARRIVE IN NEW YORK.

THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT HAS GIVEN THE RUSSIANS PERMISSION TO ENTER THIS COUNTRY IN THE INTERESTS OF FREEDOM OF SPEECH.

THE MEETING IS BACKED BY MORE THAN 300 AMERICAN WRITERS, SCIENTISTS, ARTISTS, EDUCATORS AND ACTORS.

NEW YORK, MARCH 21-(AP)-A FORUM ATTENDED BY 350 PERSONS ADOPTED A RESOLUTION LAST NIGHT URGING UNITED STATES SUPPORT OF A PACT TO ENFORCE CIVIL LIBERTIES THROUGH AN INTERNATIONAL COURT.

THE FORUM ON ENFORCEMENT OF INTERNATIONAL CIVIL LIBERTIES CONCLUDED THE TWO-DAY 29TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION.

ADOLF A. BERLE, JR., TOLD THE FORUM THAT THERE NEVER WOULD BE ADEQUATE PROTECTION FOR CIVIL LIBERTIES OF PEOPLE THROUGHOUT THE WORLD "UNTIL THERE IS INTERNATIONAL RECOGNITION OF THE EQUIVALENT OF A BILL OF RIGHTS."

BERLE, CHAIRMAN OF NEW YORK STATE'S LIBERAL PARTY AND FORMER ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE, SAID:

"WHILE AT FIRST, RELIANCE ON NATIONAL GOVERNMENTS TO ASSURE THESE RIGHTS IS NECESSARY, THERE WILL BE GROWING NEED FOR TRUE INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE. ULTIMATELY, AS INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION GROWS, THIS WILL TAKE THE FORM OF AN INTERNATIONAL COURT. THE PRACTICAL DIFFICULTIES ARE OBVIOUS, BUT THIS MUST BE THE ULTIMATE GOAL."

ANOTHER SPEAKER WAS ROGER BALDWIN, DIRECTOR OF THE ACLU, WHO VISITED GERMANY AND JAPAN AT THE INVITATION OF U.S. OCCUPATION AUTHORITIES AND ORGANIZED CIVIL LIBERTIES UNIONS OF THOSE TWO COUNTRIES.

HE TOLD THE CONFERENCE THAT "A BETTER JOB IS BEING DONE IN JAPAN." HE SAID THAT IN GERMANY "THERE ARE FOUR OCCUPYING POWERS AND NO GOVERNMENT. THE GERMANS ARE CONFUSED."

BALDWIN SAID "THE JOB IN JAPAN, FROM THE POINT OF CIVIL LIBERTIES AND DEMOCRACY, IS MUCH EASIER THAN IN GERMANY BECAUSE IN JAPAN THERE IS A SINGLE OCCUPYING POWER AND A CONTINUING GOVERNMENT WHICH THEY TRIED TO REFORM."

THE JAPANESE CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION HAS GROWN TO 3,000 MEMBERS IN ELEVEN CITIES, BALDWIN REPORTED, BUT THE GERMAN UNION STILL IS IN AN ORGANIZATIONAL STAGE AND IS LIMITED TO THE AMERICAN ZONE.

Russians Make Propaganda Of Allies' Currency Move

GEO BRIA

MAR 23 1949

BERLIN, March 22—(AP) The Russians posed today as benefactors of western Berlin in the currency war.

They invited western Berliners to visit the Soviet part of town to spend their east marks, newly outlawed in the United States, British and French sectors. Some western Berliners did.

Communist editors played up the offer with such headlines as "no Soviet counter measures at the expense of the population" and "Berlin population gets help." This is the population the Russians have been blockading for nearly a year.

Benefactor Role Discounted

U. S. financial experts said that, concealed by the propaganda, was the fact the Russians could not retaliate without hurting the Soviet zone more than western Berlin.

A. J. Warner, financial expert for the American Military Government, said the cost of any reprisal such as printing new Soviet zone currency would be exorbitant.

"It would most likely prove ineffective anyway," he said, "and also disruptive to the Soviet zone economy."

American officials reasoned that if the Soviets revised their money to block the movement of east marks from the western sectors, it would inconvenience 20,000,000 Germans in the Soviet zone, as against 2,400,000 western Berliners.

The Russian promise was announced by Col. Alexander Jelisarov, the acting Soviet commandant of Berlin. It means western Berliners can convert their west marks into east marks at a profit and spend them in Soviet-occupied territory.

East Mark Rallies

Perhaps as a result of this move, the east mark rallied on the west Berlin money market. It was quoted at five for one west mark, compared to a low of 10 for one yesterday.

Before the western powers announced Sunday that the west mark would be the only legal currency for their sectors, the east mark was quoted at four for one.

United States police officials said the Russians apparently were living up to their promise. They said Soviet-controlled police checked documents of western Berliners crossing into the Soviet sector, but made no attempt to confiscate their east marks.

There was even an indication, they said, that the Russians may relax the ban they imposed on west marks when the western powers introduced them last June. The U. S. officials said they had received no reports today of seizures of west marks in the Soviet sector, although this has been a daily occurrence.

Leaders of the communist-led Socialist United Party are reported to have urged Russian authorities to remove the ban, considering it a political liability.

The western allies' counter blockade drew official attention from Lt. Gen. M. I. Dratvin, Soviet deputy military governor.

He threatened in a letter to his American opposite, Maj. Gen. George P. Hays, to sue a German metals firm at Hanau, in the U. S. zone, for non-delivery of electrodes made from platinum supplied from the Russian zone.

Gen. Hays said he would tell Dratvin that "the blockade was not of our making" and free trade can be resumed when the Russians lift their blockade of Berlin.

Red Concession Seen In Reaction to Money Ban in West Berlin

Soviet Commandant Says No Curb Is Planned on Use of East Currency

RICHARD KASISCHKE

By the Associated Press

BERLIN, Mar. 22.—Qualified observers today viewed as an important concession a Russian statement concerning the West's ban on Russian-sponsored currency of the Eastern zone of Germany.

Col. Alexander Jelisarov, acting Russian commandant of Berlin, said last night that the Western move would "deepen the split in Berlin," but that the Soviet military administration does not intend to restrict the use of the East marks now held by Western Berliners.

This indicated the Russians would not prevent Western Berliners from spending the East marks they now hold either in the Soviet sector of Berlin or the Russian zone of Germany.

It also indicated the Russians did not intend to introduce a new East mark which would be refused to Western Berliners. Many had feared that the Russians, in retaliation to the Western Allied move outlawing their currency, might pull a currency switch of their own which would wipe out East mark holdings of Western Berliners and even such East mark bank accounts as peaople in the Western sector still had.

Exchange Still Possible.

The Soviet announcement was viewed as an important concession for this reason, too: Apparently Berliners in possession of West marks still can trade them for the cheaper East marks to be taken over the line for use in ration-free stores of the Soviet sector. East marks also could pay Soviet zone farmers for food smuggled through the blockade.

Apparently, a Russian sector resident who works in Western Berlin still can cenvert his West marks to East marks at a premium. The Western sector resident who works in the East zone apparently will not find his money valueless in his home sector, as he had reason to fear.

The official Soviet army newspaper, Taegliche Rundschau, put this headline on Col. Jelisarov's statement: No Soviet Countermeasures at the Expense of the Population." There has been much speculation here, however, that the Western move would draw some sort of retaliatory action. The Russians announced their financial experts are conferring to "meet the situation."

Order Long Expected.

Col. Jelisarov said the Western move would hurt the people and the economy of the Western zones, but "cannot inflict any serious prejudice" on Soviet zone currency.

4 BRITONS BANNED AT 'PEACE RALLY'

MAR 23 1949

U. S. Stands Firm in Barring 'Unofficial' Delegates to N. Y. Meeting

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

LONDON, March 22.—The United States has refused to let four distinguished Britons attend an intellectuals' "world peace" rally in New York, the American Embassy said today.

Dr. Harlow Shapley, Harvard scientist and leader of the conference, complained in New York that U. S. officials have either denied or revoked visas for a dozen European and South American delegates. He said the others were three Frenchmen, four Italians and a Brazilian. Shapley said he was protesting the action to Secretary of State Acheson.

The State Department declared emphatically in Washington it would not relent in the decision to bar what were termed some "unofficial" delegates, while admitting others officially sponsored by eastern European communist governments.

The conference is the "Cultural and Scientific Congress for World Peace," opening Friday.

Michael J. McDermott, State Department press officer, told newsmen in Washington that "the communist side of the case will certainly be adequately presented by the 21 delegates from eastern Europe and by communist-sympathizers in the United States."

Conference sponsors have denied the State department's contention that the New York rally will be turned into a forum for spreading communist propaganda.

U. S. Explains Stand

State department officials explained their exclusion stand this way:

"The aliens who were coming here as official representatives of their governments were not excludable under the immigration law unless this government should decline to receive them."

In this connection, Hungarian delegates were barred on the ground Hungary had not been treating American diplomats properly.

"The aliens not coming as foreign government officials were excludable if known or believed to be communists unless the attorney general should authorize their temporary admission in his discretion."

INSERT

Seven Russian intellectuals are among 21 delegates from iron curtain countries who have been granted visas.

The four Britons coming under the ban are Miss Patricia Burke, 32-year-old stage and screen actress; Prof. J. D. Bernal, scientist; J. G. Crowther, historian, and Louis Golding, novelist and essayist.

Briton Evicted From Own Home

Bridlington, England, March 22 (AP)—A British war veteran was evicted from his own home to make way for another man who lived on the same site before the blitz.

George H. Moore and his family had lived in a house bombed in 1940. When their home became uninhabitable, they moved.

In 1947 the owner had the bombed house torn down, built another and sold it last year to George Gibson, 28, war veteran, and Mrs. Gibson.

Moore, learning there was a habitable house on the site, went to court under Britain's rent laws and claimed he still had tenancy rights. The court upheld him.

Today Gibson, a former prisoner-of-war, moved his furniture into the street and became Moore's unwilling landlord. The Gibsons are now house hunting.

ECA Pact Violation Seen in French Ford Deals With Poland

MAR 23 1949

By the Associated Press

PARIS, Mar. 22.—The European edition of the New York Herald Tribune said today a French subsidiary of the Ford Motor Co. is sending scarce tractor and truck parts to Poland in apparent violation of Marshall Plan agreements.

The paper said the Ford Societe Anonyme, a French corporation, had shipped about $10,000 worth of the parts to Poland.

An official of the plant was quoted by the newspaper as admitting they had sent "a few scarce American-made parts," but insisting most of the material was of French manufacture. He also was quoted as conceding that "present orders from the Polish purchasing agent in Paris totaled 20,000,000 francs (about $60,000)."

The article said the information had been turned over to the Economic Co-operation Administration office here. David K. E. Bruce, ECA administrator, and his immediate assistants met this morning and issued a statement on the reports.

"We were only informed of the information in the Herald Tribune article yesterday and are making an investigation. We have no comment since we are not in possession of the pertinent facts."

The newspaper said "such exports are in apparent violation of Article 1177D of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1948" which directs the American administrator of the Marshall Plan "to refuse delivery, insofar as is practicable, to participating countries of commodities which go into production of any commodity for delivery to any nonparticipating European country, which commodity would be refused export licenses to those countries by the United States in the interest of national security."

SALE OF ERP GOODS TO POLAND IS DENIED

PARIS, March 22 (AP)—A spokesman for the Ford Societe Anonyme, French subsidiary of the Ford Motor Company, denied today that the subsidiary had sent Marshall Plan goods to Poland.

"It would have been very hard to do," said the assistant manager, François Clerc, in an interview, "because we have never received anything under the Marshall Plan."

Dealings with Poland, he said, have been "100 per cent French."

A report published here this morning said that the French corporation had bought motor parts under the European Recovery Program and resold them to Poland, which is a member of the Communist bloc.

The French Foreign Ministry, in a statement, said the story was "contrary to facts." The Ministry said its own investigation showed "the Ford Motor Company has not sent abroad any parts received from America under the European aid program."

M. Clerc said that the only deal his company had made with Poland since the war was for 150 light trucks delivered in September and October of 1945 for about 51,000,000 francs ($170,000). With the order, but delivered as late as last January, went spare parts worth "about 10 per cent of that," he added.

RASMUSSEN CALLS FOR ALLIANCE O.K.

MAR 23 1949

Tells Danes Choice Is Treaty Or Defenseless Isolation

Copenhagen, March 22 (AP)—Denmark must choose between joining the North Atlantic treaty "or being left in isolation, without any real means of defense," Gustav Rasmussen, Foreign Minister, said today.

He asked Parliament to authorize the Government to ratify the treaty after the signing in Washington next month. The lower house opened debate on the Government's decision to join.

As Rasmussen spoke, young people police identified as members of the Communist Youth Organization hurled down hundreds of leaflets from the House gallery. These carried such slogans as "Youth says no" and "We do not want to die for Wall Street." Police arrested five of them.

Links "Peace-Loving Nations"

The Foreign Minister said the Atlantic treaty is "an alliance of the world's most peace-loving nations."

The Danish Government still thinks a Scandinavian alliance of Denmark, Norway and Sweden would be the best solution, he said, but it has not been possible to reach an agreement to that end.

"Instead, other democratic nations offered to co-operate with us," Rasmussen said, "and the Government finds it advisable to accept the offer to join the North Atlantic pact."

Action on Pact May Delay Election Call in Belgium

BRUSSELS, Mar. 22 (AP).—General elections in Belgium probably will not be held until after ratification on the North Atlantic treaty.

A call for elections had been expected because of a split in the Catholic-Socialist coalition cabinet.

The pact must be ratified by the main signatories, of whom Belgium is one, before it becomes effective. If Parliament were dissolved and general elections called, the pact could not be ratified until after a new Parliament took office. This might not be until July.

Premier Paul-Henri Spaak therefore is not expected to ask Prince Regent Charles to dissolve Parliament until after the signing of the treaty in Washington and its ratification here.

U.S. Refuses East German $7,000,000,000 Postal Bill

Berlin, March 22 (AP)—The German post office in the Soviet zone billed the United States for $7,000,000 in communications fees today and got a flat rejection.

The bill was for communications between Berlin and the Western zones, dating back to 1945.

Moreover, the Americans were asked to pay an additional $160,000 monthly from now on for renting telephone and telegraph lines. It was hinted refusal to pay might be considered a valid excuse to cut the lines.

Charges Called Illegal

United States officials said the bill must have been inspired by the Russians. All eastern German agencies must clear communications with Allied nations through the Soviet military government.

E. T. Martin, economics official in the United States military government, said the charges were illegal and violated an agreement signed by the Soviets three and one-half years ago.

By terms of the agreement, Martin said, the Russians granted free communications when the Americans provided 250 miles of cable and arranged to have it installed. The Russians agreed to maintain the lines, and Martin said they had done a good job on that. However, monthly maintenance charges of $160,000 now would be "ridiculous," he said.

Sent To Soviet Branch

"These lines could be maintained for something closer to $1,600, as a guess," Martin said.

The American refusal to pay back rent or future maintenance was sent to the Russian communications branch, Martin said.

Martin said the fact the bill came from a German agency leaves the Russians an out.

"In case something backfires, they can disavow it," he said.

If Russia backs up the German post office, American officials agreed there is a risk of some undesirable development on communications between blockaded western Berlin and the West.

Cable lines are about the only link left except the airlift.

ILSE KOCH CASE REOPENED BY U.S.

FRANKFURT, Germany, March 22.—(AP) Gen. Lucius D. Clay stepped back into the Ilse Koch case to determine whether she can face another trial.

The U. S. military governor said an investigation is underway to find out if new charges—war crimes or crimes against German nationals—can be lodged against the widowed "mistress of Buchenwald."

An American court sentenced Frau Koch in 1947 to life in prison. Gen. Clay, on review, reduced the sentence to four years. He said there was no evidence she helped kill Germans. The decision, which produced widespread protests, made her eligible for release later this year.

Case Is Reopened

Gen. Clay said today an effort is being made to find out whether, after she left Buchenwald concentration camp in August, 1943, she committed any war crimes for which she could properly be tried by a U. S. commission.

To retry her for her Buchenwald activities would "violate the principles of double jeopardy," Clay said.

The army also turned over to German authorities all known facts about Frau Koch so they can determine whether "her trial is warranted in a German court for crimes against German nationals."

Gen. Clay's statement, issued through army headquarters at Heidelberg, said a careful study of the evidence not introduced in the Koch trial "merely tends to prove or disprove charges made at her trial."

"Thus it is necessary to conclude that she cannot be tried again for her Buchenwald activities by a U. S. military commission without violating the principle of double jeopardy," the announcement said.

German authorities, in determining whether to try her, may take into consideration her activities against German nationals imprisoned at Buchenwald.

German Probe Under Way

"German nationals were among the prisoners at Buchenwald," the announcement said. "Crimes against German nationals have not been included in war crimes and Ilse Koch was not charged with having committed any such crimes at Buchenwald."

Dr. Johann Ilkow, a Bavarian prosecutor, has been appointed to examine evidence to determine whether the woman should be tried "for crimes against German nationals."

Gen. Clay confirmed today a death sentence imposed on SS Sgt. Hubert Huber, one of the Malmedy massacre defendants.

Huber and 11 other Germans were convicted of killing unarmed American prisoners of war during the Battle of the Bulge. Defense claims that the 12 were maltreated to obtain evidence for their conviction won them a stay of execution.

The American military governor confirmed the death sentence of another defendant last week, and commuted that of a third. The cases of the other defendants are still under review.

U. S. ARMY MAY TRY ILSE KOCH AGAIN

MAR 23 1949

Frankfurt, March 22 (A. P.).—Gen. Lucius D. Clay announced today that an investigation is being conducted to determine whether Ilse Koch, Mistress of Buchenwald, can be tried again.

He ruled that to retry her for her Buchenwald activities would violate the principles of double jeopardy. However, he said, the investigation is aimed at learning whether, after she left the concentration camp in August, 1943, she committed any war crimes for which she could be tried by a United States Army commission.

Big Display In Reich Set For U.S. Army Day

Frankfurt, Germany, March 22 (AP)—The United States Army will mark Army Day April 6 in Germany with its greatest display of strength since the war.

At least 250 tanks will be among 800 military vehicles passing in review at the Grafenwoehr training ground in Bavaria, Army officers announced.

The display will be in striking contrast with last year's Army Day, which was observed virtually as a holiday in Germany.

This year the United States Air Force will join in the observance. Jet fighters will form a cover over the tank procession at Grafenwoehr. In addition, every American military post in Germany will conduct its own observance of Army Day.

West Berlin Mayor To Attend U.S. Parley

Frankfurt, Germany, March 22 (AP)—Ernest Reuter, Lord Mayor of the western sectors of Berlin, took off today for Westover Field, Mass., in a plane of the United States Military Air Transport Service. He is due to arrive there tomorrow.

Reuter will visit a conference of American mayors in Washington and he also plans to discuss the Soviet blockade of Berlin with American officials.

Communists Lagging In German Worker Vote

Duesseldorf, Germany, March 22 (AP)—Communists have lost 40 per cent of their strength in German workers' councils in the British zone on the basis of early election returns, an authoritative source said today.

Workers' councils sit with management representatives in discussion of industrial problems.

About 5,000,000 workmen, most of them from the Ruhr, are eligible to vote in the elections.

Continues Until April 9

With about 1,000,000 votes counted, the Communists have garnered only fifteen per cent, compared with 25 per cent in the last workers' council election in June, 1948, this source said.

Whether this proportion will hold was unknown. The election began March 15 and will continue until April 9.

Against the Communists' fifteen per cent to date, the Social Democrats have won about 60 per cent of the votes, the same proportion as in the last election.

20 P.C. To Christian Democrats

About twenty per cent of the votes have gone to the Christian Democrats, who received only about twelve per cent last time.

The Social Democratic platform is similar to that of the Labor party in England. The Christian Democrats, self-described "progressives," are the Conservative party of Germany.

"The election returns are of decisive significance," said Albin Karl, vice chairman of the steering committee of the German trade unions.

HUNGARY ASKS RECALL OF 2 U.S. ARMY OFFICERS

BUDAPEST, Hungary, March 22, —(AP) A reliable source said today the Hungarian government has requested recall of two high-ranking U. S. army officers attached to the American legation here.

The informant identified them as Lt. Col. John P. Merrill and Lt. Col. Peter G. Kopcsak, both members of the staff of the U. S. military attache.

The source said the foreign ministry had informed William P. Cochran, Jr., counselor and acting head of the legation, that the two are persona non grata.

It was recalled that Hungary in a note Feb. 12 had accused Merrill and Kopcsak with "brutal abuse of diplomatic privileges" and suggested the U. S. recall them.

The foreign ministry accused the two of failing to pay a garage bill and creating an incident when a Hungarian sentry stopped them at the Yugoslav border.

Greek Rebel Gets Death For Mass Executions

ATHENS, March 22 (AP).—Constantine Brettacos, commander of guerrilla forces in the Southern Peloponnesus, has been sentenced to death by a Greek government military tribunal at Tripolis. He was notorious for mass executions, the government said.

His political commissar, Sarantis Oeconomacos, and two other leading guerrillas also were sentenced to death.

Brettacos and the other three doomed men were captured recently by Greek national forces.

Catholic Clerics Assailed In Poland

Warsaw, Poland, March 22 (AP)—The uneasy peace between church and state in Poland edged closer to a showdown today. Communist-directed industrial workers staged anti-Catholic demonstrations.

Rallies attended by tens of thousands of members of the Communist-controlled United Workers party throughout Poland denounced Catholic clergymen who talk against the Government. The demonstrators approved resolutions warning the Catholic clergy to keep out of politics and assailed what was termed "the Vatican's anti-Polish attitude."

There was only cold silence from the church, which in Poland has been following a "wait and see" policy.

The rally resolutions backed the Government's recent declaration that certain sections of the Catholic hierarchy must end their "hostile acts" before conflicts between the church and state can be settled.

At the rallies, Catholic priests and bishops were denounced for "provocative reactionary propaganda."

Poland's press and radio has been hammering at the theme that the Government is willing to negotiate. Government leaders have made it clear, however, that they want any peace move to come from the church.

Envoy Is Undecided

MOSCOW, March 22 (AP)—Dr. Fu Ping-chang, named Foreign Minister in the Cabinet of Chinese Nationalist Premier Ho Ying-chin, said today that he had not yet made up his mind whether to accept.

Dr. Fu, Nationalist China's Ambassador to Moscow, said that he had been notified officially by Nanking of the appointment. His friends here said he was likely to accept the post.

Nationalists Urged to Send Peace Group to Peiping

NANKING, Mar. 22 (AP).—The Nationalist representative in Red Peiping urged the government today to name its peace delegation.

Urgency was stressed in a telephone call to Acting President Li Tsung-jen from Huang Shi-Han, liaison officer. Huang said he believed the Peiping Communists would agree to peace talks when the delegates were named.

Li immediately ordered the new cabinet to assemble here. Absent members were told to fly to Nanking. They include the new foreign minister, Fu Ping-chang, Ambassador to Moscow.

The new cabinet is slated to meet tomorrow or Thursday. At the top of the agenda is the selection of peace delegates.

Li and Premier Ho Ying-chin reportedly drafted a list of delegates tonight. If acceptable to the Communists, they will go to Peiping for the peace talks.

Debate Over Delegates

NANKING, March 22 (AP)—Chinese Government peace delegates were being chosen today in the belief that talks with the Communists would begin soon.

The Acting President, Gen. Li Tsung-jen, ordered the new Cabinet to meet in Nanking at once. The new Foreign Minister, Dr. Fu Ping-Chang, was told to fly back from Moscow, where he is stationed as China's Ambassador.

The first item on the agenda will be Cabinet approval of the slate of delegates that General Li and Premier Ho Ying-chin are preparing.

General Li's representative in Communist Peiping said that he believed that the Reds would announce plans for the peace conference when the Government named its delegates.

Most observers say that Premier Ho's new Cabinet is a weak one. Its greatest lack, they say, is Ministers influential with such powerful interests as those supporting President Chiang Kai-shek.

STRIKES REPORTED SWEEPING TIENTSIN

City Is Said to Be Paralyzed by Anti-Red Move—Nanking to Debate Peace Delegates

HONG KONG, March 22 (AP)—The Hong Kong Standard today quoted a British ship captain as having said that Communist-held Tientsin was paralyzed by a mass slowdown strike in protest against Communist rule.

The captain, who was a commander in the British Navy in World War II, said that industry of all kinds in Tientsin was almost completely stagnant.

He added that foreign-owned factories and businesses had shut down and appeared to entertain no prospects of resuming operations in the foreseeable future.

The British captain, whose name was not given, said that Communist authorities were helpless to provide for the city's unemployed and as a result Tientsin was more of a liability to the Reds than an assets.

The captain quoted one Communist official as having said that although they were not prepared to fight Russia for the return of Dairen and Port Arthur, the Communists would use partial resistance and boycott those ports in an effort to make the Soviet position untenable.

Dairen and Port Arthur have been in Russian hands since the end of the war with Japan.

U. S. Aid Executives Arrive in Korea From Red-Captured Tientsin

By the Associated Press

INCHON, Korea, Mar. 22.—American aid executives in Communist-captured Tientsin were surprise passengers aboard the freighter Hanyang which arrived here today.

No word had been received from the three Americans since shortly after the big North China commercial city fell to the Communists January 15.

The three are J. T. Ivy of Bisbee, Ariz., regional director for ECA; and D. L. Moore of Yakima, Wash., and Durand Wilder of Penn Yan, N. Y., both staff members.

Mr. Ivy said the activities of his office had been closed out in Tientsin more than a month ago.

"We've just been marking time, waiting to leave," he said.

The three plan to go to Shanghai from Hong Kong, where the ship will dock.

Silent on Conditions.

They and 27 other passengers, some Chinese, refused to discuss conditions in Tientsin. They made it clear they would say nothing that might jeopardize Occidentals remaining in Tientsin or prejudice the opportunity of other vessels to pick up passengers there.

They said foreigners had not been mistreated. White bread was scarce and costly but local foodstuffs were abundant on the Tientsin market.

Businessmen said the Communists had imported dyestuffs and chemicals and evidently were making ready to engage in barter.

Passengers displayed Communist-circulated money they called rienmin in Tientsin at first, but the legal rate when they left was 300 to $1. On the black market the dollar was worth 600 renmin.

Underwood Killers Confess

Korean Police Announce Arrest of 5 Reds Who Admit Slaying U. S. Woman.

Seoul, March 22 (A. P.).—Police Chief Kim Tai-sun announced today that the slayers of Mrs. H. H. Underwood, an American, had been arrested and linked with the Communist South Korea labor party.

The announcement was made after the woman's son, the Rev. John Underwood, had offered prayers for the slayers at the funeral attended by 2,000 persons.

Mrs. Underwood, wife of the president emeritus of Chosen University, was shot to death in her home by two hooded men last Thursday.

Kim said the five arrested had confessed. He said that none of them—the two who entered the home, two more who stayed outside, and a fifth who concealed the fatal weapon—knew each other before meeting to carry out their assignment.

Police earlier had expressed the belief the slayers might have been after Miss Mo Yun Suk, a poet, who had attended the Paris U. N. conference as a member of the Korean Republic delegation and was at the tea where the shooting occurred. However, this question was left unanswered in today's announcement.

Hawaii Ponders Probe

Honolulu, March 22 (AP)—Hawaii's Legislature today considered measures to investigate communism in the territory.

An inquiry was asked by Gov. Ingram M. Stainback in his opening message last month.

It is designed to dig out the "very large, very efficient and very effective" Communist organization which Senator McCarran (D., Nev.) told the Senate in Washington today was operating in Hawaii.

McCarran referred to an address delivered by a Japanese-American high-school student in a speech contest sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Student's Speech Quoted

In this speech, last November, the student said "all forms of communism are not evil," and Communists were fighting for Hawaiian statehood while "capitalists" were opposing it.

The speech was the subject of a five-hour secret session of the Territorial School Commission February 24. At the time, Charles Fujimoto, secretary of the Hawaii Communist party, said a number of students consulted him in preparing material for the contest.

The commission issued a statement telling teachers to "close the back door" on Communist propaganda.

Bunche Asserts Israel and Arabs Violate Truce

Informs Security Council Both Sides Send Troops Into the Aqaba Region

RHODES, Wednesday, March 23 (AP).—Acting United Nations Mediator Dr. Ralph J. Bunche informed the Security Council today that both Israel and Trans-Jordan had violated the Palestine truce by troop movements in the Aqaba region.

He told newsmen he considered reinforcements of any kind, including those sent by the British to the Trans-Jordan port on the Gulf of Aqaba, was a violation of the truce. He based his report on an investigation headed by Brigadier General William E. Riley, U. N. Chief of Staff in Palestine.

The statement said, "Patrolling activity and reinforcement of pre-truce forces on either side of the frontier in this sector are in conflict with truce conditions which have been accepted by both sides."

Israel and Trans-Jordan are now engaged in armistice talks here. Partial agreement has been reached on some issues.

The report said no fighting had taken place between Israeli forces and King Abdullah's Trans-Jordan Arab Legion in the area. Word that clashes had occurred came from Trans-Jordan sources.

ISRAELI CABINET WIDENED

Ben-Gurion Names 2 of Mapai, One Religious Bloc Minister

TEL AVIV, Israel, March 22 (AP)—Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion today named as Minister of Trade and Industry the man who negotiated the $100,000,000 United States Export-Import Bank loan for Israel. He is Eliezer Kaplan, a member of Mr. Ben-Gurion's Mapai party.

Mr. Ben-Gurion appointed another Mapai party man Minister of Agriculture. He is Dr. Bernard (Dov) Joseph, former Military Governor of Jerusalem.

Moshe Shapira, a member of the religious bloc, was named Minister of Health.

Pakistan Says Iran Occupies Border Post

Karachi, Pakistan, March 22 (AP). The Pakistan Government said today Iranian troops had forcibly occupied a fortified Pakistan post on the common border of the two countries.

The post is known as Quila Sufed. Iranian circles here said it was occupied to underscore long-standing demands by Iran for a realignment of the border.

There are two posts on the border, one controlled by Pakistan and the other by Iran. Pakistan said the Iranian forces occupied Quila Sufed while a change in personnel was taking place there.

Pakistan has called the matter to the attention of Iran through the latter's charge d'affaires here. Relations between Iran and the new Moslem dominion have been cordial and the controversy is expected to be worked out at governmental level.

VANDENBERG CALLS TREATY BAR TO 3D WAR

MAR 23 1949

Tells Mayors Pact Is Most Important Step Since Monroe Doctrine

Washington, March 22 (AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) today indorsed the proposed twelve-nation North Atlantic treaty as a barrier against World War III and the most important step in American foreign policy since the 125-year-old Monroe doctrine.

"In my opinion, it is the best bet to keep the present 'cold war' from getting hot," he said.

After long months of behind-the-scenes negotiations, the treaty is scheduled to be signed here April 4. But to pledge this country's support, it must then be formally ratified by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Turns To Superlatives

Vandenberg, usually conservative in his spoken appraisals, turned to superlatives in praising the defense alliance in a 1,000-word address before the United States Conference of Mayors.

He said at the outset he was reserving his opinion on the Administration's plans for military aid to western Europe. The arms program, a separate but closely linked corollary of the treaty itself, is expected to cost the United States $1,000,000,000 to $1,500,000,000 the first year.

The Michigan Senator, ranking GOP member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said:

"This is the greatest war deterrent ever devised. No itching conqueror will lightly view such odds."

Not Automatic Commitment

Vandenberg quoted the section of the treaty providing that in the event of an attack on one or more of the signatories, the treaty members will aid the victim "by taking forthwith, individually and in concert with the other parties, such action as it deems necessary, including the use of armed force."

Vandenberg continued:

"I ask you to note that this is not an automatic commitment to war.

"I ask you to note that we reserve unto ourselves the option to decide precisely what contribution we shall make against any such armed attack by an aggressor. There are many defensive recourses short of war.

"We are signing no blank check.

"But I ask you also to understand that we are signing no mere 'scrap of paper,'" Vandenberg continued. "This pact will mean what it says or it is devoid of war-preventing authority.

Must Act In Good Faith

"It means that if another armed aggressor threatens any or all of us with World War III—God save the mark!—all of us will forthwith unite to stop the aggression before it becomes universal, and to defeat it before it becomes a universal conquest.

"All of us must take that pledge in good faith or it were better that we do not take it at all."

The Republican leader told "very bluntly" why he considers the Atlantic treaty "the best insurance to complete our mutual protection" against another war.

He said that in his opinion Kaiser Wilhelm II "would not have unleashed his conspiracy of aggression" in 1914 if the German ruler had expected a collision with the United States.

Cites Neutrality Act

Similarly, he declared Adolf Hitler would not have precipitated World War II if the Nazi Führer had anticipated a war with the United States.

"The Neutrality Act of 1939 told Hitler that the United States would keep out of any such conflict, would keep our vessels out of belligerent ports, would refuse credits to warring nations," Vandenberg said.

"The North Atlantic pact—wholly to the contrary — will tell any aggressor in 1949 that from the very moment he launches his conquest in this area he will face whatever united opposition, including that of the United States, is necessary to beat him to his knees.

"Yet no other nation on the face of this earth needs spend one sleepless night over any sort of menace from this pact unless it is plotting armed aggression against neighbors whose only aspiration is peace with justice and honor in a free world of free men."

No Escaping Involvement

Vandenberg declared that no matter how anxiously Americans might wish to keep out of a new conflict, if there is another war "there is no escaping our involvement as its chief target."

Citing the treaty the No. 1 milestone in United States foreign policy since President James Monroe proclaimed the Monroe Doctrine, December 2, 1823, Vandenberg declared:

"The ultimate value of the pact will largely depend upon the extent to which the country wholeheartedly accepts the concept of defensive unity . . . against any armed aggression."

Bevin Report Denied by Ross

MAR 23 1949

Says Truman Didn't Cancel M. I. T. Date Lest Meeting Churchill Embarrass Minister.

Washington, March 22 (A. P.).—President and Mrs. Truman will give a small "black tie" dinner for former British Prime Minister and Mrs. Winston Churchill at the Blair House on Thursday night.

White House Secretary Charles G. Ross, in making the announcement, denied to reporters that the Churchill visit to the United States and the arrival on March 31 of Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin for the signing of the North Atlantic pact had anything to do with cancellation of the President's speech to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Ross Issues Denial.

The White House announced yesterday that Mr. Truman had called off his April 1 M. I. T. speech and a visit to Boston College to receive a degree on April 26. The reason given was the pressure of official duties, both legislative and international. Churchill will address the M. I. T. mid-century convocation on March 31.

Published reports today hinted that the President had cancelled the M. I. T. trip for fear that a meeting at Cambridge with Churchill, Conservative party leader, might embarrass Bevin.

Asked about this today, Ross said: "Bevin's coming had nothing whatsoever to do with the cancellation. The reasons were fully stated in the telegrams to M. I. T. and Boston College."

No Plans for Meeting.

Ross said no arrangements had been made for the President to see Bevin or any of the other foreign ministers coming here for the pact signing early in April. The program for the signing had not been worked out, he added.

In reply to other questions, he said the cancellations were not due to any deterioration of the international situation.

He said the President had no long trips scheduled for April. Two brief visits to New York during the month are still on.

Ross said the Blair House dinner for the Churchills will be purely social and that Miss Margaret Truman will be present, along with a few other guests to be announced later.

He said he understands Churchill will stay at the British Embassy on Thursday night.

U. S. Stands by Visa Denials

Bars All 'Peace' Parley Delegates Seeking to Come Here as Private Individuals.

Washington, March 22 (A. P.).—The State Department declared emphatically today that it is standing firm on its policy of barring from the forthcoming "world peace" conference in New York foreign Communists who seek to come here as private individuals.

Michael J. McDermott, State Department press officer, told reporters "the Communist side of the case will certainly be adequately presented by the twenty-one delegates from Eastern Europe and by Communists and Communist sympathizers in the United States."

State Department officials consider that the conference will provide a forum for Communist attacks on American foreign policy as part of the Russian "peace offensive."

One of the conference leaders, Dr. Harlow Shapley, Harvard University astronomer, announced last night that he had written Secretary of State Acheson protesting the exclusion of various conference delegates scheduled to come here on ordinary visitors' visas. He asked reconsideration of the department's policy.

McDermott's statements made clear that Shapley's protest and plea would be rejected.

State Department's Position.

McDermott gave this explanation of the State Department's policy:

"The twenty-one delegates of Eastern Europe are entering the United States as officials of foreign governments while those from other countries are coming as individuals.

"The only basis on which foreign officials are excluded is on a finding that they are unacceptable. (In the case of the Eastern European delegates the State Department did not make such a finding.)

"In the case of private individuals coming to the United States our consuls abroad are required by law to determine whether they are admissable. The immigration laws of the United States exclude persons who are members of or are affiliated with any organization, association, society or group that believes in, advises, advocates or teaches the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States. This bars the admission of Communists.

Recommendaions to Consuls.

"In connection with the present conference the consuls have requested the department's advice before taking action. In these cases the department can recommend visas only on a finding by th Attorney-General, on the recommendation of the Department of State, that admission is in the national interest.

"It is the department's view that at the forthcoming conference it is not necessary to admit a score of additional spokesmen for the Communist viewpoint in order to permit an adequate presentation of the case, and it is therefore not recommending action by the Attorney General under the ninth proviso." (The section concerning exceptions to permit Communists to enter the country.)

Some Who Were Turned Down.

In London, the American embassy said that the four Britons who were refused visas are J. D. Bernal, scientist; J. G. Crowthers, historian; Louis Golding, novelist, and Patricia Burke, stage and screen actress. William Olaf Stapledon, another British delegate, previously announced that his visa had been revoked.

The three French delegates whose visas were reportedly denied are Abbe Jean Boulier, Paul Eluard and Mrs. Eugenie Cotton. Maria Michi, Italian actress, was also refused a visa.

In Prague Dr. Joseph Hromadka, head of the Czechoslovak Reformed Church who was to have been a fifth member of his country's delegation, announced his withdrawal, although his visa has been issued.

30.24- 1933

"Nevertheless," he said, "this does not mean that I disagree with the meeting's purpose or program." He said he will go to Switzerland for an April conference sponsored by the World Council of Churches.

Dmitri Shostakovitch, Russian composer, will arrive at LaGuardia Airport at 3:20 P. M. tomorrow on an American Overseas Airline plane, it was learned.

Meanwhile, the sponsors of the conference, under fire to publish a list of their financial contributors, said today that backing will come mainly from the sponsoring group, the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions.

Michael M. Nisselson, treasurer, said that the meeting would be self-liquidating, explaining that whatever money is put into the conference would come back through the $3 registration fees, $10 dinner reservations, sale of tickets to meetings and voluntary contributions collected at meetings, including a rally at Madison Square Garden, tickets for which range from 60 cents to $3.60.

Army Says Spokesman Was Merely Giving His Own Views

Washington, March 22 (AP)—Chairman Vinson (D., Ga.) of the House Armed Services Committee said today the armed forces do not plan to call for any more inductions under the present draft law.

He told the House in a prepared statement:

"I have been advised this morning by a representative of the Department of the Army that no further inductions of men into the armed forces are planned during the life of the Selective Service Act of 1947, which expires a year from this summer.

"This means that under present plans no inductions will be made between now and July, 1950."

Expires In June, 1950

The two-year draft law, calling for 21 months' service for youths from 19 through 25 years of age, expires June 24 next year. No inductions have been ordered since January 1 this year.

Army officials said the departmental representative Vinson referred to was Maj. Gen. John A. Dahlquist, chief of army personnel. They said Dahlquist was expressing his own opinion when he told the committee no inductions will be needed between now and July, 1950. Dahlquist expressed the belief that the draft law should be retained on the books, they added.

COMMITTEE CUTS ECA FUND

MAR 23 1949

House Group Backs Continued Aid; Lops $200,000,000

Washington, March 22 (AP)—The House Foreign Affairs Committee tonight approved continuation of the European Recovery Program but it trimmed $200,000,000 off the amount which may be provided through July 1, 1950.

But the committee also approved a "bookkeeping" transaction to encourage American investments in European recovery. It estimated that actually the bill it approved is more than the Administration wanted.

Representative Kee (D., W.Va.), committee chairman, said he will seek House action as soon as possible. On April 3 the Economic Cooperation Administration is permitted to complete allocation of all the funds it now has available.

Cuts Made In Two Funds

The Administration asked Congress to authorize a $1,550,000,000 fund for the ECA to operate between April 3 and the end of the present fiscal year on June 30. The committee knocked off $50,000,000.

For the following fiscal year the ECA asked $4,280,000,000. The committee approved that amount in full.

The Administration also wanted authority to make contracts for $150,000,000 worth of supplies to close any gap around the middle of 1950. The committee refused this.

Thus in total appropriations and authority, the committee chopped off $200,000,000.

Investment Guarantee Backed

But its approval of authority to guarantee private investments a total of $272,000,000, the committee figures, offsets the $200,000,000 cut and provides an extra $72,000,000.

The bill itself is only an authorization. The actual funds must be voted later.

The committee failed to include a section to continue aid to China from April 3 to June 30.

Representative Judd (R., Minn.) said this would have involved no new money, only permission for the use of $50,000,000 or $60,000,000 still left of a fund voted last year.

"They have voted to pull the last rug out from under the Government of an ally," Judd said.

BELGIANS SEND ECA $605,000 REFUND

Washington, March 22 (A. P.).—The Economic Co-operation Administration today announced a refund by the Belgian Government of $605,000 in Marshall plan funds used to purchase Venezuelan crude oil. An ECA statement said the refund was made because prices paid for the oil were excessive and thus a violation of the foreign aid appropriations act. Under provisions of the European Recovery Program, ECA funds cannot be used to buy recovery commodities at prices above those prevailing on the United States market.

The petroleum involved was shipped last summer and was purchased by the Raffinerie Belge de Petroles of Antwerp, from the Petrol Terminal Corporation of Philadelphia, and the Atlantic Pine Industries of New York.

The recovery agency said that prices were approximately $2.68 per barrel to the Petrol Terminal Corporation and $2.72 to Atlantic Pine Industries. ECA estimated these prices to be about 16 per cent over the prevailing market at time of shipment.

This is the second refund to be made by a European recovery nation for overpayment on petroleum purchases. France previously returned $120,000 representing premium payments for crude oil.

CHINA NOT TO GET NEW U.S. FUNDS

MAR 23 1949

Washington, March 22 (A. P.).—Chairman Connally (D.-Tex.) hinted strongly today that the Senate Foreign Relations Committee will recommend no new funds for China this year. Instead, he told a news conference, the committee probably will authorize the expenditure of a $58,000,000 carry-over from the present Economic Co-operation Act expiring April 3. He said authorization for use of the fund through December 31 probably would be placed in the new ECA act which the Senate will start debating shortly.

The committee heard in closed session today from Major-Gen. David G. Barr, chief of the joint United States military advisory group to China. Connally said the entire Chinese situation was reviewed.

BILL KEPT ALIVE AS SOLONS UPSET VOTE TO KILL IT

MAR 23 1949

Roll Call Decision Results in Quick Reshuffling of Tally

AMENDMENTS ARGUED

Final House Action on Controversial Issue Is Expected Today

WASHINGTON, March 22—(AP)—The fate of the Rankin multi-billion dollar veterans pension bill was still up in the air tonight after the house voted yes and then no on a proposal to kill it.

The "yes" vote was off-the-record; the "no" vote was on a roll-call, on which members are recorded publicly.

After five hours of debate and maneuvering, the issue remained unchanged. But the legislative footwork left the house rather breathless from skipping back and forth on both sides of the question.

Plan Final Vote Today

The result was that the chamber put off until tomorrow a final vote on what to do about veterans pensions.

The controversy centers around a bill by Rep. Rankin (D-Miss) to give veterans of both world wars $90 a month when they reach age 65, regardles of need or disability. Under his measure the only eligibility requirement 90 days service in either of the two world wars and a discharge other than dishonorable.

The administration opposes the Rankin bill which it says would cost $125,000,000,000 in the first 50 years, with the annual cost rising to $4,000,000,000 by the year 2,000.

So after this measure was put up for debate today Democratic leaders sought to scuttle it, with the following results:

1. Rep. Carroll (D-Col) moved to strike out the enacting clause—the key part of a bill which would put it into effect if approved.

The members then marched by the tilers' desk, with 163 lined up on the yes side and 154 on the other. On such votes there is no tabulation of how each member casts his ballot.

2. Carroll then offered a motion to send the bill back to the veterans committee for further study.

This time a roll-call vote was held and in the ensuing reshuffle, 223 members voted against recommital and 187 voted for it.

3. The Rankin bill's backers then called for a roll-call showdown on the first teller vote to strike out the enacting clause.

Early Tally Reversed

Again there was a flurry or side-swapping. When all the names had been called—and put on the record—291 had voted against the first Carroll motion and 120 for it, thus reversing the earlier non-recorded tally.

There was a mixture of jeers and applause as various members rose later to defend the way they had voted.

Finally, the house got around to a fourth vote of the day—this one by voice only. It approved an amendment to make an honorable discharge a requirement for pension eligibility. Then it put off all further consideration of the measure until tomorrow.

Pending for action tomorrow are various amendments, including one to limit the pensions to World War I veterans and another to adopt a "needs" test.

Before the vote merry-go-round started, foes and backers of the Rankin bill had engaged in long and at times heated debate, most of is over the plan to include veterans of World War II in the measure.

Rep. Huber (D-Ohio) said there was justification for pension payments to needy ex-soldiers who fought the first world war but he said there is "no valid or compelling reason" to include the younger veterans at this time.

Rep. Allen (D-La) told the house, however, that if the World War II men are eliminated now it will mean they will never get a pension.

And Rep. Myer (D-Kan) said the Rankin bill is as "American as Bunker Hill, Gettysburg and San Juan."

His mention of San Juan was a reference to the last veterans pension bill put before congress in 1921. At that time the lawmakers voted without a dissent for a $90-a-month payment to Spanish-American war veterans at age 65.

In his supporting bill, Rep. Phillips (R-Tenn) contended that the pensions would be an evidence of government good faith and provide an added attraction for future volunteers.

Clashes Develop

Phillips told the House that German veterans after World War I felt their government "let them down" when it failed to grant pensions, "so they were ready for a leader who promised them something."

That brought Rep. Kennedy (D-Mass), a Navy veteran of the last war, to his feet.

"Do you mean to suggest that if we here in Congress don't vote for this grab that the veterans will follow and vote for a leader like Hitler?" Kennedy asked.

Phillips replied that he did not mean any such thing.

Another young veteran, Rep. Davis (R-Wis) declared that the Rankin bill "seriously jeopardizes" the existing veterans rehabilitation programs and "speaks a false philosophy for the veteran—a philosophy of give them money and then forget them."

But Rep. Magee (D-Mo) said that "any nation that can spend millions to build up the standard of living in Europe can afford to pension its aged veterans."

Although Democratic leaders conceded in advance that some sort of veterans legislation probably would be voted by the House, they expect stiffer opposition in the Senate. And, since President Truman has flatly opposed the broad Rankin measure, he probably would veto it.

SAYS REDS HAVE 'A' BOMB SECRET

MAR 23 1949

Dr. Bradley Lists 4 Atomic 'Delusions' Held in U. S.

Washington, March 22 (A. P.).—Dr. David Bradley, atomic medical scientist, said today that Russia not only has the atomic bomb secret but "may already be manufacturing atomic weapons."

The belief that the United States has a monopoly of atomic knowledge is one of the "four fatal delusions" which leave Americans unready for a possible atomic war, said Dr. Bradley, the author of "No Place to Hide," a report on the Bikini bomb tests.

"These four delusions are our greatest danger—greater than any scientific formula we might give away," Dr. Bradley asserted in a radio broadcast sponsored by the United States Conference of Mayors.

"What we should fear most is an uninformed, mentally unprepared American public. . . . Civil defense will be totally unworkable without a clear appreciation by the people of what they are up against."

Calls Bomb 'Secret' a Myth.

There are the four delusions, Bradley reported:

1. "The myth of teh 'secret'—the idea that we possess and can keep the secret of making atomic bombs."

"Gentlemen, there is no secret," he said. "Russia, you may be sure, has the scientific secret of atomic bombs."

2. The delusion of "industrial know-how."

"This is at best a very temporary advantage. Any one who can make (an atomic) pile can make plutonium. An industrialized Russia, aided by captured German scientists, may already be manufacturing atomic weapons."

3. The delusion that atomic weapons are absolute weapons. "They are not. They have clear limitations and obvious strategic and tactical uses."

4. "The last equally absurd, equally dangerous delusion is the current effort to play down the bomb—that atomic weapons are really of no great account."

Russ Steamer Loading At Newport News, Va.

Newport News, Va., March 22 (AP)—The Russian steamer General Chernakhovsky is loading a cargo of tobacco and other miscellaneous general cargo here today, Charles Mark, local agent, said.

There have been reports that crew members of the General Chernakhovsky were being used as longshoremen to load the ships. An official of the International Longshoremen's Association here, however, denied this. Lonest Jones, ILA official, said the ILA men were loading the ship, and that crew members had nothing to do with the cargo, either on or off the ship, while loading operations are in progress.

Mark said that as far as he knows, no crew members have even left the ship. In past months, when Russian ships have been in port, crew members have been kept on board by ships' officers.

Homesick GI to See His Family As Result of Letter to Marshall

MAR 23 1949

SANFORD, N. C., March 22—(AP) A homesick soldier on Okinawa is coming home to see his wife and two small boys.

Apparently Gen. George C. Marshall arranged it.

The Air Force announced today in Washington that Sgt. Early J. Snow 33, will be transferred to Pope Air Force base, Fort Bragg. Mrs. Snow and the children live seven miles from here in a cabin.

Sgt. Snow had sought some weeks ago to get a transfer back to the states. There was nothing doing. Then he sat down and wrote a letter to Gen. Marshall, the former chief of staff.

Marshall was at his Pinehurst, N. C., home, Liscombe Lodge. He and Mrs. Marshall motored out to the Snow cabin March 11. Gen. Marshall later explained: "I motored over to Sanford to see the family of a Sergeant Snow, who had written me in distress over the situation of his family. I called at their house, about seven miles out in the country and then checked up with the Red Cross office in Sanford."

In the small dwelling, the Marshalls found Mrs. Snow, a pretty blonde, and their two sons, Jimmy, 6, and Johnny, 3.

Electricity only recently had been installed. There is no telephone. Mrs. Snow explained that Jimmy would start to school in the fall but would have to walk a mile to be picked up by a school bus.

Mrs. Snow told Gen. Marshall she had expected him to call. Her husband had written her that he had written him. Later Mrs. Snow admitted she was "scared" when she saw the general drive up. The Marshalls introduced themselves, then were introduced to the Snow youngsters.

The general was full of questions. Where had her husband served overseas in the war?

What outfit was he with? When would the older boy start to school? How far would he have to walk? Was Mrs. Snow going to have a garden this summer?

The former secretary of state called Jimmy over and patted him on the head.

"Watch him smile when his daddy is mentioned," observed the former commander of America's armed forces.

Sgt. Snow, a vehicles mechanic, has been overseas nine months. He served 32 months in World War II. He was with field artillery in Africa, Sicily and Europe.

Farmers' Union Board Denounces Alliance

Denver, March 22 (AP)—The North Atlantic alliance was denounced today as "directly contrary to American precedent and history" by the board of directors of the National Farmers Union.

Farm delegates from 35 states attending a semi-annual board meeting here approved a resolution calling the treaty a "futile gesture."

"There are very disturbing elements in our Government's foreign policy," a board statement said. "The most alarming is the proposal for a North Atlantic security treaty, obviously to be followed by extensive arms aid to Europe. We cannot approve such a course."

The union's board did approve four Administration actions, which it said indicate a possible new trend in the conduct of relations with other nations.

TEXANS HUNT COMMUNISTS

MAR 23 1949

House Votes, 139 To 0, To Expel Marxists In Colleges

Austin, Texas, March 22 (AP)—The Texas House of Representatives today voted 139-0 to throw out all Communists in State-supported colleges and universities.

The resolution by Representatives Sam Hanna, of Dallas, and Preston Smith, of Lubbock, must be approved by the Senate to become effective.

It empowers and instructs presidents of all State-supported schools of higher learning to investigate and expel students who are avowed Communists. Hanna said that included any teachers, too.

Illinois Approves Ban

Springfield, Ill., March 22 (AP)—Three bills designed to outlaw communism in Illinois were approved today by the State Senate and sent to the House.

However, the Senate refused to pass a fourth bill which would make it mandatory for organizations of twenty or more members that require a secret oath to file a roster of membership with the Secretary of State.

The anti-Communist bills were drawn up by the legislative commission which investigated seditious activities in Illinois for eighteen months.

The bills were strongly backed by the American Legion.

Penalty 1 To 5 Years

The main bill would outlaw the Communist party in the State. Anyone belonging to a Communist organization would be guilty of a felony and subject to one to five years in prison.

The others would require loyalty oaths from teachers and all other public employés and bar any member of a subversive group advocating violent overthrow of the Government from holding public office.

State Senator Paul M. Broyles (R.), commission chairman, said the bills were not "intended to curb anyone's thought."

Senator Edward P. Saltiel (R.), said he felt the bills "are basically unsound and un-American and doing the very same thing we are trying to stop."

Inference Noted

Anyone, Judge Denman added, might reasonably infer that a grand jury wouldn't be investigating Communists unless the United States attorney believed and was trying to prove they advocated such violent revolt.

In the Los Angeles investigation, Government attorneys argued witnesses were not asked to incriminate themselves, but only to supply information about others.

But, Judge Denman contended, "the statement to each by the assistant attorney general that the grand jury 'is not investigating you' is a naïve evasion of the fact the grand jury was seeking to investigate each, as to his or her knowledge. . . ."

He noted the "basic concept of the Constitution, that men may not be forced to supply the evidence convicting them of crime."

Judge Rules Communists Need Not Incriminate Selves

MAR 23 1949

San Francisco, March 22 (AP)—A high Federal judge said today Communists should be classed with "rapists, conspirators to lynch, and cold-blooded murderers" but should not be forced to answer incriminating questions.

He said their rights should be respected like those of other criminals.

Thus did Chief Judge William Denman of the United States Court of Appeals record his dissent to a recent action of his own court. The court had affirmed jail terms for ten Los Angeles persons who had refused to answer grand-jury questions.

Sentenced For Contempt

Frank Edward Alexander and nine others, including four women, had been sentenced by Federal Judge Peirson Hall, of Los Angeles, last October for civil contempt.

They appealed, and Judge Denman, acting alone, ordered them admitted to bail. Last week his fellow judges set aside his bail order, then affirmed sentences.

Any person nowadays who displays intimate knowledge of the Communist party may "very reasonably" fear indictment under the Smith Act, Denman noted. The act makes it a crime punishable by ten years' imprisonment and a $10,000 fine to be a member or "an affiliate" of a group teaching or encouraging violent overthrow of the United States Government.

'Freedom of Speech' Justifies Reds' Acts, Defense of 11 Says

By the Associated Press

NEW YORK, Mar. 22.—A defense lawyer at the conspiracy trial of 11 top Communist leaders has invoked the constitutional guarantees of freedom of speech, press and peaceable assemblage.

George W. Crockett, jr., Negro attorney from Detroit, told the Federal Court jury yesterday that the defense will cite the first amendment, part of the Bill of Rights, as "justification for everything my clients have said or done."

After 38 days of argument and delay, the jury heard opening statements by the prosecution and defense in the trial of the men on charges of conspiracy to advocate forcible overthrow of the Government.

More Statements Today.

More defense lawyers will make opening statements today, and the Government is scheduled to start putting its witnesses on the stand tomorrow.

30.24- 1935

United States Attorney John F. X. McGohey told the jury that there has been a conspiracy in which the defendants were to determine when the time was ripe for starting an uprising.

Eugene Dennis, general secretary of the Communist Party in the United States, and two defense attorneys denied any conspiracy or any aim to use force or violence to accomplish the party's aims.

Dennis, a defendant who is acting as his own lawyer, said during a long opening statement that his party consistently has taught support of American Government.

Dennis Cites Record.

"It is a matter of record," he declared, "that we suported the Roosevelt administration and vigorously campaigned for his re-election."

Judge Harold R. Medina interrupted Dennis several times, seeking to get him back to the issues of the trial, when he used his unusual position as lawyer-defendant to discuss at length the Communist Party's attitudes on domestic and foreign issues.

In addition to Mr. Crockett, another defense attorney, Louis M. McCabe, made an opening statement.

The defendants, if convicted, would face maximum penalties of 10 years in prison and $10,000 fines each.

Harry Sacher, one of the lawyers, said "I have sat here and watched your honor scratch his head, pull his ears and do other things which have had the effect of negating what we say."

The judge also denied contentions of Richard F. Gladstein that Medina's remarks "constituted nothing less than a rebuttal" and of George W. Crockett, Jr., that "the emphasis of the tone of your voice has prejudiced the minds of the jury and prevents a fair trial." Gladstein and Crockett are defense attorneys.

In his remarks to the jurors after all attorneys had finished Medina pointed out that the defendants were charged with conspiring to organize the Communist Party for the purpose of advocating the violent overthrow of the United States government.

"Whether that is an old idea or a new idea, such an idea is against the law of the United States," he said.

The government is scheduled to offer its first witnesses tomorrow.

In their statements to the jury, defense lawyers declared the doctrines of Marxism-Leninism do not involve violent overthrow of the government.

U. S. Attorney John F. X. McGohey, who made his statement to the jury yesterday, said the defendants planned to use Marxist-Leninist principals as a guide to seize power and set up a dictatorship here.

Malaya Area Reports Deposits Of Thorium

Singapore, March 22 (AP)—Small deposits of thorium have been reported in the Kinta Valley tin mine region and on the Island of Langkawi off the northwest coast of Malaya. Thorium is important in atomic research.

One firm has been investigating the possibility of working monazite sands where the deposits were found. Monazite is a reddish-brown substance which often contains thorium.

The Malaya Federation Government is looking into the reported discovery and also into the possibility that uranium may be found in Malaya.

WITH WASHINGTON (240)
LONDON, MARCH 22-(AP)-FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN PLANS TO HOLD ONLY "GENERAL TALKS" WITH U.S. OFFICIALS WHEN HE GOES TO WASHINGTON FOR THE FORMAL SIGNING OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY APRIL 4.
BEVIN WILL BE ACCOMPANIED BY A MINIMUM PERSONAL STAFF WHEN HE SAILS ON THE QUEEN MARY FRIDAY.
A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID THE FOREIGN SECRETARY HOPES TO COVER "ALL POINTS OF COMMON INTEREST" IN TALKS WITH SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON, ADDING:
"HE IS LOOKING FORWARD TO THIS FIRST OPPORTUNITY TO DISCUSS GENERAL QUESTIONS WITH THE NEW UNITED STATES SECRETARY OF STATE, BUT HE DOES NOT PLAN A DETAILED EXAMINATION OF ANY QUESTION, FOR WHICH EXPERTS WOULD BE REQUIRED."
THE SPOKESMAN SAID "GERMANY MIGHT COME UP" IN THE CONVERSATIONS BUT ONLY AT THE LEVEL OF A GENERAL DISCUSSION OF POLICY. HE INDICATED THE PRINCIPAL SUBJECT WILL BE THE IMPLICATIONS OF THE PACT ITSELF AND ITS OPERATION.
THE INFORMANT EXPRESSED DOUBT THAT THE TALKS BETWEEN BEVIN AND AMERICAN OFFICIALS WILL INCLUDE ANY PLANS FOR PARALLEL PACIFIC AND MEDITERRANEAN TREATIES AT PRESENT.
"WE BELIEVE IN ONE PACT AT A TIME," HE SAID.
THE BELGIAN FOREIGN OFFICE HAS ANNOUNCED THAT Ppremier PAUL-HENRI SPAAK ALSO WILL BE ABOARD THE QUEEN MARY. SOVIET EMBASSY OFFICIALS HERE SAID DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI A.GROMYKO, HEAD OF THE RUSSIAN DELEGATION TO THE FORTHCOMING UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY, AND GEORGI ZARUBIN, RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR TO LONDON, MAY BOARD THE LINER. GROMYKO REACHED PARIS TODAY BY PLANE FROM MOSCOW.

The Foreign Office spokesman said he presumes other foreign ministers may travel on the liner but that he has no information of any shipboard conferences Bevin might hold. Hector McNeil, British minister of state and Ernest Davies, member of Parliament and a delegate to U.N., will travel on the Queen Mary.

"He hopes to have a good rest," the informant said.

MAR 23 1949

Bevin plans to go direct to Washington and spend most of his time there. He does not plan to visit the General Assembly in Lake Success before returning on the Mauretania about April 8.

Counsel for Reds Ask Mistrial Because Judge Scratches Head

MAR 23 1949

NEW YORK, March 22—(AP)—Attorneys for 11 high U. S. Communists moved for a mistrial today because the judge scratched his head and tweaked his ears while addressing the jury for the conspiracy trial.

Judge Harold R. Medina promptly denied the motion, smiled and told the defense:

"I want you gentlemen to know that when I scratch my head, I'm just scratching my head. I have a habit of doing that, and I'm not going to stop just because of your remarks."

Several of the attorneys joined in the motion after the judge had addressed the jury briefly at the conclusion of opening statements by defense counsel.

Chinese Reds to Go to Paris

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22 (AP)—The Chinese Communists will send delegates to the "World Congress of the Adherents of Peace" in Paris on April 20, the Communist radio in North China said today. The broadcast was monitored in San Francisco.

Bevin's personal party will include only Roderick Barclay, his principal private secretary; William Ridsdale, head of the Foreign Office News Department; and three girl secretaries.

LONDON, MARCH 22-(AP)-BRITAIN TOOK THE RATION LIST TODAY AND LIFTED CONTROLS ON MORE THAN 50 RAW MATERIALS.

NUMEROUS OTHER CONTROLS WHICH HAVE CONSUMED MOUNTAINS OF PAPER AND MILLENIUMS OF TIME FOR FILLING OUT FORMS WERE EASED.

HAROLD WILSON, PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF TRADE, CALLED IT A "BONFIRE OF CONTROLS."

FOOD MINISTER JOHN STRACHEY SAID BRITONS CAN BUY ALL THE MILK THEY WANT, PROBABLY FOR THREE MONTHS WHILE THE SUPPLY IS HEAVY. ADULTS HAVE BEEN ALLOWED TWO AND A HALF PINTS A WEEK AND CHILDREN FIVE PINTS.

A FEW ITEMS SUCH AS SYNTHETIC RUBBER, PINE OIL, TURPENTINE AND RESIN, WHICH THE GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN HANDLING, WERE TURNED BACK TO PRIVATE BUYERS AND SELLERS.

STRACHEY SAID THE LABOR REGIME HAS DECIDED TO LET GROCERS REMODEL THEIR STORES UP TO COSTS OF $12,000 TO TURN THE STORES INTO SELF SERVING PLACES. BUILDING PREVIOUSLY HAS BEEN RESTRICTED ALMOST SOLELY TO CONSTRUCTION OR REPAIR OF HOUSES AND ESSENTIAL FACTORIES.

STRACHEY SAID, HOWEVER, NEW FOOD RATION BOOKS WILL BE ISSUED NEXT MONTH.

CLOTHES RATIONING ENDED LAST WEEK. ABOUT 60 INDUSTRIAL MATERIALS WERE TAKEN FROM THE CONTROL LIST LAST NOVEMBER, SAVING 2,500,000 LICENSES A YEAR.

WILSON SAID HUNDREDS OF ITEMS USED BY INDUSTRY STILL WILL BE KEPT UNDER QUOTA RESTRICTIONS WHICH REQUIRE IMPORT LICENSES. MANY OF THESE MATERIALS STILL ARE SCARCE DOLLARS. MANY OF THESE MUST BE BOUGHT WITH SCARCE DOLLARS.

HE SAID HE HOPED TO GET RID OF GOVERNMENT CONTROL OVER ALL ITEMS NOW AFFECTED BY THE TWO DIFFICULTIES BY THE END OF THE YEAR.

WILSON SAID PRICE CEILINGS WILL REMAIN ON ALL FREED ARTICLES.

"ALL QUOTA RESTRICTIONS HAVE TO BE KEPT TO HOLD BACK UNNECESSARY IMPORTS SUSTAIN THE INEFFICIENT," HE SAID, AND UNACCUSTOMED FIRMS AND THE MINORITY CONSERVATIVE BENCHES.

QUOTAS WILL BE SET ACCORDING TO THE AMOUNTS OF EACH MATERIAL EACH INDUSTRY USED BEFORE THE WAR WHEN IMPORTS WERE NOT CONTROLLED.

SEVERAL CHEMICALS, SOME TYPES OF COTTON AND MOST KINDS OF HARDWOOD WERE LOOSED FROM CONTROLS TODAY. THE CHEMICALS INCLUDE TITANIUM DIOXIDE, WHITE LEAD, CASEIN, BORAX, BORIC ACID AND CALCIUM CHLORIDE. DENITRATE WAS FREED FOR MISCELLANEOUS USES BUT NOT FOR CLOTH. THE RAW COTTON AND COTTON LINTERS SATISFIES, TOWELLING AND FOR RAYON, WERE FREED.

LONDON, MARCH 22-(AP)-THE AMERICAN EMBASSY SAID TODAY THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAS REFUSED TO LET FOUR BRITONS ATTEND AN INTELLECTUALS' "PEACE RALLY" IN NEW YORK. THE U.S.STATE DEPARTMENT CALLS THE PLANNED RALLY A FRONT FOR COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA.

THE FOUR ARE SCIENTIST J.D.BERNAL, HISTORIAN J.G.CROWTHERS, NOVELIST LOUIS GOLDING AND ACTRESS PATRICIA BURKE.

JULIAN HUXLEY, FORMER DIRECTOR GENERAL OF THE UNITED NATIONS EDUCATIONAL, SCIENTIFIC AND CULTURAL ORGANIZATION, ONCE DESCRIBED BERNAL AS "THE WISEST MAN IN THE WORLD."

MISS BURKE, 32-YEAR-OLD STAGE AND SCREEN ACTRESS, SAID HER VISA WAS CANCELLED A WEEK AFTER IT WAS GRANTED. THE OTHERS ALSO HAD VISAS PREVIOUSLY, BUT ALL THREE WERE WITHDRAWN.

THE EMBASSY SAID AT FIRST THAT PHILOSOPHER OLAF STAPLEDON WOULD BE BARRED, BUT A SPOKESMAN SAID THE VISA WAS GRANTED DURING THE MORNING. STAPLEDON HAD INDICATED HE WOULD DEFY ANY BAN AND TRY TO ENTER THE UNITED STATES ANYWAY.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID LAST WEEK THE PROJECTED "CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC CONGRESS FOR WORLD PEACE" IS A FRONT FROM COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA. SEVEN RUSSIAN INTELLECTUALS, INCLUDING COMPOSER DMITRI SHOSTAKOVICH, HAVE VISAS AND ARE EN ROUTE TO NEW YORK.

THE EMBASSY SAID ALL FOUR BRITONS HAD VIAS, BUT THAT THREE WERE WITHDRAWN.

STAPLEDON ATTENDED LAST YEAR'S CONGRESS OF INTELLECTUALS AT WROCLAW, POLAND, WHICH TURNED OUT TO BE MOSTLY A SOUNDING BOARD OF PRAISE FOR RUSSIA AND COMMUNISM. HE REPLIED THERE TO RUSSIAN WRITER ALEXANDER DADYEV WHO ATTACKED WHAT HE CALLED "REACTIONARY AGGRESSIVE ELEMENTS" OF AMERICAN CULTURE. HE WROTE LATER TO THE MANCHESTER GUARDIAN THAT "EVEN ALLOWING OUR PRESS IS PREJUDICED AGAINST RUSSIA, I AM RELUCTANTLY FORCED TO BELIEVE THERE IS A GRAVE EVIL IN THE RUSSIAN STATE."

GOLDING SAID THE BRITONS WERE ASKED IF THEY ATTENDED THE POLISH MEETING. "THIS WAS FOLLOWED BY OUR CANCELLATIONS," HE SAID.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S THREE DELEGATES, INCLUDING STATE INFORMATION DIRECTOR JIRI HRONEK, ARE TO LEAVE PRAGUE BY PLANE TODAY.

BERNAL, CREDITED BY SOME AS BEING ONE OF THE SCIENTIFIC BRAINS BEHIND THE ALLIED INVASION OF FRANCE, COMMENTED LAST YEAR:

"SLOWNESS OF SHARING ATOMIC ENERGY IS THE MAJOR CAUSE FOR CONTINUED AND DANGEROUSLY INCREASING TENSION IN THE WORLD."

PARIS, MARCH 22-(AP)-THE FRENCH FOREIGN OFFICE IS INVESTIGATING A REPORT IN THE EUROPEAN EDITION OF THE NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE CHARGING THE FORD MOTOR COMPANY WITH "APPARENT" VIOLATIONS OF THE MARSHAL PLAN.

"AS FAR AS WE CAN FIND OUT," A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID, "THE FORD MOTOR COMPANY HAS NOT RECEIVED ANY PARTS UNDER MARSHALL PLAN AID."

THE PARNS HERALD-TRIBUNE QUOTED ECA OFFICIALS AS SAYING THEY BELIEVED THE CASE OF THE FRENCH FORD COMPANY WAS ONLY ONE EXAMPLE OF A LARGE VOLUME OF SUCH TRADE DELAYING FRENCH AND WESTERN EUROPEAN RECOVERY.
IT QUOTED THE SAME OFFICIALS AS SAYING MOST OF THE AMERICAN PARTS RESHIPPED BY THE FRENCH FORD COMPANY TO POLAND COULD NOT HAVE BEEN SHIPPED DIRECTLY TO POLAND FROM FORD PLANTS IN AMERICA AND CANADA

UNDER THE LICENSING REGULATIONS FOR EASTERN EUROPE.

THE PAPER THEN ADDED:

"THERE IS NO EVIDENCE THAT THE PARENT COMPANY IN DEARBORN, MICH., IS AWARE OF ANY DIVERSION TO POLAND OF ITS SHIPMENTS TO FRANCE. ORDERS FROM THE FRENCH COMPANY TO DEARBORN DO NOT SPECIFY THE ULTIMATE CONSUMER."

THE NEWSPAPER SAID THAT THE TRADING FIRM WHICH PURCHASES FROM THE FRENCH FORD COMPANY IS CALLED "VITRAME". IT MAINTAINS OFFICES HERE, IN NAPLES, AND AT 27 WALL STREET, NEW YORK CITY, THE PAPER SAID, ADDING THAT THE FIRM HAS BEEN SPECIALLY AUTHORIZED BY THE POLISH GOVERNMENT AS ITS SOLE PURCHASING AGENT IN FRANCE FOR AUTOMOTIVE PARTS OF OTHER THAN FRENCH MAKE.

THE PAPER SAID THE VITRAME OFFICES IN PARIS ARE SHARED BY A GEN. VENSOVER WHOM IT IDENTIFIED AS A MEMBER OF THE POLISH PURCHASING COMMISSION. IT SAID VENSOVER HOLDS INTERESTS IN SEVERAL PARIS GARAGES INCLUDING ONE WHICH IS A FORD DEALER. THE PAPER THEN CONTINUED:

"ORDERS RECEIVED BY THE FRENCH FORD COMPANY FROM VITRAME MAKE IT CLEAR THAT THEY WERE FOR THE ACCOUNT OF AND FOR REEXPORT TO MOTOZ-BYT, THE POLISH STATE MOTOR TRUST, IN WARSAW. FORD IS PAID IN FRANCS BY CHECK ON THE BANK POLSKA KASA OPIEKI. THE BILLS SPECIFY THAT THE PURCHASER IS EXEMPT FROM ANY TAXES.

"THE PURCHASING AGENCY, WHICH IS ORGANIZED AS A FRENCH COMPANY, SPECIFIED IN INSTRUCTIONS TO THE FORD COMPANY THAT ALL MARKINGS AND IDENTIFICATIONS WHICH WOULD INDICATE THAT THE SPARE PARTS COME FROM AMERICA BE REMOVED BEFORE SHIPMENT. BY LAW, ECA SHIPMENTS ARE STAMPED--OUTSIDE AND INSIDE--WITH ECA SHIELDS. NATURALLY THE LAW HARDLY APPLIES TO NON-MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES AND IS HARDLY APPLICABLE TO POLAND. MANY OF THE PARTS ARE STAMPED 'MADE IN U.S.A.' IN HARD STEEL."

THS NEWSPAPER QUOTED ECA OFFICIALS AS SAYING THE WHOLE ISSUE OF AMERICAN REGULATION OF TRADE WITH EASTERN EUROPE MAY NOW HAVE TO BE REVIEWED BECAUSE OF THE FORD CASE.

THE PAPER CONCLUDED:

"M. COLA, OF THE FRENCH FORD COMPANY, INDICATED YESTERDAY THAT HE FELT HIS COMPANY WAS DOING MERELY A ROUTINE COMMERCIAL SERVICE.

"'WE DO NOT HAVE ENOUGH SPARE PARTS TO MEET OUR FRENCH DEMANDS,' M. COLA SAID. 'PERHAPS WE HAVE TO SEND A FEW AMERICAN BALL BEARINGS OR OTHER CRITICAL PARTS OCCASIONALLY, BECAUSE THEY ARE NECESSARY TO THE OTHER PARTS WE ARE SENDING TO POLAND. ANTI-COMMUNIST NEWSPAPERS OF WESTERN BERLIN ACCEPTED JELISAROV'S STATEMENT AT FACE VALUE. THE AMERICAN-LICENSED TAGESSPIEGEL PLACED THIS BANNER ON THE FIRST PAGE: "NO RUSSIAN COUNTER MEASURES."

MAR 23 1949

SOCIALIST NEWSPAPERS HEADLINED THEIR REPORTS: "NO NEW EAST MARK PLANNED." THESE NEWSPAPERS ALSO PRINTED REPORTED BY THE BRITISH-LICENZED GERMAN PRESS SERVICE HINTING THE COMMUNISTS ARE CONSIDERING GOING FURTHER AND ALLOWING SOME CIRCULATION OF WEST MARKS IN THE SOVIET SECTOR.

A.J.WARNER, FINANCIAL EXPERT OF THE U.S.MILITARY GOVERNMENT, SAID HE BELIEVED FROM JELISAROV'S STATEMENT NO REPRISAL IS PLANNED. HE SAID ANY COUNTER ACTION SUCH AS PRINTING NEW RUSSIAN ZONE CURRENCY TO CUT OFF WESTERN BERLINERS COULD HARDLY BE ATTEMPTED. "ITS COST WOULD BE EXORBITANT AND IT WOULD MOST LIKELY PROVE INEFFECTIVE, ANYWAY, AND ALSO DISRUPTIVE TO THE SOVIET ZONE ECONOMY," HE SAID.

AMERICAN EXPERTS SAID THAT ASIDE FROM PRINTING NEW MONEY, THEY COULD NOT SEE WHAT ELSE THE RUSSIANS COULD ATTEMPT IN RETALIATION TO THE WESTERN ORDER.

IN THE FIRST OFFICIAL RUSSIAN STATEMENT ON THE ORDER, JELISAROV SAID:

"IN AN ENDEAVOR TO HELP THE POPULATION OF BERLIN'S WESTERN SECTORS, THE SOVIET MILITARY ADMINISTRATION DOES NOT INTEND TO CARRY OUT ANY MEASURES RESTRICTING THE USE OF THE MARK OF THE GERMAN BANK OF EMISSION (THE EAST MARK) BY RESIDENTS OF THE WESTERN SECTORS IN THE SOVIET SECTOR OF BERLIN AND IN THE SOVIET OCCUPATION ZONE."

THE STATEMENT CONTRASTS WITH ACTIONS YESTERDAY OF RUSSIAN-CONTROLLED GERMAN POLICE WHO ATTEMPTED TO STOP WEST BERLINERS FROM DUMPING THEIR SOVIET-ZONE MARKS. THESE WEST BERLINERS WENT ON A BUYING SPREE WHICH TOPPLED THE VALUE OF THE ALREADY-WEAK RUSSIAN-BACKED MARK.

THE DUMPING STARTED ALMOST AS SOON AS THE ALLIED POWERS ANNOUNCED SUNDAY THAT THEY WERE OUTLAWING SOVIET ZONE CURRENCY ON THE WEST SIDE OF THE BORDER.

JELISAROV SAID IN HIS STATEMENT THAT INSTRUCTIONS WERE GOING OUT "TO THE FINANCIAL EXPERTS (OF HIS ZONE) TO MEET THE SITUATION PREVAILING" UNDER THE BAN. HE GAVE NO CLUE AS TO WHAT SORT OF PLAN WAS BEING HATCHED BY THE EXPERTS OR EXPECTED FROM THEM.

THE ALLIED ORDER HAD BEEN EXPECTED FOR SOME TIME. THE WEST ZONE MARK LONG HAS BEEN BANNED IN THE SOVIET ZONE. THE RUSSIANS CONTEND THE FIGHT OVER WHICH CURRENCY SHOULD BE VALID FOR ALL GERMANY IS A BIG FACTOR BEHIND THEIR BLOCKADE OF BERLIN.

THE WESTERN POWERS PREDICT THEIR BAN WILL HELP THE ECONOMY OF WEST BERLIN BY TYING IT MORE CLOSELY TO THE REST OF WEST GERMANY WHICH, THEY REPORT, IS DEVELOPING FASTER THAN THE SOVIET ZONE.

YUGOSLAVIA, ALBANIA AND ROMANIA ALSO HAVE HELD TRIALS OF CHURCHMEN AND CZECHOSLOVAK COMMUNISTS HAVE MATTERED IN RECENT WEEKS AGAINST THE CATHOLIC LEADERS.)

POLISH DEMONSTRATORS APPROVED RESOLUTIONS WARNING THE CATHOLIC CLERGY TO KEEP OUT OF POLITICS. THEY SCORED WHAT THEY CALLED THE VATICAN'S ANTI-POLISH ATTITUDE.

THE RESOLUTIONS BACKED THE GOVERNMENT'S UTTERANCE THAT CERTAIN SECTIONS OF THE CATHOLIC HIERARCHY MUST CEASE "HOSTILE ACTS" BEFORE CONFLICTS BETWEEN THE CHURCH AND STATE CAN BE SETTLED.

THE GOVERNMENT'S NEWSPAPERS AND RADIO ARE ASSERTING THE REGIME'S WILLINGNESS TO NEGOTIATE WITH THE CHURCH. THE CATHOLIC LEADERS ARE MAINTAINING A COLD SILENCE.

INFORMED SOURCES SAID THE CATHOLICS ARE NOT INTERESTED IN TALKING TO THE GOVERNMENT UNTIL ALLEGED ANTI-CHURCH ACTIVITIES END. THESE INCLUDE RESTRICTIONS OR CURBING OF RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION IN THE SCHOOLS. THE GOVERNMENT SAYS THE CHURCH ENJOYS FULL FREEDOM AND IT IS UP TO THE CHURCH TO MAKE CONCRETE PEACE MOVES AFTER HALTING THEIR ASSERTED ANTI-STATE ACTIVITIES.

Munich, Germany, March 22-(AP)-A former Czech intelligence officer returned to the stand today to bolster the U.S. case against three Europeans on trial as spies.

The prosecution recalled Otakar Feifar, who said he directed espionage against the U.S. in Germany, to link three defendants directly to his former operations.

These are [redacted] Ernst Rudolf, Adolf Waldel and Jaroslav Konopisky. They are the final defendants in a series of five spy trials before a U.S. military commission.

MAR 23 1949

Feifar, who escaped his communist country last November and brought files with them, declared all three worked for him.

Belgrade, March 22-(AP)-Yugoslavia said tonight a book containing hundreds of friendly testimonials from Czechs was "slyly stolen" from its exhibit at the trade fair in Prague. The fair ended two days ago.

Tanjug, the official news agency, said when the "impertinent theft" was noted, the Yugoslav representative protested to Czech police. They refused to take action.

MAR 23 1949

The book was place beside the Yugoslav exhibition of the work of its cooperative and industry. It was open for comment and signatures. Tanjug said many signed with comments like "long live Tito," "Long live the communist party of Yugoslavia," and "When shall we again be able to visit Yugoslavia."

Yugoslavia has been in disgrace with other communist countries since the communist information bureau last year called Premier Marshal Tito hateful to Russia and a deviationist from the party line.

Tanjug said the book was "eloquent proof of the unshakeable brotherhood" of the Yugoslav and Czechoslovak communist parties.

THE CATHOLIC HIERARCHY IS REPORTED ON GOOD AUTHORITY TO BE DETERMINED TO REMAIN ALOOF UNTIL ALLEGED ANTI-CHURCH ACTIVITIES, INCLUDING RESTRICTION OF RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION IN SCHOOLS, ARE ENDED.

THE GOVERNMENT MAINTAINS THAT THE CHURCH ENJOYS FULL FREEDOM AND THAT IT IS UP TO THE CHURCH TO MAKE DEFINITE PEACE MOVES AFTER ELIMINATING ITS "ANTI-STATE ACTIVITIES."

THE NEW CATHOLIC PRIMATE OF POLAND, ARCHBISHOP STEFAN WYSZYNSKI, SO FAR HAS REMAINED PERSONALLY SILENT ON THE RIFT. IT IS OBVIOUS, HOWEVER, THAT HE HAS GIVEN TACIT ASSENT TO THE ACTIONS OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS WHO ARE CRITICIZING THE GOVERNMENT IN PASTORAL LETTERS.

THE MOST RECENT LETTER WAS ISSUED BY BISHOP STANISLAW ADAMSKI OF THE KATOWICE DIOCESE, WHO CHARGED THE GOVERNMENT WAS ABOLISHING THE TEACHING OF RELIGION IN SCHOOLS AND REMOVING CRUCIFIXES FROM CLASSROOMS.

POLAND IS 96 PER CENT CATHOLIC. AND ARCHBISHOP WYSZYNSKI APPEARS TO BE ENORMOUSLY POPULAR WITH THE POLES.

ARRIVED YESTERDAY WITH A DELEGATION
RUSSIAN OFFICIALS.
A PRIOR TRIP BY HOXHA IN 1947 ENDED IN ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THE SOVIET UNION WAS EXTENDING ECONOMIC AID INCLUDING CREDITS FOR THE PURCHASE OF LIGHT INDUSTRIAL EQUIPMENT AND FARM MACHINERY.
SEVERAL GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS AND A GUARD OF HONOR MET THE PREMIER'S PARTY AT THE AIRPORT, WHICH WAS DECKED WITH RUSSIAN AND ALBANIAN FLAGS.
HOXHA SAID THE U.S.S.R. "HAS HELPED AND IS HELPING US WITHOUT STINTING"
SO THAT OUR PEOPLE CAN RESTORE THEIR COUNTRY AND THEIR NATIONAL ECONOMY. THIS ASSISTANCE HAS BEEN GREAT AND DISINTERESTED."
MOSCOW NEWSPAPERS GAVE PROMINENT DISPLAY TODAY TO THE STORY OF HIS ARRIVAL.
--DASH--
WHILE HOXHA SPOKE ONLY OF A QUEST FOR ECONOMIC AID FROM RUSSIA,
THE OUTSIDE SPECULATED THAT THE TINY COMMUNIST-LED BALKAN STATE MIGHT BE TALKING ABOUT MILITARY AFFAIRS, TOO.
THIS POSSIBILITY IS SUGGESTED BY LAST NIGHT'S ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE MOSCOW RADIO THAT THE DEPUTY CHIEF OF ALBANIA'S GENERAL STAFF IS ON THE DELEGATION. OTHER MEMBERS ARE THE CHAIRMAN AND DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE ALBANIAN PLANNING COMMISSION, AND THE DEPUTY MINISTERS OF TRADE, INDUSTRY AND PUBLIC WORKS. RUSSIAN ARMY AND NAVY MISSIONS VISITED ALBANIA RECENTLY.

ALBANIA, LIKE OTHER COMINFORM NATIONS, HAS BEEN FEUDING FOR MONTHS WITH HER NEIGHBOR, YUGOSLAVIA. HER GEOGRAPHICAL LOCATION CONCEIVABLY COULD MAKE ALBANIA A GOOD STEPPING-OFF PLACE FOR STRONGER PRESSURE ON THE YUGOSLAVS AND PREMIER MARSHAL TITO, WHO IS ON THE OUTS WITH RUSSIA AND OTHER COMINFORM NATIONS. YUGOSLAVIA HAS BEEN EXPELLED FROM THE COMINFORM (COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL INFORMATION BUREAU).

ALBANIA HAS CUT ECONOMIC TIES TO YUGOSLAVIA, ALTHOUGH THIS WAS A SHOCK TO HER ECONOMY. THE YUGOSLAV COMMUNIST PARTY ORGAN, BORBA, ACCUSED ALBANIA LAST MONTH OF PROVOKING BORDER TROUBLES.

PRECEDE LONDON DAY (230)

MOSCOW, MARCH 22-(AP)-FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY SAID TODAY HE PROBABLY WILL NOT ATTEND THE COMING SESSION OF THE UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

VISHINSKY'S CHIEF DEPUTY, ANDREI A.GROMYKO, IS ON HIS WAY TO NEW YORK AS HEAD OF THE SOVIET DELEGATION.

(GROMYKO ARRIVED IN PARIS BY PLANE TUESDAY AND WENT TO THE RUSSIAN EMBASSY. SOVIET OFFICIALS DECLINED COMMENT ON HIS PLANS FOR THE REMAINDER OF THE TRIP.)

THIS CORRESPONDENT HAD SENT A NOTE TO VISHINSKY, WHO SUCCEEDED VYACHESLAV M.MOLOTOV RECENTLY AS FOREIGN MINISTER, ASKING WHETHER HE HIMSELF PLANNED TO LEAD THE SOVIET DELEGATION. YACOB LOMAKIN, ACTING CHIEF OF THE PRESS DEPARTMENT, TELEPHONED THE REPLY:

MR.VISHINSKY--IN ANSWER TO THE QUESTION--HAS ASKED THE PRESS DEPARTMENT TO SAY HE PROBABLY WILL NOT GO TO NEW YORK FOR THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

VISHINSKY ATTENDED PREVIOUS ASSEMBLY MEETINGS IN NEW YORK AND PARIS AS DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER WHILE MOLOTOV REMAINED AT HOME.

NEWSPAPERS TODAY PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS OF VISHINSKY AND A.I.MIKOYAN, DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS, GREETING AN ALBANIAN DELEGATION HEADED BY PREMIER COL.GEN.ENVER HOXHA.

HOXHA SAID HE CAME TO MOSCOW TO "STRENGTHEN OUR ECONOMIC RELATIONS WITH THE U.S.S.R."

(ALBANIA'S ECONOMY HAS BEEN STRAINED BY SEVERING OF TRADE TIES WITH NEIGHBORING YUGOSLAVIA. THEY WERE BROKEN AFTER YUGOSLAVIA WAS EXPELLED FROM THE COMINFORM LAST YEAR. THE ALBANIAN TELEGRAPH SERVICE SAID 4 ALBANIANS WENT ON TRIAL MONDAY IN TIRANA, THE CAPITAL, ON CHARGES OF SPYING FOR YUGOSLAVIA AND ORGANIZING A TERRORIST ORGANIZATION.)

MOSCOW, MARCH 22-(AP)-THE RUSSIAN SPORTS FIELD GETS ITS SHARE OF SOVIET CENSURE TODAY ON CHARGES OF BEING TOO PARTIAL TO WESTERN INFLUENCES.

SOVIET SPORT, ORGAN OF THE ALL UNION COMMITTEE OF PHYSICAL CULTURE AND SPORTS AFFAIRS, LOOSED A BROADSIDE CALLING FOR THE REMOVAL OF "HOMELESS COSMOPOLITES FROM OUR RANKS."

THE PAPER CONCENTRATED ITS ATTACK ON N.A.BERNSTEIN, VETERAN PROFESSOR AT THE INSTITUTE OF PHYSICAL CULTURE. IT ACCUSED HIM OF GOING COUNTER TO VIEWS OF ACCEPTED SOVIET PHYSIOLOGISTS.

"FOR 25 YEARS," SOVIET SPORT SAID, "BERNSTEIN IN HIS WORK HAS BEEN A SLAVELIKE SYCOPHANT BEFORE THE WEST. HE HAS PREACHED ANTI-MATERIALIST VIEWS. X X X X

"IN HIS ACTIVITY," THE EDITORIAL DECLARED, "BERNSTEIN WENT SO FAR AS TO FORGET THE HONOR AND CONSCIENCE OF THE SOVIET PEOPLE.

"ONLY A HOMELESS COSMOPOLITE," THE PAPER DECLARED, "TO WHOM IS ALIEN THE CONCEPT OF DEBT TO HIS COUNTRY, TO WHOM IS ALIEN PATRIOTIC FEELING, COULD ENTER UPON THE PATH OF DESPISING THE SCIENCE OF ONE'S OWN COUNTRY AND BE SLAVELIKE BEFORE THINGS FOREIGN."

THE EDITORIAL ASSERTED THAT BERNSTEIN THUS HAD "JOINED WITH THE POSITION OF REACTIONARY SCIENTISTS OF THE UNITED STATES WHO CARRY ON AN UNINTERRUPTED ATTACK ON THE TEACHINGS OF PAVLOV." (A RUSSIAN PHYSIOLOGIST.)

THE PAPER ALSO BELABORED SEVERAL OTHER SOVIET SCIENTISTS FOR FALLING INTO THE SAME PATTERN OF THOUGHT AS BERNSTEIN.

YESTERDAY THE COMMUNIST PARTY NEWSPAPER PRAVDA ACCUSED THE SCIENTIFIC COUNCIL OF THE SOVIET ACADEMY OF ARCHITECTURE OF BEING TOO COSMOPOLITAN."

IN RECENT MONTHS MUSICIANS, WRITERS, AND SCIENTISTS HAVE BEEN SCOLDED FOR BEING TOO PARTIAL TO WESTERN INFLUENCES.

LONDON, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23--(AP)--THE MOSCOW RADIO SAID TODAY THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY CONTAINS SECRET ARTICLES.

"THAT IS ALREADY KNOWN FROM REPORTS CARRIED BY THE WESTERN EUROPEAN PRESS," SAID N. SERGEYA IN AN ENGLISH-LANGUAGE BROADCAST RECORDED BY THE SOVIET MONITOR HERE.

THE TEXT OF THE TREATY WAS MADE PUBLIC BY THE ATLANTIC POWERS ON MARCH 18. IT CONTAINED 14 ARTICLES COMPRISING 1,000 WORDS.

THERE HAVE BEEN ASSURANCES FROM [illegible] THE MEN WHO WROTE THE TREATY THAT IT CONTAINED NO SECRET CLAUSES.

BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN TOLD PARLIAMENT [illegible] WHEN THE PACT WAS PUBLISHED FRIDAY IT CONTAINED NO SECRET ARTICLES. THE 1,000-WORD TREATY CONTAINS 14 ARTICLES.

THE SOVIET COMMENTATOR SAID THE FRENCH NEWS AGENCY

AND A BRUSSELS NEWSPAPER HAD REPORTED ONE UNPUBLISHABLE ARTICLE CONCERNING

"INTERNAL AGGRESSION." THE SOVIET MONITOR SAID [redacted] THE NAME

OF THE PAPER WAS NOT CLEARLY HEARD HERE.

SOME SOURCES INSISTED, HOWEVER, THAT HO FIRST SUBMITTED HIS NEW CABINET LIST TO CHIANG, THE "RETIRED" PRESIDENT, FOR HIS APPROVAL. HO AS A FORMER DEFENSE MINISTER HAS BEEN CONSIDERED FAIRLY CLOSE TO CHIANG.

THE LEGISLATIVE YUAN (PARLIAMENT), CONSIDERED A NUMBER OF GOVERNMENT STREAMLINING MEASURES AMONG WHICH IS ONE DEMANDING THAT THE NEW CABINET BE MADE RESPONSIBLE TO THE LAWMAKERS.

UNDER THE CONSTITUTION THE PREMIER IS REQUIRED TO SUBMIT POLICY MATTERS TO THE PARLIAMENT, BUT THE LAWMAKERS HAVE BEEN BY-PASSED FREQUENTLY BY THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH. THE LAWMAKERS HAVE NO REAL POWER TO BLOCK POLICIES LAID DOWN BY THE PREMIER, HOWEVER.

MEANWHILE, THE NAVY AND AIR FORCE EXHIBITED PHOTOGRAPHS PURPORTEDLY OF THE DESERTED GOVERNMENT CRUISER "CHUNGKING" LYING ON ITS SIDE IN THE MANCHURIAN PORT OF HULUTAO. THE AIR FORCE SAID IT BOMBED AND KNOCKED THE "CHUNGKING" OUT OF ACTION LAST WEEK. THE CRUISER DESERTED TO THE REDS LAST MONTH. THE GOVERNMENT FEARED IT MIGHT BE TURNED INTO A RAIDER.

TOKYO, MARCH 22-(AP)-THE JAPANESE GOVERNMENT TODAY WAS HANDED A BLUEPRINT FOR A RECORD 1949-50 BUDGET TOTALING AROUND 700,000,000,000 (B) YEN (ABOUT $2,600,000,000 (B.)

FINANCE MINISTER HAYATE IKEDA WAS GIVEN THE GENERAL MACARTHUR APPROVED BUDGET BY JOSEPH M. DODGE, THE GENERAL'S ECONOMIC ADVISER AND OCCUPATION HEADQUARTERS ECONOMIC OFFICIALS, AN AUTHORITATIVE JAPANESE SOURCE SAID.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS WERE EXPECTED TO BEGIN AN IMMEDIATE BACKSTAGE BATTLE FOR ALTERATIONS AND POSSIBLY AN INCREASE.

ALTHOUGH THE BUDGET TOTAL IS A RECORD AMOUNT IT DOES NOT FOLLOW THE TREND OF RECENT YEARS WHEN EACH ANNUAL BUDGET HAS APPROXIMATELY DOUBLED THE PRECEDING AMOUNT. THE CURRENT BUDGET IS FOR 473,145,000,000 (B) YEN.

THE NEW BUDGET, IT WAS UNDERSTOOD, INCLUDES BETWEEN 107,000,000,000 (B) AND 120,000,000,000 (B) YEN FOR OCCUPATION COSTS. THIS IN TURN INCLUDES A DEFICIT FROM THE CURRENT BUDGET. x28

THE BUDGET CALLS FOR INDUSTRIAL SUBSIDIES TOTALING BETWEEN 70,000,000,000 (B) AND 100,000,000,000 (B) YEN.

SOME RATE INCREASES ON GOVERNMENT OWNED RAILWAYS AND THE RETENTION OF THE TRANSACTION AND SALES TAXES WERE CALLED FOR AS A MEANS OF RAISING REVENUE. THE DOMINANT DEMOCRATIC LIBERAL PARTY HAS PLEDGED TO ELIMINATE THESE TAXES.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 22-(AP)-STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS INDICATED TODAY THEY WILL STAND PAT ON A DECISION BARRING SOME UNOFFICIAL DELEGATES FROM THE "WORLD PEACE" CONFERENCE IN NEW YORK WHILE ADMITTING OTHERS OFFICIALLY SPONSORED BY EASTERN EUROPEAN COMMUNIST GOVERNMENTS.

THE DEPARTMENT PREDICTS THAT THE CONFERENCE OPENING FRIDAY WILL BE TURNED INTO A FORUM FOR SPREADING COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA. CONFERENCE SPONSORS HAVE DENIED THIS.

DR.HARLOW SHAPLEY, HARVARD UNIVERSITY ASTRONOMER, SENT A PROTEST TO SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON LAST NIGHT ASKING FOR RECONSIDERATION OF DECISIONS DENYING ENTRY TO A DOZEN SCIENTISTS, AUTHORS AND OTHER INTELLECTUALS.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAD NO DIRECT COMMENT ON THIS PROTEST THIS MORNING, BUT OFFICIALS INDICATED THAT IN LINE WITH THE POLICY ALREADY LAID DOWN IT WOULD BE REJECTED. THIS POLICY, ORIGINALLY ANNOUNCED LAST WEEK, WAS REAFFIRMED BY THE DEPARTMENT IN EXPLAINING WHY OFFICIAL VISAS HAD BEEN GRANTED CONFERENCE DELEGATES COMING FROM RUSSIA AND OTHER IRON CURTAIN COUNTRIES WHILE ORDINARY VISITORS VISAS HAD BEEN DENIED SOME PEOPLE COMING FROM COUNTRIES NOT GOVERNED BY COMMUNISTS.

THE REV.JOHN T.S.MAO, 36, CHANCELLOR OF THE CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF NANKING, LISTED THE MOVES AS:

1--CHINA NEEDS IMMEDIATELY A "CLEAR STATEMENT" THAT THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT "WILL NEVER RECOGNIZE A CHINESE GOVERNMENT CONTROLLED BY COMMUNISTS."

2--IT ALSO NEEDS MILITARY AID, AND TO THAT END THIS NATION SHOULD PERMIT GEN.CLAIR CHENNAULT TO REORGANIZE HIS FLYING TIGERS, AND GIVE HIM "A FEW HUNDRED OBSOLETE BOMBERS TO DESTROY THE MILITARY STRONGHOLD OF COMMUNISM."

REVEREND MAO WAS HERE FOR A DAY BETWEEN VISITS TO THE UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON AND ST.LOUIS UNIVERSITY.

ALBANY, N.Y., MARCH 22-(AP)-GOV. THOMAS E. DEWEY DECLARED TONIGHT THAT THE SCHEDULED NEW YORK CITY "CONFERENCE FOR WORLD PEACE" WAS A COMMUNIST FRONT AFFAIR" BUT THAT HE WOULD MAKE NO MOVE TO PREVENT THE MEETING.

THE CONFERENCE, SPONSORED BY THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF THE ARTS, SCIENCES AND PROFESSIONS, IS SCHEDULED TO OPEN AT THE WALDORF ASTORIA HOTEL FRIDAY.

DEWEY SAID IN A STATEMENT THAT HE HAD RECEIVED "HUNDREDS OF LETTERS" ASKING HIM TO USE HIS INFLUENCE TO STOP THE MEETING.

HE SAID MANY OF THE WRITERS HAD LABELLED THE CONFERENCE "AN ELABORATE EFFORT TO DISGUISE A COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA EFFORT DIRECTED AT UNDERMINING THE POSITION OF THE UNITED STATES IN WORLD AFFAIRS."

"I THINK THAT THE PEOPLE WHO HAVE WRITTEN TO ME HAVE CORRECTLY ANALYZED THE CHARACTER AND PURPOSE OF THE WALDORF MEETING," DEWEY DECLARED.

HE SAID, HOWEVER, THAT HE COULD NOT AGREE THAT THE MEETING SHOULD BE SUPRESSED.

"IT IS ENOUGH, I AM SURE, THAT THIS MEETING HAS BEEN EXPOSED FOR THE COMMUNIST FRONT AFFAIR THAT IT IS," DEWEY STATED.

VISAS PERMITTING FOREIGNERS TO ATTEND THE WALDORF MEETING HAVE BEEN GRANTED BY THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT TO SEVEN DELEGATES FROM THE SOVIET UNION, TWO FROM ROUMANIA, FIVE FROM CZECHOSLOVAKIA, FOUR FROM POLAND AND FIVE FROM YUGOSLAVIA.

THE AMERICANS FOR INTELLECTUAL FREEDOM, HEADED BY DR. SIDNEY HOOK, PROFESSOR OF PHILOSOPHY AT NEW YORK UNIVERSITY, HAVE CHARGED THAT TWO OF THE RUSSIAN DELEGATION ARE MEMBERS OF THE SOVIET SECRET POLICE.

SECOND LEAD CONFERENCE (150)

NEW YORK, MARCH 22-(AP)-TWELVE FOREIGN DELEGATES TO A "WORLD PEACE" CONFERENCE HERE LACKED VISAS TODAY TO ENTER THIS COUNTRY. THE STATE DEPARTMENT INDICATED IT WOULD NOT SHIFT ITS STAND ON THE ORDER.

FOUR BRITONS WHOM THE STATE DEPARTMENT WILL NOT LET INTO THE COUNTRY FOR THE CONFERENCE ARE SCIENTIST J.D.BERNAL, HISTORIAN J.G.CROWTHERS, NOVELIST LOUIS GOLDING AND ACTRESS PATRICIA BURKE.

THE ONLY BRITISH DELEGATE GRANTED A VISA BY THE AMERICAN EMBASSY IN LONDON WAS PHILOSOPHER OLAF STAPLEDON.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT PREDICTS THE CONFERENCE OPENING HERE FRIDAY WILL BE TURNED INTO A FORUM FOR SPREADING COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA. IT HAS GRANTED PERMISSION TO ATTEND TO SEVEN RUSSIANS AND 15 OTHER DELEGATES SPONSORED BY EASTERN EUROPEAN COMMUNIST GOVERNMENTS.

CONFERENCE SPONSORS DENIED THE DEPARTMENT CHARGES. DR. HARLOW SHAPLEY, THE CONFERENCE CHAIRMAN, PROTESTED THE DEPARTMENT'S ACTION.

FIRST LEAD CONFERENCE (200)
NEW YORK, MARCH 22-(AP)-ONE OF 12 FOREIGN DELEGATES TO A "WORLD PEACE" CONFERENCE HERE WHO FAILED TO GET OFFICIAL U.S. PERMISSION TO ENTER THIS COUNTRY WAS GRANTED A VISA TODAY.
HE WAS BRITISH PHILOSOPHER OLAF STAPLEDON. THE AMERICAN EMBASSY IN LONDON GRANTED HIM THE VISA. STAPLEDON HAD INDICATED HE WOULD DEFY ANY BAN AND TRY TO ENTER THE U.S.ANYWAY.
THE DENIAL OR REVOCATION OF VISAS TO 12 EUROPEAN AND SOUTH AMERICAN DELEGATES WAS ANNOUNCED LAST NIGHT BY DR.HARLOW SHAPLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE CONFERENCE TO BE HELD HERE.
MEANWHILE, AN OPPOSITION CONFERENCE GROUP, AMERICANS FOR INTELLECTUAL FREEDOM, CHALLENGED SHAPLEY TO MAKE PUBLIC IMMEDIATELY A LIST OF FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTORS TO THE ORGANIZATION.
"IT IS OBVIOUS," THE GROUP SAID IN A STATEMENT, "THAT THE SO-CALLED CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE FOR WORLD PEACE IS OPERATING ON AN EXTRAORDINARILY OPULENT BUDGET. IT IS OBVIOUS THAT TENS OF THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS ARE BEING SPENT BY THIS ORGANIZATION AND THERE IS LITTLE PROSPECT THAT IT COULD POSSIBLY SELL SUFFICIENT TICKETS TO DEFRAY THE MOUNTAINOUS EXPENSES WHICH HAVE ACCUMULATED."
THE 11 WHO FAILED TO GET VISAS WERE NOT AMONG 22 DELEGATES TO THE CONFERENCE FROM RUSSIA AND OTHER "IRON CURTAIN" COUNTRIES WHO WILL ATTEND.

DR.SHAPLEY, DIRECTOR OF THE HARVARD COLLEGE OBSERVATORY AND CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE SPONSORING THE CONFERENCE, SENT A PROTEST LAST NIGHT TO SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON.
SHAPLEY ASKED ACHESON IN A TELEGRAM FOR RECONSIDERATION OF THE DECISIONS DENYING ENTRY TO THE DOZEN SCIENTISTS, AUTHORS AND OTHER INTELLECTUALS.
THE PROTEST SAID THAT BARRING THE DELEGATES WAS "IN DIRECT CONTRADITION TO THE (STATE) DEPARTMENT'S OWN ANNOUNCED POLICY" AND WOULD PROVE "INIMICAL TO OUR GOOD RELATIONS WITH THE GREAT PEOPLES OF WESTERN EUROPE AND LATIN AMERICA."
THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAS SAID THE THREE-DAY CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE FOR WORLD PEACE (CAPS), OPENING HERE FRIDAY, WILL BE USED TO SPREAD COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA. SPONSORS OF THE CONFERENCE HAVE DENIED THIS.
THE CONFERENCE IS SPONSORED BY THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF ARTS, SCIENCES AND PROFESSIONS.
SHAPLEY LISTED THE VISA DENIALS AND REVOCATIONS AS:
FOUR BRITISHERS--J.D.BERNAL, CRYSTALLOGRAPHER AND MEMBER OF THE MINISTRY OF WORKS' ADVISORY COMMITTEE OF BUILDING RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT; J.G.CROWTHER, SCIENTIST AND WRITER; LOUIS GOLDING, NOVELIST; AND WILL OLAF STAPLEDON, PHILOSOPHER AND PSYCHOLOGIST--VISAS ISSUED AND THEN REVOKED.
THREE FRENCH DELEGATES--ABBE JEAN BOULIER, RELIGIOUS LEADER; MME. EUGENIE COTTON, RESEARCHIST AND PRESIDENT OF THE PRO-COMMUNIST WOMEN'S INTERNATIONAL DEMOCRATIC FEDERATION, AND PAUL ELUARD, COMMUNIST POET--ALL DENIED VISAS.
AN ITALIAN DELEGATE--ACTRESS MARIA MICHI--REFUSED A VISA. (THREE OTHER ITALIANS NOT IMMEDIATELY IDENTIFIED.)
A BRAZILIAN DELEGATE--PAINTER CANDIDO PORTENARI--DENIED A VISA.
A SPOKESMAN FOR THE U.S. EMBASSY IN PARIS SAID THE THREE FRENCH DELEGATES WERE REFUSED VISAS BECAUSE THEY HAVE NO OFFICIAL STATUS.
A SPOKESMAN FOR AMERICANS FOR INTELLECTUAL FREEDOM (CAPS), SPONSORS OF A RIVAL CONFERENCE NEXT SATURDAY, CHARGED YESTERDAY THAT THE SOVIET DELEGATION WILL BE ACCOMPANIED BY TWO AGENTS OF THE RUSSIAN SECRET POLICE.

THE PAPER, THE DAILY WORKER, SAYS IN A SERIES BEING PUBLISHED THIS WEEK THAT BROWDER "IS NOW OPENLY PEDDLING HIS WARES OF ANTI-COMMUNISM" AND IS SUPPORTING "ATTACKS OF WALL STREET AGAINST THE AMERICAN PEOPLE."
BROWDER WAS OUSTED BY THE COMMUNIST ORGANIZATION IN 1945 AND HAS BEEN SHARPLY AT ODDS WITH ITS LEADERSHIP SINCE THEN.
THE CHARGES AGAINST HIM IN THE DAILY WORKER WERE BASED ON WRITINGS IN A SERIES OF PAMPHLETS SIGNED BY "AMERICUS." THE PAMPHLETS CHALLENGE THE STRATEGY OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN THE UNITED STATES IN THE POST-WAR YEARS.
THE PAPER SAID BROWDER IS WELL KNOWN AS THE AUTHOR OF THE PAMPHLETS. BROWDER DECLINED TO CONFIRM THIS BUT SAID HE AGREED WITH MOST OF THE CRITICISMS OF PARTY MANEUVERS.
HE DECLARED, HOWEVER, THAT HE STILL IS A COMMUNIST AND THAT HE IS NOT A WALL STREET APOLOGIST.
"WALL STREET DOESN'T WANT ME ANY MORE THAN THEY (THE DAILY WORKER) DO," HE COMMENTED.

BEVIN PREDICTS UNITED GERMANY

LONDON, March 23—(AP) Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin declared tonight "we are not going to despair of a United Germany yet."

In a speech that concluded full dress debate in the House of Commons on European affairs, he said: "I believe eastern and western Germany will unite. I do not think anyone can stop it."

Fear Red 'Coup'

The debate was marked by a charge from conservative Harold MacMillan that Russia plans a political coup "quite shortly" which could destroy Marshal Tito's regime in Yugoslavia and wreck Greece.

The House of Lords held similar debate. Lord Pakenham, minister of civil aviation, told Britain's peers "there is danger of war this year and I am afraid there will be for a number of years to come." He added "that does not mean the government thinks war is probable this year."

He assured the lords the government has plans for "dealing with any emergency" and said it could go ahead with long term planning now in view of the North Atlantic treaty.

Bevin plans to leave Friday for Washington to attend the signing of the treaty.

He spoke out against a break in economic relations with the communist-led nations.

"I do not want to break east-west trade," he said, "although I will withhold anything which can be used to promote war against us."

Increase Airlift

He said British-American airlift operations to Soviet-blockaded Berlin will be increased. At present the lift is carrying from 7,000 to 8,000 tons a day into Berlin.

Bevin said he had hoped to announce agreement on the question of dismantling German plants for reparations. This has been in dispute between the United States, Britain and France.

"But there are two or three points still to be settled which are vital," he added. "I think by the time we get to Washington they will probably be disposed of."

Diplomatic informants say the U. S. has proposed the revival of 160 west German industries now scheduled for dismantling as war reparations, and a revision of the list of industries prohibited to Germany as laid down at Potsdam in 1945. The British and French have resisted the American proposals.

MacMillan, former colonial undersecretary, said Moscow is maneuvering toward a "fake appeasement policy" calling for a treaty ending the allied occupation of Germany. Such a treaty, he said, would be a "kiss of death" to the western powers.

MacMillan told Commons that should the Russians succeed in what he described as their next cold war campaign, "then we would have lost overnight the whole results of six years of war."

BRITAIN EXPECTED TO REJECT PLEA OF TRANS-JORDAN

LONDON, March 23—(AP) A high government source said today Britain probably will turn down a request by King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan for British troops to patrol a 50-mile sector of that country's frontier with Israel.

Trans-Jordan made the request for help from Britain last Thursday under their military assistance pact.

Troops at Aqaba

British troops have been stationed since January at Trans-Jordan Red Sea port of Aqaba, just east of the Palestine frontier. Israeli troops hold positions a short distance away inside Palestine.

King Abdullah had asked that British troops patrol the Trans-Jordan border from Aqaba to Gharandal.

Dr. Ralph Bunche, acting United Nations mediator, reported to the Security Council from Rhodes yesterday that the recent reinforcement of British troops at Aqaba violated the Holy Land truce conditions.

The British foreign office said Britain would admit no violation of the truce.

A spokesman told a news conference:

Denies Violation

"Our troops have been in Aqaba since January. If there had been a violation of the truce, which we do not admit, why should the charge be made only now?"

The truce ordered by the Security Council began July 19, 1948.

The question of reinforcing Aqaba is one which concerns only Trans-Jordan, a high government source declared.

He said the Trans-Jordan request for a border patrol by British troops had not been discussed by the cabinet. He added it was a step which normally would be taken only with cabinet sanction.

The informant said the foreign office is in touch with the U. S. State department on the subject.

Inquiry for Visa Denials Is Laid to Scotland Yard

By The Associated Press.

LONDON, March 23—William Gallacher, Communist Member of Parliament, told the House of Commons tonight that the United States State Department used Scotland Yard in checking the records of four Britons to whom it has denied visas to attend the Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace in New York.

"A foreign government used Scotland Yard against our own citizens!" Mr. Gallacher exclaimed. "What a shameful business! How is it that members of this House can glory in their shame and grovel before the dollar god?"

Fourteen prominent Britons asked the United States Ambassador, Lewis W. Douglas, in a telegram today to intercede for the four — Miss Patricia Burke, actress; Prof. J. D. Bernal, scientist; J. G. Crowther, historian, and Louis Golding, novelist and essayist.

An embassy source said the appeal was referred to the visa section of the United States consulate general, "the place for such things." Signers of the telegram included six Laborite Members of Parliament, H. L. Austin, Leah Manning, Julius Silverman, Ellis Smith, W. F. Vernon and W. Warbley.

Clay Airing German Problems In London

London, March 23 (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay, military governor of the United States Zone of Germany, arrived here by plane today to discuss German problems with the United States Ambassador to Britain, Lewis W. Douglas.

Clay plans to fly back to Germany tonight.

Clay's discussion was expected to range over many problems confronting the authorities in all three zones of Germany. It was expected, however, that special emphasis would be given the problem of how many German plants should be dismantled for war reparations.

One informed source said British Foreign Secretary Bevin is anxious to settle that question before leaving Friday for the signing of the Atlantic pact in Washington.

Britain's Home Fleet Tests Coast Defenses

London, March 23 (AP)—Britain's home fleet began a three-day "battle" in the English Channel today to test coastal defenses.

Returning from a winter cruise, the fleet split into two forces and opened exercises with ships, submarines and aircraft.

The maneuvers centered around the southwestern approaches to England, off the Cornwall coast.

Soviet Delegates 'Astonished' By Visa Action

Shannon, Eire, March 23 (AP)—The Soviet delegation to the "cultural and scientific congress for world peace" seemed surprised today when told the United States had refused visas to some British, French, Italian and Brazilian delegates.

"We are astonished," said Alexander Fadeyev, secretary general of the Soviet Writers Union.

He said his seven-man group, en route to New York, hopes to "be able in the United States to strengthen the intellectual bonds between the American and Russian people."

Sees Better Understanding

"The misunderstandings which exist between the Western world and the Soviet Union are unfortunate," he declared, "and with a greater exchange of cultural ideas, many of them could be removed."

Ivan Rozhanski, the delegation's secretary, acted as interpreter.

The conference, opening Friday, is sponsored by the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions. Dr. Harlow Shapley, Harvard University astronomer, is chairman.

Danish Communists In Riot Against Atlantic Alliance

Copenhagen, March 23 (AP)—A Communist - led demonstration against the North Atlantic treaty wound up in a fight between several hundred youths and police riot squads in Parliament Square today.

The lower House of Parliament is debating the Government's proposal that Denmark join the alliance.

The Communists and some non-political organizations had called for a demonstration for peace and against the alliance. They carried posters, sang and shouted slogans.

Delegation Received

A delegation representing the Danish Peace Council, made up of Quakers and other groups, was received by members of the Government. It delivered a resolution demanding a public referendum to decide whether Denmark should join.

The demonstrators outside booed Ole Bjoern Kraft, chairman of the pro-alliance Conservative party, when he appeared at a window. They cheered Communist members of Parliament.

Aksel Larsen, chairman of the Danish Communist party, shouted from a window: "No matter what they (Parliament) decide, the fight against the Atlantic alliance will be continued"; the crowd cheered.

Arrest Touches Off Clash

After more than two hours, one of the youths sought to force his way into the building. He was arrested by a police patrol.

Hundreds of youths attacked the police, using poster handles as clubs. A few windows of Parliament were shattered by stones.

An Associated Press photographer, Mogens Holmberg, was assaulted when he tried to photograph the scene and his camera was ruined.

Fresh police squads were called.

After some fist fighting, the clash died down and the youths departed.

SWISS TO PURCHASE 100 BRITISH JET ENGINES

BERN, SWITZERLAND, March 23.—(AP) The Swiss parliament approved the purchase of 100 British Vampire jet engines today by a vote of 90 to six. The communists provided the only opposition.

Switzerland is to spend 75,000,000 Swiss francs ($17,500,000) in Britain for 100 vampire engines and maintenance equipment. The fuselages are to be built in Switzerland to British specifications.

Russ Can't Make Many A-Bombs, German Says

Berlin, March 23, (AP)—A Berlin anti-Communist newspaper said today it learned from a German scientist who worked for the Russians that "the Soviets know the atomic secret but are not yet able to produce atomic bombs on a big scale."

This report was published by the British-licensed Mittag's Echo. The newspaper elaborated upon a statement made by Dr. David Bradley, American atomic medical scientists, expressing belief the Russians may already be manufacturing atomic weapons with German help.

Didn't Name Him

Mittag's Echo said it had obtained its information from a German scientist who worked in a Soviet atomic research institute located near Berlin. It did not name the scientist.

The paper added that many other captured German scientists and technicians were helping the Russians build rockets and submarines, in Germany as well as in the Soviet Union.

Mittag's Echo claimed the Soviet Army was being "rearmed feverishly" with new weapons under Russia's current five-year plan. It said new tank units also were being developed and more long-range bombers and submarines were being built.

Rocket Production

The newspaper asserted that, with the aid of German experts, new versions of the Nazi V-2 rocket were being produced "on a large scale" in a plant at Tichwin, about 100 miles from Leningrad. It said it learned from a German engineer who worked for the Russians that there were other rocket construction plants in the area between Moscow and Leningrad.

Allied intelligence sources here would not comment immediately on the Mittag's Echo reports.

'Voice' Radio Tubes Break; Probe Opens

Berlin, March 23 (AP)—United States authorities said today they are investigating possible sabotage of vital radio equipment flown from Berlin for use by "Voice of America" and other stations in the American zone.

Fifty per cent of the radio transmitting tubes essential to the operation of these stations have been found broken after their arrival at Wiesbaden and Frankfurt airports, these officials said.

They excluded the possibility of so high a percentage of breakage during the haul or in landings.

"It looks to us like sabotage," said O. S. Curran, of the commerce and industry branch of United States Military Government for Berlin. He said criminal investigation agents have been asked to investigate.

D.P.'s Said To Doubt Russia Plans War

Berlin, March 23 (AP)—German prisoners-of-war returning from Russia will "oppose with all their might the schemes of the imperialists for new aggression against the Soviet Union," a Soviet licensed newspaper said today.

Neues Deutschland, organ of the Socialist-Unity (Communist) party, said repatriated prisoners reported "there was no talk of war in the Soviet Union. The Russian people are busy with the peaceful reconstruction of their economy."

The newspaper claimed this was the "unanimous" opinion of 3,600 prisoners who arrived in three transports from Russia at Frankfurt-On-Oder.

It added that nearly half of these men were en route to their homes in the occupation zones of the United States, Britain and France.

ECA WEIGHS PLAN FOR HUGE 'PWA' IN WEST GERMANY

Black Curry

FRANKFURT, Germany, March 23—(AP) The Economic Cooperation Administration is studying the possibility of a gigantic public works program to provide jobs for western Germany's 10,000,000 restive refugees.

Disclosing this today, ECA officials here said this mass of refugees represents a "politically dangerous" element which is contributing to the rise of nationalism in Germany.

An ECA official told the Associated Press:

Dangerous Situation

"This is a disturbing situation. Any large number of unemployed have an unsettling effect on the economy of any country. And anybody who is unemployed is politically dangerous. The rise of nationalism is somewhat due to these people who do not want to embrace communism and turn to the other extreme."

This official said the continuing influx of refugees "is one of the principal causes of the rise in unemployment." Refugees in increasing numbers are slipping across from the Russian occupation zone of Germany. Some estimates place the number as high as 50,000 a month.

Most of the refugees were expelled from the Sudetenland in Czechoslovakia, from parts of eastern Germany now claimed by Poland and from other eastern European states.

American and British military government officials consider these refugees from the east as probably the most serious social and political problem in western Germany.

German Responsibility

They are not eligible for United Nations care, and under U. S. military government policy they are the responsibility of the German authorities.

Yet the Germans say they lack the resources to care for them. Forty-five per cent of the population of the British zone state of Schleswig-Holstein are refugees. There are 2,250,000 in the American zone state of Bavaria.

Calling the refugee problem "the rotten apple in the German barrel," the ECA official said:

"This group includes a vast number of skilled workers. The problem is to put their talents to work. As yet we do not know what we can do. One proposal is for a public works program."

ECA is empowered to deal with any problem threatening the economic well-being of a country taking part in the European Recovery program, this official said.

U. S. Force to Fight Smuggling

FRANKFORT, Germany, March 23 (AP)—A new military police customs unit was set up by the United States Army today to reinforce German controls at international frontier crossings in the United States zone, as part of the Army's drive to suppress large-scale smuggling.

SOVIET WANTS ILSE KOCH

East Zone of Germany Seeks Buchenwald Beast's Custody

MUNICH, Germany, March 23 (AP)—German authorities at Weimar in the Soviet zone have asked custody of Ilse Koch, mistress of Buchenwald, when she completes her prison sentence in October, but Bavarian officials have reached no decision, it was announced today.

Hans Walter, executive director of the Bavarian State Ministry of Justice, said the request was being studied. Apparently the Soviet zone German authorities want to put the Koch woman on trial.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, United States Military Governor, said yesterday the American Military Government was investigating whether new charges could be lodged against the Koch woman. She had been sentenced to life imprisonment by an American war crimes court in 1947, but General Clay, on review, later reduced the sentence to four years. The reduction caused protests in the United States.

2 Crashes Kill 6; Airlift Toll Now 47

Hamburg, Germany, March 23 (AP)—Two British plane crashes in two days have added six deaths to the ever-growing toll taken by the Berlin airlift.

The three-man crew of an RAF Dakota were killed last night in a crash near Luebeck. Monday, three members of the crew of a British civilian airlift plane were killed near the Schwesligland airfield.

The airlift fatalities now total 47—28 Americans and 19 Britons.

Last night's crash came as the plane was making its final approach, an official British account said. The plane was carrying manufactured goods from Berlin to western Germany.

Czechoslovak Ouster Order

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 23 (AP)—A British official, Capt. Philip Wildash, left Czechoslovakia today under an expulsion order which the Foreign Office hinted was motiyated by "grave charges, involving plots against the Government."

Poland recently asked the recall of Chester Opal, head of the United States information service in Warsaw, on a charge that the service was distributing anti-Polish material. Opal is expected to leave Warsaw about April 1. He has been assigned to the United States information service in Rome.]

Military Permit Officer

Wildash was British Consul and military permit officer in Prague. Czechoslovak police threw siege lines yesterday around the military permit office, which was established by Western powers to issue visas for travel in the United States, British and French zones of Germany.

The office's Czechoslovak cashier, Josef Dittrich, 45, later walked out and surrendered. Wildash was questioned six hours by police and then released with a statement by the Foreign Ministry that he "probably would be arrested unless he left the country in 24 hours."

The permit building was closed to normal business.

The British Embassy issued a statement saying:

"In view of the short time limit, no proper investigation can be made. Further inquiries are being made and a statement, if necessary, will be issued in London."

Czechs Cheer Soviet Army

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 23 (AP)—The Czechoslovak Parliament passed a new national defense act today amid cheers for a statement that "the best army in the world—the Soviet army—is our ally."

Rudolf Slansky, secretary general of the Communist party, made the statement in an address presenting the bill. He is chairman of Parliament's defense committee.

His speech was filled with attacks on "threats and Atlantic pacts and other war pacts to frustrate the peace policies of the Soviet Union and the peoples' democratic (Communist) countries."

Hungary Alliance Due

He said that instead of being enveloped by Nazi Germany on three sides "this country now has its longest border with our brotherly peoples' democratic ally, Poland. We are about to sign a pact of alliance with Hungary, and we have a common border with the Soviet Union."

The new defense act's preamble said its provisions were based on the fact that Czechoslovakia has strong ties with the Soviet Union and other Communist-led states.

Covers Those Outside Nation

The act itself provides age limits of 17 to 60 for military duty. However, regular service will begin in the nineteenth year. Women may volunteer in peacetime and can be drafted in event of war, or in peacetime if enough volunteers do not appear.

Czechs outside the country can be ordered to report for duty "with an allied state" in which they live or which they can reach.

When a state of mobilization becomes known, all those living outside the country are obliged to report for duty immediately wherever they can.

Rumania Clamping Down With New Rationing Rules

MAR 24 1949

By The Associated Press.

BUCHAREST, Rumania, March 23—The (Communist) Government clamped on new ration restrictions today bearing heavily on the moneyed classes.

Ration cards will be denied to doctors, lawyers, members of other free professions, owners of more than three acres of land, shopkeepers, employers generally and all those who are not employed and their servants.

All these will have to buy in state shops and the free market at the official prices, which are three to five times higher than prices of rationed goods.

The new ration restrictions include bread, meat, fats, rice and cereals.

The following categories of workers get ration cards: White collar and manual workers in firms, institutions and factories; those drawing state pensions; scientists, writers, artists, newspaper men, servants of such persons, and some victims of illnesses. Special rations are to be issued to heavy workers and to pregnant women.

RATIONING ENDED

BUDAPEST, Hungary, March 23—(AP) Hungary will abolish milk rationing April 1, it was announced today.

Press In Moscow Renews Attacks On Finn Premier

MAR 24 1949

Moscow, March 23 (AP)—The Soviet weekly New Times resumed the Moscow attack today on Premier Karl A. Fagerholm of Finland who has been under Russian press fire for some time.

In an article entitled "Fagerholm's Cold War," the paper declared "the more the Fagerholm Government remains in power, the worse becomes the situation in Finland."

The paper charged that in international affairs the Finnish Government "is following an obvious anti-Soviet course."

"Among ruling circles in Helsinki there has appeared in recent times a suspicious interest in the North Atlantic pact," New Times asserted.

Peace Talks Get Official China Red Notice

MAR 24 1949

Morning

Nanking, March 23 (AP)—The Communist radio heard here tonight said "peace negotiations will take place very soon."

It was the first public Red announcement that they have decided to talk peace, although other broadcasts have hinted at such a move.

The statement was incorporated in a scathing attack on Acting President Li Tsung-jen and Premier Ho Ying-chin and his new Cabinet. The radio asserted the "Kuomintang (Government party) leaders will now have an opportunity to prove their real desire for peace."

To Name Delegates

Earlier, an adviser to the President had said the negotiations would take place shortly after the Government names its peace delegates.

The selection of those delegates is the first order of business before the Cabinet tomorrow.

The adviser, Kan Chieh-hou, considered the "Harry Hopkins" of China, is the first reliable source to indicate the Communists actually have agreed to talk peace. His statement was given in an exclusive interview.

Li Optimistic

Kan said Li is optimistic over prospects of peace. He minimized the importance of "isolated skirmishes between Communist and Nationalist forces as a hindrance to peace."

After the Government selects its delegates, said Kan, the Reds will name the meeting place. It is considered most likely the ancient Chinese capital of Peiping, now in Communist hands, will be chosen.

The main stumbling block in naming Government delegates has been the reluctance of outstanding public figures to take the jobs.

Tentative List

The Cabinet tomorrow will have at least a tentative list to consider. It will include: Chang Chih-chung, political administrator of Northwest China; Shao Li-tze, leading elder statesman; Huang Shao-hun, close associate of the President and a powerful member of the Kwangsi Province clique; W. W. Yen, head of the unofficial Shanghai peace delegation which went to Peiping to sound out the Communists, and Chang Tse-chao, Shanghai lawyer, who accompanied Yen to Peiping.

Nanking newspapers blossomed with a new crop of peace rumors.

Wu Tries To Quit

Premier Ho Ying-chin declined to accept the resignation of Mayor K. C. Wu of Shanghai, who has tried ten times to quit his difficult job.

Chinese press dispatches said retired President Chiang Kai-shek was preparing to take up residence on Kulungsu Island, off the port of Amoy in Fukien province. Chiang has been at Fenghwa, some 200 miles south of Shanghai, since leaving Nanking late in January.

Part of Chiang's bodyguard was reported to have gone to Amoy. Gen. Shih Tsu-teh, former commander of Chiang's bodyguard, recently was appointed garrison commander of Amoy.

CHINA REDS SET FOR PEACE TALKS

Jerusalem Morning

NANKING, (Thursday), March 24—(AP) The Chinese communists announced today that peace talks will begin "very soon." China's cabinet met to draft its peace proposals in an atmosphere of high elation.

Excitement spread swiftly through this war-sick capital. Even cabinet members seemed more confident than they were 24 hours ago that this time something would come of all the shouting.

Hit President

The communist radio accompanied its left-handed announcement with a belaboring of Li Tsung-Jen and Ho Ying-Chin. It called Li a "bogus acting president" and Ho a "bogus premier."

The broadcast from north China said if they were sincerely for peace they would have a chance to show it "in the very near future when peace negotiations are conducted."

The broadcast wound up with a reiteration that the nationalists would have to carry out the Red's eight-point peace terms. These terms, which call for the prosecution of many high government officials as "war criminals," amount almost to total surrender.

Only Bargaining Point

Many government officials, however, regarded this insistence as only a bargaining point.

One peace program already was drafted before the cabinet assembled for its first session. Informed sources said it was considered pretty vague and probably would be scrapped.

It dodges the "war criminals" question. It says nothing specific about communist demands for a reorganization of the nationalist armies. It was drawn up by Sun Fo, former premier who is a frequent red target.

Nobody in the cabinet can forget that a superior communist army is parked just across the Yangtze from Nanking. That may be another reason for scrapping Sun's program.

Another basis for optimism was late word from Peiping that the communists had begun preparations for peace talks and awaited only the naming of government delegates.

Writers Quiz China Reds In Ban Of News

MAR 24 1949

Shanghai, March 23 (AP)—The Foreign Correspondents Club of China has asked Chinese Communists to clarify the February 27 order prohibiting the filing of news from Peiping but has received no answer.

The club a week ago telegraphed Chou En-lai, No. 2 Chinese Communist, asking an explanation.

Among questions asked was when the seventeen foreign correspondents now in Peiping would be permitted to resume their duties. Another was the Peiping ban to be imposed as a matter of general policy in all of Communist China, particularly in cities that may be taken in the future.

At the time of the Peiping order the Communists said the step was taken for military reasons.

China Tomb Unearthed; Age Put At 1,700 Years

Shanghai, March 23 (AP)—Soldiers digging military fortifications near Changchow, 110 miles east of here, have unearthed a tomb estimated to be 1,700 years old.

Prof. Chieng Ta-yi, of the Shanghai Municipal Museum, said one of the bricks found dates to the late Han or early Tsin dynasties, about 200 A.D.

The brick was engraved with Chinese characters meaning "five hundred big cash." Engraved bricks in those dynasties were used for money.

One room in the tomb contained a quantity of old coins, cooking utensils and broken swords.

Tokyo, March 23 (AP)—Corporal Lorenzo Gamboa made a wish today and it came true tonight.

This morning Gamboa wished for General MacArthur's help in getting into Australia to see his wife and two children. He had been barred from "white" Australia because he is an Asiatic.

"If General MacArthur only remembers the Filipino boy who cleaned his desk every morning in Port Moresby while the General took his exercises in a corner, maybe he can do something for me," Gamboa said.

General Promises Help

The General tonight was shown a copy of an Associated Press dispatch detailing Gamboa's troubles and immediately remembered Gamboa.

As a result MacArthur, whose wish was the Australian Government's pleasure during the war, said he would do all he could for Gamboa.

More than anything he wants to get back to his Australian wife, Joyce, his 4-year-old son, Ramund, and his 26-month-old daughter, Julie. He has never seen Julie.

Served On Bataan

Gamboa joined the United States Army in Manila two days before Parl Harbor. He was an ammunition passer on Bataan. He suffered a serious rupture carrying shells for the big guns.

Gamboa was evacuated to Australia January 1, 1942—one of the last army patients to go. There he met Joyce.

He went to work in MacArthur's headquarters and worked there all the way to Japan. Then he was discharged in Australia. He settled down with Joyce and Ramund in the Melbourne suburban home of Herbert Cain, his father-inlaw.

Ordered Out As "Asiatic"

Months later, an Australian immigration inspector notified Gamboa he would have to leave because he was an "Asiatic."

2 U.S. Soldiers Save 21 Jap Families

Fukuoka, Japan, March 23 (AP)—Two United States military policemen, privates Gordon Stone and James Baker, last night saved 21 Japanese families from a fire that destroyed 44 buildings.

The pair discovered the fire on their rounds. While one raced through the homes awakening sleeping families, the other summoned aid. More than 600 firemen were needed to put out the blaze.

Stone lives in Lynchburg, Va., and Baker in Washington. Both are members of the 24th Infantry Division.

Armistice Pact Is Ratified by Israel, Lebanon

Former to Withdraw Her Troops, and Frontier of May 15 Will Be Restored

TEL AVIV, March 23 (AP).—Israel and the smallest of her active Arab foes, Lebanon, signed armistice terms today. The two countries' delegations formally ratified at the border town of Rasen-Naqura an agreement they initialed Sunday.

One of the terms is that Israel will withdraw her troops from fourteen captured villages in Lebanon within the next ten days. Lebanon is a northern neighbor of Israel.

It was four weeks ago that Israel and Egypt, the largest of the active Arab participants in the Palestine war, signed an armistice that broke the ice for other members of the Arab League.

These include Trans-Jordan, now conducting armistice talks with Israel at Rhodes; Syria, which has agreed to open similar talks, and Iraq, officially noncommittal. Two other members of the Arab League, Saudi Arabia and Yemen, opposed the establishment of Israel as a state last May, but did not send troops to the Holy Land.

Hopes for Peace

Lieutenant Colonel Mordechai Makleff, head of the Israeli delegation, expressed hope at Rasen-Naqura that the signing of the new armistice means the beginning of "an era of peace and happiness for our part of the world."

"The government of Israel," he said, "believes the agreement is an honorable one, and it is determined to do its utmost to insure that it shall be successfully carried out in accordance with its spirit."

Israel started Sunday the withdrawal of her troops from Lebanon, something she refused to do when United Nations observers requested it after her successful northern offensive last fall.

Other terms of the armistice:

Israel and Lebanon will share in the task of clearing mine fields in the mountainous area over which they battled.

The frontier will be restored to its position of last May 15.

Belts from six to twelve miles wide are to be established on each side of the frontier. Until a peace treaty is concluded, each nation will be allowed to assign not more than 1,500 troops to its belt.

Prisoners, mostly civilians, will be exchanged.

Execution of the armistice terms will be supervised by a U. N. commission, as is the Israeli-Egyptian armistice.

their frontier armed forces.

Mine fields in the mountainous former battle areas will be cleared by both sides, but each will maintain an armed force along the border, which the armistice limits to 1,500 men for each.

They also agreed to exchange prisoners seized during the fighting.

To Await Formal Peace

Until the conclusion of a formal peace, no more than 1,500 Israelis and 1,500 Lebanese will face each other within armistice territory, which extends 6 to 12 miles from either side of the international boundary.

The armistice will be supervised by a United Nations commission in the same way the Israeli-Egyptian armistice has been supervised.

Promised Raise In U.S. Aid, Jap Official Says

Tokyo, March 23 (AP)—Japan's finance minister said today he had conditional assurance from American officials of an in increase of more than $100,000,000 in United States appropriations for Japan.

Minister Hayato Ikeda told Japanese newsmen he had been assured of the increase for the next fiscal year if a proposed 1949-50 budget were adopted by the Japanese government.

Dodge Issues Denial

Joseph M. Dodge, General MacArthur's financial adviser, promptly denied he had made any such statement. Dodge was one of the key American officials at a meeting yesterday when Japanese authorities were told to adopt a balanced budget—of around 700,000,000,000 yen.

Ikeda said he had been told that the budget's adoption would mean an American appropriation for the forthcoming year of 170,000,000,000 yen. At the military conversion rate that would be $625,000,000, or more than $100,000,000 over the funds allocated for Japanese assistance during the current year.

"Has No Way Of Knowing"

Dodge pointed out that appropriation requests had not been presented to the United States Congress. He said he would have no way of knowing what appropriations would be approved finally.

The proposed budget has not been announced. Some details have leaked out, however, and the blueprint of the budget has met opposition from several Japanese factions.

B-29 Tanker Ruins Yield Five Bodies

Manila, March 23 (AP)—A United States Air Force rescue team today recovered five bodies from the wreckage of a B-29 tanker plane on a mountain top 25 miles northeast of here.

Four other crew members, presumed to be dead, had not been located.

The tanker plane crashed on March 1 after refueling the nonstop globe circling B-50 Lucky Lady II.

A diamond ring led to the identification of the body of Lieut. Col. Jack Stuart Hunt, of Victoria, Texas.

The four other bodies had not been identified.

Filipino Air Force Kills 30 Rebels Led by Reds

MANILA, March 23 (AP).—The Philippine Constabulary today announced that thirty Communist-led guerrillas were killed on March 21 by a strafing raid of Philippine Air Force planes.

The attack was directed against several hundred Hukbalahaps (armed peasants) concentrated on a ridge of the Sierra Madre Mountains of central Luzon.

It was the first time a strafing attack had been reported, although planes have been used for scouting the guerrilla movements.

Israel, Lebanon Sign Armistice Agreement

En Naqura, Lebanan, March 23 (AP)—Israel and Lebanon signed an armistice agreement at the customs house here today.

The armistice pact, second signed by Israel with her Arab neighbors, was hailed by the head of the Israeli delegation as "the beginning of an era of peace and happiness for our part of the world."

Lieut. Col. Mordehai Maklef, the delegation head, said: "Israel never had any quarrel with Lebanon in the past and sees no reason for any quarrel in the future. The agreement just signed marks the close of an unhappy chapter."

Was Concluded Sunday

The armistice agreement was reached by Israel and Lebanese delegates last Sunday and was initialed then. Today's ceremony was the formal signing.

The first armistice in the Palestine war was signed at Rhodes February 24 between Egypt and Israel.

The negotiations between Lebanon and Israel began here March 1. The chairman of the meetings was Henri Vigier, French personal representative of Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, United Nations acting mediator.

Jews Will Withdraw

Three main points of the armistice call for evacuation of Israeli forces from Lebanese soil within ten days; restoration of the Israel-Lebanon border to the position of last June 15, and a reduction of

Bunche Reports Palestine Truce Is Violated

Rhodes, March 23 (AP)—Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, acting United Nations mediator, charged today that Britain, Israel and Trans-Jordan all have violated the Palestine truce.

Bunche made public a report to the United Nations Security Council, describing troop movements by Israel and Trans-Jordan as violations. He considered the recent landing of British reinforcements at Aqaba, Trans-Jordan's only seaport, also a breach of the truce, although his report did not describe it as such.

No Evidence Of Fighting

The report, based on the investigations by United Nation observers who visited the area, said there was no evidence to support a series of Arab complaints of fighting in that section. Neither, Bunche added, did his observers find any evidence to support the Arab charge that Israeli troops had crossed the Trans-Jordan border.

"Since March 8, Israeli forces at considerably more than normal patrol strength have moved into the area between the Dead Sea and the Gulf of Aqaba in Palestine," occupying positions which they had not held previously, Bunche told the Security Council.

"Both Violated Truce"

"There never has been anything in the nature of military line in this area," he continued. "It appears that Arab forces in small strength have recently patrolled in parts of the area, as have small Israeli patrols, in violation of the truce in both cases."

Israeli troops moved down a road which runs close to Trans-Jordan territory, Bunche said, but the route "runs its whole length inside Palestine" and there was no evidence that they had crossed the frontier.

Britain, which already had garrisoned Aqaba at the request of Trans-Jordan under a mutual-defense alliance, moved in more troops by sea on March 13. Bunche said this also was a violation, although it was not mentioned in his report.

Border Clashes Possible

Aqaba is just inside the Trans-Jordan border. Israeli troops are encamped on the Palestine side of the frontier, within sight of the British and Trans-Jordan forces. Bunche said his observers found the region free of tension, but they considered border clashes are possible as long as patrol activity continues.

Trans-Jordan and Israel are engaged in armistice conversations here under Bunche's leadership.

Israel Acts To Settle For Church Damages

Tel Aviv, Israel, March 23 (AP)—The Israeli Ministry of Religions today expressed confidence that a satisfactory solution would be found in postwar negotiations on damage to religious property in the Holy Land war.

It was indicated that negotiations had not yet started.

A ministry spokesman said all structural and other damage to churches or other religious buildings had been registered by Israeli authorities as soon as it had been reported.

He said that in thirteen cases, five in Jerusalem, six in Galilee and two in Jaffa, emergency repairs were ordered and paid for by Israeli authorities to avoid possible deterioration of the original damage.

In a number of other cases, the spokesman said, the question of repair of monetary compensation was left to final postwar negotiations.

He said most of the destruction of religious property was caused by shelling in battle action but in those "regrettable cases where Jewish soldiers were found guilty of wanton destruction or looting they have been court-martialed and imprisoned."

BUENOS AIRES ARRESTS 100

Pro-Communist Gathering Results In Clash

MAR 24 1949

Buenos Aires, March 23 (AP)—Police jailed 100 delegates to a pro-Communist Slav organization congress today after engaging in a free-for-all fight.

Several persons were reported injured in the clash which took place at a dance hall where the Argentine Slav Union had scheduled a two-day meeting. The restaurant of the hall, in the residential Palermo section, was wrecked.

Hall Is Locked

Congress leaders said that, although they had a police permit to meet, they found the hall locked. After trying to force an entry through shutters, the 150 delegates moved into the restaurant.

Fighting broke out when the delegates were heckled by a group of spectators, not officially identified.

Police, who had been watching in anticipation of possible trouble, tangled with the congress delegates. Witnesses said the police drew their guns but did not use them.

Women Among Group

Mounted police then rode into the crowd with sabers drawn. They rounded up a group of convention delegates, including a few women.

After giving the injured first-aid treatment, the police hustled their prisoners to jail. Authorities indicated the permit for the meeting would be canceled.

A police statement said several of the injured were wounded by shots fired by a delegate, who was arrested.

Fought Nationalists

The statement did not identify the group of spectators who fought the pro-Communists. However, members of the Slav Congress have engaged in street fighting in the past with the extreme nationalist group, Alianza Libertadora Nacionalista. There is also a rival Slav organization in Argentine which is anti-Communist.

The Slav union which attempted to meet is regarded as the master organization for the Russian-inspired pan-Slav movement in this country. Its president is Pablo Shostakovsky, one of the leaders of the Argentine League for the Rights of Man, which police term a Communist-front organization.

ACHESON HITS RED CHARGE U.S. PLOTS IN IRAN

MAR 24 1949

Denounces Statement We're Turning That Nation Into a Military Base.

A 'MALICIOUS' DISTORTION

Secretary of State at Same Time Reaffirms American Interest in Middle East Area.

Washington, March 23 (A. P.).—Secretary of State Acheson today denounced as "altogether false" Russian charges that the United States is turning Iran into a military base for use against Russia. At the same time Acheson reaffirmed American interest in the security of Greece, Turkey and Iran.

His statements to a news conference were evidently intended to prevent any impression that recent Washington concentration on the North Atlantic pact meant a lessening of American interest in the Middle East.

Acheson first denied any "lessening of our interest" in that area. Then he recalled the statement he made in his major speech on the Atlantic treaty last Friday. This was that American policy is "to help free peoples to maintain their integrity and independence . . . wherever the aid we are able to provide can be effective."

In his Friday speech he also said: "Our actions in supporting the integrity and independence of Greece, Turkey and Iran are expressions of that determination."

He reaffirmed those statements to his news conference.

Quotes Report From Tehran.

On the matter of Russia and Iran, Acheson said that the American embassy at Tehran had reported intensifying "Soviet pressure upon Iran in the form of persistent press and radio propaganda" in recent weeks. This propaganda, he said, charges "among other things, activities by United States advisers in Iran hostile to the Soviet Union."

Acheson recalled that the Iranian Government recently protested against Soviet press and radio attacks on Iran. Its Ambassador here, Hussein Ala, had presented to Acheson a copy of the protest which was also released publicly in Tehran.

"One type of Soviet allegation mentioned in the Iranian memorandum," Acheson said, "is that 'American advisers intend to transform Iran into a military base to be used against the Soviet Union."

Denies U. S. Seeks War.

Acheson then repeated from his speech of last Friday the assertion that "this country is not planning to make war against any one," and also his statement that "it is not seeking war."

The Secretary of State added this further comment:

"I might say in connection with Soviet allegation of hostile United States activity in Iran what I have already said with regard to allegations that aggressive designs underlie our participation in the Atlantic pact, namely, that this 'can rest only on a malicious misrepresentation or a fantastic misunderstanding of the nature and aims of the American society.

Summing up, Acheson asserted that there are in Iran no United States bases, no United States facilities, no United States air field.

Concerning Greece, Acheson said:

"I am happy to reaffirm the solidarity of the Government and people of the United States with the Government and people of Greece in their struggle to preserve Greek independence and democracy."

ACHESON HITS RED 'EXPANSION' MOVES

MAR 24 1949

Says U. S. Is Determined to Block Any Soviet Action in Middle East

WASHINGTON, March 23—(AP) Secretary of State Acheson warned Russia—and reassured Greece, Turkey and Iran—today that the United States is as determined as ever to block Soviet expansion into the strategic middle east.

It was the second time in five days that Acheson had spoken out publicly to underscore that policy. It was evident he feared that some nations might have "misinterpreted" this country's recent concentration on the North Atlantic pact as meaning a drop in interest in the middle east.

Policy Will Continue

Today, as in a radio speech last Friday, Acheson said that is not so. He added, "our interest in the security of these countries has been made clear, and we shall continue to pursue that policy."

At a news conference, the secretary of state issued three statements dealing with the middle eastern area. Then, in response to questions, he left open the possibility that the United States might regard favorably the reaction of a middle eastern defense treaty comparable to the North Atlantic Security agreement. For the moment, he said he had no comment on that possibility.

In his three statements, Acheson made these points:

1. The United States became aware during the North Atlantic pact negotiations that its concern over western Europe might be "misinterpreted as implying a lessening of our interest" in other areas, particularly the near and middle east. Acheson then reassured the people of those areas and by indirection warned Russia not to misjudge Uncle Sam's interest.

Reds Increase Pressure

2. Soviet Russian propaganda pressure on Iran has intensified in recent weeks, according to reports from the American embassy at Tehran. The Russians have charged that the United States is building Iran into a base for use against the Soviet Union. Acheson said such charges are "altogether false and demonstrably untrue."

3. The United States is following a policy of "solidarity" with the government and people of Greece "in their struggle to preserve Greek independence and Democracy."

It is understood that in the carryall military aid bill which the State department is now preparing for President Truman, authority will be asked of congress for the United States to give aid to all three of these countries which have been under the Russian propaganda guns for several years and which the United States has supported for at least two years.

U.S. Visa Stand Is Explained

MAR 24 1949

Russ delegation on way to New York "peace" rally is "astonished" by United States refusal of visas to other groups.
[Page 3.]

Washington, March 23 (AP)—The "world peace" conference opening Friday in New York is viewed by the State Department as one of a series of moves by Moscow to oppose the new North Atlantic security pact and further other Soviet aims.

Officials said today this was why the American Government is barring eleven delegates from Europe and South America.

However, twenty-one from Soviet Russia and eastern Europe are permitted entry, and the State Department explained this apparent contradiction:

The twenty-one are official representatives of their governments, and are entitled to official visas. They are not excludable under immigration laws.

Others Held Excludable

The others, however, are not attending the conference as foreign government officials, and are excludable. The unofficial representatives are scientists, authors and other intellectuals.

The State Department emphasized it is remaining firm in its stand despite an appeal to Secretary Acheson from Dr. Harlow Shapley, Harvard astronomer.

Shapley is chairman of the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions, which is sponsoring the three-day meeting of the Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace.

Shapley And Dewey Views

When the conference came in for earlier criticism, Shapley said "the conference is independent of any political group or any conference that has been held in the past. It is an American conference."

In New York, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey said he had received hundreds of letters asking him to use his influence to stop the meeting. He said he believed those who had written "have correctly analyzed the character and purpose of the meeting," but he felt it was enough that the affair had "been exposed for the Communist-front affair that it is."

Official Washington View

The official Washington view is that the New York conference and other similar moves all focus on a "world congress of partisans of peace" to be held next month in Paris. Other "peace" meetings supported vigorously by Russia include:

1. The World Congress of Intellectuals for Peace held last August at Wroclaw, Poland, at which the Soviet Union was lauded and American "warmongers" were denounced.

2. Celebration of International Women's Day in a number of countries on March 8.

3. A German people's congress to be held soon in the Soviet occupation zone of Germany.

4. A hemisphere congress of intellectuals in defense of peace under sponsorship of Latin-American Communists.

Fadeyev Heads Russ Group

Moscow's interest in the New York meeting was evidenced by the composition of its seven-man delegation, which includes Dmitri Shostakovich, internationally known composer.

The chairman is Alexander Fadeyev, novelist and chairman of the Soviet writers' union, who made the keynote address at the Wroclaw meeting. Records received by the State Department show that in it he charged British as well as American leaders with following Nazi policies.

Sponsors of the New York rally said eleven delegates from western Europe and South America had been barred "at the initiative" of United States consular officials abroad, and Shapley appealed to Acheson to reverse the decision.

A.I.T. Issues Challenge

A group newly organized to oppose the conference, the Americans for Intellectual Freedom, plans to hold a counter-rally here Saturday.

The A.I.T. challenged the Shapley conference to demonstrate its belief in "freedom and democracy" by adopting a set of principles, including:

Condemnation of regimented science; condemnation of suppression of free speech; condemnation of imprisonment and execution of scientists; proposals for a worldwide inquiry into punitive measures taken against scientists and artists, and commendation of the United States for its efforts to establish cultural relations with Russia.

42 NATIONS AGREE ON WHEAT PACT

WASHINGTON, March 23—(AP) Representatives of 42 nations today agreed on a new wheat pact designed to stabilize world prices the next four years.

Delegates from only 30 countries, however, actually signed the document at ceremonies climaxing the 57-day international conference.

The remaining 12 indicated their governments plan to approve the pact before an April 15 deadline.

Under agreement between five major wheat growing countries and 37 importing nations, 456,273,389 bushels will be exchanged each year on a sliding price scale. The top price was set at $1.80 a bushel, with the minimum figure dropping 10 cents annually from $1.50 to $1.20.

Secretary of Agriculture Brannan said the agreement "will be of great benefit to American farmers" if it is ratified by the Senate—which last year refused to consider a similar pact calling for a $2 price ceiling.

Brannan pointed out that the minimum prices are 10 cents a bushel higher than those provided in the old pact. He said that increase "will be extremely beneficial" to us farmers if a world wheat surplus develops.

Under the proposed new allotment the United States would earmark 168,069,635 bushels a year for shipment to importing nations. Brannan said that is as much wheat as the government feels it can guarantee to deliver annually over the four year period because of its obligation to supply occupied areas in Germany and Japan.

U.S. REFUGEE BURDEN SEEN

MAR 24 1949

Senator Predicts Heavy Costs Unless Others Increase Role

WASHINGTON, March 23 (AP)—A breakdown in the international plan for resettling Europe's war refugees may throw a $70,000,000-a-year financial burden on the United States, Senator Herbert R. O'Conor, Democrat, of Maryland, reported today.

Mr. O'Conor released a statement saying the International Refugee Organization, set up by sixteen nations to handle the refugee problem, would not be able to finish the job next year as planned.

He gave these reasons for the failure: Many member governments had not set up resettlement machinery either at home or abroad, had not accepted the number of refugees they had agreed to take, and had contributed less than half the money they had promised.

He also said there were "internal conflicts" within the relief organization.

Colonial Resource Unit Headed By Dr. Bowman

MAR 24 1949

Howard Bruce Announces Plans For Development Under Program For Backward Areas

Washington, March 23 (AP)—An expanded program to aid European recovery by unlocking the colonial resources of Marshall-plan countries was set in motion today.

Howard Bruce, deputy chief of the Economic Co-operation Administration, announced that a colonial development division has been established and will be headed by Dr. Isaiah Bowman, former president of Johns Hopkins University. Bruce said the setup is designed to carry out "Point No. 4" in President Truman's inaugural address last January.

With Aid Of U.S. Know-How

Point 4 called for development of backward areas with the aid of American industrial know-how and private investment.

"The project is still in its formulative stage," Bruce said, "but we are now prepared to move ahead rapidly."

He said the program will seek to provide new sources of raw material in Europe's colonial territories—notably in Africa and the Far East—as well as uncover badly needed strategic materials such as manganese, tin, iron ore and tungsten.

Bruce also announced that the ECA is "cutting down" on its China staff. He said this indicates a decline in future prospects for continued recovery aid to China.

Expert Help Assigned

As head of the newly established ECA colonial division, Dr. Bowman will be assisted by Harlan Cleveland, director of the China-aid program.

In addition, a top-ranking expert on natural resources and geographical development already has been assigned to the staff of W. Averell Harriman, ECA's roving ambassador in Paris. He is Dr. John Orchard, formerly of Columbia University.

A five-man advisory committee will assist Dr. Bowman and Cleveland in formulating policies and approving specific development projects. American industrial and engineering experts will also lend their "know-how," as Mr. Truman expressed it, toward the overall goal of European recovery.

Will Continue Research

Dr. Isaiah Bowman said in Baltimore last night he would continue his "plans for study and writing" while heading a new colonial development division in the Economic Co-operation Administration.

Dr. Bowman said he is now engaged in a "rather extensive" piece of research and writing in the field of foreign policy.

"This is in line," he said, "with a decision made some time ago and which came into effect upon my retirement on January 1 of this year."

Truman Sees Myron Taylor

WASHINGTON, March 23 (AP).—Myron C. Taylor, the President's personal representative to the Pope, conferred with Mr. Truman today. As usual when he visits the White House, Mr. Taylor declined to comment to reporters. Nor would he answer any questions as to when he might go abroad again as the President's emissary.

Rankin's Measure Altered Beyond Recognition by Opponents

TWO MAJOR CHANGES

New Bill Would Base Payments on Length of Service, Income

WASHINGTON, March 23 (AP)—Amid wrangling debate, the House riddled the multi-billion dollar Rankin pension bill with amendments today, then put off final action on the veterans aid measure until tomorrow.

The postponement climaxed two days of hectic maneuvering over disposition of the bill sponsored by Rep. Rankin (D-Miss) to give veterans of both World Wars $90 a month at age 65, regardless of need. The administration opposes the bill, contending that it would cost $125,000,000,000 in the first 50 years, with the annual outlay rising to $4,000,000,000 by the year 2,000.

But before the lawmakers halted their deliberations today, they had altered the original measure almost beyond recognition.

Rankin Asks Delay

It was Rankin himself, who proposed a further delay after opponents had loaded down his plan with various restrictive clauses. He put across the postponement by a vote of 173 to 98.

The bill's foes wanted to continue action. They apparently hope to saddle it down with so many amendments that the House then will vote to send the measure back to the Veterans committee for "further study."—in other words to pigeonhole it.

These are the major changes tentatively approved thus far (all subject to later roll call votes):

1. Basing the pension payments on length of service according to a formula proposed by Rep. Jacobs (D-Ind). Under this plan veterans, when they reach the age of 65, would receive a flat $10 a month, plus $1 for each month of service during actual hostilities and another $3 per month for each month of service in a theatre of operations.

2. Restricting the grants to (A) single veterans who at age 65 had incomes of not over $2,000; (B) those with dependents and whose yearly incomes did not exceed $3,000. This amendment by Rep. Rogers (D-Fla) was approved 127 to 70.

Jacobs, whose formula was adopted by a vote of 135 to 111, told the House that if it approved a veterans pension plan on other basis it would be a case of "just plain buying votes."

The House did reject two amendments to bar World War II servicemen from the Rankin bill's proposed benefits. The votes on these proposals by Reps. Huber (D-Ohio) and Kearney (R-NY) were 162 to 3 and 121 to 65, respectively.

GOP Heads Fight

Republican members took the lead today in arguing against the Rankin bill because of its prospective cost.

Rep. J. Leroy Johnson (R-Calif) said everyone wants to help war veterans but he told his colleagues "you-ve got to think of the country as well."

He said the cost of the Rankin plan is "so colossal that it's utterly impossible to meet it."

Johnson added that veterans are more interested in a "peaceful world" than they are in getting pensions for themselves.

Rep. Carroll (R-Col), declared that the country simply cannot foot the bill at this time.

"It's the issue you are going to have to meet and you're not prepared to meet it," he said.

Carroll was the one who set off yesterday's bewildering vote performance which saw the lawmakers first vote—off the record,— to kill the Rankin bill and then later —on the record—decide to revive it for further consideration.

On that score Rep. Jackson (R-Calif) urged the House members to be "consistent" in today's proceedings.

"I don't know what the people of America are thinking today," he said, "after the House marched up the hill yesterday and then marched down again."

But Rankin had an explanation for the vote turn-about. "You can call it just a revival of righteousness," he said.

While the debate went on, Harold A. Keats, national commander of Amvets issued a statement saying "the organized veterans of World War II are unequivocally opposed to the Rankin pension bill."

Keats labelled the measure as a "pension grab" which he said is "bad for the nation and bad for the veteran."

Rep. Potter (R-Mich), a legless combat veteran of the last war, told the House the Rankin measure "doesn't do credit to the Veterans committee, the veteran and the Congress."

"I'm just wondering," he added, "if it wouldn't be a good idea to provide pensions for our peace makers, so they'll do a better job."

STRAUS ASKS AN IMMEDIATE LOYALTY TEST

MAR 24 1949

Seeks Hearing After Senate Unit Fails To Restore Him To Pay Roll

Washington, March 23 (AP)—Michael Straus, reclamation commissioner, asked a Senate subcommittee today for an immediate and open loyalty hearing.

J. A. Krug, Secretary of the Interior, also asked that Straus's request and a similar one from Richard Boke, reclamation regional director for California, be granted promptly.

"The loyalty issue which has been raised at this late date in connection with the right of Straus and Boke to be paid for their services is a complete phony," Krug said in a letter to the subcommittee.

"It is instigated by Senator Downey (D., Cal.) because his fight to give vast Federal benefits to large land-owners in California has failed in every other instance."

Krug's Letter Cited

The Senate Appropriations Committee yesterday refused to restore Straus and Boke to the Federal pay roll after Attorney General Clark declined to produce an FBI report on Straus.

The committee appointed a subcommittee composed of Senators O'Mahoney (D., Wyo.), McCarran (D., Nev.) and Cordon (R., Ore.) to consult with President Truman and Clark on the matter.

Krug's letter added:

"Senator Downey's efforts to emasculate the family-sized farm principle on California reclamation lands have been firmly opposed by Straus and Boke who have loyally administered the law as it was established by the Congress many years ago.

"Mr. Downey's efforts to pass legislation to emasculate the 160-acre principle have failed. His efforts to intimidate Straus and Boke have failed.

Calls Straus Loyal American

"His efforts to blacken their record as administrators have failed, notwithstanding the ill-considered action of last year when a sparsely filled House accepted a purely partisan rider to an appropriation bill to deny pay to Straus and Boke after January 31, 1949.

"I assure you that I have personally reviewed Mr. Straus's file and am completely satisfied that he is a loyal American citizen."

Straus, in a three-page letter to the same senators, said "if anybody has questioned or is questioning loyalty, I have not been informed of such action."

Straus said confusion has been "deliberately engendered," and the real issues have to do with the size of land-holdings on Federal reclamation projects and with Federal power policy.

U.N. FAILURE ON SECURITY IS LAID TO RUSSIA

MAR 24 1949

U.S. Official Tells Forum Soviet Abuse Of Veto Is To Blame

Philadelphia, March 23 (AP)—The failure of the United Nations to establish security throughout the world is the fault of Russia—and Russia only—a top State Department official said tonight.

Charles E. Bohlen, counselor, blamed what he termed Soviet abuse of the veto and defiance of resolutions in the United Nations General Assembly for the current unrest—the so-called cold war.

Bohlen told the closing session of the third annual Philadelphia Bulletin Forum, Russia's actions resulted in the North Atlantic pact.

"The North Atlantic pact is no substitute in any way for the United Nations," Bohlen insisted.

"The pact is not only in full conformity with the great aims of the Charter but it is, as the text reveals, squarely within its provisions."

Pact Called Historic Step

Bohlen said emphatically the pact represents an historic step in the development of American foreign relations.

"For the first time in our history," he asserted, "we are prepared formally to enter into an association for twenty years with countries outside this hemisphere under which we undertake to regard an attack on any of those countries as the equivalent of an attack on the United tSates."

John Foster Dulles, United States delegate to the United Nations, said the North Atlantic pact could halt war.

But, Dulles warned, "ambiguous acts and loose words could make the pact a cause of war."

Civil Rights Bills Political

A Southern newspaper editor told the forum the South is against civil-rights legislation because it has become "strictly political legislation only."

"Civil rights are proper and right," Ralph McGill, editor of the Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution, told the third annual Philadelphia Bulletin Forum. "The danger lies in distorting legislation concerning them," he added.

McGill said he was for a fair employment practices committee but "I must vigorously oppose an FEPC which would have Federal police powers.

Must Not Give Police Power

"If we ever give to one Federal bureau its own police forces, we will later give it to others and will have destroyed every vestige of local government and authority," McGill asserted.

McGill cited the recent Senate filibuster. He said, "The South was presented to the nation and the world as being unwilling to stand for civil rights, but denying also the right to a debate and vote on the measures.

The schoolteacher who risked death in a plunge from a window rather than return to Russia told the forum that life in the Soviet Union is one of "suffering, privation, terror and persecution."

Russian Woman Speaks

Mrs. Oksana Kasenkina said Russian women "age fast and die prematurely."

"The Soviet woman, despite her sturdiness and resistance to hunger, cold and suffering, cannot thrive on the misery that is her lot," she said through an interpreter.

She detailed "appalling conditions under women of the Soviet Union are forced to live."

Brazilian Strong For West Coalition

New Orleans, March 23 (AP)—It's more important now than ever that Western Hemisphere nations stick together.

That's the opinion expressed here today by H. P. P. Accioly, Brazilian delegate to the Organization of American States. The new group succeeds the Pan American Union.

"We of Brazil do not expect war any time soon," he said. "But the best way to preserve peace is to be prepared for war by a coalition of the West."

Illinois Bill Makes Communism A Felony

MAR 24 1949

Springfield, Ill., March 23 (AP)—A bill which provides a prison sentence for being a member of a Communist organization in Illinois was passed by the State Senate yesterday. The Senate also passed two related bills designed to outlaw communism in Illinois.

The main measure provides that anyone belonging to a Communist organization would be guilty of a felony and subject to one to five years in prison.

Loyalty Oath Required

The other bills would require loyalty oaths from teachers and all other public employés and bar any member of a subversive group advocating violent overthrow of the Government from holding public office.

The anti-Communist bills were prepared by a legislative commission which investigated seditious activities in the State for eighteen months. They now go to the House for action.

The Senate defeated a fourth anti-Communist measure. It would make it mandatory for organizations of twenty or more members that require a secret oath to file a roster of membership with the Secretary of State.

TEXAS TO OUST REDS FROM STATE COLLEGES

AUSTIN, Tex., March 23.—(AP) A House-approved resolution to eject communists from state colleges was passed unanimously by the Texas Senate without discussion today.

The senate's action puts the resolution into effect immediately.

The resolution empowers and instructs presidents of all state-supported colleges to investigate and expel any student or teacher found to be a communist.

The House approved the resolution unanimously yesterday.

Churchill Supports Alliance Upon Arrival In New York

MAR 24 1949

New York, March 23 (AP)—Winston Churchill arrived in the United States today and said he gave "whole-hearted support" to the Atlantic alliance.

Britain's wartime Prime Minister did not appear perturbed by an anti-Churchill demonstration near the pier as the big British liner Queen Elizabeth docked.

About 175 persons, most of them women, paraded with signs which read: "Churchill wants war—America wants peace" and "Go home, Mr. Churchill, we want peace."

Reread Fulton Speech

At what was believed to be a record-sized news conference aboard the ship, Churchill declined to say anything about international affairs except to remark he gave full support to the pact.

Later, however, when someone brought up his 1946 Fulton (Mo.) speech proposing a union of nations against communism, Churchill said:

"I read that Fulton speech over recently to see what I said and I am bound to say that I am not inclined to go back on any of it.

"I would say that if I did it today I would go beyond it."

Churchill was asked if America had reached a point equal to the things he advocated in the speech. He nodded affirmation.

He was accompanied by his wife and son-in-law and daughter, Captain and Mrs. Christopher Soames. They will be guests of Bernard M. Baruch.

Tomorrow night the Churchills will be dinner guests of President and Mrs. Truman in Washington.

The 74-year-old statesman told about 175 reporters and radio and cameramen aboard the ship:

"We had a nice crossing. I am particularly glad to come to America to express the thanks we all feel on the other side in many nations for what she is doing for the world."

To Address M.I.T. Convocation

He said he preferred to give his opinions on international affairs "in ordered sequence and in a setting I choose."

The main purpose of his visit is to address the Massachusettts Institute of Technology's convocation of world leaders in Cambridge, Mass., March 31. His topic is "The Twentieth Century; Its Promise and Realization."

Henry R. Luce, of Time, Inc., will give a dinner in Churchill's honor Friday evening and the New York Times will honor him March 28.

Asked what he would discuss in his M.I.T. speech, Churchill replied:

"Oh, come, come. I've been making it up on the way over."

Complained Of 1848 Brandy

A ship source said Churchill appeared to enjoy his Atlantic crossing except for once when he complained that his favorite 1848 brandy was not quite up to par.

Also aboard the Queen Elizabeth was Harold J. Laski, former chairman of the British Labor party and a political foe of Churchill. Asked if he thought Churchill would continue as leader of the Conservative party, Laski replied:

"Yes, he will. He will never give up. If he were drowning, he would come up for the third time and say that 'I will still win.'"

N. Y. 'PEACE' RALLY PROTEST PLANNED

MAR 24 1949

Picketing And Prayers Set As Foreign Delegates Arrive

New York, March 23 (AP) — Foreign delegates began arriving today for a three-day "world peace" conference as protest groups planned picketing and prayer by massed thousands.

Patriotic, civic and veterans' organizations said prayer will dominate their demonstrations.

The "world peace" conference, to open Friday night at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, has been described by Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, as "a sounding board for Communist propaganda." State Department officials also have described it as a Moscow move to oppose the North Atlantic security accord and further other Soviet aims.

Misrepresentation Charged

The conference is sponsored by the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions. Dr. Harlow Shapley, Harvard astronomer and chairman of the council, says the conference is independent politically and will be conducted in the "democratic tradition."

The council today accused the State Department of "deliberately misrepresenting the conference in the eyes of the American people."

It announced that the conference was a "sell-out" and that messages of support were "pouring in" from all over the world.

George Bernard Shaw; Michael Redgrave, British film star; Sean O'Casey, Irish poet; J. B. Priestley, novelist, and Diego Rivera, Mexican artist, were among those listed as sending messages of support.

Czechs First To Arrive

Czechoslovak delegates were the first to arrive today from abroad. The four-member delegation claimed it had been discriminated against because their visitors' permits were limited to seven days.

The delegation spokesman said the members "think we shall be able to prove that what is called in this country 'the iron curtain' does not divide the world."

Three Polish delegates arrived during the afternoon.

Russian Delegation Arrives

The seven members of Russia's delegation arrived by plane late today at LaGuardia Field. The group, headed by Dmitri Shostakovich, composer, was met by a Soviet Embassy official and then escorted to immigration offices by a cordon of twenty policemen.

Forty-five minutes later the Russians left the field for an undisclosed destination on Long Island. Newsmen were not given an opportunity to talk with them.

Activities of the protest groups were being co-ordinated by a newly formed Peoples' Committee for Freedom and Religion. One spokesman said picket arrangements have been cleared with the police department and that no requests to limit the number of pickets were made.

Several slogans have been prepared for the protest. Joseph M. Calderon, Brooklyn attorney and chairman of the co-ordinating committee, said some of them will be:

"Communists are not welcome here. We don't want you. Get out."

"Defend human rights of Communists by destroying communism."

"Stalin must free the 15,000,000 slave workers in Russia."

"We demand that Stalin abolish the anti-Semitic, anti-Zionist laws in Russia and iron curtain countries."

Take Initiative From Stalin

Calderon said "it is time we took the initiative away from Stalin and his Communists here."

"This will be a move to strike back with prayer and protest—a prayer that liberation will come soon for the Russian-enslaved millions," he said.

Plans provide for refugees to carry crepe-covered flags of their countries which are behind the iron curtain. Pickets also arranged to carry the Star of David, the Crucifix, pictures of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Archbishop Stepinac, Jan Masaryk and Protestant ministers imprisoned in Bulgaria.

Prayers en masse will be offered by the marchers.

Counter-Rally Set

"If we can flood the sidewalks around the Waldorf-Astoria, we will show Stalin what we think of him," Calderon said.

"We would like to show him now what a demonstration for freedom really looks like."

STRIKE DOCUMENT QUOTED AT TRIAL

MAR 24 1949

Plan For Armed Action Cited In Communists' Case

New York, March 23 (AP)—A Communist document which preached a general strike and armed action along military lines was cited at the Communist conspiracy trial today as a guide to party strategy.

The document was reported by the opening Government witness, Louis Budenz. Budenz once was a member of the United States Communist party's "Politburo" and managing editor of its paper, the Daily Worker. He renounced the party four years ago.

Program Of World Congress

He told the jurors hearing the case against eleven American Communist leaders about inner workings of the party between 1935 and 1945.

Budenz said a program of the sixth World Congress of the Communist International was one of the documents given him for guidance by Jacob Stachel, a defendant, when he went to work on the Daily Worker.

John F. X. McGohey, United States attorney, who said in his opening statement Monday that the eleven defendants hold the key to an American revolution, read from the program.

Crudeness In Newspapers

He said that among strategic aims of the Communists was extension of influence over the majority of the working class, to gain control of trade unions and to win over "the masses of the poor."

The whole strategy, McGohey said, was to culminate in "mass action." This, he declared, involved strikes and demonstrations to be followed by a general strike and armed action, with the latter to be "conducted according to military rules."

The document also called for "intensified revolutionary work in the Army and Navy," McGohey said.

"Overwhelm Capitalism"

The prosecutor quoted the program as saying that the proletariat "must overwhelm capitalism in many of the so-called civilized countries" to bring closer the day of the final victory of socialism.

Budenz linked several of the defendants to key roles in the party machinery in the decade in which he was a member. He testified that certain defendants gave him his party assignments and directed his activities in running The Daily Worker.

Budenz left the party in October, 1945, and since has denounced it in lectures and writings. He rejoined the Catholic Church and taught at Notre Dame University. He then went to Fordham University, where he teaches economics.

His testimony included:

1. That Gilbert Green, a defendant, had told him he (Green) attended the seventh congress of the Communist International in Moscow in 1935.

2. That Stachel showed him (Budenz) a resolution adopted at the same congress which lauded Premier Stalin as "the beloved leader of the whole proletariat."

3. That the editorial content of the Daily Worker was closely supervised by Stachel, Eugene Dennis, another defendant, and William Z. Foster, national chairman of the party.

Tells Of Browder Move

4. That he was temporarily taken off the party national committee while serving as head of the company publishing the Daily Worker because "I might have to make assertions that the Daily Worker was disconnected with the Communist party." He said he was told this by Earl Browder.

5. That he went to Chicago in 1937 to edit the Midwest Daily Record which he said was Communist-controlled. This paper suspended in 1940, he testified, because of the many subscribers lost when it attacked President Roosevelt after the "Hitler-Stalin pact of 1939" was signed.

6. That Browder originally appointed him labor editor of the Daily Worker.

7. That Stachel advised him Browder would have to decide whether he (Budenz) would be an open or underground member of the party and that Browder later told him he was to be "an open member."

U.N. APPROVES INDONESIA PLAN

MAR 24 1949

Canadian Proposal Backed In Council By 8-To-0 Vote

Lake Success, N.Y., March 23 (AP). The Security Council approved tonight a Canadian plan aimed at settling the Dutch-Indonesian conflict in round-table talks.

The vote was 8 to 0.

Russia, the Ukraine and France abstained on the vote, which Russia demanded.

The Council action ended a long series of debates on a way to bring the Dutch and Indonesian leaders together.

A Dutch spokesman, Dr. J. H. van Royen, said the Canadian idea was very helpful.

Indonesian Hopeful

An Indonesian spokesman, Dr. L. N. Palar, said he thought his Government might accept it if it meant Republican leaders would be freed before any round-table conference is held.

The Council adjourned until Monday.

The Canadian plan calls for the United Nations Commission on Indonesia to try to bring the Dutch and leaders of the Indonesian Republic together on a plan for carrying out a Council resolution approved January 28.

When—and if—such an agreement is reached, the Canadian plan provided the United Nations commission then could try to arrange terms for a round-table proposed by the Dutch.

Demanded Restoration Of Power

The January 28 resolution, most of which was approved by the same 8-to-0 lineup, with Russia, the Ukraine and France abstaining, set up a series of dates for creation of a United States of Indonesia and demanded that the Dutch immediately restore the Indonesian republican leaders to power in their capital, Jogjakarta.

Canada To Resume Truce Efforts

MAR 24 1949

Lake Success, March 23 (AP)—Canada is expected to renew efforts today to bring the Dutch and the Indonesian Republicans together in a round-table conference to settle their conflict.

Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, Canadian delegate, is scheduled to outline a detailed formula when the Security Council resumes the Indonesian debate late today.

The Canadian plan is designed to bring the two together to work out terms on which the Republican leaders might take part in the proposed round-table discussions at The Hague. Previous Dutch efforts to start such a Hague conference failed.

Cuban Objections

McNaughton had hoped to submit his formula at Monday's Council session but held it up after Cuban Delegate Alberto Inocente Alvarez, this month's Council president, raised objections.

Since then McNaughton has revised his plan. But there still was no indication it would meet the approval of Alvarez and other Council countries which have insisted the Council must not retreat in any way from its resolution of January 28.

The co-operation of Alvarez is essential to the success of the Canadian plan. McNaughton proposes that his formula be transmitted to the United Nations Indonesian Commission as a message from the Council president.

PALESTINE ROUNDUP (340)
LONDON, MARCH 23-(AP)-ISRAEL AND LEBANON SIGNED AN ARMISTICE TODAY.
THE ACTION AT THE LEBANESE BORDER POINT OF EN NAQURA CAME AS ACTING PALESTINE MEDIATOR RALPH BUNCHE ACCUSED ISRAEL, TRANS-JORDAN AND BRITAIN OF VIOLATING THE U.N. TRUCE IN PALESTINE THROUGH TROOP MOVEMENTS AROUND THE TRANS-JORDAN PORT OF AQABA ON THE RED SEA.
THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE QUICKLY DISCLAIMED ANY TRUCE VIOLATION. A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID "OUR TROOPS HAVE BEEN IN AQABA SINCE JANUARY. IF THERE HAS BEEN A VIOLATION OF THE TRUCE, WHICH WE DO NOT ADMIT, WHY SHOULD THE CHARGE BE MADE NOW?"
BUNCHE IS CONDUCTING ARMISTICE TALKS ON RHODES BETWEEN ISRAEL AND TRANS-JORDAN. HE ASSERTED BRITISH TROOP REINFORCEMENTS AT AQABA VIOLATED THE TRUCE WHICH BEGAN JULY 19. BRITAIN SENT TROOPS TO THE RED SEA PORT IN JANUARY UNDER HER MUTUAL AID TREATY WITH TRANS-JORDAN. KING ABDULLAH'S GOVERNMENT INVOKED THE ALLIANCE, SAYING IT FEARED AN INVASION FROM ISRAEL.
ISRAELI TROOPS MOVED UP TO THE PALESTINE RED SEA COAST OPPOSITE AQABA EARLIER THIS MONTH.
LEBANON WAS THE SECOND OF SEVEN OPPOSING ARAB STATES TO SIGN AN ARMISTICE WITH ISRAEL, WHOSE TROOPS HAD SECURED THE EXISTENCE OF THE NEW JEWISH STATE CARVED OUT OF PALESTINE BY UNITED NATIONS ACTION. EGYPT SIGNED FIRST.
ISRAEL HAILED THE LEBANON ARMISTICE AS "THE BEGINNING OF AN ERA OF PEACE AND HAPPINESS FOR OUR PART OF THE WORLD." THE AGREEMENT CALLS FOR ISRAELI TROOPS TO LEAVE LEBANESE SOIL WITHIN TEN DAYS; RESTORATION OF THE FRONTIER TO THE JUNE 15 POSITION AND A REDUCTION OF FRONTIER ARMED FORCES.
THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID BRITAIN HAS NOT YET ANSWERED A TRANS-JORDAN REQUEST FOR BRITISH TROOPS TO PATROL 50 TO 60 MILES OF ITS FRONTIER WITH ISRAEL, FROM AQABA TO GHARANDAL.
TRANS-JORDAN HAD DENIED MAKING THE REQUEST, BUT BRITAIN INSISTS IT DID. THE FOREIGN OFFICE IS IN TOUCH WITH THE UNITED STATES STATE DEPARTMENT ABOUT THE SUBJECT.
BRITISH NEWSPAPERS AND DIPLOMATIC OBSERVERS PREDICT BRITAIN WILL GIVE A QUALIFIED "NO" ANSWER FOR FEAR THE FRONTIER PATROLLING WILL BE CALLED AN INTERVENTION IN THE MILITARY SITUATION. THE USE OF BRITISH TROOPS AT THE BORDER PRESUMABLY WOULD RELIEVE ARAB FORCES FOR USE ELSEWHERE.
THE BRITISH ARE BELIEVED SEEKING BETTER EVIDENCE THAN TRANS-JORDAN HAS PROVIDED THAT ISRAELI FORCES EITHER INTEND TO OR HAVE TRANSGRESSED ON HER ALLY.
THE SPOKESMAN DREW ATTENTION TO BUNCHE'S ASSERTION THAT AN ALLEGED ISRAELI TROOP CROSSING INTO TRANS-JORDAN COULD NOT BE VERIFIED.
"ALTHOUGH THE ACTING MEDIATOR'S REPORT SAID THE CROSSING COULD NOT BE VERIFIED, HE DID NOT SAY IT DID NOT TAKE PLACE," THE SPOKESMAN SAID.
IN WASHINGTON, SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON SAID TODAY HE IS EXTREMELY GRATIFIED AT THE ARMISTICE AGREEMENT BETWEEN ISRAEL AND LEBANON.
THE SECRETARY VOLUNTEERED THE COMMENT AT A NEWS CONFERENCE. HE ADDED THAT HE LOOKS FORWARD TO THE CONCLUSION OF SIMILAR ARMISTICE AGREEMENTS BETWEEN ISRAEL AND OTHER ARAB STATES.

LONDON, MARCH 23-(AP)-THE SOVIET MAGAZINE NEW TIMES SAID TODAY THE UNITED STATES IS "STUBBORNLY CONDUCTING IN KOREA A CYNICAL COLONIAL POLICY WHICH DOES NOT DIFFER ESSENTIALLY FROM THAT OF THE JAPANESE INVADERS WHO FORMERLY HELD SWAY IN THAT COUNTRY."
THE MOSCOW RADIO RELAYED THE MAGAZINE ARTICLE, WHICH CARRIED THIS COMMENT ON THE RECENT AGREEMENT REACHED BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE SOVIET-SPONSORED NORTH KOREAN GOVERNMENT:
"THE RADICAL DIFFERENCE BETWEEN SOVIET AND AMERICAN POLICIES TOWARD KOREA IS REVEALED LITERALLY AT EVERY STEP.
"THIS RADICAL DIFFERENCE STANDS OUT PARTICULARLY WHEN THE ACTUAL STATE OF AFFAIRS IN NORTH KOREA, WHERE THE KOREAN PEOPLE THEMSELVES ARE DETERMINING THEIR DESTINY, IS CONTRASTED WITH THAT IN THE PART OF THE COUNTRY SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL WHERE THE AMERICAN OCCUPATION AUTHORITIES RULE SUPREME."
THE SOUTHERN KOREAN GOVERNMENT WAS CHOSEN IN AN ELECTION SUPERVISED BY THE UNITED NATIONS. IT HAS BEEN RECOGNIZED BY THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER POWERS, BUT NOT BY THE SOVIET UNION. AMERICAN OCCUPATION TROOPS REMAIN IN SOUTHERN KOREA. RED ARMY TROOPS HAVE WITHDRAWN FROM NORTHERN KOREA, WHICH BORDERS ON THE SOVIET UNION.
"POVERTY, UNEMPLOYMENT AND INFLATION ARE GRIPPING THE SOUTHERN PART OF THE COUNTRY MORE TIGHTLY," NEW TIMES SAID. "ACUTE STARVATION, AN ORGY OF MILITARY POLICE TERROR--SUCH IS THE REGIME ESTABLISHED BY AMERICAN MONOPOLIES IN SOUTHERN KOREA."
NEW TIMES SAID THE UNITED STATES IS PERPETUATING ITS HOLD ON THE SOUTHERN KOREA AS A U.S. "COLONIAL POSSESSION AND FOR MILITARY AGGRESSION."

BERLIN, MARCH 23-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN HAVE REJECTED BILLS TOTALLING $9,500,000 FOR COMMUNICATIONS FEES BETWEEN BLOCKADED BERLIN AND WESTERN GERMANY.

THE BRITISH MILITARY GOVERNMENT INFORMED THE SOVIET-CONTROLLED GERMAN POST OFFICE TODAY THAT IT WAS TURNING DOWN A BILL FOR $2,500,000--IN DOLLARS--BECAUSE SUCH EXPENSE UNDER AGREEMENT WITH THE RUSSIANS WAS TO BE BORNE BY THE GERMANS. AMERICAN OFFICIALS DISCLOSED YESTERDAY THEY HAD REJECTED A BILL FOR $7,000,000, PLUS A DEMAND FOR A $160,000 A MONTH FEE FOR FUTURE RENTAL OF COMMUNICATIONS FACILITIES.

CABLE LINES ARE ABOUT THE ONLY LINK BETWEEN BLOCKADED BERLIN AND WESTERN GERMANY OTHER THAN THE AIRLIFT. U.S. AUTHORITIES, EXPRESSING SUSPICION THE RUSSIANS WERE UP TO A SQUEEZE MOVE AIMED AT CUTTING THE LINES, CALLED THE CHARGE ILLEGAL AND A VIOLATION OF AN AGREEMENT.

THE GERMAN POST OFFICE IN THE SOVIET ZONE SENT THE BILL FOR COMMUNICATIONS DATING BACK TO 1945. THE GERMANS ALSO DEMANDED THAT THE U.S. PAY $160,000 MONTHLY HEREAFTER FOR RENT OF TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH LINES. IT WAS HINTED THE LINES MIGHT BE CUT IF PAYMENT WERE REFUSED.

U.S. OFFICIALS DECLARED THE BILL MUST HAVE BEEN INSPIRED BY THE RUSSIANS WHO MUST CLEAR ALL COMMUNICATIONS FROM EASTERN GERMAN AGENCIES TO THE WESTERN ALLIES.

E. T. MARTIN, ECONOMICS OFFICIAL IN THE U.S. MILITARY GOVERNMENT, SAID THE RUSSIANS AND THE U.S. AGREED IN 1945 THAT THE AMERICANS WOULD BE GRANTED FREE COMMUNICATIONS IF THEY PROVIDED 250 MILES OF CABLE AND ARRANGED TO HAVE IT INSTALLED.

MARTIN SAID THE RUSSIANS AGREED TO MAINTAIN THE LINES AND HAD DONE SO.

MARTIN TERMED THE PROPOSED $160,000 MONTHLY MAINTENANCE CHARGE "RIDICULOUS" AND SAID THEY COULD BE MAINTAINED "FOR SOMETHING CLOSER TO $1,600, AS A GUESS."

AMERICAN OFFICIALS AGREED THERE IS A RISK OF SOME UNDESIRABLE DEVELOPMENT IF THE RUSSIANS BACK UP THE EAST GERMANS. THE AMERICAN REFUSAL TO PAY WAS SENT TO THE RUSSIAN COMMUNICATIONS BRANCH.

SEVERAL PERSONS WERE WOUNDED BY BULLETS FIRED BY A DELEGATE RESISTING POLICE. A POLICE BULLETIN SAID THE MELEE BEGAN WHEN 150 CONGRESS DELEGATES FOUND THE MEETING HALL LOCKED. SPECTATORS SHOUTED INSULTS AND THE DELEGATES TRIED TO FORCE THEIR WAY INTO THE BUILDING BY SMASHING WINDOWS AND PRYING AT STEEL SHUTTERS.

THE SPECTATORS WERE NOT IDENTIFIED. THERE IS KNOWN TO BE SOME RIVALRY BETWEEN THE SLAV CONGRESS AND A SMALLER ANTI-COMMUNIST SLAVIC ORGANIZATION.

THE FIGHT LASTED ONLY 20 MINUTES. POLICE HAS ANTICIPATED TROUBLE AND WERE ON HAND. THE BULLETIN INDICATED PERMISSION TO MEET NOW WOULD BE CANCELLED.

THE SLAV CONGRESS IS THE MASTER ORGANIZATION OF THE RUSSIAN-BACKED PAN-SLAV MOVEMENT IN ARGENTINA. THE GROUP CLAIMS 250,000 MEMBERS BUT DIPLOMATS SAID IT ACTUALLY HAS NEARER 100,000. RUSSIA MAINTAINS NO DIRECT CONTACT WITH THE SLAV ORGANIZATIONS. THE SLAV COMMITTEE OF THE SOVIET UNION, HOWEVER, HAD BEEN INVITED TO THE CONGRESS MEETING.

buenos aires, march 23-(ap)-violence marked the opening today of the pro-communist argentine slav congress.

Delegates attempting to enter the meeting hall clashed with persons at the entrance. Police, who had expected trouble, were at the scene and made a number of arrests. Windows of a restaurant in the building were broken as fists flailed and stones flew.

the slav congress is the master organization of the russian-supported pan-slav movement in this country. the group claims 250,000 members, but diplomatic quarters say the figure is more likely around 100,000. there is also a smaller, anti-communist slav organization in argentina.

the russians maintain no direct contact with the slav organizations, but among the delegations invited to today's meeting was the slav committee of the soviet union.

meetings were scheduled both for today and tomorrow. police had given permission for the meetings but kept guards near the hall. #1

2 ACHESON LAID CONSIDERABLE EMPHASIS ON HIS ARGUMENT, MADE IN DENOUNCING THE RUSSIAN CHARGES ABOUT IRAN, THAT THE UNITED STATES DOES NOT HAVE ANY AGGRESSIVE DESIGNS IN THAT OR ANY OTHER PART OF THE WORLD BUT IS FOLLOWING A POLICY OF DEFENSE AND PRESERVATION OF THE INDEPENDENCE OF COUNTRIES WHICH MIGHT OTHERWISE LOSE THEIR FREEDOM.
THE UNITED STATES DOES NOT HAVE ANY BASES, FACILITIES, OR AIR FIELDS IN IRAN AND DOES NOT INTEND TO HAVE ANY, ACHESON TOLD HIS NEWS CONFERENCE IN AMPLIFYING HIS STATEMENT. HE SAID ITS TWO MISSIONS THERE ARE A MILITARY MISSION OF LESS THAN 50 OFFICERS AND ENLISTED MEN DEALING WITH HOUSEKEEPING PROBLEMS OF THE IRANIAN ARMY, AND A GROUP OF 12 OFFICERS AND MEN TRAINING THE IRANIAN POLICE FORCE. NEITHER MISSION HAS ANY COMBAT OR COMMAND FUNCTIONS, HE SAID, BOTH BEING PURELY ADVISORY.
HE USED THE SAME WORDS TO DENY RUSSIAN ACCUSATIONS ABOUT U.S. ACTIVITY IN IRAN THAT HE USED IN HIS FRIDAY NIGHT SPEECH TO DENOUNCE RUSSIAN CLAIMS THAT THE ATLANTIC PACT IS AGGRESSIVE.
SUCH CHARGES, HE SAID, "CAN REST ONLY ON A MALICIOUS MISREPRESENTATION OR A FANTASTIC MISUNDERSTANDING OF THE NATURE AND AIMS OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY."
IT IS POSSIBLE--ALTHOUGH NOT CERTAIN--THAT MIDDLE EASTERN PROBLEMS WILL COME UP WHEN THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THE ATLANTIC PACT POWERS COME HERE NEXT WEEK. THE TREATY IS TO BE SIGNED APRIL 4.
ASKED WHETHER THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT HAD FORMALLY CONVEYED TO THE GOVERNMENTS OF GREECE, TURKEY AND IRAN THE IDEAS WHICH HE EXPRESSED TODAY, ACHESON SAID NOT TO HIS KNOWLEDGE. HOWEVER, IT WAS LEARNED FROM OTHER SOURCES THAT SUCH REASSURANCES HAVE BEEN EXPRESSED BY AMERICAN DIPLOMATS IN ATHENS, ANKARA AND TEHRAN WHENEVER AUTHORITIES BECAME ALARMED THAT THE UNITED STATES MIGHT BE WEAKENING IN ITS CONCERN OVER THAT PART OF THE WORLD.

THE TURKS ESPECIALLY WERE REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN UNHAPPY ABOUT THE WAY THE ATLANTIC PACT DEVELOPED. THEY WANTED TO BE IN IT, AND FAILING THAT THEY WANTED QUICK WORK TOWARD FORMATION OF A MEDITERRANEAN OR MIDDLE EASTERN ALLIANCE WHICH WOULD HAVE SOME KIND OF AMERICAN SUPPORT. SUCH A REGIONAL ARRANGEMENT APPEARS NOW TO BE A MAJOR OBJECTIVE OF TURKISH FOREIGN POLICY ALTHOUGH THE UNITED STATES HAS NOT ACTIVELY ENCOURAGED THE IDEA YET.
THE GOVERNMENTS OF IRAN AND GREECE ARE REPRESENTED BY DIPLOMATS HERE AS BEING AS DEEPLY CONCERNED AS THE TURKS OVER SOME KIND OF DEFENSIVE TREATY ARRANGEMENT.

HIS NEWS CONFERENCE REMARK WAS IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION ABOUT PROSPECTS FOR COMPLETION OF A TREATY. REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE AND RUSSIA HAVE BEEN TALKING IN LONDON SINCE FEB. 9 ON AN AUSTRIAN PEACE PACT.

ON OTHER SUBJECTS, ACHESON SAID:
HE HAS NO PLANS OF ANY SORT AT PRESENT FOR THE TRANSFER OF THE JAPANESE OCCUPATION TO CIVILIAN CONTROL, AND IS ENGAGED IN NO DISCUSSIONS ON THE SUBJECT.
HE HOPES THE STATE DEPARTMENT WILL SOON COMPLETE ITS REVIEW OF THE AMERICAN POSITION ON DISPOSITION OF ITALIAN COLONIES.

NIGHT LEAD CHINA

WASHINGTON,MARCH 23-(AP)-TOP AMERICAN OFFICIALS INDICATED TODAY THE ADMINISTRATION HAS DECIDED FINALLY AGAINST ANY GREAT NEW AID PROGRAM TO BOLSTER NATIONALIST CHINA'S GOVERNMENT IN ITS FAILING FIGHT WITH THE COMMUNISTS.

THESE WERE THE DEVELOPMENTS WHICH POINTED TO THAT DECISION:

1. SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON ENDORSED AT A NEWS CONFERENCE A PROPOSAL IN CONGRESS WHICH WOULD MERELY EXTEND UNTIL THE END OF THE YEAR THE GOVERNMENT'S AUTHORITY SPEND AROUND $58,000,000 (M) REMAINING FROM THE CURRENT AID PROGRAM. THE PRESENT AUTHORITY IS DUE TO EXPIRE NEXT WEEK.

2. HOWARD BRUCE, DEPUTY CHIEF OF THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION ANNOUNCED THAT ECA IS CUTTING DOWN ON ITS CHINA STAFF. HE SAID THIS INDICATES A DECLINE IN FUTURE PROSPECTS FOR RECOVERY AID TO CHINA. BRUCE NOTED IN THIS CONNECTION THAT THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE HAS DECIDED TO REQUEST NO NEW AID FUNDS FOR CHINA.

OF THE ORIGINAL $400,000,000 (M) CHINA AID FUND, $125,000,000 WAS EARMARKED FOR MILITARY SUPPLIES AND EQUIPMENT, ONLY $627,085 REMAINS IN THE ARMS FUND, ALTHOUGH DELIVERIES OF CONTRACTED MATERIEL ARE NOWHERE NEAR COMPLETE.

ONLY ABOUT $58,000,000 IS LEFT FROM THE ORIGINAL CHINESE RECOVERY ALLOTMENT OF $275,000,000. THIS MUST BE SPENT BETWEEN NOW AND APRIL 2 OR REVERT TO THE TREASURY, UNLESS CONGRESS APPROVES THE EXTENSION BILL INTRODUCED BY CHAIRMAN KEE (D-WVA) OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE.

OFFICIALS MEANWHILE SAID PRIVATELY THERE WAS NO EFFECTIVE WAY THIS COUNTY COULD HALT OR EVEN CHECK THE CHINESE REDS' ADVANCE BECAUSE CHINA'S ANTI-COMMUNIST FORCES HAVE LOST THEIR GRIP ON THE SITUATION.

IT THUS APPEARED THAT PERIODIC CHINESE APPEALS FOR A MULTI-BILLION DOLLAR PROGRAM EXTENDING OVER A PERIOD OF SEVERAL YEARS HAVE BEEN RULED OUT DEFINITELY.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 23-(AP)-A STATE DEPARTMENT FFICIAL SAID TONIGHT HE ANTICIPATES THAT A MISUNDERSTANDING ABOUT TELEVISING A UNESCO MEETING IN CLEVELAND WILL BE CLEARED UP TOMORROW.

HOWARD VICKERY, ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF THE DEPARTMENT'S RELATIONS WITH UNESCO, TOLD A REPORTER THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAD TAKEN NO OFFICIAL ACTION ON THE MATTER.

EARLIER, RADIO STATION WEWS IN CLEVELAND HAD SAID IT HAD BEEN FORBIDDEN TO TELEVISE PROCEEDINGS AT A MEETING TO BE HELD THERE NEXT WEEK. AMONG THE SPEAKERS WILL BE MRS.FRANKLIN D.ROOSEVELT, WIDOW OF THE LATE PRESIDENT.

VICKERY SAID ALL ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE MEETING HAD BEEN MADE BY THE SPONSOR, THE U.S. NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR UNESCO, A GROUP OF 100 CITIZENS WHICH ADVISES THE STATE DEPARTMENT ON UNESCO MATTERS.

WHEN ARRANGEMENTS WERE FIRST MADE, VICKERY SAID, IT WAS NOT KNOWN THAT ANYONE WISHED TO TELEVISE ANY OF THE PROCEEDINGS.

LATER, WEWS ASKED PERMISSION TO DO SO, HE CONTINUED, AND IT WAS AT FIRST REFUSED BECAUSE SOME OF THE ACTORS ENGAGED TO TAKE PART IN A KIND OF MUSICAL PAGEANT WERE BELIEVED TO HAVE CONTRACTS FORBIDDING THEIR APPEARANCE ON TELEVISION.

SINCE THEN, HE SAID, MOST OF THE DIFFICULTIES HAVE BEEN IRONED OUT AND THE COMMISSION IS WILLING TO GRANT WEWS PERMISSION TO TELEVISE THE PROCEEDINGS.

HE SAID THE STATION ITSELF HAS NOT YET COMPLETED ARRANGEMENTS WITH THE AUDITORIUM IN WHICH THE MEETINGS ARE TO BE HELD.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 23-(AP)-THREE ITAL[illegible]ABOR LEADERS WILL BE FLOWN TO THE WEST COAST THIS WEEKEND TO DEBUNK COMMUNIST CHARGES THAT "SLAVE LABOR" EXISTS IN CERTAIN U.S. INDUSTRIAL PLANTS, MARSHALL PLAN OFFICIALS SAID TONIGHT.

MAR 24 1949

THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION DISCLOSED THAT PLANS OF THE THREE-MAN ITALIAN DELEGATION HAVE BEEN CHANGED TO ELIMINATE A FOUR DAY INSPECTION OF INDUSTRIES IN THE CHICAGO AREA.

INSTEAD, THE GROUP WILL FLY TO SAN FRANCISCO TO VIEW FACTORY OPERATIONS--PARTICULARLY THOSE IN PAPER MANUFACTURING PLANTS OPERATED BY THE CROWN ZELLERBACH CORPORATION, A MAJOR PRODUCER OF PAPER AND PAPER PRODUCTS WITH PLANTS AT SAN FRANCISCO AND PORTLAND, OREGON.

JAMES D.ZELLERBACH, CHIEF OF ECA'S MISSION TO ITALY, IS PRESIDENT OF THIS COMPANY AND THE CHANGE IN TOUR PLANS, THE RECOVERY AGENCY STATED, WAS MADE AT HIS REQUEST.

THE ACTION FOLLOWED WIDE-SPREAD COMMUNIST CHARGES IN ITALY THAT ZELLERBACH EMPLOYS "SLAVE LABOR" IN HIS PLANTS.

ANNE GOULD, WHO IS SUPERVISING ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE ITALIAN LABOR OFFICIALS--GUILIO PASTORE, GIOVANNI CANINI, AND APPIO ROCCHI--EXPLAINED THE SITUATION THIS WAY:

"THE COMMUNIST LINE, IN ATTACKING MR.ZELLERBACH, HAS BEEN THAT THE BASIC RIGHTS OF AMERICAN WORKERS HAVE BEEN DENIED THEM BY THE TAFT-HARTLEY ACT," MISS GOULD STATED.

"THEREFORE, THE SCHEDULE HAS BEEN CHANGED SO THAT THE ITALIAN DELEGATION WILL GIVE UP ITS FOUR DAYS IN CHICAGO AND LEAVE FOR SAN FRANCISCO FROM DETROIT ON SATURDAY."

THE REVISED SCHEDULE CALLS FOR THE ITALIANS TO ARRIVE IN SAN FRANCISCO LATE SATURDAY NIGHT, SPEND SUNDAY SIGHT SEEING, AND VISIT THE PAPER PLANT ON MONDAY.

"THERE IS A POSSIBILITY THAT THE GROUP MAY THEN FLY UP TO PORTLAND ON TUESDAY AND INSPECT THAT PLANT ALSO," SHE ADDED.

THE THREE ITALIANS ARE VISITING THE UNITED STATES UNDER THE RECOVERY AGENCY'S PROGRAM OF PERMITTING FOREIGN INDUSTRIAL EXPERTS TO INSPECT AMERICAN PRODUCTION METHODS WITH A VIEW TO ADAPTING THEM TO EUROPEAN TECHNIQUES AS A MEANS OF SPEEDING ECONOMIC RECOVERY.

SAN FRANCISCO, MARCH 23-(AP)-PERSONS WHO PLOT TO OVERTHROW THE GOVERNMENT BY FORCE ARE DANGEROUS MENACES TO SOCIETY, BUT THEY MAY LEGALLY REFUSE TO TESTIFY AGAINST THEMSELVES, SAYS PRESIDING JUDGE WILLIAM DENMAN OF THE U.S. COURT OF APPEALS.
THEIR RIGHTS SHOULD BE RESPECTED, HE ARGUES UNDER "THE BASIC CONCEPT OF THE CONSTITUTION THAT MEN MAY NOT BE FORCED TO SUPPLY THE EVIDENCE CONVICTING THEM OF CRIME."
JUDGE DENMAN GAVE HIS OPINION IN A DISSENT TO A RECENT ACTION BY HIS OWN COURT AFFIRMING JAIL TERMS FOR 10 LOS ANGELES PERSONS. THE 10 HAD REFUSED TO ANSWER QUESTIONS BEFORE A GRAND JURY ON THE GROUND THEY MIGHT INCRIMINATE THEMSELVES.
THE JUDGE, WHO MAILED HIS DISSENT FROM WASHINGTON, MADE CLEAR HE CONSIDERS PERSONS WHO INTEND TO OVERTHROW THIS GOVERNMENT AKIN TO "RAPISTS, CONSPIRATORS TO LYNCH, AND COLD-BLOODED MURDERERS." BUT HE INSISTED THEY SHOULD NOT BE FORCED TO ANSWER INCRIMINATING QUESTIONS ANY MORE THAN ACCUSED CRIMINALS.

THE DUTCH SAID THE INDONESIAN LEADERS WERE FREE TO MOVE ABOUT INDONESIA BUT THEY REFUSED TO RESTORE THEM TO AUTHORITY IN JOGJAKARTA. THEY SAID THEY FEARED THAT VIOLENCE AND CHAOS WOULD FOLLOW.

THE DUTCH PROPOSED INSTEAD THAT ALL INDONESIAN GROUPS MEET WITH THE DUTCH IN A ROUND TABLE CONFERENCE AT THE HAGUE TO DISCUSS A SETTLEMENT.

THE REPUBLIC ANSWERED THAT FIRST ITS AUTHORITY MUST BE RESTORED IN JOGJAKARTA. THE DEBATE HAS OCCUPIED MOST OF THE COUNCIL'S SESSION IN MARCH.

WARREN R. AUSTIN, UNITED STATES, SAID THE DUTCH MUST FIRST RESTORE THE INDONESIANS TO AUTHORITY BEFORE A ROUND-TABLE COULD BE HELD WITH THE COUNCIL'S CONSENT.

OTHER COUNCIL MEMBERS AGREED AND SEVERAL CHARGED THE DUTCH WITH REFUSING TO CARRY OUT THE JAN. 28 RESOLUTION.

GEN. A.G.L.MCNAUGHTON, OF CANADA, CAME UP WITH HIS SUGGESTION AS A WAY TO START NEGOTIATIONS.

HE PROPOSED THAT THE PRESIDENT FOR THIS MONTH, DR. ALBERTO INOCENTE ALVAREZ, SEND TO THE INDONESIAN COMMISSION A MESSAGE SAYING THAT THE COUNCIL FELT THE COMMISSION SHOULD ASSIST THE DUTCH AND THE INDONESIANS TO REACH AGREEMENT ON CARRYING OUT THE RESOLUTION.

MAR 24 1949

THE CANADIAN ALSO SUGGESTED THAT THE COMMISSION HELP THE DUTCH AND INDONESIANS REACH AN AGREEMENT ON THE TIME AND CONDITIONS FOR HOLDING THE PROPOSED ROUND-TABLE CONFERENCE AT THE HAGUE.

THE CANADIAN PROPOSAL ALSO SAID THAT THE COUNCIL FELT IF SUCH AN AGREEMENT ON THE TIME AND CONDITIONS WERE REACHED, THE HOLDING OF THE ROUND-TABLE CONFERENCE AND PARTICIPATION BY THE U.N. COMMISSION WOULD BE CONSISTENT WITH THE PURPOSES AND OBJECTIVES OF THE COUNCIL'S RESOLUTION.

JAKOB A. MALIK, SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER, SAID THE DISCUSSIONS WOULD AMOUNT TO A CONFERENCE BETWEEN PRISONERS AND THEIR WARDENS. HE INSISTED ON THE IMMEDIATE RELEASE OF THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS AND THEIR RETURN TO JOGJAKARTA.

DR. ALVAREZ SUMMED UP THE DISCUSSION WITH THE OPINION THAT THE COUNCIL MAJORITY SEEMED TO FAVOR HIM SENDING THE INSTRUCTIONS TO THE COMMISSION AS MCNAUGHTON PROPOSED. BUT MALIK DEMANDED A VOTE AND IT WAS TAKEN. THEN ALVAREZ SAID THE COUNCIL DECISION WOULD BE SENT TO THE COMMISSION.

MARSHAL VASILEVSKY, HIS DEPUTY, APPOINTED TO TOP MILITARY POST

MAR 25 1949

Alternate On Politburo Expected To Remain Assistant Premier

London, March 24 (AP)—The Soviet Union announced tonight that Marshal Alexander M. Vasilevsky, 49, has succeeded Marshal Nikolai A. Bulganin as Minister of the Armed Forces—the highest military post in all of Russia.

This was the first big change in Soviet military leadership since Prime Minister Stalin stepped down as Minister of the Armed Forces in 1947 and appointed Bulganin to succeed him. Stalin ran the armed forces during the war.

The new shift followed top level changes in the Soviet political hierarchy in the last few weeks. The most important was the release of Vyacheslav M. Molotov as Foreign Minister to be succeeded by Andrei Y. Vishinsky. Molotov remained as first Deputy Prime Minister—right at Stalin's side.

Strengthen Policy Makers

Western observers in Moscow viewed these changes as measures to strengthen the highest ranks of Soviet policy makers.

Bulganin is also a vice chairman of the Council of Ministers of the Soviet Union—a deputy prime minister. A man known for his ablity as a skilled negotiator and administrator, Bulganin will presumably keep his deputy premiership.

Bulganin, 53, is an alternate member of the all-powerful Politburo of the Central Committee of the Communist party. Thus the latest shift seems to be in the pattern of the other changes which have relieved Politburo members of active administration of departments apparently to devote full time to policy making.

Was Bulganin's Deputy

Into the post of Minister of the Armed Forces comes a relatively young man who has carved out a distinguished career in Soviet military annals. Vasilevsky was deputy minister under Bulganin and therefore is closely associated with the workings of the office.

Vasilevsky had been relieved of his duties as chief of staff of the general staff of the Soviet Army last November but retained his job as Deputy Minister of the Armed Forces. The Russians said they wanted to relieve Vasilevsky of an excessive burden of work.

Bulganin's last declaration to bring him world-wide notice was his order marking the thirty-first anniversary of the Red Army last month.

Called U.S. Policy Aggressive

He said Soviet fighting men must maintain a constant battle of preparedness at a high level because of the "policy of aggression" pursued by the United States.

The Moscow broadcast announcing the promotion of Vasilevsky said:

"The Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R. has relieved Marshal N. A. Bulganin, a vice chairman of the Council of Ministers of the U.S.S.R., of his duties as Minister of the Armed Forces of the U.S.S.R.

"The Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R. has appointed Marshal of the Soviet Union Alexander M. Vasilevsky as Minister of the Armed Forces of the U.S.S.R."

Holds High Decorations

Vasilevsky, became first deputy minister of the armed forces after a distinguished military career that brought him some of the highest Soviet decorations.

These included the Order of Victory, Hero of the Soviet Union, the Order of Lenin and the coveted Order of Suvorov.

He was deputy commissar for defense in 1942 and top planner of the Voronezh offensive in 1942 and 1943. He headed Soviet troops which invaded Manchuria in August, 1945.

Bevin, Cabinet Confer On Coming U.S. Visit

London, March 24 (AP)—Foreign Secretary Bevin told the Cabinet today what his views will be in global talks with American leaders next week.

Official sources said that, apart from questions arising from the Atlantic alliance, Bevin expects in particular to discuss:

The broad principles relating to the future of western Germany.

A quicker pace in the Greek Government's war against Communist guerrillas.

Measures to back the collective security of Greece, Turkey and Iran.

Tightening of anti-Communist political and military strategy in the Middle and Far East.

The American and French ambassadors, Lewis Douglas and Rene Massigli, expect to talk with Bevin today about policy differences over factory dismantling in western Germany. The secretary will board the liner Queen Mary tonight for New York. Prime Minister Attlee will be in charge of the Foreign Office while Bevin is away.

The two ambassadors talked with Sir Ivone Kirkpatrick, head of the German section of the Foreign Office, during the morning. They were said to have paid attention mainly to British and French objections to United States proposals to cut down the list of prohibited German industries, set originally at the Potsdam conference in 1945.

Britain is resisting strongly, for instance, an American plan to revive German shipbuilding. Britain fears Germany might capture much of the European and world shipping market.

Clay Sees Douglas

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, United States military governor in Germany, is understood to have discussed the British and French objections with Douglas in London yesterday. Clay is one of the strongest American advocates of a general German industrial revival.

Briton Hails Alliance As Proving West's Unity

ARTHUR GAVSHON

London, March 24 (AP)—Ernest Bevin, Foreign Secretary, left tonight for Washington to sign the North Atlantic treaty.

Bevin will sail from Southampton aboard the Queen Mary tomorrow, along with Paul-Henri Spaak, Premier-Foreign Minister of Belgium, and Joseph Bech, Foreign Minister of Luxembourg.

"I am going to sign the great historical document which, in its content and principles and basis, represents the great unity of the Western world," Bevin said.

Hailed As Aggression Bar

"In my view, this will make for peace and solidarity amongst us and it is the first step to put an end to the ideas that have occupied many minds that they can get their way by aggression.

"This document, when signed, will represent the embodiment of the principle that the world must be conducted by reason and not by force."

Bevin advised the British Cabinet today what he expects to discuss with United States and European leaders in Washington. Official sources said the talks will cover:

1. The future of western Germany.

2. Collective backstopping of Greek, Turkish and Iranian security.

3. A more dynamic anti-Communist campaign in the Orient.

Talks With Ambassadors

Lewis Douglas, United States Ambassador, and René Massigli, French Ambassador called on Bevin before he left London. The ambassadors also confered with Sir Ivone Kirkpatrick, head of the German section of the British Foreign Office, on differences over the Western power policy for Germany.

Prime Minister Attlee will have charge of the Foreign Office during Bevin's absence.

Also booked to sail on the Queen Mary are the heads of the British and Soviet delegations to the United Nations General Assembly. They are Hector McNeil, British Minister of State, and Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister.

Albania Charges Slays Set Blaze

London, March 24 (AP)—The Tirana radio said tonight that agents of Premier Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia had set ablaze the Tirana headquarters of a society for cultural relations between Albania and the Soviet Union.

The information came out, the broadcast said, during the current trial of a "group of agents in the service of Yugoslav Trotskyites" who wanted to make Albanians the enemies of "the glorious Soviet peoples."

The Albanian news agency said a Yugoslav frontier patrol fired a rocket, in the direction of the Albanian border March 15 and a Yugoslav plane flew over the border the next day.

Albania is a member of the Cominform which ousted Tito last year on the grounds that he had deviated from true communism.

Britons Honor 'Decent' Nazi Prison Commander

London, March 24 (AP)—A German prison commander is going to be honored by Britons he kept under guard because he was "so decent" to them during the war.

Prince Wilhelm von Hohenlohe, who commanded the prison at Blechhammer, Upper Silesia, has accepted an invitation of a committee arranging a reunion to honor him next October. The Prince now lives in a castle in the United States zone of Germany.

Cyclotron To Be Built On Cathedral Grounds

LIVERPOOL, England, March 24 (AP).—The Vatican has authorized Liverpool University to build an atom-smashing machine on the grounds of a new Roman Catholic cathedral under construction here.

Officials of the university's nuclear physics laboratory found that the only suitable site for their synchro-cyclotron was a corner of the cathedral site. Roman Catholic canon law says Vatican authority must be given before a building other than a church can be erected on land acquired as Church property.

An official of Archbishop Richard Downey's secretariat said the Vatican granted a thirty-year lease, the length of the useful life of the cyclotron. "Permission was a formality," he said, "and not an exceptional concession."

U.S. Envoy Advocates A Federated Europe

Paris, March 24 (AP)—United States Ambassador Jefferson Caffery said tonight America favored a federated Europe because this is the "best way" for Europe to become independent.

"We will help Europe recover economically and help rearm Europe," the ambassador said in a speech at a dinner of French Union Federalists.

"But Europe can become truly permanently prosperous and strong only through co-operation leading to federalism (union or league of European countries)."

Schacht Gives His Views

German Says Return to Gold Standard Would Aid Recovery

ROME, March 24 (AP).—The conservative "Giornale d'Italia" devoted its front page today to an interview with Hjalmar Schacht, which it described as his plan for "solution of the world crisis." Answering twenty-two questions asked by the newspaper's correspondent, Mario Franchini, Schacht said that return to the gold standard "would be the surest base for reconstruction of international trade."

Of the Ruhr, the former German financial leader said that the men who direct its production "must take German labor into account, whose character cannot be changed without grave harm to production."

Schacht said that without American aid "Europe would have been economically and socially thrown into the worst of chaos. All of us must thank America for this help."

DANISH HOUSE BACKS TREATY

EIGEL ANDERSEN

Lower Branch Of Parliament Registers 119-23 Vote

Copenhagen, March 24 (AP)—The lower house of the Danish Parliament today approved the nation's entry into the North Atlantic alliance by a five-to-one margin. The action was referred to the upper house, where similar approval is regarded as certain.

Denmark would join an alliance made up of at least eight other nations. Italy, like Denmark, has obtained lower house approval of participation in the Atlantic treaty.

Two Others Invited

Iceland and Portugal also have been invited to join. Subject to final ratification procedures, present members of the alliance are the United States, Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg and Norway.

The decision of Denmark's lower house (Folketing) had been expected. It supports the foreign policy of Premier Hans Hedtoft's Government and is in line with Norway's stand.

Its vote of 119 to 23 not only approved Denmark's adherence to the Atlantic treaty but also authorized the Government to ratify the pact, after signature, without further reference to Parliament. One member abstained and seven were not present.

Pact Role Okayed In Danish House

Copenhagen, Denmark, March 24 (AP)—The lower house of Parliament voted today to authorize Denmark's entry into the North Atlantic defense alliance. Later approval by the upper house is regarded as certain.

The vote in the Folketing (lower house) was 119 to 23. One member abstained and seven were absent. In addition to authorizing the Government to join with the eight nations now in the alliance, the measure grants the Government authority to ratify the Atlantic treaty, after signature, without further reference to Parliament.

Denmark would be the ninth country to join the alliance, which provides for mutual aid in the event of an attack on any member. The others are the United States, Canada, Great Britain, France, the Netherlands, Belgium, Luxembourg and Norway, Italy, Iceland and Portugal also have been invited to join.

Butter Rationing Ends in Sweden

Stockholm, March 24 (A. P.).—Sweden abolished the rationing of butter and other fats today, after more than eight years. Meat in restaurants also goes off the ration list, but remains on coupons in the stores.

The Government ordered a slight increase in the butter price, and a decrease in the price of margarine, to keep down the demand for butter.

Korea Applies For WHO Membership

Geneva, March 24 (AP)—The Republic of Korea has applied for membership in the World Health Organization, Dr. Brock Chisholm, director-general of WHO, announced today.

Although not a member of the United Nations, Korea may be accepted as a member of WHO by simple majority vote of the Assembly. Her application will be placed on the agenda of the second WHO Assembly meeting in Rome June 13.

Berlin Life Gets Dizzier

Stamp Squabble Hampers Mail and Trolleys Now Need Two Sets of Conductors.

Berlin, March 24 (A. P.).—Berlin today was caught in an East-West postage stamp war which, in effect, made every man his own letter carrier. Post offices in Berlin's three western sectors were refusing to accept mail which did not bear stamps of western issue.

Post offices in Berlin's Russian sector continued their policy of rejecting any mail which did not bear stamps issued in the Russian zone.

Thus a western Berliner who wants to mail a letter to an addressee in eastern Berlin or a city in the Soviet occupation zone now has to cross the border into the Russian sector, buy an eastern stamp and deposit his letter there.

Life in Berlin took still another dizzy twist when the city street car system began operating with two sets of conductors—one for the Russian sector and one for the Western. Because part of the city operates on Western currency and part on Eastern marks, no conductor can make the full trip across town.

When a street car arrives from the West at the borders of the Russian sector, the conductor gets off because he has only West mark fares in his cash bag and the Russians have outlawed that currency. He yields his place to a Russian sector conductor, then mounts the next car coming out of the Soviet sector headed West. Motormen are still able to make round trips.

Glass Hurled Into Face Of U.S. General

Berlin, March 24 (AP)—An American civilian threw a drinking glass into the face of Brig. Gen. Frank L. Howley, United States commandant of Berlin, Monday night.

Howley suffered cuts, which were treated at the Army Hospital.

The incident occurrred in a parking lot outside the American Press Club. Ed Haaker, chairman of the club's board of governors, said the civilian was an uninvited guest whom Haaker had asked to leave a party given by correspondents to celebrate Howley's recent promotion from the rank of colonel. Haaker said the civilian was not identified.

Pravda Version

[Pravda, official Communist party newspaper in Moscow, published a different version of the story today under the headline, "American Morale." It quoted the Russian-licensed Berliner Zeitung as reporting an American officer threw the glass during a quarrel. "A quarrel began among Howley and several high-ranking officers," the dispatch asserted, "which ended when one of these officers threw a glass of whisky at Howley and also drew blood from his face. General Howley left the club."]

Haaker said Howley was the only high-ranking officer at the party.

U.S. Airlift Planes Fly 50,518,936-Mile Total

Berlin, March 24 (AP)—American planes feeding blockaded Berlin have flown a total of 50,518,936 miles, the United States Air Force said today.

The flight from Western bases to Berlin averages a little more than 250 miles round trip. The total mileage is figured from the day Gen. Lucius D. Clay defied the Russian land blockade and ordered the American force to feed Berlin by air. The British jumped in and the combined airlift grew from a tiny start June 26, 1948, to today's average of more than 700 flights daily.

West Reich State Hope Dimmer

Frankfurt, Germany, March 24 (AP)—The prospects for creation of a West German state appeared today to be no better than 50-50.

Communists opposing the plan for a federalized western Germany have found some strange allies in western Germany's Socialist party, a new nationalist movement for a united Germany and the French military government.

Their political motives vary. All have worked independently. But the influences against the West German state have grown enormously in the past few weeks.

If the present German constituent assembly at Bonn fails to adopt a constitution, American and British policy in Germany must undergo a complete change.

A Communist-led people's council approved a German constitution at a meeting in Berlin last Saturday and issued a propaganda appeal for unity. The council's constitution, while declared designed for all Germany, is to apply only in the Soviet-occupied zone.

The Bonn assembly presented the three western military governors a draft constitution early this month. The military governors returned the draft with recommendations for several changes, almost all intended to decentralize the projected federal government and give the states more power.

Two-Thirds Vote Needed

The German Socialists, who have 27 of the 65 votes in the assembly, want a strong central government with state planning and say they can make no further concessions. They may indicate next week whether they will relent. The assembly cannot vote a constitution without the Socialists, because a two-thirds vote is needed for ratification.

But observers here agree the French will oppose any concession on the decentralization recommendations of the military governors, French Gen. Joseph Pierre Koenig, United States Gen. Lucius D. Clay and British General Sir Brian Robertson.

This might mean a stalemate.

Compromise Rumors

France has been cool about the idea of a west German government from the first, though she voted for it at the London conference a year ago.

A third and less potent factor threatening the west German state has popped up in the united Germany movement personified by Dr. Rudolf Nadolny, former German Ambassador to Moscow.

Some say Nadolny is a Soviet agent and a sinister figure; others that he is a rather aged dreamer of Germany's bygone glories. He preaches that the Germans in the east and west should get together, despite the occupation powers, and create a united Reich.

Probably due to Nadolny's appearance in the west and the always productive German rumor factories, there is a growing impression among some Germans that the Russians and the West may come up with a compromise on Germany. This view is unsupported by a single announced fact, but it exists.

Threat To Aid Seen

The ministers-president of the eleven western German states nevertheless stood firm today in supporting the idea of setting up a west German government. A communiqué said:

"They emphasize once more the necessity of arriving at a state order in the three western occupation zones. The negotiations in Bonn, which have gone on for over seven months, must be brought to a rapid close. The suspense contains grave dangers for our reconstruction and threatens the fulfillment of the European Recovery Program."

Army Court Jails 2 As Czech Spies

MAR 25 1949

Munich, March 24 (AP)—Prison terms of five to twenty years were imposed today on two Europeans convicted of spying for the Czechoslovak Secret Service.

A United States military commission returned guilty verdicts, after brief deliberation, against Ernst Rudolf, 26, former German tank officer, who drew five years, and Jaroslav Konopisky, 31, confessed Czechoslovak Army deserter, who got twenty years.

A third defendant, Adolf Walzel, 59, was freed by the court yesterday.

Last Of Five Spy Hearings

The trial was the last in five espionage hearings before an eight-member military commission. There was only one acquittal and seventeen convictions.

Konopisky was charged with having transmitted information on displaced persons and refugee camps in the United States zone of Germany to the Czechoslovakia Intelligence Service. He told the court he had faked information and also had worked for American counterintelligence. He admitted, however, receiving payments for information relayed to the Czechoslovaks.

Rudolf was charged with having taken pictures obtained at the Munich post-exchange photo plant and given them to the Czechoslovaks.

Walzel, Rudolf's uncle, was charged with having given him the pictures, which were amateur photos processed by an army plant.

Czech, German Convicted As Munich Spy Trials End

MUNICH, March 24 (AP).—A United States military commission convicted a Czechoslovak Army deserter and a former German tank officer today of spying for the Czechoslovak secret service.

Jaroslav Konopisky, thirty-one, the Czech, was sentenced to twenty years in prison. Ernest Rudolf, twenty-six, the German, drew five years.

This completed a series of five espionage trials by the commission. It convicted seventeen persons and acquitted one. The penalties in the other trials ranged up to thirty years' imprisonment.

The only prisoner freed was Adolf Walzel, fifty-nine, an uncle of Rudolf. The commission decided yesterday against pressing a charge that he turned over to Rudolf some amateur photographs, processed at the United States Army post exchange in Munich, which Rudolf was accused of passing on to the Czechs.

Konopisky was convicted of having transmitted data on displaced persons and refugee camps in the American zone of Germany.

Polish Scientists Get Warning

WARSAW, March 2 (AP)—Poland's scientists and technicians were told today to stop worshipping Western world science and show more faith in their own work and that of the Soviet Union. Hilary Minc, president of the Economic Committee of the Council of Ministers, assailed those who eulogize United States achievements and cast "contemptuous aspersions on everything that has arisen in the Socialist country—the Soviet Union—and everything that is arising in Poland."

Ousted Colonels Deny Charges Of Espionage

MAR 25 1949

Vienna, March 24 (AP)—Two high-ranking members of the United States legation in Hungary arrived here safely last night, following expulsion. They termed charges against them "completely fabricated and trumped up."

The men are Lieut. Col. Peter J. Kopcsak, a West Point football star of 1931, and Lieut. Col. John P. Merrill. Both were assistant military attachés, and Kopcsak was also "Hungarian peace treaty enforcement officer."

Called "Ridiculous"

Hungary accused them mainly of spying and "brutal abuse of diplomatic privileges." Secret police had watched them closely.

Both colonels said all charges were "ridiculous and unfounded." They said the espionage count is "a routine charge in any police state." They were accused also of traveling in forbidden areas, failure to pay a garage bill, assaulting Hungarian police and "drunk and disorderly conduct."

Kopcsak is from Greensburg, Pa., and has been in Hungary since October, 1946. Merrill, of Bethesda, Md., arrived in Hungary last January after a tour as an army intelligence officer in Berlin.

Receipted Bill

Kopcsak brought photographs of a Hungarian Foreign Office pass allowing him to visit any point and also a receipt of the disputed garage bill. He said the "Hungarian Government has been gunning for me for more than a year." Merrill's expulsion surprised both men.

The Russians took Kopcsak into custody four times during his stay in Hungary.

Vienna, March 24 (AP)—Diplomatic sources said today the real reason Hungary's Communist Government expelled two assistant United States military attachés is that they were becoming heroes to the people.

The two are Lieut. Col. Peter J. Kopcsak, of Greenburr, Pa., and Lieut. Col. John P. Merrill, of Bethesda, Md. They arrived here last night to await orders from Washington. Hungary had accused them of spying and abuse of diplomatic privileges. The two said the expulsion was based on "completely fabricated and trumped-up charges."

Scorn For State Police

The diplomatic informants, who refused to be named, gave this account of the events leading to the expulsion:

Kopcsak had shown scorn for the Communist-controlled Hungarian state police many times during two and a half years of service in that country. Merrill, who arrived in Budapest only last January, was rapidly acquiring the same sort of reputation.

This attitude "served as a great tonic for the Hungarian people, the great majority of whom are anti-Communist."

"90% Envy You"

Kopcsak received hundreds of fan letters and telephone calls from Hungarians after a clash with the police at Szeged, near the Yugoslav border. These praised him for "having the nerve to do what we cannot do."

The controlled press later began a smear campaign against the two.

Kopcsak recently entered a Budapest night club and took a table. A singer came near and said "Mr. Kopcsak, 90 per cent of the people of Hungary envy you."

Only when the words were out did she realize she was still holding her portable microphone, connected to the public address system. The words were heard in every part of the room.

Kopcsak and the singer both glanced around, but that night no secret police were present. The only reaction was applause from the audience.

Expulsion of Kopcsak and Merrill brings to five the number of American diplomats forced out of Hungary recently. ADD

Hungary Border Guard Tightened

Vienna, March 24 (AP)—Oskar Helmer, Austrian Minister of Interior, said today Hungary was building concrete pillboxes and installing floodlights along her border with Austria apparently to guard against refugees slipping across into Austria.

Helmer said the pillboxes were being built every 100 yards and huge floodlight towers every 200 yards along the border. He said the Hungarians were building a six-foot-high wire fence and laying huge rolls of barbed wire along the entire border.

Russ Suspicious Of Wolf Hunt In Lapland

Baltimore

MAR 25 1949

Moscow, March 24 (AP)—The Soviet press cocked a wary eye today at a Finnish wolf hunt, hinting possible ulterior motives. The hunt was reported to have taken place in Lapland, which borders on Russian territory.

Pravda said the total of four wolves bagged by what it termed a highly organized expedition "supports the theory the hunt has more important purposes."

Izvestia, the Government newspaper, quoted the Finnish Popular Democratic newspaper Vapaa Sana as saying certain American and British circles were tremendously interested in the hunt.

"Modest Results"

A Tass dispatch from Finland said "judging from the press the notorious 'wolf hunt' in Lapland with the use of radio, planes and air photos in which a large number of people took part yielded very modest results."

Izvestia said two Finnish generals took part in the hunt. The Tass dispatch then said a small bag of four wolves indicated the real purpose of the hunt was something else.

A previous reference to the hunt in the Soviet press hinted that planes equipped with photographic apparatus might have been interested in taking pictures of something other than wolves.

Attack Continues

Tass continued its attacks on the Social Democratic party of Premier Karl August Fagerholm, saying that it is "showing little interest in the fulfillment of Finland's obligations under the peace treaty."

In another news item from Helsinki, Tass said Democratic Union (Communist-controlled) deputies have asked why anti-tank barriers and barbed-wire entanglements have not been removed from Finland's eastern border area adjoining Russia.

Chinese Appoint Peace Envoys

Nanking, March 24 (AP)—Nationalist China's Cabinet named a peace delegation today. But Red troop movements indicated the Communists may be loading a pistol to hold at the conference table.

Government Spokesman Teng Wen-yi warned, after the peace delegates were announced, that Communist troops were being deployed toward the Yangtze River. The heaviest movement seemed to be centered seven miles from Anking, Anhwei province capital, 140 miles southwest of Nanking. Others were scattered up and down the river, which now divides Nationalist and Red China.

Peiping May Be Site

The Communists have not yet announced their delegates. The old capital of Peiping, now in Red hands, likely will be their choice for peace talks.

The Nationalist peace delegates named were:

SHAO LI-TZE, elder statesman and a member of the unofficial Shanghai peace delegation that went to Peiping last month.

HUANG SHAO-HUN, close associate of Acting President Li Tsung-jen and a power in the Kwangsi province political clique.

CHANG CHIH-CHUNG, Cabinet member without portfolio and political administrator for Northwest China.

LI CHENG, Minister of Education and former head of Peiping Normal University.

[None is on any Communist "war-criminal" list available in the United States.]

CHANG TSE-CHAO, Shanghai lawyer and member of the unofficial delegation to Peiping.

The Army newspaper, Peace Daily, said the talks in early April will be similar to negotiations conducted between the Communists and Nationalists in 1945.

Tass charged the Social Democratic party of Finnish Premier Karl August Fagerholm is "showing little interest in the fulfillment of Finland's obligations under the peace treaty" with Russia.

U.S. Pilot Killed In Japan

registration team.

Capt. Harlyn Lacy, of Elizabethton, Tenn., said in Manila he led a three-man team there late in January and left voluntarily after two days. He said the garrison evidently was Nationalist, not Communist. He said it flew the Nationalist flag and was in radio touch with Nanking. Later the Chinese Government complained about the American failure to get advance permission for a visit.

The island, only a mile long and a half mile wide, had been supposed to be uninhabited. Its nationality is hazy, although the Japanese are believed to have maintained an emergency wartime fuel dump there.

Lacy said his party was menaced with machine guns but was aided in finding a near-by wreck of a P-38 Lightning fighter plane. Finding no body, the Americans left.

Russians Eye Finn Wolf Hunt

Moscow, March 24 (AP)—Soviet newspapers described today an elaborate aerial wolf hunt in northern Finland and suggested the project was a cover-up for a more important activity.

The Finnish Popular Democratic newspaper Vapaa Sana was quoted as saying certain American and British circles were tremendously interested in the hunt.

According to Soviet accounts, the hunt netted only four wolves. The Government newspaper Izvestia said such small results from such a highly organized expedition "support the theory the hunt had more and important purposes." Two Finnish army generals took part in the hunt, Izvestia said.

Conducted In Lapland

The hunt was said to have been conducted in Finnish Lapland which borders on the Soviet Union. The Soviet news agency Tass said in a dispatch from Helsinki:

"Judging from the press, the notorious 'wolf hunt' in Lapland with the use of radio, planes and air photos, in which a large number of people took part, yielded very modest results."

An earlier reference to the hunt in the Soviet press hinted that planes, equipped with photographic apparatus, might have been interested in taking pictures of something other than wolves.

China Cities Said To Hamper Revolt

Shanghai, Friday, March 25 (AP)—The Chinese Communists hinted today their revolution is bogging down in the cities of North China.

The Communist movement in China, unlike communism in Europe, has been primarily in rural areas. Its base has been the peasants.

[A Communist broadcast heard in San Francisco said the Communist regime would "fail" unless party workers learned how to manage the cities.]

A Communist boardcast from North China, heard by the Associated Press in Shanghai, reported a session of the Communist central committee the importance of shifting "the center of gravity" from rural areas to cities.

Might Tighten Russian Link

[The switch might mean a closer working relationship between Communist China and Russia. The No. 1 Chinese Communist, Mao Tze-tung, got into Moscow's doghouse in the 1930's because he insisted China's revolution must spring from the peasants. Moscow insisted on the orthodox working class revolution.]

The radio said the Communists must link relations between rural and urban areas, between peasants and workers, and between agriculture and industry.

Steady massing of Communist troops north of the Yangtze river brought misgivings to Chinese government hopes that forthcoming talks would end the civil war.

Coalition Plan Reported

[A Communist broadcast heard in San Francisco, however, said the party central committee had approved plans for a political conference to form a coalition government excluding "reactionary" elements but including non-Com-

Reds 'Seize Island' Near Philippines

Hong Kong, March 24 (AP)—The China Mail said today Chinese Communist troops had occupied little known Itu Aba Island between Indo-China and the Philippines.

The island, the newspaper said, was being used to supply Reds fighting in Indo-China. It is halfway between Saigon and Palawan and supposedly was used by the Japanese as a refueling base during the war.

Itu Aba is a sandy mound about a mile long and a mile wide. It must be supplied from outside.

Report Laid To Yanks

The China Mail said an American army group attached to the 609th Grave Registration Company in the Philippines went to the island several months ago to look for the bodies of an American bomber crew.

The Americans, said the newspaper, thought the island uninhabited. But when they reached it they were "taken into custody immediately, questioned and then ordered to leave."

There were about 250 men on the island, the China Mail quoted the Americans as saying.

[In Manila, a United States Army spokesman said today the graves registration team which visited the island in late January did not believe the garrison found there was Chinese Communist.

Filipino Gets 2 Breaks In Fight To Join Family

Tokyo, March 24 (AP)—Corporal Lorenzo Gamboa got two big breaks today in his fight to get back to his Australian wife and two children.

Patrick Shaw, head of the Australian mission to Japan, asked his Government to re-examine Gamboa's case. And General MacArthur put Alva C. Carpenter, head of his legal section, at Gamboa's disposal.

The little Filipino-American kept his fingers crossed. Big things for him might happen soon.

Gamboa has been barred from rejoining his wife in Melbourne under the "white Australian policy."

"Merit In His Case"

Gamboa was born in the Philippines and, although now an American citizen, is considered as Asiatic by the Australian Government.

His case was brought to the attention of MacArthur yesterday. Gamboa used to clean up the General's office after their evacuation from Bataan.

Unless there are special circumstances about which we know nothing here," the Australian mission head said, "it would appear that Gamboa has a special case in which there is a great deal of merit."

Shaw did not wait for official inquiry from MacArthur's headquarters before acting.

Awaits Australian Action

Carpenter, after informing Gamboa of Shaw's step today, said he would wait for word from the Australian Government before proceeding.

Gamboa won American citizenship through United States Army service. After the war and his army discharge, he went back to Melbourne and lived with his wife and her family until an immigration inspector told him to leave because he was an Asiatic.

He went to the United States to get his citizenship. Then he rejoined the Army to save enough money to get back to Australia.

Due for discharge in June, he had made application to re-enter Australia but has been barred.

Mayor, Police Chief Held In GI's Slaying

Manila, March 24 (AP)—Constabulary headquarters announced tonight a village mayor and police chief had been arrested as suspects in the ambush slaying of an American soldier and two girls.

Headquarters named the suspects, who are being held along with twelve others, as Mayor Miguel Morales and Police Chief Servillano Castillo, of Mabalacat, Pampagna.

Private Francis Jost, Belmont, Mich., driver of a Clark Field bus, was ambushed and killed along with two Filipino girls the night of March 12. Jost's bus was riddled with bullets. He was driving the girls from a Clark Field dance.

Chinese Soldiers Hold Tiny Island

Manila, March 24 (AP)—Presence of a 200-man Chinese Nationalist garrison on a tiny sandspit near the Philippines was disclosed today.

The island is Itu Aba, in the South China Sea 325 miles west of the Philippine Island of Samar and 350 miles east of French Indo-China. It is more than 800 miles south of China.

What purpose a garrison could serve there is not known.

The situation was brought to light by the China Mail of Hong Kong. The newspaper said Chinese Communists held the island and had driven off an American graves

Burma Announces Big Offensive

Rangoon, Burma, March 24 (AP)—The Burmese Government today announced a big offensive aimed at recapturing Mandalay from Karen rebels and Communists.

At the same time, North Burma army headquarters said that Government troops had retaken Meiktila, 90 miles south of Mandalay.

A Government spokesman said the Karens driven from Meiktila have taken up new positions between Meiktila and the rail junction of Thazi, 13 miles away. Thazi is in Government hands.

The Government said the first big blow in the Mandalay offensive was the recapture of Amarapura, silk-weaving town about seven miles south of Mandalay.

Lining Up At Myitnge

[Disptaches from Burma are subject to censorship of the Burmese Government.]

Burmese troops were reported lining up around Myitnge, next to Amarapura, preparatory to a frontal attack on Mandalay.

The Burmese Air Force was reported carrying a continuous heavy bombing of Karen positions inside Myitnge.

The Karens, fighting for their own state, occupied Meiktila February 20 and Mandalay on March 13.

Burmese Rewin Meiktila, Launch Mandalay Drive

By The Associated Press.

RANGOON, Burma, March 24.—The North Burma army has recaptured its headquarters city of Meiktila [1 on map] from Karen rebels, the Government said today.

At the same time the government announced a new offensive, seventy-five miles farther north, aimed at retaking Mandalay [2] from the Karens and the Communists. The Karens seek to establish an autonomous state. For reasons of political strategy, the Communists in some regions are supporting the Karen rebellion. [Dispatches from Burma are subject to Government censorship.]

Karen units occupied Meiktila Feb. 20. Accounts received here did not say whether fighting inside the city had preceded its recapture.

A Government spokesman said that the Karens there now had moved into new positions between Meiktila and Thazi, thirteen miles to the east. Thazi is in Government hands.

The Government said that the first big blow in the Mandalay offensive was the recapture of Amarapura, a silk-weaving town. Burmese troops were reported lining up around nearby Myitnge. Government forces there are only a few miles south of Mandalay, which the insurgent forces occupied March 13.

Churchill in Washington Talks With War-Time U.S. Colleagues

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 24.—The nation's top-ranking officials talked over old times today with Winston Churchill at the British Embassy, where the war-time British Prime Minister was guest of honor at a special reception. After the reception the Churchill party were guests of President and Mrs. Truman at a small dinner at Blair House.

Among the guests invited to the Embassy party were Vice-President Alben W. Barkley, Cabinet members, Congressional and military leaders. The list included four one-time Secretaries of State—Cordell Hull, Edward Stettinius, James F. Byrnes and General George C. Marshall.

Virtually all had been associated with Mr. Churchill during the war period, but whether they discussed the past or the future was not revealed.

Mr. Churchill himself told reporters he had nothing to say "publicly" when he arrived this afternoon by train from New York. He was accompanied by his wife and their son-in-law, Captain Christopher Soames.

This was Mr. Churchill's first visit to the capital in three years. On the last occasion Mr. Truman accompanied him to Fulton, Mo., where Great Britain's Conservative leader delivered his attack against Russia's dropping of the iron curtain across the heart of Europe.

Mr. Churchill is scheduled to leave tomorrow at 1 p. m. for New York. A week later he is scheduled for a major address at Cambridge, Mass.

The White House gave the following list of guests for the Trumans' informal dinner in honor of Mr. Churchill: Vice-President Barkley, Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson and Mrs. Vinson, British Ambassador Sir Oliver Franks and Lady Franks, Secretary of State Dean Acheson and Mrs. Acheson, General Marshall, Miss Margaret Truman, Mr. and Mrs. Max O'Rell Truitt, the Vice-President's daughter and son-in-law, and Charles G. Ross, Presidential press secretary, and Mrs. Ross.

Reds In Dark, U.S. Charges

Washington, March 24 (AP)—The State Department said today that Russia is afraid to let its people get a true idea of American freedoms and living standards.

For that reason, it said in a report, Russians are shut off from outside contacts whereby they could draw comparisons with the way things are at home.

The report told the failure of postwar American efforts to arrange with Moscow for exchanges of students, scientists and publications. It concluded:

"The Soviet Government fears a free interchanges of ideas because of a realization that 30 years of Communism have failed to provide the patient Soviet people with a living standard anywhere approximating that enjoyed by the workers in the United States."

The report was issued as a public document.

Says Free Thought Is Stifled

It declared that the Russians have been deprived by the Soviet regime of freedom of thought and action, "which, once experienced through contact with American people or American books, will make them ill-content with their life in the Soviet Union."

The report bristled with denunciation of Moscow "evasions," "suspicions" and "spy phobia." It was published on the eve of the opening tomorrow in New York of a "cultural and scientific conference for world peace." The United States granted entry permits to 21 delegates from Russia and Communist-run eastern European countries.

Explaining that "notable Communist propagandists" were granted visas because of the American policy of free exchange of ideas, the State Department said that "the Soviet Government has never permitted within its borders an international meeting representing a wide range of political views."

Shapley Invitations Futile

The report disclosed that Prof. Harlow Shapley, Harvard astronomer who heads the sponsors of the New York conference, submitted invitations to several Soviet scientists to visit Harvard, Chicago, Princeton and other American universities, but Moscow rebuffed or ignored scores of such invitations over the past several years.

Beginning in wartime 1943, the United States has pressed Moscow with repeated proposals for closer cultural relations.

"The Soviet Government persistently pursued an obdurate policy," the report said. "First the resistance was of a passive nature, delayed replies, incomplete replies, failures to reply.

Rejections Become Clearer

"Then after the summer of 1947, rejections became more definite, based upon positive although specious reasons, such as overcrowded housing conditions and psychological fears allegedly incited by the United States Alien Registration Act.

"Finally, in 1948, the Soviet Government took the open position of refusal to participate in cultural interchange with the United States because of suspicions that American motives behind the program were aimed at undermining Soviet security. . . .

Artist Control Tightened

"The mounting tight control exercised over Soviet artists and scientists, and the increasing attacks upon those who maintained contacts with fellow specialists in the free world, have also poisoned the atmosphere and inhibited Soviet individuals."

The Kremlin, said the report, must keep Russians from outside contacts to "induce its citizens to tolerate the obvious failure of the Soviet system to provide for their needs, and to accept, at least passively, the oppressive aspects of the Soviet state."

Stressed Points

The State Department made these points:

1. Mostly before and during the war the United States made many contributions to Russia, particularly in technical know-how. Prime Minister Stalin was quoted as having said in an interview in June, 1944, that about two thirds of all the large industrial enterprises in the Soviet Union had been built with United States material aid or technical assistance. Moscow apparently decided, said the report, that to let this process continue would weaken the Soviet "iron grip" on the Russian people.

2. In December, 1946, when Stalin was quoted as favoring a broad cultural exchange with the United States, Ambassador Walter B. Smith followed up an attempt to pin down the sentiment with action, but after delays of weeks "the matter ended."

3. Russia made clear a decision to have virtually no cultural relations with the United States when the American Council of Learned Societies sent Prof. Ernest J. Simmons, of Columbia University, to Moscow in mid-1947 with specific proposals. He met with "an utter lack of response, delaying tactics, and outright refusals based upon obviously trivial excuses."

4. Since then Russia has made it a criminal offense for Soviet citizens to divulge information of virtually any kind to foreigners. American exchange proposals have been vehemently attacked as concealing evil motives. Nevertheless individual Russian scientists have made it clear they favor cultural exchanges. One was Dr. Vasili V. Parin, former secretary general of the Soviet Academy of Medical Sciences. He came to the United States in late 1946, but after his return to Moscow "apparently vanished."

Britain's Trade Policy Issue In Senate

Washington, March 24 (AP)—Senator Knowland (R., Cal.) voiced a fear today that Great Britain is preparing to change her trade policy and ship war materials to Russia and her satellites. He injected the issue into opening debate on a $5,580,000,000 fifteen-month extension of the Marshall plan.

There was quick reassurance from Senators Connally (D., Texas) and Vandenberg (R., Mich.) that the fear is groundless.

Knowland referred to a dispatch from London. This dispatch quoted Harold Wilson, president of the Board of Trade, as saying that Britain will be guided in her trade policy "solely" by economic advantages.

Asks About Meaning

Knowland asked if this means Britain is going to set no limitation on shipment of equipment to Russia and her satellites "even though it may add to their war potential."

"I can not believe," Connally said, "that the sole consideration would be only pecuniary advantage."

Connally said the nations co-operating in the recovery program have been making an honest effort to keep war materials from Russia.

"We are trying to keep out of the hands of totalitarian powers anything that would be valuable in a military way," Connally said. "Our reports are we are receiving fine co-operation."

Good-Faith Effort

Vandenberg said it is "clear that a good-faith effort is being made."

"I think I can testify," he added, "that there is complete good faith in the effort made to keep the (East-West) trade on the standards we set for ourselves."

He said it is his understanding that the State Department will receive an official memorandum from Great Britain that trade with Russia will not be allowed to come in conflict with the terms of the proposed North Atlantic security alliance.

Connally's Plea

In his opening plea for the foreign-aid extension Connally said European recovery has the right-of-way over any military program to support the North Atlantic Pact.

"I should like to make it clear," Connally told the Senate, "the basic policy of the United States Government is to accord economic recovery a clear priority."

Connally opened debate on the $5,580,000,000 program to aid western Europe in the next fifteen months. Some Senators have suggested chopping from $1,000,000,000 to $2,280,000,000 from the total.

Authorization Bill

But Connally urged his colleagues to approve the authorization bill in full. It puts a limit on the amount to be spent by the Economic Co-operation Administration, but it does not provide the actual cash. This would be done by appropriation.

Senator Lucas (D., Ill.), the majority leader, told his colleagues he hopes the Senate can reach a final vote on the ECA by tomorrow afternoon. He said that if it doesn't there will be a night session to complete action.

Connally said the question has been raised whether "the contemplated military assistance program will interfere with the execution of the recovery program by the diversion of European manpower and materials for defense purposes."

While no definite answer can be given at this time, Connally said, "the military assistance program should, in fact, have a beneficial effect on economic recovery by strengthening the feeling of confidence and security."

is complete good faith in the effort made to keep the (East-West) trade on the standards we set for ourselves."

Vandenberg said he understood the state department will receive an official British memorandum pledging that trade with Russia will not conflict with the terms of the proposed North Atlantic alliance.

The senate began debate on new funds for the Marshall plan under a tentative two-day time limit set by administration leaders who hoped to clear it by today.

President Truman has asked $5,580,000,000 for the No. 2 installment in U. S. aid to non-Communist nations of Western Europe. Several Republican senators have proposed cutting it to at least $3,000,000,000.

Connally, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, opened the debate with a strong plea to the senate to authorize the full amount. The Texan declared that any substantial cuts would be "a tragic mistake" and would seriously retard European recovery.

Senators Discount Fears Of British Sales to Reds

MAR 25 1949

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Senate foreign policy leaders quickly discounted fears yesterday that Great Britain might be preparing to ship war materials to Russia and the Soviet satellite nations.

The question was raised by Sen. Knowland (R), Calif., as the senate opened debate on how many billions of dollars the United States should pour into the second installment of European recovery aid.

Dispatch Quoted

Knowland cited a London dispatch quoting Harold Wilson, president of the British board of trade, as saying Britain will be guided in her trade policy "solely" by economic advantages.

Knowland asked if this meant Britain planned to lift restrictions on the shipment of equipment to Russia and her satellites "even tho it may add to their war potential."

Sens. Connally (D), Tex., and Vandenberg (R), Mich., gave swift assurances that this was not the case.

Connally said the Marshall plan nations have been making an honest effort to keep war materials away from Russia and said he could not believe that Britain would be motivated only by "pecuniary advantage."

"We are trying to keep out of the hands of totalitarian powers anything that would be valuable in a military way," Connally said. "Our reports are we are receiving fine co-operation."

Vandenberg said:

"I think I can testify that there

Americans Also Involved, House Report Reveals

WASHINGTON. (AP) — The house un-American activities committee said yesterday that "thousands of Russian agents" and more thousands of Americans are spying in the United States right now.

It said some of the spies "may" be attached to the Russian embassy or the United Nations.

And in a time of national crisis, the committee said, "the United States would have nearly 825,000 persons who are either spies, traitors or saboteurs working against us from within."

Fears Swap of Ideas

The statements were made in a pamphlet titled "Spotlight on Spies." Its publication was only one of several developments of the day bearing on U. S. relations with the Soviet world and the committee's own proceedings.

Others included:

1. The state department made public a report declaring that "the Soviet government fears a free interchange of ideas" with the west because 30 years of Communism have failed to give the Soviet people a living standard even approximating that of Americans. The report was timed for the opening of the three-day "world peace" conference in New York which the state department has predicted will be a sounding board for Communist propaganda.

2. The number of Soviet bloc delegates to the "peace" conference was cut from 21 to 19 when visas were denied two Romanians. The entry permits were denied because the Romanian government refused to send the delegates as officials rather than as private individuals.

ORGANIZER SERVED

3. Steve Nelson, Western Pennsylvania Communist organizer, was served at Pittsburgh with a subpoena for his appearance at an un-American activities committee hearing here tentatively scheduled for April 18. Earlier, a committee member said that Nelson couldn't be located in his usual haunts. But Nelson accepted the subpoena at his office and expressed surprise that subpoena servers had not been able to find him. The committee wants to question him about the American Slav congress.

The house committee's estimate that there are 825,000 potential spies, traitors or saboteurs in the United States was based on some old figures of FBI director J. Edgar Hoover—74,000 Communist party members and Communist claims that for every member 'There are 10 others ready, willing and able to do the party work."

What the current crop of spies wants most, the committee said, are "production secrets of the atom bomb." It said it knows some of the secrets have been stolen, but not how much of the bomb formula.

The committee mentioned no names of suspects in its pamphlet, which is mainly in question and answer form.

The committee said it has uncovered recent secret orders from abroad, to spy leaders here, listing 20-odd classes of information that is wanted on America's armed strength.

It said it knows of cases in which Russian agents or Americans working with them have made off with secrets on aviation, submarines, and industrial processes.

Because we let our Russian allies inspect this country and its defense industries during the war, the committee said, the Soviets have been able to print "a thick book which can easily be used as a handbook for bombing and sabotage against the United States."

HAS CONFESSIONS

The committee said it has "confessions to prove that treasonable Americans are the actual thieves for Red spy networks in this country. But it said Communists trained in espionage actually direct the work.

It said they get into this country on fake travel papers, as commercial agents, or as official representatives of the Soviet government in Washington or at the United Nations.

Is this country doing anything to protect itself from Red spies?

The FBI and military and naval intelligence are on the job, the committee says. But it wants every patriotic American to be "on the alert and report all suspicious activities" to these agencies, local police or to the committee itself.

What else should be done? The committee says:

Efforts to root out spies and send them to jail or Russia should be redoubled. Communists must be exposed. New laws should provide "tougher penalties" for anyone stealing secret information for Russia.

AIR DATA COLLECTED

The committee says it knows of a Russian agent who collected a "huge store of confidential aviation data" with the help of other spies. It was said to contain photos, blueprints and notes "which were personally flown to Moscow by the chairman of the then Soviet purchasing commission."

It says blueprints, photos and technical descriptions have been sneaked out of American submarine companies.

One Vote Kills Pension Bill For Veterans

MAR 25 1949

Debate Bitter; Truman Happy Over Outcome

BY MORGAN REYNOLDS

WASHINGTON. (AP) — In a final jittery flip-flop ballot, the house yesterday killed the Rankin veterans' pension bill—by a one-vote margin.

Ironically, the death stroke was administered on the initiative of a world war 2 veteran.

President Truman told his news conference later he was exceedingly happy over the outcome. He called it a forward-looking action.

3-Day Quarrel

The sudden end to Rep. John E. Rankin's efforts to put across his multi-billion dollar measure climaxed three days of quarrelsome debate during which the house members changed their votes five times before shelving the bill.

On the showdown the tally was 208 to 207 to send the riddled legislation back to the veterans committee for "further study." That group, headed by the fiery Mississippi Democrat, possibly might try to redraft a veterans aid bill for later consideration, but Rankin, himself, indicated no such effort was in prospect.

"That kills this legislation for this congress," he said.

And as he stalked, red faced, from the chamber, Rankin told a reporter:

"They were organized against us and ran over us."

When Rankin confidently brought his pension bill before the house Tuesday it was drafted to provide $90 a month for veterans of both world wars when they reached the age of 65, regardless of their financial needs.

HEAVY WITH CHANGES

But, by the time the final rejection vote was tallied, the measure was so weighted with amendments that even its author could scarcely recognize it.

It was a combat veteran, Rep. Olin E. Teague, of College Station, Tex., who set off the legislative machinery to halt the Rankin bill.

The 30-year-old Democrat, holder of 11 decorations, won election to the house in 1946 while a patient at the army's Walter Reed hospital.

Teague moved to strike out the measure's enacting clause—that vital part of bill which would put it into effect if enacted.

That motion lost on a standing vote, 169 to 158.

But Teague demanded a teller vote, and when the members had marched down the aisles, the count was 171 to 168 in favor.

The Texan then asked the house to send the bill back to the committee.

This brought the most tense and confused moment of all as the lawmakers made public their decision in a roll call vote. Under similar circumstances two days earlier they had voted off the record to shelve the bill, then changed their minds on the roll call test.

As the count was in progress, two Pennsylvania Democrats, Reps. Barrett and Granaham—changed their votes to side with the Rankin bill foes.

RECOUNT ORDERED

On The Associated Press score sheet these switches changed the unofficial total from 209 to 206 against to 208 to 207 in favor of the Teague motion. But the clerks erroneously reported the result as 209 to 208 against the motion.

Acting Speaker John McCormack (D) Mass., on his own initiative immediately ordered a recount.

The house fell silent as the clerks droned off the names of each member and how they had voted. It was so quiet the click of the automatic counting machines resounded thru the chamber. When the last name had been called and the votes counted — with no changes — they added up to 208 to 207—in favor of Teague's motion to shelve the bill. There were 151 Democrats and 57 Republicans for it; opposed were 100 Democrats, 106 Republicans and one American Laborite.

30.24- 1983

It was the closest vote on a major bill in the house since Aug. 12, 1941. That was when, by another one-vote margin, the lawmakers approved extension of the draft law.

TO 'LET CHINA GO': MCCARRAN

MAR 25 1949

U.S. To Put No Props Under Regime, Senator Asserts

Washington, March 24 (AP)—Senator McCarran (D., Nev.) said today the State Department has decided to "let China go" without any effort to put props under the failing Nationalist Government.

McCarran said this was the general policy the State Department set forth in a report to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

The report was made recently in connection with a bill by McCarran to give a $1,500,000,000 credit to China.

Senator Connally (D., Texas), committee chairman, sent the bill to Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, with a request for comment. The department's reply has been received by Connally but he has not made it public. The full committee has not seen it.

Chinese Sick Of War

McCarran said he understands the State Department has decided there is little chance of the Nationalist Government making a comeback.

It is the belief of department officials, he added, that the Chinese are "sick of war," have no fight left in them, and there is no stability left in the Nationalist Government.

"All they have done," McCarran said, "is to throw cats and dogs at the Nationalist Government."

But McCarran said he has information from reputable sources that all Chiang Kai-shek needs to make a comeback is at least "token aid" from this country.

"I can't see why we should spend billions in Europe," McCarran said, "and let communism become rooted in Asia. I can't see why we try to raise the iron curtain in Europe and pull it down in Asia."

Bill Not Considered

McCarran said the Foreign Relations Committee has not yet considered his bill or the report from the State Department. The State Department refused to release the report publicly tonight, saying it was made to a congressional committee. It said it had no objection to the committee chairman releasing it if he desired. Connally indicated he might release it soon.

McCarran said his next step will be to press the committee to consider aid for China. The purpose, he said, is to give economic aid to China and bolster the sagging Nationalist armies with trained American field officers and war supplies.

Fears Philippines Would Follow

McCarran said he is fearful that if China goes completely communistic, then all Asia will fall under Communist domination.

"The Philippines may go the same way," McCarran said, "and then we'll have communism at our very door."

The significance of the report is that it is said to outline this Government's policy toward China for the first time since the victories of the Communist army.

Truman Signs Measure For Palestine Relief

Washington, March 24 (AP)—President Truman today signed a resolution authorizing a $16,000,000 contribution by the United States for the relief of Palestine refugees.

In a statement, the President said there is a pressing need for such relief since 700,000 refugees are living "almost on starvation level."

The United Nations general assembly has urged member nations to make voluntary contributions to a relief fund. It aims for a total of $32,000,000.

The resolution makes $8,000,000 available immediately from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Congress will have to pass additional legislation in order to provide the remainder.

General Vandegrift Will Retire April 1

Washington, March 24 (AP)—Gen. Alexander A. Vandegrift, veteran of the Guadalcanal fighting and commandant of the Marine Corps from 1944-48, will retire April 1, it was announced today.

General Vandegrift was succeeded as commandant in January, 1948, by Gen. Clifton B. Cates and since has held no regular-duty assignment. He reached the statutory retirement age of 62 on March 13.

The General and Mrs. Vandegrift are now visiting their son in Hawaii. Early in April, the Marine Corps said, they will return home to Lynchburg, Va.

FOREIGN OFFICER HONORED

Navy Awards Legion of Merit to Portuguese Attache

WASHINGTON, March 24 (AP)—The Navy today awarded the Legion of Merit, Degree of Officer, to Comdr. J. Henriques Jorge, Portuguese naval attaché in Washington, for services to the United States during the last war.

The award was presented by Admiral Louis E. Denfeld, Chief of Naval Operations, in a ceremony at the Pentagon.

The citation commended Commander Jorge for whole-hearted cooperation in all matters concerned with the mutual naval interests of his country and of the United States.

He was cited for "invaluable assistance" to the Navy port director at Philadelphia, Pa., in expediting the movement of Portuguese merchant vessels.

No Policy Change Seen

Washington, March 24 (AP)—No immediate change in Soviet military policy as the result of a change in ministers controlling the armed forces was foreseen by United States officials tonight.

They said the transfer was unexpected.

The American officials were unable to say just what the significance might be but they said they felt that no immediate change in Russia's attitude was likely.

Subpoena Served On Pa. Communist

Pittsburgh, March 24 (AP)—Steve Nelson, western Pennsylvania Communist official, today was served with a subpoena to appear at Congressional hearings on the American Slav Congress.

The subpoena was served by a House committee agent in Nelson's office in downtown Pittsburgh.

Nelson said he was told by his wife that a representative of the Un-American Activities Committee was waiting at his home for him to return there. Nelson said he told his wife to send the agent to his office.

He expressed surprise that subpoena servers had not been able to find him.

Dinner Canceled At Philadelphia

Philadelphia, March 24 (AP)—The Broadwood Hotel today canceled a reservation for a dinner for Dmitri Shostakovich, Russian composer.

It was the second Philadelphia rebuff in three days to Shostakovich. Town Hall, privately owned like the hotel, rejected a proposed concert.

The Philidelphia Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions had set both affairs for next Wednesday. Unable to get Town Hall the organization announced today the concert would be held at the Met April 4.

The Philadelphia chapter of the American Veterans Committee announced passage of a resolution condemning the refusals.

The hotel management said its action was taken after receipt of a number of protests "and having given particular weight to the threat of possible violence."

The American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars had threatened to picket the dinner.

7 More Reported Quitting 'World Peace' Sessions

MAR 25 1949

New York, March 24 (AP)—Withdrawal of seven more prominent persons from the controversial cultural and scientific conference for world peace was reported today.

Americans for Intellectual Freedom, a group opposing the conference, listed seven headed by Franklin Pierce Adams, the newspaper columnist known as F.P.A.

Sponsors of the three-day conference, the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions, said, however, that only two on the list had sent them notices of withdrawal. They said the two were Adams and Rabbi Mordecai M. Kaplan, of the Jewish Theological Seminary.

Others Withdrawing

The Intellectual Freedom group listed, in addition to Adams and Rabbi Kaplan, these persons:

Canada Lee, Negro actor; Prof. Rexford Guy Tugwell, of the University of Chicago; Lynn Riggs, playwright; the Rev. Karl Corowsky, minister of a Brooklyn Unitarian church, and Prof. Ernest Hocking, of Harvard University.

The Arts, Sciences and Professions group said that Tugwell had sent in a copy of a letter he had written to a third party, dated March 16, in which he said he would not withdraw.

Invited To Visit Factories

Russian delegates to the conference today were invited to inspect major American factories, as opponents went ahead with plans to picket the week-end meetings.

The invitation to tour this country's industrial areas was extended to the Soviet group by the National Association of Manufacturers. Routed through Soviet Ambassador Alexander Panyushkin, the invitation expressed belief that such tours would further world peace "as the peoples of the world come to know how one another work and live . . ."

There was no indication from Soviet sources as to whether the Russians would accept.

Writes Composer Separately

In a separate letter to Dmitri Shostakovich, famed composer and leader of the Russian delegation, President Wallace F. Bennett of the N.A.M. said he hoped Panyushkin would approve the tour.

"We hope sincerely that the Ambassador's approval will be forthcoming speedily," Bennett wrote, "and that you and your compatriots will be able to take advantage of this opportunity to see American men and women at work and prospering under our system of free, individual enterprise."

Bennett said the N.A.M. would pay all the expenses of the Russians and work out with them an itinerary which could be completed within the time the delegates are scheduled to remain in this country.

Police Ban Mass Picketing At N.Y. 'World Peace' Rally

MAR 25 1949

New York, March 24 (AP)—The eve of a "world peace" conference today saw the arrival of more foreign delegates, a police rule against mass picketing and a controversy over who is and isn't resigning from the list of sponsors.

Police officials conferring on the handling of pickets at the conference in the Waldorf Astoria said a "reasonable amount of picketing" would be permitted and sidewalks outside the hotel would be kept sufficiently clear to permit pedestrians to pass. They did not say how many would be allowed.

Earlier reports of the number of pickets planned by protesting groups ranged from 20,000 to 100,000.

The sponsorship controversy found the supporting group, the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions, claiming that only two out of 560 sponsors had said they were resigning.

The Americans for Intellectual

Freedom, set up to protest the peace conference, claimed eight had resigned.

Columnist Heads List

They were, said the freedom group, Franklin P. Adams, columnist; Canada Lee, Negro actor; Prof. Rexford Guy Tugwell, of the University of Chicago; Lynn Riggs, playwright; Rabbi Mordecai M. Kaplan, of the Jewish Theological Seminary; the Rev. Karl Chworowsky, Brooklyn Unitarian minister; Prof. Ernest Hocking, of Dartmouth College, and Rabbi Herbert S. Goldstein, of the West Side Institutional Synagogue.

The national council said it had received word from Adams and Kaplan that they were resigning as sponsors.

But, said the council, Hocking, Chworowsky, Riggs and Tugwell all had denied resigning and reiterated their support of the conference, which the State Department has charged would be a sounding board for Communist propaganda. Council officials have denied this.

Not Sure He'll Attend

Canada Lee said tonight he was going to wire the council saying he was not a sponsor.

"I never signed anything and you've got to sign the thing before you become a sponsor," he said.

Rabbi Goldstein in a statement said he hadn't resigned as a sponsor and was opposed to "suppression of free speech" but wasn't sure he would attend the meetings.

"This is no time to force upon our country a warmongering spirit," he said. "The Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace will show its true colors one way or the other."

Tonight one sponsor, not mentioned by the protestants, Lisa Sergio, lecturer and radio commentator, said she was resigning.

Vassar President Quit

"The manner in which the conference seems now to be directed gives me no assurance that it can achieve the purpose for which it was originally planned, namely, the strengthening of peace and true freedom everywhere and the honest clarification of misunderstanding among nations and their peoples."

Previously Sarah Gibson Blanding, president of Vassar College, and Dr. Donovan J. McCune, Columbia University professor, announced their withdrawals as sponsors.

The sciences and professions council said tonight Prof. Colston Warne, of Amherst College in Massachusetts, had issued a statement saying the conference is "in the best American tradition."

Shapley Invited To Speak

"It is therefore most regrettable," his statement added, "that a studied attempt has been made to create an atmosphere of hysteria, marked by appeals to irrational prejudice and gross misrepresentation of the aims and purposes of the conference."

The intellectual freedom group, which will hold a counter rally Saturday, has asked Dr. Harlow Shapley, Harvard astronomer and chairman of the council, to speak at that meeting "as you please."

Dr. Shapley did not say today whether he would speak, but last week said it would be "physically impossible" for him to do so.

Yugoslavs Shouted At

As four Yugoslavian delegates arrived by plane today, bystanders shouted at them: "Why don't you go, you Communists. We don't want you here."

The delegates refused to talk to reporters at the airport.

An invitation to the Russian delegation to the peace conference to inspect major American factories went out today from the National Association of Manufacturers.

Letter To Shostakovich

The invitation was routed through Alexander Panyushkin, Soviet Ambassador, in Washington.

In a separate letter to Dmitri Shostakovich, composer and a member of the Russian delegation, Walter F. Bennett, manufacturers association president, said:

"We hope sincerely that the ambassador's approval will be forthcoming speedily and that you and your compatriots will be able to take advantage of this opportunity to see American men and women at work and prospering under our system of free individual enterprise."

The association offered to pay all expenses and work out an itinerary to suit the convenience of the Russian visitors.

alin Urged Use Of Force Here, Jurors Told

MAR 25 1949

New York, March 24 (AP)—The Communist conspiracy trial jury was told today that Russian Premier Stalin once said "violent destruction" was essential to proletarian revolution in the United States.

The statement was in a book, "Foundations Of Lenin," by Stalin. Excerpts from it were read to the jury by United States Attorney John F. X. McGohey.

The book was one of several publications identified by Louis F. Budenz, one-time Communist party official who is the Government's first witness. He said he used the publications constantly in his ten years of party work.

Violence Called Necessary

Stalin's book said the proletarian revolution in this country "is impossible without the violent destruction of the machinery of the bourgeois state and its replacement by the machinery of the proletariat state."

The dictatorship of the proletariat for which Communists work is a domination "untrammeled by law and based on violence," the book asserted.

A "Manual of Organization of the Communist Party," introduced into evidence over vociferous defense objections, declared that the final objective of the American Communist party is to establish "a Soviet socialist republic in the United States."

"Ready To Sacrifice Lives"

Such a republic was to be established through a revolution in which party members "must be ready to sacrifice their lives," the manual said.

Budenz identified the manual as a duplicate of one given him by Jacob Stachel, a defendant.

Defense counsel said the publication was issued in 1935 and should be excluded because the indictment covers a conspiracy alleged to have taken place between 1945 and 1948.

Federal Judge Harold Medina overruled the objections.

Lawyer Is Rebuked

He then added a warning that if defense counsel continued to make lengthy statements on such points, he would restrict them to a few words in making objections.

The Judge also rebuked a defense lawyer, Richard F. Gladstein, for creating "a form of disorder in the courtroom." The attorney had interrupted the prosecutor, who was making an objection.

Gladstein said he meant no disorder.

"Then stop it," Medina snapped.

Armed Forces Needed

McGohey read one passage from the manueal which said "our task is to make every party member a professional revolutionist."

The party "demands everything" from revolutionists, the manual said, including willingness to leave his family for months or even years.

The prosecutor then read from a book, "Why Communism," which Budenz said also was given him by Stachel.

"The truth is," McGohey read, "a revolution cannot be won unless the framed forces or at least a part of them join the workers.

Should Use Poison Gas

"Once they join, the workers have not only rifles and cannon but also airships and poison gas and battleships to fight the bosses. Poison gases are destructive to be sure, but their destructive power can also be turned against the old system.

"There is no reason why the workers should not use them against the enemy when the final conflict has arrived.

" 'But this is force and violence,' someone will contend. 'Don't you Communists know that the use of force and violence is wrong?' We reply to this that if being a red-bloded American means anything, it means you must not take punishment lying down."

STALIN'S BOOK CITED AT TRIAL IN NEW YORK

MAR 25 1949

Excerpts Read In Effort To Prove Communists Plan Violence

New York, March 24 (AP)—Writings of Joseph Stalin were read to the jury at the Communist conspiracy trial today in the Government's effort to prove the party plans to use violence in seizing control of the United States.

John F. X. McGohey, United State attorney, read several excerpts from "Foundations of Leninism" written by the Russian Premier.

This publication was one of several identified by Louis Budenz, one-time high Communist official but now an arch-foe of the party. Budenz is the first Government witness.

McGohey quoted Stalin as declaring that the proletarian revolution in the United States "is impossible without the violent destruction of the machinery of the bourgeois state and its replacement by the machinery of the proletariat state."

Communist Manual Cited

Another book read by the prosecutor, "Why Communism," suggested that Communist revolutionists were justified in using poison gases "to fight the bosses."

A third publication admitted into evidence, a "Manual of Organization of the Communist Party," asserted the final objective of the American Communist party is to establish a "Soviet Socialist Republic in the United States."

Budenz, former member of the American party's "Politburo" who renounced communism in 1945, said all these publications were given to him by Jacob Stachel, one of the eleven party leaders who are defendants in the trial.

Other Excerpts Read

He testified he used the books and manual constantly through his decade of party service. His duties included editorship of the Daily Worker, Communist New York newspaper.

The defendants are charged with conspiring to advocate the forcible overthrow of the United States Government.

Other excerpts read to the jury included, from "Foundations of Leninism" by Stalin:

A dictatorship of the proletariat is "untrammeled by law and violence" and "cannot be complete democracy, democracy for all, for rich and poor alike," but "must be a state that is democratic in a new way."

"Why Communism" Quoted

Karl Marx, a founder of communism, said in 1871 there was a possibility socialism might come to power peacefully in the United States and England but "today, in 1917, the exception by Marx is no longer valid."

MAR 25 1949

From "Why Communism":

"Under the leadership of the Communist party, the workers of the U.S.A. will proceed from struggle to struggle, from victory to victory, until rising in a revolution, they will crush the socialist state, establish the Soviet state, abolish the cruel and bloody system of capitalism.

"The truth is a revolution cannot be won unless the armed forces or at least a part of them join the workers.

Force And Violence Cited

"Once they join, the workers have not only rifles and cannon but also airships and poison gas and battleships, to fight the bosses. Poison gases are destructive, to be sure, but their destructive power can also be turned against the old system.

"There is no reason why the workers should not use them against the enemy when the final conflict has arrived.

" 'But this is force and violence,' someone will contend. 'Don't you Communists know that the use of force and violence is wrong?' We reply to this that if being a red-blooded American means anything, it means you must not take punishment lying down."

Party Manual Quoted

From the party organization manual:

Party members "must be ready to sacrifice their lives" to establish a socialist Soviet republic in this country.

"Our task it to make every party member a professional revolutionist" ready to make any sacrifice, including absence from home for months or even years.

The organization manual was written by J. V. Peters, alias Alexander Stevens, who has been described as the head of the Communist underground in America.

Budenz said the author of "Why Communism" was the late M. J. Olgin, one-time editor of the Daily Freiheit, which the witness described as a Communist paper published here.

'EXPEDIENCY' LAID TO WEST

Romulo Criticizes Approach To Indonesian Case

MAR 25 1949

New York, March 24 (AP)— Carlos P. Romulo charged tonight that "expediency" instead of "principle" dictated the Western Powers' approach to the Dutch-Indonesian conflict.

The Philippine Ambassador to the United Nattions told the Fordham University International Club that the Wets ignored objectivity in its treatment of the situation.

"It's the old Europe-first policy operating in another guise," he declared, adding:

"They regard the Indonesian problem as they have regarded most of the problems of Asia and the Far East—not objectively and on their intrinsic merits.

Just Aspect Of Security

"Thus they tend to view Indonesia as just another aspect of Western security. They do not ask themselves if the Indonesian people should be granted the freedom to which they are entitled, but how that freedom would affect the interests of the Netherlands and the well-being of Europe?"

Romulo was particularly critical of the United States.

He declared the United States had been "tolerant" of Dutch action in Indonesia "because she didn't want to jeopardize success of the European Recovery Program. She has been more tolerant than merits of the case and her own sympathies warrant."

He said the United States cut off Marshall plan aid to Indonesia but "kept intact allocations to the Netherlands in spite of the fact that these could be easily siphoned off to support Dutch military operations in Indonesia."

No Alliance Injunction

He added that under terms of the Atlantic defense alliance "there is no injunction to prevent use of American-furnished arms against Indonesia if the Dutch would decide to continue their so-called police action there."

Romulo charged Britain and France were even "more sympathetic" to the Dutch—because they have colonial troubles of their own, in Malaya and Indo-China.

Romulo said Asian nations saw the Indonesian problem "strictly as a matter of right and justice.

"They stand firmly, uncompromisingly on the proposition that Indonesia should be granted its freedom because it is by right entitled to independence. Asia sees no distinction between the Nazi aggression that enslaved the Netherlands during the war and Dutch aggression which now holds the Indonesian people in bondage."

China Delegate's Wife Brings Suit; Seeks Aid Of U.N.

Lake Success, N.Y., March 24 (AP). Mrs. Ting Fu Tsiang, estranged wife of China's chief delegate to the United Nations, asked the agency's commission on human rights today to look into her suit for a separation.

She has accused Tsiang of adultery. The New York Supreme Court rejected her suit on grounds that Tsiang enjoys diplomatic immunity.

She asked the commission to "spare a moment from its work on the rights of people all over the world in order that it might look into a situation concerning members of its official family." She said she could get relief only through the United Nations or through United States congressional action, voiding her husband's immunity.

Statements from nongovernmental sources, such as Mrs. Tsiang's, are circulated to commission members upon request. Otherwise no action is taken. 1085

LONDON--THIRD ADD BULGANIN (ORIGINAL) X X X AUGUST, 1945.
--DASH--
MARSHAL VASILEVSKY, REGARDED AS A PROTEGE OF PRIME MINISTER STALIN, IS A MEMBER OF A GROUP OF YOUNG RUSSIAN OFFICERS WHO FORGED TO THE TOP IN THE HARD SCHOOL OF THE LAST WAR.
HIS SWIFT RISE IS DUE IN PART TO HIS WORK AT THE RUSSIAN STALINGRAD AND VORONEZH FRONTS. VASILEVSKY ROSE FOUR RANKS BETWEEN 1941 AND 145--FROM MAJOR GENERAL, THE LOWEST GENERAL RANK IN THE RED ARMY, TO MARSHAL.
HE WAS COMMANDER OF THE THIRD WHITE RUSSIAN ARMY WHICH CLEANED

UP THE GERMAN POCKET IN EAST PRUSSIA AS THE RUSSIANS MOVED ON BERLIN.
AT THE SAME TIME HE WAS, DURING THE CRITICAL PERIOD OF THE WAR, ONE OF THE SIX OR SEVEN MEMBERS OF STALIN'S SUPREME COMMAND WHICH MAPPED OVERALL STRATEGY.
IN THE FIRST WORLD WAR HE WAS DRAFTED FOR MILITARY SERVICE IN THE CZAR'S ARMY, SERVING IN A COSSACK REGIMENT. HIS CAREER SINCE THE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION IS SIMILAR TO THAT OF MANY OTHER MILITARY LEADERS.
VASILEVSKY SIDED WITH THE BOLSHEVIKS DURING THE REVOLUTION AND THEN JOINED THE RED ARMY. HE SPENT MOST OF THE TIME BETWEEN THE TWO WORLD WARS STUDYING LARGE-SCALE MILITARY OPERATIONS.
BULGANIN BEGAN HIS CAREER AS A BANKER. HE SERVED AS CHAIRMAN OF THE STATE BANK OF THE U.S.S.R., AND THEN BECAME PROMINENT IN MILITARY AFFAIRS WHEN HE WAS APPOINTED A MEMBER OF THE MILITARY COUNCIL DURING THE DEFENSE OF MOSCOW IN 1941.
IN THE ROLE OF MINISTER OF THE ARMED FORCES, HE EXERCISED SUPERVISION OVER MILLIONS OF MEN AND RUBLES. HE BROUGHT TO THAT POST A TALENT FOR ORGANIZATION, A PASSION FOR EFFICIENCY, AND A PERSONAL GIFT FOR DEALING WITH LARGE NUMBERS. A GRAYING GOATEE MATCHES HIS GRAYING HAIR.
HE FIRST CAME INTO PROMINENCE POLITICALLY WHEN HE SUCCEEDED DANIEL SOULIMOFF AS PREMIER OF THE RUSSIAN SOCIALIST FEDERATED SOVIET REPUBLIC IN 1937.
IN MARCH, 1947, BULGANIN BECAME A VICE-CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS--DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER; THE SAME MONTH HE BECAME MINISTER OF THE ARMED FORCES, AND HE WAS PROMOTED FROM GENERAL TO MARSHAL IN NOVEMBER, 1947.
AT VARIOUS TIMES HE HAS SERVED AS MEMBER OF THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF THE U.S.S.R. COMMUNIST PARTY; MEMBER OF THE PRESIDIUM OF THE MOSCOW SOVIET AND SOVIET REPRESENTATIVE ON THE POLISH COMMITTEE OF NATIONAL LIBERATION.

"I DO NOT WANT TO BREAK EAST-WEST TRADE," BEVIN SAID. HE CONTENDED SUCH A SHUT-OFF "MEANS SANCTIONS, AND SANCTIONS MEAN WAR."
HE ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT MATERIALS WHICH COULD BE USED IN A WAR AGAINST THE WESTERN POWERS SHOULD NOT BE SHIPPED TO EASTERN AREAS.
THE RUSSIAN ZONE OF GERMANY STILL DOES BUSINESS WITH A NUMBER OF WESTERN COUNTRIES, INCLUDING SWITZERLAND, THE NETHERLANDS, NORWAY, SWEDEN, BELGIUM AND DENMARK.
THE WESTERN ALLIES' COUNTER-BLOCKADE HAS STOPPED THE MOVEMENT OF GOODS THROUGH THEIR ZONE TO THE SOVIET AREA OF GERMANY, BUT EAST GERMANY STILL GETS SUPPLIES FROM SEVERAL WESTERN COUNTRIES OVER OTHER ROUTES, MOSTLY BY SEA.
BEVIN, SPEAKING IN A DEBATE ON EUROPEAN AFFAIRS, SAID THE WEST

HE SPOKE AFTER CONSERVATIVE HAROLD MACMILLAN HAD TOLD THE HOUSE HE EXPECTS RUSSIA WILL OFFER "A FAKE APPEASEMENT" AND SEEK A TREATY ENDING ALLIED OCCUPATION OF GERMANY.
MACMILLAN PREDICTED ALSO THE RUSSIANS WILL ATTEMPT "QUITE SHORTLY" A COUP IN YUGOSLAVIA AND GREECE IN AN EFFORT TO SEIZE CONTROL OF THE EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN.
IN THE HOUSE OF LORDS, WHERE A SIMILAR DEBATE WAS HELD, LORD PAKENHAM, MINISTER OF CIVIL AVIATION, WARNED THAT "THERE IS DANGER OF WAR THIS YEAR, AND I AM AFRAID THERE WILL BE FOR A NUMBER OF YEARS TO COME." HE EMPHASIZED "THAT DOES NOT MEAN THE GOVERNMENT THINKS WAR IS PROBABLE THIS YEAR," ALTHOUGH IT IS PREPARING TO MEET "ANY EMERGENCY."
BEVIN, WHO WILL LEAVE FOR WASHINGTON FRIDAY TO ATTEND THE SIGNING OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY, ASSURED COMMONS THAT "WESTERN GERMANY IS SAFE. I DON'T BELIEVE THAT THEY WILL GO COMMUNIST NOW."
"I BELIEVE EASTERN AND WESTERN GERMANY WILL UNITE," HE ADDED. "I DO NOT THINK ANYONE CAN STOP IT."

BY WES GALLAGHER

MAR 25 1949

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, MARCH 24-(AP)-THE PLAN TO CREATE A WESTERN GERMAN STATE HAS BUMPED INTO INCREASINGLY POWERFUL OPPOSITION.

INFORMED OBSERVERS NOW GIVE THE IDEA NO BETTER THAN A 50-50 CHANCE OF BEING WORKED OUT. THIS DARK OUTLOOK HAS TAKEN ROOT ONLY IN THE LAST FEW WEEKS.

THE COMMUNISTS HAVE BEEN OPPOSED RIGHT ALONG TO ANY WESTERN GERMAN GOVERNMENT. IT WOULD LEAVE OUT THEIR EASTERN ZONE OF GERMANY AND MINIMIZE COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN THE WEST.

IN THIS OPPOSITION THEY HAVE FOUND SOME STRANGE ALLIES, ACTING WITH DIFFERENT MOTIVES BUT THE SAME END AIM: NO WEST GERMAN STATE.

THIS OPPOSITION INCLUDES THE STRONG SOCIALIST PARTY IN WESTERN GERMANY, THE FRENCH MILITARY GOVERNMENT AND A NEW GERMAN NATIONALIST MOVEMENT WHICH AIMS AT A UNITED GERMANY.

THE OUTCOME OF THE DISPUTE IS IMPORTANT.

IF THE PRESENT GERMAN CONSTITUTIONAL ASSEMBLY AT BONN FAILS TO ADOPT A CONSTITUTION FOR WESTERN GERMANY, AMERICAN AND BRITISH POLICY--WHICH CALLS FOR SETTING UP SUCH A STATE -- MUST UNDERGO A COMPLETE CHANGE.

THE BONN ASSEMBLY EARLY THIS MONTH WORKED OUT ITS IDEAS OF A WEST GERMAN CONSTITUTION AND OFFERED IT TO THE MILITARY GOVERNORS OF THE U.S., BRITAIN AND FRANCE. THE GOVERNORS RECOMMENDED CHANGES WHICH WOULD GIVE LESS POWER TO THE PROPOSED FEDERAL GOVERNMENT; MORE POWER TO THE STATES.

THE GERMAN SOCIALISTS, WHO HOLD 27 OF THE 65 VOTES IN THE ASSEMBLY, ARE INSISTENT ON A STRONG CENTRAL GOVERNMENT WITH STATE PLANNING. THE SOCIALISTS SAY THEY WON'T BACK DOWN. THEY APPARENTLY FIGURE THE WESTERN POWERS, IF THEY WANT A WESTERN GERMANY, WILL HAVE TO MAKE CONCESSIONS.

THE ASSEMBLY CAN'T ADOPT A CONSTITUTION WITHOUT THE SOCIALISTS SINCE A TWO-THIRDS VOTE IS NEEDED.

IT IS AN OPEN SECRET THAT FRENCH REPRESENTATIVES IN GERMANY HAVE WORKED CONTINUOUSLY AT BLOCKING THE PROPOSED WESTERN STATE. TWICE INVADED BY GERMAN ARMIES IN RECENT YEARS, FRANCE FEARS POSSIBLE REVIVAL OF A STRONG GERMANY.

A16

ACCORDING TO ONE REPORT THE FRENCH CONSUL GENERAL AT MUNICH TOLD GERMAN POLITICIANS FRANCE WOULD SUPPORT ONLY THE ENTRY OF INDIVIDUAL GERMAN STATES INTO THE WESTERN UNION DEFENSE FEDERATION. THE INFERENCE WAS IF THE WESTERN GERMANS BANDED TOGETHER THEY WOULD NEVER GET INTO THE EUROPEAN FAMILY OF NATIONS.

THUS THERE IS A STALEMATE BETWEEN THE DEMANDS OF THE SOCIALISTS FOR A STRONG CENTRAL GOVERNMENT AND THE FRENCH OPPOSITION TO CREATION OF SUCH A FEDERATION.

DR. RUDOLF NADOLNY, FORMER GERMAN AMBASSADOR TO RUSSIA, IS ONE OF THOSE PREACHING A UNITED REICH, COMPOSING THE SOVIET-CONTROLLED EASTERN ZONE AS WELL AS THE THREE WESTERN ZONES.

SOME SAY NADOLNY IS A SOVIET AGENT. OTHERS PASS HIM OFF AS A DREAMER. BUT REUNITING GERMANY IS ALWAYS A POPULAR IDEA TO THE NATIONALIST-MINDED GERMANS.

MAR 25 1949

WHAT MAY HAPPEN, ONE GROUP THINKS, IS CREATION OF THE PROPOSED WESTERN STATE WILL BE STALLED WHILE ALL PARTIES WAIT FOR SOMETHING TO HAPPEN.

A COMMUNIST-LED PEOPLE'S COUNCIL FOR EASTERN GERMANY LAST SATURDAY APPROVED A CONSTITUTION FOR THE SOVIET ZONE OF GERMANY. THIS MUST BE RATIFIED BY A PEOPLE'S CONGRESS.

THE PEOPLE'S COUNCIL, APPARENTLY FOR PROPAGANDA EFFECT, APPEALED TO THE WESTERN GERMAN LEADERS TO MEET THEM NEXT MONTH IN AN "ALL-GERMAN UNITY CONFERENCE." THIS APPEAL HAS MET WITH A COLD RECEPTION.

HJ329AES

THE STATEMENT SUGGESTED THAT POINTS OF DIFFERENCE IN PROPOSALS AND COUNTERPROPOSALS BETWEEN THE ASSEMBLY AND THE MILITARY GOVERNORS "DO NOT APPEAR TO BE SUCH AS TO PREVENT A QUICK AND SATISFACTORY AGREEMENT."

FRENCH OFFICIAL QUARTERS IN PARIS SAID THE THREE WESTERN POWERS WILL OPEN A TOP-LEVEL CONFERENCE ON GERMAN QUESTIONS IN WASHINGTON APRIL 6. U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON, FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER ROBERT SCHUMAN AND BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN WILL TRY TO SOLVE OUTSTANDING ISSUES ON THE PROJECTED OCCUPATION STATUTE FOR GERMANY, THE INFORMANTS SAID.

THE OCCUPATION STATUTE IS TO DEFINE THE SCOPE OF THE WESTERN ALLIES' CONTROL, THE POWERS OF GERMAN AUTHORITIES AND THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN GERMAN OFFICIALS AND ALLIED CONTROL GROUPS.

BY EDDY GILMORE

MOSCOW, ~~THURSDAY~~ FRIDAY, MARCH 25-(AP)-MARSHAL ALEXANDER M. VASILEVSKY HAS REPLACED MARSHAL NIKOLAI A. BULGANIN AS MINISTER OF THE ARMED FORCES OF THE SOVIET UNION, IT WAS ANNOUNCED TODAY.

VASILEVSKY HAD BEEN DEPUTY MINISTER OF THE ARMED FORCES. BOTH MEN WERE BORN IN 1895, WHICH WOULD MAKE THEM 54 YEARS OLD. (OTHER SOURCES GAVE BULGANIN'S AGE AS 53, VASILEVSKY'S AS 49.)

THE ANNOUNCEMENT, LIKE OTHERS MADE RECENTLY AFFECTING TOP SOVIET LEADERSHIP, CAME FROM THE PRESIDIUM OF THE SUPREME SOVIET (PARLIAMENT) AND APPEARED IN NEWSPAPERS UNDER THE HEADING OF "ANNOUNCEMENTS."

IT WAS FIRST MADE PUBLIC BY THE MOSCOW RADIO EARLY THIS MORNING AND LATER BY MORNING PAPERS.

BULGANIN IS A VICE CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS OF THE SOVIET UNION.

HE BECAME MINISTER OF THE ARMED FORCES ON MARCH 4, 1947, REPLACING PRIME MINISTER STALIN.

BULGANIN, IN ADDITION TO REMAINING A VICE CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS (DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER), ALSO RETAINED APPARENTLY HIS POST AS A MEMBER OF THE POLITBURO.

NASILEVSKY CAME OUT OF THE SECOND WORLD WAR WITH AN IMPRESSIVE REPORD.

HE BECAME A MAJOR GENERAL ON OCT. 29, 1941, AND BY JAN. 18, 1943, HAD BEEN SUCCESSIVELY PROMOTED TO GENERAL OF THE ARMY. IT WAS NOT LONG AFTER THAT HE BECAME CHIEF OF STAFF AND A MARSHAL.

HE BROKE THE GERMAN'S VORONEZH FRONT ON JAN. 17, 1943, AND HANDLED THE SOVIETS' SUCCESSFUL CRIMEAN CAMPAIGN IN 1944, LIBERATING

SEVASTOPOL.
VASILEVSKY IS WELL KNOWN TO NUMEROUS HIGH RANKING FOREIGN MILITARY MEN. THOSE WHO KNOW HIM PERSONALLY INCLUDE GEN.EISENHOWER AND FIELD MARSHAL VISCOUNT MONTGOMERY OF BRITAIN.
HE IS ALSO WELL KNOWN TO MANY FOREIGN MILITARY MEN WHO HAVE SERVED AS CHIEFS OF MILITARY MISSIONS TO THE U.S.S.R. OR AS MILITARY AND NAVAL ATTACHES HERE.

A115
HE IS ONE OF THE MOST DECORATED OFFICERS IN THE SOVIET ARMY AND HAS THE DISTINCTION OF BEING TWICE DECORATED A HERO OF THE SOVIET UNION.
BOTH VASILEVSKY AND BULGANIN ARE MEMBERS OF THE SUPREME SOVIET.
VASILEVSKY WAS ELECTED TO THE COUNCIL OF NATIONALITIES OF THE SUPREME SOVIET IN 1945 FROM THE VORONEZH DISTRICT AND BULGANIN IN 1946 FROM A MOSCOW DISTRICT. (THE COUNCIL IS ONE OF THE TWO HOUSES OF PARLIAMENT.)
VASILEVSKY WAS REPLACED AS CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE ARMED FORCES ON NOV. 13, 1948, BY GEN.S.M. SHTEMENKO IN VIEW OF THE "GREAT OVERLOADING OF WORK" ON THE FORMER. VASILEVSKY RETAINED HIS POST AS FIRST DEPUTY MINISTER OF THE ARMED FORCES.

HAVANA, CUBA, MARCH 24-(AP)-A LATIN AMERICAN CONFERENCE SEEKING TO END EUROPEAN OWNERSHIP OF COLONIES IN THE AMERICAS NEARED THE END OF ITS INITIAL JOB TODAY.

FIRST TASK OF THE CONFERENCE WAS TO SET UP COMMITTEES TO GATHER INFORMATION ON THE COLONIES. THAT HAS BEEN DONE, AND COMMITTEES WORKED TODAY ON ADMINISTRATIVE DETAILS. NO PLENARY SESSION IS SCHEDULED UNTIL SATURDAY. SINCE ONLY 14 LATIN AMERICAN NATIONS ARE ATTENDING THE CONFERENCE, HOWEVER, A REGULAR SESSION COUELD BE CALLED AT ANY TIME, AFTER OR BEFORE A COMMITTEE MEETING.

LATIN AMERICAN NATIONS VOTED AT THE 1948 BOGOTA INTER-AMERICAN CONFERENCE TO SEEK ELIMINATION, BY PEACEFUL MEANS, OF EUROPEAN COLONIES AND OCCUPIED AREAS IN THE HEMISPHERE.

ARGENTINA CLAIMS GREAT BRITAIN WRONGFULLY OCCUPIES THE FALKLAND ISLANDS, AND GUATEMALA HAS LONG INSISTED BRITISH HONDURAS IS A PART OF ITS TERRITORY. ONE COMMITTEE WILL STUDY SUCH AREAS--CALLED "OCCUPIED TERRITORIES." ANOTHER WILL STUDY CONDITIONS IN SUCH AREAS AS CURACAO OF THE DUTCH, JAMAICA AND TRINIDAD, OF THE BRITISH, AND GUADELOUPE AND MARTINIQUE, OWNED BY FRANCE.

MINOR POLITICAL PARTIES OF PUERTO RICO HAVE ATTEMPTED TO GET THE CONFERENCE TO CONSIDER ITS CASE, BUT SO FAR THE CONFERENCE HAS SHOWN NO ENTHUSIASM TO DO SO.

THE SATURDAY SESSION MAY BRING THE CONFERENCE TO END. A SECRETARIAT WILL BE LEFT HERE TO GATHER INFORMATION FOR THE NEXT MEETING OF THE COMMISSION.

HAVANA, CUBA, MARCH 24-(AP)-ARGENTINA TODAY ATTACKED WHAT IT CALLED GREAT BRITAIN'S "OCCUPATION BY FORCE OF THE FALKLAND ISLANDS" AND ITS "ATTEMPT TO EXERCISE ADMINISTRATION OVER OTHERS OF OUR TERRITORIES."

ENRIQUE COROMINAS, CHIEF OF ARGENTINA'S DELEGATION TO THE 13-NATION LATIN AMERICAN CONFERENCE ON COLONIES, EXPRESSED HIS NATION'S VIEWPOINT AT TWO COMMITTEE MEETINGS.

ARGENTINA, HE SAID, "HAS UNQUESTIONED RIGHTS TO THE FALKLANDS, TO SOUTH GEORGIA ISLANDS, TO THE SOUTH SANDWICH ISLANDS, AND TO THE ARGENTINE ANTARCTIC. ARGENTINA'S OWNERSHIP IS ESTABLISHED BY INCONTROVERTIBLE RIGHTS--HISTORIC, JURIDICAL AND GEOGRAPHICAL."

COROMINAS MADE IT CLEAR ARGENTINA RESERVED ITS RIGHTS UNDER ALL CIRCUMSTANCES. IT WOULD NOT WAIVE ITS CLAIMS, HE SAID, EVEN FOR A THIRD PARTY ADMINISTRATION OF THE TERRITORIOS WHICH MIGHT BE SET UP "UNDER THE PRETEXT OF SOLVING THE COLONIAL QUESTION."

THE LATIN AMERICAN NATIONS ARE ON RECORD AGAINST OWNERSHIP OF COLONIES IN THE AMERICAS BY EUROPEAN NATIONS. GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE AND THE NETHERLANDS HAVE SUCH COLONIES.

HAVANA,CUBA,MARCH 24-(AP)- PUERTO RICAN MINORITY GROUPS SEEM HEADED FOR FAILURE IN THEIR TRY TO GET THE LATIN AMERICAN COLONIAL CONFERENCE TO CONSIDER THEIR INDEPENDENCE DEMANDS.

THE NATIONALIST AND INDEPENDENCE PARTIES WANT THE CONFERENCE MEETING HERE TO TAKE SOME ACTION TO FREE THE ISLAND FROM ITS "OPPRESSION" BY THE UNITED STATES. THESE PARTIES HAVE NO OFFICIAL STATUS. THE PUERTO RICAN GOVERNMENT IS NOT REPRESENTED. The dominant political party in Puerto Rico, the popular party, is not represented here. Its leader is the GOVERNOR, LUIS MUNOZ MARIN, WHO SWEPT THE ELECTIONS LAST YEAR, HAS SAID "PUERTO RICO IS NO LONGER A COLONY, BUT A NEW KIND OF STATE." HE MAINTAINED THAT THE ISLAND'S POLITICAL STATUS SHOULD BE DETERMINED AFTER ITS INDUSTRIALIZATION PROGRAM IS COMPLETED.

MAR 25 1949

THE COLONY CONFERENCE, AUTHORIZED BY LAST YEAR'S INTER-AMERICAN CONFERENCE AT BOGATA,COLOMBIA,DEALS WITH THE PROBLEM OF DEPENDENT TERRITORIES IN THE NEW WORLD. ITS PRIMARY CONCERNS HAVE BEEN WITH GUATAMALA'S CLAIM TO BRITISH HONDURAS AND CONFLICTING BRITISH AND ARGENTINE CLAIMS TO THE FALKLAND ISLANDS. HOLLAND,FRANCE AND DENMARK ALSO HAVE DEPENDENCIES IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE.

THE GENERAL IMPRESSION HERE SEEMS TO BE THAT THE CONFERENCE IS TO CONSIDER ONLY THE PROBLEMS OF EURO-PEAN-OCCUPIED TERRITORIES.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD FOREIGN AID
BY ROGER D.GREENE
WASHINGTON,MARCH 24-(AP)-SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH) TOLD THE SENATE TODAY THAT A MOSCOW-DICTATED CONSPIRACY TO TORPEDO THE MARSHALL PLAN FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY HAS BEEN "ALL BUT STOPPED IN ITS TRACKS."
PLEADING FOR EXTENSION OF THE MULTI-BILLION DOLLAR AID PROGRAM THROUGH ANOTHER YEAR, VANDENBERG DECLARED THAT "CURRENT MOSCOW HYSTERIA" TOWARD THE RECOVERY PROGRAM IS CLEAR PROOF OF ITS SUCCESS.
"IT WAS FRESH AIR IN THE LUNGS OF LIBERTY," VANDENBERG CRIED DRAMATICALLY. "IT DROVE DESPAIR FROM THE SOULS OF MEN."
AND NOW, HE SAID, MOSCOW'S FEARS ARE "BEING REALIZED--AND SO ARE OUR HOPES."
SENATORS KEM (R-MO) AND JENNER (R-IND) OBJECTED THAT AMERICAN FUNDS ARE BEING USED TO FINANCE SOCIALISTIC EXPERIMENTS IN ENGLAND AND OTHER NATIONS.
REFERRING TO BRITAIN'S SOCIALIZED MEDICINE PROGRAM, JENNER SHOUTED, "THEY COULDN'T FURNISH TOUPEES TO THE BALDHEADED GENTLEMEN OF ENGLAND IF WE WEREN'T SUCKERS ENOUGH TO SPONSOR SUCH A DAMN FOOL PROGRAM."
JENNER ALSO PROTESTED THAT FOREIGN AID PROGRAMS, ON TOP OF INCREASED SPENDING PROGRAMS AT HOME, ARE PILING UP SUCH A HEAVY BURDEN ON AMERICAN TAXPAYERS THAT "WE WILL KILL THE GOOSE THAT LAID THE GOLDEN EGG."
HE SAID THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY PACT, WITH "A PRICE TAG THAT COULD REACH 5 TO 10 BILLION DOLLARS A YEAR," IS COMING ALONG NEXT AND ALREADY THERE ARE HINTS IT MAY BE FOLLOWED BY A MIDDLE EAST

PACT, A PACIFIC PACT AND MORE AID FOR C
THE RESULT, JENNER SAID, MAY BE A CR
ECONOMY AND "A SPRINGING UP RIGHT IN OU
(COMMUNISM) THAT WE ARE TRYING TO DESTR
"THE BEST WAY TO ASSURE PEACE," HE S REMAIN STRONG."
BUT VANDENBERG CONTENDED THT EUROI'S ACHIEVEMENTS

BUT VANDENBERG CONTENDEDTHAT EUROPE'S ACHIEVEMENTS DURING THE PAST YEAR, BOLSTERED BY AMERICAN DOLLARS, HAVE WRITTEN A "TOTALLY AFFIRM-ATIVE" ANSWER TO THE QUESTION OF CONTINUING U. S. AID.
THE REPUBLICAN FOREIGN POLICY LEADER SAID HE WOULD OPPOSE ANY "ARBITRARY ATTACK" ON THE PROGRAM OR "STRAIGHT ACROSS-THE-BOARD REDUCTIONS." SUCH AS THE SUGGESTION MADE EARLIER IN THE DAY BY SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) FOR CHOPPING OFF $1,000,000,000 (B).
SOME SENATORS HAVE SUGGESTED CUTTING AS MUCH AS $2,580,000,000
THE ADMINISTRATION'S REQUEST FOR $5,580,000,000 TO CARRY THE PROGRAM
OVER THE NEXT 15 MONTHS.
"I HAVE TO AGREE THERE ARE SOME THINGS WE CANNOT AFFORD," VANDENBERG
CONTINUED, BUT HE SAID THE COST OF FOREIGN AID TO THE ANTI-COMMUNIST COUNTRIES, OF WESTERN EUROPE HAS TO BE WEIGHED AGAINST THE PRICE OF BEING INVOLVED IN ANOTHER WAR.
"AND IF THERE IS ANOTHER WORLD WAR," HE SAID, "IT WILL BE AIMED AT US, WILLY-NILLY. THIS PROGRAM IS THE BEST POSSIBLE BARGAIN FOR PEACE."
COULD "RELIEVE THE WESTERN EUROPEAN HELPLESSNESS WHICH COMMUNIST CON-QUEST REQUIRES FOR SUCCESS."
"BUT WHAT HAPPENED? THE SOVIET CONSPIRACY WAS ALL BUT STOPPED IN ITS TRACKS. THE TONIC EFFECT OF ECA (ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINIS-TRATION) WAS APPARENT EVEN BEFORE IT SHIPPED A DOLLAR'S WORTH OF GOODS.
IT WAS A VERITABLE SHOT IN THE ARM FOR WESTERN EUROPEAN FREEDOMS.
EARLIER, SENATE FOREIGN POLICY LEADERS QUICKLY DISCOUNTED FEARS
THAT GREAT BRITAIN MIGHT BE PREPARING TO SHIP WAR MATERIALS TO RUSSIA AND THE SOVIET SATELLITE NATIONS.

THE QUESTION WAS RAISED BY SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) AS THE SENATE OPENED DEBATE ON HOW MANY BILLIONS OF DOLLARS THE UNITED STATES SHOULD POUR INTO THE SECOND INSTALLMENT OF EUROPEAN RECOVERY AID.
KNOWLAND CITED A LONDON DISPATCH QUOTING HAROLD WILSON, PRESIDENT OF THE BBRITISH BOARD OF TRADE, AS SAYING BRITAIN WILL BE GUIDED IN HER TRADE POLICY "SOLELY" BY ECONOMIC ADVANTAGES.
KNOWLAND ASKED IF THIS MEANT BRITAIN PLANNED TO LIFT RESTRICTIONS

ON THE SHIPMENT OF EQUIPMENT TO RUSSIA AND HER SATELLITES "EVEN THOUGH IT MAY ADD TO THEIR WAR POTENTIAL."

SENATORS CONNALLY (D-TEX) AND VANDENBERG (R-MICH) GAVE SWIFT ASSURANCES THAT THIS WAS NOT THE CASE.

CONNALLY SAID THE MARSHALL PLAN NATIONS HAVE BEEN MAKING AN HONEST EFFORT TO KEEP WAR MATERIALS AWAY FROM RUSSIA AND SAID HE COULD NOT BELIEVE THAT BRITAIN WOULD BE MOTIVATED ONLY BY "PECUNIARY ADVANTAGE."

"WE ARE TRYING TO KEEP OUT OF THE HANDS OF TOTALITARIAN POWERS ANYTHING THAT WOULD BE VALUABLE IN A MILITARY WAY," CONNALLY SAID. "OUR REPORTS ARE WE ARE RECEIVING FINE COOPERATION."

VANDENBERG SAID:

"I THINK ICAN TESTIFY THAT THERE IS COMPLETE GOOD FAITH IN THE EFFORT MADE TO KEEP THE (EAST-WEST) TRADE ON THE STANDARDS WE SET FOR OURSELVES."

VANDENBERG SAID HE UNDERSTOOD THE STATE DEPARTMENT WILL RECEIVE AN OFFICIAL BRITISH MEMORANDUM PLEDGING THAT TRADE WITH RUSSIA WILL NOT CONFLICT WITH THE TERMS OF THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE.

THE SENATE BEGAN DEBATE ON NEW FUNDS FOR THE MARSHALL PLAN UNDER A TENTATIVE TWO-DAY TIME LIMIT SET BY ADMINISTRATION LEADERS WHO HOPED TO CLEAR IT BY TOMORROW.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS ASKED $5,580,000,000(B) FOR THE NO.2 INSTALLMENT IN U.S.AID TO NON-COMMUNIST NATIONS OF WESTERN EUROPE. SEVERAL REPUBLICAN SENATORS HAVE PROPOSED CUTTING IT TO AT LEAST $3,000,000,000.

CONNALLY, CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, OPENED THE DEBATE WITH A STRONG PLEA TO THE SENATE TO AUTHORIZE THE FULL AMOUNT. THE TEXAN DECLARED THAT ANY SUBSTANTIAL CUTS WOULD BE "A TRAGIC MISTAKE" AND WOULD SERIOUSLY RETARD EUROPEAN RECOVERY.

MAR 25 1949

A196WX

CONNALLY EMPHASIZED THAT EUROPE'S ECONOMIC RECOVERY WILL RATE "A CLEAR PRIORITY" OVER ANY MILITARY-AID PROGRAM TO SUPPORT THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE ALLIANCE.

HE SAID THE QUESTION HAD BEEN RAISED WHETHER THE ARMS PROGRAM MIGHT INTERFERE WITH ECONOMIC RECOVERY "BY THE DIVERSION OF EUROPEAN MANPOWER AND MATERIALS" TO REBUILD EUROPE'S WAR-SMASHED DEFENSES.

ACTUALLY, HE SAID, THE MILITARY AID PROGRAM "SHOULD HAVE A BENEFICIAL EFFECT ON ECONOMIC RECOVERY BY STRENGTHENING THE FEELING OF CONFIDENCE AND SECURITY."

THE ARMS PROGRAM IS EXPECTED TO COST THE UNITED STATES ABOUT $1,000,000,000 THE FIRST YEAR. IT WILL BE SUBMITTED TO CONGRESS SHORTLY AFTER THE SIGNING OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY ON APRIL 4. EIGHT NATIONS ARE ON RECORD AS DEFINITE SIGNATORIES--THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, CANADA, BELGIUM, FRANCE, THE NETHERLANDS, LUXEMBOURG AND NORWAY. FOUR OTHERS EXPECTED TO SIGN ARE DENMARK, ITALY, ICELAND AND PORTUGAL.

CONNALLY PRAISED ACHIEVEMENTS UNDER THE MARSHALL PLAN DURING THE PAST YEAR, BUT HE SAID EUROPE STILL NEEDS AMERICAN DOLLAR AID TO COMPLETE ITS RECOVERY BY JUNE,1952.

"WE DO NOT EXPECT TO CONTINUE THIS PROGRAM BEYOND THAT TIME," HE SAID.

THE PROPOSED $5,580,000,000 OUTLAY WOULD SPAN A 15-MONTH PERIOD, COVERING THE LAST THREE MONTHS OF THE CURRENT FISCAL YEAR AND THE NEXT 12 MONTHS TO JULY 1,1950.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 24-(AP)-STEVE NELSON, A COMMUNIST WHO HAS BEEN ACCUSED BY THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE OF ATOMIC SPYING, HAS DISAPPEARED.

A COMMITTEE MEMBER SAID HE CAN'T BE FOUND IN HIS USUAL HAUNTS.

THE COMMITTEE IS TRYING TO LOCATE NELSON AS A KEY WITNESS FOR HEARINGS NEXT MONTH THAT WILL FOCUS ON THE AMERICAN SLAV CONGRESS. SO FAR, EFFORTS OF COMMITTEE AGENTS TO SERVE A SUBPOENA ON HIM HAVE FAILED.

"WE CAN'T FIND HIM," THE MEMBER TOLD REPORTER. "NELSON HASN'T SHOWN UP AT COMMUNIST HEADQUARTERS IN NEW YORK OR AT HIS HOME IN PITTSBURGH."

NELSON IS A COMMUNIST PARTY ORGANIZER FOR WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA. THE AMERICAN SLAV CONGRESS IS ACTIVE IN THAT AREA, TOO.

THE COMMITTEE TENTATIVELY SET APRIL 18 FOR THE START OF HEARINGS ON THIS ORGANIZATION. THE INQUIRY MIGHT HAVE TO BE PUT OFF IF WITNESSES CAN'T BE LOCATED.

THIS IS THE FIRST HEARING THE COMMITTEE HAS BILLED IN THE PRESENT CONGRESS. THE COMMITTEE WANTS TO FIND OUT WHETHER COMMUNISTS HAVE GRABBED CONTROL OF THE SLAV CONGRESS AND ARE USING IT FOR ESPIONAGE.

NELSON WAS BORN IN YUGOSLAVIA IN 1903, AS STEVE MESAROSH.

THE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE IN THE 80TH CONGRESS DEALT WITH HIM AT SOME LENGTH IN A REPORT ON "SOVIET ESPIONAGE ACTIVITIES IN CONNECTION WITH THE ATOM BOMB." IT LINKED HIM WITH WEST COAST OPERATIONS.

IT SAID:

"STEVE MESAROSH, ALIAS LOUIS EVANS, ALIAS STEVE NELSON, IS THE COMMUNIST ESPIONAGE AGENT WHO WAS ENGAGED IN THIS CASE IN SECURING INFORMATION REGARDING THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE ATOM BOMB.

"THE INDIVIDUAL FROM WHOM HE SECURED INFORMATION X X X WAS A SCIENTIST AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, IN BERKELEY, CALIF."

THE COMMITTEE WENT ON TO TELL ABOUT A "SCIENTIST X", NOT OTHERWISE IDENTIFIED. IT SAID IT HAD INFORMATION, WHICH THE SCIENTIST DENIED, THAT THE PROFESSOR GAVE NELSON "A FORMULA FOR IMPORTANCE IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE ATOM BOMB."

WASHINGTON, MARCH 24-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES HAS BARRED TWO ROMANIAN DELEGATES TO THE INTERNATIONAL "PEACE CONFERENCE" IN NEW YORK BECAUSE THE ROMANIAN GOVERNMENT REFUSED TO SEND THEM AS OFFICIALS.

THE ACTION, ANNOUNCED TODAY BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT, CUT TO 19 THE NUMBER OF DELEGATES FROM SOVIET RUSSIA AND COMMUNIST-RUN COUNTRIES OF EASTERN EUROPE. THE THREE-DAY CONFERENCE OPENS TOMORROW.

THE DEPARTMENT SAID VISAS ORIGINALLY WERE APPROVED FOR THE ROMANIAN DELEGATES, ON THE ASSUMPTION THEY WERE TO COME AS GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS. WHEN THE FOREIGN OFFICE IN BUCHAREST DECLINED TO DESIGNATE THEM AS SUCH, THE VISAS WERE WITHHELD.

PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL J. MCDERMOTT IDENTIFIED THE TWO AS MATEI SOCOR, CONDUCTOR-PIANIST AND DIRECTOR OF THE ROMANIAN BROADCASTING COMPANY AND EMIL PETROBIBI, DIRECTOR OF KLUG UNIVERSITY.

MCDERMOTT EXPLAINED THAT IN PASSING ON APPLICATIONS FROM DELEGATES FROM COMMUNIST-RUN COUNTRIES, THE DEPARTMENT FOLLOWED A POLICY OF ADMITTING ONLY THOSE COMING AS GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS.

PHILADELPHIA, MARCH 24-(AP)-A DUTCH OFFICIAL DECLARED TONIGHT THAT "COMMUNISTIC INFLUENCE AND A JAPANESE-TRAINED REPUBLICAN ARMY" ARE THE MAJOR STUMBLING BLOCKS TO A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT OF THE INDONESIAN SQUABBLE.
SPEAKING AT A MEETING OF THE FOREIGN TRADERS ASSOCIATION OF PHILADELPHIA, DR.W.CNOOP KOOPMANS, CONSUL GENERAL OF THE NETHERLANDS IN NEW YORK, SAID:
AFTER TWO YEARS OF "PATIENT ENDEAVORS BY THE UNITED NATIONS COMMISSION WHICH WAS UNABLE TO KEEP THAT ARMY UNDER CONTROL OR TAKE OVER OUR RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THESE TERRITORIES, THE DUTCH ORDERED ITS MILITARY ACTION TO RESTORE LAW AND ORDER."
DR.KOOPMANS, ONETIME HEAD OF THE ECONOMIC SECTION OF THE DUTCH MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS, EMPHASIZED THE NEED FOR STABLE GOVERNMENT IN INDONESIA. HE SAID THIS "IS CRUCIAL TO FOREIGN TRADE."
THE SPEAKER URGED AMERICAN TRADE IN INDONESIA AS WELL AS HOLLAND, SURINAM AND NETHERLANDS WEST INDIES.
"INDONESIA'S EXPORT AND BUYING POWER," HE ASSERTED, "CANNOT REACH FULL RECOVERY WITHOUT FULL RECONSTRUCTION."
"AND," HE SAID, "RECONSTRUCTION IS IMPOSSIBLE WITHOUT LARGE FOREIGN LOANS AND PRIVATE INVESTMENTS.
"AND, OF COURSE, THERE AREN'T GOING TO BE ANY LOANS AND INVESTMENTS WITHOUT STABLE GOVERNMENT.
"ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT IS A QUESTION OF LIFE OR DEATH, OF PROSPERITY OR POVERTY, OF STABILITY OR CHAOS.
"INTERNATIONAL TRADE, COOPERATION BETWEEN EAST AND WEST, AND COOPERATION ON THE BASIS OF EQUAL PARTNERS, NOT OF WESTERN SUPREMACY, MAY LEAD THE WAY TO NEW DEVELOPMENTS, CREATED BY PRIVATE ENTERPRISE."
H.G.WOLF, TRADE COMMISSIONER OF INDONESIA, SAID "WE MUST LOOK FORWARD TO A SPEEDY RESTORATION OF PEACE AND ORDER AS THE CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH THE UNITED STATES CAN AGAIN RESUME ITS INDISPENSABLE HELP FOR THE BENEFIT OF INDONESIA AS WELL AS ITS OWN."

DULLES (400)
BY LEE LINDER
PHILADELPHIA, MARCH 24-(AP)-JOHN FOSTER DULLES SAYS THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT CAN HALT WAR FOREVER--OR BE THE IMMEDIATE CAUSE OF A THIRD WORLD CONFLICT.
DULLES TOLD THE CLOSING SESSION OF THE 3RD ANNUAL PHILADELPHIA BULLETIN FORUM LAST NIGHT "THE PACT IS DEFENSIVE" BUT--- "UNLESS WE ARE VERY CAREFUL SOVIET LEADERS MIGHT JUMP TO THE CONCLUSION THAT THE PACT IS, IN FACT, OFFENSIVE."
"IF SO," DULLES WARNED, "IT MIGHT BRING ON THE WAR WHICH IT IS DESIGNED TO PREVENT."
DULLES IS U.S. DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS.
"PEACE IS NOT WON MERELY BY BEING RIGHT," DULLES INSISTED.
"IF THE ATLANTIC PACT IS TO PROMOTE PEACE, THE MEMBER STATES OUGHT TO CONDUCT THEMSELVES, BY WORD AND DEED, SO THAT THOSE IN THE KREMLIN WILL SEE THAT THE PACT IS AN HONEST ATTEMPT TO INTEGRATE AND INVIGORATE A FREE SOCIETY WITHIN ITS NATURAL LIMITS. X X X
"LET US RULE OUT AMBIGUOUS ACTS AND LOOSE WORDS THAT COULD MAKE THE PACT A CAUSE OF WAR."
CHARLES E.BOHLEN, STATE DEPARTMENT COUNSELER, SAID THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT BECAME A REALITY BECAUSE THE UNITED NATIONS' PEACE MACHINERY IS STALLED BY RUSSIAN VETO AND DEFIANCE.
BUT BOHLEN MADE IT CLEAR THE PACT "IS NO SUBSTITUTE FOR THE UNITED NATIONS."
"THIS TREATY REPRESENTS AN HISTORIC STEP IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF AMERICAN FOREIGN RELATIONS," BOHLEN SAID.
"IT IS THE FIRST TIME IN OUR HISTORY WE ARE PREPARED TO ENTER FORMALLY INTO AN ASSOCIATION FOR 20 YEARS WITH COUNTRIES OUTSIDE THIS HEMISPHERE UNDER WHICH WE UNDERTAKE TO REGARD AN ATTACK ON ANY OF THOSE COUNTRIES AS THE EQUIVALENT OF AN ATTACK ON THE UNITED STATES."
BOHLEN SAID ONLY CONGRESS CAN ORDER THE U.S. TO WAR--DESPITE THE WORDING OF THE PACT.
DULLES, HOWEVER, INSISTED THE U.S. WOULD JOIN THE FIGHT--IMMEDIATELY--SHOULD ANY MEMBER NATION BE ATTACKED.
CLARE BOOTH LUCE, FORMER CONGRESSWOMAN FROM CONNECTICUT, SAID "THE PRESENT CONFLICT" BETWEEN THE U.S. AND RUSSIA HAS THREE ASPECTS. IT'S A BATTLE BETWEEN:
1. CAPITALISM AND COMMUNISM. "THIS CANNOT PROVIDE THE ISSUE OF WAR X X X BUT BOTH SIDES MAY USE IT AS AN ADDITIONAL EXCUSE IN CASE OF WAR."
2. WORLD NATIONALISMS. "IT IS MARKED BY THE NATIONS' RELENTLESS SEARCH, IN THE NAME OF PEACE, FOR A PREPONDERANCE OF PHYSICAL POWER OVER ONE ANOTHER. THE WESTERN NATIONS ARE REACHING THIS GOAL IN THE ATLANTIC PACT. THE SOVIET EAST REPLIES BY ENLARGING ITS RING OF SATELLITE STATES."
3. CHRISTIANITY AND MARXIAN ATHEISM.
THE THIRD STRUGGLE, MRS.LUCE SAID, "IS THE TRULY SIGNIFICANT ONE."
"LET IT BE QUICKLY SAID THAT IN THIS CONFLICT THERE CAN BE NO COMPROMISE OF BASIC CONCEPTS," SHE DECLARED. "IT IS A STRUGGLE TO THE DEATH--THE DEATH IN OUR TIME OF EITHER THE CHRISTIAN VIEW OF LIFE, OR THE COMMUNIST VIEW."
RUSSIA, LIKE NAZI GERMANY, IS UNDERTAKING THE EXPERIMENT OF OFFICIAL GODLESSNESS, MRS.LUCE ADDED.

PHILADELPHIA, MARCH 24-(AP)-THE WAR-RAVAGED CITY OF RONSDORF, GERMANY, IS REBUILDING ITSELF THROUGH A RECOVERY PROGRAM DEVISED BY ITS OWN CITIZENS, SAYS THE AMERICAN FRIENDS SERVICE COMMITTEE.
CARL F.KLEIN, WORKER FOR THE QUAKER

CARL F.KLEIN, WORKER FOR THE QUAKER ORGANIZATION IN THE BRITISH ZONE OF GERMANY, DISCLOSED THE STORY OF RONSDORF IN A REPORT MADE PUBLIC BY THE COMMITTEE YESTERDAY.

BEFORE WORLD WAR TWO, KLEIN SAID, RONSDORF WAS A CITY OF 14,000 IN THE MOUNTAINS OF NORTHEASTERN GERMANY WITH 2,500 INDUSTRIAL ENTERPRISES, INCLUDING ~~A~~ RIBBON ~~WEAVING INDUSTRY.~~

MUCH OF THE CITY'S INDUSTRY WAS DESTROYED BY BOMBING, BUT IN 1946, KLEIN SAID, A DOZEN CITIZENS DEVISED A PLAN UNDER WHICH ALL ABLE BODIED ADULTS WOULD CONTRIBUTE A SHARE OF THEIR MONTHLY EARNINGS PLUS MANUAL LABOR.

USING THE SLOGAN "LET EACH ONE CARRY THE OTHER'S BURDEN," THE MEN AND WOMEN OF RONSDORF CLEARED 162,000 CUBIC YARDS OF RUBBLE FROM THE STREETS AND IN ONE YEAR CONTRIBUTED 226,286 MARKS ($67,886).

"AT THE BEGINNING OF THIS YEAR," SAID KLEIN, "A COMMITTEE OF TOWNSPEOPLE WENT TO WORK ON PLANS FOR REBUILDING. PUBLIC BUILDINGS, AUDITORIUMS, PARKS, MODERN HOUSING UNITS WITH A CENTRAL LAUNDRY, HEATING PLANT AND PLAYGROUNDS ARE TO BE ERECTED."

KLEIN SAID THE RONSDORF PROGRAM IS "AN EXAMPLE WHICH IF FOLLOWED ELSEWHERE, CAN SUBSTANTIALLY SHORTEN THE TIME REQUIRED FOR THE REBUILDING OF GERMANY."

NEW YORK, MARCH 24-(AP)-DR. HAROLD J.LASKI,BRITISH LABOR LEADER, IS HERE FOR A LECTURE TOUR, BUT HE IS GOING TO HAVE TO ALTER HIS SCHEDULE BECAUSE OF ACTION OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT LOS ANGELES.

LASKI, WHO ARRIVED YESTERDAY ABOARD THE LINER QUEEN ELIZABETH, WAS SCHEDULED TO MAKE TWO APPEARANCES ON THE LOS ANGELES CAMPUS BUT HE WAS TOLD HERE THAT THE TALKS HAD BEEN CANCELLED.

LATER A UNIVERSITY SPOKESMAN IN LOS ANGELES DENIED THERE HAD BEEN ANY CANCELLATION, AND SAID MERELY THAT "CONSENT" FOR THE TALKS HAD BEEN WITHDRAWN.

A LABOR LEADER HERE SAID A MEETING WILL BE ARRANGED IN LOS ANGELES TO REPLACE THE "CANCELLED" CAMPUS MEETINGS.

AT A NEWS CONFERENCE, LASKI SAID HE HAD "DONE NOTHING TO MAKE THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA MAD."

THE FORMER CHAIRMAN OF THE BRITISH LABOR PARTY SAID HE BELIEVED THE CANCELLATIONS OF HIS SPEECHES THERE APRIL 14 AND 15 RESULTED FROM HIS SERVICE WITH THE LABOR PARTY.

HE SAID THE UNIVERSITY OF LONDON, AT WHICH HE IS A PROFESSOR OF POLITICAL SCIENCE, DOES NOT "PENALIZE" PERSONS FOR THEIR POLITICAL BELIEFS, AND ADDED:

"THE PURPOSE OF THE UNIVERSITY IS TO EDUCATE BY CONFLICTS OF OPINION X X X."

IN LOS ANGELES, UCLA PROVOST CLARENCE A.DYKSTRA SAID THERE HAD BEEN NO CANCELLATION.

HE SAID THE SIDNEY HILLMAN FOUNDATION, SPONSOR OF LASKI'S TOUR, HAD ORIGINALLY INFORMED HIM LASKI WOULD SPEAK BOTH AT THE LOS ANGELES AND BERKELEY CAMPUSES OF THE UNIVERSITY.

"I GAVE MY CONSENT TO THE TALKS," HE SAID. "THEN I LEARNED HE WAS NOT GOINT TO SPEAK AT BERKELEY AND WITHDREW MY CONSENT. I FELT THAT I HADN'T BEEN TOLD THE TRUTH, QUITE."

JACOB POTOFSKY, PRESIDENT OF THE AMALGAMATED CLOTHING WORKERS OF AMERICA, AT WHOSE OFFICES LASKI HELD HIS NEWS CONFERENCE, FIRST ANNOUNCED THE "CANCELLATION." HE SAID A TELEGRAM FROM EDGAR L.WARREN, DIRECTOR OF UCLA'S INSTITUTE OF INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS, SAID UNIVERSITY AUTHORITIES HAD "ORDERED CANCELLATION" OF LASKI'S ADDRESSES.

POTOFSKY, WHO HEADS THE UNION FORMERLY HEADED BY THE LATE SIDNEY HILLMAN, SAID HE REGARDED THE CANCELLATION "AN INFRINGEMENT OF POLITICAL FREEDOM." HE SAID OTHER ARRANGEMENTS WILL BE MADE FOR LASKI TO SPEAK IN LOS ANGELES.

THE GOP FLOOR LEADER SAID IN AN ADDRESS PREPARED FOR A MEETING OF THE NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL CONFERENCE BOARD, INC., THAT THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY PACT INVOLVES "A REVOLUTIONARY DEPARTURE" IN AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY.

"IT PLACES OUR COUNTRY SQUARELY IN THE REALM OF WORLD POWER POLITICS," HE DECLARED.

WHERRY ASKED WHETHER THIS COUNTRY HAS THE RESOURCES TO ATTEMPT TO REARM WESTERN EUROPE. WOULD THIS STEP "FORCE OUR OWN COUNTRY TO ADOPT RIGID CONTROLS OVER ITS NATIONAL ECONOMY, RESORTING TO ALL-OUT REGIMENTATION?" HE INQUIRED, ADDING:

"IT WOULD BE A MOST TRAGIC BLUNDER IF WE SPEND OUR SUBSTANCE TO SAVE REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENTS ABROAD AND LOSE OUR OWN REPUBLICAN FORM OF GOVERNMENT AT HOME."

LAKE SUCCESS,MARCH 24-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS TODAY POSTPONED THE CORNERSTONE LAYING AT THE NEW U.N. HEADQUARTERS SITE IN NEW YORK SOON AFTER PRESIDENT TRUMAN SAID HE COULD NOT ATTEND.

THE CEREMONY HAD BEEN SCHEDULED FOR SUNDAY, APRIL 10.

U.N. SOURCES SAID THE SETTING OF A NEW DATE DEPENDED ON WHEN AND IF MR.TRUMAN MIGHT BE FREE TO TAKE PART.

THE SPOKESMAN FOR SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE SAID THE POSTPONEMENT WOULD NOT DELAY WORK ON THE HEADQUARTERS BUILDINGS.

LIE WAS REPORTED DEEPLY DISAPPOINTED BY THE PRESIDENT'S DECISION. HE HAD RECEIVED NO WORD OF MR.TRUMAN'S CHANGE OF PLANS UNTIL INFORMED OF IT BY NEWSMEN.

LIE'S SPOKESMAN SAID THE APRIL 10 DATE HAD BEEN SET AFTER CONSULTATIONS WITH THE WHITE HOUSE AS TO WHEN THE PRESIDENT COULD COME TO NEW YORK. FOR THIS REASON, IT WAS SAID, THE NEW DATE FOR THE CEREMONY WILL BE ARRANGED AFTER FURTHER TALKS WITH THE WHITE HOUSE.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 24-(AP)-A CANADIAN PLAN TO HELP SETTLE THE NETHERLANDS-INDONESIAN DISPUTE THROUGH DIRECT NEGOTIATION WAS APPROVED BY THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL LAST NIGHT BY A VOTE OF 8 TO 0.

THE DECISION OF THE 11-NATION BODY CONCLUDED A LENGTHY SERIES OF DEBATES IN WHICH DELEGATES SOUGHT TO REACH A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT OF THE FAR EASTERN CONFLICT.

APPROVAL CAME AFTER SPOKESMEN FOR BOTH THE NETHERLANDS AND THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC INDICATED THEIR GOVERNMENTS WOULD BE INTERESTED IN THE CANADIAN SUGGESTION. THREE NATIONS--RUSSIA, FRANCE AND THE SOVIET UKRAINE--ABSTAINED IN THE VOTING.

THE CANADIAN PLAN INSTRUCTS THE U.N. COMMISSION IN INDONESIA TO ATTEMPT TO BRING DUTCH AND INDONESIAN REPUBLIC LEADERS TOGETHER ON A PLAN FOR IMPLEMENTING A COUNCIL RESOLUTION ADOPTED JAN. 28.

IF SUCH AN AGREEMENT IS REACHED, THE COMMISSION THEN WILL TRY TO SET FORTH THE TIME AND CONDITIONS FOR A ROUND TABLE CONFERENCE AIMED AT A FINAL SETTLEMENT OF THE DISPUTE.

A MAJOR PROVISION OF THE CANADIAN PROPOSAL IS THAT THE DUTCH MUST FIRST RESTORE THE INDONESIANS TO AUTHORITY BEFORE ANY SUCH ROUND TABLE DISCUSSION CAN BE HELD. NETHERLANDS TROOPS OVERRAN INDONESIAN TERRITORY AND ARRESTED INDONESIAN POLITICAL LEADERS IN A SWIFT "POLICE ACTION" OFFENSIVE WHICH BEGAN LAST DEC. 19. SINCE THAT TIME THE INDONESIAN ARMY HAS BEEN CARRYING OUT WHAT REPUBLICAN LEADERS DESCRIBE AS "A GUERRILLA WAR OR SELF-DEFENSE."

L.N.PALAR, SPOKESMAN FOR INDONESIA, TOLD THE COUNCIL HE THOUGHT HIS GOVERNMENT MIGHT ACCEPT THE CANADIAN PLAN PROVIDED IT MEANT THAT REPUBLICAN LEADERS WILL BE FREED PRIOR TO ANY ROUND TABLE MEETING.

J.H.VAN ROYEN, SPOKESMAN FOR THE DUTCH, SAID HE CONSIDERED THE PLAN "VERY HELPFUL."

ON JAN. 28 THE SECURITY COUNCIL ADOPTED A RESOLUTION SETTING A TIMETABLE FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA. IT ALSO DEMANDED THAT THE DUTCH RESTORE IMMEDIATELY THE REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT BY RELEASING ALL POLITICAL PRISONERS AND PERMITTING THEM TO RETURN TO JOGJAKARTA, THEIR CAPITAL IN JAVA.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 23-(AP)-THE RUSSIAN-BOYCOTTED U.N. LITTLE ASSEMBLY HAS WORKED OUT THREE PROPOSALS AIMED AT CONCILIATING EAST-WEST DISAGREEMENTS.

THE PROPOSALS WILL BE PRESENTED TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AT THE SESSION WHICH OPENS APRIL 5.

ONE TOP DELEGATE SAID THE PROPOSALS WOULD BE THE MOST IMPORTANT IN THE COMING SESSION, IN THE LONG-RANGE VIEW. SOME DELEGATES SEE THIS PLAN AS A WAY FOR THE RUSSIANS TO COOPERATE WITH THE WESTERN MAJORITY IN THE U.N., IF AN EASING OF THE EAST-WEST TENSION IS WHAT THEY REALLY WANT.

MEMBERS OF THE MAJORITY SAY THE RUSSIAN-WESTERN DISAGREEMENT IS THE MAIN REASON FOR THE STALEMATE IN THE U.N. ON MANY IMPORTANT ISSUES.

THE THREE PROPOSALS ARE:

1. FOR THE SECURITY COUNCIL PRESIDENT TO TAKE STEPS FOR CONCILIATION AND MEDIATION OF A NEW CASE AS SOON AS BOTH SIDES HAVE LAID DOWN THEIR ARGUMENTS. THIS WAS DONE IN THE KASHMIR CASE, WHERE A TRUCE EVENTUALLQ STOPPED FIGHTING IN THE PRINCELY STATE. THIS PLAN WOULD MAKE SUCH CONCILIATION STEPS STANDARD PRACTICE IN THE U.N.

2. FOR THE PRESIDENT OF THE ASSEMBLY TO USE HIS POWERS OF MORAL PERSUASION IN AN ATTEMPT TO CONCILIATE PROBLEMS AMONG MEMBERS OF THE U.N. IN THE SAME WAY. THIS WAS DONE BY DR.HERBERT V.EVATT, AUSTRALIAN FOREIGN MINISTER AND ASSEMBLY PRESIDENT LAST FALL WHEN HE AND SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE APPEALED TO THE BIG POWERS TO SETTLE THEIR DISAGREEMENTS.

3. FOR THE U.N. MEMBERS TO SET UP A PANEL OF CONCILIATORS ON WHICH THE SECURITY COUNCIL OR THE ASSEMBLY COULD DRAW WHEN NECESSARY. THEY WOULD BE MEN OF THE STANDING OF ADMIRAL CHESTER W.NIMITZ, NAMED TUESDAY AS ADMINISTRATOR OF THE PLEBISCITE IN KASHMIR.

THE RUSSIANS FILED ON DEC. 10, 1948, A LITTLE-NOTED RESOLUTION IN THE ASSEMBLY CALLING ON THE SECURITY COUNCIL TO APPLY THE METHOD OF CONSULTATION WHERE NECESSARY TO DEVELOP COOPERATION BETWEEN NATIONS.

THIS PROPOSAL IS EXPECTED TO BE DEBATED AT THE ASSEMBLY WHEN THE MAJORITY VIEW COMES UP.

WEST REJECTS BONN ACTION (N)

Door Held Open For Further Charter Negotiation

B. CURRY + T. REEDY

Bonn, Germany, March 25 (AP)—The Western allies today rejected German compromise proposals on a constitution for the western German state, but held open the door for further negotiations.

The action by the United States, Britain and France evoked some "take it or leave it" talk in the constituent assembly—the German parliamentary council. A stalemate was apparent.

Some Social Democratic leaders, advocates of a strong central government, suggested that the Germans turn down renewed Allied demands for further emphasis on states' rights and pass the constitution as originally drafted.

Allied Ideas Clear

Allied officials, in turn, indicated there will be no further meetings with the Germans until they take some action to complete the constitution.

The Allied views were conveyed to representatives of the council at a fifteen-minute meeting. An Allied official said:

"We told the Germans that their counterproposals were unacceptable. But we gave them encouragement to continue their work. The Allied ideas are now clear to the Germans. It is up to them now.

"If they accept the essentials of the Allied recommendations, we will not insist on their acceptance of minor points. The French concur in this. If the Germans accept the minor points and reject the essentials, we will not give in."

Hope For Concessions

The council president, Dr. Konrad Adenauer, said "the situation is extremely delicate." He said the parties represented in the council will decide late next week what policy they will adopt.

Dr. Hans C. Seebohm, one of the council's representatives, said:

"We should have finished the constitution first and then left it to the Allies to accept it, turn it down or alter it. That now seems to be the only remaining alternative."

Allied officials said the council appeared to be wavering over whether to pass the constitution as written or stall for time in the hope of gaining concessions from a meeting of the French, British and American foreign ministers in Washington next month.

Speed Urged In Berlin

Earlier in Berlin the chairman of the Western city assembly urged German political leaders at Bonn settle their differences quickly and get on with formation of a west German state.

The city assembly chairman is Dr. Otto Suhr, a Social Democrat. He told a news conference the constituent assembly at Bonn must get together within two weeks or the entire idea of a western German government will be in doubt.

Suhr said differences of opinion about the proposed constitution "cannot be so extensive" as to prevent the military governors of the United States, Britain and France from approving the general provisions.

No Easing Of Tension

In Berlin itself, there was no easing of East-West tension.

The Russians, who usually hold no more than two aerial firing drills a day in the American and British airlift corridors, came out with announcements of air-to-air firing at four points and a bombing drill at another place. The Western powers filed another protest.

A British transport official said the Western allies may get a bill from the Soviet zone for their use of its rail, highway and water routes to Berlin before the Russian blockade started last June, though he declared no legal basis exists for such a claim.

Col. Alexander Jelisarov was reported by the American-licensed Dena news agency to have succeeded Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov as Soviet commandant in Berlin. Jelisarov has been deputy commandant. Dena, which quoted Russian informants, said Kotikov has a heart ailment.

Reds Shoot, Bomb In Airlift Lanes (U)

Berlin, March 25 (AP)—In the face of almost daily protests from the three Western powers, the Russians today increased their firing and bombing practice in corridors used by the Berlin airlift.

Whereas in the past, the Russians usually announced no more than two firing drills in a day by their flyers, they came out today with four announcements of air-to-air firing practice at four points and a bombing drill at another place.

Another three-power protest was lodged against all these activities as violations of quadripartite air safety rules.

Meanwhile, the American-licensed Dena news agency quoted "informed Russian sources" today as saying Col. Alexander Jelisarov had been appointed Soviet commandant in Berlin.

Jelisarov, who had been deputy commandant under Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov, has been signing major Soviet pronouncements regarding the Government of Berlin since last December. He has been designating himself acting commandant.

Kotikov was said to have a heart condition.

Clay Eases Malmedy Sentence

Commutes Second Death Penalty Because of Means Used to Get Evidence.

Frankfurt, March 25 (A. P.).—Gen. Lucius D. Clay commuted to life imprisonment today the death sentence of a second German defendant in the Malmedy massacre.

The United States commander eased the sentence of Paul Ochmann, former SS master sergeant, declaring, however: "I am convinced of the guilt of Ochmann of the cold-blooded murder of unarmed American prisoners of war without cause."

The cases of nine more defendants, also sentenced to die for the machine gunning of eighty-three captured American soldiers during the Battle of the Bulge in 1944, await Clay's review.

Clay recently confirmed the death sentence of SS Sgt. Valentine Bersin and commuted that of SS Sgt. Kurt Briesemeister to life imprisonment.

Clay is studying the others, in light of an investigation which indicated that some defendants were maltreated to obtain evidence. A Senate committee asked President Truman to stay the executions until a full, impartial investigation could be made.

The American commander said he spared Ochmann only because of the possibility that the evidence convicting him might have been obtained by mistreatment.

Ochmann admitted in a sworn statement that he shot four or five American soldiers in the neck. Another SS man supported his story. After the trial, however, both claimed they were mistreated into making these statements.

"There is no specific evidence except statements of the prisoners, made in self-interest, which indicates they were subjected to force and duress," Clay said in his report to Washington. "Nevertheless, if the evidence thus claimed to have been obtained through force of duress were excluded in its entirety, it would not appear that the remaining evidence is sufficient to warrant the death sentence."

Denmark Joins Atlantic Pact (N) By Large Vote

Rasmussen Will Leave for U. S., To Sign Alliance

BY EIGIL ANDERSON

COPENHAGEN, Denmark. (AP) — Denmark formally accepted yesterday an invitation to join the North Atlantic treaty. Parliament gave final authorization for the step.

A note announcing Denmark's decision was handed Edward J. Sparks, United States charge d'affaires in Copenhagen, by Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen.

Vote 64 to 8

The upper house of parliament approved the nation's entry into the alliance by a vote of 64 to 8, with four members absent. The lower house voted its approval Thursday, 119 to 23.

Now Premier Hans Hedtoft's government has permission from both houses to ratify the treaty, after signature, without further reference to parliament.

Rasmussen will go to the United States March 30 for the signing ceremonies in Washington next month, the foreign ministry announced.

Subject to final ratification procedures, at least eight other nations will make up the alliance. They are the United States, Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands, Luxembourg and Norway.

Italy has optained lower house approval of particiation in the treaty. Iceland and Portugal also have been invited to join. The alliance provides for mutual aid in the event of an attack on any member.

Danes Notify U.S. Of Plans To Sign Pact

Copenhagen, March 25 (AP)—Denmark formally decided today to join the North Atlantic defense alliance.

Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen handed Edward J. Sparks, the United Sstates chargé d'affaires, a note saying that Denmark accepted an invitation to link up with the United States, Canada, Britain, France, Norway, Italy, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg in the defense grouping.

Iceland and Portugal also have been invited to join.

Upper House Approves

The final decision was taken when the upper house of the Danish Parliament voted this afternoon to authorize the Government to sign the defense treaty. The vote was 64 to 8, with four members absent.

The lowest house voted its approval yesterday, 119 to 23.

Both houses also gave the Government permission to ratify the pact after signature without further reference to Parliament.

The Foreign Ministry announced that Rasmussen would go to the United States next Wednesday for the signing ceremonies next month.

Russ Link Pact To Wolf Hunt (D)

EIGILMORE

Moscow, March 25 (AP)—The Russian press continued to point the finger of suspicion today at a recent Finnish wolf hunt in Lapland, bordering on Soviet territory.

A Tass dispatch from Helsinki, enlarging on previous reports, said that numbers of correspondents and protographers from nations forming the North Atlantic pact attended the hunt in secret.

One photographer, identified only as Kaufman, of Life magazine, left with 350 photgraphs, including 50 in color, the story said.

Russ May Ask Finn Bases

Tass quoted the Finnish Popular Democratic newspaper Vapaa Sana as the source of its information.

[Three wars against the Soviet have left Finland bound by treaty to fight beside the Reds in any war. Some sources have said Russia may invoke this treaty to demand new bases in Finland, especially in view of Atlantic treaty developments.]

Pravda and Izvestia both printed dispatches on the hunt yesterday. The expedition was described as one in which a large number of people participated, including two Finnish generals. Radio, planes and air photos were part of the setup, the Russian papers said.

"Fascist Spying" Compared

Vapaa Sana said it would be interesting to know if pictures alleged to have been taken of the hunt were examined by Finnish authorities.

Vapaa Sana said the "finds" of the photographers and correspondents were from the point of view of possible future use. They compared this to previous, similar "finds" of a "Fascist spy."

TWO CHINESE UNITS MUTINY (N)

One Reported Quelled, Other Pursued At Nanking

S. TODDING

Nanking, China, Saturday, March 26 (AP)—A mutiny of two Government regiments garrisoning this anxious capital was disclosed today.

A Government announcement said the mutiny broke out Thursday night in the southern suburbs of Nanking. It said most of one regiment was brought under control and the other was being pursued.

It was not known immediately whether any of the defected troops were trying to join the Communists, who are just across the Yangtze River.

The news of discontent in the ranks of the vital Nanking garrison coincided with reports of a Communist attack 150 miles to the southwest on the Yangtze front. A crossing of the Yangtze to the southwest would outflank Nanking.

Peiping Becomes Red Capital

The Central News Agency reported 20,000 Communist troops were assaulting Anking, one of the last major Government holdings on the north bank of the Yangtze River. The city was said to be hard pressed but still in Nationalist hands.

Meanwhile, Peiping became the real, if not the official, capital of all Communist China.

The Communist radio announced the party central committee and army headquarters moved there this afternoon, as did also the radio itself.

[The Communists previously had designated Peiping as seat of their "North China Peoples' Government" but have continued to distinguish between it and other regional governments in Manchuria and elsewhere. Under the Communist setup, however, the location of the central committee is the real center of all Communist rule.]

Runaway Cruiser Sunk

Another Peiping broadcast said Chinese Government planes had sunk the runaway cruiser Chungking at the Communist port of Hulutao in Manchuria.

The Chungking, formerly the British cruiser Aurora, deserted the Nationalist side at the end of February. Government quarters since had reported it was knocked out (though they did not say "sunk") by air attack.

The Communist broadcast said the ship was sunk "by B-24 bombers with American markings" and also charged that afterward "the American Navy sent three submarines" to Hulutao to make sure the Chungking was destroyed.

Chiang Aides (D) Retain Funds China Needs

Nanking, March 25 (AP)—Official quarters said today the hard-pressed Nanking Government was being denied about $100,000,000 in Treasury funds held by retired President Chiang Kai-shek's loyal subordinates.

Privately Chinese officials say Chiang controls nearly a third of the Government's hard-specie assets. Most of these funds, they say, are in the Fukien province port of Amoy, Formosa and other South China points. Another portion assertedly is tied up in foreign bank accounts the Government is unable to draw upon.

Fear Of Chiang Cited

What in other countries promptly would become something of a major scandal has been held back for two reasons:

1. Fear of Chiang, who still controls much of the Nationalist Army and the secret police.

2. In "face" conscious China, officials are reluctant to say openly what they are complaining about bitterly in private. They say an attempt is being made to keep up the fiction of a united Nationalist force.

They do not accuse Chiang of holding back a portion of Treasury funds for his personal gains. They say it is merely a stake in the game of power politics that divides Nationalist China.

Foreign Ministry Still Open

MOSCOW, March 25 (AP)—Dr. Fu Ping-chang, named Foreign Minister in the Cabinet of Chinese Nationalist Premier Ho Ying-chin, said today that he wanted more time to decide whether to accept.

Dr. Fu, Nationalist China's Ambassador to Moscow, said he had been notified officially by Nanking of the appointment.

Cavalry Division Now Infantry Unit

Tokyo, March 25 (AP)—The 1st Cavalry Division, which fought to fame in World War II without using a horse, fell officially into step with the rest of the United States Army today as standard-organized foot-sloggers.

The division was formed shortly before the war from the 5th, 7th, 8th and 12th Cavalry regiments, but it promptly dismounted.

Afoot or in vehicles, it fought from the Admiralty Islands to the Philippines, was first into Manila, and has been garrisoning the Tokyo area since the occupation began.

Today the two old brigade headquarters were abolished, the 12th Regiment was being deactivated, and such cavalry terms as "troop" were dropped.

The division thus became a "triangular" (three-regiment) outfit like the rest of the Army, and got a new name: "1st Cavalry Division (Infantry)."

Air Force Given Philippine Task

Manila, March 25 (AP)—The United States Air Force is taking over the primary defenses for the Philippines. S. DAVIS

Informed opinion in Manila says, that in line with this overall policy, the small Sangley Point Naval Air Station near Manila is being closed down.

Defense Keyed To Okinawa

Sangley Point is one of a half dozen naval air stations in the Pacific which the Navy said recently were being made inoperative for economy reasons.

Rear Admiral Ralph W. Christie, retiring commander in the Philippines, said in San Francisco Thursday that the Philippines soon would be stripped of United States naval and air sea power.

American strategists are said to feel that strong air force units based on Okinawa to the north can provide adequate defenses for this entire area.

Backed Up By Clark Field

Backing up Okinawa is modern Clark Field airbase, about 60 miles north of Manila.

This airbase is one of the permanent installations included in the 99-year base agreement the United States signed with the Philippine Government.

Lack of a strong, potential enemy fleet, such as existed before Japan was destroyed as a naval power, has changed many of the strategic concepts for the defense of the Philippines and adjacent areas.

2,000 PICKET 'PEACE' RALLY

Veteran Punches Leaflet Distributor In New York

New York, March 25 (AP)—Pickets swelled from hundreds to thousands tonight to protest a "world peace" conference as the first disorder occurred—a picketing veteran punching a leaflet distributor.

As pickets marched around the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, occasionally booing persons entering the hotel, police pulled a man from the picket line.

They took him across the street and turned him loose. He told reporters he was George T. Nelson, 26-year-old Legionnaire.

He said a leaflet distributor "made a crack and I let him have one."

'Want Piece Of U.S.'

Wilbur Rippey, who was punched, said he was handing out literature of the "Peacemakers," of which he said he was a member.

He said Nelson accused him of handing out "Red" literature.

Nelson commented that "the only peace they want is a piece of the United States."

With an unidentified monocle-wearing man and his woman companion in a mink coat among them, the pickets grew to a police-estimated 2,000 as the conference delegates neared the end of a dinner meeting inside.

About 100 Catholic war veterans had arrived a short time before to begin scheduled picketing in front of the hotel on Park avenue, and other pickets were moved to the Forty-ninth street side.

Christian Fronters Barred

Other groups of spontaneous pickets gathered on the Lexington avenue and Fiftieth street sides of the Waldorf.

Another incident occurred when a group of placard carriers, whose signs said they were representing the Christian Front, tried to get into the picket line on Park avenue.

Pickets turned them away, saying "Get out, you bums. We want no part of you. You're just anti-Semitic."

The group was led away by police, and made an appeal to a police inspector for permission to picket.

The inspector looked at their signs and replied: "We want no trouble—you can't picket."

'Ten Minutes For Freedom'

The signs read: "Christian Front asks where are the Jewish war veterans tonight?" "Christian Front asks why Shostakovich but no Gieseking?" "Whose culture is Einstein safeguarding?"

Earlier evening picketing drew a smaller crowd of spectators than the 7,000 to 8,000 estimated by police during daytime picketing.

The number of pickets grew from a starting group of 25 to 800 shortly after noon. But when the Catholic veterans arrived during the dinner hour, only an estimated 200 were picketing.

They frequently called out to passersby:

"Come on—fall in line! Ten minutes on the line for freedom." Or—as rain started to fall:

"Join the line awhile—you can always get your clothes pressed."

80 Police On Patrol

At that time about 80 of the 100 policemen assigned to the picketing patrolled the sidewalks. The rest stood in the shelter of the entrance to the hotel garage.

One group in the picket line, identified as representing the Socialist Democratic Federation, carried signs which read:

"Veterans love music but not from behind the iron curtain." And "Shostakovich — America doesn't censor your music. Russia does."

The afternoon demonstration brought no disorder, and was marked by a noon-hour religious demonstration.

Pickets fell to their knees as if at a prearranged signal to pray for freedom for people "in enslaved countries."

They recited the "Lord's Prayer" and the "Hail Mary" in unison.

Many Denominations Represented

After 25 persons started the daytime march, small groups of Lutherans, Baptists, Methodists, Jews, Catholics and other denominations came from all directions and swelled the ranks of demonstrators.

Many of these pickets wore colorful costumes of countries now behind the Soviet iron curtain.

"The Star-Spangled Banner" was sung, with a woman leading, and at its conclusion she chanted a prayer. Many of the women said their rosaries.

Men marchers voiced the supplications of a litany calling for freedom for people in "enslaved countries of Europe" and the women chanted the responses.

When the demonstration had gone on for an hour and a half, the entire group knelt on the sidewalk as though at a signal and recited the two prayers.

N.Y. Orchestra Is Praised By Shostakovich

New York, March 25 (AP)—Dmitri Shostakovich, Russia's famed composer of symphonies, has high praise for the playing of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra.

The composer, a Soviet delegate to the controversial "World Peace" conference, attended the regular performance of the orchestra last night at Carnegie Hall.

Afterward, he told a Russian-speaking reporter that the playing was "extremely good" and "quite exciting."

"All Very Enjoyable"

"I was particularly impressed," he added, "by the acoustics and the behavior of the audience. They showed intense interest. Yes, it was all very enjoyable."

Shostakovich was invited by Leopold Stokowski, the Philharmonic's conductor ,to join him in a private lounge during the intermission.

On his way back to his box, the composer also greeted members of the orchestra in their lounge. After shaking hands with many of them, Shostakovich said, "I enjoyed your playing very much," and wished them "great success in your artistic work and throughout your lives."

'RALLY' TO CROSS RIVER

Second Meeting Is Scheduled for Newark on Tuesday

NEWARK, N. J., March 25 (AP)—A second cultural and scientific conference for world peace, similar to the one being held at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, is scheduled for Newark next Tuesday with almost the same participants.

Dr. Harold E. Lippman, secretary of the New Jersey Council of Arts, Sciences and Professions, which is sponsoring the meeting here, said he expected most of the representatives from foreign delegations to attend the rally at the Mosque Auditorium here.

Principal speakers will be Dr. William Olaf Stapledon, British philosopher, and the Rev. Dr. Guy Emery Shipler, editor of the Churchman, Dr. Lippman said. Dmitri Shostakovich, Russian composer, will speak and play the piano, Dr. Lippman added.

Dr. Harlow Shapley, Harvard University astronomer who was listed previously as a principal speaker for the Newark rally, will not be able to attend because of another engagement, Dr. Lippman said. Delegates will include those from Czechoslovakia, Poland, the Soviet Union and the lone British representative, Dr. Stapledon.

COMMUNISTS SPLIT IN 1945

Jury Told Eisler Influenced Swing To Violent Policy

New York, March 25 (AP)—Gerhardt Eisler as a representative of international communism influenced the swing of United States Communists to a "violent revolution" policy in 1945, a Federal court jury was told today.

Louis F. Budenz, first Government witness at the conspiracy trial of eleven American Communist leaders, identified the German-born Eisler as the agent of the Communist Internationale in this country.

Himself a former high official in the American party, Budenz completed his third day on the stand with a detailed account of a party split in 1945.

This split, he said, eventually resulted in the ouster of Earl Browder as a party leader because he favored peaceful solution of postwar problems instead of the militant program eventually adopted.

Renounced Party In 1945

Budenz, who renounced the party in October, 1945, and became an economic teacher at Fordham University, said Eisler was known as Hans Burger in his role as the Comintern representative in the United States.

Eugene Dennis, a defendant, told him of Burger's position, the witness said.

He added that Jacob Stachel, another defendant, told him (Budenz) that he (Stachel) had to get the word from Burger before he could switch his ideological position to oppose "Browderism," the policy of co-operation, in 1945.

Stachel, party educational director, said "Hans Burger had given permission for his change of position," the witness testified.

Eisler Denies Allegation

Eisler is not a defendant but has attended many trial sessions as a spectator. He has been identified before a congressional committee as America's No. 1 Communist but denies it.

Eisler said in a statement today:

"I did not come to the United States as a representative of the Comintern. I came to the United States in 1941 direct from a French concentration camp on my way to Mexico. I was forced to stay here against my will and did not in any way mix into the affairs of the American Communist party. . . .

"Everything that Budenz says in regard to my alleged role in influencing the politics of the American Communist party is 100 per cent falsehood."

Tells Of Communist Parley

Budenz devoted most of his testimony to a meeting of the Communist Political Association in June, 1945, which he said was attended by seven of the defendants. The main topic, he said, was "the disposition of Earl Browder and his policies."

William Z. Foster, national chairman and Browder's main foe, urged that action be taken to intensify strikes in progress at various places throughout the nation, Budenz testified.

Foster wanted telegrams sent to Communist labor unionists directing them to "politicalize" the walkouts, he said.

Proposal Was Withdrawn

But the proposal was withdrawn, the witness added, after two officials of the CIO United Electrical Workers Union, whom he did not identify, opposed such action because "the time was not ripe."

Foster was one of the party leaders indicted but his trial was put off because he has a heart ailment.

Browder defended his policies at the meeting, Budenz said, asserting they had been "best for the defense of the Soviet Union and the best for America."

Abandoning the policy of co-operation would bring a prospect of "war between the Soviet Union and the Anglo-American bloc or an armed peace which would be as injurious as war," Browder was quoted as saying.

"Unanimity Prevails"

Nevertheless, Budenz testified, the Political Association Committee voted, 53 to 1, to revert to the Marxist-Leninist revolutionary philosophy and to reconstitute the American Communist party at a July convention.

In discussing the committee's functioning, the witness asserted "there is no parliamentary discussion permitted."

"It is more like a teacher discussing a subject with a class," he added. "After the leader of the party, as the chief reporter, has his say, then everyone gets up and agrees with the report. Unanimity prevails."

'AXIS SALLY' GETS 10 TO 30-YEAR TERM

Traitor, Also Fined $10,000, Takes Sentence With No Display of Emotion

WASHINGTON, March 25 (AP)—Mildred E. (Axis Sally) Gillars was sentenced today to serve ten to thirty years in prison for broadcasting Nazi propaganda during World War II. She also was fined $10,000.

The Maine-born woman, now 48 years old, is the thirteenth American tried for treason in the last war and the sixth found guilty of the only crime mentioned in the United States Constitution—betrayal of her country.

White but unflinching, Miss Gillars took the sentence with no display of the emotional outbursts that marked her seven-week trial.

When Federal Judge Edward M. Curran finished the brief words of judgment, she threw back her head and walked with swift, short steps from the courtroom.

Later, her half sister, Mrs. Edna Mae Herrick of Conneaut, Ohio, told newsmen:

"I don't think Ethel Barrymore could have received the verdict any better."

James J. Laughlin, defense counsel, filed notice of appeal, contending she had not had a fair trial.

Could Have Been Death

The maximum sentence for Miss Gillars' offense would have been death in the electric chair; the minimum, five years imprisonment. Her sentence means that if she behaves, she will be eligible for parole after serving ten years.

If her appeal is denied and her conviction stands, she will lose the rights of American citizenship. They could only be restored by a Presidential pardon.

Before imposing sentence, Judge Curran rejected defense motions for a new trial on the ground that the judge gave "inflammatory" instruction to the jury and "wanted her convicted."

Then, turning to Miss Gillars, Judge Curran said the trial evidence showed that she did not take part in high-level Nazi propaganda policy conferences as happened in the cases of two other American traitors, Robert Henry Best and Douglas Chandler.

Best and Chandler, convicted in Boston in 1947 and 1948, were both sentenced to life imprisonment. The evidence indicated they wrote their own material for Nazi broadcasts, while Miss Gillars spoke lines from scripts prepared by others.

In finding Miss Gillars guilty, the jury threw out seven of the eight counts in the Government's indictment and convicted on the single count of engaging in a broadcast entitled "Vision of Invasion."

The melodramatic "vision" broadcast was beamed to American troops in May, 1944, just a month before they invaded France. She luridly and in gruesome detail depicted the purported horrors that awaited any Allied attempt to attack Hitler's so-called "Fortress Europe."

Launches Into Statement

When Judge Curran asked Miss Gillars if she had anything to say before he pronounced sentence, the white-haired defendant launched into a long statement.

"I shall never be able to understand why I was found guilty * * *" she began.

She said the "Vision of Invasion" broadcast was written by Dr. Max Otto Koischwitz, a one-time Hunter College (N. Y.) professor, whom she had described during the trial as the man she loved and "my destiny."

Miss Gillars contended that Professor Koischwitz, now dead, was indicted in absentia for treason in 1943—he had become an American citizen before returning to Germany—but had been exonerated "for lack of evidence" in 1947.

So, she said, she too should be exonerated.

But Judge Curran cut her off. He said her attorney had already presented the argument for her defense. Then he imposed sentence, while Miss Gillars, silent and with a puzzled expression on her thin face, twisted a handkerchief through her fingers.

As Miss Gillars left the court house in a prison van, she waved to newsmen and photographers and called sadly, "Goodbye * * * goodbye."

That was the fadeout in the career of the woman known to millions of American GI's as "Axis Sally," the supposedly glamorous radio siren who tried to sell them war weariness and homesickness.

Ex-State Dept. Aide Sent To Prison

Washington, March 25 (AP)—Carl A. Marzani, 37, former State Department employé, was ordered t oday to begin serving a one-to-three-year prison sentence for giving false information about his Communist connections.

Federal Judge Richmond B. Keech issued the order after denying a defense plea for a new trial. The defense contended it had uncovered new evidence on the case.

The judge also denied a defense motion that Marzani be allowed to continue at liberty under bond pending an appeal.

The Italian-born Marzani was convicted in May, 1947, of hiding Communist party affiliations in a Federal loyalty test. His case twice reached the Supreme Court, where tie votes (4 and 4) upheld the conviction.

Subjoenas Issued

Washington, March 25 (AP)—Chairman Wood (D., Ga.) announced today the House Un-American Activities Committee had subpoenaed Leo Fisher, Frank Borich and Timo Bobich, of Pittsburgh, for hearings on the American Slav Congress.

The subpoenas direct them to appear here April 26, Wood said.

The chairman said he was unable to identify the men further or say what connections, if any, they have with the Slav Congress.

The Slav Congress has been cited as subversive and Communist by Attorney General Clark.

CHURCHILL JOINS NEW YORK CROWD

British Statesman Nods And Smiles During Walk

New York, March 25 (AP)—Winston Churchill shook off his police guard today to mingle with a crowd of admirers in Pennsylvania Station.

About 300 persons shouted "hooray" as the British statesman walked among them, nodding and smiling.

He was hatless and his right hand was aloft in his famed V-for-victory sign.

Churchill left a private Pullman car after returning from Washington. He dined last night with President Truman.

Churchill Upsets Routine

State Department officials, Secret Service men, city police and a Scotland Yard man flanked the Churchill party as it alighted from the train.

His wife, son-in-law and Sir Oliver Franks, British Ambassador, were with the former Prime Minister.

Churchill upset the routine as he stepped from a private elevator that brought him from the track to the street level.

When he saw the crowd, he broke away from his police cordon to join it.

After he had mingled with the crowd, Churchill was driven away, to the home of Bernard Baruch, the elder American statesman.

The Churchill party is staying with Baruch at his Sixty-sixth street home.

Attends Private Dinner

Later, Churchill eluded about 500 chanting pickets outside the Hotel Ritz Carlton. He arrived there with Baruch to attend a private dinner given by Henry Luce, magazine publisher.

Churchill entered the hotel by side entrance.

The pickets said they represented the American Labor party.

They carried signs, handed out pamphlets and chanted "2-2-3-4, we don't want another war" and "Churchill wants war; we want peace."

A hotel spokesman said about 200 guests were expected at the dinner.

The pickets around the Ritz Carlton disbanded and left the scene after marching once around the block.

Eisenhower Ill, Rest Prescribed

Washington, March 25 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has been stricken with a stomach disorder and will have to undergo complete rest before resuming his military duties, it was announced today.

The General, who is temporarily assigned as presiding officer of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, has been under medical care at his hotel apartment since Monday, the National Military Establishment said.

The ailment was diagnosed as a "severe case of acute gastro-enteritis" by Maj. Gen. Howard Snyder, the General's doctor. The lining of the stomach and intestinal tract is inflamed in such an illness.

BILL BARS ECA USE OF 'RUNAWAY' SHIPS

WASHINGTON, March 25 (AP)—A bill to "prohibit the use of Panamanian and Honduran vessels or other vessels being operated under 'runaway' flags for transportation of Economic Cooperation Administration commodities" was introduced today by Senator Warren G. Magnuson, Democrat, of Washington.

It would amend existing legislation to provide that no vessel should be used by the ECA that was documented under laws of a country differing from the citizenship of the person or persons in whom was vested controlling interests of the ship.

"The amendment is phrased so as not to discriminate against any legitimate maritime flag and would not discriminate against Panamanian flag vessels owned by Panamanian citizens," Senator Magnuson said. "The amendment, however, would prohibit the use of some 2,500,000 tons of shipping placed under the Panamanian and Honduran flags by Greeks, Americans, British, Swedish, Norwegian, Portuguese and Venezuelan citizens."

The Senator asserted that from April to November last year forty-two sailings in the movement of coal and grain to Italy and France from the United States were made by Panamanian flag vessels and twenty-eight by Honduran flag vessels.

The vessels "were deliberately registered under the Panamanian and Honduran flags to evade minimum worldwide safety at sea standards and to evade income taxes and currency exchange regulations," Mr. Magnuson continued. He said the ECA now prohibited use of Panamanian and Honduran flag vessels for successive charters but had no legislative ban against their use.

RANKIN PRESENTS NEW PENSION BILL

Measure Provides $72 A Month For World War I Men

Washington, March 25 (AP)—Licked once but still confident, Representative Rankin (D., Miss.) bounced back today with a new veterans' pension bill to replace the one killed by the House 24 hours before.

He said it would provide $72 a month for World War I service men at age 65 so long as their incomes do not exceed $2,000, if single, or $3,000 if married or with dependents.

Only yesterday the House decided by the margin of one vote to reject Rankin's proposal which called for $90-a-month pensions to veterans of both world wars when they reach 65.

Rankin Changes Mind

Rankin declared "that kills this legislation for this Congress." But overnight he changed his mind. He told his colleagues he was introducing the new bill "at the request of one of the great veterans' organizations."

Rankin did not identify that group, but his original bill bore the indorsement of the American Legion.

Representative Teague (D., Texas), who played the key role yesterday in killing off the first Rankin measure, said the proposed $72 monthly pensions already are available to World War I veterans if they have a ten per cent disability.

Under current law, he said, a man who served in 1917-18 can get $60 monthly at age 55, if he is in need and has a 60 per cent disability; or the same amount at age 60 if the disability is 50 per cent.

Teague Comments On Cost

Teague, a World War II veteran, said these payments to 133,400 World War I veterans cost the Government $101,000,000 last year, and that the number of eligibles is expected to increase 30 per cent this year.

"I feel in a country such as ours," he said, "we have old veterans who must be cared for. But today our veteran population is so large there is not much difference between the veteran interest and the public interest. I think the public interest has to come first."

Newest Marshall Aid $42,716,000

Washington, March 25 (AP)—The Economic Co-operation Administration today approved the heaviest volume of Marshall plan aid in more than a month, announcing new recovery spending approvals of $42,716,000.

More than $35,000,000 of the funds are earmarked for purchase in the United States of cotton, wheat and wheat flour, and petroleum.

Seven European countries, western Germany, China and Korea received additional aid which swelled to $4,884,310,000 the total global recovery spending approved to date by ECA.

The United Kingdom's $16,032,000 was the largest with $13,500,000 for purchase of United States crude oil and petroleum products. Most of the other funds are for iron and steel mill materials from Canada and Newfoundland.

China received $16,000,000 for new purchases of raw cotton. This was partially offset, however, by cutbacks of $902,000 in previous authority to finance ocean freight shipments.

Purchase of wheat and wheat flour accounted for virtually the entire $6,575,000 allotted to Greece.

U.N. Diplomats Due Traffic-Law Immunity

New York, March 25 (AP)—New York city police today were under new orders to give members of the United Nations Diplomatic Corps full immunity in cases of traffic-law violations.

The new instructions, revoking orders of March 23, 1946, prohibit police from serving a traffic summons to any United Nations diplomat. Police merely will report the name and title of such offenders.

In the new orders, Police Commissioner William P. O'Brien yesterday told all commands to "extend every consideration and courtery to representatives, delegates and secretariats of foreign countries to the United Nations."

Considerable controversy has arisen over the question of whether diplomatic immunity includes immunity from traffic-law violations. There never has been a test case.

Russ May Shut 3 Consulates In Iran

Lake Success, March 25 (AP)—Informed sources reported today the Soviet Government has decided tentatively to close three of its consulates in Iran, which has been under frequent verbal attack by Moscow.

The three Russian consulates in Iran are at Tabriz, Meshed and Ahwaz. The Russians are said to have asked the Iranians to close their consulate in Baku, Russia.

Troops Withdrawn

It is just three years ago today that the United Nations Security Council first met in the United States and took up Iranian charges against the Soviet Union. Two months later Soviet troops, which had been in Iran as part of a wartime occupation by the Allies, withdrew from the country.

A closing of the Russian consulates in Iran would follow much the same pattern as the Soviet Union adopted last year as a reprisal move in the Lomakin-Kasenkina case. Moscow closed its consulates in New York and San Francisco and asked the United States to close its consulate at Vladivistok.

Lomakin Dispute

Earlier the United States had demanded the recall of Yacob M. Lomakin, Soviet consul general in New York, on the ground that he abused his prerogatives of conduct. The charges grew out of the case of Mrs. Oksana Kasenkina, a Soviet teacher who had been brought to the United States to teach children of Russian officials. She leaped from a window of the Soviet Consulate General in New York and seriously injured herself. Another teacher, Mikhail Samarin, delared Lomakin was trying to force him to return to Russia.

Lomakin is now a press officer in Moscow.

Iran has a 28-year-old treaty with Moscow which permits the Soviet Union to send troops into the neighboring country if the Soviets feel such action is necessary to their own self-defense.

Recently Moscow has been charging that Iran is being built up as an American military base, to be used against the Russians in case of war. Secretary of State Acheson this week denounced these charges as "false and demonstrably untrue." Acheson said the United States has no bases in Iran and contemplates having none there.

Shapour Fatimi, press attaché to the Iranian delegation here, declared March 15 that a recent attempt to assassinate the Shah of Iran grew out of Russian pressure on his country. After the assassination attempt the Iranian Government outlawed the Leftist Tudeh party.

LONDON, MARCH 25-(AP)-TASS, THE OFFICIAL SOVIET NEWS AGENCY, SAID TODAY "ORGANIZATIONS REPRESENTING MORE THAN 250,000,000 (M) PEOPLE" HAVE APPLIED FOR REPRESENTATION IN A SO-CALLED WORLD PEACE CONGRESS SCHEDULED TO OPEN IN PARIS APRIL 20.

THE CONGRESS WAS CALLED BY THE INTERNATIONAL LIAISON COMMITTEE ESTABLISHED LAST YEAR AT AN INTERNATIONAL MEETING OF "INTELLECTUALS" IN WROCLAW, POLAND. THOSE SESSIONS WERE MARKED BY DENUNCIATIONS OF THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER NON-COMMUNIST NATIONS.

TASS DISTRIBUTED ITS STATEMENT THROUGH ITS LONDON OFFICE, REPORTING AN "ENDLESS STREAM" OF LETTERS AND TELEGRAMS FROM INTERESTED GROUPS AND INDIVIDUALS.

LT. GEN. ALEXANDER GUNDEROV IN A BROADCAST OVER THE MOSCOW RADIO SAID SLAVS IN THE UNITED STATES "CANNOT STAND ASIDE" FROM EFFORTS TO STOP WHAT HE TERMED AMERICAN EFFORTS TO START A NEW WAR.

THE GENERAL, CHAIRMAN OF THE SOVIET SLAV COMMITTEE, SAID HIS ORGANIZATION WOULD ATTEND THE PARIS MEETING.

LATER AN ANONYMOUS SPEAKER HEARD ON THE MOSCOW RADIO CHARGED THAT "GOVERNMENT BODIES AND THE OFFICIAL AMERICAN PRESS" HAVE SPREAD PROPAGANDA AGAINST A WORLD PEACE CONFERENCE STARTING IN NEW YORK TODAY BECAUSE THEY FEAJ A PEACE MOVEMENT. HE SAID AMERICAN AUTHORITIES "ARE HOUNDING AND INTIMIDATING PARTICIPANTS."

LONDON, MARCH 25-(AP)-LOUIS GOLDING, BRITISH NOVELIST, PROTESTED TODA THAT THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT HAS MISREPRESENTED HIS VIEWS IN DENYING HIM A VISA TO ATTEND AN INTELLECTUALS' PEACE RALLY IN NEW YORK.

GOLDING WAS ONE OF FOUR BRITONS WHOSE VISAS TO ATTEND WERE REVOKED. THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAD CALLED THE CONGRESS "A COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA FRONT."

"I AM NEITHER A 'PRO-COMMUNIST SYMPATHIZER' NOR A 'FELLOW TRAVELER'", GOLDING WROTE IN A LETTER TO THE LONDON TIMES.

"I AM A MEMBER OF NO POLITICAL PARTY AND AN UPHOLDER OF NO ECONOMIC DOCTRINE. I AM A NOVELIST WHOSE CONSUMING INTERESTS ARE THE RELATIONS OF MEN AND WOMEN WITH EACH OTHER, AND OF BOTH WITH THEIR BACKGROUND X X X.

"WHAT DISTRESSES ME IN THE REVOCATION OF MY VISA IS LESS MY PERSONAL DISAPPOINTMENT THAN THE ACTION OF THE UNITED STATES AUTHORITIES IN NOT MAKING MORE SURE THAN THEY DID THAT THEY WERE NOT TOTALLY MISREPRESENTING THE VIEWS OF A BRITISH CITIZEN WHO IS ALSO A WARM LOVER OF THEIR COUNTRY."

LONDON, MARCH 25-(AP)-BRITAIN SOON WILL TIGHTEN ITS BAN ON SHIPMENTS OF POTENTIAL WAR GOODS TO RUSSIA AND HER SATELLITES, OFFICIAL SOURCES REPORTED TONIGHT.

THEY SAID MANY "BORDERLINE" COMMODITIES, WHICH MIGHT POSSIBLY BE USED FOR MILITARY PURPOSES, WILL BE ADDED TO THE LIST OF MATERIALS WHOSE EXPORT ALREADY IS FORBIDDEN TO COMMUNIST-DOMINATED COUNTRIES.

THE REPORTED BRITISH MOVE WAS DISCLOSED AFTER REPUBLICANS IN THE U.S. SENATE CALLED FOR TIGHTER RESTRICTIONS ON EAST-WEST TRADE.

THEY CRITICIZED A HOUSE OF COMMONS STATEMENT BY HAROLD WILSON, PRESIDENT OF THE BRITISH BOARD OF TRADE, THAT BRITAIN'S TRADE RELATIONS WITH RUSSIA WERE GUIDED BY "CONSIDERATIONS OF ECONOMIC ADVANTAGE."

BRITISH OFFICIALS SAID THE NEW RESTRICTIONS ON BRITISH EXPORTS TO EASTERN EUROPE WOULD BE ANNOUNCED SOON.

THEY SAID THE MORE DRASTIC RESTRICTIONS WERE BASED ON CONFIDENTIAL SCHEDULES OF GOODS WHICH THE U.S. THINKS SHOULD NOT GO TO COMMUNIST-DOMINATED COUNTRIES. THE SCHEDULES HAVE GONE TO THE 19 COUNTRIES RECEIVING U.S. AID UNDER THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM.

THE FIRST TWO U.S. SCHEDULES ARE REPORTED TO URGE EXPORT BANS ON ARMS, MUNITIONS, RADAR EQUIPMENT, ATOM-BOMB MATERIALS AND MATERIALS WHICH MIGHT BE USED FOR MANUFACTURE OF JET ENGINES AND CERTAIN PRECISION INSTRUMENTS.

THE THIRD SCHEDULE, ACCORDING TO INFORMANTS HERE, WAS MUCH MORE FAR REACHING. THEY DID NOT DETAIL ITS CONTENTS NOR SAY WHETHER BRITAIN ACCEPTED IT COMPLETELY.

ONE OFFICIAL SAID BRITISH TRADE WITH EASTERN EUROPE WOULD BE AFFECTED "SERIOUSLY" IF THE SCHEDULE IS ENFORCED. INFORMED SOURCES SAID SEVERAL ERP COUNTRIES, NOTABLY SWEDEN, HAVE OBJECTED TO ACCEPTING THE U.S. PROPOSAL AS IT STANDS.

LONDON,MARCH 25-(AP)-SIX VISITING RUSSIAN WOMEN SHOWED TODAY THEY HAVE ONE THING IN COMMON WITH THEIR WESTERN SISTERS--THEY LIKE TO GO SHOPPING.

THEY BECAME SO INTERESTED IN LONDON'S RATION-FREE CLOTHING STORES THAT THEY SAID THEY PASSED UP A LUNCH DATE WITH THE WOMEN'S PRESS CLUB.

ONE OF THE SOVIET WOMEN, HERE FOR AN INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY CELEBRATION DESCRIBED HER PURCHASE AS "A LITTLE WOOLEN FROCK AND JUMPER."

THE PRESS CLUB, HEADED BY WRITER REBECCA WEST, WAITED TWO AND A HALF HOURS AND THEN IT WAS ANNOUNCED THE LUNCHEON GUESTS "WENT OUT SHOPPING AND LOST THEIR SENSE OF TIME."

MISS WEST SAID IT WAS "A GREAT PITY" AND ADDED:

"WE DID NOT ASK THEM HERE TO ARGUE WITH THEM, BUT BECAUSE WE FELT THAT WE HAD A LOT IN COMMON WITH THEM. WE SHOULD NOT HAVE ASKED THEM TO BE OUR GUESTS IF WE HAD INTENDED TO PLAGUE THEM."

THE SIX SOVIET WOMEN LUNCHED AT THE RUSSIAN EMBASSY AFTER THEIR SHOPPING TOUR.

London, March 25--(ap)--Britain's butchers will be paid a government subsidy to make up for losses they'll suffer by the latest cut in the meat ration, the food ministry announced today.

The meager meat ration will be cut 20 per cent on monday-- allowing each person eight pence (about 14 cents) worth of meat a week. That figures out to a weekly ~~ration~~ slice of beef ranging from 15 ounces to a pound and a half depending on quality.

The ministry said the new subsidy to butchers would be a 4 1/2 per cebt rebate off the wholesale price of meat. Dissatisifed butchers whose profit goes down with the drop in sales volume wanted eight per cent rebate.

MAR 26 1949

The ration was cut because of argentina's failure to make full deliveries under the 1948-49 trade agreement. ~~the~~ trade sources said the ration cut would reduce butchers' profits from $61,000,000 to ~~47~~ $47,000,000 a year.

London, March 25--(AP)--The Moscow Radio, in a broadcast heard here tonight, said the United States wants to use Britain under the North Atlantic Treaty "as an advanced base for atomic bombing forces."

The announcer, A. Leonidov, echoed similar remarks made in Parliament Wednesday by John Platts-Mills, independent m.p.

"In the American militarists' point of view today," the announcer said, "British soldiers are just so much manpower which can be dispatched to any part of the globe to fight for Wall Street.

MAR 26 1949

"In addition to British soldiers, American militariats also want to dispose of British territory as an advanced base for atomic bombing forces. America is to provide atom bombs, Britain is to provide her manpower and her territory."

MADRID, MARCH 25-(AP)-THE SPANISH CABINET DRAFTED THE COUNTRY'S "ATTITUDE TOWARD THE ATLANTIC PACT" TODAY DURING A LENGTHY SESSION, BUT THERE WAS NO INDICATION OF THE DECISION TAKEN.
GENERALISSIMO FRANCISCO FRANCO PRESIDED AT THE MEETING. NICOLAS FRANCO, THE GENERALISSIMO'S BROTHER AND AMBASSADOR TO PORTUGAL, CARRIED THE LATEST WORD TO LISBON. HOWEVER, OFFICIALS IN BOTH COUNTRIES WERE SILENT.
SPAIN WAS NOT INVITED TO JOIN THE PACT BUT IS INDIRECTLY INVOLVED BECAUSE PORTUGAL IS LINKED TO THIS COUNTRY UNDER THE 10-YEAR-OLD IBERIAN PACT. THE TWO COUNTRIES HAVE BEEN CONFERRING OVER THE ATLANTIC TREATY SINCE PORTUGAL WAS INVITED TO JOIN ON MARCH 17.

SOUTHAMPTON, ENGLAND, MARCH 25-(AP)-BRITAIN'S FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN SAILED FOR THE UNITED STATES TODAY ON THE QUEEN MARY.

HE AND OTHER EUROPEAN LEADERS ARE TO SIGN THE NEW NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE TREATY IN WASHINGTON EARLY NEXT MONTH.

PAUL-HENRI SPAAK, PREMIER AND FOREIGN MINISTER OF BELGIUM, WAS TO BOARD THE SHIP AT CHERBOURG. FOREIGN MINISTER JOSEPH BECH OF LITTLE LUXEMBOURG IS ALSO TO SAIL. EACH WILL SIGN THE TREATY FOR HIS COUNTRY.

ALSO BOOKED ON THE QUEEN MARY WERE HECTOR MCNEIL, BRITISH MINISTER OF STATE, AND ANDREI A. GROMYKO, SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER. EACH HEADS HIS COUNTRY'S DELEGATION TO THE UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY OPENING IN NEW YORK APRIL 5.

BEVIN SUFFERED WHAT HE CALLED A SLIGHT ASTHMATIC COUGHING SPELL WHEN HE BOARDED THE SHIP LAST NIGHT. HE SAID HE PLANNED TO SPEND MOST OF THE TRIP IN BED TO REST UP, AFTER WORKING LONG HOURS RECENTLY.

FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER ROBERT SCHUMAN IS TO LEAVE PARIS FOR WASHINGTON BY PLANE NEXT WEDNESDAY. HE ALSO WILL SIGN THE PACT.

BEVIN, SCHUMAN AND THE OTHER EUROPEAN LEADERS ARE EXPECTED TO GET TOGETHER IN WASHINGTON WITH U.S. OFFICIALS ON SUCH OTHER PROBLEMS AS:

THE FUTURE OF WESTERN GERMANY AND THE RUSSIAN BLOCKADE OF BERLIN.

SECURITY FOR GREECE, TURKEY AND IRAN, ALL BORDERING ON IRON CURTAIN TERRITORY.

Winterthur, Switzerland, March 25--(AP)--The deputy leader of the Swiss Communist Party and four Communist sympathizers were convicted today on charges of misappropriating funds.

MAR 26 1949

Edgar Woog, Communist member of Parliament and deputy XXXXXX party leader, was convicted along with four other persons. Two others were acquitted.

XXX

Woog and his fellow defendants, who included three women, were charged with subsidizing Vorwaerts, Swiss Communist newspaper, with proceeds of a Communist-organized collection for Polish and Yugoslav war orphans.

The prosecution charged during the month-long trial that Woog and the other defendants misappropriated most of the 83,000 francs ($19,400) collected in their war orphan campaign between 1945 and 1947. The prosecution said only 35,000 francs ($8,200) was used for the benefit of the orphans. #

FRANKFURT, MARCH 25-(AP)-A GERMAN PARTY LEADER TODAY ACCUSED DR. RUDOLF NADOLNY, FORMER GERMAN AMBASSADOR TO MOSCOW, OF ACTING AS A RUSSIAN AGENT IN PROMOTING RECENT TALKS ON "GERMAN UNITY" WITH WESTERN GERMANS.

THE CHARGE WAS MADE BY AUGUST EULER, HEAD OF HESSE'S FREE DEMOCRATIC PARTY. HE SAID HE HAS "RELIABLE INFORMATION" THAT NADOLNY HAD DAILY CONTACT BY COURIER WITH SOVIET HEADQUARTERS IN EASTERN GERMANY DURING HIS UNITY TALKS WITH WESTERN GERMAN LEADERS HERE.

NADOLNY DENIED IN A NEWS CONFERENCE LAST WEEK HE WAS A RUSSIAN EMISSARY. HE INSISTED HE HAD REJECTED COMMUNISM AND WAS SEEKING TO REUNITE GERMANY ONLY IN THE INTEREST OF "THE FATHERLAND AND PEACE."

ERWIN SHOETTLE, SOCIAL DEMOCRAT LEADER, CRITICIZED TWO GERMAN OFFICIALS ON THE BIZONAL (BRITISH-AMERICAN) ECONOMIC COUNCIL FOR TALKING WITH NADOLNY.

"CONFIDENCE OF THE WESTERN ALLIES IN GERMAN OFFICIALS WILL BE SHAKEN BY SUCH TALKS," SHOETTLE SAID.

BY ALEX H.SINGLETON
BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA, MARCH 25-(AP)-PREMIER MARSHAL TITO WILL MAKE A MAJOR SPEECH NEXT MONTH WHICH MAY CHART YUGOSLAVIA'S FUTURE ROLE IN TENSE WORLD AFFAIRS. IT MAY MARK A SHIFT TOWARD IMPROVED ECONOMIC RELATIONS WITH THE WEST.

THE SPEECH IS EXPECTED TO BE UTTERED ABOUT APRIL 10 BEFORE THE CONGRESS OF THE PEOPLES' FRONT OF YUGOSLAVIA. IT IS LIKELY TO COVER THIS COUNTRY'S INCREASING DIFFICULTIES WITH ITS COMMUNIST NEIGHBORS SINCE THE REGIME WAS BLACKLISTED BY THE COMMUNIST INFORMATION BUREAU (COMINFORM) EIGHT MONTHS AGO.

(THAT KREMLIN-RULED BOARD SAID TITO AND HIS COMMUNISTS HAD ABANDONED THE TRUE PARTY LINE FOR NATIONALISM AND WERE HATEFUL TO RUSSIA. TITO REPLIED "SLANDER." HE WAS THE FIRST MAJOR COMMUNIST SINCE THE WAR TO DEFY MOSCOW.)

THE DIFFICULTIES HAVE BEEN HAMMERED HOME TO THE YUGOSLAV PEOPLE WITH RISING EMPHASIS IN RECENT MONTHS. HARDLY A DAY PASSES BUT THAT THE GOVERNMENT PRESS DOES NOT DENOUNCE AS LIES AND SCANDAL COMINFORM ATTACKS ON THIS COUNTRY.

IT HAS AMOUNTED TO EVEN MORE THAN THAT. THE COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER BORBA AND OTHER OFFICIAL SHEETS HAVE PUBLISHED REPORTS THAT SOVIET SATELLITES HAVE BEEN RENEGING ON SOME TRADE AGREEMENTS, DELAYING DELIVERIES ON OTHERS AND BOOSTING PRICES FROM 20 TO 50 PER CENT ON GOODS WHICH ARE SHIPPED HERE.

AGAINST THAT BACKDROP, TITO'S SPEECH WILL BE MADE AMID OBVIOUS SIGNS OF NEWLY SHARPENED INTEREST BY AMERICAN AND BRITISH BUSINESSMEN IN ARRANGING MAJOR DEALS WITH YUGOSLAVIA.

THE PAST FEW WEEKS HAVE SEEN A NUMBER, BUT STILL ONLY A TRICKLE, OF WESTERN TRADE REPRESENTATIVES ARRIVING FOR QUIET TALKS ABOUT CONTRACTS RUNNING INTO MILLIONS OF DOLLARS.

WHY THIS SUDDEN INTEREST? HAS THERE BEEN A POLICY CHANGE BY THE WEST? IF SO, IS IT A SIGN OF A WESTERN DECISION TO BOLSTER TITO ECONOMICALLY AGAINST RUSSIAN PRESSURE?

AND IS IT A SIGN THAT TITO HAS DECIDED TO ACCEPT THIS SUPPORT, IF IT IS IN THE OFFING, PARTLY AT LEAST TO HELP ASSURE FULFILLMENT OF THE FIVE YEAR PLAN BY WHICH YUGOSLAVIA HOPES TO OBTAIN A SOUND ECONOMY? HIS SPEECH MAY GIVE SOME OF THE ANSWERS AND TELL EVEN MORE.

MAR 26 1949

A30
THERE ARE POSITIVE INDICATIONS THE ANSWER TO THE LAST THREE QUESTIONS IS "YES." IT WORKS BOTH WAYS.

IT IS HARD TO GET A VISA TO ENTER YUGOSLAVIA. UNLESS TITO HAS ADOPTED AT LEAST A "LET'S TALK IT OVER" ATTITUDE, WESTERN BUSINESSMEN WOULD BE STOPPED AT THE FRONTIER. ALSO IT ISN'T EASY TO GET A VISA FROM THE UNITED STATES TO TRAVEL HERE. SPECIAL PERMISSION IS REQUIRED. THE STATE DEPARTMENT HARDLY WOULD BE LIKELY TO GIVE A GO AHEAD SIGNAL TO BUSINESSMEN UNLESS IT IS READY TO ISSUE EXPORT LICENSES FOR MATERIALS PREVIOUSLY BLOCKED FOR SHIPMENT HERE. THE SAME APPLIES TO THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE.

SIMILARLY, IT IS UNLIKELY THAT WARY INTERNATIONAL BUSINESSMEN WOULD BID FOR CONTRACTS HERE WITHOUT SOME IDEA ON HOW THEY WOULD BE PAID. THEY ARE AWARE OF THE COUNTRY'S ECONOMIC POSITION.

THERE SEEM TO BE TWO ANSWERS, FROM OPPOSITE DIRECTIONS, TO THE PROBLEM. ONE IS ASSURANCE BY YUGOSLAVIA OF PAYMENT IN RAW MATERIALS. THEY OTHER SEEMS TO BE ASSURANCE BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE OF CREDITS TO FINANCE YUGOSLAV PURCHASES. IT IS AN OFFICIAL SECRET WHETHER EHTHER OR BOTH HAVE BEEN ARRANGED.

BUSINESSMEN HERE IN THE LAST FEW WEEKS INCLUDE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STEEL INDUSTRY. A COMPANY THAT BUILDS TIRE PLANTS, AN AUTOMOBILE CONCERN AND ONE WHICH BUILDS MACHINE TOOLS.

AMONG THEM WERE REPRESENTATIVES OF R.A.BRASSERT OF NEW YORK, ONE OF THE WORLD'S LARGEST FIRMS OF CONSULTING ENGINEERS.

THUS FAR, THE BEST MOST OF THE BUSINESSMEN HAVE BEEN ABLE TO GET ARE CONDITIONAL AGREEMENTS RATHER THAN HARD CONTRACTS. THESE ARE PRESUMED TO DEPEND ON CREDITS AND EXPORT LICENSES. THE FACT THAT THEY HAVE BEEN ABLE TO GO THAT FAR IN TALKING BUSINESS IS IN ITSELF SIGNIFICANT.

IT MAY INDICATE THE COMINFORM'S DENUNCIATION OF TITO MAY HAVE BACKFIRED BY PUSHING YUGOSLAVIA INCREASINGLY TO THE WEST.

IT SHOULD BE EMPHASIZED THAT THERE HAS BEEN NO SIGN OF A POLITICAL SHIFT IN THAT DIRECTION. THE PRESS, WHICH CONSISTENTLY DENOUNCES THE COMINFORM CHARGES AND PRACTICES OF SOME OF THE COMMUNIST MEMBER COUNTRIES, SIMULTANEOUSLY AND STOUTLY AFFIRMS THE COUNTRY'S LOYALTY TO TRUE COMMUNIST IDEALS.

RUSSIAN

BY EDDY GILMORE
MOSCOW, MARCH 25-(AP)-THE SHAKEUP OF RUSSIAN LEADERSHIP GAVE THE SOVIET ARMIES A NEW CHIEF TODAY--MARSHAL ALEXANDER M.VASILEVSKY, BRILLIANT WARRIOR AND TACTICIAN.

AS IN OTHER RECENT SHIFTS, THE PRESIDIUM OF THE SUPREME SOVIET ANNOUNCED WITHOUT EXPLANATION THAT VASILEVSKY WAS TAKING OVER FROM

MARSHAL NIKOLAI A.BULGANIN AS MINISTER OF ARMED FORCES OF THE SOVIET UNION, THE HIGHEST MILITARY POST IN ALL RUSSIA.

(3 [redacted] PORTIONS OF GILMORE'S STORY, TELEPHONED TO LONDON FROM MOSCOW, ARE MISSING, PRESUMABLY HELD UP BY THE SOVIET CENSOR.)

BULGANIN, WHO HAD HELD THE MINISTRY SINCE HE TOOK IT OVER FROM PRIME MINISTER JOSEF STALIN MARCH 4, 1947, WILL RETAIN HIS POST AS DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER IN THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS. HE APPARENTLY ALSO WILL CONTINUE AS A MEMBER OF THE POWERFUL, POLICY-SHAPING POLITBURO.

VASILEVSKY, PERSONALLY WELL KNOWN TO GEN. EISENHOWER AND BRITISH FIELD MARSHAL VISCOUNT MONTGOMERY, RAN UP AN IMPRESSIVE RECORD IN WORLD WAR II. FROM THE RANK OF MAJOR GENERAL HE ROSE IN NOT MUCH MORE THAN A YEAR TO GENERAL OF THE ARMY JAN. 18, 1943, AND BECAME A MARSHAL AND CHIEF OF STAFF NOT LONG AFTERWARD. HIS NEW PROMOTION RAISES HIM FROM THE POST OF DEPUTY MINISTER OF ARMED FORCES.

HIS TROOPS SMASHED THE GERMAN VERONEZH FRONT ON JAN. 17, 1943, AND HE LED THE SUCCESSFUL SOVIET CAMPAIGN IN THE CRIMEA IN 1944 WHICH LIBERATED SEVASTOPOL. HE IS ONE OF THE MOST DECORATED OF RUSSIAN SOLDIERS, AND TWICE RECEIVED THE AWARD OF HERO OF THE SOVIET UNION.

HE SAT AMONG THE TOP HALF-DOZEN MEMBERS OF THE SUPREME COMMAND WHICH MAPPED STRATEGY IN THE CRITICAL DAYS OF THE WAR AND ENGINEERED THE RUSSIAN DRIVE TO BERLIN.

VASILEVSKY STARTED HIS MILITARY CAREER IN THE CZAR'S ARMY, SERVING WITH A COSSACK REGIMENT IN WORLD WAR I. HE SIDED WITH THE BOLSHEVIK FORCES DURING THE REVOLUTION AND JOINED THE RED ARMY, BECOMING A STUDENT OF LARGE-SCALE MILITARY OPERATIONS.

MAR 26 194[illegible]

A7

BULGANIN, A GRAYING MAN WITH A GOATEE, IS FAMED AS AN ORGANIZER AND FOR HIS PASSION FOR EFFICIENCY. HE STARTED A BANKING CAREER AND BECAME CHAIRMAN OF THE STATE BANK OF THE U.S.S.R. IN 1941 HE WAS APPOINTED TO THE MILITARY COUNCIL WHICH PLANNED THE DEFENSE OF MOSCOW, AND BEGAN A SWIE R

MOSCOW, AND BEGAN A SWIFT RISE IN MILITARY AFFAIRS WITH HIS SKILLED HANDLING OF MEN AND RUBLES COUNTABLE IN THE MILLIONS.

IN MARCH, 1947, HE WAS APPOINTED MINISTER OF THE ARMED FORCES, AND WAS PROMOTED FROM GENERAL TO MARSHAL THE FOLLOWING NOVEMBER. HE HAS SERVED AT VARIOUS TIMES ALSO AS A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE, MEMBER OF THE PRESIDIUM OF THE MOSCOW SO IET, SOVIET REPRESENTATIVE ON THE POLISH COMMITTEE OF NATIONAL [redacted], LIBERATION AND PREMIER OF THE RUSSIAN SOVIET FEDERAL SOCIALIST REPUBLIC, THE LARGEST OF THE CONSTITUENT REPUBLICS WHICH MAKE UP THE SOVIET UNION. [redacted]

BOTH VASILEVSKY AND BULGANIN WERE BORN IN 1895. (OTHER SOURCES GIVE BULGANIN'S AGE AS 53, AND VASILEVSKY'S AS 49, INSTEAD OF 54). BOTH MEN ALSO ARE MEMBERS OF THE SUPREME SOVIET (PARLIAMENT).

WORD OF THE NEW SHIFT CAME IN TWO ONE SENTENCE ANNOUNCEMENTS BY THE PRESIDIUM, BROADCAST EARLY THIS MORNING BY THE MOSCOW RADIO AND PUBLISHED IN THE MORNING NEWSPAPERS WHICH APPEARED LATER.

VASILEVSKY WAS CLOSELY ASSOCIATED WITH GEN. EISENHOWER AND MONTGOMERY ON THEIR VISITS TO MOSCOW. THEY WERE ON FRIENDLY TERMS.

HE ACCOMPANIED EISENHOWER TO A PHYSICAL CULTURE PARADE IN RED SQUARE AND LATER TOOK HIM TO A FOOTBALL GAME. THEY MET FREQUENTLY AT OFFICIAL AND UNOFFICIAL FUNCTIONS, AND EISENHOWER SEEMED TO ENJOY HIS COMPANY.

LIKEWISE WHEN MONTGOMERY CAME TO MOSCOW VASILEVSKY ENTERTAINED HIM. THEY EXCHANGED GIFTS OF LIQUOR, AND THE MARSHAL GAVE MONTGOMERY A FAREWELL GIFT OF A FUR LINED OVERCOAT.

BOTH BULGANIN AND VASILEVSKY ATTENDED SESSIONS OF THE SUPREME SOVIET THIS MONTH. BULGANIN OCCUPIED A SEAT NEAR STALIN, AND THEY CONVERSED SEVERAL TIMES WHILE THE PRIME MINISTER WAS ATTENDING A JOINT SESSION OF THE PARLIAMENTARY BODY.

---DASH---

THE NEW CHANGE IS INTERPRETED BY OBSERVERS OUTSIDE RUSSIA AS FITTING INTO THE SAME PATTERN AS EARLIER ONES WHICH RELIEVED POLITBURO MEMBERS OF ACTIVE ADMINISTRATIVE WORK, APPARENTLY SO THEY CAN GIVE FULL TIME TO POLICY PROBLEMS.

IT FOLLOWS THE RELEASE OF V.M.MOLOTOV AS FOREIGN MINISTER AND APPOINTMENT OF ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY TO SUCCEED HIM; RELEASE OF A.I. MIKOYAN AS MINISTER OF FOREIGN TRADE, AND DESIGNATION OF M.A.MENSHIKOV TO SUCCEED HIM; THE ADVANCEMENT OF ANDREI A.GROMYKO TO BECOME VISHINSKY'S CHIEF DEPUTY, AND SEVERAL OTHER SWITCHES.

THE RELEASE OF TOP LEVERL FIGURES BORE NO INDICATION THAT THEY WERE BEING DEMOTED BUT, ON THE CONTRARY, THAT RUSSIA WAS SEEKING BIGGER THINGS OF THEM IN THEIR POLITBURO WORK.

NEVER, HOWEVER, HAS THE SOVIET UNION GIVEN A DEFINITE STATEMENT OF ITS REASONS FOR THE SHAKEUP. IT HAS IGNORED SPECULATION ABROAD WHICH INCLUDED SUGGESTIONS THAT STALIN HIMSELF MAY BE GETTING THINGS IN ORDER SO THAT HE MAY RETIRE.

KAREN TRIBESMEN WERE DRIVEN FROM MEIKTILA YESTERDAY. THEY HAD OCCUPIED THE BURMESE ARMY HEADQUARTERS CITY 75 MILES SOUTH OF MANDALAY FOR MORE THAN A MONTH.

ACCORDING TO GOVERNMENT ACCOUNTS, THE REBELS FELL BACK TOWARD THAZI WITH THE INTENTION OF OPENING UP THE RAIL CONNECTION WITH TOUNGOO, 125 MILES TO THE SOUTH.

AFTER A SERIES OF CLASHES THE REBELLIOUS TRIBESMEN WERE TRAPPED WHEN GOVERNMENT INFANTRY OCCUPIED SMEIKTILA. BURMESE GROUND AND AIR UNITS THEN ATTEMPTED TO WIPE OUT THE INSURGENT FORCE.

(THIS DISPATCH, LIKE ALL OTHERS FROM BURMA, PASSED THROUGH GOVERNMENT CENSORSHIP. IT DID NOT MENTION CASUALTIES OR SPECIFY THE SIZE OF THE FORCES INVOLVED IN THE MANDALAY AND MEIKTILA BATTLES).

AN OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT SAID BURMESE REINFORCEMENTS WERE DISPATCHED TO MEIKTILA TO MAINTAIN ORDER AND TO PREVENT STILL ANOTHER REBELLIOUS GROUP, CONNECTED WITH THE PEOPLE'S VOLUNTEER ORGANIZATION, FROM GAINING THE UPPER HAND.

BURMESE PLANES SCORED DIRECT HITS ON TWO TRAINS IN THE TOUNGOO AREA, THE GOVERNMENT SAID. THE TRAINS WERE CARRYING KAREN FORCES.

PROGRESS WAS REPORTED IN GOVERNMENT MOPPING UP OPERATIONS AGAINST REBEL GROUPS IN THE NAMTU AREA OF THE NORTHERN SHAN STATES. BRITISH LEAD AND SILVER MINES ARE LOCATED IN THAT REGION.

IF EXPECTED PEACE TALKS WITH THE COMMUNISTS FAIL, THE NATIONALIST GROUP WITH CONTROL OF THE MAJOR PART OF ASSETS AND THE ARMY WILL BE AHEAD IN THE SCRAMBLE FOR POWER IN SOUTH CHINA.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS ARE CONFRONTED WITH A DESPERATE ECONOMIC SITUATION AND ARE TRYING TO PERSUADE CHIANG TO RELEASE THESE FUNDS.

THE MOST PRESSING PROBLEM FACING THE NANKING GOVERNMENT IS HOW TO PAY THE ARMY WITH THE GOLD YUAN BECOMING ALMOST VALUELESS. TO KEEP THE LOYALTY OF THE ARMY THE GOVERNMENT MAY HAVE TO PAY IT IN SILVER.

WELL INFORMED FINANCIAL CIRCLES ESTIMATE HARD SPECIE RESERVES OF THE GOVERNMENT TOTAL ABOUT $275,000,000 (M). OFFICIALS SAY ABOUT A THIRD OF THIS AMOUNT IS UNDER THEIR CONTROL IN SHANGHAI PLUS WHAT IS DEPOSITED ABROAD UNDER CLEAR NATIONAL GOVERNMENT TITLE.

CHIANG ORDERED ABOUT $75,000,000 (M) IN TREASURY FUNDS MOVED SOUTH SEVERAL MONTHS AGO. THE BULK WENT TO FORMOSA WHERE IT HAS REMAINED UNDER THE WATCHFUL EYE OF CHIANG'S MILITARY GOVERNOR. WHEN CHIANG "RETIRED" HE DID NOT PASS ON CONTROL OF TREASURY FUNDS IN THE SOUTH TO ACTING PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN.

rhodes, march 25-(ap)-the presence of british troops in the trans-jordan port of aqaba is holding up an israeli-trans-jordan agreement on reduction of their forces, it was reported today.

a jewish informant said the two delegations--here to negotiate an armistice agreement--already have agreed in principle on israeli-trans-jordan troop reductions in disputed areas. the israelis, however, want the agreement to provide also for reduction, or transfer of british troops.

one reliable source said the palestine mediator, dr. ralph j. bunche, has asked united nations secretary general trygve lie to use his influence with the british to reduce tension in the aqaba area.

TOKYO,SATURDAY,MARCH 26-(AP)-TWO GUNMEN ROBBED THE FIRST CAVALRY DIVISION POST OFFICE AT NEARBY CAMP DRAKE LAST NIGHT OF $700 AND WOUNDED SGT.JEROME LIPTAK, ALLPORT, PA., A CLERK.

(ADVANCE)..OTTAWA, MARCH 25-(AP)-J.A.POTTS OF MINNEAPOLIS HAS BEEN SENT A GLOVE HE LOST DURING AN AIR BATTLE OFF THE NETHERLANDS COAST IN OCTOBER, 1942.

A GERMAN SOLDIER, THE RED CROSS, ROYAL CANADIAN AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS AND THE U.S.EMBASSY IN OTTAWA WERE INVOLVED IN THE UNUSUAL CHAIN OF EVENTS WHICH LED TO THE RETURN.

THE GERMAN, HERMAN HOHN OF MUNICH, PICKED UP THE GLOVE ON THE COAST OF THE NETHERLANDS. POTTS' NAME AND A REGIMENTAL NUMBER OF THE RCAF WERE WRITTEN ON IT. A PLANE WHICH HOHN THOUGHT WAS BRITISH HAD CRASHED IN THE SEA THE NIGHT BEFORE. THE GERMAN ASSUMED THE OWNER OF THE GLOVE HAD BEEN KILLED.

HOHN KEPT THE GLOVE WHEN THE GERMAN ARMY SWITCHED HIM TO THE RUSSIAN FRONT. SUBSEQUENTLY HE WAS CAPTURED BY THE RUSSIANS. FOLLOWING HIS REPATRIATION RECENTLY, HOHN SENT THE GLOVE TO THE RED CROSS IN LONDON, THINKING IT WOULD REACH THE FAMILY OF POTTS.

THE RED CROSS GOT IN TOUCH WITH THE CASUALTY SECTION OF THE RCAF. WING CMDR.W.R.GUNN LOOKED UP POTTS' RECORD. HE FOUND THAT POTTS HAD NOT BEEN SHOT DOWN AND STILL IS VERY MUCH ALIVE. THE STORY WAS CLEARED UP WHEN GUNN AND POTTS EXCHANGED LETTERS.

POTTS WROTE THAT HE HAD PARTICIPATED IN A WELLINGTON BOMBER ATTACK ON EMDEN IN 1942. EN ROUTE BACK TO HIS BASE, HE TOOK HIS GLOVES OFF AND WATCHED FOR ENEMY PLANES.

HE SAID HE SPOTTED TWO EXHAUSTS AND "LET GO WITH BOTH GUNS." A BALL OF FIRE FELL INTO THE SEA. HE FIRED AGAIN AT ANOTHER ENEMY PLANE WHICH ALMOST TOOK THE TAIL OFF THE WELLINGTON.

POTTS SAID THAT PLANE "SHOT UP INTO THE SKY AND THEN HIT THE SEA." AFTER THE BATTLE THE AMERICAN NOTICED HIS GLOVES WERE MISSING. APPARENTLY THEY HAD BEEN BLOWN OUT OF THE BOMBER. THE CRASHED AIRCRAFT WHICH HOHN SAW, POTTS SAID, MUST HAVE BEEN GERMAN.

POTTS GOT HIS GLOVE BACK THROUGH THE AMERICAN EMBASSY HERE.

(END ADVANCE FOR USE AT 9:30 P.M. EST, TODAY, FRIDAY, MARCH 25).

FOURTH NIGHT LEAD CONFERENCE

BY CHARLES E.MERCER

NEW YORK, MARCH 25-(AP)-A MAGAZINE EDITOR TOLD A "WORLD PEACE" CONFERENCE HERE TONIGHT THAT AMERICANS "DO NOT WANT PEACE AT ANY PRICE."

HE WAS NORMAN COUSINS, YOUNG-LOOKING EDITOR OF THE SATURDAY REVIEW OF LITERATURE.

BOOS, HISSES AND JEERS GREETED HIM SIX TIMES DURING HIS PREPARED SPEECH. BUT HE READ IT WITHOUT ANY MAJOR INTERRUPTION.

THERE WAS SOME APPLAUSE AS HE ENDED, ALTHOUGH HIS SPEECH WAS CRITICAL OF THE CONFERENCE AND ITS AIMS. SHOUTS, BOOS AND HISSES ALMOST DROWNED OUT THE APPLAUSE, HOWEVER.

THE NEXT SPEAKER, PLAYWRIGHT LILLIAN HELLMAN, BEGAN HER ADDRESS BY SAYING:

"I WOULD RECOMMEND, MR.COUSINS, THAT, WHEN YOU TALK ABOUT YOUR HOSTS AT DINNER, WAIT UNTIL YOU HAVE GONE HOME TO DO IT."

THE DELEGATES CHEERED. COUSINS, WEARING A BUSINESS SUIT AND BOW TIE, DISPLAYED NO REACTION.

COUSINS' SHARP CRITICISM OF THE CONFERENCE WAS LEVELLED ONLY A SHORT TIME AFTER IT WAS OPENED BY WILLIAM O.STAPLEDON, AN ENGLISH PHILOSOPHER.

STAPLEDON RELEASED COPIES OF A SPEECH IN WHICH HE WARNED AMERICA NOT TO COUNT ON THE ALL-OUT SUPPORT OF THE BRITISH PEOPLE IN ANY WAR AGAINST RUSSIA.

IN HIS ACTUAL SPEECH, HOWEVER, HE SPOKE IN MUCH MORE GENERAL TERMS OF THE OPPOSITION TO WAR BY THE BRITISH PEOPLE. NO REASON WAS GIVEN FOR HIS DEPARTURE FROM THE PREPARED TEXT.

HE REFERRED IN THE ACTUAL SPEECH TO A "GREAT WAR LEADER" NOW IN THIS COUNTRY WHO "DOES NOT KNOW MUCH ABOUT WHAT THE BRITISH PEOPLE ARE REALLY THINKING AND FEELING."

THE AUDIENCE HISSED AT THE OBVIOUS REFERENCE TO WINSTON CHURCHILL, FORMER BRITISH PRIME MINISTER, WHO IS VISITING AMERICA.

ABOUT 2,000 PERSONS WERE ON HAND FOR THE CONFERENCE OPENING AT THE WALDORF-ASTORIA HOTEL.

ALMOST AS MANY MORE PICKETED OUTSIDE ON PARK AVENUE IN THE RAIN TO PROTEST THE CONFERENCE.

THE MOOD OF THE MASSED PROTESTORS APPEARED TO BE GROWING DARKER. ONE FIST FIGHT WAS REPORTED BY POLICE.

THE MEETING, THE CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE FOR WORLD PEACE (CAPS), OPENED TONIGHT. BUT PICKETS CHANTED AND PRAYED OUTSIDE THE HOTEL FOR HOURS EARLIER IN THE DAY.

COUSINS TURNED DOWN ONE INVITATION TO ADDRESS THE GATHERING. THEN HE CHANGED HIS MIND AND WAS GRANTED A SECOND INVITATION.

HE SAID HE RECONSIDERED AFTER UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE V.ALLEN TOLD HIM "IT IS IMPORTANT TO HAVE SOMEONE PRESENT AT THE CONFERENCE A VIGOROUS AFFIRMATION OF THE DEMOCRATIC AND ANTI-TOTALITARIAN POINT OF VIEW."

COUSINS CRITICISM OF THE CONFERENCE WAS IN MARKED CONTRAST TO THE ATTITUDE OF MOST OF ITS SPEAKERS.

IN HIS PREPARED SPEECH, COUSINS CHARGED THAT THE GROUP SUPPORTING THE CONFERENCE "OWES ITS PRIMARY ALLEGIANCE AND DUTY NOT TO AMERICA BUT TO AN OUTSIDE GOVERNMENT."

"AMERICANS WANT PEACE," HE DECLARED. "THEY WILL WORK FOR PEACE AND THEY WILL SACRIFICE FOR PEACE. BUT THEY DO NOT WANT PEACE AT ANY PRICE. IF THE PRICE OF PEACE IS INJUSTICE, THEY WILL REJECT PEACE.

"IF THE PRICE OF PEACE IS LIVING ON AN ISLAND SURROUNDED BY ANGRY WATERS, THEY WILL REJECT PEACE.

"IF THE PRICE OF PEACE IS DETACHMENT FROM THE RIGHTS OF MAN, THEY WILL REJECT PEACE.

"THIS IS NOT PROPHECY. THIS IS HISTORICAL FACT."

COUSINS SPOKE TO DELEGATES OF OTHER LANDS ON THE "ATMOSPHERE OF TENSION, HOSTILITY AND, AS WE HAVE SEEN OUTSIDE, NEAR VIOLENCE" THAT SURROUNDS THE CONFERENCE.

HE CALLED THIS HOSTILITY "THE INEVITABLE REACTION TO THE AUSPIECES UNDER WHICH THIS CONFERENCE IS BEING HELD."

COUSINS SAID THE DEMONSTRATORS OUTSIDE WERE NOT SPEAKING OUT AGAINST PEACE BUT "AGAINST A SMALL POLITICAL GROUP IN THIS COUNTRY WHICH HAS FAILED TO LIVE UP TO THE RULES OF THE GAME IN A DEMOCRACY."

A74

THE EDITOR SAID AMERICANS BELIEVE THAT WORKING FOR A JUST WORLD PEACE "CAN ONLY BE DONE BY A SUPREME SUPPORTING EFFORT BEHIND THE UNITED NATIONS, GIVING IT THE FORM AND SUBSTANCE OF WORLD LAW."

THE CONFERENCE HEARD STAPLEDON SAY THAT, IN ANY NEW WAR, THE BRITISH PEOPLE WILL NOT BE "WHOLEHEARTEDLY AGAINST RUSIA AS WE WERE AGAINST GERMANY."

IN HIS SPEECH, STAPLEDON TOLD THE CONFERENCE THAT "THE TRUE SOCIALIST" IN BRITAIN "SUSPECTS AMERICA OF EMBARKING ON A NEW IMPERIALISM."

"AND WE ARE NOT ANXIOUS TO SELL OUR SOULS TO AMERICA," HE SAID.

STAPLEDON WAS THE ONLY BRITISH DELEGATE ADMITTED TO THIS COUNTRY FOR THE CONFERENCE.

SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON HAS CALLED THE PEACE MEETING "A SOUNDING BOARD FOR COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA."

CONFERENCE SPONSORS DENIED HIS CHARGE.

"THE AVERAGE BRITISH WORKER," STAPLEDON SAID, "AFTER DECADES OF ADMIRATION OF THE NEW RUSSIA, IS NOT GOING TO BE SUDDENLY TURNED AGAINST RUSSIA."

NEITHER ANTI-RUSSIAN PROPAGANDA NOR "THE STUPID AND UNFRIENDLY BEHAVIOR OF THE RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT," STAPLEDON WENT ON, CAN DESTROY "THAT VAST AFFECTION AND ADMIRATION."

PAYING TRIBUTE TO AMERICAN WAR-TIME AID TO BRITAIN, STAPLEDON SAID, HOWEVER, THAT "WE LEARNED TO DISLIKE VERY STRONGLY BEING 'OCCUPIED' BY AMERICAN TROOPS."

"WE SHOULD, OF COURSE, ALSO LOATH BEING OCCUPIED BY RUSSIAN TROOPS," HE CONTINUED.

HE CITED AMERICAN POST-WAR AID WHICH HE SAID PREVENTED STARVATION IN BRITAIN. THEN HE ADDED:

"BUT WE SOMETIMES FEEL THAT IT WOULD HAVE BEEN WORTHWHILE TO STARVE IN ORDER TO RETAIN OUR INDEPENDANCE. WITH OUR NEW-FOUND SELF RESPECT, WE BELIEVE THAT WE HAVE SOMETHING MORE IMPORTANT TO GIVE TO THE WORLD THAN MERE QUIXOTIC SELF-SACRIFICE IN ORDER TO PRESERVE THE WORLD FOR THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE."

EIGHT HUNDRED CRITICS OF THE CONFERENCE KNELT IN PARK AVENUE AT NOON TO PRAY FOR FREEDOM FOR PEOPLE "IN ENSLAVED COUNTRIES OF EUROPE."

THEY RECITED THE "LORD'S PRAYER" AND THE "HAIL MARY" IN UNISON.

THE DRAMATIC INTERLUDE WAS A BREAK IN HOURS OF MARCHING BY THE PICKETS.

A NEWS CONFERENCE BY FOREIGN DELEGATES TO THE CONFERENCE AT THE HOTEL PROVIDED THE SIGNAL FOR THE START OF THE PICKETING UNDER SPONSOBSHIP OF THE NEWLY-FORMED PEOPLES COMMITTEE FOR FREEDOM OF RELIGION.

DURING THE CONFERENCE A.A.FADEYEV, SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE SECRETARIAT OF THE UNION OF SOVIET WRITERS, SAID IN A STATEMENT:

"IT SEEMS THAT DESPITE THE TERRIBLE LESSONS OF HISTORY, GREAT DISCOVERIES IN THE FIELD OF SCIENCE AND GREAT TECHNICAL ADVANCES ARE INTENDED NOT FOR THE BENEFIT OF MANKIND BUT FOR THE FURTHER EXTERMINATION OF MILLIONS OF WOMEN, CHILDREN AND OLD PEOPLE.

"PEOPLE IN SEVERAL COUNTRIES HAVE DEMANDED A SOLUTION OF INTERNATIONAL PROBLEMS BY FORCE OF ARMS AND BY PROPAGANDIZING NATIONAL AND RACIAL SUPERIORITY. IT SEEMS THAT THE SIZE OF ARMIES AND ARMAMENTS ARE NOT DIMINISHING BUT ARE INCREASING.

"MILITARY BLOCS ARE BEING FORMED WHICH CARRY GREAT DANGER FOR THE PEOPLE OF THE WORLD. HERE AND THERE IN SEVERAL PLACES NEW FLAMES OF WAR ARE APPEARING."

HE ADDED THAT MOST PEOPLE ALL OVER THE WORLD ARE "ANXIOUS TO PREVENT WAR" AND "NO OTHER COUNTRY IN THE WORLD HAS MADE SO MANY SACRIFICES AND SUFFERED SO GREATLY AS OUR COUNTRY."

PAWEL HOFFMAN, A WRITER WHO HEADS THE POLISH DELEGATION, SAID IN A STATEMENT THAT "WE MUST HAVE PEACE" BECAUSE OFTEE ON

PAWEL HOFFMAN, A WRITER WHO HEADS THE POLISH DELEGATION, SAID IN A STATEMENT THAT "WE MUST HAVE PEACE" BECAUSE OF THE LOSS OF LIFE AND DAMAGE TO CIVIL INSTITUTIONS IN POLAND DURING THE WAR.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S JIRI HRONEK, PRESIDENT OF HIS COUNTRY'S INTERNATIONAL UNION OF JOURNALISTS, SAID HIS DELEGATION CAME HERE "TO FURTHER PEACE."

"WE HATE THE VERY IDEA OF WAR," HE SAID. "WE HAVE SUFFERED THROUGH THE GERMAN NAZI OCCUPATION AND WE DON'T WANT THIS TO HAPPEN AGAIN."

JOVAN POPOVIC, YUGOSLAVIAN POET AND AUTHOR, SAID THE PEOPLE OF HIS COUNTRY "DO NOT WANT WAR, THEY WANT PEACE," AND ADDED:

"IT IS CLEAR THE AMERICAN PEOPLE DO NOT WANT WAR."

JUAN MARINELLO, CUBAN EDUCATOR, SAID THE CONFERENCE "IS VERY COMFORTING AND ENCOURAGING, ESPECIALLY FOR THE PEOPLE OF LATIN AMERICA. THE ENEMIES OF PEACE KNOW THE IMPORTANCE OF THIS CONFERENCE AND HAVE BATTLED AGAINST IT."

A REPORTER, BOGDAN RADITSA, WHO SAID HE FORMERLY WAS PROPAGANDA CHIEF FOR TITO AND NOW REPRESENTS BALKAN PUBLICATIONS HERE, ASKED YUGOSLAVIAN POPOVIC IF HE FAVORED "STALIN OR TITO."

"THE QUESTION AS PUT DOES NOT MAKE SENSE," POPOVIC SAID THROUGH AN INTERPRETER.

WHEN RADITSA DEMANDED A "YES" OR "NO" ANSWER, THE MODERATOR CUT OFF HIS QUESTIONS, REMINDING EVERYONE IN THE ROOM THAT THE GATHERING WAS IN THE INTEREST OF PEACE.

TWENTY-FIVE PERSONS STARTED THE PROTEST MARCH IN FRONT OF THE HOTEL, AS SPECTATORS GATHERED IN THE STREET TO WATCH AND SHOUT ENCOURAGEMENT.

SMALL GROUPS OF LUTHERANS, BAPTISTS, METHODISTS, JEWS, CATHOLICS AND OTHER DENOMINATIONS CAME FROM ALL DIRECTIONS AND SWELLED THE RANKS OF DEMONSTRATORS.

THE MARCHERS REACHED THE POLICE-ESTIMATED HIGH POINT OF 800 SHORTLY AFTER NOON, AND THE RANKS OF THE ONLOOKERS GREW TO A POLICE COUNT OF 8,000.

MANY OF THE PICKETS WORE COLORFUL COSTUMES OF EUROPEAN COUNTRIES NOW BEHIND THE SOVIET IRON CURTAIN. AS THEY MARCHED IN TWO SEPARATE LINES IN FRONT OF THE FASHIONABLE HOTEL THEY PRAYED AND SANG PATRIOTIC SONGS.

"THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER" WAS SUNG, WITH A WOMAN LEADING, AND AT ITS CONCLUSION SHE CHANTED A PRAYER. MANY OF THE WOMEN SAID THEIR ROSARIES.

MEN MARCHERS VOICED THE SUPPLICATIONS OF A LITANY CALLING FOR FREEDOM FOR PEOPLE IN "ENSLAVED COUNTRIES OF EUROPE" AND THE WOMEN CHANTED THE RESPONSES.

WHEN THE DEMONSTRATION HAD GONE ON FOR AN HOUR AND A HALF, THE ENTIRE GROUP KNELT ON THE SIDEWALK AS THOUGH AT A SIGNAL AND RECITED THE TWO PRAYERS.

SHOUTS OF "WE WANT PEACE AND FREEDOM" RESOUNDED THROUGHOUT THE AREA.

DRAPED FLAGS OF MANY SOVIET-DOMINATED COUNTRIES WERE CARRIED BY MANY OF THE MARCHERS. THERE WERE MANY SIGNS BEARING THE RELIGIOUS FREEDOM THEME OF THE DEMONSTRATION.

ONE BANNER SHOWED CARDINAL MINDSZENTY, IMPRISONED PRIMATE OF HUNGARY, BEHIND BARBED WIRE AND BORE THIS QUOTATION FROM THE CARDINAL MADE DURING A VISIT TO THE UNITED STATES A FEW YEARS AGO:

"MY ENEMIES CAN TAKE FROM ME NO MORE THAN MY LIFE, AND THAT HAS ALREADY BEEN GIVEN TO GOD."

A201

ANOTHER BANNER DEPICTED THE CARDINAL NAILED TO A CROSS FASHIONED FROM THE SOVIET HAMMER AND SICKLE.

OTHER BANNERS CARRIED SLOGANS DENOUNCING THE PEACE CONFERENCE.

"IT WOULD BE BETTER TO IGNORE THEM (COMMUNISTS)," ONE WELL-DRESSED MAN AMONG THE ONLOOKERS REMARKED. ANOTHER SHOUTED "LEAVE THE COMMUNISTS ALONE, DON'T PAY ANY ATTENTION TO THEM, THEY THRIVE ON PUBLICITY."

ONE HUNDRED POLICEMEN WERE ON DUTY, BUT THEY HAD LITTLE TO DO AS THERE WAS NO DISORDER. THE MARCHERS VOLUNTARILY MARCHED IN TWO LINES IN FRONT OF THE HOTEL AND KEPT THE MAIN ENTRANCE TO THE BUILDING CLEAR.

THE DEMONSTRATION CONTINUED FOR A LITTLE MORE THAN THREE HOURS. AT ITS END THE TWO LINES MARCHING IN TWO OVAL FORMATIONS SUDDENLY STOPPED. ALL KNELT--SOME ON ONE KNEE AND SOME ON BOTH--REPEATED THE "LORD'S PRAYER" AND DISPERSED.

AT THE NEWS CONFERENCE INSIDE THE HOTEL, DR.HARLOW SHAPLEY, CONFERENCE CHAIRMAN, PRESENTED THE FOREIGN DELEGATES TO NEWSMEN.

A.A.FADEYEV, ACTING AS SPOKESMAN FOR THE SOVIET DELEGATES, SAID THE PEACE CONFERENCE PROGRAM PREVENTED THE RUSSIANS FROM ACCEPTING AN INVITATION FROM THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MANUFACTURERS TO VISIT AMERICAN FACTORIES.

DR.SHAPLEY SAID THAT LATER THE SPONSORING GROUP HOPED TO "TAKE NOT ONLY THE RUSSIAN DELEGATION, BUT ALL OUR FOREIGN GUESTS ON AN EXTENDED TOUR OF THE COUNTRY."

DMITRI SHOSTAKOVICH, RUSSIAN COMPOSER, ATTENDED THE CONFERENCE BUT HAD NOTHING TO SAY.

FADEYEV, SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE SECRETARIAT OF THE UNION OF SOVIET WRITERS, ISSUED A STATEMENT THAT "RUSSIA WANTS THE ATTAINMENT OF PEACE FOR ALL THE WORLD."

HE ANSWERED ONLY ONE QUESTION PUT BY REPORTERS, STATING THAT "RUSSIA IS NOT RE-ARMING. SHE IS DEMOBILIZED IN ALL AGES OF HER ARMY, AND HER ARMY IS AN ARMY OF PEACEFUL STANDING."

THE ONLY DELEGATE FROM ENGLAND, WILLIAM O.STAPLEDON, BRITISH PHILOSOPHER, DESCRIBED AS "FANTASTIC" THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S DENIAL OF VISAS TO HIS FOUR FELLOW DELEGATES.

"I SUPPOSE THEY LET ME IN BECAUSE THEY THINK I'M HARMLESS," HE REMARKED. "WELL, I AM HARMLESS."

OTHER DELEGATION SPOKESMEN ISSUED STATEMENTS.

HOOK, A PROFESSOR OF PHILOSOPHY, IS CO-CHAIRMAN OF AMERICANS FOR INTELLECTUAL FREEDOM, A GROUP OPPOSED TO THE CONFERENCE AT THE WALDORF ASTORIA.

ACCORDING TO THE NEWSPAPER, HOOK BURST INTO SHAPLEY'S HOTEL ROOM AND CONFRONTED THE LATTER WITH CARBON COPIES OF LETTERS FROM DR. HERBERT JOHN DAVIS, PRESIDENT OF SMITH COLLEGE, AND GUY EMERY SHIPLER, EDITOR OF "THE CHURCHMAN," MEMBERS OF THE CONFERENCE PROGRAM COMMITTEVM

THE LETTERS ASKED THAT HOOK BE PLACED ON THE PROGRAM. SHAPLEY DENIED HE HAD RECEIVED THE LETTERS FROM HIS COMMITTEEMEN, BUT SAID HE KNEW SUCH LETTERS EXISTED, THE HERALD TRIBUNE SAID.

PHILADELPHIA,MARCH 25-(AP)-THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA TODAY ISSUED A PERMIT FOR A "PEACE RALLY" APRIL 4 AT WHICH RUSSIAN COMPOSER DMITRI SHOSTAKOVICH WILL BE A SPEAKER.

THE PHILADELPHIA COUNCIL OF THE ARTS, SCIENCES AND PROFESSIONS, SPONSOR OF THE RALLY, SAID IT WILL BE HELD AT THE MET, A FORMER OPERA HOUSE FREQUENTLY USED AS A FIGHT ARENA.

THREE DAYS AGO, THE PRIVATE OWNERS OF A PHILADELPHIA AUDITORIUM, TOWN HALL, REJECTED A PROPOSED SHOSTAKOVICH CONCERT. YESTERDAY, THE BROADWOOD HOTEL CANCELLED A RESERVATION FOR A DINNER TO BE GIVEN THE COMPOSER. BOTH AFFAIRS HAD BEEN SET FOR NEXT WEDNESDAY.

BUT LAST NIGHT, THE PHILADELPHIA COUNCIL OF ARTS, SCIENCES AND PROFESSIONS--SPONSORS OF THE SHOSTAKOVICH APPEARANCE HERE--ANNOUNCED THE CONCERT HAS BEEN ARRANGED FOR APRIL 4 AT THE MET, A FORMER OPERA HOUSE RECENTLY USED AS A FIGHT ARENA.

THE BROADWOOD HOTEL MANAGEMENT SAID ITS ACTION CAME IN THE FACE OF PROTESTS "AND AFTER HAVING GIVEN PARTICULAR WEIGHT TO THE THREAT OF POSSIBLE VIOLENCE."

SECOND NIGHT LEAD FOREIGN AID

WASHINGTON, MARCH 25-(AP)-A CONTENTION BY SENATOR CAPREHART (R-IND) THAT MARSHALL PLAN FUNDS CAN BE SLASHED DEEPLY BECAUSE EUROPE ALREADY HAS MADE A BIG ECONOMIC COMEBACK WAS QUICKLY CHALLENGED TODAY BY SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH).

ADMINISTRATION HOPES OF GETTING A FINAL VOTE ON THE PROPOSED $5,580,000,000 FOREIGN-AID PROGRAM TONIGHT DISAPPEARED AS THE DEBATE WORE ON.

FINALLY THE SENATE RECESSED UNTIL NOON MONDAY. THE VOTE IS EXPECTED THEN AFTER FURTHER DEBATE.

CAPEHART TOLD THE SENATE THAT EUROPE HAS ACHIEVED PRE-WAR PRODUCTION LEVELS EVEN THOUGH LESS THAN 50 PER CENT OF THE U.S. AID ALREADY AUTHORIZED HAS ACTUALLY BEEN SENT.

VANDENBERG SAID THAT PRODUCTION, OR INDUSTRIAL LEVELS, SHOULD NOT BE USED AS THE ONLY YARDSTICK FOR MEASURING EUROPE'S POST-WAR RECOVERY.

BEFORE THE WAR, HE SAID, THERE WERE MANY FACTORS BESIDES INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION AND EXPORTS THAT FIGURED IN EUROPE'S OVER-ALL ECONOMY.

AMONG THESE FACTORS, VANDENBERG SAID, WERE EARNINGS FROM FOREIGN INVESTMENTS "WHICH NO LONGER EXIST," SHIPPING AND INSURANCE FEES, AND INCOME FROM TOURISTS.

THE DISAPPEARANCE OF THESE THINGS, HE SAID, COMBINED WITH THE DESTRUCTION CAUSED BY THE WAR, MEANS THAT "YOU CANNOT APPLY SOLELY THE YARDSTICK OF INDUSTRIAL RECOVERY" TO THE ENTIRE EUROPEAN ECONOMY.

VANDENBERG ARGUED IT IS NOW NECESSARY TO HELP EUROPE BUILD UP HER INDUSTRIES AND EXPORT TRADE TO COMPENSATE FOR THE LOSS OF OTHER PRE-WAR FACTORS.

BUT HE ALSO TOLD CAPEHART:

"WE SHOULD NOT UNDERTAKE EVEN IN OUR WILDEST DREAMS TO BRING EUROPEAN COUNTRIES BACK TO A TOTAL ECONOMY IN EXCESS OF PRE-WAR."

CAP[illegible]T SAID HE COULDN'T AGREE WITH VANDENBERG.

THE INDIANA LEGISLATOR URGED A $3,000,000,000 (B) TOP ON RENEWED MARSHALL PLAN HELP OVER THE NEXT 15 MONTHS, INSTEAD OF THE $5,580,-000,000 (B) REQUESTED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S ADMINISTRATION.

CAPEHART THUS JOINED SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) AND SEVERAL OTHER SENATORS IN ADVOCATING SUBSTANTIAL CUTS IN THE MULTI-BILLION-DOLLAR AID PROGRAM. TAFT HAS RECOMMENDED A $1,000,000,000 (B) REDUCTION.

CITING THIS COUNTRY'S $251,000,000,000 (B) NATIONAL DEBT, ALONG WITH FALLING PRICES AND A LEVELLING OFF IN INDUSTRY FROM THE PEAK YEARS, CAPEHART TOLD HIS COLLEAGUES:

"I AM AFRAID IN ANOTHER THREE YEARS THOSE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES ARE GOING TO BE FINANCING A RECOVERY PLAN FOR THE UNITED STATES.

"I HAVE NOT BEEN OPPOSED TO THIS COUNTRY PARTICIPATING IN EUROPEAN AID AND FINANCING. I AM OPPOSED, HOWEVER, TO THE UTTER DISREGARD SHOWN FOR OUR OWN ECONOMY IN DETERMINING HOW EXTENSIVE OUR AID TO EUROPE SHOULD BE."

CAPEHART SAID EUROPE'S RETURN TO PRE-WAR PRODUCTION LEVELS IS BORNE OUT BY OFFICIAL REPORTS OF THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION, THE MARSHALL PLAN AGENCY.

MEANWHILE, HE SAID, MORE THAN HALF THE SUPPLIES ALREADY AUTHORIZED FOR ECA SHIPMENT ABROAD HAVEN'T EVEN LEFT THE COUNTRY YET. HE SAID THE UNSHIPPED AUTHORIZATIONS TOTAL $2,700,000,000 (B), AND WITH ANOTHER $3,000,000,000 (B) IN NEW AUTHORIZATIONS SHOULD BE AMPLE TO CARRY EUROPE OVER THE NEXT 15 MONTHS.

THE MARSHALL PLAN, HE SAID, SHOULD BE CALLED THE "EUROPEAN FINANCE PLAN" INSTEAD OF A RECOVERY PROGRAM.

CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE AND SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH), RANKING GOP MEMBER, HAVE BOTH URGED CONGRESS TO AUTHORIZE THE FULL AMOUNT ASKED BY THE ADMINISTRATION.

THE DEBATE OVER FOREIGN-AID COSTS, ORIGINALLY SET UNDER A TWO-DAY TIME LIMIT BY MAJORITY LEADER LUCAS (D-ILL), WAS INTERRUPTED AS SENATOR DONNELL (R-MO) EMBARKED ON A LONG SPEECH ABOUT THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE ALLIANCE.

A17WX

THE ATLANTIC TREATY, DUE TO BE SIGNED APRIL 4, WILL NOT COST MONEY IN ITSELF. BUT IT IS EXPECTED TO BE FOLLOWED BY AN ESTIMATED $1,000,000,000 TO $1,500,000,000 MILITARY AID PROGRAM FOR RE-ARMING WESTERN EUROPE.

DONNELL TOLD THE SENATE THAT LEADERS OF EUROPEAN NATIONS REGARD THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT AS A MORAL--IF NOT AUTOMATIC--PLEDGE BY THE UNITED STATES TO GO TO WAR IF ANY OF THEM IS ATTACKED.

THAT HAS BEEN THE MOOT POINT IN CONGRESSIONAL DISCUSSION, WHETHER THE TREATY WOULD COMMIT THIS COUNTRY TO SEND AMERICAN ARMIES OVERSEAS ONCE MORE IF ANY OF THE SIGNATORY NATIONS BECOME THE TARGET OF AGGRESSION.

VANDENBERG AND CONNALLY HAVE SAID EMPHATICALLY THAT IT DOES NOT.

BUT DONNELL TOLD HIS COLLEAGUES:

"IN MY OPINION, IT WOULD MEAN THAT FOR THE NEXT 20 YEARS IF ANY ONE OF THE MEMBER NATIONS SHOULD BE ATTACKED, WE SHALL BE IMMEDIATELY AT WAR."

SENATOR TYDINGS (D-MD), CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMM ASKED DONNELL IF HE FELT THAT AMERICAN SECURITY "WOULD BE BETTER IF WE DIDN'T GO INTO THE PACT?"

"THIS NATION IS IN VASTLY LESS SECURITY IF WE GO INTO THIS PACT AS IT IS WRITTEN," DONNELL REPLIED.

SENATOR JENNER (R-IND) BROKE IN TO SHOUT THAT IF THE TREATY COMMITS THE UNITED STATES TO MILITARY GROUND ACTION IN EUROPE, "WE ARE DOOMED TO UTTER DEFEAT BEFORE WE START."

NOTING THAT THIS COUNTRY HAD ONLY 89 DIVISIONS MOBILIZED IN WORLD WAR II, JENNER CONTINUED:

"HITLER HAD 200 DIVISIONS AGAINST STALIN AND COULDN'T CRUSH HIM."

BUT SENATOR LODGE (R-MASS) SAID THERE IS NOTHING IN THE PACT THAT PLEDGES THIS COUNTRY TO FIGHT A GROUND ACTION IN EUROPE. HE SAID THE UNITED STATES HAD BETTER START LINING UP ITS ALLIES NOW, BECAUSE THERE WON'T BE TIME TO GET READY WHEN THE NEXT WAR STARTS.

RESUMING HIS SPEECH, DONNELL SAID THE PROPOSED TREATY WOULD NOT PREVENT A THIRD WORLD WAR AND MIGHT IN FACT START ONE.

FOR EXAMPLE, HE SAID, IF RUSSIA'S ARMIES SHOULD MOVE INTO NORWAY, THE UNITED STATES WOULD BE "COMPELLED TO SEND TROOPS" UNDER THE TREATY TO AID IN NORWAY'S DEFENSE.

"RUSSIA WOULD HAVE SELECTED THE TIME AND PLACE. WE WOULD HAVE IMMEASURABLY WEAKENED OUR POSITIONS," HE SAID.

BUT CONNALLY INSISTED ANEW THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD ONLY BE OBLIGATED BY THE TREATY TO TAKE SUCH ACTION AS IT DEEMED NECESSARY.

AND TYDINGS INTERJECTED:

"WE CAN'T GO TO WAR UNLESS CONGRESS DECLARES WAR."

IN THE HOUSE, THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE PUSHED ITS OWN FOREIGN-AID BILL ALONG WITH A FORMAL REPORT RECOMMENDING ITS ACCEPTANCE.

BUT IT CAME CLOSE TO INVITING THE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE TO TRIM FUNDS FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY LATER ON--IF FALLING PRICES WARRANT SUCH ACTION.

THE HOUSE BILL WOULD AUTHORIZE $1,100,000,000 (B) TO LAST THROUGH APRIL, MAY AND JUNE AND $4,280,000,000 (B) FOR THE FOLLOWING YEAR. THAT MAKES A TOTAL OF $5,380,000,000 (B).

THE BILL ALSO WOULD AUTHORIZE THE GOVERNMENT TO GO INTO DEBT ANOTHER $272,300,000 (M), IF NECESSARY, TO MAKE GOOD ON GUARANTEES OF AMERICAN INVESTMENTS IN EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROJECTS. THE GUARANTEES WOULD BE BROADENED TO PROTECT AN AMERICAN INVESTOR AGAINST LOSSES BECAUSE OF A RIOT, WAR, REVOLUTION OR SEIZURE OF HIS PROPERTY BY A FOREIGN GOVERNMENT.

THE COMMITTEE SAID "REAL PROGRESS" HAS BEEN MADE TOWARD BRINGING ABOUT A COMEBACK IN EUROPE. BUT IT SAID "SUCCESS IS YET TO BE REACHED."

"NO APOLOGY NEEDS TO BE MADE FOR THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM," THE REPORT SAID. "IT IS WORKING.

"WESTERN EUROPE, STRIVING TO OVERCOME THE DEPLETION LEFT BY ONE STRUGGLE AGAINST TOTALITARIANISM, HAS BEEN STEADFAST IN THE FACE OF A NEW TOTALITARIAN THREAT ARISING FROM ANOTHER DIRECTION."

THE COMMITTEE SAID IT FOUND NOTHING IN RECENT PRICE DECREASES TO JUSTIFY "ANY SIGNIFICANT CHANGE" IN THE AMOUNT OF FINANCIAL AID. BUT IT SAID THERE MIGHT BE A POTENTIAL SAVING OF $72,000,000 ON WHEAT, AND OTHER SAVINGS AS A RESULT OF FALLING PRICES. IT SAID THIS FACTOR IS NOTED SO THE APPROPRIATION COMMITTEE CAN TAKE "APPROPRIATE ACCOUNT" OF IT LATER WHEN THE ACTUAL MONEY IS VOTED.

NIGHT LEAD SMITH-LEAHY

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,MARCH 25-(AP)-TWO OFFICIALS WHO HAVE PLAYED PROMINENT ROLES IN THE COLD WAR WITH RUSSIA STEPPED DOWN TODAY FROM KEY POSITIONS IN THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION.

AMBASSADOR WALTER BEDELL SMITH, 53, RESIGNED AS U.S. ENVOY TO MOSCOW, A POST HE HAS HELD SINCE MARCH 1946. HE IS RETURNING TO ARMY SERVICE AT HIS REGULAR RANK OF LIEUTENANT GENERAL.

FLEET ADMIRAL WILLIAM D.LEAHY, 73, CHIEF OF STAFF TO THE LATE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AND TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN, WAS DETACHED FROM THAT WHITE HOUSE ASSIGNMENT. HE WILL DEVOTE HIS TIME TO WRITING HIS MEMOIRS

THEIR DEPARTURE, HOWEVER, DOES NOT MEAN ANY CHANGE IN U.S. POLICY, OFFICIALS EMPHASIZED.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN ANNOUNCED LEAHY'S MOVE AT A WHITE HOUSE CEREMONY DURING WHICH HE PRESENTED THE NAVY'S "GRAND OLD MAN" WITH A GOLD STAR IN LIEU OF A THIRD DISTINGUISHED SERVICE MEDAL.

GENERAL SMITH IS DUE TO BE NAMED COMMANDER OF THE FIRST ARMY, WITH HEADQUARTERS AT GOVERNOR'S ISLAND, NEW YORK. HIS SUCCESSOR IN THE MOSCOW POST HAS NOT YET BEEN SELECTED. DIPLOMATS ARE SPECULATING THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT WILL RECOMMEND THAT MR.TRUMAN CHOOSE A PROFESSIONAL DIPLOMAT FOR THE JOB.

ADMIRAL LEAHY HAS NOT BEEN VERY ACTIVE IN RECENT MONTHS BUT IN THE PERIOD IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE END OF THE WAR HE WAS REGARDED AS HIGHLY INFLUENTIAL IN ADVISING THE PRESIDENT ON FOREIGN POLICY AS WELL AS ON ARMED FORCES' PROBLEMS.

HE PLAYED A PART IN DEVELOPING THE SO-CALLED "TOUGH" POLICY TOWARD THE SOVIET UNION AS IT BECAME INCREASINGLY DIFFICULT TO REACH AGREEMENTS WITH MOSCOW BOTH IN AND OUT OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

THE WHITE HOUSE ANNOUNCED THE SMITH RESIGNATION AND LEAHY'S DETACHMENT FROM ACTIVE DUTY SEVERAL HOURS APART.

AMBASSADOR SMITH CALLED ON THE PRESIDENT SHORTLY BEFORE NOON. HE HAD BEEN TRYING TO RESIGN FOR MORE THAN A YEAR. TODAY, AS ON FORMER OCCASIONS, MR.TRUMAN REQUESTED HIM NOT TO DO SO, SAID CHARLES G.ROSS, WHITE HOUSE PRESS SECRETARY. THE FINAL DECISION, HOWEVER, WAS SMITH'S.

ROSS SAID THE PRESIDENT FINALLY ACCEPTED THE GENERAL'S RESIGNATION "WITH GREAT RELUCTANCE." AFTERWARD SMITH TOLD REPORTERS THAT "TWO YEARS IS THE NORMAL TOUR OF DUTY IN MOSCOW."

A22WX

"ONE CAN BE AWAY FROM THE UNITED STATES TOO LONG,"

THE FIRST ARMY COMMAND, FORMERLY HELD BY LIEUT.GENERAL COURTNEY HODGES HAD BEEN KEPT OPEN FOR SMITH SINCE HODGES' RETIREMENT, AND HE HAS DECIDED TO COMPLETE HIS ARMY CAREER.

AS A FIVE STAR ADMIRAL, LEAHY DOES NOT ACTUALLY RETIRE FROM THE NAVY BUT REMAINS SUBJECT TO CALL FOR ACTIVE DUTY. MR.TRUMAN LAUDED HIM FOR GIVING "DEEP WISDOM AND JUDGMENT TO THE GUIDANCE OF HIS COUNTRY FOLLOWING THE VICTORIOUS CONCLUSION OF THE LAST WAR."

THE PRESIDENT ALSO SPOKE WARM WORDS OF PRAISE FOR GENERAL SMITH, SAYING THAT SMITH HAD "EARNED MY GRATITUDE AND THAT OF THE NATION BY OUTSTANDING SERVICE."

IN THE MEANTIME, AMERICAN DIPLOMACY IN MOSCOW HAS BEEN HANDLED BY FOY KOHLER

IN THE MEANTIME, AMERICAN DIPLOMACY IN MOSCOW HAS BEEN HANDLED BY FOY KOHLER, COUNSELLER OF EMBASSY. THE POSITION OF AMBASSADOR THERE COULD BE LEFT OPEN FOR SOME WEEKS LONGER IF NECESSARY TO ALLOW TIME FOR FINDING A SUCCESSOR.

AMONG THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN CONSIDERED IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT TO SUCCEED SMITH ARE COUNSELER CHARLES E.BOHLEN, 44, A RUSSIAN EXPERT AND A POLICY ADVISER TO SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON; WALTER THURSTON, 53, AMBASSADOR TO MEXICO, WHO ONCE SERVED IN THE MOSCOW EMBASSY; H.FREEMAN MATTHEWS, 49, AMBASSADOR TO SWEDEN AND FORMER CHIEF OF THE EUROPEAN OFFICE OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT, AND HERSCHEL JOHNSON, 54, AMBASSADOR TO BRAZIL AND ONE TIME AMERICAN MEMBER OF THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL.

PUBLIC SPECULATION ON A NEW ENVOY HAS ALSO INCLUDED THE NAMES OF RALPH BUNCHE, U.N. MEDIATOR FOR PALESTINE AND THE ONLY NEGRO PROMINENT IN U.S. DIPLOMACY; AND FRED VINSON, CHIEF JUSTICE OF THE UNITED STATES, WHOM PRESIDENT TRUMAN CONSIDERED SENDING TO THE KREMLIN ON A SPECIAL PEACE MISSION BEFORE LAST NOVEMBER'S ELECTION.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 25-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN VOICED CONFIDENCE TODAY THAT GREEK ARMED FORCES WILL BE ABLE TO RESIST "TOTALITARIAN PRESSURE," WHATEVER DIFFICULTIES MAY LIE AHEAD.

ON THE ANNIVERSARY OF GREEK INDEPENDENCE, THE PRESIDENT DECLARED THAT "THE REAFFIRMATION OF GREEK RESISTANCE TO A NEW ALIEN THREAT IS A FURTHER SHINING EXAMPLE OF COURAGE IN THE FACE OF ADVERSITY."

IN A STATEMENT HE ADDED:

"DESPITE THE CONTINUING RAVAGES OF THE FOREIGN-INSPIRED GUERRILLA WARFARE, THE GREEK PEOPLE REMAIN DETERMINED TO REBUILD THEIR OWN LAND IN THEIR OWN WAY, IN FREEDOM AND IN PEACE."

THE PRESIDENT DID NOT MENTION SOVIET RUSSIA BUT HE MADE REFERENCE TO AMERICAN AID, WHICH WAS VOTED TO HELP THE GREEKS RESIST COMMUNIST INFILTRATION.

"THE AMERICAN PEOPLE ARE PROUD OF THEIR PART IN HELPING TO PRESERVE GREEK INDEPENDENCE AND THE STRUCTURE OF WORLD PEACE THROUGH THE GREEK AID PROGRAM," MR. TRUMAN SAID.

THE PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT (ABOUT 250):

"I HAVE BEEN DEEPLY IMPRESSED BY THE 'WORK AND VICTORY' MANIFESTATIONS IN GREECE, DEMONSTRATING THE UNITED WILL OF THE GREEK PEOPLE TO LABOR AND FIGHT FOR THE PRESERVATION OF THEIR ANCIENT DEMOCRATIC HERITAGE AND OF THEIR INDEPENDENCE, SO PROUDLY PROCLAIMED 128 YEARS AGO TODAY. I HAVE ALSO BEEN MOVED BY THE CONCURRENT EXPRESSIONS OF GREEK APPRECIATION OF AMERICAN AID AND OF THE GREEK PEOPLE'S DETERMINATION TO USE THE HELP EXTENDED BY THEIR AMERICAN AND OTHER FRIENDS TO THE BEST ADVANTAGE.

"GREEK HEROISM DISPLAYED IN THE GREEK WAR OF INDEPENDENCE AND IN THE FIRST AND SECOND WORLD WARS EVOKED THE ADMIRATION AND ENLISTED THE SUPPORT OF AMERICANS. TODAY, ON THIS ANNIVERSARY OF GREEK INDEPENDENCE, THE REAFFIRMATION OF GREEK RESISTANCE TO A NEW ALIEN THREAT IS A FURTHER SHINING EXAMPLE OF COURAGE IN THE FACE OF ADVERSITY.

"DESPITE THE CONTINUING RAVAGES OF THE FOREIGN-INSPIRED GUERRILLA WARFARE, THE GREEK PEOPLE REMAIN DETERMINED TO REBUILD THEIR OWN LAND IN THEIR OWN WAY, IN FREEDOM AND IN PEACE. THIS IS THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE 'WORK AND VICTORY' RALLY. THE SPIRIT OF THE PEOPLE AND THE RECENT SUCCESSES OF THE GREEK ARMED FORCES CONFIRM MY CONFIDENCE THAT THE NEW TOTALITARIAN PRESSURE WILL BE CONTAINED, WHATEVER DIFFICULTIES MAY LIE AHEAD.

"THE AMERICAN PEOPLE ARE PROUD OF THEIR PART IN HELPING TO PRESERVE GREEK INDEPENDENCE AND THE STRUCTURE OF WORLD PEACE THROUGH THE GREEK AID PROGRAM."

WASHINGTON,MARCH 25-(AP)-SENATOR O'CONOR (D-MD) SAID TODAY HE WILL ASK THE STATE DEPARTMENT TO INVESTIGATE REPORTS THAT JOSEF CARDINAL MINDSZENTY, CONVICTED BY THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT ON TREASON CHARGES, IS BEING MISTREATED IN PRISON.

"SOME ASSURANCE FROM THE HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT, GAINED THROUGH VISITS OF UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVES TO THE PLACE OF DETENTION, THAT THE PRIMATE WAS BEING GIVEN THE CONSIDERATION THAT IS DUE HIM, WOULD GO FAR TOWARD IMPROVING THE PRESENT STRAINED RELATIONS BETWEEN HUNGARY AND THIS COUNTRY," O'CONOR SAID IN A STATEMENT.

THE SENATOR SAID HE HAS BEEN INFORMED THAT THE CARDINAL "IS BEING KEPT IN COMPLETE ISOLATION" AND IS "SUFFERING PRONOUNCED DEPRESSION AND MENTAL LETHARGY TO AN EXTREME WHICH WOULD DEFINITELY INDICATE THAT HIS CONDITION HAS BEEN ARTIFICALLY INDUCED X X X."

WASHINGTON,MARCH 25-(AP)-THE STATE DEPARTMENT SHIED AWAY FROM MAKING A PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT TODAY THAT IT IS EASING RESTRICTIONS ON TRADE WITH YUGOSLAVIA, BUT INFORMED OFFICIALS SAID SUCH ACTION IS BEING TAKEN.

AT A NEWS CONFERENCE, PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL MCDERMOTT CONTENDED "THERE HAS BEEN NO CHANGE" IN TRADE POLICY TOWARD YUGOSLAVIA.

OTHER OFFICIALS SAID, HOWEVER, THE UNITED STATES HAS DEFINITELY DECIDED TO RELAX THE BARRIERS IN AN EFFORT TO WIDEN THE SPLIT BETWEEN MARSHALL TITO OF YUGOSLAVIA AND MOSCOW.

SOME SCARCE AMERICAN EQUIPMENT AND MACHINERY, WHICH IS DENIED TO OTHER EASTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES, HAS BEEN SHIPPED RECENTLY TO YUGOSLAVIA WITH GOVERNMENT APPROVAL. MORE WILL FOLLOW LATER IF MARSHALL TITO MAINTAINS HIS INDEPENDENCE FROM MOSCOW, THEY SAID.

IN ANSWERING REPORTERS' QUESTIONS ON THE MATTER, MCDERMOTT WOULD SAY ONLY THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT GENERALLY FAVORS EAST-WEST TRADE BUT DECIDES ON EACH EXPORT AS IT ARISES.

"THERE IS NOTHING NEW TO REPORT REGARDING OUR TRADE RELATIONS WITH YUGOSLAVIA," HE SAID. "OF COURSE WE SHALL TAKE INTO ACCOUNT THE CONTRIBUTION WE EXPECT OUR EXPORTS TO MAKE TO WORLD RECOVERY AND BUSINESS."

THE OTHER OFFICIALS SAID SOME SCARCE OIL DRILLING EQUIPMENT RECENTLY HAS BEEN SHIPPED TO YUGOSLAVIA AND THAT OTHER MACHINERY MAY FOLLOW LATER.

SPIES (360)

WASHINGTON, MARCH 25-(AP)-THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE SAYS THE RUSSIANS HAVE ASSIGNED "SEVERAL SPY RINGS" TO ATOMIC SECRETS ALONE.

IN ADDITION, THE COMMITTEE SAYS, IT RECENTLY UNCOVERED SECRET ORDERS FROM ABROAD TO SOVIET SPY LEADERS IN THIS COUNTRY "LISTING 20-ODD CATEGORIES OF INFORMATION THEY WANT ON THE ARMED STRENGTH OF THIS COUNTRY."

THE COMMITTEE TOLD OF THESE ACTIVITIES IN A PAMPLHET CALLED "SPOTLIGHT ON SPIES," ISSUED LAST NIGHT. IT IS MOSTLY QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS, BASED ON INVESTIGATIONS AND HEARINGS MADE LAST YEAR.

IT OMITS NAMES OF ANYBODY IT SUSPZCTS OF ESPIONAGE.

BUT IT SAYS "YOU CAN BE SURE" THAT SPIES ARE AFTER OUR GOVERNMENT SECRETS "RIGHT NOW." ON THE EXTENT OF THIS ACTIVITY, IT SAYS:

BUT IT SAYS "YOU CAN BE SURE"

IT OMITS NAMES OF ANYBODY IT SUSPZCTS OF ESPION

IT OMITS NAMES OF ANYBODY IT SUSPECTS OF ESPIONAGE.

BUT IT SAYS "YOU CAN BE SURE" THAT SPIES ARE AFTER OUR GOVERNMENT SECRETS "RIGHT NOW." ON THE EXTENT OF THIS ACTIVITY, IT SAYS:

"NATURALLY WE CAN NEVER KNOW THE EXACT SIZE, BUT FORMER RING-LEADERS HAVE CONFESSED THERE ARE THOUSANDS OF RUSSIAN AGENTS, AS WELL AS MANY MORE THOUSANDS OF AMERICANS, WHO ARE SELLING US DOWN THE RIVER."

THE COMMITTEE RECALLED THAT FBI DIRECTOR J.EDGAR HOOVER ONCE TOLD IT THERE ARE 74,000 MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN THIS COUNTRY, AND THAT COMMUNISTS CLAIM THAT FOR EVERY MEMBER 10 OTHERS ARE "READY, WILLING AND ABLE TO DO THE PARTY WORK."

"THIS MEANS," IT SAID, "THAT AT A TIME OF NATIONAL CRISIS, THE UNITED STATES WOULD HAVE NEARLY 825,000 PERSONS WHO ARE EITHER SPIES, TRAITORS, OR SABOTEURS WORKING AGAINST US FROM WITHIN.

"CAN OUR COUNTRY AFFORD THIS?"

AMERICANS ARE USED TO DO THE ACTUAL STEALING OF SECRETS, THE COMMITTEE SAID. IT SAYS THESE ARE PASSED ALONG TO COMMUNIST COURIERS, THEN TO SOVIET AGENTS FOR RELAY TO MOSCOW. SOME OF THE INFORMATION, IT SAID, GOES OUT IN DIPLOMATIC MAIL THAT IS IMMUNE FROM SEARCH.

IT TOLD ALSO OF THE USE OF FILMS HIDDEN IN POCKET MIRRORS, TOOTHPASTE TUBES, TOYS, AND SAFETY RAZORS.

WHILE THE RUSSIANS WANT THE PRODUCTION SECRETS OF THE A-BOMB MORE THAN ANYTHING ELSE, THE COMMITTEE SAID, IT KNOWS TOO OF THE FILCHING OF SECRETS ON AVIATION, SUBMARINES AND STEEL PROCESSING.

AS FOR WHAT SHOULD BE DONE ABOUT ESPIONAGE, THE COMMITTEE ADVISED PATRIOTIC AMERICANS TO REPORT ALL SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITIES TO THE FBI, ARMY OR NAVY INTELLIGENCE, LOCAL POLICE OR THE COMMITTEE.

IT SAID THERE SHOULD BE REDOUBLED ATTEMPTS TO NAB SPIES, JAIL THEM, OR SEND THEM TO RUSSIA. IT CALLED FOR EXPOSURE OF REDS AND ENACTMENT OF NEW LAWS WITH "TOUGHER PENALTIES" FOR ANYONE WHO GETS SECRETS FOR RUSSIA.

(430) ROCKET RANGE

BY ELTON C.FAY

WASHINGTON,MARCH 25-(AP)-POSSIBLE AMERICAN USE OF THE 3,000-MILE ROCKET RANGE IN AUSTRALIA MAY BE DISCUSSED WHEN THE DEFENSE CHIEFS OF THE TWO NATIONS GET TOGETHER HERE NEXT MONTH.

SIR FREDERICK SHEDDEN, PERMANENT HEAD OF THE AUSTRALIAN DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE, IS EXPECTED TO VISIT WASHINGTON ABOUT APRIL 7 AT THE INVITATION OF THE UNITED STATES SECRETARY OF DEFENSE.

MILITARY OFFICIALS COULD NOT DISCUSS TODAY WHAT SUBJECTS MIGHT BE TALKED OVER IN THE MEETING BETWEEN SIR FREDERICK AND LOUIS JOHNSON, WHO WILL BE SWORN IN AS THE NEW DEFENSE SECRETARY NEXT MONDAY.

AN AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN AT SYDNEY SAID LAST WEEK THAT THE UNITED STATES UNDOUBTEDLY WOULD BE GIVEN USE OF THE GUIDED MISSILE TESTING RANGE, ON REQUEST. UP TO THEN, NO FORMAL REQUEST HAD BEEN MADE, IT WAS EXPLAINED.

HOWEVER, IT IS UNDERSTOOD HERE THAT A UNITED STATES SURVEY BOARD HAS RETURNED FROM AUSTRALIA WHERE IT STUDIED THE ADVANTAGES AND DISADVANTAGES OF USING THE SITE. IT IS PRESUMED THE FINDINGS OF THIS BOARD WILL BE MADE AVAILABLE TO JOHNSON BEFORE HIS MEETING WITH SIR FREDERICK.

ANY DECISION BY THE UNITED STATES TO SHARE WITH BRITAIN AND CANADA THE GIANT RANGE IN AUSTRALIA WOULD NOT STOP PLANS FOR A GUIDED MISSILE TESTING RANGE ENTIRELY WITHIN, OR WITH AT LEAST THE LAUNCHING AREA WITHIN, THE UNITED STATES.

INSTEAD, THE AUSTRALIAN RANGE MIGHT PROVIDE A SECOND PLACE WHERE MISSILES COULD BE TESTED UNDER CLIMATIC CONDITIONS DIFFERENT THAN THOSE FOUND HERE. ITS BASE IS ABOUT 250 MILES NORTHWEST OF ADELAIDE, IN THE SOUTH CENTRAL COASTAL AREA OF AUSTRALIA. IT WOULD EXTEND NORTHWESTWARD ACROSS THE CONTINENT FOR ABOUT 1,200 MILES TO A POINT CALLED "NINETY MILE BEACH." FROM THERE THE RANGE COULD BE PUSHED ON OUT ACROSS THE TIMOR SEA AND INTO THE INDIAN OCEAN.

GUIDED MISSILE EXPERTS POINT OUT THAT CERTAINLY AT PRESENT THE FULL 3,000-MILE RANGE WOULD NOT BE NEEDED. PERHAPS NOT EVEN THE OVERLAND DISTANCE OF 1,200 MILES WOULD BE USED AT ONCE. SO FAR AS IS KNOWN, NO ROCKETS OF THAT RANGE ARE IN EXISTENCE OR IN IMMEDIATE PROSPECT. BUT THE FULL RANGE WILL BE NEEDED SOME TIME IN THE FUTURE WHEN SCIENTISTS CAN MAKE THEIR BLUEPRINT PLANS INTO TRUE INTERCONTINENTAL GUIDED MISSILES.

A30WX

THE AUSTRALIAN RANGE WOULD HAVE SEVERAL ADVANTAGES AND DISADVANTAGES, SAY THOSE WHO HAVE CONSIDERED SUGGESTIONS FOR UNITED STATES USE OF THE SITE. THE ADVANTAGES INCLUDE:

1. AN EVEN CLIMATE OVER THE CONTINENT, WITH CLEAR SKIES, DUSTLESS, DRY, THIN AIR. AT THE NORTHWESTERN END WOULD BE TROPICAL HUMIDITY, RAIN AND WINDS OF VARYING INTENSITY AND DIRECTION. THESE TWO COMBINATIONS WOULD PROVIDE A VARIETY OF CLIMATIC CONDITIONS.
2. SECRECY FROM ANY UNFRIENDLY FOREIGN NATIONS. GEOGRAPHICALLY, AUSTRALIA IS FAR REMOVED FROM RUSSIA. MOREOVER, THE FACT THAT ONLY A FEW THOUSAND PEOPLE, ALL ABORIGINES, LIVE IN THE AREA WOULD MAKE IT EASY TO SPOT ANY CURIOUS STRANGERS.

AMONG THE DISADVANTAGES, THESE ARE SEEN:

1. THE UNITED STATES PROBABLY WOULD HAVE TO SHARE AT LEAST SOME OF ITS GUIDED MISSILE SECRETS WITH BRITAIN, CANADA AND AUSTRALIA.
2. PROBLEMS OF SHIPPING TECHNICIANS AND MATERIAL. AUSTRALIA IS 22 DAYS AWAY FROM SAN FRANCISCO BY EVEN FAST FREIGHTERS.
3. FACILITIES ARE LACKING FOR MANUFACTURING AND ASSEMBLING PARTS OF GUIDED MISSILES NEAR THE TEST SITE.

OFFICIAL CONFIRMATION WAS LACKING FROM BOTH MOSCOW AND TEHRAN, BOTH UNDER CENSORSHIP. THE VERSION REPORTED HERE WAS THAT THE SITUATION MAY YET BE IRONED OUT. IN ANY CASE, IT WAS ADDED, THERE HAS BEEN NO BREAK IN DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS, DESPITE HEATED VERBAL EXCHANGES BETWEEN THE TWO NATIONS RECENTLY, AND THEY ARE MAINTAINING DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS.

A U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER IN WASHINGTON SAID: "WE HAVE NOT BEEN ADVISED OFFICIALLY OF ANY SUCH THREATENED ACTION. WE HAVE HEARD RUMORS."

IRANIANS ACCREDITED TO THE UNITED NATIONS DISCLAIMED ANY KNOWLEDGE OF THE CONSULATE ANGLE BETWEEN THEIR HOMELAND AND ITS BIG NORTHERN NEIGHBOR, WHOSE DIFFICULTIES OVER THE WARTIME SOVIET ARMY OCCUPATION OF NORTHERN IRAN LED TO A COMPLAINT WHICH THE SECURITY COUNCIL TOOK UP THREE YEARS AGO TODAY. THE RUSSIANS EVENTUALLY DEPARTED.

IRAN HAS BEEN UNDER MARTIAL LAW AND STRICT CENSORSHIP SINCE A NEWSMAN OF THE LEFTIST TUDEH PARTY SLIGHTLY WOUNDED SHAH REZA PAHLEVI IN AN ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT FEB. 4. A GROUP OF COMMUNISTS WERE ROUNDED UP FOR TRIAL. SIXTY NEWSPAPERS WERE SUPPRESSED. THE TUDEH PARTY WAS OUTLAWED.

U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON ALSO DENOUNCED THE CHARGES.

FURTHER SOVIET PRESS AND RADIO ATTACKS FOLLOWED. IRAN HAS A 28-YEAR OLD TREATY WITH MOSCOW WHICH PERMITS THE SOVIET UNION TO SEND TROOPS INTO IRAN IF THE SOVIETS FEEL SUCH ACTION IS NECESSARY FOR THEIR OWN SELF DEFENSE.

F.W. EXER-II

New York, March 26 (AP)—Demands for a Truman-Stalin talk to end the cold war arose tonight at the Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace.

NIGHT

T. O. Thackrey, editor and publisher of the New York Post Home News, first voiced a demand for a conference "at the highest level, with both President Truman and Premier Stalin in attendance." At about the same time, O. John Rogge urged the American people to "tell President Truman it is time he is ready to talk peace."

Rogge is a former United States assistant attorney general and an official of Henry Wallace's Progressive party.

The conference opened yesterday at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. Keynote sessions were held today at Carnegie Hall. Then the conference moved back to the Waldorf tonight.

Prof. Counts At Meeting

The writer's panel was invaded late today by a rival intellectual, Prof. George S. Counts. He was not listed on the program. Counts stood up unexpectedly during the meeting. There were shouts of "shut up" from nearly 700 persons in attendance, but he was allowed to speak.

Counts is cochairman of Americans for Intellectual Freedom, which sponsored a counter-rally here today.

The A.I.F. called itself "independent" and claimed the Waldorf conference was dominated by pro-Communists. Counts is a professor at Teachers College at Columbia University.

The plea for a Stalin-Truman conference came at a general session of the conference.

Urges High-Level Conference

Thackrey said during his address to the conference:

"I would like to see the United States propose a conference at the highest level, with both President Truman and Premier Stalin in attendance, to determine the means for returning all outstanding disputes between the nations and their current allies to the United Nations, not for debate but for settlement."

In the same vein, Guy Emery Shipler, editor of the independent Episcopal publication. The Churchman, asked the United States Government to send religious leaders "as official peace missions" to those countries "with which we have unhappy relations."

The panel session of writers passed a resolution asking the United Nations to call upon Russia and the United States to meet and settle their differences.

Hear Soviet Writer

They acted after hearing P. A. Pavlenko, Soviet writer, tell them:

"Aggression threatens us, but in no way does it threaten the United States."

Counts's appearance threatened for a moment to disrupt the writers' meeting.

"A meeting of this kind could never be held in the Soviet Union," he told the panel. "It would be utterly unthinkable. No sponsoring organization could be found for it."

Questions Russ Criticism

"I approve of this meeting. It is in the American, democratic pattern," he added.

Counts questioned Russian criticism of American institutions and called it "not only savage but untrue."

Shouted protests arose and Counts was informed that the time allotted to each speaker had expired.

"Okay, that's good democratic practice," he said and sat down.

Russia and the United States both were blamed for the cold war by speakers at the second day sessions.

Henry A. Wallace, defeated Progressive party presidential candidate, told a night parley that "neither communism nor capitalism can solve" the problem of creating abundance for all people "until both, by agreement, get rid of the spirit of intolerance."

Sees Co-Operation

The former vice president said he was sure Soviet and American scientists could work together to "serve people everywhere."

"Personally," he said, "I believe that a Communist world and a capitalist world can co-exist in peace, but I shall not be really happy until the two systems are competing in a peaceful, co-operative spirit just like two scientific teams can co-operate—yet compete—as they try to solve a particular problem."

"The peoples of the world," he declared, "now fear that either America or Russia—or both—will trample on them."

Dr. Harlow Shapley, Harvard astronomer who is chairman of the conference, said Russia and the United States "are so obsessed by pointing out each other's shortcomings that they ignore their own. Certainly both are at fault."

Cuban Poet Speaks

"The generals," he declared, "know civilization will die with the attempt to win a third world war."

Nicholas Guillen, Cuban poet and conference speaker, said war is sought by "a handful of ambitious men, the merchants, the powerful rich, smooth, smug politicians, those who never saw action. Against them intelligence must prevail."

Theodor Rosebury, associate professor of bacteriology at Columbia University, was on the science panel program with Wallace.

Rosebury said "that the Soviet Union has not yet achieved the perfect state I have no doubt whatever—neither have we. But neither in its words nor in its deeds does Soviet communism threaten us as fascism did—and still does—the chorus of voices in our government and our press to the contrary notwithstanding."

Germ War Danger Cited

Biological warfare, Rosebury said, "will be ruthless war against civilians, for which the only feasible defense may be retaliation in kind, made even more ruthless by mounting desperation."

"Such warfare cannot be controlled. It must be eliminated. It is not against weapons but against war itself that we must strive."

Colston E. Warne, Amherst College economics professor, said at a conference panel that "the cold war" has produced a costly (armaments) race in which the Government must forego the opportunity to become a strong force in the improvement of American living standards."

"We cannot sustain genuine prosperity and have militarism too—the choice is ours," he said.

Anna Strong Attends

Anna Louise Strong, American newspaper woman recently ousted from Russia as a spy, attended the conference keynote session and said later: "I don't think I can call it (the meeting) a Communist front."

"Today I met one of the delegates who is a member of a Republican state committee. Another delegate is a Progressive, but more anti-Soviet than otherwise." She declined to name them.

Rogge said in his speech that Miss Strong "today sent $1,000 toward the defense of the leaders of the Communist party with this message: 'To the defense fund of the twelve American Communists, who are getting the same raw deal from American justice as I did from Soviet justice. From a fellow victim of the cold war.'"

The American Communist party leaders are being tried for conspiracy to advocate the forcible overthrow of the United States Government.

2 Canadians Sent Home From Peace Rally

New York, March 26 (AP)—Two Canadians were seized at the controversial "peace conference" and ordered today to return immediately to their home country after questioning by immigration authorities.

DAY

A third Canadian also taken into custody was permitted to remain. Authorities would only say they were questioned concerning Communist activities.

Meanwhile, the keynote session of the parley, which has attracted intellectuals from many countries, got under way at Carnegie Hall with 1,500 persons present.

Two Nations Blamed

Speakers blamed both Russia and the United States for the cold war and urged President Truman to accept Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin's bid to talk peace.

About 100 pickets marched in protest of the meeting outside the hall but there was no disorder. The State Department has charged the parley is a "sounding board for Communist propaganda." The sponsors deny this.

Seized At Banquet

The three Canadians were seized quietly last night at the banquet in the grand ballroom of the Hotel Waldorf-Astoria which was the meeting's first function. After questioning Federal agents said John Goss and Mrs. Margaret Fairley were allowed to return voluntarily to Canada, with Goss flying to Vancouver, B.C., and Mrs. Fairley taking a train.

Goss was identified as an actor and theater director. He sat on the dais at the banquet and was introduced as an honored guest. Conference officials said he was the only one of the three who was a delegate.

Mrs. Fairley was described as a member of the cultural committee of the Canadian Labor-Progressive (Communist) party.

The third Canadian picked up was Barker Fairley, Mrs. Fairley's husband, named as vice-president of the Canadian Council of American-Soviet Friendship.

The Government said he was allowed to remain since he is a visiting guest professor at Columbia University.

Dr. Harlow Shapley, Harvard University astronomer and conference chairman, told the 1,500 persons at Carnegie Hall that Russia and the United States "both are at fault" in the cold war.

"The two greatest nations are so obsessed by pointing out each other's shortcomings that they ignore their own," he declared.

Sees Civilization's Doom

Shapley said "no thoughtful leader believes today that anyone can win a third world war," and added "the generals know civilization will die with the attempt to win a third world war."

O. John Rogge, former assistant United States attorney general and Progressive party official, told the meeting that "when Premier Stalin says he wants to talk peace, then I say the American people must tell President Truman it is time he is ready to talk peace.

"That's more important than going fishing."

Stubbornness Charged

Russia deserves an ample share of the blame for deterioration of relations among the wartime Allies, Rogge said in a prepared speech. The "intransigence of which (Secretary of State) Dean Acheson accuses the Russians is so," he added.

"But stubbornness and bad manners on any side was never an excuse for war, and it is even less of an excuse for embarking on a costly program which cannot help but lead to the brink of war."

Hisses and jeers broke out six times as Norman Cousins, editor of the Saturday Review of Literature, spoke.

He accused the conference of owing allegiance to an "outside government." There was some applause when he sat down, but boos and hisses almost drowned it out.

Miss Hellman Retorts

Then Playwright Lillian Hellman began her address, saying:

"I would recommend, Mr. Cousins, that when you talk about your hosts at dinner, wait until you have gone home to do it."

'Peace' Session Hit By Counter Rally In N.Y.

New York, March 26 (AP)—Foes of the "world peace conference"—which they denounced as Communist-inspired—today accused Soviet Russia of shackling intellectual freedom and thus striking a "fatal blow" against international peace and understanding.

Their bitter denunciations of Russia were voiced at a counter-rally, called to oppose the conference which opened at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel last night. The counter-rally was sponsored by the Americans for Intellectual Freedom.

Menace "Doubly Great"

The opposition was keynoted by Dr. Bryn J. Hovde, president of the New School for Research. The educator said Nazi Germany crushed intellectual freedom as a prelude to World War II, and added:

"But today the menace is doubly great from a Communist party which, wherever it seizes control, abolishes all freedom—intellectual, scientific, artistic, economic and political—first in its own members and then for everyone.

Three Heresies Cited

Dr. Sidney Hook, cochairman of the Americans for Intellectual Freedom, also accused the Soviet Union of strait-jacketing the views of scientists, artists and writers behind the iron curtain.

In his speech, the New York University professor listed "objectivism, formalism and internationalism" as the three greatest "heresies" in Russia.

"This attack on the possibility of objective truth strikes a fatal blow at the prospects of international peace and understanding," he said. ". . . Attempts to get working solutions are hard enough, but if the whole idea of objective truth is scrapped, then the danger is increased that what cannot be solved by reasoning together will be solved by fighting together."

Helped By Critics, Says Shostakovich

New York, March 26 (AP)—Russian Composer Dmitri Shostakovich said tonight Soviet Government criticism "helps to move my music forward."

About a year ago, the composer was criticized by the Congress of Soviet Composers for writing "decadent, bourgeois music." He apologized to his critics.

At a panel meeting of the Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace, an American poet, Robert Lowell, said:

"My heart goes out to Mr. Shostakovich. I would like to ask him how many writers and musicians have benefitted by the criticism of his Government?"

Shostakovich whispered to him and the interpreter gave this answer as coming from the composer:

"Our musical criticism, reflecting the life of our music, does me much good since it helps to move my music forward."

'Peace' Rally Threatened, Russ Claim

Moscow, March 26 (AP)—Tass, the official Soviet news agency, reported today participants in the New York "World Peace" Congress are being threatened.

"Various reactionary organizations are threatening the organizers and participants in the congress with force, declaring the building where the congress is proceeding will be subjected to strengthened picketing," said the dispatch printed in Moscow newspapers.

The papers carried no comment on the congress.

Britain Is Adding To Soviet Orbit Export Curbs

London, March 26 (AP)—Britain is moving to tighten up on the shipment of potential war materials to Iron Curtain countries.

Official sources disclosed last night that a list of commodities having possible military value is being drawn for addition to the list of articles already forbidden for export to Communist-dominated countries.

The informants said the new restrictions will be based on a confidential schedule of goods and materials which the United States feels should not be allowed to reach the Soviet orbit. They said Washington has sent these schedules to the nineteen European Recovery Program countries.

Third List More Extensive

Two of the American schedules asked for bans on the shipment to Iron Curtain countries of arms, munitions, radar equipment, atom bomb materials, or anything which might be used in the manufacture of jet engines and certain precision instruments, the sources said.

A third schedule, which they said is the basis for the proposed new restrictions, is much more far reaching. They declined to disclose its contents or to state whether Britain has agreed to ban everything it mentions.

They said several Western countries, especially Sweden, have objected to some sections of the American schedules. One official said complete compliance would "seriously" affect Britain's trade with eastern Europe.

Trade Pacts Involved

The new restrictions probably will affect British trade agreements with Russia, Poland and Yugoslavia. A one-year trade pact between Britain and Russia expired recently, but trade continues under its terms during negotiations for a new agreement.

The disclosures came as the Moscow radio charged that the United States looks upon Britain as "an advanced base for atomic bombing forces" and a source of military manpower.

Republicans Urge Curbs

Similar remarks were made in Parliament Wednesday by John Platts-Mills, independent.

Disclosure of the impending new export restrictions follows statements by Republicans in the United States Senate urging tighter restrictions on trade with the East.

They criticized a statement in the House of Commons by Harold Wilson, president of the British Board of Trade, that "considerations of economic advantage" guide Britain's trade relations with Russia.

Elizabeth Lauds Women Of Service

London, March 26 (AP)—Princess Elizabeth said tonight "the modern army would be no use at all without the women behind it."

She spoke at the annual reunion of the Auxiliary Territorial Service (ATS), the British equivalent of the WACs, and Queen Mary's Army Auxiliary Corps. The princess, a subaltern in the ATS herself near the end of the war, said:

"I am sure that each one of us gained something, and most of us a good deal, from our service with the colors.

"The rough no less than the smooth gave us a chance to develop qualities which should make us better wives, mothers and citizens."

British Don't Want War, Russ Woman Says

London, March 26 (AP)—Madame Tatyana Zueva, Minister of Cultural Relations for the Moscow district in Russia, said today she is going home convinced "the British people do not want war."

She headed a party of six women delegates from the Soviet Union who came here two weeks ago for an International Women's Day celebration. As the group stepped aboard a plane, homeward bound, Mme. Zueva said:

"Since we came to England we have realized that the British people do not want war. We hope to strengthen relations and promote friendship between our two countries."

4 Nations Slice Section From Germany

Paris, March 26 (AP)—The French Foreign Office announced today that 52 square miles will be sliced off Germany and switched to France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

In all, 31 localities having 13,500 persons are involved in the border realignment. The change is being made on a provisional basis.

Permanence of the change will depend on an eventual peace treaty with Germany. The Allies signed peace treaties with Bulgaria, Romania, Yugoslavia, Italy and Finland in 1946. The East and West have failed to agree on terms for Germany, Austria and Japan.

Germans Are Bitter

Germans reacted bitterly. The State Cabinet of North Rhine-Westphalia said the decision violated the Atlantic Charter and international law.

"No force can tear apart the union" between Germans in the affected border areas and the other German people, the Cabinet said in Frankfurt. The action brought forth some of the most violent German denunciations of the Western Allies since the war.

Germans in the sections being switched to French, Belgian, Dutch or Luxembourg control have been offered the opportunity of moving their families and belongings to points which will remain inside Germany.

Final Decision Later

The French communiqué said:

"The German frontier problem will be taken up again and decided definitely and decided in its entirety when final peace is concluded. . . .

"The territories subject to adjustment will be placed under the territorial jurisdiction of the neighboring countries of Germany. These adjustments can be confirmed or modified by the terms of the final German peace treaty."

Discussed By 6 Powers

The announcement said six Western powers—the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—discussed provisional German frontier adjustments at a conference in London last June.

Because East-West differences have prevented conclusion of a German peace treaty, France said, the six Western nations felt "it was necessary to begin preliminary examination of the frontier problem and to start work on minor adjustments justified by administrative necessities and by traffic conditions along the western frontier of German. . . .

Germans May Stay There

"The limits assigned to the committee did not permit it to consider certain major territorial claims made by western neighbors of Germany."

No German "will be required to accept the nationality of the country to which his territory is attached."

Persons who do not desire to change their nationality will be allowed to stay in the transferred territory and "no discrimination will be exercised against them."

Self-Determination Denied

The North Rhine-Westphalia Cabinet said "the democratic western powers . . . have seen fit to deny the right of self-determination to the German people and not to permit a free decision whether the population wants a territorial change and a foreign citizenship. . .

"The decision of the Western powers is a hard blow against democracy, against the confidence and against the spirit which should establish a free Europe."

LOSS OF LAND IRKS GERMANS

Four Neighbors On West Will Get 52 Square Miles

Frankfurt, Germany, March 26 (AP)—Germans reacted bitterly today to the news that they must give up territory to France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Although the announced adjustments of the frontier involve only 52 square miles, they brought forth some of the most violent German denunciations of the Western Allies since the war.

The cabinet of North Rhine-Westphalia, the state chiefly affected by the changes, declared the Western powers' decision violated the Atlantic Charter and international law.

30.24- 2023

Called Blow Against Democracy

"The democratic Western powers and their governments have seen fit to deny the right of self-determination to the German people and not to permit a free decision whether the population wants a territorial change and a foreign citizenship.

"With grief and great apprehension, we declare that the governments which obligated themselves in the Atlantic Charter did not observe the terms of their own solemn declarations.

"The decision of the Western powers is a hard blow against democracy, against confidence and against the spirit which should establish a free Europe."

A French Foreign Ministry official said all France would get is a small, uninhabited area—its exact size undetermined—which supplies water to the Alsatian town of Wissembourg.

11 Square Miles For Belgium

Luxembourg is expected to get full possession of a railroad that winds in and out along her border with Germany.

Belgium is to gain about 11 square miles, principally in the areas of Rotgen (south of Aachen) and Mutzenich (near the German town of Montjoie). A Brussels dispatch said that, of the 4,000 persons living in the area, many are reported willing to become Belgians.

Dutch officials declined to indicate the Netherlands gains, expressing fear of a currency smuggling campaign in the affected areas. The Dutch press, however, speculated that the Netherlands would take over rural regions near Emmerich, near Gangelt and near the Netherlands' southern tip.

Map-drawing committees now will consider just where the new borders are to turn.

Big 3 Parley To Seek End of Reich Dispute

52 Sq. Mi. of Country Switched to Nations Bordering on West

WASHINGTON, March 26 (AP).—The State Department, it was learned today, is quietly arranging a three-Power Foreign Ministers' meeting on Western Germany to be held here in about 10 days.

The meeting will try to settle among the United States, Britain and France critical issues delaying final unification and further economic development of Western Germany.

MINISTERS AWAITED

The conference is timed to take advantage of the fact that British Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman will arrive in Washington late next week. They will attend the signing of the North Atlantic treaty April 4.

The German talks probably will be held immediately after that. Authorities said they would be very informal.

Today the Western Powers announced minor transfers of territory from Germany to its Western neighbors—the result of one of the conferences of lesser officials on German problems which have been under way abroad for many months.

BORDERS PUSHED BACK

The announcement said that 52 square miles of German land, with a population of 13,500, will be switched to the Netherlands, Belgium, Luxembourg, the Saar and France to improve communications and administration. The frontier will be pushed back inside Germany at 31 points.

The major problems arise from efforts to unify and establish a Government for all three zones of Western Germany and promote its economic development to aid European recovery.

French Coalition To 'Gang Up' On Foes In Runoff Vote Today

Paris, March 26 (AP)—One of western Europe's political compromises gets a fresh test tomorrow in the second serving of a French election. The voting is for 785 local political posts.

The compromise is the middle-of-the-road French Government, a coalition of four parties.

The test comes from the assault of this Government by the Communists, on the Left, and the followers of Gen. Charles de Gaulle, on the Right. Both want to upset the Government, but for different reasons.

Majority Required

The election began last Sunday, but only 723 of 1,503 seats in the general councils were filled, because an absolute majority was required. The council posts do not carry much power. However, the election is regarded as a political weathervane.

Tomorrow, the candidates getting the most votes in the runoff win.

Last week, the Government bloc of parties got 51.12 per cent of the vote. De Gaulle's French Peoples party (RPF) got 25.34 per cent and the Communists 23.54 per cent.

The coalition Government of Premier Henri Queuille is made up of Radical Socialists (Moderates), the Catholic, Popular Republican Movement (MRP), the Socialists and the Rightist Republican Liberty party (PRL).

How Strategy Works

Leaders of the Government bloc have decided to "gang up" on the Communists and De Gaullists. The plan works this way:

In a district where an MRP candidate seems the most favored Government bloc man, the Socialists and Radical Socialists have withdrawn. This has been done to throw additional votes to the MRP candidate to keep him from being defeated by a Communist or de Gaullist.

Similarly, the MRP man has dropped out where it would seem this action would help a Socialist or Radical Socialist get elected.

The question is: Will the voters obey the party orders?

The Government parties stand to be helped out also by the De Gaullists. The RPF has instructed its supporters to string along with the strongest anti-Communist candidate in districts where the de Gaulle man obviously has no chance. In this way it is hoped to keep down the number of Communist victories.

French Reds Face New Poll Defeat

Paris, March 26 (AP)—Communists are expected to take another beating at run-off local elections all over France tomorrow.

At stake are 785 seats in local "general councils." These councils, on the county level of government, have little power in the highly centralized French system. Nevertheless the elections are bitterly fought and politicians watch them to see which way the wind is blowing.

It blew against the Communists in the first round last Sunday, when candidates needed a majority to win. The Communists received 23.54 per cent of the popular vote but captured only seventeen of the 723 seats decided. Before the election they had held 174 of those seats.

Tomorrow—with the runoff going to the candidate who gets the most votes—the Communist candidates face combined opposition in many districts.

In these districts, Gen. Charles de Gaulle's Rally of the French People (R.D.F.) will vote with supporters of Premier Henri Queuille's coalition Government for a single anti-Communist candidate.

General de Gaulle's party gave orders that when an R. P. F. candidate "has no chance, and his candidacy makes possible election of a Communist, he will withdraw and throw his votes to the strongest anti-Communist candidate."

The Communists have instructions from their party's Paris head quarters to "vote for no one who endorses the Atlantic pact."

The government claimed victory for itself last Sunday. Socialists, Radical Socialists, Catholic Popular Republicans (M. R. P.) and the large number of independents all endorsed the government more or less. The official count gave them 3,667,830 votes, or 51.12 per cent of the total, and 536 of the 723 seats decided.

General de Gaulle's party—with 25.34 per cent of the popular vote—made the best showing of any single group in the first round. The official count was 1,821,021 votes and 170 seats.

France And Italy Sign Customs Union Treaty

Paris, March 26 (AP)—France and Italy signed today a treaty intended to unite the two nations' economies by 1955.

The first step, under the new accord, will be to establish a customs union next year.

Foreign Minister Robert Schuman, of France, and Count Carlo Sforza, the Foreign Minister of Italy, did the signing on the same little table which held the peace treaty for Italy when it was signed in 1947.

Hopeful For Its Extension

"It is at the service of European union that we are placing ourselves today," said Schuman. "This bilateral pact will one day, and we hope soon, become multilateral and European."

Sforza, speaking in French, commented:

"I dare hope that this co-operation will be extended to many spheres."

French officials said they hope the French and Italian parliaments will ratify the agreement before adjourning for the Easter vacation.

Text To Be Released

The treaty's text will not be released until later today, but officials said it provides for elimination of customs duties on shipments between France and Italy in the first year after ratification. Both countries also will adopt identical tariff schedules for commerce with other nations.

The economic union plan calls for progressive steps to abolish existing import-export quotas, licensing controls on trade and currency regulations in a six-year period, the officials reported. They said a permanent joint Franco-Italian commission will supervise operation of the agreement.

The pact, they said, calls for an eventual common financial and budgetary policy in France and Italy, and stabilization of their exchange rate. French spokesmen said the exchange rate, now 220 lire for 100 francs, would be changed to 180 lire for 100 francs.

Madrid Voices Its Approval of Atlantic Treaty

Indicates It Would Assent to Acceptance by Portugal, Its Ally in Iberian Pact

MADRID, March 26 (AP).—Spain implied today that it would approve acceptance by Portugal, its ally in the Iberian pact, of an invitation to join in the North Atlantic security pact.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman hailed the pact as "the first serious effort to defend Continental Europe against Soviet imperialism."

"The Iberian pact uniting Spain and Portugal provides that the countries must reach an accord when faced by new situations that might create agreements like those referring to the Atlantic pact," he said. "For the last week friendly conversations have been going on between the two countries.

"There are no grounds for believing Spain is hostile to the Atlantic pact."

The Cabinet discussed the Atlantic pact yesterday during a long meeting at which Generalissimo Francisco Franco presided.

[Spain has not been invited to join in the pact. Portugal and three other nations, Denmark, Italy and Iceland, have received invitations from the eight original members—the United States, Canada, Great Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxemburg and Norway. The pact is linked to the charter of the United Nations. Spain is not a member of the U. N.]

Spain Hails Pact As Russ Bar

Madrid, March 26 (AP)—Spain hailed the North Atlantic treaty today as the "first serious effort to defend Continental Europe against Soviet imperialism."

A Foreign Ministry spokesman said Spain and Portugal have been conferring on the question of Portugal's adherence to the accord. He added, however, that "there is no ground for believing Spain is hostile to the Atlantic pact."

Spain and Portugal have an obligation to discuss the matter under terms on an Iberian pact between the two countries.

Italian Okay Due

Subject to final ratification, the Atlantic pact will link the United States and Canada with Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg, Norway and Denmark. The Italian Government expects to receive final parliamentary approval for joining the alliance.

Iceland and Portugal also have been invited to join. No answer yet has been received from Portugal. There has been no invitation extended to Generalissimo Franco's Spanish regime.

Russ Retain Ban On West Mark, Bar Reform

Berlin, March 26 (AP)—The Russians said today they planned no currency reform in eastern Berlin or eastern Germany, and made it plain that the West mark is still taboo in the Soviet sector of Berlin.

The announcements were made through the Soviet-licensed ADN news agency.

The Russians apparently felt the need to quell rumors that have persisted since the Western powers outlawed the Soviet-backed East mark in the Western sectors a week ago.

Controls Tightened

After the East mark was banned by the West, Russia encouraged Germans living in Western sectors to come to the Russian sector and spend their East marks there. Western Germans were not searched for currency at Soviet roadblocks.

This led to speculation that the Russians were lifting their long-time ban on West marks in their area.

ADN reported that not only does the old order still hold but that instructions have been issued to tighten controls against "infiltration" of the "illegal and speculative" West marks into the Soviet sector.

Allied officials have said that the Russians themselves, however, have tried at every opportunity to get West marks. They said the Russians wanted them to finance undercover deals with smugglers from the West bringing in vital materials shut off by the West's counterblockade.

Young German Reds Beaten, Paper Reports

Berlin, March 26 (AP)—A Russian-backed Berlin newspaper said today that some young German Communists were beaten by a mob last night.

The assailants stoned police who went to the youths' rescue, the paper said.

The paper, Neues Deutschland, organ of the Socialist Unity (Communist) party, said several of the Communists were injured and ten of the attackers were arrested.

ITALIAN INDUSTRY HURT BY DROUGHT

Nation Hit By Worst Shortage Of Hydroelectric Power

Rome, March 26 (AP)—Dry weather has struck a staggering blow to Italy's postwar industrial recovery.

The worst shortage of hydroelectric power in the nation's history threatens a temporary shutdown of major industry, a European Recovery Program official said today.

He said that industrial output, which on January 1 equalled or exceeded prewar production, already had slumped seven to ten per cent.

Rigid new electricity rationing may cut production to less than half of normal, he added.

Worst Drought Since 1921

In an attempt to meet the crisis, Italy's Cabinet is considering creation of a powerful special committee to allocate and establish strict priority controls over all power sources.

Public and private consumption of oil, coal and all other sources of power would be severely restricted.

European Recovery Program and Italian Government officials are examining every possibility of alleviating the shortage. All available steam generating units are being rushed into service.

The drought is the worst since 1921. Weather officials said only heavy spring precipitation in the mountains would fill the fast drying power reservoirs.

For two months, north Italy had been denied normal use of electricity on three days a week, from 7 A.M. to 6 P.M. Central Italy, including Rome, has lacked power two days a week.

North Italy To Be Hit

Emergency conservation plans now under consideration may force suspension of aluminum, chemical and certain other industries. Iron, steel and other heavy industries would be kept going as long as possible.

North Italy, including the nation's biggest industrial centers, will be hit next Monday by a six-day shutdown of electric power between 7 A.M. and 6 P.M.

The Fiat automotive works at Turin, the Montecatini industrial works, the Pirelli rubber factories and a number of other large north Italian industries will continue to operate, using only power generated by flowing water rather than reservoir supplies. This energy otherwise would be lost.

Domestic Users To Be Cut Off

Hospitals, transport, street lighting and other essential public services also will be served, but medium and small industries and all domestic users will be cut off. It is estimated 2,500,000 workers will be temporarily jobless.

A European Recovery Program economic official blamed the crisis on two factors, other than the drought:

1. A 50 per cent increase in the use of electric power since the war, due largely to home heating appliances and re-electrification or railroads.

2. A lack of sufficient "stand by" sources of generating electricity, such as steam turbines.

With no immediate sign of relief, the power crisis appears virtually certain to upset the European Recovery Program's timetable for Italian recovery.

"This," said an official, "is really serious. It's our biggest worry."

Said an Italian official: "The Communists have found an ally in the weather."

Youth Arrested For Threat On De Gasperi

Rome, March 26 (AP)—A spokesman in Premier Alcide de Gasperi's office said today that police have arrested a youth accused of threatening to kill the Premier.

The spokesman said no actual attempt had been made against de Gasperi's life. De Gasperi was in the Senate and apparently knew nothing of the threat.

Giornale Della Sera said the youth sent a letter to Communist Deputy Luigi Longo asking for money with which to prepare the attempt against de Gasperi's life.

Longo, the report added, turned the letter over to police.

Youth Identified

A police communiqué later identified the youth as Antonio Grillo, 21, from the small town of Soriano Calabro, near Catanzaro.

Antonio, the police communiqué said, was a member of the Communist party and also of Catholic Action, a duplicity that the police communiqué said he explained by the "need of obtaining whatever assistance possible."

The youth told police, the communqué said, that he had no intention to carrying out an attempt "even if Longo had directed him on that way, but wished only to call attention of the Communist party to himself to receive aid."

Pope Emphasizes Need for Homes

VATICAN CITY, March 26 (AP).—Pope Pius XII urged representatives of 19 nations attending a building conference in Rome to devote themselves to the task of procuring for millions homes that "assure a minimum of hygiene, comfort and dignity."

The Pontiff spoke yesterday to representatives of the Building Civil Engineering and Public Works Conference held under the auspices of the International Labor Organization (ILO). His address to them was made public today.

"The people," said the Pontiff, "need housing as they need clothing and food."

This, he said, was a need common to all men and which they should receive from a normal economy, above all through the competition of private initiative.

In its closing session at Palazzo Venezia today the conference approved a committee report that asks governments and builders of member countries of the ILO to reduce building costs, increase production and encourage prefabrication and standardization.

Governments also were asked by approved committee reports to encourage private investment, reduce taxes on capital invested in industry and postpone public works that are not urgent whenever there is a slowdown in private construction.

Czechs Say Briton Had Plot Role

Prague, March 26 (AP)—The Interior Ministry charged today that Capt. Philip Wildash, expelled British consul, plotted to smuggle a fugitive Czechoslovak General into this country to direct an organized plot against the state.

Britain denied yesterday that Wildash had plotted against Czechoslovakia's Communist regime. The denial was contained in a strong protest note delivered to the Foreign Ministry.

The Interior Ministry's official statement was distributed by the Czechoslovak Press Bureau. It was the first issued by a Czechoslovak source since Wildash was seized by plain-clothes police at his apartment last Tuesday morning and taken to Pankrac Prison for nearly seven hours of questioning.

Wildash was the British member of the British-American-French military permit office which issues visas for travel in the occupation zones of western Germany. He left here Wednesday for Frankfurt on the advice of the British Embassy.

The Czechoslovak statement said Wildash had prevailed upon a Czechoslovak citizen, who had applied for a visa to enter western Germany, to remain in this country to set up a plotting organization. It also charged that Wildash promised help to the plotters from Britain and accused him of organizing a flight of Czechoslovak refugees.

Prosecution Threatened

Soon after Wildash was picked up, the British Embassy was advised that he would be prosecuted on "serious charge of plotting" if he did not leave the country within 24 hours.

The embassy said any charges of plotting were trumped up and protested against the threat, which did not allow Wildash to remain to answer the charges.

Poles Trying For More War Criminal Trials

Warsaw, Poland March 26 (AP)—Poland is still trying to get 7,000 Germans returned from Germany for trial before courts in this country as war criminals.

The government announced approximately 2,000 had been extradited since the end of the war.

A spokesman said American authorities in Germany had refused to turn over 891 Germans and British authorities had replied nagatively to 57 other extradition requests.

The spokesman said Poland was continuing to insist that Anglo-American authorities had no right to set any deadline for extradition requests.

Red Officials Urge Bulgars To Hate All Things Western

[Just back from a trip into Bulgaria, where he covered the trial of Protestant churchmen, Richard Kasischke, of the Associated Press, filed the following uncensored dispatch from Berlin.]

By Richard Kasischke

Sofia, Bulgaria, March 26—Bulgaria's Communist-run Government is waging a deliberate campaign to isolate the Americans and British here and make the Bulgarian people hostile toward all things Western.

This campaign, American sources say, extends to sentencing to labor camps some Bulgarian girls who fraternize with American men despite police warnings.

Such a sentence of six months was imposed upon the Bulgarian financée of an American stationed here who refused to break off their engagement.

Rules make it virtually impossible now for a Bulgarian to marry a Westerner.

Guest Of Yank Worried

This correspondent invited a young Bulgarian woman to dinner at a hotel frequented by the foreign colonies. She came, but announced at the start that she had been cautioned by the State Security Police against further fraternization with Americans.

She insisted upon sitting in a secluded corner of the restaurant-bar and spent most of the evening apprehensively looking over her shoulder at Bulgarians who entered the room. She insisted upon going home alone through a door used by Bulgarian clientele.

Hostility Seen Increasing

This systematically promoted hostility, American and British officials say, is bound to increase following the recent trial of fifteen Protestant pastors accused of espionage for the West. In that trial the chief whipping boy was "Anglo-American imperialist capitalism." Premier Georgi Dimitrov has publicly denounced Western capitalism as "barbarism."

But, despite these Communist restrictions, America and Britain are still getting through to the Bulgarian people by radio broadcasts and at least a limited showing of their motion pictures.

The chief broadcast medium is the Voice of America, which the Communist press calls the "Voya (howl) of America." It is a pain in the ear to Bulgaria's Red bosses.

Communist party snoopers are known to be trying to scare people out of listening to the Voice.

Premier Warns Listeners

Boss Dimitrov himself stated in Parliament he planned to "rid Sofia of people who are more interested in listening to foreign broadcasts than getting down to work for the new socialist state."

And Americans recall the day recently when Anton Yugoff, chief of the State Security Police, sent a press department emissary around to complain that "the Voice called me a butcher last night—it called me a butcher!"

In the pastor spy trial, one of the defense lawyers, currying favor with the court to get mercy for his client, sought to raise a "disgusted protest against the drunken Voice of America."

U.S. Movies Still Popular

Despite official discrimination and antagonism in the Communist press, American movies still are a huge success here. The Government doesn't let many in but when it does the fans flock to them.

The ten-year-old "His Butler's Sister," with Deanna Durbin, wowed 'em and the equally old "Men in Her Life," with Loretta Young, has already run eleven weeks to packed houses in the third largest theater in Sofia—800 seats.

An American library also is still getting brisk patronage here. If the Bulgarians are trying to scare people out of going to the library, it has not yet become evident.

Travel Restricted

There are also many other ways in which the Communist Government and police seek to make life unpleasant for Westerners here.

The Americans are pressed to reduce their legation staffs.

Travel restrictions on Western legation people hold most of them to a narrow radius around Sofia.

Americans are also finding it increasingly difficult to obtain apartments and servants. One legation wife said Communist snoopers had threatened Bulgarian families in the neighborhood against letting their children play with her children or entering American homes.

A welfare worker said she knew that Bulgarian families who receive food packages from the United States hastily empty the contents and then destroy cans and packages lest they be pointed out as "pro-imperialists" by prying and jealous neighbors.

The Communists also have ordered that American and Canadian foods contributed as gifts cannot be labeled as such in distribution.

SLAVS ACCUSE TWO NATIONS

Bulgaria And Albania Charged With 'Fascist' Methods

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, March 26 (AP)—Two strong epithets used by Communists—"Fascist" and "adventurer"—cropped up today in the quarrel between Yugoslavia and two neighboring Cominform states.

The words appeared in Yugoslavia's official press accounts of the treatment accorded Yugoslav citizens by Bulgaria and Albania.

In addition, Borba, the official organ of the Communist party in Yugoslavia, charged that a Bulgarian spy ring has been sending agents across the Yugoslav border. The newspapers said the agents are dispatched "to collect information of military, economic and political activities and to spread rumors."

Tension Increased

These developments increased the tension which started when Yugoslavia and Marshal Tito fell from the good graces of the Soviet Union and the Cominform eight months ago.

Today's article in Borba accused Bulgaria of using Fascist methods in what it called the "persecution" of Yugoslav nationals. The charge centered around the Bulgarian trial at which Dr. Cedomir Ilic and two Yugoslav students were sent to prison for spying. Ilic was identified as the physician for the Yugoslav Embassy in Sofia.

The paper charged that he was "beaten and maltreated" and then framed as a spy. It also denounced the trial as secret and said the defendants were denied counsel and that the Yugoslav Embassy was refused permission to send observers.

Language Significant

"This method is not new," the paper said. "It has been used previously by Fascists . . . and it is used frequently by Albanian adventurers. Bulgaria, like Albania, . . . has persecuted and tortured in prison many Yugoslavs who refused to betray their country and defended truth about socialistic Yugoslavia."

The strong language of the official press is especially significant in that it was used in connection with Soviet satellites.

Premier Marshal Tito is scheduled to make a major speech in a few weeks. Observers here believe he may chart a new course for Yugoslavia in East-West relations.

[In Washington, informed officials said the United States is easing trade restrictions on Yugoslavia in an effort to widen the tito-Cominform split].

Slavs Pin Label Of 'Fascist' On 2 Red Nations

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, March 26 (AP)—Yugoslavia's official press today accused two Cominform neighbors—Albania and Bulgaria—of using "Fascist" methods in persecution of Yugoslav nationals.

It was the first time Yugoslavia used the epithet "Fascist" in connection with activities of Soviet satellites. It underscored the increasing tension since Yugoslavia fell under the Cominform lash eight months ago for straying from the Communist party line.

New Course Possible

Use of the word—a harsh one indeed in the Communist dictionary—takes on added significance in view of the fact that Premier Marshal Tito is to deliver a major address in several weeks. Many diplomats here think the speech may chart a new course for Yugoslavia in the East-West struggle.

Today's accusations centered around the Bulgarian trial at which Dr. Cedomir Ilic and two Yugoslav students were sent to prison for spying.

Borba, the official organ of the Communist party in Yugoslavia, denounced the trial as secret and complained that the Yugoslav Embassy was not allowed to send observers. It said Ilic, identified as a surgeon for the embassy, had been beaten, maltreated and framed.

The paper also charged that Bulgaria had organized a spy ring to push agents across the Yugoslav border "to collect information of military, economic and political activities, and to spread rumors."

Mistreatment Alleged

In addition, Borba complained, Bulgaria has been "arresting, maltreating and expelling Yugoslav citizens there who remained faithful to their country."

"This method is not new," the paper continued. "It has been used previously by Fascists . . . and it is used frequently by Albanian adventurists. Bulgaria, like Albania . . . has persecuted and tortured in prison many Yugoslavs who refused to betray their country and defended truth about socialistic Yugoslavia."

SOVIET PAPERS PLAY UP FINNS

Denmark, Sweden And Norway Also Receive Attention

By EDDY GILMORE

Moscow, March 26 (AP)—Unusual prominence is being given Scandinavian news in Moscow's press.

Outstanding in news from the north this week have been many stories on neighboring Finland, some of them from Helsinki and some originating with the Soviet press. Denmark, Sweden and Norway also came in for attention.

The press has been especially critical of Finland, and this has caused some worry among Finnish diplomats here.

The New Times came forward with the heading: "Fagerholm's Cold War."

Accused Of Treaty Violations

Finnish Premier Karl A. Fagerholm's government has steadily lost prestige in the Soviet press. It has been suggested here several times that Finland is not living up to the terms of peace treaty and international obligations.

Today, Tass quoted a Helsinki Communist newspaper, which accused Finland of four violations of the Russian-Finnish peace treaty. The dispatch, printed in Pravda, Communist party organ, listed one of the violations as the importation of jet motors.

[This dispatch from Moscow gave no details of the other three alleged violations.]

Attention On Wolf Hunt

Tass quoted Tyoksan Sanomat, Finnish Communist paper, as saying the motors were of the German V-1 type.

Pravda also published a suggestion by Ny Dag, Swedish Communist newspaper, saying that "Sweden must support forces fighting for peace." It devoted several hundred words to Ny Dag's article to the effect that Sweden should condemn military plans of "criminal policy imperialists."

A recent wolf hunt, in Finnish Lapland commanded major attention in the Moscow press. Soviet papers quoted Finnish publications on this, but it was obvious they were trying to hint that some strange things have been going on near the Soviet-Finnish frontier.

Demonstration Reported

The dispatches implied there was more to it than just a wolf hunt. They said many photographs were taken.

Denmark's parliamentary debate on joining the North Atlantic alliance also has been in the news spotlight in Moscow. The press has reported that masses of Danes demonstrated against the treaty outside Parliament.

The press itself has refrained from comment. But now that Denmark has voted to accept an invitation to join the alliance, editorial writers are likely to have considerable to say.

Many commentators have spoken about the refusal of Norway, now in the North Atlantic alliance, to accept a Soviet-proposed non-aggression pact.

Reds Say Finns Violate Treaty

Moscow, March 26 (AP)—Tass quoted a Helsinki Communist newspaper today as accusing Finland of four violations of the Russian-Finnish peace treaty, including the importation of jet motors. The dispatch was printed in Pravda, Communist party organ.

[This dispatch from Moscow gave no details of the other three alleged violations].

Third Day Of Stir Over Finns

This is the third successive day that Finnish news has been prominently featured in the Soviet press. Previously there has been critical comment about a recent wolf hunt in Finnish Lapland, adjoining the Russian border. Dispatches implied there was more than a wolf hunt going on. They said many photographs were taken.

Vapaa Sana, Popular Democrat newspaper in Helsinki, was quoted as saying four sections of the peace treaty were being especially violated.

Links Premier To Charge

Tyoksan Sanomat, Finnish Communist paper, was the source of the jet-motor report. This paper, according to Tass, said the Finnish Aviation Alliance was importing motors, of the German V-1 type, in violation of the peace treaty. This was done apparently with knowledge of Government officials, including Premier Karl August Fagerholm, the paper added.

Another Helsinki dispatch referred to Vice President Seim Penna Tervo's rejection of proposals to employ legal measures to assure Finland's fulfillment of the peace treaty.

Russians Told Danes 'Accept Betrayal Pact'

Moscow, March 26 (AP)—Moscow's morning newspapers published without comment of their own today the story of Denmark's acceptance of invitations to join the North Atlantic pact.

The Tass dispatch which they printed said the Danish Government has posted police guards in and around the Parliament Building and is so disturbed by public demonstrations against the pact that it carefully handpicks those admitted to the public seats during parliamentary sessions.

Tass quoted the Danish Communist newspaper Land Og Folk as charging that the lower house of Parliament, in voting to accept the invitations, "betrayed for the second time in a decade the independence of Denmark."

Russ Claim Invention Of Jet Aviation

Moscow, March 26 (AP)—The Russians are claiming another invention—jet aviation.

The navy newspaper Red Fleet said in 1849 a Captain Tretesski drew up plans for a jet-powered airship. The paper said the plan proposed the use of air, steam or other vapors to propel lighter-than-air craft.

Red Fleet asserted that a German general in the Czarist army rejected the plan. This, said the paper, was not the only Russian invention sabotaged by Germans or other foreigners in the Czar's Government.

The paper claimed that other Russian inventors developed Tretesski's idea and even invented the dirigible. But the Germans pilfered that, too, Red Fleet said.

[The Germans are generally credited with leading in the development of jet-propelled aircraft during the last war.]

IRAN REPORTS BORDER CLASH WITH RUSSIANS

Official Says Soviet Unit Killed One Soldier, Captured Two

Tehran, Iran, March 26 (AP)—A high military source said today a detachment of 50 Soviet troops had killed one Iranian soldier and wounded and captured two others in a disputed frontier region.

The incident, the informant said, occurred in an area claimed by Iran, in the Gurgan district south of at Atrek River.

[The date was not stated in this dispatch, which passed through Iranian censorship.]

The Iranian commander protested to the Soviet Consul in the city of Gurgan and demanded return of the prisoners. Negotiations for release of the two and payment of indemnity were reported under way.

Ultimatum Reported

Press sources reported the Soviet commander in the area issued an ultimatum to Iranians to withdraw from frontier posts in the area and massed Soviet regiments in a show of force, but the Iranian command moved up an equal force and there was no action at that time.

The Gurgan district is in Northeast Iran, east of the south end of the Caspian Sea, adjoining the Soviet Turkman Republic. The Atrek River, flowing westward into the Caspian, marks the frontier along part of its course. The city of Gurgan lies about 30 miles east of the Caspian and 200 miles northeast of Tehran.

A worsening of relations between Iran and Russia resulted from the Iranian ban upon the Tudeh (Communist) party.

Conspiracy Charged

Some members of the party are on trial, charged with conspiracy in an assassination attempt against 29-year-old King Reza Pahlevi.

How far the Russians would go to aid their friends here is the big question mark of Iranian politics.

[Informed sources at Lake Success, N.Y., reported yesterday Russia has tentatively asked closing of the Iranian consulate at Baku and is considering closing three of her own consulates in Iran.

[A dispatch from the AP correspondent in Tehran, which bore no marking as to the date of its transmission, except a hint that it was prior to Thursday, said news of the Soviet Government's order withdrawing consuls from Iran and the closing the Iranian consulate at Baku was withheld for five days by order of the Iranian cabinet. Later advices hinted there still was a possibility the rift might be patched up.]

Three Leaders Escape

The Tudeh party was outlawed after a news photographer sympathetic with its aims, Kakhr Raiee, accosted the Shah March 4 at the University of Tehran and fired five shots at him.

The photographer was killed at the scene.

Official newspapers immediately charged the Tudeh party with the outrage. Police reported finding a red-headlined edition of the Tudeh mouthpiece Mardom, ready for printing, proclaiming revolution and Marxism.

The government banned the party and arrested fourteen of its members. Three leaders escaped.

So far, the only evidence offered that the gunman had dealings with the party is a letter published in Mardom a year ago in which he described himself as a poor student who, though not a party member, was contributing his books to the party.

Among the fourteen on trial before a military tribunal are Dr. Hessein Jodat and Dr. Morteza Yazdi, both members of the ruling Internal Council. Yazdi is a former head of the party, Jodat is a university professor.

Party Born Ten Years Ago

The three who escaped were Dr. Feridun Keshevarz, Dr. Reza Radmanesh and Abdul Kambaksh, all Internal Council members. The Russians have denied reports they are hiding in the Soviet Embassy.

The Tudeh party had its beginnings ten years ago when 53 persons were arrested on charges of Marxist leanings. They were convicted and sentenced to long prison terms. Their leader, named Aranee, died in jail of typhus and became a leftist martyr.

When the Russians entered Iran in World War II, one of their first acts was to release the surviving prisoners. Then, with Soviet encouragement, those who had been freed organized Tudeh. This was in 1942.

The party's policy was one of bitter opposition to the Government. The party membership never has been accurately ascertained. Guesses range from 50,000 to 5,000,000.

Iraq 'Considering' Break With Russ'

Cairo, March 26 (AP)—The weekly newspaper Akhbar el Yom said yesterday the Iraqi Government is considering whether to break diplomatic relations with Soviet Russia.

The newspaper's disptach, under a Baghdad dateline, said the Iraqi Government has arrested 100 Communist leaders on charges they had contacts with Moscow and the Communist party of Iran.

Weizmann Flies To U. S. Next Month

TEL AVIV, Israel, March 26 (AP)—President Chaim Weizmann is expected to fly to the United States the second week in April, it was learned here today.

The President was host at luncheon yesterday to Eddie Jacobson, friend and former business partner of President Truman. Jacobson and his wife arrived yesterday for a 10-day stay.

Siamese Army Officers Plan Apology to Ghosts

BANGKOK, March 26 (AP).—High officers of the Siamese armed forces have obtained permission to apologize at the temple of spirits to any ghosts they may have offended in suppressing an attempted coup a month ago.

The ceremony will be held April 2 at 11 a. m., the hour astrologers decided was auspicious. The rites are planned at the Wat Phra Keo, the temple containing the sacred image known as the Emerald Buddha, cut from a single piece of transparent jasper. Its history has been linked intimately with that of Siam.

Fifty or more people were killed in the attempted uprising, late in February. The street fighting at Bangkok was termed a violent "misunderstanding."

CHINESE REDS ORDER TALKS

Tell Government To Send Peace Group To Peiping April 1

Nanking, March 26 (AP)—The Chinese Communists tonight told the Government to send its peace delegation to Peiping, ready to talk business, next Friday, April 1.

The brief instruction, broadcast in Chinese and English, named a five-man Communist delegation, headed by Chou En-lai, No. 2 Communist political figure.

Other members are Gen. Lin Piao, Manchurian commander; Gen. Yeh Chien-ying, mayor of Peiping; Lin Tzu-han, member of the Politburo and former chairman of the old Yenan Communist government, and Lin Wei-han, party whip who participated in the unsuccessful peace negotiations of 1946.

The broadcast reiterated that the eight Communist terms of January 14 (which amount to unconditional surrender by the Government) would be "the basis for negotiations by both sides."

A Curt Broadcast

(The first point of these terms is punishment of "war criminals." In this category the Communists have listed almost all prominent Government figures. Even if the Government should accede, many on the list, including Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, are beyond its reach.)

The curt Communist broadcast referred to the Nanking regime as the "reactionary government," indicating no softening of the Communist attitude.

Members of the five-man government peace delegation declined comment but indicated they received the news with mixed feelings. Chairman Shao Li-tze was pessimistic of actually being able to settle the civil war satisfactorily, while some others were hopeful.

An official source said the Government was considering appointment of Li Chun-lung, former vice minister of Information, as Secretary-general to the Government delegation, since he is the younger brother of the Communist delegate Li Wei-han.

Despite the peace maneuvers, the Communists were continuing an attack on Anking, 150 miles southwest of Nanking. It is one of the last important Government positions on the north bank of the Yangtze River.

A Government spokesman said the Communists had been pushed back to about 10 miles from Anking and that Nationalist reinforcements were en route.

China Reds Set Peace Talks For April

Nanking, March 26 (AP)—Chinese Communists named peace delegates today and set April 1 for the start of negotiations to end the civil war.

The Government, meanwhile, launched an eleventh-hour drive for Nationalist unity to bolster its position before the peace conference begins.

A Red radio broadcast said Chou En-lai, deputy to top Communist Mao Tze-tung, will head the Communist delegation. The conference will be at Peiping, now capital of all Communist China in everything but official name.

Announced In Broadcast

The Red delegation was announced in a Chinese language broadcast. It gave the other four members of the group as Lin Piao, top Communist commander in Manchuria; Yeh Chien-chin, head of the Peiping military control committee; Lin To-chu, former head of the Shensi-Kansu-Ningsia border area, and Li Wei-han.

The broadcast said this delegation had been appointed "to conduct negotiations with the delegation of the Nanking reactionary Government using the January 14 policy statement and Mao's eight points as the basis" for the talks.

[The policy statement and the eight points would amount to total surrender of the Government if carried out to the letter. It was the severity of these terms that prompted many powerful Nationalist leaders to have no part of Acting President Li Tsung-jen's "peace" government.

War-Criminal List

[Among other things, these Communist demands included turning over everyone designed as "war criminals" by the Reds. "Retired" President Chiang Kai-shek headed this list, which includes most of the leading figures in Li's present Government.]

U.S. Navy Discounts China Reds On Subs

Shanghai, March 26 (AP)—United States Navy sources scoffed today at the Chinese Communist claim that three American submarines had appeared off the Red-held Manchurian port of Hulutao.

These sources said no American undersea craft have been in China waters since last month.

Red Radio Claim

The Red radio made the claim yesterday in the first Communist admission that Chinese Air Force planes had destroyed the cruiser Chungking, which turned up at Hulutao after deserting the Chinese Navy.

The Communist broadcast said the United States Navy sent three subs to make sure the cruiser, formerly the Aurora in the British Navy, was destroyed.

Jogjakarta's Use At Capital Backed

Batavia, Java, March 26 (AP)—United Nations approval was given Jogjakarta today for use again as capital of the Indonesian republic.

The United Nations Commission on Indonesia told the Security Council "there is no serious damage to the city which would interfere in any way" with re-establishment of the Republican Government there.

However, lack of materials and equipment removed or destroyed since last December—when Dutch troops occupied Republican territory—"will seriously hamper an effective functioning of the Republican Administration," the report said.

The Security Council has ordered the Dutch to restore Republican President Soekarno and his aides to power in Jogjakarta, at the heart of republican territory in central Java. This the Dutch have refused to do. The chiefs of the regime are still held on the island of Bangka.

The United Nations commission decided to try new talks to solve the Dutch-Indonesian dispute. A commission spokesman said next Wednesday was suggested as the starting day. Both sides indicated unofficially they would be willing to take part.

U.N. Committee Calls New Talks On Indonesia

Dutch and Republicans Both Indicate They Are Willing; May Start on Wednesday

BATAVIA, March 26 (AP).—The United Nations Commission on Indonesia has decided to hold new talks in an attempt to solve the prolonged dispute between the Indonesian Republic and the Netherlands.

A commission spokesman said next Wednesday was suggested as the starting day for the new discussions between Dutch and Republican representatives.

Both Dutch and Republican circles indicated unofficially they would be willing to participate in such talks under U. N. auspices.

The commission's latest move was prompted by a U. N. Security Council directive to assist the Dutch and the Republicans in coming to an agreement.

It is believed one of the first matters to be discussed will be the Republicans' demand they be permitted to return to power in Jogjakarta, their former capital, as called for in a Security Council resolution last January. The Republicans made this a prerequisite to participation when the Dutch proposed a roundtable conference at The Hague.

Ship Rockets Rise Over 75 Miles

Lima, Peru, March 26 (AP)—Capt. Thomas Ahroon said today that rockets fired from a special tower on the United States seaplane tender Norton Sound reached an altitude of from 75 to 100 miles.

The experiments were carried out a few days ago at the magnetic equator off the Peruvian coast. Ahroon commands the United States task force which arrived yesttrday at Callao, the port for Lima.

Two German V2 rockets and United States Aerobees were launched from the tender. The rockets carried equipment to gather and transmit data. The rockets, of course, were not recovered but the messages they sent provided scientists aboard ship data to make the calculations.

Destroyers Took Part

The destroyers Aederholm and Richard B. Anderson took part in the exercise.

"The results were very successful," Ahroon said.

Brig. Gen. Manuel Odria, president of the Peruvian Military Government, visited the American ships. Admiral Federico Dulanto, navy minister, Admiral Roque Saldias and other members of the junta accompanied him. Ahroon received the group at the gangplank of the Norton Sound. Specialists explained the rocket trials.

Bomb Kills Mexican Major

Saltillo, Mexico, March 26 (AP)—A bomb dropped from a war plane in maneuvers here yesterday fell among a group of observers, killing a major and injuring two lieutenants of the Mexican Army.

Truman Asks All to Aid World Relief Campaign

WASHINGTON, March 26 (AP).—President Truman issued a call tonight for Americans to join in a special world relief drive and thus help destroy the "barriers of distrust and propaganda that divide us from our fellow men."

The President appealed in behalf of an interdenominational fund-raising collection which will be taken up in some 76,000 churches across the nation tomorrow.

The money is to be used by various participating religious groups for their regular overseas relief organizations.

CLIMAXES BROADCAST

Mr. Truman's talk climaxed a coast-to-coast broadcast, entitled "One Great Hour" carried by three of the four major networks (ABC), (CBS), (MBS). The program originated in Hollywood, where Gregory Peck, Ida Lupino and Robert Montgomery took lead roles in three dramatic sketches depicting the plight of war victims aboard.

"To the millions in the world who cry out in their despair for a new day of freedom and justice," the President said, "we here in America, out of our strength and by our example, can give hope and comfort.

"I urge you to go to worship tomorrow, each in his accustomed place, to thank God for our heritage and our strength, and to ask Him for the grace and power to carry out His will in this troubled world."

Has Fresh Meaning, He Says

He said the Divine command to aid the hungry, the needy and the sick has a "fresh meaning today."

"They make clear our duty toward those millions of people in other countries who have suffered and still suffer the miseries of war, destruction and tyranny," he added.

Declaring that this country owed its richness and freedom to the bounty of God, he added: "Many of those in need and distress throughout the world share these beliefs and ideals with us. To them we should offer not only our aid in physical things, but also the sense of brotherhood in a common cause.

Government Not Enough

"We cannot do this through the channels of Government alone. We must also extend the hand of fellowship through our private organizations and as individuals. In this way, we can join with those of kindred faith and destroy the barriers of distrust and propaganda that divide us from our fellow men."

Churches taking part in the collection include nearly all major Protestant sects, the Catholics, and Russian, Romanian and Eastern Serbian orthodox churches.

The supporting groups include the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, Foreign Missions Conference of North America, National Catholic Welfare Conference, Church World Service, United Council of Church Women and American Committee for the World Council of Churches.

Although the Jews will not participate directly in tomorrow's drive because most of their services are not held at the Sunday hour, the broadcast paid tribute to the work of the United Jewish Appeal which is making a concurrent collection.

One group, the American Council of Christian Churches, was opposed to the collection and did not participate. It claimed that some of the money would go to finance "modernism and socialism on a world scale," and asked for equal radio time to answer the appeal.

The radio networks refused this request on the ground that world relief is not a controversial subject and therefore did not call for rebuttal under broadcasting regulations.

Taft Suggests Limiting ECA To 4 Billion

Would Let Truman Spread Sum Over 12 or 15 Months

WASHINGTON, March 26 (AP).—Senator Robert A. Taft (R., O.) suggested today that Congress limit European recovery funds to $4,280,000,000 and let President Truman decide whether to use that amount during 12 or during 15 months.

Taft told reporters this proposal has been discussed among Senators along with suggestions for a flat 10 percent cut in the pending bill to put a $5,580,000,000 ceiling on Marshall Plan aid to Western Europe in the next 15 months. The Senate resumes debate on the measure Monday.

The Foreign Relations Committee has approved a $4,280,000,000 outlay for the year beginning July 1. It also has recommended that $1,150,000,000 be made available for April, May and June, plus $150,000,000 in contracting authority for later use.

MAY URGE 10 PCT. CUT

The Ohio Senator's suggestion would duplicate the action Congress took last year, when it voted $5,050,000,000 in actual appropriations for 15 months but permitted the President to telescope the allocations into 12 months. The President did so.

Taft said an amendment may be offered for a 10 percent cut in the overall $5,580,000,000 figure in line with economy talks between House and Senate Republicans.

The Ohioans said there have been suggestions that a 10 percent cut be written into every appropriation bill, either as a flat reduction or as an instruction to the President to scale spending down by that much, leaving him a free hand in deciding where funds should be lopped off.

FEARS DROP IN SAVING

Taft said he fears that unless some cut is made in the European recovery budget there won't be much overall savings.

"I don't see why we should be asked to appropriate more this year than we did in the last Congress," Taft said.

"We could make the $4,230,000,000 available for 15 months and if the President finds it has to be spent faster, we will be back here next January and can take the matter up then, just as we have this year."

While the Administration is expected to fight Taft's proposal, there is evidence that it may attract substantial support in the Senate.

Fewer Military Men Are Advising Truman

Washington, March 26 (AP)—The Truman Administration is now virtually stripped of the military men who once played important roles in the nation's foreign policy.

President Truman apparently did not plan it that way, despite the often severe criticism leveled at him during his first term for the "military influence" which some columnists and lawmakers saw in United States foreign affairs.

It has been a series of resignations, most of which he accepted reluctantly, which has substantially changed the character of Mr. Truman's team of advisers on international matters.

Leahy Is Leahy

The latest came yesterday when Admiral William D. Leahy, 73, retired as a member of the President's White House staff and Gen. Walter Bedell Smith quit one of the nation's most important diplomatic assignments—that of Ambassador to Moscow.

Leahy, who during the war was United States envoy to Vichy, France, was Mr. Truman's chief of staff. In the early days of the Administration, he reportedly played a large part in developing this nation's "tough" policy toward Russia.

The resignations started in January when the ailing Gen. George C. Marshall quit as Secretary of State and was replaced by Dean Acheson, an attorney and former State Department official.

Forrestal Resignation

At the same time, Robert A. Lovett was succeeded as Under Secretary by Budget Director James E. Webb. Lovett was wartime Assistant Secretary of War for Air.

Secretary of Defense James Forrestal's resignation is effective at the end of this month. He is credited by insiders with having been deeply concerned with the development of foreign policy—as well as strictly military affairs.

Forrestal will be replaced by Louis Johnson, an attorney and former commander of the American Legion, who is expected to concentrate on military matters, except where they directly affect foreign policy.

Moscow Propaganda

The charge in this country that the President was relying too heavily on men with military backgrounds was more than matched by a barrage of propaganda from Moscow.

The Russians denounced alike those who advocated American rearmament and those who in any other way contributed to the development of a firm policy toward the Soviet Union and its efforts to spread communism over the world.

Actually the basis for that policy was worked out to a considerable extent by former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes.

U.S. Aims Trade Wedge Between Tito, Russia

Washington, March 26 (AP)—Informed officials say the United States is easing restrictions on trade with Yugoslavia in an effort to widen the split between Marshal Tito and Russia.

The State Department shied away from making a public confirmation. But other officials said some scarce American equipment and machinery which is denied to other East European countries has been shipped to Yugoslavia recently with Government approval.

More will follow later if Marshal Tito maintains his independence from Moscow, they added. Included in the shipments have been scarce oil-drilling equipment.

State Department press officer Michael McDermott said there has been no change in America's policy toward Yugoslavia. But he said the State Department generally favors East-West trade, deciding on each export as it arises.

"Of course we shall take into account the contribution we expect our exports to make to world recovery and business," he said.

National Guard Says General Is 'Unfit'

Washington, March 26 (AP)—The National Guard Association accused Lieut. Gen. Elwood Quesada today of being "eminently unfit" for handling the nation's Air National Guard and Reserve affairs.

Maj. Gen. E. A. Walsh, adjutant general of Minnesota and president of the Guard Association, said Quesada should be removed from the job of heading the Air Force Guard-Reserve affairs unit because Quesada belonged to a committee whose job is to do "the pick-and-shovel work preparatory to Federaling the Air National Guard."

The Air Force said Quesada had no comment to make at this time.

Fights Federalization

Walsh, who expressed his views in the current issue of the Guard Association's publication, has opened a vigorous campaign against recommendations for removing the Air Guard from state control and placing it under the Federal air force.

"The Air Force," Walsh wrote, "has become entirely too big for its britches, and we sincerely trust that the President and Congress will assume the control with which they are clothed."

Would Reward Chinese Who Survived on Raft

WASHINGTON, March 26 (AP).—Senator Warren G. Magnuson, Democrat, of Washington, says the Navy learned so much from a Chinese seaman who spent 113 days on a raft during the war that the man should be granted permanent American residence. The Senator offered a bill yesterday to give that privilege to Poon Lim, who wrote a new page in the textbook of survival technique after a British merchant ship was torpedoed under him.

The sailor nabbed a raft provisioned for only fifty days and, eating birds caught by hand and fish snared with a watch-spring hook, sat it out until he was picked up off the coast of Brazil.

LASKI URGES PEACE TRY BY EISENHOWER

Western Leaders Would Seek Stockholm Meeting, He Suggests

New York, March 26 (AP)—Prof. Harold J. Laski proposed today that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and other Western leaders should be sent to Moscow to pave the way for an East-West peace meeting in Stockholm.

Professor Laski, British economist and former Labor party chairman, said that along with Eisenhower on such a mission he would send Lord Louis Mountbatten, of England, Halvard M. Lange, Foreign Minister of Norway, and Leon Blum, French Socialist and former Premier of France.

He said they would serve as an advance mission from the countries signing the North Atlantic pact. They would be given the task of laying the basis for a meeting in Stockholm of President Truman, Prime Minister Joseph Stalin, Prime Minister Clement Attlee and Premier Henri Queuille of France.

Idea Not Discussed With Them

He said he has not discussed his idea with any of the men he named.

Laski, professor in the school of economics of London University, said he noted that the North Atlantic pact emphasized it is a defensive pact. He said the mission he nominated should make that clear to Russia.

He said he had suggested Eisenhower from the United States because Eisenhower "symbolized what the Russians respect, power, and what the Russians want, peace."

"I would say to the Russians, 'Here we are,' " Laski said. " 'The whole world is involved in the struggle between two ways of life. You live your way. Our way is our business.

"Lived Together When Weak"

" 'We lived together when we were weak. If we can't live together when we are strong there is no hope for peace. We have come to give you this assurance. If the world calls it appeasement we don't care.' "

Laski said this advance mission could create the atmopshere for the meeting of the four chiefs of state in Stockholm.

"The reason I chose Stockholm is because Lenin went from Zurich to Stockholm to Helsinki to Leningrad and to Moscow, and I think Stalin could make a return pilgrimage."

"I would go on my knees to Moscow if I could make them (the Russians) understand, without sacrificing any of my principles, that we want peace," Laski said.

He is in the United Staes for nine lectures on trade unionism for the Sidney Hillman Foundation, created in memory of the late president of the CIO Amalgamated Clothing Workers.

Seattle Students' Invitation

Seattle, Wash., March 26 (AP)—A student organization today invited Harold J. Laski, former British Labor party chairman, to talk at the University of Washington.

Two days ago, George Stuntz, a Washington regent, said he would move to bar any appearance here by Laski during his country-wide tour. Controversy developed after Laski's visit here as a Washington Walkerames lecturer ten years ago.

The Students Organization for Academic Rights is the group inviting Laski. It was organized recently to protest the dismissal of three university faculty members after an investigation of alleged Communist infiltration on the campus.

Eisler Denies He Swayed Reds To Violence

New York, March 26 (AP)—Gerhart Eisler says testimony given about him at the Communist conspiracy trial is "100 per cent falsehood."

A witness yesterday named Eisler as the agent of the Communist International in this country.

The witness, Louis F. Budenz, former party official, said Eisler influenced the swing of United States Communists to a "violent revolution policy" in 1945.

Denies All Budenz Said

Eisler, who is not a defendant in the trial but who has been a frequent spectator, said last night:

"Everything that Budenz says in regard to my alleged role in influencing the politics of the American Communist party is 100 per cent falsehood."

Eisler, once named before a congressional committee as the No. 1 Communist in America, said he did not come here "as a representative of the Comintern."

He said he "was forced to stay here" against his will, and that he "did not in any way mix into affairs" of United States Communists.

The Government has a deportation case pending againts Eisler, but has delayed pushing it. He is free on bail.

In the conspiracy trial, Budenz, now a university professor, testified about the switch in the party's policy that resulted in the ouster of Earl Browder as its head.

Browder Is Quoted

Budenz quoted Browder as telling a meeting of party bigwigs that abandonment of his policy of cooperation with capitalism would bring a prospect of "war between the Soviet Union and the Anglo-American bloc or an armed peace which would be as injurious as war."

Nevertheless, Budenz testified, the committee of what was then the Communist Political Association voted 53 to 1 to dissolve and reconstitute the Communist party on its "revolutionary" basis.

Defendants at the trial are accused of conspiring to advocate forcible overthrow of the United States Government. The trial resumes next Tuesday.

Churchill's Pickets Boo Wrong Man

New York, March 26 (AP)—A band of pickets booed a man with a black homburg and a cigar last night, but it wasn't Winston Churchill.

A police-estimated 1,500 pickets, sponsored by the American Labor party, had gathered at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel where Churchill was to attend a dinner.

They carried signs, and chanted, "Churchill wants war, we want peace," and "send that bundle back to Britain."

Stocky Man Gets A Surprise

When a stocky man, wearing a homburg and puffing a cigar, stepped from a limousine, the pickets hooted and booed. The surprised visitor, who was not identified, was escorted inside by police, who explained the situation to him.

Later, Churchill entered the hotel at a side entrance.

The pickets were occupied elsewhere.

They learned later of their mistake. Rain began falling, and the demonstration ended before Churchill emerged.

The dinner, a private affair, was given Churchill by magazine publisher Henry Luce.

Fee For Communist Ad Goes To Red Cross

Asbury Park, N.J., March 26 (AP). The Asbury Park Evening Press published a half-page Communist party advertisement today and announced on Page 1 that it was passing on the proceeds to the American Red Cross.

The advertisement, which was headed "Patriots Fight for Peace," urged the public to read the Daily Worker for the facts on the current trial of United States Communist leaders.

The Evening Press said it was printing the Communist advertisement because it believed in defending free speech "for its enemies as well as its friends."

The announcement added that the newspaper had "no desire to profit from the sale on such advertising. Therefore, the entire proceeds from the sale of the advertising space, amounting to $144.46, is today being sent to the American Red Cross for its work among members of the armed forces of the United States."

LANGER RAPS U.S. POLICIES IN GERMANY

Charges Starvation Of 50 Million, Denounces 'Blank Checks'

Philadelphia, March 26 (AP)—Senator William Langer (R., N.D.) declared tonight Administration leaders "imposed deliberate mass-starvation policies on 50,000,000 Germans."

The North Dakotan, speaking at a testimonial dinner at the Adelphia Hotel, said that "for the past decade the American people have allowed two American presidents to make a miserable mockery of our constitutional prohibitions against secret foreign agreements."

"As a result," he went on, "Congress has been pressured into signing blank checks, which have been filled in by the outrageous betrayals of power politicians and which are going to have to be redeemed by what remains of America's blood, treasure and tradition."

Scores Dismantlement

He called the United States treatment of vanquished Germans "the most terrifying proof of this fact."

Langer said that in addition to sinking the German fishing fleet and imposing mass starvation policies on the Germans, American leaders:

1. "Agreed to the senseless dismantlement program that destroyed . . . the industrial potential upon which the rest of Europe is so desperately dependent."

2. "Imposed the savage denazification program that has destroyed any semblance of personsl rights and security. . . ."

Cites Private Property

3. "Agreed to the mass deportation of millions of helpless women and children, and to an outrageous revival of human slavery. . . ."

4. "Agreed to the destruction of the concept of private property . . . which not only furthers Russia's interests, but leaves the American people liable to damage suits running into billions of dollars if the concept of private property is ever restored in international law."

FEW Urges Truman Action To End Cold War With Soviet

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, March 26 (AP)—The CIO Farm Equipment Workers Union today adopted a resolution asking President Truman to take action to "restore peaceful relations with the Soviet Union."

About fifteen delegates voted against the proposal in a standing vote. One of them said the objection was chiefly to the wording of the resolution. It was possible that it might later be recalled for some committee revision.

The foreign policy resolution criticized the Truman Doctrine and the Marshall plan. It said "the present cold-war policy prevents . . . trade relations with eastern European countries."

It said the North Atlantic pact represented "a new get-ready-for-war policy by our State Department."

Resolutions Passed

Earlier, the approximately 300 delegates representing about 55,000 dues-paying members, unanimously adopted a series of resolutions which:

1. Called for immediate repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act and for "a national work holiday" to support the repeal drive.

2. Demanded the repeal of the peacetime draft and asserted opposition to universal military training.

3. Stated opposition to the Broyles proposals before the Illinois Legislature making communism a felony and requiring loyalty oaths of school teachers and public officials.

4. Asked Congress to enact a full civil rights program, to abolish the House committee on Un-American Activities, to enact a housing program, to cut taxes on low-income families, and to re-establish price control.

5. Criticized the 1948 CIO national convention at Portland for "intimidating delegates" and "refusing to permit the reading of minority reports."

Murray Telegram Booed

It was at the Portland convention that the CIO national executive board ordered FE to merge with the CIO United Auto Workers.

The FE convention late yesterday booed when a telegram was read from Philip Murray, CIO president, in which he appealed for compliance with the merger order. The convention then unanimously adopted a resblution refusing to merge with UAW.

A wage policy report which called for a 30-cent-an-hour wage increase for FE members was also approved. Several FE locals have wage contracts which come up for negotiation soon.

The wage policy report also asked for pensions of $100 a month for workers over 60 to be financed by employers, a 35-hour week with 40 hours pay and a health and welfare fund to be paid for by employers.

'Dangerous Self-Confidence' Warning Issued By Navy Club

Chicago, March 26 (AP)—The Navy Club of the U.S.A. today charged a "Maginot-minded theory of a 24-hour war is apparently lulling the American people into a dangerous self-confidence."

This feeling is fostered, the club said, by such Air Force exploits as the recent global flight of a B-50 bomber, and claims that the B-36 plane is capable of atom bomb missions 10,000 miles distant.

Dr. R. J. Mashek, Milwaukee dentist who is national commander of the club said:

"The more we believe we can dispose of Russia any time we choose to send ten bombers to atomize their industries, the more we co-operate with Russia's plans for our annihilation."

Round-World Flight Criticized

He urged "strengthening every instrument of defense we have, material and psychological, instead of weakening it by strengthening the big-bomber air force at the expense of the Army, Navy and Marine."

A resolution adopted by the Navy Club's executive staff said the B-50's round-the-world flight was termed "routine" by the Air Force. Actually, the resolution contended, "months of planning went into the flight, the first plane sent out was lost and at least one refueling plane was destroyed in the effort."

Regarding claims based on a 10,000-mile nonstop flight by a B-36, the resolution said:

". . . The test flight was made at a time when both the East and West coasts of the United States were closed in by weather and, therefore, the flight was made between the Appalachian range and the Rockies. . . ."

For All Or No Information

"This is a far different feat than delivering an atom bomb against enemy opposition a distance of 10,000 miles in any kind of weather."

The resolution urged that the Secretary of Defense direct all branches of the armed forces "to release either all information, or no information at all, concerning capabilities of planes, ships, guns or guided missiles. . . ."

"There would be less opportunity for the increase in the Maginot-minded theory of national defense if full information were released, the bad with the good," the resolution stated.

THIRD NIGHT LEAD CONFERENCE

BY ARTHUR W.EVERETT

NEW YORK, MARCH 26-(AP)-HENRY A.WALLACE PROPOSED TONIGHT THAT THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA USE CHINA AS A TEST-TUBE FOR A PROGRAM OF "ABUNDANCE FOR ALL PEOPLES."

ADDRESSING THE CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE FOR WORLD PEACE (CAPS) AT THE WALDORF-ASTORIA HOTEL, THE FORMER VICE-PRESIDENT SAID THE PROBLEM IN CHINA AND ELSEWHERE "IS TO CREATE ABUNDANCE FOR ALL PEOPLE."

"NEITHER COMMUNISM NOR CAPITALISM CAN SOLVE THIS PROBLEM," HE SAID, "UNTIL BOTH, BY AGREEMENT, GET RID OF THE SPIRIT OF INTOLERANCE.

"CATHOLICISM HAS NOT SOLVED THIS PROBLEM IN ITALY, SPAIN OR LATIN AMERICA--WHERE THE CHURCH IS STRONGEST AND WHERE THE RANK AND FILE OF THE PEOPLE HAVE CONTINUALLY SUFFERED FROM LACK OF EDUCATION AND POVERTY," HE SAID.

WALLACE ADDRESSED A CONFERENCE PANEL AMID DEMANDS BY OTHER CONFERENCE SPEAKERS THAT A TRUMAN-STALIN TALK BE HELD TO END THE COLD WAR.

T.O.THACKREY, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER OF THE NEW YORK POST HOME NEWS, FIRST VOICED A DEMAND FOR A CONFERENCE AT "THE HIGHEST LEVEL, WITH BOTH PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND PREMIER STALIN IN ATTENDANCE."

AT ABOUT THE SAME TIME, O.JOHN ROGGE URGED THE AMERICAN PEOPLE TO "TELL PRESIDENT TRUMAN IT IS TIME HE IS READY TO TALK PEACE."

ROGGE IS A FORMER ASSISTANT U.S. ATTORNEY GENERAL AND AN OFFICIAL OF THE PROGRESSIVE PARTY FOR WHICH WALLACE WAS THE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE LAST FALL.

THE CONFERENCE OF ARTISTS AND SCIENTISTS FROM MANY LANDS, INCLUDING RUSSIA, HAS BEEN TERMED "PRO-COMMUNIST" BY CRITICS, INCLUDING THOUSANDS OF PICKETS WHO HAVE MILLED OUTSIDE THE WALDORF DURING THE PAST TWO DAYS.

CONFERENCE SPONSORS HAVE DENIED THE ACCUSATION.

POLICE ESTIMATED THAT AT LEAST 500 PICKETS WERE OUTSIDE THE WALDORF TONIGHT. THERE WERE LOUD QUARRELS AND SHOUTS BUT NO VIOLENCE. PICKETS CHANTED "THROW THE REDS OUT," AND AT INTERVALS SHOUTED "TREASON AT THE WALDORF...TREASON AT THE WALDORF."

CATHOLIC WAR VETERANS (CAPS) HANDED OUT COPIES OF THE BILL OF RIGHTS TO THE AMERICAN CONSTITUTION AND THE TEN COMMANDENTS.

ONLY TWO PICKETS APPEARED EARLIER AT A COUNTER-RALLY IN PROTEST AGAINST THE CONFERENCE.

IT WAS SPONSORED BY AMERICANS FOR INTELLECTUAL FREEDOM (CAPS), WHICH CALLED ITSELF AN "INDEPENDENT" GROUP OF AMERICAN ARTISTS, WRITERS AND EDUCATORS.

AT A NATURAL SCIENCE PANEL OF THE CONFERENCE TONIGHT, WALLACE SAID THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS "SUGGESTED TECHNICAL AID TO THE BACKWARD AREAS OF THE WORLD."

THIS, HE SAID, REQUIRES "SCIENTIFIC PROCEDURES" TO RAISE WORKING AND LIVING STANDARDS THROUGH THE WORLD.

"LET US TRY IT OUT ON CHINA," WALLACE SAID.

"LET THE UNITED NATIONS BRING ABOUT THE COOPERATION OF AMERICAN AND RUSSIA SCIENTISTS AND ENGINEERS, AND THE SCIENTISTS AND ENGINEERS OF ALL OTHER NATIONS, TO RAISE THE PRODUCTION AND LIVING STANDARDS OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE."

THIS CANNOT BE ACCOMPLISHED, HE WENT ON, "WITHOUT THE UTMOST COOPERATION BETWEEN THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS--AND THE RUSSIAN COMMUNISTS AND OUR OWN CAPITALISTS."

A108

WALLACE SAID THAT CATHOLICISM AND COMMUNISM COULD HELP DISSOLVE WORLD FEAR "IF BOTH COULD ABANDON A CERTAIN PART OF THEIR INTOLERANT RIGIDITY ON BEHALF OF GREATER ABUNDANCE FOR THE PEOPLE."

THE AMERICAN AND BRITISH PEOPLE, WALLACE CHARGED, ARE "IN SERIOUS DANGER" OF EMBRACING THE SAME THEORY OF RACIAL SUPERIORITY THAT DESTROYED GERMANY AND JAPAN.

HE CALLED THIS ONE OF FOUR WRONG BELIEFS THAT "ARE THE GREAT CAUSE OF FEAR AND MILITARIZATION."

ANOTHER WRONG BELIEF, WALLACE SAID, IS THAT ANY GROUP IS PRIVILEGED "TO GOVERN THE OTHER GROUPS."

"TWO HUNDRED YEARS AGO," HE SAID, "THIS BELIEF WAS KNOWN AS THE DIVINE RIGHT OF KINGS. TODAY IN THE UNITED STATES IT IS THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MANUFACTURERS AND ITS COHORTS. X X X THEIR WEAPONS ARE LOYALTY PURGES, JOB DISMISSALS AND ECONOMIC REPRISALS."

ANOTHER WRONG BELIEF, WALLACE ADDED, IS THAT "SOME ONE RELIGION, OR IDEA, IS INEVITABLY DESTINED TO CONQUER THE WORLD."

THE FOURTH WRONG BELIEF, HE SAID, IS THAT "THERE IS NOT ENOUGH LAND, NOT ENOUGH MINERALS, NOT ENOUGH OIL, NOT ENOUGH WATER POWER, NOT ENOUGH OF THE GOOD THINGS OF LIFE TO GO AROUND."

HE SAID SCIENTISTS "FREELY COOPERATING TO END SCARCITY" CAN END THAT BELIEF.

WALLACE GOT AN ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION.

HE AND A. I. OPARIN, RUSSIAN BIOCHEMIST, GOT THE BIGGEST HANDS OF THE EVENING.

OPARIN DEPLORED THE POSSIBILITY THAT BIOLOGICAL WARFARE MIGHT BE ADDED TO THE WEAPONS OF WAR.

HE SAID SOVIET SCIENTISTS ARE "UNITED IN OUR DETERMINATION" TO "EXPOSE AND NEUTRALIZE ANY WAR MONGER."

HE EXPRESSED PRIDE THAT "AT PRESENT THE SCIENCE OF OUR COUNTRY GENUINELY BELONGS TO THE PEOPLE."

IN A QUESTION PERIOD, WHEN OPARIN WAS ASKED HOW AMERICAN SCIENTISTS COULD GET TO RUSSIA TO ENGAGE IN JOINT STUDIES WITH RUSSIAN SCIENTISTS, HE REPLIED:

"SIMPLE--GET A VISA AND MAKE THE TRIP."

ASKED ABOUT REPORTED DISAPPEARANCES AND ARRESTS OF SOME RUSSIAN SCIENTISTS, OPARIN SAID:

"WHAT I HAVE JUST HEARD IS COMPLETELY NEW TO ME. THE GENTLEMAN IS NOT WELL INFORMED."

WALTER ORR ROBERTS, OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY AND THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO, CALLED FOR THE USE OF SCIENCE AS A "BRIDGE TO PEACE."

MRS. OKSANA KASENKINA, THE RUSSIAN TEACHER WHO LEAPED FROM THE SOVIET CONSULATE HERE LAST AUGUST, ATTENDED THE A.I.F. COUNTER-RALLY.

A MESSAGE ATTRIBUTED TO HER WAS READ IN ENGLISH TO THE MEETING.

SHE ATTACKED SOVIET PURGES WHICH SHE SAID HAD COST THE LIVES OF "THOUSANDS OF INTELLECTUAL WORKERS" AND HUNDREDS OF ORTHODOX AND GREEK PRIESTS.

HER MESSAGE SAID THE PURGES ARE INTENDED "TO DESTROY POLITICALLY UNRELIABLE INTELLECTUALS."

MANY VICTIMS, SHE SAID, DISAPPEARED "TO PARTS UNKNOWN FOR THEIR SUPPOSED BELIEF IN 'DECADENT' WESTERN CULTURE."

SHE WAS QUOTED AS SAYING THAT "APOLOGISTS OF SOVIET TYRANNY" SPEAK OF CULTURAL FREEDOM AND EQUALITY IN RUSSIA.

"THESE PEOPLE WILL NOT TELL YOU OF THE GREAT TRAGEDY THAT BEFELL THE MOST PROGRESSIVE ELEMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION," HE MESSAGE READ, "WRITERS, POETS, DRAMATISTS, COMPOSERS, AS WELL AS OTHER CLASSES OF LIBERAL INTELLIGENSIA, WHOSE ONLY CRIME WAS THAT THEY WERE DEEMED DISLOYAL TO THE 'GENERAL LINE' OF THE PARTY SET BY STALIN."

INTERNATIONALLY-RENOWNED SOVIET COMPOSER DMITRI SHOSTAKOVICH TOLD THE ASSEMBLAGE HE HOPED THE "GENIAL EFFORTS" OF THE PARLEY WOULD BEAR FRUIT. HE HEADS A SEVEN-MAN SOVIET DELEGATION.

SPEAKING THROUGH AN INTERPRETER, HE GREETED HIS AMERICAN HOSTS, SAYING:

"WE ARE UNITED WITH THEM IN ACCOMPLISHING THE NOBLE TASK OF DEFENDING PEACE AGAINST ITS ENEMIES."

URGING A FIRMER "LINK BETWEEN THE REPRESENTATIVES OF CULTURE OF OUR TWO PEOPLES," HE ADDED:

OTHER SPEAKERS FROM IN FRONT OF AND BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN PLEADED THEIR CASE FOR PEACE IN TODAY'S TROUBLED WORLD.

OUTSIDE, SURGING BACK AND FORTH AND PRAYING AND CHANTING IN THE DRIZZLE, WAS A POLICE-ESTIMATED THRONG OF 2,000 PERSONS OF MIXED RELIGIOUS AND RACIAL BACKGROUND.

WITH PLACARDS AND SHOUTS THEY PROTESTED THE CONFERENCE, THE FULL TITLE OF WHICH IS THE CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE FOR WORLD PEACE (CAPS).

GENERALLY, THE PICKETS WERE LOUD BUT ORDERLY. THERE WAS ONE FIST-FIGHT AND SOME NOISY ARGUMENTS. BUT A LARGE BAND OF POLICE WAS NOT REQUIRED TO MAKE ANY ARRESTS.

YESTERDAY, AT ONE POINT, PICKETS KNELT IN PRAYER OUTSIDE THE WALDORF ON PARK AVENUE.

ONE PICKET WORE A MONOCLE. HIS WOMAN COMPANION HAD ON A MINK COAT. SEVEN CRIPPLED WAR VETERANS WHEELED THEIR CHAIRS BACK AND FORTH IN THE LINE FOR ABOUT 15 MINUTES.

CROWDS OF CURIOUS LINED PARK AVENUE TO WATCH. POLICE SAID THERE WERE 9,000 SPECTATORS ON HAND AT ONE TIME.

THE PICKETING WAS SCHEDULED TO CONTINUE OFF AND ON DURING THE LIFE OF THE CONFERENCE, WHICH ENDS SUNDAY. THE PICKETS DISPERSED SHORTLY AFTER 11 P.M. EST LAST NIGHT.

A COUNTER-RALLY WAS TO BE HELD TODAY A FEW BLOCKS AWAY BY AMERICANS FOR INTELLECTUAL FREEDOM, A GROUP OPPOSED TO THE WALDORF CONFERENCE.

OPPONENTS OF THE PEACE CONFERENCE CHARGED THAT IT IS DOMINATED BY PRO-COMMUNIST DELEGATES. THIS REPEATEDLY WAS DENIED BY THE CONFERENCE CHAIRMAN, DR. HARLOW SHAPLEY, HARVARD UNIVERSITY ASTRONOMER.

A18

DR. SHAPLEY TOLD THE CONFERENCE AT THE OPENING DINNER THAT "WE COME HERE X X X WITH HUMILITY AND TO ASK THE SIMPLE AND AGELESS QUESTION: 'HOW CAN MEN LIVE IN PEACE?'"

BUT AMERICA'S SECRETARY OF STATE, DEAN ACHESON, HAS CALLED THE MEETING "A SOUNDING BOARD FOR COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA."

THERE WERE DELEGATES FROM SOVIET RUSSIA AND MOST OF THE NATIONS BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN. THE CONFERENCE ALSO HAS ABOUT 500 AMERICAN ARTISTS, WRITERS, EDUCATORS AND CLERGYMEN AS SPONSORS.

THE CONFERENCE OPENED WITH THE "STAR SPANGLED BANNER" SUNG BY BRENDA LEWIS, A SPONSOR OF THE MEETING. THE HOTEL'S ORGAN WAS SILENT. SHE SAID AFL MUSICIANS REFUSED TO OPERATE IT "WITHOUT A CONTRACT."

THE DELEGATES GAVE DR. SHAPLEY A STANDING OVATION. THE GREAT BALL-

ROOM RANG WITH THEIR CHEERS AGAIN AND AGAIN AS DELEGATES FROM THIS AND OTHER COUNTRIES WERE INTRODUCED.

THE SEVEN-MAN SOVIET RUSSIAN DELEGATION WAS APPLAUDED. IT INCLUDED WORLD-FAMED COMPOSER DMITRI SHOTAKOVICH. HE GOT THE BIGGEST HAND.

REFERENCES TO WINSTON CHURCHILL, FORMER BRITISH PRIME MINISTER, AND HERBERT HOOVER, FORMER AMERICAN PRESIDENT, DREW BOOS FROM THE DELEGATES. PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S NAME WAS CHEERED.

ABOUT 125 PERSONS WERE ON A RAISED SPEAKERS' PLATFORM AT ONE END OF THE BALLROOM. SOME WORE WHITE TIES AND TAILS. OTHERS WERE DRESSED IN BUSINESS SUITS.

THROUGH ALL THE OVATION AND CHEERING, MAGAZINE EDITOR COUSINS REMAINED SEATED AND DID NOT APPLAUD.

HE TURNED DOWN ONE INVITATION TO THE CONFERENCE. THEN UNDER-SECRETARY OF STATE GEORRE V. ALLEN SUGGESTED THAT HE ATTEND AND GIVE A "VIGOROUS AFFIRMATION" OF THE DEMOCRATIC POINT OF VIEW.

SO COUSINS CAME TO THE CONFERENCE TO TELL THE DELEGATES THAT AMERICANS "DO NOT WANT PEACE AT ANY PRICE."

BOOS, HISSES AND JEERS GREETED HIM AT HALF A DOZEN POINTS IN HIS SPEECH. BUT THERE WAS NO MAJOR INTERRUPTION. HE RECEIVED SOME APPLAUSE AS HE ENDED. THEN HIS OWN INFORMAL "BODYGUARD" WHISKED HIM FROM THE ROOM.

AMERICANS DO NOT SEEK WAR, COUSINS SAID, BUT THEY FEEL THAT THE NEEDS OF PEACE BEST CAN BE SERVED "BY A SUPREME SUPPORTING EFFORT BEHIND THE UNITED NATIONS, GIVING IT THE FORM AND SUBSTANCE OF WORLD LAW."

HE CALLED FOR ABOLITION OF THE VETO IN THE U.N.

COUSINS CHARGED THAT THE GROUP SUPPORTING THE CONFERENCE "OWES ITS PRIMARY ALLEGIANCE AND DUTY NOT TO AMERICA BUT TO AN OUTSIDE GOVERNMENT."

COUSINS ASKED THE DELEGATES TO "TELL THE FOLKS AT HOME" THAT "WHILE AMERICANS RESPECT THE RIGHTS OF OTHER PEOPLE TO THEIR OWN FORMS OF GOVERNMENT, THEY ARE APPREHENSIVE ABOUT THE DANGER TO THE WORLD OF GOVERNMENT BY COERCION, ESPECIALLY WHEN THE COERCION COMES FROM WITHOUT."

A19

A WOMANS CLUB LEADER AND JOURNALIST FROM CUBA, MYRTA AGUIRRE, DESCRIBED THE CONFERENCE AS AN EFFORT TO WORK AGAINST "A PERFECTLY AVOIDABLE WAR."

F. MANRIQUE CABRERA, A UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR FROM PUERTO RICO, URGED THE DELEGATES TO KEEP ALL DISCUSSIONS ON A "CALM" BASIS AND TO "WORK WITH IMPARTIAL SPIRIT."

POET JUVAN POPOVICH OF YUGOSLAVIA, OFFERED A SPEECH IN WHICH HE CALLED "INCITERS OF A NEW WAR" THE "ENEMIES OF CULTURE."

"FORTUNATELY, HOWEVER, THIS TALK OF WAR IS NOT BEING HEARD EVERYWHERE," HE SAID. "ONLY CERTAIN CIRCLES IN CERTAIN LANDS TALK OF WAR."

ANOTHER SPEAKER, BRITISH PHILOSOPHER WILLIAM O. STAPLEDON, PREPARED A SPEECH WARNING AMERICA THAT THE ENGLISH PEOPLE WILL NOT BE "WHOLEHEARTEDLY AGAINST RUSSIA AS WE WERE AGAINST GERMANY" IN A NEW WAR.

"WE ARE NOT ANXIOUS TO SELL OUR SOULS TO AMERICA," THE SPEECH READ. IT SUGGESTED THAT THE UNITED STATES WAS EMBARKED "ON A NEW IMPERIALISM" AND SAID THE AVERAGE BRITISH WORKMAN "IS NOT GOING TO BE SUDDENLY TURNED AGAINST RUSSIA."

HOWEVER, FOR SOME REASON THAT WAS NOT EXPLAINED, STAPLEDON DEPARTED FROM THIS TEXT AND DELIVERED A SPEECH IN MILDER TERMS. IN IT HE STRESSED THE BRITISH PEOPLE'S OPPOSITION TO WAR.

STAPLEDON WAS THE ONLY BRITISH DELEGATE GRANTED PERMISSION TO COME TO THIS COUNTRY FOR THE CONFERENCE.

NINETEEN DELEGATES FROM WESTERN EUROPE, ROMANIA, MEXICO AND SOUTH AMERICA WERE DENIED VISAS. THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID THEY HAD NOT BEEN DESIGNATED AS REPRESENTATIVES OF THEIR GOVERNMENTS.

JR342AES

WRITER MAX EASTMAN DESCRIBED HIS ROLE IN THE RALLY AS "A SOLEMN ONE."

"I HAVE TO READ THE ROLL OF THE MARTYRS--THOSE WHO DIED IN THE CAUSE OF ARTISTIC AND INTELLECTUAL FREEDOM UNDER THE DICTATORSHIP OF THE RUSSIAN COMMUNIST PARTY," EASTMAN SAID.

HE SUBMITTED A LIST OF 33 NAMES, VICTIMS OF WHAT HE CALLED RUSSIA'S "20-YEAR PURGE" OF ARTISTS AND WRITERS. HEADING THE LIST WERE THE NAMES OF TWO WRITERS, ISAAK BABYEL AND BORIS PILNYAK, AUTHOR OF "THE NAKED YEAR."

BABYEL, EASTMAN WENT ON, DISAPPEARED "WITHOUT A TRACE" AFTER HE REFUSED TO PRODUCE "MADE-TO-ORDER" STORIES ON COMMAND FROM THE SOVIET PROPAGANDA BUREAU. PILNYAK WAS "PUT OUT OF THE WAY OF THE ALL-OBLITERATING STATE" AFTER HE PUBLISHED HIS CRITICAL BOOK, "MACHINES AND WOLVES," EASTMAN DECLARED.

DR. H.S. MULLER, NOBEL PRIZE WINNER AND INDIANA UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR OF ZOOLOGY, SAID THE CENTRAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY HAD REPUDIATED THE ENTIRE SCIENCE OF GENETICS IN FAVOR OF "SUPERSTITIONS THAT HARK BACK TO ANCIENT TIMES.

"THIS AMAZING ACT," THE SCIENTIST ADDED, "IS OF THE GREATEST SIGNIFICANCE FOR EVERYONE; FOR BY POLITICAL AND OFFICIAL FIAT IT HAS BRUTALLY ATTACKED THE VERY FOUNDATION OF HUMAN KNOWLEDGE."

MULLER ALSO TOOK COGNIZANCE OF AMERICAN SHORTCOMINGS WHICH HE TERMED INIMICAL TO THE ADVANCEMENT OF SCIENCE. AS AN EXAMPLE HE CITED THE SCOPES TRIAL WHICH HE SAID HAD SET BACK RESEARCH IN BIOLOGICAL FUNDAMENTALS. THE TRIAL, AT DAYTON, TENN., IN 1925, WAS A COURT TEST OF A TENNESSEE LAW THAT FOREBADE TEACHING OF DARWIN'S THEORY OF EVOLUTION.

MULLER DECLARED, HOWEVER, THAT DESPITE THE "MOTES IN OUR OWN EYES" X X X "SO LONG AS POLITICAL DEMOCRACY EXISTS, CONDITIONS CAN ALWAYS BE IMPROVED."

DR. GEORGE S. COUNTS OF TEACHERS COLLEGE, COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY SAID THE IRON CURTAIN'S SYSTEM OF "MIND CONTROL" IS REMINISCENT OF THE INQUISITION AND THE "MOST FANTASTIC AND TERRIFYING THING OF ITS KIND IN HISTORY."

SOVIET LEADERS, THE EDUCATOR CONTINUED, NOW ARE STRIVING "WITH ALL THE CONCENTRATED POWER OF A MODERN POLICE STATE TO DESTROY ONE OF THE MOST PRECIOUS VALUES IN OUR WESTERN CIVILIZATION"--FREEDOM OF SPEECH, OF THOUGHT, INQUIRY AND OF MIND.

THE COUNTER RALLY WAS HELD IN FREEDOM HOUSE, A BUILDING DEDICATED TO THE MEMORY OF WENDELL WILLKIE.

NEWARK,N.J.,MARCH 26-(AP)-RUSSIAN COMPOSER DMITRI SHOSTAKOVICH HEADS THE LIST OF FOREIGN DELEGATES EXPECTED TO ATTEND A SECOND "CULTURAL RALLY FOR PEACE" HERE NEXT TUESDAY.

DR. HAROLD E. LIPPMAN, SECRETARY OF THE NEW JERSEY COUNCIL OF ARTS, SCIENCES AND PROFESSIONS, SAID YESTERDAY THE NEWARK RALLY WOULD BE SIMILAR TO THE ONE NOW BEING STAGED AT NEW YORK'S WALDORF-ASTORIA. THE COUNCIL IS SPONSORING THE RALLY AT THE MOSQUE AUDITORIUM HERE, DR. LIPPMAN SAID.

HE SAID HE EXPECTED MOST OF THE FOREIGN DELEGATIONS TO THE NEW YORK RALLY TO BE REPRESENTED HERE TUESDAY.

DR. LIPPMAN SAID SHOSTAKOVICH WILL SPEAK AND PLAY THE PIANO.

PRINCIPAL SPEAKERS WILL BE DR. WILLIAM OLAF STAPLEDON, BRITISH PHILOSOPHER, AND REV. DR. GUY EMERY SHIPLER, EDITOR OF THE CHURCHMAN, DR. LIPPMAN SAID. DR. STAPLEDON WAS THE ONLY REPRESENTATIVE FROM ENGLAND TO ATTEND THE NEW YORK RALLY.

DR. HARLOW SHAPLEY, HARVARD ASTRONOMER, WILL NOT BE ABLE TO ATTEND BECAUSE OF ANOTHER ENGAGEMENT, LIPPMAN SAID. HE WAS LISTED PREVIOUSLY AS A PRINCIPAL SPEAKER FOR THE NEWARK MEETING.

DELEGATES TO THE MOSQUE RALLY NEXT TUESDAY WILL INCLUDE THOSE FROM CZECHOSLOVAKIA, POLAND, AND THE SOVIET UNION, IN ADDITION TO DR. STAPLEDON.

ISSUES WHICH MAY BE TAKEN UP BY SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, BEVIN AND SCHUMAN HERE INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING:

1. DRAFTING AN OCCUPATION STATUTE -- WORK HAS BEEN GOING FORWARD ON THIS IN LONDON. IT WILL FIX THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE OCCUPATION POWERS AND THE PROPOSED GERMAN GOVERNMENT. THE UNITED STATES IS UNDERSTOOD TO WANT THE GREATEST POSSIBLE FREEDOM OF ACTION FOR THE NEW GOVERNMENT, CONSISTENT WITH SECURITY AGAINST A GERMAN MILITARY REVIVAL. FRANCE IS REPORTED TO WANT TO RESERVE FOR THE ALLIED MILITARY GOVERNORS AN OVERRIDING POWER.

2. DIVISION OF POWERS BETWEEN THE PROPOSED CENTRAL GERMAN GOVERNMENT AND STATE GOVERNMENTS -- THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN HAVE FAVORED A STRONGER CENTRAL ADMINISTRATION THAN FRANCE WHICH CONSIDERED A LOOSELY FEDERALIZED COMBINATION OF STATES ONE WAY OF KEEPING GERMANY UNDER CONTROL. -with Paris-

add Washington (AP-German) Secretary (Hightower)

A25WX

3. THE BERLIN CRISIS -- SO FAR ALL EFFORTS TO REACH AN AGREEMENT WITH THE RUSSIANS FOR LIFTING THEIR BERLIN BLOCKADE HAVE FAILED. DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES BELIEVE, HOWEVER, THAT THE FOREIGN MINISTERS MUST SEEK OTHER POSSIBILITIES FOR ENDING THE CRISIS.

THE WESTERN LEADERS MAY ALSO TACKLE THE PROBLEM OF WHAT THEY SHOULD DO IF AND WHEN THE RUSSIANS LIFT THE BLOCKADE AND PROPOSE A SETTLEMENT FOR ALL GERMANY INCLUDING WITHDRAWAL OF OCCUPATION FORCES. THE WESTERN GOVERNMENTS ARE DEAD SET AGAINST WITHDRAWAL. THEY ALSO RECOGNIZE THE PROPAGANDA ADVANTAGE INSIDE GERMANY. THE SOVIETS WOULD GAIN FROM SUCH A MOVE.

MAR 27 1949

4. REPARATIONS--AN ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION COMMITTEE SEVERAL MONTHS AGO RECOMMENDED A REDUCTION IN THE NUMBER OF PLANTS MARKED FOR REPARATIONS REMOVAL FROM GERMANY. BRITAIN AND FRANCE DID NOT AT ONCE ACCEPT THE PROPOSAL. OFFICIALS SAID THIS MAY BE SETTLED BEFORE THE WASHINGTON MEETING.

5. PROHIBITED AND RESTRICTED INDUSTRIES -- THE UNITED STATES FAVORS NARROWING THE NUMBER OF INDUSTRIES IN WHICH GERMAN ACTIVITY WAS EITHER PROHIBITED OR RESTRICTED.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAY THE WASHINGTON CONFERENCE IS NOT EXPECTED TO RESOLVE THESE ISSUES IN DETAIL. THEY HOPE FOR AGREEMENTS IN PRINCIPLE SO DEPUTIES IN SUBSEQUENT MEETINGS CAN WORK OUT COMPLETE AGREEMENTS.

THE SLICING OFF OF 31 SMALL PIECES OF GERMANY AND ATTACHING THEM TO GERMANY'S NEIGHBORS WAS THE FIRST SHIFTING OF THE GERMAN WESTERN BOUNDARIES ASIDE FROM ESTABLISHMENT OF SAAR AUTONOMY.

IT WAS AGREED TO BY THE UNITED STATES, FRANCE, BRITAIN, THE NETHERLANDS, BELGIUM AND LUXEMBOURG IN A PARIS CONFERENCE.

REPORTS FROM EUROPE SAID THE GERMANS REACTED BITTERLY. SOME GERMAN LEADERS DENOUNCED ANY TAMPERING WITH THE WESTERN BORDERS AS CONTRARY TO INTERNATIONAL LAW AND A VIOLATION OF THE ATLANTIC CHARTER.

THE WESTERN POWERS HAD LONG STAVED OFF THIS ISSUE DESPITE PRESSURE FROM THE NETHERLANDS, BELGIUM AND GERMANY'S OTHER NEIGHBORS. THEY FINALLY AGREED TO TAKE ACTION BECAUSE OF THE DELAYS IN WORKING OUT A GERMAN PEACE SETTLEMENT AS A RESULT OF THE SPLIT BETWEEN THE WEST AND RUSSIA.

NEVERTHELESS, THE CHANGES WHICH ARE TO BE BROUGHT ABOUT AS A RESULT OF THE PARIS AGREEMENT ARE OFFICIALLY TERMED "PROVISIONAL" AND MAY BE "CONFIRMED OR MODIFIED BY THE TERMS OF THE FINAL SETTLEMENT CONCERNING GERMANY."

THE CHANGES WERE DESCRIBED IN THE ANNOUNCEMENT AS "MINOR RECTIFI-CATIONS."

PROVISIONS WHICH AUTHORITIES HERE CONSIDER LIBERAL AND JUST WERE MADE FOR THE 13,500 INHABITANTS INVOLVED. THEY WILL HAVE THE RIGHT TO CONTINUE TO LIVE AS THEY NOW DO AND CONTINUE TO OWN PROPERTY, OR TO MOVE INTO GERMANY, TAKING THEIR WEALTH WITH THEM, IF THEY PREFER.
THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THAT THE CHANGES HAVE BEEN DEVELOPED ONLY IN GENERAL OUTLINE AND THAT THEY WILL HAVE TO BE SET DOWN IN DETAIL BY LOCAL "DELIMITATION COMMISSIONS."

A179WX

THE ANNOUNCEMENT ALSO SAID THAT THESE BORDER REARRANGEMENTS WERE DESIGNED PRIMARILY TO MEET DIFFICULTIES IN COMMUNICATIONS AND ADMINISTRATION--AS WHERE THE BORDER MAY CUT BACK AND FORTH ACROSS A ROAD OR RAILROAD.
EVEN BEFORE THE TRANSFERS WERE BROUGHT UNDER NEGOTIATION, THE SIX WESTERN NATIONS AGREED THAT THE ONLY CHANGES WHICH COULD BE MADE WOULD BE THOSE INVOLVING NO "APPRECIABLE LOSS TO THE GERMAN ECONOMY."
AS A RESULT, THE WESTERN POWERS STILL HAVE NOT ACTED ON AND EVIDENTLY STILL ARE PUTTING OFF UNTIL SOME FUTURE PEACE SETTLEMENT WHAT THE ANNOUNCEMENT CALLED "CERTAIN MAJOR TERRITORIAL CLAIMS OF GERMANY'S WESTERN NEIGHBORS."
THE GREATEST LONG-RANGE IMPORTANCE OF THE BORDER CHANGES MAY WELL LIE IN THE CONTEST BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE OVER THE FUTURE OF GERMANY AND WHO IS TO CONTROL IT.
TERRITORIAL CHANGES ALWAYS AROUSE FEELINGS OF INTENSE NATIONALISM AND CREATE ISSUED FOR THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGNS OF THE FUTURE.
RUSSIA SPONSORED THE TRANSFER OF THOUSANDS OF SQUARE MILES OF EAST GERMAN LANDS TO POLAND AT THE END OF THE WAR. MANY AUTHORITIES HERE CONSIDER THAT THE SITUATION THUS CREATED GIVES THE RUSSIANS A POWERFUL POLITICAL WEAPON. FOR SO LONG AS THEY ARE ASSUMED TO CONTROL THE POLISH GOVERNMENT THEY MIGHT AT SOME CRITICAL POINT MAKE A POWERFUL PLAY FOR SUPPORT IN GERMANY BY MOVING TO GIVE ALL OR PART OF WHAT IS NOW WESTERN POLAND BACK TO SOME NEW GERMAN STATE.
WHEREAS THE RUSSIANS ACTED QUICKLY FOR POLAND'S BENEFIT, AS WELL AS FOR THEIR OWN IN TAKING A LARGE SLICE OF EAST PRUSSIA, THE WESTERN POWERS MOVED VERY SLOWLY IN MAKING ANY CHANGE.
THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE SAID SUCH CHANGES AS THEY FAVORED COULD BE ARRANGED IN CONNECTION WITH THE PEACE TREATY. THE POLES WITH EVIDENT RUSSIAN SUPPORT, HAVE LONG CONTENDED THAT THE EASTERN GERMAN BOUNDARY MAY BE CONFIRMED BUT CANNOT IN ANY WAY BE CHANGED BY A TREATY--IF ONE EVER IS WRITTEN AND SIGNED.

A180WX

IN THE WEST, THE GREATEST CHANGE TO COME ABOUT CENTERED AROUND THE SAAR BASIN, A RICH MINING AREA. AFTER WORLD WAR I, IT HAD BEEN RUN BY A LEAGUE OF NATIONS COMMISSION WITH THE FRENCH WORKING THE COAL MINES. IN 1935, AFTER AN OVERWHELMING PRO-GERMAN VOTE, THE SAAR WAS RETURNED TO HITLER'S GERMANY, BUT IN THE FIRST WORLD WAR II ELECTION IN OCTOBER, 1947, THE SAAR POPULATION VOTED OVERWHELMINGLY TO LINE UP WITH FRANCE.
AS A RESULT, A POLITICALLY INDEPENDENT GOVERNMENT WAS SET UP OVER THE AREA MORE THAN A YEAR AGO BUT IS SUBSIDIARY TO FRENCH ECONOMIC AND FINANCIAL CONTROLS.

NIGHT LEAD TREATY

BY CARL HARTMAN
PARIS, MARCH 26-(AP)-FRANCE AND ITALY SIGNED TODAY A TREATY DESIGNED TO TEAR DOWN THE TARIFF WALL BETWEEN THEM AND EVENTUALLY TO UNIFY ALL THEIR TRADE.
THE PACT CALLS FOR A FRANCO-ITALIAN CUSTOMS UNION IN 1950 AND A COMPLETE ECONOMIC MERGER BY 1955.
FOREIGN MINISTERS ROBERT SCHUMAN OF FRANCE AND CARLO SFORZA OF ITALY HAILED IT AS A MOVE FORWARD ON THE ROAD TO EUROPEAN UNITY. STANDING IN THE FOREIGN MINISTERY'S GILT CLOCK ROOM, SCHUMAN TOLD AN AUDIENCE OF DIPLOMATS AND REPORTERS:
"WE ARE STARTING ON A TRIP OF EXPLORATION, NOT A CONQUERING EXPEDITION. THE FOUNDATIONS ARE LAID, BUT THE BUILDING IS STILL TO BE CONSTRUCTED. X X X THIS BILATERAL AGREEMENT WILL ONE DAY, AND WE HOPE SOON, BECOME MULTILATERAL AND EUROPEAN."
SFORZA REPLIED: "THE AMERICANS WANT US TO BE SELF-SUFFICIENT, AND THEY ARE BEGINNING TO MISTRUST EUROPEAN TALK-FESTS. HERE IS A HARD FACT FOR THEM."
THE FRANCO-ITALIAN CUSTOMS UNION, IF IT BECOMES A "HARD FACT" NEXT YEAR, AS PLANNED, WILL BE THE SECOND IN PRESENT-DAY EUROPE. BELGIUM, LUXEMBOURG AND THE NETHERLANDS ABOLISHED TARIFFS AMONG THEM IN JANUARY OF LAST YEAR.
THE FRENCH AND ITALIAN PARLIAMENTS ARE EXPECTED TO RATIFY THE TWO-NATION AGREEMENT IN ABOUT THREE WEEKS. A YEAR AFTERWARD, CUSTOMS OFFICERS ON THE FRANCO-ITALIAN FRONTIER ARE DUE TO END THE COLLECTION OF TARIFFS. AT THE SAME TIME, AN IDENTICAL LIST OF DUTIES IS TO GO INTO EFFECT FOR GOODS COMING FROM OTHER COUNTRIES INTO FRANCE AND ITALY.
A COUNCIL MADE UP OF MEMBERS FROM BOTH COUNTRIES WILL TAKE CARE OF PUTTING THE AGREEMENT INTO EFFECT. IT ALSO WILL GIVE ADVICE ON HOW TO UNIFY FRENCH AND ITALIAN TRADE.
THE TREATY SET FORTH THAT "THE TWO HIGH CONTRACTING POWERS DEEM IT DESIRABLE" THAT WITHIN SIX YEARS--THAT IS, BY 1955--THIS ADVICE WILL HAVE RESULTED IN A "COMPLETELY REALIZED ECONOMIC UNION."

THE TREATY WAS THE RESULT OF 18 MONTHS OF WORK BY A COMMITTEE OF FRENCH AND ITALIAN ECONOMISTS AND DIPLOMATS.

ON THE SAME LITTLE, LOUIS XV TABLE AT WHICH THE PEACE TREATY BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES WAS SIGNED IN 1947, SCHUMAN AND SFORZA ALSO SEALED THREE ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS.

ONE SET A NEW EXCHANGE RATE OF 180 LIRE, INSTEAD OF 220, FOR 100 FRANCS. IT PROVIDED FOR REVISION OF THIS RATE ON THE BASIS OF CHANGES IN THE DOLLAR RATES IN FRANCE AND ITALY.

THE SECOND, IN EFFECT, GAVE FRANCE AN ADDITIONAL CREDIT FOR 3,800,000,000 (B) FRANCS (ABOUT $12,000,000) WORTH OF ITALIAN GOODS. FRANCE HAS ABOUT EXHAUSTED HER SUPPLY OF LIRE, AND A PREVIOUS AGREEMENT ENABLED ITALY TO REFUSE TO ACCEPT ANY MORE FRANCS AFTER IT HAD 6,200,000,000 (B) OF THEM. NOW THE CEILING IS RAISED TO 10,000,000,000 (B) FRANCS.

THE THIRD AGREEMENT REGULATES THE AMOUNT OF MONEY WHICH ITALIAN LABORERS, OF WHOM FRANCE HAS MANY AND WANTS MORE, CAN SEND HOME TO THEIR FAMILIES.

THE TAXES ARE CONTEMPLATED AS TEMPORARY MEASURES IN THE PERIOD OF ADJUSTMENT TO THE NEW SYSTEM, IT WAS SAID.

BERLIN, MARCH 26-(AP)-THE ALLIED AIRLIFT SET A NEW RECORD FOR THE TRANSPORT OF SUPPLIES TO BLOCKADED WESTERN BERLIN IN THE PAST WEEK.

IT MOVED 51,049 TONS IN THE SEVEN DAYS ENDED AT NOON TODAY. THE OLD MARK WAS 45,683 TONS DURING THE SECOND WEEK OF MARCH.

THE DAILY AVERAGE OF THE AMERICAN AND BRITISH CREWS IS NOW ONLY 800 TONS SHORT OF WHAT GERMAN OFFICIALS SAY IS NEEDED FOR WESTERN BERLIN TO FUNCTION AS THOUGH A BLOCKADE DID NOT EXIST.

2. AGREEMENT TO ACCEPT FOR REFERENCE ONLY THE PEACE PROPOSALS DRAFTED BY A 10-MAN PRESIDENTIAL COMMITTEE HEADED BY FORMER PREMIER SUN FO. THE VAGUE AND GENERAL TERMS OF THIS DRAFTED PROGRAM ACTUALLY ARE BEING IGNORED FOR THE MOST PART.

TWO MILITARY DEVELOPMENTS WERE SIDELIGHTS TO THE PEACE MANEUVERINGS BY BOTH SIDES.

A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN SAID NATIONALIST TROOPS WERE DOING BETTER AT ANKING, ONLY ACTIVE FIGHTING FRONT OF ANY CONSEQUENCE. HE SAID THE REDS HAD BEEN PUSHED BACK FROM THIS TEMPORARY CAPITAL OF ANHWEI PROVINCE 150 MILES SOUTHWEST OF NANKING. IT IS ONE OF THE LAST NATIONALIST STRONGHOLDS NORTH OF THE YANGTZE RIVER.

IN NANKING ITSELF, THE GOVERNMENT REPORTED THAT TWO REGIMENTS OF THE CAPITAL'S GARRISON HAD MUTINIED. ONE WAS BROUGHT UNDER CONTROL, THE GOVERNMENT SAID, AND TROOPS WERE PURSUING THE OTHER. THE GOVERNMENT DID NOT SAY IF THE TWO REGIMENTS HAD INTENDED TO DESERT TO THE REDS JUST ACROSS THE YANGTZE.

THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA OFFICE IN NEW YORK RELEASED A STATEMENT YESTERDAY ASSERTING GUERRILLA WARFARE WITH THE DUTCH HAS COST 150,000 CASUALTIES IN JAVA SINCE DECEMBEG.

THE STATEMENT ASSERTED "SEVERAL HUNDRED PERSONS WERE KILLED AND WOUNDED" THURSDAY IN AN ATTACK BY DUTCH WARPLANES ON WONOSARI, JAVA, ABOUT 40 MILES SOUTHEAST OF JOGJAKARTA. THE REPUBLICAN OFFICE SAID 1,000 DUTCH INFANTRY AND 400 PARATROOPS ARE ENGAGED IN FIGHTING AT WONOSARI.

TOKYO,SUNDAY,MARCH 27-(AP)-GENERAL MACARTHUR TOLD JAPAN TODAY TO RESTORE THE FOREIGN PATENTS IT SEIZED DURING THE WAR.

UNDER TERMS OF A DIRECTIVE RECEIVED FROM THE FAR EASTERN COMMISSION IN WASHINGTON, MACARTHUR ISSUED TWO ORDERS DEALING WITH PATENTS.

THE FIRST DIRECTS JAPAN TO RESTORE AND REVALIDATE ABOUT 5,000 PATENTS, DESIGNS AND UTILITY MODELS OWNED BY ALLIED NATIONALS. MANY OF THESE WERE SEIZED BY JAPAN ILLEGALLY DURING THE WAR.

THE SECOND AUTHORIZED THE JAPANESE PATENT OFFICE TO ACCEPT APPLICATIONS FROM FOREIGN NATIONALS FOR PATENTS WHICH HAD BEEN FILED HERE WITHIN 12 MONTHS BEFORE THE OUTBREAK OF WAR.

THE LATTER ORDER ALLOWS FOREIGNERS TO OBTAIN PATENT RIGHTS IN JAPAN EVEN THOUGH THE PATENTS HAVE BEEN ISSUED TO OTHER PERSONS IN JAPAN ON SIMILAR INVENTIONS DURING THE WAR.

Havana, Cuba, March 26--(ap)--The Latin American colonial conference debated heatedly today whether to consider the question of independence for Puerto Rico.

The conference is pledged to seek independence for the British, Franch and Dutch colonies in the western hemisphere. Minority political groups of Puerto Rico have deluged the conference with requests that Puerto Rico's status also be studied.

Today's spirited debate occurred during a closed session of the conference's steering committee. It was reported that a majority of the committee apparently favored considering the case of Puerto Rico.

Some of the delegates, however, emphasized that they were expressing personal views and not the official viewpoints of their governments. The United States and several other Western Hemisphere countries are not represented at the conference here. The conference has no powers to enforce decisions.

A working committee was named to study the Puerto Rican question. It is composed of representatives of Mexico, Argentina, Guatemala, Cuba and Costa Rica.

(300)(ADVANCE)..WASHINGTON, MARCH 26-(AP)-FOLLOWING IS THE TEXT OF PRESI-DENT TRUMAN'S SPEECH ON THE "ONE GREAT HOUR" BROADCAST IN BEHALF OF A SPECIAL WORLD RELIEF CHURCH DRIVE:

THE WORDS FROM THE BIBLE THAT HAVE JUST BEEN READ TO US CARRY A GREAT MESSAGE. IT IS ONE THAT INFLUENCED OUR FATHERS DEEPLY, AND GUIDED THEM WHEN THEY SHAPED OUR WAY OF LIFE. AS A COUNTRY, WE HAVE LONG UNDERSTOOD THAT TO HELP THE SUFFERING IS TO SERVE GOD.

THROUGH OUR COMMUNITIES AND OUR GOVERNMENTS AS WELL AS THROUGH OUR CHARITIES WE HAVE SOUGHT TO CARRY OUT THIS DIVINE COMMAND TO AID THE HUNGRY, THE NEEDS, AND THE SICK.

TODAY, HOWEVER, THE WORDS OF THE PARABLE OF THE LAST JUDGMENT HAVE FRESH MEANING FOR US.

THEY MAKE CLEAR OUR DUTY TOWARD THOSE MILLIONS OF PEOPLE IN OTHER COUNTRIES WHO HAVE SUFFERED AND STILL SUFFER THE MISERIES OF WAR, DESTRUCTION AND TYRANNY.

THERE ARE THOUSANDS OF HILDREN IN FOREIGN LANDS TODAY WHO HAVE NO MEMORY OF THEIR PARENTS, NO KNOWLEDGE OF THE MEANING OF THE WORDS "HOME" AND "FAMILY," AND WHO HAVE FORGOTTEN WHAT IT FEELS LIKE TO HAVE ENOUGH TO EAT. THERE ARE HOPELESS THOUSANDS WHO WANDER AMONG SHATTERED TOWNS SEEKING A PLACE TO REST, SEEKING SECURITY AND A CHANCE TO BEGIN THEIR LIVES ANEW. THERE ARE MANY WHO PRAY TO GOD ONLY IN SECRET, FEARING PERSECUTION IF THEY PROFESS THEIR BELIEFS OPENLY.

IT IS HARD FOR US TO COMPREHEND GRIEF AND DISTRESS SUCH AS THIS, BECAUSE WE IN AMERICA ARE SO MUCH MORE FORTUNATE. OUR COUNTRY HAS BEEN BLESSED WITH MATERIAL RICHES. WE CAN GO TO OUR CHURCHES AND WORSHIP GOD AS WE DESIRE. AND MOST IMPORTANT OF ALL, WE KNOW THAT OUR RIGHTS AND OUR DIGNITY AS INDIVIDUALS ARE GUARANTEED TO US UNDER OUR CONSTITUTION.

WE KNOW THAT WE ENJOY THESE GREAT BLESSINGS NOT BECAUSE OF ANY SPECIAL MERIT ON OUR PART, BUT BECAUSE OF THE BOUNTY OF GOD. IT IS TO HIS PROVIDENCE THAT WE OWE THE RICHNESS OF OUR COUNTRY AND OUR HERITAGE OF FREEDOM. SINCE THESE GOODS THINGS COME TO US FROM HIM, WE KNOW THAT WE MUST USE THEM FOR THE GOOD OF OTHERS IN ACCORDANCE WITH HIS WILL.

MANY OF THOSE IN NEED AND DISTRESS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD SHARE THESE BELIEFS AND IDEALS WITH US. TO THEM WE SHOULD OFFER NOT ONLY OUR AID IN PHYSICAL THINGS, BUT ALSO THE SENSE OF BROTHERHOOD IN A COMMON CAUSE.

WE CANNOT DO THIS THROUGH THE CHANNELS OF GOVERNMENT ALONE. WE MUST ALSO EXTEND THE HAND OF FELLOWSHIP THROUGH OUR PRIVATE ORGANIZATIONS AND AS INDIVIDUALS. IN THIS WAY, WE CAN JOIN WITH THOSE OF KINDRED FAITH AND DESTROY THE BARRIERS OF DISTRUST AND PROPAGANDA THAT DIVIDE US FROM OUR FELLOWMEN.

TO THE MILLIONS IN THE WORLD WHO CRY IN THEIR DESPAIR FOR A NEW DAY OF FREEDOM AND JUSTICE, WE HERE IN AMERICA, OUT OF OUR STRENGTH AND BY OUR EXAMPLE, CAN GIVE HOPE AND COMFORT.

I URGE YOU GO TO TO WORSHIP TOMORROW, EACH IN HIS ACCUSTOMED PLACE, TO THANK GOD FOR OUR HERITAGE AND OUR STRENGTH, AND TO ASK HIM FOR THE GRACE AND POWER TO CARRY OUT HIS WILL IN THIS TROUBLED WORLD.

(100) MILITARY SAVINGS

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON,MARCH 26-(AP)-AN ESTIMATED $56,517,421 HAS BEEN SAVED BY ARMED SERVICES ECONOMIES UNDER UNIFICATION, DEFENSE SECRETARY FORRESTAL SAID TODAY.

THIS CAME THROUGH REDUCTION OF OVERLAPPING AND DUPLICATION, FORRESTAL SAID. THE UNIFICATION ACT WAS PASSED IN JUNE, 1947.

THE TOTAL INCLUDES $25,369,006 ANNUAL SAVINGS AND $31,148,415 IN ONE-TIME ECONOMIES.

MORE THAN 400 ECONOMY PROJECTS WERE INVOLVED, THE STATEMENT SAID. IT CITED UNIFICATION OF CERTAIN TYPES OF TRAINING, JOINT PURCHASE OF SUPPLIES, AND MERGER OF ARMY AND NAVY AIR TRANSPORT SERVICES.

A CLOTHING ALLOWANCE PLAN HAS RESULTED IN AN $8,000,000 SAVINGS. UNIFICATION IN CERTAIN TRAINING, SUCH AS PHOTOGRAPHY, CHEMICAL WARFARE, PHASES OF AIR NAVIGATION, AND USE OF SAME TEXTS AND SCHOOLS HAS SAVED MORE THAN $2,000,000.

AN EFFORT IS BEING MADE TO USE WAREHOUSES, COMMISSARIES, POST OFFICES AND REPAIR SHOPS IN COMMON WHEREVER POSSIBLE.

(400) JOINT CHIEFS

BY ELTON C.FAY

WASHINGTON, MARCH 26-(AP)-THE ILLNESS OF ONE OFFICIAL AND RETIREMENT OF ANOTHER CUT THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF TODAY DOWN TO THREE MEN--THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE QUARRELING ARMED FORCES.

GEN. DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER, THE GROUP'S TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN AND MODERATOR, IS ILL. INDICATIONS ARE THAT IT MIGHT BE SOME TIME BEFORE HE CAN RETURN TO DUTY.

EISENHOWER HAS BEEN SICK AT HIS HOTEL APARTMENT SINCE LAST MONDAY, SUFFERING FROM WHAT HIS PHYSICIAN DIAGNOSED AS "A SEVERE CASE OF ACUTE GASTRO-ENTERITIS"--INFLAMMATION OF THE INTESTINES.

THE NATIONAL MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT, IN A FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT, SAID EISENHOWER PROBABLY WILL BE ABLE TO LEAVE IN A FEW DAYS "FOR SOME PLACE, AS YET NOT SELECTED, WHERE HE WILL HAVE A COMPLETE REST BEFORE RESUMING HIS TEMPORARY DUTIES AS PRESIDING OFFICER OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF."

THE IMPRESSION IS THAT THE ILLNESS IS MORE UNCOMFORTABLE THAN DANGEROUS. EISENHOWER'S OFFICE CANCELLED ALL HIS OFFICIAL AND SOCIAL ENGAGEMENTS.

MAR 27 1949

MEANWHILE THE WHITE HOUSE ANNOUNCED THE RETIREMENT OF ADMIRAL WILLIAM D.LEAHY, CHARTER MEMBER OF THE JOINT CHIEFS ORGANIZATION.

LEAHY, TOO, HAS BEEN ILL. HE UNDERWENT AN OPERATION EARLIER THIS YEAR, THEN WENT DOWN TO THE NAVAL BASE AT KEY WEST, FLA., TO RECUPERATE. HE WAS THERE WHEN PRESIDENT TRUMAN TOOK HIS RECENT VACATION AT THE NAVAL BASE AND PRESUMABLY THE ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE 73-YEAR-OLD ADMIRAL'S RETIREMENT WERE MADE THEN.

MR.TRUMAN BADE HIM FAREWELL BY DECORATING HIM WITH A GOLD STAR REPRESENTING THE THIRD AWARD OF THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE MEDAL. THE PRESIDENT HIMSELF READ THE CITATION, WHICH CALLED LEAHY A "CHAMPION OF DEMOCRACY AND RESPECTER OF SOVEREIGNTY."

THE ADMIRAL'S PUBLIC CAREER DATES FROM THE SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR. HE DOFFED HIS NAVY UNIFORM IN 1939 TO BECOME GOVERNOR OF PUERTO RICO, THEN AMBASSADOR TO FRANCE. BUT IN 1942 WHEN THE LATE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT FORMED THE WARTIME MILITARY HIGH COMMAND HE ASKED LEAHY TO RETURN TO ACTIVE DUTY AND BECOME A MEMBER.

ROOSEVELT'S HOPE -- NEVER REALIZED -- WAS THAT THE PRESTIGE OF A WHITE HOUSE REPRESENTATIVE WOULD STOP THE INTERSERVICE ARGUMENTS OVER ALLOCATIONS OF MANPOWER, MATERIAL AND MISSIONS. BUT THE ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE CONTINUED THE CONTROVERSIES..

A13WX

WHEN THE WARTIME MEMBERS LEFT, THE NEW COMMANDERS OF THE THREE SERVICES CARRIED ON. HOWEVER, THE ARMY REPRESENTATIVE REMAINED ALOOF FROM MUCH OF THE POSTWAR DEBATES. THE AIR FORCE AND NAVY CONTINUED THEIR WAR-BORN WRANGLE OVER WHAT THEIR RESPECTIVE ROLES IN WARFARE SHOULD BE.

MR.TRUMAN, TRYING WHAT ROOSEVELT HAD TRIED BEFORE HIM, ASKED EISENHOWER TO TAKE TEMPORARY LEAVE FROM THE PRESIDENCY OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY AND COME TO THE PENTAGON AS CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS ORGANIZATION.

THE GENERAL STARTED LAST JANUARY WHAT HE SAID WOULD BE A SIX OR SEVEN WEEK JOB. HE PUT IN LONG, STRENUOUS HOURS AT THE PENTAGON, TRYING TO SPEED UP THE WORK OF THE ORGANIZATION AND SETTLE DISPUTES BETWEEN THE NAVY AND AIR FORCE.

UNTIL HE RETURNS OR A NEW PERMANENT CHIEF IS APPOINTED UNDER LEGISLATION NOW PENDING IN CONGRESS, THE ARMED FORCES CAN CONDUCT ANY FEUDING UNRESTRAINED--UNLESS THE INCOMING SECRETARY OF DEFENSE LOUIS JOHNSON INTERVENES. HE HAS A REPUTATION FOR FIRMNESS.

(430) PENSIONS

BY BARNEY LIVINGSTONE

WASHINGTON, MARCH 26-(AP)-A STILL DIZZY HOUSE WAS BACK ON THE VETERANS PENSION MERRY-GO-ROUND TODAY.

REP. RANKIN (D-MISS) STEPPED BACK TO THE CONTROLS YESTERDAY TO INTRODUCE A LIMITED PENSION BILL FOR VETERANS OF WORLD WAR I.

ONLY THURSDAY, AFTER THE HOUSE BURIED HIS MULTI-BILLION DOLLAR PENSION BILL FOR ALL WORLD WAR I AND II SERVICEMEN, A DISAPPOINTED RANKIN HAD SAID NO PENSION LEGISLATION COULD PASS AT THIS SESSION.

BUT JUST A DAY LATER HE BOUNCED BACK WITH HIS NEW PROPOSAL, INTRODUCED, HE SAID, "BY REQUEST." HE SAID THE AMERICAN LEGION AND "MANY MEMBERS" OF THE HOUSE VETERANS COMMITTEE, OF WHICH HE IS CHAIRMAN, HAD URGED THE NEW BILL.

OF ITS PROSPECTS, RANKIN DECLARED: "I'M MAKING NO PREDICTIONS." BEFORE HIS FIRST BILL GOT TO THE HOUSE, HE HAD CONFIDENTLY FORECAST

BEFORE HIS FIRST BILL GOT TO THE HOUSE, HE HAD CONFIDENTLY FORECAST ITS PASSAGE BY AN OVERWHELMING MAJORITY.

RANKIN TOLD THE HOUSE HE HOPED TO HAVE HIS NEW BILL UP FOR CONSIDERATION "IN A SHORT TIME."

WHEREAS THE MISSISSIPPIAN'S FIRST BILL PROVIDED $90 A MONTH PENSIONS AT AGE 65 TO ALL 18,800,000 WORLD WAR I AND II VETERANS, THE SECOND IS CONSIDERABLY LESS INCLUSIVE AND PROBABLY LESS COSTLY.

IT IS LIMITED TO THE APPROXIMATELY 3,500,000 VETERANS OF WORLD WAR I, AND PROVIDES FOR PENSIONS OF $72 AT AGE 65, FOR VETS WHOSE INCOME FALLS BELOW A CERTAIN POINT. IT ALSO PROHIBITS "PYRAMIDING" OF BENEFITS FROM OTHER SOURCES, AND CONFINES PENSIONS TO HONORABLY DISCHARGED VETERANS.

MOST OF THESE PROVISIONS WERE TACKED ONTO RANKIN'S FIRST BILL DURING THE BATTERING IT TOOK ON THE HOUSE FLOOR.

RANKIN SAID HE THOUGHT THE CHANGES WOULD "GREATLY REDUCE THE COST" FROM THE TENTATIVE FIGURE OF $125,000,000,000 (B) SET ON THE OLD BILL.

THE MOVE BROUGHT MIXED REACTION FROM THOSE WHO FOUGHT HIM EARLIER THIS WEEK.

REP. TEAGUE (D-TEX), WHO HAD POISED THE AXE OVER THE FIRST BILL, OBSERVED THAT MOST OF WHAT THE NEW BILL OFFERS "ALREADY IS IN EXISTING LAW."

MAR 27 1949

A10WX

HE REFERRED TO STATUTORY REGULATIONS OF THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION WHICH MAKE AVAILABLE DISABILITY AND UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS TO NEEDY VETERANS.

AT PRESENT, A 55-YEAR-OLD VETERAN WITH 60 PER CENT DISABILITY OR A 60-YEAR-OLD VETERAN WITH 50 PER CENT DISABILITY IS ENTITLED TO $60 A MONTH IF UNEMPLOYABLE. AT AGE 65, AND WITH ONLY 10 PER CENT DISABILITY, HE IS ENTITLED TO $72 A MONTH.

REP. KEARNEY (R-NY), A MEMBER OF THE VETERANS COMMITTEE, TERMED THE NEW BILL A "FAIR APPROACH" TO THE PROBLEM BUT ADDED THAT IT NEEDS "CAREFUL ATTENTION AND EXTENDED HEARINGS."

REP. HUBER (D-OHIO), ANOTHER COMMITTEE MEMBER, LIKEWISE ANNOUNCED HE INTENDS TO "INSIST ON FULL AND FAIR HEARINGS." HUBER WAS ONE OF SEVEN MEMBERS WHO STALKED OUT OF COMMITTEE AFTER CONDEMNING WHAT THEY CALLED THE CHAIRMAN'S "HIGH HANDED TACTICS" IN JAMMING THROUGH THE FIRST BILL.

REP. CARROLL (D-COLO), WHO LED THE FLOOR FIGHT ON THE RANKIN BILL, SAID RANKIN WAS TO BE "COMMENDED" FOR KEEPING THE PENSION ISSUE BEFORE CONGRESS. "IT GIVES US A CHANCE TO CONSIDER IT INTELLIGENTLY," HE DECLARED.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 26-(AP)-THREE PITTSBURGH MEN HAVE BEEN ORDERED TO APPEAR BEFORE THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE APRIL 26 TO TESTIFY ON THE SLAV CONGRESS, AN ORGANIZATION CITED AS SUBVERSIVE BY ATTORNEY GENERAL CLARK.

THEY ARE LEO FISHER, FRANK BORICH AND TIMO BOBICH. THEY BRING TO FOUR THE NUMBER OF PENNSYLVANIANS SUBPOENAED BY THE COMMITTEE, WHICH WANTS TO FIND OUT WHETHER COMMUNISTS HAVE SEIZED CONTROL OF THE CONGRESS AND HAVE USED IT FOR SPYING PURPOSES.

STEVE NELSON, COMMUNIST PARTY ORGANIZER FOR WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA WHO HAS BEEN ACCUSED BY THE COMMITTEE OF HAVING ENGAGED IN ATOMIC ESPIONAGE ON THE WEST COAST, HAD BEEN NOTIFIED EARLIER TO APPEAR BEFORE THE GROUP.

BORICH AND BOBICH SAID THEY HAD "NO COMMENT" ON THE COMMITTEE'S ACTION. FISHER SAID ISSUANCE OF THE SUBPOENA WAS "A DELIBERATE ATTACK ON AMERICAN SLAVS, THEIR DEMOCRATIC RIGHTS AND THEIR ORGANIZATIONS."

FISHER SAID HE HAD BEEN "PARTICULARLY ACTIVE" AGAINST THE FOLLOWERS OF DR.ANTE PAVELICH WHO HE SAID HITLER PUT INTO POWER IN CROATIA.

ECA (350)

WASHINGTON, MARCH 26-(AP)-MAJORITY LEADER LUCAS (ILL) TODAY URGED THE SENATE TO STICK TO BUSINESS AND PASS THE NEW $5,580,000,000 (B) FOREIGN AID PROGRAM MONDAY.

BUT REPUBLICAN FLOOR LEADER WHERRY (NEB) PREDICTED THAT THE BILL WILL NOT BE PASSED BEFORE WEDNESDAY. HE TOLD REPORTERS REPUBLICANS HAVE A LOT OF AMENDMENTS THEY WANT TO OFFER.

LUCAS PROMISED A LONG SESSION MONDAY IN AN EFFORT TO WIND UP DEBATE ON THE BILL TO CARRY ON THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM THROUGH JUNE 30, 1950. HE SAID THE SENATE COULD DO IT IF SENATORS WOULD QUIT TALKING ABOUT "EXTRANEOUS" MATTERS.

WHILE HE MENTIONED NO NAMES, THE OBVIOUS REFERENCE WAS TO A THREE-HOUR SPEECH YESTERDAY BY SENATOR DONNELL (R-MO) ON THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT WHICH WILL NOT COME BEFORE THE SENATE UNTIL AFTER ITS SCHEDULED SIGNING HERE APRIL 4.

THE ADMINISTRATION'S FOREIGN AID PROGRAM BUMPED INTO A COUNTER-PROPOSAL BY SENATOR CAPEHART (R-IND) YESTERDAY.

CAPEHART PROPOSED TO CUT THE AUTHORIZATION TO $3,000,000,000 (B). HE SAID THIS AMOUNT WOULD BE AMPLE, ALONG WITH $2,700,000,000 (B) IN UNSHIPPED AUTHORIZATIONS FROM THE PRESENT ACT.

THE INDIANA SENATOR, WHO VOTED AGAINST FOREIGN AID LAST YEAR, LABELLED THE PROGRAM A "EUROPEAN FINANCE PLAN" INSTEAD OF A RECOVERY PROGRAM. HE SAID IT WAS TIME THE NATION PAID MORE ATTENTION TO ITS OWN ECONOMY.

INDUSTRIAL LEVELS IN MARSHALL PLAN NATIONS ALREADY ARE NEARING OR ARE UP TO PRE-WAR LEVELS, CAPEHART SAID. BUT SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH), RANKING GOP MEMBER OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE SAID THAT'S NOT AN ACCURATE YARDSTICK TO USE ON EUROPE'S

OVER-ALL ECONOMIC RECOVERY.

BOTH VANDENBERG AND COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) HAVE ASKED THE SENATE TO APPROVE THE FULL $5,580,000,000 (B) AUTHORIZATION. IF IT DOES, THE AMOUNT COULD BE CUT LATER IN THE SESSION WHEN CONGRESS MAKES THE ACTUAL APPROPRIATION.

CONNALLY DISCLOSED THAT THE ECA PLANS TO SPEND $1,894,000,000 (B) FOR FARM PRODUCTS IN THE YEAR STARTING JULY 1.

VANDENBERG SAID, IN EFFECT, THAT THE UNIED STATES SHOULD HELP THE WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES BRING THEIR OVERALL ECONOMIES BACK INTO LINE WITH PRE-WAR LEVELS.

BUT HE ADDED THAT WE "SHOULD NOT UNDERTAKE EVEN IN OUR WILDEST DREAMS TO BRING THEM BACK TO A TOTAL ECONOMY IN EXCESS OF PRE-WAR."

(350) AXIS SALLY

WASHINGTON, MARCH 26-(AP)-"AXIS SALLY'S" ATTORNEY SAID TODAY HE WILL PRESS FOR QUICK ACTION ON HER APPEAL FROM A TREASON CONVICTION AND A LONG PRISON TERM.

THE ATTORNEY, JAMES J.LAUGHLIN, TOLD A REPORTER HE WILL ASK THE U.S. CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS TO HEAR ARGUMENTS IN MAY. ORDINARILY, HE SAID, ARGUMENTS WOULD NOT BE HEARD BEFORE OCTOBER OR NOVEMBER.

AFTER DENYING A MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL, FEDERAL JUDGE EDWARD M. CURRAN YESTERDAY SENTENCED MILDRED E.GILLARS, 48, TO SERVE 10 TO 30 YEARS IN PRISON. HE ALSO IMPOSED A $10,000 FINE. A TREASON CONVICTION ALSO MEANS LOSS OF CITIZENSHIP.

LAUGHLIN IMMEDIATELY FILED NOTICE OF APPEAL. HIS NEXT STEP, HE SAID, WILL BE TO FILE A BRIEF IN THE APPEALS COURT--PROBABLY WITHIN 15 DAYS--TO SUPPORT HIS CONTENTION THET THE MAINE-BORN MISS GILLARS DID NOT GET A FAIR TRIAL.

PENDING THE OUTCOME OF HER APPEAL, THE SILVER-HAIRED MISS GILLARS WILL REMAIN IN THE DISTRICT JAIL HERE OR BE TAKEN TO THE WOMEN'S REFORMATORY AT LORTON, VA., JAMES V.BENNETT, DIRECTOR OF THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF PRISONS, SAID.

IF THE APPEAL IS LOST, MISS GILLARS MAY SERVE THE REMAINDER OF HER SENTENCE IN THE WOMEN'S REFORMATORY AT ALDERSON, W.VA.

MISS GILLARS--GI'S WHO HEARD HER WARTIME BROADCASTS FOR THE NAZI RADIO GAVE HER THE NAME OF "AXIS SALLY"--HEARD THE PENALTY WITHOUT VISIBLE EMOTION.

BEFORE PASSING SENTENCE, JUDGE CURRAN ASKED HER WHETHER SHE CARED TO SAY ANYTHING. SHE DID. SHE SAID SEVERAL TIMES THAT SHE'LL NEVER BE ABLE TO UNDERSTAND WHY A JURY CONVICTED HER OF TREASON FOR HER PART IN "VISION OF INVASION."

THE JUDGE FINALLY TOLD HER THAT HE DID NOT WANT HER TO ARGUE THE CASE, THAT LAUGHLIN ALREADY HAD DONE THAT.

THE JURY FOUND MISS GILLARS GUILTY OF TREASON FOR PLAYING THE ROLE OF AN AMERICAN MOTHER IN "VISION OF INVASION," BROADCAST BY THE GERMAN RADIO A MONTH BEFORE ALLIED TROOPS LANDED IN NORMANDY.

THE INDICTMENT CALLED THE DRAMA "PROPAGANDA AND AN INSTRUMENT OF PHYSHOLOGICAL WARFARE." IT CONCERNED THE DREAM OF A MOTHER THAT HER SON WAS KILLED IN THE INVASION.

UNDER THE TEN TO 30-YEAR SENTENCE, MISS GILLARS WOULD BECOME ELIGIBLE FOR PAROLE IN TEN YEARS.

IF THE FINE IS NOT PAID BY THAT TIME AND MISS GILLARS LACKS FUNDS, SHE COULD SERVE THIRTY DAYS MORE INSTEAD OF PAYING. PRISONERS WHO THUS GAIN THEIR RELEASE WITHOUT PAYING MUST SIGN A PAUPER'S OATH.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 26-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES WILL PROVIDE $23,000,000 OF THE $58,000,000 (M) TOTAL LUMBER SHIPMENTS AUTHORIZED FOR EUROPE AUTHORIZED ON FEB. 28. CANADA'S SHARE IS $35,000,000.

REP. NORBLAD (R-ORE) LEARNED THIS TODAY FROM THE ECONOMIC RECOVERY ADMINISTRATION. NORBLAD HAD URGED ECA TO INSIST UPON A LARGER SHARE FOR THE UNITED STATES.

NORBLAD SAID THAT IN 1948 BRITISH COLUMBIA PROVIDED 70 PER CENT OF THE LUMBER SHIPPED FROM THE WEST COAST TO WORLD MARKETS AND 84 PER CENT OF THE TOTAL TO THE UNITED KINGDOM.

HE TOLD THE ECA THAT "A PROPER DISTRIBUTION" OF U.S. FINANCED PURCHASES LUMBER WOULD PREVENT THE CLOSING OF LUMBER MILLS IN THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST.

THE AGENCY REPLIED IN A LETTER THAT IT SHARED NORBLAD'S FEELING. ECA ADDED THAT, AS EUROPEAN RECOVERY WAS THE OBJECTIVE, NO ATTEMPT SHOULD BE MADE TO CONTROL PURCHASES WHICH WOULD RESULT IN UNECONOMICAL PROCUREMENT.

ECA TOLD NORBLAD THAT IT HAD ASKED IMPORTING COUNTRIES TO GIVE THE U.S. LUMBER INDUSTRY A CHANCE TO COMPETE WITH CANADA AND OTHER PRODUCERS.

"FOR MANY YEARS, CANADA'S LUMBER EXPORTS TO MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES HAVE EXCEEDED THOSE OF THE UNITED STATES," THE ECA SAID. "THIS IS ESPECIALLY TRUE AS TO THE UNITED KINGDOM, WHERE CLOSE POLITICAL TIES ARE AN IMPORTANT FACTOR."

THE AGENCY SAID CANADIAN AND UNITED STATES LUMBER EXPORTS WERE LESS LAST YEAR THAN IN 1947 BECAUSE OF THE DOLLAR SHORTAGE.

MEMBERS LIKE SENATOR CAPEHART (R-IND) AND JOHNSON (D-COLO) WHO HAVE BEEN TALKING ABOUT A CUT IN THE OVER-ALL PROGRAM COULD BE EXPECTED TO BACK THE TAFT PROPOSAL IF AMENDMENTS TO SLASH THE FUND FAIL AS EXPECTED.

ON THE OTHER HAND, SOME MEMBERS WHO WANT TO KEEP THE ECA OPERATING AT TOP SPEED MIGHT FIND IT A PALATABLE COMPROMISE. FOR INSTANCE, SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF), A MEMBER OF THE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE, SAID IT WAS SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT.

IF THE $4,280,000,000 FUND WERE USED IN 12 MONTHS, ECA SPENDING WOULD BE AT THE RATE OF MORE THAN $356,000,000 (M) A MONTH. THE WHOLE $5,580,000,000 FUND, SPREAD OVER 15 MONTHS, WOULD GIVE THE AGENCY AN AVERAGE RATE OF $370,000,000 MONTH.

HIGHEST RATE OF SPENDING IS EXPECTED TO BE REACHED THIS SPRING AND SUMMER, WITH THE TAPERING OFF PROCESS TO START IN THE FALL AND WINTER IN LINE WITH PROMISES TO CUT THE AID OUTLAY NEXT YEAR.

SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH) HAS HELD OUT FOR THE FULL $5,580,000,- 000 (B) FOR THE 15 MONTHS. HE WENT ALONG WITH LAST YEAR'S COMPROMISE TO GIVE THE PRESIDENT PERMISSION TO USE THE MONEY VOTED THEN IN 12 MONTHS.

HOWEVER, HE IS EXPECTED TO CONTEND THAT IF ANY SUCH ARRANGEMENT IS MADE THIS YEAR, IT OUGHT TO WAIT UNTIL AFTER THE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE HAS SURVEYED ECA AND DECIDED HOW MUCH MONEY ACTUALLY SHOULD BE SPENT.

THUS HE MAY OPPOSE COMPROMISING IN THE PRESENT BILL, WHICH MERELY SETS A LIMIT ON THE FUNDS CONGRESS WILL BE CALLED UPON TO VOTE LATER.

NEW YORK, MARCH 26-(AP)-ANNA LOUISE STRONG, VETERAN AMERICAN JOURNALIST LONG DESCRIBED AS PRO-SOVIET, IS UNDER SHARP ATTACK BY THE COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER, THE DAILY WORKER.

THE WORKER SAYS A SERIES OF MISS STRONG'S ARTICLES, TO BE PUBLISHED IN THE NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE, WILL BE "ANTI-SOVIET."

MISS STRONG WAS EXPELLED RECENTLY FROM RUSSIA ON ESPIONAGE CHARGES. SHE IS SEEKING A REVIEW OF HER CASE BY SOVIET AUTHORITIES.

THE HERALD TRIBUNE, IN AN ACCOUNT OF THE DAILY WORKER CRITICISM OF MISS STRONG, SAID TODAY HER ARTICLES WILL TELL OF HER ARREST IN MOSCOW, AND HER IMPRISONMENT IN THE "NOTORIOUS LUBIANKA PRISON."

THE SERIES STARTS SUNDAY.

THE WORKER SAID IT HAS LEARNED THE ARTICLES REPEATEDLY DESCRIBE SOVIET OFFICIALS AS "COMPLETELY INDIFFERENT TO THE FATE OF COMMUNISTS AND PROGRESSIVES IN OTHER COUNTRIES."

THE ARTICLES MAKE "SNIDE ATTACKS ON SOVIET POLICY TOWARD CHINA," SAID THE WORKER, BUT AVOID THE "SLIGHTEST CRITICISM OF AMERICAN IMPERIALISM."

THE NATIONAL GUARDIAN, SELF-STYLED "PROGRESSIVE NEWSWEEKLY," SAID MISS STRONG HAS WRITTEN AN EXCLUSIVE ARTICLE FOR IT, TO BE PUBLISHED MONDAY, IN WHICH SHE SAYS:

CINCINNATI, MARCH 26-(AP)-WARREN R.AUSTIN, U.S.DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS, SAID TODAY THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT "WILL TURN BACK THE FORCES OF FEAR" AND "STRENGTHEN THE CAUSE OF PEACE."

SPEAKING TO SOME 1,000 HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS, GATHERED HERE FOR THE THIRD ANNUAL WORLD AFFAIRS INSTITUTE, AUSTIN PREDICTED THAT THE PACT "WILL PROVIDE GREATER SECURITY FOR MILLIONS OF PERSONS WHO LIVE TODAY IN ANXIOUS FEAR OF ANOTHER WAR."

IN QUEST OF FREEDOM AND BROTHERHOOD FOR ALL MANKIND, THE UNITED STATES HAS RANGED ITSELF "ON THE SIDE OF CONSTRUCTIVE ACTION," AUSTIN SAID. WHILE "SOVIET-DOMINATED COMMUNIST MINORITIES HAVE ASSUMED THE ROLE OF WRECKERS.

"WE ARE HELPING TO BUILD; THEY ARE TRYING TO TEAR DOWN. WE ARE HELPING TO STRENGTHEN NATIONS; THEY ARE TRYING TO WEAKEN THEM. WE ARE WINNING; THEY ARE LOSING."

AUSTIN TOLD THE HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS FROM SEVERAL SECTIONS OF OHIO, KENTUCKY AND INDIANA THAT "YOU, WHO HAVE YEARS OF SERVICE AHEAD OF YOU, WANT TO LOOK BEYOND THE FEARS OF TODAY.

"FOR YOU, AND THE PERIOD OF HISTORY THAT YOU WILL SHAPE, PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS OUTLINED TWO CONTINUING, LONG-TERM COURSES OF ACTION--STRENGTHENING THE UNITED NATIONS AND RAISING STANDARDS OF LIFE IN THE EARTH'S VAST UNDERDEVELOPED AREAS."

TO STRENGTHEN THE UNITED NATIONS, HE SAID THE STUDENTS COULD UNDERTAKE SUCH TASKS AS "PROMOTING RATIFICATION OF THE TREATY OF GENOCIDE, ENLISTING SUPPORT FOR THE UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS, HELPING THE CAMPAIGN FOR THE UNITED NATIONS CHILDREN'S EMERGENCY FUND AND PLANNING INSPIRATIONAL AND EDUCATIONAL FUNCTIONS IN OBSERVANCE OF UNITED NATIONS WEEK IN OCTOBER."

AUSTIN SAID THAT BECAUSE OF THE LONG-TERM ASPECTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S PLAN TO HELP UNDERDEVELOPED AREAS OF THE WORLD "IT IS THE DIRECT CONCERN OF YOU WHO HAVE THE YOUTH TO CARRY THROUGH LONG TERM EFFORTS."

PITTSBURGH, MARCH 26-(AP)-GERMANY'S FERTILE RUHR VALLEY COAL INDUSTRY HAS BEEN REHABILIATED TO MORE THAN THREE-FOURTHS OF ITS PRE-WAR PRODUCTION FIGURE OF 125,000,000,000 (M) TONS A YEAR, SAYS R.R. ESTILL OF THE H.C. FRICK COKE CO.

ESTILL MAKES THE STATEMENT IN THE CURRENT ISSUE OF CHATTER, THE PUBLICATION OF THE ENGINEERS SOCIETY OF WESTERN SOCIETY. HE WAS AMERICAN CHAIRMAN OF THE ALLIED COAL COMMISSION IN GERMANY AND HEADED A DELEGATION OF MINING AUTHORITIES WHO ENTERED THE RUHR COAL MINING AREA IN NOVEMBER, 1947, TO INJECT AMERICAN KNOW-HOW INTO THE POST-WAR REHABILIATION JOB.

THE PITTSBURGH MAN SAYS "SEVERAL INCENTIVE SCHEMES INVOLVING AWARDS OF SCARCE FOODS AND CLOTHING" WERE PUT INTO AFFECT BY THE ALLIED COAL COMMISSION, ADDING:

"THESE HAD A TEMPORARY BENEFICIAL EFFECT BUT IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE MEN HAD EARNED THEIR INCENTIVE PARCELS THE PRODUCTION WOULD DROP. THIS CONDITION CONTINUED UNTIL CURRENCY REFORM BECAME A REALITY ON JUNE 20, 1948. IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING THIS REFORM, FOODS AND CONSUMER GOODS X X X AT ONCE BECAME AVAILABLE. WITH THEIR NEW CURRENCY, THE DEUTSCHE MARK, THE MINERS WERE ABLE TO PURCHASE THE COMMODITIES THEY SO MUCH NEEDED."

"SINCE THEN," ESTILL CONTINUED, "THE RUHR PRODUCTION HAS HAD A STEADY INCREASE. THIS PROVED THE CONTENTION OF OUR AMERICAN TEAM--THAT GIVEN A CURRENCY THAT IS STABLE AND ENOUGH FOOD TO ENABLE MEN TO WORK WITHOUT FEAR OF STARVATION THEY WILL PRODUCE THE COAL."

CONCLUDING HIS ARTICLE, ESTILL PREDICTS THAT THE INCREASED RUHR COAL PORDUCTION SHOULD HASTEN THE ECONOMIC RECOVERY OF WESTERN EUROPE AND LESSE THE MONETARY DEMANDS ON THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PLAN.

FORT WORTH,TEX., MARCH 26-(AP)-CONVAIR'S NEWEST EXPERIMENTAL VERSION OF THE B-36 BOMBER, THE MODEL "D" WITH TWIN JET PODS, TODAY ON ITS FIRST EXPERIMENTAL FLIGHT. SEE CORRECTION

EXPERIMENTAL FLIGHT.

B.A.ERICKSON, CONVAIR'S CHIEF TEST PILOT, WAS AT THE CONTROLS WITH ARTHUR B.WITCHELL AS CO-PILOT.

THE TWIN JET PODS MOUNTED OUTBOARD ON EACH WING NOTICEABLY GAVE THE HUGE PLANE MORE SPEED. IT CLIMBED QUICKLY AND CIRCLED WESTWARD ON THE TEST FLIGHT PLANNED TO LAST SEVERAL HOURS.

OFFICIAL AIR FORCE DATA ON THE JET POWER ADDITION TO THE B-36 HAS NOT BEEN REVEALED. HOWEVER, EACH OF THE FOUR J-35 JET ENGINES, GENERAL ELECTRIC DESIGNED AND ALLISON BUILT, IS REPORTED TO ADD MORE THAN 4,000 POUNDS OF THRUST, EQUIVALENT TO 4,000 ADDITIONAL HORSE-POWER, FOR EACH ENGINE AFTER THE PLANE ATTAINS A SPEED OF 375 MILES AN HOUR.

THIS, SUPPLEMENTING THE 21,000 HORSEPOWER DEVELOPED BY THE SIX CONVENTIONAL ENGINES, WOULD GIVE IT A TOTAL OF 37,000 HORSE-POWER. IT IS EXPECTED TO PERMIT THE BIG CRAFT BURSTS OF SPEED UP TO 450 MILES AN HOUR OVER A TARGET, AS WELL AS BOOSTING ITS ALTITUDE CEILING TO AT LEAST 45,000 FEET.

INSTALLATION OF THE JET ENGINES BEGAN ONLY A FEW WEEKS AGO.

RESULTS OF TESTS WITH THIS FIRST EXPERIMENTAL JET EQUIPMENT ARE EXPECTED TO DETERMINE WHETHER THE AIR FORCE ORDERS OTHER B-36S MODIFIED IN THE SAME WAY. MORE THAN TWO DOZEN OF THE EARLIER MODELS, EQUIPPED WITH 3,000-HORSEPOWER ENGINES, ALREADY ARE BEING CHANGED TO THE MORE POWERFUL 3,500-HORSE ENGINES, WITH OTHER DEVELOPMENTS INCORPORATED. THE ORIGINAL AIR FORCE ORDER FOR 95 PLANES RECENTLY WAS INCREASED BY 30.

ALBUQUERQUE,N.M.,MARCH 26-(AP)-A GROUP OF NEW MEXICO CATTLEMEN TODAY VOTED UNANIMOUSLY TO FIGHT GOVERNMENT ACQUISITION OF THEIR LAND FOR A BOMBING AND ROCKET RANGE.

IF THEY ARE DEFEATED, THEY VOTED BY A SMALL MAJORITY TO SELL, RATHER THAN RENT, THE LAND TO THE GOVERNMENT, IF A FAIR PRICE IS GRANTED.

THE AREA IS 35 MILES WIDE, 150 MILES LONG AND INCLUDES SOME 4,000,000 ACRES IN THE SOUTHERN PART OF THE STATE. IN IT ARE THE WHITE SANDS PROVING GROUND, WHERE THE ARMY TESTS V-2 ROCKETS, AND HOLLOMAN AIR BASE BOMBING RANGE.

THE VOTE WAS TAKEN AT A SPECIAL MEETING IN ADVANCE OF THE 35TH ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE NEW MEXICO CATTLE GROWERS ASSOCIATION, WHICH OPENS TOMORROW NIGHT. ABOUT 200 LIVESTOCK MEN ATTENDED TODAY'S MEETING.

T.A.SPENCER, CARRIZOZO, N.M., HEADED A COMMITTEE WHICH DRAFTED A RESOLUTION OUTLINING CATTLEMEN'S ARGUMENTS. THEY ARE:

1. ABOUT 2,500 INDIVIDUALS WOULD BE DEPRIVED OF THEIR HOMES.
2. ONE-FIFTEENTH OF NEW MEXICO'S AREA IS INVOLVED.
3. THE ARMY HAS NOT PRESENTED ADEQUATE PROOF NEW MEXICO IS THE ONLY AVAILABLE SITE FOR THE RANGE.
4. RECENT ARMY TESTS SHOW 150 MILES IS NOT SUFFICIENT FOR A ROCKET RANGE. IF THE PRESENT RANGE WERE EXTENDED NORTH, ALBUQUERQUE, SANTA FE AND LOS ALAMOS WOULD BE BROUGHT INTO THE LINE OF FIRE.
5. THREE PAVED, FEDERAL-AID HIGHWAYS WOULD BE CUT OFF.

COL.FRANK KURTZ, WHO SKIPPERED THE GALLANT FLYING FORTRESS THROUGH THE WAR, WAS AT THE CONTROLS AS THE SWOOSE LEFT THE MUNICIPAL AIRPORT AT 3 O'CLOCK THIS AFTERNOON, CIRCLED TWICE AND DIPPED HER WINGS IN FINAL SALUTE. THEN SHE ROARED NORTHWARD TOWARD HAMILTON FIELD, SAN FRANCISCO. SHE WILL SPEND THE NIGHT THERE BEFORE HEADING TOWARD CHICAGO.

THE PLANE ARRIVED AT HAMILTON FIELD ON SCHEDULE AT 5:30 PM (PST). SHE CIRCLED THE FIELD ONCE, THEN CAME IN TO A PERFECT LANDING WHILE A GOOD-SIZED CROWD WATCHED.

"SHE CAME IN LIKE AN OLD QUEEN, SHE REALLY LANDED NICE," AN AIR FORCE OFFICER SAID.

THE OFFICERS EXPECT TO LEAVE HAMILTON FIELD ABOUT 9 A.M. (PST) TOMORROW. THEIR NEXT STOP WILL BE DENVER OR OMAHA.

THE SWOOSE, THE ONLY WARPLANE CONTINUALLY IN SERVICE FROM DEC.7, 1941, TO V-J DAY, IS TO BE HANGARED IN CHICAGO UNTIL THE SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION'S AIR MUSEUM IS BUILT.

FAREWELL SERVICES WERE HELD AT THE AIRPORT FOR THE SWOOSE BEFORE COL.KURTZ TOOK HER AWAY WITH FOUR MEMBERS OF HER ORIGINAL CREW ABOARD. THEY ARE MAJ.HARRY SCHREIBER, GALVESTON, TEX., NAVIGATOR; CAPT. ROLAND BOONE, HEMET, CALIF., GUNNER; MAJ.CHARLES T.REEVES, BAKERSFIELD, CALIF., BOMBARDIER, AND CAPT.HAROLD VARNER, SAN RAFAEL, CALIF., CREW CHIEF.

MAYOR FLETCHER L.BOWRON OF LOS ANGELES FORMALLY PRESENTED THE PLANE TO THE AIR FORCE SHORTLY BEFORE THE TAKEOFF. THE CITY PURCHASED HER FOR $350 WHEN IT LEARNED SHE WAS ABOUT TO BE SCRAPPED AT SELIGMAN, ARIZ. SHE HAS BEEN SEEN BY THOUSANDS HERE AS A WAR MEMORIAL SINCE APRIL, 1946.

ON HER FUSELAGE IS THE STRANGE BIRD, HALF-SWAN, HALF GOOSE, FROM WHICH SHE GOT HER NAME, AND UNDER THE PICTURE ARE PAINTED THE WORDS AND A QUESTION MARK: "IT FLIES?"

Burma Said To Seek New Tie To Britain

ARTHUR GAVSHON

London, March 27 (AP)—A responsible British official said today Burma "wants to come back into the commonwealth." He could not be quoted by name.

There have been several hints that Prime Minister Thakin Nu's shaky Government is thinking of rejoining the commonwealth. However, no formal move in that direction has occurred.

Burmese diplomats here scoff at the idea—officially. Speaking unofficially they say anything can happen in a country that is nearly bankrupt and finds itself torn by at least two major insurrections.

Dr. Herbert Evatt, Australian Foreign Minister, believes Burma's return to the commonwealth is possible some day. He said so at a recent news conference in New Delhi. And it is known that the British are watching for signs that the year-old republic wants to reenter the family of British dominions.

Invitation Expected

Political informants close to the Rangoon Government said they believe the commonwealth countries soon might invite Burma to rejoin the fold.

The political developments in Burma are expected to be one of the subjects to be reviewed by a conference of dominion prime ministers in London about April 20.

Vital matters to be discussed include the growth of communism in the Far East, the disturbed situation in Malaya and Burma, the decision of Eire to become a republic changing relationships with several dominions and establishment of a Pacific alliance to balance the Atlantic treaty.

Burma recently asked Britain for a $100,000,000 loan to save her vitally important rice crop. Britain made it plain help would be sent only if Burma took steps to restore political and economic stability in its 260,000 square mile area.

Mediation Proposed

Commonwealth mediation between the Burma Government and the Karen hill tribesmen also was suggested. The Karens want a state of their own. The Rangoon Government has offered the 4,000,000 tribesmen autonomy within the Burma union. Communist insurgents also have defied the Burma Government. In some cases the revolting Communists have supported the Karens. Despite Burma's critical financial and military situation, Thakin Nu and his Cabinet rejected the mediation offer.

Burmese diplomats say their Parliament must approve any proposal for returning to the commonwealth. Parliament, they declare, might put the issue to a plebiscite of the 18,000,000 Burmese.

"Face" Valued Highly

Rangoon dispatches said Burma's acceptance of an invitation to renew associations with the commonwealth would depend largely on the way it was framed. An oriental people, the Burmese place tremendous value on "face."

Many British officials say privately it would be possible to reconcile Burma's popular nationalism with renewed association with the commonwealth.

These officials say India is a case in point. India's constitution-writers have decided India should become a republic.

But, eager to retain their political, economic, military ties with the commonwealth, they may decide to become a "king's republic." Britain's monarch, King George, might be named India's "first citizen."

Such a formula might be considered acceptable to Burma's present rules.

GERMANS ARMING, RUSSIANS CHARGE

Red Star Says U.S., Britain Foster New General Staff

London, March 27 (AP)—Red Star, organ of the Soviet Army, has accused the United States and Britain of rebuilding the former German general staff and army to turn western Germany "into their military strategic base."

An article on the subject was broadcast yesterday by the Moscow radio and heard here. It said:

"A bureau known as 'Erfurt' (experienced) has been set up in Neustadt, staffed by German Generals Guderian, Kuchler, Schultz and others. They have been set the task of summarizing the experience of the military operations on the Soviet-German frontier.

General Staff Formed

"In addition, some sort of German general staff has been formed under the guise of a military historical committee. It is directed by war criminal Halder, former chief of Hitler's general staff, and is working in close contact with a special department composed of 27 German generals attached to the American general staff in Washington."

Most Old Folks Too, Russ Boast

London, March 27 (AP)—Tass, official Soviet news agency, tonight counted about 29,000 persons in the U.S.S.R. whose age exceeds 100 years and said that was more than any other country in the world.

The Moscow Studio of Popular Scientific Films has released a color picture, "As Guest of the Very Old," dedicated to Russia's aged. It shows Russia's oldest citizen, an Abkhazian collective farmer named Mamzyr Kut, who Tass says was born at the end of the Eighteenth Century and still "takes a lively interest in the affairs of the collective farm."

Yesterday Tass said the Russians could make bricks faster than anyone else. Over recent months it has claimed a stream of firsts: Wireless, telephone, telegraph, airplane and submarine.

COMMUNISTS RUN THIRD IN FINAL TALLY

Queuille Forces Take 70 Per Cent Of Seats; De Gaulle Strong

Paris, Monday, March 28 (AP)—The middle-of-the-road coalition of parties that govern France won almost 70 per cent of the offices at stake in Sunday's election, final returns disclosed today.

But the Government of Premier Henri Queuille found that the opposition represented by Gen. Charles de Gaulle's supporters remained a major political force.

The complete tabulation gave the parties in the coalition 544 of 783 "general councilor" posts at stake. De Gaulle's French People's party won 219 posts, the greatest number by any single party.

The Communists made a poor showing with twenty posts.

Much of the voting was in rural areas and small towns. The Communists' great strength is in Paris and the larger cities which did not take part in Sunday's balloting.

Rival Parties Combine

In many cases de Gaullists and Government forces combined to make certain the anti-Communist candidate was elected.

One of the defeated candidates was Pierre Cot, a Leftist deputy in Parliament invited by Henry A. Wallace to visit the United States next month. He was beaten by an independent candidate.

A small prestige loss was experienced by the Socialists when Eugene Thomas, subminister of communications, was defeated.

One of the few Communists elected was Arthur Ramette, a top leader in the party.

Colonies Minister Paul Coste Floret, member of the M.R.P., also was defeated. His twin brother, Alfred, a deputy in Parliament, was elected.

Another defeated candidate was Andre Marie, Radical Socialist, who recently resigned as vice premier and justice minister. He is a former premier.

COMMUNISM IS APPRAISED

Bark In Western Europe Worse Than Bite, Survey Indicates

Paris, March 27 (AP)—A survey showed today that Moscow probably can count on unquestioning obedience from about 4,000,000 dyed-in-the-red Communists in the nineteen Marshall plan nations and areas of western Europe.

This appraisal indicated that present anti-West threats by the Communists are far out of proportion to their ability to back them up—that their bark is worse than their bite. Marshall plan countries have a total population of 285,185,000.

Still, in time of war the Communists, despite their numerical weakness, would be able to hamper Western armies and aid the Russians by blowing up bridges and power stations and carrying out similar acts of sabotage.

Chances Are They'd Be Jailed

But they probably would have little opportunity to carry out activities of that type. In the event of an East-West conflict, the chances are the governments of western Europe would outlaw the Communist party and jail Communists leaders in a hurry.

The survey of Communist strength was made by Associated Press correspondents. It was based on the Communists' own claims and on government estimates.

A differentation is made between the party's voting strength in elections and the number of Communists who could be expected blindly to follow orders from the Kremlin in peace and from an occupying Soviet army in time of war.

Voting Strength Only 6%

Even the Communists do not claim that the 15,387,323 votes the party received in the last significant elections held in the nineteen nations and areas represent their strength. Many Leftists and workers who are not members of the party string along at the ballot box with the Communists in the hope of swelling the size of their pay envelopes.

Even assuming that the voting strength was an index of the party's size, it still would mean that the Communists have the support of only six per cent of the people living in the Marshall-plan countries.

Thus, the survey suggests there may be more holler than fight in the recent threats of western European Communist leaders to thwart the North Atlantic treaty and to side with Russia in the event of war.

Hold Only 524 Of 5,189 Seats

The Communists virtually are powerless in western Europe's legislative halls, the survey showed. They may create rowdy disturbances and make fiery speeches from the floor, but the party holds only 524 of the 5,189 seats in the combined parliaments of the nineteen nations and regions.

The survey showed the Communists are strongest in Italy, France, and Germany.

In Italy, the Communists claim to have slightly more than 2,000,000 members. Militant strength of the party is represented mainly by the Communist partisans, estimated reliably to number 100,000 or more. The party polled 6,989,584 votes last year and has 141 of the 574 seats in the chamber of deputies and 75 of 334 seats in the senate.

800,000 French Communists

France's Communist party has 800,000 members, the Interior Ministry says. Probably 100,000 of these are diehards. In the 1946 election the party received 5,351,926 votes of a total of 19,216,375. It holds 182 of the 611 seats in the lower house of Parliament and 20 of 320 in the upper house.

ROME SENATE VOTES, 188-112, FOR TREATY

Move For Friendship Accord With Russia Turned Down

Rome, March 27 (AP)—The Italian Senate tonight gave the Government full parliamentary approval to join the North Atlantic defense alliance.

Ending 50 hours of stormy debate, the Senate voted 188 to 112 in favor of the treaty, which the Communists have fought tooth and nail.

The Senate also turned down by a vote of 176 to 105 a Leftist proposal to negotiate pacts of friendship and nonaggression with the Soviet Union and her satellites.

Sforza On Way To Washington

The Chamber of Deputies approved the treaty by a vote 342 to 170 on March 18.

Count Carlo Sforza, Foreign Minister, already is en route to Washington to sign the treaty. He left Paris by plane tonight for the United States. The signing ceremony has been scheduled for a week from tomorrow.

The North Atlantic treaty links the United States, Britain, Canada, France, Denmark, Norway, the Netherlands, Belgium, Luxembourg and Italy in a mutual help agreement in the event of aggression against any one of the signing nations. Iceland and Portugal also have been asked to join.

De Gasperi Points To Vetoes

Immediately after tonight's vote in the Senate, Carmine Mancinelli, Socialist senator demanded that the Government prove the peaceful purposes of the Atlantic treaty and negotiate treaties of friendship with Russia and the "popular democracies."

Premier Alcide de Gasperi replied that he would consider such pacts only after Russia permitted Italy's entry into the United Nations. Russian vetoes thus far have blocked Italian membership.

Umberto Terracini, Communist senator, defending the proposal for treaties with Soviet-bloc states, said rejection by the Senate would mean, in effect, that "it does not want any friendly relations with Russia."

The Senate in voting down the proposal, 176 to 105, showed 35 more votes than the necessary majority of 141.

Mindszenty Imprisonment

Vatican Radio Says U. S. Seeks Data on Conditions in Jail

VATICAN CITY, March 27 (AP).—The American State Department is "interested in learning the circumstances under which Josef Cardinal Mindszenty is being held in prison," the Vatican radio said today.

"This interest," the broadcast added, "is due to reports that the Cardinal is kept in complete isolation and is suffering extreme mental depression."

Cardinal Mindszenty is serving a life sentence imposed by a Hungarian peoples' court. Hungarian Communist authorities announced recently that the Cardinal is being detained in suitable living quarters and not in a jail cell.

Antwerp Dockers Strike In Protest

Antwerp, Belgium, March 27 (AP). Antwerp's Communists attempted today to start a 24-hour strike of dockworkers as a protest against the North Atlantic defense alliance.

At hiring time today only 21 dockworkers accepted work offered for 140. About 350, including many Communists, assembled around the hiring offices, watched by 200 policemen.

The Communists sang the "Internationale" and distributed leaflets calling for a demonstration against the treaty, of which Belgium is to be a signer.

Taking German Area Called Big Allied Mistake

Observers Say Decision Plays Into Reds' Hands, Fans Nationalist Fires

BERLIN, March 27 (AP).—The six-nation agreement to take fifty-two square miles from Germany in Western boundary changes was viewed today by many competent sources here as a major diplomatic blunder.

The informants said they felt a delicate situation was badly handled, particularly in the timing of yesterday's announcement.

The United States, Great Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxemburg agreed to the changes. The territory Germany will lose will go to the Netherlands, Belgium, Luxemburg, France and the Saar. [An autonomous government in the 738-square-mile Saar Basin was granted by France on Jan. 3, 1948, subject to French economic and financial legislation.]

Losses Are Enumerated

In return for minor technical gains which cannot decisively affect the economy of any of the countries receiving German territory, the Western powers, in the opinion of the sources here, have suffered the following losses:

1. They have undermined their own position in relation to that of the Russians. Previously the Western powers held that the seizure of a large area of Eastern Germany by Russia and Poland was illegal, since all border changes must await a peace treaty. Now they have done what they criticized Russia for doing in the East.

2. They have given German Communists a new propaganda weapon with which to attack the West. Communist newspapers in Berlin charged today that the Western border changes were "thievery" and "robbery."

3. The Western powers have fanned German nationalist fires at the very time every effort is being made to check such Nationalism in the European union.

Validity Not Questioned

The informants do not question the validity of the territorial claims of Germany's Western neighbors. But, they said, they believed the problem was handled in the worst possible manner.

If the changes had been made three or four years ago, there would have been little opposition. If they had come with a final German peace treaty, the Germans might have been in a better mood to accept them.

Coming at present, the changes will provide a talking point for every potential German Fuehrer to climb on the popular bandwagon of nationalism, the sources said.

The changes are certain to be a major political source of irritation from now until any peace treaty is signed. No German politician, no matter how sympathetic he is to the West, will dare say a word in their favor. The German political outburst yesterday against the West was the bitterest since the end of the war. Objections to the changes came from anti-Communists as well as Communists.

CZECHS WARY AS JEWS GO

Exodus To Israel Disquieting To Government And People

A. I. GOLDBERG

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 27 (AP)—Jews are streaming out of Czechoslovakia to Israel by the thousands.

Their going is disquieting to the Government and the Czech people but thus far no obstacles have been placed in the way of their leaving.

Jews of Hungary and Romania would go if they could. Hungary up to now has refused to issue visas for any sizable group to leave. Romania sharply restricted the number of Jewish emigrants and arrested Zionist representatives trying to arrange for more to go.

Big Question Marks To Czechs

By May 15, a date set by the Israeli Government to control its immigration, 20,000 Jews will have left this country since January 1. Their going contributes to the uneasiness of the Czechoslovak population, which finds it almost impossible to get visas to visit even near-by sister "people's democracies," let alone to emigrate to another country.

But the fact that shopkeepers, doctors, lawyers and dentists are leaving the country spells big question marks to the Czechs living in the neighborhoods from which they leave. Why, these Czechs ask, do so many want to leave this new republic?

The uneasiness was complicated recently when it was announced suddenly that May 15 was the deadline for groups to leave. This was an Israeli Government edict, made to guarantee transport arrangements for a known number, and to control their entry into Israel effectively.

Disquieting Rumor Spreads

But a rumor spread among Jewish and non-Jewish circles that it was a Czech Government order and that after May 15 Jews would be forced to remain here. Israel said Jews may apply after May 15 for travel to Palestine, but will not be guaranteed accommodation.

Four thousand Jews are ready to leave in April and another 4,000 in the two weeks before the deadline. Some will go by train to Constanta on the Black Sea and thence by ship; others will go to Italy to embark.

One emigrant, writing after reaching Palestine, said he went by way of Hungary and that Hungarian Jews shouted as the train passed:

"If we could, we would come with you, even if they allowed us to have only our nightshirts."

Hungary, Romania Watch Jews

In Hungary, the letter said, the train was sealed, and in Romania four policeman guarded each car to prevent jews from trying to sneak aboard. In spite of that 26 Hungarian Jews got aboard, only to be removed at the Romanian border.

In Prague, the huge Vinohraxy Synagogue is being turned into a sports hall, since there no longer are enough Jews to use it.

There have been some repressive actions. Late last week three Slovak Jewish officials of the American Joint Distribution Committee and another from the Jewish National Fund were released at Bratislava after having been imprisoned and questioned more than a month. Charges were not announced.

Pravda Gives Full Coverage To Conference In New York

Moscow, March 27 (AP)—The Soviet press continued today to give full coverage to what it calls the "world-peace movement."

Pravda and other papers carried full accounts of the opening of the Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace in New York. They reported at length the remarks of Dmitri Shostakovich, Russian composer, and mentioned the talk by Norman Cousins, editor of the Saturday Review of Literature, with the comment that the audience was dissatisfied.

[Cousins told the conference Friday night that the group supporting the meeting "owes its primary allegiance and duty not to America but to an outside government." He said "Americans want peace" but not "peace at any price."]

Pravda also reported the detention of three Canadians at the conference.

Other articles in today's papers noted that Winston Churchill's arrival in America met with protests and that a banquet given in his honor by Henry Luce, of Life magazine, was picketed by persons bearing anti-Atlantic-treaty signs.

As in previous days, Pravda and other papers were full of "peace" news. Red Star, the army paper, and Red Fleet, the navy organ, devoted considerable space to editorials on the "Peace Movement." Izvestia had one entitled "No One Can Silence the Voice of the People."

Greeks Report Killing 122 Mountain Rebels

Athens, March 27 (AP)—The Government said today army units in northwestern Greece killed 122 Communist guerrillas and captured 261 in an engagement which began last Tuesday and continued through Friday.

The action occurred in the area of Mount Tzoumerka. A general staff spokesman said the guerrilla force, estimated originally to number 1,500, has been engaged for nearly three weeks and is running short of food. The Government said twenty guerrillas were killed and 41 captured in fighting in other areas.

Shanghai Mayor's Towel Irks Yuan

Nanking, China, March 27 (AP)—China's chief investigating body demanded today that the Cabinet censure Mayor K. C. Wu of Shanghai for appearing at an inquiry with his head wrapped in a towel.

The complaint, by the Control Yuan, also asserted the roly-poly, energetic little mayor arrived at the hearing two hours late and took his seat without paying the slightest attention to the members.

No explanation was forthcoming as to why the mayor has his head wrapped. It could have been for a number of reasons.

The Princeton-educated mayor is usually preoccupied with economic crises and riotous demonstrations, in some of which he has been knocked down. He has often complained that his job involves more headaches than that of any other mayor in the world.

The Control Yuan at the time was investigating allegations that Wu failed to obtain official permission when he borrowed 50 million gold yuan (then about $20,000) on cotton cloth owned by the Manchurian Relief Association and used it to feed Mancurian refugees in Shanghai.

Members conceded the inquiry did not amount to much, but they were irate at the mayor's attitude. They demanded the Cabinet order him to "correct his haughty behavior."

The Cabinet has not yet heard the complaint.

Australia Bars Filipino Veteran Despite MacArthur's Intercession

FRANK WHITE

TOKYO, March 27—(AP) Australia insisted today on refusing entry to a Filipino war hero, despite General MacArthur's intercession. But it offered to pay his family's way to America instead.

The Filipino is Lorenzo Gamboa, a corporal in the U. S. Army, who served MacArthur throughout the war, and thereby gained American citizenship.

Last week the occupation commander came to Gamboa's aid in his effort to rejoin his Australian wife and two children in Melbourne.

The Australian government declined today to make an exception in its "White Australia" policy considering Gamboa an Asiatic regardless of his citizenship.

Alva C. Carpenter, chief legal officer for MacArthur, disclosed the decision. He conferred with the general this afternoon and indicated further moves would be made. Until he talks to Gamboa Monday, he could not say whether the Australian transportation offer would be acceptable.

(In Washington, officials said there was no bar to entry of a citizen's family into the U. S., and that it was government policy to offer all possible help to veterans in such cases).

Gamboa, who joined the U. S. Army two days before Pearl Harbor, was injured as an ammunition passer on Bataan. Sent to an Australian hospital in January, 1942, he met and married his Australian wife.

After serving throughout the war, he took his discharge in Australia in October, 1945, but was ordered out of the country nine months later because he was an Asiatic.

Gamboa reenlisted in the U. S. Army and since has served in the Tokyo headquarters motor shops.

Applying for reentry to Australia when his enlistment ends in June, he was turned down.

The unhappy corporal told an interviewer last Wednesday, "if General MacArthur only remembers the Filipino boy who cleaned his desk every morning in Port Moresby while the general took his exercises in a corner, maybe he can do something for me."

Gamboa did not dare approach MacArthur personally, but the general learned of his story and said he did indeed remember Gamboa.

"He is a very able and efficient soldier I would be glad to help in any circumstances," declared the general.

MacArthur assigned his legal officer to the case. Patrick Shaw, head of the Australian mission in Tokyo, without waiting for official inquiry, requested his government to reconsider.

Today the answer came back—negative, but with the modifying offer to send Mrs. Gamboa and the children to the United States at Australian government expense.

Four Feared Lost As U.S. Bomber Rams Fujiyama

Tokyo, Monday, March 28 (AP)—A United States Air Force B-26 light bomber with four men aboard crashed into Fujiyama, Japan's highest mountain, late yesterday. A helicopter sighted the wreckage today but saw no sign of survivors.

Major Harold Steward, of El Paso, Texas, public-information officer of the First Cavalry Division, reported the spotting of the wreckage by a helicopter from an air-sea rescue unit.

The helicopter pilot saw parts of the bomber "scattered all over the mountain," Steward said. Ground parties expected to reach the scene this afternoon.

Japan Told to Restore Patents

TOKYO, March 27 (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur told Japan today to restore the foreign patents that were seized during the war. Under terms of a directive received from the Far Eastern Commission in Washington, General MacArthur issued orders directing Japan to restore and revalidate about 5,000 patents owned by allied nationals and authorizing the Japanese Patent Office to accept applications from foreign nationals for patents filed here within twelve months before the outbreak of war.

Guerrilla War's Toll 100 A Day; No Peace In Sight For Indonesia

Batavia, Java, March 27 (AP)—No peace is in sight for weary Indonesia.

Guerrilla warfare has been taking an estimated 100 lives a day in Java and Sumatra since the Dutch started their "police action" last December.

The mounting, spreading violence has convinced most persons here an end to the fighting between the Dutch troops and irregulars of the Indonesian Republic cannot be expected before an overall settlement is reached. This is at least several months away.

Peace Efforts Start All Over

With new instructions from the United Nations, the American, Australian and Belgian members of the United Nations Commission for Indonesia have started all over the tedious task of trying to bring together the Dutch and the natives. The commission invited the disputants to meet with them Wednesday for first talks under United Nations auspices since formal negotiations broke down last summer.

The commission's efforts over eighteen months failed so completely that the situation is almost back where it was after the first Dutch military action in the Summer of 1947.

The second Dutch action of last December finally wiped out what was left of Republican territory in Java and cleared most of Sumatra. It did not muffle Republican nationalism. It did not push the Republicans from their positions as the most influential Indonesian politicians.

Jogjakarta As Stumbling Block

The impoverished central Java city of Jogjakarta looms as the first likely stumbling block to successful talks. The Dutch have stood firm against allowing President Soekarno, Premier Mohamed Hatta and others go back to their former capital.

Sources close to the Dutch regime have speculated in the last few days that the Dutch may backtrack in the course of talks with the United Nations Commission. Even so, restoring the Republicans would raise at once a whole new string of disputes.

It would be difficult to set boundaries, agree on security forces, arrange finance and provide food supplies, transportation and communication. Such details have fouled negotiations for three years.

It is doubtful whether the Republicans, with their comunications severed and forces scattered, could make any cease-fire order work at once.

Communists Making Headway

Reports from mid-Java indicate Leftist groups and Communists have made headway organizing the hinterland while the Dutch have had their hands full keeping uncertain holds on cities and roads connecting them.

The extreme Nationalists and Communists are said to have gathered under the banner of the Peoples party—Partai Murba, as the Indonesians say it. The party stands for an uncompromising stand against the Dutch.

The more moderate units of the Republican army managed last October to put down a Communist revolution led by Moscow-trained Musso. Soekarno's government then kept a check on Leftists. An estimated 20,000 were jailed, but the jail doors were opened when the Dutch slashed through the republic in December. Political prisoners scattered to rural areas to bolster resistance.

The veteran Communist Tan Malakka is reported directing the unruly back country movement. This is going to be hard for anyone to control.

Plantations Harassed

Nearly every one of the 116 tea and rubber estates in west Java in the Soekaboemi and Tijiandjur regions have been under some form of attack in the last three months, it is reported reliably.

Many planters there admitted a further increase in the hit-and-run attacks would compel a complete shutdown of plantations. Wives and children have been sent to towns already.

Everything moves slowly in the Indies, it is said. It is doubtful that new political maneuvers will prove an exception. Dutch army officers in the field predicted after they took Jogjakarta it would take six months to mop up "extreme elements." That timetable probably will have to be extended.

India And U.S.S.R. Reach 2 Barter Deals

New Delhi, March 24 (AP) — Informal talks for a regular trade agreement with Russia have resulted so far only in two barter agreements.

Commerce Minister K. C. Neogy told the Legislative Assembly the first agreement resulted in the exchange of 5,000 metric tons of India tea for 50,000 tons of Russian wheat.

The second, which would be in operation this month, related to the supply by India of 5,000 tons of raw jute, 5,000 tons of tea and 1,000 tons of castor oil in exchange for 81,000 tons of Russian wheat.

FOREIGN LEADERS EN ROUTE TO U. S. FOR PACT SIGNING

Other International Issues to Be Discussed During Capital Visit

ARMS TOP PROBLEM

Italy's Colonies, West Germany Other Major Topics on Agenda

WASHINGTON, March 27—(AP) Foreign ministers of 10—perhaps 12—western nations will gather in Washington this week to sign the Atlantic security pact and open a new era of western unity in the bitter power struggle with Russia.

And attempts are expected to be made to advance toward agreement on four or more major international subjects. These involve: (1) Italian colonies, (2) western Germany, (3) other regional alliances, and (4) Atlantic defense machinery.

Most of the European foreign policy leaders, among them Britain's Ernest Bevin and Robert Schuman of France, are due here about Thursday. But some are coming earlier and indications were that Foreign Minister Carlos Sforza of Italy might arrive tomorrow.

These men and others, such as Premier-Foreign Minister Spaak of Belgium, are coming not only to sign the treaty but also to iron out among themselves and with Secretary of State Acheson issues requiring action of the western powers on other fronts of the cold war.

These issues include:

1. The Italian colony problem in the United Nations. The major question is the kind of control for the colonies stripped from Italy as a result of the war. The issue is whether Altaly should exercise a United Nations trusteeship over them or whether some other kind of administration should be provided.

2. Unification and development of western Germany. This is a topic of primary concern for Acheson, Bevin and Schuman. They are expected to take it up in a special but informal conference.

3. What to do about regional alliances in other parts of the world outside the Atlantic area, particularly the Near East and Mediterranean area. Bevin has already discussed this problem with the foreign ministers of Greece and Turkey. He is known also to be interested in setting up some kind of machinery for southeast Asia to hold communism in check there.

Differ on Defense Machinery

4. Creation of Atlantic alliance defense machinery under the pact. If this topic comes up in the meetings here, it is expected to be discussed only in a general way. Details will be left until after the treaty becomes effective. Some sharp differences of opinion are beginning to emerge.

In this connection, it is understood here that many western Europeans believe that the Atlan- should set up some kind military staff to evolve int strategy. The French sibly the British as well, ke to see a high-ranking officer with a big name like Gen. Dwight D. Eisen- Gen. George C. Marshall l of this staff.

SYNTHETIC OIL HELD VITAL TO U.S. BY KRUG

Interior Chief Sees Transportation Collapse If Foe Cuts Foreign Supply

Washington, March 27 (AP)—J. A. Krug, Secretary of the Interior, said today national safety requires a quick start on a synthetic fuel industry. He declared we would be up against a "transportation collapse" if a foe cut off our outside oil.

In his annual report to President Truman, Krug called for:

1. A vast expansion of the country's water-power resources through a 20-year development program costing up to $15,000,000,000, including the St. Lawrence power and seaway project.

2. A stepped-up drive to uncover new mineral reserves, along with restrictions on the use of scarce basic minerals such as copper, lead and zinc.

Must Stop Wasting Materials

"Unless future generations are to face a declining standard of living," Krug said, "we must rely more heavily on our inexhaustible supplies, stop the waste of irreplacable materials and find and develop additional resources as fast as possible."

He singled out the St. Lawrence project as a needed step toward increasing the country's electric-energy production and providing access for iron-ore shipments to America's steel mills.

Synthetic Liquid Fuels Needed

His report laid special emphasis on petroleum. He said it is the most critical energy-source problem because "it powers the nation's transport system and is the key to national defense to a far greater extent than in any other nation."

He urged rapid development of synthetic liquid fuels from shale and coal by private industry with "Government encouragement."

Krug said America cannot count on development of atomic or solar energy in the foreseeable future to provide motive power for transport. He added that "reliance on foreign sources of oil—particularly halfway around the world—is dangerous."

"If our foreign supply of oil should be shut off by submarine warfare or enemy control of our foreign oil resources, we would face a transportation collapse," Krug said.

He reported the nation has an estimated 21,000,000,000 barrels of "proved" crude oil reserves. He said unproven reserves may be four times as great.

Must Move With Speed

"Even if this were true, we have only about two generations of domestic crude oil supply left," he continued. "It is time for us to move with the greatest possible speed to develop alternate supplies.

"It may take us fully ten years to develop them sufficiently to keep our automobiles, airplanes and trains moving in a future continuing emergency, not to mention keeping many factories running.

"In time of war," he said, "our demands for oil to power our ships and planes would multiply. Yet we would have great difficulty curtailing the use of oil in our domestic economy. Any wholesale conversion of industrial and domestic users from oil back to coal would be impractical in an emergency."

"Our only safe course," Krug said, "is to begin at once the building of a synthetic fuel industry."

He also recommended:

1. Conservation practices in oil-producing states.

2. Exploration of oil reserves in submerged lands on the continental shelf and in the sedimentary basin of Arctic Alaska.

U.N. Action Favoring Spaniards Predicted

Washington, March 27 (AP)—A Catholic author and educator predicted today the United Nations General Assembly will give a "decisive majority vote" in New York next month "in favor of fair treatment for the 28,000,000 people of Spain."

The speaker, Dr. Joseph F. Thorning, said he expected the United Nations to "rescind the obsolete, discriminatory 1946 resolution, which recommended the withdrawal of chiefs of diplomatic missions from Madrid."

He said he expects the "other American republics" to take the lead in bringing the Spanish question before the Assembly.

Dr. Thorning is associate editor of The Americas and World Affairs.

The Americas is a quarterly review of inter-American cultural history.

He spoke at Spanish Embassy ceremonies honoring the Very Reverend F. X. Talbot, S.J., designated by Spain to receive its decoration known as the Order of Isabella the Catholic.

Director Of Marketing Named For World Bank

Washington, March 27 (AP)—Appointment of Norman M. Tucker as director of marketing for the forty-seven-nation World Bank was announced today.

He will take over duties of the bank's New York office April 1.

John J. McCloy, president of the bank, said Tucker will "have charge of the development of future borrowing and (securities) marketing operations both in the United States and abroad."

Tucker, who has been West Coast representative for the Chase National Bank of New York since 1938, will succeed E. Fleetwood Dunstan, resigned, in the World Bank post.

CONNALLY SEEKS QUICK ERP VOTE

Marshall Plan Measure, However, Faces Barrage of Amendments

WASHINGTON, March 27—(AP) Senator Connally (D-Tex) today coldly surveyed a variety of schemes to whittle the $5,580,000,000 Marshall Plan bill and flatly rejected them all. The foreign relations chairman called for senate passage Tuesday.

There were strong indications that some opposition to the top figure may be withheld. It will show up when time comes to vote the money several weeks hence. The present legislation is an authorization—a ceiling—for funds to carry the European recovery program to July 1, 1950.

Ahead of a final senate vote lay a formidable barrage of amendments and speeches. Republican leader Wherry of Nebraska said action may not come until Wednesday or later.

Connally Fights Cuts

Connally, whose Foreign Relations Committee approved the bill, rejected a suggestion of Senator Taft (R-Ohio) to cut $1,300,000,000 off the bill and permit President Truman to use the recovery funds in 12 months instead of 15 if he finds it necessary.

Senators also were discussing a flat 10 per cent cut—an idea advanced among Republicans for all appropriation bills. Senator Capehart (R-Ind) is plugging for a $2,580,000,000 slash.

Connally, who has been joined by Senator Vandenberg of Michigan, Republican foreign policy spokesman, in championing the full authorization, gave this view:

"I think the Senate is reconciled to carrying out this program. I don't like to give money away, either, but I think the second year of European recovery operations is going to be the most important. If it goes well then, we may be able to make substantial cuts the following year."

Connally said he sees nothing to gain in cutting the fund and making it available for 12 months. It would require congressional action on the matter again before April 1 of next year, he predicted.

Both Senate and House critics say the real battle will come next May or June. Then the appropriations committees which control the treasury purse strings decide on actual amounts to finance the recovery agency, the Economic Cooperation Administration.

Congress Faces Busy Week

Both Senate and House faced a busy week.

Before major decisions are reached on ECA, Congress is expected to stamp approval upon a compromise extension of federal rent controls. A joint conference committee worked during the weekend to compromise differences between Senate and House bills. Leaders expressed hope the committee would rach agreement early Monday. The present rent control law expires at midnight Thursday.

The House was to act on minor bills Monday while its rules committee considers schedules for floor action on the ECA bill, the administration labor bill, and one to repeal federal taxes on oleomargarine.

Rep. Rankin (D-Miss) called a session of the House Veterans Committee for Tuesday to map speedy action for a revised pension bill limited to World War I veterans of low income.

The House Ways and Means Committee will continue hearings during the week on plans for expanding social security coverage. The House Agriculture Committee studies marketing controls for corn and other crops.

The Senate Agriculture Committee scheduled a closed-door session Monday with Mexican officials on problems of stamping out the dread hoof-and-mouth disease among livestock of both nations.

Proposed increases in postal rates are being examined by both Senate and House Post Office Committees at hearings this week.

KRUG REPORTS LEFTIST CHECK

Says Communism Has 'Fallen Flat' In U.S. Colonies

Washington, March 27 (AP)—Communism "has fallen completely flat" in American overseas possessions, J. A. Krug, Secretary of the Interior, said today.

"Even in Puerto Rico, with its very low income standard and widespread poverty, this is the case," he said.

Krug appeared on a round-table broadcast with Joseph C. Satterthwaite, director of the State Department's Office of Near Eastern and African Affairs, and Francis B. Sayre, American representative on the United Nations Trusteeship Council.

Krug said there was "no evidence" of an active Communist movement in Alaska or the Virgin Islands.

Some Communist Talk In Hawaii

"There has been a little talk of a Communist group in Hawaii," he added, "but no indication whatever of dangerous infiltration, or any dent on the loyalty and stability of the people."

Sayre said that in contrast to this situation in American possessions, the Communists are sparing no effort to wreck the constituted authority in Indonesia, Burma and Indo-China.

Answering questions by Richard Harkness, program moderator, Krug said that "of course" the United States would grant full independence to Puerto Rico if Puerto Ricans decide they want it.

Would Give Italy Somaliland

"The policy of our Government is to let the people themselves eventually decide the question," Krug explained.

Satterthwaite said the United States believes Italy should be allowed to help administer one of her former African colonies under a United Nations trusteeship.

He said the American Government now favors returning Somaliland to Italian rule but thinks Britain should get trusteeship control over Cyrenaica, the strategic part of the former Italian colony of Libya. Ethiopia should be allowed to annex part of Eritrea to get an outlet to the sea, he said.

Satterthwaite said the State Department had not yet made up its mind what should be done about the rest of Eritrea, and the Tripolitania and Fezzan section of Libya.

EDUCATOR SETS 6 PEACE WAYS

Teachers' College Head Also Lists School Danger Signs

Philadelphia, March 27 (AP)—The president of Columbia University's Teachers College tonight outlined six ways in which education can work for peace.

Dr. William F. Russell told the second general session of the American Association of School Administrators of the National Education Association:

"According to our analysis what has to be done (to make education work for peace) is:

1. "Develop local control initiative and sense of responsibility."

2. "Break up the academic lockstep and substitute free and modern teaching."

3. "Stifle all tendencies toward synthetic religious attitudes about living leaders."

4. "Establish co-operation between home and school."

5. "Develop freedom of teaching and the free teacher, willing and able to accept his responsibilities."

6. "Establish a single-track system of education with differentiation of education opportunity according to ability and zeal, not according to social status, wealth or political ideas."

UNESCO Program Compared

Dr. Russell said the United Nations Economic, Social and Cultural Organization is unable to handle the problem as well as his plan.

"The purpose of this office (the UNESCO) is to assist in textbook reorganization, interchange of persons, free flow of information and other activities supposedly basic to education for peace. . . .

"But it seems to me that, worthy as these objectives are, they are not basic . . . to peace."

He urged the UNESCO and other world organizations devoted to peace through education to consider the feasibility of his plan.

There is need, Dr. Russell said, for understanding of the true relation of education to war and peace.

"Danger" Signs In Education

He told the AASA's 5,000 school superintendents, college presidents, professors and other administrators gathered in Convention Hall to "beware" when they see a society in which:

1. "Control of what is taught, how it is taught, and who does the teaching, is centralized in one spot."

2. "The great mass of the people learn invariably to obey."

3. "There is a state religion with a living god."

4. "Children are removed from their parents and teachers have no say in the education of their children."

5. "Teachers are government functionaries."

6. "A small part of the population is given special opportunities and grow up apart from and out of sympathy with the mass of the people."

He called such a society "a danger to the peace of the world."

"These are the ways," said Dr. Russell, "in which education was used in Germany and Japan to force the world to war in 1914 and again in 1939."

Chief Atom Spies Slipped From U.S., Ex-FBI Man Says

Chicago, March 27 (AP)—Representative Velde (R., Ill.), a former FBI agent, said tonight he understands that "several of the most dangerous members of a Communist atomic spy ring have escaped from the country."

He said he is urging the House Un-American Activities Committee reopen its investigation of the atomic-spy and the "Scientist X" cases.

In a radio interview, the freshman Representative from Pekin, Ill., said the Justice Department should have arrested members of the spy ring long ago. "But I am satisfied there are still enough left in this country to warrant this investigation and what I hope will be their consequent arrest and prosecution."

He said he knows some Russian espionage agents personally.

PEACE RALLY ENDS; RED POLICY LAUDED

Names of Opponents of N.Y. Session Booed, Hissed by Delegates

NEW YORK, March 27—(AP) A huge, noisy Madison Square Garden rally tonight ended the Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace—with virtually all speakers calling for world cooperation and friendship to Russia.

Police estimated that 18,700 persons were seated or standing in the huge hall for a "unite for world peace" demonstrations.

Soviet Policy Praised

They heard a succession of speeches generally praising Soviet policy, and watched a fund-raising drive designed to aid sponsors of the meeting.

Outside, some 2,000 pickets milled and shouted in the streets as the rally opened. The pickets carried placards and chanted verses denouncing the conference.

The conference had been described by the U. S. State Department as a sounding board for communist propaganda. Sponsors of the meeting, the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions, denied the charge.

Three newsreel cameramen were involved in scuffles tonight ag they tried to take pictures of the crowd in the Garden.

Later the police said three persons were being held in connection with the scuffles and with picketing outside the Garden. They did not identify the three.

W. E. B. DuBois, American Negro educator, opened the rally's speaking program by declaring the United States "is built on the slavery, toil and degradation of Africans."

He said "the Soviet Union alone of all modern nations had prohibition of race and color discrimination written into its fundamental law and, unlike similar words in our constitution, their law is enforced."

Dr. R. E. G. Armattoe, a scientist from North Ireland, expressed faith in the American people, and added that once an issue is made clear, they will see that "justice will be done."

A Cuban scholar, Domingo Villamil, who described himself as a Roman Catholic communist, denounced persons who he said "are encircling the Soviet Union and hatching a third world war.

Names of Opponents Hissed

As the rally progressed, names of opponents of the rally were booed and hissed repeatedly, as was the name of Cardinal Josef Mindszenty, primate of Hungary who was convicted of treason and other charges by the communist-dominated Hungarian government.

The crowd also booed references to the U. S. State department's refusal to grant visas to a number of delegates to the meeting.

The rally brought to a close the conference's three-day meeting, which has centered around the Waldorf-Astoria hotel.

Meanwhile, the League for Free Russia, an opposition group, held a rival mass-meeting today and adopted a resolution condemning the peace conference.

Shortly after the Madison Square Garden rally started, the pickets outside disbanded their lines, and a spokesman for the Catholic War Veterans issued the following statement:

"We feel now the purpose of our picketing has been accomplished and the people attending the conference and those conducting it are convinced of the thinking of the American people."

Earlier the conference adopted a resolution for peace that called for strengthening of the United Nations.

Shostakovich Speaks

Dmitri Shostakovich, Russian composer, earlier told the conference that "new aspirants to world domination" were feverishly arming themselves for mass destruction of people.

"With special ardor they are perfecting new kinds of weapons," he told a fine arts panel meeting.

"They build military bases thousands of miles from their frontiers. They trample upon international obligations and treaties designed to bring peace.

"They reject proposals for concluding pacts of peace and they systematically and with premeditation wage campaigns of lies and slander in order to prepare public opinion for the transition from the so-called cold war to outright aggression."

Shostakovich, a diminutive man with a high pitched voice, did not identify the "new aspirants to world domination."

WALLACE PUTS PACT COST HIGH

Would Take Up To 30 Billions In Arming Europe, He Says

New York, March 27 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace, attacking the North Atlantic pact, said today it would cost the United States "up to 30 billions of dollars" to rearm western Europe.

In a broadcast over the Columbia Broadcasting System's network, Wallace charged the State Department and the Army would try "to conceal this fantastic cost from the American people."

He urged that the money be used, instead, to build low-cost homes, to insure every person against unemployment, illness and old age, to raise minimum wages and to provide schools and hospitals for all.

As Reply To Acheson

The broadcast time was given Wallace at his request to reply to the March 18 speech of Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, announcing the pact's contents.

(Acheson said the pact was "to strengthen the United Nations and insure international peace and security." He denounced "allegations that this treaty conceals aggressive designs."

(Acheson gave no estimate of its cost, but said, "we will carefully balance the military assistance with the capacity and requirements of the total economy, both at home and abroad.")

Wallace, the Progressive party's presidential candidate in last fall's election, said the "clear intention" of the pact is to take the place of the United Nations.

"Hypocrisy And Nothing Else"

Declaring that the treaty, "stripped of legal verbiage," would set up United States army bases near the borders of the Soviet Union, he said "we cannot afford to forget Russian history."

"In the last 25 years," he said, "they have been attacked by foreign armies five separate times. Does anyone imagine that, as they stare across their borders at our jet bombers and cannon, calm visions of peace will be born in their minds?

"To call the Atlantic Pact a peaceful thing," Wallace said, "is hypocrisy and nothing else."

Will "Put Us On War Footing"

Asserting that the pact will force all Europe to rearm and that this will impoverish Europe, Wallace said it will "put us on a war footing."

He urged that the leaders of both Russia and the United States make known their terms for peace and negotiate these terms, and added: "Peace will require compromises on both sides."

"The first victim of the pact," he said, "is the United Nations—the one hope for peace."

LONDON, MARCH 27-(AP)-FOUR WESTERN LABOR LEADERS CHARGED TODAY THAT THE WORLD FEDERATION OF TRADE UNIONS (WFTU) IS, IN THE FINAL ANALYSIS, CONTROLLED BY THE KREMLIN.

THEY WERE JAMES CAREY, SECRETARY-TREASURER OF THE CIO; VINCENT TEWSON, GENERAL SECRETARY OF THE BRITISH TRADES UNION CONGRESS; ARTHUR DEAKIN OF THE BRITISH TUC AND FORMER PRESIDENT OF THE WFTU AND EVERT KUPERS OF THE DUTCH TRADES UNION CONGRESS.

THEY MADE THE ACCUSATION IN A 7,000 WORD REPORT ISSUED BY THE BRITISH TUC TO EXPLAIN WHY CAREY, DEAKIN AND KUPERS WALKED OUT OF THE MEETING OF THE WFTU EXECUTIVE BOARD IN PARIS LAST JAN. 19.

THE LABOR MOVEMENTS OF AUSTRALIA AND LATIN AMERICA STAYED IN THE WFTU ALONG WITH COMMUNIST-LED UNION GROUPS IN FRANCE, ITALY AND THOSE OF EASTERN EUROPE.

THE FOUR MEN SAID IN THE REPORT THE WFTU "IS NOW COMPLETELY DOMINATED BY COMMUNIST ORGANIZATIONS WHICH ARE THEMSELVES CONTROLLED BY THE KREMLIN AND THE COMINFORM."

THEY URGED "FREE TRADE UNION CENTERS," IN THE LIGHT OF THIS CHARGE, TO RECONSIDER FURTHER AFFILIATION WITH THE WFTU.

THE FOUR, LEADERS IN THE FORMATION OF THE WFTU IN 1945, SAID THAT FROM THE OUTSET THE SOVIET UNIONS WERE NOT SO MUCH CONCERNED WITH A "TRADE UNION INTERNATIONAL AS THEY WERE WITH ITS POLITICAL POTENTIALITIES."

THEY SAID THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED TRADE UNIONS SOUGHT TO MAKE THE WFTU A PROPAGANDA INSTRUMENT.

"SOME PEOPLE IMAGINE THE GREAT AMERICAN NATION CONSISTS ENTIRELY OF HARD-HEADED BUSINESS MEN WHOSE ONLY THOUGHT IN LIFE IS THE WORSHIP OF THE ALMIGHTY DOLLAR," SAID SIR HARTLEY.

PARIS, MARCH 27-(AP)-WESTERN EUROPE HAS ASKED THE UNITED STATES FOR $100,000,000 (M) TO MODERNIZE ITS STEEL INDUSTRY.

THE FUNDS, ASKED FROM THE ECONOMIC COOPERATIVE ADMINISTRATION (ECA), WOULD BE USED TO BUY MODERN ORE-MINING AND ROLLING MILL EQUIPMENT.

GEORGE W.PERKINS, HEAD OF ECA'S INDUSTRY DIVISION, SAID THE PROGRAM COVERS AUSTRIA, ITALY, UNITED KINGDOM, FRANCE, BELGIUM, LUXEMBOURG, TURKEY AND NORWAY.

THE PROGRAM WAS WRITTEN, PERKINS SAID, BY THE COUNTRIES OF THE ORGANIZATION FOR EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COOPERATION (OEEC).

KENNETH E.BROWN, HEAD OF ECA'S IRON AND STEEL SECTION SAID THE MONEY WOULD BE SPENT ALONG TWO LINES:

"TO BUY ORE-MINING EQUIPMENT THAT WILL ALLOW EUROPEAN PRODUCERS OF MINERALS TO MEET THE DEMANDS THEY ARE FACING.

"TO BUY ROLLING-MILL EQUIPMENT TO AID IN THE PRODUCTION OF SHEETS, PLATES, TIN PLATES, BARS, WIRE RODS, WIRE, LIGHT STRUCTURAL STEEL, PIPES AND TUBES".

ACCORDING TO PLAN, THE PARTY'S FOLLOWERS WILL REFLECT THESE DEALS WITH THEIR SUPPORT FOR THE FAVORED COALITION CANDIDATE. FRENCH POLITICIANS WATCHED THE VOTE WITH KEEN INTEREST TO SEE WHETHER THE RANK AND FILE IN EACH PARTY FOLLOWED THROUGH TO PRESERVE THE GOVERNMENT'S COHESION.

DE GAULLE MADE NO DEALS OF THIS SORT EXCEPT PERHAPS IN AN INDIRECT AND TACIT MANNER. INSTEAD, HE INSTRUCTED HIS RPF FAITHFUL TO WITHDRAW IN CASES WHERE THEIR CANDIDACY HAS NO CHANCE AND "MAKES THE ELECTION OF A COMMUNIST POSSIBLE" BY SPLITTING THE ANTI-COMMUNIST VOTE. THE COALITION ISSUED NO RECIPROCAL INSTRUCTIONS.

NO ONE MADE ANY DEALS WITH THE COMMUNISTS. PARTY LEADERS ORDERED MEMBERS NOT TO VOTE FOR ANYONE WHO FAVORS THE NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE. THIS RESTRICTS THE REDS TO THE PARTY AND A FEW FELLOW TRAVELLERS.

GOVERNMENT COALITION CANDIDATES THUS HAVE NOT ONLY THE BACKING OF THE CENTER PARTIES BUT, IN SOME DISTRICTS, SUPPORT OF THE DEGAULLISTS.

BECAUSE OF THE VOTE SETUP, THE PARTIES BEHIND PREMIER HENRI QUEUILLE ARE EXPECTED TO LAND THE MAJOR PORTION OF THE 785 SEATS AT STAKE TODAY. THE DEGAULLISTS MAY WIN SOME MORE, BUT THE COMMUNISTS ARE NOT EXPECTED TO COMMAND A LEAD AGAINST THE COMBINED ANTI-COMMUNIST VOTE IN VERY MANY DISTRICTS. SOME POLITICIANS SAID THEY WOULD FAIL IN ALL OF THEM.

THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR GAVE THIS AS THE TOTAL RESULT OF THE VOTING YESTERDAY AND THE PRECEDING SUNDAY:

GOVERNMENT BLOC 1,181; DE GAULLISTS 389; COMMUNISTS 37.

(THE BALLOTING WAS IN CANTONAL (COUNTY) RUNOFF ELECTIONS FOR 785 PLACES ON DEPARTMENTAL COUNCILS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY. LAST SUNDAY, 723 SUCH POSTS WERE WON BY CANDIDATES WITH OUTRIGHT MAJORITIES. A PLURALITY IS ENOUGH TO WIN TODAY.

THE STAY-AT-HOME VOTERS OF LAST SUNDAY TURNED OUT IN LARGE NUMBERS. EARLY REPORTS FROM THE LARGEST PROVINCIAL CENTERS SHOWED HEAVIER VOTING THEN LAST WEEK WHEN ROUGHLY A THIRD OF THE REGISTERED VOTERS DID NOT BALLOT. THERE WAS NO VOTING IN PARIS AND THE ELECTION WILL HAVE NO DIRECT EFFECT ON THE ORGANIZATION OF THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT.

NEUTRAL OBSERVERS AGREED THAT THE INCREASED TURNOUT MEANT A LARGER VOTE FOR COALITION NOMINEES. THE COMMUNISTS AND GEN. CHARLES DE GAULLE'S FRENCH PEOPLE'S RALLY (RPF), WHICH OPPOSE THE GOVERNMENT AND EACH OTHER, BROUGHT OUT NEARLY THEIR FULL STRENGTH LAST WEEK. THEY USED WELL ORGANIZED PARTY MACHINES.

LYON, THIRD LARGEST FRENCH CITY, HAD 3,000 MORE VOTES CAST AT NOON THAN AT THE SAME TIME LAST WEEK. MARSEILLE AND BORDEAUX REPORTED SIMILAR INCREASES.

THE GOVERNMENT COALITION PARTIES WON A SLIGHT EDGE IN LAST SUNDAY'S ELECTION. OFFICIAL INTERIOR MINISTRY FIGURES GAVE THEM 51.12 PER CENT OF THE TOTAL VOTE AND 536 SEATS. DE GAULLE'S RPF EMERGED AS THE STRONGEST SINGLE PARTY WITH 25.34 PER CENT BUT ONLY 170 PLACES. THE COMMUNISTS GOT 23.54 PER CENT AND SECOND RANK AND A BARE 17 SEATS.

THE GOVERNMENT BLOC INCLUDES THE RADICAL SOCIALISTS, WHICH ARE MODERATELY RIGHT OF CENTER DESPITE THE NAME; THE SOMEWHAT LEFTIST AND CATHOLIC, POPULAR REPUBLICAN MOVEMENT (MRP); THE SOCIALISTS AND THE RIGHTIST REPUBLICAN LIBERTY PARTY.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION SUNDAY WAS WEIGHTED IN FAVOR OF THE COALITION AND APPEARED SLANTED STRONGLY AGAINST THE COMMUNISTS. THE FOUR MORE OR LESS CENTER PARTIES IN THE COALITION WERE CONCENTRATING IN THE RUNOFFS BEHIND THE COALITION CANDIDATE WHO WAS HIGHEST AT THE POLLS LAST WEEK.

THUS IN MANY DISTRICTS, THE RADICAL SOCIALIST AND MRP NOMINEES HAVE WITHDRAWN IN FAVOR OF A SOCIALIST. IN OTHER DISTRICTS, THE SOCIALIST AND MRP CANDIDATES HAVE WITHDRAWN FOR A RADICAL SOCIALISTS, AND SO ON.

COMMUNISTS IN THE THREE WESTERN ZONES OF GERMANY HAVE POLLED 1,304,941 VOTES RECENTLY. THEY HAVE TWO OF THE 65 SEATS IN THE PARLIAMENTARY COUNCIL AT BONN. MILITARY GOVERNMENT OBSERVERS DOUBT THE MILITANT COMMUNIST STRENGTH WILL REACH 1,000,000. MANY VOTES POLLED BY THE COMMUNISTS ARE REGARDED MERELY AS PROTESTS AGAINST THE OCCUPATION.

IN BRITAIN THE COMMUNISTS ARE A FEEBLE MINORITY. THEY GOT 102,780 VOTES IN 1945 AND CLAIM TO HAVE 43,000 MEMBERS. THEY HAVE TWO OF THE 640 SEATS IN PARLIAMENT. CMMUNISTS ARE PRACTICALLY VOTES IN 1945 AND CLAIM TO HAVE 43,000 MEMBERS. THEY HAVE TWO OF THE 640 SEATS IN PARLIAMENT. COMMUNISTS ARE PRACTICALLY NON-EXISTENT IN EIRE.

ONLY IN GREECE ARE COMMUNISTS ENGAGED IN ACTUAL WARFARE AGAINST COMMUNIST GUERRILLAS AND 50,000 RED SYMPATHIZERS, VIRTUALLY ALL IN NORTHERN GREECE, IN CASE OF INTERNATIONAL WAR. THE GREEK GOVERNMENT'S RECEENT MILITARY OPERATIONS HAVE SUBSTANTIALLY WEAKENED THE PARTY. THREE MONTHS AGO THERE WERE AN ESTIMATED 25,000 ARMED COMMUNISTS IN THE COUNTRY.

IN PORTUGAL AND TURKEY THERE IS NO LEGITIMATE, RECOGNIZED COMMUNIST PARTY. IN THE OTHER MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES THE COMMUNISTS HAVE THE STATUS OF A SMALL MINORITY.

BERLIN, MARCH 27-(AP)-TWO LEADERS OF EASTERN BERLIN'S POLICE FORCE DECLARED TODAY THE GERMAN POLICEMEN UNDER THEIR COMMAND WOULD FIGHT ON THE SIDE OF THE SOVIET UNION IN THE EVENT OF WAR BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE WESTERN POWERS.

THE PLEDGE WAS MADE BY POLICE CHIEF PAUL MARKGRAF AND ASSISTANT CHIEF HANS LEIMANN. COMMUNISTS CONTROL THE GERMAN POLICE IN THE RUSSIAN SECTOR OF THE CITY.

THAT POLICE ORGANIZATION CONSTITUTES THE BERLIN SECTION OF ARMED POLICE FORCES WHICH ARE REPORTED TO NUMBER ABOUT 200,000 IN SOVIET-OCCUPIED EASTERN GERMANY.

SPEAKING AT A MEETING OF POLICEMEN, LEIMANN SAID: "WE PLEDGE OURSELVES TO FIGHT WITH ALL OUR STRENGTH AT THE SIDE OF THE SOVIET UNION IF THE AMERICAN AND BRITISH MONOPOLY-CAPITALISTS ATTACK."

MARKGRAF SAID: "IN BERLIN THE FIGHT BETWEEN THE REACTIONARIES AND THE PROGRESSIVE FORCES COMES IN CLEAREST FOCUS. THE PEOPLE'S POLICE STAND FIRMLY ON THE SIDE OF THE PEOPLE AND THE SOVIET UNION."

MEANWHILE, THE RUSSIANS ANNOUNCED THAT THEY PLANNED TO SPEED UP THE REPATRIATION OF GERMAN PRISONERS OF WAR BY SENDING HOME ANOTHER 50,000 BY THE END OF APRIL. THE COMMUNIST PRESS CLAIMED THE RETURNING PRISONERS HAD BECOME CONVERTS TO THE COMMUNIST PROGRAM IN GERMANY.

MOSCOW FAILED TO KEEP ITS PROMISE TO RETURN ALL PRISONERS BY THE END OF 1948. THE WESTERN POWERS ESTIMATE THE RUSSIAN STILL HOLD AT LEAST 200,000 GERMANS.

DIVIDED GERMANY IS GOING TO OPERATE ON THE SAME TIME THIS SUMMER. THE RUSSIANS ANNOUNCED THAT THEY WOULD GO ALONG WITH THE WESTERN OCCUPYING POWERS AND PUT THEIR PORTION OF GERMANY ON SUMMER TIME APRIL 10. THEY EXPRESSED THE HOPE THE ADDED DAYLIGHT WOULD HELP ALLEVIATE THE ELECTRIC POWER SHORTAGE IN THEIR OCCUPATION ZONE, WHICH IS BEING PINCHED BY THE WESTERN POWERS' COUNTER-BLOCKADE.

THE BOUNDARY QUESTION IS CERTAIN TO HAVE AN ADVERSE EFFECT ON THE CREATION OF A WESTERN GERMAN STATE. HENCEFORTH, GERMAN POLITICAL LEADERS WILL FIND IT MORE AND MORE DIFFICULT TO COOPERATE WITH WESTERN AUTHORITIES, THE INFORMANTS PREDICTED.

ALL OF THE GERMAN POLITICAL LEADERS COOPERATING WITH THE WEST ARE EXTREMELY SENSITIVE TO THE COMMUNIT CHARGE THAT THEY ARE WESTERN POWER QUISLINGS. THIS HAS BEEN THE COMMUNIST THEME IN ATTACKING THE FORMATION OF A WESTERN GERMAN STATE.

ONE OF THE STRONGEST POINTS THE WESTERN ALLIES HAVE HAD IN GERMANY, AS FAR AS THE GERMAN PEOPLE ARE CONCERNED, HAS BEEN THEIR OPPOSITION TO THE ANNEXATION BY RUSSIA AND POLAND OF EASTERN GERMAN TERRITORY, INCLUDING THE SILESIAN INDUSTRIAL AREA.

THIS HAS COUNTED HEAVILY AGAINST THE RUSSIANS IN THEIR PROPAGANDA EFFORTS IN GERMANY. THE WESTERN POWERS HAVE UNDERMINED THEIR OWN OPPOSITION TO THE RUSSIAN-POLISH ACTION BY MAKING BORDER CHANGES IN THE WEST WITHOUT A PEACE TREATY, EVEN THOUGH THE REVISIONS ARE DESCRIBED AS PROVISIONAL.

ACCORDING TO THE WESTERN POWERS, THE SHIFTS ARE DESIGNED PRINCIPALLY TO SOLVE WATERWAY, HIGHWAY, RAIL AND CUSTOMS PROBLEMS. HOWEVER, SOME DIPLOMATS IN BERLIN FEEL THE WESTERN ALLIES PAID TOO BIG A PRICE FOR A FEW SCRAPS OF TERRITORY.

MOSCOW, MARCH 27-(AP)-THE ARMY NEWSPAPER RED STAR SAID TODAY FINNS HUNTING FOR WOLVES IN LAPLAND ACTUALLY WERE LOOKING FOR A SUITABLE PLACE FOR A MILITARY BASE CLOSE TO THE RUSSIAN NORTHLAND. THE UNITED STATES, NORWAY AND BRITAIN ALL WERE ACCUSED OF COMPLICITY.

"THE PARTICIPATION OF ANGLO-AMERICAN OBSERVERS IS UNDERSTANDABLE, AS IS THE ALARM OF HONEST PEOPLE IN FINLAND," THE SOMEWHAT SATIRICAL ACCOUNT SAID, "THE FAIRY STORIES OF FINNISH REACTIONARIES DECEIVED NO ONE."

THE RUSSIANS HAVE BEEN DRUMMING AWAY AT THE FINNISH GOVERNMENT OF PREMIER KARL A.FAGERHOLM, WHO HAD EXCLUDED COMMUNISTS. AND FOR THE PAST FOUR OR FIVE DAYS, MOSCOW NEWSPAPERS HAVE PRINTED DAILY DISPATCHES ON A RECENT WOLF HUNT IN FINNISH LAPLAND, WHICH ADJOINS THE RUSSIAN BORDER. MUCH WAS MADE OF FINNISH NEWSPAPER REPORTS THAT THE TOTAL BAG WAS FOUR WOLVES.

RED STAR SAID TWO FINNISH GENERALS WERE ON THE WOLF HUNT, AS WELL AS AN AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE OFFICER, POSING AS A PHOTOGRAPHER-REPORTER, AND AN ENGLISH INTELLIGENCE OFFICER, ALSO IN DISGUISE. THE NEWSPAPER SAID FINNISH AUTHORITIES HAD FULL KNOWLEDGE AND GAVE THEIR CONSENT.

"UNDER THE GUISE OF A WOLF HUNT, WITH THE ASSISTANCE OF RADIO AND PLANES, AIR PHOTOS ARE BEING PREPARED BY THE LARGE MILITARY EXPEDITION," RED STAR SAID.

MOSCOW, MARCH 27-(AP)-RED STAR, SOVIET ARMED FORCES PUBLICATION, SAID TODAY A RECENT WOLF HUNT IN FINNISH LAPLAND WAS IN REALITY A SEARCH FOR A MILITARY BASE.

RED STAR SAID "PARTICIPATION IN THE EXPEDITION OF ANGLO-AMERICAN OBSERVERS IS UNDERSTANDABLE, AS IS THE ALARM OF HONEST PEOPLE IN FINLAND. THE FAIRY TALES OF FINNISH REACTIONARIES HAVE DECEIVED NO ONE."

THE SOVIET PRESS, FOR THE LAST FOUR OR FIVE DAYS, HAS CARRIED DAILY STORIES ABOUT THE RECENT WOLF HUNT. LAPLAND ADJOINS THE RUSSIAN BORDER.

THE RUSSIAN STORIES HAVE LOOKED ON THE HUNT WITH SUSPICION, STATING THAT IT RESULTED IN A KILL OF ONLY FOUR WOLVES, ALTHOUGH IT WAS A HIGHLY-ORGANIZED AFFAIR. THE SOVIET PAPERS IMPLIED THAT MORE WENT ON THAN JUST A WOLF HUNT.

NANKING, MARCH 27-(AP)-TALKS SCHEDULED TO OPEN FRIDAY IN PEIPING WILL GIVE WARSICK CHINA ANOTHER CHANCE FOR PEACE--BUT ALMOST EVERYONE BELIEVES IT IS A SLIM ONE.

BOTH THE GOVERNMENT AND COMMUNISTS WOULD LIKE TO END THE LONG CIVIL WAR, BUT VERY PROBABLY NEITHER SIDE WILL AGREE TO THE OTHER'S MINIMUM TERMS.

THE REDS HAVE WON THE WAR MILITARILY, AND THEY KNOW IT. THEY EVIDENTLY INTEND TO CONTROL ALL CHINA--AND ALL THEIR EXPERIENCE AND IDEOLOGY TELL THEM NOT TO TRUST THE NATIONALISTS.

THE PRESENT RED TERMS CALL FOR VIRTUALLY UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER BY THE GOVERNMENT. IT IS POSSIBLE THAT SOME CONCESSIONS MAY BE MADE ON "PUNISHMENT" OF THE TOP GOVERNMENT LEADERS WHOM THE REDS HAVE CALLED "WAR CRIMINALS."

NO CONCESSIONS MAY BE EXPECTED, HOWEVER, THAT WILL LEAVE A STRONG NATIONALIST NUCLEUS FOR ANY FUTURE COMBACK OR THAT WILL INTERFERE WITH GRADUAL COMMUNIST ASSUMPTION OF CONTROL OF ALL CHINA.

THE BRUSQUE, ALMOST CONTEMPTUOUS COMMUNIST ANNOUNCEMENT THAT PEACE MEETINGS WOULD START APRIL 1 DEMONSTRATED THE RED ATTITUDE.

THE QUESTION ARISES, WHY ARE THEY WILLING TO TALK PEACE WITH THE GOVERNMENT AT ALL?

THE BEST ANSWERS AVAILABLE IN THIS GOVERNMENT CAPITAL ARE THAT THE REDS ALREADY ARE EXPERIENCING GROWING PAINS IN NORTH CHINA; THAT THEY WOULD RATHER NOT FIGHT IF THEY CAN OBTAIN THEIR OBJECTIVE POLITICALLY; AND THAT THE TREMENDOUS PUBLIC DESIRE FOR PEACE OBLIGES THEM AT LEAST TO GO THROUGH THE MOTIONS OF NEGOTIATIONS.

THE GOVERNMENT VIEW MAY BE GENERALLY DESCRIBED AS FOLLOWS (ALTHOUGH THIS DOES NOT HAVE THE SOLID BACKING OF ALL NATIONALIST LEADERS):

"THE COMMUNISTS RIGHT NOW HAVE US WHIPPED. LET US NEGOTIATE, AND IF NECESSARY MAKE CONCESSIONS, BUT ONLY TO HOLD OFF COMPLETE COMMUNIST DOMINATION."

THERE ARE NO ILLUSIONS IN THE GOVERNMENT CAMP ABOUT WHAT A "COALITION" WITH THE COMMUNISTS WOULD MEAN.

ONE INFLUENTIAL SECTION OF GOVERNMENT OPINION BELIEVES THAT IF THE COMMUNISTS CAN BE STALLED OFF FOR SIX MONTHS, THE NATIONALISTS MIGHT BE ABLE TO ORGANIZE EFFECTIVE RESISTANCE ALONG THE YANGTZE RIVER OR IN SOUTH CHINA.

EVEN IF THE NEGOTIATORS REACH SOME AGREEMENT, IT WILL NOT NECESSARILY PROVE BINDING ON ALL NATIONALIST CHINA. LEADERS OF PRACTICALLY AUTONOMOUS AREAS IN THE SOUTH AND WEST ARE NOT EXPECTED TO YIELD THEIR DOMAINS JUST BECAUSE NANKING TELLS THEM TO.

(IN THIS CONNECTION FORMER PREMIERS T. V. SOONG AND SUN FO CONFERRED PRIVATELY IN CANTON SUNDAY. IT WAS ANNOUNCED ONLY THAT THEY DISCUSSED "ADMINISTRATIVE ACTS WHILE THEY WERE PREMIERS," AND OTHER IMPORTANT MATTERS.

(CANTON IMMEDIATELY STEWED WITH SPECULATION THAT THEY MAY HAVE DEALT WITH THE POSSIBILITY OF A LAST-DITCH RESISTANCE IN THE SOUTH IF NANKING SHOULD CONCEDE TOO MUCH FOR A RED PEACE. SOONG WAS EXPECTED TO RETURN SHORTLY TO HIS HOME IN THE NEARBY BRITISH COLONY OF HONG KONG.

(OTHER CANTON DISPATCHES REPORTED SPREADING OF A REVOLT OF SEVERAL WEEKS' DURATION IN THE SOUTHWESTERN PROVINCE OF YUNNAN. THE REBELS ARE SAID TO INCLUDE SOME COMMUNIST ELEMENTS, BUT MAINLY ARE MERELY OPPOSED TO THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT.)

THE GOVERNMENT'S FIVE-MAN PEACE DELEGATION WAS REPORTED PLANNING TO GO TO PEIPING WEDNESDAY VIA CENTRAL AIR TRANSPORT. MEMBERS WERE CONFERRING ON PEACE STRATEGY THROUGHOUT THE DAY.

NEUTRAL ONLOOKERS BELIEVE THE PEIPING NEGOTIATIONS WILL BOG DOWN AS THEY DID IN 1946 DURING THE AMERICAN MEDIATION, WHEN THE COMMUNISTS WERE FAR LESS POWERFUL THAN AT PRESENT.

THEN, IT IS PREDICTED, THE REDS MAY CROSS THE YANGTZE--AS THEY ADMITTEDLY CAN DO AT ANY TIME--AND TAKE THE SHANGHAI AND NANKING AREAS.

CONSIDERING THE DIGESTIVE PROBLEMS THEY ARE HAVING IN NORTH CHINA AND MANCHURIA, HOWEVER, IT IS CONSIDERED LIKELY THAT IT MIGHT TAKE THEM A YEAR OR MORE BEFORE THEY COULD PRESS FARTHER SOUTH AND WEST TO COMPLETE THE CONQUEST OF ALL CHINA.

PEARL HARBOR, MARCH 27-(AP)-A U.S. NAVY CATALINA FLYING BOAT WITH 11 MEN ABOARD WAS FORCED DOWN IN THE PACIFIC OCEAN 605 MILES SOUTHWEST OF JOHNSTON ISLAND TODAY WITH ONE OF ITS TWO ENGINES DEAD.

ALMOST SIX HOURS AFTER THE PLANE LANDED, THE CREW RADIOED THAT WATER WAS LEAKING INTO THE RADIO ROOM AND THE CRAFT COULD STAY AFLOAT FOR POSSIBLY THREE MORE HOURS.

INDICATING THE STRICKEN FLYING BOAT HAD BEEN SIGHTED, A B-17 SEARCH PLANE LATER RADIOED TERSELY IT HAD DROPPED A RESCUE BOAT BUT SAID THE BOAT WAS DEMOLISHED WHEN IT HIT. THE B-17 GAVE NO DETAILS.

THE HAWAIIAN SEA FRONTIER SAID THE PLANE WENT DOWN AT 1:39 PP.M. (6:39 P.M. E.S.T.). A MESSAGE FROM THE PLANE AT 4:30 (9:30 E.S.T.) SAID "ALL HANDS OKAY."

AT 7:20 (12:20 A.M. E.S.T., MONDAY, MARCH 28) CAME THE MESSAGE THAT THE RADIO ROOM WAS FILLING.

PLANES AND SHIPS WERE ORDERED IMMEDIATELY INTO THE AREA WHERE THE STICKEN CRAFT WENT DOWN--ABOUT 1,300 MILES SOUTHWEST OF HONOLULU. JOHNSTON ISLAND, A TINY SPECK IN THE PACIFIC, IS MORE THAN 700 MILES SOUTHWEST OF HONOLULU.

FROM JOHNSTON ITSELF, A BIG B-17 SEARCH-RESCUE PLANE SPED TO THE DITCHED PLANE AND A MILITARY AIR TRANSPORT SERVICE (MATS) PLANE WAS ALSO DIVERTED TO THAT AREA.

TWO CATALINA FLYING BOATS WERE DISPATCHED FROM THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS AND ANOTHER OF THE SAME TYPE LEFT FROM MIDWAY ISLAND, ABOUT 900 MILES NORTHWEST OF JOHNSTON.

HAWAIIAN SEA FRONTIER HEADQUARTERS SAID AN LSM (LANDING SHIP MEDIUM) WAS ONLY 25 MILES FROM THE STRICKEN FLYING BOAT AND ANOTHER SHIP, THE AKA GRANGER, WAS 40 MILES AWAY. BOTH WERE DIVERTED TO THE LANDING AREA AT FULL SPEED.

THE NAVY SENT 11 OF ITS FOUR-ENGINED PRIVATEERS FROM THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS TO JOHNSTON JUST IN CASE EXTENDED SEARCH SHOULD BE REQUIRED. THESE BIG PLANES ARE CAPABLE OF LONG SUSTAINED FLIGHTS.

THREE SEARCH AND RESCUE CONTROLLERS AND 10 RADIOMEN WERE SENT FROM HAWAII TO JOHNSTON BY PLANE TO AID IN DIRECTING AND COORDINATING THE WIDESPREAD AIR-SEA RESCUE EFFORT.

THE DITCHED PLANE WAS ENROUTE FROM KWAJALEIN IN THE MARSHALL ISLANDS TO JOHNSTON, ABOUT 1,600 MILES NORTHWEST.

PACT-SENATE (430)

BY JACK BELL

WASHINGTON,MARCH 27-(AP)-THE POWERFUL SUPPORT OF SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH) MAY BE THROWN BEHIND THE DEMAND OF SENATORS DONNELL (R-MO) AND WATKINS (R-UTAH) FOR A CHANCE TO QUESTION WITNESSES WHEN THE NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY TREATY COMES BEFORE THE SENATE.

VANDENBERG IS REPORTED TO HAVE TOLD FRIENDS HE THINKS IT MIGHT BE WISE FOR SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON TO FACE DONNELL, WATKINS AND POSSIBLY OTHERS WHO ARE NOT COMMITTEE MEMBERS BEFORE THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE.

THIS PROCEDURE MIGHT BE PREFERABLE, VANDENBERG IS SAID TO HAVE SUGGESTED, TO PUTTING THE BURDEN ON MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE OF TRYING TO INTERPRET ACHESON'S AND THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S POSITION SECOND-HANDEDLY IN LATER SENATE DEBATE.

DONNELL AND WATKINS HAVE MADE IT PLAIN THEY THINK MOST OF THE MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE ARE READY TO GO ALONG WITH THE PRINCIPLE OF THE PACT AND THUS MIGHT NOT EXAMINE ACHESON AS CLOSELY ON SOME ISSUES AS THE CRITICS OF THE AGREEMENT WOULD LIKE.

DONNELL ALREADY HAS SAID THAT, AS OF TODAY, HE WOULDN'T VOTE TO RATIFY THE AGREEMENT.

CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OBVIOUSLY WOULD LIKE TO AVOID PROCEDURE THAT COULD PROLONG THE COMMITTEE'S HEARINGS ON THE PACT FOR WEEKS. DONNELL IS A DOGGED QUESTIONER WHO GOES AFTER EVERY POINT IN METICULOUS DETAIL.

IF THE PACT'S CRITICS WERE GIVEN FREE REIN, ACHESON MIGHT FIND HIMSELF SUBJECTED TO DAYS OF QUESTIONING ON EVERY POINT INVOLVED IN THE PROPOSED SECURITY ALLIANCE WITH WESTERN EUROPE.

THERE HAS BEEN SOME DISCUSSION AMONG COMMITTEE MEMBERS OF LIMITING THE NUMBER OF QUESTIONS, OR THE TIME CONSUMED, BY NON-MEMBERS INVITED TO SIT WITH THE GROUP.

BUT VANDENBERG IS SAID TO FEEL THAT THERE SHOULD BE NO HIDDEN CORNERS LEFT WHEN THE AGREEMENT FINALLY COMES BEFORE THE SENATE. HE TOLD DONNELL IN SENATE DEBATE LAST WEEK THAT EVERY QUESTION RAISED BY THE MISSOURIAN OUGHT TO BE ANSWERED FULLY.

DONNELL ALREADY HAS POSED SOME DIFFICULT QUESTIONS FOR SENATORS TO ANSWER. MOSTLY THEY INVOLVE POLICY WHICH PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND ACHESON, AND NOT THE SENATORS, HAVE THE PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITY FOR FORMING AND CARRYING OUT.

AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MISSOURIAN SAYS HE WANTS TO KNOW WHAT THE UNITED STATES WILL GET OUT OF THE PACT.

SENATOR LODGE (R-MASS) SAID THE ANSWER WAS: ALLIES.

A19WX

BUT, SAID DONNELL, WHAT COULD DENMARK CONTRIBUTE TO OUR SAFETY?

THE OBVIOUS ANSWER, WHICH THE SENATORS APPARENTLY WEREN'T READY TO MAKE, SEEMED LIKELY TO INVOLVE AIR BASES IN GREENLAND.

THE CORE OF OPPOSITION WHICH HAS DEVELOPED IN THE SENATE HAS LED SENATORS CONCERNED TO THE CONCLUSION THAT THERE WILL BE LENGTHY DEBATE IN THE SENATE OVER THE PACT.

SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) ALREADY HAS RAISED THE QUESTION WHETHER THE TREATY CAN BE CONSIDERED SEPARATELY FROM THE PROPOSAL ACHESON SAYS WILL FOLLOW IT TO HELP PACT SIGNERS TO REARM.

SOME OF THE SENATORS INTERESTED IN GETTING APPROVAL OF THE SECURITY PACT BY THE NECESSARY TWO-THIRDS OF THOSE VOTING HOPE THEIR PATH WILL BE SMOOTHED SOMEWHAT BY AN ARMS COST ESTIMATE OF SOMETHING LESS THAN A BILLION DOLLARS FOR THE FIRST YEAR.

DURING A TRANSCRIBED RADIO DEBATE ON THE PACT OVER STATION WINX, WASHINGTON TODAY, SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) SAID THE DOCUMENT SHOULD BE RATIFIED BECAUSE IT IS A PACT AGAINST AGGRESSION.

"NO NATION NOT BENT ON AGGRESSION NEED FEAR THE ATLANTIC PACT," HE SAID. HE ADDED HE WILL SUPPORT IT.

BUT SENATOR MALONE (R-NEV) SAID HE REGARDS THE PACT AS ONE WHICH "DEFINITELY AND COMPLETELY REPUDIATES" THE PRINCIPLES OF THE UNITED NATIONS, AND WOULD TEND TO CREATE TWO GREAT SPHERES OF WORLD INFLUENCE, DOMINATED BY THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA.

"THIS NATION DOES NOT HAVE A CHANCE IN TYING UP WITH SUCH AN ORGANIZATION," HE ARGUED.

SENATOR BALDWIN (R-CONN) CONTENDED, HOWEVER, THAT THE U.N.CHARTER SPECIFICALLY PROVIDES FOR SUCH PACTS AS THE NORTH ATLANTIC ONE AND THAT IT "VERY CAREFULLY COMES WITHIN" THE U.N.CHARTER PROVISIONS.

SENATOR JENNER (R-IND) SAID THE BEST WAY TO ACHIEVE "PEACE IS TO HAVE A STRONG ECONOMIC, FREE NATION IN AMERICA--ONE NOT BANKRUPT, NOT IN THE MIDST OF A DEPRESSION--WITH AN AIR FORCE SECOND TO NONE. THAT'S WHERE THE NEXT WAR WILL BE FOUGHT.

"HITLER LOST 5,000,000 BOYS FIGHTING STALIN IN THE LAST WAR," JENNER SAID. A GOOD AIR FORCE, PLUS THE ATOMIC BOMB, HE CONTENDED, "CAN GO TO THE HEART OF RUSSIA, AND WON'T DESTROY OUR BOYS ON A USELESS CONTINENTAL WAR THAT WE WILL LOSE IN THE END."

SENATOR BALDWIN REPLIED THAT HE "WOULDN'T WANT TO SEE THIS NATION INVOLVED IN A WAR WITHOUT ALLIES ON OUR SIDE."

"IF WE ARE TO BUILD A MILITARY DEFENSE ON SEA, LAND AND AIR THAT IS ADEQUATE X X X AGAINST ALL THE OTHER PEOPLES OF THE WORLD, THEN WE WON'T HAVE MONEY ENOUGH," BALDWIN ADDED.

"THE NEXT ALTERNATIVE IS TO GET FRIENDS AND ALLIES."

MALONE SAID MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES ARE REPORTED TO HAVE MADE TRADE AGREEMENTS UNDER WHICH THEY SEND "EVERYTHING FROM MONKEY WRENCHES TO LOCOMOTIVES" TO RUSSIA. HE ADDED:

"WE ARE ARMING RUSSIA JUST THE SAME AS WE ARMED JAPAN. WE ARE RIGHT NOW IN A DILEMMA, BECAUSE WE ARE TRYING TO TELL OUR PEOPLE WE WON'T HAVE WAR, YET TRYING TO CONVINCE OUR ALLIES WE WILL HELP THEM IF THERE IS A WAR."

AT THE OTHER EXTREME, ARE SOME AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY PLANNERS. THEY BELIEVE THAT ALL THE WESTERN POWERS NEED INITIALLY AT LEAST IS A DEFENSE COMMITTEE (WHICH THE TREATY PROVIDES FOR) TO BE A KIND OF CLEARING HOUSE AND COORDINATING AGENCY FOR JOINT DEFENSE PLANNING. ACCORDING TO THESE PEOPLE, THE COMMAND SETUP OF THE WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES IN THE CENTER OF THE STRATEGIC AREA IS ALREADY SUFFICIENT TO CARRY THE MAIN BURDEN OF THE WORK. THESE COUNTRIES, BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG, SIGNED A DEFENSE ALLIANCE AT BRUSSELS A YEAR AGO.

EVEN IF THE IDEA OF A SUPER MILITARY STAFF IS FINALLY ADOPTED, MANY AMERICANS FEEL THAT THE BEST RESULTS CAN BE ACCOMPLISHED BY SETTING UP A GROUP OF "WORKING GENERALS" RATHER THAN PUTTING ONE GREAT AND DOMINATING PERSONALITY IN CONTROL.

THE FIRST ACTUAL MEETING OF ATLANTIC PACT FOREIGN MINISTERS IS SCHEDULED FOR NEXT SATURDAY MORNING. PRESUMABLY IN THAT FORMAL SESSION, THE FOREIGN MINISTERS WILL BE MOSTLY CONCERNED WITH THE RELATIVELY UNIMPORTANT DETAILS OF THE TREATY SIGNING WHICH WILL FOLLOW ON MONDAY AT 3 P.M. IN THE GOVERNMENT'S INTER-DEPARTMENTAL AUDITORIUM ON CONSTITUTION AVENUE HERE.

THE OTHER REAL WORK OF THE WASHINGTON SESSIONS WILL BE HANDLED IN THE MORE INFORMAL GATHERINGS. ISSUES BEFORE THE THREE POWER FOREIGN MINISTERS MEETING ON WESTERN GERMANY INCLUDE FRENCH-AMERICAN DIFFERENCES OVER THE POWERS TO BE ALLOTTED TO A CENTRAL GERMANY GOVERNMENT.

THE TEN NATIONS NOW CERTAIN TO SIGN THE ATLANTIC PACT ARE THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE, CANADA, NORWAY, BELGIUM, LUXEMBOURG, THE NETHERLANDS, ITALY AND DENMARK. IN ADDITION, ICELAND AND PORTUGAL HAVE BEEN INVITED TO JOIN, SO THAT THE TOTAL ACTUALLY SIGNING MAY BE TWELVE.

MR.TRUMAN IS EXPECTED TO SEND THE TREATY TO THE SENATE IMMEDIATELY AFTER IT IS SIGNED. ABOUT THE SAME TIME HE WILL FORWARD TO CONGRESS A REQUEST OF PERHAPS $1,000,000,000 OR MORE FOR ARMS AID TO REINFORCE THE ATLANTIC PACT.

STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS SAID TODAY THAT THE ARMS PROGRAM WAS STILL BEING WORKED OUT WITH THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT HERE AND WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF THE WESTERN EUROPEAN POWERS AND THAT NO FINAL COST ESTIMATE HAS BEEN MADE.

COLUMBUS, O., MARCH 27-(AP)-AN ISRAELI PARLIAMENT MEMBER KICKED OFF A $10,250,000 OHIO UNITED JEWISH APPEAL DRIVE TODAY BY SAYING THAT THE MONEY IS DESPERATELY NEEDED TO EAST SUFFERING OF IMMIGRANTS TO HIS COUNTRY.

DAVID HACOHEN TOLD 250 DELEGATES TO THE UJA'S OHIO REGIONAL CONFERENCE:

"WE COULD HAVE SET UP A DEMOCRACY AND ATTAINED SOME TYPE OF LIBERTY WITHOUT WAGING WAR. HOWEVER, WE WOULD HAVE HAD TO AGREE TO STOP JEWISH IMMIGRATION.

"WE FOUGHT A WAR TO MAKE A HOMELAND FOR OUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS. WE WON THAT WAR. NOW, IF WE ARE UNABLE TO HOUSE, FEED, CLOTHE AND FIND PRODUCTIVE WORK FOR THEM WE WILL HAVE FOUGHT THE WAR IN VAIN.

"IF ISRAEL DOES NOT RECEIVE HELP FROM OUTSIDE PEOPLE, PARTICULARLY THE JEWS OF THE UNITED STATES, WE WILL NOT BE ABLE TO ASORB IMMIGRANTS X X X WITHOUT FACING ECONOMIC DIFFICULTIES," HE CONTINUED.

THE OHIO DRIVE, LARGEST EVEN UNDERTAKEN BY OHIO JEWS, WILL BE CONDUCTED IN 165 CITIES IN CONJUNCTION WITH A NATIONAL CAMPAIGN FOR $250,000,000.

HACOHEN SAID ISRAEL STILL IS IN DANGER OF ARAB ATTACK. ALTHOUGH ARABS LOST THE RECENT WAR AND ARE "IN INTERNATIONAL DISREPUTE," HACOHEN SAID THE ARAB NATIONS "HAVE A TREMENDOUS POTENTIAL."

"WHO IS TO SAY THAT SOMEDAY AN AMBITIOUS ARAB LEADER WILL NOT MUSTER HIS FORCES AGAINST THE JEWISH STATE?" HACOHEN ASKED. HE CONTINUED:

"THIS WE HOPE AND PRAY WILL NOT HAPPEN. WE WANT ISRAEL TO BE A FORCE FOR PEACE IN THE MIDDLE EAST. HOWEVER, IT IS ONLY BY ARMING OUR ARMY AND FORTIFYING OUR BORDERS THAT THE ARABS WILL RESPECT US.

"FOR THIS WE NEED A TREMENDOUS MILITARY BUDGET WHICH IS AN UNPRODUCTIVE MEANS OF SPENDING MONEY."

HACOHEN SAID MORE THAN 170,000 IMMIGRANTS HAVE ENTERED ISRAEL SINCE ITS ESTABLISHMENT AS A NATION LAST YEAR. THIS HE EXPLAINED, "8' 5&3 EQUIVALENT OF INCREASING THE POPULATION OF THE UNITED STATES BY 45,000,000."

"TO ACCOMPLISH THE GATHERING OF HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF OPPRESSED AND DESTITUTE JEWS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD," HACOHEN SAID, "WE NEED MILLIONS OF DOLLARS FROM THE JEWISH PEOPLE OF THIS COUNTRY.

MRS. ISRAEL GOLDSTEIN, NATIONAL PRESIDENT OF THE PIONEER WOMAN'S ORGANIZATION OF JERUSALEM, SAID SOME 40,000 JEWISH DP'S ARE LIVING IN TENT COLONIES ON ISRAEL'S SHORES--UNDER LITTLE BETTER THAN WARTIME FACILITIES.

SHE CITED THE NEED FOR 50,000 HOUSING UNITES TO ACCOMODATE 250,000 IMMIGRANTS WHO, SHE PREDICTED, WILL ARRIVE THIS YEAR.

CHICAGO, MARCH 27-(AP)-NOBEL PRIZE WINNER HAROLD C.UREY SAID TODAY THE UNITED STATES' "SECRECY POLICY" ON THE ATOMIC BOMB SHOULD BE RELAXED. BUT, HE ADDED, "ONLY IN AN ATMOSPHERE OF MORE SECURITY," SUCH AS THE ATLANTIC PACT.

SPEAKING ON THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO'S ROUND TABLE, BROADCAST OVER NBC, THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO SCIENTIST JOINED A FELLOW PROFESSOR, THORFIN HOGNESS, AND LOUIS RIDENOUR, DEAN OF THE UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS GRADUATE SCHOOL, IN SUGGESTING CHANGES IN THE U.S.POLICY OF SECRECY IN ATOMIC MATTERS.

"WE CAN DECREASE OUR SECRECY MEASURES ONLY IN AN ATMOSPHERE OF MORE SECURITY," UREY SAID. "XXX THE KIND OF SECURITY WE NEED TO RELAX OUR SECRECY POLICY ON ATOMIC ENERGY IS PROVIDED, I THINK, BY THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC PACT.

"THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A FORM OF FEDERAL GOVERNMENT OVER THE MEMBERS OF THE PACT, A GOVERNMENT HAVING LIMITED LEGISLATIVE AND JUDICIAL POWERS AND CONTROL OVER FOREIGN POLICY AND MILITARY ACTION WOULD PROVIDE CONSIDERABLE POLITICAL SECURITY," UREY DECLARED.

"UNEQUAL POWER BETWEEN OPPONENTS ALWAYS DELAYS WAR. THE STRONG ONE DOESN'T NEED TO ATTACK AND THE WEAK ONE CAN'T. IF THERE POWER IS EQUAL, AS IN THE PRESENT INTERNATIONAL SITUATION, THERE IS DANGER.

"WE SHOULD TAKE ACTION TO MAKE ONE SIDE STRONGER TO PREVENT WAR, AND I AM SURE WHICH SIDE I WOULD LIKE TO SEE STRONG."

RIDENOUR URGED THE ADOPTION OF SENATOR BRIEN MC MAHON'S (D-CONN.) SUGGESTION THAT THE NATION REVEAL ITS ATOMIC STRENGTH AND ADDED:

"IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR THE AMERICAN PEOPLE TO MAKE IMPORTANT DECISIONS UNLESS THEY KNOW THE NECESSARY FACTS. IF WE DON'T KNOW HOW MANY ATOMIC BOMBS WE POSSESS, HOW CAN WE DECIDE ON SUCH IMPORTANT MATTERS AS UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING, THE ALLOCATION OF GOVERNMENT EXPENDITURE AMONG THE THREE BRANCHES OF THE ARMED FORCES, AND WHETHER THE ATOMIC XRGY COMMISSION HAS SUCCEEDED OR FAILED IN ITS WORK?

"IF WE REVEAL THE NUMBER OF BOMBS WE POSSESS, WE WOULD ALSO ALLOW THE REST OF THE WORLD TO REALISTICALLY ASSESS OUR STRENGTH. THIS MIGHT PREVENT RASH ACTION ON THEIR PART BASED ON MISCALCULATIONS AS TO OUR POWER. XXX"

"THE RESULTS OF THE TESTS OF THE BOMB AT BIKINI ARE ESSENTIAL FOR INFORMED OPINION AND SHOULD BE RELEASED PUBLICLY," RIDENOUR SAID.

HOGNESS SAID THAT UNDER THE PRESENT SECRECY MEASURES "MOST OF THE GOOD MEN HAVE LEFT WORK ON ATOMIC ENERGY."

"AMERICAN CORPORATIONS AND ENGINEERS HAVE LEFT FOR FIELDS WHERE MONEY CAN BE MADE," HOGNESS DECLARED. "RESEARCH SCIENTISTS CANNOT EVEN ACQUIRE A REPUTATION THROUGH ATOMIC RESEARCH, SINCE THEY CANNOT RELEASE THE RESULTS OF THEIR WORK."

FIRST LEAD CONFERENCE (450)

BY CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK, MARCH 27-(AP)-THE CONTROVERSIAL "WORLD PEACE" CONFERENCE TODAY ADOPTED A RESOLUTION FOR PEACE THAT CALLED FOR STRENGTHENING OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

THE RESOLUTION, ADOPTED BY ABOUT 2,000 DELEGATES -- WITH ONE DISSENTING VOTE -- CONTAINED THREE MAIN POINTS:

1. TO DO EVERYTHING POSSIBLE TO STRENGTHEN THE UNITED NATIONS AS THE BEST HOPE FOR PEACE.
2. TO EXPRESS COOPERATION WITH OTHER PEACE MOVEMENTS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD.
3. TO CONTINUE WORK STARTED AT THE CONFERENCE AND TO HAVE THE CONFERENCE SPONSORS CONSTITUTE THEMSELVES AS A CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC COMMITTEE OF THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF THE ARTS, SCIENCES AND PROFESSIONS (CAPS).

THE N.C.A.S.P. SPONSORED THE CONFERENCE HERE BUT THERE WERE ADDITIONAL SPONSORS WHO ARE NOT MEMBERS OF THAT GROUP.

ADOPTION OF THE RESOLUTION CAME AS THE THREE-DAY CONFERENCE NEARED ITS END AT THE WALDORF-ASTORIA HOTEL.

THE MEETING, CALLED THE CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE FOR WORLD PEACE, HAS BEEN CHARACTERIZED BY THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT AS A SOUNDING BOARD FOR COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA.

CONFERENCE SPONSORS DENIED THE CHARGE AND SAID THE MEETING HAS NO POLITICAL CONNECTIONS OR AFFILIATIONS.

THE PEACE RESOLUTION WAS ADOPTED BY A VOICE VOTE. THE VOICE OF ONE UNIDENTIFIED MAN WAS HEARD IN DISSENT.

AFTER THE RESOLUTION WAS READ MARTIN HOPPER, A NEW YORK ATTORNEY, SAID FROM THE FLOOR THAT IT "LACKED TEETH."

HEATED DEBATE DEVELOPED OVER A PROPOSED AMENDMENT WHICH CALLED ON THE CONFERENCE TO SEND REPRESENTATIVES TO ANOTHER WORLD PEACE CONFERENCE, SCHEDULED TO BE HELD IN PARIS NEXT MONTH.

THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT HAS SAID THE PARIS MEETING WOULD BE UNDERLI

THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT HAS SAID THE PARIS MEETING WOULD BE UNDER THE SAME LEADERSHIP AS THE POLISH CULTURAL CONFERENCE IN WROCLAW LAST AUGUST.

THE WROCLAW CONFERENCE WAS A PREDOMINANTLY PRO-COMMUNIST MEETING WHICH ATTACKED BRITISH-AMERICAN "IMPERIALISM."

DR. ALLEN M. BUTLER OF THE HARVARD MEDICAL SCHOOL, A MEMBER OF AN "ACTION" COMMITTEE NAMED BY THE CONFERENCE, SAID HIS GROUP WOULD MEET TOMORROW TO TAKE UP SPECIFIC RECOMMENDATIONS TO CARRY OUT TODAY'S RESOLUTIONS.

HOWARD FAST, AUTHOR AND DELEGATE TO WROCLAW WHO WAS NAMED THERE TO A 21-MEMBER "INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE IN DEFENSE OF PEACE" TOLD DELEGATES TODAY:

"ANYONE WHO THINKS THIS RESOLUTION HAS NO TEETH IN IT SHOULD GET THEIR TEETH INTO TODAY'S NEWSPAPER." FAST ADDED:

"THIS LITTLE CONFERENCE HAS GOTTEN THE WHOLE CIVILIZED WORLD TALKING. WHAT HAS WASHINGTON FROTHING AT THE MOUTH IS THAT WE HAVE STUCK TOGETHER AT THIS CONFERENCE.

"THEY HAVE USED EVERY TRICK TO DIVIDE CENTER, LEFT AND RIGHT HERE. DON'T BE TAKEN IN AT THIS DATE BY ANYONE WHO WANTS TO PLAY THEIR LITTLE GAME."

AUTHOR ALBERT E. KAHN, ALSO A MEMBER OF THE WROCLAW COMMITTEE, SAID "WE DESIRE THE WIDEST POSSIBLE UNITY AMONG FORCES FOR PEACE IN THIS COUNTRY. WE MUST INCLUDE THE BROADEST POSSIBLE FORCES IN THE UNITED STATES."

THE SESSION ALSO ADOPTED A RESOLUTION ON "CULTURAL FREEDOM" WHICH CALLED ON "ARTISTS, SCIENTISTS AND PROFESSIONALS" TO GUARD THEIR FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION.

HARLOW SHAPLEY, HARVARD ASTRONOMY PROFESSOR AND CHAIRMAN OF THE CONFERENCE, SAID MUCH OF THE RESOLUTION'S CRITICISM WAS AIMED AT THE UNITED STATES, BUT ADDED THAT THIS COUNTRY IS IN A PRE-EMINENT WORLD POSITION AND "WE MUST BE WORLD LEADERS IN MORALITY."

THE RESOLUTION SAID "NO OFFICIAL HAS THE RIGHT TO PENALIZE THOSE WHOSE BELIEFS OR OPINIONS ARE NOT SATISFACTORY TO GOVERNMENT INQUISITORS."

IT ALSO SAID "THE TRADITION OF ACADEMIC FREEDOM IS BEING ATTACKED" IN THE UNITED STATES AND "WRITERS AND TEACHERS ARE BEING THREATENED WITH IMPRISONMENT."

IT WAS ANNOUNCED THAT VARIOUS PANEL GROUPS HAD PASSED "DOZENS" OF OTHER RESOLUTIONS. ONLY ONE OF THESE WAS READ AT THE FULL SESSION. IT WAS A PLEA THAT INTERNATIONAL DIFFERENCES BE RESOLVED THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS.

IN A MESSAGE READ TO THE CONFERENCE, AUTHOR THOMAS MANN SAID SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON "HAS DONE MUCH TO DISCREDIT THE VERY IDEALS HE PRAISES."

MANN SAID THAT BY ASSERTING THE CONFERENCE WOULD BE A SOUNDING BOARD FOR COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA, ACHESON "FURNISHED AMMUNITION TO ALL ENEMIES OF PEACE."

DMITRI SHOSTAKOVICH, RUSSIAN COMPOSER, EARLIER TOLD THE CONFERENCE THAT "NEW ASPIRANTS TO WORLD DOMINATION" WERE FEVERISHLY ARMING THEMSELVES FOR MASS DESTRUCTION OF PEOPLE.

THE PARLEY CONCLUDES TONIGHT WITH A GIANT "UNITED FOR WORLD PEACE" RALLY AT MADISON SQUARE GARDEN.

THE RUSSIAN COMPOSER REFERRED TO RECENT CRITICISM OF HIS MUSIC IN RUSSIA BY SAYING THAT IN HIS POST WAR COMPOSITIONS "IN WHICH I DEPARTED FROM BIG THEMES AND CONTEMPORARY IMAGES I LOST MY CONTACT WITH THE PEOPLE AND I FAILED. MY WORK FOUND RESPONSE ONLY AMONG THE NARROW STRATA OF SOPHISTICATED MUSICIANS, BUT THEY FAILED TO MEET WITH APPROVAL AMONG THE BROAD MASSES OF LISTENERS."

HE LASHED OUT AT IGOR STRAVINSKY, ANOTHER RUSSIAN COMPOSER WHO CAME TO THE UNITED STATES AND NOW IS IN HOLLYWOOD, SAYING:

"THE STORY OF STRAVINSKY IS HIGHLY REVEALING. HIS BEGINNINGS WERE PROMISING. BUT HAVING BROKEN WITH THE TRADITION OF THE RUSSIAN NATIONAL SCHOOL OF MUSIC, HAVING BETRAYED HIS NATIVE LAND AND SEVERED HIMSELF FROM HIS PEOPLE, STRAVINSKY JOINED THE CAMP OF REACTIONARY MODERNISTIC MUSICIANS. HIS MORAL NARROWNESS REVEALS ITSELF IN HIS OPENLY NIHILISTIC WRITINGS."

MAR 28 1949

WHILE ATTACKING STRAVINSKY SHOSTAKOVICH PRAISED ANOTHER NOTED RUSSIAN COMPOSER, SERGEI PROKOFIEFF, WHO IS STILL IN RUSSIA.

SHOSTAKOVICH SAID HE WAS CONVINCED PROKOFIEFF "WILL FIND GREAT CREATIVE SUCCESSES" IF HE "CEASELESSLY CONTINUES HIS SEARCH FOR ENRICHMENT OF THE CONTENTS AND PERFECTION IN THE FORM OF HIS MUSIC."

M.E. CHIAURELY, SOVIET MOTION PICTURE DIRECTOR, SAID THAT RUSSIA WANTS "ONLY ONE THING--THAT NOBODY SHOULD INTERFERE WITH THE GOOD LIFE WE ARE BUILDING."

"THIS IS CONFIRMED," HE ADDED, "BY THE WELL-KNOWN FACT THAT THE SOVIET UNION DOES NOT CONSTRUCT MILITARY, NAVALC
M

"THIS IS CONFIRMED," HE ADDED, "BY THE WELL-KNOWN FACT THAT THE SOVIET UNION DOES NOT CONSTRUCT MILITARY, NAVAL OR AIR BASES AROUND ENGLAND, FRANCE AND THE UNITED STATES OR ANY OTHER COUNTRY. BUT MILITARY AIRFIELDS HAVE APPEARED ON THE FRONTIERS OF MY BELOVED MOTHERLAND, GEORGIA (SOUTHERN SOVIET PROVINCE), IN TURKEY AND IRAN."

HE CRITICIZED THE U.S. "VOICE OF AMERICA" BROADCAST TO RUSSIA, SAYING "WE ARE NOT SERVED WITH ANY BEAUTIFULEXAMPLE OF AMERICAN CULTURE, MUSIC AND ART. INSTEAD THE VOICE OF AMERICA BEGINS TO TELL US OLD WIVES TALES OF THE 'AGGRESSIVE DESIGNS' OF THE U.S.S.R. ONLY BABIES COULD BE TAKEN IN BY THESE TALES."

IN A QUESTION PERIOD AT THE CLOSE OF THE SESSION NICHOLAS NABOKOV, A COMPOSER IN THE AUDIENCE, ASKED SHOSTAKOVICH IF RUSSIA EXCLUDED ALL WESTERN MUSIC. SHOSTAKOVICH REPLIED IN EFFECT THAT SOME WESTERN COMPOSERS' MUSIC WAS HEARD IN THE SOVIET UNION.

PSYCHIATRIST JULIUS SCHRIEBER TOLD DELEGATES THAT UNSOLVED SOCIAL, ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL PROBLEMS ARE CREATING "INTENSE FEARS, GNAWING ANXIETIES IN MILLIONS OF PEOPLE."

SPEAKING BEFORE A PANEL ON PHYSICAL AND MENTAL HEALTH, SCHRIEBER SAID:

"IT IS THE FEAR OF WAR, FEAR OF LOSS OF SAVINGS DUE TO RUNAWAY INFLATION, FEAR OF LOSS OF JOB, FEAR OF DEPRESSION--FEAR OF THE FUTURE."

ADDRESSING THE SAME PANEL, DR. ALLAN M.BUTLER, PROFESSOR OF PEDIATRICS AT HARVARD UNIVERSITY, LASHED OUT AT THE AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION. HE ACCUSED IT OF OPPOSING EVEN VOLUNTARY HEALTH INSURANCE PLANS, WHILE CLAIMING TO SUPPORT THEM.

DOCTORS, BUTLER SAID, ARE "INDIVIDUALLY FAR BETTER THAN THE GROUP WHICH DOMINATES THEIR ORGANIZATION."

THE PEDIATRICIAN URGED A NATIONAL HEALTH PROGRAM FINANCED BY COLLECTIONS FROM WELL PEOPLE, AS OPPOSED TO THE PRESENT FEE SYSTEM WHICH PLACES THE BURDEN ON "THOSE WHO SUFFER."

BUTLER CITED FIGURES WHICH HE SAID SHOWED THAT THE NATION'S GENERAL DEATH RATE IS HIGHER THAN THAT OF EIGHT EUROPEAN COUNTRIES WHICH HAVE GOVERNMENT MEDICAL PROGRAMS.

AT A FULL SESSION OF THE CONFERENCE THIS AFTERNOON A.A.FADEYEV, RUSSIAN WRITER AND HEAD OF THE SOVIET DELEGATION, ASSAILED THE ATLANTIC PACT AS "AN ATTEMPTED ATTACK ON THE NATIONAL SOVEREIGNTY OF PEOPLES."

MAR 28 1949

HE TOLD HIS AUDIENCE THAT A "FACIST TENDENCY" BROUGHT OUT BY WINSTON CHURCHILL AT FULTON, MO., IN 1946 IS "BEING BROUGHT TO LIGHT" IN THE PACT.

(IN HIS FULTON SPEECH, CHURCHILL PROPOSED A UNION OF NATIONS AGAINST COMMUNISM.)

FADEYEV SAID "WE SOVIET INTELLECTUALS CAN ONLY SEE IN SUCH PACTS AN ATTEMPTED ATTACK ON THE NATIONAL SOVEREIGNTY OF PEOPLES, THE DISRUPTION OF THEIR NATIONAL CULTURES, THE SUBJUGATION OF THEIR NATIONAL POLICIES TO THE INTERESTS OF COVETOUS PEOPLE OF SOME ONE STRONG STATE WHO ARE DREAMING OF WORLD DOMINATION."

FADEYEV SAID "THE PEOPLE WHO ARE LETTING LOOSE THE NEW WAR MUST REMEMBER THAT THEIR PEOPLES WILL NOT ENTER A NEW WAR AND IF IT IS ATTEMPTED TO DRAG THEM IN FORCIBLY, THE PEOPLES OF THE WORLD WILL SEVERELY PUNISH THE INSTIGATORS OF THE NEW WAR."

A.A.FADEYEV, RUSSIAN WRITER AND HEAD OF THE SOVIET DELEGATION AT THE CONFERENCE, ASSAILED SCHUMAN'S SPEECH AND SAID HE FOUND "CERTAIN ASPECTS OF IT ASTONISHING FOR ME."

HE SAID "PROFESSOR SCHUMAN IS MISTAKEN. THERE ARE NO ELEMENTS IN OUR COUNTRY WHICH DESIRE WAR AGAINST THE UNITED STATES OR ANY OTHER COUNTRY."

FADEYEV SAID "I AM A GUEST IN YOUR COUNTRY BUT I KNOW YOU WOULD WANT ME TO SPEAK FRANKLY ON THIS MATTER."

SCHUMAN, IN REPLY, SAID HE WAS "DELIGHTED WITH MR. FADEYEV'S STATEMENT THAT THERE ARE NO ELEMENTS IN THE U.S.S.R. WHICH DESIRE WAR WITH THE U.S."

SCHUMAN SAID HE AGREED "THERE ARE ELEMENTS IN THE U.S. WHICH DESIRE WAR WITH THE U.S.S.R. HOWEVER, THESE ELEMENTS ARE SMALL AND UNIMPORTANT."

FREDERICK L.SCHUMAN, POLITICAL SCIENCE PROFESSOR AT WILLIAMS COLLEGE, WILLIAMSTOWN, MASS., TOLD THE PLENARY SESSION THAT RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES, GUIDED BY "FRIGHTENED, NEUROTIC AND SMALL-MINDED MEN, ARE MARCHING BLINDLY TOWARD A WAR THAT NEITHER COULD WIN."

VICTORY IN SUCH A CONFLICT, SCHUMAN SAID, WOULD BRING UNIVERSAL FASCISM AND A BLASTED CULTURE.

AT ONE POINT SCHUMAN REFERRED TO CHURCHILL AS THE LEADER OF A COALITION WHICH 30 YEARS AGO WAGED "UNDECLARED WAR" ON THE THEN-NEW SOVIET STATE.

A SALVO OF BOOS FOLLOWED MENTION OF CHURCHILL'S NAME. SCHUMAN CHIDED THE AUDIENCE FOR THE BOOS.

HE TERMED THE CONFERENCE "HOPEFUL AND INSPIRING" AND ACCUSED THE U.S. AND RUSSIA OF RUNNING AWAY FROM "COMMUNITY PROBLEMS X X X BY ATTRIBUTING ALL OUR WOES AND ALL OUR PERILS NOT TO OUR OWN CONFUSIONS AND FAILURES BUT TO THE WICKEDNESS OF FOREIGN DEVILS."

AGNES SMEDLEY, AMERICAN JOURNALIST AND AUTHOR, SAID THE UNITED STATES SHOULD "EXTEND THE HAND OF FRIENDSHIP TO THE NEW LIBERATION FORCES OF ASIA."

MISS SMEDLEY, WHO HAS WRITTEN WIDELY ON ASIA, SAID "CHINESE VICTORIES ARE MAKING WAR EXTREMELY DIFFICULT IF NOT IMPOSSIBLE IN THE FAR EAST."

"GENERAL MACARTHUR AND OTHER REACTIONARIES WERE PLANNING TO MAKE JAPAN INTO A BASTION FOR WORLD WAR III," SHE SAID. "CHINA WAS TO BE THE SOURCE OF WAR MATERIALS FOR THAT BASTION. BUT NOW VICTORIES OF THE CHINESE LIBERATION ARMIES HAVE SMASHED THAT."

NEW YORK, MARCH 27-(AP)-DMITRI SHOSTAKOVICH PLAYED THE PIANO IN MADISON SQUARE GARDEN TONIGHT FOR SIX MINUTES, AND RECEIVED AN OVATION ALMOST AS LONG FROM SOME 19,000 LISTENERS.

THE DEMONSTRATION MUST HAVE BEEN DUE TO HIS RENOWN AS A COMPOSER, FOR AS A PIANIST THE 43-YEAR-OLD RUSSIAN IS ONLY A ROUTINE PLAYER.

JUST LIKE MANY OTHER COMPOSERS, HE USES THE PIANO AS A WORKBENCH, A SOURCE OF IDEAS RATHER THAN A MEV

A SOURCE OF IDEAS RATHER THAN A MEANS OF EXPRESSION.

BUT THE PIECE HE PLAYED MERITED THE DEMONSTRATION.

IT WAS A TRANSCRIPTION OF THE SECOND MOVEMENT, MARKED "ALLEGRETTO," OF HIS OWN FIFTH SYMPHONY, FIRST PERFORMED BY THE LENINGRAD PHILHARMONIC IN 1937.

IT WAS THIS FIFTH WHICH RESTORED SHOSTAKOVICH TO THE GOOD GRACES OF SOVIET MUSIC AUTHORITIES AFTER HE HAD BEEN COLD-SHOULDERED FOR TWO YEARS BECAUSE OF HIS "FORMALIST" COMPOSITIONS.

HE HIMSELF HAS CALLED IT "LYRICAL," AND BY COMMON CONSENT IT IS ONE OF HIS FINEST; AMERICAN ORCHESTRAS PROGRAM IT FREQUENTLY.

HE WAS PRESENTED WITH A SCROLL HAILING HIM AS "ONE OF THE OUTSTANDING COMPOSERS OF THE WORLD" AND BEARING THE SIGNATURES, AS REAENKVPTHE PLATFOEEEE

COMPOSERS OF THE WORLD" AND BEARING THE SIGNATURES, AS READ FROM THE PLATFORM, OF CLAUDIO ARRAU, WHO PLAYED THE PIANO TONIGHT IN CARNEGIE HALL; OF AMERICAN COMPOSERS AARON COPLAND AND ROY HARRIS, CONDUCTORS KOUSSEVITZKY, MITROPOULOS, SZELL AND WALTER, AND OTHER LEADERS IN MUSIC.

THE REPORT SAYS EUROPE'S JEWS MADE GREATER STRIDES TOWARD RECOVERY IN 1948 THAN IN ANY YEAR SINCE THE END OF THE WAR. FOUNDING OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL, AND THE CONSEQUENT INCREASED OPPORTUNITY FOR IMMIGRATION, WAS CITED AS THE MAJOR REASON FOR IMPROVED CONDITIONS OF JEWS ABROAD.

HR11SAES

(ADVANCE) GENEVA, MARCH 25-(AP)-CZECHOSLOVAKIA HAS FILED A FORMAL CHARGE THAT THE UNITED STATES' EXPORT LICENSING SYSTEM CONSTITUTES A VIOLATION OF THE 23-NATION GENEVA TARIFF AGREEMENT OF 1947.

THE CZECH COMPLAINT IS EXPECTED TO BE A MAJOR POLITICAL ISSUE OF THE THIRD REGULAR SESSION OF THE 23 CONTRACTING STATES TO THE AGREEMENT, SCHEDULED TO OPEN IN THE NEAR-BY FRENCH TOWN OF ANNECY ON APRIL 14.

MAR 28 1949

THE AGREEMENT WAS DRAWN UP BY THE 23 NATIONS, INCLUDING BOTH CZECHOSLOVAKIA AND THE UNITED STATES, AS A FRAMEWORK FOR THE 123 BILATERAL TARIFF AGREEMENTS NEGOTIATED AT GENEVA DURING THE SUMMER OF 1947. THE OVERALL AGREEMENT ESTABLISHED THE "MOST-FAVORED-NATION" PRINCIPLE IN THE APPLICATION OF TARIFFS AND PROVIDED FOR PERIODIC MEETINGS OF THE CONTRACTING STATES TO CARRY ON THE MULTILATERAL ADMINISTRATION OF THE AGREEMENT.

THE FORTHCOMING THIRD SESSION IS TO BE HELD IN CONJUNCTION WITH A NEW SERIES OF BILATERAL TARIFF NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN THE ORIGINAL 23 CONTRACTING STATES AND 13 OTHER COUNTRIES ANXIOUS TO ACCEDE TO THE 1947 AGREEMENT.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S CHARGE IS BASED ON A CLAIM THAT THE UNITED STATES, BY WITHHOLDING LICENSES FOR CERTAIN EXPORTS TO THE CZECHS, DISCRIMINATES AGAINST CZECHOSLOVAKIA IN VIOLATION OF THE 1947 AGREEMENT.

SIMILAR CHARGES HAVE BEEN FREQUENTLY EXPRESSED BY COMMUNIST DELEGATES AT UNITED NATIONS MEETINGS. AT A RECENT TRADE CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED NATIONS ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE HERE, A CZECH ALLEGATION THAT UNITED STATES EXPORT RESTRICTIONS HAMPERED EUROPE'S ECONOMIC RECOVERY WAS DECISIVELY REJECTED BY THE WEST-EUROPEAN MAJORITY.

BY ALLEGING A VIOLATION OF THE GENEVA TARIFF AGREEMENT, CZECHOSLOVAKIA HAS, FOR THE FIRST TIME, PLACED COMMUNIST CHARGES OF DISCRIMINATION BY THE UNITED STATES ON A LEGAL PLANE, INVOLVING A POSSIBILITY OF COUNTER-MEASURES AGAINST THE UNITED STATES. IF THE CZECHS CAN MAKE OUT A CASE AGAINST THE UNITED STATES BEFORE THE CONTRACTING STATES, THE GROUP MIGHT CONCEIVABLY AUTHORIZE CZECHOSLOVAKIA TO SUSPEND TARIFF CONCESSIONS MADE TO THE UNITED STATES IN 1947. BUT SINCE CZECHOSLOVAKIA IS THE ONLY COMMUNIST-DOMINATED COUNTRY AMONG THE CONTRACTING STATES, SUCH AN EVENTUALITY -- REQUIRING A MAJORITY VOTE-- WAS REGARDED AS UNLIKELY.

THE EXPORT LICENSING SYSTEM IN FORCE IN THE UNITED STATES WAS OUTLAWED AS SUCH UNDER THE GENEVA AGREEMENT, WHICH PROVIDED FOR "GENERAL ELIMINATION OF QUANTITATIVE RESTRICTIONS" BY ONE MEMBER OF THE GROUP AGAINST THE OTHERS. BUT A PROTOCOL UNDER WHICH THE AGREEMENT WAS PROVISIONALLY PUT INTO FORCE LAID DOWN THAT NO CONTRACTING STATE WOULD BE COMPELLED TO ALTER EXISTING NATIONAL LEGISLATION TO COMPLY WITH THIS ARTICLE. THE CZECH CASE IS BASED, THEREFORE, ON ALLEGED DISCRIMINATION IN APPLYING THE EXPORT LICENSING SYSTEM, RATHER THAN ON THE SYSTEM ITSELF.

BUT EVEN DISCRIMINATION IS PERMISSIBLE UNDER ARTICLES 20 AND 21 OF THE AGREEMENT, WHICH AUTHORIZE THE CONTRACTING STATES TO TAKE ANY NECESSARY MEASURES TO SAFEGUARD PRODUCTS IN SHORT SUPPLY OR TO "PROTECT ITS ESSENTIAL SECURITY INTERESTS."

TO MAKE OUT A CASE AGAINST THE UNITED STATES, THE CZECHS WOULD HAVE TO CITE SPECIFIC INSTANCES WHERE AMERICAN EXPORT LICENSES WERE GRANTED TO ONE OF THE CONTRACTING STATES BUT SIMULTANEOUSLY WITHHELD FROM CZECHOSLOVAKIA FOR A COMMODITY NEITHER IN SHORT SUPPLY, NOR NECESSARY TO AMERICAN SECURITY INTERESTS.

GERMAN PLANT ACCORD NEAR, LONDON HEARS

Britain And France Reported Agreeing To Most Of U.S. Plan

MAR 28 1949

London, March 28 (AP)—Responsible diplomats said today Britain and Franch have agreed to most of an American plan to save a list of west German industries from dismantling.

The informants said the agreement provides for 150 plants to be removed from the list to be torn down for preparations. A group of industrialists had recommended that 167 plants be saved. They made a survey at the request of Paul G. Hoffman, Economic Co-operation Administrator, to see how many of the plants could contribute to the European Recovery Plan.

Prohibited List Changed

The agreement was reached at a three-power conference on German problems, which is continuing. The accord still is subject to confirmation by the British, American and French governments.

The diplomats said a compromise also had been reached on allowing Germany to resume building merchant ships not exceeding 9,000 tons in size.

They also have agreed to remove from a prohibited list some German industries which were banned because of their war potential.

Worried by possible German competition, the British did not want to abandon a four-power agreement of 1946 which limited new German ships to 1,500 tons. The Americans proposed to allow ships of unlimited tonnage.

Steel Supply Limited

Total German tonnage actually is limited by the supply of steel, however. At present there is a production limit of 11,100,000 tons of steel annually in the three Western zones.

The informants said production of aluminum and magnesium, prohibited by the four Allies at Potsdam in 1945, will be allowed. Synthetic rubber and oil plants probably will be permitted.

Efforts to write an occupation statute as a substitute peace treaty for West Germany also appeared to be making progress.

High Court Concessions

Diplomats said concessions may be made by both sides on the composition of a high court to settle disputes between the occupying powers and a future West German government, and on the future status of the Rhine River port of Kehl.

The French have opposed the American-British plan to let a German sit on the court. The United States has fought a British-French suggestion of setting up a special regime to govern Kehl.

Hailed By Germans

Duesseldorf, Germany, March 28 (AP)—The reported reprieve by the Western Allies of 150 German plants slated for dismantling was hailed by German leaders tonight as "good news in a dark hour."

Prof. Eric Noelting, economics minister in the state of North Rhine-Westphalia which includes the industrial Ruhr Valley, said:

"This news gave me a new cheerful impulse. I welcome it particularly at a moment in which we are in a depressed mood because of the border regulations. This decision gives us confidence again in the future."

Will Help Recovery

The Germans were also cheered over reported agreement among the Allies permitting Germany to build ships displacing up to 9,000 tons.

"This decision will certainly help German recovery," Fritz Heine, Social Democratic party leader, said.

Franz Josef Muser, director of the big Bochumer Verein steel plant, said he hopes the reported decision will help reduce unemployment in western Germany.

The reprieve reports came as the Germans were preparing protest meetings against Allied plans to transfer 52 square miles of German territory to France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Regarding the territorial changes, Dr. Leo Schwering, chairman of the North Rhine-Westphalian border commission, said:

"The German people are determined to start a noise which cannot be ignored anywhere in the world."

Europe Parliament Planners Meet

London, March 28 (AP)—Diplomats of ten nations began shaping the final details today of a long-sought political dream, a parliament of Europe.

The ten countries are Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Italy and Eire.

They expect to spend the next week or two settling the few remaining differences in this step toward European unity.

First Session This Summer

The ten foreign ministers probably will meet in London soon after Easter to give their final approval.

The first parliament of Europe may convene this summer, probably at Strasbourg, France.

The present talks center on a draft constitution. It was drawn up by the five Brussels pact powers—Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Five Others Invited

The Brussels powers invited the other five nations to join the movement as founding members.

The draft calls for a council of ministers—virtually a cabinet of Europe—and a consultative assembly. The assembly could make only recommendations. It will not deal with military or defense matters.

Provision also is expected for enlargement of the parliament.

Western Germany may be asked later to send representatives.

Britain Fears New Met Cut

MAR 28 1949

London, March 28 (AP)—Britain's meat ration cut went into effect today with no assurance there would not be a further cut.

The ration was reduced from 17 cents' worth of fresh meat a person per week to 14 cents. Each person also is entitled to 3⅓ cents' worth of canned corn beef.

The Government has blamed the cut on failure of the Government of President Juan Perón of Argentina to make deliveries under a trade agreement.

19,000-Ton Monthly Cut

Dr. Edith Summerskill, parliamentary secretary to the Ministry of Food, told the House of Commons, "I am never prepared to speculate on the future level of the meat ration which depends on the rate at which food is produced and imported supplies become available."

She said the cut would reduce the monthly national consumption by 19,000 tons.

"No sir," she answered, when asked if the sugar ration of ten ounces per person per week might not be increased to one pound by negotiating for increased supplies from Cuba.

Can't Afford Dollar Sugar

"To increase the ration to one pound a week would take a large amount of dollar sugar, the only sugar available today and this we cannot afford to buy," she said.

Eggs which have become more plentiful were sold in restaurants today for the first time since 1941. Milk, too, which came off the ration today, was again on the menus.

Unrationed beaver meat from Canada was sold by two London butchers today for 70 cents a pound.

3 British Consuls Ousted By Spain

London, March 28 (AP)—The Foreign Office disclosed tonight the Spanish Government has forced three British consuls to leave its territory since last July without giving any reason.

Formal protests in each case produced no result, a spokesman declared. The spokesman gave these details:

Rupert Beaumont, consul at Barcelona, was asked to leave last July. Last month, Thomas Bates was compelled to leave La Palma, and Antonio Valverde-Gill to leave Zaragoza.

The spokesman said Beaumont and Bates have been replaced, but the British consulate at Zaragoza has been closed down.

Beria Wins Order Of Lenin

London, Tuesday, March 29 (AP)—The Moscow radio said today Lavrenti P. Beria, head of the Soviet secret police, had been awarded the Order of Lenin. Beria is a deputy prime minister of the Soviet Union and one of the leading figures in the Politburo.

Eire Ends Soap Rationing

DUBLIN, March 28 (AP)—The Government of Eire announced tonight the end of soap rationing.

Swing To Right Is Claimed In Local Polls

MAR 28 1949

Paris, March 28 (AP)—Interior Minister Jules Moch, a Socialist, said today France has taken a "swing to the right" in the cantonal (county) elections.

The cantonal elections ended yesterday. Final results showed that 133 Communist incumbents were defeated and only 34 Communist incumbents were returned to office. The parties making up the middle-of-the-road coalition government swamped both Communists and the Gaullists of the extreme right.

Socialist Drop Offices

In Socialist ranks, 150 incumbents were defeated and only 279 of 429 former officeholders were returned to their jobs. Socialists have been left of center, but have not been traveling with the Communists.

Popular vote figures were not released for the present. Last week, in the first round of cantonal elections, Gen. Charles de Gaulle's Rally of the French People carried about 28 per cent of the popular vote, more than any other single party. It appeared the Guallists continued that trend yesterday.

The parties making up the present Government won 1,082 seats, to 389 for the Gaullists and 37 for the Communists. Another 99 seats went to Independents.

The Gaullists, however, won more seats than any other singie party.

Claim Higher Score

At noon today they claimed to have elected 536 councillors, instead of the 398 officially reported for them by the Ministry of Information.

The election was for general councillors who help run the departments—roughly equivalent to American states. It has no effect on Parliament or the Cabinet, but is important chiefly as an indication of popular feeling. However, there was no voting in Paris, where the Communist vote is generally large.

Yesterday's voting was the second round in the election. The first was March 20.

Coalition Parties Listed

The four major groups making up the Government bloc are the Socialists, the Popular Republicans (M.R.P.), the Radical Socialists (moderates) and a small Rightist group. Radical Socialist Henri Queuille is Premier.

Figures on the popular vote were not yet available. Figures were considered, however, not so significant as in last week's balloting because in the first round an absolute majority was needed to elect. This encouraged all groups to put forward candidates even where they had only a slight chance, so that the popular-vote total would be swelled.

In the second round, a simple plurality was necessary. The intervening week was taken up with a scurrying among candidates and parties to make deals, principally at the expense of the Communists. Socialists in many districts withdrew in favor of MRP candidates, Radical Socialists withdrew in favor of independents, and so forth. Voters in many districts, therefore, were unable to vote for the party they favored, but only for the party they disliked least.

Indication Of Trend In French Vote

Paris, March 28 (AP)—Jules Moch, Interior Minister, said today the French cantonal (county) elections showed the nation is swinging to the Right.

The Communists took a drubbing in the Sunday balloting. This was interpreted as signifying the French people are moving toward closer solidarity with other Western nations and have been encouraged by the North Atlantic treaty, the Marshall plan and the Berlin airlift to stand up against the Left.

The Communists who campaigned against the Atlantic treaty dropped 147 of the seats they had in the "general councils," advisory local governing boards.

Socialists Also Lose

Moch's own Socialists, who in the early post-war days played ball with the Communists, also were big losers. They dropped 150 seats.

Gen. Charles de Gaulle's Rightist Rally of the French People (R. P.F.) gained 223 seats.

In all, 1,507 local councillors were elected. The election was in two sections. On March 20 a total of 723 posts were filled by candidates who gained outright majorities. A simple plurality was all that was needed in yesterday's runoff for the remaining places.

Comparison With 1945

The Interior Minstry gave this breakdown of seats won by each party in the balloting last Sunday and the week before compared with seats held in 1945:

Party	Seats Won In Present Election	Gain or Loss Over 1945
Communists	37	Loss 147
De Gaullists	389	Gain 233
Socialists	279	Loss 150
Radical Socialist Group of Parties	358	Loss 15
Popular Republican Movement (M.R.P.)	110	Gain 2
Rightists and Independents	334	Gain 86

De Gaulle's party won more seats than any other single party. His office claimed the R.P.F. actually took 536 seats instead of the 389 credited to the party by Government figures.

Coalition Backs Government

The middle-of-the-road Government of Premier Henri Queuille is supported by a coalition of Socialists, Radical Socialists (moderates), Catholic Popular Republicans and some minor Rightist groups.

The Rightists and Independents elected in the local balloting are expected generally to follow a pro-Government policy. This means that Government supporters hold 1,081 of the local council seats.

Even with the general Rightist swing this represents a loss of 77 seats compared with 1945. That loss is due largely to the defeat suffered by the Socialists.

The Interior Ministry said popular vote totals might not be ready until tomorrow. AOP

Picasso Painting Peace Dove For Communists

Paris, March 28 (AP)—Pablo Picasso, who used to make everything look like cubes, will paint a peace dove for the Communists that actually looks like a dove, the Conservative newspaper Figaro said today.

Figaro said that Picasso, the old master of the modernist painters, has been enlisted by the Communist to paint a classical dove of peace advertising the Communist-sponsored World Congress of Partisans of Peace. The congress will be held here next month.

Picasso's dove will be displayed on billboards throughout France, the newspaper said.

Gunfire Is Heard In Yugoslav Area

Trieste, March 28 (AP)—Gunfire was heard inside neighboring Yugoslavia last night, the newspaper Giornale di Trieste reported today.

The paper said there appeared to be light artillery and machine-gun fire in the zone a few miles east of Gorizia.

This was the second time in four days that explosions have been heard from Yugoslavia. On the night of March 24 an ammunition dump near the border was reported blown up by Communists opposed to Marshal Tito.

Strike Paralyzes Port of Antwerp

ANTWERP, Belgium (AP).—The Port of Antwerp was virtually paralyzed yesterday by a 24-hour Communist-led dockers' strike against the North Atlantic security pact.

Police guarded the port as unloading proceeded on some ships, including a Russian freighter.

Red Leader Franz Vanden Branden urged the dockers to fight the North Atlantic treaty. Belgium is one of the nations which has agreed to join the defense alliance.

Russ Can't Halt West German State: Clay

MAR 28 1949

Berlin, March 28 (AP)—If the German people want a separate Western German Government the Russians cannot prevent its formation by lifting the Berlin blockade, United States Military Governor General Lucius D. Clay, said today.

The Russians have indicated in their official press that at least part of their price for lifting the blockade would be abandonment of plans for setting up a West German state and a new Foreign Ministers Conference to reopen the entire German problem.

Meanwhile, the Communists have advanced plans for establishing a separate government in eastern Germany and recently adopted a constitution for such a state.

Up To Germans

Clay asserted that only objections by the Germans themselves now could prevent formation of a western state. He declared:

"If the Germans want it, the West German state will be formed even if, meanwhile, the Russians lift their blockade of Berlin."

Clay said that continued violations by the Russians of the Potsdam agreement on German should relieve the United States of its obligations under the pact.

"The United States cannot consider itself bound to carry out the Potsdam agreement in the face of continued Soviet violations of that agreement," he said.

Reports Denied

Clay denied reports quoting him as having said the United States would maintain a military government in Germany for at least three more years.

The United States commander asserted that in discussing the work of the new Allied Military Security Board he had observed that it "would take over gradually functions now exercised by military government and this might take a month or several years."

Clay also dismissed as "pure speculation" reports that he would remain here until next January and might then be succeeded by Lewis Douglas, United States Ambassador to Britain, as high commissioner. Clay has already indicated he wanted to retire this summer.

In Case Of War, Russ To Enter West Europe

MAR 28 1949

Berlin, March 28 (AP)—A Soviet Army officer said today Russia would invade some western European countries in the event of a war.

The officer, Capt. A. Morosov, wrote in the Red Army newspaper Taegliche Rundschau that such an invasion would be undertaken only if it were "forced upon" the Russians.

He said the Russians would drive westward "in pursuit of the imperialist aggressor"—America and its allies.

Red Statements Cited

Morosov contended that in a war betweeen Russia and the West the Soviet could count upon Communists in western European countries to aid them. He cited recent statements by Communist leaders in the West.

The Red officer said his article—entitled "Just In Case"—was a reply to various hypothetical writings in "warmongering" Western papers which speculated on the outcome of an East-West war.

He attempted to disprove that Russia and its satellites were industrially weaker than the West and that the United States has a monopoly of the atomic bomb.

He also denounced claims that the Russians never would have reached Berlin without the lend-lease arms and equipment given them by the United States and Britain.

Germans Convict First War Criminal

Frankfurt, March 28 (AP)—The first war-crimes trial by a German court ended today with a five-year jail sentence against Dr. Gerhard Peters, German director of a chemical factory.

He was convicted of aiding in the mass murder of 300,000 concentration camp prisoners by supplying poison gas from his chemical plant for their extermination.

Two other plant directors, Hans Ulrich Kaufmann and Karl Amend, were acquitted.

CLAY SPARES NAZI

One Malmedy Defendant Gets Life Term—Another to Die

FRANKFORT, Germany, March 28 (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay spared a German from death today on the chance that the evidence on which he was convicted in the Malmedy massacre of American soldiers might have been obtained by duress. The United States confirmed the death sentence of another defendant.

So far General Clay has confirmed three death sentences and commuted three to life imprisonment. He is reviewing the twelve death sentences imposed by a United States war crimes court for the massacre of eighty-three American captives during the 1944 Battle of the Bulge.

General Clay commuted to life the death sentence of Friedrich Christ, a former SS. lieutenant. The death sentence of Paul Zwigart was confirmed.

Jets Intercept B-29's In Mock-Bomb Raids

Fuerstenfeldbruck, Germany, March 28 (AP)—American jet planes today successfully intercepted mock-bomber attacks in full-scale air maneuvers over Germany.

B-29 bombers of the 326th Squadron, 92d Bomb Group, launched diversionary attacks on four German cities to draw the jets away from Regensburg, prime target in the practice operation.

Operating under battle conditions, the jets knifed in and cut off the bombers before the planned run over Regensburg, once a principal wartime target for American flyers.

Bombs Away Over Target

Diversionary targets included Munich, where the bombers succeeded in dropping their imaginary load; Schweinfurt, formerly the ball-bearing capital of Germany; Hersfeld and Fulda. ADP

British Protest Attack On Corporals In Vienna

Vienna, March 28 (AP)—British authorities officially protested today at the beating given two British corporals during a parade by Communist women.

They were attacked yesterday by Russians in front of the Russian-occupied Imperial Hotel, apparently because they were slow in obeying an order to get off the sidewalk.

The two corporals, Ronald Hudson and Douglas Thompson, were back on duty today.

An American civilian, Paul S. Mitchell, of Hamilton, Ala., also received a black eye when he tried to drive his car through the line of march.

Bulgarian Jews Free To Leave For Israel

MAR 28 1949

Richard Rasmuschke

Sofia, Bulgaria, March 28 (AP)—By May 15 all Bulgarian Jews who want to emigrate to Israel—about 42,000—will have left this country. So say American officials aiding the organized exodus.

That will leave about 5,000 Jews in the country. They are described as people too old, or for other reasons fearful of facing the economic change and hardship involved in starting a new life in Palestine. More than 32,000 Jews already have gone from here.

Secondary Motive

Jewish officials here said the Bulgarian Government was proving most co-operative in aiding emigration. They expressed the opinion, however, that the Communist regime had a secondary motive—i.e., being rid of the Jews, largely a middle-class element, would facilitate converting Bulgaria into a 100 per cent Communist state.

Jewish spokesmen said the Yugoslavs and Czechs, especially the former, also were co-operative, but that the Hungarian and Romanian governments were not.

Jewish representatives here said Bulgaria—with 47,000 Jews in a population of about 7,000,000—was the only country in Europe wheer no Jews were lost under Fascist rule. Bulgarians say the country's Jewish population actually increased 2,000 during this time.

Property Returned

The Bulgarians dispersed their Jews in the provinces but did not hand them over to the Nazis for extermination. Property confiscated from the Jews was restored after the country's liberation.

Emigration of the Jews now, however, fits well into the plans of Bulgaria's new rulers, Jewish spokesmen say.

"The Bulgarian Government is liquidating the middle class in its march toward becoming a socialist state," they said, "and the Jews represented a backbone of this group."

Czechs Asked To Explain Expulsion Of Briton

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 28 (AP)—The three Western powers asked Czechoslovakia today to explain the expulsion of the British military permit officer and the arrest of four members of the office staff.

The permit office handled requests by Czechoslovaks for travel into and across western zones of Germany. The Communist Government last Friday told the British permit officer, Capt. Philip Wildash, to get out in 24 hours. They accused him of "plotting against the Government."

Michael Gold In Bucharest

Bucharest, Romania, March 28 (A. P.).—Michael Gold, leftist novelist from New York, and George Vocila of the Detroit newspaper Romanul American, arrived here today as American delegates to a Romanian Intellectuals Congress, which opens tomorrow.

Poles Reported Against Church 'Reactionaries'

Warsaw, Poland, March 28 (AP)—The Communist newspaper Trybuna Ludu said today "hundreds of thousands" of Polish workers are taking part in mass meetings condemning the "reactionary section "of the Catholic clergy."

Nationwide protests of this sort, usually Communist-inspired, are being supported by Polish political parties.

The Labor party, professing to represent a big segment of Catholicism, has called upon the clergymen to drop opposition to the Warsaw regime and negotiate an understanding between the church and state. The Polish Peasant party has adopted a similar resolution.

Pravda Hits British Curb On Parades

Moscow, March 28 (AP)—A commentator for Pravda, official Communist newspaper, said today that British Home Secretary J. Chuter Ede was a "protector of Fascists."

Referring to the riots in London on March 20 when Communists and others attacked a parade of Sir Oswald Mosley's revived Fascist movement, the writer said Ede not only forbade a demonstration against the Mosley group but furnished police protection for the marchers.

The Pravda article pointed out that Ede's ban on political processions in London for three months following the clash would bar the Communists' traditional May Day parade.

Moscow Gets World-Peace Talks Report

Moscow, March 28 (AP)—The Communist newspaper Pravda, printing a Tass dispatch from New York, told today of hundreds being turned away from meetings of the Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace because of lack of space.

It said "reactionary circles are using no little force trying to surround the congress with an atmosphere of unruly hysterics."

Pravda reported that American newspapers were devoting much space to the meetings.

PAPERS IN TURKEY BAR NEUTRAL ROLE

View Advanced by One Organ Is Criticized as Unrealistic and No Longer Practical

MAR 28 1949

ISTANBUL, Turkey, March 28 (AP)—Turkish newspapers rejected today the proposition that Turkey could remain neutral in a new world war.

The idea of neutrality was broached Saturday in a Page 1 editorial of the newspaper Ulus, official organ of the ruling People's party. Informed quarters said Foreign Minister Necmeddin Sadak had expressed displeasure over the editorial, but there has been no official comment.

Ulus had complained bitterly of Turkey's exclusion from the North Atlantic Pact. Today, however, the newspaper ran another article saying Saturdays' editorial was a reflection solely of the writer's point of view and that "our newspaper is not directly the spokesman of the Government or of the Foreign Office." Observers read this with reservations, doubting that an editorial so outspoken and so loaded with political dynamite as Saturday's could have been printed without official approval.

The conservative and influential newspaper Cumhuriyet, replying to Ulus' Saturday piece, said that "while the giants clash there is no chance for little and medium nations to stand aside and watch."

The newspaper Vatan said that "armed neutrality as we followed in the second war is now a myth." The newspaper Tan said anyone viewing the situation realistically could see that it would be impossible for Turkey to remain neutral or stand aside "in a war for peace."

Turkey, neutral despite Allied pressure in World War II, was a member of the Central Powers and enemy of the Allies in World War I.

Foreign Minister Sadak is expected to leave Sunday by plane for New York to head his United Nations delegation. While in the United States he is expected to take up, unofficially, the Atlantic Pact and the proposed Mediterranean pact.

Tientsin Called A Liability To Communists

Fred Hampson

Shanghai, March 28 (AP)—James T. Ivy, American aid director in Tientsin, said today that the northern city had become a liability to the Communists.

He and two ECA coworkers arrived here from Tientsin a few days ago. They were in the city when the Communists captured it from the Nationalists.

Ivy said the Reds were doing their best to keep business going in Tientsin, but that unemployment was increasing and commerce was at a standstill.

Port Is Closed

"They are trying to do the job but don't know how," Ivy said. "They won't accept the help of people who do know how because it would conflict with their propaganda."

He said these conditions existed when he left:

Tientsin's port was closed and most industries dependent on imports were idle. The city's ten textile mills were running on domestic cotton.

Food Plentiful, Costly

Inflation had wiped out early wage increases given workers by the Communists. Food was plentiful but expensive in term of Tientsin wages.

Manufacturers wanted to close their factories but could not afford the six-month severance pay which the Reds required.

The Communists trimmed the police force from 10,000 men to 4,000. The 6,000 were told to find other employment or be absorbed by the Communist Army. They were not allowed severance pay.

Little Crime In City

Tientsin was orderly and there was little crime.

Ignorance of commerce, finance and shipping was keeping the Communists from effecting the Link Plan (a system designed to balance imports against exports).

"They seem to think that just because a bank has its doors open it can handle overseas remittances and take care of trade financing," he said.

Some resistance was developing as conditions under the Communists worsened, Ivy said, adding that he did not know how widespread the resistance might be.

Enthusiasm Cools

Workers' enthusiasm began to cool a month after the Communists took over, he said. The fervor of Chinese students also was described as diminishing.

Ivy said he saw a slogan on two buildings which read: "We know Chiang Kai-shek is a very bad man but under him we got two bags of flour. We know Mao Tze-tung (Communist leader) is a very good man but under him we get fifteen catties of millet, which is not enough." [A catty is equal to 1⅓ pounds.]

ECA Stocks Seized

Ivy said ECA stocks worth $3,500,000 were seized by the Reds.

More than 300 foreigners, Ivy said, had applied to the Communists for permission to leave Tientsin. They were discouraged over business prospects. The group includes most of the non-Russian foreign population of Tientsin.

96 Catholic Missionaries Listed Killed by China Reds

MAR 29 1949

By The Associated Press

SHANGHAI, Tuesday, March 29—A Catholic news agency representative said today that ninety-six Catholic missionaries —including twelve nuns—had lost their lives in the Communist areas of China since V-J Day.

The Rev. Charles F. McCarthy, San Francisco, Calif., of the HWA Mining Agency, gave this breakdown of Catholic casualties:

Forty-eight put to death, most of them by shooting.
Thirty-two died in Red prisons.
Three died shortly after being released from prisons.
Thirteen missing for more than two years and presumed dead.

Father McCarthy said that most of the deaths occurred before April, 1948, when the Communist high command was reported to have ordered that missionaries were not to be molested.

Soong And Chiang To Meet at Fenghwa

Hong Kong, March 28 (AP)—Former Premier T. V. Soong of China was reported today to have left for Fenghwa to confer with retired President Chiang Kai-shek, his brother-in-law.

Great importance was attached to the reported conference by Chinese political observers. They said it was particularly significant in view of the fact Government and Communist peace delegates are scheduled to meet in Peiping on April 1.

While in near-by Canton, reports said that Soong, reputedly one of the world's richest men, conferred with former Premier Sun Fo and other Chinese political leaders.

Chiang, who retired from the presidency in January, reportedly has been urged to lead South China forces in continued opposition to the Communists regardless of what peace action the Nanking Government takes.

Lawyer's Nuptial Snags GI's Bid To Join Family

MAR 28 1949

Tokyo, March 28 (AP)—United States Army Corporal Lorenzo Gamboa had to postpone for a day his fight to rejoin his wife and two children in Australia. His lawyer was busy today marrying an Australian.

Gamboa, Filipino-born United States citizen, has been barred from returning to his Australian wife because the Australian Government considers him an Asiatic.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur instructed Alva C. Carpenter, head of the occupation legal section, to see if he could help Gamboa get to Melbourne.

Lawyer Marries

But wedding bells rang today for Carpenter, a Fort Wayne (Ind.) lawyer, and Miss Doreen James, of Hobart, Tasmania.

So Gamboa arranged to talk with Carpenter tomorrow. His enlistment expires in June.

Gambo's latest effort to get back into Australia was turned down by the Government yesterday. But the Government offered to pay his family's fare to the United States.

May Go To Philippines

In Australia, Mrs. Gamboa said she would accept the offer on condition her return fare and re-entry into her native land was guaranteed.

She added she might go to the Philippines to live if her husband were not admitted to Australia. At least, she said, they had relatives there.

Australia Affirms Refusal To Admit Filipino Corporal

Sydney, Australia, March 28 (AP). Arthur Calwell, Immigration Minister, said today the Australian Government could not make an exception in the case of Mrs. Lorenzo Gamboa, whose Filipino-born husband, a United States soldier, is attempting to join her in Australia.

Calwell said there were seven other Australian women besides Mrs. Gamboa who married Filipinos and whose husbands were not permitted to join them in Australia.

Is American Citizen

Gen. Douglas MacArthur has asked the occupation legal section at Tokyo to assist Mrs. Gamboa's husband to join her in Melbourne. He is a United States Army corporal and an American citizen. The Australian Government considers him an Asiatic.

The Australian Government, Calwell said, has offered Mrs. Gamboa free transportation to the Philippines or the United States. Mrs. Gamboa said he would accept the offer on condition her return fare and re-entry into her native land was guaranteed.

No Retaliation Ordered

The Philippine consul general at Sydney, Manuel Alzate, said his Government had not instructed him to take any retaliatory action in refusing visas to Australians to visit the Philippines. He said he issued a visa yesterday to an Australian woman wishing to join her American husband in Manila.

In another case, Alzate said, his Government was paying all repatriation expenses of Filipino Telesforo Ybasco, his Australian wife and their children. Ybasco, 69, lived in Australia 49 years. He is leaving Australia voluntarily because he expressed a desire to settle in Manila.

Fog, Snow Hinder Fujiyama Plane Hunt

Tokyo, March 28 (AP)—Four to six feet of new snow and a fog today hampered ground parties in their search for the wreckage of a B-26 light bomber that crashed yesterday on the slopes of Mount Fujiyama.

The plane carried a crew of four.

Wreckage was spotted by search planes.

7 Tanker-Plane Bodies Recovered

Manila, March 28 (AP) — The bodies of seven of the nine United States airmen who perished in the crash of a B-29 tanker plane have been found by a ground party searching a mountain 25 miles northeast of here.

The plane crashed March 1 after refueling the globe-girdling B-50 Lucky Lady II.

Australian Who 'Would Welcome Russ' Charged With Sedition

MAR 28 1949

Sydney, Australia, March 28 (AP). The general secretary of the Australian Communist party was charged with sedition today for pledging support to Russia if Soviet troops should enter Australia.

The Communist leader, Lawrence Louis Sharkey, pleaded innocent at a special session of Federal Court. He elected to be tried by a jury.

Sharkey faces two charges—one of uttering seditious words and one of publishing seditious words on or about March 4.

Opening of the case revealed a split within trade unions generally considered Communist-dominated.

Many thousand members of the militant Longshoremen and Coal Miners Union refused to protest the prosecution of Sharkey. Of 23,000 men in the Wharf Laborers Union, only 5,000 obeyed an order of the federal executive to strike at the hour the court opened. There were no other major work stoppages.

"Would Welcome Them"

This, said the Sydney Sun, gave the Communist leaders one of their greatest industrial rebuffs in years.

The statements quoted in the charges against Sharkey were made at the time Communist leaders all around the world were stating their support for Russia in any future war.

Sharkey is charged, in part, with having said:

"If Soviet forces in pursuit of aggressors enter Australia, Australian workers would welcome them."

The hearing was unfinished when the court adjourned until tomorrow. The magistrate will commit Sharkey for trial by jury if he believes a case has been established against him.

AQABA ACCORD IS REPORTED

Side Agreement Said To Speed Trans-Jordan Armistice

MAR 28 1949

Rhodes, March 28 (AP)—Informants said tonight a face-saving "gentlemen's agreement" for reduction of forces in the Aqaba area has unblocked Israeli-Trans-Jordan armistice negotiations.

Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, United Nations acting mediator, said the writing of an armistice agreement will begin tomorrow. The draft is scheduled to be completed by Wednesday night. After that it will have to be approved by Tel Aviv and Amman.

Israel already has signed armistices with Egypt and Lebanon. Agreements have not yet been concluded with Syria, Iraq, Yemen and Saudi Arabia.

Not Mentioned By Bunche

Bunche's announcement made no mention of Israeli-Trans-Jordan differences over Aqaba. Both Israeli and Trans-Jordan informants indicated, however, that Aqaba was not the thorny problem now it was a week or so ago.

Other sources said no details of the agreement were available now and it was unlikely it would appear in the text of the armistice.

This side compromise was said to be connected with British forces in Aquaba, Trans-Jordan's port on the Red Sea.

Some quarters said Bunche had sent a message to Trygve Lie, United Nation's Secretary General, to ask the British to reduce tension in that area.

Sign Of British Move

This would indicate the British are willing to reduce their forces in the port by transferring part of them north and farther away from the Israel frontier.

Israel has opposed the presence of British troops in Aqaba. Israeli troops in Palestine's Negeb desert are only a few miles from the port.

British troops were sent to Aqaba several weeks ago when Trans-Jordan invoked her treaty with Britain. The Egyptians and Israelis were still fighting there.

ISRAELI COMMUNISTS LOSE

Denied Seats on Foreign Affairs and Security Committees

TEL AVIV, Israel, March 28 (AP) —Israel's Parliament refused tonight to give the Communists representation on committees for foreign affairs and security.

The Communists have four seats in Parliament. This entitles them to membership on four out of the nine parliamentary committees. They had asked representation on foreign affairs and security "in order to see that Israel's policy won't adapt itself to the infamous policy of Western Europe."

McDonald Presents Self

TEL AVIV, March 28 (AP).—The United States became the first nation to be represented in Israel by an Ambassador when James G. McDonald presented credentials today to President Chaim Weizmann.

The ceremony, at government headquarters, was attended by a number of Israeli officials. Dr. Weizman said Mr. McDonald appointment "is a further indication of the sympathetic and constructive interest which the President and the government of the United States" have taken in matters concerning Israel.

The United States was the first country to grant Israeli de facto recognition—last May, when the new state was proclaimed.

11 Navy Men Saved In Pacific As Flying Boat Is Going Down

Foy Kroyer

MAR 28 1949

Pearl Harbor, March 28 (AP)—Eleven navy men were snatched from the mid-Pacific in a nick-of-time rescue last midnight nine hours after their sinking Catalina flying boat was forced down by engine failure.

They had estimated the leaking hulk could stay afloat no longer.

Just within the limit, the navy LSM 448 (landing ship, medium) was guided to the scene by a Marine transport plane and picked up all the castaways. It is due to land them at Kwajalein three days hence. No one was injured.

The Catalina was being ferried from the Central Pacific airbase of Kwajalein to San Diego when it was forced down at 2.39 P.M. Sunday (Hawaii time).

Seven Ships Alerted

The spot was 605 miles west of Johnston Island and 1,300 miles southwest of Pearl Harbor.

Fifteen long-range search planes from these islands took to the air, and seven surface ships in the area were alerted.

A Marine R5B Skymaster, en route from Honlulu to Guam on a military air transport run, dropped its passengers at Johnston Island and joined the search.

With its landing lights cutting through rain squalls and early evening haze, the marine plane spotted the bobbing Catalina three hours and 45 minutes after the forced descent.

Boat Smashed In Heavy Seas

The castaways fired off so many flares the marine pilot remarked "It looked like a Chinese new year."

"You sure look good up there," Lieut. Com. William C. Hartman, pilot of the downed plane, radioed to the Marines.

An Air Force B-17 special rescue planes dropped a boat, but it was smashed in the heavy seas.

The B-17 then sought to guide the attack cargo ship Grainer to the spot. Though only 25 miles away, the Grainger could make but 4½ knots because it was towing a lighter.

The Marine plane then guided in the LSM 448.

It originally had been 75 miles away but already had headed for the area at top speed—thirteen knots.

Names Of Rescued Men

Besides Martman, those rescued included:

Engineer R. D. Osborn, of Pana, Ill.; Chief Aviation Machinist Robert Brook, of Rosehill, N.C.; Aviation Machinist Leroy Way of Portland, Ore.; Aviation Machinist's Mate W. G. Baumann of Battle Creek, Iowa; Aviation Radiomen R. J. Haas of Seattle, Wash., P. H. Conley of St. Louis, Mo., and H. D. Williams of Little Rock, Cal.; Ordnanceman W. V. Webb of Hugo, Okla.; Boatswain Frank F. Dioguard and Seaman Henry O. Davis, hometowns unavailable.

Dioguard and Davis were passengers; the others a ferry crew transferring from Kaneohe naval air station on Oahu to San Diego.

The LSM 448 is skippered by Lieut. R. C. Shannon. (Home address unavailable).

Navy LSM 448 picked up the airmen nine hours after they went down. The breif radio contact said merely the men were rescued.

The landing ship was ordered to take the survivors to Kwajalein in the Marshall Islands, their starting point. The Catalina was ditched at sea with a dead engine, 605 miles southwest of Johnston Island, 700 miles southwest of here.

Radioed Peril Was Great

After putting down on the rough sea the flying boat radioed that it was leaking and could not stay afloat much longer.

The Navy rushed fifteen other planes to the area. Life rafts were dropped, but some of them smashed in the rough seas.

An Air Force B-17 from Hickam Field hovered over the bounding flying boat until the rescue ship arrived.

On Its Way Quickly

The LSM was 75 miles north when the twin-engined Catalina went down. The surface craft's radio operator had gone off duty, but had left his receiving set on and got the relayed distress call from the Navy here. Seven minutes later the LSM was on its way.

The LSM is commanded by Lieut. Floyd McDaniel Furr, of Rockhill, S.C.

The spot where the Catalina went down is one of the loneliest in the Pacific. It was not far from where a plane bearing Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker was lost during the war. Amelia Earhart lost her life in the same general area.

Names Released

The Navy here listed the eleven men aboard the Catalina as:

LIEUT. COM. W. C. HARTMAN, Altadena, Cal.

ENSIGN R. D. OSBORN, Pana, Ill.

AVIATION RADIOMAN H. D. WILLIAMS, Little Rock, Cal.

CHIEF AVIATION MACHINIST ROBERT BROOK, Rosehill, N.C.

AVIATION MACHINIST'S MATE W. G. BAUMANN, Battle Creek, Iowa.

AVIATION MACHINIST LEROY WAY, Portland, Ore.

AVIATION RADIOMAN R. J. HAAS, Seattle, Wash.

AVIATION RADIOMAN P. M. CONLEY, St. Louis, Mo.

ORDNANCEMAN W. V. WEBB, Hugo, Okla.

BOATSWAIN FRANK F. DIOGUARD, home town unavailable.

SEAMAN HENRY O. DAVIS, home town unavailable.

Two Were Passengers

Davis and Dioguard were passengers. The other nine were a ferry crew formerly attached to Kaneohe Naval Air Station on Oahu Island.

They had picked up the plane in Kwajalein and were flying it to their new station at San Diego, California.

Sforza Arrives Early To Sign Atlantic Pact

Washington, March 28 (AP)—Count Carlos Sforza, of Italy, today led the parade of Foreign Ministers converging on Washington to sign the North Atlantic Security pact.

Sforza arrived in New York, one week ahead of the time when ten to twelve Foreign Ministers are scheduled to sign the treaty to link their nations in a defensive alliance.

Group On Liner

The Foreign Ministers of Britain, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg, meanwhile, neared the United States aboard the liner Queen Mary.

Sforza was accompanied here by Gastone Guidotti, director general of political affairs in the Italian Foreign Affairs Ministry, and Victor Cales, head of the Count's secretariat. His wife, Countess Valentina Sforza, also is a member of the party.

More Due Thursday

A second batch of Foreign Ministers, headed by Robert Schuman, of France, is scheduled to reach the United States by plane Thursday and Friday.

After the pact is signed, President Truman will formally submit it to the Senate. It will not be binding on the United States until the Senate approves it by a two-third vote.

Senator Lucas (D., Ill.), forecast today that the Senate Foreign Relations Committee will hold about a month of hearings on the treaty. He made that prediction after the weekly meeting of Congressional leaders with President Truman.

Vote Faces Delay

Lucas also said the Senate will not vote on the treaty until after "must" domestic legislation is out of the way. That suggested that a vote may be many weeks off.

Secretary of State Acheson sat in on Mr. Truman's conference with Congressional leaders. Lucas said Acheson was asked in because the discussion chiefly concerned the Atlantic pact.

Sforza's early arrival aroused confidence in the Italian Senate which yesterday voted, 188-112, to permit Italy to join the Atlantic Security Alliance.

Sforza's early arrivad aroused speculation that he intends to discuss some strictly Italian problems with the State department. These would include Italy's desire to keep her former African colonies under United Nations trusteeship.

U.S. Indicates Support

Joseph C. Satterthwaite, director of the State Department's office of Near Eastern and African Affairs, touched on the colony issue last night. He said in a radio roundtable that the United States believes Italy should be allowed to help administer one of these—Somaliland—under a United Nations trusteeship.

Acheson to favor giving Italy trusteeship control over the three African colonies that were taken from her by the peace treaty.

Assistant Secretary of State Dean Rusk disclosed at a news conference today Britain, France and the United States had tried but failed so far to agree on how to dispose of the colonies.

Under the peace treaty, the United Nations assembly, composed of 57 countries, must decide the colonies' future at the session beginning in New York April 5.

Assistant Secretary Ruck told reporters the United States favors returning only one colony, Italian Somaliland, to Italy. Britain would get Cyrenaica, the most strategic half of Libya, under a trusteeship and Ethiopia would be awarded the desirable coastal section of Eritrea under the American formula.

This is approximately the same stand adopted by the United States last fall in Paris. Sforza can be expected to point to recent elections in Libya won by pro-Italian candidates as evidence that the return of Italian administrators would not cause the trouble that has been predicted.

Truman Shapes Western Europe Arms Program

Congress to Get Request After Atlantic Treaty

WASHINGTON, (AP) — President Truman assigned budget experts yesterday to work on a big program of supplying arms to western Europe as a bulwark against Communism.

The program is expected to be submitted to congress as a follow-up of the North Atlantic defense treaty, which is to be signed here April 4.

$1,250,000,000 Sought

Informed officials predicted $1,250,000,000 to $1,500,000,000 would be asked to arm the treaty nations. They said aid to other "friendly" countries might go as high as $5,000,000,000.

On Capitol Hill, Sen. Jenner (R), Ind., bitterly criticized all three major phases of the administration's foreign policy—military aid, North Atlantic pact, and the proposed $5,580,000,000 extension of the Marshall economic recovery program.

Jenner declared that the multiple aid programs are leading the United States into economic bankruptcy, and he shouted:

"Just as France has been bled white by past wars, so the United States is to be bled white by the fear of the next war."

Sen. McMahon (D), Conn., a member of the senate foreign relations committee, told Jenner caustically that he should have delivered his speech before the cultural and scientific conference for world peace in New York, at which Communists are in attendance.

McMahon said its delegates, like Jenner, "don't like" the Marshall plan or the North Atlantic treaty.

But Jenner insisted that the United States cannot afford to continue its present "nonproductive" spending "unless it wants to fasten onto itself, for at least the next 100 years, a rigid regimentation of black austerity."

He said the North Atlantic pact would not keep the United States out of war and would not prevent "the forward lunge" of an aggressor.

"The Kremlin knows and understands all this," eJnner said. "No North Atlantic alliance will deter the Soviet leaders from making war. Only the power of the U.S.A. will prevent war."

cided to give mostly a free hand to the experienced Amercan delegation at the forthcoming session of the United Nations general assembly.

The state department disclosed this yesterday in announcing Acheson plans to attend the opening meeting April 5 at Lake Success, N. Y., and then to return to his job here.

Needed in Washington

In thus reversing the practice of his predecessor, Gen. George C. Marshall, Acheson is conforming to a recommendation of the Hoover commission on governmental reorganization which said the secretary is "needed in Washington." Marshall personally headed the American delegation at UN sessions.

The state department also reported that the attitude the United States will take toward Franco Spain and disposition of the Italian colonies may be decided this week. The delegation, headed by Ambassador Warren R. Austin, will meet here Saturday with Acheson to work out its program.

Assistant Secretary Dean Rusk, an alternate member, told newsmen the United States is trying to reach agreement with Britain, France and other nations on the future of the Italian colonies. This country, he said ,has already indicated it favors (1) a UN trusteeship for Italian Somaliland, (2) ceding a part of Eritrea to Ethiopia, and (3) a British trusteeship for Cyrenaica. A decision is still to be reached on the rest of Eritrea and on Tripolitania.

On Spain, Rusk said other nations may propose lifting the partial UN diplomatic boycott of the Franco regime.

He declined to predict what attitude the United States will take, but said that as long as the UN resolution of Dec. 12, 1946, remains in effect, the United States will conform to it. This rsulted in the withdrawal of ambassadors from Madrid by the United States and many other UN members.

Arms Shipment Nearing Iran From U.S.

Washington, March 28 (AP)—The first shipments of surplus arms which Iran is buying from the United States are now being delivered to Persian Gulf ports, diplomatic officials said today.

More than 50 planes and a "few" light tanks are included in a $26,000,000 deal to supply the Iranian Army and gendarmerie.

All "Nonoffensive"

All the arms were described by officials as nonoffensive in character despite Russia's criticism of the transaction. The announced purpose is to enable the Iranian Government to maintain internal security.

The surplus arrangement has been in effect for more than two years, but shipments were held up until January, largely because of delays by Iran in placing orders, officials said. They are now going forward at the rate of about two shiploads a month. Twelve or fourteen shiploads are scheduled.

Mainly From U.S.

All but about 15 per cent of the surplus is coming from army stores in the United States. The remainder is from the United States occupation zone in Germany. Included in the lot from Germany are the planes, to be delivered by air, among these are 45 F-47 fighters and seven C-47 cargo planes, along with spare parts for repairs.

The Iranian transaction is a loan, by which the Iranian Government has pledged repayment at two and three-eighths per cent interest. Iran originally was granted a $25,000,000 surplus credit, but the Parliament trimmed this to $10,000,000. Later Iran asked for $16,000,000 to pay shipping costs.

Italian Envoy May Seek African Colonies Action

BY JOHN SCALI

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Italy's foreign minister, Carlo Sforza, arrived in the United States yesterday to add his country to the roll of western nations about to sign a defense alliance.

Sforza landed by plane in New York, the first of 11 foreign ministers tentatively scheduled to link their countries into the American-backed security pact.

Taft To Seek Slash In E.R.P. Funds

Washington, March 28 (AP)—Senator Taft (R., Ohio) said today he will offer amendments seeking to cut the $5,580,000,000 (B) proposed to keep the Marshall Plan going another fifteen months.

Taft spoke out as the Senate went into its third day of debate on foreign-aid-authorization legislation.

He said he probably would offer later in the day an amendment making $4,280,000,000 available for fifteen months, with the proviso that the President could order the amount spent in the twelve months beginning April 1.

Smith Backs Bill

Another Taft amendment probably will propose a 10-per-cent flat cut in the $5,580,000,000 asked by the Administration to run through June 30, 1950.

Senator Smith (R., N.J.), a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, told the Senate that passage of the bill "will definitely tell the world that America is united in its support of the spirit and purpose of the United Nations movement for co-operative action to preserve the peace."

House Debate Set

He expressed belief the success of the plan "will be a definite block to the 'creeping paralysis' of communism which the world today so desperately fears."

On the House side, the Rules Committee cleared the House foreign aid bill for debate. The committee decreed four hours of general debate, scheduled to begin Wednesday.

The House bill calls for $5,380,000,000—$200,000,000 less than the measure before the Senate.

Bridges Fears Sabotage

Majority Leader Lucas (D., Ill.) said he hopes to get a Senate vote tomorrow. A lengthy series of proposed amendments to be considered may delay the final showdown, however.

Senator Bridges (R., N.H.) complained that sabotage and Communist propaganda prevent Europeans from knowing what America is doing for them under the huge recovery program operated by the Economic Co-operation Administration.

Gubitchev Protest By Russia Rejected

U. S. Tells Moscow It Will Proceed With Spy Trial

WASHINGTON, March 28 (AP).—The United States has formally advised Russia that it intends to go ahead with prosecution of Valentin A. Gubitchev, thirty-two, Russian United Nations staff member accused of an espionage conspiracy, the state department disclosed today.

A note was handed to Soviet Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushkin last Thursday rejecting Russia's contention that Gubitchev has diplomatic immunity from the charges, the department announced.

Gubitchev and Judith Coplon, twenty-seven, a Department of Justice employee, were arrested on March 4 in New York. The Federal Bureau of Investigation charged that Miss Coplon took confidential information from government files with the intention of giving it to Gubitchev. She also has been indicted.

Court To Hear Eisler Appeal

MAR 28 1949

Washington, March 28 (AP)—Gerhart Eisler, alien Communist, today brought to the Supreme Court his legal battle to kill the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

The committee called Eisler "the No. 1 Communist in the United States." Now Eisler wants the Supreme Court to declare unconstitutional the law establishing the committee. Further, he asks a ruling that the committee has no constitutional authority to compel any witness to testify.

If Eisler wins the Supreme Court to his views, he will escape serving a sentence of a year in jail and $1,000 fine for contempt of Congress. He was convicted on a Government assertion that he refused to be sworn as a witness when called before the committee February 6, 1947.

"Preposterous," Committee Says

The Justice Department called Eisler's attack on the committee "perposterous."

A Justice Department brief filed with the court in advance of the oral arguments said:

"The issue in this case . . . is not whether, in our opinion or in the court's opinion, the committee has been a good or a bad one, or whether on some occasions it may have treated witnesses or others fairly or unfairly, or have acted partially or impartially.

"A possible—or a past—misuse of a power lawfully granted does not warrant a denial of the power's existence. Nor does anything which has happened in the questioning or treatment of other witnesses warrant an assumption that a particular witness who refused to answer questions at all would be questioned unlawfully."

Eisler's Contention

A brief filed by Eisler's attorneys disputed the Government's statement that Eisler refused to be sworn. All that he wanted, Eisler's brief said, was to make a three-minute statement to the committee before being sworn.

The Justice Department argued that Eisler's conduct amounted to a refusal to testify except on conditions which he had not right to impose.

Eisler's attorneys argued that the committee has been so effective "that it not merely restrains speech, it threatens to destroy freedom of speech (and thus self-government) altogether."

Eisler's brief described him as a native of Austria, an "alien Communist," who is a member of the German Communist movement.

Christoffel Plea Wins Court Review Of Perjury Conviction

MAR 28 1949

Washington, March 28 (AP)—The Supreme Court today agreed to review the conviction of Harold R. Christoffel, former Milwaukee CIO union official, on a charge of testifying falsely he had never been a Communist.

A Federal jury here found Christoffel guilty of lying to the House Labor Committee. He was sentenced to two to six years.

Christoffel's conviction grew out of an appearance before the House Labor Committee March 1, 1947.

He was then president of Local 248 of the CIO United Automobile Workers.

Probe Of Milwaukee Strike

At the time the union was striking against the Milwaukee plant of the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Company. The committee was investigating the strike.

Christoffel was later ousted as president of the local.

He was convicted of perjury and a Court of Appeals upheld his conviction unanimously.

His attorney, O. John Rogge, based the appeal for one thing on a contention that when Christoffel testified a majority of the 25-member House committee was not present.

If a quorum was not present, Rogge said in his petition, Christoffel could not have committed perjury within the meaning of the District of Columbia law.

TREASON LAID TO BURGMAN IN INDICTMENT

Ex-Employe Of Berlin Embassy Said To Have Been Radio Station Head

Washington, March 28 (AP)—Herbert John Burgman was indicted on a charge of treason today—the twenty-fifth American to be so accused as a result of World War II.

Burgman, employed for twenty years in the United States Embassy in Berlin prior to the war, was named by Federal grand jury as the manager of Germany's wartime station Debunk. It beamed Nazi propaganda to America and this country's armed forces abroad.

In contrast to the dramatic broadcasting which brought about the treason conviction here a week ago of Mildred Elizabeth Gillars—"Axis Sally"—the Government said Burgman's station specialized in fictitious news reports.

69 Separate Acts

These reports, the indictment said, were accompanied by commentary by Burgman designed to impair American civilian morale, destroy faith in this Government's wartime administration, and discourage American fighting men. He was described as having used the name "Joe Scanlon."

Burgman, now in jail here, was accused by the grand jury of 69 separate treasonous acts. Under these charges, the maximum penalty, in event of conviction, could be death.

Burgman is to be arraigned in district court next Friday.

Soldier Of World War I

Burgman, now 52, is a native of Hokah, Minn. He was an American soldier in World War I. After serving as a member of American Occupation Forces in Germany after that war, he took a clerical job in the Berlin Embassy in 1921. When World War II broke out, he was chief clerk to the American military attaché in the German capital.

Justice Department investigators have stated that although Burgman could have been repatriated to the United States along with other diplomatic personnel, he refused this. Instead he elected to remain in the Reich with this German wife and their then nearly grown son, both of whom are still in Germany.

Smith Commands First Army

MAR 28 1949

Former Ambassador to Russia Will have His Headquarters on Governors Island.

Washington, March 28 (A. P.).—Lieut.-Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, who has just resigned as Ambassador to Russia, has been given command of the First Army.

Announcing this today, the Army Department said that he will have headquarters at Governors Island, N. Y. In his new post he succeeds Gen. Courtney H. Hodges, who retired on January 31.

Smith became Ambassador to Russia in February, 1946. He returned from Moscow a few months ago. He underwent treatment at Walter Reed Hospital and spent some time convalescing in Florida. His resignation as Ambassador was accepted by President Truman last week.

He served with distinction in world war II. He was Chief of Staff to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower from September, 1942, throughout the North African, Mediterranean and European theater operations.

Smith, who is 53, is a native of Indianapolis. He began his Army service during the first world war.

U. S. Discloses 2 New Findings In Atomic Field

May Mean Improvements in Electronic Devices; Formula Found Wrong

WASHINGTON, March 28 (AP).—Government scientists announced today two new findings in the atomic field which they said will aid in further development of certain kinds of scientific and industrial apparatus.

At the same time, they said, the findings show that one of the most widely used mathematical constants—with applications throughout the whole world of electronics—is incorrect, and will need prompt revision.

Admitting that their "important" developments, which took a year to work out, are tough ones to translate into plain language, researchers of the National Bureau of Standards gave this outline:

First, by working with the proton—a positively charged particle which is a constituent of all kinds of atoms—they were able to set up a handy and extremely accurate mathematical yardstick for measuring and thus controlling the strength of a given magnetic field.

Find "Absolute Value"

Since magnetic fields are used in a wide variety of scientific and industrial apparatus—such as electromagnets, cyclotrons and certain "servomechanisms" or robot-like devices—the scientists said a more accurate means of stabilizing such fields can lead to improved use of such machines and perhaps development of better models.

Their second finding—an outgrowth of the first—was the determination of a "precise absolute value" for a mathematical ratio which electronics scientists and engineers use every day of their lives.

This is the famed ratio "e-over-m" where "e" represents the charge on an electron and "m" represents its mass or size.

A theoretical value for that ratio—the constant 1.75936—is at present the accepted one of science. And it is the basis of many calculations involving the use of electrons in everyday life. In the electronics field, it's as important as the constant "pi"— or 3.1416—is in mathematics generally.

The bureau men came up with a new value—1.75878—and Dr. H. A. Thomas, one of the scientists, said: "Calculations based on the previously recommended value of e-over-m will have to be revised."

Will Seek New Value

Dr. Thomas told reporters: "A national committee on fundamental standards, which includes many prominent scientists, will undoubtedly recommend to the scientific world a new value, taking into account our findings."

Here are details on their first finding, which concerns the proton:

While all atoms contain protons the simplest atom to work with is the hydrogen atom because its nucleus, or heart, is made up of a single proton. As a source of protons, then, the bureau men used ordinary tap water. An ampule of water—smaller than a thimble—was placed in a magnetic apparatus weighing about a ton and a half and taking up most of a good-sized laboratory room.

A proton has two kinds of "motion." First, it spins like a top on its own axis. Second, it has a kind of built-in magnetic force—as though a bar magnet were in its center. Because of this, called the "magnetic moment" of the proton, the proton "flips over" when in the presence of an applied magnetic field.

Sought New Standard

The idea of the experiments was to get an absolute value for the relationship between the "spin" motion and the "magnetic moment" of a proton while it was being acted upon by a known magnetic force applied to it.

The scientists knew that if they could accomplish this they would have a standard for measuring magnetic fields of unknown strength.

Another factor in the work was the use of a high-frequency radio current which, in simple terms, tends to cause a proton to act just the opposite from the way it acts when a magnetic field is applied to it.

That is, at a certain frequency, in the presence of a magnetic field, a "resonance" is produced in the motion of the proton—somewhat as a loose fender on an automobile vibrates when the machine reaches a certain speed.

Measurement Simplified

By calculations based on the known frequency of the radio-waves employed, the known magnetic field force, and the known "spin" motion of the proton, the scientists were able to work out their unknown quantity — the "magnetic moment."

Now, they said, it will be possible for any one seeking to measure a magnetic field to do this: Simply put a small hand-apparatus, called a "resonance probe," into the area of the magnetic field. This will detect "resonance" of a proton material contained in the probe. Then by reference to the proton yardstick or "standard" for the particular frequency involved, it will be possible to work out the strength of the magnetic field employed.

Researchers who collaborated with Dr. Thomas were Dr. R. L. Driscoll and Dr. J. A. Ipple. Dr. Edward U. Condon, director of the bureau, described their work as "a most important contribution to modern physics."

Power Experts to Visit U. S.

WASHINGTON, March 28 (AP)—Twenty-six power experts from nine Marshall Plan countries of Europe will visit the United States in April to study how to increase Europe's supply of electricity. The Economic Cooperation Administration said today that the electrical and mechanical engineers would arrive in New York April 11 to spend a month on United States operational methods. The countries sending experts include France, Belgium, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Austria, Italy, Western Germany, Switzerland and the United Kingdom.

Israel Role In U.N. Forecast

Washington, March 28 (AP)—Dean Rusk, Assistant Secretary of State, today predicted Israel will be admitted soon as the fifty-ninth member of the United Nations.

Rusk, emphasized, however, that favorable action on Israel's application depends on continued peace in the Middle East.

He said both Russia and the United States will support Israel's bid during the Assembly session.

Greeks Bear Gifts To The Trumans

Washington, March 28 (AP)—A delegation of Greeks, in colorful costumes, came to the White House today bearing gifts for President and Mrs. Truman.

The call was part of the observance of the one hundred and twenty-eighth anniversary of Greek independence.

The gifts included a pottery vase of the Sixth Century B.C., and a rug made by Greek schoolchildren.

The delegation also presented Mrs. Truman a costume of Queen Amalie, wife of King Otto, the first king of Greece after it became an independent country in 1831.

The ceremony took place in the rose garden of the White House. Twelve evzones, members of the honor guard of King Paul I of Greece, participated in the ceremony. More than 6 feet in height, they were garbed in red felt caps with long black tassels, blue jackets, short white pleated kilts, long white hose and slippers adorned with large pom-poms.

Christos Zalacostas, a member of the Greek Parliament, led the group.

'Rout' Of Vishinsky At Paris U.N. Related

MAR 28 1949

St. Louis, March 28 (AP)—Andrei Y. Vishinsky "crumbled" before the attack of Western delegates at the Paris United Nations Assembly and finally played to almost empty galleries, an American United Nations delegate said today.

The American, Frederick H. Osborn, United States deputy on the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission, said in a prepared speech at Washington University that Russia's aggressive tactics at the Paris Assembly united other nations against the Soviet.

"Took To His Bed"

He told of the outbursts by Vishinsky, now Russia's Foreign Minister, who was chief Russian delegate at Paris.

He told how the various Western delegates answered the Russian blasts.

"Mr. Vishinsky crumbled under this attack," Osborn said. "Literally, he took to his bed on one or two days following on these speeches. The galleries, which had formerly crowded in to hear him, began to empty when he spoke. The majority of the delegates of the 58 countries no longer hung on his words.

Laughed In His Face

"When he declaimed that the Soviet Union had the most free elections in the world, that on election day not 51 per cent but 100 per cent of the Soviet people went to the polls and voted unanimously for their great leaders, the delegates laughed in his face. He had made clear to them which side they were on."

Osborn said that if the United Nations had served no other purpose in the three years of its existence it would have justified itself many times over by this one accomplishment in clearing up the issues.

He said the majority plan for atomic control does not provide for any armed forces at the disposal of an atomic commission to protect or punish violators.

He said the majority did not consider such a force wise in the world as it is today. He said if any group of men ever was put in possession of a monopoly of fighting equipment, they and their successors could control the world with little effort.

Nine In Communist Inquiry Sentenced

Los Angeles, March 28 (AP)—Nine witnesses who refused to answer questions of a Federal grand jury in its investigation of Communist activities were sentenced to jail today.

Peirson M. Hall, Federal judge, gave Samuel H. Kasinowitz, Henry Steinberg, and Ben Dobbs, who were convicted of criminal contempt, one year each. The other six were ordered held in custody until they answer questions of the grand jury. They are Irving Caress, Merle Brodsky, Robert Blair, Philip Bock, Frank Spector and Mrs. Lillian Doran.

Plan Supreme Court Appeal

Attorneys for the nine said they would appeal the case to the United States Supreme Court if necessary.

A picket line of several hundred paraded in front of the Federal building before the hearing opened.

Arguments on granting of bail in all of the cases pending appeals will be heard tomorrow.

All nine defendants made statements to the court before they were sentenced. Some of the men said they had served with the armed forces and called the present action a "witch hunt."

The nine had been out on bail, ranging from $1,000 to $4,000, pending sentence, except Mrs. Doran, who has been at liberty on her own recognizance. They were arrested at various times after being called before the Federal grand jury the latter part of 1948 and early this year.

Pledge To Continue Efforts Closes N.Y. 'Peace' Sessions

New York, March 28 (AP)—With a promise to continue its work and with a salvo of praise for Soviet "peace" aims, the controversial "world peace" conference has ended.

MAR 28 1949

The three-day meeting of the Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace closed last night. About 18,700 persons jammed Madison Square Garden to cheer its last session, but other thousands picketed and jeered outside.

Speakers at the session, called a "united for world peace" rally, struck a general note of praise for Soviet "peace" aspirations—asserting that leaders of the U.S.S.R. are anxious for global peace.

Placards And Conference

Outside the Garden, a police-estimated crowd of 2,000 pickets carried placards assailing the conference and chanted slogans charging that it was Communist-dominated.

As the affair ended, delegates approved resolutions that call for strengthening the United Nations, co-operating with peace movements throughout the world and bringing to the attention of the United States Government decisions of the conferees.

Harvard Doctor Heads Group

A special action committee was setup to consider specific recommendations to carry out the resolutions. Dr. Allen M. Butler, of the Harvard Medical School, a member of this group, said it would meet today.

A. A. Fadeyev, chief Russian delegate and noted Soviet author, won applause last night with an assertion that "our country, the Soviet Union, stands for peace and friendship among peoples, because we are first and foremost a state of plain people."

"Catholic Communist" Speaks

Domingo Villamil, a Cuban scholar who said he is a Roman Catholic Communist, denounced those who he claimed "are encircling the Soviet Union and hatching a third world war."

A Czechoslovakian delegate, Jiri Hronek, head of that nation's mass-communications division, said Czechoslovakians "love the Soviet Union, which they regard as a guarantor of peace, progress and national independence."

While the conference was ending its work, a rival group, the League for Free Russia, held a counter-rally.

Delegates Condemned

About 700 persons met at City Center Casino and adopted a resolution which said Soviet delegates to the sessions "have no right to speak in the name of science and culture, since they are agents of states where unheard-of suppression and violation of the freedom of the sciences, the arts and all cultural values are being carried on."

The league said it is a coalition of various Russian exile groups in America.

The Russian League was the second group to hold a countermeeting in protest against the Cultural and Scientific peace conference.

On Saturday, Americans for Intellectual Freedom sponsored a protest rally before an overflow crowd at Freedom House.

Pickets who marched outside conference meeting halls carried placards saying "Exterminate the Dirty Red Rats," and "Russians—Breathe the Air of Freedom and Take It Home."

Arrests Made

Police reported that three persons were charged with disorderly conduct during the Madison Square Garden rally.

Two were spectators who allegedly scuffled with a newsreel photographer trying to take closeup shots of the crowd. They were identified as Dr. Mark Strauss, 39, of Brooklyn, and Irving Wagner, 49, a furrier.

The third arrested person, police said, was Hnap Marchak, of Brooklyn, who allegedly stepped out of a picket line outside the Garden and struck a passer-by.

Ten Days And $25

Wagner, convicted after a hearing today, was sentenced to ten days in the workhouse. Strauss was fined $25.

The furrier denied having struck the photographer and said his arrest was the result of "mistaken identity." Strauss said he grabbed the photographer "to prevent a riot."

Later, Marchak was released under suspended sentence after he pleaded guilty.

'PEACE' DELEGATES TO TOUR U.S. CITIES

Conference Committee Sets Three Other Plans Also

New York, March 28 (AP)—Foreign delegates to the "World Peace" Conference will tour American cities, a group set up by the conference said today.

The committee voted to sponsor "visits to as many American cities as possible."

The group also said it would carry resolutions from the meeting to President Truman and other officials.

Some Russian delegates to the conference, including the composer, Dmitri Shostakovich, already are scheduled in certain cities. Details have not been announced.

Fourfold Plan Of Committee

Seven other foreign nations were represented at the conference, which the State Department termed a sounding board for Communist propaganda. This was denied by the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions, the sponsoring organization.

The committee today voted a fourfold plan of action:

1. Drawing up a "roll call for peace," to be signed by "millions of Americans and presented to President Truman on Memorial Day."

2. Publication of a report of conference proceedings.

3. Appointment of delegations to present resolutions of the meeting to the President and other United States officials.

4. Sending foreign delegates on a tour of American cities.

Proveded Important Forum

The committee said the conference "provided an important forum for the exchange of views regarding the problems of maintaining world peace.

"It has demonstrated the will of the American people to keep open the channels of communication between the United States and all the other nations of the world.

"It has also indicated their desire that all differences be settled by peaceful negotiations. We believe that our Government cannot fail to take note of these truths."

Canadian Hits Ouster From U.S.

Vancouver, B.C., March 28 (AP)—John Goss, prominent Vancouver musician barred from the world peace conference in New York, said last night the technique used by investigating United States immigration authorities was "similar to that used by the Nazis in 1933."

Goss flew here yesterday after being ordered to leave the United States.

He said he was invited to the conference by its chairman, Harvard University astronomer Dr. Harlow Shapley, to speak on "war psychosis and its effect on the work of artists."

At a banquet Friday night, he said, he was apprehended by Federal agents and interrogated for two hours.

Basis of the entire interrogation, he said, was his connection with Canada's Labor-Progressive party.

"I told them I am not a member of the party but am sympathetic to its aims. It is doing splendid work in promoting international understanding, and I will continue to support it," Goss said.

LONDON, MARCH 28-(AP)-BRITAIN IS INFORMING THE UNITED NATIONS SHE DOES NOT CONSIDER SHE VIOLATED THE PALESTINE TRUCE BY SENDING TROOPS TO THE TRANS-JORDAN PORT OF AQABA.

CHRISTOPHER P.MAYHEW, UNDERSECRETARY FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS, DISCLOSED THIS TONIGHT IN A WRITTEN ANSWER TO A QUESTIONER IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS. HE HAD BEEN ASKED TO SAY SOMETHING ABOUT THE REPORT OF ACTING PALESTINE MEDIATOR RALPH J.BUNCHE.

BRITAIN SENT TROOPS TO AQABA IN JANUARY TO MEET A REQUEST OF KING ABDULLAH. SHE REINFORCED THEM THIS MONTH AS ISRAELI FORCES MOVED DOWN THE PALESTINE SIDE OF THE BORDER.

PRE-TRUCE FORCES ON EITHER SIDE OF THE FRONTIER "ARE IN CONFLICT WITH THE TRUCE CONDITIONS WHICH HAVE BEEN ACCEPTED BY BOTH SIDES." HE TOLD REPORTERS THIS INCLUDED BRITISH REINFORCEMENTS.

MAYHEW SAID A STATEMENT ON BRITAIN'S POSITION THAT SHE DOES NOT CONSIDER SHE VIOLATED THE TRUCE WILL BE FORWARDED TO U.N. SECRETARY GENERAL TRYGVE LIE.

MAYHEW TOOK ISSUE WITH "THE CRITICISM THAT DISPATCH AND REINFORCEMENT OF BRITISH FORCES AT AQABA IS CONTRARY TO THE PALESTINE TRUCE."

HE SAID THIS CRITICISM PRESUMABLY WAS BASED ON A SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION "WHICH CALLS UPON ALL GOVERNMENTS AND AUTHORITIES CONCERNED TO UNDERTAKE THAT THEY WILL NOT INTRODUCE FIGHTING PERSONNEL INTO PALESTINE AND ARAB STATES DURING A CEASEFIRE."

MAYHEW'S VIEW WAS THAT THIS DOES NOT APPLY TO BRITAIN.

MEANWHILE THE ADMIRALTY ANNOUNCED ANOTHER WARSHIP HAS BEEN SENT TO AQABA. IT SAID THE 1730-TON DESTROYER TROUBRIDGE ANCHORED THERE.

LONDON, MARCH 28-(AP)-PROF.SELIG BRODETSKY, PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF DEPUTIES OF BRITISH JEWS (CAPS), ACCUSED THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT AND PRESS TODAY OF FOSTERING PROPAGANDA AGAINST ISRAEL.

THE BRITISH PEOPLE ARE BEING "FED WITH PROPAGANDA ABOUT THE AGGRESSIVENESS OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL," HE TOLD THE ZIONIST FEDERATION OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND.

"THE JEWISH PEOPLE ARE WORKING FOR PEACE AND THE PROPAGANDA OF THEIR AGGRESSIVENESS FOSTERED BY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT AND PRESS MUST BE STOPPED," HE SAID.

BRODETSKY SAID BRITAIN GARRISONED THE TRANS-JORDAN PORT OF AQABA BECAUSE TRANS-JORDAN PURPORTEDLY WAS "WORRIED" BY THE NEARNESS OF ISRAELI TROOPS. ACTUALLY, HE SAID, ISRAELI TROOPS WERE "MANY MILES AWAY FIGHTING EGYPTIAN AGGRESSION."

THE JEWISH LEADER SAID BRITISH PROPAGANDA CONTINUALLY INCREASED THE NUMBER OF ARAB REFUGEES FROM ISRAEL" BY THE HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS BRITISH PRESS SUGGESTIONS THAT THEY SHOULD BE READMITTED WERE "IMPUDENT," HE ADDED, BECAUSE "THE REAL PROBLEM OF MOST ARAB STATES IS UNDER-POPULATION."

BRODETSKY WAS A MEMBER OF THE EXECUTIVE OF THE OLD JEWISH AGENCY FOR PALESTINE.

LONDON, MARCH 28-(AP)-THE CONSERVATIVE DAILY MAIL TODAY BLAMED BRITAIN'S SOCIALIST GOVERNMENT FOR THE MEAT SHORTAGE AND SAW LITTLE HOPE FOR IMPROVEMENT IN THE NEAR FUTURE.

AN EDITORIAL SAID FEW BRITONS WOULD ACCEPT "SOCIALIST EXCUSES FOR THE FAILURE TO MAINTAIN THE MEAT RATION".

A NEW CUT IN BRITAIN'S MEAT RATION WENT INTO EFFECT TODAY. HOUSEWIVES CAN NOW BUY ONLY EIGHT PENCE (14 CENTS) WORTH OF FRESH MEAT PER PERSON PER WEEK AND TWO PENCE (THREE AND ONE THIRD CENTS) WORTH OF CANNED CORNED BEEF. THIS COMPARES WITH 10 PENCE (17 CENTS) OF FRESH MEAT AND TWO PENCE WORTH OF CORNED BEEF PREVIOUSLY.

THE GOVERNMENT HAS BLAMED THE ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT OF PRESIDENT JUAN D. PERON FOR FAILING TO MAKE DELIVERIES UNDER A TRADE AGREEMENT.

THE DAILY MAIL SAID TODAY THAT "THE WICKED PERON" WAS "NOT AS SMART AS ALL THAT. IN THE FOOD MARKET A BLIND DEAF-MUTE COULD SELL OUT SOCIALISTS SHORT -- AND GET AWAY WITH IT."

THE PAPER SAID THE LABOR GOVERNMENT HAD PREVIOUSLY BLAMED "THE WORLD FOOD SHORTAGE", OR "THE MYTH OF 'STARVING EUROPE.'"

IT CALLED FOR EXTENSIVE SCHEMES TO BUILD UP EMPIRE MEAT SUPPLIES AND TO GROW MORE BEEF ON BRITISH PASTURES. "BECAUSE THE PLANNERS GRUDGE DOLLARS FOR FEEDING STUFFS THE FARMERS ARE GETTING A RAW DEAL IN BUILDING UP HOME HERDS AND FLOCKS", IT SAID.

THE LONDON TIMES SAID THE RATION CUT WAS DIRECTLY CAUSED BY THE FAILURE OF THE ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT TO FULFILL ITS AGREEMENTS.

LONDON, MARCH 28-(AP)-INFORMED SOURCES SAID TODAY BRITAIN WILL GIVE THE MALAYAN GOVERNMENT ABOUT £5,000,000 (($20,000,000) TO BOLSTER ITS FIGHT AGAINST COMMUNIST-LED GUERRILLAS.

COLONIAL SECRETARY ARTHUR CREECH JONES IS EXPECTED TO ANNOUNCE THE BRITISH GIFT WEDNESDAY. HE IS DUE THAT DAY TO MAKE A STATEMENT ON MALAYA IN THE COMMONS.

THE GIFT IS AIMED IN PARTICULAR AT AIDING THE FEDERATION'S SORELY-PRESSED GOVERNMENT TO MEET THE HEAVY COSTS INVOLVED IN BUILDING UP, EQUIPPING AND MAINTAINING ITS VARIOUS SECURITY FORCES FIGHTING THE GUERRILLAS.

IT IS OVER AND ABOVE THE HELP BRITAIN IS GIVING MALAYA IN THE FORM OF DIRECT MILITARY AID.

THE SOURCES SAID ADDITIONAL HELP IS TO BE GIVEN MALAYA IN THE FORM OF A £12,000,000 ($48,000,000) LOAN, 70 PERCENT OF WHICH WILL BE RAISED PRIVATELY ON THE LONDON STOCK MARKET.

THE INFORMANTS SAID IT IS TO BE USED FOR THE FEDERATION'S PROGRAM OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND GENERAL REHABILITATION.

COST OF MALAYA'S JUNGLE WAR AGAINST THE RED-LED GUERRILLAS HAS BEEN ESTIMATED OFFICIALLY AT 300,000 STRAITS DOLLARS ($15,000) DAILY. THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT IS MAINTAINING MORE THAN 10,000 POLICE AND ABOUT 32,000 SPECIAL CONSTABLES OUT OF ITS OWN RESOURCES.

London, March 28-(AP)-Diplomats said today Britain and France have accepted an American plan to reprieve about 150 west German industries which had been marked for removal as reparations.

MAR 28 1949

The western powers were said also to have agreed to another American proposal to allow west Germany to build up a merchant fleet. Each ship must not exceed 9,000 tons.

Also on American initiative, the three occupation powers were reported negotiating a revision of the list of warlike industries which the Potsdam agreement forbade Germany. The list included arms plants, certain chemical plants and so on. Some relaxation appeared coming in the fields of aluminum, magnesium, synthetic oils and synthetic rubber.

MAR 28 1949

The decisions are subject to confirmation by the Washington, London and Paris governments. They were reached in three power talks on the part west Germany can play in the European recovery program, [redacted] for which the United States is paying billions each year.

The British had been adamant against a revival of German ship building, fearing competition. The original four power agreement, in which Russia took part, limited all German ships to 1,500 tons. American negotiators at the recent talks proposed a 12,000 ton ceiling and the British 7,000 tons. The 9,000 ton limit was a compromise.

Paul G. Hoffman, administrator of the Economic cooperation administration, sent a group of industrials headed by George Humphreys of Cleveland to West Germany recently to establish how that section's plants could benefit the ERP. The committee recommended that 167 industrial plants, slated for dismantling, be saved. The British and French approval meant a near-blanket endorsement of the Humphreys committee finding.

SO FAR THE AMERICAN COMMANDER HAS CONFIRMED THREE DEATH SENTENCES IN THE CASE OF THE 12 DEFENDANTS AND COMMUTED THREE TO LIFE ON THE CHANCE THAT THE EVIDENCE THAT CONVICTED THEM MIGHT HAVE BEEN OBTAINED BY DURESS.

A SENATE COMMITTEE RECENTLY ASKED PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO STAY THE EXECUTIONS OF THE 12 DEFENDANTS, SENTENCED FOR THE MACHINE-GUNNING OF 83 CAPTURED AMERICAN SOLDIERS DURING THE BATTLE OF THE BULGE IN 1944.

INVESTIGATION SHOWED THAT SOME EVIDENCE WAS OBTAINED BY MOCK TRIALS AND OTHER IMPROPER METHODS.

THE SENTENCE COMMUTED TODAY WAS THAT OF FRIEDRICH CHRIST, FORMER SS LIEUTENANT, WHO ADMITTED IN A SWORN PRE-TRIAL STATEMENT THAT HE TOOK PART IN THE SHOOTING OF U.S. PRISONERS OF WAR DURING THE BATTLE OF THE BULGE.

CHRIST LATER RETRACTED THE STATEMENT, CHARGING IT WAS OBTAINED BY DURESS.

BUT "THERE IS NO DIRECT EVIDENCE OTHER THAN THAT CONTAINED IN THE RETRACTED STATEMENTS TO CONSLUVIELY PROVE THE FULL GUILT OF CHRIST," CLAY'S REPORT SAID.

CLAY CONFIRMED THE DEATH SENTENCE OF PAUL ZWIGART BECAUSE, HE SAID, EVEN IF THE REPUDIATED CONFESSIONS ARE RULED OUT, "THERE STILL REMAINS OVERWHELMING EVIDENCE" OF HIS GUILT.

THERE ARE STILL SIX MALMEDY DEATH SENTENCES UNDER REVIEW BY CLAY.

TEHRAN, IRAN, MARCH 28-(AP)-IRAN HAS DEMANDED THAT RUSSIA RELEASE TWO IRANIAN SOLDIERS REPORTED WOUNDED AND CAPTURED BY SOVIET TROOPS IN A FRONTIER INCIDENT.

THE REPORT INDICATED INCREASED TENSION BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES. IRAN PREVIOUSLY BANNED THE TUDEH (COMMUNIST) PARTY.

A HIGH MILITARY SOURCE SAID ONE IRANIAN SOLDIER WAS KILLED IN THE BORDER INCIDENT. HE SAID THE IRANIAN COMMANDER PROTESTED TO SOVIET AUTHORITIES AND DEMANDED RETURN OF THE PRISONERS. NEGOTIATIONS FOR THEIR RELEASE AND PAYMENT OF INDEMNITY WAS REPORTED UNDER WAY OVER THE WEEKEND.

THE SCENE OF THE INCIDENT WAS IDENTIFIED BY THE MILITARY INFORMANT AS A BORDER AREA CLAIMED BY BOTH IRAN AND RUSSIA IN THE NORTHEAST PART OF THE COUNTRY, ADJOINING THE SOVIET TURKMAN REPUBLIC. HE SAID 50 RUSSIAN TROOPS WERE INVOLVED.

(THE DATE WAS NOT STATED IN THIS DISPATCH, WHICH PASSED THROUGH IRANIAN CENSORSHIP.)

A MILITARY TRIBUNAL IS NOW TRYING 14 MEMBERS OF THE TUDEH PARTY ON CHARGES OF CONSPIRING IN AN ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION OF SHAH REZA PAHLEVI. THE KING SUFFERED MINOR WOUNDS IN THE ATTEMPT FEB. 4.

(INFORMED SOURCES REPORTED AT LAKE SUCCESS LAST WEEK THAT RUSSIA HAD TENTATIVELY ASKED IRAN TO CLOSE HER CONSULATE AT BAKU IN RUSSIA AND WAS CONSIDERING CLOSING THREE OF HER OWN IN IRAN. A DELAYED DISPATCH FROM TEHRAN SPOKE OF A SOVIET ORDER REGARDING CLOSING OF THE CONSULATES. THERE WAS NO INFORMATION AS TO WHETHER THE CONSULATES ACTUALLY HAD CLOSED DOWN.)

PEARL HARBOR, MARCH 27-(AP)- NAVY LSM (LANDING SHIP MEDIUM) REACHED THE 11 SURVIVORS OF A NAVY FLYING BOAT DOWN 605 MILES SOUTHWEST OF TINY JOHNSTON ISLAND AT 11:16 P.M. (4:16 A.M. EST) TONIGHT.
THE HAWAIIAN SEA FRONTIER SAID THE CRAFT WAS PREPARING TO PICK UP THE SURVIVORS.
THE PLANE MADE A FORCED LANDING WHEN ONE OF ITS ENGINES FAILED. FIFTEEN SEARCH PLANES AND SEVERAL SURFACE CRAFT HAD JOINED IN THE SEARCH FOR THE SURVIVORS. SEARCH PLANES SPOTTED THEM TWO HOURS AFTER THE PLANE LANDED ON THE WATER.

THE STRICKEN TWIN-ENGINED CATALINA WAS SIGHTED BY THREE PLANES OF THE VAST SEARCH FORCE 10 MILES WEST OF THE SPOT WHERE THE PLANE LANDED AFTER ONE ENGINE FAILED. A RADIO MESSAGE FROM THE FLYING BOAT HAD SAID HER RADIO ROOM WAS LEAKING AND SHE COULD STAY AFLOAT POSSIBLY ONLY THREE HOURS LONGER.
AT 5:04 P.M. (10:04 P.M. E.S.T.) A MILITARY AIR TRANSPORT SERVICE (MATS) PLANE RADIOED IT HAD SIGHTED THE FLYING BOAT, THE HAWAIIAN SEA FRONTIER REPORTED. THE PLANE SAID A SHIP WAS ONLY 30 MILES FROM THE FLYING BOAT.
THIRTEEN MINUTES LATER ANOTHER MATS PLANE RADIOED IT HAD SPOTTED THE FLYING BOAT ALSO. A B-17 RESCUE PLANE MESSAGED AT 6:14 (12:14 A.M., E.S.T. MONDAY, MARCH 28) THAT IT WAS "OVER SURVIVORS." THE B-17 DROPPED A BOAT TO THE DOWNED PLANE BUT SAID IT WAS DEMOLISHED AS IT HIT THE HEAVY WAVES.
THE NAVY REVISED THE TIME OF THE CATALINA'S FORCED LANDING TO 2:39 P.M. (7:39 P.M. E.S.T). IT SAID THE FIRST DISTRESS MESSAGE SAYING ONE ENGINE WAS OUT WAS SENT ONLY FOUR MINUTES EARLIER.

NIGHT LEAD EISLER

BY CHARLES MOLONY

WASHINGTON,MARCH 28-(AP)-GERHART EISLER, DESCRIBED AS THE "NO. 1 COMMUNIST IN THE UNITED STATES," SAT APPARENTLY UNNOTICED IN THE SUPREME COURT TODAY WHILE THESE QUESTIONS WERE ARGUED BY ATTORNEYS:

1. WERE A DISTRICT JURY AND JUDGE RIGHT IN GIVING HIM A YEAR IN JAIL AND A $1000 FINE FOR CONTEMPT OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES?

GOVERNMENT LAWYERS SAID THEY WERE:

2. IS THE HOUSE COMMITTEE UNCONSTITUTIONAL--AND THEREFORE POWERLESS TO JAIL EISLER OR ANYONE ELSE FOR CHALLENGING ITS RIGHT TO ASK THEM FOR SWORN ANSWERS TO ITS QUESTIONS?

MAR 28 1949

EISLER'S LAWYERS SAID IT IS.

THE COURT RESERVED JUDGMENT ON EISLER'S FATE.

EISLER RESERVED COMMENT ON THE COURT, TOO, TELLING A REPORTER DURING A RECESS, "I'LL JUDGE THEM AFTER THEY JUDGE ME."

WHILE THE COURT WAS HEARING ARGUMENTS, THE SHORT, BALD AND BE-SPECTACLED ALIEN SAT QUIETLY IN THE BACK OF THE COURTROOM AMONG TOURISTS AND OTHER SPECTATORS WHO SEEMED UNAWARE THAT HE WAS THE FOCUS OF LEGAL ATTENTION.

TODAY HE WAS JUST ONE AMONG MANY. LAST WEEK A WITNESS AT THE COMMUNIST CONSPIRACY TRIAL IN NEW YORK SAID EISLER WAS THE MAN WHO SWUNG U.S. COMMUNISTS IN 1945 TO A POLICY OF "VIOLENT REVOLUTION." EISLER IS A FREQUENT SPECTATOR AT THAT TRIAL, ALTHOUGH NOT A DEFENDANT.

THROUGH HIS LAWYERS, THE ALLEGED REPRESENTATIVE OF THE COMMUNIST INTERNATIONALE IN THIS COUNTRY CHALLENGED THE RIGHT OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEE TO "PIN A LABEL ON IDEAS" AS BEING AMERICAN OR UNAMERICAN, AND THEREFORE TO "BLACKLIST" CERTAIN IDEAS AND "PERSONS WHOSE IDEAS DIFFER FROM THE COMMITTEE'S."

GOVERNMENT LAWYERS CALLED THAT "PREPOSTEROUS." THEY SAID PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND ATTORNEY GENERAL CLARK HAVE AT TIMES CRITICIZED COMMITTEE "TACTICS AND PROCEDURES," BUT NO ONE CAN QUESTION THE COMMITTEE'S RIGHTS TO REQUIRE SWORN STATEMENTS.

GOVERNMENT LAWYERS ALSO JUMPED ON EISLER FOR TRYING A TACTIC WHICH THEY SAID THE COMMUNISTS "ARE ALWAYS COMPLAINING IS USED AGAINST THEM" BY THE COMMITTEE--SHOWING "GUILT BY ASSOCIATION."

THIS REFERRED TO A CLAIM BY EISLER THAT THE JUDGE WHO SENTENCED HIM COULD NOT HAVE TRIED HIM FAIRLY BECAUSE THE JUDGE ONCE WORKED IN THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT WITH FBI DIRECTOR J.EDGAR HOOVER, WHO IS "VIOLENTLY" ANTI-COMMUNISTS.

A47WX

MOST OF THE EIGHT JUDGES HEARING THE CASE BROKE IN WITH QUESTIONS AT ONE TIME OR ANOTHER. CHIEFLY, THEY ASKED ABOUT DETAILS ON WHAT HAPPENED WHEN EISLER WAS CALLED BEFORE THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON FEB. 6, 1947.

THE COMMITTEE RECORD SHOWED EISLER DECLINED TO TAKE OATH AS A WITNESS UNLESS FIRST ALLOWED "THREE MINUTES TO MAKE A STATEMENT." THE COMMITTEE REFUSED TO PERMIT AN UNSWORN STATEMENT, AND EISLER WAS TAKEN AWAY TO JAIL AS PHOTOGRAPHERS' FLASHBULBS POPPED.

EVEN IF THE SUPREME COURT WIPES OUT EISLER'S CONVICTION OF THE CONTEMPT CHARGE, HE WILL REMAIN UNDER CONVICTION FOR PASSPORT FRAUD, UNLESS HE CAN WIN AN APPEAL ON THAT, TOO.

AT PRESENT, HE IS FREE ON BAIL IN THOSE CASES AND IN A DEPORTATION PROCEEDING UNDER WHICH HE COULD BE SHIPPED OUT OF THE U.S. IF HE MANAGED TO ESCAPE THE OTHER CHARGES.

EISLER, WHO SAYS HE WANTS TO GO TO GERMANY TO TAKE A PROFESSOR'S POST AT LEIPSIG, MAKES NO BONES ABOUT BEING A COMMUNIST.

SPEAKING WITH A GERMAN ACCENT, HE TOLD A REPORTER THAT "I AM PERFECTLY WILLING TO STIPULATE THAT I PREFER STALIN TO TRUMAN AND COMMUNISM TO CAPITALISM."

AS FOR NEW BILLIONS FOR THE MARSHALL PLAN, JENNER DENOUNCED THE "CONTINUED SQUANDERING OF THE MATERIAL AND FINANCIAL RESOURCES OF OUR COUNTRY IN A FOREIGN SPENDING SCHEME LABELLED 'FOR RECOVERY PURPOSES.'"

Wash, addxx prevent war." MAR 28 1949

A43WX

JENNER SPOKE OUT IN THE STRONGEST TERMS YET HEARD IN THE SENATE'S THREE-DAY-OLD DEBATE ON RECOVERY FUNDS. OTHER SENATORS, INCLUDING TAFT (R-OHIO) AND CAPEHART (R-IND) HAVE URGED CUTS IN THE ADMINISTRATION'S REQUEST FOR $5,580,000,000, BUT THEIR SPEECHES HAVE BEEN MILD COMPARED TO JENNER'S WHOLESALE INDICTMENT.

CAPEHART HAS PROPOSED A $3,000,000,000 (B) TOP ON THE AID DURING THE NEXT 15 MONTHS, BUT JENNER DEMANDED:

"WHY STOP AT $3,000,000,000? WHY NOT SAVE ALL OF IT?"

JENNER, A WORLD WAR II VETERAN THEN ASKED WHAT THE NATION HOPED TO GET FROM THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY WITH ITS EXPECTED ALIGNMENT OF 12 COUNTRIES. HIS OWN QUESTION, HE SAID:

"THE SAME THING THAT A STEPFATHER GETS WHEN HE CAPTURES THE DESPERATE LOVE OF A WIDOW AND HER BIG, READY-MADE FAMILY OF UNDISCIPLINED, HUNGRY AND UNPREDICTABLE KIDS."

BLASTING PROPOSALS TO HELP WESTERN EUROPE RE-ARM, JENNER SAID:

"IF WE SEND MODERN MILITARY EQUIPMENT TO EUROPE, SPECIMENS OF EVERY ONE OF THE WEAPONS WILL BE PUT INTO THE HANDS OF THE KREMLIN IMMEDIATELY BY THE REDS AND FELLOW TRAVELLERS WHO HONEYCOMB EUROPEAN GOVERNMENTS."

SENATOR SMITH (R-NJ), URGING APPROVAL OF THE FULL $5,580,000,000 (B) IN SECOND-YEAR MARSHALL PLAN FUNDS, TOLD HIS COLLEAGUES THE PROGRAM IS "THE MOST STUPENDOUS ECONOMIC EXPERIMENT IN HISTORY."

HE SAID THE SUCCESS OF THE PLAN WILL BE "A DEFINITE BLOCK TO THE CREEPING PARALYSIS OF COMMUNISM WHICH TODAY THE WORLD SO DESPERATELY FEARS."

MAJORITY LEADER LUCAS TOLD NEWSMEN HE HOPES TO GET A VOTE ON THE RECOVERY PROGRAM TOMORROW, BUT A LENGTHY SERIES OF AMENDMENT PROPOSALS MAY DELAY THE FINAL SHOWDOWN.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN CALLED IN BUDGET DIRECTOR FRANK PACE, JR., THIS FORENOON TO TALK OVER THE VAST NEW MILITARY AID PROGRAM FOR EUROPE'S NON-COMMUNIST COUNTRIES.

PACE TOLD NEWSMEN ON LEAVING THE WHITE HOUSE HE EXPECTS THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S DRAFT OF THE ARMS LEGISLATION TO REACH THE BUDGET BUREAU "IN THE VERY NEAR FUTURE--MAYBE THIS WEEK."

BUT HE SAID MR.TRUMAN HAD TOLD HIM TO GIVE THE PROGRAM A "VERY THOROUGH" STUDY BEFORE THE BUDGET BUREAU SENDS IT UP TO CONGRESS.

SAN FRANCISCO, MARCH 28-(AP)-MAJ. GEN. WILLIAM C. CHASE, A PACIFIC WAR HERO, TODAY DENIED CHARGES OF MISCONDUCT AT A COURT MARTIAL IN OCCUPIED JAPAN.

GENERAL CHASE, WHOSE FIRST CAVALRY DIVISION (MECHANIZED) FOUGHT SOME OF THE FAMOUS ISLAND BATTLES OF THE PACIFIC AND WAS FIRST TO ENTER TOKYO, DENIED HE INSISTED ON A CONVICTION.

COL. EDWARD JACKSON MURRAY, OF PALO ALTO, CALIF., WAS CONVICTED AT THE COURT MARTIAL OF MISAPPROPRIATING MORE THAN $90,000 WORTH OF DIAMONDS. GENERAL CHASE WAS THE PRESIDING OFFICER. HE NOW IS STATIONED IN ATLANTA.

COLONEL MURRAY, SENTENCED TO FIVE YEARS IMPRISONMENT, IS SEEKING A HABEAS CORPUS, ALLEGING HE DID NOT GET A FAIR TRIAL.

THE BASIS OF HIS ALLEGATION WAS AN AFFIDAVIT OF MAJOR RALPH S. JOHNSTON, OF COLONEL MURRAY'S DEFENSE COUNSEL AT HIS COURT MATIAL IN YOKOHAMA, IN 1947. MAJOR JOHNSTON GAVE THE AFFIDAVIT IN MONMOUTH COUNTY, NEW JERSEY.

THE MAJOR SAID, AFTER THE PROSECUTION RESTED ITS CASE, HE HEARD GENERAL CHASE MAKE A TELEPHONE CALL SAYING:

"THIS IS CHASE IN YOKOHAMA. THE PROSECUTION JUST RESTED. IS THERE ANYTHING YOU CAN DO TO HELP US GET A CONVICTION?"

THE AFFIDAVIT SAID THERE WAS A PUASE, THEN CHASE CONTINUED:

"IS THAT SO? DO YOU THINK YOU CAN GET THESE PEOPLE DOWN HERE RIGHT AWAY?"

THE PROSECUTION THEN OBTAINED A CONTINUANCE FOR THREE WEEKS.

TODAY GENERAL CHASE TESTIFIED HE DID TELEPHONE TOKYO AND TALKED WITH THE CIVILIAN PROPERTY CUSTODIAN IN THE INTERESTS OF GETTING BETTER COOPERATION IN HANDLING THE CASE.

"AT NO TIME DID I SAY WE WANTED MORE EVIDENCE TO GET A CONVICTION," CHASE SAID.

CHASE READ FROM THE MANUAL OF COURT MARTIAL SECTIONS THAT THE COURT HAD A DUTY TO REQUIRE MORE WITNESSES OR MORE EVIDENCE AND INSISTED "THE ACTION I TOOK WAS THOROUGHLY JUSTIFIED."

AFTER TODAY'S HEARING, THE FEDERAL JUDGE INSTRUCTED COUNSEL TO SUBMIT BRIEFS AND SET MAY 2 FOR ORAL ARGUMENT.

NIGHT LEAD BURGMAN (350)

WASHINGTON, MARCH 28-(AP)-HERBERT JOHN BURGMAN WAS INDICTED FOR TREASON TODAY--THE 25TH AMERICAN TO BE SO CHARGED AS A RESULT OF WORLD WAR II.

BURGMAN, EMPLOYED FOR 20 YEARS IN THE U.S. EMBASSY IN BERLIN PRIOR TO OUTBREAK OF THE WAR, WAS NAMED BY A FEDERAL GRAND JURY AS THE MANAGER OF GERMANY'S WARTIME STATION DEBUNK (ALL CAPITALS). IT BEAMED NAZI PROPAGANDA FROM A SECRET TRANSMITTER TO AMERICA AND THIS COUNTRY'S ARMED FORCES ABROAD.

IN CONTRAST TO THE DRAMATIC BROADCASTING WHICH BROUGHT ABOUT THE TREASON CONVICTION HERE A WEEK AGO OF MILDRED ELIZABETH GILLARS--"AXIS SALLY"--THE GOVERNMENT SAID BURGMAN'S STATION SPECIALIZED IN FICTITIOUS NEWS REPORTS.

THESE REPORTS, THE INDICTMENT SAID, WERE ACCOMPANIED BY COMMENTARY BY BURGMAN DESIGNED TO IMPAIR AMERICAN CIVILIAN MORALE, DESTROY FAITH IN THIS GOVERNMENT'S WARTIME ADMINISTRATION, AND DISCOURAGE AMERICAN FIGHTING MEN IN THE FIELD. HE WAS DESCRIBED AS HAVING USED THE NAME "JOE SCANLON" IN THESE BROADCASTS.

BURGMAN, NOW IN JAIL HERE, WAS ACCUSED BY THE GRAND JURY OF 69 SEPARATE TREASONOUS ACTS IN CONNECTION WITH THE STATION'S OPERATIONS. UNDER THESE CHARGES, THE MAXIMUM PENALTY, IN EVENT OF CONVICTION, COULD BE DEATH.

OF THE 25TREASON INDICTMENTS TO DATE, 13 HAVE BEEN BASED ON ALLEGED PROPAGANDA BROADCASTING FOR THE ENEMY.

BURGMAN IS TO BE ARRAIGNED IN DISTRICT COURT NEXT FRIDAY, APRIL 1.

BURGMAN, NOW 52, IS A NATIVE OF HOKAH, MINN. HE WAS AN AMERICAN SOLDIER IN WORLD WAR I. AFTER SERVING AS A MEMBER OF AMERICAN OCCUPATION FORCES IN GERMANY AFTER THAT WAR, HE TOOK A CLERICAL JOB IN THE BERLIN EMBASSY IN 1921. HE ADVANCED UNDER CIVIL SERVICE TO THE RATING OF ECONOMIC STATISTICIAN. WHEN WORLD WAR II BROKE OUT, HE WAS CHIEF CLERK TO THE AMERICAN MILITARY ATTACHE ON THE EMBASSY STAFF IN THE GERMAN CAPITAL.

JUSTICE DEPARTMENT INVESTIGATORS HAVE STATED THAT ALTHOUGH BURGMAN COULD HAVE BEEN REPATRIATED TO THE UNITED STATES ALONG WITH OTHER DIPLOMATIC PERSONNEL, HE REFUSED THIS. INSTEAD HE ELECTED TO REMAIN IN THE REICH WITH HIS GERMAN WIFE AND THEIR THEN NEARLY-GROWN SON, BOTH OF WHOM ARE STILL IN GERMANY.

THE GRAND JURY SAID THAT DURING THE FIRST WINTER OF THE WAR HE WENT TO WORK FOR THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT RADIO AND BECAME MANAGER OF STATION DEBUNK (CAPS). BURGMAN WAS TEMPORARILY TAKEN INTO CUSTODY AFTER THE FALL OF BERLIN, BUT WAS RELEASED AND KEPT UNDER SURVEILLANCE WHILE HIS WARTIME ACTIVITIES WERE BEING INVESTIGATED. HE MANAGED A LIVELIHOOD IN POSTWAR GERMANY BY DOING VARIOUS ODD JOBS, INCLUDING WORK AS AN INTERPRETER FOR AMERICAN OCCUPATION FORCES AT FRANKFURT.

WHEN HE WAS FLOWN HERE BY ARMY PLANE LAST MONTH TO FACE THE TREASON ACCUSATION, HE TOLD NEWSMEN HE WAS WITHOUT FUNDS.

THE ACTUAL AMOUNT BEING CONSIDERED, IT WAS LEARNED, IS SLIGHTLY LESS THAN $2,000,000,000(B). ABOUT $1,250,000,000 TO $1,500,000,000(B) WOULD BE EARMARKED FOR THE ATLANTIC PACT NATIONS. THE REMAINDER WOULD GO FOR "FRIENDLY" COUNTRIES SUCH AS GREECE, TURKEY, IRAN AND KOREA, WHOSE SECURITY IS DEEMED ESSENTIAL TO THAT OF THE UNITED STATES.

NEW YORK, MARCH 28-(AP)-HENRY A. WALLACE SAYS THE UNITED STATES WILL HAVE TO PAY "UP TO 30 BILLIONS OF DOLLARS" TO REARM WESTERN EUROPE UNDER THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND THE ARMY, HE SAYS, WILL TRY "TO CONCEAL THIS FANTASTIC COST FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE."

THE 1948 PROGRESSIVE PARTY PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE ASSAILED TERMS OF THE PACT IN A BROADCAST OVER THE COLUMBIA BROADCASTING SYSTEM'S NETWORK YESTERDAY.

WALLACE SAID THE HUGE SUMS INVOLVED SHOULD BE USED, INSTEAD, TO BUILD LOW-COST HOMES, INSURE EVERYBODY AGAINST UNEMPLOYMENT, ILLNESS AND OLD AGE; RAISE MINIMUM WAGES AND PROVIDE SCHOOLS AND HOSPITALS FOR ALL.

HE SAID THE "CLEAR INTENTION" OF THE PACT IS TO TAKE THE PLACE OF THE UNITED NATIONS. HE DECLARED THE TREATY, "STRIPPED OF LEGAL VERBIAGE," WOULD SET UP UNITED STATES ARMY BASES NEAR THE BORDERS OF THE SOVIET UNION.

SAYING "WE CANNOT AFFORD TO FORGET RUSSIAN HISTORY," WALLACE DECLARED:

"IN THE LAST 25 YEARS, THEY HAVE BEEN ATTACKED BY FOREIGN ARMIES FIVE SEPARATE TIMES. DOES ANY ONE IMAGINE THAT, AS THEY STARE ACROSS THEIR BORDERS AT OUR JET BOMBERS AND CANNON, CALM VISIONS OF PEACE WILL BE BORN IN THEIR MINDS?"

WALLACE SAID THAT "TO CALL THE ATLANTIC PACT A PEACEFUL THING IS HYPOCRISY AND NOTHING ELSE." HE SAID THE PACT WILL FORCE ALL EUROPE TO REARM, THEREBY IMPOVERISHING EUROPE, AND WILL PUT THE UNITED STATES "ON A WAR FOOTING."

SAYING "PEACE WILL REQUIRE COMPROMISES ON BOTH SIDES," HE URGED THAT THE LEADERS OF THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA MAKE KNOWN THEIR TERMS FOR PEACE AND THEN NEGOTIATE THESE TERMS.

"THE FIRST VICTIM OF THE PACT IS THE UNITED NATIONS--THE ONE HOPE FOR PEACE," WALLACE SAID.

WALLACE WAS GRANTED THE BROADCAST TIME AT HIS REQUEST TO REPLY TO SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON'S SPEECH OF MARCH 18, ANNOUNCING CONTENTS OF THE PACT.

IN THAT SPEECH, ACHESON SAID THE PACT WAS "TO STRENGTHEN THE UNITED NATIONS AND INSURE INTERNATIONAL PEACE AND SECURITY." HE ASSAILED "ALLEGATIONS THAT THIS TREATY CONCEALS AGGRESSIVE DESIGNS."

ACHESON DID NOT GIVE AN ESTIMATE OF THE COST OF THE TREATY PROGRAM, BUT SAID "WE WILL CAREFULLY BALANCE THE MILITARY ASSISTANCE WITH THE CAPACITY AND REQUIREMENTS OF THE TOTAL ECONOMY, BOTH AT HOME AND ABROAD."

NEW YORK,MARCH 28-(AP)-RADIO COMMENTATOR H.V. KALTENBORN SAID TONIGHT SPAIN'S GENERAL FRANCO PERSONALLY TOLD HIM THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT SHOULD BE FOLLOWED BY A SIMILAR PACT EMBRACING MEDITERRANEAN COUNTRIES.

KALTENBORN ARRIVED OVER THE WEEKEND FROM A STAY OF SEVERAL WEEKS IN EUROPE. ON HIS BROADCAST TONIGHT FROM NEW YORK OVER THE NATIONAL BROADCASTING COMPANY NETWORK, HE SAID HE INTERVIEWED FRANCO AND ASKED HIM THESE FOUR QUESTIONS:

1. WHAT DID SPAIN HAVE TO CONTRIBUTE TO THE ATLANTIC PACT?

ANSWER: FRANCO SAID HIS COUNTRY HELD THE STRATEGIC POINT AT THE ENTRANCE TO THE MEDITERRANEAN SEA AND THAT THE ATLANTIC PACT MUST OF NECESSITY BE FOLLOWED BY ENACTMENT OF A SIMILAR PACT ENCOMPASSING MEDITERRANEAN COUNTRIES. HE ADDED THAT SPAIN WAS IN A GEOGRAPHICAL POSITION TO RESIST THE INROADS OF COMMUNISM BETTER THAN MOST COUNTRIES.

2. WHAT WERE FRANCO'S PLANS FOR MEETING THE CURRENT ECONOMIC CRISIS IN SPAIN?

ANSWER: FRANCO SAID THE COUNTRY WAS DOING WITHOUT MANY THINGS WHICH IT WOULD LIKE TO IMPORT. HE SAID HE HOPES SPAIN SOON WILL BECOME AN ECONOMICALLY BALANCED NATION, WITH IMPORTS EQUALLING EXPORTS.

MAR 28 1949

3. WHAT ABOUT PRESS CENSORSHIP?

ANSWER: FRANCO SAID MANY SPANISH PUBLICATIONS ARE PUT OUT TODAY BY THE SAME PEOPLE WHO HELD CONTROL BEFORE SPAIN'S CIVIL WAR. HE SAID SOME CONTROL OF THE PRESS IS ESSENTIAL BECAUSE EUROPE IS SUFFERING FROM WAR NERVES. HE SAID HE BELIEVES THE ISSUE OF PRESS CENSORSHIP WILL DISAPPEAR WHEN EUROPE IS MORE NORMAL.

4. WHAT ABOUT YOUR (FRANCO'S) SUCCESSOR?

ANSWER: FRANCO SAID HE IS ACTING UNDER THE SPANISH CONSTITUTION WHICH PROVIDES THAT THE COUNCIL OF STATE NAME HIS SUCCESSOR. HE SAID HE IS ACTING AS REGENT IN PLACE OF THE KING, BECAUSE THE ACTUAL FORM OF SPAIN'S GOVERNMENT HAS NOT BEEN CHANGED.

SOME U.N. EMPLOYES REGARDED CIRCULATION OF THE 40-PAGE ENGLISH-LANGUAGE MAGAZINE IN THIS COUNTRY AS RUSSIA'S ANSWER TO "AMERIKA," THE PERIODICAL PRODUCED BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT FOR DISTRIBUTION IN RUSSIA, WHERE IT SELLS THROUGH A CONCESSIONNAIRE AT 10 RUBLES (ABOUT $1.23) PER COPY.

"AMERIKA" IS REPORTED TO HAVE A CIRCULATION OF 50,000 BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN. THERE WAS NO INDICATION HERE OF HOW MANY RUSSIAN MAGAZINES ARE BEING SENT TO THE UNITED STATES.

THE RUSSIAN MAGAZINE, PRINTED IN MOSCOW, IS DEDICATED, ITS EDITORS SAY, "TO GIVE OUR READERS A CORRECT PICTURE OF SOVIET SOCIETY AND THE LIFE OF THE SOVIET PEOPLE."

THE CURRENT ISSUE OPENS WITH A FULL-PAGE PICTURE OF PRIME MINISTER STALIN. THE CAPTION IS A PRESUMABLY YEARS-OLD QUOTE FROM HIM: "WITH THE WAR ENDED IN VICTORY OVER THE ENIES, THE SOVIET UNION HAS ENTERED A NEW, PEACEFUL PERIOD OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT XX X."

THE MAGAZINE PUTS HEAVY EMPHASIS ON STALIN'S POST-WAR FIVE-YEAR PLAN AND ON PICTURES OF PEOPLE LOOKING HAPPY. IT ALSO CONTAINS PICTURE SPREADS ON SUCH TOPICS AS: LENINGRAD, COLLECTIVE FARMS, RECONSTRUCTION IN DIEV, THE DNEPR POWER PLANT, THE RESTORATION OF THE DONETZ BASIN, AND THE CITY OF STALINGRAD.

THE RUSSIAN PUBLICATION CLAIMS THAT UNDER TH NEW FIVE-YEAR PLAN, ABOUT 5,900 RESTORED AND NEWLY-BUILT INDUSTRIAL PLANTS WILL BE PUT INTO OPERATION.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 28-(AP)-ACTING MEDIATOR RALPH BUNCHE SOON WILL BOW OUT OF THE PALESTINE PROBLEM AND LEAVE IT TO THE THREE-NATION CONCILIATION COMMISSION CREATED BY THE U.N. ASSEMBLY LAST DEC.11.

BUNCHE'S ASSOCIATES HERE SAID TODAY HE WILL ASK TO BE RELIEVED AS SOON AS ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN ISRAEL, TRANS-JORDAN AND SYRIA ARE COMPLETED AT RHODES. THIS PROBABLY WILL BE WITHIN THE NEXT TEN DAYS OR TWO WEEKS.

THE CONCILIATION COMMISSION HAS BEEN IN PALESTINE SINCE JANUARY AND ALREADY HAS MADE PRELIMINARY CONTACT WITH THE GOVERNMENTS OF ISRAEL AND THE ARAB COUNTRIES. SO FAR, HOWEVER, THE COMMISSION HAS CONCENTRATED ON THE PROBLEM OF ARAB REFUGEES AND LEFT THE MAIN POLITICAL ISSUES TO BUNCHE.

MEMBERS OF THE COMMISSION ARE MARK F.ETHRIDGE, JR., OF THE UNITED STATES, PUBLISHER OF THE LOUISVILLE (KY), COURIER-JOURNAL; CLUDE DE BOISANGER OF FRANCE AND HUSSEIN YALCHIN OF TURKEY.

UNDER THE ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION OF DEC. 11, THE SECURITY COUNCIL WILL TRANSFER THE MEDIATOR'S FUNCTIONS TO THE COMMISSION AND TERMINATE THE OFFICE OF MEDIATOR WHEN IT SEES FIT. THE COMMISSION, HOWEVER, HAS BEEN INSISTING THAT BUNCHE CONTINUE WORK AT LEAST UNTIL THE ARMISTICE TALKS ARE FINISHED.

IN A PROGRESS REPORT DATED MARCH 1, THE COMMISSION SAID:

"THE CONCILIATION COMMISSION FEELS THAT THE SUCCESS OF THE ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS MIGHT BE JEOPARDIZED IF THEIR DIRECTION WERE TO BE TRANSFERRED BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL FROM THE ACTING MEDIATOR TO THE CONCILIATION COMMISSION BEFORE THEIR CONCLUSION."

ARMISTICES ALREADY HAVE BEEN CONCLUDED BETWEEN ISRAEL AND TWO ARAB COUNTRIES--EGYPT AND LEBANON. SAUDI ARABIA AND IRAQ HAVE DECLARED THEY WOULD ACCEPT WHATEVER TERMS WERE AGREED TO BY EGYPT, SYRIA, TRANS-JORDAN AND LEBANON. THIS MEANS BUNCHE HAS ONLY TO CONCLUDE THE TRANS-JORDAN-ISRAELI TALKS NOW IN PROGRESS AND THE SYRIAN-ISRAELI TALKS WHICH WILL FOLLOW IMMEDIATELY, EITHER LATE THIS WEEK OR NEXT WEEK.

THE SECURITY COUNCIL IS EXPECTED TO ACT IMMEDIATELY TO GIVE THE CONCILIATION COMMISSION THE GO-AHEAD ON ITS TWO MAJOR TASKS:

1. "TO ASSIST THE GOVERNMENTS AND AUTHORITIES CONCERNED TO ACHIEVE A FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ALL QUESTIONS OUTSTANDING BETWEEN THEM"--OR TO WORK OUT A FINAL PEACE TREATY AS CONTRASTED TO A MILITARY ARMISTICE.

2. TO PRESENT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN SEPTEMBER "DETAILED PROPOSALS FOR A PERMANENT INTERNATIONAL REGIME FOR THE JERUSALEM AREA."

THE COMMISSION ALREADY HAS A SPECIAL COMMITTEE WORKING ON THE JERUSALEM QUESTION, BUT INFORMED QUARTERS HERE BELIEVE ISRAEL AND TRANS-JORDAN MAY AGREE TO DIVIDE JERUSALEM BETWEEN THEMSELVES AND THUS PRESENT THE COMMISSION WITH A SITUATION WHICH WOULD VIRTUALLY RULE OUT ANY CHANCES FOR AN INTERNATIONAL REGIME.

AT THE TIME THE ASSEMBLY ACTED LAST DECEMBER, THE DELEGATES COULD FORESEE NEITHER THE SUCCESSFUL ARMISTICE TALKS NOR A POSSIBLE AGREEMENT ON JERUSALEM. ;34 ,194'33, $3;3)90.3,5

MALIK NOTED THAT ONE PARAGRAPH OF THE REPORT SAID "THERE IS NO SERIOUS DAMAGE TO THE CITY OF JOGJAKARTA WHICH WOULD INTERFERE IN ANY WAY WITH THE RE-ESTABLISHMENT OF THE REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT IN JOGJAKARTA." ANOTHER SECTION, HE POINTED OUT, SAID "LACK OF MATERIALS AND EQUIPMENT, PART OF WHICH HAS BEEN REMOVED OR DESTROYED SINCE 18 DECEMBER, 1948, WILL SERIOUSLY HAMPER AN EFFECTIVE FUNCTIONING OF THE REPUBLICAN ADMINISTRATION."

MALIK SAID THE COMMISSION NEGLECTED TO SAY WHO DESTROYED THE MATERIALS AND EQUIPMENT OR CARRIED THEM AWAY. HE SAID THE COUNCIL SHOULD ASK FOR MORE INFORMATION.

CUBAN DELEGATE ALBERTO INOCENTE ALVAREZ, THIS MONTH'S COUNCIL PRESIDENT, SAID HE HAD MERELY CALLED THE ATTENTION OF THE COUNCIL TO THE MESSAGE. HE SAID THE INDONESIAN QUESTION WAS NOT ON THE AGENDA AND COULD NOT BE DEBATED UNLESS THE COUNCIL ADDED IT TO THE DAY'S WORK SHEET.

Mayhew Denies Britain Violated Palestine Pact

MAR 29 1949

London, March 29 (AP)—Britain is challenging the contention of Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, acting United Nations mediator, that she has violated the Palestine truce.

Christopher P. Mayhew, Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, said last night the Government will tell the United Nations the sending of British troops to the Trans-Jordan port of Aqaba was a purely defensive action not in conflict with the truce.

The Admiralty, meanwhile, disclosed Britain has sent another warship to Aqaba. The 1,730-ton destroyer Troubridge anchored there Saturday, it said.

British Move Included

Bunche, in a report from Rhodes to the United Nations Security Council last week, said both Israel and Trans-Jordan have violated their truce agreement by the movement of troops. He added he considered that the landing of British troops in Aqaba also was a violation. Britain sent troops there in January, under a mutual defense alliance with Trans-Jordan, and reinforced them this month.

In a written reply to a question in the House of Commons, Mayhew said the criticism presumably stems from the Security Council resolution "which calls upon all governments and authorities concerned to undertake that they will not introduce fighting personnel into Palestine and Arab states during a cease-fire."

Not Engaged In Conflict

Britain, Mayhew said, "has not in any way engaged in the conflict," and, therefore, "it cannot reasonably be supposed that this resolution meant the United Kingdom . . . was debarred from reinforcing or altering the composition of its forces in the Middle East."

The Foreign Office, he said, will submit this view to Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary general, in answer to Bunche.

Reports from Rhodes said Bunche asked Lie to induce the British to help reduce tension along the Palestine-Trans-Jordan border. Israel strongly disapproves of the landing of British troops at Aqaba.

SOKOLOVSKY PROMOTED TO MOSCOW POST

Relieved Of German Command To Be Deputy Minister Of Forces

MAR 29 1949

London, March 29 (AP)—The Moscow radio announced tonight that Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Soviet commander in Germany, has been appointed First Deputy Minister of the Armed Forces for the U.S.S.R.

At the same time he was relieved of his post in Germany, the broadcast said.

Marshal Nikolai A. Bulganin was relieved Friday as Minister of the Armed Forces and was succeeded by Marshal Alexander M. Vasilevsky. Bulganin, an alternate member of the Politburo of the Russian Communist party, continues to hold his post as a deputy premier.

General Chuikov Successor

To succeed Sokolovsky in Germany, the broadcast said, the U.S.S.R. Council of Ministers named Gen. V. I. Chuikov. His title will be commander in chief of Soviet occupation troops and head of Soviet military administration in Germany.

Prime Minister Stalin took the post of Minister of Armed Forces during the war but gave up the job in March, 1947, when Bulganin was appointed.

Vasilevsky had been First Deputy Minister since 1947.

Brussels Powers Plan Joint Naval Maneuvers

London, March 29 (AP)—An informed source said today Britain, France, the Netherlands and Belgium plan joint naval maneuvers in June.

The massed naval exercises would be the first carried out by the four sea powers of the five-nation Western European Union. The fifth member is Luxembourg. The four also are among the original members of the Atlantic alliance.

The source said representative units of the four navies would participate but it was not possible to disclose how many ships would be involved.

Preceding the June exercises will be a British and Commonwealth naval staff study—"operation trident"—at the Royal Naval College, Greenwich, in April. United States naval observers will attend.

British Refuse to Send G. I.s' Children to U. S.

LONDON, March 29 (AP).—Britain has decided against sending thirty-one Somerset County children of American Negro G.I.s to America for adoption.

Negro families in the United States had agreed to adopt the children, born of war-time romances between Somerset County British girls and Negro soldiers.

The Home Office ruled today that there would be no change in children's laws which would prohibit them from going. "Any implication that there is not a place in this country for colored children who have not a normal life would cause controversy and give offense in some quarters," it said.

The children are now charges of the Somerset County Council and are in a nursing home until they reach age five. The council plans to place them in British homes.

Members of Parliament from Somerset County had asked the Home Office to amend British adoption laws so that the children could be adopted by American families not related to them.

Price Boost May Cut Britain's Meat Ration

MAR 29 1949

London, March 29 (AP)—A new cut in the meat ration was foreseen in Government circles today if Britain suspends its purchases in Argentina rather than pay higher prices.

Reports from Argentina, featured in morning papers, said suspension of meat shipments was being discussed. Argentine Government officials said the shipments would continue during the negotiations for a new agreement.

Ration Is Down

The meat ration was cut yesterday from 10 pence (17 cents) worth of fresh meat to 8 pence (14 cents) worth per person per week. The allowance of 2 pence (3⅓ cents) worth of canned corned beef remained the same.

Roughly, one third of Britain's meat supplies come from Argentina. If purchases are suspended, a further one-third cut in the ration is likely.

May Double Price

The current Andes agreement for 400,000 tons of meat expires Thursday. About 70,000 tons remain to be shipped to Britain.

Authoritative sources said Argentina is demanding double the present price. The new price would apply both to shipments under a new management and to the remainder of the old contract.

Negotiations Critical

It is the policy of the Ministry of Food not to disclose the price being paid for Argentine meat, or the stocks on hand. Argentina's Ministry of Economy, Roberto Ares, has said, however, that Britain is paying about 5¼ pence (8½ cents) a pound.

A British official said the negotiations in Buenos Aires are "at a critical stage, with the question of prices and dollar convertibility the two stumbling blocks."

Forms Are Required

The meat shortage is swelling the ranks of the vegetarians. In January this year vegetarians had increased to 106,904. Now vegetarian foodstuffs are becoming scarce.

To get the extra cheese ration allocated to vegetarians, it is necessary to fill in a form declaring that you are a vegetarian and have it certified by a doctor or lawyer.

Argentine Pledges Meat

Buenos Aires, March 29 (AP)—Argentina has assured Britain meat shipments to the United Kingdom will continue even though a new price agreement has not been reached.

Reports published in London that the Argentine Government is considering suspending deliveries were denied by high Argentine officials.

These officials stressed, however, that after the expiration of the current Andes agreement on March 31, the shipment will be based on new prices now being negotiated.

Packers said meat stocks are low because farmers are holding back until the new prices are set.

British F-T. Boats End 4,500-Mile Arctic Test

PORTSMOUTH, March 29 (AP).—Three British motor torpedo boats have returned from a "satisfactory" 4,500-mile experimental cruise into the Arctic, the Admiralty announced today.

The fifty-four-day cruise was planned to test performance of the small boats in Arctic conditions and the effect of cold on their crews. The crewmen were equipped with electrically heated suits and the boats were especially strengthened for the icy waters.

Bevin May Seek Mediterranean Stand By U.S.

Aboard the Queen Mary, March 29 (AP)—A reliable informant said today British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin is expected to ask the United States Government for a precise statement of its views concerning a Mediterranean defense pact, linked to the North Atlantic treaty.

Bevin and other Western diplomats aboard this liner, who will be among the signers of the Atlantic alliance next week, have held numerous conferences at which it is believed the Mediterranean subject was discussed.

Russians On Same Ship

Aboard ship with Bevin are Premier Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak of Belgium, Foreign Minister D. U. Stikker of the Netherlands and Premier Joseph Bech of Luxembourg.

Andrei A. Gromyko, leading Soviet Russia's big delegation to the United Nations meeting at New York, has been a silent witness of the activity among the Western diplomats. Mostly the Russian group spends the evenings playing cards in the liner's first-class lounge.

Bevin is quoted by his aides as saying he hopes "all ground of common interest" can be covered in his talks with Secretary of State Acheson. Presumably that also would include trouble spots in the Pacific, where another regional defense alliance may develop.

Subject On His Agenda

There had been some advance indication of Bevin's desire for a clear expression of American views concerning the Mediterranean. In a parliamentary debate last Wednesday, Hector McNeil, British Minister of State, told the House of Commons that aid to Greece against Communist rebels would not be "confined to the methods previously employed."

McNeil did not indicate what type of assistance was contemplated, but he said Bevin has this subject on the agenda of his conversations with Acheson.

DE GAULLE SEEKS PRIORITY IN ARMS

Says U.S. Should Help France As Defender Of Continent

Paris, March 29 (AP) — Gen. Charles de Gaulle today demanded priority for France in American arms shipments to back the Atlantic alliance.

The North Atlantic alliance is a good thing, but is not enough, the General told a news conference.

There must be shipments of American arms immediately, he said, and the first shipments must be to France because she is the main protection of western Europe.

Presents French Reasons

He declared again that it would be a "grave mistake" to base European defense on Britain, and said France must have arms, because:

1. Another occupation of France, followed by a bombardment to liberate her, would wreck the country morally and physically.

2. Most of the troops defending the Rhine or Elbe—at least at first—would be French.

The General, who spent most of World War II as head of the exiled Free French movement, called for a precise schedule of arms shipments to enable France to defend herself, and for definite strategic commitments from the United States in case of attack.

Sign Of America's "Drift"

De Gaulle said the Atlantic alliance was a "happy and very important manifestation" of America's drift from isolation. He also praised the pact as a step toward a future federation of Europe.

Such a federation, including Germany, he said, might attempt to cooperate with Russia in unifying the continent, even if this meant that Russia would have to change her regime.

De Gaulle cited his arms stand as a point in his argument that the present French Government is too weak. He called the news conference to comment on local elections the last two Sundays. In these elections his rightist Rally of the French People (RPF) came out as the strongest single party, but still inferior to the three-party bloc making up the Government.

He said it was "quite natural" if the United States did not want to send arms to France now because the present Government was "incapable of inspiring or directing a defense worthy of the name."

Clemency For Petain Asked By De Gaulle

Paris, March 29 (AP)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle today asked clemency for a wartime opponent, Marshal Philippe Petain.

Petain, 92, whose Vichy regime condemned de Gaulle to death in absentia for leading the Free French, is serving a life sentence on the Ile d'Yeu off the southwestern coast of France.

It was de Gaulle, as head of the provisional French Government after the war, who commuted Petain's death sentence to life imprisonment for treason. Doctors recently reported that Petain is "showing a gradual weakening due to old age."

Red Leaflets Denounce Alliance At Oslo Debate

Oslo, Norway, March 29 (AP)—Parliamentary discussion of the Atlantic pact was interrupted today when Communists demonstrated in the gallery.

They dropped leaflets onto the floor of the House reading, "We don't want the Atlantic pact."

Police, who said the demonstrators were Communists, removed them. The president then ruled that proceedings should continue behind closed doors.

However, representatives of various parties protested, the doors were opened, and the debate continued publicly.

Reds Beaten In Iceland Vote

Reykjavik, Iceland, March 29 (AP)—A Communist motion of nonconfidence in the Government was defeated, 37 to 9, by the Althing (Parliament) today as debate began on this republic's participation in the Atlantic pact.

Swiss Children Replace Bombed-Out Church Bells

By The Associated Press.

SCHAFFHAUSEN, Switzerland, March 29—Five hundred Swiss school children tugging on ropes helped to put back in place the five church bells of the Steigkirche, bombed in error five years ago by United States fliers.

The church was destroyed on April 1, 1944, when United States bombers, whose targets were in Germany only a few miles away, mistakenly bombed Schaffhausen. The church has been rebuilt.

About fifty Swiss were killed in the bombing. Damage to the city was fixed at $16,000,000 by the Swiss Government. The United States Government paid $4,000,000 to the Swiss after the bombing. Payment of the remainder has been pending in Congress ever since. A measure now before Congress would provide $10,000,000 of the $12,000,000 still claimed by the Swiss.

Slav - Guerrilla Clash Reported Near Trieste

Rome, March 29 (AP)—The Italian news agency Astra, quoting the Istrian Committee of National Liberation at Trieste, said today Yugoslav Army troops and guerrillas battled near the Italian border Sunday night.

The report was not confirmed.

[Yugoslavia under Premier Marshal Tito has been at odds with the Kremlin since last summer. There have been recent reports that the Soviet Union and its satellites are making motions which might indicate they plan some kind of coup to unseat Tito. Up to now, however, there has been no confirmed report of anything beyond a little cold war between Tito's followers and the Cominform.]

Fight Near Gorizia

The Istrian committee, which seeks the reunion of Italy and Trieste, was quoted by Astra as reporting the fight occurred in the Tolmino area of Yugoslavia, about fifteen miles northeast of Gorizia, Italy.

The Rome newspaper Il Tempo, which published Astra's dispatch, said there has been heavy movement of Yugoslav police and troops in the border region. It added many medium-sized tanks have moved up to Monte Santo, another frontier town near Gorizia. The newspaper said partisans fired on a gasoline depot at Ljubjana Saturday, but were driven away by guards.

Il Tempo said twelve persons were arrested in Yugoslavia in connection with the reported blasting of an ammunition dump at Aidussina the night of March 24. They were accused of being Communists friendly to the Cominform.

Dutch Ready For Indonesia Peace Talks

The Hague, March 29 (AP)—The Dutch Government announced today its readiness to meet with Indonesian Republicans in an effort to lay the groundwork for peace in Indonesia.

The Government made the conditions that the discussions must be in Indonesia, without prejudice to the rights or positions of either side.

Its terse announcement emphasized this meant Dutch responsibility for freedom and order in Indonesia would not be prejudiced by agreeing to the meeting. It said nothing specifically of the rights or position of the Indonesian Republicans.

Ordered By U.N.

The United Nations Security Council in a resolution adopted March 23 instructed the United Nations Commission on Indonesia to attempt to arrange a meeting of representatives of the Netherlands and of the Republicans to work out plans for making effective the Council's order of January 28. The January order had instructed the Dutch to grant self-rule to all Indonesia and to restore the Republican regime to power.

Dutch troops last December seized leaders of the Indonesian Republic, and overran the areas of Java, Sumatra and Madoera which those leaders had proclaimed a free and independent republic.

Ask Sovereign State

The Security Council plan calls for creation of a sovereign United States of Indonesia of which the republic would be a part.

The Dutch have refused to negotiate with the Republicans as representatives of an independent state, and the Republicans have refused to negotiate in any other capacity. The March 24 Security Council resolution was intended to bring them together in an effort to resolve this deadlock.

The Dutch announcement said nothing about proposals for restoration of the Republicans to authority or their return to the republic's capital at Jogjakarta.

Must Restore Indonesians

The March 24 Security Council resolution said when agreement was reached the United Nations Indonesian Commission then would specify the time and conditions for a round-table conference at The Hague for a final settlement of the dispute.

A major provision, however, was that the Dutch must first restore the Indonesians to authority before any such talks could be held.

The Dutch announcement announcing their willingness to settle the dispute under United Nations sponsorship was in reply to the March 23 resolution of the Security Council.

Dutch Agree On Java Talks

The Hague, March 29 (AP)—The Dutch Government accepted today an invitation from the United Nations Commission for Indonesia to discuss a settlement of Indonesian problems directly with Republican leaders in Batavia.

"If these discussions should take place, the Netherlands Government intends to appoint Dr. J. H. van Royen as leader of the Netherlands delegation," it was announced.

The Government suggested that the first meeting, originally proposed for this week, be postponed until the arrival of van Royen, Dutch spokesman in the United Nations at Lake Success, N.Y.

Capital Restoration

L. N. Palar, Indonesian delegate to the United Nations, announced March 31 the Indonesian Republic would be willing to enter into direct negotiations with the Dutch if the Republican Government is restored to power in its capital at Jogjakarta by April 4.

The Dutch Government announcement said nothing about this, but stipulated that the "suggested discussions will be held without prejudicing the rights, claims and positions of parties and consequently will not prejudice the responsibility of the Netherlands for freedom and order in Indonesia."

Non-Republican leaders in Dutch-controlled Sumatra urged today that their island be given a larger voice in moves for establishing a sovereign United States of Indonesia. Sumatra has always been overshadowed by Java, a more densely populated island.

A dispatch from Medan said 79 delegates from twelve Sumatran states conferred there as guests of Dr. T. Mansur, head of the East Sumatra state.

Abdul Malik, who was elected chairman, warned that the Netherlands would be making a mistake if it ignored a resolution adopted recently by leaders in non-Republican areas urging the restoration of President Soekarno's Republican regime in Jogjakarta.

Clay Confirms Two Death Sentences

Frankfurt, Germany, March 29 (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay today confirmed the death sentences of two more Malmedy massacre defendants.

They are Josef Diefenthal, major commander in Germany's 2d Panzer Grenadier Regiment, and Friedel Bode, a sergeant in the 1st Panzer Pioneer Battalion.

Both were convicted of taking part in the shooting of unarmed American prisoners of war near Malmedy, Belgium, during the Battle of the Bulge in 1944.

Reviewing 12 Sentences

Clay has been reviewing twelve death sentences imposed by a United States war-crimes court because of claims by the defendants that force was used to extract confessions.

The General ruled that there was enough evidence to convict

30.24- 2091

Diefenthal and Bode without the confessions they repudiated.

Clay's report said Diefenthal was convicted of issuing orders that no prisoners would be taken by his battalion. The German also "permitted an unarmed prisoner of war to be shot," the report said.

Called A Leading Figure

"Diefenthal was a leading figure in developing the spirit in his command which led to the killing of a substantial number of unarmed surrendered American prisoners of war," the report added.

Clay said that Bode commanded an armored vehicle which fired upon unarmed prisoners, and added:

"Without doubt to my mind, Bode was guilty of the cold-blooded killing without cause of unarmed, surrendered American prisoners of war."

14th Nuernberg Approval

Berlin, March 29 (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay, United States commander, today approved the death sentence imposed at Nuernberg on an SS officer for mass executions.

This raised to fourteen the number of death sentences confirmed by Clay in the "Einsatzgruppen case," involving the murder of more than a million persons, mostly Jews.

The defendant, Hans Schubert, 34, had asked for mercy, claiming he was acting under orders. As in the cases of the other thirteen defendants doomed to die, Clay ordered a stay of execution pending action by United States courts on petitions which failed there.

Russian Sector Children Beg Food

Frankfurt, Germany, March 29 (AP)—Hungry children in tattered clothes trudge in groups across the Soviet zone border in Germany to beg food from the Americans, a United States official said today.

Sharon L. Hatch, welfare adviser of the United States military government in the State of Hesse, issued a press release based on a report from American Military Government officers in the border areas. His statement coincided with German press reports that Russian zone economy is failing under the counter-blockade the British and Americans set up in retaliation for the blockade of Berlin.

"Walking as far as 15 miles into the United States zone, the children have been seen in groups of ten to fifteen, begging for food in the border villages," Hatch said. "When questioned, children have told military government officers that their parents had sent them for food of any kind in the American zone."

Many of the children say their fathers have been pressed into labor groups or still are prisoners of war, Hatch said. He added that Russian zone border guards do not hamper the movement of the children back and forth.

Airlift Command Created in Reich

Frankfurt, Germany, March 29 (A. P.).—Creation of a United States Army airlift support command was announced today by the Army.

The new command will include all United States Army elements in Europe working in direct support of the Berlin airlift operations at Frankfurt and Wiesbaden. Brig.-Gen. Philip E. Gallagher of Council Bluffs, Iowa, will head the command.

Russ Policy In Germany Is Viewed As Hardening

Berlin, March 29 (AP)—The shift in Soviet occupation commanders was interpreted here tonight as a hardening of Russian policy in Germany.

The appointment of Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Russian occupation commander in Germany since 1946, as deputy minister of armed forces is a promotion for the marshal. It apparently means the Soviet Union indorses his actions in Germany which have split the country and resulted in the Soviet blockade of Berlin.

Furthermore, the change places near the top of the Soviet armed forces a man who is thoroughly experienced in the German situation, in the event Russia contemplates any military move in Germany.

Walked Out Of Council

Sokolovsky walked out of four-power government for Germany after casting a continuous flow of vetoes which had nullified all action. He has been a stubborn opponent of the West and against all compromises on his decisions here.

It is considered particularly significant that he has been promoted with this background. If any compromise on the German problem were being considered by the Kremlin, it is thought here that Sokolovsky might have been relieved, but certainly not promoted.

His successor in Germany, Gen. V. I. Chuikov, is unknown here. He holds a lower rank than does Sokolovsky. This would indicate that Chuikov will be concerned largely with military matters rather than with diplomacy while in Germany.

Would Be Outranked

He would be outranked by his Western counterparts around a conference table.

There have been indications the Russians plan to set up an eastern German government and accredit an ambassador to it. In this event, Soviet diplomacy in Germany would shift from the army to the Foreign Office.

Two GI's Jailed On Spy Charge By Czechs

MAR 29 1949

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 29 (AP)—Two American soldiers have been sentenced to prison terms of ten and twelve years on charges of spying against Czechoslovakia, the official Press Bureau said today.

The two, under arrest since December 9, were convicted at a secret trial last Saturday.

The men were arrested when they wandered across the border last December. American authorities in Germany said they were absent without leave from their units.

"Secret Mission"

Czech authorities insisted the two GI's were on a secret mission and refused the American Embassy officials the right to see or talk with them.

The Press Bureau announcement said Alexander Jones, alias Hunter, was sentenced to ten years. Clarence Hill was sentenced to twelve years. The men previously had been identified as Clarence R. Hill, 31, of Jackson, Miss., and George R. Jones, 22, of Owensboro, Ky.

Protest Is Filed

The United States Embassy immediately added a new protest note to the half dozen that have gone in vain to the Czechoslovak Foreign Ministry.

The Czechoslovaks have forbidden United States Embassy attachés to visit the soldiers, who were arrested December 10 when they wandered across the border in company with several German girls.

Ambassador Joseph E. Jacobs protested "this secret trial without due regard for normal rights and safeguards, especially on such a serious charge."

Pledge Is Made

He indicated the Foreign Minister, after virtually ignoring the stream of American protests, promised to arrange for an Embassy official to see the men next week.

The Embassy still has not been informed officially of the circumstances of the arrest, how the men were treated, how the trial was conducted or whether the men were represented by attorneys.

Czechoslovak authorities did not explain the reference to an alias for Jones.

Trial Postponed

Meanwhile, the treason trial, in absentia, of Dr. Jan Papanek, former Deputy Premier Peter Zenkl, Hubert Ripka and fourteen other Czechoslovak officials ousted by the Communist Government was postponed mysteriously today.

The press department of the Ministry of Justice confirmed that the trial was postponed "indefinitely" but would advance no reason.

Papanek, former chief Czechoslovak delegate to the United Nations, also was charged with embezzling Government funds.

Silent About Fate

All of the defendants are out of the country.

This is the second announced trial of a high-ranking former Czechoslovak Government official that failed to come to the bar. The trial of former Gen. Karel Kutlvasr was suddenly postponed and the Government has been silent about his fate since.

CZECHS SENTENCE 2 GI'S TO PRISON ON SPY CHARGES

A. L. GOLDBERG

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, March 29.—(AP) A Czechoslovak court has sentenced two American soldiers, who wandered across the border from Germany last December, to long prison terms on charges of spying.

The men, held in a Prague prison, are listed in U. S. army records as recruit Clarence R. Hill, 31, of Jackson, Miss., and recruit George R. Jones, 22, of Owensboro, Ky., absent without leave since Dec. 1 from the U. S. Constabulary's Sixth Armored regiment.

Sentenced as Spies

The Czechoslovak press bureau announced today they were convicted of espionage at a secret trial Saturday. It said Hill was sentenced to 12 years and Jones, to whom it referred without explanation as "Alexander Jones, alias Hunter," to 10 years.

The action came after the wind-up in Munich of a series of trials before a U. S. military commission in which 17 persons—including several Czechs—were convicted of spying for the Czechoslovak intelligence service. They were sentenced to prison terms ranging up to 30 years.

The United States Embassy protested to the Czechoslovak foreign ministry against "this secret trial, without due regard for normal rights and safeguards." A half dozen notes on the case had previously been sent in vain.

Ambassador Joseph E. Jacobs indicated that the foreign ministry promised to make arrangements for an embassy official to see the soldiers next week. Jacobs had been unable to learn the charges against the two until a week ago, when he was told they were accused of espionage. He and his staff were denied permission to see them and failed in efforts to have them represented by counsel. They said they regarded the charge as preposterous.

The soldiers were arrested last Dec. 10 after crossing the frontier from the U. S. occupied zone of Germany, Czechoslovak police said, with several German girls. The Czechoslovaks insisted the men were sent across "on a secret mission."

Men Just AWOL, U. S. Says

A U. S. army spokesman in Frankfurt declared the two "definitely were not spies" and were not on any mission. He reiterated that they were "absent without leave when they went into Czechoslovakia."

That spokesman and Jacobs both declined to speculate on whether retaliation was intended for the conviction of the 17 in Munich, but pointed out those defendants were represented by counsel and full publicity was given the trials.

The embassy still has not been informed officially about the circumstances of the soldiers' arrest, how they were treated, how the trial was conducted or whether they had attorneys of any sort.

The Czech reference to Jones as "Hunter" was new to American officials here. An embassy source said Jones might have been listed in the army under another name at one time.

It was the first case of its kind in Czechoslovakia since the end of the war. Several members of the U. S. armed forces have been arrested on other charges, however, including one man sentenced to three years for car theft.

Another Czechoslovak court case was postponed mysteriously today. The communist government called off indefinitely the treason trial, in absentia, of Dr. Jan Papanek, former chief Czechoslovak delegate to the United Nations, and 16 others it had ousted from official positions. All the defendants are out of the country.

"Definitely Not Spies"

Frankfurt, Germany, March 29 (AP)—United States Army headquarters declared today that two American soldiers convicted in Prague of espionage "definitely are not spies."

"They were not on any mission, but were absent without leave when they went into Czechoslovakia," an official army spokesman said.

The Army identified the convicted men as Recruit George R. Jones, 22, of Owensboro, Ky., and Recruit Clarence R. Hill, 31, of Jackson, Miss.

Priest Sentenced by Poles

WARSAW, March 29 (AP).—The Rev. Jozef Danson, a Catholic priest, was sentenced today by a Lodz court to four years' imprisonment on charges of using his pulpit to spread "hostile and false news slandering the national administration" of Communist-dominated Poland.

Chiang May See Peace Envoy

Nanking, March 29 (AP)—Gen. Chang Chih-chung, head of the national mission to talk peace with the Communists, reportedly departed for Fenghwa today to consult with retired President Chiang Kai-shek.

A member of Chang's family disclosed the chairman of the Government peace delegation had slipped quietly out of town. Less than 24 hours earlier he publicly announced members of the delegation would not visit Chiang before their departurne for Peiping, the Red capital.

Chang Shih-chao, another peace delegate, had issued a similar denial.

Red Criticism Feared

Efforts to conceal any visit to Chiang evidently stemmed from fear that the Communists would criticize delegates for even contacting Chiang. The Communists consider Chiang their No. 1 Chinese enemy.

The secretariat for the delegation also disclosed that Gen. Liu Fei, Vice Minister of National Defense, will accompany it to Peiping. Liu is considered one of the Nationalists' best soldiers. He probably will take a major part in negotiations on the key issue of joint army reorganization.

The secretariat said the Government mission will leave in two groups on Thursday and Friday. The peace delegates themselves will leave Nanking on Friday.

"China Is Bankrupt"

Meanwhile, another member of the delegation, Huang Shao-hsiung, en route from Hong Kong to Nanking, said that Nationalist China cannot afford a continued civil war.

"Economically, China is already bankrupt, and an impoverished country cannot afford to fight any war," Huang said.

Acting President Li Tsung-jen during the day led high Government officials in paying homage at the Nanking Monument to 72 heroes of the Kuomintang (Government party), who died in the 1911 revolution.

Chang Fenghwa Trip Is Reported

Nanking, China, March 29 (AP)—The head of the Chinese Government's peace delegation reportedly left today to talk with Chiang Kai-shek before heading for Peiping and a showdown meeting with the Communists.

The purpose of Gen. Chang Chin-chung's trip was not given. But his destination is Chikow, a village not far from the generalissimo's retreat at Fenghwa, 110 miles south of Shanghai.

Only 24 hours before, the general had denied that any one of the delegation would see the "retired" President of China.

Tops 'War Criminal' List

Chiang is at the top of the Communist "war criminals list." The Communists accuse him of putting up a façade of peace while working feverishly for continued resistance.

[There have been recurrent reports that old friends in the Government had sneaked to Fenghwa to ask Chiang's advice. It raises the question: Is Chiang still carrying on as President?]

The five-man delegation will leave for Peiping Friday. It will be accompanied by a five-man postal delegation which will negotiate on the restoration of mail service to Communist areas.

Methodist Bishop Arrested In Korea

Seoul, March 29 (AP)—Yang Ju Sam, 70, first Methodist bishop of Korea, was arrested today on charges of wartime collaborating with the Japanese.

Special police made the arrest on orders of a committee of ten National Assembly delegates.

Bishop Yang is also president of the Y.M.C.A. of Korea.

He is among 80 persons arrested since January on collaboration charges. Pending trial, at least 52 days hence, details of the accusation were withheld.

Paper In Sydney Hits Exclusion Of Gamboa

MAR 29 1949

Sydney, Australia, March 29 (AP). The Sydney Morning Herald hit at the Australian Government today for the way it applies the "white Australia" laws. These laws aim at keeping Asiatics from settling in Australia.

The Conservative paper was commenting on the case of American Army Sergt. Lorenzo Gamboa, of Filipino extraction, who has been denied permission to settle in Australia with his Australian wife and two Australian children. Gamboa married an Australian girl while serving here in the United States Army.

Attacks Official Who Ruled

"The attitude of the Immigration Department toward Gamboa is difficult to explain in terms of ordinary fairness and common sense," the Herald said.

It continued in an editorial: "Moreover, it is a double affront—to the Filipinos and to the Americans whose plea voiced by General MacArthur, a valuable friend of Australia, has met with a Calwellian snub." A. A. Calwell is the minister who refused Gamboa permission to come to Australia.

Gamboa appealed to MacArthur to use his influence with the Australian Government to gain him admittance. This MacArthur did, but with no results.

Charges "Silly Dramatizing"

The paper called Calwell's action "a silly dramatizing of a small human problem which has no real bearing on 'white Australia.'"

It called the Government's proposal to pay Mrs. Gamboa's fare to join her husband elsewhere an "improper and clumsy" use of "public funds for a private purpose."

Mrs. Gamboa said today that even if the Government would pay her fare she did not want to go to the United States or to the Philippines.

Calwell said that if Gamboa were granted a temporary entrance visa, six other Filipinos, married to Australian women, might try to enter Australia.

Meanwhile, two Filipino golfers are the major draw for a big golf tournament starting here Thursday. They are Larry Montes and Celestino Tugot, who are staying here at a first-class hotel.

Moscow Notes End Of N.Y. Meeting

Moscow, March 29 (AP)—Soviet papers today announced without comment the closing of the Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace in New York.

Pravda, Izvestia and other Moscow newspapers have devoted extensive space to reporting the meeting. They printed long summaries of many conference speeches, including those by the Soviet guests. Pravda carried the full text of Alexander Fadeyev's speech.

Meanwhile, the same papers reported from various centers preparations for the forthcoming World Peace Congress in Paris.

Comment on the congress was contained in New York dispatches by the official Soviet News Agency Tass, which arrived too late for this morning's Moscow papers.

Tass claimed the conference was a success despite "persecution by reactionaries."

Russ Youth Delegates Meet First Since War

Moscow, March 29 (AP)—Communist youth delegates from all parts of the Soviet Union met today for their first congress since prewar days.

Nine million members of the Komsomol (Communist youth organization) were represented at the eleventh congress. Officials reported that Komsomol membership had grown from 4,000,000 represented at the last congress before the war.

Soviet Press Heaps Praise on Beria

MAR 29 1949

Radio Also Hails 50th Birthday of Man Often Mentioned as Stalin's Successor.

Moscow, March 29 (A. P.).—The Soviet press and radio devoted much attention today to the fiftieth birthday of Lavrenti P. Beria.

Beria, a vice-chairman of the Council of Ministers (Deputy Prime Minister), has just been awarded the Order of Lenin by the Presidium of Supreme Soviet. The press extolled him. Pravda and Izvestia published a two-column photograph of him on their front pages.

[Beria, who has been head of the Soviet Union's secret police, has from time to time been mentioned as a possible successor to Stalin. He was relieved of the police post at his own request in 1946, so that he could devote himself more fully to other duties.]

The Central Committee of the Communist party extended congratulations to Beria today and called him a "true pupil of Lenin and colleague of Comrade Stalin."

Beria, like Stalin, is a Georgian. He is definitely one of the highest ranking members of the party and the Government. Before he began devoting all his attention to his job as vice-chairman of the council, he was Minister of State Security. He is a member of the Politburo, the policy making body of the Soviet Union.

Burma Bombs Oil Dumps Of Karens

Rangoon, Burma, March 29 (AP)—The Burmese Air Force carried out simultaneous raids on Karen and Communist strongholds in Central Burma last night, an official statement said today.

The main target was Toungoo, Karen headquarters 80 miles north of Rangoon, where the Government claimed to have scored direct hits on oil dumps, starting large fires.

Bombs were also dropped on a Communist headquarters 60 miles farther north.

Fighting For Own State

The Karens are a native tribe fighting to set up an independent state of Karenistan.

Meanwhile, a crowd rioted today before the city movie house and forced suspension of the anti-Communist American film, "The Iron Curtain."

They broke display windows and pulled down posters.

Strong Communist bands, Stalinist and Trotskyite, have been in revolt against the Burma Government for several months. The Government said yesterday Communists are in control of Mandalay, second largest city, which fell to revolting Karen tribesmen earlier this month.

Armistice Proposals Accepted

MAR 29 1949

L.S CHARLES N

Rhodes, March 29 (AP)—Israeli and Trans-Jordan delegates accepted armistice terms today and returned to their capitals for final approval of the draft.

United Nations officials left for Damascus to start work on armistice negotiations with Syria.

The Trans-Jordan agreement may be signed Friday, extending the Palestine armistice that began when Egypt signed an accord February 24. Lebanon signed an armistice March 23.

Follows Private Meetings

A settlement is yet to be concluded between Israel and Iraq, Yemen and Saudi Arabia of the Arab League. Of these, only Iraq was active in the Palestine warfare.

The agreement on terms came after private meetings of Dr. Reuven Shiloah, of Israel, and Col. Ahmed el Jundi, of Trans-Jordan, without the acting mediator, Dr. Ralph Bunche.

Meeting since Sunday, they agreed yesterday there were no serious differences between them. Bunche then proposed that they draw up a draft agreement. This was written this morning in a sitting that lasted from 1 to 6 A.M.

The official announcement said one "outstanding question" still was unsettled. It was believed this involved details of a face-saving agreement for reduction of forces in the Aqaba area, which King Abdullah's Government at Amman will be asked to approve. The Israeli delegation is understood to have had full power to handle the question, from Israel's viewpoint.

Israel Blames Britain

Israel has contended that Britain upset the "balance" of forces during the cease-fire by sending troops and reinforcements to the Trans-Jordan port of Aqaba, on an arm of the Red Sea. Israel moved troops to a bit of the Palestine coast adjacent to Aqaba and asked for a reduction of British forces.

[Christopher P. Mayhew, British Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, told the House of Commons in a written statement Tuesday Britain is challenging Bunche's report that Britain violated the truce.

[The British Admiralty disclosed that it had sent another warship, the destroyer Troubridge, to Aqaba. The destroyer reached there Saturday.]

Triangle Not Included

The Trans-Jordan armistice agreement affects only the front running from the area northeast of Tel Aviv to Jerusalem and south of Jerusalem to the Red Sea.

Left for future negotiation is the front of the so-called triangle in central Palestine, about Nablus, Jenin and Tulkarm. This front was held by Iraqi troops during the fighting.

Shiloah and Colonel el Jundi left for Tel Aviv and Amman shortly after noon, taking copies of the armistice agreement with them.

They expected to return Thursday.

Indo-Chinese Border Town Raided by Reds

MAR 29 1949

Occupy Part of Moncay, North of Hanoi, Attack Citadel; French Send Aid

HANOI, Indo-China, March 29 (AP).—A band of Chinese Communists seized part of the Indo-Chinese border town of Moncay Sunday and attacked the garrison in the citadel there, the French announced today. The attack, in which thirty persons were killed, emphasized fears of the French that Indo-China would be placed under heavy pressure if all China went Communist.

[French officials in Paris were quoted by the French news agency as saying the situation had been re-established with the arrival of reinforcements by road and "the citadel was always in control of French troops."]

The French have reported increasing co-operation recently between Chinese Communists and Moscow-educated Ho Chi Minh, whose Viet Namese followers in Indo-China have been fighting for three years for complete independence.

Radio and air communications were maintained with the garrison of loyal Indo-Chinese at Moncay, a border town near the coast of the Gulf of Tonkin. French reinforcements were sent to the scene, 135 miles northeast of Hanoi. Medical units were fired on when they evacuated some wounded by plane from the airport, less than a mile from the town.

Official French sources said the attack appeared to have been made to seize loot.

French press dispatches said the Communists began the attack about 4 p. m. Sunday when they crossed the Songcalong River and entered the town by surprise attack. They apparently had the assistance of sympathizers inside the town.

Ho Chi Minh's Viet Namese have been in control of the northern hinterland since the end of World War II. The French are in control of the border area, however. They seized the border towns, along with Hanoi and the principal cities, in fierce fighting in December, 1946, and early in 1947.

30 Slain In Moncay In Chinese Red Raid

Hanoi, Indo-China, March 29 (AP). Chinese Communists crossed the Indo-China border yesterday and attacked Moncay, killing 30 persons, French officials said. The Communists were reported still holding part of the town.

Moncay is at the extreme northeast corner of Tonkin. French reinforcements were sent to bolster the local force which was reported besieged in a fort. Planes brought out some of the wounded.

The French recently have noted increased co-operation between Chinese Communists and supporters of Ho Chi-minh, the Moscow-trained Nationalist leader of the Viet-Nam movement, whose forces have been fighting French colonial authority.

Dr. Soekiman Reported Returning To Jogjakarta

Batavia, Java, March 29 (AP)—A Dutch informant said today Dr. Soekiman, leader of the powerful all-Moslem Masjumi party (right wing Republicans), has been permitted to return to the Indonesian Republican capital, Jogjakarta.

Soekiman had been in hiding. An official Dutch source said his case was investigated and he was permitted to go free in accordance with a Dutch policy that "Republicans have the same rights as other citizens."

Soekiman was Interior Minister in the Cabinet of Premier Mohamed Hatta until the Dutch overran the republic last December. He escaped and joined other Republican leaders in the mountains of east Java.

The former official was known to be strongly anti-Dutch before the December conquest, and had a strong influence on Masjumi party policy.

Treaty Principles Okayed In Canada

Ottawa, March 29 (AP)—Canada's House of Commons indorsed principles of the North Atlantic pact last night by a vote of 149 to 2.

The principles next will be presented to the Senate for its approval. The treaty itself will be placed before Parliament for ratification after it has been signed in Washington next week.

George Drew, opposition leader, backed the Government's appeal for House approval and called for "one firm and ringing voice" of indorsement. External Affairs Minister L. B. Pearson called Drew's speech and the topheavy vote an "inspiring example of parliamentary unity."

The two negative votes were cast by Quebec members of the nationalist bloc Populaire.

Italy Notifies U.S. She Accepts Pact; 10 Nations Lined Up

MAR 29 1949

Washington, March 19 (AP)—Italy today notified the United States it is willing to join the North Atlantic defense alliance.

Italy's action brings to ten the the number of Western democracies that have formally gone on record as willing to line up in a mutual-aid defense pact.

Hoping For Two More

The State Department's press officer, Michael McDermott, told a news conference the Italian acceptance was sent to the department this morning by the Italian Embassy.

Portugal and Iceland have yet to be heard from, but department officials are hoping they will decide to be at the signing of the agreement April 4.

Italy's formal acceptance came only a few hours before the Italian Foreign Minister. Carlo Sforza, was to call on Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

May Discuss Colonies

The Italian official arrived here late last night, well ahead of the other foreign ministers expected for the signing ceremony.

Sforza's first words on arrival were to hail the pact, which the Communists have denounced as "aggressive," as an instrument aimed at keeping the peace.

"I have put my name to many treaties but if there is one which I am glad to sign as a man and as a citizen, it is the North Atlantic pact," he said.

His decision to call promptly on Acheson raised speculation that he planned to devote part of the meeting to discussion of Italy's request for trusteeeship control over her three former colonies in Africa.

Somaliland Bid Favored

The United Nations Assembly is to decide the future of the colonies during the session beginning in New York April 5. The United States at last report still was undecided about its policy toward two of the colonies—Eritrea and Tripolitania—but favored Italian trusteeship for Somaliland.

Sforza's plan to return to New York late this afternoon strengthened belief that he made the trip for a special purpose.

Italian Embassy aides said the Foreign Minister will be on hand when the Queen Mary docks tomorrow with the foreign ministers of Britain, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg.

Preliminary Session Set

Sforza and the other four officials will board a special railway car for the trip to Washington March 31. The official business is scheduled to get under way Saturday when the foreign ministers meet in a secret session intended to smooth out details leading up to the signing on Monday.

Meanwhile, the State Department reported conversations with the Budget Bureau to determine a specific figure for arming the pact members and other friendly nations.

State Department officials said the sum needed for the first year will be from $1,250,000,000 to $1,500,000,000.

SFORZA URGES U. S. TO AID ON COLONIES

Appeals to Acheson on Italy's Aim to Regain Them—Oslo's House for Atlantic Pact

MAR 29 1949

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—Foreign Minister Count Carlo Sforza of Italy appealed personally today to Secretary of State Acheson to back Italy's plan for regaining control of her war-lost African colonies.

During a one-hour conference, the visiting Italian statesman laid down his country's reasons for wanting to administer the three colonies under a United Nations trusteeship. Count Sforza described his talk with Mr. Acheson as a "general friendly review" of current Italian-American and European problems.

Count Sforza and the State Department officials declined to give details of the conversation. Informed officials said, however, that Count Sforza had formally notified the Secretary that the Italian Government was ready to join the North Atlantic security alliance on an equal basis with the nine other and possibly eleven member countries. The treaty will be signed here Monday.

The foreign minister also said that Italy's solution for the colonies problem would best develop the African continent while simultaneously providing and outlet for Italy's surplus population. And he thanked Mr. Acheson in the name of the Italian republic for the large-scale American economic aid that enabled Italy to make such strides on the road to recovery.

Interests of Colonies Cited

Questioned by newsmen about the colonies issue, Count Sforza would say only:

"We don't believe in colonies. We believe in the interests of Africa."

Immediately afterward he went to Union Station for a return train trip to New York. Embassy attachés said he wanted to be on hand tomorrow when the British liner Queen Mary docked with four more Foreign Ministers — Ernest Bevin of Britain, Paul-Henri Spaak of Belgium, D. U. Stikker of the Netherlands and Joseph Bech of Luxembourg. All are Washington-bound to sign the North Atlantic treaty.

The five Foreign Ministers plan to travel here together Thursday to begin a round of informal meetings before their initial get-together Saturday morning.

The rest of the Foreign Ministers, representing Canada, Norway, Denmark and France, are scheduled to arrive Thursday and Friday.

Portugal and Iceland have yet to notify the Government about their plans, but State Department officials still hope both countries will be represented at the ceremonies.

Uncut ECA Bill Predicted By Connally

MAR 29 1949

Washington, March 29 (AP)—The $5,580,000,000 European recovery bill "will be kept intact" despite GOP efforts to cut it, Senator Connally (D., Texas) insisted today.

Under Republican attack from several quarters, the measure for a second year of the Marshall plan was set aside temporarily to make way for action on rent controls.

But when it comes to a vote, the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee declared, it will be in its present form.

The House will take up its $5,380,000,000 foreign-aid bill tomorrow.

Attack Led By Wherry

Republican floor leader Wherry (R., Neb.) led the forces trying to trim the Senate bill in yesterday's debate. He said the $940,000,000 which Britain would get is too much, and proposed a general ten to fifteen per cent cut in the total authorization.

A different thrust at Great Britain came from Senator Kem (R., Mo.). He introduced an amendment to cut off United States dollars to any country which, after the new act is passed, acquires and operates in whole or in part the basic industry of that country.

Kem specifically named the iron and steel industry, which in Britain is due for Government ownership.

Foreign Policy Attacked

Senator Jenner (R., Ind.), who voted against the Marshall plan a year ago, attacked the whole field of American foreign policy. He expressed fear it was leading the country into economic bankruptcy.

The present "nonproductive spending," he asserted, could bring to the United States "for at least the next 100 years, and possibly forever, a rigid regimentation of black austerity."

Senator Brewster (R., Maine) was armed for another attack.

Would Cut Off Netherlands

He said that the Netherlands should get no funds from the ECA so long as it continues to fight Indonesian independence.

By continuing that fight, he added, the Dutch will be violating the terms of the North Atlantic security alliance the moment they sign it.

He pointed out that the pact requires its signers to avoid the use of force "inconsistent with the purposes of the United Nations."

TAFT URGES SLASH IN FUNDS FOR ECA

Brewster Hits Aid for Dutch Until Indonesian Issue Is Settled

MAR 29 1949

WASHINGTON, March 29—(AP)—Two senate Republicans sought today to whittle down the size of this country's foreign aid burden for next year and to deny funds to the Netherlands until it complies with a United Nations order.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) urged a 10 percent cut in aid to Europe and all other federal spending as well.

Senator Brewster (R-Me) said it is being "whispered" in Washington that economic aid from United States was the Dutch price for entering the North Atlantic alliance. He did not say where he heard the "whispers."

The senate debated well into the night the administration-backed bill to authorize a $5,580,000,000 "second installment" of Marshall plan funds for European recovery.

Final Vote Delayed

Hopes faded for a final vote before Thursday or Friday.

Brewster is author of an amendment to the European Cooperation Administration (ECA) act which would deny further help to the Netherlands until it complies with a U. N. cease-fire order in Indonesia.

It would bar ECA aid to any nation which fails to obey U. N. security council orders.

First, Taft joined Senator Russell (D-Ga) in urging a flat 10 percent cut in funds for European aid, telling the senate:

"If we are not going to have to vote a tax increase in June, we will have to cut all expenditures substantially. Unless we begin the cuts here (on European aid), there is little hope of reducing the total outlay."

Favors 10 Per Cent Slash

Then, outside the chamber, Taft told newsmen he thinks there should be a cut averaging 10 per cent on all money bills before congress this year.

Taft said he favors continuing the European recovery program, but he declared:

"Our contributions ought to be based on what we can afford."

Other Republicans have criticized the huge outlay of U. S. dollars to Europe on the ground that it is jeopardizing the American economy.

Senator Russell told reporters he thinks "a good many" Democrats will support the 10 percent cut.

"If this fund is prudently handled, we can take 10 percent out without impairing European recovery," Russell said. "If we are to economize at all, we will have to start on this."

But Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, still fighting for the full $5,580,000,000, declared that a 10 percent reduction would "seriously impair" Europe's recovery.

Connally conceded that the Taft-Russell amendment stood to win "a good many votes," but predicted it would be defeated. He said he didn't believe there would be any coalition of Republicans and southern Democrats behind the amendment, as developed in the recent Senate filibuster battle.

Cain Raps Aid Program

Senator Cain (R-Wash) opened up with a new onslaught against the aid program, following in the wake of yesterday's criticism by Senator Jenner (R-Ind).

Cain said that before voting the funds, Congress should find out whether Great Britain has decided to set up an "imperial barter system" and "cut loose economically from western Europe."

If that is the case, he said, "then Europe is divided not into two parts by an iron curtain. It is broken into three, with the iron curtain and English Channel as dividing walls."

Cain had previously indicated support for the Economic Cooperation Administration (Marshall Plan) program. But today he contended that ECA and Truman administration officials have failed to push for real unity—both military and economic — among western European nations.

"I'm not going to vote a dollar to pulmotor a series of fundamentally disunited European nations back to the sort of condition in which they were in 1939, when they proved a pushover for Hitler," he said.

JOHNSON SPEEDS UNIFICATION OF ARMED SERVICES

WASHINGTON, March 29—(AP) Defense Secretary Johnson today initiated a series of brisk moves to unify the nation's armed services. As a starter, he cracked down on headline squabbles between the navy and the air force.

"There will be no vying between the services for headlines, no release of things that are secret," he told newsmen.

Within 24 hours after he was sworn in to his new post, the big, bald-plated defense chief also:

Speeds Unification Plans

1. Told the army, navy and air force to move at once to the Pentagon, the nerve center of American defense.

2. Announced he will abolish many of the 800 boards and agencies set up by the three armed services over a long period of years.

3. Banned "personal or party politics" in the national military establishment.

4. Indicated that some heads will roll, but "the people who are doing their jobs will remain."

5. And finally, said he has "a pretty fair conviction" what roles the air force and the navy should play in the event of war.

This last comment referred to the long and bitter controversy between the two services over the type of bombing missions each should execute in wartime.

Air force chiefs have contended their long-range planes should carry out strategic bombing—i.e., air blows struck at the heart of the enemy's production centers.

Just as staunchly, the navy has argued that its aircraft carriers should be allowed to join in the assault—particularly such giant flattops as the navy's $120,000,000 carrier, the United States, which is now under construction.

Johnson gave no inkling of which way his "pretty fair conviction" leans. He is known, however, as a strong advocate of long-range bombers. And as one of his first steps, he named Air Force Gen. Joseph T. McNarney to the job of coordinating the changes he plans to make.

But he indicated that whatever his conviction may be, he is not dead set on it.

"The three services," he said, "are going to have a chance to argue me out of that conclusion in the next couple of days."

To Confer With Eisenhower

Johnson said he plans to go to Key West, Fla., next week with the commanders of the three armed services to confer with General Dwight D. Eisenhower, temporary chairman of the joint chiefs of staff. Eisenhower flew to Key West yesterday to recuperate from an intestinal illness.

In ordering the army, navy and air force into the Pentagon, Johnson speeded up orders already issued. The moving schedule originally gave them two and one-half years. Johnson told them to scrap the schedule and move now.

As to the services' 800 boards and agencies, Johnson said he expects to junk 30 or 40 of them at the outset.

"There are too damned many for efficiency's sake," he said. "We're going to abolish and coordinate some of them."

All in all, it was a busy whirl for the new civilian defense boss on his second day in office. Besides holding a news conference at the Pentagon, Johnson and his predecessor, James V. Forrestal, went to Capitol Hill for a welcome by the House Armed Services Committee.

RECOVERY GAINS IN EUROPE

ECA Reports Paper Industry Now Is Beginning Slow Climb

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—The European paper industry is "beginning a slow climb to recovery," the Economic Cooperation Administration said today.

Estimates for the year ending July 1, the agency said, "indicate that total board and paper production will be up 9 per cent in England, 36 per cent in France, 32 per cent in Holland, and 40 per cent in Belgium." However, the ECA announcement added:

"Europe still is unable to supply its own needs from its pulp and paper industry; yet before the war it was not only self-sufficeint but exported large quantities of both pulp and finished paper to the rest of the world."

ECA said Europe still is 20 per cent below pre-war production. It said one reason for that is "lack of pulpwood from eastern Europe, an important source before the war."

Curb On Reds' 'Peace Tours' Ordered

MAR 29 1949

Soviet papers report closing of New York "peace" conference. [Page 2.]

Washington, March 29 (AP)—The State Department today threw up a blockade against any tour of American cities by Soviet and satellite delegates to the "world peace" conference.

It circulated a notice to embassies of their home countries, reminding them that the delegates were granted admission to this country only for the purpose of attending the controversial conference in New York.

Now that the conference is over, the department announced, the United States assumes the delegates will leave within a "reasonable time."

The notice was sent to the Russian, Czechoslovakian, Polish and Yugoslav embassies.

Communist Ban Waived

The delegates from those countries have a different position from the delegates from other countries. American laws forbid admission of Communists to this country. That law was waived so that the delegates from the Communist-controlled nations could attend the conference, but the waiver extended only to the conference.

Plans for a tour of United States cities by many of the visitors were announced in New York yesterday after conclusion of the three-day conference sponsored by the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions.

West Coast On List

Reports said the tour would last two weeks and include Philadelphia, Baltimore, Detroit, St. Louis and Los Angeles.

The State Department's action amounts to a notice that no delegates from behind the iron curtain should take part in such a tour.

Michael McDermott, department press officer, said the department has requested the Justice Department to bring the "facts and considerations" to the attention of the visitors.

It would be the Justice Department's duty to step in should any visitor violate the terms of his visa or grant of admission to this country.

Would Consider Extensions

In response to a question, McDermott said that if any visitor asked authority to prolong his visit in this country "we would consider such a request." He declined to predict what the answer might be.

Other officials said there is no time limit stamped on the delegates' passport visas.

There were nineteen delegates from Communist-run countries at the New York meeting. One, Jiri Hronek, of Czechoslovakia, has been authorized to remain to serve as a Czech observer at a forthcoming meeting of the International Organization of Journalists.

Department's Position

The State Department has taken the position all along that the New York meeting was intended as a sounding board for Communist propaganda. Sponsors of the meeting have hotly denied it.

In Newark, N.J., there have been threats of pickets against a tour meeting there tonight—one of a series labeled "cultural rallies for peace."

In Newark, an official of the sponsoring group said he was "absolutely sure the delegates will be here."

U. S. SPIKES TOUR OF PEACE GROUP

Delegates' Visas Good Only for N.Y. Meeting, State Department Says

MAR 29 1949

NEWARK, N. J., March 29—(AP) A coast to coast tour of 18 communist "world peace" conference delegates ended before it started tonight.

The State Department spiked the proposed cross country journey of delegates from behind the iron curtain less than 12 hours before they were to appear at the first of a series of "no more war" rallies here.

The department said their U. S. visas were good only for last weekend's Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace in New York City.

Rescinding of Order Asked

Later, a spokesman for the conference said in New York that the communist delegates "definitely will not appear" at any of the scheduled meetings "Unless Dean Acheson (secretary of state) reverses his ruling that their visas are to be considered as expiring."

The conference representative said a telegram had been sent to Acheson requesting him to rescind the order.

The telegram, the spokesman said, charged the state department "of notifying the world it has slammed shut the door to the exchange of cultural relations between the United States and other countries."

The "cultural rally for peace" here went on minus its heralded star attraction—Russian composer Dmitri Shostakovich.

The audience of some 3,000 persons was told of the government action. Then the house lights were dimmed. A single spot light shone on an empty piano.

Delegates from outside the Soviet sphere—Cuba, England and French West Africa—spoke. Outside the Mosque Theater, where the rally was held, about 40 pickets paraded.

The pickets, who mached in orderly lines, represented veterans' groups who have protested the conference as communist dominated.

In Washington, the state department notified the Russian Embassy and those of its satellite nations that the delegates were admitted to this country only to attend the New York conference.

The department said that now the conference is over, it assumed the delegates will leave within "a reasonable time."

Later, Attorney General Tom Clark said in answer to a question: "The express purpose for which these visas were issued has now been ended."

Told To Leave U. S.

He said he has instructed the immigration service in New York to get in touch with the delegates individually and tell them that they must leave as soon as travel arrangements can be made.

In New York, an official of the council's national headquarters said "the meetings that have been arranged will go ahead as scheduled."

A preliminary intinerary called for meetings in Baltimore, Philadelphia, Detroit, St. Louis and Los Angeles.

A second proposed American tour by members of the Soviet delegation to the controversial conference also was called off today.

The National Association of Manufacturers said in New York that the Russians had declined an invitation to visit American factories because "the trip might be misunderstood or misinterpreted" by the Soviet government.

The NAM said the reason was advanced by Dr. Harlow Shapley, Harvard astronomer and chairman of the conference sponsors.

In Cambridge, however, Dr. Shapley said the tour was called off by the NAM, not the Russians.

An NAM spokesman called him by telephone today, he said, and suggested Thursday's trip be cancelled because "it was too late for arrangements."

Yale Bars Shostakovich

In another development, Yale University President Charles Seymour announced in New Haven that Shostakovich will not be permitted to speak on university grounds.

"The university authorities," he said, "have considered the proposal of the local committee of the arts, sciences and professions for a meeting to be addressed by Mr. Shostakovich and his fellow delegates xxx.

"They see no educational value in opening the university halls to such a meeting."

The 43-year-old composer had been invited to visit New Haven Thursday.

district attorney, said Himmaugh was discharged "as a direct result" of the loyalty hearing last fall.

Hints At More Indictments

A hint that more indications of this type might be forthcoming was given by James E. Palmer, Jr., of Washington, special assistant to the attorney general, who aided the grand jury investigation.

In a statement announcing the indictment Palmer said:

"The present case being the first case of prosecution for falsehoods at a loyalty hearing itself, it should be a stern reminder to all who appear before loyalty boards to tell the truth or face the consequences.

"Whenever and wherever any other such cases arise the Department of Justice intends to prosecute them."

Himmaugh surrendered about two hours after the indictment was returned.

Apparently agitated, he said: "I have nothing to say. I don't know what it's all about."

Palmer and District Attorney Wright joined in the announcement of the indictment, which was returned before District Judge Herbert W. Christenberry.

The specific charge was making a false or fraudulent statement within the jurisdiction of a Government department. Conviction carries maximum penalty of five years and $5,000 fine.

Wright said Himmaugh was a native of Puxico, Mo., moved to West Tennessee, was married in Memphis 23 years ago, and is the father of three children.

Communist Party Cited

The statement said he had lived in New Orleans for the past ten years, where he was employed by the Federal barge lines under the Department of Commerce.

The indictment charged that he falsely told a loyalty board last October 20 that he had never been a Communist party member, had never attended a Communist party meeting, and had not solicited acquaintances to join the party.

Loyalty Hearing Indictment Charges False Statements

MAR 29 1949

New Orleans, March 29 (AP)—The country's first indictment charging false statements at a Government loyalty hearing was returned here today.

Named in the six-count indictment was Robert Edgar Himmaugh, 43, of St. Rose, La., a former engineer of the Federal barge lines.

Each count charged a false statement regarding Communist party membership or Communist activity. Three of the statements were made before a loyalty board and three in letters to Commerce Department officials.

Red Wartime Plot Charged At Trial of 11 Communists

MAR 29 1949

NEW YORK, March 29 (AP)—A government witness at the communist conspiracy trial testified today the U. S. Communist party was told to go underground and engage in civil war if this country joined Great Britain in the recent war.

The instructions were issued at a secret Chicago meeting of party leaders after Russia and Germany signed their 1939 pact, the witness said.

Says Dennis Gave Orders

Louis F. Budenz, the witness, said the directions came from Eugene Dennis, general secretary of the party and a defendant in the trial.

The meeting was held in the basement of a building, Budenz said.

He did not identify the building or give the exact date.

Dennis said going underground would involve splitting the party into basic units which would not have contact with one another and destruction of all "incriminating" party records, the witness said.

The government introduced evidence to show that the U. S. Communist party centered its post-war recruiting efforts among labor union members and veterans.

U. S. Attorney John F. X. McGohey read to the jury a report by John B. Williamson, a defendant, which said the party should seek to influence all "mass organizations."

The report said industrial workers should comprise more than half of the party's membership in California, eastern Pennsylvania and New York, and 75 per cent in Michigan, Illinois and Ohio.

Williamson, party labor secretary also recommended a further concentration among industrial workers in cities like McKeesport, Pa., Schenectady, N. Y., Flint, Mich., Gary, Ind., and Pennsylvania and West Virginia coal towns, McGohey said.

The report was made to the national convention of the Communist Party in July, 1945, the prosecutor said.

Budenz testified about the report and other proceedings at the convention.

He covered the parley for the Daily Worker, communist newspaper, of which he once was managing editor. In October, 1945, he left the party; he now teaches economics at Fordham University.

Sought to 'Overthrow U.S.'

Budenz testified that the preamble of the party constitution adopted at the July, 1945, convention meant that the organization was "basically committed to the overthrow of the government of the United States as set up under its constitution."

This could be brought about only by "force and violence," he said.

Budenz also testified about articles in the Daily Worker written by defendants which preceded the July, 1945, convention.

In one of them Williamson said Earl Browder "endangered the world struggle against reaction in 1944," and that American communists, in following Browder, "allowed themselves to forget certain laws of Marxism."

Browder, leader of the U. S. Communist Party for several years, was expelled from the organization at the July convention.

The government maintains this coincided with a rejection of Browder's policy which held that cooperation between capital and the working class was possible and that violent revolution was not necessary to win communist reforms in the United States.

Eugene ennis, one of the defendants, told newsmen at the trial that he and his 10 co-defendants were returning a $1,000 check for their defense sent by Anna Louise Strong, American newspaperwoman recently deported from Russia as a spy.

He said the gift was "tainted money" designed to cause "our defense to be used as part of a shabby promotion scheme and a protective screen for political-journalistic efforts designed to worsen Soviet-American relations."

The 11 defendants are charged with conspiring to advocate the overthrow of the U. S. government by force.

SENATE BACKS BAN ON RED TEACHERS

Albany, March 29 (A. P.).—A bill intended to bar Communists from employment in public schools was adopted, 41 to 14, by the Senate today after one opponent had termed it "un-American."

Thomas C. Desmond, Newburgh Republican, joined thirteen Democrats in opposing the measure.

The vote followed a heated two-hour debate during which Senator Walter J. Mahoney, Buffalo Republican, accused Democratic opponents of the measure of "emulating Nero by fiddling while fires are being built under the feet of our children."

Senator Alfred E. Santangelo, Manhattan Democrat, declared the measure was unconstitutional and "repressive."

The bill went to the Assembly where it also is expected to produce an all-out fight.

It would direct the Board of Regents to maintain a list of organizations it finds subversive and adopt rules making membership in such organizations a bar for appointment to or retention in a position in the State's school system.

Yale Campus Barred To Shostakovich

New Haven, Conn., March 29 (A. P.).—President Charles Seymour of Yale University, announced today that Dmitri Shostakovich would not be permitted to speak on Yale premises.

"The university authorities," said Seymour, "have considered the proposal of the local committee of the Arts, Sciences and Professions for a meeting to be addressed by Mr. Shostakovich and his fellow delegates to a recent conference in New York city. They see no educational value in opening the university halls to such a meeting."

Shostakovich had been invited to visit New Haven on Thursday.

A commentator made the statement in connection with the recent "peace" conference in New York. He hailed the conference as of "great importance in forming a world front of the peace movement."

"The powerful support which democratic forces of the country gave the conference was an expression of the American people's wish to utilize all possibilities for ensuring a general and stable peace," he said.

"The success of the New York peace conference and the support it received brought on an attack of hysteria in the reactionary American press. Threats against participants were flying thick and fast. Regarding the Atlantic pact, the commentator said its aims are to give the United Nations a "death blow, to bring it down to the level of a miserable instrument of the Anglo-American aggressive policy.

"The pact is an instrument for enslavement of West European countries by American imperialism. By signing the pact these countries renounced the last remnants of their independence and sovereignty. They have finally become vassals of the United States." #

PARIS, MARCH 29-(AP)-GEN. CHARLES DE GAULLE URGED TODAY THE IMMEDIATE SHIPMENT OF AMERICAN ARMS TO BACK UP THE ATLANTIC PACT AND GUARANTEE FRANCE'S SECURITY.

DE GAULLE, LEADER OF THE RIGHT WING RALLY OF THE FRENCH PEOPLE (RPF) TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE FRANCE SHOULD BE ARMED FIRST AS A BASE FOR PROTECTING WESTERN EUROPE. HE PROPOSED A SCHEDULE OF ARMS SHIPMENT WHICH WOULD ENABLE THIS COUNTRY TO DEFEND ITSELF AND DEFINITE STRATEGIC COMMITMENTS FROM THE UNITED STATES IN CASE OF ATTACK.

THE GENERAL SAID THE PACT WAS A STEP TOWARD A FUTURE FEDERATED EUROPE WHICH WOULD INCLUDE GERMANY AND WHICH MIGHT IN TIME ATTEMPT TO COOPERATE WITH THE SOVIET UNION, PERHAPS UNDER ANOTHER REGIME. HE DID NOT ELABORATE ON THIS STATEMENT.

DE GAULLE IS NOT IN THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT NOW. HE OPPOSES IT AS TOO WEAK AND WANTS TO TAKE OVER THE REINS.

Rome, March 29--(AP)--What may be Communism's reply to the North Atlantic Defense Treaty began to shap up here today at a meeting of the Central Committee of the Italian Communist Party.

Palmiro Togliatti, party leader, and his lieutenant, Luigi Long, made speeches calling for a peace front. Both indicated they expect such a front to emerge from the forthconing "peace conference" in Paris.

Both also emphasized that the movement would not be confined to Communism or the Cominform but would be, in Togliatti's words, a "broad alliance in which will participate citizens of every class, faith and political allegiance."

MAR 29 1949

Togliatti said:

"The imperialistic powers and, in the front rank group directing, the United States have turned definitely toward war.

"The makers of the anti-Soviet war find themselves before a fundamental obstacle, the desire of the people for peace."

Longo emphasized the "necessity of reinforcing the organizing bonds between the Italian Communist Party and European parties that are in the same position of defending the peace." He continued:

"This cannot be, in fact, only in relation to the Cominform but must come about above all through the organization of those committees for peace in which will be called to participate elements internationally known."

Regarding the forthcoming Paris conference, he said:

MAR 29 1949

"It acquires particular importance and significance for the Italian Communist Party, which will participate there with a numerous delegation."

Brussels, March 29-(AP)-A Marshall plan executive said today the American gifts have helped Belgium solve unemployment and increase exports.

James G. Blaine, who leaves April 5 as chief of the Economic cooperation administration in Belgium and Luxembourg, said at a farewell luncheon it is necessary "for western Europe to build for uniform wage scales and improved standards of living internationally."

MAR 29 1949

"You cannot have workmen in one country enjoy higher wages and greater comforts while others and their families, separated by an imaginary boundary line, exist on low wages and poorer standards of living."

(Wages and living standards in the United States, whence the Marshall plan bounties come, are the highest in the world by far.)

Blaine said 260,000 Belgians now are out of work. He went on:

"Were is not for Belgian exports resulting from the $207,500,000 of credit extended as drawing rights by Belgium to other nations, your unemployment today might well be in excess of 350,000."

He was referring to the amount of ECA credits returned to the Intra-Europe payment plan by Belgium.

"The results of aid to Belgium have been that in 1948, the Belgian imports were kept down to a bare two per cent increase over the previous year, while exports increased 21 per cent to 74,000,000,000 Belgian francs ($1,690,500,000)," he said.

KIEL, GERMANY, MARCH 29-(AP)-THE PIGS OF GERMANY ARE HUNGRY.

AT LEAST THAT IS WHAT IS SUPPOSED TO BE DEMONSTRATED BY A GERMAN-STYLE PUBLICITY STUNT WHICH HAD A TIRED PORKER AND TWO MEN PLODDING ALONG A GERMAN HIGHWAY TODAY.

THE PIG CARRIED A SIGN:

"THIS POOR KIEL PIG IS ON ITS WAY TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE U.S.A. TO ASK FOR MORE FOOD FOR ITS GERMAN KINDRED."

THE TWO MEN, GUSTAV HOEPEL AND FRIEDRICH WIESCHMANN, SAY THEY WANT TO OBTAIN MORE FEED FOR WEST GERMANY'S PIGS - AND IN TURN, MORE PORK FOR THE GERMANS.

THEY HOPE TO GET THE PIG TO BREMEN, 150 MILES FROM KIEL.

IN THE MEANTIME, THE GERMAN SOCIETY FOR THE PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO ANIMALS, MORE WORRIED ABOUT THE PIG THAN THE GERMANS, SENT OFFICIALS TO SEARCH THE ROADS. THE OFFICIALS WERE TO TAKE THE PIG INTO CUSTODY.

MOSCOW, MARCH 29-(AP)-DELEGATES OF KOMSOMOL, SOVIET YOUTH ORGANIZATION, MET TODAY IN THEIR FIRST CONGRESS SINCE BEFORE THE WAR.

THE DELEGATES, REPRESENTING 9,000,000 MEMBERS BETWEEN THE AGES OF 16 TO 26, MET IN THE KREMLIN PALACE. IT WAS THE ELEVENTH CONGRESS OF THE 30-YEAR-OLD ORGANIZATION, WHICH BEGAN WITH 22,000 MEMBERS.

KOMSOMOL IS THE MAJOR SOURCE OF NEW MEMBERS FOR THE ADULT RUSSIAN COMMUNIST PARTY, WHICH NOW NUMBERS 6,000,000.

THE CONGRESS COINCIDED WITH STATEMENTS IN THE SOVIET PRESS THAT THE CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE FOR PEACE IN NEW YORK HAD CLOSED WITH A GREAT MORAL AND POLITICAL VICTORY OVER THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT, A "HOSTILE PRESS" AND "BLACK HUNDRED ORGANIZATIONS."

"BLACK HUNDRED" WAS THE TERM APPLIED BEFORE THE BOLSHEVIK REVOLUTION TO CZARIST POLICE SENT TO BREAK UP COMMUNISTS DEMONSTRATIONS.

A TASS DISPATCH SAID THAT DURING ALL THREE DAYS OF THE CONFERENCE "THE REACTIONARY PRESS" CALLED ON THE ~~HUNT~~ police TO "HUNT DOWN" THE PARTICIPANTS.

TASS SAID THAT TO GET INTO THE SESSIONS IT WAS NECESSARY TO PASS THROUGH TRIPLE CORDONS OF POLICE DETACHMENTS, PICKETS AND "POGROMERS," BUT "ALL THE SYSTEM OF TERRORIZING COULD NOT BREAK UP THE WORK OF THE CONGRESS."

NEW TIMES, IN ITS LEAD EDITORIAL, SAID THE CONFERENCE HAD A GREAT SIGNIFICANCE FOR THE CREATION OF A "WORLD FRONT MOVEMENT FOR PEACE."

"THE ATTEMPTS OF AMERICAN RULING CIRCLES TO HINDER THE WORK OF THE CONFERENCE," IT SAID, "REVEALED THE HORROR AMONG THOSE BEHIND THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT OF THE POWERFUL MOVEMENT OF PEOPLES IN THE DEFENSE OF PEACE."

IT SAID:

"DURING ALL THE THREE DAYS OF THE CONGRESS' WORK, THE REACTIONARY PRESS DID NOT CEASE PERSECUTION OF ITS PARTICIPATORS AND ORGANIZERS. THE NEWSPAPER WORLD-TELEGRAM, WHICH IS CLOSE TO WALL STREET, IN AN EDITORIAL ON MARCH 23 DIRECTLY CALLED ON THE POLICE TO BEGIN TO HUNT DOWN THE PARTICIPANTS IN THE CONGRESS. THE BUILDING IN WHICH THE CONGRESS WORKED WAS SURROUNDED WITH SMALL GROUPS OF POGROMERS AND PICKETS CALLING FOR MEASURES AGAINST REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ADVANCED AMERICAN INTELLIGENSIA. IN ORDER TO GET INTO THE SESSIONS THE PARTICIPANTS OF THE CONGRESS HAD TO PASS THROUGH TRIPLE CORDONS OF STRENGTHENED POLICE DETACHMENTS.

"BUT ALL THE SYSTEM OF TERRORIZING COULD NOT BREAK UP THE WORK OF THE CONGRESS."

TASS SAID THAT THE CONGRESS MET STATEMENTS OF PROF. FREDERICK SCHUMANN "COLDLY" WHEN HE REPEATED "FALSE CHARGES OF OFFICIAL AMERICAN PROPAGANDA ON 'AGGRESSIVE' INTENTIONS OF THE SOVIET UNION."

(A NEW YORK WORLD-TELEGRAM EDITORIAL ON MARCH 25 SAID IN PART: "AND WE HOPE THE POLICE AND THE FBI ARE AROUND WITH THEIR PADS AND PENCILS TO TAKE DOWN THE NAMES OF THOSE ATTENDING THE CONVENTION. HERE'S A SWELL PLACE TO GET A FIRST-RATE LIST OF COMMIES AND FELLOW TRAVELERS.")

BEIRUT, LEBANON, MARCH 29-(AP)-INFORMED ARAB CIRCLES SAID TODAY THE UNITED NATIONS CONCILIATION COMMISSION HAS BEEN UNSUCCESSFUL IN ADJUSTING DIFFERENCES BETWEEN ISRAEL AND THE ARAB NATIONS.

THE MAIN PROBLEM IS THE 400,000 PALESTINE ARABS, FORCED INTO EXILE BY THE FIGHTING. THE ARABS ARE ADAMANT IN INSISTING THE REFUGEES BE REPATRIATED. ISRAEL CONSIDERS THE REFUGEE PROBLEM ONLY A PART OF THE PALESTINE QUESTION TO BE EXAMINED IN NEGOTIATIONS.

THE ISRAELI POSITION IS REPORTED TO BE ONE OF ACCEPTING THE REPATRIATION OF REFUGEES WHO LEFT PALESTINE BEFORE MAY 15, 1948--THE DAY ISRAEL PROCLAIMED ITSELF A STATE. THE ISRAELIS ALSO HAVE BEEN INSISTING ON TAKING PERSONS USEFUL TO THE ECONOMY OF PALESTINE.

NEW DELHI, MARCH 29-(AP)-PREMIER JAWAHARLAL NEHRU TOLD THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY TODAY THE COMMONWEALTH CONFERENCE IN LONDON NEXT MONTH WILL DISCUSS CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTIONS RELATING TO INDIA.

THIS COULD MEAN REVISION OF THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH PLAN TO DESIGNATE THE DOMINION OF INDIA A REPUBLIC, WHICH IT ITENDS TO BECOME.

NEHRU HAS EMPHASIZED INDIA IS TO BECOME A REPUBLIC BUT INDICATED IT WILL CONTINUE CLOSE RELATIONS "WITH CERTAIN COUNTRIES." INDIA AND PAKISTAN BECAME TEMPORARY DOMINIONS AUG 15, 1947 WHEN THE BRITISH LABOR GOVERNMENT PARTITIONTED THE SUBCONTINENT.

NEHRU SAID BRITISH PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE SUGGESTED THE CONFERENCE BECAUSE HE FELT PERSONAL TALKS WOULD HELP CLEAR THE SITUATION REGARDING FUTURE CONSTITUTIONAL ARRANGEMENTS. NEHRU WILL LEAVE FOR LONDON APRIL 19 AND RETURN TO INDIA EARLY IN MAY.

ATTLEE ANNOUNCED TO PARLIAMENT IN LONDON TODAY THAT THE CONFERENCE WILL BEGIN APRIL 21 AND PROBABLY LAST ABOUT A WEEK. ALL THE DOMINION PRIME MINISTERS ARE EXPECTED TO BE PRESENT OR REPRESENTED. ATTLEE SAID "CERTAIN CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTIONS" WILL BE DISCUSSED, INCLUDING INDIA'S FUTURE. THE ATLANTIC PACT ALSO MAY COME UP FOR DISCUSSION.

THE PRIME MINISTERS ARE EXPECTED TO TALK OVER THE EFFECTS BRITISH MILITARY COMMITMENTS UNDER THE ATLANTIC ALLIANCE WILL HAVE ON THE COMMONWEALTH. SUCH TALKS WILL BE CONNECTED CLOSELY WITH BRITAIN'S HOPE TO BULWARK THE ORIENT AGAINST THE SPREAD OF COMMUNISM.

BRITAIN AND SOME COMMONWEALTH COUNTRIES, PARTICULARLY AUSTRLIA, RECENTLY HAVE BEEN REPORTED WORKING ON SOME STOPGAP ANTI-COMMUNIST PLAN FOR THE SPRAWLING AREA.

THERE IS HOPE THE PLAN MIGHT RESULT EVENTUALLY IN A PACIFIC PACT, SUPPORTED BY THE UNITED STATES, AND TIED TO THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY. BRITISH GOVERNMENT ENVOYS RECENTLY HAVE VISITED COMMONWEALTH CAPITALS. BRITISH GOVERNMENT SOURCES SAID THEY SOUNDED OUT LEADERS ON THE CONFERENCE PROGRAM.

THE BOARD OF TRADE IN LONDON SAID REPRESENTATIVES OF NINE COMMONWEALTH COUNTRIES WILL MEET THERE THURSDAY TO COORDINATE TRADE AND TARIFF POLICIES.

HAVANA CUBA, MARCH 29-(AP)-THE LATIN-AMERICAN CONFERENCE ON COLONIES VOTED LATE YESTERDAY TO INCLUDE PUERTO RICO IN THE DEPENDENCIES FOR WHICH FREEDOM SHOULD BE SOUGHT.

THE CONFERENCE, ATTENDED BY 13 NATIONS, ADJOURNED INDEFINITELY AFTER ACTING ON THE CASE OF PUERTO RICO, U.S. TERRITORY.

THE MEETING HERE WAS ESTABLISHED BY THE BOGOTA CONFERENCE OF AMERICAN STATES TO SEEK "PEACEFUL MEANS" OF ELIMINATING COLONIALISM IN THE AMERICAS. THE UNITED KINGDOM, FRANCE AND THE NETHERLANDS HOLD COLONIES IN THIS HEMISPHERE.

PUERTO RICO WAS NOT MENTIONED IN THE BOGOTA RESOLUTION. "NON-AMERICAN COUNTRIES" WERE. SOME DELEGATIONS, MEXICO'S PARTICULARLY, DOUBTED THE BOGOTA PLAN INCLUDED PUERTO RICO, BUT WENT ALONG WITH THE OTHERS FOR SOLIDARITY.

THE MOTION ITSELF, AS ADOPTED IN COMMITTEE AND PLENARY SESSIONS, EXPRESSED THE SAME DOUBTS, ASKED THE ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES TO INTERPRET THE BOGOTA RESOLUTION. SHOULD THE ANSWER BE NEGATIVE, PRESUMABLY IT WOULD KILL THE CONFERENCE'S DECISION, SINCE THE CONFERENCE IS A CREATURE OF THE OAS.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 29-(AP)-AN EXPERT ON FAR EASTERN AFFAIRS SAID TODAY THE UNITED STATES SHOULD RESIST COMMUNISM IN CHINA BY SEEKING "FRIENDLY COOPERATION WITH THE NATIONALIST MOVEMENTS OF ASIA."

THIS SHOULD BE DONE, PROF.GEORGE E.TAYLOR, DIRECTOR OF THE FAR EASTERN INSTITUTE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, DECLARED "EVEN IF THIS INVOLVES ROUGH HANDLING OF SOME OF THE MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES SUCH AS FRANCE AND HOLLAND."

HE SET OUT HIS IDEAS IN A REPORT PUBLISHED TODAY BY THE FOREIGN POLICY ASSOCIATION,INC., A PRIVATE RESEARCH AGENCY. OTHER CONTRIBUTORS TO THE REPORT, ENTITLED "WHAT CAN THE UNITED STATES DO IN CHINA?" WERE DR.GERALD F.WINFIELD, SECRETARY OF THE UNITED BOARD FOR CHRISTIAN COLLEGES IN CHINA, AND PROF.JOHN K.FAIRBANK, DIRECTOR OF THE REGIONAL PROGRAM ON CHINA AT HARVARD UNIVERSITY.

DECLARING IT IS TO THIS COUNTRY'S INTEREST TO KEEP UP THE FIGHT AGAINST THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS, TAYLOR SAID:

"WITH ALL THE INFLUENCE AT OUR DISPOSAL AND ALL THE LEADERSHIP OF WHICH WE ARE CAPABLE, WE SHOULD PIN OUR POLICY TO THE NON-COMMUNIST LEFT IN ALL COUNTRIES THAT STILL REMAIN FREE.

"NEXT WE SHOULD POUR MEN AND MONEY INTO A LARGE-SCALE CAMPAIGN TO MAKE CLEAR OUR POLICY AS IT EXISTS.

"WE HAVE A CLEAN RECORD ON SUPPORTING ASIATIC NATIONALISM IN EVERY AREA WHERE WE HAVE IMMEDIATE RESPONSIBILITIES. SOME OF OUR ALLIES ARE CAUSING EMBARRASSMENT BUT SOME, SUCH AS THE BRITISH, BY THEIR RECENT CONDUCT IN INDIA AND BURMA, ARE TOWERS OF STRENGTH."

TAYLOR SAID THAT IF A MARSHALL PLAN EMERGES FOR ASIA, "IT SHOULD BE OFFERED TO A COMMUNIST CHINA ON THE SAME TERMS AS TO OTHER COUNTRIES."

"SUCH TERMS CANNOT BE ACCEPTED BY A COMMUNIST REGIME, BUT AT LEAST THEY SHOULD BE OFFERED," HE SAID.

DR.WINFIELD SUGGESTED AN AMBITIOUS ECONOMIC GOAL. HE RECOMMENDED BUILDING UP CHINA'S INDUSTRIAL PLANT TO ABOUT THE SIZE OF AMERICA'S IN 1929. PRODUCTIVE CAPACITY OF THAT ORDER WOULD RAISE THE CHINESE STANDARD OF LIVING AND HELP STABILIZE THE VAST COUNTRY, HE SAID.

PROF.FAIRBANK ADVISED AGAINST RELYING ON "A MILITARY-AID APPROACH TO THE CHINESE PEOPLE." HE SAID THE UNITED STATES SHOULD OFFER TECHNOLOGICAL ASSISTANCE, AND STRESS EDUCATION, PUBLIC HEALTH AND AGRICULTURAL AID.

"THE APPLICATION OF THIS BROADENED PROGRAM IN COMMUNIST AREAS OF CHINA OR TO A COMMUNIST-DOMINATED COALITION GOVERNMENT MUST BE ON A BASIS OF HARD BARGAINING," HE EMPHASIZED.

(ADVANCE)..WASHINGTON, MARCH 29-(AAP)-THE 11-NATION FAR EASTERN COMMISSION CALLED ON JAPAN TODAY TO REESTABLISH A NORMAL PREWAR PATENT SYSTEM AND TO LIFT SECRECY ON INVENTIONS.

A POLICY DECISION ADOPTED MARCH 17 BY THE PACIFIC ALLIES' POLICY-MAKING GROUP ALSO PROVIDES FOR RESTORATION OF ALLIED-OWNED PATENT RIGHTS WHICH WERE LOST AS A RESULT OF THE WAR. PUBLICATION OF THE DIRECTIVE WAS DELAYED UNTIL IT HAD BEEN FORWARDED FOR GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR TO PUT INTO EFFECT.

THE JAPANESE PATENT OFFICE IS OPERATING NOW UNDER DIRECTION OF MACARTHUR AS OCCUPATION COMMANDER. THE COMMISSION SAID THAT IT WILL NOW EXPAND ITS FUNCTIONS TO APPROXIMATE THE PREWAR STANDARDS INCLUDING THE PUBLICATION OF THE OFFICIAL GAZETTE AND PATENT SPECIFICATIONS AS IN THE PAST. THE NEW DIRECTIVE ALSO CALLS FOR:

(1) PROTECTION OF ALL HOLDERS OF PATENT RIGHTS EXCEPT FOR GERMAN-OWNED OR FORMER GERMAN-OWNED PATENTS.

(2) ABOLITION OF SECRECY, AND PUBLICATION OF ANY PATENTS WHICH MAY HAVE BEEN SUPPRESSED IN THE PAST.

(3) COMPENSATION IN SOME MEASURE FOR ALLIED NATIONALS WHOSE RIGHTS WERE LOST BY THE WAR.

A FINAL PROVISION MAKES THE POLICY APPLICABLE TO REGISTERED UTILITY MODELS AND REGISTERED DESIGNS AS WELL AS PATENTS AS GENERALLY UNDERSTOOD.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS SHIED AWAY FROM COMMENTING ON SFORZA'S DISCUSSIONS OF THE ITALIAN COLONIES. THERE WAS EVERY INDICATION THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD DECLINE TO ACCEPT ITALY'S VIEW ALTOGETHER, BUT MIGHT MODIFY ITS POSITION SOMEWHAT.

NEW YORK, MARCH 29-(AP)-THE CIO, AFL AND THE BRITISH TRADE UNION CONGRESS MAY FORM A NEW INTERNATIONAL LABOR GROUP, IT WAS ANNOUNCED TODAY.

SECRETARY-TREASURER JAMES B. CAREY OF THE CIO SAID THE NEW ORGANIZATION WOULD REPLACE THE WORLD FEDERATION OF TRADE UNIONS.

THE CIO WITHDREW FROM THE WFTU, CHARGING IT WAS COMMUNIST-DOMINATED. THE AFL NEVER JOINED THE ORGANIZATION.

CAREY TOLD A PRESS CONFERENCE THAT REPRESENTATIVES OF THE CIO, AFL AND THE BRITISH CONGRESS WILL MEET APRIL 7 IN WASHINGTON TO DISCUSS FORMATION OF A NEW INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION.

EARLIER, CAREY HAD TOLD THE 14TH NATIONAL CONVENTION OF THE CIO MARINE AND SHIPBUILDING WORKERS:

"WE'RE WORKING TO CREATE A NEW INTERNATIONAL THAT WILL NOT BE ANSWERABLE TO ANY POLITBURO OR POLITICAL PARTY AND THAT WILL NOT BOW DOWN TO ANY GOVERNMENT."

IN HIS SPEECH, CAREY TERMED RUSSIAN TRADE UNIONS "REACTIONARY" AND SAID SOVIET WORKERS HAVE A "MISERABLE STANDARD OF LIVING."

WHILE THE CIO WAS IN THE WFTU, CAREY SAID, "WE FOUND THAT YOU CAN MAKE AGREEMENTS WITH SOVIET REPRESENTATIVES BUT YOU CAN'T GET THEM CARRIED OUT."

FOLLOWING CAREY'S ADDRESS, THE CONVENTION PASSED A RESOLUTION ENDORSING A NEW WORLD TRADE UNION FEDERATION.

IT SAID THE OLD ONE HAD "BEEN USED AS A SOUNDING BOARD FOR COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA" AND ENDORSED THE CIO WITHDRAWAL FROM IT.

ALSO APPROVED WAS A PROTEST TO THE OHIO LEGISLATURE AGAINST A PROPOSED RIVER BELT CONVEYOR TO MOVE COAL FROM EASTERN OHIO TO WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA. IT WOULD REPLACE FREIGHT CARS.

SUCH A CONVEYOR, THE RESOLUTION SAID, WAS A "NEEDLESS WASTE OF MONEY" AND WOULD THROW "THOUSANDS OF TRANSPORTATION AND SERVICE WORKERS OUT OF WORK IN OHIO."

WASHINGTON, MARCH 22-(AP)-THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION TODAY AGREED TO FINANCE THE PURCHASE OF $1,733,000(M) WORTH OF RICE, RICE FLOUR AND MEAL DELIVERED TO NETHERLANDS INDONESIA DURING THE FIRST QUARTER OF THIS YEAR.

MAR 29 1949

A STATEMENT FROM THE RECOVERY AGENCY, HOWEVER, SAID THE TRANSACTION DOES NOT MEAN A RESUMPTION OF ECA AID TO THE DUTCH FAR EASTERN TERRITORY.

MARSHALL PLAN ASSISTANCE TO INDONESIA WAS SUSPENDED LAST DECEMBER 22 BECAUSE OF THE SO-CALLED "CIVIL DISORDERS" BETWEEN DUTCH ARMED FORCES AND THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA.

IN EXPLAINING TODAY'S TRANSACTION, ECA SAID THE PURCHASE OF THE RICE HAD BEEN CONTRACTED FOR BEFORE ECA ASSISTANCE WAS CUT OFF. IT STATED THAT THE NEW AUTHORIZATION REPLACED A PREVIOUS SPENDING APPROVAL OF $2,216,000(M) FOR WHEAT FLOUR WHICH SUBSEQUENTLY WAS CANCELLED.

THE RICE AND RICE PRODUCTS COVERED WERE PURCHASED IN THE UNITED STATES AND MEXICO, ECA SAID. THE CANCELLED ORDER FOR WHEAT FLOUR WAS TO HAVE COME FROM THE U.S.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 29-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES IS REPORTED ABOUT TO TAKE STEPS TO SPUR ACTION ON MONETARY REFORM BY MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES.

OFFICIALS SAID TODAY THE ALTERNATE U.S. DIRECTOR ON THE INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND (CAPS I,M, F), HENRY TASCA, WILL BE SENT TO PARIS AS ADVISER TO MARSHALL PLAN AMBASSADOR AVERELL HARRIMAN.

THE DUTIES OF THE 47-NATION FUND INCLUDE THE FIXING OF EXCHANGE RATES BETWENEN VARIOUS NATIONAL CURRENCIES. SENDING TASCA TO PARIS WAS INTERPRETED AS A U.S. MOVE TO GIVE THE FUND A BETTER OPPORTUNITY TO PUSH ITS VIEWS.

MAR 29 1949

THE FUND'S OBJECTIVES INCLUDE SPEEDY REMOVAL OF RESTRICTIONS ON CURRENCY EXCHANGE WHICH INTERFERE WITH TRADE. IT ALSO AIMS AT EVENTUAL REVALUATION OF CURRENCIES FROM RATES WHICH THE FUND HAS ADMITTED ARE OUT OF LINE WITH THEIR DOMESTIC BUYING POWER.

INDICATIONS IN INFORMED QUARTERS ARE THAT NO DEVALUATION OF FOREIGN CURRENCIES IS IMMINENT. HOWEVER, THE BELIEF IS THAT A NUMBER OF OVERSEAS COUNTRIES WILL IN TIME MOVE TO CHEAPEN THEIR DOLLAR EXCHANGE RATES.

BY SO DOING, THEY WOULD BE TRYING TO MAKE PRICES OF THEIR GOODS AND TOURIST TRAVEL COSTS IN THEIR COUNTRIES LESS EXPENSIVE TO AMERICANS. THE OBJECT WOULD BE TO STIMULATE SALES TO THIS COUNTRY, BOOSTING THEIR DOLLAR INTAKE FOR USE IN BUYING FROM THE U.S.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 29-(AP)-TWELVE MAJOR COAL-PRODUCING COUNTRIES WILL BE REPRESENTED AT THE THIRD MEETING OF THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR OFFICE'S COAL MINE COMMITTEE IN PITTSBURGH STARTING APRIL 20.

AN ILO ANNOUNCEMENT SAID TODAY THAT PROBLEMS TO BE DISCUSSED INCLUDE:

MAR 29 1949

PROTECTION FOR YOUNG WORKERS UNDERGROUND, RETRAINING OF PHYSICALLY-HANDICAPPED MINERS, HOURS OF WORK IN COAL MINES, AND MEANS FOR RESTORING INDIVIDUAL OUTPUT IN EUROPE'S WAR-TORN MINES TO PRE-WAR LEVELS.

DELEGATES TO THE MEETING WILL INCLUDE WORKERS, EMPLOYERS AND GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS.

A REPORT ON PROGRESS HAS BEEN PREPARED FOR THE MEETING BY THE ILO GENEVA, SWITZERLAND, HEADQUARTERS. THIS SHOWS THAT IN MOST COUNTRIES, EXCEPT THE UNITED STATES, UNITED KINGDOM AND GERMANY, THE NUMBER OF EFFECTIVE WORKERS NOW SURPASSES PRE-WAR FIGURES.

BUT, IT SAID, EXCEPT IN THE U.S., WHERE CONDITIONS ARE NOT COMPARABLE, INDIVIDUAL OUTPUT IS LOWER THAN 1937 FIGURES. MANPOWER AND PRODUCTION FIGURES ARE REPORTED IMPROVED GREATLY, HOWEVER, SINCE THE COMMITTEE'S FIRST SESSION IN 1945.

MAR 29 1949

THE 12 MEMBER COUNTRIES TO BE REPRESENTED AT THE MEETING ARE: AUSTRALIA, BELGIUM, CANADA, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, FRANCE, INDIA, NETHERLANDS, POLAND, TURKEY, UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA, UNITED KINGDOM AND THE U.S.

FRANCE SAID TO DEMAND KEYSTONE POSITION IN WEST EUROPE DEFENSE

MAR 31 1949

Jos. E. Ayman

Schuman Prepared To Ask For Arms To Fill Role

Paris, March 30 (AP)—A Cabinet spokesman said today Robert Schuman, Foreign Minister, intends to insist that France be made the keystone of the defense of western Europe.

He will demand that the French Army be equipped for that role, the spokesman said. Schuman left for Washington today to sign the North Atlantic alliance treaty and will remain in the United States until Easter to talk over implementation of the treaty.

Follows De Gaulle Demand

The spokesman disclosed Schuman's policy less than 24 hours after Gen. Charles de Gaulle, a foe of the Government, had demanded that France be given priority in American arms shipments to give the Atlantic pact teeth.

Before leaving, Schuman reported to the Cabinet that the United States, Britain and France hope to settle outstanding German problems while the foreign ministers of the three powers are together in Washington.

The chief German problem centers on the question of the powers and extent of centralization of a projected West German government. The question has produced divergent views among the three occupation powers, and a deadlock between them and the German constituent convention at Bonn. France is opposed to a strong centralized government.

Dismantling Plan Set

On three other questions—dismantling of German plants, prohibited industries and shipbuilding—representatives of the three powers were reported to have reached agreement in London today.

The agreement will be considered by the three foreign ministers in Washington and, if approved, will be passed on to the three military governors who will work out the details.

Details of the accord reached by Lewis Douglas, United States Ambassador, Rene Massigli, French Ambassador, and Sir Ivone Kirkpatrick, of the British Foreign Office were not announced. A communiqué may be issued from London tomorrow.

Merchant Fleet Allowed

It is reported that 150 to 155 German plants will be removed from the list for dismantling for reparations. The Americans had proposed that 167 plants be saved.

The reports said the list of potential war industries now prohibited would be revised, and the Germans would be allowed to build new merchant ships up to 9,000 gross tons. The present limit is 1,400 tons. German shipbuilders said they could build a merchant fleet of 500,000 tons in 30 months if they could get the steel.

Schuman said before his departure today that the North Atlantic treaty gave France "a guarantee of peace and security which we have sought in vain since the end of the first World War."

He will go to New York April 5 to head the French delegation at the opening of the General Assembly.

SYRIAN LEADERS ARRESTED AFTER BLOODLESS COUP

SIMON ALLAWERDI

DAMASCUS, Syria, March 30—(AP) The Syrian army overthrew the government without a fight today and arrested many high officials.

Brig. Husni Zayim, chief of staff of the army, said the dawn coup was to deliver Syria from "despotism" and would not interfere with previous foreign engagements.

His statement was taken to mean that Syria will go ahead with negotiations for an armistice with Israel.

Curfew Declared

A curfew was clamped on the country at 6 a. m., the moment the revolt was successful. A government of undersecretaries carried on the administration while Zayim sought the advice of Faris El Khouri, president of parliament and former premier, on formation of a new cabinet.

(At Rhodes the acting UN Mediator, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, said he assumed the Israeli-Syrian armistice negotiations would proceed as scheduled. Bunche's aides left for Damascus yesterday to begin the work.

(U. S. Minister James Hugh Keeley, Jr., reported to Washington from Damascus that President Al Sayed Shukri Al Kuwalty, Premier Khaled Bey Azem and the entire cabinet were arrested.

(In Washington it was pointed out that the revolt posed a question of what will happen to the proposal, which was to be brought before the Syrian parliament soon, for construction by the Arabian-American Oil company of a Trans-Arabian pipeline from the Persian gulf across Syria to the Mediterranean.

May Join Iraq

(A high Syrian source in Cairo said the People's party of Syria proposed to the president two weeks ago that Syria be annexed to Iraq. The informant said he did not know whether Brig. Zayim's movement was for or against such a step.

(Reports from Trans-Jordan, said President Kuwalty had been removed to Mazza prison. Prince Adel Arsalan was said in Amman to be the most likely choice to establish a new government.)

Brig. Zayim was a colonel when he succeeded Abdullah Attfeh as chief of staff last May 24, soon after the outbreak of war in Palestine. He formerly was chief of security and of police.

(Arab sources at Lake Success said he is a politically independent professional soldier who fought in the Arab revolt against the Turks in the first World War, for Vichy forces in 1941 in Syria. He was trained at the French military academy of St. Cyr. He is 50 years old.)

El Khouri, upon whom he is relying for advice, is a 70-year-old "elder statesman" who represented his country in the United Nations from the inception in 1946 until the end of 1948.

Zayim told the Associated Press the army was "compelled to undertake this change of regime because of attacks against the army inside, as well as outside, the House of Representatives." He said these attacks misrepresented the army.

People Discontented

In addition, he declared, the people were discontented with the government and the personalities in it.

"Our movement is purely local and has no foreign implication whatsoever," he said. "We are not power seekers or supporters of dictatorial rule. As soon as a new cabinet is formed, which we are seeking at present with the advice of Faris El Khouri, we shall transfer power to them."

At the same time he sent a message to Secretary General Trygve Lie of the United Nations saying the army had intervened to put an end to "internal anarchy," and confirming the country's attachment to its former engagements.

An army communique said "Our supreme desire is to safeguard the independence of our country and deliver her from the despotism and bluff of the present rule and prepare for her a really Democratic rule."

Proclamations warned merchants against taking advantage of the situation to raise prices. The people were advised to remain tranquil.

Army Controls Syria After Night Coup

MAR 31 1949

Damascus, Syria, March 30 (AP)—The Syrian Army seized power in Syria's capital today, arresting Government leaders in a bloodless revolt at dawn.

Brigadier Husni Zayim, commander of the Syrian Army, said the military coup was ordered because of "attacks against the army; inside as well as outside the House of Representatives."

[United States Minister James Hugh Keeley, Jr., reported from Damascus to Washington that President Shukri al Kuwatly, Prime Minister Khaled Bey Azem and his entire Cabinet had been arrested. Keeley reported the army took complete control of the capital.]

No Blood Shed

Army officials said no blood was shed in the lightning coup.

Curfew was clamped on the city at 6 A.M. and all was reported quiet several hours after Brigadier Zayim announced the seizure of power.

SEE INSERT

Zayim said the revolutionary movement was "purely local and has no foreign implication."

This was taken to mean that the new Government would proceed with scheduled armistice negotiations with Israel. Two United Nations officials left Rhodes yesterday for Damascus to lay the groundwork for the Israeli-Syrian talks.

Rule To Be "Temporary"

Zayim announced that army rule over Syria would be "temporary."

He said he was negotiating with Faris Bey el Khouri, speaker of the House of Representatives and Syria's leading "elder statesman," on formation of a new Cabinet.

When the Cabinet is formed, Zayim said in a statement, the army will turn over power to the new Premier.

"Our supreme desire is to safeguard the independence of our country, deliver her from the despotism and bluff of the present rule and prepare for her really democratic rule," an army communiqué said.

Price Rise Barred

The army warned merchants not to take advantage of the Government crisis and raise prices.

The bloodless coup was the first serious disturbance since last December, when riots forced the resignation of Premier Jamil Mardam Bey.

[The riots were attributed then to resentment over the handling of the Palestine war. The people, who got only censored news, were amazed when they learned the Syrian forces had failed to defeat the Jews.]

Al Kuwatly was elected President of the Syrian Republic in 1943 and re-elected in April, 1948. Syria had been a French mandate under the League of Nations, but the Free French, who marched in during the war to forestall any German stroke there, proclaimed Syria's independence at Damascus, September 27, 1941.

"Compelled" To Act

Elections to Syria's Parliament were held in July, 1947.

"We have been compelled to undertake this change in the regime because of attacks against the army inside as well as outside the House of Representatives, which gave way to misrepresentation of the Syrian Army and ill-treatment of its officers," Zayim said.

"Another reason is the people's discontent with the present rule and the abuse from personalities handling it.

"No Foreign Ties"

"Our movement is purely local and has no foreign implication whatsoever. We are not rule seekers or supporters of dictatorial rule. As soon as a new Cabinet is formed, which we are seeking at present with the advice of the speaker of the House, Faris Bey el Khouri, we shall transfer the power to them."

The commander cabled the United Nations that the Syrian Army took its action to put an end to internal anarchy. It confirmed Syria's adherence to her former agreements and respect for democracy.

Steps Agreed On To Strengthen Germany

MAR 31 1949

London, March 30 (AP)—Western power negotiators today concluded an agreement aimed at harnessing West Germany's industrial might to the European Recovery Program.

A series of meetings between high American, British and French officials ended today. The three powers were reported to agree to:

Reprieve between 150 and 155 West German industries due to have been dismantled and distributed as war reparations.

Revise the list of warlike industries disallowed Germany under the Potsdam pact.

Raise the gross tonnage of German-constructed ships from its present level of 1,500 to about 9,000.

Needs Approval

Responsible diplomats said the agreement will have to receive the approval of the American, British and French governments.

The negotiations have been conducted by the American and French Ambassadors, Lewis W. Douglas and Rene Massigli, and Sir Ivone Kirkpatrick, who heads the German section of the British Foreign Office.

After formal governmental approval is given to the accord, its details will be worked out by the staffs of the three Western military governors.

The latest Western move to utilize West Germany's productive resources came on American insistence.

Economic Co-operation Administrator Paul G. Hoffman last year assigned a team of American industrialists, headed by George Humphreys, of Cleveland, Ohio, steel magnate, to find out how West Germany's industrial resources could be put to work for ERP.

BRITISH ADD CURBS ON GOODS TO REDS

MAR 31 1949

London, March 30 (A. P.)—The British Board of Trade has completed drafting new restrictions on the shipment of potential war goods to nations of the Soviet bloc.

John W. Edwards, parliamentary secretary to the board, told the House of Commons a list of the goods which "we consider should not be sent to certain destinations" will be announced this week. The list covers an extended range of goods for which export licenses will be needed.

The British move follows American requests to all European Recovery Program countries to prevent the flow of militarily useful goods to countries not taking part in the program.

Edwards's statement was in answer to a question by Phil Piratin, a Communist, who had asked what additional goods are to be barred from export to Russia and east Europe.

ERP SPENT $4 BILLION DURING INITIAL YEAR

PARIS, March 30 — (AP) The European Recovery Program is a year old next Sunday. ERP officials said today they had handed out $4,566,700,000 to the participating countries—95 per cent of the $4,800,000,000 allotted.

Andrew H. Berding, ERP information chief in Italy, declared in an address in Rome that "democracy in Italy has been immensely strengthened" by the program.

The biggest outlay of the entire program in the first 11 months was for bread grains—$813,900,000 worth. Second biggest spending was $424,000,000 for petroleum products.

Britain received the biggest share of funds, $1,162,800,000. France's share rose in February to $1,059,000,000.

Dairy Products Due Free Sale In France

Paris, March 30 (AP)—Premier Henri Queuille told Parliament today that milk, butter and cheese will go on free sale April 15 for the first time in nine years.

The decision came after the Syndicate of French Groceries had decided to give up asking for ration tickets on April 1.

Principal food products still rationed are sugar, coffee, chocolate and cooking oils. Grocers are threatening to sell the last two freely, with or without Government permission.

Distribution of dairy products has been irregular, with large-scale black marketing. Milk is theoretically only for children and mothers.

Joliot-Curie to Lead Paris Talk

PARIS, March 30 (AP)—Frederic Joliot-Curie, France's leading atomic scientist and a Communist, will be chairman at a meeting of the "World Convention of Peace Supporters" opening here April 20. A mass meeting will be held outside Paris at Buffalo Stadium Sunday, April 24, under the chairmanship of M. Joliot-Curie. International delegates will speak.

Rome Reds Open 'Popular Front' Peace Drive

MAR 31 1949

Rome, March 30 (AP)—Italian Communist leaders indicate that the next Red maneuver in the cold war will be a "popular front" for "defending peace."

The new tactic, which may be the Kremlin's reply to the North Atlantic defense treaty, began to shape up yesterday at a meeting of the central committee of the Italian Communist party.

Palmiro Togliatti, leader of the Italian Communists, and his deputy, Luigi Longo, called for a peace front.

Leader In Last "Offensive"

Togliatti was in the forefront of the Kremlin's recent "peace offensive," which was dropped at the time it became obvious the West was going ahead with the North Atlantic pact.

Togliatti and Longo indicated that they expect a broad front, including non-Communists, to be evolved from the world "peace conference" to be held in Paris on April 20.

The importance which the Kremlin attaches to the Paris conference is indicated by the fact that the Russian-controlled press already has begun booming it. Moscow newspapers yesterday reported preparations being made in various capitals for sending delegations.

The Italian Red leaders emphasized that the new "peace" movement would not be confined to Communists. Togliatti said it would be "a broad alliance in which will participate citizens of every class, faith and political allegiance."

He charged that "the imperialistic powers, and in the first rank the group directing the United States, have turned definitely toward war."

He added, however, that "the makers of an anti-Soviet war find themselves before the fundamental obstacle of the desire of the people for peace."

War Scare In Bari Blamed For Riot

Rome, March 30 (AP)—Dispatches from Bari, in south Italy, said a sudden war scare there caused a market place riot that had to be quelled by police.

The reports said that during the morning word of imminent war began circulating in the city's main open-air market.

Traveling by word of mouth, this was soon changed to "war will be declared today." In a short time this became, "Bari will be attacked this afternoon."

Housewives cut their purchases short, and ran for home. Market prices climbed.

By afternoon tension was such that a market place fist-fight quickly became a general riot.

A bystander called out riot police. They stopped the fight and cleared the market by vigorous use of clubs.

It was never learned, the dispatches said, where the war scare originated, or who was supposed to attack whom.

Charges Against Clayton Bissell Kept Secret

MAR 31 1949

Frankfurt, March 30 (AP)—Charges of an unspecified nature have been preferred against Maj. Gen. Clayton L. Bissell, headquarters of the United States Air Force in Europe announced today.

The announcement said the charges are being investigated to determine whether they warrant a trial by court-martial.

The charges concern "acts allegedly committed while Bissell was military and air attaché at the United States Embassy in London from May, 1946, to July, 1948." Air force officials declined to say what the charges were.

Bissell In Germany

Officials would not even say what article of war Bissell is accused of violating.

Bissell's attorney, John E. Hughes, said the investigation is based on an anonymous letter accusing Bissell of selling 1,200 pounds of coffee illegally in Germany. Hughes denied this charge and said an investigation will prove it unfounded.

He called the case "only a tempest in a teapot," saying the only coffee General Bissell ever sold was in the legal barter market set up by the Army to ease economic conditions in Germany. Americans could trade in scarce items in such barter markets, receiving barter points for other goods received from the Germans. The barter markets were closed last year.

Bissell arrived in Germany yesterday. Hughes is an attorney from Chicago and Washington.

The investigation of the charges against him is being made by Maj. Gen. Edwin B. Lyon, the Air Force announced.

Probe Announced

The Air Force announced in Washington last August 14 that anonymous letters charging Bissell with "unauthorized transactions" had led to an investigation. The statement said the accusations were not proved by a preliminary investigation.

It added, however, that Air Secretary Symington had ordered further inquiry.

In Washington, the Air Force declined to discuss the case at all today.

"Under Consideration"

[The Justice Department there said the Bissell case is "under consideration" by its criminal division.

[Alexander M. Campbell, chief of the criminal division, said no decision has been reached as to whether the facts are sufficient to warrant any action in the civil courts. Campbell declined to discuss the nature of the facts being studied.]

Bissell at one time commanded the United States Air Force in India. He later returned to the United States to become assistant Chief of the air force staff for intelligence.

Refuses To Comment

Bissell today was at the Rose Hotel in Wiesbaden, air force billet for high-ranking officers.

Reached by telephone, he said: "I have no comment on the air force announcement. The fact that there is an investigation has been previously published. The investigation is continuing. That is the situation."

GENERAL LINKED TO COFFEE 'DEALS'

MAR 31 1949

Attorney for C. L. Bissell, Top Air Force Officer, Denies Charges

FRANKFURT, Germany, March 30—(AP) Maj. Gen. Clayton L. Bissell of the U. S. Air Force has been charged with dealing illegally in coffee in Germany, his attorney disclosed here today.

The attorney, John E. Hughes of Washington and Chicago, denied the charge and predicted a military inquiry now under way will prove it to be utterly unfounded.

"The whole thing is only a tempest in a teapot," he said.

"The only coffee Gen. Bissell ever sold was in the legal barter market set up by the army to alleviate the economic conditions in Germany."

The U. S. Air Force announced earlier today that charges had been filed concerning "acts allegedly committed while Bissell was military and air attache at the United States embassy in London from May, 1946, to July, 1948."

It said these were being investigated to determine whether he should be brought before a courts-martial. The investigation is being made by Maj. Gen. Edwin B. Lyon.

Hughes said the formal charge against Bissell is "conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman." This is in accord with routine procedure when allegations against an officer are to be investigated.

Hughes said Bissell was served with charges under the 96th article of war last month. Bissell will benefit by a change in the articles of war that permits him to be represented in an investigation. This change went into effect Feb. 1.

Bissell, Hughes and Lyon will go to London Sunday where Lyon hopes to interview embassy employes and hear witnesses, Hughes said.

The Air Force withheld details. It would not even say what article of war Bissell was accused of violating.

However, the Air Force in Washington reported last Aug. 14 that anonymous letters had accused Bissell of "unauthorized transactions" while he was stationed in London. A preliminary study failed to establish the validity of the accusations, it said, but Air Secretary W. Stuart Symington ordered a further inquiry.

Bissell, who served in World War II as commander of the U.S. 10th Air Force in the India-Burma-China theater and later as chief of army intelligence, arrived in Germany yesterday for the investigation.

He was billeted at the Rose hotel in Wiesbaden, requisitioned by the Air Force for high ranking officers.

"I have no comment on the Air Force announcement," he said. "The fact that there is an investigation has been previously published. The investigation is continuing. That is the situation."

Hughes said the investigation was based on a letter, signed only "embassy employe," accusing Bissell of selling 1,200 pounds of coffee illegally in Germany. Copies, he said, were sent to high governmental and army officials.

A long time friend and former schoolmate of the general at Valparaiso (Ind.) university, the attorney said Bissell had sold coffee only in the legal barter markets.

In these barter markets, Americans could trade in coffee, cigarettee and other items scarce in Germany. They would receive barter points with which they could obtain jewelry and other valuables turned in by Germane. The markets were closed last year after being flooded with cigarettes.

Hughes said the U. S. Justice department once advised the Air Force that the evidence did not justify prosecution.

(The Justice department in Washington said the Bissel case is "under consideration" by its criminal division. Alexander M. Campbell, chief of the criminal division, said no decision has been reached as to whether the facts are sufficient to warrant any action in civil courts.)

Bissell, now 52, was an ace in World War I.

He was graduated in law by Valparaiso university in 1917. His home is in Kane, Pa.

West Speculates Over Chuikov Appointment

MAR 31 1949

Berlin, March 30 (AP)—The appointment of Gen. Vassily I. Chuikov to succeed Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky as military governor of the Soviet zone of Germany has touched off speculation.

Does the switch mean the Russians plan to get tougher? Do they intend to ease off, possibly lifting the blockade of Berlin? Everybody has an answer, but the answers don't agree.

"Very Competent Man"

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American commander in Germany, said: "I consider [Sokolovsky's shift] the promotion of a very competent man."

He declined to speculate further on what the shift might mean.

Sokolovsky has been stubborn. He opposed compromises.

Forces Strengthened

Under him the Russians strengthened their force in Germany extensively. The anti-Communist German press alleged today that the Russians were reactivating German armament plants and strengthening the "People's Police."

Whether this will mean much in connection with Sokolovsky's new position is hard to determine. I referred his problems to Moscow for final instructions. His predecessor, Marshal Georgi K. Zhukov, sometimes made on-the-spot compromises in small matters.

Westerners don't know much about General Chuikov. He has had experience in Germany. The Russians have indicated they plan to set up an East German government and accredit an ambassador to it. In that event, diplomatic negotiations with the West would be in civilian hands.

Rearmament Is Seen

The British-licensed Telegraf said today the Red Army spring maneuvers are a screen for large-scale rearmament in the Russian zone. Western military spokesmen had no immediate comment.

The paper said the Russians are building strong defenses north of Berlin. A "high Russian officer who recently deserted" reported the Soviets are preparing to build a military line from Berlin to the Baltic. The officer was not identified.

Crews are speeding construction of military installations at Templin, 45 miles north of Berlin, the paper added. It charged that at least twelve big war plants are putting out munitions, including tanks, and that ammunition dumps are being established.

The American-licensed Der Abend asserted a Colonel Brussin, commander of a Soviet tank regiment in Thuringia, and several officers of his staff have deserted to the West.

RED SOLDIERS ARREST 3 WOMEN IN U. S. ZONE

MAR 31 1949

BERLIN, March 30—(AP) Russian soldiers and Soviet zone police pursued three German women into the American sector of Berlin tonight and carried them off.

U. S. Public safety officers said the incident occurred in the Rudow section of the city, a suburb bordering the Soviet zone. Shots were fired during the chase.

Witnesses told police the women were carrying knapsacks, probably food smuggled from the Russian zone.

Airlift Again Tops 8,000 Tons

Berlin, March 30 (AP)—The Berlin airlift topped the 8,000-ton mark today for the second time. American and British planes shuttled 8,010 tons of food and supplies to the blockaded western sectors. The record haul was 8,025 tons brought in February 6.

Pact Okay By Iceland Parliament

Rekjavik, Iceland, March 30 (AP). Iceland's Althing (Parliament) today approved this strategic island republic's membership in the North Atlantic pact.

The vote to join in the alliance was 37 to 13.

Communists opposed to the pact demonstrated outside the Parliament building, throwing stones and breaking windows while the deputies debated inside.

Foreign Minister Bjarni Benediktsson was expected to leave for Washington tomorrow to join the ceremony of signing the pact on Monday.

Of the thirteen members voting against the pact, ten were Communists, two Social Democrats and one Progressive. Two Progressives abstained.

Portugal To Join Atlantic Pact

MAR 31 1949

Lisbon, Portugal, March 30 (AP)—Portugal has decided to join the Atlantic Pact, the Foreign Ministry announced today. Foreign Minister Caeiro de Matta leaves for the United States tomorrow to join other diplomats gathering in Washington for the signing ceremonies.

The Foreign Office issued a communique on Portuguese-Spanish discussions concerning the invitation to Portugal to sign.

The communique said the present friendship and nonaggression agreements between Spain and Portugal "continue to show their efficiency for the defense of the common interests of the two interested parties."

"Spain Indirectly Linked"

[A Madrid dispatch yesterday said the talks cleared the way for Portuguese adherence to the Atlantic treaty. It quoted diplomatic sources as saying the Spanish view was that Spain indirectly was linked to the Atlantic Alliance through her agreements with Portugal.]

The text of the Portuguese communiqué:

Within terms of protocol of July 29, 1940, additional to treaty of friendship and nonaggression between Portugal and Spain, there have taken place within last days conversations in Lisbon between representatives of the two governments to study situation vis-a-vis the forthcoming signing of the North Atlantic Pact and possible acceptance of the invitation extended to the Portuguese Government to sign, as one of original members of this diplomatic instrument.

In these conversations it was recognized that the undertakings of friendship and nonaggression operating between Portugal and Spain continue to show their efficiency for the defense of the common interests of the two interested parties. The conversations were held in this spirit of friendship which marks the relations of the two countries.

LISBON, Portugal, March 30 (AP)—Foreign Minister Caeiro da Matta is leaving for the United States tomorrow to sign the North Atlantic treaty.

Portugal decided to join the alliance after consultations with Spain under the Iberian pact of March 17, 1939, and the subsequent agreement of July 29, 1940. A communiqué today said the conversations had shown the continued value of the 1939 and 1940 agreements for the "defense of the common interests" of the two countries.

The Iberian pact bound the two countries to mutual friendship and non-aggression. The protocol of 1940 was designed to insure the neutrality of both countries in the second World War. Nicolau Franco, Spanish Ambassador in Lisbon, carried on the consultations for Spain.

HOWARD FAST HOLDS PASSPORT DENIED HIM

BUCHAREST, Rumania, March 30 (AP)—Howard Fast, left-wing American novelist, cabled the Rumanian Intellectuals Congress today that he had had "difficulties" in obtaining a United States passport for travel to Europe.

The cable, read to the Congress, said: "I hope you will understand that my absence is due in part to the present policy of the American State Department."

POLISH PRESS SAYS BISHOP AIDED NAZIS

MAR 31 1949

Warsaw, Poland, March 30 (A. P.).—The controlled Polish press, renewing its attacks on Roman Catholic clergymen, turned its fire today against Bishop Czesiaw Kaczmarek of Kielce, charging him with having co-operated with the Nazis.

The charge was carried first by the newspaper Glos Robotniczy and reprinted by other newspapers. The article said the Bishop had bowed in 1940 to a German demand that Polish youths be sent to Germany to work in industries.

The Ministry of Public Administration recently accused Bishop Kaczmarek and Bishop Stanislaw Adamski of having been subservient to the Nazis. The two also have been charged with spreading propaganda against the present Communist-dominated Government.

Recently in a pastoral letter Bishop Adamski charged that Government authorities were curbing or abolishing religious instruction in the schools. The Government denied this and told the clergy to drop all anti-State activities before any understanding between Church and State could be reached.

POLES BOOST FARM OUTPUT

WARSAW, Poland, March 30—(AP)—Polish peasants plan to cultivate 5,000,000 acres more of farmlands this year over the 1947-48 figures to further boost the nation's food self-sufficiency.

The 1949 agriculture production plans call for the planting of a total of approximately 37,000,000 acres.

Agriculturists estimate there still are about 2,600,000 acres of fallow land in Poland — a considerable part of it in former Eastern German lands. Peasants hope to cut down that figure to about 1,700,000 acres after the spring sowings.

The semi-official newspaper "Rzeczpospolita" said that while imports were necessary to supplement home production in 1947-48 "our own production in 1949 should satisfy, to a considerable extent, the needs of the population in the food line."

DIPLOMATS HINT NEW MOVE TO END BERLIN DISPUTE

MAR 31 1949

Eddy Gilmore

MOSCOW, March 30—(AP) Some diplomats not directly involved in the four-power dispute over Berlin speculated today there may be a new move to settle that issue.

They based their speculation on the number of recent changes in the personnel which handled the Berlin case in the past.

Gen. Vassily I. Chuikov is succeeding Marshal Vassily D. Sokovsky as Soviet military governor in Germany.

Clay May Retire

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American military governor, has been seeking to retire.

Gen. Walter B. Smith has resigned as American ambassador to Moscow.

V. M. Molotov has been succeeded as Soviet foreign minister by Andrei Vishinsky.

(Berlin dispatches said the promotion of Sokolovsky to first vice minister of Soviet armed forces was interpreted by some observers as a hardening of Soviet policy. Sokolovsky firmly carried out Kremlin policy in dealing with the western powers in Berlin.

(Some Berlin sources said Chuikov's war combat record indicated he would be more concerned with military than political matters.

(Gen. Clay said he saw nothing in the change except the promotion of an "able man," Sokolovsky.

Reds Bolster Defense

(The change coincided with reports in the Berlin anti-communist press that the Russians were rushing construction of a new line of military bases from Berlin north to the Baltic, installing munitions dumps at many places in their zone and putting German armament plants back into production.)

Chuikov, 49, started working as an errand boy at the age of 12 in Leningrad and joined the Red Army at the time of the 1917 revolution. He commanded the 62nd army in the battle of Stalingrad, won distinction in the liberation of the Donets basin, and participated in driving the Germans out of Poland. In 1945 he was chief of the Soviet military administration in German Thuringia.

He was one of the Soviet officers awarded decorations from President Roosevelt in 1943. He was present when Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Field Marshal Lord Montgomery paid their first visit to Berlin in 1945.

Reds Pick New Reich Chief

Gen. Chuikov Succeeds Marshal Sokolovsky as Military Governor for Eastern Zone.

Moscow, March 30 (A. P.).—Gen. Vassily I. Chuikov, wartime hero of Stalingrad and Lublin, became military governor of the Russian zone of Germany today, succeeding Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky.

Sokolovsky was promoted to principal assistant to the new minister of Russia's armed forces, Marshal Alexander M. Vasilevsky. Chuikov's appointment also was a promotion.

The announcement of the changes, like others in the continuing shake-up of top-level Russian officials, gave no explanation of the reasons. The people were told of the shifts in a brief broadcast by the Moscow radio, and a fifty-nine-word item published in the morning newspapers. Both men are widely known to the Russian people.

Reunited China Promised By Premier Ho

Nanking, March 30 (AP)—The Government promised today to reunite all China at the Peiping peace talks.

Premier Ho Ying-chin made the promise in a report to the Legislative Yuan. Ho added that the Government would seek to prevent China's internal affairs from disturbing world peace. He pledged full support to the United Nations.

Ho spoke as the advance party of the Nationalist peace delegation prepared to fly to Communist-held Peiping tomorrow. The main Nationalist delegates will leave Friday.

Battle On At Anking

But even as the peace delegation packed, Communist and Nationalist troops were locked in battle.

At Anking, 150 miles southwest of here on the Yangtze, Government defenders were said to be in a "critical" spot under a Communist attack. Government gunboats and planes supported the Anking defenders.

In the south, Communist guerrillas pounded away at scattered National forces, particularly in the provinces of Yunnan and Hunan.

Chang Seeing Chiang

The army chief of staff warned that the Communists were prepared to push south across the Yangtze in 60 days if the peace talks at Peiping failed.

Chang Chih-chung, chairman of the National peace delegation, reportedly was in Chikow, Chekiang province, talking to retired President Chiang Kai-shek about peace plans.

Chang is expected back here shortly to join the four other delegates and Vice Minister of defense Liu Fei for the trip to Peiping.

News Coverage At Issue

Chinese and foreign newsmen have applied for permission to cover the Peiping peace conference. Government sources said they were willing for them to go along but the decision rested with the Communists.

The Reds in Peiping have silenced all foreign newsmen there. The Government liaison officer in Peiping telephoned Nanking today that the question of news coverage of the peace talks would best be brought up at the conference table.

End Pay-Roll Padding

In his report to legislators, Ho welcomed foreign economic and technical aid to China. But he added that these aids must not infringe upon China's sovereignty.

The Premier also called for political, economic and military reforms. Among these was a reduction of the army pay roll from 5,000,000 men to 4,000,000. That reduction, he said, would be possible simply by eliminating padded pay rolls.

CHIANG SUPPORTS CHINESE BID FOR PEACE WITH REDS

NANKING, March 30 — (AP) Chiang Kai-shek gives "full support" to the Chinese government's bid for peace with the communists, a well-informed source said today.

The assurances from the "retired" president were carried to the legislative Yuan (national legislature) as delegates prepared to leave for Peiping. The fateful conference with the reds opens there Friday.

Conferred with Chiang

A legislative source said Gen. Chang Chih - Chung, head of the peace delegation brought the word from the generalissimo. Chang conferred with Chiang at Chikow, a town about 110 miles south of Shanghai.

(Chiang's position on the Peiping conference has been obscure. The communists accuse him of using peace moves to stall for time to build up a new resistance zone in south China.

(It is unlikely his reputed "full-support" changes his view, as represented by his closest associates, That view is there must be no outright surrender to the communists.)

Premier Ho Ying-Chin told the legislators the government will seek to reunite China upon the basis of a fair and reasonable peace settlement with the communists.

(The communist radio in north China remained silent on the peace talks. This seemed to reflect the hard-boiled attitude the communists have taken from the outset: That the delegation is coming to accept red terms, which amount to complete surrender.)

Newsmen Barred

No newsmen—Chinese or foreign—will be allowed to cover the conference from nationalist China, the government was advised. An attempt to have them admitted may be made by the nationalist delegation later. INSERT

Uprisings also spread in the south, Canton press dispatches said. Leaders are communists and associates of Marshal Li Chi Shen, former lieutennant of Chiang Kai shek.

The rebels seized two towns in western Hunan, in China's rice bowl. They also were trying to isolate Yunnan, rich southwest province, by cutting the Burma road and the railway to Indochina. Outbreaks were reported in Kweichow, Szechwan and Sikang, the three provinces surrounding Yunnan.

Approximately 9,000 communist irregulars were active on Hainan, the large island off China's south coast.

ISRAEL ASKS UN PROBE OF ARAB HELD HOSTAGES

TEL AVIV, Israel, March 30 (AP) —Premier David Ben-Gurion called today for a United Nations investigation in behalf of Jews he said were being held as hostages in neighboring Arab countries.

Ben-Gurion told the Israeli parliament that the United States and several European governments were being urged to seek a UN investigation when the General Assembly meets next week in New York.

He estimated 900,000 Jews are living in the Arab countries. Many of these Jews, including 250,000 in Iraq, Syria and Yemen, have been regarded by Arab authorities as hostages, he said.

The UN investigation will be asked, he said, to determine whether the Arab countries are treating Jews in accordance with human rights clauses of the United Nations charter.

Several delegates demanded in parliamentary debate that peace treaties to be concluded with Arab governments secure the rights of Jews in Arab countries and provide indemnities for Jewish families which have suffered losses.

Israeli Budget Presented

Tel Aviv, Israel, March 30 (AP)—Eliezer Kaplan, Finance Minister, presented to Parliament tonight a provisional budget calling for an expenditure of about $7,000,000 a month. How much of this amount goes for military purposes was not disclosed.

Dutch To Activate An Indonesian Army

Batavia, Java, March 30 (AP)—Dutch officially announced plans today for the speedy replacement of Dutch forces in Indonesia by a native army.

The announcement said the new army will at first "need the help of Dutch army officers and noncoms, who will gradually be replaced by Indonesians."

Training To Start

It said training of the army of 18,000 men will be started shortly. The new organization will take over the already existing "Security Battalions" of the Dutch-sponsored Federal states and former Republican combat groups which show their willingness to "co-operate."

The new units will be under jurisdiction of the Federal state where it is formed until the recognition of a sovereign "United States of Indonesia."

The Dutch said the cause of the new measure was the need of replacing the present use of Netherlands troops under Dutch plans for an early transfer of political authority to the Indonesians.

caused by the prolonged warfare between Dutch troops and Republican guerrillas.

Utoyo charged the Dutch were "making Jogjakarta uninhabitable as a future administration center."

[Jogjakarta, the Republican capital, has been occupied by the Dutch since they launched a "police action" against the republic last December. The United Nations Security Council has called for a halt to the Indonesian fighting, restoration of Jogjakarta as the Republican capital, and release of Republican leaders held by the Dutch as part of a plan for setting up a United States of Indonesia by July 1, 1950.]

Indonesia Asks More U.N. Aid

Bangkok, Siam, March 29 (AP)—The Indonesian Republic today urged the help of "any and every" United Nations agency against the Netherlands and the appeal was supported by the Soviet Union.

The Indonesian request was put before the committee of the whole of the United Nations Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East by Dr. R. Utoyo, the republic's delegate.

Chairman Interrupts

Twice Utoyo was interrupted by Conference Chairman Phya Srivisar Vacha, of Siam, and told to "keep to economics and leave out the Dutch." Each time Soviet Delegate S. S. Nemtchina broke in to say: "I ask the chairman not to interrupt the speaker while he is speaking."

The Indonesian urged the ECAFE committee to send a fact-finding mission to Indonesia to make a survey of destruction being

U.S. Aide Declines Moscow Reception Bid

Moscow, March 30 (AP)—Foy Kohler, charge d'affaires of the United States in Moscow, turned down an invitation to attend a reception today by Foreign Minister A. Y. Vishinsky for the visiting Albanian Premier, Enver Hoxha.

Kohler will "not be able to attend," an embassy spokesman said.

The reception is one of two held today for Hoxha. Americans were not invited to the second, an Albanian party at the Grand Hotel.

Envoy Returning

MOSCOW, March 30 (AP).—Foo Ping-sheung, Chinese Ambassador to Moscow, said today he plans to return to China soon to discuss his appointment as Foreign Minister. He said he still is uncertain whether he will accept the appointment and probably will make no decision until he reaches China.

Filipinos Told War May Start Anytime

Manila, Thursday, March 31 (AP). The Philippine Congress was told today that World War III may break out "anytime in the near future."

Raul Leuterio, House majority leader, sounded the warning in opposing a move to strip President Elpidio Quirino of emergency war powers set up in 1941.

"We have definitely aligned ourselves with the United States and with other countries friendly to the United States," Leuterio said. "When the United States is involved in war, as she is bound to be, the Philippines must necessarily be involved."

Australia May Oust Malay War Vet

Sydney, Australia, March 30 (AP). A Malayan seaman who served in the Australian merchant navy during the war and married a Sydney girl was threatened with deportation today under the "white Australia" law.

The Malayan, 28-year-old Abdul Smat Amyah, was arraigned in Federal court on a charge of violating the law which prohibits Asiatics from settling in Australia. He was remanded for trial on May 11 and freed on bail.

The case is the second in a week which has stirred controversy over Australia's long-standing ban on Asiatics.

Immigration Minister A. A. Calwell has refused to permit Filipino-born Lorenzo Gamboa, a sergeant serving in the United States occupation army in Japan, to settle in Australia with his Australian wife and two children. Gamboa married an Australian girl while serving here in the United States Army during the war.

If convicted, Amyah is subject to deportation to Malaya. He is married to a 23-year-old Australian girl and has three children.

Solicitor John Lindsay said Amyah, wounded while serving in the Australian merchant navy during the war, has lived in Australia since 1942 except for a few months in Malaya last year.

Acheson Slates Discussions On Germany

Washington, March 30 (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Acheson said today major German problems will be discussed with western European Foreign Ministers coming here to sign the North Atlantic treaty.

Acheson said the talks on Germany will be highly informal. But he said he hopes they may bring further progress on problems—such as formation of a German government—which are already under discussion in Europe.

Bevin Is Here

The Secretary's principal discussions on the German issue will be held with the foreign-policy chiefs of the other two occupation powers of western Germany—Britain's Ernest Bevin and France's Robert Schuman.

Bevin reached New York today on the liner Queen Mary.

Acheson pointed out at his conference that the Benelux countries also had figured in some discussions on the policy of the Western powers toward Germany. He said they might come into the talks here. The Benelux countries are Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Signing Monday

The Atlantic pact is to be signed on Monday.

Acheson said that in the series of talks leading up to the signing he would see Bevin tomorrow, and also expects to meet during the day with Netherland's Foreign Minister D. U. Stikker.

Discussions Due

On Friday, Acheson said, he will see French Foreign Minister Schuman and presumably the same day he will talk with Premier Foreign Minister Paul Henri Spaak of Belgium and Joseph Bech of Luxembourg. There will be other meetings with these and other visiting dignitaries, the Secretary added.

Such meetings as those now developing, Acheson said, are indicative of the increasing unity and cooperation of the Western powers and there will be an increasing number of them.

Seek More Responsibilities

As far as he is concerned, he added, he would be glad to talk with the visitors about any matters they have on their minds. German problems certainly will be discussed because the whole subject is one of vital concern to all governments, Acheson said.

The objectives in Germany, he continued, are to prevent Germany from becoming again a menace to the peace of the world and to reintegrate the defeated nation into the fabric of Europe. It has long been agreed, he added, that in line with these objectives it was necessary to give increasing responsibility to the German people. This raised the problem of a German government.

To Discuss Colonies

Acheson would not say that his meetings with the French and British leaders would constitute a conference. He seemed to be keeping his position flexible on the public record so that the talks can proceed in any way which Bevin and Schuman desire. The French Foreign Minister has long been urging a three-power conference on German issues.

Acheson also said today he intends to discuss Italy's former African colonies with some of the foreign ministers.

Acheson also told his conference he intends to confer again with Italy's Foreign Minister Carlo Sforza.

Backs Czech Protest

The Secretary added that the United States views with "grave concern" the secret conviction in Czechoslovakia of two American soldiers charged with spying.

Acheson said the American Government "fully supports" the action of Ambassador Joseph E. Jacobs, who filed a protest yesterday in Prague against the manner in which the two soldiers were tried and sentenced.

Statement Awaited

In a formal statement, the Secretary said that before determining what further measures may be taken by the United States, the State Department will wait a formal statement by the Czechoslovak Government and the results of promised interviews with the prisoners by American officials.

Gen. William Riley of the United States Marines, representing the United Nations mediator, Dr. Ralph Bunche, is believed to have arrived at Damascus shortly before the army seizure of power. He was to discuss with the Government of Premier Kahlid al Azem the negotiations for an Israeli armistice.

Agreed To Negotiate

Azam, Premier under the administration of President Shukri Bey Quwatli, had agreed to negotiate with Israel under the sponsorship of the United Nations mediator.

Knowledge of this fact, coupled with the successful establishment of the Isaerli state against the once-violent opposition of Syria and other Arab governments, may have played some part in bringing off today's revolt.

[In Rhodes, Bunche said he is "going on the assumption" that the scheduled Israeli-Syrian armistice negotiations will take place.]

Nead mid-day, the Syrian Legation here said it had received no direct reports from Damascus.

No Advance Warning

"There was no advance warning of any kind," Husni A. Sawwaf, legation counselor, said. "We have no background on the situation at all."

For this reason, the counselor could not say whether the army's seizure of power was an attempt to block an armistice agreement.

Even if anti-armistice sentiment alone sparked the army coup l'etat, its effects conceivably could stretch far beyond any such specific cause.

Syrian Upheaval Poses Problems For U.S. Policy

Washington, March 30 (AP)—The army overthrow of the Syrian Government poses immediately these questions of major American interest:

1. Will the new Government go forward with plans of the old administration to work out an armistice with Israel?

2. What will be the effect on plans for a highly important Trans-Arabian petroleum pipeline which must pass across Syria from the oil-rich Persian Gulf to Mediteranean shipping points?

3. Will the Syrian upheaval inflame the Arab uneasiness resulting from Israeli successes in the Palestine war?

Strategic Position Noted

Syria holds an important strategic position in the Near East with respect to oil and other military and commercial considerations.

Officials here recalled that a Trans-Arabian pipeline convention was to be brought up before the Syrian Parliament in the immediate future. The convention would provide for construction of a pipeline from the Persian Gulf to the Mediterranean coast, to run across Syria. The line is a project of the Arabian-American Oil Company.

Syria is one of the loose combine of Arab nations which fought establishment of an independent Jewish state in Palestine for a long period. But the total forces of these countries proved unable to prevail against the forces of Israel and the support they had from other sections of the world.

TAFT SAYS PACT MAY HASTEN WAR

WASHINGTON, March 30—(AP) Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said tonight that if Russia regards the Atlantic Alliance as an offensive threat, the pact "might become an incitement to war, and make it more probable instead of less."

Taft declared in a speech broadcast over the Mutual network that if it is true, as some experts claim, that Russia could overrun Europe any time within the next two or three years, U. S. security would not be increased by the alliance.

Still Undecided

He reiterated that he has not decided whether he will vote for the pact, when it is presented to the Senate sometime after next Monday's signing.

He is concerned, he said, whether this nation has made any commitments to rearm the countries of western Europe and to take part in a land war in Europe.

"We are told that military plans are being made," the Ohioan continued. "Do they involve our sending millions of men to fight on European soil against Russia?

"Many experts feel that our part in the war should be confined to the air and that we should not try to march to Moscow as did Napoleon and Hitler. x x x

"Whatever may be our final decision in case of war, I certainly do not feel that we should commit ourselves at this time to any particular military plan or character of operation."

Taft said that statements by Secretary of State Acheson indicate that the U. S. has agreed to arm the nations in the alliance.

Could Ban Arming

"It is said that we could approve the pact and then turn down the proposal for a lend-lease of arms," he continued. "But I am inclined to think that the European nations have been given to understand that the arms are part of our Atlantic pact obligation and would regard such action by us as a repudiation of our obligations x x x"

If the Senate approves the treaty, Taft said, he thinks it should do so with the frank understanding that the U. S. is prepared to go to war if Russia attacks one of the western nations.

He said he does not regard such a stand, usually referred to as an "automatic war" pledge, as a "conclusive argument against the treaty."

He said his principal doubt is that we may give the Soviets an impression that "we are ringing them about with armies for the purpose of undertaking aggressive action when the time comes."

"They may feel that if war is to come, they had better undertake it before those (European) armaments are built up," he said.

Taft Says ERP Can Stand Cut

'Asserts Budget Must Be Reduced or Taxes Raised—Senate Vote Delayed.

Washington, March 30 (A. P.)—Senator Taft (R.-Ohio) told the Senate today that unless Congress cuts President Truman's $41,800,000,000 budget he sees no way to avoid increasing taxes.

He was arguing for a 10 per cent cut in the $5,580,000,000 the Economic Co-operation Administration has asked to carry on the Marshall Plan.

He said the time to start cutting was with the foreign spending bill, adding that he did not think there was any program which could not be cut 10 per cent without damaging it.

Taft and Senator Russell (D.-Ga.) are sponsors of an amendment to cut the Marshall Plan authorization. It is being opposed by foreign policy leaders of both parties.

So many Senators wanted to debate the Taft-Russell amendment that Senate leaders abandoned plans to seek a vote. Majority Leader Lucas said the Senate probably would recess about 6 P. M. with the expectation that some vote would be reached tomorrow.

Taft and Russell propose specifically to cut the over-all total of $5,580,000,000 by $543,000,000, or about 10 per cent. Their proposal split both Republicans and Democrats.

Policy For China Has Collapsed, GOP Says

Washington, March 30 (AP)—Republicans on the House Foreign Affairs Committee said today that "American policy in China has collapsed."

They made this statement in a report to the House of "minority views" in connection with the new European Recovery Program. Nine of the eleven GOP committee members signed it. The two others said they were in "general agreement."

The Republicans backed the $5,380,000,000 European aid bill approved by the committee, but censured the Administration for failing to bring out a "single-package" foreign aid bill covering China also.

"Piecemeal, Stopgap"

They said the Administration "is once more presenting its program in piecemeal, stopgap fashion."

"We do not know," they said, "whether the resulting confusion, which helps to conceal inconsistencies, is deliberately planned or is the result of confusion within the Administration itself."

The Republicans said the one-package approach adopted last year when the G.O.P. was in control of Congress was better. Aid to China was included then.

But now, they said, nothing is being done for China.

"We are told," their report said, "that the Government of China has collapsed; we are certain that American policy in China has collapsed. . . . Instead of excuses for failure there must be the will to succeed."

Apparently anticipating criticism that they were departing from bipartisanship in foreign policy, the report said that in the field of foreign affairs "it is more important . . . for our country's policy to be right than bipartisan."

The Republicans claimed pressure to make the bipartisan policy a mere "me-too" policy for the GOP on anything the Administration proposes. And they said the Administration had tried to take sole credit for achievements in which their party deserved at least equal credit.

Differences Noted

The founding of the United Nations, the European recovery plan and the policy in the Western Hemisphere are bipartisan policies, they said. But:

"The secret negotiations at Tehran, Yalta and Potsdam, and the disastrous results, are not part of the bipartisan foreign policy. Our party was not consulted; the responsibility is solely on the Administration. We will join, however, in the task of solving the resulting problems which our country faces, even though we had no part in creating them.

"The utter bankruptcy, economic, military and moral of our Government's policy in China is not part of the bipartisan foreign policy. We will join in building a worthy and workable Chinese policy."

As soon as the Senate acts on its $5,580,000,000 European Recovery bill, the House expects to take up the measure approved by its Foreign Affairs Committee. The House bill is $200,000,000 smaller.

Bipartisan Bloc Set To Fight Cut In ECA Funds

Washington, March 30 (AP)—Senate foreign-policy leaders of both parties stood pat today against a move by Senators Taft (R., Ohio) and Russell (D., Ga.) to whack about ten per cent off the $5,580,000,000 European Recovery Program.

But Senator George (D., Ga.) threw his weight behind the Taft-Russell proposal with the assertion that unless some cut is made this country may face "a serious financial deficit."

Close Vote Expected

Senator Connally (D., Texas), who heads the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, predicted defeat for the Taft-Russell proposal. But the Texan admitted the vote might be close.

Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) is backing the full authorization.

Vandenberg has taken the stand that the Economic Co-operation Administration should be free to defend later the amount it says it needs. If the authorization in the pending bill is cut, ECA would have to stay under that ceiling in its bid for actual funds.

Aid Seen "Rearming Russ"

Meanwhile, Senator Malone (R., Nev.) charged that Marshall-plan countries helped by the United States are actually using that aid to "rearm Russia for the third world war." He said those nations "are shipping everything from locomotives to jet engines to Russia and Russian satellite countries."

Malone proposed an amendment to restrict ECA aid to private business loans in Marshall-plan countries repayable in ten years. He said the loans would be granted on the same basis as Reconstruction Finance Corporation loans are given to firms in this country.

If the Taft-Russell amendment were adopted, the overall total of the bill would be $5,037,000,000.

56 NATIONS WORK ON WHEAT TREATY IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, March 30—(AP) Since late January wheat experts from 56 nations have been attempting to write an agreement whereby (1) there won't be a big break in wheat prices for at least four years and (2) the nations which must buy wheat will get enough to put bread on their dinner tables.

The talks, held here in Washington, have divided the nations into two groups—those that buy wheat and those that raise enough to feed their own people with enough left over to sell to other nations.

Canada has the most wheat to sell. The United States is second. Britain is the top wheat-buying nation.

Try to Change Jungle Law

In times past the nations that buy wheat sought to drive prices down. The nations that sold wheat tried to jack them up. In depressions the buyers could rim the sellers, in droughts, or in booms, the sellers could rim the buyers. Now the 56 nations are attempting to change that law of the jungle, and here's why.

Both the buying and the selling nations want to avoid the tremendous dips and peaks in wheat prices. We suffer, as we did in the 1930s, when our wheat farmers can't get a decent price for their export wheat. British people, and all the wheat-buying peoples, suffer when prices are so high that they don't get enough bread.

So U. S. wheat experts are willing to bargain away American chances to hold up buyers of wheat in return for a promise that the buyers will take a certain amount of our wheat at a stable price over a given period of time.

The Washington conference has narrowed down its talks to this:

The nations which buy wheat (that's most of them) promise to buy 456,263,389 bushels for each of the next four years. The five exporting nations have agreed to share their sales in the following manner:

Canada will sell 203,069,635, the United States 168,069,635, Australia 80,000,000, France 3,306,934 and Uruguay 1,837,185.

The 56 nations' representatives think the top price for wheat moving between nations should be $1.80 a bushel and the bottom price $1.50 for the first year, 1949-50. Thereafter they think the bottom price could drop ten cents each year to $1.20 the fourth year.

Need Subsidy on Exports

For the United States—if the Senate approves the treaty—it means we will have to vote a subsidy on export wheat to cover the difference between our domestic price, about $2.20 a bushel now, and the $1.80 top price at which our wheat would move abroad. The difference would be paid by the government to wheat farmers selling abroad at the wheat agreement price. The subsidy could run to $100,000,000 the first year if our domestic prices stay up.

What if the buying nations don't have the dollars to buy our wheat some year? What if we are hit by a drought so we don't feel able to export our share of the 450,000,000 bushels? In either case the afflicted nation can tell its problem to the World Wheat Council. The Council can modify the agreement. Presumably the council would work out a fairer deal than single nations could produce.

Russia has been a cockle-burr at this meeting. Since the war ended it has refused to join in world wheat planning. It showed up at this meeting with the offer to export 100,000,000 bushels, a lion's share of the wheat moving in world trade. It shaved that to 75,000,000 bushels. Told that it could be allocated 50,000,000 bushels, its delegate refused to take any further part. However, Russia's move was an interesting indication to Washington economists that Russia still wants to get into world markets.

What is the Senate likely to do about the wheat treaty? It turned it down in last year's Republican-run Senate. U. S. trade experts think the Senate approach has changed now and that the treaty will be approved.

Pact Obligation For U.S. Cited By Wiley

Washington, March 30 (AP)—Senator Wiley (R., Wis.) said today the proposed Atlantic Defense Pact will create a "moral obligation" to resist aggression "if there is no peaceful way out."

Wiley, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, spoke in support of the treaty scheduled to be signed April 4.

The agreement will bind the United States, Canada and eight—perhaps ten—western European nations into a defensive alliance.

"When the United Nations has become a real force," Wiley told the Senate, "then the pact can be dissolved."

"Big Brother" Role

But until that time, he added, this country must be the "big brother" to other democratic nations.

Wiley said the treaty will create an obligation for Congress to weigh any aggression. Then a determination must be made whether there is a peaceful way out—or whether there must be war.

"I believe if there is no peaceful way out that Congress will declare war," he said.

Questioned By Donnell

Senator Donnell (R., Mo.) asked Wiley if the President, with approval of two thirds of the Senate, could create a legal obligation on the House of Representatives which would have to vote on a declaration of war.

PROPOSALS RANGE FROM 10 PCT. TO $2 BILLION CUT

Some Democratic Support of Taft, Wherry Proposals Is Evident

MAY VOTE TODAY

Republicans Also Charge Administration Has Foresaken China

WASHINGTON, March 30—(AP) A powerful Republican drive to cut down on multi-billion-dollar American aid to Europe developed in the Senate today. Some Democratic support was also apparent.

Led by Senators Taft (R-Ohio) and Wherry (R-Neb), the GOP economy moves ranged from 10 per cent to nearly $2,000,000,000 cash reduction proposals.

Administration leaders are fighting for the full $5,580,000,000 requested by the Economic Cooperation Administration, the Marshall Plan agency, for the next 15 months.

Asks 10 Per cent Cut

Taft asked a 10 per cent slash. He was backed by Senator Russell (D-Ga).

Then Wherry, GOP floor leader, proposed that the ECA bill be cut to $3,638,000,000 with the money to be spread over a 12-month period instead of 15 months.

ECA had asked $1,150,000,000 for the next three months, $4,280,000,000 for the following 12 months, and $150,000,000 in long-term contract authority.

Wherry's amendment would wipe out both the $1,150,000,000 for the next three months and the $150,000,000 contract authorization — a total of $1,300,000,000. It would also trim $642,000,000 or 15 per cent off the funds asked for the fiscal year 1950 beginning July 1.

Wherry told the Senate that the Marshall Plan nations are "now up to pre-war levels industrially" and "in some things above pre-war production," and he said:

30.24- 2121

"In view of the uncertainties of our own domestic situation, as well as the general world situation, it would be wiser for Congress to take another look at ECA a year from now instead of 15 months from now.

"Nobody can predict with certainity what the economic situation in the United States will be a year from now."

Wherry contended that the "pipelines to Europe" are full, while ECA still has $2,500,000,000 worth of goods not yet shipped abroad.

Says Supplies On Hand

He said this $2,500,000,000 in goods plus the $3,638,000,000 he proposes for the coming year will actually give Europe a total of $6,138,000,000 in aid.

"Judging by the election returns from western Europe," Wherry added "it seems to me the threat of communism is definitely diminishing."

Taft told the Senate there should be a steady reduction in American aid to Europe as the Marshall plan countries rebuild toward pre-war levels.

Urging a 10 per cent cut, Taft declared that unless federal spending is curtailed there is bound to be a tax increase by July 1. And he said a tax boost would be "a threat to the prosperity of the United States."

The GOP leader told his colleagues there is "no sacredness" about the amount requested by the administration to carry on the Marshall plan. He said the program could be cut by 10 per cent "without damaging it."

Majority Leader Lucas (D-Ill) told newsmen he planned to keep the Senate in session until about 6 p.m., E.S.T., tonight, but saw no prospect for a vote on Taft's amendment before tomorrow.

Lucas said he still hoped to get the full $5,580,000,000, but conceded there was strong support behind Taft and the co-sponsor of the cut, Senator Russell (D-Ga).

The administration also ran into trouble with its foreign-aid policies in the House.

In a strongly-worded report, nine Republican members of the House Foreign Affairs committee said President Truman's China policy has "collapsed," and declared:

"Instead of excuses for failure, there must be the will to succeed.

"The utter bankruptcy, economic, military and moral, of our government's policy in China is not part of the (congressional) bi-partisan foreign policy. We will join in building a worthy and workable Chinese policy."

The two other Republican members of the House committee said they were in "general agreement" with the stinging report signed by their nine colleagues.

Democratic members of the House committee issued their own report several days ago, fully endorsing the administration's policies. Today's minority report was separate.

Cites 'Pressure'

The GOP report said pressure has been applied to make the bi-partisan conduct of this country's foreign affairs a mere "me too" policy for Republicans on anything proposed by the administration.

War I Pensions' Initial Cost Put At 18 Million

Washington, March 30 (AP)—The House Veterans Committee got a rough estimate today that 46 per cent of World War I veterans could qualify for pensions under the new Rankin bill.

On that basis, the cost of the proposal to give $72 a month pensions to lower-income 1917-18 veterans at age 65 was estimated at $18,852,000 for 1950, rising to a peak of $433,345,000 in 1965.

May Insert War II

Representative Rankin (D., Miss.) introduced the new "limited pensions" measure after the House sidetracked last week his plan for $90 pensions, at age 65, to all veterans of both World Wars.

His new bill proposes pensions only for World War I veterans who, on reaching age 65, have less than $2,000 annual income if unmarried, or less than $3,000 if married, or with dependents.

The House committee, now holding hearings on it, has been digging into the question of prospective cost. There have also been rumblings of possible moves to add pensions for Word War II veterans to the bill.

Based On Budget Bureau Data

The Veterans Administration supplied the estimate that possibly 46 per cent of World War I veterans would eventually claim pensions under the bill as it stands. But it emphasized that the Veterans Administraiton was not ready to take responsibility for that figure. It said the figure is based on a Budget Bureau estimate of incomes of veterans.

Representative Nolan (D., Ind.) asked that the Veterans Administration try to work up new figures on what would be the cost if World War II veterans were included.

Some committeemen indicated they still were pretty much in doubt as to what the cost of the bill, as it now stands, would be.

Gray Offers Some Figures

VA Administrator Carl R. Gray submitted an estimate, but it did not take into consideration the income limitation provision of the bill. He said that was too intangible for an accurate figure.

Gray estimated that 69,700 World War I veterans would be 65 in 1950. If they all got the pension, he said, the cost would be $44,324,000.

Peak eligibility and cost would be reached in 1965, he figured, when 1,915,653 ex-service men would reach pension age. His estimate on the cost for that year was $1,109,134,000.

The cost, he said, would drop off to $181,555,000 by 1980 to $12,291,000 in 1990, and to $1,357,000 in 1995, when World War I ranks had been reduced to 2,567.

Spies In War Plants, U.S. Offices Hit By Bill

Washington, March 30 (AP)—A bill aimed at crushing Communist infiltration and spying in the Government and defense industries was introduced today by Representative Wood (D., Ga.), chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee.

It is uncertain when the committee will begin hearings on this newest anti-Red legislation.

Wood's bill would make it illegal for Federal employés or anyone working on defense contracts to be members of the Communist party or any organization listed as subversive by the Attorney General.

Further, it would cover persons "affiliated" with the party or such organizations, or contributing funds or services to them.

The punishment for violators would be up to $3,000 fine and three years in prison.

The Mundt-Nixon bill, which passed the House last year and died in the Senate, was intended to chase Communists out of the Government, but it did not cover defense contracts.

Representative Walter (D., Pa.) has introduced a measure that would make it possible to take away the citizenship of members of the Communist party. He also is a member of the Un-American Activities Committee.

UNRRA Finishes Its Relief Task

Washington, March 30 (AP)—UNRRA voted itself into history today after winding up a postwar international relief effort which cost just short of $4,000,000,000.

The governing central committee of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration formally resolved at a final meeting that its five and one-half year task is completed. Remaining funds have been turned over to successor organizations.

A report showed that supplies, cash and services amounting to $3,968,392,725 were distributed. The figure included administrative expenses.

The United States contribution of $2,668,269,449 was double the total of the 51 other countries which had a share in the enterprise. Russia and Soviet-bloc countries were among the principal beneficiaries.

ADM. RAMSEY TO RETIRE AS PACIFIC COMMANDER

WASHINGTON, March 30 (AP)—Admiral DeWitt Clinton Ramsey, commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet and a pioneer in naval aviation, will retire May 1.

President Truman approved Ramsey's plans for retirement today. The admiral will be 61 next October, one year short of the legal retirement age of 62.

Top officers said a replacement has not yet been chosen for Ramsey, who also is U. S. high commissioner of the trust territories in Pacific Islands. The shift in commands may set off a series of top flight changes in the Navy department.

Among those mentioned as possibilities to succeed Ramsey are Vice Admiral Arthur W. Radford, now vice chief of naval operations; and Admiral Richard L. Conolly, commander-in-chief of U. S. Naval forces in the eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean since Sept. 1946. The final selection is up to the president.

VINSON PROPOSES HUGE INCREASE IN MILITARY BUDGET

WASHINGTON, March 30 (AP)—An influential congressman recommended today that Congress vote the armed forces $1,599,600,000 more than President Truman asked in his military budget for next year.

In proposing the increase, Chairman Vinson (D-Ga) of the House Armed Services committee observed:

"It seems to me that we are already turning to our historic practice of failing to maintain even an adequate force in time of peace.

Needs Tanks, Planes

He said the U. S. needs more and better tanks, more anti-aircraft guns, and hundreds of millions of dollars worth of new planes.

In a statement which he submitted to the House Appropriations committee, Vinson said Congress couldn't afford to "blithely ignore" the views of the joint chiefs of staff.

The joint chiefs, he recalled, recommended a "rock bottom" minimum of $17,439,000,000 for military purposes in the fiscal year which begins next July 1. Under Budget Bureau orders, they trimmed this to $15,022,000,000. President Truman's official budget figure was $14,765,000,000.

Vinson declared there is "nothing holy or untouchable" about the president's budget figures.

Congress has shown no disposition to grant the $800,000,000 Mr. Truman asked to establish universal military training, although there has been talk of lumping that sum into the fund to build up the Air Force toward 70 combat groups. There are indications that the $830,000,000 that the president asked for military housing and pay raises may be trimmed a bit.

Opposes Taft

However, if Vinson's recommendation were adopted, military spending next year probably would run in the neighborhood of $16,000,000,000 or more.

Vinson's stand is in contrast with that of Senator Taft, (R-Ohio) who has suggested that $1,000,000,000 could be cut off the Truman military budget.

Vinson was especially critical of a presidential cut in the number of new "sky-sweeper" anti-aircraft guns, which he called superior to any known weapon of their type. The chiefs of staff asked for $161,000,000 to buy 673 of them. The president cut this down to $77,000,000 for 323 of the weapons.

CONGRESS URGED TO EXPAND U. S. 'VOICE' PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, March 30—(AP) Congress was urged today by an official advisory group to expand "Voice of America" and other American overseas information agencies.

A five-member United States Advisory Commission on Information said in its first report that the State department's official radio and Allied operations are "effective but inadequate". It called the budget's allotment of $36,000,000 for the next year a "bare minimum."

Comparing this with the $15,000,000,000 projected for military purposes and $5,580,000,000 for foreign economic aid, the commission said the provision for information and educational services "does not provide an effective tool for cleaning out the Augean stables of international confusion and misunderstanding."

Reds Spend More

Russia meanwhile is spending "enormous sums" on propaganda, and other governments are spending proportionately more than is the United States in telling its story abroad, the commission said.

President Truman named the group last year to report on the present information program. Members include Mark Ethridge, Louisville Courier-Journal publisher, chairman; Erwin D. Canham, Christian Science Monitor editor; Philip D. Reed, chairman of the General Electric company; Mark A. May, Yale University; and Justin Miller, president of the National Association of Broadcasters.

The commission submitted a series of conclusions based on a survey in ten European countries made early this year by May, who is director of Yale university Institute of Human Relations.

"Behind the Iron Curtain the voice of America is getting through to the people who have access to radio sets and to many more through word of mouth," the commission reported on the basis of May's findings.

It said that in Poland and Czechoslovakia probably one-tenth of the population is reached. In Russia, the voice and the magazine "Amerika" "are diminishing the effectiveness of Soviet internal propaganda," the commission said.

Specific conclusions included:

State Department Job

1. The United States should take advantage of "every opportunity for expansion" of its information enterprise.

2. The most important immediate step at home is to tighten relations within the State department between policy making officials and those dealing with the information program.

3. The voice should have more and better mechanical facilities, a greater number of broadcasts, more attractive programs and more representatives abroad to deal with national networks.

4. Motion pictures, displays and exhibits are effective and should be increased, along with wider circulation for the official wireless news bulletin sent out to diplomatic establishments abroad.

5. There should be a larger number of regional offices and branch libraries in foreign cities other than capitals.

The commission criticized the action of Congress in earmarking $10,000,000 of foreign aid funds to increase the circulation of American magazines and newspapers abroad. It said this should be the State department's responsibility and such activity should not be limited to countries receiving aid under the European recovery act.

CHURCHILL DENIES HE FOUGHT U.S.

MAR 31 1949 9

Blasts Charge He Sided with Spain in Spanish-American War

WASHINGTON, March 30—(AP) Winston Churchill emphatically denied today a statement that he fought against the United States during the Spanish-American war.

The statement was made Monday by Senator Langer (R-N.D) during Senate debate on the foreign aid bill.

The former British prime minister, in a telegram to Senator Connally (D-Tex), declared the charge was "utterly devoid of truth."

Goes In Record

Connally placed Churchill's reply in the Congressional Record.

During Monday's debate Langer interrupted a speech by Senator Jenner (R-Ind). He asked whether Jenner knew that during the Spanish American war "the same Winston Churchill who brags that he is half American took up arms for Spain and fought against the United States and did all he could to defeat us?"

Jenner replied that he did not blame Churchill, that "he was representing his country," and "was doing what he thought best for his country."

Churchill, who is now visiting in New York, said in his telegram:

"The statement made by Mr. Langer is entirely devoid of the truth. I visited Cuba and was with the Spanish army as an observer during the months of November and December, 1895.

"There was then no question of the United States being involved in a war with Spain. This war did not in fact begin until February 1898, or more than two years after I had left Cuba.

"I should be grateful if you felt able to contradict this false charge by stating the facts to the senate so that the truth appears in your record."

Connally, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, told the Senate he had notified Langer ahead of time that there would be something of interest to him coming up in the Senate today.

Langer leaped to his feet immediately after Connally finished. He started to speak but was reminded that Senator Malone (R-Nev) had the floor.

"I don't care who has the floor," shouted Langer, his face flushed, "I am going to reply."

Malone apparently was willing to let Langer have his way, but he already had let Senator Williams (R-Del) interrupt to make a statement on another matter. Williams was nearly through and wanted to finish.

But Langer, impatient, suddenly shouted that "I am not going to beg anybody for a chance to reply."

With that he turned on his heel and stomped angrily up the Senate isle, flinging over his shoulder "I'll reply tomorrow."

He sat down at a desk in the rear of the chamber, banging a book on the desk. While Williams finished his statement, Langer stalked out of the Senate chamber.

Many Wondering What He'll Say In M.I.T. Address

Winston Churchill's address at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology tonight will be televised over WMAR-TV at 9 o'clock through the combined facilities of all the television networks.

Boston, March 30 (AP)—Winston Churchill is the main speaker tomorrow night at the program the Massachusetts Institute of Technology has arranged to mark the inauguration of a new president.

Boston Garden—a top New England sports arena—has been reserved for the Churchill audience. There are seats for 13,900.

Fulton Speech Recalled

Many in his immediate audience—and elsewhere, for radio and television will carry the words and scene—will be remembering his last world-important American address. It, too, had a college setting. That was three years ago, in Fulton, Missouri.

Before a Westminster College gathering, on the same platform with President Truman, Churchill let fly with his "iron curtain" broadside against Russia; his plea for an Anglo-American alliance.

No authoritative advance word has defined Churchill's topic for tomorrow. M.I.T. has assigned him a discussion of what the Twentieth Century has accomplished and what it needs to do. That's broad enough for anyone.

There have been reams of speculation but he's kept it to himself except to tell New York ship reporters last week:

"I have a speech of some importance here."

And when queried for details:

"You won't, I'm sure, expect me to give any answers about general affairs. I would rather give them in their ordered sequence and in the setting I want."

Truman Canceled Engagement

Presumably that's Boston Garden tomorrow night.

President Truman won't be with him this time. The President was invited to speak to the M.I.T. audience Friday night. He accepted, then later canceled the engagement because of the press of official business.

Instead, Harold E. Stassen, president of the University of Pennsylvania, will be the Friday night orator. His topic will be "What Society Can Expect from Science and Its Workings." Churchill will be there.

On Friday night the British visitor will become its "honorary lecturer," first such grant in M.I.T. history. He will respond briefly.

Due On Overnite Train

Churchill's party is due in Boston early tomorrow on an overnight train from New York.

Edward W. Fallon, superintendent of Boston police, said 50 uniformed officers and 100 plainclothesmen will guard Churchill on the two-mile trip from the railroad station to his hotel.

During his speech at Boston Garden, 75 uniformed members of the Boston force and 200 plainclothesmen will supplement a detachment of Secret Service men and representatives of Scotland Yard.

After the speech tomorrow night, a reception is to be given at another hotel.

Friday at midnight, Churchill, his wife, their daughter, Mary, and her husband, Capt. Christopher Soames, will leave Boston to catch the Queen Elizabeth for the return trip home. It sails from New York Saturday.

Bevin, Gromyko Arrive On The Queen Mary

MAR 9

New York, March 30 (AP)—A group of voluble Western European Foreign Ministers arrived today aboard the big liner Queen Mary to sign the North Atlantic Pact. A fellow traveler was Russian Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, still saying "no."

Eggs and tomatoes were hurled from a crowd of 500 pickets at a car bearing British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin from the pier to Pennsylvania Station, where he boarded a train for Washington. He was one of four foreign officials who will sign the pact there next week.

Three pickets were arrested in a push-and-pull scene with police. The pickets marched in noisy protest of Britain's policy toward Israel.

Gromyko, who arrived to attend the United Nations Assembly, had "no prediction" on what would transpire there. He answered, "No comment," to reporters' other questions.

Others Who Arrived

Other Foreign Office chiefs besides Bevin who arrived were Belgian Premier and Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak, Dutch Foreign Minister D. U. Stikker and Luxembourg Foreign Minister Joseph Bech.

The pickets, representing the Joint Committee to Combat Anti-Semitism, protested Bevin's alleged "anti-Semitic statements" and "hostile policy to Israel." They carried placards and stomped and shouted.

At a news conference aboard the liner after she had docked Bevin declared the alliance was a pact of solidarity which "should prevent war for many generations to come."

Seen Backing U.N.

He said the pact did not in any way undermine the United Nations, adding:

"I hope we can build collective security through the United Nations—and that will come."

Under security phases of the alliance, he said, "If we were attacked, we could move very quickly."

Asked if he believed there would be a sudden attack, Bevin replied:

"No, we are not expecting any sudden attack."

Can't "Sit Back"

He said, however, that it would be insufficient "just to sit back" and expect everything to turn out all right.

The pact, he said, "needs implementation."

The remark appeared to be an obvious reference to the western European nations' request for arms from the United States.

Pressed harder by reporters on his views of any attack on western Europe, Bevin said:

"No, we're not expecting an ultimate attack. But we can't tell what lies in the future."

Didn't Shake Ship

Asked if he had talked to Gromyko during the ship's calm Atlantic crossing, Bevin brought laughter with this reply:

"I never disturb the ship and cause any danger."

The shouting pickets across the street from the pier did not disturb him.

"I used to picket myself," he said.

Enthusiastic indorsement of the pact was voiced earlier by the Foreign Ministers Spaak, Stikker and Bech.

"Strengthens U.N."

Spaak said he found the pact "entirely within the framework of the United Nations" and said that it "strengthens the United Nations."

"I'm convinced," he declared, "that since the end of the war and the organization of the United Nations, the Atlantic pact is the world's most important step toward collective security."

When a reporter asked if he believed Russia would agree that the pact strengthens the United Nations, he laughed and replied:

"Ask Gromyko. He's an authority on that."

Promotes Security

Stikker predicted the nations involved in the pact would have no difficulty in agreeing on all its phases.

It "certainly is going to promote peace and security in western Europe," he added.

Bech said the pact "has the overwhelming indorsement of the people of Luxembourg. I think our people are very much impressed with the vital importance of this pact."

The taciturn Gromyko, asked if he believed the condition of the United Nations good or bad, replied: "It's about the same."

"A Smooth Trip"

When told Bevin would hold a news conference and one was wanted with him, too, Gromyko said: "My opposite number and I had a smooth trip."

Later he sent word out to reporters from his cabin that there was nothing he wanted to say now.

White Russian Aboard

Members of United Nations delegations from several countries also were aboard the ship. Among them was Kuzma A. Kiselev, Foreign Minister of the White Russian Republic.

He will head White Russia's United Nations delegation at the General Assembly opening here April 4.

Also aboard was Mrs. Jakob A. Malik, wife of the Soviet Union's chief delegate to the United Nations. She came to join her husband.

500 Pickets at Pier Protest British Minister's Stand on Palestine

GOES TO WASHINGTON

Will Join Acheson, 10 Other Foreign Officials in Signing Pact Monday

WASHINGTON, March 30—(AP) British Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin, having run an egg-and-tomato barrage in New York, arrived in Washington today to join Secretary of State Acheson and 10 other foreign ministers in signing the North Atlantic Treaty here next Monday.

The pact, he told reporters at Union station, "will mean the creation of real solidarity of the west" and will provide the basis for "peace for a very long time."

Portugal To Join

Signing of the treaty by all 12 of the nations considered qualified for membership was assured only this morning when Iceland's parliament approved that country's membership, and the foreign office at Lisbon announced definitely that Portugal would join.

Bevin came to the capital immediately after reaching New York aboard the great liner Queen Mary. More than 500 pickets marched near the pier the big ship was tied up alongside. They noisily protested Bevin's Palestine policies and when finally he left the pier for Pennsylvania station eggs and tomatoes were hurled from the crowd at his car.

Police here took careful precautions against a repetition of any such incidents. More than a score were on hand when his train pulled in and they roped off an area around his special railway car.

While it is the Atlantic Treaty signing which is bringing the bulky Briton and 10 foreign office chiefs to Washington this week, Acheson made clear at a State department news conference today that the scope of the work which will be done in an extraordinary series of conferences during the next 10 days is far broader than that.

Conferences Planned

He told reporters he would talk with the visiting officials about any subject they want to bring up and listed two tough sets of problems sure to arise. These are:

1. Tighter coordination of the policies of the western powers toward western Germany, and especially the formation of a western German government. In general the United States and Britain favor giving the German people greater responsibilities for their own affairs and greater opportunity for development of peaceful industry than do the French.

2. Disposition of Italy's colonies. The essential issue here is whether Italy should be permitted to administer some or all the colonies under a United Nations trusteeship arrangement, and if not, who should.

Acheson also reported steady progress on development of a program of American arms aid to the Atlantic Pact and other non-Communist countries. He named Lloyd V. Berkner as a special assistant to manage the proposed aid, if and when Congress approves the program—estimated to cost about $2,000,000,000 the first year. Berkner, now connected with the Carnegie Institution, was formerly executive secretary of the joint research and development board, a government agency which promotes scientific developments in the military field.

Sees Bevin Today

Acheson said he would see Bevin tomorrow (2:30 p. m., E. S. T.) and also expects to meet during the day with the Netherlands Foreign Minister D. U. Stikker. Other conferences with the representatives of the other powers will follow in short order.

The keynote of "peace" through the treaty, which Bevin sounded both here and in New York, also dominated the comments of other foreign ministers who arrived with him aboard the Queen Mary. It remained only for Andrei Gromyko, Russian deputy foreign minister who arrived on the same ship, to complete the usual pattern of international affairs in this divided world.

While Bevin, Stikker, Belgian Foreign Minister Paul Henri Spaak, and Foreign Minister Joseph Bech of Luxembourg all talked freely, Gromyko turned away all questioners with his famous "No." He had "No prediction" on what would happen at the United Nations meeting opening in New York Tuesday—the day after the pact is signed here—and "No comment" on anything else.

Spaak said he found the Atlantic Treaty "entirely within the framework of the United Nations" and declared that it "strengthens the UN."

A reporter questioned whether Russia would agree with that idea and Spaak laughingly replied: "Ask Gromyko. He's an authority on that."

Bevin also kidded about Gromyko's presence on the ship when he was asked whether he had talked with the Soviet deputy foreign minister. "I never disturb the ship and cause any danger," he said.

Stikker said the Atlantic Treaty "certainly is going to promote peace and security in western Europe" and Bech declared that the people of Luxembourg "are very much impressed with the vital importance of this pact."

Others Due Today

Spaak, Bech, Stikker and Italian Foreign Minister Carlo Sforza are due here by train from New York tomorrow. Also due within the next two days to complete the lineup of the pact signers are the foreign ministers of France, Canada, Norway, Iceland and Portugal.

The schedules for these men will be packed with activity, for in addition to the rounds of conferences they expect to hold with Acheson and with each other, they will be involved in numerous parties and receptions.

On Saturday they will meet in a closed door session to discuss the pending alliance—which has to be signed and ratified before it becomes effective—on Monday they will do the signing and on Tuesday most, if not all, will go to New York for the opening session of the United Nations.

Acheson, Foreign Minister Robert Schuman of France and Bevin are expected to buckle down to serious work on German issues after that and their talks may require most of the remainder of next week.

At the signing ceremony Monday afternoon in the government's inter-departmental auditorium here, President Truman will make the chief speech and Acheson will sign the pact for the United States. All the other foreign ministers probably will speak for about five minutes each.

'Peace' Rally to Make U. S. Tour Minus 'Iron Curtain' Delegates

MAR 31 1949

NEW YORK, March 30 (AP)—A "world peace" rally will go on the road across the U. S., its sponsors said today, but there will be no Russians in the cast.

Immigration officials gave 18 eastern European delegates "a week at the most" to leave the country.

The 18 came here with representatives of other nations last week for a cultural and scientific conference on "world peace" in New York. The State department now says the visas of the "Iron Curtain" delegates were good for the New York meeting only.

Session Picketed

The sessions at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel were sponsored by the National Council of Arts, Sciences and Professions. It drew several thousand delegates and almost as many pickets.

The State department's "go home" order, the council said, will "convince more and more Americans that the department does not want and will not tolerate a truly free exchange of information between the American people and cultural leaders from the eastern European countries."

"We are reluctantly forced to conclude," the council's statement added, "that the government must evidently be worried about any public forums where our foreign policy comes under scrutiny and discussion.

Must Leave in Week

New York's district immigration director, Edward J. Shaughnessy, said the 18 communist delegates must leave within "a week at the most."

If they do not, he added, "it will be necessary for us to take steps."

In the face of the ultimatum, the council said it would cancel "a number of lectures and concerts" but would carry out a series of "report meetings" with the 18 delegates. A report on the New York conference will be given to groups in other cities.

The tentative schedule for the meetings includes New Haven, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Detroit, St. Louis, Denver and Los Angeles.

At a rally in Newark last night, the 18 delegates were absent. Among them was Dmitri Shostakovich, famed composer and one of seven Russians in the Iron Curtain delegations.

When the State department let those delegates into the U.S. it said that barring them would reflect on the American principle of freedom of speech. But it labelled the peace conference in New York a "sounding board of communist propaganda."

The sponsoring council denied the government's charge.

'Secretive' Role Of U.S. Reds Described

MAR 31 1949

New York, March 30 (AP)—Meetings of United States Communist party leaders became "secretive in character" after the Hitler-Stalin pact was signed in 1939, a Government witness testified today.

Defense attorneys for eleven Communists objected strenuously to this description by the witness, Louis F. Budenz, former Communist official who quit the party in 1945.

But Federal Judge Harold R. Medina let most of the testimony stand.

Escorted To Meetings

The witness said "many times the place of the meeting was not announced in advance. During the 1939-40 period cards were given you just for the meeting and you were conducted by someone to the place of the meeting."

Budenz testified yesterday that American Communists were told after the Hitler-Stalin pact to start civil war in America if this country sought to join Great Britain in fighting the Nazis.

Meanwhile, Anna Louise Strong, whose $1,000 contribution to the Communist leaders on trial was rejected by them yesterday, announced that she would give the money to "some other good civil-liberties causes."

The jury was told yesterday that American Communists are committed to forcible overthrow of the United States Government by the first sentence of their party constitution.

The sentence reads:

"The Communist party of the United States is a political party of the American working class, basing itself upon the principles of scientific socialism, Marxism-Leninism."

Dennis Hits Budenz View

Budenz testified that the specified "principles" mean that the party is "basically committed" to the overthrow of the Government by violence.

This brought a flurry of defense objections.

Eugene Dennis, party general secretary and one of the defendants, declared:

"No traitor, no Judas could interpret the principles of Marxist-Leninism. The witness cannot speak for any Communists and especially not for these defendants. No one would ask Benedict Arnold to interpret the Constitution of the United States."

Judge Medina ruled that Budnez's interpolations were permissible, since he formerly was a high party official.

Budenz testified that parts of the Communist constitution pledging support of the United States Constitution are "merely window dressing" and "null and void in effect."

WITNESS ASSERTS 1941 AUTO STRIKE PLANNED BY REDS

MAR 31 1949

NEW YORK, March 30 — (AP) The Communist conspiracy trial jury was told today that U. S. Communist leaders were responsible for a 1941 strike at the Milwaukee Allis-Chalmers plant and that its purpose was to shut off munitions for Great Britain.

Eugene Dennis, general secretary of the Communist party and a defendant in the trial, urged the strike at a secret meeting of party officials in Milwaukee in the fall of 1940, a government witness testified.

Dennis told the meeting, the witness said, that the party's polit-buro had "decided on the Allis Chalmers strike to halt Roosevelt's war and hunger program."

Local President A Red

Harold Christoffel, then president of the Allis-Chalmers local of the CIO United Automobile Workers told the meeting an occasion could be found for the stoppage, the witness testified. Christoffel was described in the testimony as a Communist.

The witness was Louis F. Budenz, first person to testify in the 11-week-old trial of 11 high U. S. Communist leaders. A former high Communist official, he quit the party in 1945.

Budenz said the strike urged by Dennis actually came off early in 1941 but was halted before Germany invaded Russia June 22 in that year.

The witness pointed out that Dennis' suggestion was made during the term of the Hitler-Stalin pact which was signed in 1939.

As the trial adjourned for the day, a slip of the tongue by Federal Judge Harold R. Medina caused a brief flurry in the court.

He said the indictments charged "conspiracy to overthrow" instead of "to teach and advocate the overthrow" of the U. S. government. Four defense attorneys promptly made motions for a mistrial; they were promptly denied.

Tells of Meeting

Budenz told of attending the secret Milwaukee session in 1940. He gave this account of it:

The meeting took place at the home of Mrs. Meta Berger, whom the witness identified as the widow "of a former Socialist Congressman from Milwaukee."

Among those present were Ned Sparks, "leader of the Communist party in Milwaukee"; Christoffel; Fred Blair and Sigmund Eisenshur, Wisconsin representative for the Midwest Daily Record, a Communist paper.

Dennis took charge of the meeting and spoke of the "urgency" of halting manufacture at the Allis-Chalmers plant. Christoffel said "an occasion could be found for the stoppage in the friction" between the UAW and AFL unions.

Mapped "Civil War"

Dennis also told the Wisconsin leaders to prepare to go underground "to turn the imperialistic war into a civil war" if the United States entered the war on Britain's side.

The official position of the party then was, Dennis told the meeting, that "Roosevelt was following the path of Hitler" and "that entry of the United States into the war on the side of Britain would lead us to fascism."

Another subject discussed by Dennis was the "bolshevization of the American Communist party."

In this discussion, Dennis cited 12 principles of Premier Joseph Stalin of Russia written as guides to Communist parties. He asserted American Communists were the first to denounce the second world war as "a predatory and unjust war between rival imperialist powers" and one which "the working people should not and cannot support."

Dennis is defending himself at the trial. In his opening statement to the jury, he said the Communist party had given loyal support to the American war effort.

The government contends that Communist party attacks on the war occurred before the Nazis invaded Russia.

Christoffel was convicted in Federal court a year ago of lying when he told the House Labor committee he never had been a Communist. The case is being appealed to the Supreme Court.

The Allis-Chalmers union expelled Christoffel last year and installed right-wing officers.

IN A STILL-UNPUBLISHED REPORT, THE SO-CALLED HUMPHREYS COMMITTEE URGED THAT 167 PLANTS IN WEST GERMANY EARMARKED FOR DISMANTLEMENT AND DISTRIBUTION AS WAR REPARATIONS SHOULD NOT BE REMOVED. THE COMMITTEE STRESSED RETENTION OF THESE PLANTS IN GERMANY, WORKED BY GERMAN OPERATORS WITH A HIGHLY-DEVELOPED KNOW-HOW, WOULD GIVE A MUCH NEEDED BOOST TO EUROPEAN RECOVERY. BRITISH AND FRENCH WILLINGNESS TO REPRIEVE ALL BUT A HANDFUL OF PLANTS LISTED IN THE HUMPHREYS REPORT WAS SEEN BY DIPLOMATS AS A MAJOR CONCESSION BY COUNTRIES FAR MORE ALLERGIC THAN THE UNITED STATES TO THE IDEA OF A VIGOROUS, INDUSTRIALLY-STRONG GERMANY. THE BRITISH AND FRENCH ALSO HAD BEEN UNWILLING TO SEE GERMANY RESTORED AS A POSSIBLE COMPETITOR FOR WORLD MARKETS.

london, march 30-(ap)-official informants said today britain may help finance the resettlement of hundreds of thousands of arabs who fled palestine during the recent war.

the united nations estimate the number of arab refugees at 500,000. the british place the total at 800,000.

MAR 31 1949

the sources said britain may call upon the united states and other u.n. members to furnish more direct financial aid to the refugees.

in paris last year the u.n. general assembly voted in favor of an estimate $30,000,000 (m) program to help out the arabs. abstain the united states undertook to contribute about half of this amount.

britain already has made two contributions to arab refugee relief, totalling about $4,400,000.

the informants said britain already has suggested to certain arab states that the refugees be used as a reservoir for land reclamation and other labor projects.

DE GAULLE
BY JOSEPH E. DYNAN

PARIS, MARCH 30-(AP)-GEN. CHARLES DE GAULLE WANTS THE UNITED STATES TO ARM FRANCE AT ONCE AS THE PRINCIPAL DEFENDER OF WESTERN EUROPE UNDER THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT.

ALLIED STRATEGY DESIGNATES THE RHINE AS THE FIRST LINE OF DEFENSE AGAINST ATTACK FROM THE EAST, HE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE YESTERDAY, BUT THAT LINE WILL BE MANNED PRINCIPALLY BY FRENCHMEN, AT LEAST AT THE BEGINNING IF THERE IS A FIGHT.

IT WOULD BE "A GRAVE MISTAKE" TO DESIGNATE BRITAIN AS WEST EUROPE'S CHIEF DEFENDER, THE GENERAL ASSERTED.

FOR ONE THING, HE SAID, ANOTHER CONQUEST OF FRANCE AND BOMBARDMENT AND REINVASION TO LIBERATE HER, WOULD DESTROY THE COUNTRY BOTH MORALLY AND PHYSICALLY.

HE DEMANDED THAT THE UNITED STATES PROMPTLY MAKE DEFINITE STRATEGIC COMMITMENTS IN THE EVENT OF ATTACK ON WEST EUROPE, AND STICK TO A SCHEDULE OF ARMS SHIPMENTS TO THE FRENCH.

RATHER CRYPTICALLY, AND WITHOUT FURTHER EXPLANATION, DE GAULLE HAILED THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY AS A STRIDE TOWARD A FEDERATION OF EUROPE WHICH MIGHT SEEK COOPERATION WITH RUSSIA IN UNIFICATION OF THE CONTINENT, EVEN IF THAT MIGHT MEAN A CHANGE IN THE RUSSIAN REGIME. HE DID NOT EXPLAIN HOW HE THOUGHT SUCH A CHANGE MIGHT COME ABOUT.

THE GENERAL GOT IN A DIG AT FRANCE'S MIDDLE-ROAD COALITION GOVERNMENT, SUGGESTING IT MIGHT BE "QUITE NATURAL" FOR THE UNITED STATES TO HESITATE TO REARM HIS COUNTRY UNDER A REGIME "INCAPABLE OF INSPIRING OR DIRECTING A DEFENSE WORTHY OF THE NAME."

DE GAULLE, WHO LED THE FREE FRENCH MOVEMENT DURING MOST OF WORLD WAR II, HEADS THE RIGHTIST POLITICAL PARTY, RALLY OF THE FRENCH PEOPLE (RPF). THE RPF IN ELECTIONS ON THE LAST TWO SUNDAYS EMERGED AS THE COUNTRY'S STRONGEST SINGLE PARTY, BUT A MINORITY IN COMPARISON WITH THE THREE-PARTY BLOC WHICH MAKES UP Ppremier HENRI QUEUILLE'S GOVERNMENT.

THE GENERAL SPOKE AT A TIME WHEN THE WESTERN POWERS WERE MOVING TO STRENGTHEN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT. THE NORWEGIAN PARLIAMENT BY VOTE OF 130 TO 13 YESTERDAY AUTHORIZED ITS GOVERNMENT TO JOIN THE PACT. ONLY COMMUNISTS AND TWO LABOR REPRESENTATIVES VOTED "NO." NORWAY WILL SIGN IN WASHINGTON APRIL 4.

RIOTING FLARED IN SYRIA LAST DECEMBER, REFLECTING POPULAR RESENTMENT OVER THE GOVERNMENT'S HANDLING OF THE PALESTINE WAR WITH ISRAEL.
THE PEOPLE FELT THEIR LEADERS HAD BUNGLED. THEY EXPECTED SWIFT VICTORY, AND WERE AMAZED WHEN THEY LEARNED OF THE REVERSES ARAB FORCES MET INSTEAD. ANOTHER IRRITANT WAS THE FACT THAT CENSORSHIP HAD SOUGHT TO CONCEAL MANY OF THE REVERSES.
THE FLAREUP RESULTED IN THE RESIGNATION OF PREMIER JAMIL MARDAM BEY AND HIS CABINET. MARDAM BEY LEFT THE COUNTRY.
THE SUCCESSOR CABINET SINCE THEN HAS AGREED TO NEGOTIATE WITH ISRAEL IN EFFORTS TO WORK OUT AN ARMISTICE AGREEMENT. IN EARLY STAGES OF THE WAR, THE ARAB PEOPLES WERE TOLD THEIR GOVERNMENTS NEVER WOULD NEGOTIATE WITH THE NEW JEWISH STATE.
A DISPATCH FROM RHODES YESTERDAY SAID TWO EMISSARIES OF DR. RALPH J. BUNCHE, ACTING UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR, WERE LEAVING FOR DAMASCUS TO LAY GROUNDWORK FOR ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN SYRIA AND ISRAEL, EXPECTED TO START SOON.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 30-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON SAID TODAY THE UNITED STATES VIEWS WITH "GRAVE CONCERN" THE SECRET CONVICTION IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA OF TWO AMERICAN SOLDIERS CHARGED WITH SPYING.

ACHESON SAID THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT "FULLY SUPPORTS" THE ACTION OF AMBASSADOR JOSEPH E.JACOBS, WHO FILED A PROMPT PROTEST YESTERDAY IN PRAGUE AGAINST THE MANNER IN WHICH THE TWO SOLDIERS WERE TRIED AND SENTENCED.

IN A FORMAL STATEMENT, THE SECRETARY SAID THAT BEFORE DETERMINING WHAT FURTHER MEASURES MAY BE TAKEN BY THE UNITED STATES, THE STATE DEPARTMENT WILL WAIT A FORMAL STATEMENT BY THE CZECHOSLOVAK GOVERNMENT AND THE RESULTS OF PROMISED INTERVIEWS WITH THE PRISONERS BY AMERICAN OFFICIALS.

THE COMMUNIST-LED CZECHOSLOVAK GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY THAT RECRUIT CLARENCE R. HILL, 31, HAS BEEN SENTENCED TO 12 YEARS AT HARD LABOR AND RECRUIT GEORGE H.JONES, 22, TO TEN YEARS. THEY HAD BEEN HELD SINCE DEC. 10 WHEN, U.S. OFFICIALS SAID, THEY WANDERED ACROSS THE BORDER FROM THE U.S. ZONE OF GERMANY.

ACHESON SAID THEIR CONVICTION WAS ANNOUNCED SUDDENLY WITHOUT PRIOR NOTIFICATION. THE TWO MEN HE SAID, WERE DENIED CONTACT WITH THE EMBASSY AND WERE CONVICTED "WITHOUT DUE REGARD FOR THE NORMAL RIGHTS AND SAFEGUARDS TO WHICH AN ACCUSED SHOULD BE ENTITLED INSOFAR AS THIS GOVERNMENT IS AWARE."

ACHESON NOTED THAT THE CZECH MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS HAS SAID A NOTE IS BEING SENT TO THE EMBASSY ON THE SUBJECT AND HAS PROMISED ARRANGEMENTS WILL BE MADE FOR AMERICAN OFFICIALS TO INTERVIEW THE TWO MEN NEXT WEEK.

ALTHOUGH HE TERMED THE UN A "VETO-RIDDLED ORGANIZATION," STASSEN SAID IT CONTINUES TO PRESENT "THE BEST HOPES FOR A LASTING AND JUST PEACE IN THIS TROUBLED ONE WORLD."

STASSEN'S SPEECH WAS PREPARED FOR DELIVERY AT THE OPENING OF THE MODEL UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY AT RUTGERS UNIVERSITY BEFORE MORE THAN 1,000 PERSONS.

THE ATLANTIC PACT IS A SYMBOL OF "THE PARTIAL FAILURE OF THE UNITED NATIONS" IN ITS FIRST FOUR YEARS OF ITS OPERATION, STASSEN SAID.

ARTICLE 51 UNDER WHICH THE ATLANTIC PACT IS DRAWN WAS INITIATED AND DEVELOPED BY THE UNITED STATES DELEGATION AT SAN FRANCISCO. STASSEN WAS A MEMBER OF THAT DELEGATION.

THE U.S. GOVERNMENT SHOULD APPOINT A BODY OF ABLE MEN AND WOMEN TO UNDERTAKE A "THOROUGH, CAREFUL CONSIDERATION OF THE MANY DIFFICULT PROBLEMS" THAT ARE INVOLVED IN DEVELOPING AN EFFECTIVE WORLD ORGANIZATION, STASSEN SAID.

SIMILARLY, OTHER GOVERNMENTS, "LIKE-MINDED IN THEIR DETERMINATION TO FIND THE WAY BY WHICH NATIONS CAN LIVE TOGETHER IN PEACE," SHOULD APPOINT SIMILAR GROUPS, HE SAID.

STASSEN DECLARED THAT THE YEARS OF NECESSARY STUDY AND DISCUSSION ALSO WOULD REVEAL TO A GREATER DEGREE "THE LASTING INTENTIONS OF THE SOVIET UNION AND ANSWER THE QUESTION WHETHER THEY, AT THAT FUTURE TIME, WILL JOIN IN STRENGTHENING THE UN OR WHETHER WE MUST SLIDE DOWN THE TRAGIC ROAD TOWARD THE HORRORS OF A THIRD WORLD WAR."

Churchill Declares Atom Bomb Alone Deters Russia From War

APR 1 1949

Men in Kremlin Aiming to Rule World, He Says

Wartime Leader Avers Weapon of U. S. 'Deterrent'

BY JAMES F. KING

BOSTON, (AP) — But for the atomic bomb Europe would have been Communized and London under bombardment, Winston Churchill said last night.

Britain's wartime premier bluntly accused the 13 men in the Kremlin of "aiming at the rule of the world" and charged they "fear the friendship of the west more than its hostility."

He described the "atomic bomb in the hands of the United States" as "the deterrent."

War Not Inevitable

Churchill's widely heard remarks —broadcast thruout the country and overseas—were given in a prepared speech at a mid-century convocation of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, whose scientists helped develop the atom bomb.

His references recalled his Oct 9, 1948, tak at Llandudno, Wales, when he said:

"If it were not for the stocks of atomic bombs now in the trusteeship of the United States, there would be no means of stopping the subjugation of Western Europe by Communist machinations, backed by Russian armies and indorsed by political parties." He was addressing a Conservative party annual conference.

But "war is not inevitable," the 74-year-old British statesman told a distinguished audience of scientists, diplomats and educators in Boston Garden.

CAN RETAIN HOPE

"We need not abandon hope or patience.

"Many favorable processes are on foot. Under the impact of Communism all the free nations are being welded together as they never have been before and never could be, but for the harsh external pressure to which they are being subjected."

Over and again, Churchill said "We have no hostility to the Russian people" and asserted:

"We seek nothing from Russia but good will and fair play."

But, he warned:

"If, however, there is to be a war of nerves, let us make sure our nerves are strong and are fortified by the deepest convictions of our hearts.

MUST PERSEVERE

"If we persevere steadfastly together, and allow no appeasement of tyranny and wrong-doing in any form, it may not be our nerve or the structure of our civilization which will break, and peace may yet be preserved."

While calling these times a "darkling hour," Churchill heralded the Marshall plan, the "new unity in Western Europe" and the Atlantic pact.

He said:

"No one could, however, have brought about these immense changes in the feeling of the United States, Great Britain and Europe but for the astounding policy of the Russian Soviet government."

"We may well ask," said Churchill, "why have they deliberately acted so as to unite the free world against them?"

"It is certainly not because there are not very able men among them. Why have they done it?"

FEAR FRIENDSHIP

And, then Churchill offered what he called his own answer to "this strange conundrum."

"It is because they fear the friendship of the west more than its hostility."

"They cannot afford to allow free and friendly intercourse to grow up between the vast area they control and the civiligation of the west.

"The Russian people mus not see what goes on outside, and the world must not see what goes on inside the Soviet domain."

"Thirteen men in the Kremlin, holding down hundreds of millions of peopl and aiming at the rule of the world, feel that at all costs they must keeu up he barriers.

"Self preservation not for Russia but for themselves, lied at the root and is the explanation of their sinsister and malignant policy."

UN DISTRACTED

Churchill said the United Nations organization has "so far been dent and distracted by the antagonism of Soviet Russia and by the fundamental schism which has opened between Communism and the rest of mankind."

"But," he declared, "we must not despair. We must perseveree and if the gulf continues to widen, we must make sure that the cause of freedom is defended by all the resources of combined forethought and superior science."

"Here," he said, "lies the best hope of averting a third world struggle, and a sure means of coming thru it without being enslaved or destroyed."

Churchill told his audience that included some of the world's greatest scientists:

"Science no doubt could if sufficiently perverted exterminate us all but it is not in the power of material forces in any period which the youngest here tonight need take into practical account, to alter the main elements in human nature or restrict the infinite variety of forms in which the soul and genius of the human race can and will express itself."

ETHICS OUR GUIDE

Britain's elder statesman—a symbol of the tenacity of Britain in world war 2—said "the flame of Christian ethics is still our highest guide."

Churchill said after the first world war "the failure to strangle Bolshevism at its birth and to bring Russia, then prostrate, . . . into the general democratic system lies heavy upon us."

The English speaking world, he said, emerged after world war 2 "bleeding and breathless, but united as we never were before."

"This unity is our present salvation," he added.

Even after all our victories, Churchill said:

"We are now faced by perils, both grave and near, and by problems more than have ever confronted Christian civilization, even in this 20th century of storm and change."

WICKED AS HITLER

Later in his address he asserted: "We are now confronted with something quite as wicked but in some ways more formidable than Hitler, because Hitler had only the Herrenvolk pride and anti-Semitic hatred to exploit. He had no fundamental theme."

"But," said Churchill, "these 13 men in the Kremlin have their hierarchy and a church of Communist adepts, whose missionaries are in every country as a fifth column, awaiting the day when they hope to be the absolute masters of their fellow-countrymen and pay off old scores.

"They have their anti-God religion and their Communist doctrine of the entire subjugation of the individual to the state.

"Behind this stands the largest army in the world, in the hands of a government pursuing imperialist expansion, as no czar or kaiser had ever done."

RECALLS SPEECH

Just three years ago at Fulton, Mo., Churchill continued, he warned of what was to come when he denounced Moscow for clanking an "iron curtain" over Eastern Europe from Stettin in the Baltic to the Adriatic.

"Many people here and in my own country were startled and even shocked by what I said," recalled the British leader. "But events have vindicated and fulfilged in much detail the warnings which I deemed it my duty to give at that time." APP

Churchill Speech Text

APR 1 1949

Boston, March 31 (AP)—Following is the prepared text of Winston Churchill's address delivered tonight at the Mid-Century Convocation of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology:

I am honored by your wish that I should take part in the discussions of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

We have suffered in Great Britain by the lack of colleges of university rank in which engineering and the allied subjects are taught. Industrial production depends on technology and it is because the Americans, like the prewar Germans, have realized this and created institutions for the advanced training of large numbers of high-grade engineers to translate the advantages of pure science into industrial technique, that their output per head and consequent standard of life are so high. It is surprising that England, which was the first country to be industrialized, has nothing of comparable stature.

Balance And Proportion

If tonight I strike other notes than those of material progress, it implies no want of admiration for all the work you have done and are doing. My aim, like yours, is to be guided by balance and proportion.

The outstanding feature of the Twentieth Century has been the enormous expansion in the numbers who are given the opportunity to share in the larger and more varied life which in previous periods was reserved for the few and for the very few. This process must continue, and we trust at an increasing rate.

If we are to bring the broad masses of the people in every land to the table of abundance, it can only be by the tireless improvement of all our means of technical production, and by the diffusion in every form of education of an improved quality to scores of millions of men and women. Even in this darkling hour I have faith that this will go on.

Disquieted By Debate

I rejoice in Tennyson's lines:

"Men, my brothers, men, the workers, ever reaping something new;
That which they have done but earnest of the things that they shall do."

I was, however, a little disquieted that you find it necessary to debate the question, to quote Dr. Burchard's opening address, "whether the problem of world production yielding at least a minimum living to the whole population can be solved, and whether man has so destroyed the resources of his world that he may be doomed to die of starvation."

If, with all the resources of modern science, we find ourselves unable to avert world famine, we shall all be to blame, but a peculiar responsibility would rest upon the scientists. I do not believe they will fail, but if they do, or were not allowed to succeed, the consequences would be very unpleasant because it is certain that mankind would not agree to starve equally, and there might be some very sharp disagreements about how the last crust was to be shared. This would simplify our problem in an unduly primordial manner.

Overawed By Audience

I feel somewhat overawed in addressing this vast scientific and learned audience on the subjects which your panels are discussing.

I have no technical and no university education, and have just had to pick up a few things as I went along. Therefore I speak with a diffidence, which I hope to overcome as I proceed, on these profound scientific, social and philosophic issues, each of which claims a life-long study for itself, and are now to be axamined, as schoolmen would say, not only in their integrity but in their relationship, meaning thereby not only one by one but all together.

I was so glad that in the first instance you asked me to talk about the past rather than to peer into the future because I know more about the past than I do about the future, and I was well content that the President of the United States, whose gift of prophecy was so remarkably vindicated by recent electoral results, should have accepted that task.

Hope High In 1900

We all regret that his heavy state duties prevent him from being here tonight. I shall therefore presently have to do a little of the peering myself.

For us in Britain the Nineteenth Century ended amid the glories of the Victorian era, and we entered upon the dawn of the Twentieth in high hope for our country, our empire and the world. The latter and larger part of the Nineteenth Century had been the period of liberal advance. In 1900 a sense of moving hopefully forward to brighter, broader and easier days was predominant.

Little did we guess that what has been called the Century of the Common Man would witness as its outstanding feature more common men killing each other with greater facilities than any other five centuries together in the history of the world.

Rivalries Would Fade

But we entered this terrible Twentieth Century with confidence. We thought that with improving transportation nations would get to know each other better. We believed that as they got to know each other better they would like each other more, and that national rivalries would fade in a growing international consciousness.

We took it almost for granted that science would confer continual boons and blessings upon us, would give us better meals, better garments and better dwellings for less trouble, and thus steadily shorten the hours of labor and leave more time for play, and culture.

In the name of ordered but unceasing progress, we saluted the age of democracy expressing itself ever more widely through parliaments freely and fairly elected on a broad or universal franchise. We saw no reason why men and women should not shape their own life and careers without being cramped by the growing complexity of the state, which was to be their servant and the protector of their rights.

Consent Of Governed

You had the famous American maxim "Governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed," and we both noticed that the world was divided into peoples that owned the governments and governments that owned the peoples. At least I heard all this around that time and liked some of it very much.

I was a minister in the British Liberal Government, returned with a great majority in 1906. That new Liberal Government arrived in power with much of its message already delivered and most of its aims already achieved.

The days of hereditary aristocratic privilege were ended or numbered. The path was opened for talent in every field of endeavor. Primay education was compulsory, universal and free, or was about to become so.

Social Reform Tasks

New problems arising from former successes awaited the new administration. The independence of the proletariat from thralldom involved at least a minimum standard of life and labor and security for old age, sickness, and the death of the family breadwinner.

It was to these tasks of social reform and insurance that we addressed ourselves. The name of Lloyd George will ever be associated in Great Britain with this new departure. I am proud to have been his lieutenant in this work and also as a Conservative Chancellor of the Exchequer and later as head of the wartime national coalition to have carried these same themes further forward on a magnified scale.

Science presently placed novel and dangerous facilities in the hands of the most powerful countries. Humanity was informed that it could make machines that would fly through the air and vessels which could swim beneath the surface of the seas. The conquest of the air and the perfection of the art of flying fulfilled the dream which for thousands of years had glittered in human imagination. Certainly it was a marvelous and romantic event.

Remains An Optimist

Whether the bestowal of this gift upon an immature civilization composed of competing nations whose nationalism grew with every advance of democracy and who were as yet devoid of international organization was a blessing or a curse has to be proved. On the whole, I remain an optimist. For good or ill air mastery is today the supreme expression of military power, and fleets and armies, however necessary, must accept a subordinate rank. This is a memorable milestone in the march of man.

The submarine, to do it justice, has never made any claim to be a blessing or even a convenience. I well remember when it became an accomplished military fact of peculiar significance to the British Isles and the British Navy, there was a general belief even in the Admiralty where I presided, that no nation would ever be so wicked as to use these under-water vessels to sink merchantmen at sea

Safety Of Crews

How could a submarine, it was asked, provide for the safety of the crews of the merchant ships it sank? Public opinion was shocked when old Admiral Fisher bluntly declared that this would be no bar to their being used by the new and growing German Navy in a most ruthless manner. His prediction was certainly not stultified by what was soon to happen.

Here then we have these two novel and potent weapons placed in the hands of highly nationalized sovereign states in the early part of the Twentieth Century, and both of them dwell with us today for our future edification.

A third unmeasurable sphere opened to us as the years passed, which, for the sake of comprehensive brevity, I will describe as radar. This radar, with its innumerable variants and possibilities, has so far been the handmaiden of the air, but it has also been the enemy of the submarine and in alliance with the air may well prove its exterminator.

Ideas Multiplied

In the first half of the Twentieth Century, fanned by the crimson wings of war, the conquest of the air affected profoundly human affairs. It made the globe seem much bigger to the mind and much smaller to the body. The human biped was able to travel about far more quickly. This greatly reduced the size of his estate, while at the same time creating an even keener sense of its exploitable value.

In the Nineteenth Century Jules Verne wrote "Round the World in Eighty Days." It seemed a prodigy. Now you can get round it in four; but you do not see much of it on the way.

The whole prospect and outlook of mankind grew immeasurably larger, and the multiplication of ideas also proceeded at an incredible rate. This vast expansion was unhappily not accompanied by any noticeable advance in the stature of man, either in his mental faculties, or his moral character.

Man Became Victim

His brain got no better, but it buzzed more. The scale of events around him assumed gigantic proportions while he remained about the same size. By comparison therefore he actually became much smaller.

We no longer had great men directing manageable affairs. The need was to discipline an array of gigantic and turbulent facts. To this task we have certainly so far proved unequal. Science bestowed immense new powers on man and at the same time created conditions which were largely beyond his comprehension and still more beyond his control.

While he nursed the illusion of growing mastery and exulted in his new trappings, he became the sport and presently the victim of tides, and currents, of whirlpools and tornadoes amid which he was far more helpless than he had been for a long time.

Prosperity Meant Power

Hopeful developments in many directions were proceeding in 1914 on both sides of the Atlantic and seemed to point to an age of peace and plenty when suddenly violent events broke in upon them. For more than 40 years there had been no major war in Europe. Indeed, since the Civil War in the United States there had been no great struggle in the West. A spirit of adventure stirred the minds of men and was by no means allayed by the general advance of prosperity and science.

On the contrary, prosperity meant power, and science offered weapons. We read in the Bible "Jeshurun waxed fat and kicked." For several generations Britannia had ruled the waves—for long periods at less cost annually than that of a single modern battleship.

History will say that this great trust was not abused. American testimony about the early period of the Monroe Doctrine is upon record. There was the suppression of the slave trade. During our prolonged period of naval supremacy undeterred by the rise of foreign tariffs, we opened our ports freely to the commerce of the world.

Our colonial and Oriental empire, even our coastal trade, was free to the shipping of all the nations on equal terms. We in no way sought to obstruct the rise of other states or navies. For nearly the whole of the Nineteenth Century the monopoly of sea power in British hands was a trust discharged faithfully in the general interest.

Acute Naval Rivalry

But now in the first decade of the Twentieth Century with new patterns of warships, naval rivalries became acute and fierce. Civilized governments began to think in dreadnoughts. It would in such a setting have been very difficult to prevent the first World War.

There was of course one way—one way then as now—the creation of an international instrument, strong enough to adjust the disputes of nations and enforce its decisions against an aggressor. Much wisdom, eloquence and earnest effort was devoted to this theme in which the United States took the lead, but we only got as far as the World Court at the Hague and improvements in the Geneva Convention.

The impulses toward a trial of strength in Europe were the stronger. Germany, demanding her "place in the sun," was faced by a resolute France with her military honor to regain. England, in accordance with her foreign policy of 300 years, sustained the weaker side. France found an ally in the Russia of the czars and Germany in the crumbling empire of the Hapsburgs.

U.S. Stood Aloof

The United States, for reasons which were natural and traditional, but no longer so valid as in the past, stood aloof and expected to be able to watch as a spectator, the thrilling, fearful drama unfold from across what was then called "the broad Atlantic." These expectations were not borne out by what happened.

High hopes and spacious opportunities awaited the victorious Allies when they assembled at Versailles after four and a half years of hideous mechanical slaughter, illuminated by infinite sacrifice, but not remarkably relieved by strategy or generalship.

War, stripped of every pretention of glamor or romance, had been brought home to the masses of the peoples in forms never before experienced except by the defeated.

To stop another war was the supreme object and duty of the statesmen who met as friends and allies around the peace table. They made great errors.

Needed Larger Groupings

The doctrine of self-determination was not the remedy for Europe, which needed above all things, unity and larger groupings. The idea that the vanquished could pay the expenses of the victors was a destructive and crazy delusion.

The failure to strangle Bolshevism at its birth and to bring Russia, then prostrate, by one means or another, into the general democratic system lies heavy upon us today. Nevertheless, the statesmen at Versailles, largely at the inspiration of President Wilson, an inspiration implemented effectively by British thought, created the League of Nations. This is their defense before history, and had the league been resoultely sustained and used, it would have saved us all.

Disarming Of Reich

This was not to be. Another ordeal even more appalling than the first lay before us. Even when so much else had failed we could have obtained a prolonged peace, lasting all our lives at least, simply by keeping Germany disarmed in accordance with the treaty, and by treating her with justice and magnanimity.

This latter condition was very nearly achieved at Locarno in 1925, but the failure to enforce the disarmament clauses and above all to sustain the League of Nations, both of which purposes could easily have been accomplished, brought upon us the second World War.

Once again the English-speaking world gloriously but narrowly emerged, bleeding and breathless, but united as we never were before. This unity is our present salvation, because after all our victories, we are now faced by perils, both grave and near, and by problems more dire than have ever confronted Christian civilization, even in this Twentieth Century of storm and change.

Same Deliverance Key

There remains, however, a key of deliverance. It is the same key which was searched for by those who labored to set up the World Court at The Hague in the early years of the century. It is the same conception as animated President Wilson and his colleagues at Versailles, namely, the creation of a world instrument capable at least of giving to all its members security against aggression.

The United Nations organization which has been erected under the inspiring leadership of my great wartime friend, President Roosevelt, in place of the former league, has so far been rent and distracted by the antagonism of Soviet Russia and by the fundamental schism which has opened between communism and the rest of mankind.

But we must not despair. We must persevere, and if the gulf continues to widen, we must make sure that the cause of freedom is defended by all the resources of combined forethought and superior science. Here lies the best hope of averting a third world struggle. And a sure means of coming through it without being enslaved or destroyed.

Man A Tough Creature

One of the questions which we are debating here is defined as "the failure of social and political institutions to keep pace with material and technical change." Scientists should never undertake the deep-seated qualities of human nature and how, repressed in one direction, they will certainly break out in another.

The genus homo—if I may display my Latin—is a tough creature who has traveled here by a very long road. His nature has been shaped and his virtues ingrained by many millions of years of struggle, fear and pain, and his spirit has, from the earliest dawn of history, shown itself upon occasion capable of mounting to the sublime, far above material conditions or mortal terrors. He s[illegible]ins as Pope described him [illegible]ago:

"Placed on this isthmus of a middle state
A being darkly wise and rudely great
Created half to rise and half to fall
Great lord of all things, yet a prey to all.
Sole judge of truth in endless error hurled,
The glory, jest and riddle of the world."

In his introductory address, Dr. Burchard, the Dean of Humanities, spoke with awe of "an approaching scientific ability to control men's thoughts with precision."

Spark Destroys Lies

I shall be very content if my task in this world is done before that happens. Laws, just or unjust, may govern men's actions. Tyrannies may restrain or regulate their words. The machinery of propaganda may pack their minds with falsehood and deny them truth for many generations of time.

But the soul of man thus held in trance or frozen in a long night can be awakened by a spark coming from God knows where and in a moment the whole structure of lies and oppression is on trial for its life.

Peoples in bondage should never despair. Science no doubt could, if sufficiently perverted, exterminate us all but it is not in the power of material forces in any period which the youngest here tonight need take into practical account, to alter the main elements in human nature or restrict the infinite variety of forms in which the soul and genius of the human race can and will express itself.

Codes More Precious

How right you are in this great institution of technical study and achievement to keep a dean of humanities and give him so commanding a part to play in your discussions! No technical knowledge can outweigh knowledge of the humanities in the gaining of which philosophy and history walk hand in hand.

Our inheritance of well-founded slowly conceived codes of honor, morals and manners, the passionate convictions which so many hundreds of millions share together of the principles of freedom and justice, are far more precious to us than anything which scientific discoveries could bestow.

Those whose minds are attracted or compelled to rigid and symmetrical systems should remember that logic, like science, must be the servant and not the master of man. Human beings and human societies are not structures that are built or machines that are forged. They are plants that grow and must be tended as such.

Victory Difficult

Life is a test and this world a place or trial. Always the problems or it may be the same problem will be presented to every generation in different forms. The problems of victory may be even more baffling than those of defeat. However much the conditions change, the supreme question is how we live and grow and bloom and die, and how far each life conforms to standards which are not wholly related to space or time.

Here I speak not only to those who enjoy the blessings and consolation of revealed religion but also to those who face the mysteries of human destiny alone.

The flame of Christian ethics is still our highest guide. To guard and cherish it is our first interest, both spiritually and materially. The fulfillment of spiritual duty in our daily life is vital to our survival. Only by bringing it into perfect application can we hope to solve for ourselves the problems of this world and not of this world alone.

Expresses Thanks To U.S.

I cannot speak to you here tonight without expressing to the United States—as I have perhaps some right to do—the thanks of Britain and of Europe for the splendid part America is playing in the world. Many nations have risen to the summit of human affairs, but here is a great example where newwon supremacy has not been used for self-aggrandisement but only for further sacrifice.

Three years ago I spoke at Fulton under the auspices of President Truman. Many people here and in my own country were startled and even shocked by what I said. But events have vindicated and fulfilled in much detail the warnings which I deemed it my duty to give at that time.

Today there is a very different climate of opinion. I am in cordial accord with much that is being done. We have, as dominating facts, the famous Marshall aid, the new unity in western Europe and now the Atlantic pact.

Credit For All

How has this tremendous change in our outlook and policy been accomplished. The responsible ministers in all the countries concerned deserve high credit. There is credit enough for all.

In my own country the Foreign Secretary, Mr. Bevin, who has come here to sign the Atlantic pact, has shown himself indifferent to mere party popularity in dealing with these great national issues. He has shown himself, like many American public men, above mere partisan interest in dealing with these national and world issues.

No one could, however, have brought about these immense changes in the feeling of the United States, Great Britain and Europe but for the astounding policy of the Russian Soviet Government. We may well ask, "why have they deliberately acted so as to unite the free world against them?" It is certainly not because there are not very able men among them. Why have they done it?

APR 1949

Fear Friendship

I offer you my own answer to this strange conundrum. It is because they fear the friendship of the West more than its hostility. They cannot afford to allow free and friendly intercourse to grow up between the vast area they control and the civilization of the West. The Russian people must not see what goes on outside, and the world must not see what goes on inside the Soviet domain.

Thirteen men in the Kremlin, holding down hundreds of millions of people and aiming at the rule of the world, feel that at all costs they must keep up the barriers. Self-preservation, not for Russia but for themselves, lies at the root and is the explanation of their sinister and malignant policy.

In consequence of the Soviet conduct, the relations of Communist Russia with the other great powers of the world are without precedent in history. Measures and countermeasures have been taken on many occasions which in any previous period could only have meant armed conflict. The situation has been well described by distinguished Americans as the "cold war." And the question is asked "are we winning the cold war?"

Must Look To Asia

This cannot be decided by looking at Europe alone. We must also look to Asia. The worst disaster since our victory has been the collapse of China under Communist attack and intrigue. China, in which the United States have always taken a high interest, comprises an immense part of the population of the world. The absorption of China and India into the Kremlin-controlled Communist empire would certainly bring measureless blood shed and misery to eight or nine hundred million people.

On the other hand, the position in Europe has so far been successfully maintained. The prodigious effort of the Berlin airlift has carried us through the winter. Time, though dearly bought, has been gained for peace. The efficiency of the American and British air forces has been proved and improved.

Lesson To Germans

Most of all the spectacle of the British and Americans trying to feed the 2,000,000 Germans in Berlin, while the Soviet Government was trying to starve them, has been an object lesson to the German people far beyond anything that words could convey. I trust that small and needless provocations of German sentiment may be avoided by the Western powers. The revival and union of Europe cannot be achieved without the earnest and freely given aid of the German people.

The airlift has fully justified itself. Nevertheless, fear and its shadows brood over western Europe today. A month ago in Brussels I spoke to a meeting of 30,000 Belgians. I could feel at once their friendship and their anxiety. They have no Atlantic Ocean, no English Channel, between them and the Russian armored divisions. Yet they bravely and ardently support the cause of united Europe. I was also conscious of the hope and faith which they, like the Greek people, place in the United States.

As Wicked As Hitler

We are now confronted with something quite as wicked but in some ways more formidable than Hitler, because Hitler had only the Herrenvolk pride and anti-Semitic hatred to exploit. He had no fundamental theme.

But these thirteen men in the Kremlin have their hierarchy and a church of Communist adepts, whose missionaries are in every country as a fifth column, awaiting the day when they hope to be the absolute masters of their fellow countrymen and pay off old scores. They have their anti-God religion and their Communist doctrine of the entire subjugation of the individual to the state. Behind this stands the largest army in the world, in the hands of a Government pursuing imperialist expansion, as no czar or kaiser had ever done.

I must not conceal from you the truth as I see it. It is certain that Europe would have been communized and London under bombardment some time ago but for the deterrent of the atomic bomb in the hands of the United States.

Time Not Unlimited

Another question is also asked. Is time on our side? That is not a question that can be answered except within strict limits. We have certainly not an unlimited period of time before a settlement should be achieved. The utmost vigilance should be practiced but I do not think myself that violent or precipitate action should be taken now. War is not inevitable.

The Germans have a wise saying: "The trees do not grow up to the sky." Often something happens to turn or mitigate the course of events.

Four of five hundred years ago Europe seemed about to be conquered by the Mongols. Two great battles were fought almost on the same day near Vienna and in Poland. In both of these the chivalry and armed power of Europe was completely shattered by the Asiatic hordes. It seemed that nothing could avert the doom of the famous Continent from which modern civilization and culture have spread throughout the world.

Free Nations Welded

But at the critical moment the great Khan died. The succession was vacant and the Mongol armies and their leaders trooped back on their ponies across the 7,000 miles which separated them from their capital in order to choose a successor. They never returned till now.

We need not abandon hope or patience. Many favorable processes are on foot. Under the impact of communism all the free nations are being welded together as they never have been before and never could be, but for the harsh external pressure to which they are being subjected.

We have no hostility to the Russian people and no desire to deny them their legitimate rights and security. I hoped that Russia, after the war, would have access, through unfrozen waters, into every ocean, guaranteed by the world organization of which she would be a leading member; that she should have the freest access, which indeed she has at the present time, to raw materials of every kind, and that the Russians everywhere would be received as brothers in the human family. That still remains our aim and ideal. We seek nothing from Russia but good will and fair play.

No Appeasement

If, however, there is to be a war of nerves let us make sure our nerves are strong and are fortified by the deepest convictions of our hearts. If we persevere steadfastly together, and allow no appeasement of tyranny and wrongdoing in any form, it may not be our nerve or the structure of our civilization which will break, and peace may yet be preserved.

This is a hard experience in the life of the world. After our great victory, which we believed would decide the struggle for freedom for our time at least, we thought we had deserved better of fortune. But unities and associations are being established by many nations throughout the free world with a speed and reality which would not have been achieved perhaps for generations. Of all these unities the one most precious to me is the fraternal association between the British Commonwealth of Nations and the United States. Do not underrate the strength of Britain.

As I said at Fulton, "Do not suppose that half a century from now you will not see 70 or 80 millions of Britons spread about the world and united in defense of our traditions, our way of life, and the world causes which you and we espouse." United we stand secure.

Let us then move forward together in discharge of our mission and our duty, fearing God and nothing else.

Long Line Of Pickets Shouts Against Churchill And Pact

APR 1949

Boston, March 31 (AP)—A long line of pickets awaited Winston Churchill tonight chanting—"send that Bundle Back to Britain" and "We Won't Win with Winnie."

Men and women were in a shouting line which carried signs reading "No Atom War" and "The Atlantic Pact Means War." They appeared shortly before Churchill's speech at Boston Garden.

One man in clerical collar said he represented the "Protestant Action Committee." Several other marchers were in clerical dress.

Other spokesmen said they represented four or five organizations.

Says She Represents Peace

A girl shouted: "I represent peace." She passed out handbills signed "Citizens Action Committee for Peace."

A lone woman picket who appeared an hour before Churchill's address identified herself as Charlotte Frederick — "just a single-handed little woman who's trying to educate."

She held high a penciled cardboard sign which called for "the well-being of all in America."

Ticketless Bostonians were turned away from the gates of the huge sports arena, which was open only to invited guests of Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

"All Seemed Surprised"

A policeman at a door said: "They all seem surprised that you have to have tickets."

The institute furnished tickets for 13,900 alumni and invited guests from several nations here for a three-day conference on the social implications of scientific progress.

An M.I.T. spokesman said the institute received thousands of requests for tickets which couldn't be filled.

"The pressure for tickets," he said, "has been greater than for any other event we've known in recent times."

More Phrases By Churchill

Boston, March 31 (AP)—Winston Churchill stands out as probably one of the greatest living "phrase-makers."

And, he didn't disappoint the crowd tonight at the M.I.T. convocation. Here are a few he came up with:

"Darkling hour"—for these times.

"Bleeding and breathless"—describing the way the allies emerged victorious from World War II.

"The United Nations organization . . . has so far been rent and distracted."

"People in bondage should never dispair."

"Life is a test and this world a place of trial."

"The flame of Christian ethics is still our highest guide."

"United we stand secure."

"Let us then move forward together in discharge of our mission and our duty, fearing God and nothing else."

Churchill Slipped Twice On Facts

Boston, March 31 (AP)—Winston Churchill slipped up on two facts in preparing his speech for tonight.

First, he miscounted the number of men in the Russian Politburo. The wartime Prime Minister's advance text referred twice to "fourteen men in the Kremlin." His secretary caught the slip and Churchill told the Mid-Century Convocation of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology about the "thirteen men in the Kremlin."

The second error came in reference to the Locarno Pact. Churchill's text gave the date of the treaty as 1928, instead of 1925. That miscue, too, was detected and Churchill used the correct date.

LANGER KEEPS UP CHURCHILL ATTACK

Senator Calls Briton 'Cunning Foreign Propagandist'

Washington, March 31 (AP) — Senator Langer (R., N.D.) today called Winston Churchill "a cunning foreign propagandist" who is here to persuade the United States to underwrite the British Empire.

"Has he complied with the Foreign Agents Registration Act?" Langer shouted in the Senate. "Has he registered as a foreign agent with the State Department. The answer is obvious."

Renews Spanish War Charge

Langer renewed his charge that Churchill fought against the United States in the Spanish-American War.

Churchill yesterday sent a telegram to Senator Connally (D., Texas), chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, saying that Langer's charge was "entirely devoid of truth."

Langer read to the Senate a biographical sketch of Churchill which appeared in International Who's Who, published by the Ziff-Davis Publishing Company. This sketch said Churchill "served Cuba with Spanish forces against the Americans."

Langer said Churchill probably prepared the sketch himself "as is customary."

Churchill As Langer Sees Him

The North Dakotan said that before the United States entered World War II, Churchill claimed all he wanted from America was guns, ammunition and tools—that Britain had the men to do the fighting.

But when Europe was invaded, Langer said, "76 per cent of the boys were American boys."

Langer said that Churchill got millions from the United States after the first World War, billions after the second World War and now wants more.

"How he must chuckle at America after he puts over one fast deal after another," he exclaimed.

Connally Defends Churchill

Three senators came to Churchill's defense when Langer concluded his denunciation.

Senator Connally said Churchill called him personally to tell him he was in Cuba only in the latter part of 1895. Connally said if this is true "it is very difficult to understand how he fought against American troops."

He called Langer's remarks "unfortunate" and referred to Churchill as a "friend of the United States."

He added that Langer's charges "do not seem to me to be supported by any proof whatever."

Knowland Praises Churchill

Senator Knowland (R., Cal.) said nothing could add to or detract from Churchill's stature as a world leader.

He said that when the world needed leadership in the early days of World War II, Churchill "stood like a Rock of Gibraltar against fascism and nazism. . . . His place in history is secure.

"When we have passed into oblivion," Knowland said, "future generations will be saying prayers of thanks for a man . . . with the ability and courage of Winston Churchill."

Senator Chavez (D., N.M.) said he regretted the matter had been brought to the floor of the Senate.

"I think the Senator from North Dakota is wrong when he says that Churchill fought against the United States," he said.

PROTEST IS DISPATCHED TO SEVEN GOVERNMENTS SPONSORING ALLIANCE

Memorandum Charges Move Is Aimed Against Soviet Union, Violates U.N. Charter And Is Not Defensive Action

London, Friday, April 1 (AP)—The Soviet Union charged today the North Atlantic treaty is "openly aggressive," is directed against her and breaks five international agreements.

The official Soviet news agency Tass said the Russian position was transmitted to the seven sponsoring nations of the treaty in a memorandum yesterday. The Soviet Foreign Ministry through its ambassadors gave these conclusions to the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, Canada, the Netherlands and Luxembourg:

1. The Atlantic treaty has an openly aggressive character and is directed against the Soviet Union.

2. The treaty runs counter to the United Nations Charter.

3. It violates the Anglo-Soviet treaty, the Franco-Soviet treaty and the Yalta and Potsdam agreements.

Denies Move Is Defensive

The memorandum denied statements in the treaty that is is strictly defensive and abides by United Nations principles.

The Soviet document said official representatives of the United States, Britain and France have "definitely pointed out" that the treaty is directed against the Soviet Union as well as against other countries of the "peoples' democracy"—that is, the other Communist nations of eastern Europe.

Participants in the alliance, the memorandum charged, are making military preparations which "by no means bear a defensive character," including the stock piling of atom bombs.

The statement said further the participants are preserving in Washington a combined British-American staff from the last war, have a Western European Union defense setup already established in Fontainbleau, outside of Paris, and are planning a defense committee under the new treaty.

Charges Hysteria Whipped Up

All of this "contributes to intensifying anxiety and alarm, and to the whipping up of war hysteria in which all sorts of instigators of a new war are so interested," the statement added.

The Atlantic treaty, the memorandum asserted, is "designed to daunt the states which do not agree to obey the dictate of the Anglo-American grouping of powers that lay claim to world domination."

Some governments in it, the document went on, "expect to benefit at the expense of the richer parties to this treaty and make various plans with regard to obtaining new credits and other material advantages."

The memorandum said that "anti-Soviet motives" of the treaty are groundless because "the Soviet Union does not intend to attack anyone and in no way threatens the United States, Great Britain, France or the other parties to the treaty."

Will Not Help U.N.

Russia took note of statements that the treaty is "motivated by the weaknesses of the United Nations."

But Russia said the treaty will not help to consolidate the United Nations.

"On the contrary," Russia said, "it leads to an undermining of the very foundations of this international organization. Establishment of the above grouping of powers . . . runs counter to the charter of this organization."

The Soviet Union argued that the treaty cannot be considered a regional agreement under the United Nations Charter because it embraces states which are in both hemispheres of the globe and states like Italy and Portugal which are not United Nations members.

Russia said the treaty cannot be justified under Article 51 of the United Nations Charter.

Such a right can arise, Russia said, only in the case of an armed attack on a member and "as is known to all neither the United States of America, Britain, France, nor the other parties of the pact are threatened by any armed attack."

Russia charged that the references to the United Nations Charter in the treaty are "untenable and designed to merely cover up the real aggressive aims of the military grouping of the states."

The Soviet statement said that Article 53 of the Charter provides no regional group shall take enforcement action "without authorization of the Security Council."

"Envisages Armed Force"

But the fifth article of the Atlantic pact, Russia said, "envisages employment of armed force by parties . . . without any authorization of the Security Council."

The memorandum concluded:

"1. The North Atlantic treaty has nothing in common with the aims of the self-defense of states . . . on the contrary this treaty has an obviously aggressive character and is aimed against the U.S.S.R. . . .

"2. The North Atlantic treaty . . . runs directly counter to the principles and aims of the United Nations Charter and leads to an undermining of the United Nations organization.

"3. The North Atlantic treaty runs counter to the treaty of Great Britain and the Soviet Union signed in 1942 under which both states assumed an obligation to co-operate in the maintenance of peace and international security and 'not to conclude any alliances and not to participate in any coalition directed against the other high contracting party.'

"4. The North Atlantic treaty runs counter to the treaty between France and the Soviet Union signed in 1944 under which both states assumed an obligation to co-operate in the maintenance of peace, international security and 'not to conclude any alliance and not to take part in any coalition directed against one of the high contracting parties.'

"5. The North Atlantic treaty runs counter to the agreements between the Soviet Union, the United States of America and Great Britain concluded at the Yalta and Potsdam conferences of the representatives of these powers held both during and after the second World War."

Notes Only Russia Excluded

The memorandum said that under the agreements the United States and Britain "like the Soviet Union assumed an obligation to cooperate in consolidation of the general peace and international security and to contribute to the consolidation of the United Nations organization."

The memorandum noted that the United States, Britain and France are parties to the treaty, and that only the Soviet Union among the great powers is excluded.

Says Aim Was Pointed Out

This, it said, "can be explained by the fact this treaty is directed against the Soviet Union."

Text of the Soviet Memorandum on the Atlantic Pact

London, Friday, April 1 (AP)—The text of the Soviet memorandum on the Atlantic pact as reported by Tass and distributed here by the Soviet Monitor, follows:

On March 18 the State Department of the United States published the text of the North Atlantic treaty which the Govments of the United States of America, Great Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg and Canada intend to sign within the next few days.

The text of the North Atlantic treaty fully confirms what was said in the declaration of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the U.S.S.R. on Jan. 29 this year, which is being attached hereto, both as regards the aggressive aims of this treaty and the fact that the North Atlantic treaty contradicts the principles and aims of the United Nations organization and the commitments which the Governments of the United States of America, Great Britain and France have assumed under other treaties and agreements.

The statements contained in the North Atlantic treaty that it is designated for defense and that it recognizes the principles of the United Nations organization serve aims which have nothing in common either with the tasks of self-defense of the parties to the treaty or with real recognition of the aims and principles of the United Nations organization.

Such great powers as the United States, Great Britain and France are parties to the North Atlantic treaty.

"Direction" of Treaty

Thus the treaty is not directed either against the United States of America, Great Britain or France.

Of the great powers only the Soviet Union is excluded from among the parties to this treaty, which can be explained only by the fact that this treaty is directed against the Soviet Union.

The fact that the North Atlantic treaty is directed against the U.S.S.R. as well as against the countries of peoples' democracy was definitely pointed out also by the official representatives of the United States of America, Great Britain and France.

To justify the conclusion of the North Atlantic treaty, references are being made to the fact that the Soviet Union has defensive treaties with the countries of peoples' democracy.

These references, however, are utterly untenable.

All the treaties of the Soviet Union on friendship and mutual assistance with the countries of peoples' democracy are of a bilateral nature, and they are directed solely against the possible repetition of German aggression, of which danger no single peace-loving state can be unaware.

The possibility of interpreting them as treaties which are in any degree aimed against the Allies of the U.S.S.R. in the late war, against the United States or Great Britain or France, is absolutely precluded.

Moreover, the U.S.S.R. has similar treaties against the repetition of German aggression not only with the countries of peoples' democracy, but also with Great Britain and France.

Aspect of German Aggression

In contradiction to this, the North Atlantic treaty is not a bilateral, but a multilateral treaty, which creates a closed grouping of states and, what is particularly important, absolutely ignores the possibility of a repetition of German aggression, not having consequently as its aim the prevention of a new German aggression.

And in as much as of the great powers which comprised the anti-Hitlerite coalition only the U.S.S.R. is not a party to this treaty, the North Atlantic treaty must be regarded as a treaty directed against one of the chief Allies of the United States, Great Britain and France in the late war, against the U.S.S.R.

Participants in the North Atlantic treaty are effecting extensive military measures which can in no way be justified by the interests of self-defense of these countries.

The extensive military measures carried out by the United States in cooperation with Great Britain and France under the present peacetime conditions, including the increase in all types of armed forces, the drafting of a plan for the utilization of the atomic weapon, the stockpiling of atom bombs, which are purely an offensive weapon, the building of a network of air and naval bases, etc.—by no means bear a defensive character.

The preservation in Washington of the combined Anglo-American Staff organized during the second World War, the recent establishment of the military staff of the so-called Western Union in Fontainebleau (France), as well as the intention immediately to set up the defense committee envisaged by the North Atlantic treaty, are by no means an indication of the peace-loving or defensive aims of the participants of the treaty, but, together with other numerous military preparations, contribute to intensifying anxiety and alarm and to the whipping up of war hysteria in which all sorts of instigators of a new war are so interested.

Factors Alleged

The North Atlantic pact is designed to daunt the states which do not agree to obey the dictate of the Anglo-American grouping of powers that lay claim to world domination, though the untenability of such claims was once again affirmed by the second World War which ended in the debacle of Fascist Germany, which also had laid claim to world domination.

Among the participants in the North Atlantic treaty are also countries whose Governments expect to benefit at the expense of the richer parties to this treaty and make various plans with regard to obtaining new credits and other material advantages.

At the same time one cannot but see the groundlessness of the anti-Soviet motives of the North Atlantic treaty, inasmuch as it is known to all that the Soviet Union does not intend to attack anyone and in no way threatens the United States of America, Great Britain or the other parties to the treaty.

The conclusion of the North Atlantic treaty and establishment of a new grouping of powers is motivated by the weakness of the United Nations organization.

It is perfectly evident, however, that the North Atlantic treaty does not serve the cause of consolidating the United Nations organization but on the contrary leads to the undermining of the very foundation of this international organization because establishment of the above grouping of powers is far from corresponding to the aims and principles of the United Nations organization and runs counter to the Charter of this organization.

Parties to the North Atlantic treaty maintain that this treaty allegedly represents a regional arrangement envisaged by Article 52 of the United Nations Charter. But such references are utterly groundless and untenable. There can be no question whatsoever of any regional character of this treaty inasmuch as the union provided for by this treaty embraces states located in both hemispheres of the globe and has not as its aim settlement of any regional issues.

This is also confirmed by the fact as has already been announced that states which are not members of the United Nations organization (Italy and Portugal) are being drawn into participation in the North Atlantic treaty though Article 52 of the United Nations Charter has in view conclusion of regional arrangements only among members of the United Nations organization.

Defense Basis Challenged

Nor can establishment of a North Atlantic grouping of states be justified by the right of each member of the United Nations to an individual or collective self-defense in conformity with Article 51 of the Charter. Suffice it to say such a right under the Charter of the United Nations can arise only in case of an armed attack against a member of the organization; yet as is known to all neither the United States of America, Britain, France nor other parties to the pact are threatened by any armed attack.

It is clear references to Articles 51 and 52 of the United Nations Charter are untenable and designed merely to cover up the real aggressive aims of a military grouping of states which are being set up by the conclusion of the North Atlantic treaty.

No one can deny that the North Atlantic treaty and, first and foremost, Article 5 of this treaty directly contradicts the Charter of the United Nations organization. The text of Article 53 of the Charter which speaks of enforcement actions under regional arrangements, states directly that "no enforcement action shall be taken under regional arrangements or by regional agencies without the authorization of the Security Council," with the exception of special measures provided with regard to former enemy states. This notwithstanding Article 5 of the North Atlantic pact envisages employment of armed force by the parties to the treaty without any authorization of the Security Council.

Thus, even if the North Atlantic treaty were to be considered a regional arrrangement, Article 5 of this treaty is incompatible with the United Nations Charter.

This shows once more how unfounded are all references of the North Atlantic treaty to the recognition of the principles and aims of the Charter of the United Nations organization.

Moscow's Conclusions

On the basis of the above-said the Soviet Government arrives at the following conclusions:

1. The North Atlantic treaty has nothing in common with the aims of self-defense of states who are parties to the treaty, who are threatened by no one, whom no one intends to attack. On the contrary this treaty has an obviously aggressive character, is aimed against the U.S.S.R., which fact is not concealed even by the official representatives of the states—parties to the treaty in their public pronouncements.

2. The North Atlantic treaty not only does not contribute to the consolidation of peace and international security which is the duty of all members of the United Nations organization, but it directly runs counter to the principles and aims of the United Nations Charter and leads to the undermining of the United Nations organization.

3. The North Atlantic treaty runs counter to the treaty between Great Britain and the Soviet Union signed in 1942 under which both states assumed the obligation to cooperate in the maintenance of peace, international security and "not to conclude any alliances and not to participate in any coalitions directed against the other high contracting party."

4. The North Atlantic treaty runs counter to the treaty between France and the Soviet Union signed in 1944 under which both states assumed an obligation to cooperate in the maintenance of peace and international security and "not to conclude any alliance and not to take part in any coalition directed against one of the high contracting parties."

5. The North Atlantic treaty runs counter to agreements between the Soviet Union, the United States of America and Great Britain concluded at the Yalta and Potsdam conferences as well as at other conferences of representatives of these powers held both during and after the second World War under which the United States of America and Great Britain like the Soviet Union assumed the obligation to cooperate in consolidation of general peace and international security and to the consolidation of the United Nations organization.

Britain Curbs Exports

London, March 31 (AP)—Britain put a tight control tonight on the shipment of about everything of "potential military value" to Russia and her satellites.

This action came with a disclosure that Britain is planning to lend Russia £9,000,000 ($36,000,000) so that Russia can buy non-military supplies from Britain in the next twelve months.

Harold Wilson, president of the Board of Trade, announced in the House of Commons a new schedule of raw materials and machinery subject to export controls.

Might Be Used As War Goods

The items involved might be used as war goods.

Listed on the schedule are graphité, mica in certain forms, various other minerals, precision machinery, industrial diamonds, some scientific apparatus, various chemicals and other items that could be adapted to production for military purposes.

Wilson's statement did not mention the Soviet Union or other eastern European countries by name. They were identified, however, by omission. The statement specified that no export licenses would be needed for shipment of the listed materials to countries in the British Commonwealth, the Marshall-plan area or the United States.

The United States has sent schedules of items to the nineteen western European Marshall-plan nations and regions with a request that the goods listed not be exported to Communist countries. Government sources said Britain's new list of goods subject to export controls is based on the Washington schedules.

Wilson's statement followed a discussion of East-West trade in the United States Senate. Republicans in the Senate have called for a stricter definition of permissible trade to be written into the European recovery program.

The demand in the Senate was touched off by Wilson's remark to the House of Commons last week that Britain's trade relations with the Soviet Union "are guided by considerations of economic advantage."

Arms Specified In List

Two of the United States' schedules of materials western European countries are asked to withhold from Russia cover the export of arms, munitions, atom bomb materials, radar equipment, raw materials and parts for jet engines, machine tools, some petroleum and chemical products, precision instruments and other items. A third schedule issued by Washington has not been made public.

Britain still can maintain trade relations with Russia under a 1941 agreement covering nonmilitary supplies, a spokesman said.

The $36,000,000 loan to Russia was disclosed in budget estimates presented to the House of Commons. The estimates said it was for "nonmilitary supplies under wartime arrangements for which final contracts are being concluded."

British Plan Loan to Russia

$36,000,000 Would Be for Purchasing Non-military Supplies From England This Year.

APR 1 1949

London, March 32 (A. P.).—Britain disclosed today that it is planning to lend Russia £9,000,000 ($36,000,000), so that Russia can buy non-military supplies from Britain in the next twelve months. The disclosure came in budgetary estimates, presented to the House of Commons.

The advance to Russia, according to the estimates, will be for "non-military supplies under wartime arrangements for which final contracts are being concluded."

British Treasury officials said that the advance to Russia was in the nature of a loan. They said that it was extended under a 1941 credit agreement.

At the same time Britain clamped tight controls on the shipment of virtually everything of potential military value to Russia and her satellites. A new schedule of raw materials and machinery which might be usable as war goods was announced to the House of Commons by Harold Wilson, president of the Government's Board of Trade. Such goods cannot be exported without licenses.

100 Reported Held As Bulgarian Spies

London, March 31 (AP)—Tanjug, the official Yugoslav news agency, said tonight it had learned that 100 persons including "high state and party officials" had been arrested in Bulgaria on charges of spying for "imperialist states."

There was no immediate comment from Bulgarian sources.

The Tanjug dispatch said that "so far approximately 100 persons had been arrested. The majority of them are from Sofia but arrests have also been occurring in the provinces. The arrested persons mostly worked for economic institutions, state security services, party control bodies and in the foreign political service."

County-Wide Game Of Hide-And-Seek

Shrewsbury, Eng., March 31 (AP). All Shropshire county—its 260,000 men, women and children—will play a game of hide and seek this week end.

They'll be looking for 70 "enemy" airmen in an RAF mass-escape exercise called "Operation Dodgem." The aim is to give RAF men practice in escaping from enemy territory after being shot down.

The men will bail out (from a truck) tomorrow night in twos and threes and then try to combat an "enemy agent" while dodging Shropshire's alerted citizens.

"Their job is to cross a heavily guarded frontier, sign a book to prove they have done it, recross the frontier, meet the 'spy' and get back to camp by 4 A.M. Sunday," an RAF officer said.

Anyone caught will go to jail until the exercise ends. And the 70 will have to be gentlemen about trying to escape—no violence, says the rules.

Horse Slaughter For Meat Protested

Penzance, England, March 31 (AP)—Six women and two men began a 1,000-mile horseback trek today to protest against the slaughter of horses in meat-rationed Britain.

They left Land's End, southern tip of England in Cornwall, for John O'Groats, the northern tip of Scotland.

F. A. H. Maitland, former cavalry officer, is leading the party. He said its object is to "popularize the horse and draw the public attention to the present serious traffic in horseflesh."

One member of the group is Sally Foot, sister of Michael Foot, Labor member of Parliament.

European Aid Is Equal To $18 For Every Citizen

Paris, Friday, April 1 (AP)—The United States arranged to send $18 worth of goods for every man, woman and child in western Europe during the first eleven months of the Marshall plan, it was announced today.

Statisticians attached to the European Recovery Program calculated this figure on the basis of shipments authorized for the nineteen Marshall plan areas. These authorizations totaled $4,566,700,000 between April 3, 1948, and February 28.

A breakdown of the $18 figure showed $6.19 went for food, animal feeds and fertilizer; $6.95 for raw materials, semi-finished goods and machinery, and $2.57 for fuel.

The leader on a per capita basis was the Netherlands, with $45.62 authorized for each citizen. Turkey was at the bottom of the list with only 48 cents a person, but she receives other aid from the United States.

Near the average are Britain, with $23.47, and France, with $25.76.

Clay Reduces Spy's Sentence

Cuts 15 Years Off Term Imposed on Waiter Who Worked for Czechs and Russians.

Frankfurt, Germany, March 31 (A. P.).—Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American Military Governor, has reduced the twenty-year sentence imposed on a convicted Czech spy to five years, Army authorities announced today.

At the same time they disclosed that the prisoner, Frontisek Klecka, 31, convicted in secret trial at Munich February 17, had admitted that he was a Moscow-trained agent. The announcement said that Clay had approved the conviction March 23, but reduced the sentence by fifteen years and designated that Klecka be imprisoned at Landsberg.

Klecka was a waiter on the Orient Express between Prague and Paris when arrested. He was tried by a military commission and convicted of collecting military information in the United States zone of Germany for a foreign Power.

Trial testimony, made public today, revealed that Klecka testified he had worked for the Russian secret police (NKVD) near Belgrade, Yugoslavia, as late as 1947. The prosecution contended that Klecka was working for both the Czech intelligence service and the NKVD at the time of his arrest.

Klecka said that he had been approached by a "Major Misterky" of the Czech secret service and asked to get pictures of United States Army communications, bridges and installations near Nuernberg. Klecka said that he took the picture while working as a waiter on the train.

In a sworn statement, he told American authorities that he turned the pictures over to the Czech major and asked no payment.

U. S. Cuts Term Of Czech Spy to 5 Years From 20

Reduction Comes 5 Days After Prague Convicts 2 A.W.O.L. G. I.s as Spies

FRANKFURT, March 31 (AP).—The United States Army announced today that the twenty-year prison sentence imposed upon a convicted Czechoslovak spy, Frontisek Klecka, has been reduced to five years. It also made public testimony in his secret trial before a United States military commission at Munich Feb. 17.

No indication was given of the reason for cutting the sentence of Klecka, identified as a Moscow-trained agent who worked for the intelligence services of both Czechoslovakia and Russia.

The announcement followed by five days the secret conviction of two American soldiers in Prague on charges of spying against Czechoslovakia.

Without referring to the Prague case, the Army said General Lucius D. Clay March 23 ordered the reduction of Klecka's sentence by fifteen years and directed that he serve the five-year term at Landsberg prison.

The trial of Klecka was the first of five at Munich in which seventeen persons were convicted and one was acquitted on charges of spying for "a foreign power." It was the only one of the series conducted in secret. Commission plans for secrecy throughout were canceled after an inquiry ordered by General Clay.

Military spokesmen here have declined to comment on speculation that Czechoslovakia picked up the two American soldiers, listed in Army records as "absent without leave," in reprisal for the Munich trials.

Klecka, thirty-one, was a waiter on the Orient Express between Prague and Paris when he was arrested last fall. Army authorities said he reported he was trained as an agent in Moscow. The transcript of the testimony quoted him as saying he had worked for both the Russian secret police and the Czechoslovak intelligence service.

A slight, nervous man with bushy eyebrows, Klecka told the commission a Major Misterky of the Czechoslovak service had asked him to get pictures of United States Army tank parks, communications, bridges and installations near Nuernberg. He said he complied, and refused payment.

Army Seizes Civilian, Flies Him To Germany for Military Trial

By The Associated Press

FRANKFURT, March 31.—Russell G. Bird, of Mishawaka, Ind., was brought back to Germany by the United States Army today for investigation of charges that he misappropriated cigarettes while manager of a post exchange here.

Bird charged in an interview that he was picked up by the Army in Mishawaka without an arrest warrant and was brought here without being permitted to see a lawyer or appeal to civil courts.

One of his defense lawyers, Earl J. Carroll, of San Bruno, Calif., said he will file an application for a writ of habeas corpus in a United States District Court, challenging the Army's right to take him out of the United States without extradition.

"If the Army can get away with this, no person in the United States is safe," Mr. Carroll declared. "This case will test whether we have a police state in which the Army can grab people without due process of law and transport them out of the United States for trial in rump military courts."

Bird left Germany last December while under Army orders to remain in the Frankfurt area during investigation of his case.

Colonel F. H. Vanderwerker, Army Judge Advocate here, said he did not know what procedure the Army used in removing Bird from the United States.

"I assume they just picked him up and brought him over here," he said. "In our point of view, he was a fugitive, still subject to military law. He was under our jurisdiction when he fled, and he could not divest himself of our jurisdiction by his own illegal act."

He added, however, that the Army does not claim the right to bring persons to Germany by such direct methods in other circumstances. "If a person has legally completed his service in Germany and returned to the United States, then our jurisdiction over him has ended," he explained.

Vanderwerker said a charge of breaking arrest would be added to the misappropriation charge against Bird.

Wherabouts Unknown to Wife

MISHAWAKA, Ind., March 31 (AP).—Mrs. Jacqueline Bird said today she was "astonished" to learn that her husband, Russell G. Bird, had been taken back to Germany. She said she thought he was being detained at Westover Field, Massachusetts.

She received a letter from him Monday, she said, in which he said he was able to communicate with her only by handing the letter to another prisoner.

She said her husband was taken into custody by an Army captain and two civilians who came to their home here at 3 a. m. March 11.

"They took my husband with them that night," said Mrs. Bird. "Our two children and I were left without finances. I went to Fort Sheridan the following Sunday and the Sunday after that to see him. Last Sunday when I went to visit him he was gone."

ARMY HOLDS 2 FOR INQUIRY

Americans Linked To Cigarette Probe In Germany

Frankfurt, Germany, March 31 (AP)—An army official announced tonight the arrest in the United States of a second American wanted for investigation here on charges of misappropriating cigarettes.

Col. F. H. Vanderwerker, United States Army judge advocate here, said James W. Mobley, former post exchange employé, had been taken into custody. Mobley is being held at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, Vanderwerker said.

Bird Returned To Frankfurt

Mobley and Russell G. Bird, of Mishawaka, Ind., a former post exchange manager, left Germany last December while under army orders to remain in Frankfurt during the investigation.

The Army revealed that Bird subsequently was taken into custody in the United States and has been returned to Frankfurt.

Bird said he was picked up by army agents in Mishawaka without an arrest warrant and was brought to Germany without being allowed to see a lawyer or appeal to civil courts.

His wife, a former schoolteacher in France, said in Mishawaka that she was astonished to learn he had been taken back to Germany. She said her impression was that he was detained at Westover Field, Mass.

Taken Away In Night

She said Bird was taken into custody by an army captain and two civilians in their modest home at 3 o'clock the morning of March 11.

"They took my husband away with them at night," she said. "Our two children and I were left without finances."

Earl J. Carroll, of San Bruno, Cal., who is representing Bird, said the case would test whether "the Army can grab people without due process of law and transport them out of the United States for trial by rump military courts."

Vanderwerker contended Bird was "under our (Army) jurisdiction when he fled, and he could not divest himself of our jurisdiction by his own illegal act."

Russ Police Seize Hundreds In West Berlin Checkup

Berlin, March 31 (AP)—Hundreds of West Berlin Germans were seized by Russian military police and Soviet-controlled German police in sudden raids on Berlin suburban railroad stations and trains last night.

The roundups were conducted for the ostensible purpose of checking identification papers. But only residents of the blockaded Western sectors were grabbed.

Most of the West Berliners seized were returning from the surrounding Soviet zone where they had conducted barter with farmers. They were waylaid by the heavily armed Communist police at the Potsdam and Babelsberg stations and on trains on the city's outskirts.

They were carted off to control stations where, they related, the police confiscated their Western currency and food or fuel parcels they were carrying.

Some were released soon after search and confiscation but estimates of those still held ran into the hundreds.

New Assembly Move

Bonn, Germany, March 31 (AP)—Members of the Constituent Assembly made another try today at reaching agreement on a constitution for the West German state proposed by the United States, Britain and France.

The Assembly's Committee of Elders was called into session to try to iron out different opinions on tax and spending powers.

The Social Democratic party (SPD) announced it would continue to insist that a strong central government be supreme over the states in monetary matters.

One Of Major Parties

The SPD, with 27 of the 65 Assembly seats, is one of the two major parties in western Germany.

The Christian Democratic Union (CDU), also with 27 seats, favors giving more power to the states and less to the Federal Government.

The Christian Democrats asked the Social Democrats to agree on a compromise.

Soviet Holds Hundreds In Raids

Berlin, March 31 (AP)—Hundreds of western Berliners were reported held by Soviet police tonight following raids on trains and railroad stations in the city's outskirts.

The lightning roundup last night was conducted for the ostensible purpose of checking identification papers. Only residents of the Soviet- blockaded western sectors of Berlin were picked up. Some were freed, but western sources estimated hundreds were still detained.

The raids were made by Russian military police and heavily-armed German police under Soviet control. Apparently one purpose was to plug loopholes in the Russian blockade. Western Berliners have constantly smuggled in supplies from the surrounding Soviet occupation zone.

Money, Food Confiscated

Most of the Germans seized were returning from the Soviet zone where they had bartered with farmers. They said they were carted off to control stations, where the police confiscated their western currency and their food or fuel parcels.

Western sector police said they received no word that the Russians had conducted new raids during the day.

Some of those who were seized and later released quoted German policemen as saying they hoped to bag "black list" Germans wanted by the Russians as "enemies of the Soviet system." The Russians have furnished the police with lists of names, the informants added.

Seek U.S. Radio Jobs

Such a list probably would include the names of most of western Berlin's city officials. The Soviet-controlled press repeatedly has referred to those officials as "enemies of the people."

Meanwhile, some employés of the Russian-controlled Berlin radio station, located in the British sector of the city, were reported seeking jobs with the American-licensed broadcasting station so they could get their pay in West marks.

Applicants Ex-Nazis

Officials of the American radio said three department heads of the Soviet station were among the job hunters. An investigation showed they were former Nazis, which automatically excluded them from work in the American station.

The American station said in a broadcast today that unemployment is rising throughout the Soviet zone of Germany, especially in Saxony. In Leipzig alone 80,000 persons were reported unemployed at the end of February.

Lack of raw materials was given as a major reason for the slump. The Western Allies' counterblockade has reduced those materials.

CLAY REPORTS INFLUX

FRANKFURT. (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay said yesterday the population of the American zone of Germany is being increased about 20,000 a month by the influx of refugees from the east.

CHICAGO MAN PRODS PRAGUE

Phones in Night to Protest Sentencing of Two G. I.'s.

Prague, March 31 (A. P.).—The secret trial and jail sentences for two American soldiers charged with spying in Czechoslovakia brought fast, angry reaction from a Chicago man named Howells.

The American Ambassador, Joseph E. Jacobs, disclosed today that he was awakened last Tuesday night by an international telephone call from a man who told him: "Make a strong protest; the American public will never stand for this."

The Ambassador said the phone connection was bad and that he could not make out his caller's name or street address in Chicago, but his last name was Howells.

Calls It Outrageous.

His caller said: "I have just read about the outrageous treatment of the two American soldiers. I hope you'll make a strong protest."

The Ambassador told his caller that he had already made the protest to the Czechoslovak Foreign Office and that the morning papers in Chicago should have something about it. Howells answered: "I'm glad to hear that. This is an outrage."

Two American soldiers, absent without leave from their constabulary unit in Germany, were arrested last December 10 and charged with spying. They were George Jones of Owensboro, Ky., and Clarence Hill, of Jackson, Miss.

Despite repeated pleas and protests, no one from the American embassy has ever been allowed to see them. They were tried and sentenced in secret last Saturday. The embassy was informed on Tuesday.

Romanian Envoy, Ousted By U.S., Assails Pact

Bucharest, Romania, March 31 (AP)—Grigore Preoteasa, who was recalled from his Washington post as Romanian chargé d'affaires at the request of the State Department last December, attacked the Atlantic pact today in a speech to the Romanian Intellectuals Congress.

Preoteasa, now Assistant Minister for Foreign Affairs, called the pact "the most unscrupulous enterprise yet conceived by men of business to prevent the disappearance of capitalists and prevent an economic crisis in their own countries.

Sign With Peoples' Blood

"When the Foreign Ministers assemble at Washington to sign the pact, they will sign it with the blood of peoples throughout the world, the solemn undertaking to start a third world war against the Soviet Union and the popular democracies," Preoteasa said.

He said he was speaking in his capacity as a university professor, but the talk obviously reflected Romania's official attitude.

The congress closed today with a resolution calling for a united fight for peace and against American and British imperialism.

Congress Aims Backed

A cable was sent to the organizational committee in Paris which is preparing the World Intellectuals Congress for Peace, scheduled for next month, indorsing its aims.

The resolution called the Atlantic alliance a preparatory step for aggression. It urged intellectuals to fight "cosmopolite bourgeois tendencies."

Belgrade Accuses Russia Of Tito Economic Squeeze

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, March 31 (AP)—Yugoslavia directly accused Russia today of putting her economic squeeze on this country as part of the Cominform attempt to oust Premier Marshal Tito's Government.

The charge followed disclosure of a note by Yugoslavia to Bulgaria suspending frontier travel regulations on their border. Bulgaria, a member of the Moscow-led Cominform, was accused of "abusing and insulting" Yugoslav travelers.

The Yugoslav stand in both cases was laid down in the newspaper Borba, mouthpiece of the Communist Government. It firmly asserted Yugoslavia's right to trade with the West, just as other countries in eastern Europe.

Tito Speech Due Soon

Borba's editorial, which obviously had official approval, took on increased significance from the fact Tito is to make a speech about April 10. The speech is expected to clarify Yugoslavia's economic relations with Western powers.

Borba declared that Yugoslavia, seeking trade with eastern European countries "on the basis of equality," has been forced by Russia to sell at world prices in the past.

U.S. Prices Lower

It said these prices are largely fixed by the United States and (making a point that most Communist organs do not emphasize) are much lower than in countries where industrial production is undeveloped.

A declaration in Cominform publications that Yugoslavia is turning to the West economically drew the comment that other eastern European countries have engaged in far greater trade with the West than Yugoslavia.

Borba said Russia has withdrawn technical Industrial experts from Yugoslavia without reason and stopped delivery of heavy industrial equipment as part of her "economic pressure."

Eastern Envoys Gone

The attack against the policy of Russia and the Cominform coincided with the absence from Belgrade of most of the diplomatic representatives from the Communist-led Eastern nations.

Western power diplomats watched the comings and goings of the Cominform ambassadors with keen interest, but were wary against drawing any hard conclusions. One Western diplomat said it is possible the Eastern diplomatic chieftains were called home for talks on the future direction of Yugoslavia's economic policy. The Bulgarian Minister left Belgrade about a week ago but has returned.

Russia Switches Propaganda Chief

Moscow, March 31 (AP)—Mikhail A. Suslov has been replaced as chief of the propaganda and agitation section of the Communist party central committee.

In another of the series of high level shifts of authority, the post was given to D. T. Shepilov of the staff of Pravda, the Communist party newspaper.

The reference to Shepilov as chief of the propaganda section appeared in a Pravda account of the opening of the Communist youth congress here. Both Suslov and Shepilov were present at the congress meeting and both were elected to the active presidium of the congress.

Was Cominform Delegate

Suslov came up through the Communist party ranks and has held some important Soviet jobs. He was one of three Soviet delegates to the Cominform session last June which blasted Yugoslav Premier-

Marshal Tito as a strayer from Leninism. The other two were Andrei A. Zhdanov, who died recently, and G. M. Malenkov, both high in the Soviet hierarchy.

Suslov just a year ago severely criticized the Soviet press. He had directed his fire at the Government newspaper, Izvestia; the army newsaper, Red Star, and Tass, the Soviet news agency, chiding them for inadequate treatment of Soviet subjects and various "errors."

Dogmatic About Communism

Suslov was as dogmatic as any Communist could desire about things Communist, and he often reflected the new nationalism in Russia with such statements as the one in which he said there could not be "any suggestion of civilization without the Russian language, science and culture."

He faithfully echoed the Communist line that the United States was carrying out aggressive imperialism with the Marshall plan.

Suslov was named to the propaganda post November 25, 1947, succeeding Georgi F. Alexandrov. The appointment came after Alexandrov's textbook, "A History of Western European Philosophy," was criticized by Zhdanov as containing "serious faults." Previously Suslov had been chairman of the central committee in Lithuania. Pravda had praised his work there.

been an implacable foe of the Reds during the 22-year civil war. He also heads their war-criminal list.

The world probably will get little information about the peace talks once they start. The Communists have barred foreign and Chinese newsmen. The Red radio, disseminating the only news from North China, may report the peace conference, but this probably will be slanted to the Communist view.

Reds In Command

Foreign newsmen in Peiping have been silenced since February by the Communists. Applications to cover the conference have been made by foreign newsmen in Shanghai and Nanking, but no answer has been received from the Reds.

The Communists will call the events at Peiping. French-educated Chou En-lai will head the Communist negotiators. His role will be far different from that in 1946, when Gen. George Marshall tried to bring the Nationalists and Communists together. At that time the Reds were on the run and Chiang Kai-shek was dictating the terms.

Says He Has Chiang Support

Chang yesterday said he had Chiang's assurance of support for the peace effort.

Chiang, bitterest foe of the Communists, stepped aside on January 21 to permit Acting President Li Tsung-jen to attempt peace. He has been reported keeping a finger in Government operations ever since.

The chief of the Government delegation said that of the eight terms laid down by the Communists in January, three would require lengthy negotiation. These were punishment of "war criminals," among whom the Communists lump almost all Government figures; reorganization of the army, and calling of a convention to create a new "coalition government."

Deplores AnAnking Assault

The Government's military spokesman, Gen. Teng Wen-Yi, said meanwhile he knew nothing of a hûmor the Communists had agreed to a cease-fire as soon as the negotiations begin.

Teng deplored the current Communist assault on Anking, 150 miles southwest of Nanking. He said Anking still was holding out, but Red prisoners had disclosed plans to take it on the day peace talks begin.

Elsewhere the civil war was confined to minor patrol clashes along the Yangtze, Teng said.

Gamboa Makes New Plea Via State Dept.

Tokyo, March 31 (AP)—Corporal Lorenzo Gamboa, who already has General MacArthur on his side, today asked the United States State Department to help him rejoin his wife and two children in Australia.

The Filipino, who gained United States citizenship for his wartime service with American forces, filed a new application for permission to go back to Australia. It has barred him as an "Asiatic."

Writes To Australian Chief

He made his new application in a letter to Patrick Shaw, chief of the Australian mission here, declaring "when I was ready to give my life for your country there was no question of race, color or creed."

Gamboa sent a copy of the letter to William J. Sebald, head of MacArthur's diplomatic section, and asked the State Department to "intercede for me in an effort to secure my entry into Australia."

"No" Repeated As Answer

The corporal had carried on his battle alone until about a week ago, when MacArthur learned of Gamboa's failure to gain entrance to his wife's native land. The General assigned his legal chief to help.

Without waiting for an official United States move, Shaw asked the Australian Government to reconsider Gamboa's case. The answer still was no.

Chinese Red Force Called Viet-Nam Ally

Saigon, Indo-China, March 31 (AP) — Indo-Chinese rebels announced today they are conducting "combined operations" with Chinese Communists against the French Army.

The announcement was made by Radio Viet-Minh, organ of Ho Chin Minh, who heads the Viet-Nam Government, which has been fighting the French for three years.

The French announced yesterday that Chinese Communists crossed the border Sunday and supported Viet-Namese troops attacking the French-held town of Moncay. The Viet-Minh radio confirmed the French report and added:

"The Ho Chi Minh Government is perfectly aware of the preparations and precautions of the French to counter the combined operations prepared by the Viet-Nam forces and their allies. A Viet-Nam force is ready to crush the enemy."

ernment is established.

Little Public Reaction

The army was reported in control of all other Syrian cities as well as the capital. There appeared to be little public reaction to the lightning change in Government.

The army chief yesterday said he was negotiating with Faris El Khouri, 70-year-old president of Parliament and Syrian "elder statesman," on composition of the new government.

Rebels Set Up Own Regime In Burma

Rangoon, March 31 (AP)—Three rebel groups have combined forces to set up an administration over 300 square miles of territory in midwestern Burma, it was authoritatively stated here today.

The groups are the White Band People's Volunteer Organization (PVO's), Communists and mutineering Burma rifle units, according to Government officials who fled the area.

These sources said the rebels have set up a "military administration" in the areas around Prome, 160 miles north of Rangoon, and Thatyetmyo, 50 miles farther north.

Some PVO's in other areas have joined Government forces in attempts to subdue Communist and Karen tribesmen who are fighting against the present Rangoon regime. The Karens demand their own independent state.

Towns Occupied

The Government reported that White Band PVO fighters occupied the towns of Lemyetna and Henzada, 80 miles north of Rangoon.

Government troops retreated from the two towns in the face of an attack but drove off a PVO band which attempted to seize the nearby village of Ingabu, the announcement said.

The Government reported that Communist bands failed in an attack on Okpo, 100 miles south of Rangoon, but did succeed in capturing the neighboring hamlet of Paukkon, where they seized arms and ammunition. Government reinforcements then drove the Communists out of Paukkon, the announcement said.

Nanking Peace Envoys Set For Peiping Trip

Nanking, March 31 (AP)—Nationalist peace delegates, prepared for long negotiations on three of the Communists' eight conditions for peace, will leave for Peiping tomorrow.

Delegation Chairman Chang Chih-chung said the Communist demand for punishment of so-called war criminals, army reorganization and formation of a coalition government would require much negotiation.

The other five conditions, covering restoration of civil liberties and economic reforms, have been a part of the Government's program all along, he said. He added that the Government unfortunately had not gotten around to implementing them.

With Chiang's Blessing

The delegation, Chang told Chinese legislators, will go to Peiping for the peace talks with the blessing of retired President Chiang Kai-shek. However, political observers accepted this statement with tongue in cheek. Chiang has

CHINESE PEACE TALKS TO BEGIN

Government Delegates Fly To Peiping For Meeting

Nanking, March 31 (AP)—Representatives of the Chinese Government peace mission flew to Peiping today to prepare for the opening of negotiations with the Communists tomorrow.

The six principal negotiators, with Gen. Chang Chih-Chung as chairman, are to fly to the Communist capital tomorrow.

[The Communist radio, in a brief announcement of the forthcoming conferences, noted Chang two days ago "went to see No. 1 war criminal Chiang Kai-shek for instructions.]

Tientsin Ships Cargo for U. S.

SHANGHAI, March 31 (AP).—The first large export shipment from Tientsin since the Communists took over North China cleared for San Francisco Monday aboard the American ship China Victory. Content of the 1,100-ton cargo was not known here, but Tientsin usually exports rugs, carpets, furs, wool and bristles.

Chinese Reds Fire On British Ship

Hongkong, March 31 (A. P.).—Shore machine-gun fire today prevented a British steamship from docking at Communist-held Taiku, port city of Tientsin, although the master had local permission to unload his cargo. A ship's officer notified the owners that the firing was a mistake—the gunners being unaware that permission had been granted to dock the vessel.

Hirohito's Son-in-law To Be Bank Clerk

Tokyo, March 31 (A. P.).—Moriatsu Higashikuni, 33, son-in-law of Emperor Hirohito, will become an ordinary clerk in a bank tomorrow.

Since the end of the war he studied economics to prepare himself for a business career. The husband of the Emperor's eldest daughter said he planned to ride to work on a street car.

Army Developing Syrian Regime

Damascus, Syria, March 31 (AP)—Small demonstrations were staged in Damascus streets today in support of the army regime that deposed Syria's Government in yesterday's bloodless revolt.

Schools and shops reopened and normal life resumed. Government offices conducted business as usual under the supervision of under secretaries of the various ministries.

Brig. Husni Zayim, army chief of staff, who directed the dawn coup, continued negotiations with political figures on the formation of a new government.

Fate Of President Unknown

[There was no indication as to the fate of President Al Sayed Shukri Al Kuwatly and Premier Khaled Bey Azem. They were reported arrested yesterday along with other Cabinet ministers. The army took over control of communications, implying possible censorship.]

Just how the Army's well-engineered coup would affect scheduled Israeli-Syrian armistice negotiations was not made clear. Some observers believed policy on the touchy subject would not be disclosed until a new government is formed.

Brigadier Zayim said yesterday that army rule would be "temporary" until a "democratic" gov-

Indonesian Battalions Join Dutch Occupation

Batavia, Java, March 31 (AP)—The Dutch Army said today five battalions of the dispersed Indonesian Republican Army have joined the Dutch army of occupation in the state of Pasundan.

There was no comment from Republican sources.

The Dutch said yesterday they planned to form a native Indonesian army to take over from their troops after creation of the proposed free United States of Indonesia.

Guerrilla Bands Formed

Dutch troops last December seized Indonesian political leaders who had proclaimed sections of Java, Sumatra and Madoera a sovereign republic of Indonesia, no longer recognizing Dutch rule. The badly equipped Republican army dispersed at its leaders' orders without offering organized resistance. Several units formed into guerrilla bands which have been harrassing the Dutch since then.

Today's announcement, however, said five divisions of the Republicans' old Siliwangi regiment have joined the Dutch.

Reviewing the general situation since the Dutch "police action," a Government announcement spoke of "slow and steady improvement" except in some areas of central Java.

"Improved" In East

The Sultan of Jogjakarta, Hamengku Buwono, still refuses to co-operate with the Dutch, and the rich estate area around Soekaboemi, in West Java, is still harassed by Republican guerrillas, the Government said.

Best "improvement" was reported in East Java and the Bantam district on the western tip of the big island.

The Government review said the situation in near-by Sumatra was "improving steadily" due to intensive patrolling by Dutch troops. The Dutch recently occupied the rich Sumatran oil fields in the Djambi district. Production was estimated at 1,000 tons of crude oil daily.

SOVIET NOTE DISCOUNTED

Washington Expects No Effect On Treaty Program

Washington, March 31 (AP)—A Russian protest against the North Atlantic treaty was received at the State Department here late today.

It came as foreign ministers from the North Atlantic region gathered to sign the pact next Monday.

The question of whether the treaty might prove a possible "incitement" to some aggressive action by the Soviet had been raised last night by Senator Taft (R., Ohio).

No Effect Expected

The formal expression of Russia's objections to the regional defense arrangement was not expected to have the slightest effect on the Western powers in signing the treaty and in going through with the defense arrangements, including rearmament, for which it will form the basis.

The Russian note reached the State Department late in the afternoon, evidently about the time that Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, was conferring with D. U. Stikker, Netherlands Foreign Minister, and shortly after he had held a two-hour conference with Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, on Germany, Greece and other European questions.

State Department officials would say tonight only that the message had been received from the Soviet Embassy here.

It was not delivered by Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushkin but was sent around either by messenger or by a diplomat of lesser rank.

Message Being Translated

Officials said that at the close of work today the message was being translated. It apparently would not get any attention from Acheson or other top officials until tomorrow.

It was not immediately clear whether the Soviet statement would require an answer, but diplomats speculated that if it was not answered directly through diplomatic channels it would be replied to in official public statements here.

Earlier in the day Acheson and Bevin had started what may be a final and successful effort by the Western powers to agree on plans for the future of western Germany.

The plans include creation of a separate German government.

At the end of their session, Acheson went into another conference with Stikker who, like Bevin, has come here to sign the North Atlantic treaty next Monday.

Secretary Acheson urged the Netherlands Foreign Minister to take quick steps to call a "peace" conference with the Indonesian Republican leaders.

In a two-hour meeting Acheson expressed the "strong hope" of the American Government that the most recent instructions of the United Nations Security Council dealing with the problem will be "put into effect at the earliest possible date."

A joint statement said Stikker, in addition to talking over the North Atlantic treaty, discussed the Indonesian situation "fully and frankly."

Acheson Expresses Confidence

"The Secretary (Acheson) expressed full confidence that both parties would enter into preliminary negotiations called for by the Security Council . . . promptly and in good faith."

Speaking for the Netherlands Government, Stikker emphasized that the Dutch had accepted the Security Council instructions. Stikker then outlined to Acheson "paths along which he believed progress could be achieved most effectively and expeditiously," the statement said.

The nature of the Bevin-Acheson talk—the first of a series which will extend through next week—was secret except for a brief announcement on which the two men agreed. It said:

"The Secretary of State reviewed with Mr. Bevin a number of European questions of common concern. In particular, they gave general consideration to the problems of western Germany and exchanged views on the situation in Greece. The Secretary of State and Mr. Bevin met in order to have a general exchange of views on these subjects and no decisions were taken at the meeting."

Both Confident Of Success

Both Bevin and Acheson were understood to be confident that the German issues can be worked out and they expect success in meetings which they will hold next week with Robert Schuman, French Foreign Minister.

The principal problem before the Western powers at the moment apparently is to reach final agreement on their policies concerning how much real power should be placed in the hands of the proposed western German government.

A German parliamentary council is now meeting at Bonn to draft a constitution for the new government which would have authority over the whole of western Germany, including the British, American and French occupation zones.

In general, the United States and Britain have favored giving the Germans greater authority to act than the French have been willing to agree to.

Germans Seek More

But there have been indications that the Germans are seeking greater power for their government than the Western powers as a group have favored. Some reports from Bonn have indicated that unless the differences can be ironed out the whole project for creating the government might be endangered.

While Acheson was meeting Bevin, Iceland's Foreign Minister, Bjarni Benediktsson, arrived here after a twenty-hour flight from Iceland.

Reports Approval In Iceland

Benediktsson said an "overwhelming majority" of Iceland's people favor membership in the Atlantic alliance despite violent anti-pact demonstrations yesterday at Reykjavik.

He said that while there were several thousand persons in the crowd around the Parliament building, violence was confined to a well organized group of 200 to 300 and it would be "peculiar" if their actions were locally inspired. Reports from Reykjavik had attributed the demonstration to Communists.

Schuman arrived by plane at New York for Paris, and said the pact is "a definite move for peace."

Dr. Jose Caeiro da Mata, Portugal's Foreign Minister, also arrived by plane in New York and declared "my country gives the most complete adherence to the pact."

Controversy Developing

Some controversy meanwhile seemed to be developing between friends and critics of the projected Atlantic alliance over whether it would be a guarantee of peace with Russia or a possible "incitement" to some aggressive action by the Soviet.

Taft's statement was brought up at President Truman's news conference today.

Mr. Truman said he had no way of telling what Taft thinks, but believes he is wrong. The President predicted that the Senate will ratify the treaty. He previously has declared he believes the alliance will discourage any potential aggressor.

Issue When Senate Acts

Taft's views presumably pose one of the chief issues which Mr. Truman and Secretary Acheson will have to deal with when the treaty is submitted to the Senate for ratification.

Another question regarding arms aid to the European members was raised in the Senate today.

Senator Jenner (R., Ind.) contended that American military supplies would be lost if they were sent to a country which later fell under Communist control.

"We always have to run that risk," Senator Lodge (R., Mass.) replied. "The question is which is the best gamble—to supply our friends and allies or not to supply them at all."

The State Department's position on this issue is that beyond laying down the principle of "self-help and mutual aid" the treaty does not carry any specific commitment for this country to furnish military equipment.

Nevertheless, officials recognize that European governments confidentially expect such assistance once the pact is in force. Should the United States decide, by congressional action, not to help rearm the European allies, these officials say the whole Atlantic security project would suffer a major setback.

Bevin, Acheson Talk in Secret Of West Reich

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Secretary of State Acheson and British Foreign Minister Bevin began yesterday what may be a final and successful effort by the western powers to agree on plans for the future of Western Germany.

The plans include creation of a separate German government.

In a two-hour conference in Acheson's office at the state department, the foreign policy chiefs of America and Britain also reviewed the situation in Greece. Greek government troops, with American help, are preparing a major spring offensive against Communist guerrillas.

12 Nations to Sign

At the end of their session, Acheson went into another conference with Dutch Foreign Minister D. U. Stikker who, like Bevin, has come here to sign the North Atlantic treaty next Monday. A total of 12 nations in the North Atlantic area will sign the 20-year defensive alliance.

The nature of the Bevin-Acheson talk—the first of a series which will extend thru next week—was secret except for a brief announcement on which the two men agreed. It said:

"The secretary of state reviewed with Mr. Bevin a number of European questions of common concern. In particular, they gave general consideration to the problems of Western Germany and exchanged views on the situation in Greece. The secretary of state and Mr. Bevin met in order to have a general exchange of views on these subjects and no decisions were taken at the meeting."

BOTH CONFIDENT

Both Bevin and Acheson were understood to be confident that the German issues can be worked out and they expect success in meetings which they will hold next week with French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman.

The principal problem before the western powers at the moment apparently is to reach final agreement on their policies concerning how much real power should be placed in the hands of the proposed Western German government.

A German parliamentary council is now meeting at Bonn to draft a constitution for the new government which would have authority over the whole of Western Germany, including the British, American and French occupation zones.

In general, the United States and Britain have favored giving the Germans greater authority to act than the French have been willing to agree to.

GERMANS SEEK POWER

But there have been indications that the Germans themselves are seeking greater power for their government than the western powers as a group have favored. Some reports from Bonn have indicated that unless the differences can be ironed out, the whole project for creating the government might be endangered.

While Acheson was meeting Bevin, Iceland's foreign minister, Bjarni Benediktsson, arrived here after a 20-hour flight from Iceland.

Benediktsson told reporters that an "overwhelming mapority" of Iceland's people favor membership in the Atlantic alliance despite violent anti-pact demonstrations Wednesday at Reykjavik.

CONTROVERSY SEEN

Some controversy meanwhile appeared to be developing between friends and critics of the projected Atlantic alliance over whether it would be a guarantee of peace with Russia or a possible "incitement" to some aggressive action by the Soviet.

The issue was raised directly by Sen. Taft (R), O., who said in a speech Wednesday night that he had not yet decided whether he would vote for the treaty. He said that if Russia regards the Atlantic alliance as an offensive threat it "might become an incitement to war and make it more probable instead of less."

Taft added that if it's true that the Red armies could easily overrun Europe in the next two or three years, as some experts think, then the alliance might not achieve its slated purpose of strengthening American security interests.

President Fights GOP Efforts to Cut Foreign Aid

Leaders Admit Slashes May Be Warranted in '50

BY ROGER D. GREENE

WASHINGTON, (AP) — President Truman spoke out yesterday against a Republican-led drive to cut millions if not billions of dollars off the flow of American aid to Europe.

The European recovery program, Mr. Truman said firmly, should not be cut at all.

But administration leaders in the senate, where the issue was being debated, conceded that sizeable reductions may be warranted in 1950 if the Marshall plan nations get "over the hump" this year. Originally a four-year plan, the Marshall program is scheduled to extend into mid-1952.

Should Stay Way It Is

Mr. Truman told his news conference with emphasis that congress should provide the full $5,580,000,000 requested by Marshall plan Administrator Paul G. Hoffman to carry Europe over the next 15 months.

The program, he said, has been worked out very carefully and should stay the way it is.

Mr. Truman's comment followed questions by newsmen about a Republican economy drive sparked by Sens. Taft (O.), Wherry (Neb.) and Capehard (Ind.), with Democratic support from Sen. Russell.

In capsule form, here are their proposals:

Taft—Cut 10 per cent off foreign aid and all federal spending; otherwise, he said, congress will have to boost taxes by July 1.

Wherry—Reduce the $5,580,000,000 total to $3,638,000,000, and spread it over 12 months instead of 15.

Capehart—A $3,000,000,000 limit.

The critical test on the administration's fight for the whole amount centered on the Taft-Russell amendment for a 10 per cent reduction.

Administration leaders said they expected a close vote, but Majority Leader Lucas (D) Ill. told newsmen confidently:

"We'll beat it. And when we beat the Taft amendment, then they know the jig is up. That will break the back of the move to cut the total."

Altogether, 27 amendments have been tossed into the senate hopper. Besides the economy proposals, many of them would seek to give tighter protection to the American economy and to U. S. capital.

Both Taft and Russell insisted their amendment has a good chance, but Chairman Connally (D) Tex. of the senate foreign relations committee told reporters:

"They're trying to cut the program right in its most critical year. This is the year which tells whether it succeeds or fails."

TRUMAN STANDS FIRM FOR FULL EUROPEAN AID

Insists That Congress Meet $5,580,000,000 Asked for Recovery Plan.

ANSWERS DEMANDS FOR CUT

Senator Kern Jolted by Reports of Purchases of False Teeth and $1.15 Cheese.

Washington, March 31 (A. P.).—President Truman insisted today that Congress provide the full $5,580,000,000 sought by the administration for the European Recovery Program.

The President declared at his news conference that this amount is necessary and that it had been worked out very carefully. The program, he said bluntly, should not be cut at all.

The President made his observation when he was questioned about efforts of Senators Taft (R.-Ohio) and Russell (D.-Ga.) to cut the amount sought by the administration.

Administration forces in Congress claimed they had enough votes to "break the back" of a Republican-led drive for an ECA cut.

Cheese for Europe.

Senator Kem (R.-Mo.) said today he was jolted by purchases of "beer barrels, whisky barrels and false teeth" for European recovery. And he asked why such a price was paid for some cheese.

Kem in a letter to Economic Co-operation Administrator Paul G. Hoffman, made public today, wrote:

"I must confess I was startled to encounter such items as beer barrels, whisky barrels and false teeth. I was particularly interested in the prices paid for cheese which cover a considerable range."

Kem said the ECA reports on purchases of last November-December indicate that $1.15 a pound was paid for two cheese purchases of 599,476 pounds. He said this "was more than double the average price of 47 cents paid for a total of 1,026,014 pounds under five other purchases."

"It is of course materially higher than the prices which most Americans can afford to pay for cheese for household consumption," the Senator wrote.

Kem said the $1.15 cheese was purchased from the Lakeshire-Marty Company, Plymouth, Wis.

Truman Sure Pact Will Be Ratified

Washington, March 31 (A. P.).—President Truman declared at a news conference today that he was confident the Atlantic pact would be ratified by the Senate. He said the defense alliance was absolutely necessary.

Israel Gets $5,000,000 In Export-Import Loan

WASHINGTON, March 31 (AP).—The government's Export-Import Bank today granted a $5,000,000 loan to Israel to help improve telephone service there.

This brought to $51,000,000 the credits extended to the new Jewish state by the bank since Jan. 19. The bank has earmarked an additional $49,000,000 for loans later for transportation, manufacturing and construction purposes.

The $5,000,000 is to be used in buying telephone equipment in the United States. The bank said its credit will cover 18 per cent of total costs of a five-year Israeli program.

Besides expanding service in Israel, the plan also would "establish an international radio-telegraph and radio-telephone service with direct contacts with the United States, Switzerland, Prague (Czechoslovakia) and possibly Moscow," the bank said.

The loan bears 3½ per cent yearly interest and is repayable in fifteen years.

Gold Output Estimated

World Fund Reports Moderate Rise Over Last 3 Years

WASHINGTON, March 31 (AP).—The International Monetary Fund reported today that world production of gold has shown a "moderate increase" over the last three years, despite declining output in the Union of South Africa, the biggest gold producer.

The fund estimated that $764,000,000 worth of gold—measured at the rate of $35 an ounce—was mined in 1947. The estimate, presenting the most recent official annual total, excludes gold production in Russia, which does not give data to the fund or other countries.

Export-Import Bank Net In 2d Half of '48 Listed

WASHINGTON, March 31 (AP).—The Export-Import Bank said today its net earnings for the last half of 1948 were $23,687,297.22, reflecting the excess of its interest income from loans over operating expenses, including interest it paid to the Treasury.

The bank received $30,211,163 in interest and commissions on loans. It paid $6,089,736 interest on notes it has given the Treasury, and spent $434,007 on administrative expenses and $121 on "non-administrative expenses."

A previous account erroneously related net earnings of the bank to the excess of repayment on its old loans to new disbursements. Actually there is no connection between the two.

No Decision on Moscow Envoy

WASHINGTON, March 31 (AP).—President Truman said today a dozen men have been mentioned in published reports for appointment as Ambassador to Russia, but none is under serious consideration now. This was in reply to a question whether Jefferson Caffrey, Ambassador to France, would be named to the Moscow job which Lieutenant General Walter Bedell Smith gave up last week.

ISRAELIS HONOR MARCUS

Five From Palestine Put Wreath on Grave at West Point

WEST POINT, N. Y., March 31 (AP)—Five Israeli army veterans today placed a wreath on the grave of Col. David Marcus at the United States Military Academy.

Colonel Marcus, a West Pointer, was killed in action outside Jerusalem while leading an Israeli army unit. He was buried at the Academy in July, 1948.

The five Israeli veterans, who were members of Colonel Marcus' outfit, arrived in the United States yesterday to take part in the United Jewish Appeal's $250,000,000 fund-raising campaign.

BUDENZ TRIAL TESTIMONY HIT

Counsel For Communists Fail In Objections To Testimony

New York, March 31 (AP)—Attorneys for eleven high Communists tried unsuccessfully today to strike out all vital portions of the testimony of Louis F. Budenz, one-time intimate of the defendants.

Budenz, former Communist official who renounced the party in 1945, ended his testimony for the Government as its initial witness in the trial of the eleven on charges of conspiring to advocate the overthrow of the United States Government. Defense crossexamination then began.

Federal Judge Harold R. Medina overruled every one of 43 defense motions and finally cut off Abraham J. Isserman, defense attorney, as he began to offer the forty-fourth.

Budenz, in his testimony for the Government, told of his associations with the defendants over a ten-year period.

Identifies Publications

He also identified some 30 Communist publications which prosecutors read to the jury in an effort to show that the party's program is based on violent revolution.

Isserman centered most of his fire on the exhibits.

He contended the Government attorneys had selected portions which did not give a true picture of the thesis of the publications.

The defense attorney also maintained that many of the incidents described by Budenz took place about the time he joined the party in 1935, and that this testimony should be excluded because it covered a period ten years before the alleged offenses in the indictment.

Admissible As Background

The indictment charges the conspiracy began in 1945.

The Government maintains that Budenz's testimony about party affairs in the years 1935 to 1945 is admissible as background. The judge upheld this contention.

At one point Isserman protested that a statement by one of the Government attorneys was "highly prejudicial and improper." Medina called for the record, read the attorney's remarks, and commented: "If that's prejudicial, I'm an Eskimo."

Under crossexamination, Budenz said he was unable to fix the exact time or place of a Chicago meeting at which he had testified American Communists were told to prepare for possible civil war against the Government.

Says Method Included Strikes

The meeting was in the Winter of 1939-40, he said.

The witness agreed with a defense contention that instruction in the party was not carried on with military manuals, but commented: "The Communist method is the political strike and insurrection."

Budenz said he could not say specifically when he decided to quit the party. But he added he had determined in January, 1945, to return to the Catholic Church, and had concluded in June, 1945, that he could not go back to the church without leaving the party. He said earlier he left the party in October, 1945.

MANY SEEKING TO VISIT ISRAEL

New York Consulate Says Applicants Include Investors

New York, March 31 (AP)—Everybody wants to go to Israel.

At least, that's the way it seems to a small, hard-pressed visa staff at the Israeli Consulate.

Travel restrictions were lifted after the Arab-Israeli truce was signed. Since then, people have flocked by the hundreds to Israeli government offices for travel permits.

"Every day we receive from 80 to 100 applications and issue from 30 to 40 visas," said a brunette who heads the visa staff of four.

She is Jerusalem-born Miss Leah Walsch. Until her present assignment, she had always lived in Palestine. During the war she was employed in a British military office. Eighteen months ago Miss Walsch came to the United States on a visit. She decided to remain and help other people visit her country.

From last June to December 31 only 800 visa aplications were filed here. More than 1,300 were received in January and February. The consulate waiting room gets more crowded every day.

Inspired By Sentiment

Not many applicants are emigrants. Most are Americans bent on a sentimental pilgrimage to the new Jewish state. Many are business men on survey trips with capital to invest in Israeli enterprises.

But sentiment inspires the majority of travelers.

"You see," said one consulate spokesman, "the Jews have been waiting for this moment a long, long time. After 2,000 years, they finally have their country, their own government. Naturally, many American Jews want to go to Israel and see for themselves a dream come true."

Miss Walsch was reluctant to estimate total tourist traffic expectable in Israel from America in the next six months. But undoubtedly it will be very large, she said.

Many Americans, she explained, planned to spend the Passover holidays in Israel. The first anniversary of the new state on May 4 will attract many U. S. visitors.

What consulate officials forecast will become an annual custom is a projected eight-week excursion trip to Israel this Summer by a group of American youngsters.

Assembly Action Urged On Indonesian Conflict

Lake Success, N.Y., March 31 (AP). Australia and India proposed today that the United Nations Assembly take up the Dutch-Indonesian conflict at its session opening next Tuesday.

The case has been before the Security Council sinve July, 1947, when the same two countries took the initiative in bringing it to the United Nations.

The new action was brought under Article 12 of the Charter which provides that the Assembly shall not make recommendations on any situation with which the Security Council is dealing unless the Council so requests.

THE MOVE TO MAKE A DRASTIC CUT IN THE DISMANTLING PROGRAM WAS PROPOSED BY THE U.S. SO THE GERMAN PLANTS COULD RESUME PRODUCTION FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM.

DIPLOMATIC SOURCES SAID THE NEGOTIATORS ALSO HAD AGREED TO REVIVE SOME WEST GERMAN INDUSTRIES WHICH HAD BEEN CLOSED DOWN UNDER THE POTSDAM PACT AS A SOURCE OF POTENTIAL WAR MATERIAL. ANOTHER AGREEMENT PREVIOUSLY REPORTED BY THESE INFORMANTS WAS TO PERMIT GERMANY TO BUILD MERCHANT SHIPS UP TO 9,000 TONS. UNDER PRESENT RESTRICTIONS, GERMANS ARE LIMITED TO BUILDING SHIPS UNDER 1,500 TONS IN SIZE.

LONDON, MARCH 31-(AP)-RUSSIA TODAY ACCUSED THE INTERNATIONAL REFUGEE ORGANIZATION (IRO) OF DEALING IN "CHEAP SLAVE LABOR" FOR THE BENEFIT OF CERTAIN WESTERN COUNTRIES.

IN THE COURSE OF A FOUR-POWER DISCUSSION ON AN AUSTRIAN INDEPENDENCE TREATY, SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGI N.ZARUBIN ASSERTED THE IRO WAS NOT FULFILLING ITS JOB OF REPATRIATING PERSONS DISPLACED BY THE WAR.

IT HAS BEEN TRANSFORMED, HE SAID, INTO A BODY WHICH IS PROVIDING CHEAP LABOR FOR CERTAIN WESTERN COUNTRIES.

THE SOVIET ACCUSATION WAS MADE DURING DISCUSSION BY FOUR DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTERS' ON WHETHER A SPECIAL PROVISION SHOULD BE WRITTEN INTO THE TREATY OBLIGATING AUSTRIA TO HELP THE VOLUNTARY REPATRIATION OF DISPLACED PERSONS AND REFUGEES.

ANY CLAUSE WHICH WOULD BIND AUSTRIA TO SUPPORT THE REPATRIATION OF THE ESTIMATED 600,000 DPS AND REFUGEES.

THE IRO WAS CREATED UNDER CHARTER AS AN AGENCY AFFILIATED WITH THE UNITED NATIONS. IT HAS ORGANIZED THE DISPATCH OF LARGE GROUPS OF DISPLACED PERSONS AND REFUGEES TO VARIOUS COUNTRIES INCLUDING BRITAIN TO WORK AS FARM LABORERS AND FACTORY OPERATORS.

AMERICAN DEPUTY SAMUEL REBER DEFENDED THE ORGANIZATION IN A VIGOROUS REPLY TO ZARUBIN. HE SAID THE IRO WAS IN FACT FULFILLING THE PRINCIPLES LAID DOWN IN ITS CHARTER.

THE DEPUTIES ADJOURNED WITHOUT TAKING ANY DECISION ON THE ARTICLE. THEY WILL MEET AGAIN TOMORROW TO DISCUSS THE MILITARY CLAUSES OF THE AUSTRIAN TREATY.

LONDON, FRIDAY, APRIL 1-(AP)-THE MOSCOW RADIO SAID TODAY THE APPLAUSE OF A "HANDFUL OF REACTIONARIES" FOR WINSTON CHURCHILL'S LATEST SPEECH "WILL NOT DROWN THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE."

THE SOVIET MONITOR HERE PICKED UP THAT STATEMENT IN ENGLISH FROM A COMMENTATOR IDENTIFIED ONLY AS NEKRASOV. HE WENT ON THE AIR BEFORE CHURCHILL DELIVERED HIS ADDRESS IN BOSTON.

"THE FEEBLE APPLAUSE OF A HANDFUL OF REACTIONARIES WHO GATHER TO HEAR HIS SPEECH X X X" HE SAID, "WILL NOT DROWN THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

"PEOPLES OPPOSING WAR, SUPPORTING THE POLICY OF PEACE, ARE STRONGER THAN THE WARMONGERS AND THIS SHOULD NOT BE FORGOTTEN BY THOSE WHO ON BEHALF OF THE BRITISH PEOPLE ARE TODAY SPEAKING IN NEW YORK IN SUPPORT OF A WAR POLICY."

NEKRASKOV SAID IT WAS NO ACCIDENT THAT BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN AND CHURCHILL WERE IN THE UNITED STATES AT THE SAME TIME.

"ONE IS ABOUT TO SIGN A PACT OF AGGRESSION AND WAR AND THE OTHER IS ABOUT TO ADDRESS THE AMERICANS HOPING TO ADD FUEL TO THE FIRE TO INTENSIFY THE COLD WAR WHICH HE STARTED TWO YEARS AGO," HE SAID.

"THE FACT THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY IS DIRECTED AGAINST THE USSR AS WELL AS AGAINST THE COUNTRIES OF THE PEOPLE'S DEMOCRACY", THE MEMORANDUM WENT ON, "WAS DEFINITELY POINTED OUT ALSO BY OFFICIAL REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, GREAT BRITAIN AND FRANCE."

THE MEMORANDUM SAID THAT THE "PARTICIPANTS IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY ARE AFFECTING EXTENSIVE MILITARY MEASURES WHICH CAN IN NO WAY BE JUSTIFIED BY THE INTERESTS OF SELF DEFENSE OF THESE COUNTRIES."

IT NOTED "AN INCREASE IN ALL TYPES OF ARMED FORCES, THE DRAFTING OF A PLAN FOR UTILIZATION OF THE ATOMIC WEAPON, STOCKPILING OF ATOM BOMBS WHICH ARE PURELY OFFENSIVE WEAPONS, AND THE BUILDING OF A NETWORK OF AIR AND NAVAL BASES."

ALL THESE, IT SAID, "BY NO MEANS BEAR A DEFENSIVE CHARACTER."

THE MEMORANDUM SAID THE TREATY "CONTRADICTS THE PRINCIPLES AND AIMS OF THE UNITED NATIONS ORGANIZATION AND COMMITMENTS WHICH THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, GREAT BRITAIN AND FRANCE HAVE ASSUMED UNDER OTHER TREATIES AND AGREEMENTS."

THE MEMORANDUM ADDED THAT THE TEXT OF THE TREATY AS PUBLISHED BY THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT "FULLY CONFIRMS" A STATEMENT TO THIS EFFECT MADE BY THE SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTRY ON JAN. 29.

THE TREATY IS SCHEDULED TO BE SIGNED IN WASHINGTON NEXT MONDAY.

THE MEMORANDUM CHARGED THE ATLANTIC PACT IS DIRECTED AGAINST THE SOVIET UNION AND "COUNTRIES OF THE PEOPLES' DEMOCRACY"--THE SOVIET NAME FOR THE COMMUNIST-LED NATIONS OF EASTERN EUROPE.

THE RUSSIAN FIGURE WAS LISTED IN THE BUDGET ESTIMATES UNDER THE GENERAL HEADING OF "SUPPLY, FOOD AND MISCELLANEOUS SERVICES."

THE MINISTRY OF SUPPLY, WHICH PROCURES ARMAMENTS AND DIRECTS ATOMIC ENERGY DEVELOPMENT, SUBMITTED A BUDGET OF £324,679,000 ($1,408,716,000), COMPARED WITH £317,000,000 ($1,268,000,000) THE PREVIOUS YEAR.

THE NEW BUDGET SHOWS AN INCREASE OF ALMOST £10,000,000 ($40,000,000) FOR RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT OVER THE PREVIOUS YEAR.

AIRCRAFT AND AIRCRAFT SUPPLIES WERE SLIGHTLY LOWER, BUT THE BUDGET FOR ARMAMENT AND VEHICLES WAS ALMOST £19,000,000 ($76,000,000) HIGHER.

With Churchill

(Advance) London, April 1 - (Friday) - (ap)- Winston Churchill's speech at Boston was hailed as a "recipe for peace" and "remarkable" by the first British newspapers commenting.

The Conservative Yorkshire Post said : "asterisks Mr. Churchill spoke words that will give new hope and resolution to millions. Much of this remarkable speech was devoted to historical survey. (It) analyzed formidable problems that had been created by bestowal of gifts of science on an immature civilization. His verdict was reassuring."

APR 1 1949

The paper said "some fainthearts" may call Churchill's conclusions "stern counsel" but added:

"It was stern counsel that Mr. Churchill offered to us in 1940 and 1941 but we rallied to his call and we won through. We shall win through now if we are vigilant and keep our heads and move with speed and vigor to build up forces that will deter potential aggressors."

The Conservative Daily Mail said Churchill "strikes the same somber note as he did at Fulton three years ago.

APR 1 1949

"But today his warnings are underlined for peril is nearer.

"After Boston the anger of the Russian Communists and the ventriloquial squeaks of their dummies in Britain will descend upon Mr. Churchill. Let them rant and rage. It will be the measure of their disappointment that once again the great prime minister has served his country and his generation."

The Conservative Daily Telegraph headlined its editorial: "peace Recipe."

It said Churchill's warnings in hos Fultom, Mo. speech had been borne out by events since then.

"Mr. Churchill is hopeless of conciliation but he is hopeful of peace through strength. He considers that time, provided that the price of liberty is recognized to be still eternal vigilance, asterisks is on our side. And so it is."

APR 1 1948

The paper said Churchill's analysis of the world situation was "grim" but added that "we can still hope with him that one day mankind will learn better and that all mankind will learn better together. That is why his recipe for peace is so sound."

Madrid, March 31--(ap)- Generalissimo Franco in a radio broadcast tonight violently attacked Communists, Socialists and Freemasons who he said are "menacing this continent".

Speaking on the eve of the tenth anniversary of the Civil War victory of his nationalist forces, Franco reaffirmed the policy of his regime during the past decade.

The regime, he said, had made substantial progress but he promised Spaniards more "difficulties and sacrifices." He chided other countries who become "slaves of foreign aid."

Franco said that since the civil war victory freemasonry and communism had been "frantically trying to "open the breach of our defenses. Cominform agents, he added, were infiltrating Spain as a part of Russia's plan for sowing "insecurity, terrorism and disorder" in most countries of the world.

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, MARCH 31-(AP)-A RESPONSIBLE AMERICAN OFFICIAL SAID TODAY THE BRITISH ENCOURAGED THE LEFT-WING SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY (SPD) TO TURN DOWN THE LATEST ALLIED PROPOSALS ON A WESTERN GERMAN CONSTITUTION.

THE SPD DECISION, ANNOUNCED AT BONN LAST NIGHT, SOLIDIFIED THE DEADLOCK BETWEEN THE ALLIES AND THE GERMANS OVER THE FORMATION OF A WESTERN GERMAN STATE.

THE INFORMANT, WHO DECLINED TO BE QUOTED BY NAME, SAID BRITISH OFFICIALS HELD OUT TO THE SPD THE HOPE THAT BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY BEVIN WOULD WIN CONCESSIONS TO THE SPD VIEWPOINT IN THE FORTHCOMING FOREIGN MINISTERS DISCUSSIONS IN WASHINGTON.

BEVIN WAS REPORTED TO HAVE TOLD THE GERMANS HE FELT HE COULD PERSUADE U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON TO ACCEPT THE BRITISH-SPD VIEWS ON THE CONSTITUTION. BOTH THE BRITISH AND THE SPD FAVOR A STRONGLY CENTRALIZED REGIME.

THE SPD IS THE GERMAN COUNTERPART OF THE RULING BRITISH LABOR PARTY.

"THE BRITISH THINK THEY CANNOT AGREE TO A CONSTITUTION REJECTED BY THE GERMAN LABOR PARTY," THE INFORMANT SAID. "BRITISH LABORITIES HAVE SHOWN AN INCAPACITY TO CHALLENGE THE BASIC PHILOSOPHY OF THEIR SISTER PARTY IN GERMANY."

THE SPD ANNOUNCED AFTER A CAUCUS LAST NIGHT IT WOULD REFUSE TO ACCEPT WESTERN ALLIED PROPOSALS FOR A DECENTRALIZED FEDERAL GOVERNMENT. THAT CREATED AN IMPASSE IN THE BONN DELIBERATIONS.

THE BONN PARLIAMENTARY COUNCIL CANNOT VOTE A CONSTITUTION WITHOUT THE SPD. A TWO-THIRDS VOTE IS NEEDED AND THE SOCIALISTS HAVE 27 OF THE 65 VOTES IN THE COUNCIL.

THE WESTERN ALLIED PROPOSALS WERE WORKED OUT BY THE BRITISH, FRENCH AND AMERICAN MILITARY GOVERNORS IN GERMANY. THEY WERE DESIGNED TO DECENTRALIZE THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT, GIVING THE STATES GREATER POWERS.

By Leonard Kirschen

Bucharest, Romania, March 31--(ap)--Deputy Foreign Minister Grigore Preoteasa said today Romania considers herself one of the direct targets of American aggression and the North Atlantic treaty.

Addressing a Romanian "Intellectuals' Congress," Preoteasa said: "When the foreign ministers assembled at Washington sign the (north Atlantic) pact, they will sign it with the bloc of peoples throughout the world, the solemn undertaking to start a third world war against the Soviet Union and the popular (communist) democracies."

He described the treaty as "the most unscrupulous enterprise yet conceived by men of business to prevent the disappearance of capitalists and prevent an economic crisis in their own countries."

Preoteasa was recalled last december from his washington post at Romanian charge d'affaires at the request of the state department. Although he said he was speaking today in his capacity as a university professor, his address obviously reflected the official attitude of Romania's communist government.

Referring to victories of the Chinese communists, Preoteasa said Americans do not know who will use their arms in the end. He declared: "Americans are not masters of their arms. They must well remember who possesses the American arms that were once sent to China and against whom they are being used now. It is not enough to send arms to Europe for who knows who will bear them against whom."

The congress closed today with a resolution calling for what was described as a united fight for peace and against American and British imperialism.

A cable was sent to the committee in Paris which is organizing the "world intellectuals' Congress for Peace." Aims of the world congress were endorsed.

(300) NIGHT LEAD
WASHINGTON,MARCH 31-(AP)-THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION SAID TONIGHT IT HAD NO IDEA THAT SHIPMENT OF FALSE TEETH, OR BEER AND WHISKY BARRELS TO EUROPE UNDER THE MARSHALL PLAN WOULD BE "FROWNED UPON" BY CONGRESS.
SENATOR KEM (R-MO) EARLIER HAD MADE PUBLIC A LETTER TO PAUL G. HOFFMAN, ECA ADMINISTRATOR, IN WHICH THE SENATOR SAID HE WAS "STARTLED TO ENCOUNTER SUCH ITEMS" AMONG ECA SHIPMENTS.
KEM ALSO HAD QUESTIONED THE PRICE OF CHEESE ACQUIRED THROUGH THE ECA.
HOWARD BRUCE, DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF THE RECOVERY AGENCY, MADE PUBLIC A LETTER ANSWERING KEM.
BRUCE SAID THE AGENCY GRANTS RECOVERY SPENDING APPROVALS TO FOREIGN NATIONS ON A "BROAD BASIS." IT IS UNDER THIS POLICY, HE ASSERTED, THAT A COUNTRY "MAY OBTAIN BEER BARRELS, WHISKEY BARRELS OR OTHER ITEMS." BRUCE SAID SPECIFICALLY THAT THE BEER AND WHISKEY BARRELS HAD BEEN BOUGHT WITH FUNDS ALLOTTED FOR PURCHASE OF LUMBER PRODUCTS.
"WE ALSO AUTHORIZE MEDICAL SUPPLIES WHICH INCLUDE FALSE TEETH AND OTHER PHARMACEUTICAL ITEMS GENERALLY UTILIZED IN THE PRACTICE OF MEDICINE AND DENTISTRY," HE WROTE.

BRUCE ASSERTED THE RECOVERY AGENCY CONSIDERS THE EXPORT OF THE THREE ITEMS LISTED BY THE MISSOURI SENATOR AS "NORMAL INDUSTRIAL EXPORTS AND ALL ESSENTIAL TO THE INDUSTRIAL RECOVERY OF THE IMPORTING NATIONS." HE ADDED:

"WE HAVE BEEN GIVEN NO INDICATION BY THE CONGRESS THAT EXPORTS OF SUCH ITEMS SHOULD BE FROWNED UPON."

IN ANSWER TO KEM'S QUESTIONING OF THE POSSIBLE EXCESSIVE PAYMENT FOR CHEESE SHIPPED ABROAD AS FOREIGN AID, BRUCE SAID THE INFORMATION WAS BASED ON A TABULATING ERROR IN INFORMATION SUPPLIED THE LAWMAKER.

KEM HAD ASKED ECA TO EXPLAIN THE COST BREAKDOWN OF $346,220 WORTH OF CHEESE PURCHASED FROM THE LAKESHIRE-MARTY CO., OF PLYMOUTH, WIS. BRUCE TOLD THE SENATOR THAT APPROXIMATELY 700,000 POUNDS OF THE CHEESE HAD BEEN PURCHASED WHILE INFORMATION GIVEN THE SENATOR HAD MISTAKENLY REPORTED THE TOTAL AS LESS THAN 300,000 POUNDS.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 31-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON TODAY URGED THE NETHERLANDS FOREIGN MINISTER TO TAKE QUICK STEPS TO CALL A "PEACE" CONFERENCE WITH THE INDONESIAN ~~REVOLUTIONISTS~~ Republ. leaders.

IN A TWO-HOUR MEETING WITH DIRK U.STIKKER, THE NETHERLANDS FOREIGN MINISTER, ACHESON EXPRESSED THE "STRONG HOPE" OF THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT THAT THE MOST RECENT INSTRUCTIONS OF THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL DEALING WITH THE PROBLEM WILL BE "PUT INTO EFFECT AT THE EARLIEST POSSIBLE DATE."

A JOINT STATEMENT SAID STIKKER, IN ADDITION TO TALKING OVER THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY WHICH HE IS HERE TO SIGN, DISCUSSED THE INDONESIAN SITUATION "FULLY AND FRANKLY."

"THE SECRETARY (ACHESON) EXPRESSED FULL CONFIDENCE THAT BOTH PARTIES WOULD ENTER INTO PRELIMINARY NEGOTIATIONS CALLED FOR BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL X X X PROMPTLY AND IN GOOD FAITH."

THE SECURITY COUNCIL ON MARCH 23 CALLED FOR BOTH PARTIES IN THE DISPUTE TO ARRANGE FOR A CONFERENCE TO BE HELD AT THE HAGUE TO SETTLE THE CURRENT DIFFICULTIES.

SPEAKING FOR THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT, STIKKER STRESSED DURING HIS TALK WITH ACHESON THAT THE DUTCH HAD ACCEPTED THE SECURITY COUNCIL INSTRUCTIONS.

STIKKER THEN OUTLINED TO ACHESON "PATHS ALONG WHICH HE BELIEVED PROGRESS COULD BE ACHIEVED MOST EFFECTIVELY AND EXPEDITIOUSLY," THE STATEMENT SAID.

TAFT'S STATEMENT was brought up at PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S NEWS CONFERENCE TODAY BY A REPORTER. THE NEWSMAN QUOTED A REPORT THAT TAFT IS OPPOSED TO THE PACT AND THINKS A MAJORITY OF THE SENATE WILL BE ALSO.

MR.TRUMAN REPLIED THAT HE HAD NO WAY OF TELLING WHAT TAFT THINKS BUT BELIEVES HE IS WRONG. THE PRESIDENT PREDICTED THAT THE SENATE WILL RATIFY THE TREATY. HE PREVIOUSLY HAS DECLARED HE BELIEVES THE ALLIANCE WILL DISCOURAGE ANY POTENTIAL AGGRESSOR.

A38WX

TAFT'S VIEWS PRESUMABLY POSE ONE OF THE CHIEF ISSUES WHICH MR.TRUMAN AND SECRETARY ACHESON WILL HAVE TO DEAL WITH WHEN THE TREATY IS SUBMITTED TO THE SENATE FOR RATIFICATION.

ANOTHER QUESTION REGARDING ARMS AID TO THE EUROPEAN MEMBERS WAS RAISED IN THE SENATE TODAY.

SENATOR JENNER (R-IND) CONTENDED THAT AMERICAN MILITARY SUPPLIES WOULD BE LOST IF THEY WERE SENT TO A COUNTRY WHICH LATER FELL UNDER COMMUNIST CONTROL.

"WE ALWAYS HAVE TO RUN THAT RISK," SENATOR LODGE (R-MASS) REPLIED. "THE QUESTION IS WHICH IS THE BEST GAMBLE--TO SUPPLY OUR FRIENDS AND ALLIES OR NOT TO SUPPLY THEM AT ALL."

THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S POSITION ON THIS ISSUE IS THAT BEYOND LAYING DOWN THE PRINCIPLE OF "SELF HELP AND MUTUAL AID" THE TREATY DOES NOT CARRY ANY SPECIFIC COMMITMENT FOR THIS COUNTRY TO FURNISH MILITARY EQUIPMENT. NEVERTHELESS, OFFICIALS RECOGNIZE THAT EUROPEAN GOVERNMENTS CONFIDENTALLY EXPECT SUCH ASSISTANCE ONE THE PACT IS IN FORCE. SHOULD THE UNITED STATES DECIDE, BY CONGRESSIONAL ACTION, NOT TO HELP REARM THE EUROPEAN ALLIES, THESE OFFICIALS SAY WHOLE ATLANTIC SECURITY PROJECT WOULD SUFFER A MAJOR SETBACK.

NIGHT LEAD UNESCO (330)

CLEVELAND, MARCH 31-(AP)-UNESCO'S CHIEF WEAKNESS IS FAILURE TO DEVELOP POPULAR EDUCATIONAL METHODS PROMOTING WORLD PEACE, THE PRESIDENT OF KANSAS STATE COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE SAID TODAY.

IN AN ADDRESS TO THE SECOND NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF THE U.S.NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR UNESCO, DR.MILTON S.EISENHOWER SAID:

"THE CHIEF DEFICIENCY, AS WE SEE IT, IS THE FAILURE OF UNESCO THUS FAR TO DEVELOP THE PROJECTS AND PROJECT MATERIALS WHICH ARE NEEDED IF THE ORGANIZATION IS TO BECOME TRULY A PEOPLE'S AGENCY FOR PEACE."

DR.EISENHOWER IS HEAD OF THE COMMISSION FOR UNESCO.

EISENHOWER SAID HE LONG HAD ADVOCATED THAT A "HIGH-LEVEL SCHOLARLY ATTACK" ON THE PROBLEMS OF PEACE BE MADE WORKABLE BY "CONCRETE PROJECTS" FOR THE PEOPLES OF ALL LANDS. NEITHER THESE PROJECTS NOR "POPULAR EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS" HAVE BEEN FORTHCOMING IN SUFFICIENT QUANTITY, HE CONTENDED. BY PROJECTS, HE SAID HE MEANTH MEETINGS SUCH AS THE PRESENT ONE, OR REGIONAL MEETINGS FOR DISCUSSION OF WHAT UNESCO MEANS TO THE PEOPLE.

"WE AMERICANS ALSO HAVE BEEN SOMEWHAT PERTURBED BY THE SLOWNESS WITH WHICH OTHER NATIONS ARE FORMING NATIONAL COMMISSIONS WHICH CONFORM TO OUR CONCEPTION OF WHAT A COMMISSION SHOULD BE AND DO," SAID EISENHOWER.

SPEAKING AFTER EISENHOWER, SIR JOHN MAUD, MEMBER OF UNESCO'S EXECUTIVE BOARD, AND PERMANENT SECRETARY TO THE MINISTRY OF EDUCATION, LONDON, EMPHASIZED THE LONG-RANGE VIEW OF WORKING FOR PEACE.

SIR JOHN SAID IT SEEMED A MISTAKE TO EXPECT UNESCO'S EFFORTS COULD BRING IMMEDIATE RESULTS ON THE ISSUE OF PEACE OR WAR.

"I BELIEVE OUR TACTICS IN UNESCO SHOULD BE TO CONCENTRATE ON LIMITED, ACHIEVABLE OBJECTIVES, NOT TO EXPECT THAT WE CAN MAKE MUCH VISIBLE EFFECT ON THE SHORT-RUN CHANCES OF PEACE OR WAR," SAID SIR JOHN.

HE ADVOCATED THAT PRIORITIES BE GIVEN TO PRACTICAL PROJECTS.

UNESCO'S DIRECTOR GENERAL, DR.JAIME TORRES BODET OF MEXICO, SPOKE ON A SIMILAR THEME EARLIER IN THE DAY BEFORE THE COMMISSION'S PROGRAM PLANNING COMMITTEE.

HE EXPRESSED "GREAT ENCOURAGEMENT" OVER UN'S PLANS TO SPEED PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S "BOLD NEW PROGRAM" FOR AID TO UNDERDEVELOPED COUNTRIES.

UNESCO, AS AN ARM OF THE UNITED NATIONS, IS SUPPORTED BY 46 NATIONS. THE U.S.NATIONAL COMMISSION IS AN ADVISORY BODY TO THE U.S.STATE DEPARTMENT.

AT TODAY'S CONFERENCE MURRAY D. LINCOLN, PRESIDENT OF CARE (CAPS), THE COOPERATIVE FOR AMERICAN REMITTANCES TO EUROPE, INC., ANNOUNCED A PROGRAM TO SEND TECHNICAL BOOKS ABROAD, STARTING MAY 15. THE BOOKS WILL BE SENT TO EUROPEAN COUNTRIES, KOREA AND JAPAN BY INDIVIDUAL OR GROUP CONTRIBUTIONS, JUST AS CARE HAS BEEN SENDING FOOD AND TEXTILES.

BUT TODAY, HE SAID, "THERE IS A VERY DIFFERENT CLIMATE OF OPINION."

CALLING THE RELATIONS OF COMMUNIST RUSSIA WITH OTHER GREAT POWERS OF THE WORLD "WITHOUT PRECEDENT IN HISTORY," CHURCHILL SAID:

"MEASURES AND COUNTER-MEASURES HAVE BEEN TAKEN ON MANY OCCASIONS WHICH IN ANY PREVIOUS PERIOD COULD ONLY HAVE MEANT ARMED CONFLICT."

"THE SITUATION," HE SAID, "HAS BEEN WELL DESCRIBED BY DISTINGUISHED AMERICANS AS THE 'COLD WAR.'

"AND THE QUESTION IS ASKED 'ARE WE WINNING THE COLD WAR?'"

CHURCHILL CONTENDED "THIS CANNOT BE DECIDED BY LOOKING AT EUROPE ALONE."

"WE MUST ALSO LOOK TO ASIA," HE SAID. "THE WORST DISASTER SINCE OUR VICTORY HAS BEEN THE COLLAPSE OF CHINA UNDER COMMUNIST ATTACK AND INTRIGUE.

"CHINA, IN WHICH THE UNITED STATES HAVE ALWAYS TAKEN A HIGH INTEREST, COMPRISES AN IMMENSE PART OF THE POPULATION OF THE WORLD.

APR 1 1949

A191

"THE ABSORPTION OF CHINA AND INDIA INTO THE KREMLIN-CONTROLLED COMMUNIST EMPIRE WOULD CERTAINLY BRING MEASURELESS BLOODSHED AND MISERY TO EIGHT OR NINE HUNDRED MILLION PEOPLE."

"ON THE OTHER HAND," CHURCHILL DECLARED, "THE POSITION IN EUROPE HAS SO FAR BEEN SUCCESSFULLY MAINTAINED.

"THE PRODIGIOUS EFFORT OF THE BERLIN AIR LIFT HAS CARRIED US THROUGH THE WINTER. TIME, THOUGH DEARLY-BOUGHT, HAS BEEN GAINED FOR PEACE."

AND MOST OF ALL, CHURCHILG SAID, "THE SPECTACLE OF THE BRITISH AND AMERICANS TRYING TO FEED THE TWO MILLION GERMANS IN BERLIN, WHILE THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT WAS TRYING TO STARVE THEM, HAS BEEN AN OBJECT LESSON TO THE GERMAN PEOPLE FAR BEYOND ANYTHING THAT WORDS COULD CONVEY."

THE FORMER BRITISH PREMIER--ONE OF THE DRIVING LEADERS IN CRUSHING THE GERMANS UNDER THE NAZIS--SAID:

"I TRUST THAT SMALL AND NEEDLESS PROVOCATIONS OF GERMAN SENTIMENT MAY BE AVOIDED BY THE WESTERN POWERS. THE REVIVAL AND UNION OF EUROPE CANNOT BE ACHIEVED WITHOUT THE EARNEST AND FREELY-GIVEN AID OF THE GERMAN PEOPLE."

CHURCHILL SAID ANOTHER QUESTION OFTEN ASKED--"IS TIME ON OUR SIDE?" --CANNOT BE ANSWERED "EXCEPT WITHIN STRICT LIMITS."

"WE HAVE CERTAINLY NOT AN UNLIMITED PERIOD OF TIME BEFORE A SETTLEMENT SHOULD BE ACHIEVED," HE SAID. "THE UTMOST VIGILANCE SHOULD BE PRACTISED BUT I DO NOT THINK MYSELF THAT VIOLENT OR PRECIPITATE ACTION SHOULD BE TAKEN NOW."

CHURCHILL HIGHLIGHTS

BY CORNELIUS F.HURLEY

(ADVANCE) BOSTON, MARCH 31-(AP)-HIGHLIGHTS OF WINSTON CHURCHILL'S PREPARED SPEECH AT THE MASSACHUSETTS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY MID-CENTURY CONVOCATION TONIGHT:

"I MUST NOT CONCEAL FROM YOU THE TRUTH AS I SEE IT. IT IS CERTAIN THAT EUROPE WOULD HAVE BEEN COMMUNIZED AND LONDON UNDER BOMBARDMENT SOME TIME AGO BUT FOR THE DETERRENT OF THE ATOMIC BOMB IN THE HANDS OF THE UNITED STATES."

OF THE RUSSIAN SOVIET GOVERNMENT, CHURCHILL SAID:

"WE MAY WELL ASK, ' WHY HAVE THEY DELIBERATELY ACTED SO AS TO UNITE THE FREE WORLD AGAINST THEM'

"IT IS BECAUSE THEY FEAR THE FRIENDSHIP OF THE WEST MORE THAN ITS HOSTILITY. X X X

"FOURTEEN MEN IN THE KREMLIN, HOLDING DOWN HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS OF PEOPLE AND AIMING AT THE RULE OF THE WORLD, FEEL THAT AT ALL COSTS THEY MUST KEEP UP THE BARRIERS."

OF COMMUNISM:

"WE ARE NOW CONFRONTED WITH SOMETHING QUITE AS WICKED, BUT IN SOME WAYS MORE FORMIDABLE THAN HITLER, BECAUSE HITLER HAD ONLY THE HERRENVOLK PRIDE AND ANTI-SEMITIC HATRED TO EXPLOIT.

"HE (HITLER) HAD NO FUNDAMENTAL THEME.

"BUT THESE FOURTEEN MEN IN THE KREMLIN HAVE THEIR HEIRARCHY AND A CHURCH OF COMMUNIST ADEPTS, WHOSE MISSIONARIES ARE IN EVERY COUNTRY AS A FIFTH COLUMN, AWAITING THE DAY WHEN THEY HOPE TO BE THE ABSOLUTE MASTERS OF THEIR FELLOW COUNTRYMEN AND PAY OFF OLD SCORES."

OF THE "COLD WAR," HE SAID:

"IS TIME ON OUR SIDE? X X X WE HAVE CERTAINLY NOT AN UNLIMITED PERIOD OF TIME BEFORE A SETTLEMENT SHOULD BE ACHIEVED.

"THE UTMOST VIGILANCE SHOULD BE PRACTICED, BUT I DO NOT THINK MYSELF THAT VIOLENT OR PRECIPITATE ACTION SHOULD BE TAKEN NOW."

CHURCHILL SAID: WAR IS NOT INEVITABLE."

OF HIS HOPES FOR POST-WAR RUSSIA:

THE USE IN DISEASES OF RADIOACTIVE ATOMS, MADE IN ATOMIC OVENS, IS ONE OF THE VERY HOPEFUL THINGS, HE ADDED.

HUMAN BLOOD AND HEARTS CAN BE MADE RADIOACTIVE WITH INJECTIONS OF RADIOACTIVE SODIUM. THIS PERMITS TRACING THE BLOOD FLOW THROUGH THE HEART.

DIGITALIS, USED IN HEART DISEASE, NOW CAN BE MADE RADIOACTIVE. IT'S BEING TRIED ON ANIMALS TO LEARN MORE ABOUT HOW THE HEART WORKS.

RADIOACTIVE ATOMS ARE BEING PUT INTO CHEMICALS THAT CAN CAUSE CANCER, LILIENTHAL SAID. THE CHEMICALS CAN BE TRACED AS THEY CREATE A CANCER ON OR WITHIN THE BODIES OF LABORATORY ANIMALS. THIS MAY "THROW LIGHT ON THE DEVELOPMENT AND NUTRITION OF CANCERS."

CANCER RESEARCH FACILITIES, INCLUDING HOSPITAL BEDS, ARE BEING ESTABLISHED AT OR NEAR AEC LABORATORIES IN CHICAGO AND OAK RIDGE. THERE RADIOACTIVE ATOMS THAT LIVE FOR ONLY MINUTES OR HOURS CAN BE TESTED AGAINST CANCER.

RADIOACTIVE COBALT IS ANOTHER NEW CANCER RESEARCH TOOL. IT IS BETTER THAN RADIUM IN SOME WAYS, IS CHEAP, AND CAN BE MADE INTO NEEDLES OR PROBES.

RADIOACTIVE PHOSPHOROUS IS BEING USED AS AN AID IN LOCATING THE SITE OF BRAIN TUMORS, LILIENTHAL CONTINUED.

THE RADIOACTIVE ATOMS ALSO HAVE BRIGHT PROSPECTS IN INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH AND IN AGRICULTURE, WHERE THEY MAY HELP SHOW THE WAY TO MORE AND BETTER FOOD.

LILIENTHAL WARNED THAT PEOPLE MUST NOT "BECOME BEWITCHED X X X WITH THE DESTRUCTIVENESS OF ATOMIC ENERGY THAT WE THINK OF THESE MAJESTIC DISCOVERIES AS FORCES OF DESTRUCTION AND NOTHING ELSE."

PHYSICIANS KNOW OF MANY TERRIBLE HAZARDS OF DISEASES, HE SAID.

"BUT IF THE DOCTOR BECAME PREOCCUPIED WITH THESE DANGERS ALONE, HE WOULD BE IMMOBILIZED WITH HORROR AND FEAR, THROWN INTO DESPAIR OVER THE FUTIGITY OF TRYING TO SAVE MANKIND FROM MISERY AND UTTER DESTRUCTION."

APR 1 1949

THAT DOESN'T HAPPEN TO DOCTORS, WHO FACE FACTS, AND TRY TO GO ON FROM THERE, LILIENTHAL SAID.

"WE CAN'T RUN AWAY FROM REALITY," AND MUST BE READY TO MEET THE POTENTIAL DANGERS OF ATOMIC WAR, HE SAID. "WE MUST KEEP OUR SHIRTS ON AND TRY TO LEARN HOW TO MEET THESE CONDITIONS IF THEY SHOULD COME.

"IN THE YEARS OF STRESS AND STRAIN THAT LIE AHEAD FOR US ALL, MEN AND WOMEN UPON WHOSE GENERAL GOOD SENSE WE CAN RELY WILL BE MORE IMPORTANT TO OUR SAFETY AND FREEDOM THAN ALL OUR PUBLIC MEN, AND ALL OUR MILITARY FORCES, AND ALL OUR ATOMIC BOMBS PUT TOGETHER."

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 31-(AP)-TWO REPUBLICAN ADVOCATES OF AMERICAN BI-PARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY WILL ARGUE MOST OF THE HOT ISSUES IN THE UNITED NATIONS ASSEMBLY CONVENING NEXT TUESDAY IN NEW YORK.

THEY ARE WARREN R. AUSTIN, CHIEF U.S. DELEGATE, AND JOHN FOSTER DULLES. DULLES SERVED AS ACTING CHAIRMAN OF THE U.S. DELEGATION IN THE CLOSING DAYS OF THE 1948 PARIS ASSEMBLY.

SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON PLANS TO ATTEND THE OPENING SESSION AND THEN RETURN TO WASHINGTON, LEAVING AUSTIN AS TOP MAN.

AUSTIN MET TODAY WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS IN WASHINGTON. THE ENTIRE DELEGATION MEETS IN WASHINGTON SATURDAY FOR A FINAL DRILL ON AMERICAN POLICY.

AN AMERICAN DELEGATION SOURCE SAID AUSTIN WOULD SPEAK FOR THE U.S.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 31-(AP)-DR. V.K. WELLINGTON KOO, AMBASSADOR TO WASHINGTON, WILL HEAD CHINA'S DELEGATION TO THE U.N. ASSEMBLY OPENING TUESDAY AT 3 P.M. (EST) THE CHINESE SAID TODAY.

THIS COMPLETES THE ROSTER OF TOP DELEGATES FOR THE BIG FIVE.

SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON PLANS TO ATTEND THE OPENING AND THEN TURN THE UNITED STATES DELEGATION BACK TO CHIEF DELEGATE WARREN R. AUSTIN.

ANDREI A. GROMYKO, FIRST DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER, HEADS THE SOVIET DELEGATION.

APR 1 1949

FOREIGN MINISTER ROBERT SCHUMAN WILL BE FRANCE'S CHIEF DELEGATE FOR A FEW DAYS. THE FRENCH SAID IT HAS NOT BEEN DECIDED YET WHO WOULD TAKE OVER THE DELEGATION WHEN SCHUMAN RETURNS TO PARIS.

BRITAIN'S CHIEF DELEGATE IS MINISTER OF STATE HECTOR MCNEIL WHO ARRIVED YESTERDAY WITH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN ALONG WITH OTHERS GOING TO WASHINGTON FOR THE ATLANTIC PACT SIGNING NEXT WEEK.

THE CHINESE DELEGATION SAID ITS OTHER DELEGATES AT THE ASSEMBLY WOULD BE:

DR. T.F. TSIANG, PERMANENT CHINESE DELEGATE TO THE U.N.; DR. LIU SHU-SHUN, NEW REPRESENTATIVE ON THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL AND FORMER

VICE MINISTER FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS; DR. P.C. CHANG, CHINESE DELEGATE TO THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL; AND DR. LI WEI-KUO, CHINESE MEMBER OF THE FAR EASTERN COMMISSION AND FORMER PRIVATE SECRETARY TO GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK.

ALTERNATE DELEGATES: JAMES C. YU, AMBASSADOR TO ROME; C.J. PAO, AMBASSADOR TO PERU; DR. C.L. HSIA, MEMBER OF THE PERMANENT CHINESE DELEGATION TO THE U.N.; DR. SHUHSI HSU, BOTH MEMBERS OF THE PERMANENT CHINESE DELEGATION TO THE U.N.; AND DR. C.F. CHANG, CHINESE MEMBER OF THE COMMISSION FOR CONVENTIONAL ARMAMENTS. CHENG PAONAN IS SECRETARY-GENERAL OF THE DELEGATION.

false Success Cost down requests.

THIS MEANS THE COUNCIL EITHER WOULD HAVE TO DROP THE INDONESIAN ISSUE FROM ITS AGENDA OR ASK THE ASSEMBLY TO ACT.

THE DUTCH DELEGATION SAID IT WOULD HAVE NO COMMENT IMMEDIATELY.

THE LATEST U.N. ACTION ON THE INDONESIAN PROBLEM WAS LAST WEEK. THE COUNCIL THEN DIRECTED ITS COMMISSION MADE UP OF UNITED STATES, AUSTRALIAN, AND BELGIAN REPRESENTATIVES TO ARRANGE FOR PRELIMINARY TALKS IN INDONESIA BETWEEN THE DUTCH AND INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN LEADERS ON THE POSSIBILITY OF FORMAL PEACE TALKS AT THE HAGUE.

AUSTRALIA AND INDIA, ALTHOUGH NOT MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL, HAVE TAKEN ACTIVE PART IN THE DISCUSSIONS AS INTERESTED COUNTRIES. BOTH HAVE SEVERELY CRITICIZED THE DUTCH THROUGHOUT THE LONG DISCUSSIONS.

APR 1 1949

AUSTRALIAN FOREIGN MINISTER HERBERT V.EVATT IS PRESIDENT OF THE ASSEMBLY AND ALSO IS CHAIRMAN OF THE 14-NATION STEERING COMMITTEE WHICH WILL DECIDE WHETHER THE ISSUE GOES ON THE ASSEMBLY WORK SHEET.

JOHN D.L.HOOD, AUSTRALIA'S PERMANENT U.N. DELEGATE, SAID HIS GOVERNMENT'S PRIMARY PURPOSE WAS TO HAVE THE INDONESIAN CASE DISCUSSED BY THE ASSEMBLY. HE SAID THAT AT THE MOMENT AUSTRALIA HAS NO PARTICULAR RESOLUTION READY FOR PRESENTATION.

HOOD SAID THE REQUEST FOR HEARING REPRESENTS HIS GOVERNMENT'S DISAPPOINTMENT OVER THE REFUSAL OF DUTCH AUTHORITIES TO ABIDE BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION OF JAN.28.

THE JAN.28 RESOLUTION ORDERED IMMEDIATE RELEASE OF ARRESTED REPUBLICAN LEADERS AND RESTORATION OF THE REPUBLICAN REGIME AT JOGJAKARTA, JAVA. IT ALSO SET UP A TIMETABLE FOR ESTABLISHING AN INDEPENDENT UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA.

HOOD SAID PUTTING THE CASE BEFORE THE FULL 58-NATION MEMBERSHIP WOULD EXERT A LITTLE EXTRA PRESSURE ON THE DUTCH TO COMPLY WITH THE SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION.

A SIMPLE MAJORITY VOTE IS NECESSARY TO PUT THE INDONESIAN CASE ON THE AGENDA.

THE ISSUE WILL COME UP FIRST IN THE STEERING COMMITTEE, SCHEDULED TO MEET FOR THE FIRST TIME AT 11 A.M. (EST) WEDNESDAY.

M.GOPALA MENON, FIRST SECRETARY OF THE INDIAN DELEGATION, SAID HIS GOVERNMENT'S PURPOSE IN ASKING FOR ASSEMBLY CONSIDERATION OF THE CASE IS TO OBTAIN THE OPINION OF ALL U.N. MEMBER STATES ON THE INDONESIAN QUESTION. AN ASSEMBLY OPINION, HE SAID, WILL BE FAR MORE REPRESENTATIVE THAN THE OPINION OF THE 11-NATION SECURITY COUNCIL.
